On motion by Mr. Boyd,

Ordered, That a message be sent to the House of Commons, informing that body of the due organization of the Senate, by the election of Henry T. Clark, the Senator from Edgecombe county, Speaker; John Hill, Principal Clerk; Quentin Busbee, Assistant Clerk; James Page, Principal Doorkeeper, and C. C. Tally, Assistant Doorkeeper; and that the Senate is now ready to proceed to the dispatch of public business.

On motion by Mr. Martin,

Resolved, That the rules of order, for the government of the last Senate, be adopted for the government of the present Senate, until otherwise ordered.

On motion by Mr. Steele,

Messrs. Steele, Donnell, McDowell, Gorrell and Houston were appointed a committee to prepare and report rules for the government of the Senate.

On motion by Mr. Cunningham, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning, 11 o'elock.
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1858.

Richard Dillard, the Senator elect from the counties of Gates and Chowan, (being the 3d Senatorial district,) and Richard G. Cowper, the Senator elect from the county of Hertford, (being the 6th Senatorial district,) appeared, produced their credentials, were qualified and took their seats.

Received a message from the House of Commons, announcing the due organization of that body, by the appointment of Thomas Settle, jr., Speaker; Edward Cantwell, Principal Clerk; George Howard, jr., Assistant Clerk; William S. Webster, Principal Doorkeeper, and John Lawrence, Assistant Doorkeeper; and that it is now ready to proceed to the dispatch of public business.

On motion by Mr. Boyd,

Ordered, That a message be sent to the House of Commons, proposing to raise a joint select committee of two on the part of each House, to wait on his Excellency, the Governor, and inform him of the due organization of both branches of the General Assembly, and of their readiness to receive any communication he may have to make to them.

On motion by Mr. McDonald,

Ordered, That a message be sent to the House of Commons, proposing to raise a joint select committee, of two on the part of the Senate, and three on behalf of the House, to prepare and report rules for the government of the intercourse between the two Houses.

Received a message from the House of Commons, concurring in the proposition to raise a joint select committee on the part of each House, to wait on his Excellency, the Governor, and informing that Messrs. Kerr and Benbury constitute the committee on the part of the House; whereupon Messrs. Boyd and Cowper were appointed the committee on behalf of the Senate.

Mr. Boyd, from the committee appointed to wait on his Excellency, the Governor, reported that the committee had performed the duty assigned them, and received for answer, that he would be pleased to make a communication to the two Houses to-day at 12 o'clock, M.

Received a message from the House of Commons, concur-ing in the proposition of the Senate, to raise a joint select committee of two on the part of the Senate, and three on the part of the House, to prepare and report joint rules of order for the government of the intercourse between the two Houses, and informing that Messrs. Bridges, Ferebee and Love constitute the committee on the part of the Commons.

Whereupon, Messrs. McDonald and Humphrey were appointed the committee on the part of the Senate, and the House informed thereof by message.

On motion by Mr. Humphrey,

Ordered, That a message be sent to the House of Commons proposing to raise a joint select committee of two on the part of the Senate, and three on the part of the House, to inquire into the expediency of providing the means for warming the two Halls of the Capitol, and for lighting the same, and that they be requested to report by bill or otherwise.

Received a message from the House of Commons, proposing to go forthwith into an election for State Printer. The proposition was concurred in, and the House informed by message that Messrs. Cunningham and Ramsay are appointed a committee to superintend said election, on behalf of the Senate.

Received a message from the House of Commons informing that Messrs. Holden & Wilson, and Mr. John W. Syme, are in nomination for State Printer—that Messrs. Love and T. R.
Caldwell constitute the committee to superintend said election on the part of the House, and that the House would proceed to vote on the return of the messenger.

The Senate, under the superintendence of Messrs. Cunningham and Ramsay, then voted as follows, viz:

Syme 46, Pennington 1 and Warrenton News 1; that Holden & Wilson having received a majority of the votes cast, are duly elected.

Report concurred in.

On motion by Mr. Ramsay,

Resolved, That the Speaker of the Senate be requested to order suitable accommodations for the reporters of the public press during the session of the General Assembly.

Received a message from the House of Commons transmitting the message of his Excellency, the Governor, and accompanying documents, with a proposition to print ten copies of the message, and one of the documents, for each member of the General Assembly.

Mr. Martin moved that the reading of the message be dispensed with; Mr. McDonald called for a division of the question, and moved that the vote be first taken on the motion to dispense with the reading of the message, and the question being taken thereon, it was determined in the affirmative. The proposition to print was then concurred in, and the House of Commons informed thereof.

