An Act to amend the Laws making provision for Widows.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in addition to the provision for the year's support of the Widows and family of persons dying intestate, already made by law, the Widow of every person dying intestate, shall be entitled to retain in her possession, one bed and its necessary furniture, and all the bed clothing of family domestic manufacture, all the kitchen furniture, and also the loom, bureau, wheel and cards, of the goods and chattels of her deceased husband, which shall be her absolute property, and shall be exempted from all claims, either of the administrator or of the creditors of said intestate.

In addition to the year's support, Widows of persons dying intestate to retain certain articles of furniture, &c.

II. Be it further enacted, That the Widow of any person deceased, who shall leave a last will, may, at the same Court at which said will shall be proved, file in said Court a release of all claim to any legacy or share of the personal property of her husband under his will ; and the said widow shall then be entitled to the same support for herself and family, for one year, as she would have been entitled to had her husband died intestate, to be laid off and allotted under the rules and proceedings prescribed in cases of petition of widows of persons dying intestate ; and also to one bed and its necessary furniture, all the bed clothing of family domestic manufacture, all the kitchen furniture, and also the loom, together with the bureau, the wheel and cards, if these articles be among the goods and chattels of the deceased ; and if the said articles, or any of them, shall have been sold, the widow shall be entitled to the value of the articles thus sold, to be assessed by the commissioners appointed to lay off the year's support, which said provision shall be her absolute property, and shall be exempt from all claims, either of the executor or creditors of said testator.

A. D. 1823.

Where there is a will a widow may file a release of her claim, & have the same allowance as Widows of persons dying intestate.

III. Be it further enacted. That whenever a widow of a deceased person shall file her petition for her year's support, or for the articles allowed her by this act, and the same shall be granted, it shall not be lawful to tax any costs against such petitioner, unless the court shall be of opinion that the value of such year's support, together with that of the articles allowed by this act, exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars.

Except the allowance exceeds $250, no costs to be taxed.

CHAPTER IV.

An Act securing to the Widows of Intestates the surplus of the personal estate of their deceased husbands where no kindred claim the same.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That if any citizen of this State shall die intestate, leaving a widow and no kindred that are known to exist, the widow may, at the expiration of three years from the grant of administration on the estate of her husband, file her petition in the Superior Court of Law of the county in which administration was granted, against the administrator of her husband, stating the facts of the case, and that there are no persons of kindred to her knowledge, and praying that the surplus of said estate, after debts and charges paid, may be adjudged to her, which petition shall be sworn or affirmed to by said widow, and copies thereof shall be served upon the administrator, as in other cases of petition ; and the same

Widow of a person dying intestate, may after 3 years, file her petition.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the President and Directors, or a majority of them, shall, on behalf of the Corporation, have power and authority to agree with any person or persons for constructing or improving the road from Asheville, by the Warm Springs, to the Tennessee line, or any part thereof, and shall obtain from the Board for Internal Improvements such information and advice, as will enable them to accomplish, in the most effectual and least expensive mode, the objects of this act, and to make all such contracts touching the same as may be fit and expedient. And the said President and Directors may also appoint a Treasurer from among the Stockholders, but not of their own body, who shall give bond and security for the faithful discharge of his duty, and duly accounting for all monies which come to his hands as Treasurer ; and he shall be allowed such compensation as the President and Directors think him entitled to, not exceeding three per centum upon the disbursements ; and no officer of the Company shall have a vote in the passing or settlement of his own accounts. The said President and Directors may also appoint a Clerk and such Managers and servants as they deem necessary : and when the road is completed, a toll-gatherer, all, or any of whom, as well as the Treasurer, they may remove at pleasure. And every President and Director, before he acts as such, shall take an oath or affirmation for the due performance of his duty.

V. And be it further enacted, That no general meeting shall be lawfully constituted, unless a majority of the shares is represented by the proprietors present ; and from and after the first general meeting, the succeeding ones shall be held on the first Monday in October, annually, in the town of Asheville ; at which time and place there shall be annually an election of President and Directors ; but if a sufficient number do not attend, the proprietors present may adjourn the meeting from day to day until the business of the Company is finished ; and to every annual meeting it shall be the duty of the President and Directors to make a distinct return and report of all their proceedings and accounts, which shall be carefully examined by the meeting, and if found just and accurate, shall receive a vote of approval; and the like course shall be pursued in relation to the Treasurer's accounts; and at every annual meeting, an equal dividend of all the nett profits arising from the tolls hereinafter granted, shall be ordered and made to the proprietors of the said Company, in proportion to their several shares, after leaving in the hands of the Treasurer such sums as the meeting may think necessary to answer contingent charges: Provided always, that under no circumstances shall a greater dividend be made than twelve and a half per centum on the amount of stock; and if at any time the profits exceed that sum, the surplus shall be applied to the further improvement of the road, or a diminution of the tolls may be made, as the President and Directors shall think most expedient; and for the more effectually enforcing the provision, it shall be the duty of the President and Directors to make a return annually to the General Assembly of the amount of tolls received.

Time at which dividends shall be made.

Nodividend to exceed 12½ per cent.

An annual return to be made to the General Assembly.

VI. And be it further enacted, That as a compensation to the said Stockholders for the trouble they will bestow on the said undertaking, and the expences they will disburse in constructing and keeping the said road in repair, and erecting toll-gates and other necessary works, the profits of the said road vested are in them, their executors and assigns, as tenants in common, for the term of twenty-five years, to be computed from the time of giving the notice prescribed in the seventh section of this act, in proportion to their respective shares, and the same shall be exempt from the payment of any tax whatsoever. And it shall and may be lawful for the President and Directors during the said term, to demand and receive at some convenient toll-gates, to be by them erected, the following tolls, viz: on every four-wheeled carriage of pleasure, one dollar and fifty cents; on every gig or sulky, seventy-five cents; on every seven horse road waggon, one dollar and seventy-five cents; on every six horse ditto, one dollar and fifty cents; on every five horse ditto, one dollar and twenty-five cents; on every four, three, or two ditto, one dollar; on every pedlar's cart, one dollar; on every road cart, fifty cents; on each horse without a rider, five cents; on every head of beef cattle, four cents; and hogs and sheep, two cents each; on every animal designed for exhibition, one dollar; travellers on horses, twelve and a half cents each. And if any person or persons shall refuse to pay the tolls, at the time of offering to pass the places designated for

No toll-gate to be erected within seven miles of Asheville.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Turnpike Road hereby authorised, shall be made by the President and Directors thirty feet in width, clear of obstructions, except in such places as shall require the whole width to be made by side-cutting, where it shall be twenty feet wide, and where it may be necessary to carry it around precipitous promontories it shall be ten feet wide, clear of all drains and breastworks. The inclinations of the said road shall not exceed from one foot perpendicular to ten feet horizontal, and recourse shall be had to this steepness as seldom as it shall be possible to avoid it. And so soon as the said road shall be completed as aforesaid, the President and Directors shall give public notice thereof.

The width of the road, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said road, with the improvements which shall be made thereon in pursuance of this act, shall be forever thereafter taken and considered as a public highway, free for the passage of all persons and animals and carriages of every description, on the payment of the tolls imposed by this act; and no higher toll or tax whatever for the use of the said road, shall at any time hereafter be imposed, without the consent of the Legislature, except in the manner directed in the sixth section of this act.

The road to be a public highway.

And whereas in tracing the line of said road, it may be necessary that certain portions of land shall be condemned for its completion.

IX. Be it further enacted, That the President and Directors may agree with the owners of any land over which the said road is intended to pass, for the purchase thereof; and in case of disagreement, or if the owner shall be feme covert, under age, non compos, or out of the State, on application to any two Justices of the county in which such lands lie, the Justices shall issue their warrant to the Sheriff of the said county to summon a Jury of eighteen freeholders to meet on the land to be valued, on a day expressed in the said warrant, not less than ten nor more than twenty days thereafter, and the Sheriff, on the receipt of the warrant, shall summon the Jury, and when met, shall administer an oath or affirmation to each of them, provided twelve or more appear, viz: that he will impartially value the land in question, and consider all damages the owner thereof may sustain in consequence of being divested of his property therein, and that he will not in his valuation spare any person through favour, nor injure any one through malice or hatred. And the inquisition so taken, shall be signed by the Sheriff and twelve or more Jurors, and returned to the Clerk of the County to be recorded. And in all such cases, the Jury is hereby directed to describe the land valued, and their valuation shall be conclusive. And the President and Directors shall pay the sum to the owner of the land valued, or his legal representatives; and if neither can be found in the State, or if found, should refuse to receive the money, then to the Clerk of the County Court; and on payment thereof, the said corporation shall be seised in fee of the land valued, as fully and absolutely, as if it had been conveyed to them by the owner, but no such condemnation shall extend to dwelling-houses.

