PREFATORY NOTES.

The year 1778 opened with quiet prevailing throughout the borders of the State, but in anticipation of movements projected by Gen. Washington during that winter, North Carolina had offered to reinforce the Grand Army by a temporary addition of five thousand Militia, and, although the occasion did not arise, the expected call for these troops kept the public mind in a state of tension. For the most part the Army lay in winter quarters at Valley Forge, some 23 miles west of Philadelphia, although special corps organized for rapid march harassed the British outposts and kept in check their foraging parties. All the returns show that about one-half the North Carolinians fit for duty were engaged in these commands outside of the regular quarters. As the winter advanced with its unusual severity, the unhappy situation of the army, and particularly the destitute condition of the North Carolina Line, called for vigorous measures of relief. The only communication being to the Southward, the dependence of the Army for provisions and clothing was on North Carolina and Virginia, and Gov. Caswell was unremitting in his efforts to secure the needed supplies.

Fortunately North Carolina was well stocked with pork, and quantities of salt were obtained from the Bermudas, whose inhabitants, being in sore need of provisions, sent salt here to exchange; and Caswell, who had proclaimed an embargo forbidding the exportation of provisions, would not enforce the measure against that trade.

Our ports were not as yet closed, and vessels entered frequently. The advantages of the harbor at Cape Look Out were speedily utilized, and many cargoes were brought in from France and from the islands south of us, and our privateers were active in seizing prizes.

Some cargoes were purchased abroad on account of the Continental Congress, while others were shipped here on speculation.

Gov. Josiah Martin, who, though in New York, still claimed to be Governor of North Carolina, wrote in January to Lord GERMAIN, at London, "that the contemptible port of Ocracock has become a great channel of supply to the rebels, while the more considerable ports have been watched by the King's ships. They have received through it very considerable importations." But he intimated that it was now to be closed by the British fleet. Indeed, the value of Look Out Harbor and Ocracock Inlet to the American cause was inestimable. While an occasional vessel reached Wilmington or ran into New River, several came to Edenton or New Bern every month throughout the year.

As soon as attention was called to this trade, at Martin's instance a British ship of war, two sloops and a brig were sent to break it up, and privateersmen from New York and England hovered along the coast. But quite a number of heavy guns had been imported, and batteries were placed in position at Look Out Bay as well as at Ocracock, where likewise the Caswell, under Capt. Willis Williams, was stationed. And so, while the blockading fleet peeped in occasionally, it seldom entered the bay.

The British privateersmen, however, made many captures, and enterprising merchants at New Bern, in addition to other such ventures, fitted out the Bellona, carrying eighteen guns, and the Chatham, to make reprisals. Later two of these British rovers that had given much trouble were captured and carried into Charleston.

To pay for these imported goods, tobacco was shipped as a return cargo; and the State purchased much of that commodity and sent it out on public account. Salt secured by the State was stored and exchanged for pork, and the Governor had men in every section packing pork for the army. Skins and leather were purchased for the use of the Grand Army, and all cloth fit for blankets was obtained for the soldiers, sometimes resort being had to impressment. The people in the Albemarle section, where there were so many industrious Quakers, made quantities of shoes, and these found purchasers not only for Army use but among Northern merchants, who paid high prices for them.

The established route of transportation to the Army was by water to South Quay on the waters of Albemarle Sound, and thence by wagons Northward. But wagons were very scarce, and were difficult to secure. To collect even a dozen the agent of the State was at great trouble and expense; and in order to move a lot of clothing from Edenton to the Army the wagons belonging to four brigades had to be sent from Pennsylvania. How Gov. Caswell was engaged he himself tells in a letter to Dr. Burke. Under date of Feb. 15, 1778, he says: "I find our nine regiments are far, very far indeed short of their complement of men, and those in camp almost destitute of clothing, which must be very distressing at this inclement season. Add to this the account from the War Office of the scarcity of provisions, and altogether it must hurt the feelings of every man of the least sensibility. The officers of the 6th Battalion are sent home as supernumeraries, with directions to recruit and to obtain every advice and assistance in that necessary business, and recommending to me to devise ways and means for filling the regiments. I am to buy leather and skins, shoes and other clothing, procure manufacturers, set them to work, purchase salt and provisions, and procure boats and wagons for sending those articles on. All this I am really constantly, almost busily employed about myself, receiving very little assistance."

Large issues of paper money, both State and Continental, had already resulted in a depreciated currency, and, speculators having made their appearance, prices rose despite all efforts to check the tendency.

While the legislature in August, 1778, passed a bill to issue 850,-000 pounds of new currency to redeem the old money, and the Governor indignantly denounced the speculators as vile wretches, the Judges, in their charges to the Grand Juries, inveighed against "the fascinating spirit of avarice and extortion" that had supplanted the first patriotic ardor of the people. Indeed the Judges in the two admirable charges published in this volume made noble appeals to the people to persevere in their resolve to gain their independence, and dwelt more largely on the principles involved in the Revolution, and on the necessity to make sacrifices for the cause of America, than on the crimes that ordinarily claim the attention of grand juries.

In passing it may be noted that the Governor, finding himself much hampered by the narrow limits of the Executive authority, reminded Cornelius Harnett that he ought to take to himself the blame of so cramping the Executive, thus attributing to Harnett a particular purpose in that direction when the Constitution was being framed.
But even in the darkest of those days there was a silver lining of hope to sustain the patriots. Burgoyne's surrender caused dismay in England. A business letter to the Governor, dated February 9th, 1778, congratulates him on the safe arrival in port of the brig New Bern, ten days out from New Providence, and adds: "Burgoyne being taken, got to England about December 4th. All confusion there. The new Governor for New Providence, and a number of passengers who came over with him, declared there will be a cessation of arms proposed soon; only a majority of 33 in the House of Commons against America being declared independent. They had, with some difficulty, passed a vote for money for another campaign, but North and his Hell-cat were much put to it. On his being pushed hard he begged that if they would not grant money for another campaign, that they would for the purpose of bringing home the troops." And then in May came the great news of the treaty with France, followed quickly by the declaration of war by France against England, and the arrival of an immense French fleet with 4,000 veteran troops off our coast. When a copy of this treaty was received at New Bern "it was immediately published under a display of American and French colors, and a triple discharge of thirteen pieces of cannon and the town company of Militia, which was drawn up for that purpose." And, as the Gazette quaintly puts it, "Universal joy appeared in every countenance, great plenty of liquor was given to the populace, and the evening concluded with great good humor and social mirth."

But while during the year there were no hostile outbreaks among the disloyal and disaffected, yet there were many who were not attached to the cause of Independence, and Gov. Josiah Martin, writing from New York in January, 1778, said: "Many refugees, not less than one hundred and fifty, have arrived here from North Carolina since the month of August last, being for the most part mercantile people and natives of Scotland, among them Mr. John Hamilton and Mr. Macleod, the former a merchant of considerable note, long settled there, and the latter a Presbyterian clergyman of good character, who have formed a very spirited, and, in my humble judgment, a well-concerted plan by drawing out of that Province, for his Majesty's service, the loyal Highlanders, of whom they have two hundred and seventy odd men actually under the most solemn engagements to join them on a summons." Later these men were embodied in a regiment, known as Hamilton's Regiment, and took part in the capture of Savannah in December, 1778.

Our Delegation.—In April, 1778, Dr. Burke became embroiled with the Continental Congress, having expressed himself with great warmth on some matter before that body, and having, after a long and fatiguing session, retired from the chamber, his withdrawal breaking a quorum.

On being sent for, he expressed himself so vehemently that Congress considered that his action involved a contempt of that body. He made what he deemed proper explanations and apologies, and declared that he did not understand that the body had sent for him, but as his explanations were not held satisfactory by Congress, he claimed that he was responsible only to the legislature of the State of North Carolina; and to that body he submitted his case. The legislature, by a resolution, sustained him and upheld the doctrine that he was responsible only to it. He did not desire a re-election, and in May, Penn, Harnett, and John Williams, then Speaker of the House, were chosen delegates. The latter, however, resigned in February, 1779, and the legislature, having determined to increase the delegation, Joseph Hewes and William Sharpe were added to the members.

Judge Iredell, who had been elected one of the Judges, after serving a short while on the bench, desired to retire, the compensation being very inconsiderable, and in June, 1778, he resigned. In February, 1779, John Williams was elected to the vacancy. At the same session Alexander Lillington was elected Brigadier General of the Cape Fear District, in place of Gen. Ashe, promoted.

The Continental Line.—The Continental Line had suffered heavily during the winter of 1777-78. Col. Abram Sheppard's Regiment, the 10th, spent the winter in the small-pox camp at Georgetown, on the Potomac, where more died with the measles than from the effects of inoculation.
PREFATORY NOTES.

Early in March, 1778, Gen. McIntosh reported that, of our troops at Valley Forge, fifty had died since January in camp; that 200 were then sick in camp, and an equal number were in hospitals in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The officers of the 6th Regiment appear to have been sent home to recruit more men, and towards the end of February all soldiers on furlough, all new recruits and all apprehended deserters were to assemble at Halifax and accompany the wagon trains to the Army, but the ranks of our battalions were too greatly depleted to be brought back to an effective standard by ordinary measures. In March the number of our privates at Valley Forge was 800; in May, 1,100; while of rank and file there were 1,450.

The General Assembly, in April, passed a bill for the purpose of filling up our Regiments, but shortly afterwards Congress determined on quite another line of action. On May 29th it resolved that the Regiments in camp should be consolidated into new ones, having the same number of men as when the battalions first entered the service; and a call was made on the State to raise four more battalions of Continentals, which, however, were to remain within the State until further orders. Pursuant to this resolution the regiments in the service were reduced to four, the Sixth being consolidated with the First, with Clark as Colonel; the Fourth with the Second, with Patton as Colonel, and the Fifth with the Third, under Col. Sumner. Col. Martin had resigned the previous fall, and now Col. Polk also resigned. Col. Hugun and the supernumerary officers, of whom there were a large number, were directed to return to North Carolina for service in the new battalions when raised.

Efforts to obtain recruits in the usual way having proved unavailing, the legislature provided that 2,648 men should be detached from the Militia, to serve as Continentals for nine months. A certain quota was apportioned to each County, and this number was again apportioned by the Colonel of the County among the Militia companies, so that every Militia company in the State had to furnish its proper share of these troops. Volunteers from each company were first to be called for, and to these a bounty of $100 was offered; then each company, by ballot, selected a sufficient number of drafted men to make up its quota, and these were to receive a bounty of fifty dollars. Every one so selected became a Continental, and those who faithfully served were, after their nine months' actual service was completed, to be exempt for a period of three years. In May and June the Militia companies assembled and made these selections. These drafted Continentals were to meet at various camps; those raised in the Eastern Counties were to march to Halifax, and then to Petersburg; those from the West were to assemble at Peytonsburg, in Virginia, where Col. Thackston was first in command, and later Col. Armstrong. At that time Col. Sumner was sick at his home in Bute County, near the dividing line of Franklin and Warren, and although he was the ranking officer in the State, the duty of organizing these troops fell on Col. Hogun. Boards of Continental Officers met at Halifax and at Moore's Creek to choose officers for the new battalions, and Col. Hogun was elected to command the first that should be organized. These nine months Continentals from eleven Counties, having assembled at Halifax, in July, 1778, Col. Hogun organized his regiment and marched, 600 strong, to the Northward. In August he reached Philadelphia and hastened on to Washington's Head Quarters at White Plains. In November his regiment was engaged in throwing up the fortifications at West Point, while the four other N. C. regiments constituting the Brigade, then under the command of Col. Clark, and numbering 1,200, rank and file, were with Washington at Fredericksburg, thirty miles further east, on the Connecticut line. In January, 1779, Congress gave tardy recognition to our North Carolina troops, and elected Sumner and Hogun to be Brigadier Generals; the former, being the: at the South, remained there. Other companies of these new Continentals went into camp at Duplin Court House, at Salisbury and Hillsboro, and some marched to Peytonsburg; but Congress having failed to send the money offered as bounty, most of them remained at home, and eventually orders were issued placing them all on furlough until March next. But in September the movements of the British about New York led to the conjecture that they intended to make a fall and winter campaign at the South, and South Carolina called for assistance.

The authorities of that State, in communicating with Congress on the subject, urged that Gov. Caswell should be asked to take command of the troops sent by North Carolina, and that he should have the rank of a Major General. In response, Congress called on North Carolina for a force of three thousand men for service at the South, and Caswell, with his accustomed zeal, ordered out the nine months' Continentals, then on furlough, and urged the Generals of the Militia Brigades to prompt action in sending forward their quotas for this expedition. The details from the Northern Counties were to meet at Kinston, while others assembled at Elizabethtown, where the main division was to move from. Gen. Rutherford, whose alacrity and efficiency had been so often proved, was directed to march his brigade as speedily as possible from Salisbury. In the spring, when a similar force was in contemplation to aid Gen. Washington, Caswell tendered the command to Gen. Ashe, who expressed a disinclination to accept it. Now the Governor insisted on Ashe's acceptance, saying that it would relieve him, as one or the other must go, and that the situation in the State rendered his own presence imperative. To remove an objection, he promised to personally perform the duties of Treasurer of the Southern district for Ashe, who finally accepted the commission of Major General, and proceeded to organize the unarmed and unequipped detachments as they reached Elizabethtown. The supply of guns was entirely inadequate, nearly all the weapons among the people having been furnished to the soldiers sent to the Northern Army. Application was made to South Carolina for arms, but Mr. Laurens, President of that State, could not promise any. Gen. Lincoln, who was passing through the State in November, 1778, to take command of the Southern Department, however, stated that there was a considerable number of arms stored at Charleston, the property of Congress, and he thought our troops could be supplied from that source. Maj. Gen. Robert Howe had been in command in that section, but had incurred the displeasure of the South Carolina authorities,—a woman, it is said, being in the case,—and on the application of the members of Congress from that State, Congress directed him to join Genl. Washington, who highly valued his soldierly qualities, and Gen. Lincoln was appointed to succeed him. It becoming now certain that the British were to make a great effort at the South, Congress, in November, called on North Carolina to increase her force to five thousand, by sending 2,000 additional militia, and steps were taken to that end.

Gen. Rutherford deemed it best, in view of the condition of affairs in the Washington district, not to take any men from that section. In his letter to Governor Caswell, of November 15, 1778, he said: "No troops can be expected from Washington County. The commanding officers in that County give a lamentable representation of their condition. Their whole strength is employed in the suppression of the savages and other inhuman wretches who have their livelihood from carnage and rapine. When I take a speculative view of the matter, think it prudent not to draft out of that County men, arms or ammunition. We have many malevolent, implacable enemies who range from place to place, embracing every opportunity which presents itself to disseminate sedition among the inhabitants. These Sons of Darkness have not once neglected an opportunity of doing a disservice when it was in their power. A favorable one is now in view. Our troops, our magazines, and a vast quantity of provisions for the support of nature, all drafted from our assistance our unchristian foes, in strong alliance with savage enemies, might probably think at this time of revenging themselves. Some part of our ammunition we will detain, and will expect all the military stores from the lower districts that can be spared."

While Col. Gideon Lamb was charged with the duty of getting the Continentals at the East together and organizing them, Maj. Anthony Lytle performed the like service at the West, whither Col. Sumner himself also went for a time. Maj. Lytle marched with some of the Continentals with Gen. Rutherford, who, without waiting for all of his Brigade to assemble, moved forward with a part of it towards the close of November, passing the South Carolina line before the fifth of December. These troops, driving their beees and carrying their provisions with them, reached Charleston about Christmas, and being the first to arrive obtained such guns as could be had. President Laurens wrote to Gov. Caswell that he had supplied them with 700 stands of arms, being all that could possibly be spared for the North Carolina troops.

Despite Caswell's best exertions, there was delay in getting the detachments from the East to meet at the rendezvous. On December 5th, Col. Lamb crossed the Neuse with 200 Continent-als, and up to that time 1,000 Militia had also crossed. Yet, on December 29th, Caswell, at Kinston, wrote to Ashe, who was still detained at Elizabethtown, organizing the details as they slowly came in: "Col. Lamb is here, waiting for upwards of 100 Continental troops and some Militia which he hourly expects. I am really concerned to learn that the troops with you are so far short of the number ordered out. I find by a return from Gen. Rutherford that the Militiamen from several Counties have not joined him, and his Brigade is equally short.

"The deficiency in arms and accoutrements I am sensible of, and equally concerned at, but it seems these deficiencies cannot be remedied here. When I mentioned these difficulties to Gen. Lincoln, from his answers I was led to believe he thought our people could obtain arms there, and I sincerely hope they may. Otherwise, I am well convinced little service can be expected from them with what they have."

Under the Act of Assembly under which Gov. Caswell proceeded in calling these troops into service to aid South Carolina, there was an express limitation as to the time they were to remain in service; and Gov. Caswell wrote to Gen. Ashe: "I believe it was the sense of the Council—I know it was my own—that the troops should not continue in service in the Southern States longer than the 10th of April; that they should then be discharged from that service, but by no means to be disbanded until they return to this State."

When the legislature met, on January 19, 1779, the Governor reported to that body that, of the 5,000 troops called for by Congress, he was fearful that not more than half had marched, and those badly armed.

The British having taken Savannah, had established posts at Augusta and at various intermediate points on the river. Towards the close of February 1779, Gen. Lincoln, with a considerable force, was near Savannah, on the South Carolina side. Above him was Gen. Moultrie's camp, and while Gen. Rutherford's brigade, 700 strong, was 20 miles below the point where Briar Creek, on the Georgia side, empties into the river, Gen. Williamson, with 1,200 men, was higher up towards Augusta. The time having arrived for operations, Ashe moved from the vicinity of Charleston towards the Savannah river, and, rapidly passing Lincoln,
PREFATORY NOTES.

Moultrie and Rutherford, and leaving his baggage, hastened towards Augusta. On his approach the British evacuated that post and fell down the west bank of the river. Ashe, crossing on the 25th, vigorously pursued them, reaching Briar Creek on the 27th. Here he halted, ordered his baggage to cross at a point some 8 miles above, sent a detachment of 600 men under Col. Smith to guard it, and sent another detachment of 400 men under Col. Caswell across the Creek to surprise an outlying British post.

Then, after locating his camp, he obeyed a summons from Gen. Lincoln to attend a council of war at Rutherford's camp, where it was agreed that Ashe, being joined by Williamson, who was to have crossed and followed the North Carolinians to Briar Creek, should press down the west bank of the river and clear the way for Rutherford and Lincoln to cross into Georgia.

On Ashe's return at noon, March 2d, he found that Gen. Bryan, who had been left in command, had, on the advice of Col. Elbert, an experienced Continental officer of the Georgia line, moved the camp about a mile, and there being rumors that the British were in the vicinity, had sent out two parties of horse to reconnoitre, and had established a strong line of pickets three-quarters of a mile higher up. Ashe, occupied with the proposed plan of campaign agreed on with Lincoln and Moultrie, which he set about carrying into effect, and, receiving no information from the several reconnoitring parties sent out, gave but little heed to vague rumours that the enemy had moved up and crossed the creek and gotten in his rear. But, at three o'clock on the afternoon of the 3d, a messenger sent by Col. Smith, who was in command of the detachment guarding the baggage some miles up the river, brought information that the enemy was approaching from the North, and immediately thereafter the pickets became engaged. The British column, not at all arrested by them, advanced rapidly with fixed bayonets, their artillery in front, to surprise the camp. At once the drum beat to arms, and the troops, formed in two lines, marched forward to meet the enemy. Col. Elbert, with his small force of 35 Georgia Continentals, was on the right of the first line, on his left being the Militia, who also formed the second line, which was eighty yards to the rear. The enemy were well-trained troops under Genl. Prevost. While the Continentals with Col. Elbert fought heroically, and the Militia in the first line for a time held their ground and fired once or twice, the second line soon became panic-stricken and fell into confusion, and some fled without ever firing once. The sight of the gleaming bayonets was evidently too much for them. Despite all efforts to stop them, the second line broke for the woods, and then the Militia in the first line gave way, leaving the Continentals alone, who fought until overpowered.

While the loss of life was small, many of the men when they fled threw away their guns, and a large number, taking to the right, where there was no means of escape, were captured; 162 privates and 24 officers were taken prisoners. The others found safety in the swamp, and, crossing the river, were collected by their officers, Gen. Ashe marching over two hundred into Rutherford's camp, that being about one-third of the number, he said, who were in his command when attacked, his force having been greatly reduced by detachments off on special duty. Thus ended in rout and discomfiture an expedition whose beginning was remarkable for dash, energy and enterprise, reflecting credit on the North Carolina Militia.

The loss of arms was great, and as the unarmed men could not be supplied, and no further movement being then undertaken by Gen. Lincoln, when the term of their service was about to expire, the force returned home and was discharged.

In 1776 a body of Light Horse was raised by the State, under Capt. Dickinson, which, at first, Congress refused to receive into the Continental service, but eventually did so. It seems that this command was at one time on duty in New York. Later, the horses giving out, Cosmo de Medici was employed to secure others, but he was not very successful. In 1778 a detachment of this command was at Ft. Pitt, in Western Pennsylvania, but in December Congress resolved to return the company to the State authorities, and in February, 1779, the legislature directed it to be discharged.

In this volume will be found the Legislative Journals for the year 1779, but as the events of that year form the subjects of correspondence published in the succeeding volume, they will be adverted to hereafter.

HENRY LAURENS PRES'D'T. CONGRESS TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

YORK TOWN 1st January 1778.

Sir:
Permit me to refer you to my last under the 26th ulto. in a packet which will accompany this.

My present business is to convey to your Excellency an Act of Congress of the 31st past for promoting a speedy reformation in the army in discipline and economy.

I have the honor to be Sir, your Excellency's most humble servant,

HENRY LAURENS
Pres'd't. Congress.

SAM'L. JOHNSTON TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

EDENTON 3d January 1778.

Sir:
The bearer Mr. Colin Clark having been disappointed in getting part of his property down Roanoke River, waits on your Excellency to be indulged with longer time in order that he may avail himself of the privilege allowed persons under his circumstances to remove their property. The fact is that the River has been so low for several months past that no craft could pass till within a few days past, a circumstance which has not occurred so late in the season for many years past, which he hopes will be a sufficient reason with your Excellency and the honorable the Council to grant him the favor he now requests.

Mr. Clark has transacted business as a merchant for several years in this neighborhood, and has always supported an exceptional character which now induces me at his request to take the liberty of recommending him to your favor which I flatter myself you will have no reason to think ill bestowed.

I am with the greatest respect, Sir your Excellency's most obedient servant,

SAM'IL JOHNSTON.

THOS. CRAIKE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WILMINGTON Jan'y 8th 1778.

Sir:

I have received from on board the French Sloop which brought despatches to Congress, nine strands of cables, for 3 cables & 262 pieces of sail cloth for acct. of the United States, about 50 pieces of the sail cloth is damaged. I have had them opened and dried, but many parts of them are rotten. The whole are stored in two warehouses which I have rented for that service. I have not as yet purchased anything of the Captain, I offered him 80 shillings pr piece for blankets, which I thought to be at the rate, or upwards of 1000 per c; he talked of £8 more for each; he has a few pieces of coarse strands. I have seen the patterns but cannot be informed of their breadth, and he is afraid to open his goods to show them to any person. I expect to set off for Charles Town on Saturday, and I shall write your Excellency any particulars that may occur in that time.

I am your Excellency's mo. ob. humble servant,

THOS. CRAIKE.

A French Brig & a Schooner are at Brunswick and are expected up this tide.

WILLIS WILSON TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

EDENTON 9th Jan'y 1778.

Sir:

I waited on the Virginia Navy Board some time past, and informed them the impossibility of getting men for the Caswell at the pay they limited me to, which is twenty dollars bounty, & half a dollar per day, provided they ship for three years. They informed me it was not in their power to advance the pay, & instructed me to follow such orders as I might receive from your Excellency from time to time. I think proper to acquaint your Excellency that the merchants give such exorbitant pay for seamen, that it's entirely out of my power to procure them at the price above mentioned.

Your Excellency's orders how to act, shall be strictly attended to by your mo. ob. hble servt.

WILLIS WILSON.

J. PENN AND CORNS HARNETT TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

York Town, Janry 9th, 1778.

Sir:

Col. Palfrey paymaster General this day informed us that Doctor Guyon paymaster to some North Carolina Battalion has returned home without settling his account and that our officers complain of his having failed to pay the men. We are also told that Doctor Guyon is about leaving North Carolina, and going to some of the Islands. We thought it our duty to give your Excellency this information, that should the report be true, you might be able to put a stop to Doctor Guyon's going off. It is said he has received very large sums of money. We hope there is no real foundation for a charge of so black a nature, but at any rate a proper inquiry should be made.

It gives us great concern that we have not received a single letter from your Excellency or from the General Assembly since their meeting, it is absolutely proper that some General officer should be appointed for our State to command the Troops from there. We were under difficulties and wrote to the Assembly desiring that we might be informed which of the Capts. should be promoted. Col. Martin has resigned. We should be glad to receive any commands that the Assembly may think proper to send us.
STATE RECORDS.

We got the favor of Alex Gillon Esqr of So Carolina and Mr. Robinson, to take twelve copies of the articles of confederation, which they promised to send to you by express from Halifax, we hope they have come to hand long before this.

The President shall send all the Resolves of Congress himself to the different States, which is one reason of our not writing so often as we should.

General Washington's Army is about 23 miles from Philadelphia, in Huts near the Schuylkill as the most convenient place to prevent the Enemy from plundering the Country.

A few days ago a large Brig was blown ashore five miles below Wilmington, and taken by General Smallwood, it proved a valuable prize there being 7500 stand of arms, Baggage for the officers of 4 Regiments, and a quantity of wine and spirits, three other vessels are said to be drove on shore on the Jersey side, the Inhabitants are taking proper care of their cargoes. We have the honor to be with great respect, your Excellency's mo. ob. hble Servts.

CORN. HARNETT.

ANTHONY WARD TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WILMINGTON, January 10th, 1778.

SIR:

Agreeable to your Excellency's orders to me I have had a new Election, and Capt. John Campbell is rechosen, he has his commission, that I fill up. But his officers are without any. If your Excellency will please to send me the Blanks I will fill them, and I also want Blanks for a Company as all the officers are without Commissions. I am Sir, your most ob. huml. Servt.

ANTHONY WARD.
J. LUTTRELL TO HIS EXCELLENCY GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

January 10th, 1778.

Sir:

The Assembly of this State at their last sitting resolved that I should have leave to resign my commission in the army, without incurring the penalties prescribed by a former resolve of their houses, which resolve was made to prevent resignations of the officers on the Continental establishment.

Therefore you as commanding officer of this State, will please to accept my resignation as Lieut. Col. of the 9th Regiment, and your Excellency will much oblige your most obedient humble servant.

J. LUTTRELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO GEN. JONES

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Newbern, 11th January, 1778.

Sir:

Enclosed you have copy of Resolutions of the General Assembly respecting the removal of the Military stores, and establishing Guards at Halifax and Kingston.

My view in sending you these Resolves, are to give you the trouble of looking out for a proper person to be appointed the officer at Halifax, and also the person who will contract to furnish the guard there with provisions which I request the favor of you to do, so soon as you can conveniently, and signify the names of the persons to me, the former of which I shall immediately thereupon commission, and the latter I will furnish with a warrant on the Treasury for any reasonable sum you may advise to enable him to perform such contract as you may make with him.

I consider this business more properly to be executed by you as commanding officer of the District, than any other gentleman in your neighborhood, if you consider it in that light I know you will cheerfully perform it, and if any other you will excuse the trouble I give you, and believe me to be with great respect,

Sir, your most ob. servt.

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO CORNELIUS HARNETT.

[Executive Letter Book.]

Newbern 11th January, 1778

Sir:

I did myself the honor to write you by Capt. Folger whom I met on the road the 27th ulto. since which I received your favor of the 3rd Dec., enclosing a Copy of a Resolution of Congress, respecting our old paper currency which I shall take care to lay before the General Assembly at their first meeting which is now appointed to be on the first Monday in April next, when I have not the least doubt the Legislature will pursue the measures therein recommended by Congress.

Your favor of the first Novr. enclosing resolve directing a General Thanksgiving has been properly attended to, and the resolve carried into effect here.

The resolve you did me the honor to enclose the 5th November, directing a Monument to be erected to the memory of the brave General Nash, I shall cheerfully use the most effectual means in my power to carry into execution in the speediest manner so as to accomplish the views of Congress.

To carry the resolve of Congress into execution which I received under cover of your favor of the 25th November; I have borrowed from the Treasurer of the Northern District in this State 10,000 dollars & draw in his favor on the Continental Treasury for the same, these I hope Congress will direct to be paid when presented, and if I find it will be in my power to lay out further sums on the same account, the Treasurers here are directed by the General Assembly to furnish me with 15,000 dollars more, for which I shall also give bills on the Continental Treasury. The persons I have employed are directed to buy at the following prices, viz:

Deer skins in the hair, at 6 shillings per lb.
Deer Skins, Indian dressed and trimmed 12 shillings pr lb.
STATE RECORDS.

Tanned Leather 8 shillings pr lb.
Good Strong Mens Shoes 24 shillings per pr. Dollars at 8 shillings.

These are great prices here, but high as they are I fear these articles will not be purchased in any considerable quantities at those prices even, I shall therefore wish to be advised as soon as may be, if I may venture to exceed them.

The several matters recommended in the papers I had the honor to receive with your favor of the 20th November, were on the receipt of them immediately laid before the General Assembly who came to several Resolutions thereon, a Copy of which is enclosed, which will show the sense of the Legislature respecting these matters.

I have the honor to be with the greatest respect Sir,
your most obedient and very humble servant,

R. CASWELL.

COV. CASWELL TO CORNL. HARNETT & JOHN PENN ESQRS.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEWBERRY 12th January 1778.

GENTLEMEN,

I did myself the pleasure of writing you the 27th ultimo by a Capt. Folger whom I met on the road, and who was going express from Cape Fear, where he had just arrived from France to Congress which I make no doubt, you have by this time received, since which I have had an opportunity of looking over the Journals of the General Assembly and have obtained such extracts from them as immediately concern you as Delegates for the State. Herewith you will receive as follows:

A Resolve of the 15th Decr. respecting the appointments of Brigadiers, a Resolve of the 19th regarding the measures necessary to adopt for carrying Resolutions of the Congress into execution. Resolve of the 21st Decr. respecting Capt. Hampstead, and a Resolve of the 24th Decr. for an allowance to the Delegates. So far as these Resolutions tend to point out any duty to be performed by you as delegates, I have no doubt of your paying a proper attention to them.
I have directed the Secretary to transmit to the War Office a Copy of our Militia Law and of the aid Bill I mentioned to you in my last, if you shall have occasion to have recourse to them they go by the Post with this.

I have written to the Honorable the President of Congress in answer to several dispatches I was honored with from him. I have informed him of the price, I have directed to be given for sundry articles recommended by Congress to me to purchase viz:

- Deer Skins in the Hair at 6 shillings pr lb.
- Indian dressed and trimmed 12 shillings pr lb.
- Tanned Leather 8 shillings pr lb.
- Good Strong Mens Shoes. 24 shillings pr pr.

These prices will I make no doubt appear to you to be very high, they are so, but I fear even those will not induce the sale of those articles, in any considerable quantities, and whether I may venture to go further, I wish to be informed, the other matter recommended to you, respecting the Militia, in my last I hope soon to hear from you upon, this goes by Post who brought in the last mail but one letter and no papers, so that we have not the least intelligence from the army.

I am with great regard and esteem Gentlemen, your most obedient humble Servt.

R. CASWELL.

HENRY LAURENS PRESDT OF CONGRESS TO HIS EXCELLENCY
GOV. CASWELL N. C.

[From Executive letter book.]

York Town 12th January 1778.

Sir:

I had the honor of your Excellency's letter of the 27th Dec. last evening, brought to me by Mr. John Folger, who delivered me a Packet which he said contained despatches from the Commissioners of these States at Paris, and in the same Instant, intimated that the packet had been opened, by your Excellency, and found to cover nothing more than a number of pieces of blank paper. To my great grief and mortification I presently discovered the latter part of his information to be true, and accordingly reported to Congress this morning. The House was exceedingly chagrined by the disappointment, and suspicions were so strong the man, as to occasion an immediate examination into particulars, which ended in an order to confine his person until some further inquiry shall be made into this mysterious circumstance.

Congress requests your Excellency will be pleased to transmit as early as possible all the information you can collect from the Master and passengers of the vessel in which Mr. Folger came from France, concerning despatches which they may have seen or heard from him were in his possession, and also such as your Excellency can give from your own knowledge.

Upon his examination he declared—"within eight miles of New Bern I met Gov. Caswell on the 26th Decr. and two other Gentlemen, one a Col. Alcot, they questioned me so closely that after some time I told them I came from France, in a French vessel, the Captain of which was a stage behind on his way to see his Excellency. One of the Gentlemen told me that was his Excellency pointing to Gov. Caswell. We, all lodged at the same house that night. I showed Gov. Caswell the letter I had from Mr. Deane. I desired the Governor's passport which he gave me. I asked his Excellency, not knowing whether he might suspect me as Mr. Deane's letter was unsigned, whether he had a mind to see my papers, and took out the main packet directed "despatches," and did not think of his breaking it open. We were in a private room together, the Governor broke it open. I informed him it never had been broke open before. After he had broke open the three seals with which the wrapper was sealed, he run over the directions on the letters. He resealed the packet marked "despatches A" putting into it the same letters. When the Governor saw the Blank paper, he said he was surprised and did not know the service of sending clean paper so far. I answered that I was surprised, I did not know that I had clean paper under my care. We both assisted in repacking the letters, and the next morning the Governor gave me the papers."

The line marked 'A' and the next following contains information which implies that letters were put into the packet of clean paper, but when that packet came to my hands it certainly contained nothing but 35 pieces of blank French paper. There was another packet about the size of, or a little larger than the first, which contained foreign news papers and letters as Congress have been informed, but that was directed to Robert Morris, Esq., and I sent it to his Clerk with eight other letters, and packet which Folger had laid upon my Table.

By the main packet he means this and that, and intimates that your Excellency opened both, but the man's behavior is such as induces the Members of Congress to believe him an arch knave affecting the Fool, my private opinion is that he is a very confused stupid creature altogether unfit for the charge which Mr. Deane committed to him, and that some Emissary of the British Court, played him a trick before he left France, by robbing him of the original Packet, and planning this counterfeit on him if he is a knave, he has pressed and prevailed on your Excellency to look into this packet in order to gloss his rognery. I will trouble you no farther Sir, with conjectures, but conclude by subscribing with great respect and esteem, your Excellency's most Ob. & huml. Servt.

CAPT. JAMES EMMET TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

X CREEK 13th January 1778.

Sir:

I did myself the honor to write to your Excellency in November last, enclosing an extract of my orders from Col. Sumner, at the same time requesting your instructions how to proceed; the bearer of my letter brought me a verbal answer that you would write to me, at a future day, as yet I have not heard from you, which is the reason of my troubling you at this time.

I intend to set out for camp early next month, if in your Excellency's power, must request you would advance me two hundred pounds. I have drawn no money for either pay or rations since July last, and shall find it extremely difficult to join my Regiment except you will favor me with the above request. This will be handed you by Mr. James Porterfield, by whom I shall be glad to receive your answer, with your instructions. Mr. Porterfield's

A. MACLAINE TO GOV. CASWELL,

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WILMINGTON 14th Janry 1778.

DEAR SIR:
When I left New Bern I did not know who would accept the appointment of Notary, and therefore would not make any application to your Excellency for this place.

Mr. John DuBois one of the Justices of New Hanover county, has consented to act in that department, if your Excellency should think proper to appoint him; and as there is not any lawyer resident in the town, and few would take the trouble of it, I beg leave to recommend Mr. DuBois as a gentleman of diligence and application. He shall have all the instructions in my power, and he will be possessed of the Notary's Register, to which he can refer upon every occasion, that may happen. I am with much respect Dear Sir,

Your Excellency's obedient servant,
A. MACLAINE.

ORDER TO RENDEZ-VOUS AT HALIFAX.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

State of North Carolina,
Richard Caswell, Esq.
Governor and Commander in chief of said State.

To the commanding officer of the Continental Troops now in the State aforesaid:

Sir:

You are hereby required to order all the recruits, persons on furlough and Deserters, apprehended in this State to Rendez-vous at Halifax as soon as you think the same may be practicable, so as to make me a general return thereafter, on the last Monday in February next at Johnston Court house, which you are required punctually to do, and to hold yourself and the officers under your command in readiness to march immediately thereafter to such place as you may be directed.

Given at Newbern under my hand and seal at arms, the 14th day of January Anno Domini 1778.

COL. THOS ROBERSON TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Sir:

I am informed by Mr. James Richardson that he has a mind to make a trial, in recruiting agreeably to the Commission sent him and agreeably to the Commission, it will be very troublesome and expensive, to make a return every month to you at New Bern, that if a return was made once in two months, it would not be so expensive nor troublesome, but he informs he has sent a Bond with security for the money that he is to receive, which I am told is about two hundred pounds. That the Bond is for Wm Johnston and Wm Ellis included as securities, they will be sufficient. I have not any more to add at present, only remain your humble servant

THOS ROBERSON.

Bladen January 19th 1778.

N. B. If the returns would do to be sent to the printing office in Wilmington it might answer much better.

JAS. RICHARDSON TO GOV. CASWELL.

BLADEN COUNTY January 21st 1778.

This is to acquaint your Excellency that I rec'd by the hand of Col. Roberson orders to recruit men in the County of Bladen, wherein I am directed to make my Rendezvous in Wilmington, which is no less than 65 miles from me and must make my returns to you on the first day of every month, which is not less than 150 miles from me, that I give good security for my faithful performance.

Notwithstanding those inconveniences, being sensible how much the public may suffer for want of Recruits I have employed the Bearer Mr. Samuel Rootes, to bring this letter, have sent a Bond completed, hope you will acquaint me some other way to make my returns than by my own expense. I look on it that it would keep me half my time in making my returns which would be more than the profit I should receive.
I do not doubt but there may be some men enlisted. Our General Muster will be in a short time and should be glad to be prepared for a trial. Hope you will send me two hundred pounds, in cash by the bearer or such a sum as you think proper, I have no money that I can spare to advance for the public, I beg to know what assurance to give each man I enlist.

I am as in duty bound your Excellency's most obedient humble Servant,

JAS. RICHARDSON.

Sir:

My last was by Post the 17th Inst. Your Excellency will find here enclosed an Act of Congress of the 19th Inst for establishing a communication for transporting provisions from the Southern States, for the use of the Army, and for defraying the consequent expenses upon which is endorsed the Commissary General's letter, referred to, I am with great regard and respect Sir, your Excellency's ob. & huml. JAS. GREEN JUN. TO GOV. CASWELL:

[From Executive Letter Book.]

New Bern 28th Janry 1778.

Sir:

Agreeably to your directions to me, I have enclosed to your Excellency by Col: Leech an Invoice of the Clothing and Blankets which I purchased of the French Gentlemen in New Bern. I would have furnished you with his Bills of the same, but he says it is impossible for him to make it out at present when he does I'll forward it.

I can hardly forbear sending those clothes and blankets immediately to South Quay, to Col: Aylett, by two vessels which sails to-morrow where he could get wagons directly for sending them on, to headquarters, but I must forbear, not having your orders to do so. The first fair day I will cart them to some store in Town, 'till further orders. I am with respect your Excellency's obedt. Servt.

JAS. GREEN JUN.

GOV. CASWELL TO HIS EXCELLENCY GOV. HENRY.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEWBERN 28th January 1778.

SIR:

Your favors of the 6th and 11th instant, were delivered me yester-day by Mr. Davenport, Col: Aylett's business in this Depart-ment, being such as to require his stay in Virginia, (of which I make no doubt he has advised you) has requested me to appoint an assistant to him in this State, which I shall most cheerfully do. He sent by Mr. Davenport 20,000, Dollars, the greater part of which, I have already laid out, and shall continue to do this very necessary business until I can get a proper person to discharge the duties of such an appointment, but as money will enable me to get the articles necessary with more ease, and convenience and with more content to the venders, I must request you will be pleased to recommend to Col: Aylett the sending a much larger sum so soon as he possibly can, by the time of the arrival I shall have a person properly qualified to receive it, in the mean time the business shall go on with all the assiduity and assistance I can give it. I thank you for the Copy of the Act of the Assembly your Excellency did me the honor to enclose. The General Assembly of this State is adjourned to the first Monday in April next. At their meeting I shall lay the same before them, in the mean time I shall use every means in my power to prevent the importation of provisions by laying an Embargo and take such steps as I hope will in some measure prevent the pernicious prac-tice of those wretches among us who prefer a Temporary Satisfac-tion of Acquiring to the Salvation of their Country. It is the greatest happiness my heart is susceptible of, to render my coun-try services under the most trying occasions, and give me leave to assure your Excellency it will be with the greatest pleasure that in concert with our sister State of Virginia or any of its inhabitants I shall render all the assistance in the matters you are pleased to recommend within the compass of my power and indeed in everything which may have the least tendency toward our grand object independence.

I have the honor to be with the greatest esteem and regard, Sir, your Excellency's mo. ob. servant,

RICHARD CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO COL: AYLETT.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEWBERN 28th January 1778.

Sir:

Your favor of the 12 Currt. by Mr. Davenport I recd yesterday with 20,000 Dollars, and the several papers mentioned by you. It would have given me pleasure to have seen you here, and I would most cheerfully have assisted you in every measure in my power, but as the duties of your appointment, and the essential service to your Country, which you are engaged in has prevented my having the satisfaction of seeing you and consulting with you on some matters very interesting in your department, I shall content myself in assuring you that everything which may be in my power to accomplish for the service of the public and which falls in your department shall be attended to and receive the dispatch that their importance requires.

I have not yet met with a proper person to employ as your assistant, Commissary of purchases. But have written to a Gentlemen whom I think very fit and able to perform the duties of such an appointment, from him I expect to hear in a few days. In the mean time I shall do the very necessary business myself. I have already laid out the whole or very near it of the money you sent having purchased 600 Bushels of Salt, at £5 this currency, and 290 Barrels of Pork at £16. do: and agreed for some other quantities of each article. But as business of every kind is best done with money in hand, I must recommend your sending out so soon as you possibly can, any sum, not exceeding 50,000 Dollars. I think it may be laid out for the articles, and at nearly the price above, if you think those are too high, advise me as soon as possible, lest I should engage too far. I thought it best to offer what I call a generous price at once, which is now the height of the market. Whether you will have any of the Pork or salt sent unto South quay, or if you will have it stored in a proper Magazine here, please inform me. 'Tis rather too late to expect any quantity of fresh Pork to be purchased, what is to be got here is chiefly barrelled already, that which is bought for the public, shall be in good order and ready to be disposed of as you shall direct. I would not wish to be understood that 50,000 Dollars more will be as much as may be laid out in provisions here, but I think it will be a sufficient sum to answer the present exigencies. If a further sum shall be necessary, on receipt of that I shall advise you. I have written his Excellency Gov. Henry, and assured him of every assistance I can give in your Department. I think no labour or trouble too great in these very necessary businesses to be performed for the public, and hope you'll freely ask anything you think in my power to perform without apologizing, as I really consider it as a duty I owe a Country, I wish to save. I am with great respect Sir, your Mo. ob. Servt.

R. CASWELL.

GEN. HORATIO GATES TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WAR OFFICE, Jan'y 29th 1778.

Sir:

I have the honor of informing your Excellency, that there is a large quantity of clothing at Edenton in North Carolina which was purchased for the use of the American Army.

The Board being of opinion, that carriages could not easily be procured in North Carolina have ordered four Brigades of wagons to be collected in this State, and sent to Edenton, in order to convey it to Lancaster. Lest the number of wagons should not be sufficient, to bring the whole, the Board have directed the D. Com. of clothing in North Carolina, Messrs Hewes and Smith, to apply to your Excellency if necessary for any assistance they may want.
The Board are convinced your Excellency will do every thing, in your power to expedite the arrival of the clothing at Lancaster, when you are informed it will tend in an eminent degree to relieve the present distress of the army.

I have the honor to be, Sir, your Excellency's most ob. huml. Servt.

HORATIO GATES,
President.

The Board have not been favored with your Excellency's answer to their letter on the subject of purchasing Leather and Skins. If any purchases, and there should be loads wanting for some wagons, which Mr Purnall will have with him, the articles may be sent by informing him.

SAVAGE & WESTMORE TO GOV. CASWELL

[From Executive Letter Book.]

EDENTON, 30th January 1778.

Sir:

We have received your Excellency's favor of the 27th Current, and the contents are duly noted.

We are sorry it is not in our power to comply with your desire, having before the receipt of your favor, sold all the Goods purchased by J. Westmore in Newbern to Mr. John O'Conner, who is now here, on account of himself, Col. O'Conner and two other Gentlemen, by the name of Herbert to the Northward, at fifty per cent profit, on what these Goods cost us, they paying us in cash, and allowing us the freight of the goods found here. They have further purchased from us a more considerable quantity of goods here, all of which are to be sent towards Head Quarters, on their private accounts. But for your Excellency's farther satisfaction we refer you to Mr. O'Conner's letter who writes by this express.

We remain, with the greatest respect your Excellency's most ob. huml. Servts.

SAVAGE & WESTMORE.
JOHN O'CONNOR TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Edenton Jan'y 1778.

Sir:

Messrs. Savage & Westmore showed me a letter from your Excellency. I have to inform your Excellency, that seeing the Invoice of the Goods purchased by Mr. Westmore in New Bern in order to serve those concerned with me in adventure of Goods to be purchased here by me, and forwarded to Pennsylvania immediately. I purchased these Goods from them together with another pr ct. here allowing them fifty per cent profit upon the Invoice purchased at New Bern, part of which purchases I paid immediately in cash and am to furnish them with Bills upon my friends in Pennsylvania for the balance of their account, as the intention of this adventure is to serve as well the army as other people, who are in great want of these necessaries together with the injury we shall sustain thro' the want of goods. I hope your Excellency will excuse my not making a tender of them, as I am but one of the concerned, the others are field officers now at Camp.

I am with greatest respect, Sir, your most ob. huml. serv't.

JOHN O'CONNOR.

GOV. CASWELL TO FRANCIS BRICE.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Kingston 30th January 1778.

Sir:

About the 28th of December last a vessel arrived in Cape Fear from France, (Havre de Grace I think) in which came one John Folger passenger, who said he was express from the Commissioners of the United States at Paris to Congress, and who informed me he had showed you a paper which he suggested was from Mr. Dean to himself tho' not signed by him which on that account you disregarded. The Capt. of that vessel who was a Frenchman, came to Newbern to see me about the sale of his Goods and I advised Mr. Craike to purchase from him, which he did not on account of the exorbitant prices the Frenchman asked for his goods. I mention these circumstances in order to ascertain the person of Mr. Folger, who I fear has been guilty of a breach of trust, and in order to a discovery Congress have desired all the information in my power to collect from the Master and Passengers of the vessel in which Mr. Folger came from France, concerning despatches which they may have seen or heard from him, were in his possession, from the Cons. at Paris to Congress or any of the members of that Body. I therefore take the liberty of sending this by Express to you, requesting you will be pleased to obtain all the information in your power from those persons and have the same adduced to written Affidavits made by the said persons, before a Justice of the peace, in which shall be contained every circumstance within their memory respecting these matters, and if you recollect any particular circumstances relating to Folger’s behaviour, when you saw him, I must beg the favor of your Affidavit also. If Mr. Craike has returned and can recollect the particulars of this man’s odd behaviour at Colliers where we met him, please to obtain his deposition. Let these affidavits be drawn in such manner as not to disgrace us in Congress, where I am requested to transmit them.

Mr. Brice will excuse this and other trouble I am and shall be obliged to give him in public matters, and in case of his absence from Wilmington, I beg the favor of Mr. Dunbibin to execute this business in which he will greatly oblige me. I am Sir, your mo. ob. servt.

R. CASWELL.

To Mr. Francis Brice, or in his absence Mr. Jonathan Dunbibin, Wilmington.

CORNES. HARNETT TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

YORK TOWN Janry 31st 1778.

DEAR SIR:

I take the liberty to enclose to your Excellency the last papers, to which I refer you for news. I am glad to find our Assembly have opened the Courts as well as the Land Office. I wish this measure had taken place sooner. The Taxes also I hope will be soon collected, this measure of taxation unless entered into with spirit by the Legislatures of the several States, must end in the ruin of the prodigious quantity of paper money now in circulation.

The Grand Army still remains encamped at Valley Forge, unless a large body of the Militia of the adjacent States immediately reinforce them, I have little reason to expect anything decisive can possibly be done this winter, as we are told Genl. Howe's lines are exceedingly strong, and should Genl. Howe be reinforced in the Spring, by a strong body of Troops, I suppose we shall have warm work, unless France and Spain declare War, and this, notwithstanding the great preparation made by those powers, is very uncertain. France finds her account in engrossing the whole Trade of these States, without entering into a war with so formidable a power as Great Britain.

I could have wished our General Assembly had fallen upon the means of calling in all our paper money issued under the sanction of the crown, great distinction has been made by the disaffected in this and many other States, an evil universally complained of, and has been remedied in several very effectually, by calling it all in, at a certain day, after which it is not redeemable by any future tax, neither is it to be taken as a tender. In some States, Treasurer's notes bearing interest are given in lieu of this kind of money, redeemable in one year.

Congress have a high sense of the offer made by our Country, of marching 50,000 Militia to the assistance of the Grand Army, and greatly applaud their spirit, whether they will be called for, is not yet known. I suppose they will not, (having so great a distance to march,) unless in case of emergency. But this is no more than my private opinion and not to be mentioned. I take the liberty to enclose a memorandum which Mr. R. Henry Lee put into my hands a few weeks ago, which has been mislaid. I shall be happy in receiving a line from your Excellency when you can find leisure, and am with great respect, your Excellency's mo. ob. & very humbl. Servt.

CORNELIUS HARRISON.

Febry 3d.

Being disappointed in sending this forward at the time expected, I cannot help mentioning to your Excellency very shortly a matter which hangs heavy at my heart, whilst all the States are fortifying every creek and inlet where vessels can possibly enter, I fear our State have neglected Cape Look Out Bay and Cape Fear River. The latter is such a harbor as may at all times be safe for the enemy to enter, and ravage the country at will, more especially at this time when all our Continental Troops are at the distance of 600 miles from that place. Cape Look Out is one of the finest harbors on the American coast, and would be a noble Asylum for the Continental and private ships of war, to wood and water, as also a place of security for trading vessels chased by the enemy. I am distressed beyond measure to find our sea coast so much neglected to please (I fear) a few individuals who may be interested in the matter, I am as before your Excellency's most &c. &c.

CORN. HARNETT.

I am confined in my room by the gout, and therefore cannot with the accuracy I could wish answer your Quero's in regard to Major Genl. Pay &c. I shall do myself the honor of writing you in a short time on that head.

I could wish your Excellency, would fall upon ways and means to procure all the salted pork in your State, for the use of the Continental Army, which Congress have every reason to believe will be greatly distressed for that article, I hope none will be suffered to be exported. Your Bills will be answered.

C. H.

GOV. CASWELL TO HENRY LAURENS, PRESIDENT OF CONGRESS.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NORTH CAROLINA, KINGSTON, 31st January 1778.

SIR:

I had the honor of receiving your letter of the 12th this day, and so far as I am able to recollect the circumstances respecting Folger's conduct, when I saw him, I will now inform you, what information I can obtain from the Capt. and passengers of the vessel he came in, I will transmit so soon as I possibly can, as the vessel arrived in Cape Fear, where she now lies (I believe) and the Capt. is about disposing of the cargo, one hundred miles to the Southward of New Bern. It would I find be disagreeable to the bearer to wait the return of the Express, I shall this day send there.

Capt: Folger's information, I think in every particular is true, except one which is that in which he says I broke open the main packet directed Despatches. On my arriving at the place he mentions, about eight miles from Newbern, I found him a stranger, there, the Landlord informed me he had said he had business with me. I asked him a great many questions which he answered in monosyllables, and in equivocal terms, until one of the two gentlemen he has mentioned were in my company informed him I was the Governor. He then showed me first a letter, which he said was from Mr. Dean, but unsigned, with which he saw I was not satisfied. He then showed a letter signed with the names of Mr. Franklin and Mr. Dean, and by the writing I was induced to believe that letter was signed by those gentlemen. He afterwards began to be more open in his behaviour, I commended his caution, tho' very awkward, and to convince me he was the person, he assumed, he carried me into a room, where undoing his portmanteau, he showed me a large packet addressed to himself, which was bound round in several places with twine, & sealed. I asked him if he had opened it, it being directed to himself, he answered no, he knew it contained nothing for him, that its contents were papers for Congress as he had received it in a bag, to which he had affixed a lead for sinking it at sea, in case the vessel in which he came passenger being boarded by the enemy, and that he had Mr. Dean's particular orders to do, and in case of accident happening to himself he was to give similar directions to the Capt. which he had done. I told him it was rather odd that he should have so large a packet in his possession so long, and not know its contents, when directed to himself, and wished him to open it the better to satisfy himself in the business he was upon. He declined opening it, but said I might, which I did, and this packet which was the only one I broke the seals of was I declare upon my Honor was addressed to Capt. John Folger, I think at Havre Degrace; in it, I found a great number of letters and packets, directed to many members of Congress, one I particularly remember was addressed to Mr. Hancock President of Congress, several to Mr. Morris and others, whose names I do not now recollect, there were several endorsed "Despatches" and the same in French above or below the English on the same packet, I think some of them said ("Despatches for Congress") observing one or both ends of one these packets to be opened and sealed in the middle. I drew out at the end several pieces of blank paper, on which I expressed my surprise in the manner Folger was mentioned. All the letters and packets were as he says by him and myself put into the original cover directed to himself, the twine bound round and sealed by me, and I gave him the pass he mentions, and after the labor I had to get this knowledge, which was not small, his manner being uncommon, I sent him on firmly persuaded the packet addressed to the President did contain some matters of an interesting nature, to the States, it was pretty large, and was I am sure, put again in the original cover, which I am positive was sealed by me, in the same manner I found it, and that no other seal whatever was broke, but those on the wrapper.

What the man may be I will not pretend to say, but if he has not delivered the packet addressed to Mr. Hancock, he has certainly had some design in secreting it, and I most sincerely wish Congress may be able to get such information as may enable them to do him justice.

I have the honor to be with great respect and esteem Sir, your most obedient servant,

RICHARD CASWELL.

P. S. I have furnished the express with twenty Dollars, enclosed in his receipt.

GEN. ALLEN JONES TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Janry 31st 1778.

SIR:

I beg leave to recommend the bearer of this Mrs. Miller to your Excellency assuring you that however inimical her husband may appear, she herself is a most deserving character. Mr. Miller went out of the State before the Declaration of Independence, and is now a merchant at New York. Mrs. Miller I understand has a notion of going to Bermuda with her property to avoid the forfeiture that will be incurred, if consistent with the laws of the State. It is on this subject she waits on your Excellency, but as she has not explained herself to me, I must beg leave to refer you to herself.

I assure you sir any favor you can do her consistent with the laws and policy of the State will ever be considered as an obligation on myself. A gentleman from Virginia yesterday told me that he saw a person from the No'ward who says it may be relied on that the Canadians have acceded to the Confederacy with the 13 United States, and that their delegates are at Congress. I heartily wish this may prove true, and I do not think it improbable, as the British force in that part is almost annihilated. I am with the utmost respect your Excellency's mo. ob. Servt.

GOV. CASWELL TO COL. NICH LONG ESQ. QUARTER MASTER GENL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON 1st February 1778.

Sir:

I have some Tanned Leather, Deerskins, Shoes and clothing for our Continental Soldiers, to be sent to the Northward for conveying which I shall want three or four wagons and team, with drivers to be sent to Newbern to receive their load and to be escorted by a guard to be furnished from Halifax to York or Lancaster in Pennsylvania. Pray can you furnish them? Let me know in what time, they can be in Newbern, ready to take in, that I may have the articles properly prepared. The wagons should be covered and I think four will not be too many. Please to let me have your answer by the bearer. I am, Sir, your mo. ob. Servt.

R. CASWELL.
GOV. CASWELL TO BRIG. GENL. ALLEN JONES.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON 1st February 1778.

SIR:

I had the pleasure of writing you some time past requesting you would look out a proper person to be appointed officer of the Guard to be raised for the protection of the Magazine at Halifax, and recommend him to me for the appointment, and also to contract with some person to supply the Guard with provisions agreeable to a resolve of the General Assembly, but have not been honored with a line from you in answer.

I have since writing to you appointed an officer, who could by no means raise any men, for barely the pay of the Continental Soldiers, which was the occasion of my laying the matter before the Council, and that produced a Resolution of which I enclose you a copy on your informing any person whom you think worthy of the command, of the Guard at Halifax and who will accept, 'tis probable he will be able to raise men on the terms recommended by the Council, pray let me hear from you soon that this Guard may be raised before the Regular Troops, (who I am informed are your present Guard,) leave Halifax, as the Magazine there is of too much consequence to the States, to be left without a Guard. If a proper person is not to be found who will undertake to supply provisions on the terms held out by the General Assembly pray agree with some person to supply and keep a regular account of his disbursements, and obtain proper vouchers for the same, to be laid before the General Assembly, who I have not the least doubt will allow the same with what may be reasonable for such persons services.

If I am favored with your recommendation by the return of the bearer, it will enable me to send the Commission and warrant on the Treasury for Bounty Money so as to prevent too great delay in completing this business. I am with great respect Sir, your mo. ob. Servt.

Dear Sir:

This moment the Bearer Mr. Lomax having informed me he was going to express to New Bern for the Court Law Bill, and also to call upon your Excellency for the Commissioners of the peace for the additional number of men recommended at the last Assembly to be added or commissioned as your Excellency may think proper, to the former number heretofore commissioned should your Excellency have them made out, I should take it as a particular favor your sending them, as our Court begins the 16th of this Inst. and the members to be added likely may then give their attendance. Your compliance with this will much oblige your Excellency's very humble servant.

I troubled your Excellency the 24th ulto. by messenger Sillman. The present is intended to convey Acts of Congress of the 19th Decr. and 21st Janry last, for retaliating upon the enemy, of which six printed copies will accompany this. FRANCIS BRICE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Wilmington Febry 4th 1778.

Sir:

When your Excellency's express respecting Capt. Folger arrived, I was not in Town, which was the means of his long stay here. I have procured some particulars from the Captain of the sloop, concerning Folger's embarkation at Havre De Grace, which I enclose your Excellency. I could procure nothing else worth transmitting, from the Frenchman. My own Deposition you have also enclosed, which contains every thing I remember concerning him; I also send a copy of the receipt which he gave for the Packet when he took it from on Board the vessel. Mr. Craike is not yet returned from Charles Town, or I should have sent his Deposition. Any orders that your Excellency may think proper to send me, I with pleasure will endeavour to have them fulfilled. I find it impossible to get vessels to carry the public Pork to Edenton, as you requested me to do from Edenton, I have a letter, and not a vessel is to be had there on any terms. I am your Excellency's very ob. Servt.

FRANCIS BRICE.

GOV. CASWELL TO JAMES COON, ESQ., N. O., NEWBERN.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Newington, 5th February, 1778.

Sir,

It being certified to me that Capt. Roberts in the Schooner and Capt. Hutchins in the Schooner Race Horse, both from Bermuda, with salt on the faith and credit of the Resolution of Congress, have disposed of their Cargoes for Corn and Pork, which they have now ready to ship and return to their Island.

They are both small and will not carry more than 120 or 130 barrels of pork. I find a pretty large quantity of that article is to be purchased for the public, and by no means wish to discourage the bringing in of salt nor would I wish to have the Resolutions of Congress called in question.

I therefore recommend your permitting the said Captain to carry out the above quantity of Pork, my proclamation to the contrary notwithstanding. If any more Bermdians arrive with salt, let them report to me their Cargo, and 'tis probable they will receive the same treatment, and 'tis very necessary as perhaps more salt may be wanted for public use.

I am Sir, your most obedient servant,

R. CASWELL.
STATE RECORDS.

GOV. CASWELL TO JUSTICES OF CRAVEN.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEWINGTON, 6th Feb., 1778.

GENTLEMEN:

About ten days ago I received a letter from Gen. Washington, informing me of the distressed situation of the Army in general, and those of this State, immediately under his command, in particular for want of clothing and recommending in the strongest terms to this State the relieving their distresses by a speedy supply. I was happy in purchasing a considerable quantity of clothing from some French gentlemen in Newbern, but all I could procure from them, is far short of what is immediately necessary for our own troops at Head Quarters. I found on inquiry that Messrs. Savage and Westmore, of Edenton had purchased of the same French merchants sundry goods very useful for the army, to wit, Blankets, Stockings and Oosnburgs, and had lodged them with Mr. Singleton in Newbern. Whereupon I wrote by express, to those gentlemen that I would perform their contract with the French merchants so far as related to those goods and allow them the usual commission on the purchase provided they would relinquish their claim to the public, and in the mean time I desired Mr. Singleton to detain the goods in his hands, 'till he heard further from me, which he promised to do.

I have this day received an answer to my letter from Messrs. Savage and Westmore, and also a letter from Mr. O'Connor, both of which I enclose you, and as it will not be in my power to take the advice of the Council until the last Monday in February instant, when the board is to meet, I submit it to you gentlemen whether under our present unhappy circumstances you will not think yourselves justifiable in ordering those articles in Mr. Singleton's possession to be seized for public use. I am informed that Mr. O'Connor is at Newbern making other purchases, if this is true, I fear he is one of those leeches who are sucking our blood to enrich themselves, and then spue it up into the possession of our enemies, as there are too many of those sort of creatures employed. I hope you will think with me, that it is absolutely necessary to give them some check, especially in those particular articles we so much want. Whatever you shall think proper to do in this business be pleased to communicate the same to Mr. James Green, Jr., who will inform me by express. I am with great respect, gentlemen, your most obedient servant.

NEWINGTON 7th Febry 1778.

DEAR SIR:

Let me entreat you to make me a return of your Brigade, 'tis the only one not yet returned. It will be impossible, in case an aid shall be required by Congress, and I have every reason to expect it, for me to proportion the number of men to be raised from each Brigade, until I am favored with the return now required. If the Militia shall be ordered to march to the aid of the United States, will it be agreeable to you to command them, if it will, 'twill give me pleasure, otherwise I think it may be necessary for me to go with them. However this is entre nous. I am Dr Sir, with the greatest regard and esteem your most obedient servant,

SIR:

I this moment received the enclosed depositions by express from Cape Fear, which contain all the information respecting Capt. Folger, that I have been able to obtain since I had the honor of writing you by the return of your express.

Your favor of the 26th December came to hand a few days past enclosing an address and Resolves of Congress directed to the General Assembly which I shall take the earliest opportunity of laying before that body. I have the honor to be Sir, your mo ob. servt.

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO HON. JOHN PENN & CORNL HARNETT ESQS.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NORTH CAROLINA 7th February 1778.

Gentlemen:

Your favor of the 9th January last I received some days past. In consequence I have written to Doct Guion and made some enquiry about his leaving the State from others, from him I have received no answer nor can I learn that he has any intention of removing or withdrawing himself.

I had the pleasure of writing you some time past, and enclosing sundry Resolutions of the General Assembly, which I presume you have before this received, and which will serve to answer the other parts of your letter, as well as part of Mr. Harnett's of December, which I received but two days ago. He says that, "the several States are adopting spirited measures in order to fill up their Battalions against the Spring and I hope our State will not be behind hand with them."

My good friend Mr. Harnett knows that by the Constitution of this State, nothing can be done by the Executive power of itself, towards this most desirable purpose and that the General Assembly is not to meet until the month of April, of course, ways and means cannot be fallen on to accomplish what he hopes, in time to render that service to the common cause, he and I both wish, and I think if there is any blame to be fixed on those who formed the Constitution a very considerable part he ought to take to himself for cramping so much the powers of the executive. I now find it out of my power to call the Assembly to a shorter day than that to which it is adjourned, tho' earnestly pressed thereto, by not only our own people but by the Legislature of a sister State, and business recommended both by Congress and the General of the American Army.
I have lately purchased from some French Merchants clothing and some few Blankets to amount of $ to £7000, which I shall send on with some shoes and tanned Leather to the Clothier General for the use of the Troops raised in this State, I imagine about four wagon loads.

I have also purchased at the request of the Commissary of purchases a considerable quantity of Pork and salt nearly to amount of £20,000, which will be lodged in proper Magazines.

Whatever else that can be executed by me, Recommended by Congress, or the Delegates of this State shall be most faithfully attended to.

I thank you for the Intelligence you give me, respecting the armies and other public matters. A report prevails here, that a revolution has happened in Canada, that they have acceded to the American Compact and have been received (by Congress) as the 14th state in the union. I shall have my own fears, I confess, that this account is too good to be true and cannot credit it, 'til further information properly authenticated which I hourly hope for, no other news here. With great regard and esteem I have the honor to be Gentlemen, your mo. ob. Servt.

WILLIAMSBURG, Febry. 7th 1778.

HONLE. SIR:

Your very obliging and much esteemed favor by Davenport, I met with this day on my return from a tour in the Country.

I am really at a loss for words to express my gratitude to your Excellency for the great honor you have done me in condescending to transact yourself the business that I meant only to trouble your Excellency to appoint a proper person to perform, also for your very polite tender of future services—but you have ordered me not to apologise and I will obey you, but give me a leave to follow the dictates of my heart in imploring Heaven to reward your Zeal for your Country with success, and to confer on you every earthly enjoyment below and happiness above. I am sorry to inform your
STATE RECORDS.

Excellency that my present stock of cash is so nearly exhausted that I have not a sum worth sending at present, being reduced to two or three thousand pounds, but I have assurances of a speedy supply, when you may depend I will immediately send on a considerable sum, and more as it comes to hand. The purchase can not be too extensive, or I fear equal, to what is expected, for I am sorry to find the present dependence of the army is in your State and ours, but strange it is that this dire intelligence has been but lately communicated unaccompanied with the necessary sum for performing. A chain of wagons is to be kept up betwixt the River, as per plan enclosed for the speedy transporation, and what can be done, is also to go on by water. I hope it will be convenient to your State, to advance a necessary sum to keep the purchase in motion until a proper supply of money is forwarded and that what can be got be sent on with all possible expedition to South Quay. I hope the Gentleman your Excellency had in view is by this time engaged, and has taken this troublesome business off your Excellency's hands, and that he will favor me with a line by first opportunity. I am with the most perfect esteem and highest regard your Excellency's most Ob. & obliged Humble servant.

WILLIAM AYLETT.

I have engaged as much salt as is necessary. Your Excellency will therefore be pleased to order that no more be purchased in Carolina, than is necessary for curing what provisions can be procured of Pork or Beef. My orders are not to let a trifle in price prevent the fullest supply that can be obtained. I understand that Col. Salter has 2000 barrels of Pork for sale, which I hope with all that can be bought will be instantly engaged.

GOV. CASWELL TO FIELDING LEWIS ESQ.

NORTH CAROLINA 7th Febry 1778.

SIR,

I am honored with your letter of the 29th January with its enclosure. The Resolutions of Congress, a Copy of which you favored me with was laid before the General Assembly of this 13—3
State at their Session in December last, who resolved that it was then unnecessary and improper to appoint Commissioners agreeable to the recommendation of Congress. However I shall lay your letter with the proceedings of the Commissioners before the Council of State and if they think proper to recommend the appointment of Commissioners for this State, I have no doubt they will attend at the time to which you have adjourned; if none attend you may take it for granted that there has not been any appointed.

I have the honor to be with great respect Sir,
your most obedient servant,

Dear Sir,

As I intend leaving home to-morrow, I have put up in a Hhd. the 2 ps. Blue cloth, and 1 pc. red, for the officers, with trimmings for the latter (sewing silk and Buckram) likewise 3 ps. Brown, and 1 pc. red for the soldiers at Kingston, with trimmings. The Muskets come loose, all which I leave with Mr. Cogdell to be delivered when called for. The coarse ps. of Red I think is intended for facings.

In the Hhd. 2 ps. blue cloth.
1 pc. fine Red or scarlet.
Officers 2 Gro. yellow Gilt Button sorted.
2 Gro. " " " " "
4 lb dark thread.
30 sticks of Mohair from Col. Cogdell.

2 ps Brown Cloth.
1 pc. Red " napp'd

Guard 4 lb dark thread
2 Gro. White Buttons sorted.
2 Gro. White Buttons sorted.
4 lb Mohair.
20 fine locks loose.

A letter from Mr Johnston of Edenton to Mr Nash, informs me, that he (the former) saw a Gentleman from Virginia who says the Revolution in Canada is indisputable, the particulars of this letter is, that the natives had seized all the forts and ports in Canada, together with warlike stores (except Quebec), and that seven thousand men were in motion to attack that Fortress, if it should make any resistance, that a number of officers were under guard on their way to Congress.

Your old acquaintance Mr David Barrow cannot survive but a few days longer.

Mr Chariot the Frenchman requests me to ask whether your Excellency intends taking about 8000 lb of powder which you were to let him know respecting it some time since. Pray let him know the result of your intentions on this head, he is eternally teasing me about it, and I tell him I am ignorant of the matter. I am Sir,

GEN. ALLEN JONES TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Febry 8th 1778.

Sir,

I this day was honored with two of your letters, one of the 11th of Jany, the other dated the 1st Inst. which I hope will be a sufficient apology for not writing sooner.

I wish it was in my power to recommend to your Excellency a person properly qualified to command the Guard to be stationed Halifax, but I assure you, Sir not one occurs to me, at present that I think adequate to that service. I shall go to Town to-morrow morning and consult the Gentlemen there—I know a person that I think would be very assiduous, but doubt whether he would accept of a Lt's Commission, as he has hitherto acted as Captain but I shall do my endeavour to prevail on him, or some other good man, and send him down to your Excellency immediately.

The late Assembly employed William Amis as a contractor to lay in provisions for the Regulars who should be from time to time, at Halifax (and I think for the Guard but am not certain) and ordered him the sum of £500, which he received, and has laid out together with some of his own money. As this is the case I make no doubt but he will supply the Guard, 'till the next Assembly as he will have the State's provision in his hands, and is convenient to Town. Indeed he is much the most proper person in this neighborhood. I will see him to-morrow if possible, and write your Excellency in my next.

Nothing new in this part of the State. The news relative to Canada, seems to want confirmation.

I am with great respect your Excellency's most Ob. Servt.

ALLEN JONES.

NEW BERN 9th Febry 1778.

DEAR SIR,

We congratulate you on the safe arrival of the B. New Bern, she has not yet got up, therefore can give you no particulars, I have neither seen Capt. or acct, should be glad to know in a day or two, what to do with your part of the Cargo. Burgoyne being taken, got to England about 4th December, all confusion there. The new Gov'r for N. Providence and a number of passengers which came over with him, declared there will be a cessation of arms proposed soon, only a majority of 33, in the house of Commons against America being declared Independent. They have with some difficulty passed a vote for money for another Campaign, but North and his Hell cats were much put to it, on his being pushed hard he begged that if they would not grant money for another Campaign, that they would for the purpose of bringing home the Troops. So far for News which came by Capt. Cochran Amitt and others in 10 days from New Providence.

Dear Sir,

I had it not in my power to send you the pay and rations of a Major General on the Continental establishment until yesterday, tho' I applied to our Secry Mr. Thompson, soon after receiving your Excellency's favor, to Mr. Penn & myself. Indeed I have been confined to my room for these 10 days past by a fit of the gout, which has prevented my attendance of Congress much against my inclination.
Our Grand Army remains in winter quarters hatted at Valley Forge. Nothing interesting has lately happened in that District. Congress are not yet determined to call for the reinforcement offered by North Carolina; should such an event take place, your Excellency may be assured of receiving the earliest notice possible.

I take the liberty to enclose the last paper which contains very little, except the King's Speech to Parliament. I have nothing particular to mention having written to you a few days ago.

I am with the greatest respect, your Excellency's most obedient very huml. servt.

Sir,

Capt. Parker from Bermuda is permitted to take on Board 80 or 90 barrels of Pork that quantity being short of the price of salt he brought in. The Naval officer I have written to, who will clear him out. I still want some salt, for the public and will take the quantity you mention and furnish a proportionable part of the Cargo, on your signifying what the same is. I can do nothing with the Frenchman respecting the powder, until the meeting of the Council which will be in a few days.

NEWINGTON No. CAROLINA 12th Febry 1778.

Sir,

I had the honor of receiving your letter of the 5th Instant this day with a letter from Congress, enclosing resolutions of Congress respecting establishing a communication to transport provisions from this State to Elk Ridge landing, in the State of Maryland, Copies of which no doubt have been transmitted from Congress to your State. I shall on a conviction of your being furnished with them neglect sending Copies from hence and use my best endeavours to execute the Resolve so far as falls within my province which I apprehend will be to provide boats and send on the provisions as fast as may be to Southquay, where the State of Virginia will I presume, furnish the number of wagons required, but if that is found impracticable, please send me as early information as you possibly can and I will endeavour to supply the deficiency. The Embargo on the exportation of provisions is laid on. And I beg leave to assure you Sir, that nothing shall be wanting in my power to carry into execution any measure, tending to the general welfare of the United States. WAKE 12th Febry 1778.

Sir,

I am apprehensive there will be great contending at the Court of this County, (which begins on Monday next) about the appointment of Surveyor and entry taker, Hinton, Lane, Rogers, two or three others and I believe myself are competitors. I have made enquiry and don't find that the Commission of the peace for the associating James Moore, Richard Banks and Francis Hobson hath as yet reached us therefore have sent down Dick, and must beg the favor of your Excellency to have a Commission sent up. If Mr Glasgow should have heretofore forwarded one, and it should come to hand, I will take care to return that which may now be sent. We have very little news circulating. I saw a Virginia paper of the 30th last month, wherein I learned that the Canadians had determined to change their masters, and had actually applied to General Gates for assistance to take possession of their Government, this is thought to be on consequence of a French War, which is reported here, to be the case. If any extraordinary event has happened and your Excellency should be at leisure may I ask the favor of being informed.

All your Excellency's old friends this way are well except poor Mr Martin who is dangerously afflicted with consumptive complaint, and I am fearful will not survive very long. I hope this will meet with yourself and family in a good state of health and that you all may long enjoy true felicity.

Your Excellency's ever obliged and obdt. Servt.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NORTH CAROLINA, DOBBS COUNTY 13th Febry 1778.

Sir,

I wrote you a few lines yesterday, by a person who came out from Williamsburg express to me, and therein acquainted you that I had appointed a Gentleman your assistant, who would answer your sanguine expectation. This letter will be handed you by that Gentleman Mr. Joseph Green of this County, whose capacity and assiduousness in the business I could answer for myself. But agreeable to your request I have taken his Bond with sufficient security in £50,000 this currency for faithful discharge of his office. I have engaged Salt and Pork to amount of upwards of 40,000 Dollars. The 20,000 dollars I received by Mr. Davenport, are paid away, and the remainder will be soon wanted, and as the season for purchasing will be soon over, I have advised Mr. Green to go immediately in to you for money, perhaps you may think it advisable to furnish him with a greater sum, than what I mentioned in my former letter, i.e., 80,000 dollars which with the 20,000 received will make 100,000. I think they may be laid out. However from Mr. Green's information you will be able to judge what will be sufficient.

You'll please to inform Mr. Green whether the provisions and salt are to be sent on to South Quay or if to be laid up in this State. I apprehend from Mr. Buchanan's plan approved by Congress and transmitted to me, for opening an Inland Communication from this State to Maryland for conveyance of these articles to the Grand Army, the former is intended. I shall therefore 'till I hear from you be provided in the best manner I am able with Boats proper for conveyance to South Quay. You will also be pleased to give Mr. Green directions with respect to the pieces and quantity, if to be limited, of salt and Pork to be purchased. I believe it may be necessary to give more than 40 dollars for Pork, indeed what is engaged of that article I believe will somewhat exceed it, when a sufficient quantity of salt is put in, and the Barrels properly secured so as to preserve the meat through the summer. You may rely on my giving Mr. Green every assistance in my power.

I am Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

R. CASWELL.

North Carolina Newton 15th Febry 1778.

Dr Sir,

Your favor of the 1st instant sayed to be by Capt. Cade was delivered me yesterday, and believe me 'twas the first of my knowing he was to go, or had gone on express to your part of the country. I have not seen him these three months past. If the Secretary had kept his word with me in giving notice of the time his express was to set out I certainly would have done myself the pleasure of writing to you agreeable to my promise. This I declare upon my Honor was the case, therefore shall apologize no further.

This is intended to go by Post, I have written by the same conveyance to the President, General Washington and the War Office in answer to several letters received respecting resolutions of Congress, the State of our Troops, Clothing, and Provisions by a return made me by order of General Washington. I find our nine Regiments are far, very far indeed short of their complement of men and those in Camp almost destitute of Clothing, which must be very distressing at this inclement season—add to this the account from the War Office of the scarcity of provisions altogether must hurt the feelings of every man of the least sensibility. The officers of the sixth Battalion are sent home, as supernumerary with directions to recruit and to obtain every advice and assistance in that necessary business and recommending to me to devise ways and means for filling the Regiments. You know how little this is in my power, that nothing can be done without money, that if I had ever so much at my command, more than the Bounty directed by law, cannot be given, and that 'tis out of my power to call the Assembly to a shorter day than that to which they have adjourned themselves, so that was I to exert every nerve and influence I am able, and no man is more willing than myself 'twould be to very little purpose 'till the Assembly meets. I am to buy leather, skins, shoes and other clothing, procure manufacturers, set them to work, purchase salt and provisions, and procure Boats & Wagons for sending these articles on, all this I am really constantly, almost busily employed about myself, receiving very little assistance, even the Council itself disappoint me often in convening, the members being so distant from each other, and from the places of meeting which I have changed from time to time as most agreeable to them.

A considerable quantity of Tanned Leather and deer skins, some shoes and stockings, about 4000 yards of Osnaburgs are purchased, and to be sent on to the Clothier General, so soon as I can get wagons which I have written to Col. Long to supply, and to-morrow expect his answer, if he cannot, I must send immediately to the westward. A considerable quantity of salt and salt provisions is also purchased, and I am endeavouring to get boats to carry the same on to South quay, from whence it will be forwarded under the directions of Col. Aylett, at whose request I have lately appointed a Mr. Green, brother to James Green junr his assistant Commissary in this State, and have sent him to Col. Aylett for money to pay for salt and provisions engaged.

I sent Copies of the Militia Law and aid Bill to the War Office, informed the Honble the President of Congress thereof, but have heard nothing regarding the aid since. I shall be glad to hear from you on that or any other subject you may think proper to communicate. I wrote lately to Messrs Penn and Harnett in answer to theirs. My best wishes attend you and them, if I can serve you or them in public or private character, nothing shall be omitted to effect it in my power. The heavy duty you lay upon me in public matters, I cheerfully submit to, notwithstanding I have so little help. Thos. Craike is gone to South Carolina, I have not seen him since the Assembly.

I am Sir, with the greatest esteem your mo. ob. Servt.

shall be used for procuring provisions, in my power, and forwarding the same to South quay in Virginia where under Col. Aylett's directions they will be forwarded to the army. It was too late when I received your letter to purchase Cattle or Hogs to be driven to the Northward. I have therefore given orders for purchasing all the salt and salted provisions which can be obtained, a considerable quantity of each article is already purchased; you may rely on proper attention being paid to every matter you have recommended by Sir, your most obdt. NORTH CAROLINA, NEW BERN 15th Febry 1778.

HONBLE SIR:

I received your letter of the 22d of last month enclosing several resolutions of the General Assembly of Virginia for the defence of the sea coast and protection of Trade, which I will take the earliest opportunity of laying before the General Assembly of this State.

I have been favored with a letter from Fielding Lewis Esq., Chairman of the Committee of Board of Commissioners at Fredericksburg informing me of the appointment of Commissioners for your State, and that of Maryland, of the meeting and adjournment on account of Commissioners not attending from this State. The General Assembly here did not appoint Commissioners, tho' the Resolution of Congress was before them. I have summoned the Council to attend here to-morrow, if they advise the appointment of Commissioners I shall forthwith comply with such advice and recommend the Commissioners to set out in time to attend at Fredericksburg the first Monday in March, the time to which the Commissioners adjourned.

I have the honor to be with great respect Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

HONORABLE GENTLEMEN:

I received your letter of 14th ulto with its enclosures, which I shall do myself the honor of laying before the General Assembly on their first meeting, and have not the least doubt, but they will bestow such attention on the matters recommended as the importance of them deserve.

In the mean time I have issued a Proclamation prohibiting the exportation of salt and salted provisions for a limited time. I am limited by our Constitution to Thirty Days, at the end of which I presume the procl will be renewed. I have the honor to be with great respect. Honorable Gentlemen,

Your most obedient servant,

SIR:

I had the honor to receive your favor of the 24th ulto. enclosing an act of Congress of the 19th same mo. for establishing a communication for transporting provisions from the Southern States for the use of the Army, and for defraying the consequent expenses, upon which is endorsed the Commissary General's letter referred to.

Give me leave to assure Congress that I shall pay the greatest attention to such measures as they, in said act have recommended, and use every means in my power to carry the same into execution.

You mention your having written me the 17th ulto pr post, which has not come to hand; the post rider arrived here last evening but without any papers or letters. The Northern rider not having arrived at Edenton when he left it. I have the honor to be with great respect Sir,

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NORTH CAROLINA NEWBERRY 15th Febry 1778.

Sir:

I had the Honor of receiving your Excellency's favors of the 25th and 29th December, last, the former advising the receipt of a Resolve of the General Assembly of this State respecting resignations of Officers of the Troops raised here, the latter enclosing a return of the No Carolina Regiments in the Grand Army. I am much concerned to find those Regiments so exceedingly short of their complement of men, and beg leave to assure you Sir, that every attention shall be paid and such measures adopted as may be in their power to make them more respectable and as nearly complete as possible.

The distresses of the Soldiery for want of Clothing are truly alarming, and the feelings of every man of the least sensibility must be wounded on receiving the information of their unhappy circumstances. Since I was favored with your Excellency's account of their sufferings, I have been happy in purchasing for our Troops about 4000 yards of woolen Cloth, 300 Blankets, 1500 yards of Osnaburgs, some Shoes and Stockings. I have also purchased a considerable quantity of Tanned leather and Deerskins, all which will be sent on to the Clother General, so soon as I can procure wagons. A considerable quantity of salt and salted provisions have been also purchased under my directions, which are forwarding to South Quay in Virginia from whence they will be hauled over to Suffolk about 16 miles, and so forwarded by Col:
Aylett in the best and most expeditious manner in his power.

I take the liberty of enclosing a Gazette of the 13th Inst containing the only news here except a report of a revolution in Canada which wants confirmation.

I have the honor to be with the greatest regard Sir,

Your Excellency's most Ob. Servt.

SIR:

I beg leave to refer to a letter which I had the honor of writing to your Excellency under the 10th Inst. and which will accompany this. Yesterday your Excellency's favor of the 11th ulto. reached me. I immediately presented it to Congress, and from thence it was transmitted to the Board of Treasury.

Enclosed herein your Excellency will receive an Act of Congress of this date earnestly requesting an immediate restraint to be laid on the exportation of Beef and Pork from the State of North Carolina to which I refer, and remain with very great Respect Sir, NewBern 14th Febry 1778.

DEAR SIR:

Yesterday I was fortunate enough to get the Justices to sign a warrant for the seizing of sundry Goods, said to belong to Savage & Westmore, which I have got stored with the other goods bought of French Merchants. Mr Ellis and Doctor Gaston refused signing the warrant or having any hand in the seizure, alleging there was no law empowering them so to do, and that it might subject themselves to a law suit, of which perhaps the public would not bear the expense. I did not see Mr. Davis, who I expect would have signed the warrant, him excepted if it had not been for Mr Leech and Mr Tisdale, (who did sign) I think I should not have been able to effect this matter. Enclosed you have the Invoice of the Goods above mentioned, the pieces of which cannot yet be ascertained, neither can I tell the exact quantity of Blankets in each bale, but if I may guess from the one I had of the French Merchant there are about fifty. I have employed Jacky Moore to carry this letter to your Excellency for which he is to have four pounds.

No news. I set out for my Father's directly. I am your Ob. huml. servt.