Received a message from the House of Commons concurring in the proposition of the Senate to raise a joint select committee to enquire into the expediency of providing the means for warming and lighting the Capitol, and informing that Messrs. N. N. Flemming, Pride Jones and Thomas D. Meares, constitute the committee on the part of the House.
Whereupon, the Commons were informed by message, that Messrs. Humphrey and Flanner constitute the committee on the part of the Senate.

On motion by Mr. Thomas, the Senate adjourned until tomorrow morning, 11 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, November 17, 1858.

M. C. Whitaker, the Senator elect from the county of Halifax, (being the 9th Senatorial District,) appeared, produced his credentials, was qualified and took his seat.

Mr. Steele, from the committee appointed to prepare and report rules of order for the government of the Senate, reported the following, which were adopted, viz:

1. It shall be the duty of the Speaker to invite the pastors of the several churches of this city, under such arrangements as they may make among themselves, to perform the service of prayer at the opening of the daily sessions of the Senate.

2. When the Speaker takes the chair, each member shall take his seat, and, on the appearance of a quorum, the journals of the preceding day shall be read.

3. After the reading of the journal of the preceding day, the Senate shall proceed to business in the following order, namely: 1. The receiving petitions, memorials, pension certificates, and papers addressed either to the General Assembly or to the Senate; 2. The reports of standing committees; 3. The reports of select committees; 4. Resolutions; 5. Bills; 6. Bills, resolutions, petitions, memorials, messages, pension certificates and other papers on the table; then the orders of the day; but motions and messages to elect officers shall always be in order.

4. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the Senate, he shall arise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the Speaker, and shall confine himself to the question under debate, and avoid personality; and when two or more members happen to rise at once, the Speaker is to name the one who is first to speak.
No member shall speak oftener than twice on the same question or nomination for office, without leave of the Senate; and when any member is speaking, he shall not be interrupted by any person, either by speaking, or by standing, or by passing between him and the Chair.

5. All bills and resolutions introduced shall pass, as a matter of course, the first reading.

6. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgress the rules of the Senate, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call him to order; in which case, the member so called to order, shall immediately sit down unless permitted to explain; and the Senate shall, if appealed to, decide on the case, but without debate. If there be no appeal, the decision of the Chair shall be submitted to. If the decision be in favor of the member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed; if otherwise, and the case require it, he shall be liable to the censure of the Senate.

7. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, but to adjourn, to lie on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order they stand arranged, and any motion to adjourn or lay on the table shall be decided without debate; and a motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

8. Questions may be stated by the Speaker sitting, but shall be put standing. Questions shall be distinctly put in this form: "Senators, as many as are of the opinion that, (as the case may be) say Aye;" and after the affirmative voice is expressed, "As many as are of a contrary opinion, say No." If the Speaker doubt as to the voice of the majority, or a division be called for, the Speaker shall call on those in the affirmative of the question to rise from their seats, and afterwards those in the negative. If the Speaker still doubt, or a count be required, the Speaker shall name two members, one from each side, to tell the number in the affirmative; which being reported, he shall name two others, one from each side, to tell those in the negative; which being also reported, he shall state the decision to the Senate, and announce the decision. No member who was without the bar of the Senate when any question was put from the chair, shall enter his yea or nay without leave, unless he shall have been absent on some committee; and the row of pillars shall be the bar of the Senate.

9. When any member shall make a motion, which is not of course, he shall reduce the same to writing, if required.

10. In all cases of election by the Senate, the Speaker shall vote, and when, on a division, there shall be an equal number of votes, the Speaker shall decide the question. In no other case shall he vote, unless his vote if given to the minority will make the division equal, and when an equal division is produced by the Speaker's vote, the question shall be lost.

11. No member shall depart the service of the Senate without leave, or receive pay as a member for the time he is absent.

12. Petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the Senate, shall be presented by the Speaker, or by a member, in his place; a brief statement of the contents thereof shall verbally be made by the introducer, and the petition, memorial or other paper shall not be read unless so ordered by the Senate.

13. Resolutions for the appropriation of public money, and all resolutions of a public nature, as well as all bills, shall be read the first time for information; and upon this reading, shall not be subject to amendment, but may be amended on the second and third reading. And the Clerk shall keep a calendar of all such resolutions and bills, with the orders taken on each, in the order in which they are introduced, and they shall be taken up and considered as they stand on the calendar, unless otherwise ordered, and the calendar shall be daily revised and kept on the Speaker's table for the inspection of members, and all bills shall be numbered and dispatched in the order in which they stand upon the calendar.

14. All bills of a public nature, when ready for the second reading, shall be noticed as having been read at least one day previous thereto, and then shall be first read for information, and then paragraph by paragraph, and held open for amendment.