A. D. 1823.

X. And be it further enacted, That the President and Directors may agree with the proprietor or proprietors for any quantity of land, not exceeding four acres, at or near each place intended for collecting the tolls aforesaid, for the purpose of erecting necessary buildings; and in case of disagreement on any of the disabilities aforesaid, or the owner or owners being out of the State, the same proceeding may be had, and the same conveyances shall follow, as are described in the preceding clause.

May purchase land at or near the places where toll-gates are erected.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every Stockholder may transfer his or her share or shares, by deed executed before two witnesses and registered, after proof of the execution in the Company's book, and not otherwise, except by will, which shall also be exhibited to the President and Directors, and registered before the person claiming under the will shall be entitled to draw any part of the profits from the said tolls: Provided, that no transfer shall be made except for one or more whole share or shares, and not for part of such shares, and that no share or shares shall, at any time be sold, conveyed, transferred, or held in trust for the use and benefit, or in the name of another, whereby the said President and Directors, or Stockholders, Members of the said

Shares to be transferable.

A. D. 1823. Company, or any of them, shall or may be challenged or made to answer any such trust; but that every such person appearing as aforesaid to be a proprietor, shall, as to others of the said Company, be to every intent taken absolutely as such; but between any trustee and the person for whose benefit such trust shall be created, the common remedy may be pursued.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the corporation hereby authorised and created shall exist until the full end and term of twenty-five years, to be computed from the time of giving the notice prescribed in the seventh section of this act.

The corporation to exist for 25 years.

CHAPTER XXII.

An Act to amend an Act, entitled "An Act to extend and improve the two roads leading from Wilkesborough to the Tennessee line," so far as respects the appointment of Commissioners, and for other purposes.

Commissioners.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Montfort Stokes, Hugh Brown, William Miller, James Wellborn and William Horton, be, and they are hereby appointed Commissioners, to lay off that part of the road leading from Wilkesborough to John Lipp's, the best and most convenient way, having due regard to private property and the public good, and shall assess, on oath, all damages sustained by individuals. And the road when so laid off, shall be cleared out in the manner directed by the aforesaid Commissioners, or a majority of them.

Surplus money appropriated for Horton's Turnpike, to be paid over to the Commissioners for this road.

II. And be it further enacted, That all sums of money heretofore appropriated to the opening of Horton's Turnpike Road, by the way of the Deep Gap, now due, or in the hands of the Commissioners appointed by the acts of one thousand eight hundred and twenty and one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, and not laid out or expended on the road from Lipp's to the Tennessee line, on the top of the Stone Mountain, or otherwise, shall be paid over to the Commissioners, or a majority of them, before named; and by them to be applied to improving such parts of the road as they may deem proper, between Wilkesborough and John Lipp's. And the said Commissioners shall duly account to the Board of Internal Improvement in what manner they have expended the money aforesaid.

Damages how to be paid.

III. And be it further enacted, That in all cases, a majority of the Commissioners by this act appointed, be competent; and all damages assessed by them to individuals, shall be paid out of the county funds not otherwise appropriated. A. D. 1823.

IV. And be it further enacted, That as the Commissioners by this act appointed, shall let out to the lowest bidder, such parts of said road as they, or a majority of them, may think most advisable, then the said Commissioners shall appoint such number of overseers and hands to work on and clear out said road, in the manner by them directed: Provided, that they shall not compel hands to work on said road who live more than three miles from the same: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect or repeal any act of the last General Assembly, so far as it respects the great State Road leading from Wilkesborough to the Tennessee line, by the way of the town of Jefferson. The road to be let out to the lowest bidder.

V. And be it further enacted, That all laws coming within the purview of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed; and that this act shall be in force from and after the ratification thereof. This act not to affect the act of last session, in relation to the road from Wilkesboro' to the Tennessee line.

CHAPTER XXIII.

An Act to repair and improve the road leading from Huntsville, in Surry county, to the Virginia line, by the way of Gap Civil, in Ashe county.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That Elijah Thompson, of Surry county, John Holloway, sen'r. of Wilkes county, and George Bower, of Ashe county, be, and they are hereby appointed Commissioners to view and point out such improvements and repairs on the road leading from Huntsville, in Surry county, over the Blue Ridge, by the way of Gap Civil, to the Virginia line (either where it now runs, or where a majority of said Commissioners may think most advantageous to the public interest) where it intersects with the road leading from Saltville, in Washington, Virginia, by the mouth of Wilson's Creek. Commissioners.

II. And be it further enacted, That said Commissioners shall cause three fair plats of said road to be made, one of which shall be transmitted to the Board of Internal Improvements, and the others to be filed, one in the office of the Clerk of Ashe county, and the other in the office of the Clerk of Surry county, which plats shall represent the mountains and water courses over which the said road shall pass, the distance from one remarkable place to another, and also the whole distance from the commencement to the end of said road. Three plats of the road to be made.

Commissioners to contract for said road.

III. And be it further enacted. That after having made out the plats as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to contract for cutting out, repairing, cleaning and improving said road, in such a way, and on such terms and conditions, as they, or a majority of them, shall deem most expedient and advantageous to the public interest, and speedy completion of said road; and when the said road shall be so repaired, improved, and placed in good order, it shall be deemed and remain a public highway, and shall be kept in repair as other public roads and highways in this State.

To transmit their contracts, &c. to the Board of Internal improvements.

IV. And be it further enacted. That it shall be the duty of the said Commissioners to transmit to the Board of Internal Improvements, at their next annual meeting, all the contracts, vouchers and accounts, which they may have made in order to carry the provisions of this act into effect.

The expense of making this road to be paid out of the funds set apart for Internal Improvements.

V. And be it further enacted. That all the expenses incurred in laying out, repairing and improving said road, in the manner directed by this act, shall be paid out of the funds set apart for Internal Improvements, whenever a sufficient sum shall become due and paid into the Treasury: Provided, that the said expenses do not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars.

A. D. 1828. of the same, That it shall be the duty of the several Courts of Equity in this State, to direct the trial of such issues as to the Court may appear necessary, according to the rules and practice in Chancery in such cases, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

This act to be in force from its ratification.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this act shall be in force from and after the ratification of the same.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

An Act to amend an Act passed at the last session of the General Assembly, entitled "An Act supplemental to an Act passed at the present General Assembly, entitled an Act for the division of Rowan county."

Preamble.

Whereas it appears to the present General Assembly, that the provisions of the above recited act in regard to the location of the Court-House of Davidson county, are not agreeable to the wishes of the freemen of said county:

Part of the 2nd section of former act repealed.

Be it therefore enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That so much of the second section of the above recited act as requires or authorises the erection of the Court-House and Jail of Davidson county, upon the site fixed by the Commissioners in the said section named, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Purchasers of lots of the Commissioners may retain or release them to the Chairman of the Court.

II. Be it further enacted, That the persons holding lots purchased of the Commissioners aforesaid, may, at their option, retain the same, or may release all their title under the said purchase to the Chairman of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Davidson county, and his successors in office, for the use of said county; and it shall be the duty of the said Court, if such release shall be executed, to repay to such persons their purchase money, if the same has been paid; or otherwise to cancel and return the bonds of the purchasers.

The land may be re-conveyed to the person from whom it was purchased, or otherwise disposed of by the County Court.

III. Be it further enacted, That the whole of the land purchased by the Commissioners aforesaid, or that part thereof which may remain unsold, or may be re-vested in the Chairman of said Court, as aforesaid, shall be re-conveyed to the person from whom the same was purchased, upon his return of the consideration money paid to him; if such person shall so desire; but if such person decline to receive a re-conveyance, and repay the consideration, such land shall be disposed of as the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Davidson county may direct, for the use of said county.

