MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message is received from His Excellency, Governor O. Max Gardner:

Mr. President and Members of the Senate:

I have the honor of transmitting a copy of a Joint Resolution of Congress proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States fixing the commencement of the term of President, Vice President and Members of Congress and fixing the time of the assembling of Congress.

For many years the long delays in needed legislation and prompt administration have caused thoughtful statesmen to urge a change in the fundamental law so that less time would intervene between the election of and the inauguration of a new President and a new Congress. Several times one branch of Congress has voted to submit such an amendment to the states, only to have the reform stayed in the other branch. The Senate of the United States in recent years has voted several times for submission of an amendment to shorten the interval between election and the taking of office. Upon the organization of the 72nd Congress, the Norris amendment, coming over from the Senate, received the approval of the House. Now, as soon as three-fourths of the states vote approval of the pending amendment to the Constitution, a new chief executive of the United States will be inaugurated on January 20th after his election in November, and the new Congress chosen in November will begin to function on the 3rd of January, the amendment upon which the Legislatures are to pass containing this provision:

"The terms of the President and Vice President shall end at noon on the 20th day of January and the terms of Senators and Representatives at noon on the 3rd of January, of the years in which such terms would have ended if this article had not been ratified; and the terms of their successors shall then begin."

When thirty-six states vote "aye" the interval of marking time for four months will no longer impede prompt obedience to the recorded mandates of the people.

The present critical situation emphasizes the arguments heretofore presented for advancing the time of inauguration of the President and the organization of Congress. In a period when from ocean to ocean the people are insistent that the pledges made in the presidential campaign by the successful party be immediately redeemed, a stalemate stands between their expectation and the realization of their desires. An outgoing Congress does not feel itself bound to follow the decrees of an election in which many of them were retired. The outgoing President, not in sympathy with important items of the program of the President-elect, feels no compulsion to change the policies or the convictions which have controlled his action during his term of office. It has, therefore, often happened, that between November and March there is an impasse. In ordinary times this is to be deplored, but in crucial days like these in which we are now living it is serious. Delay halts action, and failure of quick action tends to destroy hope and faith and united effort. The sooner the change is made the sooner will government function without lost motion.

This amendment now submitted to the General Assembly of North Carolina has already been ratified by the General Assemblies of the fifteen states which have been in session since the action of Congress. Nowhere has any real opposition been voiced to what is regarded as an over-due reform. I earnestly trust that this General Assembly will give immediate consideration to the matter and voice what seems to be the unanimous sentiment of North Carolinians by the ratification of the amendment.

Respectfully submitted,

O. MAX GARDNER, Governor.
A message is received from the House of Representatives, transmitting the following bills and resolutions:

The resolution passes its second reading, ayes 49, noes none, as follows:

Senator McNeill of Cumberland, then presents Governor O. Max Gardner, who in turn presents Governor-elect John C. B. Ehringhaus, and the oath of office is administered to him by Chief Justice W. P. Stacy of the Supreme Court.

Governor John C. B. Ehringhaus delivers his inaugural address, which is as follows:

"Reverently and in the full consciousness of the moment's responsibilities I take up the duties of this great office. To me it has always symbolized the ultimate in political achievement, but I find that the realization of a life's ambition brings only an overwhelming sense of responsibility and inadequacy: for confronting us at this hour are problems of such magnitude as the State has not faced since Reconstruction days; problems which challenge, in each of us who are charged with their solution, the ultimate of our capacities of head and heart and hand, and give us timorous pause lest in spite of conscientious effort we go finally amiss.

North Carolina at the Cross-Roads

For whether we are willing to admit it or not, the State which we love has reached the cross-roads of its financial destiny, and upon our present choice of highways depends its economic salvation and stability. In the years when prosperity blessed us and the pursuit of exalted ideals in governmental activities as well as a various and ever increasing demand for governmental services beckoned us constantly to an increased and ever increasing spending, we launched upon a program and practice which, however great its social and economic dividends, lays upon us, in these difficult days, a burden and yoke that galls and grinds and terrifies us. There is neither disposition nor desire to quarrel at the past—to fix responsibility or apportion blame for the burdens of the present. The urge was universal, the call well-nigh unanimous. The condemnation, if such there be, must be shared by all, and the speculation as to culprits is foolish and futile. There is, too, much of consolation in the recollection that the investments which consumed this spending may be reckoned yet as economic and social assets. North Carolina can stand before her sister states unashamed of the part she has played in the delirious drama of development marking the past decade.