15. After a bill or resolution has been once rejected, postponed indefinitely, or to a day beyond the session, another of a like provision shall not be introduced during the same session.

16. When a question has been once decided, it shall be in order for any member in the majority to move a reconsideration thereof, on the same or succeeding day, if the bill, resolution or paper upon which the question has been taken, be in possession of the Senate; and no bill or resolution of a public nature shall be sent from the Senate until 12 o'clock the succeeding day; but when the motion to reconsider is laid on the table, it shall not again be called up.

17. When an amendment to be proposed to the Constitution is under consideration, a concurrence of two-thirds or three-fifths of the members present shall not be requisite to decide any question for amendment or extending to the merits short of the final question.

18. When any question may have been decided by the Senate, in which three-fifths or two-thirds of the members present are necessary to carry the affirmative, any member who votes on that side which prevailed in the question may be at liberty to move a reconsideration; and a motion for reconsideration shall be decided by a majority of votes.

19. The Speaker shall examine and correct the journal before it is read; he shall have the general direction of the hall; he shall designate who shall compose all committees, except when otherwise ordered; and the select committees of the Senate shall consist of five members.

20. There shall be appointed by the Speaker the following committees, namely: a committee of propositions and grievances, a committee of privileges and elections, a committee of claims, a committee on the judiciary, a committee on internal improvements, a committee on education and the literary fund, a committee on banks and currency, and a committee on corporations, consisting of seven members each, and a committee on public buildings, to consist of three members.

21. When the Senate resolves itself into a committee of the whole, the Speaker shall leave the chair, and appoint a chairman; and when upon any other occasion the Speaker wishes to leave the chair, he shall appoint a Speaker pro tem.

22. When any petition, memorial, or other paper addressed to the Senate, shall have been referred either to one of the standing or select committees, they shall in their report on the petition, memorial, or other paper, make a statement in writing of the facts embraced in the case so referred.

23. In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct in the lobby or gallery, the Speaker or chairman of the committee of the whole, shall have power to have the same cleared.

24. No person except members of the House of Commons, officers and clerks of the two Houses of the General Assembly, judges of the Supreme and Superior courts, officers of the State—resident at the seat of government—members of Congress, persons particularly invited by the Speaker, and such gentlemen as have been members of either House of the Legislature, shall be admitted within the Hall of the Senate.

25. Any member, dissatisfied with the decision of the Speaker, on any question of order, may appeal to the Senate.

26. When the Senate adjourns, the members shall keep their seats till the Speaker leaves the chair.

27. Saturday in every week shall be set apart for the consideration of private bills, and private business, in preference to any other, unless otherwise determined by the majority of the Senate, and the clerk shall keep a separate calendar of the same.

28. The rules for the government of the Senate shall not be amended or altered, without giving at least one day's notice of such amendment or alteration, nor without the consent of two-thirds of the members present.

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 11, 1858.

Hon. Thomas Ruffin:

Dear Sir:—In obedience to a joint resolution passed by the Senate and House of Commons this morning, we beg leave to inform you that on yesterday you were again elected a Judge of the Supreme Court of North Carolina by an almost unanimous vote of both houses of the General Assembly. We are now instructed to request you to accept that high post of honor and duty to which your State with one voice has called you, and to add another to the long list of eminent services which it has been your fortune to render to your country.

May we be permitted to say that, though you cannot increase the measure of your fame, your State hopes that you will continue and prolong the period of your usefulness? We cannot conclude this note without an assurance of our happiness at the course which the Legislature has thought proper to pursue, and an earnest appeal that you will not decline the honor it has sought to bestow.

We are most sincerely your friends,

W. J. HOUSTON,
M. C. WHITAKER,
JOHN KERR,
W. N. H. SMITH,
M. W. RANSOM,
Committee.

RALEIGH, Dec. 15, 1858.