IV. Be it further enacted, That the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Davidson county, at any session of said Court, a majority of the Justices of said county being present, shall appoint three Commissioners, who shall have power to purchase a tract of land, not less than twenty-five acres, within a price limited by said Court, a majority of Justices being present, adjoining the town of Lexington, on the North-East side thereof, taking for the same a deed to the Chairman of the Court, and his successors in office, for the use of the said county. The said Commissioners shall also lay off the said land into lots and streets, reserving and designating one lot for the Court-House, and one lot for the Jail, upon which lots respectively, the Court-House and Jail of Davidson county shall be built. The residue of said lots, shall be sold for the use of the county of Davidson, at such times, and by such Commissioners, and be conveyed by the Chairman of the said Court, in such manner, as the said Court, a majority of the Justices being present, shall direct: and it shall be the duty of the said Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, to cause the purchase-money of the said tract of land, to be duly paid agreeable to the contract of their Commissioners.

A. D. 1823.

The County Court to appoint Commissioners to purchase a tract of land adjoining the town of Lexington, on which to erect the public buildings, &c.

V. Be it further enacted, That the lots and streets so laid off, are hereby annexed to, and made a part of the town of Lexington: Provided, that nothing in this act contained, is intended in any way to affect the dividing line heretofore established between Rowan and Davidson.

The land thus purchased & laid off to make a part of the town of Lexington.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

An Act to repeal part of the tenth section of an Act of the General Assembly, passed in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That so much of the tenth section of an act passed in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, as gives to the wardens of any county of this State, to the use of the poor of said county, all tar, pitch, or turpentine, that may be condemned in said county, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

The section repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said inspectors to deliver to the said owner or seller, upon demand, the said tar, pitch or turpentine, so condemned, for his own proper use and benefit.

Inspectors to deliver condemned tar, &c. to its owner.

III. And be it further enacted, That all laws and clauses of laws, which come within the meaning and purview of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Repeal of former interfering acts.

A. D. 1823.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

An Act to amend the Militia Laws of this State, relative to the Cavalry.

Preamble.

Whereas there is at this time a greater number of Cavalry Officers in this State, than is in proper proportion to the number of privates enrolled, which greatly tends to the injury of the militia service; and whereas much of the time of the Legislature is taken up in the election of such officers: for remedy whereof,

The commissions of all officers of Cavalry who have not enrolled 32 dragoons exclusive of non-commissioned officers, are declared void.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That all commissioned officers of Cavalry, who shall not, within eighteen months from the passing of this act, have enrolled in their respective troops or companies, at least thirty-two dragoons, well armed and equipped, exclusive of non-commissioned officers, their commissions are hereby declared void; and it shall be the duty of captains of infantry, in whose company district they respectively reside, to cause them, as well as their men, to be enrolled in the same manner as though they had never been commissioned; and that no person shall hereafter be commissioned in any troop of Cavalry, until they shall have enrolled the number of dragoons aforesaid, well armed and equipped.

And the officers and men are to be enrolled in the Infantry companies.

No Field officers to be commissioned in any brigade until it be ascertained that there are 4 troops of Cavalry in said brigade.

II. And be it further enacted, That no person shall hereafter be commissioned in any brigade in this State, as field officer of Cavalry, until the Brigadier-General of such brigade shall have certified to the Adjutant-General of the State, that there are at least four troops of Cavalry in said brigade, and it shall be the duty of the Adjutant-General thereupon to report the same to the succeeding Legislature.

Colonels of Cavalry to make returns to the Brigadier-General.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall hereafter be the duty of the Colonel of each and every regiment of Cavalry in this State, to make their respective returns to the Brigadier General of the brigade to which such Colonel of Cavalry may belong.

Former interfering acts repealed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all laws and clauses of laws coming within the purview and meaning of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

An Act to repeal in part the fourth section of an Act passed by the General Assembly in the year one thousand eight hundred and six, entitled "An Act to revise the Militia Laws of this State, relative to the Artillery Companies of Light Infantry, Grenadiers and Riflemen."

Part of former act repealed.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That so much of the above recited act, as A. D. 1825, increases the fines on Artillery Companies, is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER XL.

An Act to explain the second section of an Act passed in the year eighteen hundred and six, entitled "An Act to revise the Militia Laws of this State, relative to the Infantry."

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That so much of the before recited act, as relates to the exemption of public millers, shall not be construed so as to exempt more than one free white person subject to do military duty, whose occupation and daily employment it is to attend and perform the duty of a public miller; any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

One free whit person at a mill only to be exempted from military duty

CHAPTER XLI.

An Act to amend and explain the sixth section of an Act, passed in 1814, entitled "An Act for the more perfect organization of the Militia of this State."

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, it shall not be lawful for any captain or other militia officer in this State, to enrol any free person of colour, except for musicians; any other law or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

No person of colour to be hereafter enrolled in the militia except as a musician.

CHAPTER XLII.

An Act to authorise the distribution of the Militia Laws of this State.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Adjutant-General of this State shall cause the Militia Laws now in force, to be compiled and printed in pamphlet form, and distributed, one copy to each general and field officer, and one copy to each captain of a company within this State, at the same time that the acts of the General Assembly are distributed.

Adjutant-General to compile and have printed and distributed to the officers, the Militia Laws now in force.

An Act to authorise the building of a Toll Bridge over Roanoke River at the town of Halifax, and to incorporate a Company for that purpose.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That Joseph John Daniel, Andrew Joiner, William B. Lockhart, David Clark, and James Exum, or any three of them, be, and they are hereby appointed Commissioners for receiving subscriptions to the amount of thirty thousand dollars, for the purpose of building a Bridge over Roanoke river at the town of Halifax; and the said Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall prepare books and cause the same to be opened, at such places and under the direction of themselves, or such persons as they may appoint, on or before the first day of March next, and they shall continue open until the first day of July next, unless the said capital sum shall be subscribed before that time, at which time, the said books shall be returned to the Commissioners aforesaid, in the town of Halifax, and at the same time there shall be a general meeting of the said subscribers personally, or by proxy, which meeting may continue from day to day, until the business thereof be finished: and if it shall appear, that ten thousand dollars, or more, of the capital stock, shall have been subscribed, the said subscribers, their heirs or assigns, from the time of the said first meeting, shall be, and they are hereby declared to be incorporated into a company, by and under the name and style of the "Halifax Toll Bridge Company," and may sue and be sued as such, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended, and have succession for and during the period herein after limited, and a common seal. And such of the said subscribers as may be present at the said meeting, or a majority of them, are hereby empowered and directed, to elect a President and four Directors, for conducting the business and concerns of the said company for one year, and until the next meeting of the stockholders. Every proprietor of stock, by writing under his or her hand, executed before some Justice of the Peace, may depute any other stockholder to vote for him or her at any general meeting; and the votes and acts of such proxy shall be as effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if the proprietor himself was personally present at the doing thereof.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the aforesaid sum of thirty thousand dollars shall not be subscribed, on or before the said first day of July next, the said Commissioners, if directed by a majority of the subscribers at their general meeting, shall again open books of subscription, and keep the same open until the first day of December thereafter, or until the aforesaid sum of thirty thousand dollars shall be subscribed as aforesaid; and if more than the capital stock hereby authorised shall be subscribed, the Commissioners shall strike off from the said subscription, until the capital shall be reduced to thirty thousand dollars; and in striking off subscriptions, they shall begin and strike off a share from the largest subscriptions in the first instance, and continue to strike off one share from all subscriptions under the largest and above one share, until the same shall be reduced to the capital aforesaid.

III. Be it further enacted, That the capital sum aforesaid, shall be divided into shares of fifty dollars each, and any person may subscribe for one or more shares, but not for a part of a share. The shares shall be paid for at such times and places, and by such instalments, as the President and Directors of said company shall direct; they first advertising the sum to be paid in each instalment, in the State Gazette, for at least twenty days; and if any person or persons holding any share or shares in said company shall fail to pay for the same, in the manner and at the time prescribed by the President and Directors aforesaid, the said President and Directors may enforce the collection thereof by legal process, or they may expose to public sale the share or shares which such person may hold in the said company, by giving ten days public notice thereof; and if the said shares shall not sell for a sum sufficient to pay the instalments due thereon, the sum deficient may be recovered of the person or persons who own the said stock, and the books of said company shall be good evidence of such sale and of the purchase of such shares.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said President and Directors shall have power to build a gate or gates on the said Bridge to be erected as aforesaid, and to ask, demand and receive from persons passing over said Bridge, the following Toll, to-wit, for four-wheeled carriages of pleasure, seventy-five cents; for wagons, sixty cents; for two-wheeled carriages of pleasure, twenty-five cents; for carts, twenty cents; for a horse and man, ten cents; single horses, five cents; cattle per head, three cents; hogs and sheep, two cents; and foot passengers, five cents.