COL. ABRAHAM SHEPPARD TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

May it please your Excellency:

I hope the number of letters sent to your Excellency, and the trouble we were obliged to give you, while in your State, will in some measure atone for my not addressing your Excellency since my arrival in the State of Virginia. I have now enclosed an exact return of the state of my Regiment, as now in the Camp, also a return of all those absent, and the reasons for it, in order that your Excellency may give the proper orders for their speedy joining us.

Ensign Mr. Rennals has just arrived in Camp with seven clever recruits, and says he has enlisted seven more which deserted, but he expects many of them are taken up by this time, as he has given the proper orders for that purpose.

If your Excellency would please to remind Capt. Wilson of the purposes for which he was sent to Caswell county, I am inclined to think it might be of service, as I am something doubtful if such methods are not taken, he may be rather supine and inactive, as well in regard to that part of his duty, as to his joining the Regiment.

As the shirts drawn in our State, are by this time nearly worn, I hope your Excellency will order the Commissary of Stores to furnish us with a sufficient number against we get out of inoculation, as I am well convinced by that time, the best part of the whole Regiment will be almost totally without that necessary article of Clothing. As for Breeches, Stockings, & Blankets our good friends the Virginians have amply supplied us with them and likewise one month's pay; which was delivered to my order without the least hesitation.

I have the honor to be your Excellency's most obedient humble servant.

LT. COL. J. LUTTRELL TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Chatham Febry 20 1778.

Good Sir:

According to your instructions I ordered all the officers within this State, together with their new recruits, deserters apprehended, and men on furlough, to meet me at Halifax the 3rd Monday in February, so as to be enabled to make you a general return the 4th Monday of this month as you desired, but a bad state of health put it out of my power to attend myself; however I wrote the commanding officer at Halifax to make out a general return of what officers and soldiers appeared, together with what clothing and other necessaries are wanting for them, and send it to me at Johnston Court House the 4th Monday where I was determined to meet them without fail, to make you the returns desired, but I am so very unwell yet, that I cannot walk or rise without very great pain. Therefore I have sent Capt Rice to receive the returns from Halifax, and make them to your Excellency who will also inform you the reasons I can't attend myself and the situation I am in. You will therefore be kind enough to give the orders for myself and the rest of the officers, to Capt. Rice for me.

According as I promised, I sent to Col: Henderson for the Deeds and Maps of Transylvania, to have sent to your Excellency by Capt Rice, but Col: Henderson being at Halifax Court I missed getting them, however I will send for them again immediately, (and if I am not ordered to the Northward soon) I will as soon as able wait on you with them, for I am very desirous of getting you interested in the lands we purchased of the Indians, but should I be ordered away, I will send them to you without fail, you may depend. I am Sir, your mo. ob. huml. Servt.

J. LUTTRELL.

P.S. Yesterday I received a letter from Capt Hall, in the Hallows, which I have also enclosed you.

THOS. CRAIKE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WILMINGTON Febry 21 1778.

Sir:

I expected to have had the pleasure of waiting on your Excellency before this, but my long delay in Charles Town (occasioned by the unhappy fire) and the loss of my horses here, has detained me much longer than I intended. I purchased in Charles Town 64 blankets, which was all I could get, and about 2000 yds of plains fit for clothing, or to make into blankets. The fire happening two days before my arrival there, rendered it impossible for me to procure the clothing I wanted to purchase, as all the blankets that could be found were directed to be bought to supply the unfortunate sufferers, who had lost their bedding &c., &c. Captain Reicet has some blankets and woolens which would suit the Army, but he holds them at a very high rate. His blankets will exceed 8 lb each and very coarse, pr Ell cloth, not better than negro cloth, at 14 shillings pr yd. If he will take loan certificates, the only payment I can make him, I will if possible purchase what will suit the Troops before I go to Halifax. I have been obliged to borrow money to make my purchases in Charles Town, and when I shall be able to repay it, is very uncertain, from the low state of our treasury, or the prospect I have of getting money for my certificates.

If your Excellency has any commands I shall be glad to receive them at Halifax, or by the return of the express, if it comes within 8 days, as I intend to go for Halifax at that time if not before. I have the honor to be your Excellency’s ob. Servt.

THOS. CRAIKE.

SUNNY COUNTY 22 Febry 1778.

Sir:

I reached Williamsburg two days ago, and am now returning to Suffolk and South Quay, to despatch your provisions from thence to Williamsburg, and there wait until your needful comes from C.
G. at Congress, which has been sent for 3 weeks yesterday, and expected every day, when it is to be immediately forwarded to me at So. Quay with proper instructions.

The mode of putting provision up here is half bushel salt to ye barrel and then brine, with strong pickle. Your Excellency will excuse this short letter as I accidentally met with the post, whom I could not detain any longer, and am your humble Servt.

JOSEPH GREEN.

P. S. Should you have an opportunity to let Mrs. Green know the reason of my stay, shall be glad, as she might be uneasy.

ANDREW ARMSTRONG TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

HALIFAX Febry 22d. 1778.

Sir:

Your Excellency may possibly remember that the amount of the public money which I drew was £200, out of which I have paid 104.10 dol. which I at any time can support by well authenticated certificates. The redundant money I am willing to settle for, I have received no pay nor rations since the 1st of April, but is informed that Mr. Mosely our paymaster received £1500, last Assembly for the purpose of paying the 6th B. but has never appeared at this place,—I am at a loss to know if I am to strike a general balance, or to refund the money, on my hands and receive my pay from the paymaster. There are several others under similar circumstances. Col: Long has seen my accounts; providing he is at the Council he can give his opinion. I would not be thought to assume the insolence of a dictator but am persuaded from sundry reasons that it is vain to keep public money in the hands of regular officers for the purpose of recruiting, as the bounty offered by us will be entirely eclipsed by that which will be offered for Militia Volunteers, nor does the disparity stop there, some of the gentlemen belonging to the State of Virginia, who have been drafted, have come into this State, and offered extraordinary bounties, a recent instance of which I was informed of a few days ago, by a certain Mr. Williams who keeps tavern by Col: Henderson's in Granville county; he told me that some gentlemen had been at his house that morning and offered two thousand pounds for procuring 20 men, besides the bounty proposed in Virginia; and for the purpose of procuring them, sent out a man that lodges at this Williams', the man's name I disremember, he formerly did business for a company in Virginia. Perhaps Col. Taylor may know him from this description. The bearer can also inform your Excellency of some persons now gone from the State of Virginia to Tarborough to attend at Court, for the same purpose. I am the more particular in this relation as I am persuaded it may be worthy the attention of your Excellency and the Honorable Council. I am Sir, with all possible deference and respect your Excellency's very humble servant,

ANDREW ARMSTRONG.

P. S. The officers here would be glad to know by whom they are to be paid their back rations.

The Council having met last week at New Bern and dispatched the business I had to lay before them, and not being myself in very good condition for travelling, I send the Bearer Mr. Patterson to receive any returns or papers you may have for me. I hope you have pursued the orders I issued last directing the officers, New recruits, Soldiers on Furlough, and apprehended Deserters, to repair to Halifax, and if I am happy enough to receive your return pr Bearer, I shall immediately give orders for the Troops marching from Halifax with some wagons that are going on with Soldiers Clothing to Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:

Enclosed is a Dedimus for such Gentlemen as were added by the General Assembly last session to the Commission of the peace for your County. It would have been sent sooner, but I flattered myself with the pleasure of being at Smithfield to-morrow, where I had summoned the Council to attend, but matters of importance to the State required my calling a meeting of that Board to a shorter day. They met and the business I had to lay before them was finished last week at New Bern from whence I am just returned, and not well in health to set out immediately on another journey. I must therefore decline the pleasure of seeing you this Term, but promise myself it will not be long first.

Capt. Needham Bryan before he left the last Assembly signified to me his intention of offering himself as a Candidate for the Entry taker’s office in your County, and requesting I would procure him a bound Book to make the Entries in, and as I know his abilities and the esteem he is generally held in the County, I have no doubt of his being appointed to that office, and will render him any service therein in my power as well on account of the People in General as his own in particular, to that end, I have sent him a Book, which I think will answer the purpose exceedingly well. I have ruled one side just to show the manner I would recommend to have the Entries made. Tho' at the same time I think it would be necessary to have the rough Entries taken down first on a kind of waste Book which ought to be copied fair into this. I hope I shall not be understood to mean any more by what I have now wrote than merely to serve a people I respect as having been long an intimate acquaintance with many of them and to whom I confess myself a friend.

I am Gentlemen, with great respect your ob. Servt.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

SIR,

Yours of the 7th Inst, did not reach me 'till the evening of the 28th which I hope will excuse my not complying with directions sooner. I enclose you all the returns I have been able to procure. I have never got a return from Col. Cray of Onslow, or Col. Smith of Cumberland, perhaps Col Cray may have his list with him, if so he will furnish your Excellency with it. I hold myself above measure obliged for the Honble command proposed, but am of opinion as things are ordered and circumstanced, should I accept it, I could not acquire any credit by it, or be able to render my Country the service I would desire, or any other person but yourself Tho' I would not wish you to take it should they be required before the next session, should it be judged after that not expedient for you, should it then be offered I may perhaps accept it, but more when I have the pleasure to see you. The 21st Inst. arrived at Wilmington a Flag of Truce with Major Alexr McLeod; Col.
Ward on her arrival put a guard on Board to prevent any correspondence from those on board with their friends on shore, and I have ordered the Guard to be continued, 'till I have your Excellency's direction. I have enclosed a Copy of the order of Flag, and General Lee's letter to me. I should be much obliged to you to despatch the Bearer as soon as it may be convenient to your Excellency.

I am with due esteem and respect,

There is a Flag of Truce arrived in our River from New York, which I stoppt, and put a Guard on Board, and then sent to Genl Ashe, to acquaint him of it and he desired me to continue the same 'till he has orders from your Excellency. WILMINGTON Febry 24th 1778.

Sir,

On Saturday last came up to this Town from New York, under pretence of a Flag of Truce, the Sloop Sucky & Peggy—Robert Dunlap, Master. We therefore think it necessary to send to you such letters as have been delivered to us, that came in her. We should have equally sent you the Flag but, Col. Ward took it as well as a letter from Genl. Lee, to Genl. Ashe. We must beg leave to acquaint you that Major McLeod, who brings the Flag, was one of the principal acting officers in the Insurrection in this State, by the Highlanders and was himself in the engagement at widow Moore's Creek. We also enclose you these Depositions in regard to McLeod's going on shore at Brunswick, offering to purchase Cows &c, &c, &c of his being possessed of a large quantity of gold and silver. As he has heretofore been a traitor to this State, we are ignorant how far his views may be to renew a disturbance in the State. This we leave to your Excellency and your Council's better judgment what steps are necessary to be taken on the above, and whether the Flag is not broken by his the said McLeod's going on shore, and offering to purchase Cows &c. One other principal evidence we have not been able, as yet, to procure, as soon as we do, it shall be sent to you. We have ordered the Sails of the Sloop to be unbent, and have stored them in a warehouse, and have taken every precaution with those on board from the shore. We have the honor to be

CAPE FRANCIS Febry. 29th 1773.

May it Please Your Excellency:

Presuming that some plan has been formed similar to that in Virginia, for the purpose of procuring the necessary supplies for the Army, and that this is under the direction of Government, I take the liberty of tendering my services, should you have occasion for anything from this place. I must beg leave to acquaint your Excellency that I had the honor to be sent to this Island in December last by the Governor and Council of Virginia, as agent for that State; which I flatter myself will be considered as a sufficient testimony of my conduct.

The necessity of appointing agents at the different foreign ports, who are acquainted with your wants, language and customs, and feel for the interest of our Country must be apparent to your Excellency, and is still more so, to those who have witnessed the disadvantages that attend a defect in this respect. It is the policy of this Nation, and others that are best acquainted with the true interests of Commerce, to give all possible encouragement to those of their own Country, as by enriching individuals, they enrich the State. America has now an opportunity of following their examples, and the experience she has lately acquired, particularly in the Tobacco Colonies, should certainly dispose her to entrust the important and lucrative concerns of Commerce, in the hands of such as have a regard for her interests, and whose ultimate views are to restore to her the fruits of their labours.

The rapid increase of American trade at this port, has rendered the commission business an object of attention, and determined me to reside here 'till the circumstances of our Country will admit of a more safe and extended trade. If I can render any services to your State, either in receiving any goods that may be directed from France, or in the purchase of any here, I shall be happy in your commands, and should your Excellency think proper to honor me with the agency of your State, it would greatly tend to promote my interest and influence to inclose an appointment in form, by different conveyance in a letter to his Excellency the Governor General and Commander in Chief of the Island of St. Domingo, which is the French appellation of their part of this Island. I am

Your Excellency's most obedient Servant,

RAWLEIGH COLSTON.

Sir:

On the 24th September last I had the honor to transmit to you under the care and escort of Captain Cosmo Medici of the North Carolina Light Dragoons, which you were then requested to deliver to the Commissioner of the Continental Loan Office appointed by and for your State, a number of Loan office certificates amounting to six hundred and fifty thousand dollars and altho' the said Captain Medici had directions to transmit me receipts or accounts of the safe delivery of the same, yet so it is that I have not been favored with them. I am therefore to request that you will be pleased by the very first opportunity to write me respecting the same. It would also be well that the Commissioner of the Loan office for your State immediately write to the Honorable the Board of Treasury here, not only as to what instructions, he has already received from them, but what success he may have had in putting off those certificates, and as to what prospect in future he may have in that business.

SIR:

Your letter of the 19th last month I have just received, and shall give immediate directions to Col. Long D. Quarter Master General in this State to purchase six or seven wagons and teams to be sent to South quay. At present we have not a single wagon that is not employed. We have been happy to procure some clothing and other articles for the use of the Army, with which all the public wagons are gone on to the Northward. But I flatter myself the number above mentioned may be purchased in the western part of the State, and will prove sufficient for the present exigency and until you can supply what may be deficient.

I shall desire Col. Long to give you the earliest information of his purchases in this particular and of the time the wagons arrive at South quay.

SIR:

Your letter of the 19th of last month came but now to hand. Mr. Green your assistant Commissary has been with you, I make no doubt before this, and I hope obtained a supply of cash, as without that article the purchasing here must absolutely be at an end. What I had engaged before Mr. Green left this amounted to a much larger sum than that I received, and in full expectation of being supplied, I entered into contracts, by which without cash my own credit must suffer, for every shilling of money I could lay my hands on has been applied to the purchasing clothing and other necessary articles for the Army. Let me entreat you good Sir, if the money is not sent out, on your receipt of this to send it forthwith.

I am Sir, your mo. Ob. Servt.

NORTH CAROLINA, NEWINGTON 1st March 1778.

SIR:

Your favour of the 18th last month I have just received, and will use every means in my power to have the wagons sent on to South Quay as soon as 'tis possible to obtain them. At this juncture it cannot happen as every wagon we had belonging to the State is employed in the same necessary business of yours, carrying clothing to the Army. I shall send immediately to the Quarter Master in this State to purchase six or seven wagons and teams for this purpose, and am convinced that these will be as many as will be useful at South Quay, to the United States. However in this I may be mistaken, there may be other resources for provisions than I am acquainted with and if the number I shall be able to send should prove insufficient, I hope by the time others are wanted, your State will be able to supply them. I am with the greatest respect, Sir, your most obedient humble Servant.

R. CASWELL.

HON. BENJ. HARRISON TO JOSEPH HEWES.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

BERKLEY JAMES RIVER March 3rd 1778.

Dear Sir:

I am greatly obliged to you for your two favors from Edenton. I had a long letter prepared, when your last came to hand, but did not send it forward as I hoped to have the pleasure of delivering its contents in person at Berkely, where I flattered myself, I should have the pleasure of seeing you on your way to Congress. In it you had a full account of the proceedings of our Assembly, which no doubt have reached you before this. It is therefore unnecessary to say anything on that subject, now, except that I fancy from your account of the Assembly of N. Carolina, that all America is at present governed by such wise acres as you represent some of them to be. Our last Assembly is but a poor epitome of what you have seen it, but judge what the next will be, when I tell you that eight or nine of its best and wisest are taken out of it, to fill up the Council and other departments of Government. I really am deeply affected at the prospect before us, and see no way to extricate ourselves from the impending ruin, unless Heaven in its goodness would work a miracle, by making fools tractable. This can no otherwise be done, for obstinacy you well know is most commonly an attendant upon ignorance. I have been greatly alarmed by some letters I have received from my worthy friend, and accounts through other channels, that there was a party formed against our general, both in and out of Congress in favor of the Saratoga Hero. I give the greater credit to this, when I consider who they are that compose our Board of War, men who are most of them avowedly his enemies, and some of them too who are using every endeavor to rise by his fall. In the name of wonders how came it thus constituted? Are the good and virtuous of you, and I know there is a great majority of such, taken in? Indeed I fear it and venture to foretell, that if you have not your eyes and ears about you, America or at least, this part of it will soon be in very great confusion.

I need not tell you that a constant correspondence will be most agreeable to me. I hope you know it, but I acknowledge that at the present I have a little self interest in the request, being very anxious to know from good authority, what is doing with you and in the Army.

Dear Sir,
Your affect. and obed't serv't.

BENJ. HARRISON.

Edenton 4th March 1778.

Sir:
I have sent up to Mr. Henry Montfort for the purchasing Tobacco, to load the Brig Pennsylvania Farmer, the amount of the proceeds of the public salt in Edenton, except what I have advanced for the vessel. The proceeds of the salt being very short of what will be sufficient to purchase the cargo, Mr. Montfort and myself have agreed to put on board, and the Assembly having made no provision in the resolve, in that case, I have in order the vessel may be despatched sent the Bearer William Coltrain express to your Excellency, for an order on both or either of the Treasurers for such a sum of money as may be wanted for the above purpose, which will be at least, including the disbursement and outfits on the vessel £40,000. Should it be in your power, I would be glad to have the order by return of the express, as it will not be in my power to advance such a sum as will be wanting, being already in advance. I shall endeavour to have the vessel soon complete for sea, altho' she is much out of repair.

GEN. WM. SKINNER TO GOV. CASWELL.

[Executive Letter Book.]

PERQUIMANS, March 5th, 1778.

HONORABLE SIR:

Yours of the 5th last month, after 25 days past I duly received, and the contents noted. It is with real concern that I inform you, that since I left NewBern in December last, I have not reed one shilling into the Treasury, either by the collection of the State Taxes or the opening of the Land office nor have I reed £300, for old arrears.

The Land office in this part of the Country will bring in but a very small sum, and from the other parts of the State, I have no expectation of receiving any before the meeting of the Assembly.

The collectors of the present Taxes being allowed until the first of next month to make their collections, am doubtful little will be paid into the Treasury before. I shall use every method in my power to make a small collection, by the assembly, if possible and (if my health permits) immediately on my arrival there will wait on you. The price of coarse shoes in this part of the Country from the 1st of Nov. to the 1st Janry rose from 16 shillings to 26 shillings, occasioned by some Maryland Merchants engaging all that was to be had. and as the price was so much greater on my return home, than I had any reason to expect, declined engaging any until I had your orders, indeed the price is altering almost every day.

As the last Assembly thought proper to add Martin County to the District of Halifax, whereby the Edenton Brigade is some les, I thought it my duty to transmit to your Excellency a new return of the Militia in this District. I have had an additional return from Currituck County, which will occasion the enclosed and my former return not strictly to agree, indeed the whole returns from the different Counties is so irregular that it would require a person of greater abilities than I am master of to make a return fit for your inspection.

I have the honor to be with the greatest esteem your Mo. Ob. Servt.

WM. SKINNER.

New Bern 7th March 1778.

Gentlemen:

Your letter of the 24th Ulto, I received but a few days ago, and immediately summoned the Counsel and laid your letter, with Genl Ashe's before the Board, who came to a resolution, of which I enclose you a copy and also wrote Genl. Ashe, and enclosed him a copy of the Resolve. The Despatches which Major McCleod sends to Mrs. McCleod and Mrs. McDonald must be perused by you in the absence of General Ashe and give me leave to recommend your observance of any matter properly within your department relative to the execution of this resolve, and give every necessary assistance to the Military in order to effect the same.

I thank you for the trouble you have taken in obtaining Depositions, and the informations which you have given me in this matter, and am confident your vigilance will prevent any bad effects accruing to the Country from McCleod's landing at Brunswick.

I am with great respect Gentlemen your mo. ob. servt.

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO GEN. JOHN ASHE.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

New Bern 7th March 1778.

Sir:

I had your favor of the 23rd Ulto with the papers sent therewith. The paper signed by Comr. Hotham is considered as a proper Flag, and they have recommended to me to grant leave to Major McCleod to carry out with his wife and son, and Mrs. McDonald and her four children with their Indented Female Servants. That he (Mr. McCleod) have leave to send an express to Mrs. McCleod and Mrs. McDonald to inform them of his arrival, and of their having leave to depart the State, and that the Governor direct the Guard to be continued while the vessel continues... in this State, and also that the persons on board the Flag be not suffered to come on shore or have any communication with the people on shore.

In consequence of which advice I am to request that you give Major McCleod notice of the permission granted him and Mrs. McDonald, at the same time you will be pleased to inform him, that he will not be suffered to carry any other persons or effects with him than what are above mentioned, and that the more expeditions he is getting away, the greater satisfaction he will give the State. The letters he sends you will be pleased to examine or in your absence require the magistrates to peruse and see that they contain no more in substance than what is intended to be granted him by resolve of Council. The other part of the Resolve respecting the Guard, you will also be pleased to attend to and see that the officer from time to time who takes charge of the Guard is trustworthy.

I am with great esteem and regard Sir, your mo. ob. Servt.

GEN. LACKN. MCINTOSH TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Sir:

I had the honor of writing to your Excellency the 9th January pr Lieut. Col. Dawson of your State which I hope you received. I am sorry I have to inform you the men of my Brigade have suffered severely this winter for want of clothing and other necessaries. Fifty of them died in and about Camp since the beginning of Janry last, and near two hundred sick here now besides as many more reported sick absent in different Hospitals of this State and Jersey, a most distressing situation! and only Dr. McClure of the second Regiment to attend the whole of them until a few days ago. I fortunately got another young man, to assist him, but cannot tell how he will turn out yet.

I cannot with propriety or Justice on this occasion avoid complaining of Doctor Cooley of the 8th Regiment to his State, which I think he has been ungrateful to, and cannot help charging him with inhumanity, also in leaving so many of his brave Country men to perish without assistance. When I was first informed of him, I ordered him in the most positive terms to stay with the Brigades. He attempted to make a plea, that in consequence of a former order for the Staff of the six vacant Regiments to go home with the other officers, he had sent off his Baggage, therefore could not stay and at last went without leave, for which I stopped his pay for January February and an extra Bounty & 6 months given by Congress to the Army with General Washington's approbation, and dare say your Excellency will think with me, he deserves still further marks of Resentment from his Country.
STATE RECORDS.

This season produces nothing worth mentioning to you save little skirmishes between foraging parties of no account.

I hear Col. Shepperd's 10th Regiment is under Inoculation at George Town Maryland, but have no account from himself.

I have the honor to be respectfully

Your Excellency's most obedient servant,

LACKN. McINTOSH.

CAPT. COSMO MEDICI TO GOV. CASWELL, N. C.

HALIFAX March 21st 1778.

Sir:

By the bearer Lieut. Ben Mills of Light Dragoons, I take the liberty to trouble your Excellency concerning recruiting money, as I was ordered from the Northward partly on the account, and have a number of horses, and no men to mount them. It would therefore answer no purpose for me to return in this situation.

I believe sir men are to be had provided we had money to recruit with. Capt. Ashe is at this place waiting for that purpose. Our Troops of Horse are augmented to forty, so that Capt. Ashe's Troops and my own, are wanting to complete thirty two Troopers, so that at the usual bounty given thirty dollars, will take nine hundred and sixty.

I should be extremely happy your Excellency would point out some way for me to come at the above sum, I am informed that Mr. Daniel Mallett of Wilmington has some public money in his hands, and will deliver the whole or any part of it up, on a proper warrant, from your Excellency for that purpose. I need not urge to you Sir, the necessity of our making all possible expedition to join the Grand Army. Should there be no money at this time, to be had, your Excellency will please to direct me, what steps would be proper for me to take. Genl. Howe is in Georgia, and forming an expedition against Augustine. The South Carolinians are to assist in this undertaking. I don't think he means to attack the Fort, but rather to cut off the communication of their frontiers, in order to prevent the large supplies of provisions going into that place. The Assembly of Georgia have ordered a sale of all the properties, of those people who have absented themselves from that State, and have directed the Managers to take no money in payment, but continental and their own currency, this is done in order as they say to humble the pride of the South Carolinians, who refuse to take their money, but at an under rate. We have nothing new at this place. Only, that we had an elegant Ball last night, all exceedingly merry.

I have Sir the honor to be with all due respect your Excellency's most Ob. & Mo. huml. servt.

COSMO MEDICI.

HALIFAX March 22nd 1778.

May it please your Excellency:

I was honored with yours on the 17th Inst. and as to the six wagons I despatched on the 12th Inst. under the command of Capt. Tarrant, Lieuts. Summer, and Jones with thirty nine privates including wagoners, but Sir I am informed that nine of the above guard has deserted since. I have this day sent off two wagons with the leather under the command of Capt. Gambell and sixteen privates.

On the ninth Instant I sent expresses to all the officers that I knew of in this State, except those whom I expected Col. Polk to send down as I was told that they were on their march at that time, but as neither officer or soldier has appeared yet from that District, I shall wait a few days longer for their arrival, and if they fail coming, send off what is here. I expect we shall have many resignations as there has been three already to wit, Capt.
Walker, and Lieut. Grandy of the 7th also Lieut Sexton of the 6th Regr. Should be glad of your advice how to proceed with those that does not appear. I have the honor to be Sir, your Mo.
Ob. huml. servt.

JOHN LONDON TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

SIR:

I have already been so troublesome to you, and feel myself under such particular obligations to your Excellency for the indulgence I have received, that it is with concern I am obliged to add to the one, and to solicit the continuance of the other by beseeching your excellency to postpone laying my memorial before the General Assembly 'till the session in October next. The clemency that distinguishes your public conduct, and the time being specified in the confiscation law for the admission of citizens encourage me to hope your Excellency will grant my request.

Inconvenient and disagreeable as my situation may be, I shall willingly submit to it, rather than by a precipitate, act, hastily relinquish those friends and connections who have hitherto been the chief support of my fortunes. In this life; this alone, I am persuaded would be motive sufficient to influence a mind liberal as your own. I therefore beg leave to assure your Excellency in the most solemn manner, that I will not in any wise concern myself with any measure whatever, inimical to the liberty of America, and will strictly conform to any parole you may require of me, nor do I ask any enlargement of my present narrow limits, unless your Excellency shall be satisfied in your own mind, that I merit it.

I have taken the liberty to enclose a memorial in the room of the one presented to your Excellency at NewBern, altered only, to the intent of my present petition. I am with great respect, Sir, your Excellency's most obliged and most humble servant,

SIR:

Mr. Purnell assistant Com General, to whom you was requested by the Board of War to send 12 wagons, you engaged to purchase for Continental use to Edenton is now here, he has been some time waiting at Edenton, but hearing nothing from you thought to come this length to consult me on matters relative to the business of his department, and at his instance I am to request you to send with the utmost despatch not only the 12 wagons which you promised to endeavor to purchase, but also eight others making in the whole twenty if you can possibly procure them, as there is Mr. Purnell assures me, clothing sufficient to load that number. And you know the great demand there is for it at camp, I therefore need say nothing to recommend this business to your particular & immediate attention.

You will be pleased to send an express on receipt of this to Mr. Purnell at Edenton acquainting him how far you have proceeded. What time he may expect the wagons there, and the number of them you will also be pleased to let me know what steps you have taken, and if you expend or engage any more money than you have been furnished with, let me have your account that proper provision may be made, as the Assembly will I suppose be sitting before I can expect to hear from you I shall be glad to receive your address here.

Your letter of the 20th instant I have received. Whatever may be my private opinion with respect to the power of the court of Admiralty in appointing a Marshall it is unnecessary to inform you as the General Assembly have exercised the power of appointing, and seem by the law passed last session to intend continuing to do so, it will be my duty to commissionate such as they appoint. In the present case, where the Marshall is dead I have power with the advice of the Council to issue a temporary Comm. which I shall do if the Council give such advice. Your letter I shall lay before the Board on its first meeting this I hardly expect will happen until the meeting of the assembly, which is the day to which the Council stand adjourned and I believe it will be difficult for me to get the members together sooner. I was favored with yours of the 27th Inst. I am very glad to hear you have sent the wagons on at the same time confess it gives me great pain to hear of the Desertion of our Soldiers and the tardiness of those effected from the westward.

Those officers who wish to resign, I think you will do well to receive Coms. from, as they would be of little service to be continued on the List. Nothing can be done with the western people 'till the Assembly; pray send all on as they arrive and let them know that an Hospital is provided and surgeons at George Town in Maryland for Inoculation where I am directed by Congress to send our Troops to go thro' that operation.

GOV. CASWELL TO HON. GENL. GATE I, PRESIDENT BOARD WAR

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NORTH CAROLINA NEW BERN, 26th March 1778.

SIR:

Your favour of the 29th January and 7th February I received only three days ago. The Board of War may rely on my doing everything in power to forward the clothing from this State to the Continental Army. Some small time past a considerable quantity of woolens, some Ozenburgs, stockings and other articles were sent from this State being purchased here particularly for troops belonging to this State to the Clothier General at Lancaster, to whom an Invoice of the goods was sent and I presume a copy to the Board of War, if that has not been done it shall so soon as I can receive information from the person employed to purchase.

I am concerned at your not receiving a letter wrote immediately after receiving instruction to purchase leather, shoes or skins.
Considerable quantities of each of these articles have been purchased and some sent forward to the Clothier General at Lancaster. In my former I had mentioned the prices I had directed to be given, viz: Tanned leather per lb 8s, Deer skins in the hair, 6s pr. lb., Indian dressed 12s and shoes 24s per pair, these prices I informed you were high but I was apprehensive they would rise, and desired to know if I might exceed them.

I find since that I was right in my conjectures for altho' I have allowed persons 10 per cent for forwarding and collecting these articles, at the prices above mentioned, many refuse selling them and hold them much higher.

Pray let me have your directions herein. I expect to receive at the meeting of our General Assembly (first Monday in next month) accounts from all the purchasers by me employed, when they shall be transmitted to the Board without delay.

What recommission we had have lately been ordered to the Northward as Guards to the wagons that went on with clothing. Little of that business is done here now, but I have great expectations that proper attention will be given by the General Assembly to the recommendations and resolutions of Congress which I shall lay before that body on its first meeting. Such troops as shall hereafter march from this State shall receive the necessary direction with respect to the place appointed for inoculating for the Small Pox.

I have the honor to be with great respect and esteem, Sir, your most obedient humble servant.

R. CASWELL.

GEN. HORATIO GATES TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WAR OFFICE, March 28th, 1778.

Sir:

I do myself the honor to enclose you the Resolve of Congress of the 19th Inst. respecting the Troops destined to reinforce the grand army. Unfortunately after they were passed they lay several days before they were handed to this Board; but, they demand the most immediate attention and execution. What gave rise to the first was an apprehension that the recruits might be detained in their respective States, 'till they had been inoculated. This the present posture of our affairs absolutely forbids. The campaign will soon be open; and with all the diligence practicable it is to be feared the reinforcements will not arrive in time to enable the commander in chief to take measures the most necessary and advantageous before the enemy get reinforced. Genl Washington has received intelligence that they are embarking Troops at New York, and Rhode Island, destined (it is said) for Philadelphia; and he is to the last degree, anxious to have the reinforcements speedily join him. In the first place, that he may be prepared for defence. In the second place, to take advantage of any favorable circumstance which happen to injure the enemy.

The recommendation to provide cartridge boxes and tin canisters for cartridges, is given because of the almost total want of them, in the public stores, and the impossibility of making a number any degree equal to the demands of the army, in the public manufactories, where the workmen are few, and it is impossible to increase them, agreeably to the direction of Congress. The Board gives the following description of the tin canisters: They are to be six inches and a half deep or long, three inches and three quarters of an inch broad, (this width receiving the cartridges lengthways, as they lie in a horizontal position) and two inches and seven-eighths of an inch thick (this thickness admitting four cartridges to lay side by side) a box of these dimensions in the clear will contain thirty-six cartridges with ounce balls. A wire is so fixed in all the edges at the top and then each side turned down, (outwards) a full half inch, and soldered. The cover is to be a full half inch deep, so that when fixed on the canister, the edges shall come close down to the ledge, formed by the enclosed wire. This cover at one end turns on a hinge an inch and a quarter long, the wire (fixed as above mentioned) being laid naked, that space for the purpose; and a piece of tin is run underneath this wire, doubled together and soldered on the inside of one end of the cover. The soldier carries a canister by a shoulder belt, as he does a cartridge box, and for this reason the canister has fixed to it three loops of tin, each half an inch wide, with the edges turned back, to be smooth and strong, one of them is placed underneath the middle of the bottom, and one on each of the narrowest sides, the latter at four inches distant from the bottom to their lower edges. The loops are to be bent down, at each end, and very well soldered, leaving a space to admit a leathern belt, full one inch and a half wide, and nearly an eighth of an inch thick. The corner opens against one part of the belt, which causes it to fall down, after a cartridge is taken out, by which means the rest are secured, from accidental fire. If possible the canisters should be japanned, or painted, to preserve them from rust, and all fixed with belts.

The board are of opinion that these canisters are preferable to cartridge boxes, as they more infallibly secure the cartridges from rain, and their weight is so trifling as to be no burden to the soldier, and seeing leather is so scarce they will be a most excellent substitute for cartridge boxes. I am Sir, with great respect
Your most obedient servant
HORATIO GATES,
President.

EDENTON, 30th March 1778.

SIR:

I have the honor to inform your Excellency that on Saturday last Eleven wagons arrived here from Col. Williams conducted by a Mr. Frederick Dubow. I have received no advice from Col. Williams respecting them, upon what terms he has engaged the wagoners, the Conductor or what money he has supplied him with towards bearing his expenses. I expect to get them all despatched to-morrow. I cannot procure a Guard here at any rate. As I understand the wagoners are all enlisted Troops, if any arms and ammunition were to be had here, I would endeavor to obtain as many as would arm them. I intend staying here myself until I hear from Col. Williams in answer to your Excellency’s letter, respecting the additional number of wagons, and if there is a probability of their coming in any reasonable time, will wait to receive them.

I am with great respect,

SIR:

The enclosed letters were delivered into my hands by Col. Baylor of the light Horse, who received them from the Honble the President of Congress and was by him desired to forward them by express, to which end I have for several days, used my utmost endeavours to employ one. I have at length agreed with the bearer Conway to convey them to your Excellency. He is to receive fifty dollars Continental currency for so doing, which as I have no public money in my hands for that purpose I hope your Excellency will be pleased to order him. He is to return a certi-

GOV. CASWELL TO MICHL. HILLEGAS ESQ. C. TREASURY.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NORTH CAROLINA, NEWINGTON 31st March 1778.

Sir:

I some time passed employed Messrs. Matthew Lock and James Smith of Rowan County in this State, to purchase, agreeable to Resolve of Congress, Tanned Leather, Shoes and Deerskins, and have lately been advised they have advised considerable quantities of those articles which I have this day wrote to them to send immediately on to the Clothier General at Lancaster. I have furnished money for the purchases, but am apprehensive the wagoners, whom they may employ to carry on what they have purchased may want pay for the wagonage on the delivery at York or Lancaster, and as these Gentlemen reside about 250 miles from me, it will be very inconvenient and expensive to send down to me, after knowing the number of wagons they employ and what will be the amount of the expense for a draft on the Treasury. I have therefore requested them or one of them to give the wagoners orders on you for the wagonage, and to advise you by letter, for the same. These orders I am to request, under the circumstances I now mention you will be pleased to answer. These Gentlemen will send on the number and weight of the articles, but their accounts will be remitted to me, which with the General accounts of the purchases I shall transmit to the Honble the Board Treasury and the Clothier General.

I am, Sir,

Your mo. ob. Servt,

R. CASWELL.
GOV. CASWELL TO MAJR. JAMES SMITH—ROWAN.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEWINGTON, 31st March 1778.

Sir:

Your favor of the 25th Instant by Mr. Gibson, I read, and am sorry to hear of your indisposition, and also that the prices are so high of the articles you were requested to purchase for the public. However, our demands are such as to make it necessary that these articles should be bought at any rate, and I know you have done the best you could, for which I thank you as well for our Common Country as myself, and I hope you are before this in a good way of obtaining your health and strength, which the allwise Disposer of human events will in his wisdom restore to you.

I must beg you will assist Mr. Lock to whom I have sent £1000 more to complete the payment of his purchases to procure wagons and send all the purchased articles to the Clothier General at Lancaster, the wagons should give two receipts of the same tenor, and date mentioning the number & weight of the particular articles they carry, one of which receipts should be enclosed to the Clothier General of the Continental Troops at Lancaster, the other to be sent down to me with your account, which you'll please to forward by some Gentleman coming to the Assembly. I have written to the Continental Treasury to answer any Drafts you and Mr. Lock or either of you draw on him in favor of the wagoners for their wagonage. A copy of the letter is enclosed, the contents of which you will be pleased to observe.

Let me entreat you to consult Mr. Lock on these matters, and join with him in giving all the despatch you possibly can, as the articles you purchased are much wanted at Camp. I am very respectfully Dr Sir, your mo. ob. servt.

R. CASWELL.
GOV. CASWELL TO MATHEW LOCK ESQ., ROWAN.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEWINGTON, 31st March 1778.

DEAR SIR:

I have your favor of the 24th inst. by Mr. Gibson containing an account of your purchase of shoes, leather and skins for the public, the prices are high, but the necessities of our army are such as to require them to be had at any rate, and as I am satisfied you have bought an the best terms you could, I can but thank you for the public as well as on my own account, for the pains and trouble you have taken in this very essential business, and in order to enable you to finish your purchase of the leather you mention, I send you by Mr. Gibson $2,500 dollars, and request you will give the price required to-wit 8c pr. lb. for good tanned leather. The articles you have purchased as well as those purchased by Maj. Smith, you will be pleased with Mr. Smith's assistance to procure wagon, and send on with the greatest despatch. You know the current prices in your part of the country, and to you and Mr. Smith I leave the management entirely. The wagoners should sign two receipts of the same tenor and date, expressing the number and weights of the particular articles they carry, they are to be delivered to the Clothier General of the Continental Troops, at Lancaster who is to give them receipts for what they deliver him, one of each of the receipts the wagoners give you should be enclosed to the Clothier General, and the other sent down to me with your account which you will be pleased to furnish me with by some gentleman, coming down in the time of the Assembly, and as it is probable the wagoners may choose to receive their wagonage at the Northward. I have wrote the treasurer to answer yours and Mr. Smith's or either of your drafts in their favor a copy of the letter to him I inclose you and request you will observe its contents.

We have no news from Camp. The Army seem content in their winter quarters. I have been most earnestly requested to fall upon ways and means to fill up our Continental Battalions, and send them on early to assist in the Campaign. But you know nothing can be done 'till the meeting of the Assembly. Rumors prevail that Lord Chatham is at the head of the Ministry in Britain, and that a cessation of arms is shortly expected, but no certainty of those things. That Lord Chatham may be at the head of the Ministry I most sincerely wish, but hope never to know with certainty that hostilities are to cease 'till our Independence is acknowledged by Britain.

I wish you health and happiness. I am dear Sir, most respectfully your obedient Servant,

R. CASWELL.

COL. ABRA. SHEPPARD TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

GEORGE TOWN, 7th April, 1778.

DEAR GOVERNOR:

Sir, yours of the 18th March by Capt. Herron came safe to hand the 3rd of this instant, and am glad to hear that you are in health, and that our old friend Cogdell has ousted that polite gentleman, and that the Doctor will no more poke his nose in the Breech of our Grandees at the Assembly. I had a letter from General Gates the other day, regarding my not marching my Troops too soon out of the small pox &c—but no news at Camp, only it is thought Howe has a reinforcement from Long Island. This day four weeks, we were here inoculated, and are all pretty well over it, not many of them had it bad, only four died, a sergeant Priscott, and three soldiers, owing to their bad colds and pain, and two others died that were not inoculated owing to their being so ill when we came to town. I myself have had the pox break out pretty well in my face and head, which is something troublesome, to me in the face as they don't dry up fast. We should have been able to march next week but the measles rages fast among the young soldiers, which seems to be worse than the small pox. I am sorry that Mr. Robert Turner got that wound, as he was a good officer. I should be obliged to you, as soon as he gets well enough to let him recruit more soldiers, as New Bern is a good stand, and he a very good hand at recruiting. Capt. Wilson has joined us here, and has conveyed and left at Halifax what he could gather.
of his deserters, which he says is about twenty. I should be glad if Capt. Meacham Sheppard could stay at home to recruit or resign, as I am confident his constitution will not admit of his undergoing a Campaign. Our men that are not down with the measles, are brave and hearty and fit to undergo the Campaign I am in hopes very well. We have lost in all since we crossed Roanoke 20 men by death. I should be glad to hear from you the first opportunity and to hear what you say regarding Col: Sheppard. I am dear Sir, your Excellency's mo. ob. huml Servant,

ABRA. SHEPPARD.

JOS. PURNELL TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

EDENTON, 8th April, 1778.

Sir:

I did myself the honor to write your Excellency by the latest post, informing you of the arrival at this place of eleven wagons sent by Col: Williams, which I have since sent off without any Guard, with directions to the wagoners to apply to the commanding officer at the first post he comes to for a Guard. I have likewise received a letter from the Honorable the Board of War of the 16th ullo, which amongst others contains the following paragraph:

"The Board are surprised, that they have not heard a syllable from Col. Williams since his departure, and therefore will desire you will enquire what he is about, and write the result of your enquiry to the Board."

Before I read this letter I had despatched the wagons sent by Col. Williams, with advice to them of the same, but as he had given neither the Board nor me any intelligence of the terms or expense, and as I understand Col. Williams is elected a member of Assembly, and probably now at New Bern, and also myself waiting with impatience to hear whether or not he can furnish the wagons ordered by your Excellency, I thought it my duty to transmit to you a copy of the foregoing paragraph, and beg to be favored as soon as convenient with an answer. I am Sir, with the highest respect your humble servant,

JOS. PURNELL, A. C. G.

HEWES & SMITH TO GOV. CASWELL.

Edenton 9th April 1778.

SIR:

We had the honor to address you this morning once before and that time forgot to mention that your Excellency should send us three receipts for the Tickets sent, with the number expressly enumerated, or mentioned and expressed. The order of Congress we take the liberty to enclose. We pray this may be attended to as we run a very great risk without it by that Resolve. We are with great respect Sir,

Your ob. servts.

HEWES & SMITH.

THOS. CRAIKE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Wilmington April 11th 1778.

SIR:

A French S—— has arrived here with a cargo of Dry Goods, a great part of which is very suitable for the army, such as coarse cloths middle quality, and fine ditto, coarse linens and checks, shoes, hats, woolen stockings &c. There is also 9000 lb Roll Brimstone, and 20 lbs of tin in sheets, besides many other articles which our officers in Camp are much in want of.

I am told that every State, excepting No. Carolina have stores at Camp, or some convenient place to supply their own officers and men, agreeable to the Resolves of Congress. This discrimination must very sensibly affect the Troops of this State, who are equally entitled with their fellow soldiers of the other States to be supplied with the necessaries they are in need of at reasonable rates.
I hope the Assembly will consider their situation and redress their sufferings, by forwarding to Camp every kind of Goods they have occasion for.

I have agreed with Mr. Toomer for 150 sides of Leather which will be ready in about 16 days. I have also purchased since I came here, about 300 pair of Shoes, and expect more soon. Col. Long has not sent any wagons for the Goods, which I am very anxious to have forwarded before I leave this Town. If the wagons don't come in a few days, I must be at New Bern, as I want to be at the Assembly early to settle with the public.

I hardly know whether to make a contract for goods or not, it is so uncertain if I can get money to make it good. The purchases and engagements I have made will more than draw the money in my hands belonging to the public.

Two vessels are now loaded in this port, intended for Charles Town with provisions. If your Excellency should think it necessary to issue another proclamation forbidding the exportation of those commodities it will lose its effect unless it arrive here before the expiration of the present. I have the honor to be

Your Excellency's Ob. huml. Servt.

THOS. CRAIKE.

P. S. Mr. Quinn and others have brought the cargo at 7½ for one. I expect they will gladly part with the woolens &c on moderate terms.

Beaufort, 11th April 1778.

Sir:

Agreeable to your Excellency's instructions to me I waited on Capt. Cottineau, and have with him fixed on a proper place for a Guard to be placed at, about half way between the Bay and Inlet, it being the most convenient to alarm the Country from, and have agreed on the proper signals to be given with Capt. Cottineau, the minutes of which I send your Excellency enclosed.

I have given copies to the several Captains, and shall be ready upon every occasion to push the Militia forward for the common defense, and am with due regard,

THOS. CHADWICK.

FRANCIS BRICE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WILMINGTON April 11th 1778.

SIR:

The hurry of business may prevent your Excellency from continuing the Embargo on Provisions, and as the time is nearly elapsed, I am requested by a number of the inhabitants of this Town, to entreat your Excellency (with your better judgment) to continue the Embargo on Flour particularly, as we have the greatest reason to believe, that a quantity of that article is now in readiness to be shipped to Charles Town, as soon as the time expires. We are induced to give your Excellency this trouble, as the price of Provisions in Charles Town will well pay for the risk of sending it round, and should it not be prevented, they must necessarily rise here, and the prices are sufficiently high already, indeed flour is very scarce, from a quantity being bought up for shipping. I am with the greatest respect your Excellency's very Ob. huml servt.

FRANCIS BRICE.

P. S. As we are at so great a distance from the seat of Government, we could wish your Excellency's Proclamation to be sent in before the time elapses, as a great quantity of Provisions might be shipped in even one day, or at least before your Proclamation could reach us.

FARQUHARD CAMBELL TO MESSRS. BURKE, HARNETT AND PENN, DELEGATES IN CONGRESS FROM NO. CAROLINA.

GENTS:

As I understand that no person is permitted to dwell in the State of No. Carolina without taking the State Oath and being extremely desirous of returning thither to live peaceably with my family I have thought proper to acquaint you as the Representatives of the said State that I am willing to become a subject thereof by taking the Oath of Fidelity prescribed to other citizens. This Resolution I intended to have communicated to you in person but could not obtain the permission of the County Lieutenant to wait on you I am therefore under the necessity of intimating it by Letter which I hope will satisfy you so far as that you will grant me a sufficient passport to return home and give necessary orders for discharging me from my present confinement and you'll greatly oblige your most Humble Servt.

FARQD CAMPBELL.

Sharpsburg Washington county Maryland April 12th 1778.

DR. THOMAS BURKE'S RESPONSE TO RULE OF THE HOUSE.

Mr. President:

I received the proceedings of the house with respect, and (protesting that until the laws of the State I represent shall expressly declare the contrary, I shall hold myself accountable for my conduct in Congress to that State, and no other power on earth) I shall use the freedom which according to my idea belongs to a Republican, and a representative of a Sovereign people in the answers I shall make I consider the minutes of the 10th of April as a charge of a breach of order in the thing, and a contempt in the manner. I admit that withdrawing without the permission of Congress is a breach of order, and I hold that no member can deny his personal attendance at reasonable hours or even his sentiments on any question debated before him, except by special leave of the House. Without incurring the penalties on misbehavior in office and I have only to allege in excuse that I had so uniformly observed the members of Congress withdraw themselves at pleasure from attendance on Congress, and without reprehension that I thought it not improper to use a liberty which had been denied, as I conceived to no other member, when I deemed the subject of too much importance to be debated and determined, at a time when the faculties of the members were tired by the attendance of a whole day and when my own particular indisposition rendered me incapable of giving that attention which I thought my duty to my constituents required.

As to the manner, I am not conscious of having intended a contempt. I did not, nor do I now admit that less than nine States can make a Congress—I understood not that the message came from the President, but deemed that it came from Colonel Duer whose name the messenger particularly mentioned, from whom he delivered a private message to the delegate from Georgia requesting his company as a favor, and to whom I intended my words should be conveyed. Before my departure, I heard Mr. Lovell from Massachusetts say to the House "there is no further occasion to call the states, this declaration is decisive;" in which I thought the House acquiesced, and that the adjournment was compleat. The Delegates from Georgia, who always answered the last in order accompanied me under the same persuasion with respect to the minutes of the eleventh. Protesting that as a delegate representing a free and sovereign people, I am entitled to entire freedom of debate, I say that the expressions minuted were accompanied with and explained by other expressions not minuted, which declared my sense to be, that Congress have a power so far as to enforce the attendance of the members, that if the hours of attendance were ascertained by Congress I would punctually attend but if not I must use my own judgment at the risk of any consequent punishments as to the time being reasonable when my presence is required, that I am at all times ready and willing to submit my conduct and opinions to my constituents, in whose justice I have the firmest confidence, and to whom I owe as a duty, to prevent, if I can, the decision of important matters, when members cannot duly attend them, that conviction of error always did, and always shall precede concession with me.

That (abstracts from the breach of order under consideration which I meant not to justify, but excuse) my general political opinions were that undue, or unreasonable exercise of any power tho' lawful power, is Tyrannical, and that no freeman is bound to submit to it. That every freeman must use his own judgment on it before he determines to disobey, for until he does disobey there can be no subject for any other judgment and it remains for his Country to decide whether he is mistaken or not, and if he is, he incurs the penalties provided by Law.

That it is Criminal in members of Congress to withhold their attendance when the public safety requires it, but that they are to be judged and punished by the Laws of the State they represent, and no other power.

These sentiments however expressed, I avow, and as to the language, I know no obligation I am under to use a courtly Stile. My expressions are usually what first occur and in this instance were not intended to offend.

I shall only add that I mean not by any thing I have here said to submit myself to any Jurisdiction, but that of the State I represent. Such submission being in my Idea injurious to the majesty thereof nor do I mean to forego any of my own rights as a citizen entitled to the benefit of the Laws, and Constitution of the free State of North Carolina.

THOMAS BURKE.

The above writing I compared with Mr. Burke's defence and it contains the express words spoken or read by him in Congress. Witness by my hand.

CORN. HARNETT.

GOV. J. RUTLEDGE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CHARLES TOWN April 13th 1778.

DEAR SIR:

The bearer David Oliphant Esq., a very worthy Gentleman of my particular acquaintance, having occasion to take another journey to North Carolina, as he had not the pleasure of delivering in person the letter, for you from me, which he carried last year, I take the liberty by this, to introduce him to you flattering myself he will receive your countenance, in any business which he may have to transact in your State. I am with great respect and esteem dear sir, your Mo. huml. servant,

J. RUTLEDGE.
Indian talk addressed to Gov. Caswell: My Brother you are the man that hears my talk, tho' I think I am speaking to the great beloved man of North Carolina through you. I understand he is head of that State. I was at a treaty with him, I looked on it so, tho it was some of his warriors, that touched flesh with me, but through him I thought I had him by the hand. That treaty seems to me but yesterday, I have been at Long Island, I wonder I did not see one of the warriors, from North Carolina, and one from Virginia, to strengthen the friendship. I remember at the treaty, we were never to forget what was said on both sides, and what was said came from our hearts, how can your people be so forgetful, while it seems but yesterday, to me and my people, what ever I hear I do not mind, as yet, I am determined, to keep strong my promise, I have sent my father Capt. Robertson, whom you gave me to assist in hard matters, he will bring me the truth.
I promised you by your warriors, as I was head of my nation, if my people were bad, I would alter them. I have cleansed their hearts, this you hear from me. I hope to hear from you, better news than is now going. My people have been lying very still.
They had good ears at the treaty, I wonder at your people of Watangah, that they should be so forgetful, they are marking trees all over my country, and near to the place I live, and are killing my stock near my beloved towns, now I give you this from my heart, I promised you my people should do no harm.
You told me you could do anything with your people. I hope you will put a stop to your people cutting our trees, and let the mark grow out. We were promised I looked on it from your mouth, that your people should not cross the boundary made by your warriors, and by me and my people, except on business, and then only in the path, and if they should do it you would punish them. If there was any such orders given surely the people would not go on at the rate they do, I hold fast my end of the chain of friendship, and keep it bright, there is a small speck of rust on that chain, I hope you will help me to rub it off. I shall give you but a short talk, as I will say nothing but truth, in a long talk there is apt to be lies. I send you a white string of beads, in confirmation of what I have said. I have mentioned having talks with you before, and promises from your mouth. I looked on it so, because I got it from your warriors. There is some bad people at Wataugah, I hope you will move them lower down the country, or they will keep bad talk always going. This from your younger Brother Savanna or the Raven of Chola.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Sir:

You are hereby required to deliver from the public stores in your charge to Col. Long Deputy Quarter Master General or his order or to the wagoners he may send for the purpose of receiving the same, so much lead as the wagons sent, will be able to carry, and take two receipts of the same Tenor and date for the same. If you can not weigh the lead, observe to describe the Blocks, pigs or Bars, in such a manner as to ascertain as near as may be the quantity, and let Col. Long know that it is not weighed, recommending at the same time to him to have it weighed and take an account of the same before he sends it forward from Halifax.

This shall be your warrant. Given at New Bern the 16th April 1778.

New Bern 18th April 1778.

Sir:

Your letters of 30th and 8th current I have received, and as Col. Williams was daily expected here to attend the Assembly, I delayed answering them until his arrival which happened since last post. Col. Williams says he did not receive my letter sent whilst you was here, so that your credulity was imposed on by the person by whom it was sent. Consequently no more wagons were purchased by Col. Williams, who says he purchased the 12 directed by Congress, but that the team of one of them was so weak as induced him to return the wagon, since which he has not had an opportunity of buying another. I showed him the paragraph in your letter from the Board of War, and make no doubt it will be an inducement to him to give the necessary information.

I am Sir,

GOV. CASWELL TO THOS. CRAIKE C. S.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

New Bern 18th April 1778.

Sir:

Your favor of the 11th Inst. I received. The Goods useful for the Army, I would advise you to purchase, if to be had upon such Terms as you think will answer. The other matters contained in your letter shall be laid before the General Assembly, indeed that respecting the proclamation has been already before them, who have advised the issuing the enclosed. An original was this day sent under seal to the Naval officer at Wilmington. A Copy enclosed Mr. Brice and lest they both miscarry you have a Copy which you are requested to make proper use of. As I expect you soon here, shall say no more than I think the worthy members of the present Assembly seem disposed to do every thing necessary for the army, 'tis I believe a favorable time to settle public accounts.

I am with great esteem,

Your mo. ob. servt,

Sir:

Your favor of the 11th Inst. I rec'd, the subject matter of which with similar accounts I laid before the Assembly, who thereupon recommended the issuing a proclamation, to the effect enclosed. This day an original under seal was sent to your Naval officer, I believe by Mr. Grainger, but lest that should miscarry or not arrive in time, you'll please deliver the enclosed at his office, and let the Genl. know who transacts that business, that I most earnestly recommend the due observance of the same. Mr. Green the Commissary of purchases here has orders to ship the pork by you purchased for the public, pray assist all in your power.

THOS. BLOODWORTH TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Wilmington April 20th 1778.

Sir:

Enclosed I send your Excellency the Deposition of Capt. John Adams and others, brought to me by Major Dunbin, who took them out of a Prize (taken by the Enemy & bound to St. Augustine) that was drove ashore about seven miles from this Town, there being no Gaol in that County I have ordered them on board the Brig of War (Washington) till your Excellency will please to communicate some further instructions respecting them, whether being forced into the British service, they may be considered and treated as Prisoners of War, agreeable to Resolve of Congress, or otherwise may be permitted to enter on Board the Washington as subjects to the United States (of which they affect a great desire) on proviso they take the State oath agreeable to Law. In the cases above mentioned your Excellency will be able to judge by reading the depositions, and shall wait your instructions.

I am with due respect,

Your Excellency's most obedient servant,

THOS. BLOODWORTH.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
NEW HANOVER COUNTY.

Before me Thomas Bloodworth one of the Justices for the County aforesaid, personally appeared John Adams, who made oath, on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, and sayeth:

That he was at St. Eustatia in February 1777, and there took a Passage in the Sloop called Hewet of Cedar, commanded by Richard Minon, which was going from that place to Charles Town So. Carolina, and arrived in that place in a passage of twenty-eight days, and left the vessel in a few days, and entered as mate on board a schooner commanded by Capt. Wyatt belonging to Messrs Gilliam and Mays of that place bound on a voyage to St. Eustatia and fell in with St. Thomas's and was taken by a Tortola privateer sloop called the Rose, commanded by John Adams of Liverpool and was carried into Tartola, and remained there four weeks, and being much in distress, was obliged to commence mate of a brig bound for Liverpool, commanded by John Cunning of that place, after my arrival there had several offers of employ, did not take up with any of them, but went passage on board of a ship bound for Tortola, James Lee, Master, after my arrival quitted said vessel and shifted mate of a sloop belonging to St. Croix, when I arrived there was offered the command of a schooner belonging to Nathaniel Cruger of that place, loaded with salt and bound for Edenton, in North Carolina, which offer I accepted of and sailed as master of the said schooner called the Favorite, on the 28th of December last and was taken by the ship Galatia commanded by Thomas Jordan on the 8th January and was detained prisoner on board the said vessel one month and a half and then sent to Augustine and from the misconduct of the master of the Prize going to Augustine the Hinchinbrook took charge of her, at which time I was robbed of my clothes &c. I was put on shore a few days after my arrival at Augustine, I took lodgings at a Tavern, and not having money enough to satisfy my Landlord, was then obliged to take up with the offer of Capt. Osborne who commands the Ranger, to ship with him as a Prize master on proviso he would pay what I was then indebted. That he sailed with said Osborne from Augustine on a cruize the 16th March last and the third day after sailing we took a schooner belonging to Georgia loaded with Rice and Indigo, bound for St. Croix, commanded by Capt. Forster, after which we proceeded to Ocracoke, and on the passage came across a small sloop commanded by Capt. Savory, with some salt on board she being of little value stript her of the sails, and scuttled her. Took the pilot on board at Ocracoke who promised to conduct us in and out, we then went over the bar, and dropt Anchor between a ship and a Briga lying in that harbor. We manned the pilot Boat and owe order, and went on board the ship, and took possession of her and hoisted out 19 Hds of Tobacco, and left her, and then went on board the Briga and took possession of her, and cargo, and carried them out of the Harbor. At that time there was coming in a M——— Sloop loaded with salt, which the Sloop boarded and took, which two vessels was sent to Augustine. We the next day came to Beaufort and took a schooner loaded with Tobacco, &c., which this deponent had the command of and was proceeding to Augustine with her, and the wind blowing hard all day, on Saturday the 11th of this instant, and great part of the night, I being below about 12 o'clock was called up by one of the men and was told I was on shore, and verily believe from the misconduct of the sailors, that the vessel got on shore and further sayeth not.

JOHN ADAMS.

Taken and sworn to this 18th April 1778, before me.

THOS. BLOODWORTH.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

NEW HANOVER COUNTY

Before me Thos. Bloodworth one of the Justices for the County aforesaid personally appeared John Joseph (a Portuguese) who made an oath on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, and sayeth that he sailed from Curacoa, on a voyage to Virginia in the schooner St. Anna commanded by Capt. JAMES IREDELL TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

SIR:

I ask your Excellency's pardon for so long delaying to write to you, on the subject of the proposal you made concerning the land on Trent which is in dispute between us. The reason partly arose from an uncertainty of the determination we should come to with respect to the sale of the land, in general, and from none of us knowing the nature and situation of the whole tract so exactly as to be able to ascertain the value of that part, it was proposed we should relinquish. We have now determined to offer the land for sale, and I send an advertisement to the Printer for that purpose by the same conveyance which carried this. The sale is intended to be some time during the sitting of the Superior Court at New-Bern. In the mean time, I beg leave to assure your Excellency we are very well disposed to treat about an accommodation of what you and Col. W. Heritage and we have in dispute and though we are positively convinced of the validity of our title, will readily sacrifice something for the sake of peace, and to avoid any disagreeable differences. The particulars we are not at present fully enough informed of circumstances to enter into.

I am with great respect Sir, your Excellency's most humble and most obedient servant.

JAMES IREDELL.

P. S.
The sale is to be without any prejudice to the agreement with Mr. Franks, which we mean to fulfil.

GOV. CASWELL TO THE GEN. ASSEMBLY.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

To the Honorable the General Assembly:

GENTLEMEN:

I received your Message of this day acquainting me that the two Houses of the General Assembly had on Saturday last, elected a Governor and Council of State, for the ensuing year, and desiring that I would qualify as Governor and proceed in the execution of that important office.

In answer to which I am to inform you that I have since the commencement of the present disputes with Great Brittain, considered it a duty incumbent on every individual, not only to stand forth in the cause of his country in defence of her Freedom and Liberty, but also to perform any Trust she may call upon him to execute. Under these considerations and that of your very Honorable and unanimous appointment of me, for the third time to be Governor of this State, being such a mark of your approbation of my past conduct, that however diffident I may be of my own abilities, I should be wanting in duty to my country if I did not except the same.

Give me leave to assure your Honorable Body that such powers as I am invested with by the Constitution and Laws of this State, shall be executed according to the best of my abilities and understanding.
I have now qualified, and shall enter upon the important duties of my office with the greatest alacrity.

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO JOSEPH HEWES ESQ.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

New Bern 21st April 1778.

DEAR SIR:

Your favor of the 14th Inst. I received this day with the Lottery Tickets sent by your House, and by return of Mr. Gardner shall send a proper certificate. If I understand the Resolution of Congress I am to sign four certificates, one of which to be delivered to the person from whom I receive the Tickets, one other I am to keep, and the other two are to be, by me, transmitted to the Managers of the Lottery and Board of War, with that to the latter the Tickets are to be sent, this being the case I imagine your House, will have occasion for no more than one, but should you wish to have Copies certified by me, they shall be sent, whenever your House shall signify the same.

Enclosed you have three Commissions for Vessels of War, with an equal number of Bonds and instructions, the first and last signed by Mr. Hancock. I have received none from the Gentleman who now presides in Congress, but soon expect them. These I now send you are half the number I had, you'll please to direct that the Bonds when executed, be transmitted to me.

Your attendance in the Assembly has been much wished for by the members, and I think would have been very agreeable to all of them. I flattered myself with having the pleasure of seeing you in the exercise of those useful talents you are master of in behalf of your country, which at this time she so much needs and I am sorry to say, I have so little hopes of her receiving from the hands of others who, a very few excepted, seem not to have been designed by nature for Legislators—however of this enough—the business you are engaged in may be of more consequence to the States in general, and must be attended to, and is I fear, by you too much for your constitution.
Believe me Sir it would have afforded me great pleasure to have seen you here, but as that could not well happen I shall content myself in the expectation of having the happiness of hearing from you now and then, when you have a leisure hour. Pray hurry down the Caswell. Great good is expected from her protecting the Trade.

I am with great esteem and respect Dear Sir, your most obedient servant.

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO MESSRS. HEWES & SMITH.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Newbern 21st April 1778.

Gentlemen:

I was favored with your letter of the 9th Inst. with the Lottery Tickets therein mentioned, for which I send you a certificate acknowledging the receipt of them. In your second letter, of the same date, you request me to send you three receipts, supposing, I conjecture that you thereto transmit the certificates directed by Congress to the Treasury Board of Managers. This I apprehend to be my duty, and shall endeavour to comply with it immediately after the last of this month. But if you are desirous of having certified copies of the certificate, let me know and any number you want shall be forwarded to you.

I am gentlemen,
Your mo. ob. servt.
R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO MR. FRANCIS BRICE.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

New Bern 23rd April 1778.

Sir:

No Lottery Tickets are to be disposed of after the last of this month, the Lottery being ordered by Congress to commence drawing the first of May. The Tickets unsold I am directed to send to the managers or Board of Treasury.
I therefore request you will immediately send such of the Tickets as yet remain on your hands of those I had the honor to commit to your disposal. The expense of an express shall be paid if no direct opportunity by a safe hand.

I am Sir, your mo. ob. servt.

GOV. CASWELL TO PRESIDENT HENRY LAURENS.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NORTH CAROLINA, NEW BERN 26th April 1778.

SIR,

I had the honor of receiving your favor by Mr. Penn and that 31st ulto. with their enclosures. The General Assembly is now sitting here, every matter recommended by Congress has been laid before them, they have not fully determined on the mode of filling our Battalion, but a very few days will bring that matter about. They last evening Balloted for Delegates to attend in Congress for one year, when I am told the Honorables John Penn, Cornelius Harnett and Abner Nash Esqrs. were elected.

I have the honor to enclose a message from the General Assembly to me informing me that they have acceded to the articles of Confederation, proposed to the United States by Congress, to which I beg leave to refer, and am with every sentiment of regard and esteem Sir, your most obedient and very humble servant,

R. CASWELL.

Hon. Henry Laurens, President of Congress.

DR. THOS. BURKE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

YORK April 25th 1778.

DEAR SIR:

Mr. Harnett will inform you of every thing which I can write about at present, I shall therefore refer you to him, and spare you the trouble of reading.
The enclosed paper will show you the present temper of our enemies and the disposition of Congress. I will make on it no other comment than to observe that nothing is necessary to insure our success but vigorous efforts. This opinion which I have so often declared, is every day more and more justified, and I hope will be finally sanctioned by the happy event of our struggles.

I hope before this the Assembly have made a new choice of Delegates, and supplied my place with a more able citizen. I shall set off on the fourth of May, and leave what public papers are in my hands directed for the succeeding delegates. Altho' I shall remain here until that day yet I do not find myself entirely clear on the propriety of voting in Congress after the 28th inst. I am told by Mr. Harnett on that day in last year, the election of delegates was made, and on the preceding day in this year, trust in that case the term of my service ends. The Commission under your hand being dated the 4th May, and having in some former letters promised to remain here until then to execute any command of the State, I will keep my promise tho' I assure you Sir, every hour is, and will be a very heavy one to me, until I can return to the station of a private citizen, secure under the protection of the Laws and Constitution of my Country. Every day Sir, convinces me more and more, that such a station is the only happy one, and nothing but my deference to the opinion of my Country, and my wishes to serve the cause of freedom should ever have drawn me from it. Happy is it for those Countries who are at a distance from the war, they are secured from the depredations of the enemy, and their civil rights from the most violent infractions. The rights of private citizens, and even of our sovereign communities are at present so little regarded in Congress that any rumor will determine a majority to violate both and it is hardly safe to oppose it, every argument against the unlimited power of Congress to judge of necessity, and under that idea to interpose with Military force is heard with great reluctance, hardly with patience, and the internal police and sovereignty of States, are treated as chimerical phantoms. One instance I will give you. Genl Smallwood was ordered by Congress to apprehend two men, in the Delaware State, under a suggestion that they were inimical, and that the State was unable to exercise any act of Government, tho' the Assembly was then sitting, he did apprehend them. They applied for a habeas corpus. The Chief Justice granted it, the officer refused to obey and applied to Congress for advice. The Congress approved the officer's conduct, and was with difficulty prevented from ordering him to proceed in direct opposition to the habeas corpus, and they forbore this only under an idea that, approbation of his former conduct would determine him to proceed. I need not tell you I opposed these things. You know my pertinacious attachment to civil rights, and my immovable determination to oppose every thing that may give color to an arbitrary exercise of power under an idea of right. I shall probably give you another instance before long in which our State and I myself am concerned. I have upon a late occasion insisted so far on the sovereignty of the State, and my being amenable to no other jurisdiction, that I have given very great offence to Congress, an accident involved me in the dispute, and so far as it regarded me personally I should have waived all opposition, but I delivered occasionally in debate my political opinions of the power of Congress and the sovereign and exclusive authority of the States, over these Delegates. These opinions were not relished and I was required to make some apology. I very frequently apologized for the terms and manner in which they were conveyed, tho' I could not perceive any thing offensive in them, but I persisted in the opinions, and declared I could not give them up without an outrage to my honor in telling a falsehood, and what I deemed a treason to the State, I represented in giving up her sovereignty, nothing however would do but retracting the opinions, and it was in vain to require this of a man who would die in support of them. I shall trouble you no more at present on this subject, at some future time will give it to you, with all its circumstances. My Country will I suppose one day judge of it, but I shall not desire it during the present struggle, I shall be very sorry that any thing would interrupt the public harmony which is so necessary to our success, a time of peace and tranquility will better suit the investigation of Civil Rights and relations. I wish you Sir, all imaginable happiness, and, with the greatest sincerity your mo. ob. servt,

THOS. BURKE.

JOS. PURNELL TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

EDNONTON, 28th April 1778.

SIR:

I received your Excellency’s favor of the 18th Inst. and am very sorry to find that your orders to Col. Williams miscarried, as I have not the least prospect of getting Teams from any other quarter, to forward the public stores now at this place, which are much wanted to the Northward. As the Assembly are now sitting I presume the members can inform you whether Teams are to be procured, and if they are I beg leave to request of your Excellency to order the number before mentioned or as many of them as can be had as early as possible to this place. It gives me pain to be troublesome to your Excellency, but as I know not how to avoid it without neglecting my duty, I hope you will excuse me. Forage is so very scarce hereabouts that it will be necessary for the Teams to bring as much Corn with them as will carry them from here over James River. I shall be very glad to be informed when I may expect the Teams.

I am with the greatest respect,

Your Excellency’s huml. Servt,

JOS. PURNELL, A. C. G.

HON. HENRY LAURENS, PRESIDENT OF CONGRESS FROM DR. THOS. BURKE.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

YORK, April 28th 1778.

DEAR SIR,

The instrument authenticating my last Election, as a Delegate from the State of North Carolina, is dated May the fourth, 1777. Both my Colleagues have informed me that they believed that the Election was made on April 28th preceding. The Constitution of the State requires the election of delegates to be annual, and it is a fundamental principle, that there is a fixed rule of Conduct for all the powers of the State, which can not be dispensed with or deviated from, unless the Collective Body of the people give special authority for that purpose. All these circumstances induce me to believe, that my power of representing the State is at an end. The Instrument referred to is on the journals of Congress, and they can determine whether my attendance can be longer commanded.

I request you, Sir, to lay the matter before them, for their opinion, that my absenting myself may not be deemed a contempt or breach of orders. I should have submitted my difficulty at a more early day, in my place, but that I was unwilling to interrupt the attention of Congress, which was employed on objects far more important.

The same cause kept me silent on another matter, which I shall now beg leave to mention in this, which is I suppose is the only way remaining, for I hope my County has yielded to my earnest request and excused me from the Delegation.

I feel myself under a sense of very respectful obligation to you and most of the gentlemen of Congress, for the solicitude which appeared for me on a late occasion, and am persuaded that nothing but my being so unhappy in my expressions, as not clearly to convey my ideas could have occasioned a mistake which is on your journals. I am there represented as attempting to justify withdrawing from Congress, without permission in an instance, which interrupted very important business. Such justification, Sir, is what I never did attempt, nor do I think that or any other breach of order justifiable.

My attempt was only extended to excuse my departure under particular circumstances by alleging that the same thing had been usually done by other members without reprehension and that the time and occasion were not improper for using a liberty which had been denied to no other member. I am also charged with sending an indecent message to the House which I protest was never my intention.

The matter respecting the member from New York I never conceived myself called upon to answer. But it is not of consequence enough to trouble you with. I do not mean now, Sir, to withdraw the matter from the jurisdiction of my constituents. It is in the train I wish it to be. To them I hope I can show that the House entirely mistook my meaning and when it can be done without injury to the common cause, I shall solicit their attention to the subject, but not before, if I can avoid it. My sole purpose at present is to prevent gentlemen whom I greatly esteem and respect from retaining impressions of me which I am unconscious of deserving. This I hope to effect by declaring that I hold no citizen in any rank or station, justifiable in doing any act, or any pretence which may tend to the public prejudice, or in forbearing to do any act which is requisite for public service. That I hold no man justifiable for using language or manner not sufficiently respectful to the Assembly or Society of which he is a member. That attendance in Congress at all times, when required by the president either in or out of the House, is in my opinion what every member is absolutely bound to, and the House itself is judge of the respect with which the whole or any of its members is to be treated in debate, and I only meant to insist on the right which every freeman must necessarily have of judging for himself on the reasonableness or unreasonableness of every exercise of power and on the peculiar right of the States to apply any punishments which should go beyond measure. These I avowed occasionally in debate as general political opinions, not in justification of anything that had happened, but in answer to some things thrown out by other gentlemen which seemed to me to hold up opinions very different from them for the adoption of the House. I hope they are not dangerous and that persisting in them is not disrespectful to the honorable members.

If the language and manner in which I delivered my sentiments was not sufficiently respectful in the opinion of the House, I beg they will attribute it to inadvertence or imperfection of temper not to design. I beg they will believe that no man is more unwilling to give offence, no man more sincerely laments it when it happens through the warmth or earnestness of natural disposition.

I have the honor to be, with great respect and esteem, your very Obed't Serv’t.

THOS. BURKE.
DR. THOMAS BURKE FROM HON. HENRY LAURENS.

York Town 30th April 1778.

Sir:

Within this inclosure you will receive the draught of a letter which you sent last night for my perusal.

If I were called upon to give evidence in the case, I should deliver my sentiment without bias or partiality. I might vary in some particulars from your account, nevertheless, upon a fair comparison, I think your narrative would not appear to be uncandid, especially if any consideration should be had to its coming from the party most nearly affected.

I have the honor to be with great regard Sir, your obedient and most humble Servant.

GREETING:

Whereas the General Assembly hath by joint Ballot of both Houses elected you judge of the Court of Admiralty of the Port of Beaufort in this State, we do therefore by these presents constitute, Commissionate and appoint you the said William Tisdale Judge of the said Court of Admiralty of the Port of Beaufort. To have, hold and enjoy the said office of Judge of the Court of Admiralty of the port aforesaid, during your good behaviour therein, with all and singular the powers and authorities thereof and the privileges and emoluments thereto belonging as fully and amply as any Judge of the Court of Admiralty may hold, exercise and enjoy in this State, and in all matters and things incident to the said office to act and do so as to duty thereof doth

NORTH CAROLINA, NEWBERRN 1st May 1778.

Sir:

In pursuance of the enclosed Resolve of the General Assembly of this State, I have drawn on you in favor of Capt. Reading Blount for five hundred thousand dollars which I take the liberty of requesting in the most earnest manner you will be pleased to pay him and give him all the despatch in your power. You may think it necessary to inform the Honorable the Treasury Board of this large Draft, previous to paying the same, in which case I apprehend it will also be necessary to lay before the Board the Resolve, and also the copy of an Act of Assembly of this State likewise enclosed. I am convinced the Troops to complete the Battalions from this State cannot march until the arrival of the money, therefore the sooner Capt. Blount returns the greater will be the prospect of our Troops arriving at Headquarters in time to be of service in the common cause.

I have also drawn on you this day in favor of Nicholas Long Esq. D. Q. G. of this State, for two sums amounting to twelve thousand one hundred and fifty-eight pounds five shillings and six pence, for the purposes in the draft expressed which I flatter myself will be duly answered.

I had the honor of addressing you the 26th ulto. and enclosing the Resolution of our General Assembly to accede to the articles of Confederation. With this you will please receive an act for raising men to complete the Continental Battalions, belong to this State; An act more effectually to punish the persons concerned in any of the several species of counterfeiting, in this State; An act to prohibit the exportation of Beef, Pork and Indian corn; A Resolve of the General Assembly empowering me to draw on the Continental Treasury for 500,000 dollars, &c., and a Resolve respecting Capt. De Cottinou. The three acts are transmitted in consequence of Resolve of a Congress of the 16th March last. The Resolve empowering me to draw on the Continental Treasury, I have complied with by giving Capt. Reading Blount a draft for 500,000 dollars. He will have the Honor of delivering this and give me leave, Sir, to request you will be pleased to recommend to Congress the directing every despatch to be given Capt. Blount as I fear little will be done towards marching the men until his return with the money. You will observe the last Resolve respecting Capt. Cottinau is transmitted in consequence of the request of the General Assembly. Capt. Blount will have the Honor of Delivering his letter also. Such other acts as are passed by the General Assembly in consequence of recommendations of Congress I shall do myself the Honor to transmit with my next, being unwilling to detain the Bearer longer, as his business is of the utmost consequence to the States. I shall only add that I recommend the same to your particular attention, and that I am with the highest regard and esteem Sir,

Sir:
Your favor of the 28th ulto. came to hand last evening. I am really concerned to find you have no prospect of getting teams from any other quarter than the back country, where I find by the gentleman who came from the counties to the westward to attend the Assembly, very few are to be had, and those at a most extravagant rate. The Assembly adjourned early yesterday, and the members in general were gone before your letter came to my hands, so that I had it not in my power to consult any of the gentlemen who could give me information respecting the purchase of wagons and teams. I will endeavor to get a person to go out to purchase, and inform you his success so soon as it is in my power. I am Sir, your mo. ob. servt.

Whereas by an Act of Assembly passed in the late Session entitled an "act to amend an act entitled an act for establishing officers for receiving Entries of Claims for lands in the several counties within this State, and for ascertaining the method of obtaining Titles to the same and for other purposes therein mentioned."

Amongst other things it is enacted "That for the future no person shall enter or survey any lands within the Indian hunting grounds or without the limits of the land heretofore ceded by the Indians or conquered from them which limits westward are hereby declared to be as follows (that is to say): Beginning at a point in in the dividing line which hath been agreed upon between the Cherokees and Colony of Virginia, where the line between that Commonwealth and this State (hereafter to be extended) shall cross or intersect the same running thence a right line to the North Bank of Holston river, at the mouth of Clouds creek, being the second creek below the Warriors' Ford at the mouth of Carter's valley; thence a right line to the highest point of a mountain called the High Rock or Chimney Top, from thence a right line to the mouth of Camp Creek otherwise called McRamer's Creek on the south Bank of Noltechukee River about ten miles be the same more or less, below the mouth of Limestone and from the Bank of Camp Creek aforesaid a south-east course to the top of the Ridge of the mountains called the Great Iron Mountain being the same which divided the Hunting grounds of the Overhill Cherokees from the hunting grounds of the middle settlements and from the top of the said Ridge of the Iron Mountain a south course to the dividing Ridge between the waters of the French Broad River, and the waters of the Nolichucky River, thence a southwesterly course along the said Ridge to the great Ridge of the Appalachian Mountain which divides the eastern and western waters, thence with the said dividing Ridge, to the line that divides the State of South Carolina from this State, and that all entries and surveys of land heretofore made or which hereafter may be made within the said Indian Boundaries are hereby declared to be utterly void and of no force or effect, and the Entry Takers for the counties of Burke and Washington are hereby strictly commanded immediately to refund to the proper persons all sums of money by them received for the purpose of any Entry within the Indian Limits aforesaid, their own fees for making the Entry included.

And whereas I have received information that sundry trespasses have been committed on the lands within the Indian limits aforesaid by cutting and felling the trees, and killing the stock of the said Indians which trespasses are suggested to have been committed by persons who are subjects of this State. To the end therefore that no person within the State may be ignorant of so much of the said act of Assembly as is above recited, and to prevent further trespasses on the Indian lands and their property being committed, I have thought fit by and with the advice of the Council of State to issue this proclamation thereby promulgating so much of the said act as is above recited and requiring all persons to pay due regard and obedience to the same, and also to require and command all persons within this State not to commit any trespasses whatever on the lands within the limits of the Indians as herein before described by cutting and felling trees or killing and destroying the stocks of the said Indians or otherwise in any manner whatever as they will answer the same at their peril. Given under my hand and the seal now used in the said State at Newington the 5th day of May in the second year of our Independence Anno Domini 1778.

GOV. CASWELL TO SAVANUCA, CHEROKEE CHIEF.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

State of North Carolina.

His Excellency Richard Caswell Esq., Captain General and Commander in Chief of the said State,

To Savanuca or the Raven of Chola, Head Man of the Cherokee Nation.

Friend and Brother:

I received your talk of the 14th of last month, by your father and my brother Captain Robertson. It made my heart glad to receive a talk from your own mouth addressed to myself, for although you have held a treaty with the Commissioners appointed by this State who had authority from the people to speak to you and your people for me and for all the people in this State, yet your talk to me through them was not so powerful as that now delivered to myself.

The treaty you speak of appears to me and all the good people of this State only as of yesterday. I did not know of any public meeting at Long Island at the time you mention or I would have sent one at least of our warriors to meet you there, to strengthen the friendship and brighten the chain between our good Brothers your people and this State; you will do well whenever you propose a public meeting of your people in which you wish to have the presence or assistance of any of our people to give me notice, which you may always do by applying in time to your Father and my good brother Captain Robertson whom we sent to live among our good Brethren your people for that purpose, and whom I hope you have no cause to believe would do other than serve you and your people in the trust we repose in him.

I am sorry you should have cause to complain of the conduct of any of our people towards you or yours, and particularly in the matter you complain of regarding their marking and cutting your trees. I fear these people have been misled in supposing they had liberty from the wise men of this State (the General Assembly) to enter your lands and make them their own. Their conduct has been represented to our wise men who lately sat in Council here who disapproving the measures determined to prevent such mischief for the future, and have directed that no such trespasses shall be committed by our people on your lands nor are they on any pretence to go into your country or cross the boundary line for any other purpose than what is expressed in the treaty. This you have from my mouth, and whilst I am to speak for the people of this State as the Head Man thereof, you may rely on my promise to use my best endeavor to see that this resolution of the wise men of the State be put into execution, and I trust it will be properly observed by all our people. To that end I have issued a proclamation to let the people know this and forbid their trespassing on your property by killing your stock or otherwise. That if they do they will be punished in confidence that you will not suffer your people to do any injury to our people.

You say, "you give me but a short Talk for that in long Talks there generally are lies," you say true, and therefore I follow your example.

You say, "there is a small speck of Rust on the Chain and hope I will help you to rub it off." What I have now done, with what has been done by the wise men of the State, I hope will be sufficient for removing the Rust. If these do not prove effectual, no effort on my part shall be wanting to rub it off, and continue the chain bright. To confirm this truth, I send you a string of white Beads, and give my right hand to your Father Capt. Robertson, that through him I may touch your Flesh and salute you as my Brother.

Given at New Bern under my hand and the seal now used for the said State the 5th day of May, Anno Domini 1778, and in the second year of the Independence of the Said State.

EDENTON 5th May 1778.

SIR:

I wrote your Excellency last Post requesting the favor of you to continue your orders for the purchase of some wagons. I now beg leave to inform you that the Honorable Francis Lewis Esq Member of Congress arrived here yesterday intending to go to Beaufort to treat with Capt Cottineau for his ship, and Cargo, which he had made an offer of to Congress. There are a considerable number of wagons coming from Pennsylvania intended to carry away such part of Capt. Cottineau's Cargo as Mr. Lewis might think proper to purchase, and all the public stores useful to the Army, which are lying in this State. Being disappointed by Capt. Cottineau, there will be a surplus of wagons, Mr. Lewis has therefore directed me to request your Excellency to countermand your orders for the purchase of wagons and to inform you that if you have any stores to send to Pennsylvania, if they can be sent here or to any other place near by in the Route from hence to Head Quarters they shall be carried in these wagons. If you have any such stores, he requests you will be pleased to inform him here what quantity and where they can be most conveniently lodged.

I am with great respect,

Your Excellency's hume. Servt,

JOS. PURNELL A. C. G.

NO. CAROLINA, NEW BERN 6th May 1778.

SIR:

Col. Chariol, a French Gentleman, the bearer of this, has received a Commission from this State to raise a Regiment in defence of American Liberty, and to be composed of French Sailors and other natives of France, or the French West Indies. He is persuaded from his general acquaintance with those of his nation that he shall have great success in recruiting, if he shall proceed so far South as Charleston. I beg leave to recommend him to your protection, and that if consistent with the policy of your State, you will be pleased to give him liberty to recruit.

I have the honor to be with very great respect Sir,

Your Excellency’s most obedient Servant,

R. CASWELL.

NEW BERN 6th May 1778.

