"Provided, That the people of North Carolina, without regard to race, color, or previous condition, are opposed to any interference whatever on the part either of the State or National government with that feature of their local, political and social organization, which provides and allows separate schools for the races, separate entertainment at hotels, separate churches, a separate militia system and accommodation at theatres, separate burial places for the dead, but which also requires that all the advantages and facilities endowed and afforded by law shall be enjoyed by each race equally, and all regulations or limitations thereof shall be applicable alike to all.

2. That under the decision of the Supreme Court in the slaughter house cases, 16 Wallace and ex parte Myra Broadwell, Congress has no power to establish mixed schools in any State, and the apprehension of such is founded in an utter misconception of the powers and intentions of the National Legislature and the rights of the States and the Civil Rights Bill, as it was amended and passed by the Senate, contemplates no such interference, but on the contrary, recognizes and affirms all "the conditions and limitations" of personal rights existing in each State, and established by the local law.

3. That therefore the immediate passage of the Civil Rights Bill now pending upon Congress with such amendments and provisions as may make the meaning of the same as above explained still more explicit, is a measure of the wisest statesmanship and a final settlement of this dangerous and distracting question, which has already occupied its full share of the attention of the country, and ought now to be forever put at rest."

Mr. Peebles offered an amendment, in the nature of a substitute, to wit:

"Resolved, That the bill known as "Sumner's Civil Rights Bill," is unconstitutional and potent for evil only. If made a law, it will enrage and engender strife and discord among the white and colored people of this and other southern States, and must impair the friendly feeling that ought to exist between the two races; and will also prevent in said States appropriations for the support of free schools.

2. That we appreciate alike the services of Republicans and Democrats in opposition to said bill."

FORTY-FIFTH DAY.

SENATE CHAMBER, February 3rd, 1875.

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment. The Journal of yesterday was read.

Petitions were presented and disposed of as follows:
By Mr. McCauley: Petition from citizens of White's Store township, in Anson county, asking for a fence law. Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.
By Mr. McMillan: Petition from citizens of Ashe county relative to construction of a public road. Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.
By Mr. Waring: Petition from the citizens of Crab Orchard township, Mecklenburg county. Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

The following protest was presented by Mr. Cantwell, read, and ordered to be spread upon the Journal:

"The undersigned availing himself of a right secured by article 2, section 19, Constitution of the State, in behalf of himself and the people of the 12th Senatorial District, dissents from and protests against the passage of the act, entitled "an act to amend the charter of the city of Wilmington," through this General Assembly, and believe the same injurious to the public, his constituents and himself, for the reasons following, viz:

1. The General Assembly has no power to add to the qualifications of voters and public officers prescribed by the Constitution. This act attempts to superadd to the qualifications of voters and public officers in Wilmington, a residence and disabilities not warranted by, and not specified in, the Constitution.

2. The General Assembly has no power under the Constitution to appoint or elect Registrars or Inspectors of Elections. This act appoints by name a number of such officers for the city of Wilmington, and provides for the payment of their salary out of the funds and treasury of that city.

3. The General Assembly has no power under the Constitution to make political rights and privileges depend on, or be modified by, property. This act attempts to confer upon one sixth of the voters of Wilmington a government rightfully appertaining to the majority, and thereby to enable the property holders of that city, as a class, to control the government and people thereof, in violation of the fundamental law.

4. And the undersigned, constantly and earnestly counseling all good people of this State to exercise the same "sublime patience" we have recommended the people of Louisianna under the same aggressions, and believing and hoping they also will await "the settlement of their wrongs" at the ballot-box, and that the Courts of law afford an ample and entirely adequate remedy, nevertheless protests against the same acts for the further reason following, viz: That the same act is, in his opinion, a violation of the compact made between us and the United States Congress, whereby North Carolina acquired, conditionally, re-admission to the Union, from which she had seceded, and thereby affords a pretext for another forcible interposition on the part of the general government in local affairs—possibly a renewal of hostilities between the States, and all their attendant horrors.

(Signed.)

EDWARD CANTWELL,
Senator Twelfth District.

The yeas and nays being ordered, the motion did not prevail. Yeas 18, nays 19.

Thereupon Mr. Busbee presented the following protest which was read and ordered to be spread upon the Journal of the Senate:

"The undersigned protests against the passage of Senate Bill No. 13, entitled "An act to regulate the rate of interest and to prevent usury," without the incorporation of a provision that the forfeitures and penalties imposed by the act shall not apply to individuals and State corporations loaning money unless the same also apply to National Banks located in this State.