Gentlemen:—I left home before your letter, informing me officially that I had been elected a judge of the Supreme Court, and requesting me to accept the high trust, had arrived there, and I have just received it. No event could have been more unexpected by me, or have created more surprise. When at an advanced age, and after long service, I heretofore resigned a seat in that court, it was with the sincere desire of enjoying the repose and quietness of private life; and I thought I had then laid down the cares and responsibilities of office forever. It would not be sincere, if I were to conceal that it is painful to find myself disappointed. To give up my retirement is against my feelings, and breaks up all my plans for the short remnant of my life; and after abandoning, for six years, the study of law, I feel, and I fear others will feel, that at the age of seventy-one, it is an act of rashness, unsuitable to that age, to undertake again the labors of the judicial station to which I am called. But it has pleased the General Assembly to tender this renewed expression of confidence in my diligence and fidelity, and in a manner which touches my sensibilities most deeply, so that I am led to believe, that in their opinion, and in that of the country, it is my duty to enter once more into the public service. Under the circumstances, I also suppose it to be obligatory on me to obey the commands of the Legislature. Therefore, as a duty, I forego my own inclinations and accept the office bestowed on me; and will endeavor, with what impaired ability I retain, to execute, with my associates, its functions. I return to the General Assembly the most unfeigned thanks and acknowledgments for the favor conferred on me; but, at the same time, I undertake the task with great diffidence, and certainly in deference to the authority of the public will. The manner in which, gentlemen, you have made the communication to me, and the kind terms in which you have expressed your hopes and wishes for my usefulness in office, lay me under great and lasting obligations to each of you individually.

With high consideration, I am, gentlemen,

Your faithful friend and servant,

THOMAS RUFFIN.

The hour of twelve o'clock having now arrived, the Speaker announced the special order, viz:

The bill to lay off and establish a new county by the name of Clingman, said bill being on its second reading. Mr. Edney moved to amend by adding the following proviso to the second section of the bill, viz:

"Provided, however, that it shall never be entitled to a separate representation in the House of Commons in any future apportionment of the members of the House, until, and unless it shall then have the full ratio of representation, and not then even, if there shall then be a deficiency in the ratio of the counties of Jackson, Haywood and Henderson."

Pending the consideration of the bill and amendments, Mr. Edney moved an adjournment, which motion was lost, yeas 16, nays 28.

Mr. Cunningham demanded the yeas and nays. Those who who voted in the affirmative, are:

Those who voted in the negative are:

Mr. Leach introduced the following resolutions, viz:

Resolved, That the purpose for which the public lands was ceded to Congress by the States of Massachusetts, New York, Virginia, North Carolina and Georgia has been accomplished by the payment of the debt incurred by the revolutionary war, and that any disposition made of said lands, after the payment of said debt, without the consent of the States, is a clear and palpable violation of the deeds of cession, and gross injustice to the States.

Resolved, That all the public lands heretofore, or now in the possession of the general government, have been acquired either by conquest, purchase or discovery; and that said lands, or the proceeds thereof, after the paying the debts of the general government due at the time the lands were ceded, is the common property of all the States, held in trust by the general government, and should be disposed of among the several States according to federal population and representation.
Resolved, That Congress has the constitutional right under article 4th, section 3rd, clause 2nd, to dispose of the public lands, or the proceeds thereof, in such manner as will not conflict with the deeds of cession, and that the disposition of the public lands, by Congress, since the payment of the public debt, is a clear and palpable violation, both of the deeds of cession, and the sixth article of the constitution.

Resolved, That fifteen States and Territories of this Union have received one hundred and sixty-five millions, seven hundred and forty-one thousand, one hundred and twenty-five acres, (165,741,125); and that North Carolina has sustained a loss of sixty-five millions, fifty-two thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven acres, (65,052,957); and that said lands were granted to said States and Territories by Congress for schools and universities, deaf and dumb asylums, internal improvements, individuals and companies, seats of government, public buildings, salines granted to States, reserved grants for individuals and companies, swamp lands granted to States, and grants to railroads.

Resolved, That the rights of North-Carolina, and the embarrassed condition of her treasury, demand that Congress shall make an appropriation either of land or money, equal in value or amount to that appropriated to other States, to enable her to develop her resources, and to relieve her citizens from a burthensome tax incurred by unwise legislation.

Resolved, That our Senators be instructed, and our Representatives earnestly requested, to use every effort to induce Congress to take such measures as will secure to North-Carolina her just and equitable right in the public lands.

Said resolutions being read,
Mr. Leach moved that they be printed and made the special order of the day for Tuesday next.

Mr. Turner introduced the following resolutions, viz:

Resolved, That while the United States would in no event consent to the transfer of the island of Cuba from Spain to any other European power; and while by reasonable negotiation with the consent of Spain, it would be desirable to acquire it; its acquisition by force, except in the event of a just war, would be disgraceful to the civilization of the present age.

Resolved, That it would create a dangerous precedent to place thirty millions of dollars, or any other large amount of money at the disposal of the President of the United States, under pretence of negotiating for the purchase of said island, when it is well known that any such negotiation is declined by Spain as offensive to her national rights and integrity; and that it is especially inexpedient to appropriate moneys for this alleged object, when the revenues are greatly inadequate to the common and constant demands on the treasury, and large additions have been, and are likely to be made to the public debt from the deficiency of the revenue in a time of profound peace.