Sir:

After I wrote you the other day, I found Col. Williams had not left Town, I applied to him, and he agreed to use his best endeavours to purchase Eight wagons and send them down with the one remaining of the (Twelve) he had undertaken to purchase at the instance of the board of War. I have furnished him with Bills on the Treasury to enable him to make the purchases, and given him directions to send the wagons & Teams with drivers under the direction of a wagon Master, immediately to you at Edenton, and in case of your absence to Messrs Hewes & Smith, and also desired they carry corn sufficient to last the Teams 'till they cross James River.

Pray let me hear from you soon as you get any account of him.
I am Sir,

NO. CAROLINA NEWBERN 8th May 1778.

SIR:

I had the honor to receive your favor of the 28th March, some few days past. A quantity of the Clothing purchased for our Troops have been, previous thereto sent on, and directed to the Clothier General at Lancaster. What have been since, or may be sent for our Troops, shall be directed to the officer commanding our Brigade. The General Assembly of this State which rose a few days ago passed an Act for the completion of the Battalions of this State, a copy of which I have the honor to enclose you, and I beg leave to assure your Excellency that every means in my power shall be used for raising and forwarding the men agreeable to your orders.

In pursuance of a Resolution of the General Assembly, of which the enclosed is a copy, I take the liberty of recommending to your Excellency's notice the Bearer Monsieur de Cambray who arrived in this State about two months ago, since which he has been busily employed here in constructing a Fort at Cape Lookout Bay, which may be of very great utility to the States. He wishes you to be informed that his stay here was merely for the service of the States, having refused any allowance from this State for his very essential labours. He is desirous of entering into the Army, and I believe has Letters to Congress, and to your Excellency, which make it the less necessary that I should say anything further in respect to him.

I have the honor to be with the greatest respect and regard Sir, Your Excellency's most ob. and very huml. servant.

NORTH CAROLINA, NEWBERRY 6th May 1778.

SIR:

I had the honor to receive your favor of the 24th ulto. with its enclosures, yesterday evening, and rejoice to find there is at least a probability of the British Ministry being brought to the exercise of their reason. The measures taken by Congress are such as every well wisher to American Freedom, in the sincerity of his heart must applaud, and for my own part, I can say with the greatest gratitude, that that Honorable Body has my most cordial thanks, and I beg leave to assure them that I will pay the strictest attention to their recommendations, and use every means in my power to carry their resolves into execution.

I did myself the honor of writing you by Capt. Reading Blount the 2nd instant, and enclosing an Act of Assembly for completing the Continental Battalions belonging to this State. A Resolve empowering me to draw for 500,000 dollars, with some other papers, which I have no doubt you will receive before this reaches you as Capt. Blount was to proceed immediately to Congress to receive the 500,000 dollars, which I had given him a draft for, and as I then informed you little was to be expected without money. I beg leave to repeat it, and again to request you will be pleased to attend to that matter, and give every assistance in your power towards despatching Capt. Blount.

I have the honor to be with the highest regard and esteem Sir,

YORK TOWN 11th May 1778.

SIR:

My last was dated the 9th Inst. recommended to Gov. Henry's protection. Your Excellency will receive with this twenty copies of an address by Congress to the inhabitants of these United States and three of a Proclamation for restricting within proper bounds the conduct of Captains, Commanders, &c., of American armed vessels. These papers your Excellency will be pleased to disperse in such manner as shall most effectually answer the purposes intended. I have the honor to be with great esteem & regard your Excellency's mo. ob. humble servt.

HENRY LAURENS,
Prest. Congress.

12th. General Howe by a letter the 10th Inst. to Genl. Washington had made new overture for an exchange of prisoners, and talks of the prospect of suffering on our part as the hot weather approaches. What Congress will determine may be known tomorrow. The letter this instant reached me. I recollect Genl. Burgoyne asked of Genl. Gates parol enlargement for two of his officers to come into his camp in order to adjust their regimental accounts only for a month, when he had but two days provision.

DR. COTTINEAU TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

EXCELLENCY:

Hardly arrived from Beaufort. I have nothing more in haste than to give an account of the state in which I left the forward of the orders I have, I give to my officer, but I saw Capt. Ellmen, and fear them against your orders. They will offer some delay to your commands for assemble there the Guard that you destined for. Your Excellency will feel how it is, consequence for me to hasten the work, I recommend myself to your country, and expect from you friendships then you will agree to my prayer. I have continually 60 men working, but the planks hold me back, and if I can send enough of that I hope than I have work shall be soonly done. What is finished is however able to rebite to one attack. The house for Garrison is ready also the powder house and the well. I ordered to place in the store, let the Garrison be carried there, 10 Gunners and one officer, so much for serve the gun, as for instruct in these recruits, the soldier who shall be send there, and as the same inconvenience which succeeds for my exits for them. I supply to have the complaisance to send me commission of Lieut. for my officer, and of Sergeant for my second chief gunner.

The officer is called M. L. Meignan, gentleman very well born, and able in all concerns to be officer, since he is in France.

The chief gunner named James Martin had been employed 6 years in the artillery, will observe that all these commissions are as more without allowance.

I am instructed that we have saved 12 guns of 18 pounders at Ocracoke Bar. It is very essential to give orders to transport on Cape Lookout or lease 8, and I think we should be invulnerable to lay lost in Beaufort Point, can it must, order to construct carriage for them and assemble of competent.

I pray to address your answer to Mr. Long Brother in New Bern, who shall send it to me if I am absent I'm pleased to present my respects to your Lady and assure you of that with which I am Your Excellency's ob. servt.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Williamsburg May 16th 1778.

Sir:

For your Excellency's perusal I enclose a paper I received from the Hon. Mr. Laurens agreeable to his desire. I most heartily congratulate you on the great event of the treaty with France. It will most probably bring with it our permanent Independence.

Our Assembly willing to guard against every contingency have just voted 350 horses and 2000 Infantry to be raised forthwith. I beg leave to mention to your Excellency what the Commissioners for this State on the So. western frontier have repeatedly informed me. It is that certain persons of your State have intruded on the Cherokees, entries for their lands are said to be made even close to their towns, and some settlements forming far over the line. I know your Excellency's supreme regard for justice and the public good, and that the good people of Carolina will not advisedly do anything that will embroil us with the Indians, and thereby co-operate with the British Emissary's. I give you the information as I receive it, not doubting in the least that every step will be taken by your State which Justice and true policy may dictate in this important business. With the highest regard, I have the honor to be Sir, your Excellency's mo. ob. and very huml Servt.

P. HENRY.

COL. CHARIOL DE PLACER TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEW BERN May 29th 1778.

Sir:

I have the honor to direct to you Mr. James Laclaus, and beg you'll be so kind as to agree him as a Capt. of a Company in my Regiment. I am returned from Wilmington and brought with me eleven French soldiers, who made the customary oath as you'll see by this present expedition. I hope I shall get about fifty more in a fortnight's time, tho' I haven't received any money, I shall do what I can to complete my regiment, and be ready to follow your orders, to set off for the army. There's a company in Williamsburg, which has been offered to join my regiment, you might settle this with his Excellency Gov. Henry or write about it to the Congress, because that company has no Col. it is true that if it joined to me, I might soon march for the army. I have received an answer from the Baron of Bottecele's, an officer of 25 years service, who has all the possible experience of War, who accept the part of Lieut. Col. because he is my friend upon which I can put my trust, he is now in Charlestown, I propose myself to send him the letter you gave me for the Governor, and shall give him the charge of recruiting, as many soldiers possible. I beg you be so kind as to agree him as Lieut. Col. if you like it best to send his commission to me. I have the honor to advise you that Mr. Duvivier is Major and I hope you'll receive him as such, you know him enough to excuse him for not going to see you, on that account.

13—9
I have the honor to see you in a few days on some particular things.

I am with respect sir, your huml servt.

CHARIOL DE PLACER.

His Excellency will be so kind I hope to adjudge at me the house belong to Mrs. Edouard it is nobody there, and it is impossible to find another in the town to answer my purpose.

CHAPLAIN ADAM BOYD TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CAMP 20th May 1778.

Sir:

I transmit you herewith some extracts from the proceedings of a Brigade Court Martial: which you will see I was ordered to transmit to you. My reasons for not obeying this order sooner are, that Capt. Granbury appealed to a Court Martial General of the line, the determination of which I waited for. He was there acquitted and General McIntosh, told me, I should not send in the proceedings, but Col. Clark has since told me, I ought, and I would have done it ere this, but I was sick in the Country. The Court finding those men on Captain Granbury’s muster roll, as the extracts show, imagined, he had drawn bounty for them, and the premium for enlisting, and perhaps some pay not yet accounted for; these reasons, as well as that the truth might be known, also the nature of these discharges and the condition on which they were said to be given induced the Court to give you this trouble.

I am further directed to inform you that John Jones, Jacob Bagley and William Barlow appear to them to be Continental Soldiers, for Capt. Granbury had no authority to discharge them.

Reports from the enemy are various, but on the whole it has for some days been believed they meant to leave Philadelphia. Whilst I have been writing this, alarm Guns were fired, and the report is that they are on their way to our Camp. Should this prove true, we shall have some warm work of it, but I do not believe it, tho’ ’tis not impossible, for large detachments have been sent off expecting to meet with them in the Jerseys, whither it was intended to go. They knowing of these detachments might perhaps think they would be able to carry our camp, before those parties could be called in. I should probably be able to give you some account of this before I send this letter off. I have the honor to be with due respect Sir,

Your most humble and very Ob. Servt.

ADAM BOYD.

P. S. I have been out since I wrote the within to inquire how matters were going, and I find that the Marquis de La Fayette, who had gone out two days ago with a detachment of about 3,000 men, found himself this morning between a party of the enemy (who had got into his rear) and Philadelphia and in order to escape two fires he marched across the Schuykill, which he passed in sight of the enemy, without receiving a single shot from them. The enemy's appearing so near camp occasioned the alarm; but it is now said (and I believe it) that they are, returning to Philadelphia, having missed their aim, which was to cut off the Marquis. Another thing they probably had in view, and that was to amuse us here, while their Troops passed the Delaware at Philadelphia, from which it is said they propose going to Brunswick. This they can effect by forced march of a night and day, this and the scarcity of transports to carry the troops to New York, are the chief reasons for my supposing they intend that Route, which some assert they intend to take. A few days will probably determine these things, and of course will produce something essential and perhaps decisive.

Yours &c.

A. BOYD.

23d May, '78.

The whole British Army except a Garrison, was out upon this occasion, but they managed very badly, otherwise our detachment would have falleh a sacrifice. The Marquis made a noble retreat, but a sergeant from Brigade was taken, and an Indian killed. This I believe is all the loss we have sustained, and five of their horsemen were killed and several wounded. This skirmish happened between a party left to recover the retreat, and an advanced one of the enemy. Genl. Lee and Col. Nathan Allen, who have at last been exchanged, are now in Camp.
JOHN LONDON TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WILMINGTON, 20th May 1778.

SIR:

The bad state of my health for this month past occasioned by a violent fever, which has prevailed for some time past in this Town, has exceedingly reduced me, and obliged me to solicit your Excellency to enlarge my limits that I may have the benefit of a change of air, your Excellency may rely upon my strictly conforming (as I have hitherto done) to the purport of my parole. I did myself the honor of writing to you respecting my memorial and situation, about a fortnight before the meeting of the General Assembly, but as I have not heard anything in answer, I am doubtful of my letter coming to your Excellency's hands.

I shall readily submit myself to your determination tho' I cannot help expressing my wishes to have my parole extended a dozen or 15 miles.

I beg your Excellency to pardon the trouble I give you. I am with great respect Sir,

Your most obliged and most humble servant,

JOHN LONDON.

CAPT. WILLIS WILSON TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

ON BOARD CASWELL, OCRACOCK BAR 20 MAY 1778.

SIR:

Since my station at this place there has nothing happened worth your Excellency's notice. There now lies at Anchor without the Bar, waiting for a wind to come in a French ship an 1 Brig; an officer of the former is now on board the Caswell who came in for a pilot; which I shall endeavour to procure him to-morrow, as he has declined going off to-night. Several American vessels have arrived and gone to Edenton and South Quay. This place is not at all infested at present with British Cruisers, shall exert myself to keep it so. The reason I did not get down so soon as I expected, when I last saw your Excellency was owing to my want of bread and 12 pound ball. All I rec'd from the Virginia Navy Board, for my station at this place, with a full complement of men, was twenty barrels and four hog's heads of bread and flour, and eighteen pound shot, instead of twelve; we very much want a Tender, as it will be impossible for the chief to keep any considerable time at her station without one.

I received your Excellency's favor at Edenton from which it seems to be a doubt (with me) whether the present Assembly will agree to an order of the last, respecting an additional pay to the Caswell's Crew. If this is the case they have brought me in a fine hobble. In consequence of that order (which I rec'd in a letter from your Excellency) I bound myself to every man I shipped to pay them twenty dollars a month, exclusive of the Virginia pay, 'twas also in consequence of that, that I manned the ship. I therefore beg your Excellency with the Honorable the Council, will take it in consideration, and order the pay roll (now offered you by Mr. Cheshire Master of the ship) to be settled. If it is not, I know not what to do, at least I cannot think of keeping the crew on board at my expense, to whom I am already in advance eight hundred pounds, out of my own pocket, and have not a single dollar to defray any imbursement for self or ship, our local situation rendering it impracticable to call on Virginia for every supply make it necessary for me to trouble your Excellency at present on that head, as it's been so long since the men were paid off, and have received promises from me, all of which I've not been able to comply with respecting their money, that I believe they begin to think me guilty of chicanery. Should be proud your Excellency would be pleased to send a Captain's and a Lieutenant's Commission for Samuel Gardner and Hance Bond, who have raised a Company of Marines, under that promise; should be proud to know if allowed for the horse that died. I am

Your Excellency's mo. Ob. huml. servt.

WILLIS WILSON.

N. B. Having shipped several men since I was at NewBern have made out another full Roll, with a later date than the one left with your Excellency.

W. W.

Since writing the above, I went ashore to get a pilot to go off to the French ship, but could not prevail on one to go. The officer is still on board, and under the greatest anxiety for his ship, which I fear will be cast away or taken, I have not a pilot to the Caswell, or I would compel him to go off. This is not the first instance by many of the rascality of those men; every merchantman coming to this place, experiences it, and its clearly evident to me that they wish every vessel cast away, as they may plunder them. Should be glad your Excellency would make the line of my conduct among them, Mr. Cheshire being sick Mr. Bond of the Marine is the bearer of this. There being no justice of the peace at this place, could not get the pay-roll proved, but will do it at the settlement of the next.

Your Excellency's obedient servant,

WILLIS WILSON.

FRANCIS BRICE TO GOV. CASWELL

From Executive Letter Book.

WILMINGTON May 24th 1778.

SIR:

On the 7th Inst. I shipp'd Ninety Barrels of the public Pork, on board of a small Sloop (of which I was part owner) for the South Quay, and had fortune smiled on this first Trip, I intended to have sent her a second time had I not got another vessel before her return, but my intention is set aside, as Goodrich has laid hands on her, I sent her to New York, by which the public as well as myself, will be considerable losers. Without further orders from your Excellency, I don't think it will be prudent in me to ship any more, as we are well assured three small privateers are constantly cruising off Beaufort and the risk now undoubtedly be great.

Mr. Toomer on his return from New Bern presented me an account amounting to £430, for salt for repacking the Pork, since it was removed from Town, which account the Committee informed him I must pay, but as I had only £640-16 shillings in my hands to enable me to send the Pork to the South Quay. I shall be inconveniently in advance should I pay Mr. Toomer's account, and as I have already experienced the inconvenience of advancing money for the public and the difficulty of having it refunded, I must depart from advancing any more cash on account of the Public.

I am your Excellency's very ob. Servt,

FRANCIS BRICE.

GOV. CASWELL TO HON HENRY LAURENS PRESDT. CONGRESS.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

New Bern 25th May 1778.

SIR:

I had the honor to receive your favors of the fifth and eighth Instant, last evening with their enclosures.

The wisdom of France is conspicuous in the Treaty she has concluded with America. It shows her justice and magnanimity in not attempting to obtain exclusive advantages, and may prevent jealousies in other powers, in short Sir, it bespeaks those who conduct her Councils to be possessed off very different sentiments and abilities from those of Britain.

The satisfaction I feel as an Individual on this occasion I am unable to express. I have the honor to congratulate you and the Honl. Members of Congress on the glorious event of this Treaty and am with the most perfect esteem and regard Sir,

Your most obdt. very humble servant,

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO HIS EYCELLENCY GOV. HENRY.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

New Bern 25th May 1778.

SIR:

Your favor of the 16th Instant with its enclosure I received and most sincerely return your congratulations on the event of the Treaty with France. I think the permanency of our Independency much depends on it and every true friend to Freedom must rejoice on receiving the accounts published by Congress. The late session passed an Act declaring entries of lands beyond the Indian limits void, and directing the entry takers to return the monies they had received from the same and fixing the boundaries agreeable to Treaty. On receiving complaints from the Indians similar to those mentioned by your Excellency, I issued a Proclamation promulgating such part of the Act aforesaid as I deemed necessary and forbidding any settlements or Trespasses on the Indian Lands—I sent a Talk to the Raven of Chola in answer to one I received from him, which I flatter myself will remove the apprehensions of the Indians, of our depriving them of any lands beyond the Boundaries and reconcile them to the people of this State.

I have the Honor to be with the greatest esteem and regard

Sir,

Your Excellency's mo. ob. & very huml. servt,

R. CASWELL.

POPLAR GROVE NEAR WILMINGTON May 25th '78.

Sir:

It was my intention to have waited on your Excellency on my way home, but was detained so long on the way that I had nothing to communicate, but what I was sure, must have been transmitted to you officially, by the President of Congress, but above all the earnest desire of seeing my family after so long an absence prevented my paying my respects to you which you will be kind enough to excuse. I shall set out for Pennsylvania about the latter end of the next month, and shall wait on your Excellency for your commands. I suppose Mr. Penn is gone on, with the proper credentials of our appointment. Mr. Craike met a person on the road yesterday with a hand Bill printed by order of Congress, giving an account of a Treaty, betwixt France and the United States. Congress had not received the slightest intimation of this transaction when I left it, indeed our intelligence from Europe had been stopped for several months past, several of our Packet Boats having been taken by the enemy's cruisers, which almost cover the ocean. I left the Congress in high spirits expecting the Continental Army to be very soon reinforced, and able to keep the Enemy within their bounds. With my best wishes for your family I am with the greatest respect and regard, Your Excellency's Mo. Ob. very huml Servt.

CORNS. HARETT.

P. S. The letter from Mr. Burke, he desired me to mention to you was only for your own private information. I hope before he left Congress the whole was erased from the Journal.

PREST. HENRY LAURENS TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

York Town, 26th May 1778.

Sir:

Since my last of the 11th Inst. by Post, I have had the Honor of presenting to Congress your Excellency's several favours of 26 April. 2d and 6th Inst. which remain subjects for consideration. Capt. Blount is here and will probably be the bearer of the Resolutions of Congress respecting them.

In the mean time this will serve to cover an Act of the 22d recommending to the several States to exempt from the Militia service and to disqualify for acting as Substitutes all prisoners and deserters from the British Army and Navy.

Daily accounts repeat the Enemy's preparations for evacuating Philadelphia, there can be no doubt of the appearance but time will show the reality. I have not had a letter from Genl. Washington later than the 18th, the Genl never trusts appearances.

The Marquis de La Fayette lately detached upon a command of observation, with about 2,200 chosen men and officers, had nearly been surrounded by 7,000 from the city, betrayed undoubtedly by a Tory or Deserter. The Marquis displayed great Generalship, in his retreat, which he effected without loss of men, cannon or baggage.

Intelligence of his alarming situation reached the Camp at Valley Forge, this was announced by the usual means of firing three Cannon. To the honor of Major General Baron Steuben, the whole army in fifteen minutes were under arms, formed and ready to march, but the enemy who had reached one Bank of the Schuylkill just as Marquis de La Fayette had gained the opposite, contented themselves with giving him a look, perhaps a smile, and returned to Philadelphia, the Marquis continues abroad with his detachment of observation. I have the honor to be with the greatest esteem and respect Sir,

Your Excellency's mo. ob. hve. Servt.

GOV. CASWELL TO CAPT. WILLIS WILSON, SHIP CASWELL OCRACOCK.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEW BERN 26th May 1778.

Sir:

I had your latter of the 21st Inst. and am very much concerned at the account you give me of the rascally behavior of Pilots. At present I do not know that it is in my power to do any thing with them, if I find it is they shall be treated as they deserve. Mr.
Bond has promised to give me a list of them. The Assembly directed a Tender to be purchased by Capt. Easton at Beaufort.
He advised me he had made the purchase, and is fitting the Sloop for your purpose, the sooner you can send for her I think the better. Shot, Bread & flour is to be had here. I think you had best appoint an Agent, at this place to provide necessaries for the ship and Crew, who shall meet with every assistance I can give. The Ship is to be taken into the service of this State as the property of the State (by Resolve of the Assembly) arrears to be paid up, agreeable to a former Resolve, to the 20th April, last, and from that time forward the pay be as follows, viz: The Commander per day 3½ dollars, Lieut 2½ dollars, Doctor 2½ dollars, Captain of Marines 2½ dollars, Lieut. Marines 2 dollars, Master mate 1½ dollars, Midshipman 1½ dollars, Boatswain 1½ dollars, Common Sailors 35 dollars per month. I have appointed Capt. Easton paymaster to whom (if he accepts which you may know by writing to him) you will do well to send your account made up to the 20th of April, and from that time a monthly pay Roll according to the above establishments. I expect a considerable sum of money from Congress in two or three weeks, so soon as it arrives I shall advise Capt. Easton. Enclosed you will have Captain's and Lieutenant's Commission for the officers of Marines. An allowance was made by the Assembly for the Horse.

I will endeavour to get a certificate, and send you the money when that is sent to pay off your Crew.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servt,

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO GENL. WM. BRYAN.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

New Bern 26th May 1778.

Sir:

Mr. Hardy Bryan who was appointed by the General Assembly to supply the several detachments ordered to march from the Regiments belonging to your Brigade, having declined that service, I am to request that you forthwith direct the commanding officers of the several Regiments composing your Brigade to appoint some person to furnish the men marching from their respective Regiments with provisions, until they arrive at Halifax, as this very necessary business must not be neglected. The expense attending this matter, shall be paid so soon as the money arrives which I expect at least by the time the Troops will get to Halifax. I imagine that one person might furnish those who march up Tar River, Hyde, Beaufort and Pitt and those from Carteret and Craven and perhaps Dobbs by one, if the men from Carteret and Craven march by way of Kingston, where the Dobbs men are to Rendezvous the 6th June. I have in view the appointing a person to go to Johnston who will contract for provisions for that detachment, and also for Dobbs, if the Carteret and Craven men go by Kingston. On your signifying the same, provisions shall be furnished there for them, but this must be known in time. This trouble I am loth to give you, but it cannot be avoided, any expense you are at for expresses shall be paid the moment you furnish the Secretary with the account.

I am your most obdt. Servt,

R. CASWELL.
GOV. CASWELL TO HON. WM. DUER & RICH. HENRY LEE ESQRS.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NORTH CAROLINA, 28th May 1778.

Hon. Gentlemen:

I am honored with your letter of the 16th Instant with its enclosures. I shall pay that attention to matters you recommend which their importance requires.

The information given by McCleod is without foundation, no such event as he mentions has happened. The other persons mentioned in your letter are such as have been sent out of this State, for refusing to comply with or submit to the present Government; they have friends and connections here and no doubt still correspond with those friends by some means or other. But vessels from the enemy load at several of our ports are practices to me unknown and at present, I do not believe. However, I shall use my best endeavor to find them out, and detect such as are concerned therein, if such there are.

I am with great respect Honorable Gentlemen your most obedient servant,

R. CASWELL.

CAPT. R. COGDELL TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEW BERN, 28th May 1778.

Dear Sir:

The Bearer Richd. Ross, an express from York Town with despatches for your Excellency arrived in this town, about four hours after you left it yesterday, his horse not able to proceed. I endeavored to hire a horse for him, and after some time got one but too late for him to set out last night. He brings additional accounts from Congress since the last Sunday was a week, when he set out from York Town, bringing accounts that on Saturday the day before he set out, account reached that town, that a detachment from the British Army had gone to the towns of Bristol and Burlington, and had burnt the houses of the Whigs, that they were attacked by our Militia, and after some time the Militia were reinforced from Genl. Washington’s camp & that 300 of the enemy were prisoners, 106 of them were brought to York Town before the bearer left it. He also informs me that several of our wounded Militia were thrown in the fire, and burnt alive. If your letters communicate any thing material, more than is mentioned in the hand bill, which he has for your Excellency, please to communicate it if proper and you will oblige your Excellency’s humble servant,

R. COGDELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO COL. JOHN BRYAN.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEWINGTON 29th May 1778.

DEAR SIR:

Mr. Hardy Bryan who was by law appointed to supply the troops raised in New Bern District to complete the Continental Battalion belonging to this State with provisions until their arrival at Halifax, refusing to act under his appointment. I am to request that you appoint some person to furnish the detachment marching from your regiment to Halifax, where Mr. Amis will take charge of them. Be pleased to give the person you appoint directions to pursue the law in that case, as nearly as he possibly can, agreeable to the directions pointed out by the act of Assembly for the Contractors, and I have no doubt but a proper allowance will be made by the General Assembly. The volunteers and drafts from Craven are to assemble at New Bern the 5th of June and those from this county at Kingston the 6th. I flatter myself the Carteret and Craven men will join the Dobbs at Kingston and be able to proceed on their march to Halifax about the 10th. Let me entreat you to send yours on as soon as you possibly can. With great esteem, I am dear Sir, your obdt. Servt.

R. CASWELL.
Dr Sir:

A disturbance has happened in this Town since you left us, which in its consequences tends greatly to obstruct the legal course of the civil powers for keeping peace and good order amongst us. You'll be more surprised to find that a justice of the peace has been the first mover in a most violent fit of passion, lost sight of his duty as a magistrate and made a Riot, on the following Occasion, to-wit:

Col. Chariol listed in the public service as a Soldier, a young fellow, a French sailor, which John Davis claimed as his servant. William Davis the father applied to justice Tisdale for a warrant to apprehend the man who was listed. Mr. Davis and his two sons went to the Barracks to take the men, which the French sergeant refused. They proceeded to Col. Chariol, and James Davis clapped his hands on the shoulder of the Col. and told him he was his prisoner, and should be sent to Gaol. 24 hours afterwards a parcel of sailors, Mr. Davis' sons and relatives and some others appeared armed with Guns, Clubs, &c., and the Esquire at their heads, coming to Dr. Gaston's for trial. Colo Chariol received from Mr. Davis and his sons much abuse, told him he had no right to enlist men, that he would cause his commission to be taken from him and alleged that the assembly had no right to appoint him and abused Dr. Gaston and the other Justices grossly, swore he would have justice done, or he would the night following head a party to put every Frenchman to death in town, or drive them out of it. The French gentlemen were very much alarmed, and not understanding well the language, were not easily convinced, that the town in general did not approve of such proceedings. The arbitrary and scandalous behaviour of that man, in many the like instances before has given this Town a name, such a name, as every inhabitant except himself and minions would blush at. We have magistrates in Town a Majority of them are ignorant, and the officers afraid to act, which is a curse that ought to be removed at any rate. Mr. Davis knows better and therefore he has no excuse. His prejudices and passion so govern him that he should not be intrusted with power. This affair happened yesterday, and I am informed this morning that about twenty sailors of Capt. Davis' and some other vessel, surrounded the school house last night armed with Cudgels, and beat and abused Chariol's men. Yesterday was seen men armed with guns in mid day running about the Town in quest of Chariol's sergeant and drove him out of the Town, and upon enquiring it appears that Mr. Davis had no Indenture or any thing to shew for his claim to the Frenchman as a servant, and the Magistrates notwithstanding has ordered the Col to have the man at the next Court, which was I think unnecessary as no Indenture or any other article or agreement was shewn to them to support any color of Right, in Davis, yet such is the wisdom of 3 Justices to detain and obstruct the service by such detention. The justices have forgot what the Rights of the people are, and their own powers, and I am sorry to say that in our County Court, it is not much better understood. I hope your Excellency will excuse this blotted scroll being hurried to send this by Mr. Green. I am Sir, most respectfully your obedient servant,

R. COGDELL.

N. B. I do not wish this letter to be made known to any other than friends, as you'll hear more of this matter, from other means. I will satisfy the French Gentlemen that the Town does not approve of this proceeding, and that a stop will soon be put to such usage. Have desired Mr. Chariol to get his sergeant back, he shall be safe.

R. COGDELL.

Sir:

When the waggons come from Cape Fear with the Lead I should be glad, if your Excellency has not more employment for it, that one of them come to Colo Blunts to carry to Halifax about 350 shirts which are now at his house. I suppose the weight of the shirts will not be above $\frac{1}{3}$ of a load, the other $\frac{2}{3}$ may be made up with leather, or any other kind of stores your Excellency may think proper. I have the honor to be

Sir:

I take the liberty to enclose to your Excellency a hand-bill just published here, being late advices received from Martinique, it may possibly be new to you. I congratulate you sir on the prospect we have that France is now determined to act and avow her part in favor of America. I always thought she would forbear to do it until she was pushed by circumstances. I thank your Excellency for the intelligence you was so kind to give me by your favor of the 6th inst and your attention to Dr. Oliphant.

NEW BERN 30th May 1778.

Dr Sir:

I am favored (by Col Chariol, who is going to see your Excellency) with a conveyance of the Packet and Papers enclosed rec'd since my last. The Col seems at a loss for a commissary to supply his men with provisions and who is his Master. His recruits increase fast. Mr. Davis has not yet drove them out of Town, tho' their Barracks has been two or three nights visited in a hostile manner by sailors and others who have been encouraged by the countenance of the Esquire and his sons and others influenced by them. The justices have (to please Davis I suppose) sent to Gaol the Frenchman whom one of Mr. Davis' sons claims as his servant Shews no Indenture or any instrument of writing to justify his complaint, but says he bought him from old Foster at the Bar. I hope your Excellency and Mrs. Caswell and family are all well and am with due respect your most obedient servant.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY, 1st June 1778.

SIR:
Enclosed I send you my bond as directed by the council. I hope the sureties will be acceptable, you'll please to send me by the bearer Mr. John McKethan, the needful for me until the Assembly meets. Mr. McKethan waits on your Excellency with regard to the election for soldiers to go to Camp. I wish the Assembly may have left it in your power to give redress. If you have a spare copy of the laws and will send it to me by the bearer it would greatly oblige your most most humble servant.

BENJ. BLOUNT TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

TYRRELL 1st June 1778.

DEAR SIR:
I rec'd your favor by Mr. Harrison and notice the contents. I am sorry they should complain of the unfairness of the draft, which was done in the following manner. The different companies being proportioned, the supernumerary men of each Company, composing a company proceeded to Ballot from which one of the complainant's sons was elected. The other was elected from the company he properly belongs to, his reason for saying it is unfair is because he removed out of the neighborhood a few days before, tho' it was evident to the Court Martial he removed in 13—10.
order to evade the draft, and had Mr. Harrison been attached to their Company there had been no complaint, as a new choice would be attended with length of time, as well as difficulty; shall let the matter rest till I have your Excellency's further opinion, should be glad to be informed how when and where the Bounty for the men raised in the county is to be had.

I am your Excellency's most obedient servant.

BENJA BLOUNT.

MAJOR THOS CRAIKE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

HALIFAX June 2d 1778.

Sir:

I have inquired about the guard that was to be raised for the public Magazine, in this town, I am sorry to inform your Excellency, that if there were not some soldiers belonging to the Continental Troops, in town, the magazine would be a great risk. Mr. Powell who is appointed Captain of the guard, has only recruited 6 men and boys and he says it is not in his power to enlist men as such great Bounties are given for men to go to the Northward. I have desired him to make a return to your Excellency and inform you fully respecting his company. I have desired Col. Long to have two Conductors made for the Magazines at Kingston and forwarded as soon as possible. I shall have the same done for the Magazine here. The officers are very urgent with me for clothing of all kinds, and I have none to deliver them, I shall set off today for Edenton, and will if possible procure some of every kind.

Capt. Little came here this morning from the Back Country. He says the recruits where he has been are in great forwardness particularly in Orange. The companies here I believe will be soon ready to march. Some of the volunteers for this town have rec'd £200 over the Bounty given by the State, fine encouragement for men to serve their Country. I should be glad if Mr. Sitgreaves would send some of the cloths in his possession. The wagon that brings the shirts from Mr. Blount's, had best make up a load at
STATE RECORDS.

New Bern of such stores as may be there, Col. Long has some pots which he directed Fields the wagon Master to bring. I suppose Mr. Stiggeaves will be able to load a wagon out of those three articles. Mr. Mallett nor Mr. Burton has sent their leather yet. Col. Long has had a letter from Mr. Mallett, and his may be expected every day. If there are any particular directions about the leather your Excellency will be pleased to forward them.

I have the honor to be your Excellency's most obedient humble servant

THOMAS CRAIJE.

EDXTON 5th June 1778.

Sir:

A French vessel having been some time since driven on shore near Roanoke Inlet, a dispute has arisen respecting the goods saved, and some complaints made that part of them have been embezzled. Both parties applied to me on the occasion, but it being out of my power to do anything for them officially, I have advised the Captain to apply to your Excellency, the bearer Monier Lafout being a friend to the Captain and has been down to the Bank and can give you some information of the matter. I think it is a great pity the Legislature has not taken some notice of these matters, and made some provision to relieve such unfortunate persons as may be driven on our Coasts so as to afford them assistance in saving what little property the enemy and the sea leaves them.

I am with great respect and esteem sir, your Excellency's most obedient humble Servant,

JOSEPH HEWES.

DUPLIN, June 6th 1778.

SIR:

The volunteers and Drafts for this County have elected Mr. Theophilus Williams their Captain, in consequence of which he waits on your Excellency for a Commission, at the same time is somewhat doubtful of his appointment being incompatible with his commission as Lieutenant in the regular service. I shall be much obliged to your Excellency to inform me by Mr. Williams if there being any probability of money being got for the men in a short time.

I am sir with due respect your Excellency's most obedient and very humble servant.

JAMES KENAN.

GEN. WM. BRYAN TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CRAVEN, June 6th 1778.

SIR:

Agreeable to your Excellency's directions, I have wrote to the severalCols of my Brigade, and requested them to appoint a man in each County to furnish provisions for the men raised in your County, till they arrive at Halifax as there are but few from any one County on Tar River. I have advised the Cols to purchase and deliver to the officer who may march with the men as much as will serve them up, and have it carried on in a cart. The Carteret Drafts is to join the Craven, and both march by way of Kingston, but cannot advise what day they will arrive, perhaps by the 10th.

As there are no Guns as I know of in this District fit for service, belonging to the public I have not taken any steps about that matter, but leave it to the several Cols to comply with the Law as nigh as they can. However as good Guns are so very scarce in this State, I think it would be wrong to send any out, especially as they would not be such as would be received in the Continental Army. Mr. Green from New Bern this day says an account is come to Town, of the arrival of a large ship from France in Cape Lookout, with dry Goods. That a fifty Gun ship is also arrived in Chespeake Bay with Continental Store, and a large Ship from France with a valuable cargo of rich silks, Gauze, Lace, &c., &c., &c., a present from the Royal Ladies of the French Court to the Ladies of Virginia. That General Washington lately surprised and made prisoners of the whole of the 44th British Regiment, as they were cutting wood in Jersey, also an account of the Capture of a Guinea ship with 900 slaves in the mouth of the River St. Lawrence. The above several pieces of news you have as I received it this day from Capt. Daily.

I am sir your Excellency’s mo. ob. humb. servt.

Sir:

I recd your letter in favor of Hardy Coker and upon examination find it entirely unreasonable to compel him into the service of his country tho’ am at a loss to know what to do for him. Should be exceedingly glad to join in anything you might think sufficient to discharge him. Shewed your letter to Col. Dawson who was fully of the opinion that he ought to be discharged. I am Sir,

Your mo. ob. huml. servt.

JOHN BRYAN.

GOV. CASWELL TO COL. CHARLES MEDLOCK, ANSON.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Dobbs 6th June 1778.

SIR:

A petition signed by Lott Tallent, John Higoon, William Vanderford, and John Flake has been laid before me, setting forth that an Election in Capt. Wilson's company of your Regiment, Samuel Spencer, John Childs, David Love, William Love and John Hardy were agreeable to a late Act of Assembly chosen to serve as Soldiers in the Continental Battalions raised in this State, that the balloting was fair appears by the affidavits of Capt. Wilson and James Terry and a return offered you, who refused to receive it, and the next day you held a Court Martial, set aside the said election and appointed the said petitioners to serve as the quota of the said Company from the State of which facts and the said affidavits it appears a manifest breach of the Law has been made by the officers. Let the people have acted ever so ungenerously in their choice the power of judging was by the law left with them, and where a choice was made in the manner it appears this was (strictly agreeable to the law) no power I apprehend is lodged with the officers to dispense with it, I therefore recommend to you, in the most earnest manner to send on the persons so elected or their substitutes. Such a measure will prevent further disputes and prevent a complaint which those people seem to have justly founded from being carried farther. However, this is mere matter of advice, and if you and your officers choose to contest the matter further, you must appear before me in Council at Kingston the 15th day of this Instant to answer the said allegations set forth in the petition aforesaid. But I flatter myself the regard you and they have for the important cause we have in hand will stimulate you to do that justice to those individuals which they are entitled to, and prevent the delay which otherwise must follow. I am Sir,

Your mo. ob. servt.

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO COL. JAMES HOGUN, COMMANDING OFFICER OF THE C. TROOPS OF NORTH CAROLINA.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON 7th June 1778.

Sir:

The Volunteers and Drafts, from the several Militia Regiments to complete the Continental Battalions raised in this State, being about to assemble, I recommend to you the following measures to be pursued. That an officer be sent immediately to every County to receive such men, and march with them and conduct them to the place of the Rendezvous agreeable to the Act of Assembly for raising them; that you appoint an officer to attend at Petersburg, and another at Peytonsburg, to receive the men whose business it shall also be to give each man a certificate of the time of his arrival at either of those places and return you at such time and place as you may think proper to direct, a list of persons who do appear at the said respective places and the time of their appearance. The reason I require this must be obvious to every one who reads the Law, the men being to be discharged at the end of nine months after the time of their arrival at the places, so that so soon as 250 or 300 men arrive at Halifax, Petersburg or Peytonsburg, you order them on, and so from time to time, as they arrive, until the whole have marched, as I conceive the marching the men by small divisions will be most convenient in the hot and dry season, and may be a means of rendering more essential service to the States.

You see I wish you to remain until the last division marches. My reason for this is that I know that you will exert all your powers and influence to get the Troops on, and that perhaps might not be the case with every Gentleman in the service, and as I do not know who might be left I cannot consent to your going on until the whole have marched. This I hope will not only be excused by you, but also by the Commanding officer at Head Quarters, as my only motive is the good of the Service. Let me entreat you to inform me from time to time, until you leave Petersburg of your proceedings in this very necessary and essential Business and the numbers you receive from the different Counties, that I may use my utmost endeavours to get forwarded all delinquents. I am with very great regard and esteem Sir,

Your mo. ob. Servt.

GEN. WM BRYAN TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

COOR CREEK 7th June 1778.

Sir:

Mr. Hardy Cocker having been voted out of Capt. Joseph Allen's company, in the Craven Regiment under the late Law, for completing our Continental Battalions, has represented unto me the unreasonableness of his being thus drafted for the following reasons: 1st, because he has only the use and sight of one eye, which in some measure renders him incapable of discharging his duty. 2nd, because he is sickly man and unable to undergo the fatigue of a soldier's life. 3rd, because he has the charge of a sickly wife and three small children, who have no means of support but the labour of him their parent and 4th because he has on a former occasion given ocular proofs of his attachment to his Country's cause and his readiness to the utmost of his Power to serve the public. For all which reasons, they in my opinion, being well founded, I think it would be the highest injustice to compel Mr. Coker into the service, under so many inabilities.
Colo Bryan having also signified to me his entire approbation of his being discharged from this service. Do therefore beg leave to submit Mr. Coker's case to his Excellency the Governor, not doubting but his wonded humanity and Justice, will exercise itself on this occasion.

Your Execlly's humble servt

WM BRYAN.

GEN. ALLEN JONES TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

June 8th 1778.

SIR:

As the men drafted to fill up our Regiments will be ready to march in a few days, and nothing will detain them but want of money to pay the Bounty, I submit it to your Excellency whether it would not be proper to direct the paymaster or deputy to repair to Halifax immediately, to comply with the engagement of the public on this Head. Something of this kind must be done as there is not money sufficient in the hands of the receiver of the public money to pay the soldiers bounty.

I am with real respect and esteem sir your most obedient servant.

ALLEN JONES.

To Gov. Caswell.

P. S. The money from the northward will be here in a few days, as we have advice of its setting out several days past.

THOS. CHADWICK TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

BEAUFORT 8th June 1778.

SIR:

I recd. your Excellency's favor of the 1st Inst. relative to Mr. John Pierce, and from the information that I am able to collect am apprehensive he has given your Excellency a wrong information relative to the time of his residence here, for I am credibly told that he has been a resident a year if not more in this county, must therefore consequently be subject to march, agreeable to his being balloted. The difficulty of obtaining clothing and other necessaries for the recruits, will put it out of my power to march them before the 1st Inst. at which time I purpose if possible to march them on. I am with due regard your Excellency's Ob. huml servt.

THOS. CHADWICK.
PREST. HENRY LAURENS TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

YORK TOWN 9th June 1778.

SIR:

I had the honor of addressing your Excellency the 28th ulto, and since of presenting to Congress your Excellency's favor of the 6th Inst. being the 2nd of this date.

Within the present enclosure will be found the following Acts of Congress.

1st—27th May, for an establishment of the American Army.
2nd—28th for reforming the North Carolina Battalions.
3rd—4th June, for suspending or repealing the Acts of Assembly for regulating prices. This I believe Sir does not apply to North Carolina.
4th—6th for subsistence money to officers of Militia.
5th—8th for laying a General Embargo on provisions.

To these and to the enclosed P S. and more particularly to a separate circular which I shall deliver with this to Capt. Blount, I beg leave to refer.

Capt. Blount has been long detained from the Treasury, but the multiplicity of business there I presume has rendered an earlier dispatch impracticable. I am with my great esteem and respect Sir your Excellency's mo. ob. servt.

HENRY LAURENS
Prest. Congress.

MAJOR THOS. CRAIKE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

EDENTON, June 9th 1778.

SIR:

I came here last Friday, and I think it my duty to inform your Excellency that Goods have fallen considerably in this place, and have fallen more in Virginia. A French 58 Gun Ship, and a Brig Merchant has arrived in Virginia, with very large Cargoes, and by letters, we are informed that they are purchased by the State.
STATE RECORDS.

Several vessels have arrived at the Bar, and a Sloop came up here on Sunday evening from France, she has on board, for the Cont. 13,000 pair of shoes, a large quantity of clothing, and a marble Monument for Genl Montgomery. We have letters from the Northward that 30 sail vessels have arrived at Boston, and many more have arrived in other parts of the Eastern ports. The Continental Agents are ordered not to purchase at present, upon the whole I believe that Goods will be more plenty than they ever were. I am the only purchaser at present. I have bought a few pieces of blue Cloth, and 1200 yds of linen, for the officers which I have sent to Halifax. Goods are very plenty in Town. I could have had any quantity, but I declined purchasing more than would be necessary for the officers who are to march. Doc. Savage and his partners have made a late purchase of 130,000L, what they will do with the large quantity in hand, I know not. I am certain they will meet a sale for them in Virginia or to the No'wd.

I have the honor to be your Excellency's ob. hble. Servt.

THOS. CRAIKE.

CAPT. R. COGDELL TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NewBern, 9th June 1778.

DR SIR:

I have sent you enclosed some more letters and newspapers; since my last, a vessel from France has lately arrived in our port with dry Goods and others arrived in Virginia. I hope these arrivals will be in a measure a means of lowering the price of Goods. Doctr. Savage is now in Town, and I dare say would be glad of his prime cost of his large purchase from Capt. Cottineau. I am told that by way of vendue has been talked of for the disposal of them by those enemies, extortioners, and monopolizers of every thing which distress our Country. I hope many Goods will be on hand, and silk in their pockets, a considerable part of the ill gotten gain.
longer. They are not to march through the Jerseys, but on the Jersey side down the Delaware and embark at some convenient place." Very serious, pretty trifling; when they are gone I will believe them. I shall not be surprised if they march down and in one week's time return with all their ships and a reinforcement. Several Transports with 800 Troops are arrived at New York and more daily expected.

JOHN CRAWFORD TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

ANSON COUNTY, June 11th 1778.

To His Excellency Richard Caswell Esq:

The bad proceedings of the people of Anson County obliged me to write in the following manner, to-wit: At a General Muster in May last in order to raise the Quotas of men by balloting was so unfair, it must incur the displeasure of every good subject to the United States of America. Capt. Wilson's company perhaps acted the most remarkable of any in the County, which every person may very justly say was directly contrary to the intent of the Law made in that case. They say the first proper person balloted in that company was Col. Samuel Spencer, one of the circuit judges, that can't possibly be at home till the last of this month. Mr. John Childs our Senator who have been at the expense some time ago with Mr. Thomas Childs in hurrying off and putting a man in the service to have cleared him from the war for three years. The third person was Col. Love, Entry Taker of this County, and at present not a healthy man. The fourth person Mr. William Love Sub-Sheriff and Deputy Surveyor and is now drafted in Capt. Hunter's Company which proceedings is similar to that of Capt. George Wilson's Company. The fifth person was John Hardy who lives out of the District, and not on the list as the Law directs. This County is inhabited by a party who opposes every measure, whether lawful or not. The petitioner Lot. Tallant has been in custody for counterfeit money and eloped from his wife, and at this time is no better than a vagabond. The rest of the petitioners are all idle bread eaters, answering the purposes of base Tools which are very hurtful to our Country. I am only a spectator and think the proceedings of the Court Martial very just in respect to Capt. Wilson's Company, and their manner of balloting very unfair and cruel; which I hope no injustice will in the least be countenanced. Pray Sir excuse my freedom in writing to you, the case is so cruel no one can avoid it.

This from your humble obedient Servant.

JOHN CRAWFORD.

COL. JAMES MARTIN TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

GUILFORD 11th June 1778.

Sir:

Agreeable to the late act of Assembly for the raising of one hundred and fifty six men in this County it appears by the several lists returned to me by the Captain, that only thirty one men turned out as volunteers; the remainder one hundred and twenty five were balloted for. The men are now embodying and insist on their bounty before they march out of the State, and as the Entry Taker of this County refused to advance what public money he hath in his hands I am under the necessity of sending the bearer Mr. Thomas Cook to wait on your Excellency for a sum of money that will be sufficient to pay them which by my calculation amounts to three thousand seven hundred and forty pounds. If the money is not to be had, should be glad of your direction in what manner I am to proceed. I am your Excellency's most dutiful and very humble servant,

JAMES MARTIN.

NASH COUNTY June 11th 1778.

Sir:

By this you'll find the County of Nash made up their Quota of men on the 29d ulto., viz: 29 volunteers and 27 ballotted and appointed. I hope your Excellency will be able to remit me the Bounty by Robert Bignall Esqr. as we have promised to pay our men before they leave the County. The amount is $250 Dollars. I am Sir, your mo. ob. Huml Servt, JACOB BLOUNT TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Contentney June 13th 1778.

Sir: Have sent by Mr. Edwards 311 Shirts which is all we had to make, but what has been made and sent at different times to Halifax by Mr. Craike's order. Have on hand three barrels of good Pork packed yesterday with half Bushel salt in each barrel, if you are in want for the troops you may have it, price twenty pounds pr barrel, which is the price in New Bern packed or 18 pounds without packing. We have not had any accounts from Reading but must expect to see him in a few days from this I should think.

THOMAS ROBERTSON TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

14th June 1778.

Sir:

I am at a loss to know how I am to get money to pay the Volunteer Militia, I balloted men in this County of Bladen, not having money to pay them, they will not march 'till they are paid. I have been informed by our members that the money in the hands of the land entry takers is to be applied to that use, but having very little of that money in hand in this County, it already being paid into the Treasury at the first of April, it is out of my power to have them paid, and I should be greatly obliged to you for instruction how and where the money is to be had, and also by act of Assembly for clothing the men, it specifies that distress shall be made on persons refusing or neglecting to furnish their proportional part, but it does not specify who is to be ordered to execute the distress, neither sheriff, Constable, Sergeants or myself, or any other person, and I should be greatly obliged to you for some instructions as speedily as is convenient, as we have some disaffected persons that I expect must be distressed for their part, and your favor in instructing me will greatly oblige your humble servant,

THOS. ROBERTSON.

I have about six or seven hundred dollars for land entries which I have paid some of them in part.

Sir:

I have enclosed a Deposition made in presence of W. Davis, by two other persons and myself, on the day the words were spoken, and my own deposition which I drew up since. I asked three Justices in Town, who were witnesses of his conduct, to draw up theirs, but believe they have omitted it. I refer you to Col. Leech’s Testimony concerning the whole affair, and his behavior to me since.

I am Sir,

New Bern June 14th 1778.

Sir:

Capt. Davis sends to your Excellency for a blank register for his vessel, if convenient please send me half a dozen; I will pay for them and those already received the next time I have the pleasure of seeing you in Town.

Thursday last the suit against Dr. Gaston for killing Mr. Davis’s bull was determined in Court and the Jury found the Doctor not guilty.

The detachment from the Craven Militia are setting off for Kingston, I believe they are supplied with every necessary and are in order to march for the Grand Army.

I remain Dr Sir with the greatest respect,

SIR:

We being appointed Commissioners to repair Fort Johnston, are ready and willing to act, but are informed by Genl. Ashe, he had no money in the Treasury, and cannot inform us where we may. GOV. CASWELL TO COL. JAMES MARTIN.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON 16th June 1778.

SIR:

Your letter of the 11th Instant, I received yesterday evening. I am amazed the entry taker in your county should refuse to pay over what monies he may have received for the public, agreeable to the act for raising the men. The money sent for to the Northward is not arrived but daily expected, 'tis not in my power to supply you, but as soon as the money comes the paymaster or his assistant shall be sent up to pay the Bounty and pay due the men; in the mean time if you can prevail on the men to march to Peytonsburgh I would recommend that measure which will tend to facilitate the service, and you may assure them they will be paid off. However if you do not succeed in that, keep them together at the Court house or most convenient place until the paymaster arrives, but of the measures you take you will do well to advise me, holding your men always in readiness to march at the shortest notice. I am Sir, your mo. obedt. Servt.

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO HON. JAMES IREDELL.

[From Executive-Letter Book.]

KINGSTON, 16th June 1778.

Sir:

Your favor of yesterday was delivered me this day, when I immediately laid the same before the Council, who with reluctance have advised my acceptance of your resignation of the office of one of the Judges of the Superior Court, which I also do with as much reluctance as you can well conceive, well knowing your place cannot be supplied by a gentleman of equal abilities and inclination to serve the State in the importance of that office. I am with every respect and esteem dear Sir, your most obedient servant,

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO GENL. ALLEN JONES.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON, 16th June 1778.

Sir:

Your favor of the 8th Instant I received this day by Capt. Powell. Mr. Blount the Deputy Pay Master General has held himself for some days past in readiness to attend the services you mention, but until the arrival of the money 'tis needless for him to repair to Halifax. I presume you do not expect on its arrival at Halifax that the Pay Master is to open the package and take out what money may be necessary for the purpose. Such a measure I cannot consent to, the money must issue from the Treasury, and I consider it to be my duty in consequence of the resolve of the General Assembly, to see it placed there. However you may depend on every necessary step being taken to give despatch to this business.

I am lately informed the Drafts refuse to march, from the Westward, until they receive their bounty. I purpose sending the paymaster’s assistant immediately there, (on the arrival of the money). I have had no account of the money being issued from the Continental Treasury, but daily look for the return of the messenger; if you should happen to see him, on his way, pray push him on directly to me.

I am with great respect and esteem, Dr. Sir, your most obedient servant,

R. CASWELL.

NEW BERN 17th June 1778.

Sir:

The Bearers, five of the Militia belonging to Capt. Williams’ company down Neuse, were detained, as they say, for their clothing, and did not arrive in New Bern till Monday, and their clothing came up only last night, and as they say they have not got any Blankets, and there is no cart to carry their luggage, they have left their pots and axes with Mr. Justice, and hope you will be pleased to help them to others in their stead. I am

GOV. CASWELL TO COL. ROWAN.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON 17th June 1778.

Sir:

The person who came from Cumberland to support the petitions complaining of an alleged draft, have been dismissed by the Council, that Board conceiving themselves not invested with powers, to take the same into consideration, so that the whole matter must be with the field officers of your Regiment, so far as anything yet remains to be done. The money is daily expected. I have heard it is issued from the Continental Treasury; if you can prevail on your men to march they may depend on being paid off on their arrival at Halifax. I send you Sir, Militia Commissions, which will I presume answer your present purposes. I am Sir,

Your mo. ob. servt.

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO CAPT. MICHAEL QUINN 8TH N. C. BATTN.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON June 18th 1778.

Sir:

As no field officer in the Continental Service has attended nor any other officer particularly appointed to receive the detachment of Volunteers and Drafts from the Dobbs Regiment of Militia towards completing the Continental Battalions, I conceive it to be my duty to give you the following orders. That is to say,

1st. You are to receive the aforesaid Detachment from the commanding officer of the Militia, and with the detachments from Craven which you have already received, march them immediately by the shortest and most convenient Route, to Halifax. I would therefore recommend that which crosses Contentnea at House's Mill. Little Contentnea near John Tyson's Esq. and into the Tar River road near John Williams' Esq. by Tarboro' and then the direct way to Halifax. This I know is the shortest way and I think most convenient on account of water and provisions.

2d. You are also to take under your command William Alford who is appointed Contractor for your provisions with his wagon and such provisions as can conveniently be carried from hence, and on your arrival at Halifax he with one wagon and Team (Mr. Cobb's light wagon) is to be discharged, the two Baggage wagons from Dobbs to proceed with the detachment. Mr. Harvey with Col. Hogun's approbation, is appointed Quarter Master, and I presume will take the necessary steps for procuring forage for your Teams.
STATE RECORDS.

3d. I request you will inform the Craven men, from whom I had several applications for Certificates of the time of their discharge, that these certificates are entirely unnecessary, as the law under which they are raised expressly directs their discharge at the end of nine months, after their arrival at the places of Rendezvous, and the only inducement I had to give the Certificates to the Dobbs men was a promise I had made to them at the time of their Enlistment, to remove the doubt which some seemed to entertain of the time of their continuing in service.

4th. You may also assure the Craven men (those from Dobbs having already received their Bounty from me) that they will receive their Bounty, and what pay may be due them before they leave Halifax, as the money is daily expected for that purpose. Col. Blount or his assistant will on its arrival immediately attend to discharge the same. Nothing further occurs to me at present, than that I recommend that no Furlough be given to any Soldier until your arrival at Halifax. This I think essentially necessary to the service and therefore can't omit it. I wish you an agreeable and speedy march. And am Sir,

Your obedt. servt.

R. CASWELL.

COL. THOS. BLAND TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PETERSBURG 20th June 1778.

SIR:

Having recd orders from his Excellency Genl Washington to superintend the Recruiting service of the Cavalry in the South parts of Virginia and in North Carolina and to forward as much as possible the equipping such cavalry as are or may be raised in the State, that they may be sent on with all expedition to camp. And Capt Cosmo Medicci, who commands a Troop, (belonging to your State) of Continental Cavalry, having represented to me that he is at this time able to recruit and mount his Troops to the full complement could he be supplied with money, he has received orders from me to proceed with all expedition in purchasing horses, recruiting and equipping his Troops to which end
I think it my duty, that the service may not be delayed to make application to your Excellency to furnish Capt. Medici with about seven thousand pounds (Virginia currency) which sum he thinks will be nearly sufficient to accomplish the business, and to request that your Excellency will be pleased to give orders to the Clothier Quarter Master General, &c., &c., to assist him in equipping the said Troops. I have written to Congress, and to his Excellency Genl Washington, to request them to order a remittance to be made to refund such sums as may be advanced him by your State, for the above purpose, which I doubt not will be immediately done. Capt. Medici will account with me or the Auditor of your State (for his disbursements of such money as you may advance on this question) as your Excellency may think proper to direct. I am compelled to make this request to your Excellency, that the service may not be retarded, well knowing of what infinite consequence speedy reinforcements of Cavalry must be of to our Army. In full confidence that your Excellency will be actuated by the same principles, I remain with great respect your Excellency's mo. ob. Servt.

The Troops from the Counties of Martin & Pitt are here. Halifax and Northampton meet this day, and I am informed that many others are on their march to this place.

SIR:

I have sent the warrant you gave me by Capt. Blount to have the money lodged with you or any other person as you may think proper. I have been very unwell since the day I left you, else I should have come at present myself.

I should be much obliged to you if you would let me know by the first opportunity whether the money is got or not, and if it can't be had you will be so kind as to keep the warrant until I can have the chance to get it again.

Sir, I am with great respect yours,

[From Executive Letter Book.]

HALIFAX June 23d 1778.

SIR:

This day I ordered the wagons to take in their loads of clothing and leather &c., for the North agreeable to your desire. But on the arrival of Capt. Blount here this day from thence, who says there is an order of Congress for stopping the troops &c., I thought fit as matters are so circumstanced, to detain them 'till further order from you.

I have five or six wagons and teams in good order, and can be despatched at a moment's warning. If you find there is no occasion for them to go to the northward with the clothing, or that you'll have occasion for any of them you'll please give me such instructions as are necessary.

I purpose if they are employed in this State to send them to S. Quay.

I have been informed of a quantity of tent cloth and lead &c., at Wilmington. If you think fit, some of those wagons, (in case they are not ordered to the North) may be sent there for it.
The Invoice of the loads of three wagons under the care of Lewis Field is not yet come to hand, could wish to have it, and that you be pleased to let me have an answer by the bearer.

Your mo. ob. St.

HON. JAMES IREDELL TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

EDENTON, 25th June 1778.

Sir:

I had the honor of receiving your Excellency's letter of the 10th Inst and am exceedingly obliged to your Excellency and the council for the very polite manner in which my resignation has been accepted. The favorable sentiments of me Sir, which your Excellency has been pleased, with so much kindness to express, I cannot but regard with obligation and pleasure, though a more intimate knowledge of my own qualifications than it is possible for any other person to have, will not suffer me to doubt that I consulted my principles of duty and honor in relinquishing so awful an appointment. I shall ever embrace with pleasure any opportunity of serving my Country, where it is practicable with reputation, and shall feel a particular satisfaction in every occasion to express the great respect with which I have the honor to be Sir, your Excellency, mo. huml. and ob. servt.

JAS. IREDELL.

P. S. I now think it my duty to send your Excellency my commission, which I accordingly take the liberty to enclose.

J. I.
CAPT. WILLIS WILSON TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CASWELL, OCRACOCK 26th June 1778.

SIR:

I sent a Pilot and Crew to Beaufort, after our Tender, and have received her at this place, but in a most wretched condition, in so much that she has drove from her anchors twice, and once had near been lost. I got her along side the Caswell, having her down to stop her leaks.

The enemy (one ship, two sloops and a brig) take a peep at us every now and then, but are not disposed to venture in. Some few arrivals since last I wrote your Excellency. The Pilots of Ocracock have finally stopped bringing in or carrying out vessels, having entered into an association to that purpose, the reasons they give me for this extraordinary step is, that having no branches, they are liable to a penalty for taking charge of any vessel, and that they will not take branches because the Legislature have rated their pilotage at too low a price, being all in a clan. I fear our trade will be hurt by the infamy of these people. Pursuant to your Excellency's recommendation I have wrote to Richd Ellis, Esq., to know if he will accept the agency for the ship as our Crew are beginning to be taken down very fast with scurries attended with fluxes, and fish (the only fresh provision to be got here) Doct Cooley does not approve of in the latter disorder. I hear there is fresh beef to be purchased at Marmashite (?) which will be much cheaper, as well more wholesome for the crew. I have wrote to Mr. Ellis for a Barrel Brown Sugar a bag coffee, a Hog-head Rum, and a ditto Molasses, being quite out of those articles: will be exceedingly obliged to your Excellency to hurry the paymaster with our money, as we are all destitute of that necessary article at present and the whole in great want.

I am your Excellency's mo. ob. Servt.

WILLIS WILSON.

P. S. I am distressed for Commissioned officers having only Mr. Cheshire the Master of the ship on Board at present and not another officer I can depend upon, as a seaman. If your Excellency knows of any, that would make a good second Lieut, will esteem it a favor if you'll commission him, otherwise please send a commission of Lieut. for Mr. Cheshire who is now Master and a good officer. Doctor Cooley waits on your Excellency, in want of medicines, he is an assiduous Gentleman in his duty to the sick; if Mr. Ellis declines to furnish us, I hope your Excellency will appoint, or order us the things wrote for to Mr. Ellis.

Your Excellency's ob. huml servt.

W. WILSON.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

New Bern, 27th June 1778.

SIR:

I take the liberty to acquaint your Excellency that Capt. Eason seems rather to decline acting as paymaster to the company stationed at Fort Hancock, and wish some other person had been appointed, I don’t know who to recommend except Col. Thompson or Capt. David Hall. But as Thompson seems fond of attending to his own business, I think Hall would be the most suitable. I must also request your Excellency would send me some money to pay for provisions I have purchased for the fort, if it is fetched from the Northward will please to send it to Mr. John Green at NewBern. I can readily get it from him, £800 is what has been laid out for provisions. We have no news below at present, the cruisers take a peep at us sometimes.

Your favor of the 23d Instant, I have now before me, and am obliged to you for the pains and trouble you have taken. Give me leave to request that such of the Troops as arrive at Halifax be ordered to remain there until you hear farther from me. If any are gone on to Petersburg let them be halted there, and indeed those to the westward, I had rather should remain in their own counties, or wherever they may be collected, until further orders, as I consider myself under the necessity of taking the advice of the Council previous to my giving particular orders; That board is to meet here the second of next month, soon after which I will do myself the honor to write you. I am with very great esteem Dr Sir, your most obdt. servt.

Sir:

I had your favor of the 20th Instant, handed me this day by Capt. Medici, whom I would most willingly supply agreeable to your request, if it was in my power. But such are our Finances at present, that the sum necessary for him cannot by any means be advanced. We have lately been disappointed in receiving money from the Continental Treasury and I am much distressed thereby, having in full expectation of having it reimbursed, borrowed considerable sums for public use, on my own credit; such is the case, and if the public service is retarded in this instance, I wish it may prove the only one, occasioned by Congress failing to supply this State with the necessary sums required. I was empowered by the Assembly to draw on the Continental Treasury for 500,000 dollars, to defray the expense of raising and marching men from this State to complete our Continental Battalions. I did so and sent on for the money, the Messenger waited at York upwards of twenty days and then returned with 1-5 of the sum drawn for, which will not pay more than the bounty of 1000 Volunteers, when 2600 & odd were ordered to march, I ask pardon for troubling you with this state of the matter, but 'tis to show how deficient we are in the article of cash.

I am with great respect Sir,

Your most obedient servant

R. CASWELL.

RICHD. ELLIS TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

New Bern 28th June 1778.

Dr Sir:

Capt. Willis Wilson of the ship Caswell, addressed me on the 26th Inst. advising that your Excellency recommended him to appoint an agent for his ship here, at the same time requested I would accept of the appointment and if I did to advise your Excellency of it & furnish him by return of his barge (which is now waiting for the return of this express) with rum, molasses &c., &c., to the amount of 6 or £800 worth; I have given directions about some iron work he wants, and have engaged the other things. Have no objection to the appointment provided I can now or in some short time, be supplied with some money as may be necessary for the articles he may want from time to time, which he says will be considerable. 170 men will eat and drink a good deal, and all those things ready money, and hard to get. Your Excellency will be so obliging as to write me fully on this head, and whether this or the State of Virginia is to be charged with the things, if the former, did not the Assembly appoint an Agent.

Please to send me two blank commissions for my Privateer Belona & letter of mark the Chatham, the commission not being here cannot fill the Bonds, but you may depend as soon as they appear the needful shall be done. What part of the brig shall I charge you with, I do not think we can spare you more than 1, that will cost you £3000 or very near it, but you may have 1-16 or less if you choose it. I wish you could see her on the sails, which will be in three weeks at farthest, to meet the July fleet. Shall we not celebrate the 4th of July. The town is of opinion that we ought to have some of the public powder about 100 wt. will do; if you think with us, you will no doubt send an order for the purpose. I have but about 1500 wt. for the Brigs, should more be necessary will your Excellency lend me 5 or 6 00 wt. of the public powder, I will engage to return it, before it is wanted. I am with great esteem Dr Sir, your mo. ob. Servt.

CAPT. JOHN EASTON TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Beaufort 29th June 1778.

Sir:

Mr. Gibble waits on your Excellency for what money can be spared me for making out for the several payments that I am appointed to. I have received a letter from Capt. Wilson who informs me that he is much distressed for want of money. I am at a loss to know what sum may be necessary for him. It will take for the tender about £3170. I send by Mr. Gibble the warrant for £1000 for paying off the Independent Company, money is likewise wanting for the Fort at Lookout. The cruisers are constantly hovering about our coasts. Gutteridge with a brig. in company drove 2 vessels into a small inlet against Hunting Quarters last week. We have accounts from Charles Town of 2 Augustine Privateers being carried in there the 20th Inst. one of 18 the other 10 guns, by ship belonging to the Massachusetts State of 18 guns. I am with due respect your Excellency's obedient servant,

JOHN EASTON.

JOHN COOKE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEWBERN 29th June 1778.

DEAR SIR:

Nothing but absolute necessity would have induced me to trouble your Excellency upon business at a time, when I know you have so many persons making constant application for your service as Commander in Chief. From the benevolence of your heart as well as the circumstances attending the occasion of this intrusion, joined to the claims of a friend, who always heretofore, and hopes always hereafter to be looked upon as such by you, I take the liberty of requesting you will indulge me in dispatching the bearer of this as soon as possible, (I should have said convenient) I have not now time, and if I had, it would be rather impertinent in a letter to your Excellency in an official character, to mention every circumstance relating to an unhappy dispute which has arose between the late purchasers of a schooner, now called the Race Horse taken up at sea by Capt. Pinkham without any human being or living creature on board, libelled in the Court of Admiralty, and condemned as a Derelict and sold as such by the Marshall of the Court of this Port to Messrs. Richard Blackledge & Co for the use of the persons who found her at sea, of which I am one of the number. Since she has been sold she has made a trip to South Quay, and returned safe with a load of tobacco for Capt. Cottineau, and in her second voyage thither for a freight, was known by a sailor who had formerly been in her several voyages from Virginia. He lodged an information with the friends of one Bass Tanner and Compy, who I believe were the former owners, and the Collector at this instance stopped her at South Quay until the Marshall of the Court of Admiralty attached her. The property is to be tried at Williamsburg the 10th of next month, and the owners think it necessary I should attend the trial. I have therefore agreeable to the instructions of the Attorney General of Virginia to request that your Excellency will certify that Christopher Neale is Deputy Secretary in this State under James Glasgow Esq., and that due faith &c. should be given to his certificate with respect to the enclosed printed copy of the Admiralty law. That Lewis Welch and James Parratt are Justices of the Peace and duly authorized &c. as such in the County of Carteret at Port Beaufort. I have enclosed your Excellency the instructions of the Attorney General to me with the Commission to take depositions, by which it appears that the time and place must be distinctly ascertained and as Mr. Welch and Parratt have not, (altho I sent them the instructions) dated the deposition of Pinkham at Port Beaufort, agreeable to my appointment with Bass Tanner & Compy that they might give their attendance, I want a certificate that these Magistrates live in Port Beaufort. If you please Sir, let the certificate with respect to the Admiralty Laws being a true copy, be annexed to a distinct and separate seal from the other, about Capt. Pinkham and Capt. Eason's deposition and the account herewith sent. The first is to be made use of to show that the schooner was condemned agreeable to the directions of our Acts of Assembly, and the other will come in play upon a suit to be brought for damages for the detention of the vessel, repairs &c. in case they should recover her. The account of Capt. Eason which is sworn to I wish to be annexed to Pinkham's deposition. I have sent your Excellency and Mr. Glasgow all the papers respecting this matter, for your perusal that you may form an opinion how they ought to be authenticated, which go from this State. Please to send them back by the express.
At the request of Mr. Gormand and Doctr Hasten I have also sent to your Excellency a Copy of Mr. Batchelor's will certified to be such by Mr. Neale and must request that your Excellency will have the Copy properly authenticated to enable Mr. Ashton who is in Pennsylvania to qualify as Executor. I want the State Seal also annexed to that Copy, and have enclosed money for the payment of the several services to be performed. A memorandum of the expense of each respective service will oblige me. As I have not time to copy what I write I hope your Excellency will excuse this scrawl, especially as I rose before day was well broke to write in a hurry. It was my intention to have done myself the honor of accepting Capt. Caswell's polite invitation to dine at Kingston on Saturday next to celebrate the anniversary of Independence in company with your Excellency, but business has so turned up, that I cannot enjoy that pleasure. I have no news to communicate to your Excellency except what is contained in the following extracts from Capt. Eason's letter, dated at Beaufort the 27th June 1778.

"By a vessel arrived yesterday from Charles Town we have an account of a 10 or 12 Gun Sloop (Privateer from Augustine) being taken off Charles Town Bar, and carried in there last Sunday one of the ships belonging to Massachusetts State, that went to Charles Town lately; she went out on purpose and fortunately came across thro' a Decoy." Mr. Neale had not time to copy the Law, but has carefully examined the printed Copy with the original and annexed his certificate thereto which your Excellency will find on page 64. My best wishes are always for the health and happiness of your Excellency & family, and you may believe me when I subscribe myself your huml servt,

JNO. COOKE.

If your Excellency is acquainted with any Gentleman in Williamsburg as I am an entire stranger there, a line to them would oblige.

CAPT. COSMO MEDICI TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Dobbs County June 29th 1778.

SIR:

I take the liberty of troubling your Excellency respecting my recruiting out of the drafts, and to request the favor of you Sir, to lay before the Council, whether I may or may not be allowed to enlist them for three years, or during the war. As many of them have made application to me on that head.

Should that Honorable board think it proper, for me to enlist them, agreeable to the above, will be greatly obliged to your Excellency to inform me of it by the first opportunity at Halifax. I have the honor to be Sir, yours &c.,

COSMO MEDICI.

GOV. CASWELL TO COL. HOGUN OF THE 7TH REGT.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Dobbs, 29th June 1778.

SIR:

On looking over the despatches from Congress by Capt. Blount with attention, since I wrote you the 27th Inst. I am induced to believe that Congress expects our Troops to be sent forward as soon as they possibly can. I therefore recommend to you the forming the men as they arrive at Halifax into Battalions agreeable to the new establishment and lest you shall be at a loss in that respect, I send you herewith a Copy of the Resolution of Congress, you have no doubt men sufficient to complete one Regiment of non-commissioned officers and privates; if so I think you had better officer them agreeable to a Copy of another Resolve of Congress which I send you, and direct them to proceed to Petersburg where they may halt until further orders; and in order to enable me to give orders with respect to such others of the Volunteers and drafts, I beg you will furnish me immediately on receipt thereof with a return of the number of men assembled at Halifax, from what Counties, and the particular number from each County, distinguishing how many from each have received the Bounty, and whether they are Volunteers or Drafts, I also wish to know what officers have returned to this State and the names of those you propose to appoint to the first Regiment to march.

I write to you Sir, as being on the spot where business is to be transacted; perhaps it may be necessary to send this letter up to Col. Sumner, whose health I am told will not permit him to go abroad, which is one reason why I do not write him, but the prevailing one is that I fear it will be attended with delay for I fear also that I shall not be able to keep the Council together longer than Saturday next. I must therefore entreat you to let me have your return by that day if possible. Col. Sumner I flatter myself will excuse my making this requisition to you.

After obtaining the Council's opinion in respect to the Troops, I will send your orders by express. In the mean time if you have opportunity to write Col. Sumner in respect to these matters do, and obtain his approbation of the officers who are to command the Battalion first to march, those who are to command the other three I shall be glad to have recommended by him or you.

I am Sir, with great respect your mo. ob. servt.

R. CASWELL.

P. S. On recollection I think it would be as well, perhaps best, to hold a Court of Inquiry of the officers of the line, and therein recommend proper officers to command and officer the Regiments and if any have conducted themselves unworthily, to cashier them. This method I know would remove every just cause of complaint and it is my wish that every worthy officer should be continued, and those who have not behaved altogether in character should be judged by their equals.

I am Sir, your mo. ob. servt.

GOV. CASWELL TO CAPT. WILSON.

Donns 30th 1778.

SIR:

Your favor of the 26th Instant I have before me, am sorry the Tender was not delivered you in better fix. Capt. Easton informed me, that at the time he purchased her, she was much out of repair, but that he intended to have her properly overhauled and fixed.

Your Pilots I fear are not governed by the best principles in their combinations; they have other views, than honest men ought to have, but nothing can be done respecting them 'till the meeting of the Assembly.

I have written to Mr. Ellis from whom I received a letter on the subject of the agency of your ship. I imagine he will accept it and supply you whenever the pay master can be supplied with money. He shall be ordered to attend and pay off your Crew.

I sent you Commissions for all the officers you required from NewBern, and without information whether the persons who were named in them refused to accept them or have conducted themselves unworthily, I cannot think of superceding their appointments.

I at present consider Dr. Cooley as a Surgeon in the service of the United States, if he is so, of course he cannot be appointed to your ship. However I shall lay your request regarding him before the Council who meet two days hence and inform you their Resolutions thereon.

I am Sir,

Dobbs 30th June 1778.

SIR:

Your favor of the 28th Inst. I have before me, 'tis true I advised Capt. Wilson to appoint an agent for his ship at New Bern apprehending by that means he might be furnished with greater certainty and greater ease and convenience to himself and the ship's Crew. As to the money which may be expended for such necessaries as the ship may want, it is to be paid in the usual way by the Governor's Warrant on the Treasury and charged to this State only. The Assembly did not appoint an agent, I have received no Commissions or letters of Mark from the Gentleman who presides at Congress, I believe there are at New Bern one or two signed by Mr. Hancock, if these will answer your purpose when I come to New Bern you can be supplied, this I expect will be about the 10th July, and at the time if you have not disposed of all you purpose selling in the privateer, I will inform you what part will be agreeable to me to take, in the mean time, do not miss disposing of what shares you think proper.

I hope every son of Freedom who is also an American or Inhabitant of any of the United States, will cheerfully celebrate the anniversary of our Independence but I must be excused giving any order for public powder on the occasion and also for lending it on any other occasion, the reasons are obvious to every one, and on reflection, I know this must strike you forcibly.

I am dear Sir.

Your letter of the 28th Inst. I received, in answer to which, I must observe that at present I consider you as a Surgeon in the service of the United States, if you are so, of course, you cannot receive the appointment now applied for, and in that case I recommend it to you to go on immediately to Head Quarters where Surgeons are much wanted and indeed were so when you left Camp. If you are discharged from that service, I shall glad to be informed, your letter shall be laid before the Council who meet two days hence and what resolution they take respecting the appointment and medicines you shall be informed of.

PREST. RAWL. LOWNDES OF S. C. TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CHARLES TOWN SOUTH CAROLINA, July 2d 1778.

SIR:

I think it necessary to inform your Excellency that I have received letters from our Commissioner of Indian affairs for the Cherokee Department, Col. Hammond. That the Prince of Notley and some other head men from the valley and middle settlements at a meeting lately held with the Commissioners complained that many people of your State had lately run out Tracts of Land in their Hunting Grounds, that lies that way. Some have taken in Tracts close to their Towns. They loudly remonstrate against this grievance. The Commissioner writes that he examined the Traders on this head & that they confirm the Indians’ information, and add further that several of the Towns were entered by the people of No. Carolina, and some Towns even over the Hills were surveyed by them; and that a Fort was building on the Northern parts of our Frontier. The Indians attribute this encroachment to a hostile disposition in the North Carolinians. At a time Sir, when this State is suffering the greatest inconveniences; and exerting their most extreme efforts, to supply the Indians with goods in order to keep them quiet, and disappoint the designs & machinations of the King’s Superintendent of Indian affairs, who leaves no stone unturned to ruin our interest with those people, and represent us as combined to destroy them, it gives great uneasiness and concern to find our sister Colony, or rather some of her subjects, (for we cannot suppose a measure of such fatal tendency can have the countenance or sanction of Government) pursue a conduct that may frustrate our well meant endeavours and bring upon us all those evils and calamities which at so great an expense we are so assiduous to avoid. I have therefore Sir thought it my indispensable duty to lay those matters before your Excellency, not doubting but your Excellency will view them in a proper light, and interpose your authority to remove the unfavorable impressions this conduct had made on the Indians, and prevent any ill effects that may result from their harboring suspicions injurious to the Honor of the American State, now in alliance with these people. This country have observed the most cautious conduct in respect to giving any umbrage to the Indians, and we are hopeful the State of North Carolina will judge it prudent to adopt the same policy.

I am with the greatest respect and regard Sir, your Excellency's mo. ob. and huml. Servt.

CAPT. R. COGDELL TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEWBURN 4th July 1778.

Eve of the 3d year of Indepa.

DEAR SIR:

By a person very lately from Charles Town we are informed that two English Privateers who have captured many of our Merchant vessels on our coast, have been taken and brought into Charles Town, and one of those Privateers was commanded by Capt. Osborne, I believe from Jamaica fitted out. The Capt. of the other, I have heard his name, but it has slipped my memory. The manner of their being taken is as follows. They were seen off the Bar some days cruising, at the same time a Twenty Gun Boston Ship was lying in the harbor of Charles Town, the Commander of which offered his service to go out and take those privateers provided the Inhabitants would man his ship, which they did, many Gentlemen of the Town were of the number, who went on board for the laudable purpose of enabling the Captain to execute the plan he proposed, at the same time fitted out a proper vessel and manned her also as a Tender to the ship. They proceeded in quest of the Pirates, in short time saw them, the Tender going pretty near, the two Pirates gave chase to the Tender, upon seeing the ship, they left the Tender and gave chase to the ship, seemed to stand for Charles Town Bar, her Ports all closed; the Privateers pursued the Chase, making all the sail they could until they run along side of the ship on each side when the ship opened her Ports and gave such a salute that the two Pirates were under the necessity to strike and being near the Inlet were in a few hours brought to an Anchor in Charles Town Harbor.

Since writing the foregoing account of the Privateers being taken, I have received a Charles Town paper wherein is mentioned the same account, under the Charles Town Head June 24th in the words following to wit.

Government having applied to Capt. Smedly of the Connecticut State, ship Defence, to proceed on a cruise against some British Privateers on the coast. Notwithstanding his vessel had lately arrived from the West Indies, and was then performing Quarantine, he readily complied, and in company with the Sloop Volant, Capt. Daniel, who offered his vessel for the service, sailed last Friday. Before night they took the sloop Tanyers Revenge, Capt. Peter Bachop carrying 12 Guns and 72 men, and the sloop Ranger, Capt. Osborne of 8 Guns and 35 men both Privateers fitted at St. Augustine. The Sloop Active of 12 Guns, Capt. Powell, belonging to Liverpool escaped while the prisoners taken on Board of Bachop were being secured. The Defence her consort and prizes are all arrived. Commodore Gillion, Capt. Robertson, Capt. McQueen with several Masters of vessels and others went Volunteers on the cruise.
In celebration of this day great numbers of Guns have been fired, at Stanley's Wharf, and Mr. Ellis' ship three different firings from each from early in the morning midday and evening, and Liquor given to the populace. Stanley and Ellis seemed to vie with each other, in a contest who should do the most honor to the day, but Mr. Ellis had the most artillery.

The Post from the Northward brought no letters or Packets for you, or should have sent them, the Newspapers are now sent. My family are in health and hope yours are the same, with compliments to Mrs. & Miss Caswell.

I am your Excellency's mo. ob. Servt.

GOV. CASWELL TO COL. HOGUN OF THE 7TH REGT.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON 5th July 1778.

Sir:

I received your favor of the 1st Inst. and thank you for the Lists you therewith transmitted to me. I must repeat my request that you call a Court of the line and recommend the officers which that Conrt shall think best qualified and inclined to serve their Country without having regard to seniority or other respects, this appears more necessary to me for a want of knowledge in the Council and myself of the persons who come within the above description, and also from a prevailing spirit among the officers of resigning their Commissions especially when they know they must immediately return to the Northward. This I beg you will do so soon as it may be practicable. In the mean time let the first Regiment proceed to Head Quarters as soon as it shall be found practicable and as I know you are desirous of going on yourself, I wish you to take the command of that Regiment in which the Council join me, and in that case take with you any officers of the line who shall be disposed to go with you, and whom you approve of so as sufficiently to officer the Regiment agreeable to the new establishment, a List of these officers you are requested to send me by express so soon as it is completed. I presume if you march with this Regiment, Col. Armstrong will supply your place at Halifax with whom I will correspond on the important business of the Army until Genl. Sumner shall be able to do business, of which, when that happens, I beg to be informed. At all events the List of officers to be recommended must be sent me in time to lay before the Assembly at Hillsborough the 3d of August, when that Honl. Body meets.

The small sum of money sent here by Congress will not enable the Treasurer to do more than pay the Bounty, and other expenses of the first Regiment now ordered to march, the paymaster will this day receive the money, and proceed to Halifax to pay that money, and so much to others as he may have remaining. Pray let me hear from you as often as occasion may require.

I am very respectfully Sir,

Your Obed. Servt.

BEAUFORT COUNTY 6th July 1778.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

I am under constraint to inform your Excellency of a number of men of about thirty or more are combined together in this County for mischievous purposes, they have caused four of the Drafted men to desert and declare publicly they will support them with their Guns, and are frequently giving out the most bitter oaths and imprecations to deter officers or others from apprehending them, they are daily committing acts of misprision of Treason, and persons that oppose them are always in danger of both life and property. Those are part of the mob who several times broke open stores for salt &c. In short they are become so outrageous and daring that every person who wishes well to his Country is insulted by them. To raise any part of the same County to apprehend them would hardly be practicable. If your Excellency will be pleased to advise me of the proper method to be taken to subdue these lawless fellows, it shall be strictly pursued.

CAMP NEAR HALIFAX 9th July 1778.

Sir:

I arrived here the 6th Inst. and agreeable to your letter to Col. Hogan, have formed the volunteers and Drafts of eleven Counties into a Regiment, which will nearly complete it to the proper establishment, but I cannot omit acquainting you that several of them were mere Boys, and indeed some others who by no means ought to have been received, as the short time they are to continue, in the service, will not answer the good purpose expected—several Deserters have been apprehended of their Drafts, of which Counties &c I shall make you a return, and of other deficiencies as soon as possible. *

Col. Hogun encloses you the names of the officers, recommended or appointed to this Regiment in nominating three subn resigned.

Your Excellency requests a Court of the line of officers to recommend such best qualified for the service of the Country. The officers to the eastward, many, I cannot get any account of. Col. Armstrong I shall despatch from this, immediately to take command at Peytonsburg, as there is not a full Col. in that department. Col. Lamb and Col. Sheppard will be here.

The Regiment that moves under the command of Col. Hogun for Head Quarters, will require some money to purchase forage, &c., &c., on their way. The officers have 6 or 8 months pay due them: I wish to receive your Excellency's orders frequently, which I shall pay the utmost respect to. I am Sir,

Sir:

Since I wrote you this morning I have seen Capt. Medici, who I am informed waits to complete his Troop with conveniences here. I am persuaded the length of time ere such necessaries can be furnished, his part of the horses here, will be of little service, this Campaign. The Board of War, I am informed by some officers just from New York were uneasy at his delay. If your Excellency thinks proper to give any order respecting him I shall see them executed. Such of the old Regiments' soldiers in Town, capable of marching, I have ordered to hold themselves in readiness to march under Col. Hogun to join their Regiment, at Head Quarters, which I hope will be approved of by you. I have made free Sir, to enclose you the last Virginia paper. I am Your very hume. Servt.

SIR:

On the receipt of yours we immediately proceeded to the choice of officers, and here enclose you a list, and am sorry to say there were so many desirous to wait longer. On that they were told to proceed immediately or lay down their Commissions which you’ll be made acquainted with hereafter.

