TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY.

SENATE CHAMBER, Friday, Feb. 2d, 1883.

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.
The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.
Leave of absence was granted Messrs. Battle, Dotson and Richardson until Tuesday; Mr. Cozart until Monday; Messrs. Pinnix and Mebane indefinitely. Mr. Toon was announced absent to-day on account of sickness.
Mr. Cahor arose to a question of personal privilege, regarding an article in a newspaper published in the State.

On motion of Mr. Clarke, the remarks of Mr. Cahor were directed to be entered upon the Journal.

Mr. Cahor spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT: It is not often that I ask this body to give time in listening to me on any matter; but now I desire to be heard for a few moments, while I call the attention of Senators to an article in public print which I submit is a reflection upon their honor and integrity. I have a copy of the Economist, a paper published in Elizabeth City, in my section of the State, which contains an article in its editorial columns, and in which article I find the following: "We should hang our heads in the abasement of mortification and shame; not shame for North Carolina—her past is secure—but shame for this legislatuæ, shame that its virtue was so weak that it could be overcome by an oyster, a duck, a pop-bottle, and a railroad pass. Yes, more than shame would fill our bosom. Indignation, patriotic indignation that would gibbet high upon the pillory of eternal infamy the name of any recreant son of North Carolina, be he Democrat or Republican, whose name is found recorded 'aye' when the vote is taken and the 'ayes and noes' called."

What vote has this sage of the quill allusion to? Simply a vote on a bill to change the name of a railroad company. Why has he seen fit to reflect upon the honor and integrity of this body and our brethren in the other end of the capitol? Because we have done what all should do, refused to give ear to the prejudices and whims of a few croakers whose expansive minds can only reach far enough to grasp their own selfish interests, and done simple justice to large public and private interests.
Mr. President, occupying, as I do, a position as editor-in-chief of a newspaper, and willing as I believe this body is to accord to the press all the prerogatives belonging thereto—fully recognizing the importance and influence of the press—I feel it my duty to say that such language as has been used by my brother of the quill, reflecting, as it does, upon the members of this General Assembly, should be by them severely rebuked and condemned as improper, unjust and unwarrantable.

The President laid before the Senate a communication from the State Treasurer, in response to S. R. —, a resolution of inquiry.
The communication was as follows:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE STATE TREASURER.

NORTH CAROLINA,
Treasury Department,
February 13th, 1883.

HON. JAMES L. ROBINSON, President of the Senate:

Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the following resolutions passed by the Senate:

"The Senate of North Carolina hereby resolve:

That the Treasurer of the State shall be, and he is hereby requested to inform the Senate:

1. How much money has, at any time up to the first day of January, 1883, been paid by, or on account of the State, for the Western North Carolina Railroad?

2. How many bonds of the State have been given to, or on behalf of, said road up to the same date?

3. What is the approximate value of the convict labor furnished said road up to that date?"

I answer each enquiry in its order.

1. Payments have been made from the State Treasury on account of the road, as shown by the books of this Department, as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>For surveying original routes under acts passed prior to the late war</td>
<td>$26,603 27</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Interest on $850,000 mortgage bonds, from May 1st, 1875, to November 1st, 1879, date of maturity of the last coupon payable by the State, as reported to the General Assembly, Special Session of 1880.</td>
<td>$266,175 00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Interest on said bonds from November 1st, 1879, to the date when the grantees became liable for the interest</td>
<td>26,366 67</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total amount of interest paid by the State, Part of appropriation of $70,000 per annum, authorized by chapter 106, laws of 1876-77</td>
<td>292,541 67</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total amount of payments from the State Treasury</td>
<td>150,874 50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>$470,019 44</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
If this enquiry contemplates the amount paid on account of convicts employed on this road, I am unable to give the information, as this Department is not in possession of the necessary data, as explained in my answer to the third enquiry.

2. The appropriation of bonds under chapter 228, laws of 1854-'55, was $4,000,000. The amount of bonds actually issued was $3,981,000, being $19,000 less than the appropriation, which amount in bonds was retained by the State Treasurer on the 2nd day of April, 1868, in payment of accrued interest charged by the State Treasurer on bonds then issued to that Company. It may be proper to state that $1,080,500 of these bonds have been retired in various transactions between the State and corporations since the war, as directed by the General Assembly at different times, leaving $2,900,500 of bonds to be redeemed under the act to compromise, commute and settle the State debt, ratified March 4th, 1879. Should all these bonds be redeemed under said act, the amount of new four per cent. bonds issued in exchange would be $894,100.

The third enquiry is so general that I am unable to determine its scope and tenor, or to give a brief and categorical answer.

A few convicts were worked on the Western North Carolina Railroad, under the administration of the commissioners appointed by the act of March 18th, 1875, after the sale of the road that year, and before the passage of the act of February 19th, 1877.

From the year 1876 to the date of the sale of the road in the year 1880, the convicts were worked under the Board of Directors. The Board made quarterly reports of the value of the convict labor, which were required to be recorded in a book to be kept in the office of the State Treasurer. The aggregate of the value of the labor recorded in this office, to and including the quarter ending September 30th, 1879, is $219,399.00.
No report was made after that, as the road was sold early in the year 1880, and since the sale there has been no law requiring the purchasers to make any report of the value of the labor, as they paid for the labor the price agreed upon between them and the State. If, however, the object of this inquiry is to ascertain the amount of money the State has received for the convict labor since the sale of the road in 1880, I can give the information.