V. And be it further enacted, That the said President and Directors are hereby bound to keep the said Bridge in good and sufficient repair, under the penalty prescribed by law in cases of Roads and Bridges.

VI. And be it further enacted. That the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Northampton county, upon the petition of the said President and Directors, shall order the Sheriff of said county to summon a jury or juries of good and lawful men to lay off a road from the foot of said Bridge, to some convenient place of intersection with the road leading to Northampton court-house, and to assess such damages as the owner or owners of the land through which the said road shall be laid off, may sustain thereby, to be paid by the said corporation; and upon its appearing to the satisfaction of the County Court of Northampton, that the said road is a good and sufficient one and in good repair, the same shall thenceforth become a public road. Provided, That the road so to be condemned and laid out shall lead in the straightest convenient direction, on the bank of the river, to the road leading from Halifax to Northampton court-house. And provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to exclude the jurisdiction of the County Court of Northampton over the said road as now established by law.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after the ratification thereof.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the corporation hereby created shall terminate and be at an end at the expiration of thirty-six years to be computed from the passage of this act.

IX. Be it further enacted. That the President and Directors of said Bridge, shall annually, at the first court to be holden in Northampton county, after the first day of January in every year, return upon oath to the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Northampton county, an account of the proceeds of the Tolls of said Bridge, during the preceding year, and after defraying the expenses and charges of said year; and if the nett proceeds of said Toll, shall exceed fifteen per centum of the capital stock of said company, said President and Directors shall pay the excess over fifteen per centum to the County Trustees of Northampton and Halifax counties, to be applied to the use of said counties in equal moieties. Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prevent said President and Directors from reducing their rates of Toll as they think proper.

CHAPTER LIV.

An Act to authorise Daniel Dougherty, of Lenoir county, to erect a Bridge across Neuse river.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for Daniel Dougherty to erect a bridge across Neuse river, either on his own account, or with such persons as he may associate with him, at his ferry in Lenoir county, or within one mile thereof, and when the said bridge shall be completed, it shall be lawful for the proprietor or proprietors of said bridge to erect a toll-gate thereon, or on some part of the road leading thereto: Provided, that one arch of said bridge covering the deepest water in the river, shall be at least thirty-five feet wide.

II. And be it further enacted, That the rates of toll shall be as follows: on all waggons for passing said bridge, sixty cents each; all four-wheeled carriages of pleasure, fifty cents; all two-wheeled carriages of pleasure, twenty-five cents; on a man and horse, five cents; on every loose horse, five cents; on every foot passenger, five cents; on every head of cattle, two cents; and on hogs and sheep, one cent each.

III. And be it further enacted, That when the said bridge is erected, the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Lenoir county, upon petition of said Dougherty, or his assigns and associates, shall order the Sheriff of said county to summon a jury of good and lawful men to lay off a road from the foot of said bridge to some convenient place of intersection with the road leading from Kinston to Newbern, and should the said road be laid off through the lands of any other person than the proprietor or proprietors of said bridge, to assess such damages as the owner or owners of said land may sustain thereby, to be paid by the proprietor or proprietors of said bridge; and upon its appearing to the satisfaction of the County Court of Lenoir, that the said road is a good and sufficient one, and in good repair, the same shall thereafter become a public road.

IV. And be it further enacted, That when the said bridge shall be built as aforesaid, the proprietors thereof, for the time being, shall keep the same in good and sufficient repair, under the like penalties as other keepers of public bridges by the laws of this state.

CHAPTER LV.

An Act authorising the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Rowan County to lay a tax and appoint Commissioners to build a Bridge across the South Yadkin River.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That for the purpose of erecting a bridge for the convenience of the good people of Rowan county, over the South Yadkin river, the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of said County, a majority of the Justices being present, is hereby authorised to levy a tax on the lands and polls of said county, not exceeding fifteen cents on the hundred dollars worth of real estate, nor sixty cents on the poll, which tax shall be collected and accounted for in like manner as other county taxes.

II. Be it further enacted, That the Court aforesaid, shall appoint five Commissioners, who after examining the banks of the river, and the ground over which the road must pass, shall fix upon the site for placing said bridge, and shall contract with some person for the construction of the same, taking sufficient bonds for the faithful execution thereof.

III. And be it further enacted, That the County Court aforesaid, shall order the Sheriff to summon a Jury of twelve freeholders, to view and lay out the road, leading to the bridge on both sides of the river, and to assess and report to the Court the damages that may be done to the lands through which said road passed, which damages shall be paid to the person so injured, out of the funds of the county; and the road or roads thus laid out, are hereby established public highways of the county. Also, that the County Court of Rowan shall appoint overseers and assign hands for opening and keeping in repair the roads established as aforesaid.

CHAPTER LVI.

An Act to extend the time within which Commissioners were authorised to receive subscriptions to build a Toll-Bridge over Dan River, in the county of Caswell, near Milton, and to continue in force an Act passed at the last session of the General Assembly, incorporating a Company for that purpose.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That the Commissioners, or a majority of those mentioned in the aforesaid act, be, and they are hereby authorised, to continue open books for receiving subscriptions for the purpose mentioned in said act, for two years from and after the passing of this act, unless the capital stock authorised shall be subscribed before that time; and when the said capital stock shall be subscribed, the subscription shall be returned to the Commissioners in Milton; at which time and place, due novice being given thereof, there shall be a general meeting of the stockholders, either personally or by proxy: and the said meeting shall have full power to do and perform all matters and things which stockholders are authorised to do by the aforesaid act.

II. And be it further enacted, That the act of the last General Assembly, authorising the building of a toll-bridge over Dan river in the county of Caswell, near Milton, and to incorporate a company for that purpose, be, and the same is hereby continued in force for two years after the passing of this act, and that this act shall be in force from and after the ratification thereof.

CHAPTER LVII.

An Act to remove obstructions in Pungo Creek, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of the county court of Beaufort county, on application to them made, to appoint three commissioners, freeholders in said county, and who shall have power to clear and remove all obstructions in said creek as high up as Boyd's Mills, and afterwards to keep the same free from obstructions.

II. And be it further enacted, That no person shall cast any net or seine across more than two-thirds of the channel at deep water in said creek; and it shall be the duty of said commissioners, if any seines be established on said creek, to lay off and stake two-thirds of the channel thereof; and no person shall cast any net or seine beyond said stake.

III. And be it further enacted, That any person violating any of the provisions of this act, shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by an action of debt by any person suing for the same, before any jurisdiction having cognizance thereof, one-half to the person suing for the same, the other half to the use of the county.

CHAPTER LVIII.

An Act for improving the navigation of Crane's Creek, in Cumberland County.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the inhabitants residing near Crane's creek, are hereby authorised to make navigable the said creek, as far up the same as the Moore county line; and that this act shall be in force from and after the ratification thereof.

CHAPTER LIX.

An Act to keep open Goose Creek in Craven County.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall not be lawful for any person, either by falling trees, or by any other means whatever, to obstruct the free navigation of Goose creek in Craven county, either by boats or rafts, from Gaion's mill to Neuse river.

II. Be it further enacted, That any person offending against this act, shall be subject to a penalty of fifty dollars, one half to the use of the person suing for the same, the other half to the use of the poor of Craven county, and shall be further liable to indictment, and on conviction, to punishment by fine and imprisonment, as in other cases of misdemeanor. Any slave offending against this act, shall be subject to punishment, on conviction before a justice of the peace, not exceeding thirty-nine lashes.

CHAPTER LX.

An Act to prevent any person or persons from falling timber into the Tennessee River, or Sugartown fork thereof, within the county of Haywood.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That if any person or persons shall hereafter fall any timber within the county of Haywood, into the Tennessee river, or the Sugartown fork thereof, or on the banks of either river, and suffer the same to remain for the space of five days, so as to be subject to be washed away by high water, such person or persons so offending, shall forfeit and pay a fine of five dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered by and in the name of any person who may sue for the same, before any jurisdiction having cognizance thereof, one-half to the use of the person suing, and the other half to the use of the county; any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER LXI.