We have appointed Lt. Col. Davidson, but he being at so great a distance, am at a loss to know whether he will act or not. Should he refuse Col. Sumner is to appoint one and send him after us.

By a letter I received yesterday, I find neither the Pay nor Muster Master will be here before Monday next.

As soon as the men are mustered shall give you a full account of both the firm and infirm of which the last are too many, some having sore legs and ruptures which render them incapable of duty.

You’ll please to observe that Nathaniel Nutter is appointed by the officers as Q. M., who had acted in that capacity to the 9th Regiment, and was much approved of, we beg you to please grant him a Commission as ensign to enable him to act as Q. M. to this Regiment and you’ll oblige Sir,

SIR:

This is the third time I have wrote respecting the wagons your Excellency empowered me to purchase for the public, whether my letters or the answers miscarried I know not. I have never received any, therefore was under the necessity of employing Mr. Dubow to wait for you with this and return to me with an answer. I have been all over Orange, Guilford and this County, and find that good wagons and teams are not to be purchased for less than fifteen hundred dollars, and have engaged at that price, provided your Excellency thinks proper for me to give that sum, which bargains are to be void unless approved of by you.

I have directed Dubow to keep an exact memorandum of his travelling expenses in going down and lay it before you, and as I have not agreed with him on any certain sum, for going express your Excellency will please to pay him the usual price, which I am not acquainted with is the reason I trouble you with it.

I am Sir, Your Excellency's mo. ob. servt.

JOHN WILLIAMS.

GOV. CASWELL TO COL. JAMES HOGUN, HALIFAX.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Dobbs 12th July 1778.

SIR:

I received your favor of the 9th inst. last night with the list of officers to your Battalion enclosed. Those gentlemen who wish to remain longer in the State, surely do not well consider the nature of the service they are engaged in, or consult rather their own ease, than the good of their country, in which cases I consider them as persons who may be spared from their appointments without much prejudice to the State. The paymaster promised a week ago to proceed immediately to Halifax, what may have been the cause of his delay I know not. I shall thank you for the return you mention; but really I wish every man to be discharged who is unable to perform the duties of a soldier, and I fear there are too many among your drafts, put there not from such motive as you or I approve and who will by no means answer the purposes intended. I send you enclosed a commission for Mr. Nutall to be ensign in your battalion.

Sincerely wishing you health an agreeable march and success in the Glorious cause of freedom.

I am very respectfully Dr Sir, your obedient servant.

R. C.

GOV. CASWELL TO COL. JETHRO SUMNER.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

DOBBS COUNTY 12TH JULY 1778.

Sir:

I had your favor of the 9th Inst. delivered me last evening, and thank you for the attention you have shown to the measure by me recommended to Col. Hogun at the same time I confess I feel great uneasiness on being informed of the ill execution of the law for completing our Battalions. In many counties a most scandalous abuse has been made of the powers lodged with the people at large. All who are really unfit for service should be discharged, they will only be a cost to the Country, and far from being any credit to it. Who the gentlemen are that have resigned their commissions I know not, but suppose from the time when they have so done, such men can be spared. I do not expect you will be able to get all the officers of the line together, so as to make the recommendation of officers I mentioned to Col. Hogun but wish as many of them to attend as can be conveniently got together on the occasion; their determination will have greater weight and of course give more satisfaction to those concerned. Pray let me entreat you to furnish me with a return, agreeable to the determination of the officers, of the gentlemen to command or officer the other three Battalions in time to lay the same before the Assembly, which is appointed to meet at Hillsborough the third of August.

All the money that possibly could be furnished was put into the hands of the paymaster to pay the Bounty, and incidental expenses of the Regiment now about to march. With respect to Capt. Medici, I would recommend to you the ordering him on to head quarters immediately with such of his men as he can mount unless the orders he has received from Col. Bland are such as you do not wish to suspend. How far Col. Bland's power with respect to this small party of Light Horse may extend I know not, but am certain Capt. Medici can be of no service to the States by remaining here without being furnished with money, which he cannot be from this State at present.

The measure you have taken respecting the men belonging to the old Regiments and the appointment of the officers to the new is perfectly agreeable to me.

I am glad to find you so far recovered as to be able to attend to the duties of the field, but at the same time recommend to you not to fatigue yourself, in those duties beyond the bounds of prudence, the consequence to you and the State may be of prejudice. I will write you on every circumstance that occurs in which your command is in any way interested or concerned and shall always be glad to hear from you.

I am, Sir, Your mo. ob. Servt,

R. CASWELL.

CAPT. R. COGDELL TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEWBERRY 12th July 1778.

DEAR SIR:

I received your favor of the 9th Inst, and sorry and astonished I am that Congress should pay so little respect to the officers of this State, in which they are so immensely concerned. The dignity of Congress is much degraded and disgraced in my humble opinion by the disregard they have discovered in their treatment of the State of North Carolina, and its Chief Magistrate. Their inattention to the matter communicated to them by your Excellency, their neglect to answer and sending back your Bill, paying part of the money, and taking no receipt for the same, surpasses the blunders of our Assembly. The hurry and multiplicity of business at the Treasury was very great, and very many blunders I suppose by means of such hurry. They lost but little time in attending to your Excellency's Commission. I think that the Council's advice was right for surely the province is in a very disagreeable situation in regard to our Recruits. There will be an absolute necessity for money to be made for the purpose of paying these men and other uses, perhaps 300 thousand pounds, when the engine is at work enough should be made. I expect you have an account by Mr. Ellis of the march of Clinton and his Troops through the Jerseys, where it seems many bridges have been destroyed and Trees thrown across the road to impede their march, and that Genl Washington is close upon them. I hope we shall soon have good accounts from them. I am much obliged to your Excellency for the Pennsylvania papers the contents of which is sufficient to convince me, that Independence will ere long be acknowledged by great Britain; the other papers shall tomorrow morning be forwarded to the respective owners.

I intend to accept your kind invitation to travel in company to Hillsborough, and shall accompany Mr. Leech up at the time you mention 'till then I hope you'l enjoy health, and Mrs. Caswell & family to whom please to present mine & Mrs. Cogdell's compliments.

I am dear Sir, your most assured & affectionate friend & obliged servant

R. COGDELL.

COL. JOHN HINTON TO GOV. CASWELL

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WAKE, July 14th 1778.

Sir:

I am told your Excellency has been pleased to appoint me again to the command of this County. I am happy to find that my conduct heretofore has induced you to recommend me so warmly to the General Assembly to take notice of me again in this instance. Believe me Sir, that whenever I can add to your happiness either in public or private character it will yield me additional Pleasure. As the Assembly is to meet on the 3d August, I wish to embrace the opportunity of extricating myself of the aspersions thrown out against me in respect to my conduct, and that I may be better prepared I propose to call a General Muster, and order a Court Martial, therefore have sent Dick down, and must beg the favor of your Excellency to send me the Commission, as Mr. Glasgow said it was made out, at Dobbs Court, at the same time may I ask the favor of your advice how to proceed.

Your Excellency's Mo. Ob. Servt.

JOHN HINTON.

HON. JOHN PENN MEMBER OF CONGRESS TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA, July 15th 1778.

DEAR SIR:

Col. Williams never gave me the certificate of our appointment until a few days ago when we parted, he choosing to be inoculated for the small pox at Alexandria. I was then hurried and did not examine it, not having the least reason to doubt but that the powers given to the Delegates were the same as usual, however on producing the commission it was so worded as to make it absolutely necessary that all the Members should be present, to give us a right to vote. As it may be a long time before Mr. Harnett arrives or Col. Williams gets over the small Pox, I have thought it my duty to write to you by express, requesting that your Excellency would be pleased to mention whether one Gentleman by the design of the General Assembly cannot vote, if so you will be pleased to send a Commission for that purpose, but if no alteration can be made, pray inform Mr. Harnett that it is absolutely necessary for him to repair to Philadelphia without delay. I find myself in a disagreeable situation which is the reason of my application to you. I was told that the Assembly expected that the Delegates were upon the same terms as formerly.
Mr. Gerard a French Minister is here. He is to reside in America. War is declared by France against England. A large Fleet from that Nation arrived at Sandy Hook several days ago and are gone to New York to take possession of the British Fleet there. We expect to hear of an action every hour.

General Washington crossed the North River, and General Gates is in the Neighborhood of King's Bridge with a considerable body. Our force will be upwards of 20,000. The French have 3 or 4000 men more than they want to man their ships, who may be disposed of as General Washington thinks proper, so that most Gentlemen are of opinion we shall soon be in possession of New York: in short, our affairs seem to be in as good a way as we could wish.

Mr. Deane is in Town. He is highly recommended by the King of France. I beg your Excellency will let me hear from you as soon as possible. I had almost forgot to tell you that General Lee is under an arrest. What the sentence will be is not known. However, he has made it a quarrel with Genl Washington, and of course you know he must fail. I shall write you by every opportunity.

I am with due respect your Excellency's mo. ob. huml Servt.

JOHN PENN.

P. S. Some matters of very great importance will soon come in. It is the wish of the Southern States that North Carolina should vote, as I am confident that it was not the design of the General Assembly to alter our old mode of one Delegate representing the State. I hope your Excellency will send a Commission for that purpose. However the Clerks may have expressed the resolution of the Assembly, and we shall have nothing to do or say this year. Enclosed is a Newspaper.

J. P.
HON. J. PENN TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]
PHILADELPHIA July 21st 1778.

DEAR SIR:

I wrote to you the 15th Inst. by an express informing you that by the Commission Col. Williams obtained it would require three Delegates to be present before the State could have a vote, and then indeed we must be all of one opinion. As there are several Gentlemen here that represent the State they belong to singly, and as I proposed to our Assembly that they would choose four Delegates confining two to be here at a time, which was not done, the Members saying they would proceed the old way, I am induced to wish that your Excellency would send a Commission giving all or either of us a right to vote until November, when I think the Confederation directs two. I mention this again lest some accident should happen to the express.

Monsr Gerard the French Minister is here, he is a very polite and well bred man, Mr. Deane says he has been our first friend in France. The French Fleet cannot get nearer to New York than Sandy Hook, on account of their size, they have lately taken thither Transports loaded with provisions going to Lord Howe. We had a curious letter from the Commissioners lately, calling upon us to know, by what authority we presume to make treaties with the King of France, or any other foreign power, declaring we had no authority delegated to us, for that purpose by the Assembly's of the different States, before or since the supposed confederation; the answer was short, "that the British Fleet and Army not being sent away, nor the Independence of America acknowledged, no answer be given." Enclosed is a Newspaper. I hope Sir you will forward a Commission by the first opportunity as desired unless you find some express resolution to the contrary, of the Assembly. Indeed I am perfectly satisfied from what I heard when at New Bern, that no alteration was intended. I feel myself in an awkward situation not having a right to vote, matters of importance will soon be debated. I have the honor to be with due respect your Excellency's most ob. Servt.

J. PENN.
PRESIDENT HENRY LAURENS TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA 23d July, 1778.

Sir:

As I have nothing public in charge for your Excellency I must request you Sir to indulge me in this private cover for six Marine Commissions, Instructions & Bonds, and of a letter to Capt. Cottineau. The Captain applied to me in York Town for a commission for his own ship, and for one or two which he said he intended to equip and form a little squadron. Congress are not inclined to grant Commissions for vessels in distant States, unless especial descriptions are previously laid before them, your Excellency will be capable of judging of the propriety of Capt. Cottineau's pretensions, and will act as you shall think for the benefit of the public at this critical moment, 'tis highly probable demands will be made on your Excellency for all that remains after Capt. Cottineau shall be supplied.

I am told that no less than twelve prizes lately taken are advertised for sale on Tuesday next at Egg Harbour. Vice Admiral Count d'Estaing, has captured a much greater number at Sandy Hook, some of them armed vessels, and some very valuable, but we have not learned particulars. The Admiral finding his large Ships of too great a draught of water for the Bar of the Hook (after lying several days in view of the British Squadron within) sailed as we are informed for Rhode Island where he must be content to play a smaller game, than that which he originally had in view. If General Pigot and his Garrison shall be compelled to surrender, the thing will not be very inconsiderable.

I take the liberty of enclosing to your Excellency two of the latest Newspapers.

I am anxious that Congress should resolve to hold no conference with men who have dared to tempt them with bribes of Gold, and I trust that through the endeavours of some diligent Patriots in the House, those Men will be compelled to return. The bearers of their impeachment will be held up to the severe resentments of their much injured Countrymen, and their names transmitted to posterity in characters which will render their memory infamous. I have the honor to be with great esteem & respect Sir,
Your Excellency's obedient servant,
HENRY LAURENS.

HON. TIM PICKERING TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WAR OFFICE, PHILADELPHIA July 23d 1778.

SIR:

Your letter of March 31st to Michael Hillegas Esq., Continental Treasurer, was presented to this Board, who ordered Wm. Henry Esq., their Agent for procuring shoes &c at Lancaster to pay the wagonage of the Leather shoes and Deer skins sent in two wagons to Zebulon Beard and Landrine Angurs, and purchased we suppose by the Gentlemen you mention Messrs. Lock & Smith. We have lately seen Mr. Henry, (who is a man of judgment and integrity) who says he paid the wagonage, but that the Leather was the worst parcel he had seen, a large portion of it was manifestly the refuse of the tannery. If the States are charged the price of good leather for the whole, they will be greatly imposed on, by whom, whether the tanners or the purchasers, must be to us unknown. Had we received earlier notice of this we should have advised you of it.

We have the honor to be your Excellency’s most ob. Servts.

By order of the Board,
TIM PICKERING.

Dr Sir:

Mr. Penn informs me that he is in a whimsical situation at Philadelphia, the Commission for the Delegates from this State, being so worded as to make it necessary, that all three of them should be in Congress to entitle this State to a vote. Mr. Penn wishes to have the Commission altered and has desired me to express my sentiments on the intention of the Assembly. In the beginning of the last session it was the intention of the Assembly that three Delegates in behalf of this State, should constantly attend in Congress, and therefore it was voted that five should be elected, but as they afterwards resolved that three only should be elected, so it was then their intention that any one of the three should be entitled to vote in the absence of the others, for if this were not the case this State, must necessarily be often deprived of its vote in Congress.

I most sincerely congratulate you on the arrival of a French Fleet and I am, Dr Sir, your mo. ob. Huml Servt, WILLIE JONES.

HON. TIM. PICKERING TO DR. THOMAS BURKE.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WAR OFFICE PHILADELPHIA July 26 1778.

Sir:

Your letter by Mr. O'Neal, with the draught in his favour, & by Mr. John Taylor, have come to hand. Mr. Taylor has got all the horses (sixty-five in number) safe along; but they are in sad plight; so that it is impossible to form a certain judgment concerning them. If they were in flesh we believe they might answer the purpose for which they were intended. We have paid Mr. O'Neal & Mr. Taylor; and by the latter sent you six hundred and fifty-three dollars, the amount of your disbursements.

From the information we received, we expected the horses would not have cost more than two-thirds the money. We hoped also that Capt. Medici & his men would have brought them on, & saved the expense of drivers; but we suppose he was not within your reach. As the horses are so dear, we choose you should immediately stop all further purchases on our account; and contrive, if possible, to send the remainder of the horses by some of the North Carolina Dragoons (appointing if you judge it necessary, one trusty man to take the over sight of them) of whom there are enough in your State, who, as well as Capt. Medici, should have been here long ago. The conduct of this gentleman is unac-countable. 'Tis near a year since he was furnished with a large sum of money, to purchase horses, to mount those Dragoons; but he has done very little towards it. Some months ago the board wrote to him to come and settle his accounts; but we have no answer. We enclose another for the same purpose, which we pray you will be kind enough to get conveyed to him. We have not ordered him to take charge of the residue of your horses to bring them thither, because for his past conduct, we are not satisfied it would be safe to give him this further trust.

You will be pleased to accept our thanks for your care and trouble in this business.

We are Sir, with great regard your most obedt. Servts. By order of the Board,

TIM. PICKERING.

Enclosed is a duplicate receipt of the money paid Mr. Taylor as you requested.

CAPT. WILLIS WILSON TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEW BERN 28th July 1778.

Sir:

I left the Caswell at the Bar last Sunday, and got to this place yesterday, hoping to see your Excellency in Town. Dror Cooley is desirous to know whether he is to be continued or not, in the Caswell, respecting which I will be proud to have orders, by the return of the bearer, I have lately been acquainted with Mrs. Wilson's being very unwell. Chief of my business to this place was to obtain leave of absence for a short time from your Excellency to pay her a visit, which I should not request on any other account but the above, I therefore hope to receive permissions from your Excellency by return. Mr. Cheshire, my Master, is a trusty Gentleman to whom I shall leave the charge during my absence, which shall be short. Shall be proud to know when the Paymaster may be expected, as I may have my pay rolls properly made out to the time. Nothing has happened at the Bar worth notice. I am with great respect, your Excellency's Ob. huml. Servt.

PRESIDENT J. RUTLEDGE OF S. C. TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CHARLES TOWN August 3d 1778.

Sir:

The Bearer, Baron de Bonstetien, who came from France to this place, in his way to Philadelphia, with a view of offering his services in the Military Line, to Congress was recommended to me, by a principal House at Nantes, as an officer of experience and merit. He requests that I would make this recommendation known to you, and therefore I give you this trouble. I have the honor to be with respect and esteem Sir,

Your mo. ob. Servt.

J. RUTLDEGE.

WM. THARPE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

SALISBURY 5th August 1778.

Sir:

Your favor covering a Commission which your Excellency honored Col. Lanier, Major Winston and myself with for holding a treaty with the Cherokee Middle and Valley Settlement Indians came to hand early in May, and was immediately communicated to the other two Gentlemen, who were of opinion with me that the proposed treaty could not be held consistent with the Honor of Government, unless the then Session of Congress made farther provision, and in consequence thereof that your Excellency would give us farther advice. However it appears that nothing was done. I therefore take the liberty to inform your Excellency that it was our opinion, that before another treaty is held, a penal law is necessary for the punishment of those who violate the articles, of the former: otherwise we may be upbraided by the Indians for giving what they call lying Talks, on that occasion. If we are under such disadvantages as not to be able to support the veracity and dignity of the Government, we think it better to refrain from treating.
Another circumstance that is discouraging is the small sum which Government hath proposed to enable your Excellency to hold the Treaty. Considering the present enormous price of Beef, Flour, Wagon Hire, Tobacco, Whiskey and many other things which may be necessary in order to support the character of Government with those people, if we had proceeded to hold a treaty our just and reasonable claims would have amounted so far above one thousand pounds which doubtless might have surprised the Legislature.

I can assure your Excellency on my own part that the sole motive for delaying the treaty is the preservation of the honor and interest of Government.

As the fall of the year is the most convenient season for holding a treaty, (which I conceive exceedingly necessary) and the Assembly has unexpectedly met, perhaps such measures may be adopted as may enable us or any that your Excellency may think proper to appoint to hold a Treaty. If so with due submission I mention the propriety of your Excellency's addressing a Talk to those people by way of introduction to the business and sending therewith a white Wampum Belt, that (according to their figure) may reach from you to their beloved men. Sir, your most ob. huml. servt.

W.M. THARPE.

PREST. RAWL. LOWNDES OF S. C. TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CHARLES TOWN August 6th 1778.

SIR:

I had the honor to write to your Excellency on the 2d July last concerning the complaint of the Cherokee Indians on account of their lands being run out by some people from your State, since which I have heard from the Nation, that several of their people taken prisoners during the late War by the No. Carolinians have been sold for slaves, as they say from one to another like cattle. By the treaty which we concluded with these people, it was stipulated that the Captives on each side should mutually be given up, in consequence of which we have given up all the Indians which we took and they have released many of our people, which were in their hands. Two Poor unfortunate Girls excepted, of the name Smith and Right, whose Fathers were killed and themselves carried off are now at Pensacola. On my demanding these unfortunate creatures of the Indians they allege in their excuse for not bringing them, in, that many of their people are still in captivity, by which treaty they were to be delivered up and that we should not demand the literal execution of the treaty on their part while we commit a breach of it ourselves. This circumstance furnishes them with a plausible pretext for delaying the delivery of these poor wretches to their friends and relations and stops our mouths from urging it with such force as we might otherwise do. The poor Girls, one especially, is of a very reputable family, has Brothers in the Army, and they are entitled to every endeavour on our part to procure their enlargement. It is for that purpose that I now trouble your Excellency, with the first information which I have received which thwarts the recovery of these Girls or at least covers the Indians' excuses for not being more active in securing them from Pensacola. This State will pay any consideration to the holders of those Indian captives for their purchase in order to remove every just objection that may lie in the way of recovering these two Girls out of the hands of the enemy, English or Indian, being bound by every consideration of honor and humanity to redeem them.

You will be pleased therefore to settle with the proprietors the terms on which they will part with their possession, and also inform yourself of the number of Indians thus claimed in your State, as I flatter myself every man will give his utmost assistance in a matter that will be productive in its issue of the delivery of such objects of compassion as must interest every one, in their favor who has the least sentiments of humanity, from which motive Sir, I am induced to trouble you and which I doubt not will be a sufficient apology for me to your Excellency.

Lieut. Col. Bonsteller has applied to me within these six days frequently, and notwithstanding my utmost endeavours to assist him, he has not yet been able to procure a wagon to carry on his Baggage. The unfortunate and fruitless expedition into Florida, has rendered wagons so scarce and difficult to procure that there are not in all about town a sufficient number for the ordinary demands of the State. The gentleman is extremely anxious to be gone, and has just left me to see what better success he can meet with, by an order I have given him. I will give him all the help I can, but our laws have not authorized pressing, indeed at another time they might have been procured by the ordinary means of hiring tho' at an extravagant price.

I have the honor to be with great regard Sir, your Excellency's most hume. Servt.

RAWL LOWNDES.

GOV. CASWELL TO COL. LOCKE.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

State of North Carolina,

Richard Caswell, Esqr. Governor and Commander in chief of the said State. To Francis Locke, Esqr. Colonel of the Rowan Regiment of Militia.

WHEREAS a petition has been exhibited to me in Council against Capt. John Johnston of your Regiment, complaining of his undue and illegal execution of his office as Captain, I therefore, (in pursuance of the advice of the Council of State) require you to call a Board of the officers of your Regiment to enquire into the conduct of the said Capt. Johnston in the premises, which Board after hearing the testimony of witnesses as well on the part of the Petitioners as of Capt. Johnston are to reduce the same to writing with their opinion respecting the premises, and return the same with the Petition herewith delivered to me in Council certified under the hand of the President of the said Board as soon as the same is practicable.

Given under my hand and the seal of the said State at Hillsborough the 10th day of August Anno Domini 1778.

R. CASWELL.
GOV. CASWELL TO JOHN PENN ESQ., PHILA.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

HILLSBOROUGH 13th August 1778.

SIR:

Your letter of the 15th ulto I received about a fortnight past, and as the General Assembly was appointed to meet here the third Instant, I detained the Messenger until your letter should be laid before that Body, the Commission I have furnished Col. Williams with, being strictly agreeable to the appointment of the Assembly. I did not consider myself at liberty to grant, by commission any powers not warranted in the appointment. The Assembly met the 8th and this day entered into the Resolutions of which I enclose you a copy. I also enclose you a Commission agreeable to the said Resolutions with the addition of two gentlemen chosen by the Assembly, your messenger has received here one hundred and twelve and an halfdollars, to defray his expenses whilst here and on his return.

I flattered myself when you assured me at New Bern, that the sum wanted for raising & marching the men voted to complete our Continental Battalions, could be had from the Continental Treasury, that in a week or ten days after application to Congress that the same would have been obtained, and took measures in behalf of the public accordingly. But to my great mortification and disappointment the messenger which I sent, after waiting three weeks upon Congress and the Treasury, returned with one-fifth of the sum drawn for, and without the least intimation why my Bills were not answered, for they were returned to me, or what sum was sent, indeed I was not honored with a scrape of a pen, on the subject, tho' I had repeatedly requested every assistance, and dispatch to be given the messenger and furnished every document necessary. The sum sent not being more than sufficient to pay the Bounty of 1000 Volunteers, the exhausted State of the Treasury here left us no alternative; a call of the Assembly became absolutely necessary, and the wisdom of that Body in their late session had lodged a power in the executive for that purpose.
You now Sir know the inconveniences that have arisen, and may easily form some judgment of the injuries the State will sustain, the disappointment and fatigue of many individuals, occasioned by a reliance on your word; however enough of this for the present, perhaps you may hear more of this disagreeable subject after the rising of the Assembly.

One Regiment only of the new raised men has been completed, and marched under the command of Col. Hogun, the others still remain in the State for want of money to enable them to march, and it is now so late, that little is to be expected from them, 'tis not unlikely that the Assembly may direct them to be disbanded. Mr. Harnett I have no doubt has arrived at Congress before this and I hope Col. Williams will have recovered of the small pox, and have joined you before this arrives. My most respectful compliments attend you and them.

I am Sir, your mo. ob. Servt.

R. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, 14th Aug. 1778.

The Committee appointed to take into their consideration divers Letters and papers containing a charge in behalf of the Continental Congress against Thomas Burke one of the Delegates of this State, together with Mr. Burke's state of facts and observations offered to the Assembly in justification of himself, beg leave to Report.

That upon an attentive and dispassionate revisal of the subject matter proposed to them, they observe with extreme concern that it originated from a circumstance so trivial in itself that nothing but the consideration which Congress during a debate of near fifteen days bestowed upon it, could have swelled it into the importance, which at present it assumes.

That the indignity which Mr. Burke is accused of having offered to Congress, if any indignity had been intended by him, must have been to the individuals and not to the Congress as such, as the Criminality alleged is said to consist principally in Mr. Burke's having withdrawn himself and thereby broke up the Congress and thereby prevented their proceeding in the public business.

That the expression charged by Congress to have been made use of by Mr. Burke to their Messenger cannot be vindicated upon the strict rules of Courtly Manners and refined politeness, but considered as the sudden, unpremeditated effusion of fatigue and indisposition, made after a debate which had continued the greatest part of a day, until 10 o'clock in the evening in which the passions has been much interested and agitated and both the mind and the body almost exhausted, it will not justify any asperity of animadversion. Intended as Mr. Burke alleges it was for a private gentleman from whom he supposed the message had been addressed to him, it was not a matter in which the Honor of the Public Council was concerned, but supposing the possibility of a contempt to Congress, when Congress did not exist, Mr. Burke's repeated declarations that he had no such design have removed every cause of contempt on that score.

But as the consequences which this incident led to, are of a nature much more interesting than the occasion of them, and require that the Assembly should be immediately explicit upon a question of such capital magnitude, your Committee further report that the powers assumed in the case of Mr. Burke and maintained by Congress as their right are such as this State can never concede to them, without relaxing their own independence and giving up the exclusive control which they have over their Representatives in Congress. That this State has a right and will ever be ready when occasion requires it to control, censure, punish and remove their members, and should Congress arrogate to itself these, or any part of these powers, there is no line described when and to what extent this authority might be exercised.

It may be stretched to defeat the independence of this State, to an invasion of its internal policy and to the total destruction of its due weight in the Council of the United States.

That although evils like these are not to be apprehended from the Gentlemen who at present compose that respectable body, although their wisdom and Integrity guard them from every suspicion of extending their doctrines to baneful practices, yet these Gentlemen share in the common frailties of nature and must quit the stage of Life and their places in Congress to men who may be disposed to improve dangerous precedents to tyrannical purposes and wield a weapon which has been innocent in the hands of their predecessors to the destruction of the good people of the United States.

If at any future distant period, a majority of Congress should be found bold and wicked enough to attempt to suppress the freedom of debate in any Representative of the State, who should heartily stand forth in support of the Rights of his constituents, and proceed even to Censure and punish at their sovereign will and pleasure, the member thus in the way of the views of a combined majority may be struck from a share in the public Councils, and his judges who in this case would be judges, party, and executioners, would be at large to do an irreparable injury to his Constituents, who no longer would have any share in controlling their operations.

The Assembly of this State will be ever ready to open their ears to the complaints of Congress against their members and punish their guilt when established with impartial severity. They are very sensible that Rules of Decorum may be necessary in the best regulated Assemblies. That these must be relaxed or strengthened as the members who are subjected to them observe with respect to each other an habitual practice of good manners and reciprocal civility. That they have the fullest confidence that the members of this State will not be deficient in this respect, but will unite with their brother Delegates to strengthen that happy bond of harmony in private intercourse and in the public Councils, which has advanced the affairs of America to their present prosperous situation and holds forth such a promising prospect of a happy conclusion.

WM. HOOPER,
Chairman.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA August 27th 1778.

Sir:

I embrace the first opportunity since my arrival to throw on paper a few lines to your Excellency which I am obliged to do without method or correction. Col. Hognn is just arrived with 500 and odd men, and will I believe immediately proceed to Head Quarters at White Plains. I take the liberty to enclose some of the last papers. Our affairs at Rhode Island seem to wear a promising aspect. You will find that the French Admiral the Count deEstaing after beginning an attack upon the enemies' Fortifications, had silenced two of their Batteries, when an English Fleet appeared off the Harbor in the evening which obliged the Count to proceed to sea the next morning to engage them, and he was seen at 11 o'clock in pursuit, and the enemy flying before him. Genl. Sullivan who commands our army of the Island seems to be in high spirits, the enemy having evacuated all their out Posts, and retired within their lines near the town of New Port. Our army under cover of a fog, had erected a Battery within 250 yards of their lines, and seem to intend to force them, we are in anxious expectation of the event as our General seems confident of success. The enemy having no prospect to retreat, having been obliged by the approach of the French Fleet to burn five of their Frigates and two Gallies, and had by the last accounts received but one Frigate left at New Port which upon the return of the French Fleet must be also destroyed or fall into their hands.

Genl. Washington with the main army remains still at White Plains, waiting I suppose the event of the expedition against Rhode Island. I also enclose the sentence of the Court Martial which sat on the trial of General Lee.

I must now beg leave to call your Excellency's attention to some matters which particularly concern the State which I have the honor to represent.

I cannot find as yet that Congress have reduced the number of Supernumerary officers in the several Battalions of the different States in the manner they have done to our officers, if so, the States have not been equally dealt by.

Our troops of Light Horse have been shamefully neglected, having been long in want of accoutrements, while other new raised Corps have been completely accoutred.

No General officer from our State has been as yet appointed, altho' the General Assembly recommended two gentlemen to be nominated by their Delegates which was done in the most pressing manner in December last.

The requisition of the State for 500,000 dollars for Bounty pay &c. of the men raised to complete the 6th Regiment as the quota of our State, agreeable to the new arrangement has been refused by Congress without assigning any reason as I find on their Journal, only a very short resolve to send 100,000 Dollars in lieu of 500,000 required, and that resolve enclosed to your Excellency without a letter from the President mentioning the motives which induced the measure.

I am informed it has been asserted in Congress in the absence of our Members, that the State of No. Carolina had received from the Continental Treasury more than their proportion of money, and until their account against the United States should be properly liquidated, no farther sums should be advanced. This will convince you Sir, of the absolute necessity of sending on the accounts and vouchers, not only those relative to the supplies to the Continental Troops but also those relative to the Insurrection. The Indian Expedition, the Militia sent to Virginia and those called out on several other occasions, as I find all the other States are endeavouring to do the same, I am very well convinced that No. Carolina is largely in advance to the Continent, much more I expect, than will pay the late requisition, which if I remember right was 250,000 dollars. I have been exceedingly hurt when called upon to produce the demand our State has against the United States, and must repeat to your Excellency my earnest desire that you will be pleased to send on the accounts and vouchers, stated by Gentlemen well acquainted with accounts as every matter of this sort will be very strictly scrutinized by Commissioners of Claims appointed for that purpose.
I wish we could have been represented in Congress, at the time the requisition for 500,000 dollars was made. I flatter myself the State would not have been affronted in so gross a manner. I stayed at York Town until the very last day to which I was appointed, being resolved to travel home at my own expense, rather than leave the State unrepresented. If I had an opportunity of attending the General Assembly, I would propose that 6 Delegates for our State should be annually appointed and that three of them should attend 6 Months, and the other three the remaining 6 months and there to continue until they were relieved by others of the new appointment, and no delegate to be paid for a longer time, than his travelling to, attendance on, and returning home. By this means the State would be at very little expense (annually) more than they are at present, and be continually represented. I need not mention to you, Sir, the necessity of having your State constantly represented in Congress; you are too well acquainted with public Assemblies to doubt of such necessity. Had either of my associates or even myself been present, the credit of the State of No. Carolina would not have been so wantonly sported with. Myself and Colleagues intend as soon as we can find an opening to introduce this subject, for my own part, I can't be easy, until Congress explain to the State, the reasons of their conduct. They have been so taken up since my arrival with business of very great importance to the public, that we have not had it in our power as yet to bring this matter on, but are determined to do it as soon as possible I could have wished that Congress had appointed a Deputy Pay Master General in our State, and had taken care to have supplied a Military Chest with money necessary for the pay and subsistence of their Troops, this measure has taken place in almost every one of the other States. I assure you, altho' I sincerely wish the accounts and vouchers may be speedily sent on, I shudder at the difficulty
I expect to meet with, in the passing them in such a manner, as may give satisfaction to the State. I shall contribute all in my power towards accomplishing these purposes.

The bearer of this is Col. Marbury of Georgia who has promised me to call on your Excellency in his way home, this Gentleman comes well recommended to me by Genl Howe, & I beg leave to mention him to you, as a Gent. of merit. I have the honor to be with great respect your Excellency's mo. ob. huml. Servt.

CORNELIUS HARNETT.

CAPT. J. SITGREAVES TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NEW BERN 1st September 1778.

SIR:

I take this the earliest opportunity of transmitting your Excellency the papers I was to bring down from Hillsboro, am extremely sorry it was out of my power to call by Kingston with them as I came down, being very much indisposed. I believe all the papers are here, except a letter from Gov. Henry to your Excellency respecting the Naval officers of this State, which was delivered to a Committee appointed to enquire into the conduct of the Naval officers who never reported. I know the member it was delivered to, and shall take care to get it of him next Assembly. I am with all respect Your Excellency's most humble servant.

J. SITGREAVES.

HON. J. PENN MEMBER OF CONGRESS TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7th 1778.

DEAR SIR:

When I was at New Bern last and was informed that, several Gentlemen of the Assembly proposed to ask more money for the purpose of raising Troops for the Grand Army, I was against it and gave my advice that application should be made to Congress for whatever money was necessary for public use, giving them as a reason that I thought it more for the interest of North Carolina to be indebted to the United States, than the reverse that all the other States were occasionally supplied with money, and I was authorized to say (to the Treasury Board) that they would have money by the 10th of May; besides what money was made in our State was confined there. I also knew that no Governor or State when I left Congress was treated with more respect than your Excellency and those you presided over. I therefore had no doubt you would have received whatever money was necessary for marching the Troops without delay. Judge then Sir, of my surprise and chagrin when I found by your letter, which I got a few days ago which I most sensibly felt the indignity offered the State, I belonged to, by the little respect that was paid to her first Magistrate, and loudly complained of it in Congress. The members seem much concerned and resolved to grant us the sum you wrote for, indeed they appeared willing to do every thing that tends to our interest.

We shall send off the money as soon as we can, which will I expect be in a short time, Congress are obliged to meet twice a day, business still increases, in short unless persons are appointed not members to do some of it we must all be ruined. A few days ago we were in high expectation of taking all the British Troops on Rhode Island, now rejoicing that our Army was able to get away without being taken, the Newspapers will inform you the reason. We have no late intelligence from Europe. If the Assembly did not discharge the soldiers it is the wish of Congress that they may be kept in Carolina, under the officers until your Excellency can hear from them. The Express is setting off sent by the President which obliges me to stop. I should be happy to receive any intelligence that you may think proper to give me and with my Colleagues to do every thing in my power for the benefit of No. Carolina. I hope you will excuse the manner in which this appears from the hurry I am in.

I have the honor to be with great respect, your Excellency's most Ob. Servt.

J. PENN.
JOHN PENN, CORNS. HARNETT & JNO. WILLIAMS MEMBERS OF CONGRESS TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA Sept. 8th 1778.

Sir:

Upon our application to Congress to have a reconsideration of your Excellency’s letter relative to the 500,000 dollars, to be sent for the use of the Continental Troops in our State, we have procured a warrant on the Treasury for the remaining 400,000 which we shall send on, with the utmost expedition, as soon as we can receive it from the Treasury. We have our hopes that the General Assembly, have neither disbanded the Troops or emitted more paper currency. We wish it may come, in time to answer your Excellency’s intention to satisfy the Troops. The President has enclosed the resolve of Congress on this business, and we are with great respect your Excellency’s most Ob. hume. Servts.

JOHN PENN.
CORNS. HARNETT.
JNO. WILLIAMS.

PRESIDENT RAWL. LOWNDES OF S. C. TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CHARLES TOWN, 9th Sept. 1778.

Sir:

Appearances in the Indian Country wear the aspect of War. The Creeks have commenced hostilities in the State of Georgia, and I have received very pressing application for the assistance to support that State, in no condition equal to its own defence. If my intelligence is right, some Murders have also been committed near our Frontiers, in your State, supposed to be by the Cherokees. A union therefore of force will be the natural consequence of a Rupture with the Creeks, and how far further their alliance may be extended, depends in a great measure for the protection of our Frontier and also for affording aid to our sister State of Georgia, should negociation prove fruitless, but I fear matters are too far gone to admit of a cordial accommodation. As it is a General interest Sir, in which your State is very materially concerned, I take the earliest opportunity of apprising you of my apprehensions, not doubting but this State will receive, in such an event, that succour and assistance from North Carolina, which she has always so readily afforded when called upon, a union of force, on our part, being the most speedy, as well as effectual means to prevent, or to shorten the calamities of an Indian War.

I have the honor to be with very great respect Sir, your

RAWL. LOWNDES.

CAPT. JOHN EASTON TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

BEAUFORT, 13th Sept. 1778.

SIR:

'I am in hopes there may be a chance soon of getting some money, towards paying off the ship Caswell, she laying at a place where they can't well run away, otherwise I expect she would have but few hands left as they have received no pay. I have received letters from Capt. Wilson informing me that he was much distressed for want of money. I am at a loss to know what sum may be necessary, or what may likely be obtained soon from the Treasury. Your Excellency will please to grant me a warrant for what sum you may think convenient. I expect it will require a large sum as their wages run high, and a number of men. I understand the ship is much eaten with worms. I should think it necessary she should go up to New Bern to clean. Mr.
Tomlinson will hand this to your Excellency, by whom you will be pleased to send me the warrant. I have in my care near 300 bushels salt, brought by the Pennsylvania Farmer, stored with Col. Thompson. If the public should not likely want it should think it best to be sold, as the storage will eat it out.

I am respectfully your Excellency's Mo. ob. huml. Servt.

JOHN EASTON.
HON. CORNS. HARNETT TO GOV. CASWELL.

PHILADELPHIA Sept. 15th 1778.

Sir:

The Delegates of the State wrote you a few days ago, that they had at last obtained a grant of the remaining 400,000 dollars, to complete your draft for 500,000. This was an object which on my arrival I had much at heart to accomplish; fearing the General Assembly might have been induced to have disbanded the new raised Troops for want of money—or emitted Procl. money for the purpose of paying them off, neither of which was, I hope, done. Had our State been represented in Congress at the time of Mr. Blount's arrival, I am well convinced the money would have been sent. I am happy to find that Mr. Burke and Mr. Hill are appointed for a year. By that means I hope the State will not again meet with such usage.

Should your Excellency think proper to instruct your Delegates on matters relative to the State, especially such as may not occur to us, I should be happy. I find when Governors recommend any measure to the Delegates of their States, it generally has greater weight with Congress than when propositions are made by them, without any letter or instructions for such purposes.

As soon as the 400,000 dollars can be procured from the Treasurer, I shall in conjunction with my Colleagues send it forward by some safe conveyance, in the most expeditious manner. I must take the liberty once more to press your Excellency to forward as speedily as possible the State's accounts and vouchers. I am daily told that No. Carolina has received more money from the Continental Treasury in proportion, than any other State in the Union. In vain do I tell them that we never had a Military Chest established in our State, or a Pay Master; that the expense of drawing out a considerable part of our Militia to quell a very dangerous Insurrection in the very heart of our Country, another very expensive expedition against the Cherokees; the raising, paying, clothing and subsisting Ten Continental Battalions, for a considerable space of time, has been defrayed out of the Treasury of our State. To this they only answer why don't you produce your accounts? I wish this may be done, as I am confident the Continental Treasury must be largely indebted to us. I hope the Gentlemen who are or may be appointed to state these demands, may be careful to procure every necessary voucher for the charges made against the Continent, which must be sent on with the accounts. If your Excellency should in future think it necessary to establish a Military Chest, Pay Master, Commissary, &c. you will be pleased to mention it to your Delegates, perhaps it may be necessary, more especially should another requisition, for men be made this winter against the spring, which may happen should the enemy be determined on another Campaign; this is the opinion of some.

By the Newspapers enclosed you will find Genl. Sullivan on the 29th August gave the Enemy a severe check on Rhode Island before his retreat. This enabled him to cross to the main with all his baggage & stores without molestation. The French Fleet are in Boston Harbor, and Lord Howe with a superior Fleet having been lately joined by 6 or 8 sail of the line, being a part of Admr. Byron's Squadron, are cruising off that place. We are told another fleet is hourly expected to reinforce the Count DeEstaing. I wish they may not be intercepted by Lord Howe, before a junction is formed with the Contt.

If I can persuade Mr. Burke or Mr. Hill to relieve me, my intention is to return home before the winter sets in too severe.

I am with great respect, your Excellency's most ob. huml. servt.
Corns. Harnett.

P. S. A very great noise has been made in Congress by the Virginia Delegates relative to a Cap Harper driven into Curri-tuck by Goutrage. And an attempt is now making to recom-end to the State to make restitution to Virginia, this matter has been pushed by the Virginia Delegates, and altho' they have been assisted by the Gentlemen from New York &c. they have hitherto failed in their attempt. I hope your Excellency will enquire into the matter, and see that the persons who took the vessels out of the Inlet be brought to punishment. The Bill of Costs of the Court of his Excellency's Admiralty is exorbitant, more of this in my next.
Genl Sullivan acquaints Congress that by accounts received by Deserters, and (which is more to be depended on) accounts from persons on Rhode Island, the enemy had 1061 killed and wounded in the late action, 321 of which were killed and mortally wounded on the field. This seems to account for the enemy's suffering our Army to make good their retreat, with all their stores and baggage, without Molestation, tho' equal in numbers before the action.

NORTH CAROLINA, 14th September 1778.

SIR:

Permit me to use the Freedom of introducing to your Excellency, Monsr. Mountflorence who was a Captain in a French Regiment directed to be raised in this State, but the Assembly finding it impracticable to complete the said Regiment disbanded the same. He is a Gentleman well recommended to me by the field officers of his Regiment. If your Excellency shall think proper to give him an appointment in the army, I flatter myself he will faithfully discharge the duties of the same.

Sir:

The General Assembly in May last resolved that a French Regiment should be raised in this State for the service of the United States, gave the command of the same to Col. Chariol and directed Commissioners to issue to the officers necessary to command such Regiment, among whom Monsr. Sureau Duvivier was appointed Major, who whilst in that station behaved with unexceptionable conduct. The General Assembly in August last, finding it was impracticable to raise the said Regiment thought proper to disband such privates as had been raised, and declared the State had no further occasion for the service of the officers. Mr. Duvivier is very desirous of being employed in the Continental service, and his late conduct here induces me to take the liberty of recommending him to your notice.

SIR:

In May last the General Assembly of this State directed a French Regiment to be raised for the service of the United States, but finding it impracticable to complete the same, in their late session in August disbanded such as were raised. Capt. Oniell (the Bearer) had the honor to be appointed an officer in that Regiment. He is about to undertake a journey to the grand American Camp, and in his way intends waiting on your Excellency. I take the liberty of giving him this letter, by way of introduction, which you will be pleased to excuse, so far as I have observed Capt. Oniell's conduct, it has been becoming the officer and the Gentleman.

NEW BERN, Sept. 19th 1778.

To His Excellency Richard Caswell:

The deepest sensation of the obligations I am under to you, for the many favors I have received do always remain fresh in my breast, altho' your kindnesses had not the desired effect in introducing me to the army. I shall never give over to acknowledge them with a most sincere heart. My whole wishes and endeavours are for the safety and welfare of my Country, (which I now term this). I regard the Country, I am willing to venture my life, and spill my blood on all occasions, in its defence. I return you my most humble thanks for the favors you have done me, yet I entreat this one particular favor of you, that I may be able to hasten my journey, that you would grant me an order on Col. Leech for fifty pounds, or if it seems better to you to give me a letter of recommendation to the Governor of Virginia, that he may grant me what is necessary.
The horse which I bought cost me sixty pounds. My expenses on my journey to Hillsborough were fifty pounds. It would be very difficult for me to go to the army without you grant what I entreat of you. I likewise entreat you to grant me a letter of recommendation to General Washington, and affix the Seal of the State thereto.

I am your most humble servant.

CAPT. DEBADIE.

HON. CORNS. HARNETT TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book]

PHILADELPHIA, 2d Sept, 1778.

SIR:

I take the liberty to enclose your Excellency the acct. as it stands in the Treasury Books against our State. Your Excellency will be pleased to observe that a warrant has been procured for 400,000 dollars, the balance of your draft for 500,000 for the use of the new raised Levies; as soon as the money is received it shall be sent forward with all convenient despatch. Congress did yesterday come to a resolution of sending 1000 men from Virginia, and 3000 from North Carolina, to march immediately to So. Carolina as the people of that State apprehend that Gen'l Clinton, (should he leave New York, which we have reason to believe) may take Charles Town in his way, to endeavor to retrieve his lost honor in that quarter. The movements of the enemy at New York and Rhode Island seems to indicate an evacuation of those places. Their destination is not known, but as we have every reason to believe there is a declaration of war, between France and England, and that the Spaniards will very soon take part in it. Congress are led to believe the British Troops in America must proceed to England, and perhaps a part of the West Indies. By the resolve of Congress, enclosed to your Excellency by the President, you will find, it is the desire of So. Carolina that you should take the command of the North Carolina Troops, with the rank and pay of a Major General in Continental service. I am informed the new Levies are left out on furlough, until March next; could those men be collected and sent forward to South Carolina it might save a good deal of expense in calling out the Militia. The President of Congress will mention to your Excellency, some other matters relative to this movement, which I am not at present at liberty to communicate, indeed they are not yet fully determined upon. You may be assured that a supply of money will be sent on immediately to defray the expenses of our Troops, now to be drawn out exclusive of the $400,000 mentioned above. I should be sorry to hear of any more Troops received or Militia embodied in our State unless provision is first made by Congress for their bounty, pay and subsistence &c, by sending money forward for that purpose. I am necessitated once more to remind your Excellency to endeavor by all means to send on the accounts and vouchers of our State against the Continent. Surely we must be largely in advance, not having since the beginning of the War a Military chest established in our State. Had such an establishment taken place in ours, as in other States, the charge against North Carolina would have been trifling indeed.

The South Carolina and Georgia delegates are so incensed against Gen'l Robt. Howe that he is directed immediately to join Gen'l Washington at Head Quarters, and Gen'l Lincoln is to command in the Southern department. This gentleman is a valuable and experienced Officer, he is ordered immediately to repair to Charlestown. I have not had the pleasure of a line from your Excellency since my return to Congress. I hope I have not given you offence, I am sure I have not intentionally. I mentioned in my last that it was the wish of myself and colleagues, that your Excellency would give us instructions on any matter to be brought before Congress relative to our State. We find it the practice of the Governors or Assemblies of the other States; requests thus made, are seldom if ever refused. The affair of the Virginia vessel secured from the enemy by our Militia at Currituck, has made a great noise in Congress as she was taken away by persons supposed, (by the Virginians) to be some of our people. I hope your Excellency has taken care to have this matter inquired into, and the parties brought to punishment if any proof appears against them. It has been with great difficulty that your Delegates could prevent a recommendation to the State to make restitution. The affair is postponed at present whether it will be again taken up I know not. I have the honor to be with great regard,

Your Excellency's,
Mo. Ob. hum. Servt.
CORNIS HARNETT.

COL. CHARIOL TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

I beg you would favor me with a letter recommendatory to the Continental Congress and to his Excellency Genl. Washington, also of the same nature a letter to Monsr. DeJertun, Minister of the Marine in France. As I have resolved something in my mind for the advantage of Congress, which I shall communicate to your Excellency on some future day. I beg you would be mindful of me, & give me permission to write to your Excellency, you will excuse my not riding up to visit your good Lady and family as I shall certainly do myself the honor of waiting on them before I return to France. If I can be of any service to you I very gladly should embrace the opportunity. I have the honor to represent by petition to the General Assembly and by another to the Counrell the damage I have sustained by the deformation of the Regiment; of a certainty I have expended more than 10 thousand pounds. If I can by any means be reimbursed, I shall be under the greatest obligations—I likewise send you my commission, and request another with the great seal affixed, likewise all those letters recommendatory which have been requested by the Gentlemen officers of my late Regiment. Your Excellency I am your most huml. servt.

CHARIOL, COL.

AT NEW BERN, Sept. 20th 1778.

I have the honor to do you observe, that it is been put in the Gazette that the Regiment has been broke'd and not reformed, as that is a great one dishonor in France to be broke'd the officers and me also do you pray to certify the way of the Resolution of the great Assembly. I send to you by this present, & please to you to exchange our commission and to give ours of with the great seal affixed. I also beg you the favor to send to me the letter of good recommendation for Mr. LeBaron de Bonstetien, M. Martin de Breteuil, de Sambeauf, Debadie, Montflorencce, Lavan de Belvieu, Sureau. One for de Congress and another for de General Washington.
Mr. DeCaronet have lost his commission and also Mr. Sureau, if you will be so kind to send them another they will be oblige to you as I will myself.

GOV. CASWELL TO COL. CHARIOL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON, 22d Sept. 1778.

Sir:

Your favor of the 20th Current I received and agreeable thereto, I send you letters to the President of Congress, & General Washington, these are said to be favored by you. You must excuse me, in not sending one for the Minister of the Marine in France, as such a letter from me, could be of no service to you, and I have no ambition to correspond with great men beyond the Atlantic, communicating your L.... for the advantage of Congress to that Honorable Body—if they approve it no doubt you will obtain Letters from them which will prove of infinitely more service than any I can give you. It will always give me pleasure to hear from you you therefore not only have my permission to write me, but I take the liberty of enjoining you to do it, frequently—My family will be happy in seeing you at any time your business will permit you to visit them. I thank you Sir for your friendly and kind tender of services at present. I have no commands to the Northward, when I have I will take the liberty of recommending to you, I am truly sensible of your expenditurs on account of your Regiment, they have been very great, much greater I fear than you will be reimbursed. However you shall have every assistance I can give you, to obtain only ample allowance from the public.

I have no printed commission which would answer your purpose, but have been obliged to get some wrote to which I have affixed the great seal, a list of them, will be enclosed to you.
I have also sent letters to General Washington and the President of Congress respecting the Baron de Bonstetien, and recommending to his favor at the instance of Major Duvivier, I sent letters to him in his favor, and Mr. Montflorenc for the President and the General—and agreeable to your request by Mr. Oneil, (who is now ill of a fever at my house.) I have written in his favor to the Governor of Virginia and the General.

The other officers you mentioned, such as Monsr. Martin de Breteuil, de Sambeouf, de Labadie, Lavan de Belvieu, Sureau & de Carouet, I have comprised in one General Letter, by way of introduction to them, to the President and to the general, my small acquaintance with these Gentlemen has been such as not to enable me to be, particular or current in these recommendations. However these Letters will be an introduction to them and their future conduct, I hope will be such as to merit the attention of the Congress and the General.

I wish you an agreeable journey and every felicity a more Northern Clime affords, and am Sir, your mo. ob. & very huml. Servt.

R. CASWELL.

P. S. The copies of the Resolution of Assembly you sent me were not authenticated by a certificate of the proper officer that is, one of the Clerks of the Assembly. I had by me one copy certified by Mr. Hunt, the Clerk of the House of Commons to which I have affixed a Testimonial under the Great Seal; if more are wanted you must get copies certified by Mr. John Sitgreaves Clerk of the Senate, and send them to me, in which case I shall furnish the Testimonial. I cannot certify the copies. I can only certify the proper officer. Yours, &c.

CHARLES TOWN, So. CAROLINA, Sept. 24th, 1778.

Sir:

By order of the Commercial Committee of the Honorable Continental Congress, I equipt' the Continental schooner Lewis, as a despatch Boat. In January last Mr. Wm. Pickles arrived here charged with despatches from Congress and with instructions to me to get him forwarded to the Island of New Orleans in the most safe and expeditious manner, he accordingly embarked on board the said vessel, being then a Letter of Marque and under command of Capt. Mathew Roan. On their passage thither the Crew rose on Capts. Roan & Pickles, and after a bloody scuffle they landed those two Captains on the Matanzas, and run away with the schooner, which they carried to New Providence. I am informed that one Dicmond, who was their ring leader is taken and carried into the port of New Bern, within your State. He is a tall fellow, about six feet high and was Mate of Captain, when taken. The Laws of the Continent have made this death, and as I have particular instructions to be watchful for any or all of the Crew of the Lewis, should they be taken and brought within this Government, I am to request that your Excellency will please to give orders to enquire for this fellow, and should he be in any Port within your Government, that you will please have him sent thither for trial. There are many evidences, inhabitants of this State, who were at Providence when the Lewis arrived at that place. Congress are very solicitous for the apprehending of these accomplished villains. Therefore flatter myself that your Excellency will give the necessary directions on this head. I have the pleasure to be with much esteem

Your obt. huml. Servt.

NORTH CAROLINA, 22d September 1778.

Sir:

At the instance of Messrs. Martin de Breteuil, de Samboeuf, de Labadie, Laval de Belvieu, Sureau & de Carouet. I beg leave to acquaint you that these Gentlemen were appointed officers in the French Regiment lately commanded by Col. Chariol. They are going to the grand American Camp, and I believe wish to be employed in that army there. They were all well recommended to me, but my small acquaintance with them will not allow me to be more particular, this therefore I beg to be considered only as an introduction for them to your Excellency, for whom I have the honor to entertain the highest regard and esteem, and am Sir, your Excellency's most ob. & very huml. servt.

NORTH CAROLINA, 22d September 1778.

Sir:

Permit me to introduce to you, Messrs. Martin de Breteuil, de Samboeuf, Labadie, Laval de Belvieu, Sureau & de Carouet, as unfortunate Gentlemen, who have been dismissed from the service of the States, by the disbanding of Col. Chariol's Regiment in which they were officers, and were severally well recommended to me. But I dare not recommend them on my own knowledge, having a very slight acquaintance with all of them. They propose going to the Army, and on their way to wait on Congress, if anything be done for them, I believe they need it, and will be grateful.

I have the honor to be with very great respect and esteem, Sir, your mo. Ob. & very huml. Servt.

NORTH CAROLINA, 22d September 1778.

Sir:

In May last the General Assembly of this State directed a French Regiment to be raised for the service of this State, and of the United States. But finding it impracticable to complete the same, in their late session last month disbanded such as were raised. Col. Chariol (the Bearer) had the honor to be appointed to the command of that Regiment. He is about to take a journey to the grand American Camp, and I take the liberty of giving this letter to introduce him to your Excellency. So far as Col. Chariol's conduct is in my observation or to my knowledge, it has been becoming the officer and the Gentleman.

The importunity of the French Gentlemen who were lately of Col. Chariol's Regiment are such that I can not do other than give you the trouble to receive sundry letters from me on the subject, and altho' I am very loth to trespass on your time, I cannot avoid it in these cases. The disposition of these people I know your Excellency has long since been acquainted with and therefore flatter myself, you will excuse the trouble I gave you respecting them.

I have the honor to be with the greatest respect and esteem, Sir, your Excellency's most obedient and very humble servant,

R. CASWELL.

NORTH CAROLINA 22d September 1778.

Sir:

The Bearer Monsr. LeBaron de Bonstetien had the honor to be appointed Lieutenant Colonel of the French Regiment lately disbanded in this State whilst he resided in the State of South Carolina, where he raised a considerable number of recruits, and is very well recommended from thence as well by the present as by the late Governor, whose knowledge of him must be much greater than mine as he arrived here but a very few weeks past; the recommendation of those Gentlemen I have no doubt would have proper weight with a stranger, but to you Sir, I know it is sufficient yet I cannot help saying that from my small acquaintance with the Baron he appears to be a Gentleman and worthy of notice, and as such I take the liberty of recommending him. I have the honor to be with very great regard and esteem Sir, your most obedient and humble servant,

R. CASWELL.

NORTH CAROLINA 22d September 1778.

Sir:

Permit me to introduce to your Excellency Monsr. Le Baron de Bousetien who had the honor of being appointed Lieutenant Colonel of French Regiment, lately disbanded here. He was appointed whilst in South Carolina where he raised a considerable number of recruits and is extremely well recommended, by Gentlemen of the first character there. From the little acquaintance I have with him I am induced to consider him as a Gentleman, as such I take the liberty of recommending him to your Excellency.

I have the honor to be with the greatest regard & esteem Sir, your Excellency’s mo. ob. & very huml. Servt.

MAJ. THOS. CRAIKE, D. C. G., TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WILMINGTON, 25th Sept., 1779.

Sir:

The arrival of Mr. Martin relieved me from much anxiety on his account, and from frequent applications made to me for money. I had not the least doubt of his coming with the escort, which I directed him to do, but when a week and upwards had expired
(after they had passed through this town) and he did not arrive, I was afraid some accident had happened to him and was ready to set off for Kingston when he came. Before I concluded to send my letter enclosing the warrant for $30,000 by Maj. Blount, he promised to go by Halifax and deliver it to Mr. Martin. If he had not made a positive promise to deliver it I should have procured some certain conveyance, as I considered it of consequence to the public and to myself, that the letter should be delivered as soon as possible which I told him repeatedly.

The money your Excellency sent me by Mr. Martin is very insufficient to purchase the clothing wanting for the officers and soldiers. After I have discharged those debts contracted at Wilmington and Charles Town, I shall not have many thousand pounds remaining to purchase goods. The estimate enclosed in my last letter to you, respected the Officers only, and many articles of expense were not put in it, which I noted at the bottom of the estimate. The State will want a large quantity of linen, Blankets, Hats or Caps, &c, &c, for the Soldiers, as I have not any of those articles in the store. I shall expend the money remaining in my hands after discharging the public debts I owe in purchasing such goods as will be most wanted for the service, but I cannot with propriety purchase goods again on credit, as the uncertainty of getting money to pay for them when due, may involve me in difficulties and probably ruin my credit. Mr. Evans will send to your Excellency for the balance of the order I drew on you in his favor which I hope you will be in cash to pay, or give a warrant for it. I will be obliged to you Sir, to let Mr. Martin have $3,000, or a warrant for that sum, which I expect will pay the debts I owe on behalf of the public at Halifax. I intend to be at the Assembly if possible the latter end of Oct., as I wish to settle my cash accounts with the public every session. If I cannot be furnished with the necessary sums of money to carry into effect their resolves which respect myself, I must request of them to appoint some other person to do their business. I cannot any longer in justice to my own character, give color for censure from the officers and soldiers and the public in general, when I am innocent and doing my utmost endeavors to serve them and the State. I do not blame the officers or men, for their complaints, however severe against myself, as I am held out to them as the person to redress their grievance. Yet I cannot help feeling the reflections I frequently hear.

We have not any news here of the operations of our Troops and good allies to the Southward, but expect to hear from there every day. I shall set off for Charles Town, Sunday or Monday at farthest. I will be obliged to your Excellency to write to me by the first post, (if possible) whether I may do any more business than what I can do with the money I may have in hand, but it must be on a certainty that I can make good my contracts and to what amount. I shall do myself the pleasure of writing you on my arrival at Charles Town. I have the honor to be your Excellency's

HENRY LAURENS, PREST. CONGRESS TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA, 26th Sept. 1778.

Sir:

I had the honor of addressing your Excellency under the 5th Inst., since which I have received none of your Excellency's favors. This will convey an act of Congress of the 23rd for the immediate defence of South Carolina and Georgia to which I beg leave to refer. The apprehension which gave rise to this act springs from a private verbal message sent to me by Robt. Williams, Esq., a native of South Carolina, a Practitioner of the Law, a man of good understanding, and of a very respectable, general character, possessor of a large Estate in that Country, but more attached to his private interests, than zealous for the establishment of our Independence, and held to be a friend and favorite of the Ministers of Great Britain. This Gentleman's communication which I received three days ago, imported that he had on cr about the 19th Inst. learned from Gov. Johnston that an attack by an army of ten thousand troops, and a sufficient number of the Ships of the Line, was intended upon South Carolina at Charles Town and Beaufort, Port Royal or both—that Gov.
Johnston obtained permission for him and several other staunch Carolinians to proceed to Charlestown under a Flag of Truce. Mr. Williams anxiously pressed a very ridiculous request, "that I would not give him up as the author of this important discovery", which strongly implied a degree of treachery and no less a degree of artifice. Is it likely that Gov. Johnston would have informed Mr. Williams the Plans intended by the commanders of the British Land and Sea forces? It is possible he may have entrusted him with the secret for valuable considerations, the flag vessel may contain skilful engineers, in the habit of Mariners and she may return with such intelligence as may greatly facilitate the meditated execution, how shall we account for Mr. Williams's breach of confidence? Only by supposing that in any event he means to secure his own Estate, and wishes to meet a more hospitable reception in Charles Town than his fears had indicated without this harbinger. The recovery of South Carolina and Georgia is a project of the first magnitude to Great Britain in her present circumstances, it is consistent too, with the declared intentions of her Ministers from the commencement of the present war: "that those Provinces should be the dernier resort." The subduing those States in the approaching November, unless in the meantime an ample aid shall be supplied by their Northern neighbors will certainly be no difficult work. The expected plunder of an abundance of provisions, Merchandise, many thousand of negroes, great quantities of cannon and warlike stores, horned cattle, sheep, Hogs and Horses, an immense value of Indigo, and upwards of 200 sail of Ships and other vessels appear to be a sufficient temptation to the Enterprise. I have lately examined upwards of 30 Deserters from Byron's fleet, and many other persons from New York, all of whom concur in opinion that an abandonment of that city and Port, is intended; but none pretend to know whither the forces are to be transported. The most intelligent person among those informants, intimated that the enemy had contrived to circulate whispers of their designs so contradictory in terms as to leave the truth undiscoverable, he had been much on board the Eagle man of War, and altho' he professed his ignorance in general, he had collected so much from various conversations as had induced him to believe the enemy intended a complete evacuation of New York, and Rhode Island; that Halifax would be strengthened by our part of the troops. The West India Islands by a second part, and the remainder cross the Atlantic for reinforcing Great Britain and Ireland. A sensible correspondent in General Washington's camp gives me as his opinion that the destruction of Count deEstaing's squadron will not be left unessay'd. If your Excellency will have patience to hear my private sentiments, I will add that Sir Henry Clinton is taking every necessary step for a sudden removal when he shall receive orders from Whitehall, expected about this time, by the August Packet, and there is no place more inviting than South Carolina, an attempt therefore upon that State is most to be dreaded especially as the Expedition may be made consistently with a voyage to the West Indies, consume but little time, and success be the means of securing a twelve months food for the most populous of all the Islands, and for many political considerations which will in a moment strike your Excellency's mind. Gen'l Washington's camp was on the 19th Inst. at West Point. We know nothing of transactions at Rhode Island except the return of Sir Henry Clinton to New York from thence, and from thence the successful descent of Gen'l Gray upon Bedford and Martha's Vineyard. It is said that about 50 empty transports came out of Sandy Hook and steered Southerly in view of Egg Harbor four days ago, and that the enemy have landed about 5000 Troops at Hackensack. These I regard only as reports. This Instant came in two seamen who left New York the 21st. They say the Iris to which one belonged has lost upwards of 50 seamen by desertion. The other from the Conqueror reports near 100 Deserters from that ship, both confirm the accounts of intended evacuation. The Packet was not arrived—all the Men of War have lost men in proportion, as these fellows aver. They add that the fleet in general were extremely sickly, provisions extremely dear and scarce, and repeate the landing at Hackensack, and that the Troops as well as seamen were inclined to desert. I have the honor to be with the highest esteem & regard Sir,

Your Excellency's Mo. Ob. Servt.

HENRY LAURENS,
Prest. Congress.
[From Executive Letter Book.]

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Camp Dated 29th September, 1778.

"The enemy's superiority by water give them cruel advantage over us. Baylor's Regiment of Horse has been surprised by a strong party of the enemy that surrounded them by coming up the North River. A number of the Militia shared the same fate, few escaped, the greater part being taken prisoners or killed. Several were butchered in cold blood. The enemy had been conducted through bye Roads up to the very Houses in which the Officers and Troops were unguarded asleep. The enemy are now in force on the Jersey side, and make a show of advancing. Gen'l Lord Stirling is gone to take the command of the two Brigades of Continental troops and such Militia as shall collect to them. Gen'l Winds has already embodied six hundred. The circumstances of the enemy's collecting forage is equivocal, it may be either for Winter Quarters or Sea Store. The intelligence given by Gen'l Sullivan of the enemy's being employed in building Barracks is against a move from thence, but I am inclined to think his intelligence ill founded. The enemy may still meditate an enterprise against Boston, which has been delayed until now by the sickly condition of Byron's crew, and the injury which he suffered from the storm—but I do not think it probable."

John Penn, Corns Harnett, and Jno. Williams Delegates in Congress to Gov. Caswell.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Philadelphia, Sept. 29th, 1778.

Sir:

We are sorry to inform your Excellency, that we have not been able to send forward the money granted for the use of North Carolina. The very great demands on the Treasury previous to our Grant, have been the cause; however we are assured that it will be ready in a day or two at farthest. Congress have been alarmed that our enemy were about evacuating Rhode Island and New York, and that another attempt would be made on Charles Town by them to prevent their getting possession of that place—so important to our neighbors. It has been recommended to Virginia and North Carolina, to send some of their Militia to assist in the defence of So. Carolina. The high opinion entertained of your Excellency here, and the very great desire the Delegates of that State had, that you would accept the command, was the reason of the resolve relative to you, but in this you will no doubt consider the interest of North Carolina and the propriety of being absent from your Government. Gen'l Howe is directed to repair to Head Quarters and Gen'l Lincoln goes to South Carolina. We are informed that the French are busily employed in taking possession of the British Islands. This if true will furnish Gen'l Clinton with some other employment than ravaging those States. Enclosed is a Newspaper by which you will see the manner in which this intelligence is obtained. We can only observe that it is believed here. We should have written by the express that was sent by the President, but he went away without our knowing it. We have the honor to be with great respect,

Your Excellency’s mo. Ob. humb. Servts.,

JOHN PENN,

CORN. HARNETT,

JNO. WILLIAMS.

P. S. France has certainly declared war against Great Britain.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA, 4th Oct. 1778.

Sir:

My last letter to your Excellency was under the 26th Ulto. by Messenger Jones. Within the present cover will be found two acts of Congress, viz—one of the 21st Sept. for enabling the States of Virginia and North Carolina to purchase certain cannon now lying in North Carolina which had been imported on account of the United States; and one of the 2nd Inst. for extending the present Embargo on provisions to the last day of January 1779, and for divers other purposes therein mentioned. Enclosed your Excellency will also find extract of a letter from a correspondent of mine in Camp giving a melancholy account of a late advantage gained by the enemy over Col. Baylor’s Regiment of Horse and some of the Jersey Militia. I have the honor to be with very high esteem & the utmost respect, Sir,

Your Excellency’s Mo. Ob. humb. Servt.

HENRY LAURENS,

Prest. Congress.

HON. CORNS. HARNETT TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA 4th Oct. 1778.

Sir:

By this express your Excellency will receive the 400,000 dollars mentioned in my last. Should there be a necessity for a further supply for marching the 3000 Militia to South Carolina, I could wish you would be pleased to mention it to your Delegates, and unless the Temper of Congress should suddenly change, I believe it may be procured.

Congress have found it absolutely necessary to continue the embargo, until the last day of January, finding it almost impossible to supply the army and French fleet with bread, unless it can be taken out of the hands of Engrossers and Monopolizers. A request is accordingly made to the States for this purpose, which the President sends on by Express, how far this may affect our State I know not, no supply of bread is however expected from that Quarter. As the General Assembly are to sit the next month, I could with my colleagues receive their particular commands. We find from experience that requisitions from States come with much greater certainty of success through the channel of their Governors, than by a bare requisition from the Delegates, not having an instruction from authority to produce, I therefore hope your Excellency will be attentive to this circumstance. The circumstances of the Enemy still in the opinion of Congress seem to indicate an evacuation of their Ports on the Continent. 'Tis imagined some of their Troops will go to the West Indies, some to Europe, some to Halifax, and some to Quebec. That the French are already in possession of the Island of Dominica, we have pretty good authority for. It is also believed that an attack on Jamaica is also intended. We hope the French and Spaniards will cut out work enough for the enemy at a distance from these States, which will at least give us a breathing spell. A large foraging party have been landed in West Jersey some time. The States have no army in that quarter to oppose them.

The French Fleet still remain at Boston. Lord Howe is too strong for them at Sea.

We do not yet hear of any new instructions received by the British Council, whether Britain will acknowledge our Independence or not seems therefore doubtful as yet.

I take the liberty to enclose the last Newspapers, and shall be happy in receiving a line from you. I have the honor to be with great respect,

Your Excellency’s Mo. Ob. Servt.

Sir:

The act of Congress which I had the honor of transmitting to your Excellency in my letter of the 4th Inst. for continuing the Embargo, &c., was deficient of one clause, which the paper enclosed herein is intended to supply, and to which I beg leave to refer—I have the honor to be with great esteem and regard

Sir your Excellency’s Ob. & Mo. humb. Servt.

PHILADELPHIA 18th Oct. 1778.

SIR:

I beg leave to refer your Excellency to my late letters of the 13th and 16th Inst. forwarded yesterday by the hands of Col. Wood.

Congress having received recent repeated intelligence of the Enemy's design to make an attack upon South Carolina, and that an embarkation of Troops for that purpose had actually commenced at New York, have directed me by an Act of the 17th Inst. here enclosed to request your Excellency to forward with all possible expedition the 3000 men requested to be sent to the aid of that State and Georgia, in an Act of the 25th ultimo transmitted in my letter to your Excellency of the 26th and to make an addition of two thousand men to the number above mentioned. I am also directed to assure your Excellency that the necessary remittance of money for the payment of these Troops will be made in a few days.

I have the honor to be with great esteem & respect Sir, your Excellency's Mo. Ob. humb. Servt.

HENRY LAURENS, Presdt Congress.

HON. JOHN PENN DELEGATE IN CONGRESS TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA, 18th Oct., 1778.

DEAR SIR:

Congress were yesterday informed by what is said to be good authority, that several thousand of the Enemy are about embarking from New York for Charles Town, in hopes of being able to surprise the Inhabitants and to get much plunder. Your Excellency will observe from the proclamation published by the British Commissioners that they intended to destroy everything they can, alleging by way of excuse that America was mortgaged to France, their natural Enemy and it was now the intent of Britain to ruin the estate, to prevent them from getting any advantages from our connection. They have burnt and destroyed all the houses and other property of the Inhabitants of Jersey lately, whenever it was in their power. I can hardly believe yet, they will go to South Carolina, but as there is some reason to fear it, we should endeavor to be prepared so as to prevent their being able to practice such horrid cruelties as they do.

The French have taken Dominica and Turks' Island, and will soon be in possession of all the British W. Islands unless they are defended in a different manner from what they now are, nor have they any other resources than what are here plagueing us. Count DeEstaing's Fleet will shortly be fit for sea again, and how the Enemy can continue to divide their shipping without leaving him superior to what is left I know not. We have no late information from Europe worth mentioning except that the Emperor of Germany and the King of Prussia are at the head of 250,000 Troops each well officered. They seem disposed to try who has the longest sword.

The Delegates wrote your Excellency an official letter not long ago, tho' we have not had the pleasure to hear from you since our arrival in that way. I have received one letter only. I shall think myself much obliged to you for some account of what is doing to the Southward, when you can spare so much time. I wrote to you the first of this month, giving you all the information that I suspected would please or was worth your attention. I should take pleasure in corresponding with you if agreeable, besides what is necessary in our official characters. Gen'l Howe is directed to repair to head quarters to join the Grand Army, and Gen'l Lincoln goes to So. Carolina to take command there. The latter is from Massachusetts Bay, he is highly spoken of both as a Soldier and a Gentleman by all that know him, especially by the Southern officers.

The French Minister behaves with great propriety so far as I am able to judge of his conduct. I wrote you the situation Gen'l Lee was in. Congress have been so engaged in business that we have not had as much time as to take up the proceedings of the Court. However, that will be the business of to-morrow.
Gen'l Schuyler and St. Clair are honorably acquitted by the Court Martial. We shall examine their trials soon. My compliments to your son, and am with due respect

Your Excellency's mo. Ob. Serv't,

JOHN PENN.

---

DR. THOS. BURKE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WILLIAMSBURG Oct. 20th 1778.

Dr. Sir:

A young Gentleman of the Army going home to Duplin County gives me an opportunity of advising you of an occurrence which has happened here to which I suppose you may expect one similar. A flag came from New York with various packages directed to the Governor for the time being, the Speakers, the Commanding officer of the Army, the Clergy, and some other Orders, which I have forgotten. The Governor took the advice of the Assembly, and they have refused to receive the Packages, they ordered back the flag and entered into some severe resolutions, against any officer who should come again on such business.

The Assembly immediately perceived that it was an arduous attempt to treat with them, and to influence the people of this State, and it was almost instantly resolved that nothing of that kind could properly even be opened, that all business of a public nature must be transacted with Congress only. The zeal of the Assembly hurried them beyond what was really their intention. They propose only to declare that the Congress was the only power competent to treat for the states with foreign powers, that this state would therefore receive nothing addressed to them individually, and that any person in future bringing things so addressed, would be considered as an Enemy not protected by the Law of Nations, but I am told their resolutions go farther, and declare they will receive no flags but through Congress, and that any person coming with one shall be deemed an Enemy, which indeed every flag necessarily supposes, or there could be no occasion for that ensign of suspended Hostility. When any attempt like this is made on the State over which you preside, I am confident you will treat the affair with proper dignity and wisdom.

I suppose you have received the resolutions relative to sending Troops to South Carolina. Here it is considered as a matter altogether visionary, and nothing is done except giving power to the Executive in case of any invasion shall happen or appear imminent to send the force required. For my own part I am of opinion it has arisen from the credulity of some Southern Gentlemen in Congress, and from the high idea of the importance of their Country. It is not very probable that the Enemy will divide a force already unable to keep the open field, or that they will forego their present possessions for the purpose of making an attempt on one much less important to them. To do the first would be to make a certain sacrifice of a part of their army, and to do the latter would be egregious folly. In short Sir, I believe it will end in mere smoke. We have here the very disagreeable news that Col. Baylor's Regiment of Light Horse was surprised near Hackensack, forty of them put to the sword and the most taken. The Col. himself and most of his officers are supposed to be among the slain. In a Northern paper which I received yesterday from some persons who I believe have a charge of money for our State and Georgia, mentions our engagement between Admiral Keppel, and the Brest fleet, in which the latter had the advantage, but both were obliged to put back to refit. Nothing else of any importance is stirring here.

I have the honor to be Dr Sir, with perfect respect and sincere esteem,

Your very obedient Servant,

THOS. BURKE.

GEN. ALLEN JONES TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

HALIFAX, October 21st, 1778.

Sir:

Agreeable to your Excellency's orders I have directed the several Colonels of this District to draft the men and send the several Companies on to Kingston to the Rendezvous the 10th of next month. I am apprehensive they will hardly get there by that time, and I am sure they will be badly accounted, as most of the guns in this District have been already purchased for public service. Mrs. Jones is in so low a state of health that I cannot absent myself at this time without cruelty or I assure you I should be happy in having a command under your Excellency. Should you go, as I cannot believe there is any real necessity for the March of the Militia at this time, I must frankly tell you Sir, that I think your going will be of no service to So. Carolina, and may be a prejudice to this State. Charles Town is too trifling an acquisition for the British Arms, should they abandon New York and Rhode Island—neither is it tenable or healthy after taken.
Besides should they quit the North it must certainly be to protect their West Indian Settlements, so that unless the Commander should wantonly and merely in revenge for the former repulse fall on Charles Town the Inhabitants may sleep in peace. I hear it questioned here, as to your power of sending the Militia out of this State. There is no law for it. Can your Excellency apply any of our present funds or any of the money to be made to this service? I think not. Can you apply the money coming from Philadelphia this way? Certainly not, for we are debited with it on our own account. At least I think not, tho’ I confess what I have said occurs to me without much reflection for I have been too busy to satisfy myself on the present subject. It galls me to think that the balance of your draft is to be paid up as soon as our assistance is wanted and that when we were really distressed for money it could not be had, tho’ we had incurred the expense agreeable to the requisition of Congress. I am very far from thinking this State bound to comply with their requisitions, in all cases, and in the present, were the Assembly sitting, I am sure a single man would not march to the South. We have always been haughtily treated by South Carolina, till they wanted our assistance, and then we are sisters, but as soon as their turn is served, all relationship ceases. So. Carolina is so well aware of our resentment that they despaired of succeeding, should they apply themselves, therefore have got Congress to make a requisition, thinking no doubt that out of respect to that Body, we should overlook their former treatment. In short, Sir, our State either one way or other appears to be sacrificed to So. Carolina, and that we are of very little consequence in the eyes of Congress. Considering the matter in every light the little service to be expected from marching the Militia, and the contempt with which we are treated, I cannot help saying that I am totally averse to sending one man out of the State on the present requisition. Excuse these crude thoughts and believe me

Yours, &c,

ALLEN JONES.

HON. JOHN PENN DELEGATE IN CONGRESS TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22d, 1778.

DEAR SIR:

Genl Lincoln is now on his way to Charles Town to take the command of the Troops in the Southern Department. He is greatly esteemed both as a Soldier and a Gentleman, by all that know him. I beg therefore to introduce him to your Excellency's particular notice and attention. The General wishes to consult you relative to the defence of Charles Town, as he is informed that great part of the force necessary for that purpose must go from North Carolina. I must also take the liberty to refer you to the General for intelligence relating to Military Operations.

We have received no late information of what is doing in Europe to be depended on. It is said the King of Prussia has obtained a victory over the Emperor. France and England are deeply engaged. I mentioned to your Excellency some time ago in a letter of the high opinion entertained of you by Congress, and of course the wish of many Gentlemen that you should take the command of what troops march from our State. Should you take upon you that duty you are to have the rank and pay of a Major General, which is superior to any officer that will be there except Major General Lincoln. However in this your Excellency will act as your good sense and prudence shall direct. I have the honor to be with due respect

Your very obedient Servant,

JOHN PENN.
GEN. JOHN BUTLER TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Mount Pleasant, Oct. 22nd 1778.

SIR:

I received your letter dated Kingston 16th Oct. 1778. The orders therein contained comes very unexpectedly, as I have never heard of the Enemy's movements to the Southward. I beg leave to assure your Excellency that every thing in my power shall be done in compliance with them; and shall let you know every thing of consequence in the course of this business by Express. I am Sir,

Your Obedient servant,

JOHN BUTLER.

JER POWELL TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Council Chamber Boston Oct. 22nd 1778.

SIR:

I have enclosed you a copy of an Act of the General Assembly of this State to prevent the return of certain persons therein named who left this and the neighboring States, and joined the enemys thereof and to request the favor of your transmitting to the General Assembly of this State a list of the names of all persons who have left your State and joined our common Enemy, in order that such persons may be prevented from residing within this State.

I have the honor to be with the greatest Esteem, Sir, Your mo. ob. humb. serv't.

JER. POWELL,

COL. GIDEON LAMB TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

MOUNT PLEASANT 24th Oct 1778.

Sir:

Yours of the 16th Inst. with the Proclamation I have now before me. Will observe the contents with the greatest cheerfulness, shall use every means in my power to bring out my men as well equipped as the times will admit, and with as much dispatch as possible.

Tho' the Edenton District, but few in number, is much more extensive and cut in pieces with Swamps, Waters, &c., than any other in the State, I am doubtful the troops will not be so soon assembled as may be expected, the Regular Recruits being scattered all over the District on furloughs with the Volunteers and balloted soldiers till the 20th of Feb. next, then to meet at Edenton.

I have the honor to be

Your Excellency's most ob. humb. servt.

GIDEON LAMB,

BON. CORNS. HARNETT DELEGATE IN CONGRESS TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA Oct 24th 1778.

Sir:

A fleet from New York, consisting of 16 ships of the line and upwards of 100 transports, sailed a few days ago, with Troops and many cannon on board. Their destination is at present a secret. Congress are much alarmed, fearing they may intend for the southward, (Charles Town) which has induced them to call upon No. Carolina for a greater body of men than I suppose can be raised in time to prevent the Enemy's designs. Your Excellency will perceive it to be the desire of Congress that you should put yourself at the head of the Troops from your State, and should you be inclined to do so, have given you the rank and pay, &c., of a Major Genl in the Continental Army. Genl. Howe is ordered to head quarters, and Gen'l Lincoln, an officer of great military merit, is appointed to the command in the Southern Department.

I hope your Excellency has long since received the 400,000 Dollars for Bounty pay, &c., of the last levies; 150,000 more will in a few days be sent to Mr. Wm. Blount for the use of the Troops to be sent to So Carolina, where one million more will be sent for the expense of this Expedition. Genl. Washington apprehensive that the Enemy may intend to attack upon Boston, has ordered on Genl. Gates to the Eastward, with a large detachment from the main Army. Should the Enemy appear on that coast, I suppose all New England will be in motion. Some among us think this fleet has sailed either for Europe or the West India Islands. Whether New York and Rhode Island will be evacuated by the Enemy this fall seems at present very doubtful. The Newspapers enclosed will give you an opportunity of forming a conjecture of the Enemy's designs. You will find the last speech and dying words of the British Commissioners, with the comments upon it by Common Sense.

I beg your Excellency will not take amiss my once more reminding you of the necessity of sending on as soon as possible the State account against the Continent. The charge against No Carolina in the Treasury Books is $1,078,543.23 dollars, when other States which have had ten times the money expended in them, do not stand chargeable with more than 500,000 dollars—and this entirely owing to their having a Military Chest established within them, and constantly supplied out of the Treasury of the Continent, exclusive of Commissaries, Quarter Masters, &c., who never called upon the State for money.

27th October.

Since writing the above and meeting with no opportunity of sending it forward, but by Post, I have enclosed a paper of this date. It is now believed the enemy really intend to Evacuate New York.

I have not had the pleasure of a line from your Excellency since my return. I am with the greatest esteem,

Your Excellency's Mo. Ob. & very humble Servt.

Corns Harnett.

Perquimans Oct. 25th 1778.

Hon'd Sir:

Yours of the 16th Inst. I am now to acknowledge the receipt of and the contents duly noted. The notice is so short, am doubtful that the Militia can scarcely have time to be at Kingston by 10th Nov.; however shall leave nothing in my power undone to hasten their march, but the bad state of health I am in at present will put it out of my power to be very active. With respect to my marching with the Militia, it makes me very unhappy that I cannot accept the Honorable appointment you mention on account of my health. Since the 10th ultimo, I have been confined the chief part of my time to my bed, and at this time am not able to sit up, six hours in the twenty-four, and my duty with respect to the Treasury will require me attending the commissioners as soon as able, which I hope will be by the time the Militia reaches Kingston. With respect to your commanding the Militia in person it has not been in my power to consult any of the Members of the General Assembly, but think I may venture to say every man of your acquaintance will wish you to command, as there is no probability of any other person of Equal abilities, not but we shall be too sensible of your absence from your Government. I am Dr Sir,

Your Mo. Ob. humble Servt,

W. SKINNER.
GEN. GRIFFITH RUTHERFORD TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Oct. 25th, 1778.

Dr. Sir:

I have received your Orders, and with all possible speed will endeavor to put them in force. The time is very short, but the matter requires diligence. There is a number of the new Levies that will be tardy to march to South Carolina, some of them having absented themselves when they were to go to the Northward, but your Excellency may depend I will endeavor to raise the number required in my District. I should be very glad if the pay Master would come up, so as to be time enough to pay them their Bounty and pay, for then they could have no excuse. I can procure money to pay their Bounty, but, the arrears of their pay I cannot.