The hire of the convicts is due on the first day of February, May, August and November, for the preceding quarter. The account is made up at the Penitentiary and sent to this office, upon which the collections are made.

The amount received up to and including the payment for November 1st, 1882, is $133,480.62. The account for the months of November, December and January last, due February 1st, has been made up, and was received at this office to-day. It amounts to $13,059.76, making in all $146,540.38.

I have the honor to be,

Your obedient servant,

J. M. WORTH,
State Treasurer.

Per D. W. BAIN, Chief Clerk.

It was ordered printed.
The motion to adjourn prevailed.

No Senator shall speak more than twice nor longer than thirty minutes on the same day on the same subject, without leave of the Senate; and when two or more Senators rise at once, the President shall name the Senator who is first to speak.

13. Every Senator who shall be within the bar of the Senate when a question is stated by the Chair, shall vote thereon unless he shall be excused by the Senate, or unless he be directly interested in the question; and the bar of the Senate shall include so much of the body of the Senate chamber as is within the columns.

14. When a motion to adjourn, or for recess, shall be affirmatively determined, no member or officer shall leave his place till adjournment or recess shall be declared by the President.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

15. Standing Committees, consisting, unless otherwise ordered, of seven members, except the Committee on Judiciary, which shall be composed of ten Senators, shall be appointed by the President on the following subjects:

17. Every report of the Committee upon a bill or resolution which shall not be considered at the time of making the same, or laid on the table by a vote of the Senate, shall stand upon the General Orders with the bill or resolution.

OF GENERAL ORDERS AND SPECIAL ORDERS.

18. Any bill or other matter may be made a Special Order for a particular day or hour by a vote of a majority of the Senators voting, and if it shall not be completed on that day, it shall be returned to its place on the calendar, unless it shall be made a Special Order for another day; and when a Special Order is under consideration, it shall take precedence of any Special Order or a subsequent Order for the day, but such subsequent Order may be taken up immediately after the previous Special Order has been disposed of.

19. Every bill shall receive three readings previous to its being passed, and the President shall give notice at each whether it be the first, second or third. After the first reading, unless a motion shall be made by some Senator, it shall be the duty of the President to refer the subject matter to an appropriate committee. No bill shall be amended until it shall have been twice read.

PROCEDINGS WHEN THERE IS NOT A QUORUM VOTING.

20. If, on taking the question on a bill, it shall appear that a constitutional quorum is not present, or if the bill require a vote of a certain proportion of all the Senators to pass it, and it appears that such a number is not present, there shall be a call of the Senate, and if a quorum is ascertained to-be present, the bill shall be again read and the question taken thereon; if the bill fail a second time for the want of a quorum or for the want of the necessary number being present and voting, the bill shall not be finally lost, but shall be returned to the calendar in its proper order.

If this question shall be decided in the affirmative, the "main question" shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution or other matter under consideration; but when amendments are pending, the question shall be first taken upon such amendments in their order without further debate. If such question be decided in the negative, the main question shall be considered as remaining under debate.

OTHER QUESTIONS TO BE TAKEN WITHOUT DEBATE.

23. The motions to adjourn and lay on the table shall be decided without debate, and the motion to adjourn shall always be in order when made by a Senator entitled to the floor.

28. No bill or resolution on its third reading shall be acted on out of the regular order in which it stands on the calendar, and no bill or resolution shall be acted upon on its third reading the same day on which it passed its second reading, unless so ordered by a vote of two-thirds of the Senators present.

30. No remark reflecting personally upon the action of any Senator shall be in order in debate, unless preceded by a motion or resolution of censure.

31. When a Senator shall be called to order, he shall take his seat until the President shall have determined whether he was in order not; if decided to be out of order, he shall not proceed without the permission of the Senate, and every question of order shall be decided by the President, subject to an appeal to the Senate by any Senator, and if a Senator be called to order for words spoken, the exceptional words shall be immediately taken down in writing, that the President or Senate may be better enabled to judge of the matter.

MISCELLANEOUS RULES.

33. When a question has been once put and decided, it shall be in order for any Senator who shall have voted in the majority, to move a reconsideration thereof; but no motion for the reconsideration of any vote shall be in order.
after the bill, resolution, message, report, amendment or motion, upon which the vote was taken, shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate. Nor shall any motion for reconsideration be in order unless made on the same day, or the next following legislative day on which the vote proposed to be reconsidered shall have taken place, unless the same shall be made by the committee on Enrolled Bills for verbal or grammatical errors in said bill, when the same may be made at any time. transmit the same and the papers relating thereto to the other with a message certifying its action thereon.

6. It shall be in order for either House to recede from any subject matter of difference existing between the two Houses, at any time previous to conference, whether the papers on which such difference arose are before the House receding formally or informally, and on such vote to recede, the same number shall be required to constitute a quorum to act thereon and to assent to such receding, as was required on the original question out of which the difference arose.

7. All joint committees of the two Houses, and all committees of conference shall consist of three Senators and five members of the House of Representatives, unless otherwise specially ordered by concurrent resolution.