An Act to amend an act, passed in the year 1817, entitled "An act for the better protection of the health of the inhabitants of the town of Smithville and its vicinity, in Brunswick county."

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That when any vessel shall come in over the main bar, destined for the port of Wilmington, and shall not come to anchor within two miles of Smithville, in Brunswick county, such vessel shall not be subject to pay the health-officer boarding-fees, neither shall it be the duty of the said health-officer to board said vessel in his official capacity, unless said vessel shall come to anchor within two miles as aforesaid.

II. And be it further enacted, That the certificate of the health-officer at Smithville, shall not be a sufficient permit for said vessel to proceed to the port of Wilmington.

CHAPTER LXII.

An Act concerning the duty of ferry-men across the Albemarle Sound and its waters.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of every person authorised to keep a ferry across

Albemarle Sound, or any stream emptying into said sound, if applied to when their boats shall be on the side of the said sound or stream opposite to that on which their ferries are established, to transport persons, carts, carriages and other effects, across the said sound or streams, and to demand and receive the compensation which is or shall be fixed for ferriages from said side of such sound or stream.

CHAPTER LXIII.

An Act to regulate Seine Fisheries on Blount's Creek, in Beaufort County.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the justices of the court of pleas and quater sessions of Beaufort county, at the first term of said court after the first day of January next, and at any term of said court thereafter when they may deem it necessary, be, and they are hereby authorised and required to appoint five commissioners, and from time to time to fill such vacancies as may happen by the death, refusal to act or removal of any one or more of them. And it shall be the duty of said commissioners, or a majority of them, so appointed, to proceed without delay, to lay off Blount's creek, in said county, in such manner as to leave one-third part of the main channel thereof open for the free passage of fish, and to designate the same by stakes or other proper marks; and from time to time to renew, or see that the same are properly kept up: And being so staked and laid out by said commissioners, or a majority of them, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, in hawling for fish, to extend or hawl their seine or seines beyond the bounds and limits thus designated, or in any other manner obstruct the same, or to pull down or destroy the stakes, or other marks, set up by the commissioners, as before directed. And any person or persons violating the provisions or prohibitions of this act, shall, upon due conviction thereof, before any jurisdiction having cognizance of the same, forfeit and pay one hundred dollars for each offence, to the use of any person suing for the same. And the owner, and all other persons using or having the direction of such seine or seines, shall severally be subject to the penalty hereby imposed.

II. And be it further enacted. That an act passed in the year one thousand eight hundred and eight, entitled "An act to regulate the seine fisheries on Blount's creek in Beaufort county," be, and the same is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER LXIV.

An Act to regulate the Seine Fisheries on Tranter's Creek.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the county court of Beaufort, at the first term happening after the first day of January next, and at any succeeding term, be, and is hereby directed to appoint five commissioners (three of whom shall be sublicient to act) whose duty it shall be to proceed without delay to stake off Tranter's creek, in said county, leaving one-third of the main channel for the free passage of fish up the same; and when it is staked out by the commissioners, no person in hawling for fish, shall extend their seines beyond the bounds reserved for the free passage of fish as aforesaid, or otherwise obstruct the same, under the penalty of one hundred dollars, to be recovered before any jurisdiction having cognizance thereof; and the sum so recovered, shall be solely applied to the use of the person suing for the same.

II. And be it further enacted, That the county court of Beaufort, at any term, be, and is hereby directed to appoint commissioners to fill vacancies that may happen by death, resignation, or refusal to act.

III. And be it further enacted, That an act passed in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-one, to prevent obstructions to the passage of fish up Tranter's creek, be, and the same is hereby repealed and made void; any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER LXV.

An Act to amend the fourth section of an act, passed at the last General Assembly, supplemental to an act passed at the present General Assembly, entitled "An act for the division of Rowan county."

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That a majority of the justices of the county court of Davidson, shall have power to lay a tax of not less than twenty-five cents, nor more than seventy-five cents on each and every black and white poll; and of not less than eight, nor more than twelve cents on every hundred dollars value of lands and lots in their said county; to be appropriated to the erection of a court-house and jail for said county, and other public uses. And the tax so laid, shall be collected and accounted for by the sheriff of said county, under the same rules and regulations as sheriffs are subject to in the collections of public taxes.

II. Be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after the passing thereof.

CHAPTER LXVI.

An Act to authorise and direct the Sheriff of Davidson County to pay over the taxes collected for the Public Buildings, to the Commissioners of Public Buildings in said County.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the sheriff of Davidson county is hereby required and directed to pay over to the commissioners of the public buildings in said county, all monies which now are, or may hereafter come into his hands, designed for defraying the expences of said public buildings, in the same manner as sheriffs are now required by law to account for and settle with treasurers of public buildings; and the receipt of the said commissioners shall be as good and available to the said sheriff, as the receipt of the treasurer of public buildings could be.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said commissioners of public buildings, shall collect all monies arising from the sale of the public lots in the town of Lexington, and apply the same to the erection of said public buildings in said county, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER LXVII.

An Act to authorise the erection of the Public Buildings of Washington county, at Plymouth.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Thomas B. Haughton, Thomas Walker, George Nichols, Josiah Flower, Horace Ely, John Peck, and Thomas Cox, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners; and they, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to procure a lot or lots in the town of Plymouth, for the purpose of erecting thereon a Court-house and Jail, the deeds for which shall be made to the chairman of the court, to hold to him and his successors in office, for the use of the county of Washington.

II. Be it further enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power to receive donations and subscriptions from any person or persons for the purchase of said lot or lots, and for the erection of said buildings; and shall be, and are hereby authorised, to sue for and collect all sums of money or other property subscribed or promised to be paid for said purpose; and said commissioners shall proceed to erect the said Court-house and Jail, and to complete the same on said lot or lots.

III. Be it further enacted, That the commissioners aforesaid, are hereby authorised to sell the public buildings of Washington county, at Lee's Mills, and to apply the proceeds in aid of other funds to be raised as aforesaid, for erecting the public buildings at Plymouth, (which shall be of no less dimensions than those now standing at Lee's Mills) or the said commissioners may remove the whole, or any part of said buildings, to Plymouth, in aid of those designed to be constructed by virtue of this act.

IV. Be it further enacted, That whenever the commissioners aforesaid shall propose to sell or remove the present county buildings, in aid of those intended to be constructed and erected in Plymouth, they shall provide some suitable house in said town for the use of the courts of said county, and shall give notice thereof to the sheriff and clerks of the courts of said county, and it shall be the duty of the sheriff at the next superior and county courts following said notice, to adjourn said courts to Plymouth agreeably to the notice given him; and it shall be the duty of clerks of courts of said county, to make all process thereafter issued, returnable in conformity with the adjournment of such sheriff.

V. Be it further enacted, That if the commissioners of Plymouth code to the chairman of the court, for the use of said county, the jail at present existing in said town, then and in that case, the commissioners herein named, shall be authorised to enlarge it, so as to make it in all respects a lawful jail, and upon the completion thereof, the same shall be held and deemed the public jail of said county: Provided however, that nothing in this act contained, shall be so construed as to authorise the justices of the courts of pleas and quarter sessions of said county of Washington to lay any tax or taxes upon the people of said county, for the purpose of purchasing lots, or for the erection of the public buildings, to be erected in the town of Plymouth.

VI. Be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after the passage thereof.

CHAPTER LXVIII.

An act to amend an act, passed in the year 1795, entitled "An act for appointing Commissioners to fix on a proper place in the county of Wilkes, and to erect thereon a Court-house, Prison and Stocks."

Whereas by virtue of the provisions of the before recited act, the court-house was erected on the public square in the town of Wilkesborough, though entirely off the main street, and the same being now decayed and unfit to hold the courts of said county in, therefore

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That James Wellborn, Hamilton Brown, James Hackett, Horace B. Satterwhite, and Walter R. Lenoir, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners to fix on a proper place within the public square aforesaid, whereon to erect a new court-house for said county, and they are authorised and empowered to contract with some suitable person for building the same, of such materials, upon such construction, and of such dimensions, as the said commissioners, or a majority of them, may direct. And when the same shall be finished, the public papers and records of the county shall be kept therein.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, are hereby authorised and empowered to lay off into convenient lots, such part of the public square in the town of Wilkesborough, as they may think advisable, and to sell the said lots at public auction; the proceeds of which sale, shall be applied towards the expenses of building the court-house as aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted, That when the new court-house is completed and received by said commissioners, they are hereby authorised to sell the old court-house, and apply the money arising from such sale towards the expenses of the new one.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the law authorising the payment of jurors in the several courts of Wilkes county, be, and the same is hereby suspended, until a sufficient sum be raised to complete the building of said court-house.