Your Excellency desires that I would let you know concerning the Indians. As for them I have no certain account of. Washington county informs me they are in some fear of them. There is no damage done as yet that I know of. You acquaint me that you have some thought of going yourself to Charles Town, as Congress has recommended it to you. I would be extremely obliged to you to take the command—for as you have appointed me in those parts believe me Sir, no man living will be more acceptable to me than yourself. This I expect you will look on to be no flattery.

As for the lower Brigade, I know of no better way for them, than the way you have mentioned, that is to go by Camden, if they do not make into the Salisbury Road. There they must go by the Post Road, which will be attended with no great difficulty and Expense as the Ferrys are large.

You have mentioned to me nothing in regard of Commissary, but for that I must provide. But I suppose it will be prudent to appoint the former contractors.

From Sir, your humble servant,

GRiffith Rutherford.
GOV. CASWELL TO COL. WM. AYLETT.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Sir:

I yesterday received a letter from Wm. Buchanan Esqr., Commissary General of purchases, informing me that salt provisions are much wanted in the Army, and advising a quantity of Barreled pork and Beef purchased in this State, for the use of the United States, at any expense or risk, to be sent forward, and if through the Inland Navigation to give you notice thereof, in consequence of which a vessel will in two days from this proceed to take in a load of about six hundred Barrels, at this place, and go directly to South Quay, where 'tis probable she will arrive in about twelve or fifteen days from this time. There are about 350 Barrels at a place called Washington, in the forks of Tar River, which I have also given directions to be sent on to the place with all expedition.

You will be pleased to appoint some person to receive those provisions at the South Quay, and lest such person should not be on the spot at the time the vessels which carry them arrive there, the Gentleman who is to direct this business is advised to order the persons who carry it, to apply to a Magistrate or some Gentleman known to be a friend to American Liberty to direct where they shall be stored 'till your orders arrive. Please to advise me, on your receipt of this letter, and also what quantity of provisions you receive in consequence of my directions.

I am Sir, your most Obedt. Servt.

Sir:

With this you will receive a return of the Regiments of Militia for the Counties of Caswell, Chatham and Orange. I am sorry that I have it not in my power to make returns for the Counties.
of Granville and Wake. I sent Express to the Commanding Officer of those Counties requesting that they should call a general Muster and order their drafts and make returns to me agreeable to instructions from your Excellency of the 15th July last. I have not yet received any return, nor reasons why it is not done. I am

Your most obedient Servt.

Oct. 28th 1778.

Sir: The men who are to march from Halifax will soon be ready, but I know not what we shall do for a person to victual them, unless Mr. Amis undertakes it. There is no other person who is able at so short a warning, to supply them, as he has some public provisions by him. If he undertakes it, he will want a considerable sum of money. I daily expect an express to your Excellency, to countermand the march of these troops which I most heartily wish as the expectation is attended with an amazing expense, and will certainly be of no advantage. Virginia was required to send one thousand men, but the Assembly are so well assured that it is to no purpose, that they have refused to send a man. There is nothing new here worth relating. I am with the most sincere respect and esteem,

Your Excellency's Mo. Ob. Servt,

ALLEN JONES.

KINGSTON, 28th October 1778.

GENTLEMEN:

Your letter of the 24th Current I have received and referred the consideration to the Council, and in pursuance of the advice of that Board, I do request you permit the Gentlemen to remain in this state, on their parol until the meeting of the next General Assembly, that is to say, Messrs. John Burgwin and Robert Hogg, to Mr. Burgwin's plantation called the Hermitage, and Mr. Samuel Marshall to his plantation about seven miles from Wilmington. These parols you are also requested to have signed by the respective Gentlemen, and transmit them to me as soon as the same is practicable. You are further requested to order the Flag to depart the State in twenty four hours after you receive this notice. A permit will be sent the Captain herewith for that purpose accordingly. I am Gentn.

Your mo. ob. Servt.

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO GENL. JOHN ASHE.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON, 28th October 1778.

Dear Sir:

I had your letter of the 25th Current handed me, the evening of the 26th, and have detained your servant a day longer than he wished in expectation that it would be in my power, by this morning, to acquaint you more fully the Resolutions of the Council, that Board being appointed to meet here yesterday. The members met in the evening, but as there were but barely a quorum they rather declined entering fully on the Business I had to lay before them, but I incline to think from the observations of some of the Gentlemen they will think it inconsistent with the duties of my present appointment for me to march with the Troops. Indeed your observations and those of some other Gentlemen have been such, as to incline me to think somewhat differently from what I did on the receipt of the requisition from Congress.

The Troops are to march in consequence of an Act of Assembly, empowering the Governor to send an aid to any part of the United States, Congress shall require. That act empowers the Governor, if he does not march with them, to appoint the Commanding officer a Major General. I am now apprehensive, I shall not go, and cannot think of offering that appointment to any other Gentleman than yourself. Let me entreat you to accept it. I am really sorry to hear of Mrs. Ashe's indisposition, but hope she will soon recover, and that you will be able to get over the other difficulties. One of them will be in some measure or partly removed, by a more liberal allowance from the public to this appointment. This request I make you not only from my own inclination, that you should have this command, but also on a full conviction that the Troops will more readily turn out; indeed I have engaged to some of the officers who have turned out here that either you or myself would command them. The Commissioners for making the money are to meet here to proceed upon that business the first of next month, and I daily expect the remainder of my Draft for the 500,000 Dollars from the Continental Treasury to arrive. The duties of your office of Treasurer will call you here. I wish you may make it convenient to come early in the month, when I shall have an opportunity of conversing with you on the foregoing subject, but if you can let me know your determination respecting the Command sooner, you will oblige me. If you go, I will give every assistance to your Treasury office, that I possibly can. I am Dr Sir, with due respect and esteem,

Your mo. obedt. Servt.

R. CASWELL.
JOHN GIBSON TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29th, 1778.

Sir:

The accounts of the late Mr. Kennon who was by Genl Lee appointed in the year 1776, both pay master and commissary to the Virginia and North Carolina Troops have been some time under the notice of the Continental Treasury Board but have not as yet received a final determination, as the whole of the accounts are not yet brought in. One charge which ought to be made against Mr. Kennon's estate is a Bill drawn by Genl Moore in favor of Col Polk for ten thousand pounds So. Carolina currency. This advance does not appear to have been credited by Mr. Kennon, but Mr. David Flowers of your State in a letter to Mr. Harnett says that this sum "was very fairly credited in a settlement with 'this' State, a certificate of which I hope the Governor has long since transmitted to Congrese." As this certificate has not come to hand, I am on the part of the Commissioners on the Treasury to request of your Excellency to order to be forwarded to that Board as soon as possible, that the State may be charged accordingly. I have the honor to be with the greatest respect

Your Excellency's mo. ob. humb. Serrt.

JOHN GIBSON.

GOV. CASWELL TO PRESDT LOWNDES OF S. C.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

NORTH CAROLINA, 30th October 1778.

Sir:

I had the honor to receive the packet herewith addressed to your Excellency, under cover yesterday, and take the earliest opportunity in my power of transmitting the same to you by express.

I have had the pleasure of receiving two letters from you, which hitherto have remained unanswered; the first respecting 13—17
Indians taken in the late Troubles with the Cherokees, and held in captivity by the subjects of this State. I have made all the Inquiry in my power without being able to learn where any of these people are detained in this State; indeed I have lately written to Capt. Robertson, Superintendent for this State, in the Cherokee Country to make inquiry there and give me information in whose custody the Indians suggest their people are, and to assure them that if such there are, they shall be delivered up.

In the other letter you do me the honor to inform me of the conduct of the Indians Bordering on the three Southern States in the Union, and your suspicions of their hostile intentions, at the same time recommending an union of force, as the only means of bringing these Barbarians to a proper sense of the strength and power of the States. In this matter sir, I have the honor to coincide with you in sentiments, and take the liberty of assuring you that every thing in my power shall be done towards carrying such a plan into execution.

Congress have required an aid of 300 men to be sent from hence to the states of South Carolina and Georgia; the men are collecting, and I flatter myself will be ready to march by the middle of November, but I fear their fire arms will not be such as I could wish them. Be pleased to inform me by the return of the express if your State can furnish us with any number of good Firelocks whilst our people shall be on the expedition, and if any what number. It is not improbable but I may march with those Troops in which case I promise myself the pleasure of visiting Charles Town.

I am now upwards of forty miles from NewBern, and have not your letters with me. If I have not answered them fully, you'll please to attribute it to that circumstance.

I have the honor to be with great respect and esteem, Sir,

Your Excellency's most ob. & very huml. Servt

R. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CAMPBELTON Nov. 1st, 1778.

Sir:

Since we have seen your Excellency's proclamation we have exerted ourselves the more in procuring provisions. I myself have advanced all the money I possibly could muster, and now beg leave to acquaint your Excellency that my brother or Mr. Porterfield will wait on you about Friday next. Should we be disappointed in receiving money I should be very sorry. I thought proper to drop this line fearing your Excellency might be from home, in case some orders might be left for us. We have once applied to the Treasurer without success. 5,000 will go but little way in putting up Beef or Pork this season. Indeed I have already exceeded that sum in contract, yet I well know I have not a right to ask for more money, without further advice, neither is there any fear of my losing money. Should you think proper to order more money, by the next opportunity you will have more particular advice. I am

Your Excellency's Mo. Ob. Servt.

NEW BERNE, Nov. 2nd, 1778.

Sir:

A severe fit of the fever has prevented my coming to Kingston, therefore send my Son up with the Bills. I hope to get clear of it in a few days when I shall be up myself. It has happened a little unlucky for me, here yesterday, in drafting the levies, the lot has fallen on my son Thomas. He is now my chief hand in the Office, and if he goes, I must be forced to drop the Newspaper as one of my people is at Kingston about the money, and the other a drunken wretch, whom I cannot depend on one hour. My other Son is gone up the country, with the Laws. As he is already in the service of the public, would it be possible for your Excellency to excuse his marching with the Troops as I will endeavour to get a man in his room. Nothing but his peculiar situation at this time in carrying on the Newspaper would induce me to make such request. I am Sir, with great respect Sir,

Your Excellency's Mo. Ob. Servt.

JAMES DAVIS.

P. MALLET TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CAMPBELTON, Nov. 3rd 1778.

Sir:

As these two months are the only months in the year to procure salt provisions, I thought it necessary that no time should be lost before that article was secured. I am to inform your Excellency that we have already killed cattle enough to make 150 bbls, and we have a considerable quantity more engaged. Our cattle in this neighborhood are exceedingly good and at the same time very high in price, altho' not so high as in the back country. We can make up from 500 to 700 bbls. of the best of Beef, and some pork. The latter will be a scarce article in these counties partly owing to the want of corn—and partly owing to the prices given in Virginia. Cattle and Pork both are so high in price at Hillsboro; and poor in quality; that as yet our Contracts that way are small, and, if your Excellency judges it necessary that any quantity should be lodged at that place our only way will be to drive from hence. We have in the mean time taken care to secure salt and barrels; do believe however that not more than 300 or 400 barrels of pork can be had both at Hillsboro and this place.

Our present contracts now amount to about 6000, and our future engagements depends on your Excellency's orders. My brother waits on you for money—any sum your Excellency shall CAMPBELTON, 31st Oct., 1778.

Sir:

The bearer Donald Campbell waits on your Excellency to be admitted to take the oath of Allegiance to the State. He intended to apply to the County Court for that purpose, but I dissuaded him from it, as the Justices seem to be miffed that any person whom they have ordered to leave the country should be admitted as Citizens. They seem to be of opinion that the power is wholly vested in themselves, and that no other power in the State should interfere in their proceedings, and indeed said openly that they might as well refuse to intermeddle in these matters, but send all persons whatever to the Governor. I know that they do not think it improper to admit persons whom they have ordered away, because they did it last July Term. Apprehensive therefore that they would confine Mr. Campbell, I have advised him to wait on you and hope he will be able to give sufficient reasons to induce the Council to think that he ought to be admitted as a Citizen. I am with much respect Dear Sir,

Your Excellency's Mo. Ob. Servt.

A. MACLAINE.
COL. ALEX MARTIN 2ND REGT. TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CAMP NEAR GERMANTOWN NOV. 4th 1778. (7.)

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

The different operations of the American Army I make no doubt you have been made fully acquainted with since the junction of the North Carolina Troops by Genl. Nash, until the 4th of last month, when we were unfortunately deprived of that brave officer by a cannon Ball, wounding him in his left thigh thro' his horse, as he was leading on the Brigade to attack the Enemy near this place. He languished three days with his wound and died justly lamented by his Brigade; however we think that he had not that respect shown him by the general officers as was due to his merit, either in his command or at his death. The number of general officers commanding a great army perhaps may be the apology that particular attention could not be paid to every one as they deserved. Col. Irwin is missing, we are afraid is among the dead, as we can not hear from him among the prisoners. At the same time we lost Capt. Turner of the 3rd Regiment, who fell by a musket shot. This brave officer greatly distinguished himself under my command in the eighth infantry at Chads-Ford, and in general did honor to that corps, commanded by Genl. Maxwell. At the same time Col. Buncombe was taken Prisoner, but we expect to have him exchanged soon from the great number of prisoners in our hands from the Northward. It is certain that on that day we retreated from a victory, as Howe had given orders to retreat over Schuylkill, his Troops being drove 3 miles before Cornwallis reinforced him from Philadelphia, which in turn thro' the smoke and Fog of the morning compelled us in confusion to retreat but with no great loss, considering our situation. About 500 is said to be missing, chief of whom are Militia. The Enemy acknowledge this the severest stroke they have met with in the war. Their Genl. Agnew is killed, Grant and Gray, with a Hessian Genl. wounded, since said to be dead. Count Donop, a Col. Commandant of a Hessian Brigade, a few days ago fell in our hands, who attacked our Fort at Red Bank on Delaware with one thousand men, was defeated by Col. Green, with the loss of one half his party, himself taken prisoner with 300 men. He is badly wounded, his thigh being shot off, but great pains are taken to recover him. Burgoyne’s surrender with his whole army to Genl Gates has thunder struck Howe and all the Tories here. While I am writing a Gentleman arrived in camp from the Northward, who gives me an agreeable information that Genl. Heath, since Clinton left Rhode Island, passed over to that place, took about 700 prisoners, with 21 pieces of Brass Cannon. Should this be true, the Enemy’s affairs are almost ruined to the Northward. What Howe’s intentions are we cannot learn, whether to attack us again or retreat from Philadelphia, where he is cooped up. Only one chevaux de Frieze is injured, all the rest with the Forts stand firm, since the loss of the Augusta 64 Gun, and the Apollo, a 36 Gun, ship of War, before the chevaux de Friezes, whom they blew up, being run aground to avoid our Fire Rafts. They are cautious of venturing up the River in such a dangerous station again. Though we retreated from them at Chad’s Ford, and at Germantown, yet they have nothing to boast of but their keeping the Field.

The Enemy’s strength on their landing at the head of Elk is said to be about 17,000 which number by Desertsions and those wounded, sick and killed must be about 5000 reduced. Their force at present may be about 10,000 or 12,000 perhaps. At the time we joined the American Army was really weak, at present it consists of from 16,000 to 20,000; as the Militia go and return we increase and lessen in our numbers.

As to myself I am almost worn down with fatigue, being detached on our joining the Grand Army with a part of the Carolina Brigade to form a Corps of light Infantry, under the command of Gen’l Maxwell, the active duties of which service have been almost too much for my Constitution. I am determined in a few days to resign, and return to Carolina, and leave the command to Col. Sumner. General Hand it is said was appointed over Col. Sumner a Brigadier for North Carolina, which if true will take the command.

I have had censures liberally bestowed on me by some officers in the 4th Battalion for my conduct at Germantown, but with pleasure I can inform you I am honorably acquitted by a grand Court Martial and am sorry to inform you that a censorious spirit too much prevails in the army, that the conduct of almost every General and Commanding officer has been arraigned by those of inferior Rank, & generally acquitted, particularly Sullivan, Stephens, Wayne, Maxwell and Col. Maryland. I have the honor to be with esteem and respect

Your Excellency's mo. ob. huml. Servt.

ALEX. MARTIN.

HON. JOHN PENN TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5th, 1778.

DEAR SIR:

The bearer Mr. Seagrove this day informed me that he should set out to-morrow for the Southward, and that he had some business to transact at New Bern. I have taken the liberty to introduce him to your Excellency as a stranger. Enclosed I send you a Copy of the alliance between France and the United States; there are a considerable number to be printed for the use of the different States. I thought it my duty to inform you of the Treaty as soon as I was at liberty to do it. The reason why it was kept back was, that we have directed our Minister in France to apply to that Court to strike out the eleventh and twelfth articles.

By your last accounts from Europe, Spain has a large Fleet, ready to act. Her Flotas have got home and that Court seems disposed to act vigorously against Great Britain in a short time.

From Genl. Washington's letter this minute rec'd it appears that the Enemy intend to evacuate New York soon, a very large number of the Troops having gone on board Transports.

The Delegates from No. Carolina intend to write to your Excellency soon, an official letter; they only wait the determination of Congress relative to a matter of a public nature, which I expect will be in a day or two. I have the honor to be with great respect your Excellency's mo. ob. Servt.

NEW BERN 5th November 1778.

SIR:

The Packet and Letters herewith enclosed came to hand last night, they are now sent on by express.

I had the honor of sending you an express a few days past, his despatches I hope will reach you in a day or two.

Congress required 3000 men to be sent without loss of time, to the aid of South Carolina and Georgia. These men are collecting, they are to Rendezvous the 10th Instant, and will march as soon thereafter as practicable. Congress have now required 2000 more to be raised and sent on the same service. This requisition I shall lay before the Council tomorrow to have their resolutions thereon, I shall do myself the honor to acquaint you with as early as possible. I am sir, with very great respect and esteem your most obedient servant,

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO GENL. ALLEN JONES.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON November 7th 1778.

DR SIR:

I had your favor some time past, in answer to my letter requiring a Draft of the Militia from your Brigade. I thank you for your candid opinion respecting the requisition of Congress. But am induced to believe from your own words, that you had not thought much on the subject. You say there is no law empowering me to send the Militia out of the State. Beg leave to refer you to the aid Bill passed this time twelve months, which being considered I flatter myself you will think differently; that the Council do so, you will understand by an official letter from me of this date, which will be handed you with this, that being sent you in consequence of their advice founded on the Law above attended to, and the requisition of Congress, that we are not bound to perform every requisition made by Congress, that I agree with you in. But that the State is bound to perform the engagements she makes, by the solemn form of an act of Assembly, I should suppose no man would doubt. That the Act of Assembly I allude to is before Congress, and the propriety of their requisition founded thereon, I can scarcely think would be called in question by any Gentleman, who reads that Act. When did the Campaign next after passing that act, commence? Is it yet ended? I answer the Campaign began about the first of May, the Troops still keep the field, of course 'tis not ended, why did the Assembly confine, say the Volunteers and Drafts sent from this State, should serve in the next Campaign not exceeding twelve months, if it was not their intention to limit the time of their service, and that if it was not necessary they might not be kept so long in service. Suppose it was their intention this service should be performed in twelve months from the time the Campaign began. I answer this requisition is then consistent with such intention as the men will be discharged in twelve months after the opening of the Campaign. These Sir are my own thoughts on the subject. I wish you to consider them. As to money to defray the expense of this expedition, Congress will, I expect, forward it; in the mean time I must borrow, and if I should apply to the public Treasurer to borrow a part of the money sent to defray the expense of completing our Continental Battalions, and replace it on the arrival of the money, I hope it will not be considered as a breach of duty, either in the Treasurers or myself. Your favor of the 28th ulto. I have before me. I shall endeavour to furnish Mr. Amis with money to victual the Troops from your district, as well the former Draft, as those now required to this place.

Congress have made a second requisition to Virginia, 'tis possible they may alter their sentiments. If we are to pay any regard to our Act of Assembly, I think it leaves us no alternative; but of this I have said enough, perhaps more than may be agreeable to you, but believe me 'tis without design of offending, but merely treating you with that candor which I wish to do on all occasions.

I am with very great esteem and respect Dr Sir, your most Obedt Servt.

R. CASWELL.

STATE RECORDS.

Kingston, 7th November 1778.

Sir:

I have lately received (by Express from Congress) that recent and repeated accounts have been received by them of the Enemy's design to make an attack on South Carolina, and that an embarkation of Troops for that purpose had actually commenced at New York, previous to the 18th ulto. which had induced Congress to request the Governor of Virginia and the Governor of this State to forward with all expedition the men formerly required to be sent for the defence of South Carolina and Georgia, and also that an additional number of 2000 men be raised in this State and forwarded by me with all possible expedition to Charles Town at the charge of the Continent, at the same time Congress have assured me that the necessary remittance of money for payment of these Troops would be made in a few days.

I am therefore to request you will forward the detachment lately ordered from your Brigade to Kingston with all possible expedition, and that you proceed to raise from your Brigade the further number required in the enclosed List, to be officered agreeable to the Militia Law, having regard to the number already raised and to be raised in the respective Counties. These men you will be pleased to Rendezvous at Kingston and Elizabeth Town on the 25th Instant, (November) where they as well as the former will receive (on their arrival) their respective Bounties. I hope you have appointed Contractors or Commissaries or both, to purchase and issue provisions to the men from your Brigade until their arrival here. If that is not done let me entreat you to do it, not only for those who are expected here the 10th Instant, but also the men now required. The whole of your men required for this service you will please to direct to be fitted out in the best manner the times will admit, with arms and Camp necessaries.
ORDERS TO GENERAL RUTHERFORD.

The foregoing is a Copy of what I have written to Genl. Butler and nearly similar to what I have wrote to the other General officers. I should have sent off the express yesterday, but I expected Mr. Blount the paymaster here, on his way to your Camp, but his not coming has obliged me to send this express. The money is arrived from the Northward, the balance of my Draft for 500,000 Dollars, from which I have and shall borrow for our present exigencies, and replace the same on the arrival of the money to pay these Troops. Pray push on the men as fast as possible to Charles Town. The late accounts are alarming. If you can send your Brigade, in two or three divisions, it will be best. You will appoint a Purchasing and an issuing Commissary, who ought to give security in ten thousand pounds for the faithful discharge of their respective offices, and applying and accounting for what money they may receive from time to time in virtue of their appointments. The Bond must be payable to the Governor and his successors for the use of the State. Money for the Commissaries shall be sent up with the paymaster whom I every moment expect and will send, on his arrival directly to you.

Give me leave to recommend to you some discreet good man, capable of serving you in character of Secretary, who will be able to enter your orders in the most minute manner and issue Copies, write despatches, and other occasional matters. Such a man a little acquainted with Military matters you will find very useful to you, and the public; if such an one cannot be employed in your part of the Country, please to let me know and I will look out for one and recommend to you. Direct your purchasing Commissary to be very particular in keeping accounts of every particular purchase he makes, and to take receipts to be produced as vouchers, on settlement of his accounts. The money that will be advanced him from time to time, will be continental, so that he may engage in any of the States, that money in payment. Let me know by return of the Bearer what time you think your first Division will reach Cambden, and if possible a Division from the lower Brigade will join them; but don't let them wait; if you do not go on with the first division, write to the Governor of South Carolina, and also to the commanding officer of the Conti-ental Troops there, acquainting them of the number of Troops you have forwarded and at what time you expect to proceed with the remainder of your Brigade. Of all Public Letters, Despatches, and orders you are required to keep copies, and send me duplicates of them, to the end that I may, (or the commanding officer) judge of the necessary measures to be taken in pursuance of the same.

Thus Sir, I have wrote fully what occurs to me at present; if any thing further I will write you by the paymaster and others as occasion may require.

I am Dr General, with very great esteem & respect Sir, Yr mo. obedt. Servt.

GOV. CASWELL TO PETER MALLET ESQ.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON, 8th November 1778.

Sir:

Your favor of the 1st and 3d current I have received and agreeably to your request have furnished your Brother with £10,000 which I presume will answer your present demands for provisions, on account of the public, tho' I wish you to engage further in the business of the States, by supplying provisions to a detachment of Militia from the Wilmington Brigade, and the regular Troops in that District, both of which are now collecting at Elizabeth Town.

I also recommend your procuring what flour, Beef and Pork which may be necessary to march the Troops, which may consist of about 2500 men or perhaps 3000, from Elizabeth Town to South Carolina. The Cattle and Hogs may be driven with the Army or lodged in their way. But I fear unless you secure corn meal or flour, in time to be either lodged in the Route of the Troops or marched with them, it may be scarce.

I do not wish you to be at any extraordinary trouble or expense in lodging provisions at Hillsboro'. The prices of Cattle and Pork are high, but they must be given; do not exceed 20 dollars per cent for good pork, without previously addressing me, that you cannot buy for that price. I am much hurried and cannot add, farther than that I am with very great esteem Sir, Your obliged & obedt. huml. Servt.

R. CASWELL.

P. S. Please to inform me as soon as you can, if you will undertake the business now recommended, and what sum may be necessary to furnish you with for that purpose.

PHILADELPHIA 10th NOV. 1778.

DEAR SIR:
The bearer of this are Mr. Walton and Mr. Telfair, two of the Georgia Delegates, Gentlemen of integrity and honor, and as such I beg leave to introduce them to your Excellency. To those Gentlemen I refer you for news. I shall by next post write you a longer letter, and am with the greatest respect,
Your Excellency's mo. ob. & very huml. Servt.
CORNS. HARNETT.

HON. CORNS. HARNETT TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA, 10th NOV. 1778.

DEAR SIR:
I had the honor of receiving your Excellency's favor of the 26th October yesterday evening. The Post setting out this morning, and Congress being met, puts it out of my power to write a long letter. By every intelligence lately received from New York, 'tis imagined the Enemy intend the total evacuation of that Port. I have still my doubts. A Fleet of 106 sail left that placed the 3d Insct. composed of Men of War and transports full of Troops. Some think they are bound to the Eastward, some to South Carolina, others to the West Indies.
I fear Mr. Hunt will not be able to put the accounts of our State in proper train for a general settlement. I wish it could be effected as soon as possible. I make no doubt your Excellency has 'ere this received the 400,000 dollars. 150,000 more will be sent off in a few days. Congress have much at heart the routing that nest of Pirates at St. Augustine, and have great expectations from your Excellency’s exertion. Flags of Truce are thought dangerous as they often bring seditious papers in order to distribute them amongst the people. You will no doubt Sir, endeavour to prevent the ill use which may be made of these kind of sanctions. I have the honor to be with great respect

Your Excellency’s mo. ob. huml. Servt.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CHARLES TOWN, 10th NOV. 1778.

SIR:

I had the honor of receiving your Excellency’s favors of the 30th October, yesterday by your Express, together with the despatches from Congress. I have received no further advice relative to the designs of the Enemy against this State, nor does the President make any mention of the matter, in his letters accompanying his last despatches.

I am very sorry to inform your Excellency that the state of our army will not admit of our supplying your Troops with arms. The great losses and disappointments we have met with, in our endeavors to procure a suitable store, has rendered our stock inadequate to our own occasions, we should otherwise have been very happy in having it in our power to have imparted a share to you.

We shall be much honored in having your Excellency’s presence among us. Being with very great Regard and respect Sir,

Your Excellency’s mo. ob. Servt.

RAWL. LOWNDES.
WM. WHIPPLE, GOV’R. MORRIS & NATH SCUDDER DELEGATES IN CONGRESS TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA, 11th Nov. 1778.

In Committee of Congress.

SIR:

The great and increasing difficulties in the Quarter Master and Commissary Generals’ departments have induced Congress to adopt the Resolution, of which we have the honor to enclose you a Copy. Among the measures immediately necessary for placing these matters on a proper foundation, is the acquiring a knowledge of the proper resources of these States. The articles of Consumption which we could most particularly be informed of are Flour, Wheat, Rye, Barley, Oats, Corn & Rice, Beef, Pork, working oxen and Horses, Cider & Vinegar. The ignorance and the interests of mankind oppose so strongly our wishes in this respect, that after every effort and every prudent precaution our information will perhaps be of far less importance than could be wished. It is however our duty to aim at it, and we have no reason to doubt your Excellency's concurrence in the steps necessary to obtain what we have in view, especially when it is considered how readily your own good sense will dictate the impracticability of continuing the War, at least of continuing it, to advantage, while we remain supremely ignorant of the supplies our Country is capable of affording. We have to entreat that your Excellency, from your knowledge of the productions of the several parts of your State, would appoint some proper persons in whose industry and secrecy you can confide, to make proper lists, through the districts you shall severally allot to them, of the quantity and number of such of the articles above named as are produced in it, which may probably be over and above the necessary consumption of the Inhabitants, and also as nearly as possible the quantity &c. which they consume over and above their own production, or of what they do not produce. We hope that these lists may be transmitted to us with all convenient speed, to the end that those proper arrangements may immediately be made, for the ensuing campaign. Upon transmitting an Account of the expenses which may accrue on this business, they shall immediately be paid.

You will perceive Sir that every precaution should be taken to prevent this object from transpiring lest as on many former occasions, the devoted adherents of Lucre should make a gain of the public distresses. We are respectfully Your Excellency's most ob. huml. Servt.

In Committee of Congress.

SIR:

Permit us to call your attention for a moment to the detection and punishment of a crime against the public. Persons in office under the Continent, have, as we are informed used the monies entrusted to them, in the engrossing of articles upon the public. This seething of the Kid in its Mother's milk, calls for the most exemplary punishment. We pray that you will urge the Legislature of your State, to pass Laws for the prosecution and punishment of offenders of this kind in future, and that in the interview your Excellency will cause any who may in your State be guilty of the like crimes, to be secured for trial in safe and close custody. We are respectfully Perquimans Novr. 13th 1778.

Dear Sir:

In the course of the Draft made by Col. Harvey in this County, the Lot fell on sundry Quakers. They have been petitioning him for a discharge under the Militia Law, on the payment of Twenty-five pounds; he and myself differ in sentiments, respecting that Law. It appearing to me by the Law for marching the Militia, as an aid, no provision is made for the relief of any such, and there must be an inconsistency, to offer a Bounty of Twenty pounds for Volunteers, and at the same time accept of Twenty-five pounds to exempt a person. It is therefore at the request of Col. Harvey I now address you, and am sorry to be giving you trouble on so trifling an occasion, the enclosed certificate throws some light on the affair. Nine of the persons appear to be in unity, the 10th man (the Bearer) altho' discovered by them, merits every indulgence that any of the society doth. Col. Harvey wishes your directions how to proceed, whether to detain them, or to discharge and levy the Twenty-five pounds. The drafts from this District is very backward in marching, several of the Counties not having made their draft, until the 5th instant. The Currituck Militia has passed me this two days. I am urging the officers of the other regiments to hasten their march. Being in some measure restored to my health, purpose setting of for Kingston in about six days. I am with the greatest respect Dr Sir, your mo. ob. servt.

case stands with him, hoping thou wilt shew as much favor towards him as the circumstance will admit. He fell in love with a young woman, so nearly related to him, that our discipline would not admit them a marriage, and notwithstanding he was precanioned of it, yet he married her before a Magistrate, for which according to our Discipline we were obliged to disown him. Yet we believe his principles are not altered as to bearing arms. If thou would be so favorable to write a few lines to the Governor, on his behalf, if thou canst not relieve him thyself, and it will conduce much to the satisfaction of thy friends.

COL. ANT. LYTLE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CAMP NEAR HAW RIVER 13th NOV. 1778.

SIR:

Enclosed you'll receive a return of the New Levies from the District of Hillsboro that are at this time, under my command, on our march to the aid of South Carolina. I consulted with Genl. Butler on the expediting of marching, and concluded that we must wait for the Militia, who march from this place this morning, with all possible despatch to Salisbury. It was not in my power to march without the Militia, there being no contractors for the new Levies. Col. Hart who contracts for the Militia is obliging enough to furnish our men with provisions, until it is in the power of our Contractor to supply us. Col. Thackston's infirm health will not admit of his marching with the Troops; he has informed me that he will endeavour to join us at Cambden. Should your Excellency not think proper to order a Superior Continental officer to take the command of the new Levies, I shall with the advice of Majors Dixon and Armstrong, endeavour to conduct the Troops as well as in my power, agreeable to any instructions that I may receive from your Excellency or any other superior officer. Genl. Butler will have this conveyed to your Excellency by express. I am with respect your Excellency's Mo. ob. Servt.

ANT. LYTLE COL.

GOV. CASWELL TO GENL. GRIFFITH RUTHERFORD.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON 13th NOV. 1778.

SIR:

I have at length despatched, Mr. Thomas Blount with a large sum of money to pay off the regular Troops and Bounty of the Militia, going to the aid of South Carolina, and Georgia, from the Districts of Salisbury and Hillsborough. He is to let the Commissary and Quarter Master by you appointed have any reasonable sums you may direct, on their giving the security I in my last letter to you by Shute mentioned.

You will be pleased to make me as early a return as you possibly can as well of the Continental Troops and New Levies as of the Militia forming your Brigade. What Militia and Continental Troops are here will be marched from hence in about three days, without waiting for the Halifax and Edenton Militia, which I fear will be longer coming.

Please to inform me if your Commissary can lay in provisions convenient to be transported for the subsistence of our Troops, whilst in South Carolina, if he can the prices of Flour, Cattle and Pork, and what sums it will be necessary to furnish him in money. I mean not hereby to require him to engage more than for your Brigade, until you hear further from me. Pray don't omit letting me hear fully from you on all occasions. I am with great respect and esteem,

Your most obedient Servant,

R. CASWELL.

CHARLES TOWN 14th Nov. 1778.

Sir:

I had the honor of receiving your Excellency's favor of the 5th together with the Despatches from Congress by your Express; your former messenger which brought your favor of the 30th Oct. was despatched before I received the order the latter. An invasion of this State appears now in a serious light, to Congress, and I am hope of aid by their liberal assistance, and the aid of our good friends from No. Carolina and Virginia. We shall be obliged to your Excellency if you will be pleased to despatch a messenger ahead with the account of the marching of your Troops, as soon as they set off and their numbers, and if your Excellency can encourage the bringing of stock, Cattle and other provisions into this State, they will meet with a ready purchase. I have the Honr. to be with very great regard Sir,

Your Excellency's mo. ob. Servt.

RAWL. LOWNDES.
GEN. JOHN BUTLER TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Mount Pleasant Nov. 14th 1778.

Sir:

Agreeable to your orders dated at Kingston the 16th Oct. 1778, I immediately despatched the necessary orders to the Cols. of the respective Counties in this District and appointed them to Rendezvous at Hillsboro' on Thursday the 5th Inst. equipped as the Law directs; you will see by the enclosed return, how the different Counties have turned out on this occasion. I sent Col. Ramsey home with pressing orders to use every means in his power, for apprehending and sending forward the delinquents in his County, and also send express to Col. Smith of Granville County requesting that he would with all possible despatch send forward the arms wanting from his County, under the care of Col. Yancey who was not at that time come forward, and he is not yet come. Yesterday I received for answer, that he would once more try, but hopes that I will not blame him, if he should fail in the attempt, but does not say when I may expect them. I have not yet heard from Col. Ramsey of Chatham County, have therefore thought it unnecessary to wait any longer, with a view of being reinforced from that Quarter, but hope that he will send them forward some time hence. Yesterday morning the Troops marched from Haw River and will be joined by the company from Wake County, at Salisbury. I am informed by an officer from that County, that the men turn out very well, but as I have had no return, I cannot make it to you. Yesterday I received your orders for drafting 186 men, in this district, to be sent after those already gone, and beg leave to assure your Excellency that every thing in my power shall be done in compliance with them, and in the mean time shall endeavour to gather up those in this County, who are now hiding themselves in the woods. I have appointed Colonel Thomas Hart, Commissary, for the Troops already raised and will endeavour to engage him or some other person for those now to be raised, but I find great difficulty in engaging any for want of public money.

I am your most ob. Servt.

JOHN BUTLER,

B. Genl.
PREST. HENRY LAURENS TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA 14th Nov. 1778.

Sir:

I had the honor of writing to your Excellency the 18th ulto. recommended to the particular care of Gov. Henry of Virginia. Since which I have reed. none of your favors.

This will be accompanied by an act of Congress of the 10th inst. recommending to the Governments of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia to afford every necessary assistance to Major Genl. Lincoln, for enabling him to subdue the province of East Florida.

Congress have resolved that each Major General who shall go on the intended expedition, shall in case of the reduction of that province be entitled to a grant of three thousand acres of Land, each Brigadier to a grant of two thousand &c.

I shall enclose in the Packet with this, the two last Newspapers, which will inform your Excellency of our current intelligence. The Enemy's Garrison at New York continue to give tokens of a complete evacuation intended, but are slow in their motions, sullen and full of wrath. I have the honor to be with very great respect and esteem

Your Excell'y's ob. & huml. Servt.

HENRY LAURENS
Pres. of Congress.

GEN. JOHN ASHE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

ROCKY POINT 15th Nov. 1778.

Sir:

I am in hopes that your Excellency will be more at leisure, and less encumbered with the affairs of State, than when I had the pleasure of seeing you. The Commissioners for striking the money, went off for New Bern to settle some affairs with Mr.
Davis, relative to altering the Types for the money as I set out on my return home, which induced me to think, that they can't have done any thing yet worth my attending to receive. I have therefore declined coming myself, and sent to inform your Excellency that I shall use my utmost endeavours to meet your Excellency at Elizabeth at the time you mentioned, and shall rely on your Excellency's very generous and friendly offer with regard to that business which I assure you Sir, I shall always retain a very grateful sense of. I should be much obliged to be informed whether I can have a public wagon for my Baggage, for there is none to be had in these parts, and if I can, when I may expect her, that I may have every thing in readiness, that she may not be delayed. Your Excellency mentioned something to me, relative to carrying two small field pieces. If you should, or South Carolina should think proper, to furnish the troops, with a few while they remain in that State, would it not be necessary to have an Artillery Company? If your Excellency should judge so, there is one Rees here, who was Lieut. in the Philadelphia Train that offers his services, and several persons used to Cannon may be had. This addition to the troops, I expect will not exceed the number that will fail appearing of the Drafts, consequently the requisition made by Congress.

I am Sir, with respect & esteem

Your Excellency's most obliged & humble Servant,

JOHN ASHE.

GEN. ALLEN JONES TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WHEELERS, NOV' 15th 1778.

Sir:

In obedience to your Excellency's official letter by Mr Amis, I immediately ordered an additional draft from the Militia belonging to my Brigade. I beg leave to inform you that they cannot possibly be equipped agreeable to orders, neither can they arrive at the General Rendezvous at the appointed time, the space for drafting being too short. However I expect both Divisions to be on their March in a few days. I am with the most sincere respect Your Excellency's Mo. obed. Servt.

Novr. 23d. As no opportunity has offered to send the above, I take this to inform your Excellency that the Troops Rendezvous at Halifax this day in order to march. They are totally destitute of Tents and Kettles, also arms. I am just setting out to buy Kettles at a most exorbitant rate. The Cols. Eaton & Atherton have done every thing in their power, to expedite the march of the men, but several unforeseen difficulties have hitherto obstructed it. I hope they will be at Kingston in a few days. I am with respect

HILLSBORO' 15th 1778.

SIR:

By this opportunity I beg leave to inform your Excellency that Lient. Col. Abercrombie of this County has resigned his Commission, and that Hugh Taning is first Major, Thomas Taylor second Major, and Charles Abercrombie First Captain.

Your Excellency will please to comission these and send these comissions enclosed to me, by the bearer; also four sets Blanks for Captains, Lieuts. & Ensigns for this County. Your Excellency's ob. Servt.

NATH. ROCHESTER.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

HARTFORD 15th Nov. 1778.

Sir:

Genl. Butler not having it in his power to procure any other person to victual the men raised in Hillsboro' District, prevailed on me to undertake the same, but not without expectations, that your Excellency will grant me a Draft on the Paymaster, for a sum of money sufficient to enable me to perform the undertakings. The victualling the men raised last spring, to fill the Continental Battalions together with the two present Drafts, from the Militia will require at least twelve or fifteen hundred pounds which (if your Excellency think yourself justifiable in) I make no doubt you will order to be paid me, as provisions are not to be had without money, and then at a very exorbitant rate. If your Excellency thinks proper to favor me with such a draft, please send it by this express, and oblige your Excellency's mo. ob. Servt.

THOMAS HART.

GENL. GRIFFITH RUTHERFORD TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

November 15th 1778.

Sir:

This Inst at six Oclock P. M. your Express Mr. Shute arrived by whom I acquaint your Excellency that I have already appointed the day of Rendezvous to be on the 19th Inst.; the 20th I hope to march to Charles Town with the first Division, and expect to reach Cambden by the 30th Inst. I think it expedient to march with the first Division myself and leave behind some Commanding officer who may cause this additional aid to be raised and fitted with all the necessary implements of War. Upon the receipt of your former Express I appointed Contractors, and an issuing Commissary.
I return your Excellency many thanks for your salutary advice in directing me to make choice of a discreet active man for my Secretary. I hope to find one in this District equal to the office.

No Troops can be expected from Washington County. The Commanding officers in that County gives a lamentable representation of their condition. Their whole strength is employed in the suppression of the Savages and other inhuman hostile wretches, who have their livelihood from Carnage and Rapine. When I take a speculative view of the matter, think it prudent not to draft out of that County, Men, arms or Ammunition.

We have many malevolent implacable Enemies who range from place to place embracing every opportunity which presents itself to disseminate sedition amongst the Inhabitants. These sons of darkness have not once neglected an opportunity of doing a disservice when it was in their power. A favorable one is now in view. Our Troops, our Magazines and a vast quantity of provisions for the support of nature, all drafted from our assistance. Our unchristian foes in strong alliance with savage enemy, might probably at this time think of revenging themselves. Some part of our ammunition we will detain and will expect all the Military Stores, from the lower Districts that can be spared. We don't think to lack in our aid to South Carolina notwithstanding the number of men which were to be raised from Washington County will be equally distributed over the whole District; by this means we will have our Quota, and not be distressed. Your opinion of this I should be glad to have. I remain with greatest respect Sir,

Your mo. ob. servt.

RUTHERFORD, GENL.

GEN. ALLEN JONES TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WHEELER'S, NOV. 15, 1778.

SIR:

Your favor of the 7th Inst., by Mr. Amis, came safe to hand, and altho' I cannot accede altogether to your Excellency's reasoning acknowledge that I formed my notions too hastily, and without weighing or even thinking of the act you mention. A letter would not serve to give you all my reasons for differing in sentiment with you. I shall therefore reserve what I have to say on that head 'till I have the pleasure of seeing you. By your favor to me, you appear to think me finding fault with your conduct on this occasion. I really do not recollect how I expressed myself, as I wrote in a violent hurry. But I can assure you, Sir, it was far from my intention. All my quarrel was with Congress, for making this State a toll to others. But of this I shall say more when I see you. In the mean time give me leave to thank you for the Candor with which you write to me, and to tell you that I regard it as a mark of that friendship which you have, Sir, for

Your Excellency's Mo. ob. Servt.,

ALLEN JONES.

P. MALLET ESQ TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

HILLSBORO, Nov. 15th, 1778.

Sir:

I left Campletton a few days after my brother, who waited on your Excellency for money, orders and advice, but of course they could not yet reach me, altho' whatever is to be done at Campletton my Brother and Mr. Porterfield will put into execution, during my absence. As soon as I get Mr. Estes in a good way here in putting up salt provisions I shall go to Campletton, which will be in the course of this week, and unless my Brother was furnished with a considerable sum of money we shall be much distressed. In case I depart this place before the arrival of Gen'l Butler's express I shall leave a boy with Mr. Estes to follow me with such orders as your Excellency may find necessary to send me, and should your Excellency judge that more money is necessary to send me, General Butler tells me the bearer is a safe hand.

I am very sorry to be troublesome on a subject which at present your Excellency must be wearied with, from all quarters. By some means or other the Militia officers here have drafted me for a soldier to go on this southward expedition. I beg leave to acquaint your Excellency with a few particulars. That I have for this two years stood every draft in Cumberland County, and that I was in that County on the last draft, that my absence from Cumberland during the summer season was 48 days, and that my stay here before the draft was 48 days only, and lastly whether doth my commission from his Excellency clear me or not. If I had been on the return list of the County where my abode is and where I represent or had the proceedings here the face of fair proceedings, I should not have troubled your Excellency, but they proceeded also, and did draft Mr. Porterfield and Mr. Estes. The former has not been but two days here since the Assembly and never 30 days in all, and the latter the only assistant I have here. I began to make an excuse for myself and Mr. Porterfield to the Gen'l and Col. of the County, who seemed to run wholly with the current of the people, when I thought proper not to lay myself under any obligation to them, but only which to abide by the Laws, rules and customs of my Country.

I am with esteem, &c.

P. MALLET.

I have now the Commander's parole for 10 days.

SAML. JARVIS TO GOV. CASWELL.

CURRITUCK LIBERTY PLAINS, 16th Nov. 1778.

SIR:

A petition from the Inhabitants of the Banks will be handed your Excellency which I beg to signify certain matters of fact. The coast is much infested at this time with the enemy which are constantly landing men and plundering, being short of provisions will hazard their lives to gain. Yesterday Goodrich in his Sloop came in Currituck Inlet and burnt two outward bound vessels with good cargoes on board; also killed several cattle before the Inhabitants could get to their relief, it being five or six miles distance from the main land. Those who live in the Banks, as well as on the Island of Roanoke, are near and has often kept off Boats when coming to plunder. If those people are taken away, their families certainly will suffer, both from the enemy and want of Bread, as they all get it in small boats at this season of the year—a great scarcity likely to take place. Corn now is two pounds per barrel, and hard to get at any rate, being destroyed by a late storm of wind. (Please excuse my freedom.)

I have the honor to be your Excellency's ob. servt.

SAML. JARVIS.

PHILADELPHIA 16th Nov. 1778.

SIR:

By Messenger Hunter I had the honor of addressing your Excellency under the 14th instant. Under this cover will be found two copies of the undermentioned Acts of Congress, viz.: An Act of the 26th August, 1776, for establishing a provision for soldiers and seamen maimed and disabled in the service of the United States, to which is subjoined a supplementary Act of the 25th September, 1778, for the benefit of maimed and disabled volunteers in the service of the States, antecedent to the date of the first above mentioned Act.

An Act for the 26th September, for organizing the public Treasury, and for providing a house for the several offices of Treasury.

Sir:

Capt. Ferres is not in Town. Mr. Craike purchased all the Blankets, except a few, which were before engaged, before I left Beaufort. They were shipped together with those purchased by Capt. Ferres from Capt. Margotte, to come round here, and I expect them now every day. I should be glad to know whether your Excellency would want any of the coarse cloths I have here. The Stockings Mr. Craike spoke about he did not positively engage. I retain them till I know your or his desire. There are many articles here that I think would suit the army. I should also be glad to know whether you would want the salt, the quantity I mean that you spoke to me about. I hope it will now be convenient Sir, to settle my former accounts. I shall send up for this purpose this week, and shall at the same time send the accounts of the Blankets.

I read a letter from Mr. Richard Lee of Virginia, dated 7th November, WmsBurg, which says, "General Lincoln is here, on his way to Carolina, to command there. Genl Howe ordered to join Genl Washington. Accounts that Jamaica, Nevis, St. Kitts and Monserrat are taken." I am with greatest respect,

KINGSTON 18th November 1778.

SIR:

Your favor of the 16th I received. The Commissioners for stamping the money are returned from New Bern and have begun to print. The signers will begin their office this day. I have mentioned to them my wish to receive the money when signed for you. I have heard no objection, but believe it may be necessary for you to send me an order to them for that purpose, lest some one who may not now be present may think that necessary and you may depend on my doing every thing in my power to discharge such part of the duties of your Treasurer's office which can consistently be done by me.

A public wagon will be ordered on this day to receive your Baggage, and another to Wilmington for Stores, to be sent to Elizabeth Town. I do not think myself at liberty to raise an Artillery Company. Some Gentlemen dispute the authority for sending the Militia out of the State, and I find it very difficult to get horses even for the few carts and carriages necessary to be sent on from this District; I have therefore concluded not to send any of the field pieces.
There are none of the Militia from the District of Edenton and Halifax yet arrived. How long it may be before they get here I know not, whether they come or not between this and Monday next. I think then to send on such of the regulars and Militia which may then be here. This will prevent my setting out for Elizabeth Town so soon as I expected when we last conversed on that subject. I promise myself the pleasure of seeing you there between the 25th and the last of the month. I have the honor to enclose you your commission as Major General, which I have no doubt you will have the honor to execute to the satisfaction of your country. Believe this to be the sincere wish of Dr Sir, your most obedient servant,

R. CASWELL.

P. S. A Gentleman from whom I received a line yesterday says that General Lincoln was at Williamsburg the 7th Inst. on his way to Charles Town, to take upon him the command of the Troops in the Southern department. R. C.

Kingston 19th November 1778.

Dear Sir:

By a letter yesterday evening from Genl. Skinner I find some disputes have arisen respecting the Quakers drafted in your County. I have laid his letter before the Council. That Board is of opinion with me that the Quakers are exempt by the Militia law which must govern in the present case; the aid Bill, referring to it, exempts from personal service on the present occasion on paying the fine of twenty-five pounds each. I therefore take the liberty of advising you to discharge such of them as are drafted on the payment of the fine. The Council should think Mr. Newby entitled to the same indulgence that the other Quakers are. Of the propriety of their Certificates the General and yourself will be able to judge, as being in the neighborhood of them and well acquainted with their customs. I am Sir, your mo. Ob. Servt.

R. CASWELL.
GOV. CASWELL TO GENL. WM SKINNER.

Kingston 19th November 1778.

Dear Sir:

Your favor of the 13th Current was handed me last evening by Mr. Newby. The Quakers by Militia Laws are exempt from personal services on an alarm, or expedition, upon payment of a fine of twenty-five pounds. 'Tis true the law under which this aid is to be marched takes no notice of such an exemption but directs the Drafts to be made agreeable to the Militia Act, I therefore think those people ought to be discharged on the payment of Twenty-five pounds each. If their certificates are considered as such as the law points out, the propriety of them you and Col. Harvey will be able to judge of by being in the neighborhood of them and acquainted with their customs in such cases. I am much concerned to find the Militia in general is so tardy in marching. None of them are arrived except from the Hillsboro district. These with the Continental Troops must march from hence on Monday next.

Let me entreat you Sir, to forward your Drafts to this place with all expedition.

I am Sir, your most obedient servant,

R. CASWELL.

P. S. I have laid your letter before the Council who concur with me in opinion and advised that Mr. Newby have the same indulgence that is granted to the other Quakers. I have written to Col. Harvey nearly similar on the subject of Quakers.

DEAR SIR:

I have returned you a bond for a letter of Marque for Capt. Cunningham, which your Excellency was so polite as to trust me with. I must take a further trial of your faith, and request one other Blank for Capt. Cheshire whom we have put into a new Boat of ours, a Rigged Brig named The Lord Chatham. The Bond shall be executed and returned in less time than the last was. Should you say so it shall go by express.

SIR:

Capt Berritz of the ship named The Heart of Jesus, arrived here some time in the month of July last. On his arrival he wrote a certain Mr. Holtner he says, indeed we know he did. He likewise wrote to Congress what he should do with the Cannon he had on board, say 28, 24 pounders & 17, 18 pounders, to which he never received an answer; but about a month ago, a Gentleman from Virginia produced an order for one-half, or 22 of the Cannon for that State, and at the same time exhibited an Extract of a Resolve of Congress by which it appears the contract for the Cannon had been applied for by the Delegates of the two States, Carolina and Virginia and was granted (no great boon). The State of Virginia are to have 22 of the Cannon and our State twenty-three. The Contract made by the Agents in France is to pay 150 lbs. Tobacco for every 100 lbs. of Iron Cannon for the credit of the State. We have thought it our duty to receive the 23
Cannon. The Capt. proceeds with the other two and twenty that is ordered to South Quay, where Tobacco is ready for him for the Virginia half, or share. We wish to know if we have acted right in what we have done (we have told your Excellency our motives), what should be done with the Cannon, and to know what way the Capt. can be paid the Tobacco. His time has been sometime out, and he will lay after his return from South Quay at the demurage, we believe, of £50 per day. We hope we will be excused for the freedom we have taken, and are with every sentiment of respect, and regard and esteem,

Sir:
I had your favor of the 14th delivered me yesterday with your return, and thank you for your punctuality in complying with orders. At the same time I confess it gives me pain many Militia officers are tardy in the discharge of their respective duties, and I fear the influence of some persons, who have ever been throwing out conjectures and observations to the disadvantage of the glorious cause of Freedom, have been exercised on the present occasion. I approve the orders you have given respecting the first drafts left behind, and those of the second to be sent forward, and beg leave to recommend your giving them every despatch in your power. I have written to Col. Hunt on the subject of furnishing provisions which I hope will prove satisfactory to him. Genl. Lincoln is now with me on his way to take the command of Charles Town. He will proceed in a day or two, and in three or four days I expect the Continental and Militia Troops will march from hence; if you have occasion for public money to enable you to march your men to join the Brigade at Salisbury, pray furnish yourself by some means or other. I am advised by Congress to furnish a warrant on the Treasury in your favor for one thousand pounds, which warrant I enclose you.

Your favor of the 13th Current was handed me last evening. I much approve the measures you have taken, and wish you to march the Troops from Hillsborough and Salisbury districts with all the expedition you possibly can to Charles Town, at the same time think it will be prudent to keep with the Militia under Genl. Rutherford. I find by your return that you have very few firelocks. I have sent twenty days ago to Charles Town to be informed if we can be supplied with arms, but the messenger is not returned. Genl. Lincoln is now here on his way to Charles Town, and also Col. Sumner with many officers and but few Troops. The latter will march in two or three days, and the Militia as soon as possible. Sir:

I reed yours of the 17th Inst. wherein you directed me to send a Drum and colors. We have not so much as a stand of colors in this County. I have ordered a drum down with our last draft, which I expect will march this day. You also directed me to send forward those men who did not march in the first draft. It is not in my power to get them, some run clear off, and others lye off in the Rebellion and swears to kill any person that shall offer to enlist them. Some that was balloted last spring to go to the Northward, and some that was drafted in our first Detachment to march to the assistance of South Carolina, I understand has embodied themselves and lies on and about the line that divides Johnston and Nash Countys, and so plays in both Countys. We have had some apprehended and put in jail, but they broke jail and take them out. I should be glad to have some instructions what I must do with such lawless people. I have some reason to think myself in danger of my life, every day as one of the Deserters has swore damnation to himself if he does not kill me on sight, to which I called on a person of credit to be qualified before a justice of the peace to what he heard him say and has got a Copy of his Deposition. Now if some method can't be taken with such fellows, I can't think myself safe in transacting the public business of this County, and should be glad of some instructions from your Excellency in what manner I must proceed. Sir:

Congress have desired that this State will furnish Galleys to attack East Florida, without loss of time. Those which we have here are by no means fit to go, except the Dragon and Tartar. I am therefore prompted by the great desire which the Council and myself feel to execute the designs of Congress, to wish that the Caswell might be sent with them on this expedition, for I suppose from the particular construction of that vessel, and the nature of the service, that she would be of great use on this occasion. From your well known zeal for the public good, I entertain no doubt that every thing tending to promote it will meet with your ready concurrence. If you approve of sending the Caswell on this expedition, and think her place can be supplied by one of our Gallies, I will immediately order one of our best to her station.

I shall thank you for an answer by the Bearer, whom I charge with Despatches to you, from the President of Congress. I am Sir,

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

I have herewith sent you the Commissions of Capt. Lee who now heads the Company is a volunteer, who accepted of the office in the room of Davis resigned, and as I have no blank commissions he is without. One Absolum Barnes, our Lieutenant, has a commission. I am sorry to inform your Excellency of so many Resignations at present, but it is out of my power to help it. I have furnished Capt. Lee with 934 lbs. of Beef, and 21 p. Barrels of Meal, and 8 pots, 8 axes, and am happy to inform your Excellency that the men are mostly in good health, and now on Duty, are in high spirits and resolved to encounter every difficulty. I can only add, I am sorry that more of our old Captains would not go with them, as I think so large a Detachment deserve a good Captain, and so no more at present but Sir I still remain,

[From Executive Letter Book.]

EDENTON, 24th Nov. 1778.

Dear Sir:

I returned home a few days ago from Philadelphia, after a disagreeable journey, and find myself rather better in health than I have been for some time. Before I left the City a large Fleet supposed about 150 sail had gone from New York, under Convoy of several Men of War. From the best information we could then get, they were bound to Great Britain, having on Board Invalids, officers of reduced Regiments and Tories. I have a letter dated 3d Novr. since I left that place which informs me that all the British Troops were then embarked but not sailed; that the Fleet was lying at the Hook in all appearance ready; that the City of New York was garrisoned by about seven thousand men, chiefly Hessians, New Levies and Tories. I left Genl. Lee at Philadelphia soliciting Congress to reverse the sentence of the Court Martial respecting his behavior at the Battle of Monmouth when he first came to Town. I was told a large majority of Congress were for confirming it, but just as I was setting out, I was told the numbers were nearly equal, and I have no doubt by this time that General and his fast friend Rich'd H. Lee have prevailed on a majority to reverse it. The Politicians in Philadelphia were much divided in respect to the destination of the British Troops. I found a majority of them were of opinion they would part go to the West India Islands, and the remainder to Great Britain. It was pretty generally believed that we’re not going to So. Carolina, as was at first expected. If it should prove so I hope I shall have the pleasure of seeing your Excellency at Halifax in January. I am with much respect and esteem Sir, EDENTON, 24th Nov., 1778.

SIR:

Some time ago a Continental vessel arrived here, from which we received Twelve Chests of Arms each containing Twenty five Muskets and Bayonets. We have also a quantity of Cartouch Boxes in our hands belonging to the United States. Our orders in respect to all Military Stores of every kind are, to hold them subject to the orders of the Board of War at Philadelphia. We have not received any orders from that Board respecting either those abovementioned or respecting a large quantity of powder now in our hands. We have been informed your Excellency intends to command the Troops from this State, that are ordered to South Carolina, and we earnestly wish to render all the service in our power to the public in general and to your Excellency in particular. We have therefore ventured to deliver to Col. Lamb about eighty Muskets and Bayonets, also a quantity of Cartouch Boxes, and a few Blankets, to equip such men of his Regiment as he had here. Col. Lamb informs us he wishes to receive all the remainder of the Muskets, Cartouch Boxes and Blankets, that are in our hands for the equipment of the other Troops, but when we consider that we have been already much censured by Congress for taking upon us at sometimes to act in like cases without orders, that we think ourselves aggrieved by Congress, that we have earnestly solicited to resign our office of Agents, and that what we have already delivered to Col. Lamb for his Regiment has been done without orders, we are at a loss to know how to act on this occasion, as we have not heard of any importation of Arms on account of this State. We have no doubt but that those in our hands are now wanted, but of this your Excellency is the best judge; therefore if your Excellency will be pleased to direct us to deliver them, or any other stores in our hands, to Col. Long or any other person we shall do it with great cheerfulness and rest satisfied that we do right. As but few of the Militia have yet appeared here, and Col. Lamb sends this

EDENTON 25th Nov. 1778.

Sir:

Agreeable to your orders of the 16th of October, I have used every means in my power to call in all Troops in this District, but as I mentioned to you in my last, find it very difficult, the men being all on Furlough and scattered about in this broken District in such a manner, that it will be almost impossible to find them all, and when found pleads strongly their furloughs. However, I have with much difficulty sent on about a hundred by Capt. Goodman, chiefly regulars of my own enlisting, during the War, who will march from Mackey's ferry this afternoon with Col. Perkin's party of Militia, which I believe may be about one hundred and fifty. I think it most advisable for me to wait here a few days to try and get in the other furloughed Troops from this District, and for that purpose have sent an officer and file of men to the different Counties, and hope to have their returns in about ten days, when I expect to be able to march and bring them on pretty well equiped as well as those I have sent on by Capt. Goodman, having applied to Messrs. Hewes & Smith for that purpose, who I lately understood have a considerable number of good Continental Arms, Cartridge boxes, belt bayonets, blankets, &c., & on application they were kind enough to supply me with what I wanted for the Troops I have sent on. What few arms I rec'd from the Militia were quite unfit for service and have left them here with the Commissary, where I intend lodging the others that may come in hereafter, and I will endeavour agreeable to your request to bring on what Troops I can collect equiped in the best manner I possibly can. The arms, &c., now in the hands of Hewes & Smith are originally very good, but at this time much suffering with rust, and if not soon cleaned will be an entire loss—and as I have no reason to expect the arms from other districts much better than those of this, thought proper by express to acquaint your Excellency of those. If you think proper to order it there might be as many brought on to Kingston as may well equip all the new levies, &c. I have advised with Hewes and Smith on the subject, who will likewise write you by this express.

Enclosed you have the returns of my Troops when they embarked from this place, together with the returns of the Volunteers and Balloted in this District. We are in want of Tents which might be purchased here, if money could be had, for which I am at a great loss. I have the honor to be

 KINGSTON 26th Nov. 1778.

Sir:

I have several days past been looking for you and the Detachment from your Brigade. You are much wanted on the business of the Treasury and your Troops to go on. Pray let me hear by the return of Capt. Tarrant or some person to be sent by you or Col. Lamb, immediately on the receipt of this where your men are, their Numbers, arms and Camp necessaries, and also the time they may be expected to arrive at this place. The Troops must move on from hence without them unless they arrive in a very few days.

I am Sir, your mo. ob. Servt.

R. CASWELL.
JOHN LONDON TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WILMINGTON 27th NOV. 1778.

Sir:

Upon receiving your Excellency's certificate enlarging the extent of my parole, which did not come to my hands till the 24th of last August, I considered it a duty I owed to your indulgence as well as to remove any doubts of the sincerity of my wishes to become a citizen of the State, to apply to the Magistrates of this County to administer the oath of allegiance to me, before I made any use of my parole. The enclosed copy of a certificate will show you the opinions of the Justices respecting my application. I have already been so sensible of your Excellency's disposition to serve me, as to leave no doubt but I may expect a continuance of it at the ensuing Session of Assembly, at which time I hope, thro' your Excellency's representation, to obtain the prayer of my memorial, and to be received and admitted to the privileges of a citizen agreeable to the Laws of this State. I flatter myself my personal attendance on the Assembly will be dispensed with and that if I am admitted a citizen, Your Excellency will be pleased to give the necessary directions for administering the oath of allegiance to me. Should I obtain this favor, it would save me much expense. A severe sickness and the shortness of the Session of Assembly at Hillsboro prevented my making any application at that time to your Excellency. If you think my personal attendance requisite, shall be glad to receive your permission accordingly.

I beg sir, that you will accept my best acknowledgments for the indulgences I have already received. I am with respect Sir, your Excellency's obliged humble servant.

J. L.

Sir:

The above is a copy of a letter I wrote your Excellency by Mr. Faithful Graham to be delivered at Elizabeth Town, but as I have not yet heard anything in answer, I am fearful it may not reach you in time to have your directions before the meeting of the Assembly; I have therefore taken the liberty to send this copy by post, to New Bern, and request your Excellency will give me leave to attend the next Assembly at Halifax, if you should think my personal attendance necessary. I am respectfully. Your Excellency’s mo. obliged humble servant.

JONA DUNBIBIN AND THOS. BLOODWORTH TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

These are to certify that John London applied to us the subscribers two Justices of the Peace, for the county of New Hanover in the State of North Carolina, and requested to be admitted to take the oath of allegiance to this State as by Law prescribed, but we having a doubt as to the legality of the same, as the said John London is here on his parole under the confiscation act, refused to administer the said oath, and at the same time do certify the said John London’s willingness to take the same.

Given under our hands 1st September 1778.

HON. C. HARNETT TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA Nov. 28th 1778.

DEAR SIR:

The President before any of the members could be supplied with the printed Treaties with France sent them to all the Governors of the several States; I take the liberty (fearing some accident may have prevented your receiving one) to enclose one to your Excellency. These Treaties ought to have been thrown out to the public immediately, but Congress out of their great wisdom thought otherwise. This business was done after the return of the North Carolina Delegates. Mr. Burke and, myself stayed and sat in Congress as long as we were authorized by the State to give a vote. Your Excellency must also have been informed by Mr. Blount, when the requisition was made for 500,000 Dollars. No Delegate of North Carolina was or could be present with propriety.

We have however patched up this business; 400,000 dols. have been sent on to accomplish the first business; and 150,000 to Mr. Blount exclusive of the other sum towards forwarding the Southern expedition. The President has no doubt informed you of the views of Congress, should the enemy not think proper to make an attack on Charles Town. I am not at liberty at present to communicate it, as the injunction of secrecy is not yet taken off. I should imagine your Excellency would have influence sufficient to induce the late Levies to march forward this winter, and that so early as possible, with some Volunteers from the Militia. I am one of those old Politicians who had much rather see my neighbour's house on fire than my own, but at the same time would lend every assistance in my power to quench the flame. St Augustine, during the continuance of this War (from her situation) will constantly have it in her power, not only to destroy our poor frontier State of Georgia by land but to embarrass and almost ruin the trade of the four Southern States by their Privateers. Genl. Lincoln whom I had not the pleasure to see, will communicate to you the views of Congress, and I hope may inform them of what may be expected from our State, after consulting with you.

Genl. Howe is ordered to Head Quarters. The little ridiculous matter he has been concerned in in South Carolina, with regard to a female, has induced the Delegates of Georgia and South Carolina to desire his recall. Congress complied with their request, but do not intend to enter into the private amours of their Generals. I hope our friend (should the War continue) will have an opportunity of displaying his abilities (which Congress acknowledge) in the field of Mars; as well as of Venus.

I have mentioned several times to your Excellency my desire of remaining at home. I am too old to be sent here; it behooves the State to send men of much greater abilities than myself. I am now not many years from 60. The other States have fallen upon a method of keeping some of their Delegates here who have served from the beginning, viz: Massachusetts, New York, Virginia &c. But should the States think proper to change their Delegates they ought at least to send forward their first men (I mean as to their abilities) in the State. New York has invariably pursued this plan, and has profited by it.

I would not be thought to derogate from the Gentlemen who are with me. I have experienced on every occasion their good sense, Honesty and integrity of heart. But by changing your members often you must of course know, as I am convinced every man of sense must, that it will take a young man of Genius, ability and application, three months at least to make himself well acquainted with the business of Congress and after he has accomplished it, in a few months another is appointed, who has the same process to go through before he can be made useful to his State, let his abilities be ever so great and uncommon. I have taken the liberty to give your Excellency my opinion on this great subject, with an intention never more to return in the character my Country has been pleased to honor me with, unless I am forced in to it. This letter has been written with a violent pain in my stomach, which I suppose a symptom of the Gout, (my old companion). I have neither time nor inclination to correct either the Diction or Grammar, it is intended for yourself. If I have in my incoherent manner, thrown out any hint that may strike you and be useful to my Country, I shall be happy indeed. I send the last papers. I expect Mr. Burke and Mr. Hill every hour to relieve me. I have the honor to be with great respect,

Your Excellency's Mo. ob. and very humble Servt.

CORNIS. HARNETT.

T. BURGWIN TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

HERMITAGE 29th NOV. 1778.

Sir:

As I am told there are many stories propagated and spread to prejudice me in the opinion of the good people in this State, I would wish to convince your Excellency that they are all as void of truth, as the Paragraph in Mr. Davis' paper of the 30th October, and I trust Sir, from your love of justice and real goodness of heart, manifested by all your actions both public and private, that your Excellency will not credit such reports, but do the justice to believe there is not a man in America who has a more sincere attachment to No. Carolina than myself. Soon after the arrival of your Excellency's Parole I applied to the magistrates of Wilmington to take the oath & be admitted a citizen, but it seems the Law has reserved that power in the General Assembly. The magistrates however granted me a certificate of my application, which I have desired the Bearer Mr. Graham to present to your Excellency.

It would in my opinion have been folly in the extreme to have returned to this Country, without first determining to become a Citizen, and I shall ever think myself happy in having had the good fortune of returning to this 'State, under the clemency of your Excellency's administration, an administration universally commended for its wisdom, justice and moderation. I am with the greatest esteem Sir,

Your Excellency's obilig'd & obedt. Servt,

T. BURGWIN.

GOV. CASWELL TO MESSRS. HEWES, SMITH & ALLEN, CONT. AGENTS, EDENTON.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON, 29th Nov. 1778.

GENTLEMEN:

Your favor of the 24th I have just received. The Troops going on the expedition to South Carolina are expressly by order of Congress to be in Continental pay as the greater part of them are badly armed, or have no arms at all. It is highly necessary that they should be supplied, which cannot happen in this State without your assistance from the Continental Stores, and as the arms in your possession are not directed to be removed to any particular State, I think it necessary (from the good of the service) to request you will be pleased to deliver to Col. Gideon Lamb all the muskets or Bayonets and Cartouche Boxes belonging to the United States, which you have in your possession. I thank you for those already delivered. Be pleased to take his receipt for the whole and transmit me an account of them. These steps under our present circumstances I flatter myself will be approved by the Board of War, as they have no other tendency than the advancement of the common interests of the States in union.

Give me leave to return you my sincere thanks for your kind offers of serving the public in general and myself in particular, and to assure you that I shall ever retain a grateful sense of them.

I am at this time much hurried in endeavouring to get the Troops on, and have the duties of more than half a dozen men on my hands. You will therefore excuse my not adding further than that I am with great respect and esteem, Gentlemen,

Your mo. ob. Servt.

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO HON. JOS. HEWES DELEGATE TO CONGRESS.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON, 29th Nov. 1778.

DR. SIR:

Your favor of the 24th came to hand this day. I am sincerely glad you are returned to Carolina, and that your health is better than usual. Give me leave to recommend a little more relaxation from business than heretofore to you, it may conduce to the continuance of your health. Your former close application, has had a contrary tendency, and you are now arrived at a time of life when you may reasonably conclude your constitution will not support either the labours of the mind or Body as formerly. This freedom I know you will excuse. I thank you for the Intelligence you have been pleased to communicate. I have had no late accounts from the Northward. Genl. Lincoln was with me, two or three days on his way to the Southward. No news by him. He left this a week ago. As the probability of Troops going to Charles Town is only reduced to a possibility, I have declined going with the Troops. Genl. Ashe is appointed to the Command, and I make no doubt will render equal services, if occasion offers. This sir, will give me an opportunity I flatter myself, of seeing you at Halifax in January next. In the mean time I am with very great regard & esteem Dr. Sir,

Your most obedt. Servt.

R. CASWELL.

KINGSTON 29th Nov. 1778.

Sir:

Your favor of the 25th Current, I have just received with your returns. I am really sorry your people are so tardy in coming on; when your men arrive here, they will be ordered to proceed on with Col. Perkins’ Militia. Let me entreat you to bring up the remainder of your men, as fast as you possibly can. The steps you have taken to collect them I much approve, as also your conduct respecting the arms. I will write to Messrs. Hewes and Smith to deliver you the remainder of the Continental arms which you will be pleased to order on with the second division of your Troops. If you can get them cleaned and properly prepared for use pray do.

I thank you for the intelligence you were pleased to communicate to me. I have no late accounts from the Northward. Genl. Lincoln left this a week ago for Charles Town where he is to command. I am Sir, with esteem and respect,

Your most obedient servant.

KINGSTON 1st December, 1778.

Sir:

I had the honor to receive your favor of the 23d uto. this day, when I immediately laid the same before the Council, who from a desire of this State’s rendering every service in her power to the United States, have advised me to send the Caswell with such of our Gallies as you may think proper to the attack of Florida, on your sending one of the Gallies belonging to your State to her station at Ocracock. This appears to me to be absolutely necessary for the protection of the Trade of both States. I shall therefore order the ship to be in readiness to join such of yours as you shall order on the service.

The time when you think your Gallies will arrive at Ocracock, you will be pleased to advise me, that the Caswell may be in readiness to proceed without loss of time. I have the honor to be with very great respect & esteem Sir,

Your mo. ob. Servt.

ELIZABETH TOWN Decr 2d 1778.

WORTHY SIR:

I have taken this opportunity by a man Mr. Molat sends express to you. As the time is now expired you signified to me you should be here, I should be glad of further advices. We have about 300 men here. I have about 100 head of Beef cattle engaged, the most of which is now gathered & must be killed shortly or will decline. I have some Pork bought, for which I have given 15 dollars pr hundred. I have a considerable quantity engaged for which I have promised the market price, some of which I must receive this week which I expect to pay 20 dollars for or upwards, as Mr. Molat has given £9, and sundry merchants in Wilmington have given £10. The most of the Pork I expect is on the waters of the Pee dee near about where I live, where I think with your advice will be the best place near this to put it up, as there is a water carriage to George Town, and salt will come fifty per cent cheaper than on this River. I am with due respect,

Your most humble servant,

THOS. AMIS.
STATE RECORDS.

P. S. Grain is very scarce on this River, but I think I can supply the Troops, if they do not stay long here. I was about to purchase some flour in Cross Creek as it is a scarce article in this County, but Mr. Molat came here the other day, and informs me he is a purchaser for the public and has a quantity in Cross Creek which he thinks will answer the purpose better, in consequence of which I have sent up for about eighty Barrels.

Since I wrote, Mr. Molat has altered his mind, and declined sending, but Major Molton is kind enough to forward this.

KINGSTON, 3d December 1778.

SIR:

Please to deliver Capt. Willis Wilson eight 18 pounders for the use of Fort Hancock, and if they are among the Guns purchased for the States, and received by you and Mr. Benberry any which will suit his ship, please also to deliver them.

I have not yet been favored with the account of the weight of the Guns, or any of your favors, since the return of your express, respecting the cannon.

KINGSTON, 3d December 1778.

SIR:

Yesterday was paid to the order of Capt. John Easton seven months pay for the crew of the Ship Caswell, and it becomes my duty to require you to proceed immediately with the said Ship to her station at Ocracock, and on her arrival there you are requested to send an express directly to Capt. Easton acquainting him thereof; at the same time you are to make a return of your officers and crew, and also your Guns, Arms, &c., with the Ships stores. If this reaches you before you leave Edenton, you are required to apply to Mr. Robert Smith for eight 18 pounders lately imported there from France, and received by Messrs. Smith and Benberry for the use of this State. These you are to carry to Ocracock, there to be delivered to the order of the Captain of Fort Hancock. If there are any other Guns in Mr. Smith's possession that will be useful in your Ship, apply to him and he will deliver them. What I have now requested I flatter myself you will not hesitate to comply with. I am Sir, your mo. ob. Servt.

R. CASWELL.

P. S. You are hereby required to search every vessel outward bound, and not suffer any provisions to be carried out of the Country, contrary to my proclamation. I am informed there are some Bermudian Vessels now in different ports in this State, whom 'tis probable will endeavour to carry out provisions; if they do, you will do well to seize and send them up to the Court of Admiralty. Yours &c.

KINGSTON, 3d December 1778.

Sir:

Yesterday Mr. Gibble received in pursuance of your order, seven Months pay for the crew of the Ship Caswell. I have written to Capt. Wilson to repair immediately to his station at Ocracock, and send you an express immediately on his arrival there, on receipt of which you will be pleased to repair on board the ship, and pay off her crew. At the same time be pleased to remind Capt. Wilson that it is necessary he should make a return agreeable to my request by express. All your Drafts except Col. Chadwick's are paid to Mr. Gibble, to whom I refer you for further particulars. I am Sir, Kingston, 5th December 1778.

Sir:

I had your favor of the 2d Inst. handed me last night. The Troops from the Northward & Eastward Districts have come in so slowly that I have not been able to get out to Elizabeth Town; indeed I do not know that I shall get there, for if I do it will be by Saturday next or within a day or two of that. You must apply to General Ashe for instructions in respect to provisions. Mr. Mallett will assist you in any thing he can, or undertake the whole whilst the Troops are in South Carolina. Mr. Blount will come on with money to pay the Troops from whom you will receive what you may have occasion for. He will set out in a day or two. The Continental Troops have passed the River. All the Militia that have marched this far, have and will cross Neuse to-day, that you may look for their arrival at Elizabeth Friday or Saturday. Pray direct Boats to be provided for them at So. River and the No. West. I will be with you about that time, if I possibly can. I am much hurried & Kingston, December 5th 1778.

Sir:

Enclosed you have a Copy of a Resolve of Council in pursuance of which I am to request you direct an officer and six effective men, well armed from your Regiment to receive Mr. Caney and the crew of the sloop George and them safely convey to Halifax, there to be detained in the public Gaol of that District, until further orders from the Legislature or Executive Powers of the State, and in order to enable you to defray the expenses of the Guard on the road, I enclose you a warrant on the Treasury for £200, that warrant endorsed by you and sent here in Mr Treasurer Ashe's absence shall be discharged by me. Direct the officer you appoint on this service to grant a receipt to the Magistrates for the men he receives, and to obtain one from the Gaoler at Halifax to whom he is to deliver the Mittimus enclosed.

Give me leave to recommend to you Sir, on all future similar occasions to order your Militia to the assistance and subjection of the civil power. Without such a conduct is observed, it will be impossible for the civil Magistrates, to carry their just and legal orders for the good of the community into execution.

KINGSTON 5th December 1778.

GENTLEMEN;

Your letter of the 23d Ulto. with the Packets, brought in by Mr. Caney, reached me at this place yesterday, when the same were immediately laid before the Council. That Board came to the Resolution of which the enclosed is a Copy. Such part of it as falls within your department you will be pleased to execute. I have written to Col. Ward to furnish the Guard, and enclosed a Warrant on the Treasury to defray the expenses on the road. You will also be pleased to direct that Mr. Caney and the Crew belonging to the George be delivered to the officer of the Guard, whose receipt for them it will be necessary to obtain. I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient servant,

R. CASWELL.

P. S I have given Col. Ward a hint, which I hope will induce him in future to order, in similar cases, the Militia to the assistance and subjection of civil Magistrates.

KINGSTON, 5th December, 1778.

DEAR SIR:

I had flattered myself it would have been in my power to have got to Elizabeth Town before this, but the Militia from the Districts of Edenton and Halifax had been so tardy, that it was entirely out of my power; if I can get that length it would be about Saturday next. If I do not arrive within a day or two after that time, do not look for me. The Continental Troops, upwards of 200 Rank and File, have crossed Neuse. The Militia are crossing and will be all (that have marched thus far) over this day, less than 1000. They will proceed directly on, and may arrive at Elizabeth Town Friday or Saturday next, if not delayed in crossing South River and the No'West.

Mr. Blount the paymaster will come forward in two or three days; if I do not come, I will do myself the honor of writing fully by him. I have received and paid away a considerable sum of the new money. I will see you if possible. I am, Dr. Sir,

Your mo. ob. Servt.,

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO PETER MALLET ESQ.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON, 5th December, 1778.

SIR:

Your favor of the first Inst. I received last evening by Mr. McAlister, to whom I have paid Ten thousand pounds in discharge of a warrant issued in your favor for that sum to enable you to purchase provision for the army. By him I send a Bond, penalty £50,000, conditioned for your faithful applying and accounting for such public money as you may have or receive in virtue of your appointment. This Bond you will be pleased to get executed and send me on so soon as convenient. It will save the trouble of Bonds on every payment of money.
I expected to have been able to have seen Elizabeth Town before this, but the Troops from the Northward and Eastward come in so slowly that I do not know if I shall get there at all. If I can go that far, I shall be there by Saturday next or within a day or two of that; if I do not arrive in that time, don't look for me, and in that case apply to Genl. Ashe in respect to any supplies for the Army. Your purchases of provisions either for those going on or what must be laid up in the States, as to price, no doubt of your good economy. Let me hear from you as you proceed. I am, Sir,

COL. ANTHY LYTLE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CAMP TURKEY BRANCH, 5th Dec'r. 1778.

SIR:

I have made to Brigadier Genl. Rutherford a return of the Continental officers together with the new Levies from the District of Hillsboro and Salisbury agreeable to orders from himself, from whom your Excellency will receive a return generally. I have taken the liberty to return particularly by Counties placing the Continental officers in the Counties wherein they usually reside. Major Armstrong to whom you directed as Continental Commanding officer in the District of Salisbury was absent from the District when the Express arrived. Captain Nelson who then was commanding officer did not receive the orders until the 8th day of November when he gave the necessary orders. The District being very large, also very few Continental officers, are the reasons that I am obliged to assign to your Excellency for so small a number of Levies from some Counties, and none from others.

Col. Thackston before this no doubt has given reasons, that so few are from the Counties of Wake and Chatham, in Hillsboro District, he being commanding officer in that District when last I wrote your Excellency, I have not received other orders than the proclamation other than what I received from Rutherford. I am your Excellency's Mo. Obedt. Servt.

ANTHY LYTLE.

GEN. GRIFFITH RUTHERFORD TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CAMP TURKEY QUARTER, December 5th 1778.

SIR:

Agreeable to your Excellency's request, I sent to you by the earliest opportunity, a just return of all the Troops which compose the Brigade now under my command. They are new Levies almost to a man; when they were furloughed at Moore's Creek, their arms were transferred to Halifax and put under the care of Col. Long. I would have informed your Excellency of this matter before now, but waited 'till I could get a general return of the Brigade.

A large quantity of provision is purchased at £4 per hundred weight for flour and £5 for Beef. Pork cannot be had as yet. A small quantity may be had at £8. A sufficient quantity of Beef and Flour may be had for the support of the troops during the Campaign, but at higher rates.

The Contractor and Quarter Master each have received of Mr. Thomas Blount very considerable sums of money, but that will soon be expended. As soon as possible we would desire to see the Pay Master as well on the account of the Troops as Contractor and Quarter Master. I have been much retarded in my march by reason of the tardiness of the Troops in collecting. By comparing this my General return with number which should have been raised in the District, you will readily see the number of Delinquents.

I have Capt. Falls & Company, who are light Horse patrolling the different Counties in the District in order to take in custody those who have not joined their Regiment according to orders. I thought to have made your Excellency a particular return of the men, who have paraded from each County, but I find it impracticable.
We are now in South Carolina within ten days' march of Camden, and design without the orders be countermanded to march directly to Charles Town.

The one third of the Militia in the State of South Carolina are drafted, & are to begin their march 7th Inst. I am Sir, with particular respect

Your most ob. huml. Servt.

GRIFFITH RUTHERFORD.

NEW BERN December 5th 1778.

SIR:

Enclosed is a letter I first received from Mr. McAustan, which please to lay before the Council, and any order that they may make thereon, please to enclose to me, which I will forward to Ocracock Bar, to some of the Pilots, in order that he may see their determination. The vessel that he is in belongs entirely to himself. In doing the above your Excellency will greatly oblige Sir,

Your most obedient & very humble Servt,

JOHN GREEN.

N. B. Your Excellency was mentioning that you should want some person to purchase provisions for this State. If you choose to appoint me I will act, as I have nothing to do with Jos. Green's purchases, he not having it in his power to appoint assistants. I did not think of this when you mentioned it.

GOV. CASWELL TO MR. JOHN COURT.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON 6th December 1778.

Mr. John Court:

You as purchasing Commissary are hereby required to furnish the Colonial Troops, under the command of Col. Armstrong, and also the NewBern District Militia with provisions. The method you will observe is to deliver the same, that for the Continental Troops to the assistant Quarter Master General, and that for the Militia Regiment to the Brigade Quarter Master, whose receipts it will be necessary for you to take, for such articles as you deliver, a return of which will be required of you by the commander in chief or Brigadier. You will also observe to take receipts for all payments you make for provisions to be produced as vouchers in settlement of your accounts, with the public. You are to observe such orders from time to time, as you shall receive from the Commanding officer. Given at Kingston the 6th Dec. 1778.

KINGSTON, 7th Dec. 1778.

Sir:

Enclosed you have a copy of a Resolution of Congress of the 16th day of October last, which you are requested to publish. A few days ago arrived in Cape Fear the sloop George, commanded by Mr. Caney who under the sanction of a Flag brought in sundry packets addressed to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or President, of the State for the time being, The President of the Council for the time being, The Speaker of the Assembly for the time being, The Chief Justices and Judges of the Courts of Justice, The officer commanding in chief the Provincial Forces, and the Ministers of the Gospel in the said State in each of which were inclosed sundry copies of the Manifesto (both in English and Dutch) issued by the British at New York the 3d of October last, one of which copies I send you to be published. You may also inform the public that Mr. Caney and the crew of the George are agreeably to the recommendation of Congress contained in the Resolution of Congress hereby required to be published, ordered to be sent under a proper Guard to the public Gaol at Halifax, there to be kept in close custody until the further order of the Legislature or Executive powers of the State.

