Major John W. Graham.

MY DEAR COUSIN:—Yours of the 24th, apprising me of the introduction of a bill in the Legislature to allow me a pension of $100 per month, was certainly a great surprise. I most warmly appreciate this most loyal tribute to the name of my hero-husband, and tender my heartfelt thanks for the proffered honor and benefit, but I do not feel that I would be justified in accepting it. I am informed that the law in North Carolina limits all pensions to those who have not $500 of personal property, and as I do not come under this law I respectfully request that the bill be withdrawn. I would also suggest that the pension which has been so magnanimously proposed in my behalf be appropriated to the relief of the destitute widows of Confederate veterans. It would also please me far more to see our Honorable Assembly take measures for a reformatory for the good of the State.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

Senator Daniel, for the committee of conference on S. B. 616, bill to be entitled "An act to establish rates for passenger traffic in the State of North Carolina," and H. B. 790, entitled "An act prescribing charges railroad companies may make for transporting passengers," sends forward the report of the committee of conference on the part of the Senate and of the House of Representatives, which is as follows:

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly of North Carolina:

Your conferees on the part of the Senate and on the part of the House of Representatives, appointed to confer concerning the matters of difference between the Senate and the House of Representatives on the subject of railroad passenger rates, as indicated in H. B. No. 790, it being a bill to be entitled "An act prescribing the charges railroad companies may make for transporting passengers," and S. B. No. 616, it being a bill to be entitled "An act establishing rates for passenger traffic in the State of North Carolina," respectfully submit the following report:

The main points of difference between the two bills is as to the maximum and minimum passenger rates to be charged by railroads in North Carolina. The House bill provided for a rate of two cents, two and one-half cents, and three cents per mile. The Senate bill provided for a first-class fare of two and one-half cents per mile and a second-class fare of two cents per mile.

The Senate conferees, endeavoring to carry out the wishes of the Senate, as expressed in Senate bill 616, contended that this committee should recommend to the two houses a bill providing for two classes of fares—first-class at two and one-half cents per mile, and second-class at two cents per mile.

The committee on the part of the House, believing that the House of Representatives is opposed to two fares, were unwilling to agree to recommend to the House of Representatives any bill providing two classes of fares. The committee on the part of the Senate thereupon contested for a flat rate of two and one-half cents per mile, insisting that a majority of the Senate approved that rate, if only one fare is to be fixed.

The members of the committee on the part of the House were unwilling to recommend as high a rate as two and one-half cents per mile as the maximum passenger charges on any railroad within the State. The members of the committee on the part of the Senate insisted that they could not represent the sentiment of the Senate if they agreed to recommend as low a rate as two cents per mile for passenger charges on any railroad in the State as a maximum charge; and it being absolutely necessary that there should be an agreement between the two houses on this important matter, your committee, after due consideration, and in a spirit of concession and compromise, have agreed to recommend and do hereby recommend to the Senate and the House of Representatives that the maximum charge for all railroad companies having a mileage of more than sixty miles be upon a basis of not exceeding two and one-fourth cents per mile; and in accordance with this agreement we have drawn a substitute bill providing a flat rate of not exceeding two and one-fourth cents per mile, with certain exceptions, which are, in our opinion, necessary; and we respectfully recommend to the House and the Senate that the said substitute bill, which is hereto attached, be adopted by both houses, to settle this question.

Respectfully submitted,

W. E. Daniel,
B. F. Aycock,
Chas. A. Webb,
Senate Committee.
J. S. Manning,
R. L. Stevens,
B. B. Winborne,
House Committee.

Senator Daniel also sends forward the following as the bill agreed upon by the committee of conference on the part of the Senate and of the House of Representatives:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT PRESCRIBING THE MAXIMUM CHARGES RAILROAD COMPANIES MAY MAKE FOR TRANSPORTING PASSENGERS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Section 1. That no railroad company doing business as a common carrier of passengers in the State of North Carolina, except as hereinafter provided, shall charge, demand or receive for transporting any passenger and his or her baggage not exceeding in weight two hundred pounds, from any station on its railroad in North Carolina to any other station on its said road in North Carolina, a rate in excess of two and one-quarter cents per mile, and for transporting children twelve years of age or under one-half of the rate above described: Provided, that the Corporation Commission of North Carolina is hereby authorized and empowered to permit all independently owned and operated railroad companies in North Carolina whose mileage of road is sixty miles or under to charge a rate for transporting passengers not in excess of the present rate fixed and prescribed for said road, and also to permit all railroads constructed within the twelve months preceding the first day of January, 1907, or at that time in course of construction, for a

In the case that any railroad company operating as a common carrier of passengers in the State of North Carolina is owned, controlled or operated by lease or other agreement by any railroad company doing business in said State, the rate for carrying passengers thereon as prescribed by this act shall be determined for said railroad by the rate prescribed by this act for the railroad company which owns, controls or operates the same; and the North Carolina Corporation Commission shall publish the rates fixed by this act for the several railroad companies operating in this State on or before the first day of June, 1907.

Sec. 3. That mileage-books of one thousand miles in each book shall be kept on sale at such railroad ticket offices in North Carolina as shall be named and designated by the Corporation Commission of North Carolina, and when such mileage-book is purchased it shall be good in the hands of any person or persons named therein on all railroads on which the fare is the same as or less than the fare on the road of the company selling such mileage-book; and when the mileage is detached from said book by any other railroad company than the one which sold it, the said mileage shall be redeemable on demand by the railroad company which sold it.

Sec. 4. That any railroad company violating any provision of this act shall be liable to a penalty of five hundred dollars for each violation, payable to the person aggrieved by such violation, and recoverable in an action to be instituted in the name of said person in any court of this State having competent jurisdiction thereof; and any agent, servant or employee of any railroad company violating this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the court.
Sec. 5. That any person or persons, except those permitted by law, who accept free transportation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 6. That section 2618 of the Revisal of 1905 is hereby repealed, and all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 7. That this act shall be in force from and after July 1, 1907.

MR. PRESIDENT AND MR. SPEAKER:—We, the members of your conference committee, after considering S. B. 383, H. B. 690, to amend section 1448 of the Revisal, and House amendment there to, agree that the House recede from its position and that said amendment be withdrawn, and that said bill be adopted as passed by the Senate.

W. E. Breese, Jr.,
H. N. Pharr,
G. L. Park,

E. R. Preston.

The report is adopted.

Senator Reid and others send forward the following explanation of their votes, and, by consent of the Senate, it is ordered spread upon the Journal:

By leave of the Senate, we file this explanation of our votes on the final passage in the Senate:

We voted "Aye" because it is claimed that it will reach to some trust, though the exact one does not appear with any degree of clearness to us, and it is further claimed that it will give relief to some of the people.

Hoping this may be true, we voted for it, although we cannot see how it can do much good or afford much, if any, relief to those making demands on us.

By the amendment of the Senate striking out subsection (f), the chief trust doing most harm in North Carolina is virtually exempted, and, if any relief is afforded, it is against some of the less powerful ones.

By the Senate amendment striking out the machinery for its enforcement and requiring the Attorney-General to institute and prosecute the offenses created thereby, the conviction thereunder is rendered very much less certain, especially since the power to require the affidavit as provided for is likewise taken from it.

Reuben D. Reid,
W. E. Breese, Jr.,
Jackson Greer,
B. F. Aycock,
W. E. Daniel,
C. M. Wilson,
J. Allen Holt.