V. Be it further enacted, That in addition to the tax laid for the payment of jurors, which is now hereby set apart for building a new court-house, the justices of the county court of Wilkes aforesaid, be, and they are hereby directed and required, to lay a tax of not exceeding two and one-half cents on every hundred dollars value of land, a tax of two and a half cents on every hundred dollars value of town property, a tax of two and a half cents on every hundred dollars value of goods, wares and merchandize sold, according to the revenue law now in force, and a tax of not exceeding six and a quarter cents on every poll in the said county of Wilkes; which said taxes shall be levied, collected and accounted for by the sheriff of said county, in like manner, as other county taxes: Provided, that the monies arising from said taxes shall be paid over by said sheriff to the treasurer of public buildings, and by him to be applied towards the building said new court-house, according to the directions of the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them.

VI. And provided further, That nothing in this act contained, shall be so construed as to affect the tax already laid by said court for the purpose of paying jurors.

CHAPTER LXIX.

An act to amend and continue in force an act, passed in the year 1820, entitled "An act appointing commissioners for fixing upon a suitable place for the public buildings in Hyde county, and for other purpose."

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the above recited act shall be and continue in full force and effect, for the full end and term of two years, from and after the passage of this act; and that the said commissioners shall have power to sell the former court-house and jail, and the public square upon which they are situated, at such time as they think proper, or to appropriate the same to such purposes of public utility and benefit, as to them may seem proper.

II. And be it further enacted, That William Watson and Wilmoughby Higson be, and they are hereby added to the commissioners in the above recited act, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER LXX.

An act for the more convenient administration of justice in the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the county of Rockingham.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the justices of the court of pleas and quarter sessions of the county of Rockingham, a majority being present, are hereby authorised and empowered, if they shall deem the same expedient, at the term of said court in the month of May next, and annually thereafter, to elect from among themselves a number of suitable persons, not less than five, to hold the several terms of the said court, and discharge the duties thereof.

II. Be it further enacted. That the said persons chosen, as aforesaid, shall be competent to do and perform any matter or thing, and exercise all the authority and power, which by the existing laws of the state seven justices are authorised to do; and they shall, in all cases be governed by the same rules, regulations and restrictions as govern other county courts in this state: and the said county court, at the time of appointing the persons aforesaid, shall, if they think the same expedient, provide for the payment of the persons so appointed, for their services, not exceeding the sum of two dollars each for every day they may be employed in the discharge of the duties aforesaid, which service shall be certified by the clerk of said court.

III. Be it further enacted. That for discharging the compensation authorised by this act, if any, the justices of the said court are hereby authorised to lay a tax on the taxable property of the said county, or on each suit commenced in said court, and prosecution, where the defendant shall be convicted, sufficient to defray the expences accruing under this act: and the said tax, where so levied and collected, shall be accounted for by the officers of the court, in the same manner, and under the same penalties, as other county taxes are by law collected and accounted for.

CHAPTER LXXI.

An Act prescribing the manner in which the Sheriff of Buncombe county shall pay over the tax laid for building a Court-house in said county

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the sheriff of Buncombe county be, and he is hereby authorised and directed, by directions of the commissioners appointed to superintend the building of a court-house, to pay over to John Woodfin, contractor for building a court-house in said county, all such taxes laid, or which may be laid for the building said court-house, as he may hereafter collect: and the receipt of the said John Woodfin, shall be a sufficient voucher to the said sheriff in the settlement of his accounts with the county court; any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER LXXII.

An Act concerning the Sheriff of Cumberland County and the special Justices of the town of Fayetteville.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That any sheriff hereafter elected in and for said county of Cumberland, shall enter into bond with two or more good and sufficient securities, in a sum not less than ten thousand or more than twenty thousand dollars, at the discretion of said Court, payable to the Governor and his successors in office, conditioned and of the form as prescribed in and by the act of Assembly of 1777, chapter 118, section 1st: and further, that in addition to the other bonds by such sheriff to be given, according to, and by virtue of the laws now in force in this regard, he shall enter into and execute a bond in such sum and with such securities, as such court in their discretion may dictate and prescribe, payable to the chairman of said court and his successors in office, conditioned for his duly collecting, accounting for and paying over to the treasurer of public buildings of said county, all such monies as he may or ought to have collected, for and on account of any tax by said court laid and ordered to be levied and collected for defraying the expenses in erecting or repairing any or all the public buildings in said county; all which bonds, mentioned or alluded to in this act, shall be executed previous to such sheriff entering on the execution of his office.

II. Be it further enacted, That the county trustee, wardens of the poor and treasurer of the public buildings of said county, shall annually call on the sheriff of said county, for the payment of all monies that may be in his hands, due to them respectively; and if such sheriff shall fail to account for and pay the same, then it shall be the duty of said officers respectively, at the first or any subsequent term of the court held for said county, in each and every year, to move for judgment against such sheriff and his securities so failing to settle and pay over, (ten days notice being previously given to such sheriff) and any or all his securities, by such trustee, wardens of the poor, or treasurer of public buildings, or by the committee of finance, or by the county attorney under direction of the court, and the court shall, thereupon, award judgment and immediate execution against such sheriff and such of his securities as shall have been noticed as aforesaid, for the full amount of the tax list furnished said sheriff, or for such part as shall appear to be due respectively to either or all of them, the said county trustee, wardens of the poor or treasurer of public buildings. And any sheriff against whom and his securities judgment is so obtained, shall, over and above his arrearages, forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars, to be included in said judgment, and applied to the use of the county. And if any county trustee, wardens of the poor or treasurer of public buildings of said county, shall fail to comply with the requisitions of this act, he or they, respectively, shall not only be liable for the monies such delinquent sheriff may then have in his hands, or thereafter have in his possession, but shall be subject to the penalty of one hundred dollars, to be recovered by suit in any court of record, one half to the informer and the other half to the use of said county.

III. Be it further enacted, That on any civil warrant tried by or before any of the special magistrates for the town of Fayetteville, that now or may hereafter be elected, when the sum sought to be recovered does not amount to the costs thereon to accrue in such case, judgment shall only be for as much costs as the fees of the constable shall amount to. And provided, that in no state case brought before any of the said special justices, shall the prosecutor be liable or charged with or pay any costs; any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. Be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force and operation from and after the passing of the same.

CHAPTER LXXIII.

An Act to repeal an act passed in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, entitled "An Act directing the time and place of selling lands and slaves under execution," so far as relates to certain counties therein named.

CHAPTER LXXV.

An Act to amend an act, entitled "An Act directing the time and place of sales of land and slaves under execution."

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That from and after the ratification of this act, all sales of land situated in that part of Rowan county, called the Forks of the Yadkin, shall be made at Mocksville, on the Fridays preceding the Mondays prescribed by the before recited act, as the days of sale in Rowan county: Provided, that the Sheriff, if he believes that the price of the property will thereby be enhanced, may postpone the sale to the court-house, to be made on the days now prescribed by law.

CHAPTER LXXVI.