KINGSTON, 7th Dec. 1778.

SIR:

I am sorry to learn from Col. Perkins you refused furnishing his Regiment with provisions this morning. You cannot have forgotten that yesterday on your receiving orders in writing, that I desired you in case Col. Perkins had no Commissary to furnish his Regiment, and that you promised to do so. I now repeat that request and that you not only furnish him, but all the other Troops who have not a person appointed to furnish and make return to General Ashe (in my absence) at Elizabeth of the different Regiments or Detachments you have furnished, where you will receive further orders, and in case of your wanting money apply to the Paymaster.

I am Sir, your huml. Servt.

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO GENL. LINCOLN.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON 8th Dec. 1778.

SIR:

At length the Troops from the N. & Eastern Districts of this State have crossed the River, at this place. The whole I expect will join Genl. Ashe at Elizabeth Town six days hence from whence they will be able to reach Charles Town in about a fortnight. I am much concerned to know the greater number of the Militia who have fire arms, have such as are by no means fit for service, and many of them have no arms at all. I flatter myself notwithstanding Gov. Lowndes' information to me, that arms will be furnished them.

I have received a Resolution of Congress recommending to this State to give you every assistance towards the reduction of Florida. This Resolution shall be laid before the General Assembly at their first meeting, (the first Monday in January) and their Resolutions thereon. I shall do myself the Honor to communicate to you.

My son (Col. Caswell) will wait on you with this, to whom I beg your Countenance so far as is consistent.

I have the honor to be with very great esteem and respect, Sir,

Your most Ob. Servt.

R. CASWELL.

COL. ANTHY WARD TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WILMINGTON, 8th Dec. 1778.

Sir:

I rec'd your Excellency's orders to send an officer with six men which I shall comply with and your orders in every respect. I hope I shall be able to send them off by the 10th of December. I also acknowledged the receipt of your warrant for £200 on the public; I observe you recommend me to act on all similar occasions that may happen agreeable to your orders which I shall comply with as near as possible. I am sir, your Mo. ob. huml. Servt.

ANTHY WARD.
GOV. CASWELL TO MR. JOHN GREEN, MR. THOMAS GRAY AND MR. R. BIGNALL.

KINGSTON 8th Dec. 1778.

SIR:

This covers an appointment to you to purchase provisions for the public, and also a Bond which you will be pleased to get executed and remit me when convenient. On application to me you will be furnished with what money may be necessary to carry on this business. You are to observe the following instructions, you are to buy only good Pork, that is such as is large and fat; those Hogs which weigh from 80 to 100 lb each you are to pay 18 per ct.; from 100 lb to 128 lb £9 and all above 128 lb £10 per cwt. the meat to be well cured, put into good tight Barrels with half a Bushel of coarse salt and well pickled, tho' the pickle need not be put to it till the Spring. If any thing further occurs on the subject I will inform you. I am dear Sir.

Your mo. ob. servt.

R. CASWELL.

GOV. CASWELL TO HON. MAJ. GENL. JOHN ASHE.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON 8th December 1778.

DEAR SIR:

It is entirely out of my power to come over to Elizabeth, as I had promised myself the pleasure of seeing you there; I have not therefore written you as fully as I might have done on the subject of the army. I believe by the time this reaches you, the whole or much the greater part of the troops will have joined you. I am really sorry to find the Regiments are not fuller, but the principal cause is owing to individuals who have undertaken to find fault with the measures now pursuing. You will be pleased to make me a general return of the Brigade which marches from Elizabeth Town as soon as you conveniently can, and of Genl. Rutherford's Brigade whenever you can obtain return from him. These I wish to have in time to lay before the General Assembly at their first meeting. You will proceed with your Troops the shortest and best route from Elizabeth Town to Charles Town where you are to put yourself under the command of Genl. Lincoln, and continue in that service until the tenth day of April next, unless sooner discharged. You are required to attend to a Resolution of Council which I enclose you a copy, to prevent the enlisting of your Militia in any other service during the time they are drafted for, and particularly in any Continental Battalion not belonging to this State. Our former complaints in Gen'l Lee's southern expedition were justly founded but never redressed. The other resolve respecting the discharge of the men, you will likewise be pleased to attend to. Lest you shall have vacancies in the Wilmington District among your officers, I shall send you by Col. Caswell as many commissions as I can get ready before he goes, which will be in a very short time. Give me leave to recommend him, (my son) to your particular notice.

Mr. Blount goes on with money to pay the bounty of the Wilmington men, and to take up such warrants as you as Commander of the troops shall think proper to grant, in favour of commissaries, Quarter Masters &c; my time will not allow me to give you a list of the officers. I have directed all I have seen of them to wait on you, those I have not seen will no doubt consider it their duty to do so. Shall be glad to hear from you on all occasions. You may rely on my doing what I can for you, in the business of the Treasury.

I am with great esteem and respect.
Dr Sir your ob servt.

R. CASWELL.

ROBT. ELLIS ESQ. TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WILMINGTON Decr. 9th 1778.

Sir:

On application to Genl. Ashe for the money to enable me to begin and carry on the building Fort Johnston, he informed me you did his business as Treasurer and that on my presenting the order from the Commissioners to you, the money would be immediately paid. It is utterly out of my power to wait on your Excellency but I have sent Mr. George McCulloch (a careful man) with the order, and must beg of you to hurry him away with the cash, as it is absolutely necessary to begin the Fort immediately, and without the money will be impossible. Your Excellency will please to take Mr. McCulloch's receipt, and enclose it or a Copy to me.

Enclosed you have a Memorandum of such articles as are immediately wanted for the Fort, for which you will please give me orders on each respective officer in whose department they may be. The provisions Mr. Mallett informed me he would furnish on your giving him orders to do it. I will be much obliged to you to acquaint me when you will be at Elizabeth Town, that I may have the pleasure of seeing you there.

I am your Excellency's very ob. Servt.

ROBT. ELLIS.

MESSRS. THOS. BENBURY & ROB. SMITH TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

EDENTON 10th Decr. 1778.

SIR:

We received yours of the 24th of Novr., the reason of your not hearing from us before is explained in Mr. Smith's letter. Captain Barrets proceeding to South Quay with his vessel left us no Invoice of the Cannon left here. We have examined the Cannon, but from the Swedish marks, we cannot determine the quantity of Tobacco the State will have to pay, but as near as we can guess we have to pay from one hundred and sixty thousand weight of Tobacco.

As to that part of your Excellency's letter relative to purchasing Tobacco, we can only answer that we can purchase none here, but as the meeting of the General Assembly is near at hand we doubt not but they will be able to remove every difficulty, and prevent the Demurrage, if any, from being considerable against this State.
The Cannon shall be delivered as your Excellency ordered, and your Commands in every other respect concerning them shall be faithfully obeyed. We are with respect Sir,

Your mo. ob. huml. Servts,

THOS. BENBURY,
ROB. SMITH.

ROB. SMITH ESQ. TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

EDENTON 10th Decr. 1778.

Sir:

I am sorry to inform you that the Brig "General Gates," Captain Cunningham, in the Latitude of Bermuda, had the misfortune to be overset and totally lost. Whether Captain and Crew were saved or not we know not, but are anxious about their safety, as there were on board six young Gentlemen of the first families, and best expectations in this part of the Country, who went Volunteers to try their fortune. This together with the low markets in West Indies as well as in Europe prevents our sending out at this time the Brig. Lord Chatham, otherwise I should now enclose your Excellency a Bond executed for the commission you was so obliging as to send me. Should the Commission be used, I will immediately remit the Bond, and should it not be wanted, I will return it and the Bond and instructions. As Mr. Benbury was, when your express arrived, at his plantation, I was under the necessity of detaining him 'til I sent for Mr. Benbury, that we might consult what should be done after I received your letter by return of our express. I was confined for ten days to my room with an obstinate fever, part of which time it was a matter in doubt with me whether at this time of day I should be writing letters here or singing hallelujahs in Heaven. This will account for your not hearing from me before now.

I refer your Excellency to Mr. Benbury's joint letter and mine, and have the honor to be with singular regard and esteem Dear Gov.

Your very ob. huml. Servt.

ROB. SMITH.
ROB. SMITH ESQ. TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

EDENTON 11th Decr. 1778.

SIR:

I joined Mr. Benbury in a letter to your Excellency yesterday. We could not exactly ascertain the weight of the Cannon but guessed them to be about 10,000, which at 1½ bb. would make 150,000 of Tobacco. There is about 60 @ 70 Hhds. of Tobacco belonging to the Continent in store here, perhaps you might buy or borrow it from Congress. We could buy some Tobacco in Virginia which Barretts might take in where he is, but the Virginians will not take our money. Capt. Wilson is now in Virginia, he shall have Cannon when he applies. There are nine 24 & fourteen 18 pounders. I have the honor to be

Extract of a letter from Lord Stirling dated 15th Novr. 1778.

The fleet which dropped down to Sandy Hook on the 12th remained yesterday evening. The winds have been either ahead or too high to put to sea. They have on board their fleet the whole of the 71st Regiment Highlanders, two Battalions of Hessian Grenadiers, two Battalions of Delaney's, two of Skinner's new Levies, three companies of the 34th and two of the 33rd. They were convoyed by the Vigilant and three Gallies; it is said are watered for a fortnight only and talk of coming back soon, but from a variety of circumstances I think their destination is East and West Florida. Col. Campbell now a Brigadier commands them.

Extract of another of the 20th.

All the alteration on board the fleet is that they have taken in more water and some large Cannon from W. Whitehall and the Convoy is augmented with the Experiment and Phœnix and three Gallies or Gun Boats. Gen. Gray's baggage was yesterday put on board the Labiene, Frigate, but whether he goes with the fleet or to England is uncertain. The fleet will sail this day or to-morrow. Their destination uncertain.
21st November.

I am informed that the 71st Regiment were yesterday disembarking on Staten Island.

23d November.

The fleet of Transports &c. remain at the watering place, within the narrows, it is said waiting the return of an express, sent to Rhode Island. I fancy Count de Estaing going to the Southward puzzled them. It is certain that they have within a few days embarked a good deal of Cannon at New York. Two of the Transports which lay at Sandy Hook in the storm of the 13th were blown off in the gale, at N. W. and have not been heard of since. Col. Isaac Allen is on board with five Companies of his Regiment.

CAPT. J. TILLMAN TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

12th Decr 1778.

Sir:

We have purchased a Boat for the use of Fort Hancock, as our necessity was so great and we could not possibly do without. Col. Thompson was kind enough to advance the money to pay for her; the price was three hundred pounds; hope your Excellency will assist in procuring the money for him. My soldiers have received their money which gives them new spirits, but are suffering much for want of their cloaks, as I have never heard from Mr. Craig since at Beaufort. I am Sir,

Your Excellency's mo. ob. Servt.

J. TILLMAN.

N. B. If Mr. Craig has not purchased the clothing, I believe Col. Thompson would undertake to furnish them, if he was appointed. I think Mr. Craig lives at too great a distance to supply us properly.

DR. THOS. BURKE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

PHILADELPHIA Dec. 20th 1778.

Dr. Sir:
On our arrival here which was on the 9th of this month, we found the City much engaged by a publication which you will find enclosed, and in which Mr. Deane has made some very home accusations. We found it occasioned some little ferment in Congress, and that Mr. Laurens resigned the Chair, because they would not take notice of it, as an affront to their dignity, we thought it but prudent to decline going in, for a few days until this little fracas was over, leaving those to decide on punctilios who had been best acquainted with public characters. On our going into Congress we found them engaged principally on finance, and that they had spent much time in maturing something which we totally disapprove. I will endeavour to give you the General outlines as perfectly as they are yet to come to our knowledge.

Two Emissions are to be called out of circulation, viz.: 20th May 1777, 11th April 1778 on pretence of their being much counterfeited. They are by Authority of Congress to be called in by the 1st of June next, and not afterwards to be redeemed. They are to be replaced to the proprietors by Loan certificates or New Bills. Our objections are that Congress by its own authority cannot prevent the currency of money which our Laws made a legal tender, because that implies a power to suspend or repeal our Laws. That the time is too short for our people so dispersed as they are and so circumstanced as not to be able to receive notice in time sufficient to enable them to bring in their money. That it is not in the power of Congress to declare any Emission of money irredeemable at any certain time because it implies a power to destroy at pleasure the security which the people have in all the property vested in paper money. That all that should be done is to deny its currency and leave it to the States to enact Laws and fix the times of their operation for that purpose. We were however overruled, and we find that our Country will be subjected to the payment of a heavy debt, borrowed at an exchange of ten for one and which we must discharge at par, with six per cent. interest. This debt too is incurred to Commercial Individuals who alone have money to lend and who have acquired it by engaging in traffic and extortion. Thus shall we realize fortunes for Individuals and subject our Country to a debt, which were it not for loans, a little industry would pay off, but which Loans make heavier than if all we have borrowed had been gold or silver. I believe this mischief is inevitable, and having long since foreseen it, I was always averse to giving the powers of borrowing and emitting to Congress by the Confederation, a power which I am persuaded will always be used for purposes partial, and unjust, and either to serve particular States, or Individuals to the prejudice of the whole community. Besides what I have mentioned, a vote is passed for raising by Tax fifteen Millions of dollars, a sum which I am persuaded is not equal to our abilities, but this simple and unexceptionable mode for sinking the excess of paper Currency, is not so much favored in Congress as the intricate, injurious and ineffectual mode of Loans, and the reason is obvious enough. Loans give advantage to the States who have furnished supplies at extravagant prices, and therefore abound with money, by giving them an opportunity of lending at a high interest when money is depreciated ten for one, to be paid hereafter, when it will be restored to its original value.

As you will see Mr. Harnett, I will not be more particular at present; he can give you a just idea of our expenses. Mr. Hill and myself have paid our Bill for the first two days we were in Town, amounting to forty pounds, and the prices were extravagant, I assure you the articles were few and moderate. The City is a scene of gaiety and Dissipation, public Assemblies every fortnight and private Balls every night. In all such business as this we propose that Mr. Penn shall represent the whole State. We will give you our thoughts and some things to be laid before the Assembly in a separate letter. Mr. Hill desires me to present his compliments to you. He will write to you a private letter by the next opportunity. I am Dr. Sir with sincere regard and esteem

WHITLOCK 20th Decr 1778.

DEAR SIR:

A few days since Mr. Stanly was at my house, to my great surprise informed me that Mr. Wilson Blount, had taken 100 Barrels of the salt (I told you) to his use. The salt was put in his store, and at the same time I engaged the store, offered him the salt, but he refused having it, but at the same time talked of wanting a few bushels to repack some pork, and since I requested to know of him, if he proposed to have any of my salt, as I intended them to sell only 100 Bars. but told me as before, on which we parted, and a few days after, took 100, but without having my order for the same. I have been in Town in order to see Mr. Blount, but was informed he was gone to So. Quay. How I shall settle the matter with your Excellency other than to repay the money I can't tell, unless Mr. Blount will replace the salt, however shall be glad to have a line sent to New Bern at Mr. Cogdoll's or any other place.

For Dr Sir,

Your Mo. respectful & obedt Servt.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

WHITE OAK Decr 22d 1778.

SIR:

Last saturday was brought into this Inlet a French vessel from Cape Francois, that had been captured the 1st of this month off the Cape of Delaware by a British Cruiser, belonging to a Fleet, of about 60 sail, said to be bound to St. Augustine tho' the French Captain conjectured they were intended for Jamaica. The course they steered So.So. west, while this vessel remained with them would induce me to believe their determination was somewhere to the South of this Continent. The French Captain informed me the enemy's fleet was extremely short of provisions, and that they pillaged him of most of what he had. That some days after he was captured, his vessel was separated from the Enemy's Fleet in a gale of wind, and driven on our Coast. Their provisions being exhausted, the Prize Master with the consent of his people, surrendered the vessel to the Captain, who came ashore, and got assistance to bring the vessel into Port. The Captain has put his business into my hands, and I yesterday morning made an entry of the vessel in the Naval office. I would wish to have your opinion, as an entry in the proper office has been made, and as the vessel came from a place in alliance with us, and as there are no persons who have any pretensions to any part of the vessel or Cargo, but such as are well satisfied with the Contract made with the Captain, whether the Court of Admiralty has any thing to do in the matter, and if it has shall be extremely obliged to you for your directions in what manner I ought to act.

My not attending the last meeting of Council prevented my informing you that it was out of my power to purchase Pork at the price limited. I could have made up almost any quantity at £9 and £10, and I believe I can yet procure a good deal at that rate, but as the price was higher than any other purchasers for the public gave, I thought it necessary to trouble you about it. I am to load this French vessel with Lumber and Naval Stores, so that my attending the Assembly will be very prejudicial to me, as I am certain she cannot have the same despatch in my absence as if I should be at Home, but if you think my attendance cannot be dispensed with, I will be at Newington at the time appointed by your Excellency for setting off for Halifax. I am Sir, with great respect

Your Mo. ob. huml. Servt.

EDWD STARKEY.
MAJ. GEN. B. LINCOLN TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

HEAD QUARTERS, CHARLESTON, Decr. 22d, 1778.

DEAR SIR:

I have the honor to enclose the Copy of a deposition, rec'd from Gov. Houston and Extracts of Letters from Lord Stirling. The latter in some measure shows the credibility of the former, and we have in confirmation of both this fact, viz, more than forty ships passed this place yesterday sailing Southerly, all pointing to a probability that the enemy will attempt Georgia. I hope, Sir, the Troops from your State are nigh, but lest they may have been halted, on an idea that all was safe, I have sent to Gen'l Ashe to urge them on as fast as possible, and now request if they have not left the State, that your Excellency would order them forward. By a number of resolves received last night, Congress have planned an expedition against East Florida, and in case the enemy have no hostile intentions against these States, we may need the Continental nine months men for that service, and perhaps may enlist some Militia for the expedition; if they cannot be enlisted they may serve as a cover to this Country while others go forward. I have the honor to be, Dr. Sir,

Your Excellency's mo. obd. Servt.,

B. LINCOLN.

TESTIMONIAL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

23d Decr.

Last night were seen off this Bar upwards of a hundred ships, which it is probable may make an attempt on this Town.

SAVANNAH IN GEORGIA, Sunday 6th Decr. 1778.

The examination of William Haslan, a No. Carolinian, late belonging to the Transport ship called the Neptune, of which one McDougald is commander, as follows:

The examined says he arrived in the said ship last Sunday afternoon at Tybee, having been out from Sandy Hook, that day was three weeks, that the said ship was one of a fleet consisting of about twenty sail, which were lying at Sandy Hook, ready to sail, that a violent storm having come on, the ship Neptune and another ship parted with their anchors, and were obliged to put to sea.
That after they came out that Capt. McDougald issued his orders, which were to proceed to Tybee in Georgia, and there remain for 48 hours, and if the rest of the fleet did not arrive in that time, then to proceed to St. Mary's, and there wait till the fleet should arrive at Georgia. That he understood the Army on board the said Transports consisted of about 5000 men, and thinks they would be ready to sail the day next after he came away. That they were to come under the convoy of the Phoebus, a 40 Gun ship, the Vigilance, a large floating Battery; a row Galley and one or two sloops of War. That the army was mostly composed of refugees from America, and that Genl. Skinner commanded a part of it called the Jersey Volunteers, but that there are among them three Battalions of British regulars belonging, as the examinant was informed, to the seventy first Regiment. That the Neptune has on board her upwards of 100 men besides fourteen mariners who have chiefly their families with them, and say they are come to winter in Georgia. That they are called the Jersey Volunteers, and are under the command of Col. Allen, who has large possessions either in Jersey or Pennsylvania. That the Neptune is of no force but Musqueteers, that they have had very bad weather, since they put to sea, and were near being lost as they came into Tybee.
That they saw nothing at sea, since they left Sandy Hook, but one small vessel which they took to be a privateer, two days before they came in. That there was a large fleet with about 10,000 men on board, left New York about three weeks before the Neptune came away bound, as the examinant understood, for Virginia, but he saw or heard nothing of them since. That he heard no talk lately of any thing coming against South Carolina, but that it was the common talk that the 5000 men before mentioned were coming to winter in Savannah. That last night and the night before he heard a number of large Guns fire out at sea, and takes it to be some of the fleet. That he had not lately before he came away been up at New York, but saw a petition down at Staten Island, signed, as it was said, by 5000 men belonging to the Jerseys, praying to be taken into the British service. That he heard no other news but that it was the common report. That the orders now were to burn and destroy all who would not submit.

W. HASLAN.

The above sworn to before me, the day above written.

T. HASLAN.

GOV. CASWELL TO PETER MALLETT ESQ.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

KINGSTON 25th Dec., 1778.

Sir:

Your favor of the 23d Inst I received. The mistake in the quire of Bills, sent by Capt. McAlister, and returned by Mr. Porterfield I have rectified by giving Mr. Porterfield a quire containing Fifty dollar Bills instead of five dollars, which that be returned contained. How it was overlooked I know not, but I impute the mistake to the great hurry we were in at the time that money was delivered. The Bond for faithful application of the money I also received. I can't say I intended that I should cancel the former, and I suppose it can make no manner of difference to you who I have no doubt will settle your accounts regularly with the Assembly when the condition of each of the Bonds will be complied with. I thank you for the attention you have paid to the army and giving them that supply of provisions they have stood in need of. The driving stock to Charles Town, which you say Genl Ashe advised, I much approve of and in order to enable you to fulfill any contracts you may have made in this State, I now send you by Mr. Porterfield, Ten thousand dollars our currency; I cannot furnish Continental. A large sum of this sort has been sent on to Charles Town to defray all the expenses of this expedition and I am informed the rule in the Continental army, which in our case ought to be observed, as this will be a Continental expense, is that all warrants for money to be issued by the pay master should be signed by the Commander in Chief of the Troops, when they are out of this State. I have no command of course; my power ceases in that particular, and from that time until they join the Troops at Charles Town, Genl Ashe will have to do this business, afterwards I apprehend Genl Lincoln or whoever commands in chief. If wagons cannot otherwise be had you must get them impressed agreeable to the directions of the Militia Law, but observe that this is to be done only in this State. I wish you success in all your undertakings, and that you may have health, and strength of body to go through this fatiguing business, and am Dr Sir

Your most obedient servant

R. CASWELL.

COL. MONTFLORENCE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

The very long sickness I have undergone as well as my wife, having forced me to spend all I had, obliged me to put out of my mind all thoughts of prosecuting my Military designs, whereby I could scarce have got a living for myself alone. I am therefore determined to settle in this State, if I can meet with any encouragement. I intend too presenting to the Honorable Assembly a petition to be named French Interpreter to the State and to your Excellency. If I am happy enough to meet with your approva-tion, which I do most earnestly solicit as well as the honor of your protection near the General Assembly in favor of my demand, the affluence of French vessels, and of the natives of France to North America, which will even much increase when War will be over, will render that place necessary and indispensable.
The Virginians have felt that necessity long ago, and have appointed a German who understands both languages, French interpreter with a very good pay; besides it would save your Excellency of being troubled with French petitions and letters from the Captains of the ships, who would then address themselves to me first.

Moreover I have the honor of informing your Excellency that I keep now the school at New Bern where I do teach the Greek, Latin and French languages, with arithmetic, the principles of Mathematics, Geography and Book-keeping. I believe myself well qualified for this profession, tho' I never exerted it before, having been educated in the University of Paris, where I studied for two years Philosophy, and for eight years Mathematicks, and I can flatter myself of giving to my scholars the best principles in what I do teach them, and of bringing them to understand their Latin Authors by the shortest and easiest means. Experience will prove what I here set forth. Neither care nor proper attendance will be wanting, my ambition having always been to make myself a reputation in every thing I undertook. I would be very proud if your Excellency would entrust me with the education of your children. I would take a very particular care of their learning and improvement, and will teach them besides if agreeable to your Excellency, the manual exercise of arms and manoeuvres as performed in the Irish Brigade in the French service in which I had the honor to serve as an officer for more than nine years. I further ask leave to dedicate to your Excellency a short treatise of Geography I have begun during my sickness, but that my occupations present will hinder me of getting printed before some months; it is an abridgment to the use of all sorts of persons. As my design is to remain several years in this country, and desiring to follow on my expected business with success and honor, I should wish the protection of your Excellency would procure me the place I call for to the General Assembly to help me out living, every thing being now at an extraordinary price at New Bern, and what I get from my school very little. I recommend myself to the honorable protection of your Excellency and have the honor to remain with the utmost consideration, most honorable Sir,

Your Excellency's most humble & obedient Servant,

COL. MONTFLORENCE.

Decr. 23d 1778.

P. MALLETT ESQ. TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

CAMPBELTON Decr. 23d. 1778.

SIR:

I am now to acknowledge your Excellency's favor of the 5th Instant by Capt. Mc Allister and by him I received five quires some odd sheets and bills, which would have been the sum mentioned, had the quires have all been of one stamp. This error I doubt not can be easily put to rights, and for any other particulars relative to that matter, I beg leave to refer you to Mr. Porterfield. The Bond which came enclosed I have got executed, and will be handed your Excellency by Mr. Porterfield; if this Bond is also meant to cancel the bond I gave at Hillsboro, as well as other purposes, will you please to signify it in your next. The Army under the command of Genl Ashe, have not yet marched; I believe their delay is mostly for want of wagons. Last Friday I received a letter from the General pressing me in the strongest terms for at least six wagons, but the Rivers being so high that the wagons could not travel, which put it out of my power to send that number, on Saturday I despatched four which must have reached camp on Monday and at the same time gave Genl. Ashe to understand that no more could be expected from this quarter, in time to move the Troops. The supplies to this army as yet have been mostly in flour and bread, amounting to 200 bbls. and large odd Barrels. I am now collecting a drove of Cattle, and about 500 Hogs near Pedee in order to go to Camp occasionally. The Genl's. last letter to me recommended it strongly to forward all the flour I possibly can to Charleston. I shall accordingly be preparing from 12 to 20 wagons with that article without loss of time, tho' their movements will be governed either by your Excellency or the General's order; all these wagons must be pressed except my own unless advice to the contrary.

The money for these different supplies if meant to fall wholly on myself will amount to no small sum, and that ought to be in Continental dollars. Whatever orders or money your Excellency shall judge proper to send me, will be safely delivered me by Mr. Porterfield who I wish to be despatched. I had almost forgot to ask your Excellency whether a letter of credit or something like that will not be necessary to produce to the Gov. and Council or Treasurers of No Carolina in order to command such supplies as are wanting in our Camps. I am

Your Excellency's mo. ob. huml. Servt.

P. MALLETT.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Charles Town, 27th Decr. 1778.

Sir:

It is now evident the enemy intends to invade this State & Georgia. Twenty seven of their Ships are arrived at Tybee, and 10 at and both places within 10 or 15 miles of Savannah, and from the information we have received that force is a part of the Armament we may expect. In this situation Sir, we shall stand greatly in need of the support of our neighbours, and that succour which Congress meant we should desire from your State. I flatter myself it is only necessary to inform you of our design to engage you in our behalf. Our stock of arms is barely sufficient to afford a supply to our people, which circumstance I think it my duty to apprise you of, and that they have been obliged to issue to the Troops already arrived from your State near 700 stand.

I have the honor to be &c.

Rawl. Lowndes.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Kingston, Dec. 29th, 1778.

Dear Sir:

Your favour of the 24th current, with general returns of the militia and Continental Troops under your command, came to hand two days ago. It would really have given me great pleasure to have seen you at Elizabeth Town, but the duties of my appointments made it absolutely necessary that I should remain here until the Troops had all passed this place. That has not yet happened. Colo. Lamb is here waiting for somewhat upwards of an hundred Continental Troops and some Militia which he hourly expects. These men on their arrival shall be sent forward with all imaginable dispatch. Many small parties have been sent on since I had the pleasure of writing you last; some of them I hope have arrived at Elizabeth Town before this. I am really concernoed to learn the Troops with you are so far short of the number ordered out. I find by a return from Genl Rutherford which he sent me a few days ago, tho' not Complete, the Militia from several Counties not having joined him, that his Brigade is equally short. The deficiency in arms and accoutrements I am sensible of and equally concerned at, but it seems these deficiencies cannot be removed here. I hope the same may be done to the Southward, tho' the Governor of South Carolina on my application to him signified we could not be furnished by that State. Genl Lincoln on his way seemed to think otherwise and supposed the arms there were Continental, having been assured by the President of Congress that a sufficient number were at Charles Town.
When I mentioned these difficulties to the Genl from his answes
I was led to believe he thought our people would obtain arms there, and I sincerely hope they will. Otherwise I am well convinced little service can be expected from them with what they have.

I do not recollect the particular mode of expression in the Resolve of Council or the manner I have expressed myself in the order consequent thereto respecting the discharge of the Troops.
I believe it was the sense of the Council. I know it was my own, that the Troops should not continue in service in the Southern States longer than the 10th of April. That they should then be discharged from that service, but by no means be disbanded until they return to this State, and at such places as may be most convenient to the detachments from the several Regiments in this State. I am truly sensible of the inconveniences you mention and know such must arise from the disbanding of our Militia in neighboring State. However, this matter I will lay before the Council, and do myself the honor of writing you more fully on the subject when I obtain their further advice thereon. I send a dozen blank Commissions by Mr. Johnston, and in conformity to your recommendation I send the Adjutant General's commission to Col. Caswell. I had no thought of making the appointment until you should think proper to recommend a person, of course had no one in view. The person you have been pleased to make choice of I know will do the best his knowledge and abilities will enable him, but I fear Sir, they will not be found to be equal to your expectations, or my wishes. If on a trial, it shall turn out so, I hope he will have discretion enough to resign and you will be pleased to accept his resignation accordingly, for altho' it will always give me pleasure to hear of his promotion yet my vanity would never prevail on me to wish him to hold an appointment in conducting which, he must disgrace his Country. Give me leave to thank you Sir, for the honor done my son, in this appointment, and to request the favor of you to consider him only according to his merit, you know how censorious the world is, and how apt they are to charge partiality to the account of men acting in yours and my stations. This freedom you will excuse and also this incorrect scroll; the bearer is waiting and myself much hurried. It will always give me pleasure to hear from you, and be assured that I will frequently give you an opportunity of hearing from me.

I am Dr. Sir, with the greatest respect and sincere esteem your most obedient servant,

R. CASWELL.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE, Exeter 29th Decr. 1778.

Sir:

I am desired by the Legislature of this State to transmit to you an act passed here for preventing a return to this State, of certain persons therein named, and of others who have left, or shall leave the State, or either of the United States of America, and have joined or shall join the Enemies thereof, which I accordingly enclose, and am to desire the favor of you to transmit to the Assembly of this State, a list of persons who have left your State, and joined the Enemies of the United States, in order that such persons may be prevented from residing in this State.

I have the honor to be with great respect your Excellency's ob. huml. Servt.

EDENTON 31st Decr. 1778.

Sir:

As I had the honor to be appointed to the great office which I lately held with peculiar marks of kindness and distinction, gratitude, as well as duty required, that I should give my reasons in a very particular manner for so early a resignation. This I did in the letter which I had the honor to write to your Excellency on that occasion, and I flatter myself your Excellency would have been pleased to acquaint the General Assembly at their next meeting with the motives which actuated my conduct. I have had the concern to find however, that the urgency and importance of the public business for which the Assembly was specially called to their last session, prevented your Excellency's attention to me in the manner I had hoped and expected. I am well assured the omission arose from this circumstance only, but as the justification of my conduct, in a matter of so much importance to my reputation, and where it may be easily liable to misconstruction, is a subject of much anxiety to me, I hope your Excellency will be so obliging as to lay my letter of resignation now before the Assembly, in order that they may be assured that no light or capricious motives influenced either my acceptance or my resignation of the great honor conferred on me.

I flatter myself your Excellency will excuse the trouble I thus desire to give you, and the liberty I presume to take in enclosing a Copy of my letter, as possibly your Excellency may not have the original with you at Halifax.

I am with great respect Sir, your Excellency's obed &c.

JAS. IREDELL.
MAJ. GEN. B. LINCOLN TO GOV. CASWELL.

[From Executive Letter Book.]

Pocotalogo, 28 miles from Savannah Dec. 31,—78.

Dr. Sir:

I am just informed by a letter from Genl. Howe that the Enemy, about twenty-five hundred in number, have taken possession of the town of Savannah, after a fruitless though brave defence being made by five hundred men, which were posted there and in the vicinity.

There has not as yet arrived more than nine hundred Troops, from your State, and all that I can collect amounts to about fourteen hundred, a small force to act against an Enemy so much superior. The distressed State of Georgia will claim your assistance.

I am with great esteem and respect your Excellency's mo. ob. Servt.

It's date must therefore be subsequent to June, 1778, up to which time Jethro Sumner was Col. of the 3d (See Returns). Hogun was originally Col. of the 7th. Sumner had probably been transferred to N. C. to organize the Continentals which he afterwards commanded at Stono, June, 1779—and Hogun was then transferred to the 3d, his own reg't (7th) having been consolidated with others in June, 1778. Both were promoted brigadiers. Jan. 9, 1779.

Memorial of Ambrose Ramsay, N. Rochester & Wm Johnston Esqr. respecting Gun Manufactory—Hillsboro District.

To the Honorable the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina:

The Memorial of Ambrose Ramsey, Nath. Rochester and William Johnston

SHEWETH.

That your Memorialist with Dr. Thomas Burke, were appointed Commissioners by the Congress that sat at Halifax in April one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, to establish a Gun manufactory in the District of Hillsboro; and for this purpose received one thousand pounds. But from the difficulty of procuring workmen & other causes, they found it impracticable to follow the intentions of Congress in their full extent.

They were ordered to make two hundred muskets, and were limited to one thousand pounds, a sum they found insufficient even for the purpose of buying them, and much more so for erecting works and making them. Therefore, after some time had elapsed in fruitless attempts to find workmen, they resolved to lay out the money as far as it would go, in employing Smiths to make them at their own shops. Accordingly as the most expeditions method, they employed one to make barrels, and another to make bayonets, ramrods & mounting; and at length they found a Smith who undertook to bore the barrels, stock them & complete the muskets for which purpose your memorialist erected a house for a shop, & a boring machine at a creek on Dr. Burke’s land about a year ago, but the stream soon thereafter failing & remaining ever since almost dry, they have never from that time been able to proceed further.

They here annex a note of the articles already procured and the money disbursed, and as the balance now in their hands is quite insufficient to finish what they have begun, especially as it will be necessary to erect new works on another stream, & carry the boring machine there, they desire to be advised by the Honble. Assembly what to do; and as they are told this State is now well provided with muskets, they submit it to the consideration of the Assembly, whether or not it would be better to sell off the whole materials which they believe would indemnify the State for all disbursements.

NATH. ROCHESTER,
WM JOHNSTON.
AMBROSE RAMSAY.

PETITION OF THE INHABITANTS OF BURKE COUNTY.

To the Honorable the General Assembly of North Carolina

MR. SPEAKER AND GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF BURGESS:

The petition of sundry of the Inhabitants of the Eastern part of Burke County Humbly Sheweth.

That your petitioners will labour under a very great disadvantage Should the Court be established at the enormous distance it is now placed from us; upwards of fifty miles from the lower part of the County, Experience having not yet taught us, that the Court house in any County hath been placed in the frontier part of the County, Convenient to the lesser number of scattering inhabitants; and so far remote from the main body of the People joining the County from which they were but lately separated, as what it is in this County, the particular situation of which we refer to General Rutherford, who is well acquainted with this County. Had the Commissioners who were first appointed placed the Court House, we would not have had such cause of complaint, as they were appointed by different, disinterested Persons, who seemed to have the good of the whole County in view, by appointing three in each end of the County, and one in the centre, which gave an equal chance to all parts. But one of those Commissioners refusing to do this duty, prevented the rest, until he was sent a member to your house, where (by his own confession) he (through a Commissioner) had the appointing of two other Commissioners; one in the upper part of the County and one in Rowan, a Person whose Interested connection with the appointed give us reason to think the plan was Concerted previous to the appointment, which doth appear more evident from the following considerations, viz. The appointer on his way home from the Assembly did say, that he expected in a short time there would be a new County formed out of the lower part of Burke and the upper part of Rowan; the appointed, immediately after selling the Court House, took aside two of the lower Commissioners, and recommended to them to use their utmost influence and address to obtain together with the appointer, the representation of the County at the ensuing Election, which obtained, to present a petition to your Honorable House from the lower part of Burke and the neighboring part of Rowan; praying a new County taking a part of Burke and that part of Rowan in which he lived for that purpose, and as he had done us a considerable injury, in placing the Court House so inconvenient to us in order to remedy which he would assist us in the said Scheme, Concluding by saying that if the Business was well managed it would be completed by next fall, &c.

We your petitioners therefore, Sensible of your love for justice and equity, humbly pray your Honors, out of Compassion for the injured and depressed, you would make void what hath been done with respect to selling the Court House, and empower the first Commissioners to act agreeable to their first orders. Or that you appoint others in each extremity of the County for that purpose. We further pray your Honors may not appoint men living out of this County, who will not feel the inconvenience they may Cause.

And your Petitioners as in duty bound will ever pray &c.

NEWBERRY, January 2, 1778.

Yesterday arrived here the Sloop Heart of Oak; Capt. Denison, from Martinico, Schooner Sam, Capt. Davis, from St. Eustatius, a Schooner from Bermuda with Salt, a French Schooner from Hispaniola, two Schooners from the Northern States, and a French Scow is arrived at the Bar from Cape Francois.

By Capt. Denison, we have an Account of the Arrival at Martinico of a large Fleet of Transports from France, having on board 6000 Troops, and convoyed by a 64 Gun Ship and 6 Frigates; also, by Capt. Cunningham, from Hispaniola, we have certain Advice of the Arrival there from France of a fleet of 50 sail, having on board 10,000 Troops, and convoyed by more than 20 Sail of Men of War, many of them Capital Ships. The work intended to be done with this Armament was kept a profound Secret, but the most probable was to seize the Island of Jamaica, as a Declaration of War against England was hourly expected in the French Islands.

Extract of a letter from a Gentleman in the Island of St. Christopher, to his friend in this State, dated Nov. 25. "The British Fleet for the Leeward Islands is just arrived here, and I have seen all the English Papers. They contain a great deal of News. A War with France is inevitable. Lord Stormont has left the Court of France, and the French Ambassador has left the Court of London. The greatest scene of Hurry and Confusion in England with pressing Men and manning their Fleet. The Court of France has negotiated a Loan of 100 Millions of Livres with the States of Holland. The Spanish Flota has sailed from the Havannah with the richest Cargo ever known for Spain, which without any doubt will be employed to support the House of Bourbon against their haughty Neighbors the English in this most favorable Conjuncture, the continental Ambassadors at the Court of France having received the greatest assurances that most of the powers of Europe will acknowledge the American Indepen-
STATE RECORDS.

You may guess at my situation here, where the Americans, in all Companies, are execrated with the most bitter and envenomed Expressions, and where the Spirits of the People are kept up with the following News, which circulates here for Truth from the first tables in the Land down to the Barber's Shop, viz: That General Howe is in full and quiet possession of Philadelphia, having totally defeated General Washington. That General Burgoyne is in North Carolina, having conquered the several States as he passed thro', that Lord Dunmore is in possession of Boston, having beat down all their Forts, and that the Rebels were every where suing for Mercy. General Burgoyne's Defeat has been clearly proved here, notwithstanding which it gains no Credit; and so greatly has some secret and fatal Delusion pervaded the Councils of the British Nation, that they shut their Eyes against Truth, and Daylight, and sin against their Senses, as did the Jews of old Time, and seem to stand in need of a similar Calamity to make them act as reasonable Beings. Provisions excessive high here. Arrived at Martinico, Heart of Oak, Denison, Viper, Stowe, and Rachel Smith, from North Carolina. Taken Sloop—Ballard, from South Key, belonging to Hampton, Sloop Corriers, from Charlestown, carried into St. Kitts."

Our Readers are desired to correct an Error of the Press which passed unnoticed in our last, where, in the Newbern Paragraph, the Judges were said to be appointed for this District, which should have been for this State.

An Act to regulate the militia of this State.

An Act for the ease and convenience of the militia on the west side of Newport, in Carteret County.

An Act for securing lots in Elizabeth Town, in Bladen County.

An Act for establishing the salaries of the Justices of the Superior Courts, and of the Attorney General.

An Act for adding part of Anson County to Bladen.
An Act to enable the Governor to send an aid from the militia to oppose the enemies of the United States, if the same shall be requested by Congress.

Whereas opposing the enemies of the United States by vigorous and powerful efforts, will greatly tend to bring the present war to a speedy and happy conclusion, and this State is at all times willing and desirous of assisting to the utmost of its power, in the common defence. Be it therefore enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor or Commander in Chief, for the time being, upon the request of Congress, for that purpose made, to detach from the militia of this State, an aid not exceeding five thousand men, in manner following, that is to say, every regiment shall be required to furnish its proportion of the said aid according to the number it contains, and that the commanding officer of every regiment shall be, and he is hereby empowered, to offer a bounty of fifty dollars to every person who shall engage as a volunteer in the said service; and the deficiency, if any, shall be supplied by draughts agreeable to militia law; and every person draughted for the said service, shall be entitled to a bounty of twenty five dollars, and every such commanding Officer shall return as soon as may be, to the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, a roll of such persons as shall be detached from his regiment, distinguishing them into volunteers and draughted men, and every volunteer and draughted militia man shall be entitled to receive the bounty to them respectively given by this act as soon as they shall enter into the service or be draughted, and the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, is hereby authorized to draw on the treasury for such sums of money as may be necessary to defray the same. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said aid shall march to such parts or places within the United States, as the Congress shall direct, and be and continue in service during the next campaign, not exceeding twelve months; and such aid shall be under the same rules and discipline, as the continental troops, after they shall have joined the army which they may be ordered to reinforce, and shall receive the same pay allowed the militia in the State.

Provided always that for any offence, every officer and soldier of the said reinforcements, shall be tried by Courts martial composed of their own officers and none other.

And be it also enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Governor may march to conduct and command the said militia if it shall be adjudged by him, with the advice of the Council of State, consistent with the safety of this State, and of use to the public service.

And be it also enacted by the authority aforesaid, that in case the Governor of this State for the time being, shall by the virtue of this act march without the limits of the State, he shall have the rank of a Major General of militia from the passing of this act, and shall draw pay from the day when by virtue of this act he shall pass the limits of this State during the time he shall be on such service, and he is hereby empowered to call as many officers into service as he shall think the service absolutely requires, having respect to the regiments to which such officers belong, and complying to the rules prescribed by the militia law; and make every provision for the march of such troops and transportation of horses, baggage, provision and forage, as may tend to expedite the progress of the army, and consist with as much economy as the nature of the operations will admit of.

Provided, that no person shall be subjected to be draughted for compleating the aid aforesaid, who has been already draughted and in actual service in any division, battalion, company or detachment, for more than two months at any one time since the commencement of the present war, and all others shall, if a draught be necessary, be subject to an equal draught.

And be it also enacted by the authority aforesaid, that in case the Governor shall not find it expedient to march with the said aid, he shall appoint the commanding officer thereof a Major General, and such Major General shall have the pay and other appointments to such rank belonging in the continental army.

 YORK TOWN PENNSYLVANIA, Jan. 6 1778.

Dear Sir:

I am to acknowledge the receipt of your favours of the 25 Nov. and 3 Dec. by Post. I wish I could make a little good news for you, for unless I do, you will not I fear have any thing very interesting for a month or two to come. However our Army have taken up their Winter Quarters at the Valley Forge about sixteen miles from the City, where they have built Huts. The General intends living in one himself. I send you all the papers I can come at. I may perhaps by next Post send you intelligence from the North, which will surprise all America...........I beg you will continue to send me all the news papers you can possibly collect, I believe you are afraid of making your packet too large ...........Mr. Mclain writes me he had hopes of getting our River Fortified; but I have dispaered of it long since; if the Assembly should agree to it, I shall believe that Miracles have not yet ceased. I promised to send you a Copy of the Confederation but Mr. Penn, some how or other (I believe by mistake) sent them all to our Assembly. I have been very desirous to hear what has become of Capt. Allen. I beg you will inform me; if he should be at C. Fear tell him he has used me ill in not writing me and I shall at a proper time call him to account. I hope his family are well. You always say you have no news; surely you can send me domestic intelligence which will be very agreeable. I have heard of a Distiller & have sent for him. I wish you would inform me what the Company would be willing to give by the year. Let me know the most you can afford, and I will agree for as much less as possible. Are your Vessels arrived or are they taken? Make my Compts. to Mr. Ancrum Mr. Quince & all my friends and acquaintances tell those two Gentlemen I shall answer their agreeable favours by next Post. As for friend Clayton he is indebted to me two letters. A Merry Christmas and happy New Year to you all.

I am Dr. Sir, your sincere friend & Obedt. Servt.

GOV. JOSIAH MARTIN TO LORD GEO. GERMAINE.

[BR. P. R. O. AMERICA AND WEST IND: B. T. VOL. 219, P. 325., NO. 19.]

New York, Janry. 23rd, 1778.

My Lord:

I have the honor to acquaint your Lordship that Mr. Cornell, a member of the Council of No Carolina lately visited that Country under the sanction of a flag of truce and is returned hither having had the good fortune from a concurrence of circumstances to rescue not only his family but a considerable property out of the hands of the Rebels, a success far exceeding his expectation after the uncourteous and hostile reception he at first found among them.

This Gentleman reports, my Lord, that Mr. Alexander, Mr. Culloch and Mr. William Palmer had taken the Oath of Allegiance to the Rebel State which the other Members of the Council who remain there had to that time found means to elude.

From the intercourse Mr. Cornell had with some of the common people during his stay there he formed an opinion that they were heartily tired of their sufferings and that it would be found very difficult if not impossible to raise the contingent of men required by the Congress from that Province for the ensuing campaign. Reports from Virginia say that like difficulties will occur there from the same causes. The Leaders in Rebellion in Carolina Mr. Cornell informs me hold nevertheless a language of confidence with regard to the Establishment of their system of Independence but he says he thought he could discern at the same time that the greatest zealots among them were not without their doubts of it. On his arrival at New Bern he found the Rebels highly elated at the defeat of General Burgoyne's Army which exultation was succeeded by equal depression on the receipt of News of the Reduction of the rebel Forts on the Delewar by His Majesty's Forces.

The contemptible Port of Ocracock according to Mr. Cornell's information has become a great channel of supply to the Rebels while the more considerable Ports of the Continent have been watched by the King's Ships. They have received through it he says and continued to receive at that inlet when he was there so lately as the beginning of this month very considerable importations of the necessaries they most wanted for the purpose of carrying on their Warfare from the Ports of France and the French West India Islands. This, my Lord, was reported by him immediately on his arrival to Commodore Hotham the Naval Commander here who will no doubt take all proper measures for shutting up that Avenue of succour to the Rebels.

I have the honor to inclose to your Lordship a New York Gazette containing a plan of Confederation for the Colonies in Rebellion lately exhibited by the Congress and a copy of a Law of the Rebel State of North Carolina calculated for the confiscation of the Property of His Majesty's faithful subjects there, both brought hither by Mr. Cornell.

Many Refugees not less than one hundred and fifty, have arrived here from North Carolina since the month of August last being for the most part mercantile people and natives of Scotland, among them, Mr. John Hamilton and Mr. Macleod the former a merchant of considerable Note long settled there and the latter a Presbyterian clergyman of good character who have formed a very spirited and in my humble opinion a well concerted plan by drawing out of that Province for His Majesty's service the loyal Highlanders of whom they have two hundred and seventy odd men actually under the most solemn engagements to join them on a summons. These Gentlemen my Lord are gone to Philadelphia with my best recommendations to submit to the Commander in Chief their Plan which whether it be deemed practical or not discovers a very commendable zeal and spirit in the projectors.

The provincial Officers of North Carolina made Prisoners by the Rebels in that Country in the beginning of the year 1776, drop in here now and then by one's and two's as they find means to escape from captivity.

By several of the officers of the troops of this State, just arrived from Head Quarters, we have an account that Canada has aced to the union of the Confederate States of America, and that an express from Quebec had just arrived to Congress, with the important account, that they had seized on the President of the Council, Governor Carlton having left the Country, all the British troops and stores, and requested that they might be received as the fourteenth State, and that proper force might be sent to garrison the several towns in that country.

We have received a melancholy account from Charlestown, of the destruction of the greatest part of that opulent town by fire. No particular account as yet of that dreadful accident is come to hand, but it is supposed to have been perpetrated by some disaffected persons, and several are apprehended on suspicion.

The printers in the State of North Carolina, are requested to publish in their Newspapers, the following advertisement. At a general court martial held at White Marsh, in the state of Pennsylvania, on the 2d Day of December 1777, by order of his Excellency Genl. Washington.

Capt. Vail of the second North Carolina battalion, charged with Cowardice, at the battle of Germantown, was tried, found guilty of that crime, and sentenced therefor to be cashiered; and to have his crime, name, place of abode, and punishment, published in the newspapers in and about the camp, and of that particular state from which he came; and that it should be deemed scandalous for any officer to associate with him.

This sentence was approved by his Excellency the Commander in Chief; and in pursuance thereof is transmitted to the printers for publication.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my Hand and Caused the Seal now used for the said State to be affixed at Newington the 2nd day of March Anno. Dom. 1778.

R. CASWELL.
CORN HARNETT TO WILLIAM WILKINSON ESQ.

York Town March 3 1778.

Dear Sir:

Your several favours of the 7, 14 and 26 January and 4 Ultimo are now before me. I have lately had one of the severest fits of the Gout I ever had in my life. I have been confined to my room these 5 weeks unable to help myself, having it in both feet, one knee and my right hand and arm. It is with great pain that I am able to hold a pen in my hand this day. I am sorry to hear Meredith is taken; I wish the fact could be ascertained in regard to his being put in irons, &c. Jackey is not yet with me; Mr. Mitchel promises to send him as soon as the weather will permit. I think I shall bring him home with me, as we are likely to have warm work the next Campaign. You may for the present send him to Mockenlog School. In yours of the 26th Jan. I received Col. Kennon's Bills on the Continental Treasury Viz. No. 25-Bill for 1000; No. 26 for 1000; No. 33 for 500; No. 34 for 500; No. 35 for 500, amounting in the whole to 3,500 Dollars. I shall present them for payment as soon as I am able to Attend the Treasury board, which I hope will be in a very few days. I am sorry indeed for the great loss sustained by the Inhabitants of Charles Town; it was a dreadful fire.

I shall write MacLain a few lines by this Post and shall write my friend Hooper very fully by the next. Our Army remains as before at Valley Forge. Unless the several States exert themselves to compleat their Battalions Our Continental Army will cut a poor figure in the Spring. We have not even heard of a Schyr-mish lately. I hope to see you in April and am

Dr Sir Your afft. & obdct. Servt.

CORN. HARNETT.

In the midst of my Distress, my man Sawney ran away from me. I have with much ado hired a little Dutch Boy to make a fire for me. A Servant is not to be had here; I beg you will hire Heron's Josh to come to me or some other free man. I don't know whether I shall ever get Sawney again. It is said he intended to go to Philadelphia. He turned out to be one of the greatest Villains Living. If I was to tell you some parts of his behaviour it would amaze you. You may purchase a horse for Josh if he'll come, and I can perhaps sell the horse here for as much as he cost.

Yours &c.

HON. THOS. BURKE TO GOV. CASWELL.

[FROM MS. RECORDS IN OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE.]

YORK, PENNSYLVANIA March 12th, 1778.

D. Sir:

I had the honour of addressing you some short time before my departure from home, which was not so early as I Expected when I took leave of you in New Bern, owing to unavoidable delays which I assure you Sir I surmounted as soon as it was in my Power. The intolerable bad roads kept me three weeks nearly on my journey and I find on my arrival here things by no means in such forwardness as I wish. The army is at present much in the same situation that it has been all the Winter; a Committee of Congress is at Camp in order to inquire into and regulate the abuses and Insufficiencies therein. The Congress are much alarmed an account of the scarcity of Flesh provisions, and many splendid projects we contemplated, but I fancy nothing will do unless the possessors of that Commodity can see prospects of gratifying their avarice. This vile principle if anything can, will mar our cause, for though America abounds with provisions we cannot get sufficient for a few thousand men without expending Millions in the purchase of it. The Congress have yet resolved on nothing relative to our Militia; indeed I cannot find that they have any Idea of a plan of Operations or System of Warfare for the next Campaign, and are not able to determine whether they will want them or not. I am myself of Opinion that our army will neither take the field early enough or be of Competent Strength when it is collected, and I fear we shall be able to undertake nothing against the enemy, but must act still on the Defensive, and prolong the war. This is far from being agreeable to my Ideas of good policy—but without force sufficient for an Offensive war, it is all that can be done. Virginia is the only State who has wholly yet agreed to ratify the Confederation. The 24th of this month is assigned for passing upon it again; by that time I suppose all of the States will be Instructed. Maryland and Connecticut have produced theirs. The former desires the western boundaries of the States claiming to the Mississippi or South Seas to be Ascertained by Congress, and that all of the Country west of the Frontiers not granted to Individuals should be common stock.

The latter desires that no standing Army be kept up in time of peace by the United States, or Pensioners supported by them, except persons disabled in War, that the quota of the public Expense be in proportion to the Number of People in each State. I shall Endeavour to procure Copies of the several Instructions, and transmit them to you, but I suppose the next Assembly will not take it up. They will deem it prudent to know the sense of every other State before they finally determine. I refer you to Mr. Penn for Intelligence.

I believe I was mistaken in supposing the tenth of May the time of our Election; Mr. Penn informs me it was the 28th of April. If this be so I shall return sooner than I expected, for having no powers beyond the day, and hoping the assembly will not require me to serve here any longer, my stay would be useless. I hope the Assembly will take this into early Consideration. If I shall observe any thing of Importance before Mr. Penn's Departure (who only waits for good weather, and the roads being a little settled) I will add it. I have the honor to be, with the greatest Esteem and respect,

Your Excellency's Obed. Servt.,

THOS. BURKE.

Several vessels are just arrived here from Bermuda with salt, which 'tis hoped will bring down the extravagant price of that article. By these vessels we have an account of the loss of the Lord Amherst Indiaman, from Jamaica to London, very richly laden. She struck on the rocks of Bermuda and went to pieces by which accident a number of American prisoners who were on board, going to England, were happily released, as they got safe on shore.

HALIFAX March 14.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.

Deserted from me the 12th Instant on their march for Halifax, two soldiers belonging to the 5th battalion of this State, William Watson and Charles Peters, Watson has deserted five times; he has also cost the public twenty odd pounds for taking him up, and jail fees; he is about five feet ten inches high, dark complexion, black hair, lives on or near Bay river, below Newbern. Peters is an East India Indian, formerly the property of Mr. Tomlinson in Newbern. Whoever delivers one or both of the above deserters to me at Bath or to any continental officer, taking their receipt for the same, shall have the above reward.

The humble address of John Alderson to His Excellency Richard Caswell Esqr., Governor and commander in chief in and over the State of No. Carolina humbly Sheweth:

That he was on the 7th of March last permitted to return to this State, after giving his word and Honor, to be Inactive, until exchanged, or until a general exchange should take place, that he humbly prayeth his Excellency, to take into consideration the disadvantage under which he, the Petitioner, now laboureth under in being Deprived of sharing the honors which we promise ourselves this campaign and hopes his Excellency will forward an exchange as there are prisoners of equal Rank with me in this State who would be glad as my self to be exchanged.

Mr. John Green will inform his Excellency of my Rank.

CORN HARNETT TO WILLIAM WILKERSON.

Youk Town, March 18th, 1778.

Dear Sir:

Since my last we have received no interesting intelligence from the Army. They remain still in quiet possession of Valley Forge Camp. I am apprehensive my Servant has attempted to go to Philadelphia & perhaps is got there. I can, however, hear nothing of him, altho' I have distributed advertisements all over the Country, & have employed some of our Light Horse to go in pursuit of him, but to no purpose. I expect to set off the middle of April, & I fear without a servant to attend me, as not one is to be had here as yet on any Terms. Jackey is not yet come to me. Mr. Mitchell promised by letter to send him as soon as the weather would permit; indeed we have had no weather fit for any person to travel in for two months. I have again written very pressingly to Mr. Mitchell for the child & expect every day his answer. He lives now at a place called Potagrove, somewhere down towards Philadelphia. It is hoped Genl. Washington will be able to Open the Campaign with some vigorous excursions. Burgoyne's Army is stopped, you will see the particulars in the enclosed newspapers; I was not at liberty to Communicate this intelligence sooner. I shall bring your nephew home with me, as I do not think it prudent to leave him at present in this Country; indeed the schools in general are broke up—perhaps he may be sent to Mecklinburg, to be of advantage to him. If Mrs. Har- nett will consent I will send Nelly with him, but this we can conclude upon after my return. Your Bills I fear will not be paid. I wish you had not been Concerned with them. I ever Cautioned you against having any connection with that man Ken- non, but to no purpose; but it was unpardonable to have no other Indorser than his Clerk. The business of Congress was taken up the whole day on Kennon's Bills on Saturday last, and from the Complexion of the House I am well satisfied they will not be paid. I shall bring it on again, & if they are not paid, I shall have them regularly protested, which is, I fear, all that can be done at present, & will send them on by Post, to give you an opportunity of endeavouring to procure payment from his Executor or Administrator. Upon my word you have acted exceedingly imprudent, to say no worse of it. You will be obliged to Commence a Suit, & throw good money after bad. I think I fore- see what will happen on this wild goose transaction. It is sur-prising to me that you could not take the Currency of your own Country for what you sold, rather than take Bills drawn by a man whose estate was universally believed Insolvent, and only In- dorsed by his Clerk. You will give me leave to tell you, that such a transaction cannot be reconciled to Common Sense. You have only lost 3500 Dollars by this prudent Step. Show this paragraph to Mrs. Harnett if you dare. I am, Sir,

Your sincere friend & obedt. Servt.,

CORN HARNETT.

William Wilkinson Esqr.

P. S. Since writing the foregoing, I have been favoured with yours of the 12 Feb. which I shall answer by next return Post.

Presdt. of Congress On public Service Henry Laurens to His Excellency Richard Caswell Esquire Governor of North Carolina &c. &c. at New Bern.

York Town, 19 March, 1778.

Sir:

I beg leave to refer Your Excellency to my last Letter under the 14th Inst. which I sent under the protection of General Scott.

The present Cover will convey to Your Excellency an Act of Congress of the 16th for obtaining from each State in the Union proper information of the determination in each respecting the Acts & Recommendations of Congress transmitted & to be transmitted from & after the 1st November 1777. I have the honour to be, Sir, with Esteem & Respect,

Your Excellency’s Obedient & humble Servant,
HENRY LAURENS.
CORN HARNETT ESQR TO GOV. CASWELL.

[FROM MS. RECORDS IN OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE.]

YORK TOWN, 20th March 1778.

DEAR SIR:

I have been laid up with the Gout which has prevented my writing to your Excellency for some time past, having had it in my right hand. Nothing has as yet been Determined on in Congress relative to calling out the Militia of No. Carolina. The Army remains still at Valley Forge, & we have been for some time alarmed with the Great Scarcity of flesh to feed them. My friend Burke thinks this an Artificial Scarcity. In this, we differ much in opinion, as I am convinced the want is real, as we have not been able as yet, to lay up any Magazines of Provisions, & have had only sufficient to supply the immediate wants of the Army; I am firmly of Opinion if we fail at all in the Vigour of our Operations, it will be owing to this circumstance; & by that means I fear the war may be prolonged, and our Army reduced to the necessity of carrying on a defensive war only. I hope I may be mistaken, many Gentlemen think I am. The Provisions not coming on as fast as we wish, may perhaps be owing to the badness of the weather, which has rendered the roads almost impassable. How my colleague (Penn) will get on, I know not. He is the bearer of this & I beg leave to refer you to him for further information in regard to Congress Matters. General Washington has it much at heart to Open the Campaign with Virginia before the Enemy can possibly receive reinforcements.

Our Committee are not yet arrived from Camp, but are daily expected. It is expected they will, on their arrival, Open a New field for Congress.

I intend to set off on my return home some time towards the Middle of April. I shall then have been ten months from my family, and as our Assembly pay their Delegates so very Liberally, I have neither expectation or wish to return again, as I am convinced there will be many Candidates for the Honoroble employment; I am not one, tho' I shall think it my Duty to serve my Country to the best of my poor abilities, either with or without pay.

I suppose the Gen. Assembly will be adjourned before my return. I am sorry they had not continued their present Delegates until they were relieved by Others. This might have prevented our State from being unrepresented in Congress for two or three months at least, which must be the case as matters now stand.

Virginia has empowered her Delegates to ratify the Confederation. The Members from Massachusetts have also private Letters informing them that their State has also done it; I do not hear of any other States doing it as yet. Connecticut wish the Quota to be fixed by the number of people in each State; every Other Objection of theirs has little weight.

Every Member of Congress seems to wish for a Confederacy except my good friend Burke, who laughs at it as a Chimerical Project; it does not strike me in that point of view. I think that unless the States conferate A door will be left open for Continental Contention & Blood shed, and that very soon after we are at peace with Europe. I heartily wish I may be mistaken. I have the honor to be with the greatest respect

Your Excellency's Most obed. & very hum. Servt.

CORN. HARNETT.

P. S. Upon enquiry I find the Delegates from the several States have power to ratify the Confederation, but are to endeavor to get some Alterations made if possible. Mr. Penn will give Your Excellency further information on this subject. The Gen. Assembly of N. York have agreed unanimously & have by Commission empowered their Delegates. As I have been informed some aspersions have been thrown out to the Prejudice of Mr. Penn, I must in justice to that Gentleman's Character assure your Excellency that his Conduct as a Delegate and a Gentleman has been worthy & disinterested.

Your Honb. &c. &c. &c.

Sir:

I have been petitioned by two women i.e., Mrs. Greaves & Mrs. McKensie, living in this Town to write to your Excellency to grant them permission to go out in the Flag of Truce now lying in this Harbour, one of them viz, Mrs. Greaves has a husband on board the said Vessel and has two Children, at this time I see no prospect of her maintaining herself & Children, and am apprehensive she may become a burden to the Parish should she be detained. The other is a Widow who has one Child, and possibly may likewise become a charge to the publick, she has friends in Scotland and has been frequently solicited to go home but never had a favorable opportunity. A Line from you as soon as convenient would oblige those poor women, as the Flag will sail shortly. I am with Respect Sir,

ADDRESS FROM ROWAN MILITIA OFFICERS FOR CONSIDERATION.

To Messrs. The Speakers and Members of the General Assembly in the State of North Carolina sitting at Newbern April 1778.

The address of the Militia Officers of the County of Rowan.

GENTLEMEN:

With hearts deeply impressed with the sense of the importance of pursuing the most effectual measures for the safety and happiness of this as well as that of the other United States, permit us to address you on the subject of the Regular service for our mutual defence.

We cannot omit expressing our approbation of the respectable footing on which you have placed the Militia of this State by two late acts of Assembly in order that they may be ready in case of an invasion or any sudden Alarm; but from our own experience we can assure you that from the frequent calling forth the industrious yeomany of this country into the field many great inconveniences arise, one of which only we shall mention which is the hindrance of Tillage and consequently a scarcity of provisions, which in our humble opinion we may have more reason to dread than any reinforcements that may be sent to Genl. Howe, and according to our conception of service in the field Regulars are greatly preferable to Militia for many reasons that will readily occur to you.

We on our part (and are persuaded that of our neighboring Counties) would willingly submit to any Tax that could be rea-asonably laid on us together with the other parts of the State, in order to augment our Continental Army or be subject to any other provision for that purpose that is in the power of this State to make.

We further humbly conceive that some early measures ought to be passed in order to preserve or provide Lands for those officers and soldiers of this State who are abroad in the regular service, and to whom we are under such obligation. And that no unfavorable construction may be put on this address we can with great sincerity assure you that whenever the exigencies of this country may require it, none will be more ready to step forth for the common defence than, gentlemen,

CORN. HARNETT TO COLO. JETHRO SUMNER OF THE NORTH CAROLINA BRIGADE.

York Town 1st April 1778.

Dear Sir:

I received your favour of the 19th & 27 & do not recollect to have done myself the Pleasure to answer either of them. My great Indisposition must plead my excuse; I received from Colo. Clark the dates of the Colo's Commissions now in Camp belonging to the North Carolina Brigade. You or he is mistaken in a day; you say the 15th he the 16th Apr. 1776. This will be easily rectified by having recourse to the Commis. Mr. Penn & myself while he was here moved Congress several times to have the Brigadiers recommended by our General Assembly immediately commissioned; but as there are several other Colonels, in other Brigades, who are also to be appointed, Congress have postponed the matter until the Gents are fixed upon, in order that they may rank agreeable to the dates of their Commissions as Colonels.

This measure must very soon take place, & hope to have it in my power to congratulate you & Col. Clark on your appointment. Mr. Burke says he will not Stir in it.

I would advise you on receiving the Commission, to get leave of Absence for a few Months to return to the Southward which I hope will effectually restore your health, & enable you to return to the Army in the most Vigorous part of the Campaign. I shall set out from hence about the 15, or between that & the 20 Instant, at furthest, & shall be very happy to travel with you if Convenient. I am with great esteem, Dr. Sir,

Your most obedt Servt.

CORN HARNETT.

Being informed that Mr. Peter Mallett claims the Molasses soald by order of Synod, I think it my Duty to inform the public what I know concerning it. In a little time after I had stored the Goods taken out of the Cross Creek Boats, Mr. P. Mallett wrote to me desiring I would be so good as to let his brother have the liberty to mark some of his Effects that was unmarked. I gave him the Keys of three stores where the goods was. I think the second day I went to Town and was informed that Dan Mallett, in Overhauling some heavy Hoghead, had stove a hogshedd of Molasses of which near half was lost. I asked him in regard to it; he said it was so. I asked him whether or no it was his brother's, he said he believed not. I informed him that if it was not he should make it good to the Owners, to which he assented. In about two Weeks after, a certain Mr. Cruden &
Dan Sutherland got an order from Colo. James Moor to me, to deliver them Some Effects they Claimed. I went & delivered them what they Claimed. In rolling out some casks of Molasses there was one marked P.M., Peter Mallett's mark, which Sutherland Claimed as his. I told him I knew not who was the right owner. If he took it he should give me a Receipt to be Accountable to the owner if Claimed by any one else, as the receipt will appear. When Dan Mallett was marking the above Goods he marked 20 or 30 barrels of flour with P. M., his brother's mark, & Crossed out N. M. (which many People told me was the property of Neil McCarter), which was took away with his own, the above mark of N. M. being taken out & P. M. put on. I am satisfied that I can make it appear that it was Neil McCarter's Property. I mentioned this to Colo. Moore. However Mr. Mallett can satisfy the public whether he has accounted with them for it or not. Some time after Mr. Mallett sent an order to me to deliver his Effects. I wrote him an Answer that he should prove his Property before I would deliver it (having some cause, as I think, after his altering the above mark). However he got an order from the Council for me to deliver it, which I Did without its being proven. I Delivered all they Claimed with the remainder of the stove Hogshead. Neither did any Person Claim from that time till said Molasses was sold. This I declare without Prejudice or Interest.

Sworn to before me this 3rd Day of April, 1778.

To the Honorable the Representatives of the State of North Carolina in General Assembly convened.

The Memorial of Ebenezer Hazard Esq. Surveyor General of the Post Office and Post Roads;

Praying for certain Laws to be passed for removing the Evils therein complained of.

Dated Newbern, April 6th, 1778.

To the Honorable the Representatives of the State of North Carolina in General Assembly convened.

The Memorial of Ebenezer Hazard Esquire, appointed by Congress Surveyor General of the Post Offices and Post Roads throughout the United States,

Most Respectfully Sheweth,

That your Memorialist apprehends that were a Law passed, obliging Masters of Vessels, arriving in any Port within this State, to Lodge all the Letters they may bring with them (except such as are directed to the Owners or Consignees of the vessel) in the Post Office of the Port at which they may arrive, [it] would conduce to public Utility, and tend to increase the Revenue of the Post Office, which at present is too small to defray the necessary expenses. As Cases may occur in which it may be of Advantage to the Owner or Consignee of the vessel to detain particular Letters which may be on board for other Persons, perhaps it may appear necessary that the Master of the vessel should deliver all his Letters except as above to the Post Master, upon Oath: and to enforce a compliance with the Law, a Certificate from the Post Master of his having received the Letters might be made a necessary Pre-requisite to an Entry at the Custom House. That Ferriage is demanded of the Post Riders for crossing several Ferries in this State, which your Memorialist Conceives to be an Imposition, as they were always, previous to the present Revolution, allowed to pass Ferriage free, and he apprehends that the Ferries were established upon this Condition, either expressed or implied.

That as the Post being delayed at Ferries may be attended with Consequences highly prejudicial to the United States, your Memorialist wishes for a Clause to be added to the Law proposed, obliging Ferry Keepers to carry the Post Riders across their respective Ferries immediately upon application being made to them for that Purpose, and in Preference to every other Person, on Penalty of—pounds for each Hour's delay. That in Consequence of Memorials similar to the foregoing, the General Assemblies of the States of Georgia and South Carolina have given Leave for Bills to be brought in agreeable to the Prayers thereof, and your Memorialist has no doubt they have been passed into Laws. That the Post Road through this State has become so bad, through the neglect of the Overseers of it, as greatly to delay the Post Riders and Travellers in general. Trees have fallen across it, and are not removed; the Roots are not cut up; a number of the Causeways are Swampy and full of Holes, and many of the Bridges are almost impassable. Your Memorialist has been creditably informed that a Post of the Road between Wilmington and Lockwood's Folly has had no work done upon it for Four Years past.

That Travelling through this State in general is attended with great Danger, arising from the Trees near the Road being Boxed for the Purpose of producing turpentine, and the present injudicious mode of firing the woods, whereby many of the trees are burned in such a manner that but very little Wind will be sufficient to blow them down.

Your Memorialist begs Leave to submit the Premises to the Consideration of your Honorable House, and prays that such Laws may be passed, relating thereto, as to your Honors may appear sufficient to remove the difficulties and remedy the Evils complained of.

And your Memorialist shall ever pray, &c.,

EBEN HAZARD.

On Saturday last a sloop came up within Ocracock Bar and Anchored, the pilots knowing the vessel, as she had lately sailed from this port, went on board her, when to their great surprise, they discovered her to be an English privateer from St. Augustine, the Capt. of which told them, that they were come after the Frenchmen, and if they did not immediately carry him over the bar into the road where lay a French ship and a brig, with a considerable quantity of Tobacco on board, he would instantly put them to death. The pilots accordingly carried the sloop in, when she immediately boarded the brig and ship, hoisted what Tobacco was on board the ship, into the brig, and carried her, with a Bermuda sloop loaded with salt, out, and went off with them. They had taken two or three prizes off the Bar before. Thus has a small sloop with 4 guns and 30 men robbed this State of two fine vessels with more than 100 hogshead of tobacco and a considerable quantity of salt. This surely shows the necessity of keeping some force on Ocracock Island, otherwise our trade will be annihilated.

NEWBURN, April 24.

A report prevails here, that Capt. Biddle, in the Randolph frigate, was unfortunately blown up in an engagement with a very large English ship off Barbadoes, supposed to be the Portland, of fifty guns, and every soul on board perished; and by several concurring circumstances from Martinico, tis feared the account is too true.

On Saturday last, being the day of the annual election of a governor and council for this State, his Excellency Richard Caswell, Esqr. was again unanimously elected to that important office: and the Hon. Joseph Leech, Thomas Bonner, William Cray, Edward Starkey, Robert Biggall, Richard Henderson, and William Haywood, Esquires, were elected councillors.

NEWBURN April 25th 1778.

HONOURABLE SIR:

Thro' you I beg leave to acquaint the members of the Senate, that some Gentlemen of your House, have done me the honour to propose putting me in nomination for one of their Delegates to Congress. Such an appointment I should consider as the highest honour that could be conferred on me; at the same time I beg leave to observe that I find a Bill is now on its passage, for establishing a Court of Chancery in this State, a Court in my humble opinion, absolutely necessary in a country where the Common Law prevails, and Sir as my highest ambition is to serve my Country in a Department where I know myself to be best qualified, I am led to prefer an appointment in the Court of Chancery to any other tho' more honourable.

I have the honor to be most respectfully Sir your obed Servt.

Gentlemen:

David Smith Esquire who was Colonel of the Regiment of Militia in Cumberland County and John Armstrong Esquire who was first Major of the said Regiment have Resigned their respective Commissions, and as it is Absolutely necessary that a diligent, & active officer should be appointed to the Command of the Regiment, a person well acquainted with the different Manners and Customs of the People in that County and one whose past conduct and knowledge in Military Matters will give him weight with those people, I take the Liberty of recommending Robert Rowan Esqr., as a Gentleman whose Character and Conduct will entitle him to such Command in my opinion in preference to any person in that County.

New Bern, 28th April, 1778.

DR. THOS. BURKE TO GOV. CASWELL.

York April 29th 1778.

Dr. Sir:

You will receive from the President of Congress some Extracts from the Journals relative to me which will appear very odd to you if uninformed of several attending circumstances. The history of the matter is as follows: A letter was received from General Washington relative to some resolutions of Congress which stood in the way of an Exchange of Prisoners; the House in general determined not to recede from the resolutions he complained of, which I believe I mentioned to you in a former letter. A Committee was appointed to draught a letter in answer. The draught was reported, and it appeared to several of us exceptionable in many parts, particularly in some Eulogisms on the whole Tenor of the resolutions of Congress relative to the Exchange of prisoners which we thought neither consistent with Truth or Modesty, and also in several charges against the General of suffering the Dignity and Honor of the United States to be Injured, charges which were I am persuaded void of all foundation. The whole indeed appeared to several Gentlemen as well as to me to indicate in the framers a disposition not friendly to the General, nor such as so good, so Important, so public spirited and Disinterested a Character deserves. One Paragraph had taken up the whole afternoon in debate. The members of the Committee had let themselves very largely into many foreign matters, declaimed very vehemently but to no other purpose than confounding us in our former opinions, and fatiguing every faculty. At length the exceptional parts of the Paragraph were expunged and it received a very different dress. The members of the Committee strenuously urged that we should proceed and finish the letter that night, tho' it was then after ten o'clock. The principal opposition they met with through the day was from General Reid, of Pennsylvania, Mr. Drayton, of South Carolina and myself. I labored under a very Distressing fit of an intermittent fever, which heightened by the part I was obliged to take in the Debate, and the noise of loud, incessant Declamation, occasioned so violent pain in my head that I was totally unable to attend any longer. Mr. Harnett has been several days confined and there were only Nine States represented. In vain was all this and much more which was equally forcible, urged against Sitting any longer. The Question for adjournment was put, and before it came to me I was very apprehensive it would pass in the Negative and I determined to withdraw if no other way was left, to prevent our proceeding so improperly on business of such Importance. Those who know the Opinions that had long prevailed relative to a party against a certain great officer, will not deem this resolution an absurd one, tho' perhaps it was not the most prudent that could have been formed on the Occasion. The event took place nearly as stated in the Journal and I withdrew; the Messenger attended me soon after with a message which from his manner of Delivering it and from my knowing there could be no Congress without me I did not conceive to have come from the President, but from Mr. Duer, of New York, with whom I was on Terms of particular intimacy, and who I imagined, presuming on that Intimacy, had sent for me in order to his facilitating his carrying through the Letter, which seemed to be a favourite object with him. I returned an answer which I intended for him and in which I was not choice of expressions. Next morning the matter was opened by a member from Massachusetts, in a very illiberal manner, but with general observations, and general Inferences of Danger and Inconvenience if such practice was to be permitted. I rose immediately, observed that the application was doubtless intended for the Event of the preceding Evening, (I did not at this time know that my answer had been reported) and therefore said nothing relative to it to the particular Event. I said little more than I was indisposed, and my faculties had been so much fatigued by the whole day's attention that I found myself unable to discharge my duty, and I conceived very few other members were. To the general Observations and Inferences I answered that an unreasonable exercise of any Power was Tyranny, and that to keep a member at such unreasonable Hours and under such circumstances was in my opinion Tyrannical, and that I would not submit to it but by force on my person; that I considered every freeman as having a right to judge for himself when the Exercise of any Power was unreasonable, and if I erred in my judgment the power of punishing lay with the State I represented. If Congress should determine to what hour the members should attend in the afternoon as it had in the forenoon I would punctually attend, but while it was undetermined I must use my own judgment, at the risk of Incurring whatever Penalties my Country should adjudge. The members of the Committee who had framed the letter, now united, and labored strenuously to make a Mountain of this Mole-hill, talked vehemently of the insolence of appealing to the States, declared their disposition to proceed to Commitment or to Expulsion and lamented that the circumstances of Congress made my presence Necessary and prevented them from moving to such purposes. They talked very much of the Contempt in calling any act of a Majority of Congressa Tyrany. I now perceived that I was on ground which it became my Duty to continue with consequences to myself never so fatal. I addressed the President and declared I would sit patiently until every Gentleman in the House who chose to speak should exhaust the whole of his eloquence. I would only request them that if they chose to use any abusive language (for much had been used) they would reserve it for some other place, and when every one should have done I would reply. I accordingly sat very patient for Hours, and at length when every one who chose it had entirely done I delivered the following Sentiments: That my opinion of the power of Congress over its members had been often given in that Assembly and was well known to be that no member could refuse his attendance or even his Vote when called on, that the States furnish quotas of Council as well as Troops, that either would be furnished in vain if the Individuals assigned could refuse to perform the requisite Duty, that my name stood to this opinion on the Journals, but the Individual must of necessity Judge whether the particular Instance in which his performance is required be reasonable or not. If he judges wrong or disobeys without just reason he incurs the penalties provided for misbehavior in office, but the power of judging and punishing Delegates was never Committed to Congress by any Express act of the State I represented, that the opinion that each freeman had a right to judge of the reasonableness or unreasonableness of any act of power, and even to resist it if unreasonable at the risk only of the Judgment of his Country, I held to be the grand Principle of Whiggism and the best Security for public Liberty, a principle which I would never forego but with my Life, that the other opinion relative to the jurisdiction of the State over its delegates seemed to me to Involve the Sovereignty of the State and its Security in a representation since it would be impossible for its representatives to assert and maintain its rights with firmness and freedom if subject to arbitrary Imprisonments, and punishments by Congress & that I would never retract it but by the Express order of the State, who alone had power to give it up. That I would not justify the particular breach of order under Consideration, but hoped it might be excused because it was not unusual nor under its particular circumstances even improper. That as I discovered great favour in all the members except a few towards me on this occasion I was exceedingly sorry my Conduct or Language had given offense; that nothing was further from my intentions, that the words I used were the only names I knew for the things I wanted to express, that I held it an unworthy Business for a republican and a representative of a free and sovereign People to be looking out for courtly Expressions. That had the matter been opened with any regard to Liberality, a few words which I would have said would have Satisfied the House, and put an end to it, but as the matter was managed it became Inconsistent with my Duty and my honor to make any Concession without expressly insisting on my opinions. That with this reservation I would make any apology the House should require, but without it I could make none which would not involve a breach of Trust to my Country, and no punishment could be devised which I would not meet sooner than be guilty of such an offence. The members of the Committee still persisted nothing would do but an Explicit acknowledgement of what they pleased to call my Error. I rejoined only that I knew no power who could make a man change his opinion before he was Convinced of his Error, that I was not and therefore would not acknowledge it. They proceeded now to enter on the Journals such a state of facts as they pleased. I desired only that they would enter a fair and full statement, that such as they offered were far from being so. After some time it was said by the Gentlemen that I should have an opportunity of answering and could set forth any that were omitted. In my answer I acquiesced, and so did the House. They then proceeded to take down some of my Expressions in debate. I required them to take down all that would speak my full Sense, and not detached Expressions; that I would give it to them as fully as they could wish, being firmly resolved not to retract one iota of it. But I was answered, as before, that I could supply the deficiencies in my answer, and I acquiesced. The Entries were made and the president announced them in form. I thanked him for his politeness of manner, told him I hoped I could satisfy the House that no disrespect was Intended to them, but that I avowed my opinions as I delivered them in debate; that I persisted in them, and insisted on entire freedom of Debate. I was required to return an answer to the next adjournment, which was to be in the afternoon, and I desired no longer time; but afterwards the House changed it to Monday, which was the next day of Business.

[Endorsed] No. 12.

Resolve of the Assembly of N. Carolina relative to the purchase of Whisky &c., April 30th 1778.

NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE, May 1, 1778.

NEWBURN, MAY 1.

Since our last, the General Assembly now sitting here, proceeded to the appointment of continental delegates, when the choice fell on Cornelius Harnett, and John Penn Esqrs. and the Hon. John Williams Esqr. speaker of the house of commons, which office vacating his seat in that house, the Hon. Thomas Benbury, Esqr. was unanimously elected to the chair in his room, and seated accordingly.

The Assembly have passed a bill for filling up the several regiments of this State, and have offered a bounty of a hundred dollars for volunteers, otherwise every regiment to ballot their quota of men, with a bounty of fifty dollars.
Copy of a Com. to the Continental Delegates 2 May 1778.
State of North Carolina.
To John Penn, Cornelius Harnett and John Williams Esquires.

GREETING:
Whereas the General Assembly have Elected you Delegates to attend the Congress of the United States. These are therefore to Commissionate, Authorize & Impower you the said John Penn, Cornelius Harnett and John Williams to attend the said Congress of the United States of America, in behalf of this State, from and after the...day April last for one year unless sooner recalled by the General Assembly. And you are hereby invested with such powers as may make any Act done by you or consent given, in the said Congress, in behalf of this State obligatory (upon every) Inhabitant thereof.

Witness Richard Caswell Esquire, Governor, Captain General & Commander in Chief of the said State, under his Hand and Seal at arms at New Bern the 2nd day of May Anno. Dom. 1778, and in the second year of our Independence of this State.

Alexd Scammell Adj Genl.
Deserted from Col. Chariol's regiment, in the service of this State, a soldier named Marc. Clement, a native of France, about 5 feet 5 inches high, dark complexion, has several scars on his left hand, occasioned by fire, speaks bad English. Whoever secures said deserter in any Gaol in this State, or delivers him to the commanding officer at Newbern, shall have five pounds reward.

An Act for raising Men, to complete the Continental Battalions belonging to this State.

Whereas it is absolutely necessary that the Continental Battalions belonging to this State be completed; and it is found impracticable to obtain that end in the common mode of recruiting.

Be it therefore enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that two thousand six hundred and forty eight men shall be raised and detached from the militia of this State towards completing the same, in the following proportion and manner, viz: From the County of Craven, eighty six; Carteret, thirty; Beaufort, twenty six; Johnston, thirty four; Hyde, twenty eight; Dobbs, one hundred and three; Pitt, thirty five; New Hanover, thirty two; Onslow, forty seven; Bladen, sixty three; Duplin, sixty two; Cumberland, seventy three; Brunswick, thirteen; Rowan, one hundred and seventy four; Mecklenburg, one hundred; Tryon, eighty three; Anson, seventy eight; Surry, eighty eight; Guilford, one hundred and fifty six; Burke, sixty two; Washington, sixty two; Wilkes, thirty five; Orange, one hundred; Granville, seventy; Wake, sixty; Chatham, sixty six; Caswell, seventy seven; Halifax, eighty six; North Hampton, sixty two; Edgecombe, sixty three; Bute, one hundred and five; Martin, thirty seven; Nash, fifty six; Chowan, thirty three; Perquimans, thirty three; Pasquotank, forty five; Currituck, fifty; Bertie, seventy six; Tyrrel, thirty four; Hertford, sixty two; and Camden, forty one. And the colonel or commanding officer in each county is hereby directed to order the field officers and captains belonging to his regiment to meet at the court house on or before the twenty fifth day of May next, and the field officers and captains shall then and there apportion the men to be raised in the county to the several companies, in proportion to the number of militia, including officers of every rank, his Excellency the Governor only excepted, in each company respectively, after deducting for such militia men only as shall have heretofore actually enlisted good able-bodied men as regular soldiers, or caused such to be enlisted, to serve in the Continental army, agreeable to the act passed in May, 1777, for encouraging the recruiting service, which said enlistments they shall prove by their own oath, and the testimony of an indifferent person, to be obtained without fraud or collusion, in due time, and without the procurement or assistance of any Continental officer or soldier. And the commanding officer in each and every county shall, within five days after such meeting, order a general muster at the place or places by law appointed, and he is hereby authorized to offer a bounty of one hundred dollars to every able-bodied man who shall voluntarily enter into the service; and if a sufficient number of volunteers do not turn out, then the several companies shall immediately proceed to determine by ballot who shall go out of each company to make up its particular quota, and the persons so voted in shall go themselves or provide able-bodied men to serve in their stead, and shall be entitled to a bounty of fifty dollars each.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any company shall refuse to appear, and ballot agreeable to this act, that in that case, the field officers shall point out the men who shall serve. Provided, That it shall not be lawful to vote for any person who shall produce certificates of having actually enlisted regular soldiers, by themselves or some others for them, to serve in the continental army, agreeable to the act passed in May 1777, for encouraging the recruiting service, if such certificates were granted and obtained fairly and without fraud, and the men whose names are therein mentioned were actually enlisted by or on account of the persons claiming such exemptions, the proof thereof to be made agreeable to the directions of this act.
And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That each and every person who shall voluntarily enter, or be voted into the service as aforesaid, shall be entitled to have and receive from the commanding officer of the county, a pair of shoes and stockings, two shirts, a hunting shirt, waistcoat with sleeves, a pair of breeches, and trowsers, a hat and a blanket, and five yards of tent cloth; and every six men shall be entitled to have and receive from the commanding officer one axe and a pot or a camp kettle.