It has been decided by sundry judicial tribunals, outside of North Carolina, that the provisions of the act of Congress, commonly known as the "National Bank Act," in regard to usury, cannot be contravened or overridden by any State statute. This act of Congress fixes the penalty for a usurious contract by any National Bank at a forfeiture of the interest only. The provisions of Senate Bill No. 13, if these decisions rightfully interpret the law, will apply to loans made by individuals and State corporations, but not to loans made by National Banks. If this be so, then the impropriety and injustice of this bill is manifest—a loan by an individual or a State corporation at a rate of interest greater than eight per cent. will work a forfeiture of double the interest and principal, and subject the offender to punishment by fine and imprisonment—a similar loan made by a National Bank will work only a forfeiture of interest.

The undersigned regard such legislation as this to be directly in the interest of National Banks, and calculated to throw all monetary transactions in North Carolina into their hands. In their opinion, to guard against such a possible defect, the bill should have been amended as above indicated, for otherwise it is in derogation of the rights of every individual and corporation in this State.

The majority in this Senate have had these facts called to their attention plainly and clearly; but notwithstanding under the gag of the previous question and refusing to grant the minority an opportunity to offer such amendments as to said minority seemed absolutely necessary, they have seen fit to pass the bill—with them rests the responsibility.

The undersigned believe that in its present shape this bill may prove disastrous to the best interests of the people of this State, and so believing respectfully enter this, their protest.

The following named bills, amendments and resolutions, reported as correctly engrossed by the Committee on Engrossed Bills, were transmitted to the House of Representatives for concurrence:

S. B. No. 469: A bill to be entitled an act to amend section 3, chapter 80, of Battle's Revisal.
S. B. No. 456: A bill to be entitled an act for the better regulation of the Newbern Academy.
S. R. No. 546: Resolution in favor of J. H. Ennis, Agent.

"The undersigned, in behalf of himself and all the good people of the 12th Senatorial District, irrespective of race, color, condition, occupation, political denomination, sex or citizenship, solemnly and respectfully protest against the recent action of a majority of the Senate upon the subject of usury and restricting contracts for the hire of money, as detrimental to the interests of said District, and the whole people of North Carolina, for the following reasons, viz:

The inhabitants of North Carolina—citizens—of adult age and under no disabilities have, under the amended Constitution of the United States, the same inherent and inalienable right to contract and be contracted with in regard to money, as any other thing of value, and to the same extent as is now allowed them, in regard to other contracts.

This act of the Senate attempts to restrict the right of contract in regard to money, and declaring the exercise thereof void and criminal; it imposes fines and penalties thereon, and exempts Building and Loan Associations from its operation, and is therefore, in effect, in the opinion of the undersigned, capricious, barbarous and tyrannical; it is a violation of the Constitution; a breach of the treaty of peace and re-admission to the Union; an invasion of personal liberty and the reserved rights of the people; it fetters industry and commerce, and is especially hurtful to the agricultural, manufacturing and commercial interests of North Carolina, disastrous alike to the people at large and to the future resources of the State.”

Mr. Kerr asked and obtained leave to enter the following protest, which was read and ordered to be spread upon the Journal:

Whereas, The Senate has seen fit to pass a bill entitled "an act to reclaim and drain the swamp lands of N. C.;" and whereas, said act proposes to alienate one half of the said lands of said swamps to the New River Canal Company, because of the draining of said swamps by a canal cut and constructed by said New River Canal Company, which canal in my opinion does not entitle said company to such a large portion of said swamp lands, because of the little work done, and because of the little value said canal will be to reclaiming the swamp lands mentioned in the bill; therefore, because of these reasons and many others, I enter my protest against said alienation and giving away one half of the only lands now left to the State for educational purposes.

Thereupon, it being the hour of twelve o'clock, the President addressed the Senate as follows:

"Senators: The hour has come which brings our labors to a close, and severs those social relations which have been so grateful to us all.

I desire, as your presiding officer, to bear testimony to the country of your industry, patience, and constant and earnest devotion and application to your public duties. In whatever else any of your predecessors may have excelled you, none of them have surpassed you in these essential qualifications of legislators. Though your constituents will differ as to expediency of many laws you have passed, all must accord to you the character of incorruptible, courageous and patriotic Legislators—men who dared to do what they believed to be right, and rely upon their own consciences and the sober judgment of the people to sustain them.

I return to you, one and all, my sincere thanks for the good order and lofty courtesy which you have always maintained, so becoming to you, Senators, engaged in the exercise of these high functions, and from which you have never for one moment departed. This, together with the kind consideration which each one of you have, upon all occasions, shown to your presiding officer, has not only made the performance of my duties light, but a source of constant pleasure to me. I shall always regard it as the greatest happiness of my life that I have presided over, and enjoyed the confidence of the Senate of North Carolina of 1874-'75. With the profoundest sense of my obligation to each one of you, I bid you all an affectionate farewell, and declare this Senate adjourned sine die."

R. F. ARMFIELD,
President of the Senate.