An Act to authorise the County Court of Robeson to appoint a Committee of Finance.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of the justices of the peace for the county of Robeson, at the first court which shall be holden for said county after the first day of January next, and annually at the first court which shall be holden for said county after the first day of January in each and every year, seven justices being present, if they deem it expedient, to appoint three persons in said county of skill and probity, to act as a committee of finance, whose duty it shall be to examine all the records, papers and documents in the offices of the clerks of the superior and county courts, clerk and master in equity, sheriffs, county trustee, and all officers or commissioners who have heretofore held money belonging to the said county of Robeson; and the said committee are hereby authorised and empowered to call on each and every of the officers and commissioners aforesaid to lay before them the records, documents and papers respectively, as aforesaid, for their inspection.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said committee of finance to make a full investigation of all the financial concerns of the said county, from the beginning of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, up to the end of the present, and to the end of each succeeding year, for which the said committee was appointed; and shall return to the said court, a full, fair and perfect statement thereof, designating therein all balances or monies due by the county to individuals, as well as those due by delinquents to the county.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said county court of Robeson shall direct the said committee to be paid such sum for their services as the said court may deem just: Provided, the said sum does not exceed two dollars per day for each person named therein, every day the said committee are necessarily employed in making said settlement: Provided also, that seven justices be on the bench when said allowance may be made, which shall be paid out of the county funds.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if the said clerks, sheriffs, county trustees or other officers, supposed to hold county monies, fail, neglect or refuse to come forward and duly account for the same, the committee of finance shall give such officer ten days previous notice in writing, specifying the time and place at which they will attend for the purpose of making such settlement; and every officer receiving such notice as aforesaid, and failing to attend and make such settlement as is required by this act, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered before any jurisdiction having cognizance thereof; which said suit shall be brought in the name of the chairman of the court, and prosecuted at the expence of the county.

V. And be it further enacted, That the committee appointed by this act shall have power to send for persons and papers, in order to enable them to make a thorough examination and settlement with the officers aforesaid; and every person thus notified, failing to attend either personally or with such documents and papers as may be in their possession, at the time and place designated by the said committee, shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered before any jurisdiction having cognizance thereof, in the name of the chairman of the court for the use of the county: Provided nevertheless, that no person shall be subject to the fine aforesaid who shall appear at the first court of pleas and quarter sessions held thereafter, and render, on oath, a satisfactory excuse for so failing, to be judged of by the said court, And provided further, that no suit shall be instituted for the recovery of the penalty aforesaid, until one term of said county court shall have intervened.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every person appointed by the authority of this act, a member of the committee of finance aforesaid, shall, previous to his entering upon the duties of his appointment, take the following oath: "I A. B. do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that I will faithfully discharge the duties imposed on me by law, as a member of the committee of finance for the county of Robeson, in all business that may come before me, without doing injustice to the county or to individuals, to the best of my skill and ability; so help me God."

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the committee of finance appointed under the authority of this act, to institute suits for the recovery of all monies that may be due the county from any of the officers aforesaid, whose accounts they may examine as aforesaid; which said suits shall be brought in the name of the chairman of the court, and prosecuted at the expence of the county.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each committee of finance appointed under the direction of this act, to make out two fair statements of each settlement by them made by virtue of their appointment, one of which shall be filed with the clerk of the county court, and the other to be kept by the committee for their own use.

CHAPTER LXXVII.

An Act to authorise the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Washington and Johnston counties, to appoint a Committee of Finance.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the wardens of the poor for the county of Rutherford, or a majority of them, as soon as they may deem it necessary after the passage of this act, to make application to the court of pleas and quarter sessions of said county, and the said court is hereby authorised and empowered, if deemed necessary, by a majority of the justices, to lay a tax, not exceeding ten cents on every poll, five cent on every hundred dollars worth of land and town property, to be collected and accounted for as other taxes, with the wardens of said county; which taxes, when collected, shall be paid into the hands of the wardens aforesaid, who are required immediately thereafter, to lay out the same to the best advantage in procuring a piece of land, by purchase or otherwise, within five miles of the town of Rutherfordton, and to build or cause to be built thereon, a house or houses for the reception of the poor of said county, under which denomination shall be comprehended all such persons of either sex, as shall be adjudged by the wardens incapable, from old age or infirmities, to procure subsistence for themselves; and the said wardens shall appoint a keeper or overseer of said poor, whose business it shall be to preserve good order, see that they are humanely treated and provided with suitable diet, clothing and fuel, and to enforce all such regulations as may be established, from time to time, for the well ordering and governing the said poor, which regulations said wardens are hereby empowered to make.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for said county court to renew the imposition of said taxes, from year to year, if necessary, either to complete said building or buildings, or for defraying the expenses that may be occasioned by keeping up the same; and the said overseer, for his services, shall be allowed for each year, such sum or sums as the wardens may deem adequate for his services, to be paid out of the tax laid for that purpose.

III. Be it further enacted, That the overseer or manager of the poor in said county, is hereby required to keep at moderate labour all such of the poor under his care, as he shall judge capable of labour; and at the end of each and every year, shall account to the wardens of said county, on oath, for all such sum or sums which may have arisen from the labour of said poor, and have the same deducted from the amount of their expences; any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER XCI.

An act to repeal an act, passed in the year 1819, entitled "An act authorising the wardens of the poor of Wake, Craven and Jones counties, to lay such tax as may be necessary for the support of the poor of said counties," so far as respects Craven county.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That so much of the above recited act as concerns the county of Craven, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER XCII.

An act concerning the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Moore and Sampson counties.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passage of this act, there shall be held for the said counties of Moore and Sampson, in each and every year, two courts only, of pleas and quarter sessions for the purpose of trying and determining such causes as may require the intervention of a jury, which said courts shall be held on the same days and at the same time they are now held in the months of February and August; and that all causes now depending in said courts, or which may hereafter be brought, shall stand adjourned over from the courts held in the month of February, to the courts held in the month of August, and from the courts held in the month of August to the courts held in the month of February, in the same manner, and under the same rules, regulations and restrictions, as they have heretofore been continued from February to May, and from August to November. And that all witnesses summoned, and other persons concerned in jury causes, shall give their attendance accordingly, under the same penalties and forfeitures as heretofore prescribed by law.

II. And be it further enacted. That for all other purposes other than those which require the intervention of a jury, the courts of said counties shall be held under the same rules, regulations and restrictions as heretofore; any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER XCIII.

An Act to regulate the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Duplin county.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of the justices of the court of pleas and quarter sessions for Duplin county, at the first term of the said court that shall be held after the first day of January next, and at the first term of the said court after the first day of January in each and every year thereafter, a majority of the acting justices being present, to elect from among themselves five discreet persons to hold the said courts of the said county, any three of whom when so selected, shall be competent to hold said court, and to discharge the ordinary duties thereof.

II. Be it further enacted. That the five justices thus elected, shall be competent to do and perform all and singular the duties and things, which by the now existing laws seven justices would be capable of doing; and that the special court, when thus elected, shall be subject to the same rules and regulations as the other county courts of this state.

III. Be it further enacted, That each of the justices thus elected, shall be entitled to receive the sum of two dollars for each and every day they may be employed in holding said courts, to be paid by the county trustee on the certificate of the clerk, out of the funds of the said county.

CHAPTER XCIV.

An Act for the regulation of the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the county of Buncombe.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That the justices of the court of pleas and quarter sessions of the county of Buncombe, a majority being present, are hereby authorised, at the term of said court in the month of January next, and annually thereafter, to elect from among the said justices three suitable persons to hold the said courts, who shall be competent to discharge the duties thereof.

II. Be it further enacted, That at the April and October terms of the said court, it shall not be lawful for the said court to continue the term for more than three days, unless the business thereof shall require a longer time.

III. Be it further enacted, That the three persons so chosen shall have power to do and perform any business, matter or thing, which by law seven justices are authorised to do, and in all cases they shall be governed by the same rules, regulations and restrictions as govern other county courts in this state. And if at any time, the said justices, or either of them, shall be unable to attend the said courts, such vacancy may be supplied by other justices of the said county. The justices elected as aforesaid, or such as may be chosen to supply the vacancy aforesaid, shall receive the sum of two dollars per day for their services, during the time they are employed in the discharge of their duties in the said court.

IV. Be it further enacted, That the justices of the court of pleas and quarter sessions aforesaid, shall annually lay a tax on all suits commenced in the same, and on prosecutions where the defendants shall be convicted, sufficient to defray the expenses accruing under the authority of this act, not exceeding one dollar on each suit or prosecution, which tax, when levied, shall be charged by the clerk of said court in each case respectively, and collected by the proper officer, under the same penalties and liabilities as are now imposed by law for the collection of other costs and charges attending said suits or prosecutions.

V. And be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after the ratification thereof; and that an act for the better regulation of the courts of pleas and quarter sessions of the county of Buncombe, passed in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER XCV.

An Act to regulate the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Richmond County.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the justices of the courts of pleas and quarter sessions for Richmond county, be, and they are hereby authorised, should they deem it expedient, a majority of the acting justices being present, at the first term of said court after the first day of April next, and at the first term of said court after the first day of April in each and every year thereafter, to elect from among themselves, five discreet persons, well qualified, who shall hold the courts of said county; any three of whom when so elected, shall be competent to hold said court, and to discharge the ordinary duties thereof.

