Dr. Bobby Gilmer Moss (1998)

- The “definitive work” on identifying the Loyalist participants at Kings Mountain
- Culmination of over 25 years of research on both sides of the Atlantic

- ✓ Brief overview (10 pages) of events that led up to the battle of Kings Mountain
- ✓ 885 confirmed men identified in alphabetical order. +25 men possibly at KM.
- ✓ Regiments identified for the most part, a few exceptions.

- Primary sources include:

- ✓ Draper Manuscripts
- ✓ Cornwallis Papers
- ✓ British Treasury Payrolls and Muster Rolls
- ✓ Public Archives of Canada
- ✓ County Court Records from NC, SC, and GA

Lt. Anthony Alliare's Diary (1780)

- Said Patriots had 2,500 men at KM; Loyalists had 800 men at KM.
- Ferguson had 18 Provincials killed on the spot; 100 Militia killed (including officers)
- 32 Provincial privates wounded; Militia had 90 wounded (including officers)
- 92 Provincials captured (including officers); ~600 Militia captured (including officers)

Lt. Alexander Chesney's Journal (1775-1820)

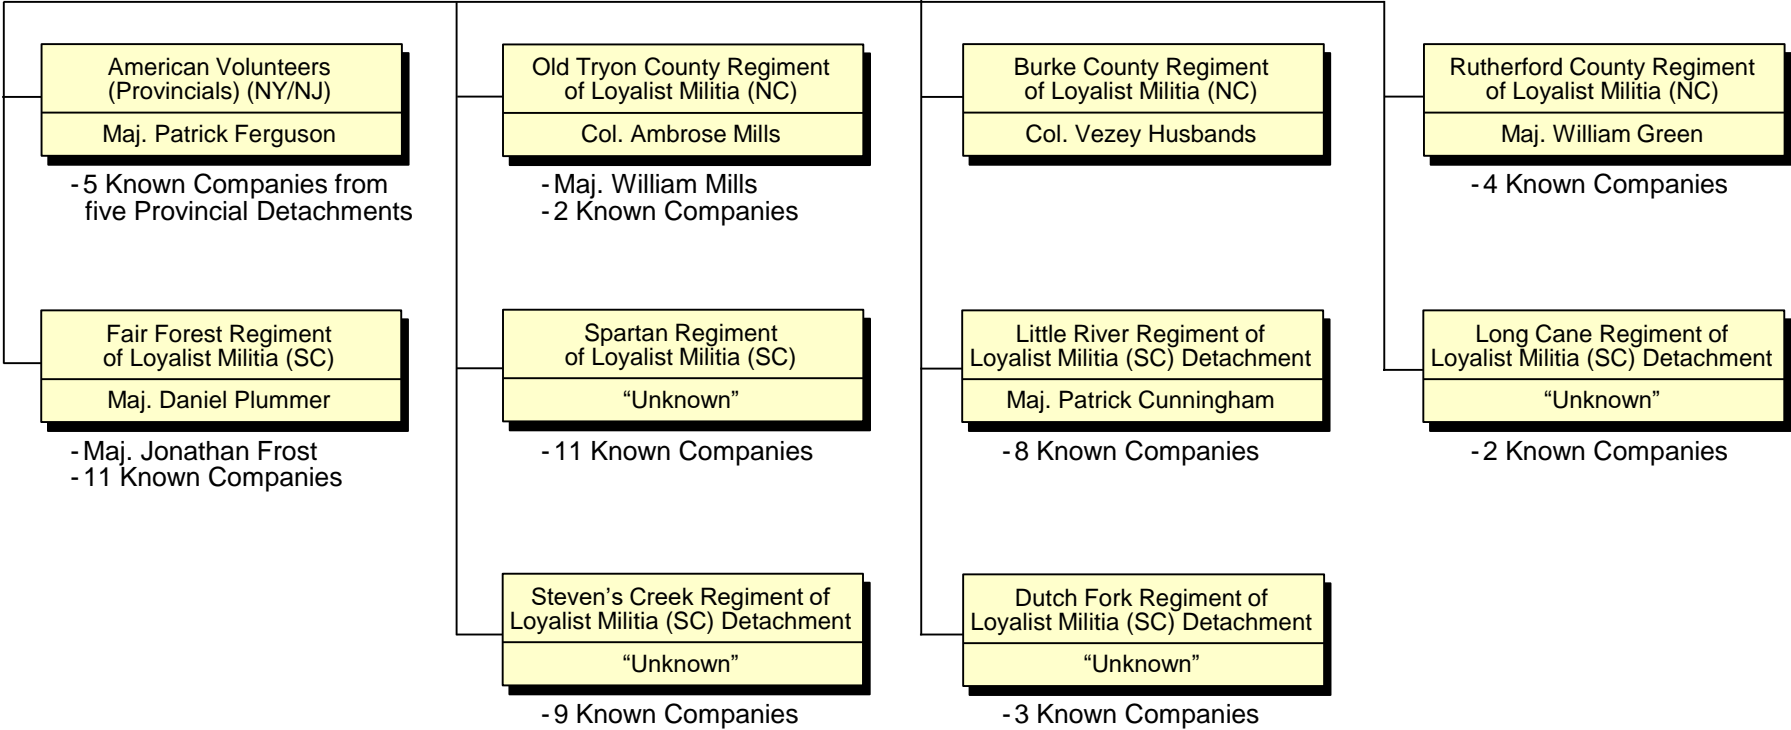

- Moss had him as a Lieutenant. He asserted he was a Captain of Light Horse.
- Asserted the Patriots attacked KM with 1,500 men.,
- Asserted that Maj. Ferguson, himself, shot Col. James Williams of SC.