And in order to procure the Cloathing aforesaid, Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every company shall furnish and provide one pair of shoes and stockings, two shirts, a hunting shirt, a waistcoat with sleeves, a pair of breeches and trowsers, a hat and a blanket, five yards of tent cloth, for each and every man, and one axe and a pot or camp kettle, for every six men raised out of such company respectively. And the said articles shall be valued on oath by three freeholders or householder, who shall grant certificates of valuation to the persons furnishing the same, which certificates, with receipts, endorsed from the commanding officer of the county, for delivery thereof, shall be received by the tax-gatherers in part of public taxes: And if any company shall fail to furnish its quota of cloathing, tent cloth, camp kettles and axes, or any part thereof, the commanding officer of the county shall have power to cause so much of the property of any person or persons belonging to such a company refusing to furnish his or their quota of the aforesaid articles, to be seized and sold, as will procure the cloathing and other articles wanted, and shall grant certificates of the amount, which shall also be received by the tax-gatherers in part of public taxes.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Brigadier General of each district shall take into their possession and distribute to the troops so raised, such guns as belong to the public and are good and sufficient, and in case there should not be arms for every man, then in that case, the colonel or commanding officer of each county, shall purchase guns for the men marching from the same, and shall give certificates to those from whom the guns are bought, which certificates countersigned by the clerks of the respective counties, shall be paid by the treasurer of either district, and allowed in the settlement of their accounts with the public.
And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the men who shall be raised in the manner aforesaid in the districts of Halifax, Edenton, Newbern and Wilmington, shall march to Halifax, from thence to Petersburg, in Virginia, and those who shall be raised in the districts of Hillsborough and Salisbury shall rendezvous at Peytonsburg, in Pennsylvania, with all possible expedition, under the command of such continental officer or officers, as the commanding officer in the continental service in this State shall appoint for that purpose, and if there be none such appointed in any county, then the commanding officer of the militia in such county, shall appoint a person to conduct the men thereto belonging either to Halifax or Petersburg in Virginia, as the case may require, there to be delivered to the continental officer appointed to receive them, and such persons shall be allowed captain's pay and rations during the time of his employment; and the men who shall be raised in manner aforesaid, shall serve in the continental battalion of this State, for the space of 9 months from the time that they shall arrive at either of the places aforesaid, unless sooner discharged; and shall be subject to the same rules and discipline, and have the same pay and rations, as the continental troops, from the day of their being voted in, or enlisted.

And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case any person so voted in, or voluntarily entering as a soldier, agreeable to the directions of this act, shall fail to appear in due time at the place of general rendezvous, or shall desert his duty during the time specified in this act, such person shall, from thenceforward, be held and deemed a continental soldier during the present war, and shall be liable to be taken as such; and every person who shall voluntarily enlist or be voted into the service, in consequence of this act, and shall well and faithfully serve as a soldier, agreeable to the true intent and meaning of this act, shall be free and exempt from serving again as a soldier for the space of three years next after the time of his procuring a certificate of his having served as aforesaid. And if any person shall harbour or conceal any of the men who shall voluntarily enter or be voted into the service as aforesaid, such person, on conviction thereof, before any justice of the peace in the county wherein the offence shall be committed, shall be deemed a continental soldier, and shall be turned over by the said justice to a continental Officer, or committed to gaol for that purpose, and shall serve three years, or during the war.

And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid. That the captains of each and every company shall return descriptive list of the men raised in such company, specifying the name, size, age, complexion and occupation of the men so raised, and also the name and number of the company from whence they were taken; and the said commanding officer shall make two fair copies of such descriptive list, one of which he shall deliver to the continental or other officer appointed to take charge of the men and he shall take a receipt for the delivery of the men on the other.

And be it further enacted, That the Quakers, Dunkers, Moravians, and Mennonites shall furnish men in proportion to their respective numbers in each county, and in default thereof, the commanding officer of each and every county is hereby empowered to hire men instead of the men to be by them furnished, and by warrant under his hand, directed to the sheriff of the county, to levy the sum given for such man or men, on the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of any person belonging to such sect, as shall refuse or fail to find a man or men, agreeable to this act.

And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the men raised in the County of Rowan, and those raised in the County of Guilford, shall have the liberty of electing two Captains for each County, the men raised in New-Hanover County and Brunswick shall elect one Captain jointly; and in such Counties as raise more than Fifty Men, the men so raised shall and may elect a captain in every County, and in the Counties which raise a smaller Number than fifty, the Men shall and may elect one Lieutenant for every County, and the persons so elected shall be commissioned accordingly by the Governor, and shall march and continue with their respective companies, with the Rank of Militia and the Pay and Rations of regular Captains and Lieutenants, during the Time of their continuing in the Service.

And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That James Roper and William Sheppard be appointed Contractors for the District of Salisbury, Thomas Hart for the District of Hillsborough, to contract for and purchase Provisions and issue them to the men raised in the said Districts until their arrival at Petersburg in Virginia, and that William Bennett be appointed for the District of Edenton, Hardy Bryan for the District of New-bern, Thomas Amis for the District of Wilmington, and William Amis for the District of Halifax, for the like Purposes, until the Men raised in the said Districts respectively shall arrive at Halifax, and then that William Amis be appointed to take charge of all those who rendezvous at Halifax, and conduct them as far as Petersburg: And the said Contractors, and every one of them, shall grant Certificates to the Owners of the Provisions by them respectively furnished, and shall have full power to seize Provisions of every Kind from any Person who shall or may have more Provisions than may be necessary for their own use or Family Consumption, if the Owners shall refuse to sell the same, and shall grant Certificates as aforesaid; and the said Certificates shall be redeemed at the next Session of Assembly, and the said Contractors shall keep regular Accounts of their disbursements or Purchases, and of all Certificates by them granted, that the Assembly may not be defrauded by Claimants, and may more easily settle with the said Contractors, who shall be allowed one Hundred and Twenty Dollars per Month for their Trouble, over and above all sums of Money by them expended for the Purposes aforesaid.

And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Militia in each County be, and he is hereby empowered and required, to furnish the Necessary Wagons and Carts for marching the troops raised in such County, agreeable to the Militia Law.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Owners of said Waggons shall be allowed Forty Shillings per Day, and Forage and Shoes for their Horses, and every Cart the sum of Twenty shillings per Day, with Forage and Shoes for their Horses; and the said Waggons and Carts, with their Teams, before marching, shall be appraised by three Freeholders that in case of Loss or Death the Owners may be paid for the same.

And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Continental Deputy Pay Master General be, and he is hereby directed to pay the troops aforesaid; and that his Excellency the Governor be, and he is hereby empowered to grant warrants on the Treasury to the said Paymaster for the necessary Sums, taking Security for due Application of the same.

Newbern May 15.

There are now cruizing on this coast, three privateers, Capt. McFarling, in a 16 gun brig, and Captains Neale and Goodrich in 10 gun sloops. They have lately taken several vessels near Ocracock Bar, and a few days ago, Captain Goodrich decoyed the pilots at old Topsail Inlet, came in and took a brig, a prize sent in by the continental frigate Raleigh, and a vessel just arrived from Charlestown with a valuable cargo and a large sum of money on board. He endeavored to carry off the brig, but not being able to get her out, set her on fire and left her; she had on board 1200 bushels of salt, had just been condemned by the court of admiralty and sold, and we hear those concerned extinguished the fire and have saved the salt, but the vessel is ruined. A fort is now building at Cape Lookout Bay, for the protection of vessels that may lie there, but the harbour within old Topsail Inlet is quite exploded, and while the pilots on the sea coast are so easily decoyed, and receive such ample rewards for their fidelity, we fear the trade of this State will be entirely stopped.

Yesterday the regiment of militia of this County were under arms here, in order to ballot for their quota of men to be sent to head quarters, agreeable to an act of assembly for compleating the continental battalions of this state, when with great cheerfulness a considerable number of volunteers turned out, and very few men were balloted. A very handsome and generous bounty was raised for the men, and every possible means will be taken to accommodate them with every necessary for the ease and facility of their march.

ALEXANDER SCAMMEL, Adjutant Genl.

Rank and File
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

I hereby certify, That Jesse Rigsby this Day appeared before me, one of the Justices of the said County, and took the Oath of Allegiance, agreeable to Law.

Given under my hand this 23 Day of May, Anno Domini, 1778.

JOHN HOGAN.

GOV. R. CASWELL TO PREST. H. LAURENS.

NEW BERN, 25th May, 1778.

Sir:

I had the Honor to receive your favors of the 5 and 6 instant, last evening with their Inclosures.

The wisdom of France is conspicuous in the treaty she has concluded with America. It shows her justice and magnanimity in not attempting to obtain exclusive advantages, and may prevent jealousys in other powers. In short sir, it bespeaks those who conduct her Councils to be possessed of very different sentiments and abilities from those of Britain.

The satisfaction I feel, as an individual on this occasion, I am unable to express. I have the Honor to congratulate you and the Honbl' Members of Congress on the glorious event of this treaty and am with the most perfect Esteem and regard Sir,

Your most obedient and very humble servant,

R. CASWELL

Hon'ble Henry Laurens, Presid* of Congress.

[FROM MS. RECORDS IN OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE.]

NEW BERN, MAY 28TH 1778.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

CRAVEN COUNTY.

This day personally appeared before me William Tisdale Esqr. one of the Justices of Craven County, Alexander Gaston, John Green, & Capt. Macconnel being sworn on the holy Evangelist depose & say that James Davis, Esqr. did this day in the public street, swear that he would raise a Posse this night & drive every Frenchman out of Town, & that every person who favoured them should share the same fate.

Sworn to before me at New Bern this 28th day of May 1778.

WILLIAM TISDALE, J. P.

NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE, MAY 29, 1778.

NEWBERN MAY 29.

On Monday last an express arrived to his Excellency the Governor, with dispatches from Congress, containing a copy of the treaty of friendship and alliance lately concluded between the court of France and the United States of America. The same was immediately published here, under a display of American and French colors, and a triple discharge from thirteen pieces of cannon and the town company of Militia, which was drawn up for that purpose. Universal joy appeared in every countenance; great plenty of liquor was given to the populace, and the evening concluded with great good humor and social mirth.

[JOURNALS OF CONGRESS, VOL. II, P. 571.]

FRIDAY, MAY 29, 1778.

Congress took into consideration the report of the committee on Governor Caswell's letter: Whereupon,
Resolved, That the non-commissioned officers and other men belonging to the battalions of the State of North Carolina, now in camp, be forthwith reduced and formed by the commander-in-chief into as many battalions as they will complete, according to the number composing the old battalions; and that such new formed battalions be officered agreeably to the new arrangement of the battalions; and that all the supernumerary officers be immediately ordered to return to the State of North Carolina, to officer the men raised by that State to complete their quota of the continental battalions, there to remain till the further order of Congress.

Resolved, That the State of North Carolina be required to fill up four battalions, and no more, upon the new establishment, in addition to those now in camp, and to officer the same with such of their continental officers as may be ordered from camp as supernumeraries of the battalions there, or as are within the State of North Carolina, or with such other persons as they shall think proper; and that the said four battalions remain within the State of North Carolina, at such places as the Governor shall direct, until the farther order of Congress.

Resolved, That the officers who have been appointed by the said State of North Carolina to battalions raised by that State, and who shall not be annexed either to their battalions in camp nor to one of the said four battalions, shall not be considered in the service of the United States, but as dismissed therefrom.

Resolved, that 100,000 Dollars be paid to Capt. Redding Blount in lieu of Governor Caswell’s draft for 500,000 Dollars made in Pursuance of a Resolution of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, the said State to be Accountable for the Same.

A true Copy taken from the Minutes.

DEAR SIR:

I have this day Received the above resolve and have sent it to you by Capt. Brinkley that you may use your Pleasure in giving orders. I have sent a man to the Governor for his orders. I am Sir with great Regard,

Your most Humble Servt,

JAMES HOGUN.

JOEL PARISH.

ALEX. GASTON'S DEPOS. RESPECTING JAMES DAVIS, ESQR.

5 June 1778.

State of North Carolina, Craven County,

This day personally appeared before me William Tisdale, Esq., one of the Justices for Craven County, Alexander Gaston, Esq., being sworn on the holy Evangelist of Almighty God deposeoth on oath, that on the twenty eighth day of May last, James, Davis Esq., of the town and county aforesaid, with his sons James & John & Mr. Visson, the last armed with a Gun & John with a musket & screwed (?) Bayonet, followed by a large mob of sailors and others, some armed with Guns & others with Clubs, came to the Piazza of the said Alexander Gaston, where four of the town Justices were convened, and complained, that he the said James Davis, having gone to Col. Chariol's Barracks, with the Constable, to serve a precept on one of the soldiers, who, he said, was his son's apprentice, had been insulted by the Sergeant, who had refused to deliver up the boy; and demanded that the militia should be immediately raised, to take him by force. This being objected to, by the Justices, as unnecessary, he & his sons swore that if justice was not done him, they would take it themselves, & spend the last drop of their Blood. He said the Liberty we had been fighting for so long was about to be taken from us by the damned French, desired the mob in the street to stand by him, & there would be Blood spilt before night, or words to that purpose; said he had been ill used, a long time, & when he applied to the Congress for redress, they threw cold water on it, when Col. Chariol (who had been sent for) came on the Piazza the said James Davis' sons slapped him on the shoulder & ordered him to Gaol for twenty four hours. This he said he would do by his own authority, & was advancing to slap him again, or to seize him when Col. Leech interposed, telling him, that certainly he could not mean to pass sentence as Judge, & be the officer himself to execute it, and by the persuasion of Abner Nash, Esq., he was prevailed upon to desist from imprisoning him. He often brandished his cudgel before the Colonel, as with an intention to provoke him, to say or do something that might exasperate the mob against him. After the Colonel had agreed to his requisitions, of delivering up the Sergeant & boy, the mob was dispersed, the said James Davis' son came to the corner of the street, near Mr. Ellis's where several prisoners were present & said the man was gone meaning the Sergeant & he could not get justice done him, & swore that he would raise a posse that night, and drive all the French out of town, & every one who favored them should share the same fate. The latter part he seemed to direct to the deponent upon which he desired they would take notice what he said. He afterwards had a warrant served on Colonel Chariol for absenting himself, who being brought before Joseph Leech & William Tisdale, Esqrs., he agreed to drop it on the Colonel's promising to advertise the Sergeant as a Deserter if he did not return.

STATE RECORDS.

NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE, June 6, 1778.

To the Honourable James Iredell, Esq.; one of the Judges of the Superior Court held at Edenton, for the District of Edenton, on the first Day of May 1778.

We, the Grand Jury for the district of Edenton, return you our thanks for the Charge which you was pleased to deliver to us at the opening of this Court.

This Charge vindicates the conduct of the American States, in the establishment of Independence by arguments drawn from unreliable rights, and from real necessity, and grounded on incontestible facts. Every man who is not lost to the powers of reason and conviction, must feel their force, and must bear a very active testimony in support of them. It breathes a spirit of pure disinterested patriotism, and holds forth the most powerful incentives to persist in the opposition in which America has so successfully begun. It points out persuasively the importance of a faithful observation of the various political and relative duties of security, upon which the happiness of individuals, and of the whole, depends, and which will tend to give stability to our present constitution.

For these reasons, and as it may tend to invigorate the timid, rouse the indifferent, reclaim the disaffected, and call the united strength of the whole into exercise for the public good: We beg that your Honour would favour us with a copy of it, that it may be transmitted to the press and published for the information of those who did not hear it delivered. As we ask this not only for ourselves, but in behalf of the inhabitants of the district of Edenton, whom we represent, we flatter ourselves that you will give it to our solicitations, although you intended it merely as an exercise of official duty, and thought it not designed for a more extensive communication than to us the Grand Jury.

A Charge delivered by James Iredell, Esq., one of the Judges of the Superior Court, to the Grand Jury for the District of Edenton, on the second Day of May 1778.

PUBLISHED AT THEIR REQUEST.

GENTLEMEN OF THE GRAND JURY:

In compliance with a custom which has long obtained, and is probably founded on very good reasons, it becomes our duty to address a few words to you previous to your entrance on the discharge of the important office you are now called upon to exercise by your country; an office of great consequence to the community, and of which too awful ideas cannot well be entertained. This court of justice opens at a most interesting period of the policy of this country. We have been long deprived of such from a variety of causes, in some of which we have shared with our brethren on the continent; others were peculiar to ourselves. The event however, has been unhappy and distressing, and every well wisher to his country must view with pleasure a scene of anarchy changed for that of law and order, and powers of government established capable of restraining or punishing dishonesty and vice.

Such powers have been established under circumstances which should induce to them peculiar reverence and regard. They have not been the effect of usurpation; they have not proceeded from a wanton desire of change; they have not been imposed upon you by the successful arms of a tyrant; they have been peaceably established by the public at large, for the general happiness of the people, when they were reduced to the cruel necessity (a necessity they abhorred, and did all in their power to avoid) of renouncing a government which ceased to protect, and endeavored to enslave them, for one which enabled them with a proper share of courage and virtue to protect and defend themselves. You had not only for years been injured, and insulted in the grossest manner; you had not only felt innovations in your government, which were as repugnant to justice as they were unwarranted by precedent; your petitions for redress, couched in the most humble and expressive (though not in the most servile) terms, had not only been rejected and spurned at, but when the crisis at last arrived for more vigorous exertions, or a mean and dastardly submission, and every hope of relaxation of the tyrannical system was fled, war was brought into your territories, and carried on with unusual circumstances of cruelty and vigour; the British nation imposes upon by the vilest lies to exert every nerve in their power; foreign troops were hired to slaughter a people who had never offended them, the Indian scalping knife was employed; and even the diabolical purpose, of arming our domesticks to involve us in one indiscriminate massacre was openly and with triumph attempted. It was under these complicated circumstances of injustice, cruelty and insult, and with the just apprehension that these united efforts might overpower our own, if our opposition continued to be languidly supported with the reserve of subjects, that the once happy American Colonies, whose loyalty had been unexampled, and had been exerted in the most conspicuous instances; whose attachment to Great Britain was scarcely yet cooled by the numerous acts of oppression they had received from her; reduced to the melancholy necessity of choosing their fellow subjects for their masters, or of exerting those latent powers of resistance which Heaven and favourable circumstances had blessed them with; it was in this trying and painful situation that they resolved to sacrifice all old connexions, every favourite prepossession, and tear themselves from a country they would have bled to serve, but disdained to be enslaved by. It is known to us all how reluctantly this measure was adopted, and how ardently, until the moment when it appeared inevitable, we wished for a reconciliation with Great Britain upon those principles on which our opposition had all along proceeded; a wish that I can truly say (notwithstanding the base reports to the contrary) there is every reason to believe was almost universal.

But every thing that could be urged in our favour was disregarded. Our enemies proceeded from one extreme to another, until they brought about an event which fatally, and I trust has finally severed this country from the Dominion of Great Britain. Immense advantages have been lost in pursuit of a chimera, for such must ever the government of this country be, without the hearty support of the people. The profits of our trade, an inexhaustible and increasing source of wealth, we freely bestowed. Our allegiance to our sovereign was perfect, on the conditions of our charter. He had a negative on our laws, and the whole executive department of the state. This was a power sufficient for every useful purpose; we had no disposition to compliment him with any that was dangerous. We desired only the privileges of a free people, such as our ancestors had been, such as they expected we should be. We knew it was absurd to pretend we could be free, when laws might at pleasure be imposed on us by another people; a people who in many respects considered themselves our rivals, over whom we had no control, who were remarkably ig o-rant of our circumstances, who had strong (I had almost said irresistible) temptations to lay burdens on us, in order to ease themselves. We knew of no right they could have to such a power. Our charters did not recognize it. It certainly was not in our ancestors' contemplation, who left that very country because freedom could not be enjoyed in it. Custom had given it no sanction, but on the contrary, strongly disapproved it. It was reconcilable to no principles of justice, or even common decency, that we could form to ourselves. We despised the miserable application of a few political maxims, calculated for a single government, to the various and extended governments of the British empire, and which to this hour is the basis upon which all the fraud, iniquity, injustice, cruelty, and oppression that America has experienced from Great Britain have been defended.

We may be thankful to divine providence, that we were called into this contest, at a time when the principles of liberty were generally and thoroughly understood. The divine right of Kings was exploded with indignation, in the last century. Men came at length to be persuaded that they were created for a nobler purpose than to be the slaves of a single tyrant. They did not confine this idea to speculation; they put to death one king, and expelled another. This was done in England, the seat of our haughty enemies, who seem to think the right of resistance is confined alone to their kingdom. It is under this expulsion (for such it in fact was) that the present sovereign of that country holds his title to the throne. Whatever doubt there might have been entertained before, there could be none afterwards, and the family, who were seated upon the vacant throne by the voice of the people, held it liable to the same resistance which had provided the vacancy for them. Accordingly, ever since this glorious revolution, it has been considered by the generality of the kingdom, and is now almost a settled axiom in their government, that all government was instituted for the good of the people, and that when it no longer answers that end, and they are in danger of slavery, of great oppression, they have a right to change it. I lay it down thus generally, because the principle extends so far, and no man of reason and candor would attempt to narrow it. It is a principle founded in the clearest reason. It is applicable to all conditions and circumstances. It is not calculated for any party, or one set of men, or to colour a particular Job. It affords universal relief to all who groan under any species of tyranny, and have the virtue and opportunity of resisting it. I trust, as it has had its influence under one species of arbitrary power in England, it will not want its effect under one, if possible, still more severe and detestable, attempted in America.

I confess, Gentlemen, when I speak on this subject, I cannot avoid expressing myself with warmth; that such great, such real advantages should be lost, in pursuit of so essential a conquest, is a consideration extremely affecting. We can not help comparing, with a degree of regret and indignation, the former honourable and political conduct of the crown of Great Britain to the American Colonies, with that which has since been pursued. Happy in the enjoyment of liberty, in the formation of our own laws, in the grant of our own money, (subject only to a restriction we submitted to with pleasure, the negative of our sovereign) we felt a felicity that could only be equaled by the hardships with which it was originally obtained, and the mixture of filial and social gratitude with which it was enjoyed. Great Britain was the constant centre of our thoughts; her prosperity, the most ardent desire of our affections. We contemplated with a pleasure which no scene of human life perhaps ever gave occasion for before, the entire and cordial union of many distant people, descended from the same ancestors, possessed of nearly the same rights, endued with noble and generous minds, warm in their affection, and zealous in their attachment to each other, under the influence of one common sovereign, and by the participation of a common interest, mutually contributing to the prosperity of the whole; the authority of the sovereign, sufficient to preserve the whole in due order, but not to invade the liberties of any; all the branches of the great stock willingly resigning to the parent kingdom the absolute management of the only concern that could probably interfere with the general happiness, unless the minds of the people should grow irritated and discontented; which their exemplary loyalty seemed a sufficient guard against, except in the case of a just and severe provocation. And though we viewed such a scene at a distance, and indeed as almost a thing impossible (at least to happen in our day, never dreaming of men sacrificing real advantages to vain and visionary expectations) yet we had been too well instructed in the principles of liberty to view it with unconcern. We blessed Heaven, that it had made us, not only a happy, but a free people. Our ancestors came here to enjoy the blessings of liberty. They purchased it at an immense price. Their greatest glory was, that they had obtained it for themselves, and transmittted it to their posterity. God forbid, that their posterity should be base or weak enough to resign it, or to let it appear, that the true British spirit, which has done such wonders in England, has been lost, or weakened by being transplanted to America. The very people who are now embracing their hands in the blood of Americans, in the support of the most arbitrary principies, have a thousand times bled in opposition to them, themselves. Will you entertain so wretched an idea, that you are not as worthy of liberty as they are, and that merely because your ancestors quitted England, though with the public sanction, and guaranteed for the secure enjoyment of freedom, you are less deserving of human blessings than those who happen to reside in it, and not even entitled to the common benefits of what the worst of men have a right to claim, the sacred observance of public faith? But in this contest, I will dare to affirm, the people of Britain sacrifice to their pride and ambition, not only the immense advantages I have already spoken of, but the first principles of liberty, which are the common right of all mankind, and the sacred ties of honour, which even the worst people cannot violate without infamy.

You will I hope excuse, Gentlemen, the particular, perhaps the too great particularity, with which I have gone into this subject.
Yet I thought it my duty to point out to you some of the principles upon which the revolution in our government has taken place, and which, in my opinion, prove not only the propriety of its being effected, but the indispensable obligation we are under to maintain and support it. This can only be done by great public virtue, and very spirited exertions. We have a great and exasperated people to contend against; a people who, tho’ they have wantonly thrown away many of their resources, have many still left, and are, no doubt, capable of powerful efforts. These must be withstood by great efforts on our part. Let us not flatter ourselves, that the war is nearly over, and that we are on the ever of enjoying the blessings of peace. Such ideas are pleasing, but at present they seem to be chimerical, and certainly they are dangerous. They tend to throw us too much off our guard, and to lay us open to the artful designs of our enemies. Review the great scenes of history; you will find, mankind have always been obliged to pay dear for the blessings they enjoyed. This life may well be called a scene of trial, for vice has everywhere, and long been seen to triumph over virtue, but though the trial be severe, thank God, we have no reason to believe, it will be constantly unsuccessful. The struggles of a great people have almost always ended in the establishment of liberty. The enjoyment of it is an object, worthy of the most vigilant application, and the most painful sacrifices. Is there any thing we read with more pleasure than the sufferings and contentions of a brave people, who resist oppression with firmness, are faithful to the interest of their country, and disdain every advantage that is incompatible with them? Such a people are spoken of with admiration by all future ages. Their history is put into the hands of youth, to form them by a spirit of emulation, if possible, to equal their greatness of mind. Their posterity, for a long time (until the gradual corruption of all human affairs seizes upon them also) if they happen to be successful, which is generally the case, reap the benefit of their ancestors' virtue. Their souls glow with gratitude for the virtue and self denial of their forefathers. They consider them as patterns for their own conduct, on similar occasions, and are continually pointing them out to the reverence and imitation of their children. These are the glorious effects of patriotism and virtue. These are the rewards annexed to the faithful discharge of that great and honourable duty, fidelity to our country. On the contrary, what can we conceive more base and contemptible, than a set of men, careless and negligent of their rights, regardless of their value, indifferent to their preservation, mean enough to crouch under the first insolent menace, without spirit to defend, without virtue to deserve them, at length easily deprived of advantages which they might, without much difficulty, have secured, and which they are forced every instant to regret, with confusion themselves as the authors of their own and their children's misery, under the gloomy tyranny of a proud and arbitrary despot. I pray to God that the first character I have described may be that of America to the latest ages, and that mankind never may be disgraced by the existence of so wretched and despicable a set of people, as in the last.
Remainder in our next.

NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE, August 14, 1778.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT, June 11, 1778.

To the Honourable Saml. Ashe, Esqr., one of the Judges of the Superior Court of Law.

SIR:

The Gentlemen of the Grand Jury beg leave to return their thanks to the Honourable Samuel Ashe, Esqr, for his sensible and seasonable Charge delivered them at the opening of this court, and request the favour of a copy of it for the press, that, if possible, its influence may be made as extensive as its matter is important.

WILMINGTON, June 12, 1778.

To the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, for Wilmington District.

Mr. Ashe presents his compliments to the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, and in compliance with their polite request transmits them a copy of his Charge; pleased that his crude thoughts, hastily thrown together, meet with the approbation of their respectable body, and will be happy if they should contribute a mite towards the welfare of his country.

GENTLEMEN OF THE GRAND JURY:

In every civilized State, to establish the peace of society, to preserve decorum among the people at large, and to protect individuals in their several rights, municipal laws, or rules of civil conduct, are formed, ordaining punishments to those who shall disturb the general peace of the community, or violate or intrude on the rights of individuals. These in different States are various, and with many the modes of punishing transgressors are variant and unixed, depending upon the will of the Prince or Judge, both in the manner and measure of them.

But with us it is a felicity that crimes and misdemeanors have (according to their heinousness) known and affixed punishments, and nothing is left to the opinion or arbitrary will of the Judge; in a few cases only, a discretionary mitigating power may be exercised by him; for the same law which creates the offense, des-cries and apportions the punishments. And equally careful are our laws, in charging and trying offenders; the accusation in the first instance must be made by twelve at least of the Grand Jury for the district where the offence was committed, and by them formally presented to the court. The charge being thus made, the culprit is called up into court, and the truth of the matter again enquired into by twelve others, his neighbors, his equals, impartial, indifferent, and unexceptionable men; and this enquiry must be made in the presence of the accused, and the witnesses against him produced and openly examined in his presence and he at liberty to cross examine them, to confront them with witnesses in his favour, to lessen or refute their testimony, and otherwise to offer matter to justify, excuse, or acquit himself. By thus fairly and openly canvassing the charge, the party, if guilty, is detected and punished; if innocent, is protected, and placed beyond the reach of persecuting malice, or oppressive falsehood.

Sensible of the advantages resulting from this invaluable right of a tryal by Jury of the vicinage, a right (often struggled for by our ancestors, and handed down by them to us) we have so interwoven in our present happy and equal system of Government, that no citizen can be denied, nor be deprived of it, but with the constitution. But this inestimable privilege, with others equally so, the iron hand of unfeeling British tyranny, upon iniquitous and ill founded pretentions, would tear from us, and substitute instead of it a mode of proceedings, framed by the united and stretched invention of cruelty and tyranny combined.

By that, perhaps the innocent, but unhappily suspected person, shall be seized, dragged from his friends and nearest connexions, thrown into the noisome hole of a vessel, loaded with irons, and at the risk of his life transported three thousand miles over sea to Great Britain. There, probably, without money to sustain him, without friends to comfort him, without counsel to advise him, without witnesses to testify for him, and without his neighbours to try him; perhaps too, only upon the information of an Attorney General (always a creature of the court) filed against him, he shall be arraigned before a court and jury unacquainted with every circumstance of the charge, and equal strangers to the malignancy and design of the persecutor and disposition of the accused. In this situation, and thus circumstanced, innocence itself must fall a victim. This short contrast of the two measures must at once fill our minds with horror of the one, and our breast with the glow of zeal for the other; and determine us to try every effort, to perpetuate the first, and reject the latter.

Gentlemen, the office of Grand Jurors for this district at this time assigned you, I have the fullest persuasion your principles and inclinations (were you not under the sacred obligation of an oath) will lead you to an impartial execution of.

For me to point out to you the particular business of it, or to enumerate the several offences which fall under your cognizance, is unnecessary, and would be tedious and irksome both to you and myself. Let it suffice that I acquaint you, that crimes and misdemeanors of every denomination, from the highest to the lowest nature, from treasons against your state to trespasses against the poorest individual of the State, committed in this district, are presentable by you.

A few matters only I will mention to you, and these are misprision of treasons against the state, and offences affecting your public bills of credit, as well those emitted by the General Congress, as those emitted by the several Congresses of this State; and as the causes of the acts of the General Assembly relative to them describe them more fully than I can, I will read them to you. Clauses read.—

The mischievous and wicked tendency of those under the first class, and the injurious and ruinous consequences, as well to the public as individuals of those under the latter, and the frequent repetition of both, make it necessary to attend to them. The first are practised by men, nested in our bosoms, who, did their resolutions keep pace with their inclinations it is not doubted would commit crimes of the first magnitude against us; but not daring to avow their intentions, to unmask an act openly, they (like Satan at the ear of Eve) whisper their lies, insinuate their falsehoods, and spread dispiriting news, in order to pervert the weak, intimidate the fearful, unsettle the minds of those not perfectly stable, and to seduce the people generally from their allegiance to the State.

This perfidiousness certainly merits punishment. But in considering offenders, gentlemen, your good judgment and prudence will discriminate between the proper object of presentment, and the man who only related the false news he had heard, or spoke his opinion, or disclosed his political sentiments to his friends or acquaintance, without any mischievous design: To involve the one with the other, would be an act of high injustice, which I am sure you would at all times and upon every occasion carefully avoid.

The mischiefs under the 2d class are many and great, and in their consequences equally destructive to the public, as ruinous to individuals. It is unnecessary to enlarge on them, for they are obvious. The perpetrators of them by their villainous frauds and deceptions, covered under the specious shew of fair and honest dealing, impose on the ignorant, and rob the industrious of their well earned property; and unfeelingly perhaps at once introduce poverty, where plenty had prevailed. The man who forceably robs on the highway, wears not so deep a taint of guilt, as these dark, disguised avaricious insidious villains.

Nor does the evil cease with the ruin of the private; it reaches the public, and in its consequences may prove equally baneful to it. These bills are our money, they have enabled us hitherto to support our Government, maintain our armies, and to defend ourselves for three years past against one of the first powers of Europe. To counterfeit them, is to depreciate them: and to take away their credit, is to destroy them, and with them perhaps our political existence. Our enemies, sensible of this, and unable to prevail by arms to subdue us, have stooped from the bravery of the soldier to the base frauds of common cheats: they too have counterfeited the continental bills of credit, and industriously, by their emissaries, circulated them through the United States. Should your inquiries discover the avaricious villain, or the secret and dangerous emissary, I am sure you will cheerfully render your country the essential service of dragging them into the light.

Gentlemen, give me leave now, before you retire to business, to address a few words to you in another character. As citizens of a free, but young State, struggling in defence of her liberties, and in support of her rights, against powerful invaders. In such a conflict she necessarily requires the aid of all; and each one, in every department, should with alacrity step forward to her assistance. When the hive is attacked, the drone alone remains inactive in his cell. The learned Montesquieu observes, that Republican government must be preserved by the virtue of the citizens, and defines that virtue to be love of the laws and of our country, and as this love requires a constant preference of public to private interest, it is the source of all the particular virtues, for they are nothing more than this very preference itself; that government is like every thing else; to preserve it, we must love it; that every thing therefore depends on establishing this love in a republic."

When I consider the force and truth of these observations, and compare them with our present apparent disposition, I confess I am pained; and when I consider our present temper and conduct, and compare them with our past, I lament our depravity. When the accursed plan to enslave us was first formed, and ready to be enforced against us, a noble spirit animated us, our resentment kindled, every age and order of men glowed with zeal; each became emulous who should succeed in resisting the encroachment; to effect it, all seemed determined to venture every thing; no danger was thought too hazardous, no difficulty was great. Then were companies formed and trained in every neighbourhood, and small parties in each street, and individuals in every house, were eagerly acquiring the military discipline. The example was forcible, our youths catch noble passion, nay our children of a few years old imbibe it; they too were seen with, their little implements, the semblance of arms, attempting the art. But alas! how are we changed of late; that noble spirit no longer inspires us, the Celestial fire is extinguished, the flame ceases, it glows no more, we have suffered a fascinating spirit of avarice and extortion to take place instead that now possesses us, and seems wholly to engage our attention. Lamentable defection! Strange infatuation! Can we think the eager pursuit of riches will preserve us, or accumulated wealth protect us from invasion? Or is there no danger, because the enemy are not instantly at our doors? The ideas are absurd—the expectation of gain will entice, and the hopes of confiscation allure them, and a few hours sail may waft them to our doors. But that is not necessary to a conquest of us. Our fate is inseparably linked with our sister states. If they fall we perish. America united, must stand or fall together. We have reason to believe the enemy are collecting their full force, that they will shortly make their last grand effort, but where we know not. Congress, whom we have always found wise and watchful, hath warned us, and advised us to be on our guard, nor to remit of our military preparations. Prudence also directs us to this. To be prepared and determined to repel, is almost effecting the repulse.

It is true they have circulated among us copies of their minister's bills and bills for an intended reconciliation—but the flimsy covering will not conceal their true design. They are held forth to amuse us, to lull us into security till they recruit, and reinforce their shattered army, but we discover their perfidy, and will not confide in their promises. The judicious animadversions of Congress sufficiently expose their fallacy, and prevent my further observations. But though they augment their troops, though they again sweep Germany for recruits, if we are not wanting to ourselves, if we desert not our own cause, we need not be discouraged; America united, active and determined, will prevail. For God's sake then let us rouse from our supineness; let that spirit which at first animated us revive, and let us endeavour to transfuse it through the circles of our acquaintance in our several counties and neighborhoods. The prevalency of example may extend it, and all America may glow again. Let the love of our country rise superior to the turpid and base passion for gain. In a word, let us adopt an equal spirit, an equal love of liberty and firmness, with the brave Corsicans, who, oppressed with Genoese tyranny, in their military oath, thus solemnly swore: "That we will sooner die than enter into any negotiation with the republic of Genoa, or return under its yoke."

"That if the powers of Europe, and the French in particular, withdraw their compassion from an unhappy people, should arm themselves against us, and concur in our total destruction, we will repel force by force; we will fight like desperate men, determined either to conquer or die, till our spirits are quite exhausted, our arms fall out of our hands; and when we have no strength to take them up again, when all the resources of our courage shall be exhausted, our despair shall furnish us with the last, which shall be to imitate the famous example of the Saguntines, by rushing voluntarily into the fire, rather than submit to the unsupportable yoke of Genoese tyranny and slavery."

A great example and worthy imitation: But, God be thanked, better prospects await our exertions. Heaven smiles on our cause, and most of the powers of Europe favour it. The King of France, with true greatness of soul, with the magnanimity becoming a great Prince, taking no advantage of the necessity of our affairs, or requiring any unfavourable or dishonourable terms from us, has generously taken us by the hand, and pledged us his protection. This must at once confound and embarrass our enemies, and I doubt not if in this conjuncture we oppose them with vigour and alacrity, and everywhere show a determined temper, it will, after a few efforts, close the scene with regard to us. They must turn their arms from conquest to defence.

Gentlemen, you will, I hope, excuse my traveling out of the line of Business for which you have been summoned here at this time. I will not detain you longer than to mention, that though every matter which may come under your deliberations may be determined by a majority of you, yet that majority must consist of twelve at the least, for that no bill ought to be presented but where twelve or more agree.

MR. THOMAS HENDERSON TO GOV. CASWELL

[FROM MS. RECORDS IN OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE.]

GUILFORD, 18th June, 1778.

Sir:

I am called upon by Captain Rhodes of this County to write to your Excellency informing you of some disputes that hath arose in his Company, in balloting for soldiers under the late Act of Assembly, to go to the Northward, the particulars of which I beg leave to write to you at large, to the best of my knowledge & information. Capt. Rhodes, pursuant to the Law and agreeable to his orders from the Colonel (at the Day appointed) convened his Company, and as there were not volunteers enough turned out to make his Quota of men, they proceeded to ballot & choosed two men, who since by a Court Martial held by the Militia Officers, were cleared from their draft, under a pretense that they had enrolled their names with some other Captain before the Day of balloting. One of these men is one of the Majors of this County, the other a private person who never was called upon to muster before that Day. They both live in Capt. Rhodes' District, & I am authorized to assure your Excellency that they never were entered in any Capt'n's List until the Day they were balloted. What Capt. Rhodes desires to know of you, Sir, is whether they had not a right to ballot these men (when living in his district) and whether the Court Martial had any right to give them a Discharge afterwards. Your Excellency's sentiments on the matter by the bearer (Ezekiel Thorp) to Capt. Rhodes will Oblige, Sir,

Your Dutiful & Very Humble Servt., THOS. HENDERSON.

Col. Chariol, New Bern, to His Excellency Rich'd Caswell, Esqr. Governor of the State of North Carolina at Dobbs

June 20th 1778.

EXCELLENCY:

Yesterday I received one Letter from the Lieutenant Colonel who stays in Charles Town. He purposed to me to engage great many Soldiers there if I send money, consequently I pray your Excellency to favour me of one Letter of Credence on the Governor of South Carolina amounting to £2000, What sum you please to deduct on the £1000, granted by the assembly for the raising of my Regiment. The lieutenant Collonel asked my the Commission of Major for M. marquis deBretenil, that of Lieutenants for Mr. Joseph Philippe...............................and that of surgeon for M. Joseph Roberdeau, that I Expect every moment with 15 or 20 recruits. I send to you the List of those who are now in the Cazern; Whose 4 or five had been Sick, and cured by the Dr. Gaston. I send to your Excellency the receipt of the £2000 granted by your favree. I pray you to send the other £1000 for the......... account, and if the money is arrived send me if you Please 2 other Thousand pounds because I want to send in Edenton and Wilmington I dispatched 1 in Halifax one C............to Bring in New Bern What we want for the regiment. I am the most Respectfully of your Excellency, the most devoted and obedient Servant, CHARIOL, Colonel.

COLO. CHARIOL TO GOV. CASWELL.

[FROM MS. RECORDS IN OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE.]

EXCELLENCY:

Whereas the Colonel's letter has not brought to me your answer upon the different objects which I have asked to you, I send the Captains Sanbeaux to present you that I have taken in master Sitgreaves' Store the articles here inclosed, which I found necessary for my regiment, according to the order which you give to him.

I don't take upon my own account to settle the value of cloths. I think that you will fix it, or master Evey by your orders. About twelve days ago the said Captain Sanbeaux have been to Halifax to look for the most useful tings, and he have been obliged to come back without. Since two months I longing for that as for the money, which I expect every day to pay the officers as the soldiers; that hinder me from my recruits. You will be very much surprised that I am laying till now the paymaster commision. I have follow master Nashes advice, who told me to propose to you master Sitgreaves, who I am certain will fill it up with zeal. I hope that it will be agreeable to you. Be so kind to send at the doctor's commision. I was mistaken in my last letter; its name is Bodin. I wish that you send it to me as soon as you could. I want, too, to send in to Charlestown three officers' commissions, which I have asked to you. I desire that you choice to give me a credit letter or for the sum of two thousand pounds. The said sum will be employed in Charlestown by my Lieutenant colonel. To desist, you will oblige me much if you send to me 1,000 pounds for the warrant which I have send to you. I request your answer, and I hope that you will satisfy to my demands. I am, with consideration,

Your most humble and obedient Servant,
CHARIOL, Colonel.

Be so kind to present my compliments to your family.

Dr. Sir:

Your much esteemed favour of yesterday date I rec'd. Your condescension in making an apology for not writing by Col. Lock is Very Obliging, and believe me Sir I do not attribute it to any unfriendly cause. I shall always think it an Honour to deserve your Excellency's remembrance, and receive your Letters with singular pleasure as from a sincere friend, whose long life and Happiness, I feel myself Very much Interested in. I should set but little Store by Life without friends of Integrity, not such as your Discretion points at.

The Southern Post brought no Papers this Week nor have any Occurrences happened Since my last. If any should happen worth notice I will communicate them. I have received nothing by Post for your Excellency this week. If any should come to my hands will forward them as soon as possible. I sent your Virginia papers by Mr. Caswell, and I inclose you a Baltimore paper in which it appears all the largest prizes in the State Lottery are drawn. I can't find any fortunate Numbers in the Tickets I sold except one which was sold to Ebenezer Fulgum (No. 37,074) 500 Dollars. Pray is it not necessary that some advice should be sent about our Intention, of continuing our Numbers in the Second Class? I wish you would give your opinion upon that Matter, as it will be necessary to be in Time. I would advise you to go down to Coresound, See Capt. Tilman and his Fort. Drink some salt water's which I think might be of service & remove the Compt. you mentioned. I will wait on you there if you will permit me.

My family are in Health and Mrs. Cogdell Joins in Respectful Compts to Mrs. Caswell, Miss Caswell, &c. I am Sir

NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE,

NEWbern JUNE 26, 1778.

On Wednesday last, the great eclipse of the sun, as calculated by astronomers in the almanacks, and said to happen in this latitude, and be visible here, was observed with great attention, and some surprise to the ignorant, the weather being tolerably clear, and the moon's passage over the sun's disk being distinctly seen during the whole immersion. This was the greatest eclipse of the sun ever seen here by the eldest people now living among us, and exhibited a scene truly awful. The gradual obscurity of the sun, the decrease of her light, the sickly face of nature, and at last the total darkness which ensued, the stars appearing as at midnight, and the fowls seeking for their nightly shelter, caused a solemnity truly great, and, tho' proceeding from a natural cause, the moon's passing between the sun and our earth, which she must necessarily do in certain periods in different latitudes, was beheld with astonishment and gratitude to the supreme Ruler of the universe, by whose almighty power the motions of such vast bodies are regular and uniform, and the delightful system of the world kept entire and complete.
MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

From the earliest Commencement of the present War, I have been actively engaged in the services of my country. I embarked in it at so early a season as rendered me not a little obnoxious to a vast majority of the Province in which I lived. The timid, the Friends of the established Government, & the moderate, as they were called, at that Period composed the bulk of the Inhabitants—by them was my forward zeal universally condemned. Thro' innumerable difficulties, from opposition, & inconveniences to my private interest, in the militia and regular service, I continued my efforts for the public good, and doubted not, as I had done more of this kind for the defence of the State than any other member of it, that I had deserved well of my Country; but as soon as an opening for promotion was made by the unhappy fall of Gen'l Nash, the power of a party, overlooking the merit of these services, procured a recommendation in favour of a Junior Officer. Such a flagrant demonstration of partiality and injurious preference, without alleging a single article of disqualification against me, has determined me no longer to serve my ungrateful country in so painful and so hazardous a capacity.

I rejoice in the prosperity of my country, and am willing, on every occasion, to aid the advancement of its Interests, but choose not to obtrude my services.

For these reasons I am constrained to offer your Excellency my Commission in the Army, and humbly beg that you would kindly condescend to accept it.

I am, may it please your Excellency, with the profoundest respect,
Your Excellency's most humble,
most obedient, and most devoted Servant,

Sir:

I had your favour of the 20th instant handed me this day by Capt. Medici, whom I would most willingly supply, agreeable to your request, if it were in my power, but such are our finances at present, that the sum necessary for him cannot by any means be advanced. We have lately been disappointed in receiving money from the continental treasury, and I am much distressed thereby, having, in full expectation of having it reimbursed, borrowed considerable sums for public use on my own credit; such is the case, and if the public service is retarded in this instance, I wish it may prove the only one occasioned by Congress failing to supply this State with the necessary sum required. I was impowered by the Assembly to draw on the continental treasury for 300,000 dollars to defray the expenses of raising and marching men from this State to complete our continental battalions; I did so, and sent on for the money; the messenger waited at York upwards of twenty days, and then returned with one-third of the sum drawn for, which will not pay more than the bounty of 1000 volunteers, when 2600 and odd were ordered to march. I ask pardon for troubling you with this state of the matter, but 'tis to show how deficient we are in the article of cash.

I am, with great respect, Sir, your most obedient servant, &c.,

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

By his Excellency Richard Caswell, Esquire, Governor, Captain General, and Commander in Chief of the said State.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it is absolutely necessary, for the service of the State, that the General Assembly should meet at a shorter Day than that to which it now stands adjourned, I have therefore thought fit, by and with the advice of the Council of State, to issue this my Proclamation, hereby requiring the Members of the General Assembly of the said State to meet at the town of Hillsborough on Monday the third Day of August next, then and there to consult on the weighty and arduous Affairs of the said State.

Given at Kingston, under my Hand and Seal at Arms, the 4th Day of July, in the third year of our Independence, Anno Domini 1778.

RICHARD CASWELL.

By his Excellency's command,

J. Glasgow, Sec.

God save the State.
HON. JOHN ADAMS TO GOV. CASWELL.

NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE, July 10, 1778.

NEWBERRY, July 10, 1778.

On Saturday last, the ever-memorable Fourth of July, the Rising States of America entered the Third year of their Independence, in spite of numerous fleets and armies; in spite of tomahawk and scalping knife; in spite of the numerous wicked and diabolical engines of cruelty and revenge, played off against us by the magnanimous and heroic, humane and merciful George the Third, the father of his people, and his wicked and abandoned soldiery. On this day, the bright morning star of this western world arose in the east, and warned us to emerge from the slavish tyranny and servile dependence on a venal and corrupt court, and to assume to ourselves a name among nations, a name terrible to tyrants, and wrote in indelible characters by the Almighty as a refuge from persecution. This day was observed here with every possible mark and demonstration of joy and reverence; triple salutes were fired from the batteries in town, and on board the ship Cornell, and the privateer brig Bellona, belonging to this port, the gentlemen of the town met, where many toasts suitable to the importance of the day were drunk and the evening happily concluded.

By several accounts from Head Quarters, it seems to be well authenticated that the British troops have evacuated Philadelphia, and that our army are in possession of it.

The cruisers are yet very troublesome on our coast, having lately cut several vessels and small craft out of Roanoke and Currituck Inlets. Besides Capt. Goodrich, there is a Capt. CAPTAIN COSMO MEDICI TO COLONEL BLAND, AT PETERSBURG, VIRGINIA.

[FROM BLAND PAPERS, VOL. 1, PAGE 97.]

July 18, 1778.

SIR:

I embrace this opportunity, by an officer on his way to the northward, to acknowledge the receipt of your letter. I shall pay all due attention to its contents, though I am much afraid the clothing for the men will not be got ready so soon as their saddles. However I shall take pains in order to forward them agreeable to your order. I shall be glad how soon, sir, you could furnish me with money as I have it in my power at this time to get both men and horses. I am, most respectfully, sir,

Your most obedient, humble servant, &c.,

COSMO MEDICI.

NEW BERN July 20th 1778.

Dr. Sir:

Your kind favour to R. E. came to hand & he returns you thanks for your polite offer of a room in your house. However strong his Inclination may be of accepting it 'tis entirely out of his Power at present to go to your Quarter of the World at this busy time, being engaged in fitting out a Privateer in order to—retali ate if possible for the many Losses we have met with in the Navigation way during this war. Inclosed you have an acct. of the things ordered; the amt. you can pay when convenient.

We congratulate you on the late agreeable news. Besides what is contained in the enclosed there is a letter in Town from one Commasee, a French Gentn. informing the Fleet has left the Delaware, that the Enemy who undertook the absurd march through the Jerseys carried only 10 days Provisions with them & that our men had nearly surrounded them. We are Dr. Sir,

CAMP NEAR PEYTONSBURG July 21st 1778.

DEAR COLO:

I received your favor of the 22nd of June covering the resolves of Congress. I have been waiting for some time since with great anxiety to receive your further orders. Never was any man I believe put to it than I have been ever since I came to this place to get the troops supplied with provisions. I expected before I arrived that the Virginia Commissary of Purchases had certainly laid in a store sufficient to supply as during our stay, but to my great mortification, when I arrived I found not one ounce of provisions, nor a Commissary could I hear of any where near. Of course I was obliged to appoint a Commissary, to purchase what he could get for his receipts, by which means we have lived till now, when the country around the Camp is entirely draned of what little flower and Indian corn it had to spare; wheat there is none but what is just reaped and the planters are so busied with their crops that they can’t be prevailed on to thresh out one single bushell, for which reason, I am obliged this day to move my camp to Dicke’s ferry on Donn River about Twenty-five miles back towards Hillaborough, where I am informed there is Indian meal and beef in plenty to be had for the Troops, at which place or near it I shall wait your further orders. I have enclosed you a return of the Troops at present under my command and am Dear Colonel,

Yr Very obt. Hble Servt.
J. THACKSTON,

P. S. I have received a letter from Col. Davidson soliciting me to entreat you to forward to him the paymaster, his Troops he writes me have not received their Bounty and are very uneasy. If you can do any thing for him in this particular, it will merit from him and you shall have the thanks of had taken in the channel, and that he reported, that just before he went into White Haven in England, and at low water, set near 300 sail of ships on fire, which were all consumed, as they lay aground in tiers; and that he also plundered Sir. James Lowther's house of considerable value in plate.

WILMINGTON, July 28th 1778.

Sir:

I have taken the liberty of inclosing to you an affidavit concerning a Claim allowed by the last Congress that was hold at Halifax the sum £24—some odd shillings and pence that I cannot recollect but will appear by the record of the claims allowed at that time, which you will do me a singular favor if you would have it renewed as the Claim is not to be found and I have been a considerable time out of the money. I inclose you Mr. Johnston's Letter which certifies he has rec'd no such Claim. I shall likewise get a line from Genl. Ashe to the same purpose and forward to you. I have also inclosed a Claim for £25 in lumber taken by the Publick to make Camps for the Soldiers at Jump Run. This claim I produced at Halifax to the Committee of Claims and it would have been allowed had it not been for Mr. Persons who was one of the Committee at that time. I had Col. Long to testify that a great quantity of Lumber was taken from a number of persons in this town which the Publick had no account taken of. I am exceeding sorry to give you so much trouble. Could I render any Service in return it shall be complied with cheerfully.

I am with respect Sir, Yr. most ob. Servt.

Newbern, July 31, 1778.

Wednesday last an express arrived from Congress to his Excellency the Governor, with the following pleasing account of the operations of the grand American Army, in conjunction with a capital French fleet.

Extract from a Letter from John Penn, Esqr., delegate at Congress, to his Excellency the Governor, dated Philadelphia, July 15, 1778.

Mr. Girard, a French minister, is here. He is to reside in America. War is declared by France against England. A large fleet from that nation arrived at Sandy Hook several days ago, and are gone to New York to take possession of the British fleet there. We expect to hear of an action every hour. General Washington has crossed the North River, and General Gates is in the neighborhood of Kingsbridge with a considerable body; our forces will be upwards of 20,000. The French have 3 or 4000 more men than they want to man their ships, who may be disposed of as General Washington thinks proper, so that most gentlemen are of opinion we shall soon be in possession of New York. In short our affairs seem to be in as good a way as we could wish.

The express who brought the above letter says, he heard in Baltimore, on his way hither, that New York had actually been invaded by General Washington and bombarded by the French Admiral at the same time, when it surrendered, and is now actually possessed by the Americans.

Since our last, died Mr. John Clithereal, a very ancient and worthy inhabitant of this town; many years in the commission of the peace; a quiet and inoffensive neighbour, and a pious and good christian.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Deserted from Williamsburg the 19th of April last, Thomas Sandesur, a soldier in my company of State Artillery, forty years of age, six feet high, very slim, dark brown hair, had on when he went away a brown coat, and as he has relations living on New River, Onslow County, and Fishing Creek, near Tarborough have reason to believe he is lurking about either of those places. Fifty dollars will be given to have him delivered to the commanding officer in Williamsburg, and all expenses paid.

PAMBRUSE.

Aug. 1st, '78.

To the Honorable the General Assembly.
The Petition of Martha Gilchrist Humbly Sheweth That your Petitioner is a native of Virginia, a Daughter of Mr. Robert Jones, (some time since Attorney General of the State of North Carolina) and the wife of Mr. Thomas Gilchrist, who formerly lived at Suffolk in Virginia, but for some years previous to the passing of the Treason Act, at and near Halifax, in this State. Your Petitioner's said Husband having been in partnership in Trade with his Brother John Gilchrist of Norfolk, for several years, the partnership at length expired, and the said Thomas Gilchrist went to Scotland, leaving almost all his Estate in the hands of his said Brother John. Your Petitioner's Husband having transacted his Business in Scotland, returned to Virginia, with a view to take possession of his Estate, and spend the remainder of his days in America, all his connections as well as your Petitioner's being in Virginia and North Carolina. But during his absence, his Brother John Gilchrist had unfortunately shot himself, and John Campbell, of Norfolk, had obtained Administration of his Estate, who was either unable or unwilling to account with Thomas Gilchrist, your Petitioner's Husband and the courts of Law being then shut in Virginia, he could not compel Mr. Campbell to do him justice; wherefore he retired with your Petitioner and four Daughters, and four or five Negro's all the Estate he could command, to Halifax Town; and this happened a little before the passing of the act for shutting up the port of Boston. Hostilities then commencing between Great Britain and the United States, Lord Dunmore with the British Troops, and General Howe, with the Troops of Virginia, destroyed a great part of the Estate of John Gilchrist by Fire, and Ld. Dunmore, by his Emissaries decoyed most of his negroes on board the Fleet, and John Campbell, the administrator, went off to Bermuda, with the Remainder. That, from circumstances sufficiently easy, if not affluent, were Your Petitioner's husband and his family reduced to the gloomy prospect of poverty and Dependence. Your Petitioner's said Husband continued at Halifax until the passing of the Treason act, during which time he conducted himself so as to gain the good will of his Acquaintances, and never, directly or indirectly, by Word or Deed, interfered in, or obstructed the measures of the United States; on the contrary he cheerfully acquiesced in the Determinations of Congress, and agreeable to the Recommendation hired a Soldier to serve in the Continental Army: But when the fatal Act passed, he was Reduced to the greatest Dilemma, as his Fortune here was not sufficient to maintain a Wife and four Children, born to Affluence, and if he should take the Oath of Allegiance, he would in all probability be barred from Recovery of any thing in Bermudas, as Campbell, his Brother's administrator, was a violent Tory, and would undoubtedly make use of that Circumstance as an Argument to defeat his Claim. Under these Circumstances your Petitioner's said Husband was induced to leave the State, with Intention to go to Bermudas, if happily he might recover something out of the wreck of John Gilchrist's Estate; declaring at the same time that he meant to return as soon as possible and become a citizen of the State of North Carolina if he could obtain permission. Your Petitioner further Sheweth that her said Husband, since his Departure, hearing of the Resolution of Congress recommending to the United States to allow even such persons as had taken arms against them to return, flattered himself that he, whose conduct had never been inimical, should be again restored to his Family and Friends, and accordingly sailed for Georgia; arrived there and was admitted a Citizen; and now anxiously waits the permission of Your Honorable Body to embrace his disconsolate Wife and Helpless Children.

As the Case of Mr. Gilchrist has been attended with Circumstances uncommon and peculiarly hard; as he never while here, or since his Departure, murmured at or obstructed the American measures; and as mercy is the most amenable Attribute even of the Almighty; Your Petitioner prays and conjures you that you will not banish her and her helpless Infants, who are Americans like you, from their Country, their Relations, their Friends and connection; but humbly hopes that you will allow her Husband to return and bless his Family.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, 12 AUGUST 1778.

At this critical and interesting period when the affairs of these United States have so promising an appearance, and with wisdom in Council and Valour in the Field will in all probability issue happily, it is highly incumbent on the good people of this State, that their representation in the Continental Congress should be large enough to secure a Constant attendance of Members sufficient to cooperate with the Delegates of the other States, and to signify the assent of this State to such measures as Congress in its wisdom may think fit to adopt. And as from the great distance of North Carolina from the place where Congress has been heretofore held, and is at present sitting, frequent journeyings thither is attended with almost insupportable fatigue, or the members who have been detained there during the time of their appointment have undergone a painful separation from their Families, and their private business has been totally neglected, and in some cases from indisposition of the Members on the spot or other accidents, which whilst the Representation of this State continues so small cannot be provided against, this State has in some Cases been totally without a representative, much to the prejudice of its interests and rightful importance in the Councils of America.

Resolved therefore that two members shall be added to the Delegation of this State who shall be and continue in office for and during the Term of one Year unless sooner removed by the Assembly of this State; of which five members, three and no more shall unless prevented by unavoidable accidents attend the Councils of Congress, and any two of them present in Congress shall have full power and authority by their vote or assent to bind the inhabitants of this State in all cases not inconsistent with the Constitution thereof and its rights and Privileges as an Independent Sovereign People, and the Instructions they shall receive from this State.
Resolved that the Delegates so attending in Congress shall each and every of them during their stay where the Congress shall sit, and in going thither and returning from thence receive an allowance at the rate of sixteen hundred pounds per Annum for such portion of their year as they shall be so employed in the public service; and that the said five Delegates may in such manner as shall best consist with their several & respective conveniences settle by common consent the rotation of duty, and be at Congress or at home as they can agree provided such regulation strictly consist with the nature and intentions of this appointment.

By Order.

NEWBERN, August 14, 1778.

On Monday evening last came on here a violent gale of wind at S. East, attended with heavy rain, which continued with great fury till next morning; fortunate for us here the tide did not rise to any considerable height, so that we have suffered little or no damage, but we fear, from the number of vessels which were lying at Ocracock Bar, they must have suffered considerable damage there. No accounts have yet been received from thence. The crops of corn and fodder are almost ruined, as they are every where blown down and the blades stripped off. No Northern Intelligence since our last.
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
In the House of Commons, 14th August 1778.

The joint Committee of both Houses appointed to examine the several papers and make an arrangement of the officers to command the Battalions to be filled up out of the new levies in this state, having met and chosen Gen. Person, Chairman, beg leave to report as follows:

It appears to your Committee that in consequence of orders from His Excellency the Governor, a Board of Continental officers hath been held at Halifax and Moore's Creek and have recommended Field officers, Captains, and Subalterns to take the command of four Battalions to be filled out of the new levies raised in virtue of an Act of the last Assembly which arrangement and recommendation of the said Board of Officers, your committee are of opinion should take place and to which they beg leave to refer.

Your Committee further reports as their report that the supernumerary Continental officers remaining should be discharged reserving to such reduced officers the right of preferment according to rank whenever a vacancy may happen, and that the militia Captains commanding the new levies shall take rank and continue with their companies agreeable to law unless when such Captain may have a less number than a full company, in which case such company to be joined to others in the same circumstances and one Captain to take command, this arrangement to be made by the said Captains, and the men under their command without the interposition of Continental officers, and that it is the opinion of your Committee that the said Captains of the said new levies raised after such arrangement shall command Continental Lieutenants and shall have a right to sit in Court Martials on the trials of said new levies.

Your Committee have examined the returns of the new levies now on duty from the district of Salisbury and Hillborough, and have received information that a number also is now collected at Halifax, and in Duplin County, upon the whole your Committee are of opinion that the new raised levies together with such Continental soldiers as are now on duty in the State are fully sufficient to complete the four Battalions to be raised agreeable to the Resolves of the Continental Congress which is submitted.
The House taking said report into consideration concurred therewith, except that part "reserving to such reduced officers the right of preferment according to rank whenever a vacancy may happen."

DR. THOMAS BURKE FROM CORN. HARNETT.

Philadelphia 27th August 1778.

Dear Sir:

Upon my arrival here, I met with the Inclosed Letter. Congress seems to go on in the old way, some times disputing upon trifles, & neglecting the greater matters of the Law. The Expedition against Rhode Island seemed to be in train for Success. Your friend Gen. Sullivan having landed without opposition with between 3 or 4000 Regulars & a Body of Militia from the N. England States, & the French squadron under the Count De Estaing having made an attack upon the Enemies' Fortification, & had in a very short time, silenced two of their Batteries; but were surprised at the appearance of a British fleet off the Harbour, which obliged the French Admiral to put to sea the next morning in order to Engage the Enemy. This Lord Howe endeavoured to avoid by flight; & the French fleet were seen in pursuit of him at 11 o'clock; no certain intelligence has been since received of the event of this manoeuvre. Gen. Sullivan however marched up near the Enemy, who had evacuated all their Out Posts & retired within their lines near the Town. Our Genl. had under Cover of a Fog, erected a Battery within 250 yards of the Enemy's works, & intended to begin a Cannonade as soon as the Fog cleared away. Indeed the Genl. seems to promise himself success at all events, and is by his Letter to Congress, in high Spirits. He has heretofore been unlucky; who knows but Fortune who is a fickle jade, may favour him at last; I hope she will.

Inclosed are the last papers, to them I refer you for what little news is stirring.

When the Assembly meets I beg you will endeavour to get their account of expenditures for Continental Services sent on in which ought to be included the expense of the Armament to quell the Insurrection, the Expedition against the Indians, the Militia sent to Virginia, & those raised on several Other Occasions. I am firmly of opinion these matters ought to be made a Continental Charge, as you know such charges are made, & allowed to the other states daily. I hope you, Mr. Hooper, Maclain, &c., will exert yourselves on this occasion. Colo. Hogun is arrived with near 600 men, & as soon as they are furnished with money &c., will proceed immediately to White Plains, where General Washington with the main Army are Encamped, ready to act as circumstances may require. Genl. Lee’s Trial is ended and the sentence of the Court Martial is in these words: “The Court do Sentence Major General Lee to be suspended from any Command in the Armies of the United States of North America for the Term of twelve months”—Signed; Stirling, Major General & President. The whole proceedings of the Court Martial are now before Congress, but nothing, as yet done in it. They are only ordered to be printed. Our friends are all well & desire their Compts. to you, be pleased to present mine to Mrs. Burke. I am with great truth Dr. Sir,

Your real friend & obedient Servt.

CORN. HARNETT.

I left with you a letter directed to John Purviance who was at Baltimore, he has not received it. Can you recollect by whom it was sent. It contained some money for Lottery Tickets.

To Thomas Burke Esq.

NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE, August 28, 1778.

NEWBERRY August 28, 1778.

The General Assembly lately held at Hillsborough, have adjourned themselves to January next, then to sit at Halifax. They passed the following bills at Hillsborough, viz.
A bill for repealing part of an act, allowing salaries to the governor, &c.
A bill to make provision for the recovery of debts due to the United States, or any of them.
A bill to amend an act, for altering the times of holding the superior, and County Courts &c.
A bill for emitting eight hundred and fifty six thousand pounds, for redeeming the old currency and the Congress money, the former by the first day of March, and the latter by the first day of May.
The French regiment which was raised in this town is broke, it being impossible to complete such a regiment here, where only a few straggling French sailors can be picked up.

CAPT. ROBERT RAIFORD, 8TH REGT., TO COLO. JETHRO SUMNER, BUTE COUNTY.

By favor of Capt. Williams.

CAMP DULBIN COURT HOUSE Aug. 31st 1778.

SIR:
Your favour of the 23rd Instant favoured by Captain Williams came to hand this morning and was exceedingly glad to have Orders from you.
The Men has been embodied here a considerable time and have had no Orders. Only Once from Colo. Davis, who has been detained from Camp occasioned by Sickness, I have However not failed to make him acquainted with the troops, by returns, the Men has been pretty constant in Camp til lately, some have furloughs who are daily expected in. I have this Morning dispatched off to Bladen, Cumberland & Hanover to give Notice to the several Cols. that we intend Marching off immediately, So as if they have rec'd any Money it may be distributed to the Levies from their own County. The Hanover Comp'y is not supplied with Cloaths, tho' they are now ready which I have sent down for this Morning and am in hopes we shall be ready in ten days from this and makes no Doubt but the Men will March off without Much trouble. The Cumberland Company has never Joined here, I wrote the Commanding Officer of that Detachment to march off within ten days from this date to Halifax & mentioned if the men would not proceed to make Weekly returns either to you Or the Commanding officer of this District. You will Inclosed receive a return of the 3 Comp'y's now in Camp which is but small & am sorry for it but hopes before ten days is past we shall make a better appearance.

This will be delivered you by Captain Williams who can personally tell you the situation of the troops here more to your Satisfaction than I can by letter, to whom for further intelligence shall refer. The Descriptive list of Bladen and Cumberland I returned to Col. Davis & expects it will cause me a Ride to his house for, which is about 45 Miles. You'l see by the return that a Great part of the Men Never joined.

I am Colo. with respect
Your most obt. Servt.

T. CLARK, COL.

NOTES—The word "discharged," as it occurs under "Remarks" on page 3 hereof, is not used in a derogatory sense. It signifies merely that owing to the reduction and consolidation of the regiments of the North Carolina Continental Line, in compliance with the Act of Congress of May 29, 1778, the surplus officers were discharged.
STATE RECORDS.

[FROM MS. RECORDS IN OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE.]

1st Sept. 1778.

These are to certify that John London applied to us the subscribers two Justices of the Peace for the County of New Hanover in the State of North Carolina, and requested to be admitted to take the Oath of Allegiance to this State as by law prescribed, but we having a doubt as to the legality of the same, as the said John London is here on his Parol, under the confiscation act, refused to administer the said Oath, and at the same time do certify the said John London's willingness to take the same.

Given under our hands 1st Sept. 1778.

NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE, September 6, 1778.

NEWBERRY Sept. 4, 1778.

Last week, Mr. Thomas Barker arrived at his house in Edenton, from France, and the next day waited on a Justice of the Peace and took the Oath of Allegiance to this State. Mr. Barker has been absent about 17 years, during which time he has resided in England, from whence he lately came by way of France; he left Nantz the 8th of July, at which time there was no war declared, but daily expected. He assures us, that in France the Americans are held in the highest estimation by all degrees of people, and that they have nothing so much at heart as to support our independence and humble the pride of the haughty English.
COL. TH. CLARK TO JAMES HOGG, ESQ., HILLSBORO.

CAMP WHITE PLAINS, Sept. 6th, 1778.

DEAR SIR:

A few days ago I received a letter from your Brother dated New York August 19th 78. He complain that the hot weather has brought back a little of his old complaint, but is very anxious to return to Carolina, and hopes that time will be given him to consider the New Constitution and Laws before any oath is tendered him. He is also very desirous to have a meeting with me.

I have always had a great friendship for your Brother and never considered him as an enemy to this Country, I would be glad to have a meeting wt. him could it be done with any Convenience. Burgwin, Cruder, McCulloch, and several other gentlemen from Carolinas are at New York and I believe intend to make up the matter with their Country if they Can, a great change Mr. Hogg. The wisdom of Congress and the Conduct of Gen. Washington have waded through innumerable difficulties, but what can not a Country do when its liberties are at stake. Our independence is now I think firmly established by which Britain has lost her right hand. We have a fine army well disciplined, well armed and accoutered; what can they not do in this situation when they have performed wonders without any one of them. We charge them with Bayonets and with smaller numbers drove them before us, this is a fact. It is supposed they are about to leave New York. They are like the wandering Israelites equally cursed by their maker; this Campaign I think will deprive them of any foot hold in America.

Please make my Compliments to Mrs. Hogg and family and all friends.

I am Dr. Sir, your obedt humble Servt.

TH. CLARK.

P. S. Your Brother at present has a small touch of the Gout, should he come out this way I will do all in my power to procure him a safe pass to No. Carolina.

Edenton, Oct. 20th, 1778, taken out of the Post Office and forwarded by, Dr. Sir.

Your obedt Servt.

ARCH CORRIE.

JOHN PATTON, Colo.

N. B. This return is not dated in the original MS., but other records show it to have been of Sept. 9, 1778.

GRAHAM DAVES,
Bureau of Rolls & Library, Washington, D. C.
STATE RECORDS.

NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE, September 11, 1778.

NEWBERN, Sept. 11, 1778.

Since our last returned into port from a short cruise, the privateer brig Bellona, Capt. Pendleton, of 16 guns, belonging to this state, in which she took the following prizes, viz. The brig Elizabeth, Capt. Kelly, laden with indigo, and lumber, from St. Augustine, schooner Actaeon, Capt. Bunch, from New York, bound to New Providence, in ballast, a considerable sum in specie on board; sloop Capt. Tinker, from New York bound for New Providence, with dry goods; privateer sloop Harlecan, of 6 carriage guns, 4 brass cannons, and 8 swivels, fitted out of New York, commanded by Stephen Snell. She had taken two prizes before Capt. Pendleton fell in with her.

SECR'Y HARRISON TO COLO JAMES HOGUN OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SIR:

With the money you drew yesterday from the paymaster General, you will use your best endeavours to inlist the Drafts from North Carolina under your command, to serve for three years or during the War in the army of these United States. To facilitate the Inlistments you will put the money into the Hands of such officers as you may judge proper for the occasion.

Each Draft inlisting, in either case is to be paid a bounty of twenty Dollars. Besides this he will receive the usual allowance of clothing & of land. Where the Inlistment is for three years it is to commence and to be accounted from the expiration of the time of service for which the party inlisting stands now engaged. You nor the Officers appointed by you, are not to inlist the Drafts or Soldiers belonging to any but your own State. The names of the men who inlist, the time when and the terms for which they engaged, whether for three years or during the War, are all to be particularly noted and set down, that there may not be any disputes or mistakes respecting the same.

By His Exy commd.

ROB. H. HARRISON,

Head Qrs Sept 16, 1778.

Secy.
HON. CORN. HARNETT TO HONBL. THOMAS BURKE ESQR. NEAR HILLSBOROUGH, NO. CAROLINA. BY POST.

PHILADELPHIA, 19 Sep. 1778.

Sir:

Your agreeable favour of the 22nd only came to my hands last night. Believe me when I assure you that I have heartfelt Satisfaction in finding Our General Assembly have shewn a proper resentment at the unprecedented treatment you met with at York Town. They could not have given you a more convincing proof of their approbation of your Conduct in Congress, than by appointing you again in the very face of their ridiculous resolves, to represent them in that Body.

I have Consulted my Associates in regard to the time of returning home; Mr. Penn seems content to remain & Mr. Williams & myself have concluded to stay until the 1st of December & to return immediately on your or Mr. Hill’s arrival. The appointment of Mr. Hill with yourself has given me great pleasure. Our Assembly have been wise in determining that three of their Delegates shall always be present in Congress. I only wish they had appointed six, which would have made it more convenient for the Gentlemen to attend.

I send News papers. As to the business of Congress, it goes on in the old way, doing more in three hours, at one time than they do at another in three days.

Nothing Interesting has happened at Head Quarters. The preparations making at New York seem to indicate the Enemy’s intention of removing from that City; perhaps it may be only a feint. You will be pleased to present my respectful compliments to Mrs. Burke & be assured that I am, Dr. Sir,

Your afft. friend & Obedt. Servt.

CORN HARNETT.

Mr. Allison was not so obliging as to call upon me or even to let me know where he lodged.

GOV. R. CASWELL TO MR. PRESIDENT LAURENS.

[U. S. State Dept. State Papers, Vol. 72 P. 67.]

North Carolina 22d September 1778.

Sir:

In my last the General Assembly of this State directed a Regiment to be raised for the service of this State or of the United States, to be composed of French Sailors and other Natives of France or of the French West Indies & those Resident in or thereafter coming to this State, and gave the Command of the same to Colonel Chariol (the Bearer). But finding it impracticable to complete the Regiment, the General Assembly in their late Session in August disbanded such as were raised.

Colonel Chariol is about to undertake a Journey to the Grand American Camp, in his way. He intends waiting on Congress, and I take the liberty of introducing him to your notice, as from every part of his conduct, which I am acquainted with, He has acted as became the Gentleman & the officer. The frequent applications of his late officers will oblige me to give you the trouble of receiving many Letters from me regarding them, but as I know you are acquainted with the disposition of these people, I flatter myself you will excuse the trouble I shall give you on their accounts.

I have the honor to be with the utmost respect & esteem Sir,

Your most obedient and very humble servt,

RD. CASWELL.

Resolved, That the sentence of the General Court-Martial, acquitting Major General Robert Howe, with the highest honour, of the charges exhibited against him, be, and hereby is approved and confirmed."
BEN. B. BOOTE TO HIS EXCELLENCY RICHARD CASWELL ESQR.
GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

[From MS. Records in Office of Secretary of State.]

SALISBURY, 10th October, 1778.

Sir:

According to my promise of the 28th Ulto. I take this first opportunity of inclosing to your Excellency, office Copies of the affidavits touching the Land dispute, between William Terrel Davis and Benja. Cleveland and Samuel Bicknell. I trust your Excellency, upon perusing these papers, will incline to think, there have been such unfair practices carried on somewhere during the course of this Business—that it is expedient, a farther investigation into the truth and justice of the premises, ought to take place, before any Grants shall pass to Cleveland and Bicknell, especially as there is not any Court of Equity yet established in this State, to correct proceedings so unjust and oppressive. I am

Your Excellency's Most obedient and very hum. Servt.

B. BOOTH BOOTE.

Return of Hogun's Regiment dated October 22nd, 1778.
STATE RECORDS.

SAML. HODGE TO GOV. CASWELL.

TARIK RIVER Octo. 27th 1778.

May it Please Your Excellency:

Pardon this intrusion as I have no other method left me to communicate a matter which immediately Concerns my Interest. From the universal good character your Excellency bears and the station in life you possess I am confident you will do me justice as far as your Power extends and therefore must beg your attention a few moments to the matter I shall here endeavour to explain to you in as fair and true a light as my abilities admit of. Your petitioner had the honor to serve as an officer on board one of the Continental frigates from whence I was ordered to take charge of a brig captured by said Frigate and proceed for the Continent. I arrived at Beaufort where s'd Brig with Cargo and appurtenances were sold for the sum of Eight thousand four Hundred and Eighty four pounds seven shillings & six pence, the one Moiety of which belonged to the Captors. In consequence I have demanded it from the Marshall both in private and public. He utterly refuseth giving me the money or Security for the payment of the same, by which means I have been detained here this four months or more as being convinced the money would be demanded from me by the Capturers whenever I returned to New England. I am here a stranger and friendless, which I hope will be a sufficient excuse for the trouble I am giving your Excellency and pray you will take it into your wise Consideration and afford me what Relief is in your Power. I wrote to Doctor Savage desiring him to wait on your Excellency. I beg you would instruct him in what manner I am to act in the affair so that I may obtain a speedy redress. I should have done myself the honour to wait on you but am in one of the Doctors vessels ready for sailing; I must therefore beg your kind acceptance of this my poor petition and grant a pardon to all its Imperfections.

I Now Conclude with Beging leave to Subscribe Myself Your Most Obedient and Most Humble Servt.

SAMUEL HODGE.

To His Excellency Richard Caswell Esqr. Governor In & Over the State of North Carolina.
RICHARD HENDERSON (?) TO JUDGE JOHN WILLIAMS.

WILLIAMSBURG, Oct. 29th, 1778.

Dear Sir:

Your friends are all well—The day before I left home I waited on Mrs. Williams for her commands, as I intended writing you from this place, and am happy in informing you that she, and your nearest connections were very well, and would be happy if you were among them. Before you receive this, Mr. Springer (who is gone to the Northward) will inform you this, and no doubt, deliver a letter from your family, by which you will be informed of the Death of your Nephew, Jackey Williams. This melancholy part of the tale I wish to have omitted, but it is needful you should know the truth. On this Lamentable Occasion, I advised Mrs. Williams to keep close possession of the books, and every paper belonging to or in keeping of the unfortunate lad.

In this I am sure of your approbation, as you must know how Essential it may be, to settling the Estate of your lately Deceased Brother.

In this letter you are not to expect the least regularity but must take matters as they Occur. At present my spirits are very low, owing to the Situation of my affairs. You know that is two years and a half, that I have waited on the Assembly of Virginia on the subject of our Transylvania purchase, and ought at least to have a hearing. Notwithstanding the Assembly began on the first Monday in the month, and our cause was by rules to come on the second, it is now the 29th without obtaining that end. Tomorrow is the day prefixed, and so it has been for many days, and it is uncertain whether we have a hearing or not, as many of the members seem roused from their Lethargy, and find that the house are not by Law or the Constitution Competent to the question. To avoid every kind of dispute of this kind, we today, presented a memorial, in which we signified our willingness to be concluded by "the Assembly. It lies on the Table, and we hope to have a hearing tomorrow on the Subject. Doctor Burke is here our Attorney, and I have no doubt will do us ample Justice. In my last which I wrote from Halifax, some mention was made of a destructive Storm, but am sorry to inform you, that the rains continued forty days and forty nights at least, and that the Damage has Occasioned a Scarcity, which renders Corn near 5 £ a Barrel and pork at least £10. How this will effect you as an individual I don’t know, but make no doubt but Mr. Burton will do for the best. Thus much with respect to our Country and its calamities. You want to hear a little more about Transylvania. Of this I will inform you to-morrow evening, but believe the Virginians do not mean to be very liberal or generous.

30th October—This day, for the first time in two years and a half, the Assembly has designed to hear Doctor Burke our Council in behalf of our Claim. The matter is deferred till to-morrow, and this may be a means of further delay. It is universally given up on all hands, that Mr. Burke did Justice to the Cause, and for my own part think we could not have been better served on or off the Continent. You must be informed, that in order to prepare the minds of our Judges, we found ourselves under a necessity of offering a surrender of the greater part of our claim to the Commonwealth in return for protection &c. In this affair, I hope you will think us right and be assured that in our negotiations proper regard will be paid to our Entry’s. I cannot help observing that we may be much mistaken with respect to the opinion of the majority of the House, but believe they are much in our favour. This may be otherwise; to-morrow I hope will determine that question. No more of that. You in your last which I received, asked what our Assembly were called for in August last. If I am not mistaken these reasons were given in a letter of mine from Halifax, and if not, no doubt you have received official notice of that matter before now, but if otherwise, the true reason Assigned by the Governor and approved by the House, was, that Congress had not sent us the 500,000 dollars requested and that it was impossible without money to march the new raised troops from the Militia without money. I wish your fears in Congress, may not be the Occasion of another Assembly before the first of January, to which it stands adjourned. I don’t know what information you may have had about the enemy, but do not believe a Syllable of their design of carrying on a campaign in South Carolina.

Monday 2nd November—No answer has yet been given to the reasoning of Doctor Burke in our favour, but we are promised by some, a farther hearing to-morrow, or rather that the House will take up the Consideration of the affair. Mr. Willie Jones, one of our agents (and who has been of great service) sett off home yesterday to the fair at Halifax. Mr. Johnston and myself only remain. God only knows what we shall be able to do. I shall not close this letter till something certain shall be done. News yesterday at 4 o'clock P. M. A vessel with a Flag arrived at Hampton, informing that fourteen passengers were on board from N. York, most of them refugees from this place, praying the privilege of becoming again Citizens of this Commonwealth. A Committee was immediately appointed to Examine into their former Conduct & character, and report their opinion to the House. They went on the business and am now informed, that they will be ready to-morrow, to report in favour of four of them among which a Lady is included. The rest will be ordered away immediately. I am fully persuaded this will be done. We here think this occupation a very favourable Omen.

I have not yet mentioned the affair of the Manifesto. Inclosed are the Virginia papers containing a full account of that Transaction, to which I beg leave to refer.

I begin now to entertain great hopes of seeing you by Christmas or the first of January, as Dr. Burke, on receiving a letter lately from Mr. Harnett, has taken a resolution of being at Congress by the first of December. He cannot well perform that, but hopes he will be there soon after.

Some pages past I informed you that I expected corn would be £5 a barrel and pork not less than £10. There has none of these commodities been sold in our Country, but, since I came here, pork has sold for £10 Va. Money (a small parcel for family use) and I verily believe it will not be bought in our Country, even for less than £10 and I verily believe corn will not be bought long at £5. Our fodder is almost entirely destroyed and in short, we shall have but a bad time of it. Mr. Burton was at Petersburg as we came down, was advised of the high offers then lately made there for pork and I make no doubt conducted himself according with respect to your family as well as his own, immediately on his return.

My father seemed very thankful for the kind manner you mentioned him in your last, but has little hopes of ever seeing you again. He has had two years severe returns of his disorder since you went away, and I fear his dissolution must be near at hand. When I left home it was a very small Share of my hope that I should ever see him in life; Mr. Burke, who came by afterwards informs that he had recovered that paroxysm, and I hope to find him on foot. In the fore part of this letter I informed you that Mrs. Williams was well. This was true, but you must not think from that expression that she was or has for some time been so well as I could wish. You know her, & I am sure, don't expect from her anxiety, that her spirits and health are not impaired. Truth is, that from our observation she is much so. You ought not to desert your duty to the public, but should come home as soon as you can, and determine between yourselves, whether so long a separation shall take place. You don't wait to be told that we all rejoiced much, on your easy recovery from the Small pox, but believe me, I am alarmed on your account. The pox was much too slight, & I am afraid that an ulcer or abscess will form in your Lungs, for want of a Sufficient discharge the other way of the disturbed matter—pray have you not an habitual cough? or do you feel no oppression in your breast? If either of these should be the case, consult some Physician, and do for the best.