II. And be it further enacted, That the five justices thus elected, shall be competent to do and perform all and singular the duties and things which, by the existing laws, seven justices would be capable of doing; and that the said special court, when thus elected, shall be subject to the same rules and regulations as the other county courts of this state. And the said special justices so elected, shall be entitled to receive the sum of two dollars per day, for each and every day they may be employed in holding said courts: Provided, the same does not exceed two days at each term. And the days in each term hereby set apart for holding the said court by the special justices, shall be Tuesday and Wednesday in each term. And the sum hereby allowed to the special justices aforesaid, shall be paid to them by the trustee, or any other person who may be authorised to pay off other claims against the county, upon their presenting a statement of their services, certified by the clerk of said court; and the same being so paid, shall be allowed the county trustee, or other person, in the settlement of their public accounts.

III. Be it further enacted, That the justices of the said court of pleas and quarter sessions, are hereby empowered to lay an annual tax on polls and other taxable property in said county, sufficient to defray the expences arising from the provisions of this act: Provided, they, or a majority of them, shall deem the same necessary. Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained, shall be construed to prevent any justice of the peace of said county from aiding and assisting the said special justices in transacting the ordinary business appertaining to the said court, without receiving any compensation for such aid and assistance.

CHAPTER XCVI.

An Act to amend an act, passed at the last session of the General Assembly, entitled "An act for the better regulation of the County Courts of Cabarrus, Moore and Montgomery," so far as relates to the county of Cabarrus.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the justices of the court of pleas and quarter sessions for the county of Cabarrus, a majority being present, are hereby required, at the term of said court which may happen in the month of January next, and annually thereafter, to elect from among the said justices, three suitable persons to hold the said courts, who shall be competent to discharge the duties thereof.

II. And be it further enacted, That the three persons so chosen, shall have power to do and perform any business, matter or thing which by law seven justices are authorised to do; and in all cases they shall be governed by the same rules, regulations and restrictions, as govern other county courts in this state; and if at any time the said justices, or either of them, shall be unable to attend the said courts, such vacancy may be supplied by other justices of said county. And the justices elected as aforesaid, or such as may be chosen to supply the vacancy aforesaid, shall each receive the sum of two dollars per day for their services, during the time they are employed in the discharge of their duties in said court.

III. And be it further enacted, That the sum of one dollar shall be taxed upon all suits hereafter to be decided in said court, which sum shall be charged in the bill of costs, and collected in the like manner as the costs of suits are at this time taxed and collected. And all sums collected by authority of this act, shall be paid to the clerk of the court, and shall be by him accounted for and paid over to the county trustee, in like manner as the tax fees are at this time.

IV. And be it further enacted, That so much of the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-two, for the better regulation of the county courts of Cabarrus, Moore and Montgomery, as relates to the county of Cabarrus, and coming within the meaning and purview of this act, be hereby repealed and made void.

V. And be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after the ratification thereof.

RESOLUTIONS

Passed by the General Assembly of North-Carolina,

At their Session which commenced November 17, 1823.

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor be requested to address a Memorial to the Congress of the United States, requesting that honorable body to make provisions for satisfying out of the lands ceded by this state to the United States, such claims as have been adjudged valid by the state, under the cession act of 1789, and which have remained unsatisfied.

Resolved by the General Assembly of North-Carolina, That the sum of five hundred dollars be presented to Mr. Appleton, United States Consul at Leghorn, as an acknowledgment from the state for his services as agent of the state in procuring the Statue of Washington; and that the Governor draw and transmit the same.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the State of North-Carolina, be required to withhold the payment of any further sum as an instalment on the shares subscribed for by the Treasurer in behalf of the State, in the Tar river and Nense river navigation companies, until he shall have ascertained whether said companies have been duly and legally organized; and until it shall appear to the satisfaction of the said Public Treasurer, that the subscriptions for stock in the said corporations by individuals, were made in conformity to law; and until also the said corporations put themselves under the management of the Board of Internal Improvement.

Resolved, That the Board of Internal Improvements be, and they are hereby instructed, to have surveyed the North-East branch of the Cape-Fear river, from the first obstruction above its mouth to the head of navigation, and report thereon to the next General Assembly.

Resolved, That the sum of five thousand dollars, be, and the same is hereby appropriated for the purpose of completing the repairs of the State-House and procuring furniture for the same, and that the Treasurer be allowed this sum in the settlement of his accounts.

Resolved further, That all contracts for furniture be submitted to his Excellency the Governor, before they are finally ratified, and on his approving of the same, he is hereby authorised to draw his warrants on the Treasurer for all sums necessary to carry the same into effect: Provided, such, with all future expenses for repairs, do not exceed the appropriation hereby made ; and that the rule requiring that resolutions of this nature be read three times, be dispensed with so far as respects these resolutions.

Resolved, That the Treasurer, Secretary and Comptroller constitute a Board for the superintending the application of the fund set apart for the completion of the Capitol and the procurement of the necessary furniture, and Resolved further, That the services of the State Architect be henceforth dispensed with.

Resolved, That the Treasurer pay to the Superintendant of Public Buildings such sum, annually, as the Secretary of State, Comptroller and himself, may consider a fair compensation for the services performed by said superintendant in taking care of the said buildings and preserving the same in good order : Provided, that said compensation does not exceed one hundred and fifty dollars.

Resolved further, That the rule requiring that all resolutions of this nature be read three times, be dispensed with so far as regards this resolution.

Whereas, certain persons belonging to the continental line of North-Carolina, rendered services during the revolutionary war, for which they are entitled to receive lands from this state, and no warrants have yet issued for those lands, nor application been made for such warrants, and it is desirable that such warrants be issued and satisfied out of the vacant lands ceded to the state of Tennessee, as speedily as possible ; and it being unknown to whom the said warrants rightfully belong :

Resolved, That the Secretary of State be, and he is hereby directed to issue to the Trustees of the University of this State, warrants in each case on the muster roll of the continental line of this State, where warrants have not heretofore issued ; and that the said Trustees hold the same, and the lands to be entered by virtue thereof, in trust for the officers and soldiers who performed the military services for which said warrants shall issue : Provided, that if no claim be exhibited by the said officers and soldiers, or their legal representatives, within seven years from the first day of January next, the said trust shall cease and determine.

Resolved, That the Secretary of State purchase, either in this State or elsewhere, as he may think best, the Stationery required for the Executive Office, the Offices of the other departments of the Government, and the Clerks of the General Assembly, for the ensuing year : and that the Treasurer advance the sum necessary to make such purchase, not exceeding three hundred dollars. And that the rule of the house requiring all resolutions, the object of which is to draw money out of the Treasury, be dispensed with, so far as it respects this resolution.

Resolved, That the Treasurer, under the inspection of the sub-committee of Finance, burn the sum of five thousand, six hundred and ninety-six dollars, twenty-five cents, of ragged and defaced Treasury Notes, in his office, unfit for circulation.

Resolved, That the Public Treasurer have credit in his account with the State, for the sum of five thousand, six hundred and ninety-six dollars, twenty-five cents, being the amount of the Treasury Notes burnt, as aforesaid: and that the Comptroller credit him accordingly.

Resolved, That the Public Treasurer be, and he is hereby authorised to pay to Thomas Elliot, of Mecklenburg county, who was placed upon the pension roll of this state in the year one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, the further sum of twenty-five dollars annually, in addition to the sum now allowed by law.

Resolved, That the vestry and members of the Protestant Episcopal Congregation in Raleigh, be, and they are hereby permitted and authorised to erect on the south-west corner of Moore square, a temporary building for divine worship; which building they shall remove whenever required so to do by the General Assembly of this State.

Resolved, That the Adjutant-General of the State, under the direction of the Governor, be required to procure a full and complete description of the uniform of the army of the United States and publish the same.

Resolved further, That the Adjutant-General furnish to the several returning officers of the militia of this State, proper blank forms for their future returns.

Resolved, That it shall, and it is hereby declared to be, the duty of the Public Printer, to attach to the Laws to be published for the year 1823, the Returns of the different Sheriffs and Clerks of this State, agreeable to the Comptroller's Report.

Read and ratified in General Assembly, }
this 8th day of December, 1823. }