On Thursday last you know the race between Sterne and Jason was to be run. Sterne did not before he went away give great proofs of his speed, but am in hopes he did the business. Mr. Willie Jones sent his man Austin, to keep Sterne, who was with him about a month before the day, who mended him greatly, but the rains was much against us. How this matter turned out, I shall in all probability know before you. I hope it will be well.

Friday 6th November.

You will not be astonished at any thing done by a Large assembly, when under the Circumstances which attend our Claim. Day before yesterday, the House of Delegates resolved that our claim to Transylvania was Void. We had several advocates in the house, I mean Gentlemen, who took some pains to prevent such a resolve and gave strong reasons in our favour, but upon putting the Question, there appeared by the Loud Voices in the affirmative against the feeble Negative that a Division on the Question was not required, so that I don't know how large the Majority were, in favour of this Act of power. The Senate has not yet concurred with the Delegates in this resolve, but am well persuaded they will, and therefore we are left to the Generosity of the Assembly as to what reward we shall have, for Expence & Trouble. Here we have some small hope as the Delegates also resolved that as Henderson & Co., had been at very great Expense and trouble in carrying out many Families to that Country and rendered considerable service to the Commonwealth of Virg. &c., they should be reimbursed &c., but as you will best judge of the Temper of those Gentlemen By [the rest is lost.—Ed.]

HON. CORN. HARNETT TO HONBLE THOMAS BURKE ESQR.
HILLSBOROUGH NO. CAROLINA.

Philadelphia Nov. 3rd 1778.

Dear Sir:

This is the fifth letter written to you since I received your favour, acquainting me that Mr. Hill and yourself were added to the Delegation from our State—I am in anxious Expectation of seeing you both here by the first of next month—as for our friend Hill, I have my fears that he will not proceed, but let me beg of you to come on & relieve me. I assure you without any Compliments Your presence in Congress is, I think, very necessary—but more of this when we meet. As for news I refer you to the inclosed Papers. We are not as yet certain, whether the Enemy intended the entire Evacuation of New York or not. Indeed I can not even venture to give my own Opinion. For God's sake come in time for me to return home—you know that I am older than you are & cannot stand Travelling after Christmas. I desire you will make it a point with Whitmel Hill to Accompany you. I shall have a pleasure in leaving him here to represent us—Spain has not yet declared war that we know of but we hourly expect the event.

I am in great haste Mr. House and Mr. Trist present their Compta. Dr. Sir

Your afft obedt Servt.

[From MS. Records in Office of Secretary of State.]

New Bern, November 5th 1778.

Sir:

Inclosed is a Letter I just rec’d from Mr. McAustan which please to lay before the Council and any order that they may make thereon please to Inclose to me which I will forward to Ocracoke Bar, to some of the Pilots, in order that he may see their Determination. The vessel that he is in belongs entirely to himself. In doing the above your Excellency will greatly oblige Sir,
Your most Obedient and very Humble Servant

JOHN GREEN.

N. B. Your Excellency was mentioning that you wanted some person to purchase provisions for this State. If you choose to appoint me I will act, as I have nothing to do with Jo. Green’s purchases, he not having it in his power to appoint assistants. I did not think of this when you mentioned it.

COL. JAMES HOGUN 7th REGT. TO COL. JETHRO SUMNER, 3rd REGT.

Camp at West Point Nov. 7th 1778.

Dr. Sir:

I am happy in this favourable opportunity of Paying my respects to you, and sincerely wish these few lines may find you in perfect health, which Satisfaction you had been long since deprived of when we parted last. I met with some Disappointment when I arrived at North River, for when I had reached Tarry Town within 6 miles of our own Brigade at Head Quarters, I was to my Mortification ordered to march the Regiment to this place upon a working party, where we are disagreeably situated, being hemmed in by the River on one side, and a chain of broken rocky mountains on the other, and to increase the uneasiness, we cannot purchase such necessaries, as would be agreeable in Camp, but upon extravagant Terms, and very scarce. We have no news here, but what you have no doubt seen in the papers, as nothing has transpired lately, but as the Disposition of our Army seems a little curious, I will acquaint you with it, as near as I can, and leave you to form Ideas of the meaning and design of their position at your leisure. General Gates commands a part at Boston, the Marquis de la Fayette and Sullivan at Rhode Island, Putnum at Hartford, McDougall at Farmington, Decalb at Fishkills. Mulenburg's brigade opposite to this place, who sends over a working party to assist us in building the forts here; Clinton's brigade is at Peeks kill, Scott with the light Infantry is near the White Plains, Lord Stirling with his Division is in the Jerseys near Elizabeth Town, and Arnold is at Philadelphia. The rest of the Carolina Brigade and one from Pennsylvania is at Fredricksburg where Head Quarters is at this time. This Arrangement of the Army seems a little mysterious, and may afford you some Study at a leisure hour. It is reported and I have great reason to believe that some of the Enemy's troops are embarked at New York, but their destination unknown. They have done little this fall, only Butchered a few light horse, and burned some houses in a little Town called Redford, and destroyed some stores in the neighborhood. I know of nothing more worth transmitting, so shall conclude with my Compliments to Mrs. Sumner. Sr.

Your humble Servt,

JAMES HOGUN.

[FROM THE WASHINGTON PAPERS, NO. 147, VOL. 2, P. 385.]

AT A BOARD OF WAR, NOV. 21st, 1778.

Present

MR. SHERMAN
MR. LEE
MR. PETERS

Agreed to Report to Congress,

That Capt. Medici of the North Carolina Dragoons having applied to the Board of Directors for his future Government, the Board beg leave to state the case of the said Troops;

That they have from an impracticability to provide for them, been hitherto unemployed in the Field, except upwards of forty who were lately completely fitted out and sent to Genl McIntosh under Capt Ashe, under an Expectation that the men whose Times were nearly expiring would agree to stay for two months beyond their Engagements: But on or soon after their arrival at Fort Pitt, their Times being expired, all but 14 quit the service & went home.

That Capt. Medici having been sent to Carolina to purchase horses about 18 months ago, & having sent on a few, just before the Departure of Congress from York Town, the Board uneasy at his Delay for so immoderate a Length of Time, wrote to him and directed him to come to Philadelphia to settle his accounts. On his arrival we were informed that he had by order of Col. Bland who met with him at Halifax in N. Carolina, recruited upwards of 30 men for the Term of three years or during the War & gave them Furloughs with orders to meet him at Halifax the beginning of this month. He has also eleven men at Philadelphia.

That the whole of the said men are unprovided with clothing & accoutrements except some may have been provided in Halifax by order of Capt. Medici—have but few horses.

That from their not being annexed to any Corps, they cannot in the Opinion of the Board be of much utility to the States, unless they can be employed to the southward under Genl Lincoln; and then much Expense will accrue in fitting them out for the Field: Wherefore the Board beg leave to report that the case of these Troops be referred to the committee appointed for the Direction of the Southern Expedition.

By Order
RICHARD PETERS.

That as the United States have no further occasion for the services of the Troops of the Light Dragoons raised by, and when taken into Continental Pay, in the particular service of the State of North Carolina, the said Troops be no longer considered in the pay of the Continent. And they are hereby returned to the said Government of the said State to be retained in the pay thereof or discharged as they shall deem proper.

By Order
RICHARD PETERS.
Be paid up to the 1 January & that after that they be discharged. A motion being made for clothing for the said troops Ordered that it be referred to the Board of War & that the board enquire into the state of the said troops and to supply them with such clothing as may be due to them.

[Endorsed]

Report Board of War
No Carolina Light Horse
Nov. 24th 1778.

MAJ. GEN. ROBERT HOWE TO PRES'T OF CONGRESS.

CHARLES TOWN SO. CAROLINA, 24th NOV. 1778.

SIR:

The letter by Colo. Ternant inclosing a Resolve of Congress by which I am recalled, has been delayed by the illness of the Colonel until a very few days since.

In obedience to that Order, I was just setting out when a letter, a copy of which I have the honor to transmit, arrived express from Georgia, the imminent danger of that State, rendered very weak in the part assailed, by the necessity there had been for detaching a considerable number of the Regular Troops to the westward, to prevent the Ravages of the Indians, induced me to think that it was incumbent upon me to fly to the assistance of Georgia, with what Troops could be spared from hence, and that a short delay in my setting out for the Grand Army, could be attended with no great inconvenience to the service in that quarter, and that the necessity I conceived Georgia to be in would plead my excuse with Congress. If, Sir, in this I have thought wrong, I flatter myself that Congress, whose candour I rely upon, will declare the Action from the Motives and do me the justice to believe, that my Conduct resulted from the firm persuasion I had, that I was promoting their service, and consequently pursuing the dictates of my duty, which it will ever be both my pride and pleasure to do.

In haste I am with the greatest esteem and respect Sir, Your most obt, very huml Servant.

To His Honor the President of Congress.

ROBERT HOWE.
ENROLLED:
Letter from Major Gen. R. Howe, Charlestown, Novr. 24, 1778, inclosing letter of 21 from Col. White notifying that Georgia is invaded—Read 29 Decr, 1778.

IN CONGRESS 5 Dec. 1778.

Resolved, That as the United States have no further occasion for the Service of the troops of light dragoons raised by and when taken into continental pay in the particular service of the State of North Carolina, the said troops be paid up to the first day of January, and after that date they be no longer considered in the pay of the continent, and that they be returned to the government of the said State to be retained in the pay thereof, or discharged as they shall think proper.

Ordered that the board of War settle and pay the accounts of the said dragoons. Ordered, That the board of War supply the said troops, with such clothing as may be due to them.

NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE January 9, 1778.

December 17.

Strayed from Camp near Halifax 12 of October last, two horses, viz: One a black horse 14 hands high, well made, paces, trots and gallops well, about 8 years old, lately branded on the off shoulder N. C., has a hanging mane, switch tail, and some saddle spots on the near side of his back. The other is a small flea bitten grey, trots hard, and is remarkably long in the back, and has some old brands not known, both belled when they strayed. Any person that will give information of the said horses to the owner in the camp in the 10th regiment, or my house in Dobbs County, shall be satisfactorily rewarded.

MATTHIAS HARVEY.
CHEROKEE COUNTY AND TOWN OF CHOLA, Dec. 23rd, 1778.

The under mentioned contains a talk delivered by the Raven of Chola, in Counsell, the day above.

My Father I am glad to see you well, I speak it again for all my Honest young fellows, they are all Glad to see you and hear of your welfare, I thought I had you by the hand in your absence when I touched Flesh with the man you left me I looked on it I hold you by the hand, as though you the great Woiror of North Carolina his hand I now Take hold of by Touching your flesh, his good talk I heard yesterday by you I hold it fast, when I think of that great Man, his talk seems as strong as Iron, and as bright as Silver. My Father this is the day I promised to give you an Answer; My talk will be short, as we have been these several days Talking good talks together, you Say you do not know what the great Men of North Carolina and Virginia will do with them Roages at Chuckemogo, yet if they do go against them you think the Whites will be very Angry. They have been so long Endeavoring to Convince them of their Error, we have been likewise doing the same, when I heard of them Roages going to your quarter, I sent a Runer And told him to make great haste, you Say you are Sure The good people of these towns, will not suffer by Means of them Roages, I am glad to hear it I believe it was their design to bring trouble on the whole nation, them Roages that did the Mischief is now gone to Pensecola I suppose to get paid for what they have done I think the white people have great cause to be angry with them, I hope there will not be the like Mischief done again: My Father I told you yesterday, I could not Spare you, nor would not let loo your hand, but I have Considered on it Since I heard your Reasons they were good I must loose hands but shall think much of you, and your good Talks I now take fast had of the Mouse or Ellis Harling as the white people call him Whom you leave with us to talk for you Until you hear from the great Wariour or great Council of North Carolina. you say you do not know who they will give or send us, Ellis Harling is the Man that we expect And on that account I loosed hands with you I do not know what the white think of him. but we look on him as a warrior, we have known him a long time we know he will not tell lies, A stranger we do not want, I remember well you told me yesterday you did not throw us away but could not leave your family and live Altogether hear I did not Expect it of you when I first took you by the hand I knew you had a family, you was no Stranger, As I have loosed hands with you, and holds the same friendship I hope you will speak for us to the great warrior, and Council of North Carolina, I have told you the Man I want I now tell you I am very thankfull to you for your Many Services, and in particular, for assisting in the making Strong our Land mark both them Talks of the great Warriours of North Carolina I shall remember them well and keep in mind his promises, I thank him And his warriors for taking so great Care of us, to Confirm you in the truth of what I said give I you a String of White Beads.

FINIS.

NORTH CAROLINA GAZETTE January 9 1778.

NEWBURN, December 24.

Hamilton Ballantine late of the Island of Jamaica, attorney at law, acquaints the public that he purposes to reside in this State, where in the course of his practise he only wishes for such encourgement as his integrity to his clients and to the justness of their cause merits.

The laws being now open in their full latitude, he hopes for the promised encourgement of his acquaintances in different parts of this state, as he purposes to attend the superior courts in the respective districts.
To be sold to the highest bidder, at the next superior Court in the town of Hillsborough, on the 27th day of March next pursuant to a resolve of the general Assembly:

The iron works on Deep River in the County of Chatham, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, also a large quantity of land containing timber and stone sufficient to support said works, and an inexhaustible fund of excellent Iron Ore. The premises will be shown any one desirous of seeing the same by Captain Balaam Thomson living thereon. Bond, with approved security will be required by the Commissioners.

We herewith send for your Concurrence the Report of the Committee appointed to Consider the Petition of the people called Moravians & Quakers.
Concurred with by this House.
Also the report of the Committee therein referred to as follows:

Your Committee appointed to consider of the petitions of the people called Moravians and Quakers, having taken the same under their Consideration are of the opinion, That as the end of all government is to make every member of the Community equally happy, and as in a State settled by people of different Religious this equality of political Happiness is inseparable from an Indulgence to those whose religious Opinions make them object to the usual form of promising fidelity to the State, That the people called Moravians and Quakers should be permitted to take the following Affirmation, to-wit:

I, A, B, Do solemnly and sincerely declare and affirm in the presence of Almighty God that I will truly and faithfully demean myself as a peaceable subject of the Independent State of North Carolina and will be subject to the powers and Authorities that are or may be established for the good Government thereof not inconstant with the Constitution by yielding either an active or passive Obedience thereto and that I will not abet or join the subjects or forces of the King of Great Britain or others the Enemies of this State in any Conspiracy by any means whatsoever against this said State or the United States of America and that I will make known to the Governor or some member of the Council of State, Judge of the Superior Court, or Justice of the peace, all treasons, Conspiracies or attempts committed or intended against the same which shall come to my knowledge.

And your Committee are further of the opinion that an Act of the General Assembly of this State ought to be made for the above purpose. All which your Committee humbly submits to the Houses.

Thos. Person, Chairman.

On reading the foregoing Report, ordered that the following Message be sent to the House of Commons:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

We have received your Message with the Report of the Committee appointed to consider the Petitions of the Moravians and Quakers, and concur therewith, with the amendments we have made in the oath to be taken by such people, and further propose that the Mennonists and Dunkards should be included within the meaning and purview of the said Report.

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

This House have appointed The Honorable the Speaker, and Colo. Martin to act with the Gentlemen by you appointed for the purpose of preparing the Thanks of this State to the Honorable Cornelius Harnett, Esquire, one of the Delegates for this State in the Continental Congress, for his faithful and important Services rendered this State in the Execution of that office.

The House adjourned till Monday morning 10 o'clock.

MONDAY, 25th January, 1779.

The House met.

Received from the Commons the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

We herewith send for your Concurrence a Resolve of this House permitting Henry Hinton, Master of the Sloop Mary, bound for the Island of Bermuda, to load out with provisions.

Also the Resolve therein referred to.

Which being read, ordered that the following Message be sent to the House of Commons:

This House have received your Message and Resolve in favour of Capt. Hinton, and propose passing a Resolve in favour of the Inhabitants of Bermuda generally, supposing that many of that Island will come into this State with the same Desire of procuring provisions, and that all are equally entitled to those Benefits, for which purpose we have sent a Resolve for your Concurrence as follows:

It being Evident that the United States, and particularly this State, have received great Benefit and Advantage from the importation of salt and other useful articles by the Inhabitants of Bermuda, and it being also represented to this House that the Inhabitants of the Island of Bermuda, claimed by and guaranteed to the United States by Treaty with France, are in most distressing Circumstances thro' want of Provisions;

Resolved, therefore, that all vessels belonging to the Inhabitants of the Island of Bermuda, who shall import into any part of this State any Quantity of salt, shall, and they are hereby empowered, to take on board & export to the said Island so much Provision as will amount to the value of the salt so imported by them and no more.

Received from the Commons the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

We herewith send for your Concurrence the Report of the joint Committee appointed to receive and consider the Petition of all persons praying to be admitted as Citizens, unanimously concurred with by this House.

Also the Report of the Committee appointed to receive and consider the Petitions of all persons praying to be admitted.

Which being read was concurred with.

On reading the report of the said Commons, admitting Robert Hogg as a Citizen of this State, it was objected to, and the question being put it was carried in the affirmative.

Then, on motion of Robert Harris, Ordered that the yeas and nays be taken, which were as follows:

YEAS.—Messrs. Davis, Thompson, Battle, Rhodes, Forster, Martin, Russell, Graham, Ashe, Owen, Boddie, Rogers, Kinchen, Salter, McKenzie and Stone.

NAYS.—Messrs. Coor, Harris, Jones, Respess, Exum, Frazier, Brown, Sumner, Irwin and Shepherd.

Dissentient—Because it appears when Mr. Hogg left this Country he was generally deemed unfriendly to the public Measures of this & the United States; that he returned under the protection of the King of Great Britain and hath not taken the Oath of Allegiance to this State, and lastly because Mr. Hogg hath not shown or offered in his own behalf any mitigating Circumstance to induce the General Assembly to admit him as a Citizen and restore to him his property, which we conceive was absolutely necessary and particularly required by the act of Assembly—Jas.
Ordered that the following Message be sent to the House of Commons:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

This House have received your Message, with the Report of the Committee appointed to receive and consider the petition of all persons praying to be admitted Citizens of this State, which we herewith return you concurred with.

To the Honorable Cornelius Harnett & John Williams, Esquires, Gentlemen:

The General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, by the Unanimous Resolves of both Houses, have agreed that the Thanks of the State be presented to you for the many great and important Services you have rendered your Country as a Delegate in the Continental Congress.

The Assiduity & zeal with which you have represented our affairs in that supreme Council of the Continent, (during a long & painful absence from your family,) demand this respectful attention of your Countrymen, whose minds are impressed with a sense of the most lively Gratitude.

We cannot but congratulate you with ourselves for those late remarkable Successes of the American Arms, that under the Auspices & divine Providence of Almighty God have at length humbled the Pride of an insulting, vengeful, cruel & imperious Enemy, which, together with those wise Councils and Negotiations in which you (and your worthy Colleagues,) have borne a share, have induced the first Power in Europe to acknowledge the Freedom, Independence, & Sovereignty of the United States of America, and have given them Rank among the Sovereign Powers of the World.

For the faithful Discharge of this your Duty and the high Trust reposed in you by this State, accept, Gentlemen, through me, the thanks & Plaudit of your Country.

Colo. Martin, from the joint Committee of both Houses, appointed to take under Consideration the Memorial of the Rev. Mr. Adam Boyd, respecting the supplies of the North Carolina Troops in the Continental Service, Reported as follows:

That the faithful Services of the Officers of the North Carolina Troops in the Continental Service justly claim the notice of the Legislature, who, from their scanty pay and the great price of goods, with difficulty make a decent appearance.

It is therefore the Opinion of your Committee that they be comfortably and decently clad at the expense of the State, which would in some measure soften the rigor of their duty and enable them to perform the same with Cheerfulness, and that the Commissary of Stores be authorized to draw for that purpose fifteen
STATE RECORDS.

Thousand pounds from the Treasurer, which by the said Commissary shall be laid out in purchasing the following Articles of Clothing for every Officer now in said Service, to wit:

Cloth for a full suit of Cloaths, to contain one Coat, two Jackets and two pair of Breeches, Linen for four shirts and four Stocks, four pair of Stockings, one Hat, two Handkerchiefs, two pair of Shoes and one pair of Leather Boots.

Which was read the second time, amended, passed and sent to the Commons.

Also a Bill to establish Courts of Chancery in this State and to regulate the manner of proceeding therein.

Which was read the second time and rejected.

Then on motion, the Members who were against rejecting the said Bill entered the following protest:

DISSENTIENT—

Because the want of such Courts has long been severely felt by great numbers of people, who can have no Redress in Courts of Law, and many of whom complain of hardships arising from Judgments of Law which equity alone can relieve.

Because, the System of English Jurisprudence is so interwoven with the present internal Policy of this State that any Considerable Innovation in the constituent parts thereof will be found not only inconvenient but almost impracticable, and from Time immemorial has been divided into two great Branches, each of which, upon different (tho' not inconsistent) principles, has for its great Object the Distribution of Justice.

Because, tho' that part of our Jurisprudence usually called the Common Law, forms the Basis of the whole, yet there are many Cases where it is necessary to apply to the conscience of the Party, who under the Solemnity of Religion may discover an undue advantage taken of his Adversary, Evidences suppressed, Papers concealed, or a suit brought upon an Obligation secretly and bona fide discharged, in all which Cases the common Law affords no adequate or complete Relief.
Because, in particular the two great Cases of Mortgages and the ordering and compelling a specific Execution of Contracts, where the Common Law in the first Instance vests the Property absolute in the Mortgages, upon the non payment at the day, and in the other case only gives a Compensation in Damages, which in many Cases will be far from being adequate, call aloud for the Establishment of such Courts, of which they are the proper Objects. There are also other Cases of Trust, unforeseen Accident, secret and artful Fraud, wherein Numbers of People at present, under the Impunity held forth to them by the Legislature, proudly and iniquitously triumph.

Because, the Declaration of the Bill of Rights, concerning a Trial by Jury, alluded to in the Debate, is a general Principle evidently affecting all Cases at Law, where that essential Mode of Trial is a necessary Barrier and Guard to our Liberties at Large, but cannot rationally, in our Opinion, affect the Establishment of that Court which the Constitution calls for, and which in its very Essence so far excludes the Idea or the Necessity of a Jury that they cannot exist together.

Because, notwithstanding the Trial by Jury was equally a favourite part of the English Constitution, and no people under Heaven have ever been more jealous of their Liberty than the Britons, yet they have found it necessary in that Country to have such a Court that has the Stamp of Antiquity, the Wisdom of Ages and all States a precedent for its support, for the peculiar & indispensable purposes it is meant to serve, without assigning it a Jury, and whose Proceedings by immediately applying to the Conscience of a Defendant and sifting Truth with the most penetrating Research, whenever it can be discovered, can neither admit or require a Jury.

Because, Courts of Law, thro' the Rigor of Form & Letter thereof, have been, and will be in many Instances, highly grievous to the subjects, without the Interposition of Courts of Equity, and they ought either to exist or be suspended together, we are convinced that any Attempt to give them a separate or confused Operation will only be found ridiculous and ineffectual, and we cannot think this Country non equal to the Business of framing an entire new Code of Laws for that purpose. We are conscious of having done our Duty in endeavouring to carry that Bill into Effect, and we desire by this protest to exculpate ourselves to our Country at large, to whom our Conduct is amenable.

Received from the Commons a Bill for appointing Naval Officers in the different ports of this State and directing their Duty in Office and for other purposes.

Which was read the third time, passed and Ordered to be Engrossed.

Received from His Excellency the Governor the following Message:

To the Honorable General Assembly:

Gentlemen: Herewith you will be pleased to receive sundry Resolutions of Congress transmitted to me since the Close of the last Session of the General Assembly. Such of them as immediately relate to my department, I took the earliest opportunity of laying before the Council of State, and in pursuance of their advice have carried them into effect, so far as I was enabled to do.

Of the five Thousand Troops required by Congress to be sent to the aid of South Carolina and Georgia, I am fearful it will be found that not more than about half the number have actually Marched, and those badly Armed; I have therefore ordered on all the drafts remaining in the State who are able to March, and in case any of them are discharged, or are unable to March, have directed others to be drafted in their stead from the Companies to which they belonged so as the whole number advised by the Council to be raised from the Militia, be sent on.

Sundry letters which I have the Honor of laying before you from the Governor of South Carolina and the Commander in Chief on the Southern Expedition, evince the designs of the Enemy in that Quarter, and show the necessity of the General Assembly's early entering upon such Measures as they shall think proper to adopt, respecting the Militia of this State, so far as relates to those ordered into service there, or such as may be judged necessary to reinforce them.

I also lay before you sundry letters from the President of the Congress and the Delegates of this State, for your perusal and information. Those from Mr. Harnett show the necessity of the Accounts of this State against the United States being made up, and with the Vouchers sent to the proper officers for passing them. By the account herewith, you will be informed of the several sums wherewith this State stood Charged, by the United States, the 13th of August last, amounting in the whole to a very large sum of Money; and will see that we have only a single Credit for a very trifling sum; aho' I flatter myself, that the Ballance would be very small on a proper State of the Accounts. When I reflect that very little attention has hitherto been paid to this very essential matter, and the manner in which the public papers and Accounts are conveyed from one part of the State to another, renders it very doubtful with me if many of the Vouchers are not already lost or so worn out or torn as to render them unintelligible. I therefore presume I shall stand excused in calling up your particular attention to an affair of such Importance, and recommending some mode to be fallen upon, which may answer the purpose.
of obtaining an immediate statement of those Accounts, otherwise satisfied I am, that considerable losses will arise to this State.

I have directed the Journal of the Council of State to be laid before you with the papers on which the Resolutions of that Board are formed. Every measure therein recommended have been carried into the fullest effect in my power.

R. CASWELL.

At the same time received the several Resolutions of Congress, Letters from the Governor of South Carolina, The Commander in Chief on the Southern Expedition, The President of the Congress and the Delegates from this State in Congress, as also the Journal & proceedings of the Council of State.

Ordered that the same lay over until Tomorrow for Consideration.

Mr. Person, from the Committee appointed to consider of the Petition of the People called Moravians and Quakers, Reported as follows:

That it is the opinion of the Committee that as the end of all Government is to make every Member of the community equally happy, and as in a State settled by people of different Religions, this equality of political happiness is inseparable from an indulgence to those whose religious opinions make them object to the usual form or promises of Fidelity to the State; That the people called Moravians and Quakers should be permitted to take the following affirmation to wit:

I, A. B., do solemnly and sincerely declare and affirm in the presence of Almighty God, that I will truly and faithfully demean myself as a peaceable subject of the Independent State of North Carolina, and will be subject to the powers and Authorities, that are or may be established for the good Government thereof, by yielding either an active or passive obedience thereto, and that I will not abet or join the Subjects or Forces of the King of Great Britain, or others, the Enemies of this State, by any means, in any conspiracy whatsoever against the said State or the United States of America, and that I will make known to the Governor or some member of the Council of State, Judge of the Superior Court, or justice of the peace, all Treasons, conspiracies or attempts committed or intended against the same, which shall come to my knowledge.

We also propose referring to said Committee the Consideration of the allowance of the Governor, Secretary, Delegates in Congress, and other public officers of this State.

Ordered that the following Message be sent to the Senate:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

This House concur with you in referring to the Committee appointed to take into consideration the Letter from the Honbl. Samuel Spencer, &c., the Consideration of the allowance of the Governor, Secretary & Delegates in Congress, & other public officers of this State.

Received from the Senate the following Message:
Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

You will herewith receive the Resolve of your House impowering the Commissary of Stores to remove the public powder, &c., to some convenient House in this Town, Concluded with.

At the same time received the Resolve of this House referred to in the above Message, Concluded with.

Mr. Jones, from the Joint Committee of both Houses, appointed to receive & consider the Petitions of all such persons as shall pray to be admitted as Citizens in this State, Reported as follows:

That having duly considered the Petition of Thomas Barker, Esqr., a native of America, and formerly a resident in this State, find that the facts mentioned in the said Petition are true, who from his known zeal and Assiduity in representing our affairs at the several public Boards in England, as our agent at that critical time referred to in the said Petition, and from his firm attachment to the Cause of America during her late struggles to this time, claims our particular Regard.

We therefore, unanimously recommend him to be received again into the bosom of his Country by admitting him a Citizen thereof and restoring to him his property.

That having with due attention considered the petition of Mr. Robert Hogg, late Merchant in Wilmington, find the Contents of the same True, and from the Examination of a number of Gentlemen of undoubted veracity, for the urgent reasons mentioned in his said Petition, and that he left those instructions to his Factors and Agents to appropriate one-half of his property, if they found the same necessary, in the Defence of the American Cause, as we have still no reasons to doubt of his attachment to the Interest of the United States from such a Declaration, and of his ready obedience at present to the Laws of this Country, we therefore recommend him unanimously to be admitted a Citizen of this State and restored to his property.

That with equal attention paid to the Petition and Case of John Burgwin, Esq., late of Wilmington, Merchant, we find the facts referred to in the same to be true. That the Fracture of his leg, which he received the 8th of January, 1775, was of the most dangerous kind; that he languished in this situation Five Months without any appearance of Cure, and at last by a surgeon of the first Eminence in that place was advised to change this Climate as soon as possible for that of England, otherwise his life would be in danger, that by the use of the Bath Waters and other remedies in that Country his Leg is restored in some measure to its Strength, that upon hearing of the Confiscation Act, Notwithstanding his then infirm State of Health he embarked for New York, where he arrived and received passport from Congress to return to this State. The many public services that Gentleman formerly rendered this Country and his ready compliance at present with its Laws, gives us no room to doubt of his attachment to its interest. We therefore unanimously recommend him to be received a Citizen of this State, and that his property be restored to him.

That next taking under Consideration the petition of Mr. Thomas Hooper, a native of America, late Merchant in Wilmington, we find the case of that Gentleman scarce within the province of the Confiscation Act, as his residence in England was of short duration, and which he immediately changed for France, this together with the ample Testimonials of the American Commissioners at Paris, in his favour, added to his former attachment to this Country, thro' affection as well as principle, induce us unanimously to recommend him, if by any Construction of the Law he has lost any Privileges, to be admitted a full Citizen of this State and restored to his property.

That next considering the petition of Mr. Samuel Marshall, we find that his attendance in England at the time referred to in the same was necessary and of real Consequence to himself, being an Heir to an Estate, that required his immediate presence in that Kingdom, to obtain a Recovery. His prior attachment to this Country, together with his ready compliance with its Laws, are reasons for which we unanimously recommend him to be admitted a Citizen of this State, and that his property be restored to him.

That next attending to the Petition of John London, Esquire, late Clerk of New Hanover County, and examining the contents thereof, we find them true; that his affairs called him to England at the time mentioned in the said Petition, that he obtained leave of absence from the County Court for that purpose, that having settled the same he has returned and now prays to be admitted a Citizen; as that Gentleman discharged the duties of the several offices he formerly held in this State with Integrity & reputation, and as we have heard of no unfriendly act or intention from him, we Unanimously recommend him to be admitted a Citizen of this State, and that his property be restored.

That last attending to the memorial of William Peele, in favour of his Father Doct. Samuel Peele, of Northampton County, it appears that the said Samuel Peele departed from this State for England some time in the Year 1775, with a view to dispose of a small landed Estate & purchase Medicines; that the said Samuel Peele having transacted his business in England, went over to France and sailed from thence for the United States, previous to the passing of the Confiscation Act, was taken prisoner & carried to England. That after many difficulties he obtained his liberty, sailed for New York & from thence obtained a Flag to proceed to General Washington, by whose permission he returned to North Carolina. It appears further to your Committee that the said Doct. Samuel Peele, and every Branch of the Family, have constantly been and still are warm friends to the United States, we therefore unanimously recommend him to be admitted a Citizen of this State, and that his property be restored.

ALEX. MARTIN, Ch.

The House taking the said Report into consideration, Concurred therewith.

Ordered that the above Resolve be sent to the Senate for their Concurrence, together with the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

We herewith send for your Concurrence the Report of the joint Committee appointed to receive and consider the Petitions of all persons praying to be admitted as Citizens, Unanimously Concurred with by this House.

Received from the Senate the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

We have received your Message with the Report of the Committee appointed to consider the petitions of the Moravians and Quakers & concur therewith, with the amendments we have made nelius Harnett, Esquire, one of the Delegates for this State in the Continental Congress, for his faithful and important service rendered this State in the Execution of that office.

Resolved, that Mr. Hooper and Mr. Jones, be a Committee on the part of this House for the purpose aforesaid.

Ordered that the following Message be sent to the Senate:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

We have received the messages of your House appointing certain Gentlemen therein mentioned to prepare the thanks of the 'State' to be given the Honorable Cornelius Harnett, Esqr., one of the Delegates from this State in Congress, and we have for that purpose, on our part, appointed Mr. Hooper and Mr. Jones, to Act jointly with the Gentlemen by you appointed for that purpose. We think that the Honbl. John Penn and John Williams, Esqrs., justly merit the thanks of the State for the great services they have rendered as Delegates in Congress and propose that the thanks of the State shall also be given them thro' the Assembly.
Received from the Senate the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

This House have received your Message appointing another Committee of Claims, and concur therewith, for which purpose we have appointed Messrs. Shepperd, Rogers, Frazier, Birdsong and Brown, to Act with the Gentlemen by you appointed.

Mr. Nash, from the Committee appointed to take under consideration the Petition of the people of Pasquotank, relative to the Slaves liberated by the Quakers, Reported as follows:

Your Committee having taken under consideration the Petition of the People of Pasquotank, relative to the Slaves liberated by the Quakers, came to the following opinion, that the Conduct of the said Quakers in setting their Slaves free, at a time when our open and declared Enemies were endeavoring to bring about an Insurrection of the Slaves, was highly criminal and reprehensible, and that it was also directly contrary to the known and Established Laws of the Country. That upon the late happy change in our Government, the former Laws prohibiting the freeing of Slaves, except under certain circumstances, could not be carried into Execution, because in the change of Government there remained no Church wardens to execute the same, and it of Course became necessary to make provision against the evil then in practice and more alarming than ever, and to answer this end an Act was passed at a General Assembly, held at New Bern, the 8th Day of April, 1777, and as some doubts have arisen whether the Slaves liberated before the passing of that Act were subject to the same penalties and proceedings as Slaves liberated afterwards, your Committee are of opinion that justice and policy require that a Bill should now be brought in to explain the said Act and to confirm all Sales of Slaves heretofore made bona fide in consequence of it, in order that the evil, intended to be guarded against, may be fully answered, and fair and honest purchasers, under the sanction of the said Law, may be quieted in their respective possessions.

The Honbl. Cornelius Harnett and John Williams, Esquires:

Gentlemen:

The General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, by the Unanimous Resolves of both Houses, have agreed that the thanks of the State be presented to you for the many great and important services you have rendered your Country as Delegates in the Continental Congress.

The Assiduity and zeal with which you have represented our affairs in that supreme Council of the Continent, during a long and painful absence from your families, demand this respectful attention of your Countrymen, whose minds are impressed with a sense of the most lively Gratitude.

We cannot but congratulate you, Gentlemen, with ourselves, for those late remarkable Successes of the American Arms, that under the Auspices and divine providence of Almighty God have at length humbled the pride of an insulting, vengeful and imperious Enemy; which, together with those wise Counsels and Negotiations, in which you and your worthy Colleagues have borne a share, have induced the first power in Europe to acknowledge the Freedom, Independence and Sovereignty of the United States of America, and have given them rank among the Sovereign Powers of the World.

For the faithful discharge of this your Duty, and the high Trust reposed in you by this State, Accept, Gentlemen, through me, the thanks and plaudit of your Country.

To which the Honbl. Cornelius Harnett and John Williams made the following reply:

To the Honorable Thomas Benbury, Esquire, Speaker of the House of Commons of the State of North Carolina:

SIR:

The Honorable Testimony we have received through you, from the General Assembly of this State, calls for our warmest and most grateful acknowledgments. We cannot express the happiness we feel in being assured that the Services we have endeavoured to render our Country, have met with the approbation of our Constituents.

We join in Congratulation, with you, for the late Success of the American Arms, which under God have reduced the force, and humbled the pride of an Imperious and cruel Enemy, and it gives us inexpressible pleasure on being assured that the small share we have had in promoting a Negotiation, which has induced one of the Greatest and most powerful States in Europe to acknowledge and Guarantee the Freedom, Independency and Sovereignty of the United States of America, has been approved by our Country.

Give us leave, Sir, to return our most sincere thanks, for the very Polite manner in which you have been pleased to communicate to us the Resolution of the General Assembly.
On motion, ordered that Mr. Joseph Bryan have leave to absent himself from the services of the House for the remaining part of the Session.

On motion, ordered that Mr. Jonas Johnson have leave of absence til Wednesday next.

Resolved, that the Honbl. Speaker be requested to transmit to the Honbl. John. Penn, Esquire, the thanks of the State, as follows:

To the Honorable John Penn, Esquire:

Sir:

The General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, by the Unanimous Resolves of both Houses, have agreed that the thanks of the State be presented to you for the many great and important services you have rendered your Country as a Delegate in the Continental Congress.

The Assiduity and zeal, with which you have represented our affairs in that supreme Council of the Continent, during a long and painful absence from your Family, demand the respectful attention of your Countrymen, whose minds are impressed with a sense of the most lively Gratitude.

We cannot but congratulate you, Sir, with ourselves, for those late remarkable Successes of the American Arms, that under the Auspices and Divine Providence of Almighty God, have at length humbled the pride of an insulting, vengeful and Imperious Enemy, which, together with those wise Councils and Negotiations, in which your worthy Colleagues have borne a share, have induced the first power in Europe to Acknowledge the Freedom, Independency and Sovereignty of the United States of America, and have given them rank among the Sovereign Powers of the World.

For the faithful discharge of this your duty, and the high Trust reposed in you by this State, accept, Sir, through me, the thanks and plaudit of your Country.

Ordered that the same be referred to a Joint Committee, and That Mr. Hewes, Mr. Hawkins and Mr. Bloodworth, be a Committee, on the part of this House, for the purpose aforesaid.
Ordered that the following Message be sent to the Senate:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

This House have appointed Mr. Hewes, Mr. Hawkins and Mr. Bloodworth, a Committee, on their part, to take under consideration the Remonstrance of Mr. Adam Boyd, on behalf of the Continental Officers and Soldiers from the State.

Read the Petition of Alexander Diack, Executor of the Estate of William Aitcheson, of Virginia, Merchant, Deceased, praying, &c.

Ordered that the same be referred to a Joint Committee, and That Mr. Hewes, Mr. Lock, Mr. Hawkins, Mr. Cogdell, Mr. Whitaker and Mr. Person, be a Committee, on the part of this House, for the purpose aforesaid.

Ordered that the following Message be sent to the Senate:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

This House have appointed Mr. Hewes, Mr. Lock, Mr. Hawkins, Mr. Cogdell, Mr. Whitaker and Mr. Person, a Committee, on their part, to Act jointly with such Gentlemen of the Senate as may be appointed, to take under consideration the petition of Alexander Diack.

Mr. Jones, from the Committee appointed to take under consideration the Remonstrance of William Skinner, Esquire, Reported as follows:

Your Committee having considered the aforesaid Remonstrance, are of opinion that it is impracticable for the Treasurers to attend at the various times and places which the Law passed at Hillsborough in August last, for calling in all former Emissions of Money in this State, directs, And therefore that it is necessary to appoint one or more persons, well skilled in distinguishing good Money from bad, in each District, who shall be required to attend on the Commissioners for the new Money and receive from them such sums as the Assembly shall think proper, and shall exchange the same for Dollar Bills, of the former Emissions, in their respective Districts, in the same manner as by Law the Treasurers are directed to do.

Your Committee are also of opinion that altho' the appointments here proposed should take place, it will still be impossible for the persons so appointed to obtain the new Money from the Commissioners and exchange the same for the Dollar Bills heretofore emitted, within the time limited by Law, wherefore it is necessary that a further Day be given.

Your Committee, being informed that a Committee is already appointed to count and receive the old proc. from Mr. Skinner, think it unnecessary to say anything further upon that head.

The House taking the said Report into consideration, Ordered that Mr. Willie Jones have leave to take out the Bill to amend part of an Act entitled an Act for emitting Eight Hundred and fifty thousand pounds in Bills of Credit for discharging the Debts incurred by this State in raising men to reinforce the Battalions belonging to this State in the Continental Army, for calling in all former Emissions and other purposes, by inserting a Clause containing the substance of the said Report.

Resolved, that the House will, on Monday next, proceed to read for the third time the Bill for the Regulation of the Town of New Bern.

Mr. Person, from the joint Committee appointed to re-examine accounts of William Gilbert, Commissary for Tryon County, Reported as follows:

It appears to your Committee that Mr. William Alston acted as a joint Commissary with Mr. Gilbert, that Col. Graham gave

- Mr. Gilbert a receipt for a number of Rations, in which were included one hundred and twenty rations for six days supply for Captain Hardin and his Company, that Captain Hardin gave Mr. Alston a receipt for a large number of rations for his Company, in which number the aforesaid one Hundred and twenty rations were also included: That since that time the said Captain Hardin hath given Mr. Gilbert a Receipt for five Thousand and seventy-one rations, for said Hardin and his Company, all which receipts for rations have been charged to the public and paid partly to Mr. Gilbert and partly to Mr. Alston, so that in this Instance, Mr. Gilbert hath received pay for the aforesaid one hundred and twenty and the last mentioned five thousand and Seventy-one rations at ten pence each, amounting to two hundred and Sixteen pounds five shillings and ten pence, which he had no right to charge and which should therefore be by him repaid into the Treasury of this State. That that part of the Report of the Committee at Hillsborough, in August last, respecting Mr. Morris, appears to have been occasioned by mistake and that it appears Mr. Gilbert hath paid Mr. Morris agreeable to the allowance made by the public. That part of said report respecting Mr. Gilbert certifying the probate of an account when he was not at that time in the Commission of the Peace appears to your Committee as reported by the Committee at Hillsboro.

Your Committee further Report, that it appears Colonel Graham gave Mr. Gilbert a receipt for Six Thousand seven Hundred Rations in full of Rations delivered by Mr. Gilbert to the officers and men in the service from the first to the 29th day of August, 1776, which Mr. Gilbert charged in his Account with the Public, and hath been paid for, and that the aforesaid Gilbert hath also charged the Public by four different receipts four Thousand one Hundred and fifty-two Rations for the aforesaid Troops and hath received satisfaction from the Public for the same, when in truth, as it appears to your Committee by the Dates of the Receipts, the same were included in Colo. Graham's General receipt, and therefore should not have been charged by Mr. Gilbert, which said four Thousand one Hundred and fifty-two rations, at 10 each amounting to one Hundred and Seventy three pounds, together with the aforesaid two Hundred and Sixteen pounds five Shillings and ten pence, amounting in the whole to three Hundred and eighty-nine pounds five Shillings and ten pence, hath been by Mr. Gilbert wrongfully and intentionally charged to the public.

The Committee also Report that it appears by the Oath of Captain Hardin that, at the time said Hardin gave the above mentioned receipt for rations, he told Mr. Gilbert that he had given Mr. Alston a receipt for the same, and that Mr. Alston had already received the money from the public. Notwithstanding which Mr. Gilbert hath again charged the said rations to the public, and hath received pay for the same as is before expressed.

And, lastly, your Committee Report that for want of the vouchers and owing to the great confusion and perplexity of the Accounts and papers they cannot at present make so full & satisfactory an investigation of the aforesaid accounts as they would otherwise have done.

All which is submitted.

The House taking the said Report into consideration, concurred therewith, and

Resolved, that on Mr. Gilbert's complying with the two first parts of the said Report, that he be indulged till next Session of General Assembly to make his defence, (to the last article thereof only).

Ordered that the above Report, &c., be sent to the Senate for their Concurrence, together with the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

We herewith send for your Concurrence the Report of the Committee appointed to re-examine the Accounts of William Gilbert, also a Resolve of this House thereon.

Thereupon, your Committee are of opinion that the said Regiment shall not be entitled to draw Cloathing.

Your Committee are further of opinion that His Excellency be empowered, at his Discretion, to Grant warrants to the purchasing Commissioners, appointed during the present Session, for so much Money exclusive of the Ten Thousand pounds to each Commissioner, according to a former Resolution, as may be necessary to discharge the Contracts which they have already entered into, and that he discharge such Commissioners from the Public Service.

Your Committee observe, that by a Resolution of Congress, Dated January 2, 1779, it is declared "That the whole Emission of Continental Currency of May 20, 1777, and April 11, 1778, shall be taken out of Circulation, and that the same shall be received for Debts and Taxes into the Continental Treasury, or into the Continental Loan Offices, either on loan or to be exchanged for other Bills of the like Tenor, until the first Day of June next, and shall not be redeemable after the said day; and as the good people of this State are possessed of many Continental Bills of the Emissions above mentioned, Your Committee recommend that the publick printer be directed to publish the aforesaid Resolution of Congress, and the members of the General Assembly also to notify the same to their Constituents, that those who have Continental Bills, of the aforesaid Emissions, may apply to the Manager of the Continental Loan office in due time.

Your Committee having lastly considered that part of the Letter from the Delegates of this State which relates to re-inlisting such Continental Soldiers of nine Months men now to the Northward, and belonging to this State, whose time of service has expired or is about to expire, beg leave to recommend that a Bounty of three Hundred Dollars per man be given to each Soldier who shall re-enlist for one year or more in the North Carolina Continental Service, and that the Continental Delegates be authorized to Act accordingly.

The House taking the said Report into Consideration, Concurred therewith.

Ordered that the above Resolve be sent to the Senate for their Concurrence, together with the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

We herewith send for your Concurrence the Report of the Committee appointed to Consider His Excellency the Governor's Letter, together with a Letter from the North Carolina Continental Delegates, &c., Concurred with by this House.

Received from the Senate the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

This House have received your Message appointing Mr. Hunt, Sole Auditor, &c., &c., and cannot Concur therewith, this House would wish to avoid giving the Public reasons to say "that instead of employing men adequate to the service of the State we endeavour to render offices suitable to the convenience of Individuals." We hope the Commons will consider the Resolution of this House appointing three Auditors, & adopt the same, otherwise the Senate consider this as a protest against the proceedings of the Commons, who, from partiality to an Individual, deny Justice to the Public.

As the most cautious attention should be paid to the prevention of every circumstance which may have a possible direct or indirect tendency to lessen the distinction which the Constitution of this State intends should be preserved betwixt the two branches of Legislation, and as an intercourse betwixt the Members of the two Houses, when the Houses are sitting, may have a tendency to lessen that independent unbiased freedom of Debate which each respective House ought surely to preserve;

Resolved, therefore, that it be recommended to the Members of the House of Commons not to intermix with the Members of the Senate while the latter are upon business, nor to be present in the Senate House at such time, unless by order of, and in the conducting of the business of this House. Any person who shall disobey this recommendation is to be considered as trespassing upon the privileges of the Senate.

That it will be necessary to appoint a Brigadier General for the District of Salisbury pro tempore, (as Brigadier General Rutherford is on service to the Southward) to take command of the Militia of that District.

That one Thousand of the Salisbury Militia be immediately imployed, that of this number three hundred shall be light Horse.

That seven hundred of the Militia be imployed from the District of Hillsborough, of which one Hundred shall be light Horse.

That two Hundred light Horse be immediately raised from the District of Halifax.

That one-fourth of the Militia of Wilmington be imployed, and one-fourth part of these to be light Horse.

That in case of not being able otherwise to obtain Horses, for the use of the light Horsemen, the officers, upon such deficiency, may apply to two Magistrates of the County, who are hereby impowered to issue a warrant of impress to such officer, who may execute it upon any person having Horse or Horses, which may be spared, without distressing him in making necessary subsistence for himself and Family.

Any Horse or Horses lent or impressed shall be valued by two Freeholders, one of which shall be nominated by the party and the other by the Magistrates, and such valuation shall be paid to the person or persons whose Horse or Horses are thus impressed or lent, provided such Horse or Horses shall be lost, die or be disabled in the service. And that the owner of such Horse or Horses said, and that a Certificate of his appointment, signed by the Speakers of both Houses, shall be his Commission and a sufficient warrant for his exercising the rights and assuming the Rank incident to the office, provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to hinder Brigadier General Butler, or any other Brigadier General, from taking the Command of the Forces raised on this occasion, in case the Governor should think proper to appoint him, or either of them, to the same.

The house taking the said Report into consideration, concurred therewith.

Ordered that the above Resolve be sent to the Senate, for their Concurrence, together with the following Message:
Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

We herewith send, for your Concurrence, the Report of the Committee appointed to consider and Report upon the Letters from the Frontiers, &c., Conurred with by this House.

Resolved, That it be recommended to the Governor immediately to dispatch a sum of Money to Brigadier General Locke, for the purposes of beginning the March of the Militia of Salisbury District and making the necessary preparations for the defence of the Frontiers of this State.

That he send such Money, under a good and sufficient Guard, thro' the Country, and that the Governor be empowered to Draw upon the Treasury for such further sums as shall be necessary to carry the plan of opposition to the Enemy into Execution.

That he issue a Commission of Brigadier General to Alexander Lillington, Esquire, for the District of Wilmington, and take the most effectual measures to prevent any impression being made in that quarter by the Enemies Ships, or by them with the concerted aid of the disaffected inhabitants of this State.

Resolved, that the Brigadier Generals of the Districts of Salisbury, Hillsborough, Halifax and Wilmington, appoint a Commissary, to supply the Troops now ordered into service, each for their respective districts, and that such Commissary apply to the Governor for his orders, as well as Money to make the necessary purchases.

Resolved, that the Governor be desired to issue to the Brigadier Generals of Hillsborough, Halifax and Wilmington, such sums of Money, and such orders, as may be necessary to expedite and make effectual the intended opposition to the Enemy.

Ordered that the above Resolves be sent to the Senate, for their Concurrence, together with the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

We herewith send, for your Concurrence, a Resolve of this House recommending to His Excellency the Governor to dispatch a sum of Money to Brigadier General Locke, for the purposes of beginning the March of the Militia, &c.

Resolved, that the Speakers of the Assembly write to the Governor of this State and transmit him the information this day obtained from Tryon County, and from other parts of the State.
relative to an Insurrection begun, and that they do also write to the Governor of Virginia, stating particularly the exigencies of this and the Southern States, and urging the progress of the Virginia Troops.

Ordered that the above Resolve be sent to the Senate, for their Concurrence, together with the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

We herewith send, for your Concurrence, a Resolve of this House requesting the Speakers of both Houses to send Expresses to Governor Caswell and the Governor of Virginia, for purposes therein mentioned.

Resolved, that it be recommended to His Excellency the Governor to send the British prisoners, now in Johnston County, to some place of safety, and where nothing is to be apprehended from their insidious attempts to disaffect the subjects of this State or to remove their Slaves.

Ordered that the above Resolve, together with the following Message, be sent to the Senate:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

We herewith send, for your Concurrence, a Resolve of this House recommending to his Excellency the Governor to move certain prisoners now in Johnston County.

Resolved, that the Commissary of Stores be directed to furnish two Hundred weight of Powder, and Lead in proportion, to Colo. John Whitaker, for the use of the light Horse to be raised in the District of Halifax.

Ordered that the above Resolve be sent to the Senate, for their Concurrence, together with the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

We herewith send, for your Concurrence, a Resolve of this House directing the Commissary of Stores to deliver Colonel John Whitaker a quantity of ammunition.

Resolved, that it be recommended to the justices of the Peace of the respective Counties to seize and secure, and even to place at a distance from their places of residence, all disaffected persons who, not satisfied with entertaining sentiments inimical to the Country, may be justly suspected of a disposition to carry those sentiments into execution, and that they may be empowered also to order the Sheriff, with a posse Comitatus, to disarm all persons from whom any injury to the publick safety is to be apprehended. That this shall not be executed but by a Warrant, signed by three Magistrates at least, upon due proof made, and the Colonels of the respective Regiments are directed to furnish every possible assistance to carry this into execution.

Ordered that the above Resolve be sent to the Senate, for their Concurrence, together with the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

We herewith send, for your Concurrence, a Resolve of this House empowering the Justices within the several Counties in this State to seize and secure disaffected persons, &c.

Resolved, that John Whitaker be appointed Colonel, and Robert Peebles, Major, of the two Hundred Light Horse directed to be raised in the District of Halifax, and that the Brigadier General of the District be directed to apportion the number two Hundred to the several Counties, and issue immediate orders for enlisting volunteers or making Drafts agreeable to the Militia Law, to the necessary amount from each County, and that he also ascertain how many Captains or other Inferior officers each County shall furnish for the Command of the said Light Horse, allowing one Captain, one Lieutenant and one Cornet to every thirty privates, and the Field officers in the respective Counties shall thereupon appoint the officers accordingly.

Resolved, that Absalom Tatum be appointed Major of one Hundred Light Horse, to be raised in the District of Hillsborough, and the following Persons Subalterns, to-wit:

Thomas Satterwhite, Captain.
Solomon Walker, Lieutenant, Granville.
John Taylor, Cornet.
Mark Patterson, Captain.
Nathan King, Lieutenant, Orange.
Joseph Barberry, Cornet.
Jeremiah Williamson, Captain.
David Michell, Lieutenant, Caswell.
John Rhodes, Cornet.
Resolved, that Benjamin Cleveland be appointed Colonel, William Shupperd Lieutenant Colonel, and Joseph Hardin Major, of the three Hundred Light Horse, to be raised in the District of Salisbury, and the following Persons Subalterns, to-wit:

David Wilson, Captain, Mecklenburg.
Thomas Harris, Captain.
Moses Grist, Captain, Wilkes.
John Horn, Captain, Surry.
William Hardin, Captain.
John Cruth, Captain, Tryon.
Francis Cunningham, Burke.

Resolved, that the Brigadier General in the District of Wilmington take such steps for the appointment of the officers necessary for the Command of the light Horse, to be raised therein, as to him shall appear proper and necessary.

Resolved, that Certificates of the appointment of the Colonels, Lieutenant Colonels and Majors of the light Horse, now voted for the service of this State, be signed by the Speakers of both Houses, which Certificates shall operate as Commissions, and shall invest the said officers with all the Rank and power, which they could or might have, under Commissions from His Excellency the Governor, and that the Brigadier Generals, in their respective Districts, grant Certificates of the appointment of the Inferior officers, which Certificates shall have the same operation as those signed by the two Speakers, in manner aforesaid.

Resolved, that the Brigadier General for the Districts of Hillsborough, Salisbury and Wilmington, apportion the light Horse, directed to be raised in the several Counties in those Districts, in the same manner as before Directed for the District of Halifax.

Resolved, that a Colonel of the light Horse shall be entitled to seven Dollars per Day; a Lieutenant Colonel and Major, Six Dollars per Day, and Forage and Shoes for their Horses, together with the same Rations which are allowed by Law to Militia officers of the same Denominations.

Ordered that the above Resolve be sent to the Senate, for their Concurrence, together with the following Message:
Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

We herewith send, for your Concurrence, a Resolve of this House, appointing officers to Command the Light Horse to be raised, &c.

Resolved, that Nicholas Long, Esquire, be directed to send to Virginia, immediately, for all the Fire Arms in that Commonwealth, which belong to this State, and that he have the same repaired as expeditiously as possible when they arrive, for the use of the Militia.

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

We herewith send, for your Concurrence, a Resolve of this House directing Colonel Nicholas Long to send to Virginia for Fire Arms, &c., belonging to this State.

Resolved, unanimously, that the following Message be sent to the Senate, in answer to their Message of yesterday, with respect to the appointment of an Auditor:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

This House observe, with extreme concern, that you have drawn private resentment into your Public Councils, and have deviated so far from the Dignity of Senators as to reject a measure of General Utility from ill grounded prejudices to an Individual.

Indecency of expression in private life is culpable, in public it becomes highly Criminal.

In the first, it wounds the feelings of Individuals and sullies the most benevolent intentions; but in the latter, in addition to these, it calls forth a warmth into the public deliberations which prevents that reciprocal condescension which produces mutual information and leads to measures of wisdom and General utility.

It had been happy for the Senate, if, in their enthusiastic spirit of reprehension, their zeal had not transplanted them beyond the bounds which Legislative bodies have heretofore prescribed as rules of practical procedure.

But it is with reformers in politics, as it is with those in religion, they despise knowledge that results from the experience of others and value themselves upon the powers of Invention.
STATE RECORDS.

A Body of the Legislature protesting in form against the proceedings of the other branch, is a doctrine hitherto unheard of, it must mark the genius of the present age, and the Senate of North Carolina will have the honor of the sagacious discovery. For a Member of the Assembly to protest against the proceedings of the House in which he sits is founded in the Strictest propriety and vindicated by our Constitution. It gives him an opportunity to exempt himself from the imputation of Measures which he disapproves and serves to discriminate him from the Majority with whom he must have been confounded by persons abroad, unless he availed himself of this mode to give them information of his real sentiments. But for a Senate to protest against the proceedings of the Commons, of which they were not a part, to avoid censure for a Conduct which it was impossible they should take a share in, to arraign an Independent branch of the Legislature because they dared to differ in opinion with them, has the Badge of novelty at least.

The appointment of Mr. Hunt was, in consequence of an experiment made of his capacity to perform the trust reposed in him, a preference that was in a measure justified by the opinion of Gentlemen whose competency the Commons would not have hesitated to pronounce decided, if the Senate had not indirectly called it in question.

How far the appointment of three is an improvement of the plan of the board of Auditors, let the public, to whom you have referred us, decide.

If that precise number has particular virtues the secret is with the Senate, reason in this case is against it; of the three the Senate nominated, one at least must have attended at a distance from his own home and be exposed to an expense for his subsistence that his allowance would not have supported. This is one of those trusts which does not require numbers to execute it; consistency of design and execution is certain where an Individual only is concerned in the arrangement of accounts, but where many are employed it leads to perplexity from the different practical modes which each is desirous to procure.

While you charge the Commons with fitting offices to men, and sacrificing the justice due their Country to a partiality to individuals, one cannot but admire the more enlarged benevolence of the Senate, which is not restrained to an individual but comprehends a larger scope of merit by making the public purse more extensively beneficial.

This House, with pleasure, bears testimony to the merit of the characters you have nominated, for it would give pungent distress to the Commons could they be suspected of depreciating private worth to defeat a public intention.

In this the Senate must pardon a small deviation from their Example. How far the Senate may think themselves vindicated in dispensing with an express article of the Constitution by appointing a Gentleman to a lucrative office who was in possession of one under the same denomination before, they can best explain, they may perhaps be able to reconcile it to themselves, but will hardly prevail upon the individual to contrast his own political feelings and to risk the loss of an established permanent office for one whose duration may much depend upon the opinion of those who originated his appointment.

The Commons regret that they have been drawn into this recrimination. To have been silent might have been construed as an acquiescence under your charge from a conviction of its truth. It might have induced the Senate to persist in this mode of protest from a belief of its regularity, and drawn into question their legislatorial abilities with men abroad who might not have charity enough to give them so large a credit upon the score of inadvertence and precipitation as their friend the Commons are disposed to give. Silence might have drawn them on to the further assumption of censorial powers which might have struck at the Independence of each respective body of legislation and infringed the pure principles of the Constitution.

To say more is unnecessary, to have said less might have betrayed an unpoltical inattention to a Message fraught with exalted patriotick zeal, and deprived the shining example of watchfulness for the public good of its proper panegyrick.

Mr. Speaker informed the House that he received a letter from Waightstill Avery, Esquire, State Attorney General, which was read as follows:

SMITHFIELD, 8th May, 1779.

HONORABLE SIR:

Request the favour of you to lay before the Senate my Resignation of the Office of Attorney General, and express my best Thanks & Gratitude to the public for that Honorable appointment, which my particular Circumstances do not admit me any longer to execute.

Your very Obed. Humble Serv.,

WAIGHTSTILL AVERY.

The Honble. Speaker of the Senate:

Whereas, the holding the General Assembly of this State, and the Offices incident thereto, at some certain fixed place, at or near the centre thereof, would save a considerable Expense to the public and tend much to the Ease and advantage of the Inhabitants in other Respects as well as for the preservation of the public Records,

Resolved, therefore, that two Commissioners from each District be appointed by the Present Assembly, to wit:

For the District of Salisbury, George Cathey and James Green Lee.

For the District of Hillsborough, Thomas Person and John Hogan.

For the District of Halifax, Benjamin Seawell and Willie Jones.

For the District of Edenton, Samuel Johnston and Robert Smith.

For the District of New Bern, James Coor and Thomas Gray.

For the District of Wilmington, Edward Starkey and William Hooper.

And that a majority of them view and fix upon some place in each of the Counties of Johnston, Wake & Chatham, for holding the General Assembly, the most commodious, convenient and agreeable to the persons who may be drawn thither by attendance on the public Business, and that they return a fair plan of each place with a Description of the natural advantages and report the same to the next Assembly.
Resolved also, that the above Commissioners, or a majority of them, meet at Chatham Court House on or about the twenty-fifth Day of September next, and that for their Services they receive five pounds each per Diem.

On motion, for passing the above Resolve, Mr. Respess moved that the Words "or any other place" be added after the Words "in the Counties of Johnston, Wake & Chatham," this being objected to, the Question was put and carried in the negative. Then, on motion of Mr. Respess, the yeas and nays were taken, as follows:

Ordered that the foregoing Resolve, together with the following Message, be sent to the House of Commons:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

Herewith you will receive a Resolve of this House, for your Concurrence, appointing Commissioners to fix upon a place in the Counties of Chatham, Johnston or Wake, the most convenient for holding the General Assembly at, and return plans thereof to the next General Assembly. The District of Edenton not being fully represented in this House, we expect you will appoint Commissioners for that District in your House.

This House have received the message of yours proposing to Ballot at 4 o'Clock this Evening for a Brigadier General for the District of Edenton, and Treasurers for the different Districts, to which we agree, and have, on our part, put in nomination for a Brigadier General, Isaac Gregory, John Pugh Williams & James Blount, Esquires; for a Treasurer for the District of Hillsborough, John Rand; for the District of Salisbury, David Nesbit and Mathew Lock; for the District of Halifax, Green Hill and Good-

We have appointed Mr. Person & Mr. Sam. Williams to superintend the Balloting.

Mr. Seawell, from the Committee who was appointed to superintend the Balloting, Reported that John Pugh Williams, Esquire, was Elected Brigadier General for the District of Edenton; William Skinner, Esquire, was Elected Treasurer for the District of Edenton; William Cathey, for the District of Salisbury; William Johnston, for the District of Hillsborough; Green Hill, for the District of Halifax; Richard Cogdell, for the District of New Bern; and John Ashe, for the District of Wilmington.

All which were chosen by a majority of the votes of both Houses.

Resolved, that William Skinner, Esquire, be appointed to adjust the accounts of this State, from the Commencement of the War to the close of this Session, with the Continental Congress, and that he be directed to observe the due distinctions between the charges proper to be made against the State for Expenses incurred for the sole benefit thereof from those which have been incurred by this State for the Benefit of the Continent at large, and that he regulate the vouchers upon which such charges are made; and, in every other matter relative thereto, pursue such plan as may best Conduce to obtain a full and Satisfactory View of such Accounts and do justice to this State.

Resolved, further, that the said William Skinner, Esquire, be allowed for those services the sum of five thousand pounds.

And Resolved, also, that the Resolution of this Assembly of the 11th Instant, appointing three Auditors, be Rescinded.

Ordered that the above Resolve, together with the following Message be sent to the House of Commons:

Received from His Excellency the Governor the following Message:

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina.

GENTLEMEN:

In answer to your Message of yesterday acquainting me that you had made choice of me as Governor of the State for the Current year, and requesting that I would qualify and proceed in the Execution of that important office.

I take the Liberty of informing you that it would have been much more agreeable to me to have returned to my own concerns in private life, which have suffered much by my having from the first of our Disputes with Great Britain Given up my whole time to the service of the Public, and altho' the General Assembly have heretofore made such allowances as might have been considered as Adequate to my services, yet the depreciation of Currency has been such as to render such allowances far short of the expenses incident to my appointment.

The appointment is, I know, important, and the manner in which I have received it very Honorable, yet I am morally Certain the General Assembly do not wish me to make so Great a sacrifice in prejudice to my Family, therefore, in order to prevent delay in the necessary Business, and in full confidence that a Reasonable allowance will be made me, or that my Resignation will be received, I have qualified to the appointment and shall proceed in the execution of the office.

R. CASWELL.

Ordered that the above Message from His Excellency the Governor, together with the following Message, be sent to the Senate:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

Herewith you will receive a Message from His Excellency the Governor, addressed to the General Assembly.

Received from His Excellency the Governor the following Message:

To the Honorable the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina:

Gentlemen:

The raging of the Small Pox in the Town of New Bern, having prevented your assembling there on the Time appointed by Law for the annual meeting of the General Assembly, and being, myself, of opinion that our public affairs required as speedy a meeting of the Legislature as might be practicable, but not having power to call the same to any other place, than that to which the same stood adjourned, I was induced to request your attendance at this place, not only for the purpose of making your Election of the public officers of the State, who are directed by the Constitution to be annually chosen, but also to take under consideration sundry weighty matters proper for your deliberation, such as the State of your Continental Battalions, the pay of our Militia which have been and now are in actual service, the sending a further aid to the assistance of the Southern States, and providing our Militia with Arms and accoutrements.

To show the necessity of your entering immediately upon the Consideration of these matters, I lay before you sundry Letters from the General Officers, and Governor of South Carolina, with other Papers containing information respecting the same, and I shall direct the public accounts to be also laid before you, by which, you will be acquainted with the exhausted state of the Treasury. You will also receive General Bryan's Resignation, whose place you will please supply by the appointment of such person as you shall think proper.

4th May, 1779.

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

We herewith send for your Concurrence a resolve of this House on the Petition of John Robinson, of Burke County.

At the same time received the resolve of the Commons referred to in the foregoing Message, which, being read, was Conceded with.

Ordered that the following Message be sent to the Commons:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

The resolve of your House in favor of John Robinson, of Burke County, you will herewith receive, Conceded with.
The Committee appointed to take under Consideration the Petition of Abner Nash, Esquire, to whom also was referred the petition of Thomas Burke, Esquire, Reported, by General Rutherford,

That, having Considered the Allegations in the said Petition, are of Opinion that the Confiscation Law will greatly injure the said Thomas Burke, unless prevented by the Legislature, as to his Contract with Andrew Miller, an absentee now residing with the Enemies of this and the United States, late Executor of the last Will and Testament of James Milnor, Esquire, Deceased, for certain Land mentioned in this Petition, the said Miller not having made Conveyances for the same, and recommend that an Act of Assembly be passed in the favour of the said Thomas Burke, to prevent the injury Complained and vest in him the Title of the same.

The House taking said Report into Consideration, Concurred therewith.

Ordered that the following Message be sent to the House of Commons:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

We herewith send for your Concurrence the report of the Committee appointed to consider the Petition of Thomas Burke, Esqr., Concurred with by this House.

Mr. Rand moved for Leave and presented a Bill for sending an Aid to the States of South Carolina & Georgia, which was read the first Time, passed and sent to the Commons.

Colo. Martin moved for Leave and presented the following Protest against passing the Bill for Dividing Anson County, and other purposes.

Dissentient.
Because, Each of the Counties to be formed by this Bill will not contain a regiment of One thousand, or at least Seven hundred and fifty Militia, the force necessary in every County for its Defence, the only standard for representation the Legislature can hold up, without greatly endangering the Liberties of Inhabitants of this State.

Because, This Bill is calculated to destroy that equal representation of the People, the best Security for equal and Constitutional Liberty, and will sanctify a Grievance which, thro the inattention of the Legislature, has already grown big with Consequences that will be fatal to the Legislative Power of this State.

Because, The County mentioned in the Bill, before the late Division thereof, not a year past, contained not more than fourteen Hundred Militia, will send nine Members to represent them in the General Assembly, when other Counties containing more than the same number are entitled only to three Representatives.

Because, population and not Territory constitute the power of the State, and this procedure of the House appears an open Trespass on and a direct Violation of the rights of the People & a wanton Surrender of the powers of Legislation transferring the same from a part of the people represented by three to a less number represented by nine, by which means, at some future period, a small Minority will give Law, and may entail Slavery on the Majority of the State.

* Because, Britain, whose late Constitution has been the boast of Ages and the Wonder of Nations, is become the Melancholy Example of the Depravity of a Government where the people are unequally represented, where the corrupt and venal representations of a small number of the Inhabitants in old deserted Villages are Legislators to the Counties, Shires and great Towns containing Millions, an evil that has plunged that Kingdom into those late destructive Measures that have already shaken it to its Center and will sooner or later bring its boasted power to the Ground, and when we are treading the same path let us look on the Fate of Britain as our own and Tremble for ourselves.

ALEX. MARTIN.

The House adjourned till to-morrow morning 9 o'Clock.

Ordered that the following Message be sent to the Senate:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

This House being now formed acquaint you that they are ready to proceed on business.

Received from the Senate the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

This House have also met and are ready to proceed on Public business, and propose the address herewith sent you be presented to His Excellency the Governor.

At the same time received the address referred to in the above Message, and the same being read was rejected.

Ordered that the following Message be addressed to His Excellency the Governor:

To His Excellency Richard Caswell, Esquire, Governor, Captain General, &c., &c.:

SIR:

The two Houses of the General Assembly being now formed acquaint your Excellency that they are ready to take under consideration such matters as are necessary to be laid before them which you may have received since the rising of the last Assembly.
Ordered that the above address to His Excellency the Governor be sent to the Senate for their Concurrence, together with the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

Herewith you will receive a Message addressed to His Excellency the Governor, which we propose instead of that which originated in the Senate, as we apprehend it to be more full.

The House adjourned till 4 o'Clock P. M.

The House met according to Adjournment.

Received from the Senate the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

We have received your Message proposing an address to His Excellency the Governor, instead of the one proposed by this House, to which we agree, and have appointed Mr. Hunt, on the part of this House, to wait on His Excellency with the same.

Ordered that Mr. Hawkins be appointed, on the part of this House, to wait on His Excellency the Governor with the above mentioned address, in Conjunction with Mr. Hunt.

Resolved, that Mr. McCrawley, Mr. Horn, Mr. Medlock, Mr. Jones, Mr. Jas. Campbell, Mr. Isaacs, Mr. Haywood, Mr. Person, Mr. Starkey, Mr. R. Abernathy, Mr. Norwood, Mr. Willis, Mr. J. Campbell, Mr. Peebles and Mr. Patterson, be a Committee of Privileges and Elections.

Received from the Senate the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

This House have, on their part, appointed Messrs. Coor, Hunt and Ramsey, a Committee of Public Accounts; and Messrs. Rutherford, Hogan, Rhodes, Shepperd, Cleveland, Frazier, Seawell and Owen, a Committee of Public Claims.

Ordered that the following Message be sent to the Senate:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

This House have received the Message of yours appointing Committees of Accounts and Claims, and have, on their part, appointed Mr. Phil. Hawkins, Mr. Smith, Mr. Gorham, Mr. Starkey, Mr. Bloodworth and Mr. Blackstock, as a Committee of Accounts; and Mr. J. Campbell, Mr. Brown, Mr. Tullock, Mr. Hinton, Mr. Harget, Mr. Bryan, Mr. Boyd, Mr. Spruill, Mr. Macon, Mr. Joseph Hawkins, Mr. Winslow and Mr. Medlock, as a Committee of Claims, to act jointly with the Gentlemen by you appointed for the purposes aforesaid.

Received from His Excellency the Governor the following Message:

To The Honorable the General Assembly:

Gentlemen:

Herewith you will receive sundry Resolutions of Congress, Letters from the President, and the Delegates of this State, with sundry other Public Letters and Papers, which I lay before you for your information and consideration.

You will also receive sundry Copies of the Journals of Congress, two Hundred proof sheets of the Continental Currency emitted in September, 1778; A Copy of the Laws passed in the State of New York in the years 1778 and 1779, a Copy of the Journal and proceedings of the Council of State since the last Session.

The several matters recommended to me by the Council have been carried into effect, so far as the same were practicable.

You will be pleased to observe that the appointment of Public Officers, by me made, in consequence of the advice of the Council since the last Session of the General Assembly, will end with the present Session; of course you will either continue those Officers, or supply their places by such appointments as you shall think proper. You will also observe among the papers laid before you, is a Letter from William Johnston, Esqr., declining to accept the office of Treasurer of the District of Hillsborough, that Letter came to hand so lately that I thought it most proper to defer the appointment till the meeting of the General Assembly.

In pursuance of a Resolution of the last Session I drew on Congress for Two Million and Five hundred Thousand Dollars, but have only received one Million of Dollars, part of which is Lodged in the Treasury & the remainder will be paid to the Treasurers on their arrival in Town. The motives which induced Congress to make only a partial payment you will find mentioned in the Delegates' letter of the fifteenth of July.

Mr. Sampson and Mr. Respass having declined Qualifying as Members of the Council of State, has rendered the attendance of the Gentlemen who have taken their Seats at that Board more burdensome, You will therefore be pleased to appoint two Gentlemen, in the room of Mr. Sampson and Mr. Respass, as soon as it may be convenient.

At the same time received the several Resolutions of Congress, Letters, &c., &c., referred to in the above Message.

Ordered that the same lie over until To-morrow Morning 9 o'Clock.

STATE RECORDS.

WEDNESDAY, 20th October, 1779.

The House met according to Adjournment.
The Sheriff of Dobbs County certified that William Caswell and Abraham Shepperd, Esqrs., were duly Elected as Members of the Commons House of Assembly, in the room & stead of Thomas Gray and Jesse Cobb, Esqrs., whose seats were vacated the last Session of this General Assembly.
Whereupon Abraham Shepperd, Esqr., appeared, was qualified and took his seat.
Mr. John Lutrell, one of the Members for Chatham County, and Mr. Thomas Younghusband, one of the Members for Currituck County, appeared and took their seats.
The House resumed the Consideration of the Letter from James Green, jun., Esqr., Treasurer of the Continental loan office, of the 7th Inst.; The Resolution of the General Assembly of the State of Virginia, and the Memorial of James Davis, Esquire, the public printer of this State; Whereupon,
Resolved, that they be referred to a joint Committee.
That Mr. Bloodworth, Mr. Person, Mr. Jones, Mr. Smith and Mr. Starkey, be a Committee, on the part of this House, for that purpose.
Ordered that the following Message be sent to the Senate:
Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:
We herewith send you a Letter from James Green, jun., Esqr.; a Resolution of the General Assembly of the State of Virginia, and the Memorial of James Davis, Esqr., which we propose referring to a joint Committee, and have, for that purpose, on our part, appointed Mr. Bloodworth, Mr. Person, Mr. Jones, Mr. Smith and Mr. Starkey, a Committee.
Resolved, that Richard Hays, of Bertie County, be exempted from the payment of Poll Taxes, he having been represented as a proper person to be exempted.
Ordered that the above Resolve be sent to the Senate, for their Concurrence, with the following Message:
Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:
We herewith send, for your Concurrence, a Resolve of this House exempting Richard Hays from the payment of Poll Taxes.
Received from the Senate the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

Herewith you will receive the Resolve of your House for disbanning the State Regiment, Concurred with.

At the same time received the Resolve of this House, referred to in the above Message, Concurred with.

Received from the Senate the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

This House have appointed Messrs. Salter and Respass a Committee, who will act jointly with such Gentlemen as the House of Commons may appoint, to examine and receive from General William Skinner the Accounts, &c., between this and the United States, as Adjusted by him.

Ordered that the following Message be sent to the Senate:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the Senate:

This House have appointed Mr. Jones, Mr. Person, Mr. Smith, Mr. Starkey, Mr. Hawkins and Mr. Johnston, as a Committee, on their part, to act jointly with the Committee appointed of the Senate, to examine and receive of General Skinner the Accounts, &c., between this and the United States.

This House have received information that the North Carolina Brigade of Continental Troops is on their March to the Southward.

Resolved, that the Speaker of the Senate and Commons write a Letter to the Continental Congress requesting that the March of that Brigade be countermanded, as the necessity which induced this State to ask their return no longer subsists, and that they also write to the Commanding Officer of the Brigade requesting him to halt his Men until the result of such application to the Congress be known, and that the express be directed to call upon the Commanding officer of the Brigade on his way to Congress.

Mr. Haywood objected against the House entering into the above Resolve, urging that it was more than probable they might be under the necessity of Drafting some of the Militia of this State to March to the Southward, which might be prevented, was not the March of the said Brigade Countermand. The question was put, and carried in the affirmative, 38 to 19. Then, on motion of Mr. Haywood, Ordered that the Yeas and Nays be taken down on the said Question, which are as follows:

Yea:
Messrs. R. Smith. Montfort.

Isaacs. Clarke.
Baker. Humphreys.
Grandy. Willis.
J. Gillespie. S. Miller.
J. Johnston. Wynns.
Shepperd. Luttrell.—38.

Nay: Macon. Haywood.
Starkey. P. Hawkins.
Clinton. D. Gillespie.
Person. Tullock.
Sherrod. Arnold.
Shepperd. Phifer.
Wilson.—19.

Mr. Haywood, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, Reported as follows:

Your Committee, to whom was referred the Petition of Mr. William Blount, beg leave to report: That upon examination of Depositions, produced by said Blount & Mr. Richard Spaight, they find that an election was held at New Bern on the 25th and 26th days of June, last, for Electing a Member to represent the said Town of New Bern in General Assembly, that the Poll was opened about 10 o’Clock in the forenoon, that the Tickets were received and put into a Tin Cannister without a Top, and that the said Cannister at neither of the adjournments was sealed. That a certain David Thompson, a Soldier in the State Regiment, and a certain Richard O’Dowdy, offered their Tickets, which were refused by the Sheriff; the Ticket of the former, because he was a Soldier, and that of the latter, because he had removed from New Bern to avoid the Small Pox.

Your Committee further beg leave to report that it appears, by the Confession of the said Blount & Spaight, that many persons voted who had no right to do so.

Upon the whole, your Committee are of opinion that the Election was illegal and ought to be set aside.

All which is Humbly submitted.

W. Haywood, Chairman.

The Gentlemen being present, Mr. Speaker gave the thanks of the House as follows:

Mr. Hill, Mr. Burke:

GENTLEMEN:—

In all human probability, that day is not at a great distance which will give to these United States, peace and happiness, and Independence amongst the first powers of the Earth, and acknowledged even by the haughty Empire of Britain itself. This event, brought about in the midst of manifold difficulties and dangers, is to be ascribed, under Heaven, to the wisdom of our Councils in the Grand Congress of America; in those, Gentlemen, you have borne an important share, and with unremitting diligence have watched over the general interest of the State at large, as well as of the grateful Thousands who this day, through me, unite to honor you, their Fellow Citizens, with their acknowledgements.
And I do, in obedience to the Commands of the House of Commons of this State, in their name and in behalf of them and those whom they represent, give you their thanks for the integrity, wis-don and perseverance with which you have discharged the sacred trust reposed in you.

It is with singular pleasure that I acquit myself of this order of the House, in which my wishes warmly conspire with my duty to bear Testimony to such distinguished worth.

To which Mr. Burke returned the following Answer:

MR. SPEAKER:—

Conscious, only, of having discharged the trust reposed in us with fidelity, but with abilities far unequal to its Importance, we arrogate not, to ourselves, superior merit; and we cannot but consider this distinguished and unlooked for Testimonial of our Country's approbation, as flowing from the generous gratitude of this honorable and virtuous House, and not as due to citizens, who, tho' they exerted their Talents to the utmost, could do no more than their Duty. Happy in being the citizens of a free State, and in being thought by our Country worthy of a Trust so sacred and important as that with which we were invested, we should have been content with the reflection, that we had used our best endeavours for perfecting the great and generous purpose of our common Country, the rooting out of Tyranny and planting in its room the palm of Freedom, under whose shade the present race and nations yet unborn might enjoy the blessings of equal Liberty. But this Honourable proof, of the approbation of our Country, fills us with an honest and most pleasing Triumph, we hope entirely unmixed with self-weening arrogance.

We congratulate you, Sir, and thro' you our Country, on the glorious prospects that are opening fast upon us, and which we hope will be secured by the still requisite Efforts of the States in Co-operation with Congress.

Permit us, Sir, to offer our most grateful acknowledgements to you, for the singular honor you have done us by the polite and respectful manner in which you have discharged that part of your high office which related to us, and in which you have communicated to us the thanks of this honorable house, to whom we are unable to express our gratitude.

WHITMELL HILL.

THOMAS BURKE.

Received from the Senate the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

This House have received the Message of yours, proposing that the General Assembly proceed to ballot for the public officers therein mentioned, and agree thereto, and put in nomination for Councillors of State, Thomas Gray and Furnifold Green, Esquires, and for the other officers, the same persons nominated by the Commons.

Received from the Senate the following Message:

Mr. Speaker & Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

We herewith send you the Report of the joint Committee appointed to take under consideration the Petition of Abner Nash, Esqr., to whom was referred the Petition of Thomas Person, Esquire, Concluded with by this House.

Ordered that the following Message be sent to the Senate:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Senate:

We herewith return the Report of the joint Committee on the Petition of Thomas Person, Esqr., concurred with by this House.

Mr. Howard, according to order, presented the following protest against the Bill for carrying into effect the Confiscation Act, &c., viz.:

Reasons assigned for protesting against the Bill entitled a Bill for carrying the Confiscation Act into Effect:

1st. Because the Treason Bill, passed at New Bern, in April, 1777, declares that Merchants, &c., refusing to take the oath of allegiance shall depart out of the State and provides that all persons so departing shall and may dispose of their property agreeable to the directions of the said act, and shall not return on pain of Death. Whereas, the present Act, after reciting the preamble of the Confiscation Act, declares that the property of all persons who come within the meaning of said Act shall be seized by the Commissioners, and yet includes among the names therein inserted all persons who went out under the Treason Bill aforesaid without any reference to the said Treason Bill, and altho' it is expressly declared by the Confiscation Bill, passed at New Bern, as aforesaid, that such persons as departed from the Country, under compulsive authority of the Treason Bill, should not be construed to come within the said Confiscation Bill. Thus this part of the present Act condemns all the property of the persons above referred to which they were possessed of on the fourth day of July, 1776, even altho' disposed of bona fide agreeable to the Treason Act, and condemns the said property for this Reason, that the said persons did not appear and submit to the General Assembly, whether they should be received as Citizens, and have the possessions which to them formerly belonged restored, when at the same time it is evident by the Treason Act that if they did appear they must suffer Death. And yet, the fourteenth section of the present Act declares that sales bona fide made agreeable to the Treason Bill, shall not be void. Thus the first Section of the present Act expressly contradicts the Confiscation Act passed at New Bern, as aforesaid, and the Treason Bill, which are both in force, and the said first Clause is again expressly contradicted by the fourteenth Section of this Act above referred to, so that we humbly conceive the aforesaid first Section to be fraught with the highest Injustice (which happily however cannot be carried into Execution) inasmuch as it Tends to make void Titles bona fide obtained agreeable to the Treason Bill; and that it also involves such a Complication of Blunders and betrays such ignorance in Legislation as would disgrace a Set of Drovers.

2nd. Because by the Act passed at Halifax, for carrying the Confiscation Act into Effect, provision was made for such unfortunate and Innocent Wives and Children resident in the State, who had been abandoned by their Fathers or Husbands, and also for aged parents in particular Cases. Whereas, the present Act destroys that provision without suggestion of Blame or misconduct on the part of the Objects of it, seizes all their property or nearly all to the use of the State, directs immediate Sale thereof, and leaves the unhappy sufferers to precarious Dependence on the Charity of a future Assembly. That we may not draw down upon our Heads the Curses of the unfortunate, helpless, innocent sufferers above referred to, we declare that we war not against such aged parents or against Women & Children, more especially being, as in this Case, our fellow Subjects, and in this public manner testify our Disapprobation.

3rd. In mere modesty and Humility, and that no merit may be imputed to us as Members of the House of Commons on Account of the bright Display of Wisdom, Virtue and Humanity exhibited by the General Assembly in this masterly performance, we enter this our protest.