As late as June, 1928, our financial condition was not serious or the cause of reasonable apprehension. Our revenues were steady and in excess of estimates; our farms and factories productive and profitable. We were meeting with ease and promptness our bond maturities both in State and local subdivisions, and all seemed rosy as a summer’s dream.

But the waves of a great national adversity have now overtaken us and the time has come for reckoning, self-appraisal, inventory of our condition, and the setting of our house in financial order.

Estimates prepared by State officials covering our situation as of July 1, 1933, on the basis of present expenditures and levies, indicate a predicted total operating deficit of $12,500,000. The figures here presented are compiled on a cash as distinguished from an accrual basis.

Recall the fact that we are committed to the elimination of the State-wide 15-cent levy for the six months school term (which involves a relinquishment of approximately four million dollars each year of revenue), and the problem of a balanced budget assumes real proportions—particularly in view of our platform pledge of “every reasonable effort for the avoidance of additional taxes.”

Consider, too, that we have come to this position where we are burdened with a presently accumulated deficit of approximately $9,430,000, in large part through efforts to keep up, as far as possible, the present level of spending for certain purposes, our reluctance to make further cuts, our desire to maintain these services on a cash basis, and that this borrowing (short time) has itself added to our annual burden an additional load in interest charges of many hundred thousands. Recall that, but for the exercise by Governor Gardner of his powers as Director of the Budget, and the cutting of appropriations thereunder, we would today (on the basis of the last legislative appropriations) have an additional deficit of $8,850,000, or a grand total of $17,850,000.

When we recall the courageous action of Governor Gardner and his uncanny divination of financial “breakers ahead,” when the President himself was heralding a new and enlarged era of prosperity; when we recall that by this action legislative appropriations were reduced the first year $1,450,000, then $2,100,000, then $2,600,000, and this year about $2,700,000; when we remember that but for this action the presently accumulated deficit would be greater by many millions and our State no doubt on a scrip basis and in financial chaos; when we recall his achievement in reducing general governmental expenses from $8,658,000 to $6,164,000, a decrease of 29 per cent; when we remember the setting up by the Legislature of agencies which have resulted in damming the tide of municipal debt increase and promoting a substantial reduction thereof (amounting in principal and interest last year to over twenty million dollars), the relief offered to property owners aggregating $25,000,000 in the last two years, the reduction of the total tax bill in the State from $102,000,000 in 1929-30 to $89,000,000 in 1931-32, and to probably $86,000,000 in 1932-33, and the maintenance of governmental services in reasonable efficiency through these days of stress and strain, we may well be proud of our State and its leadership—Executive and Legislative—through the past quadrennium.
Not for purposes of invidious comparison, but solely to get the proper setting for our picture, let us look for a moment at the present situation in the Nation and in our neighbor states.

The National governmental expenses have increased in the last quadrennium to an alarming extent and its general fund deficit is accumulating at a daily rate that staggers the imagination. In our neighboring states financial difficulties are quite the order of the day, and in some of them already a condition of practical insolvency exists—the governments are almost incapable of functioning—payrolls met with scrip or simply passed by, institutions dying for want of cash, and the people hopeless in the face of ever increasing difficulties.

In relief of local subdivisions of school and highway burden North Carolina takes first rank. The plenitude of her provision for these cases cannot be matched by a single Southern commonwealth. In deed it will bear comparison with any state of similar resources and with most of her richer sisters.

But the sad truth confronts us that our revenues in practically every source are shrinking in serious if not alarming proportions. For proof of this I need only refer to this week's official bulletin of our Revenue Department.

Our commitments for debt service and sinking fund for highway bonds for next year total roughly nine and one-half millions. Our estimated revenue for highways on basis of present levies and undiminished yield is $18,000,000. But at least one competent authority suggests that since this source has only recently begun to reflect the depression, we may look for even greater recessions, and puts his estimate as low as $14,000,000, which prediction, if it should eventuate, would leave an uncomfortably narrow margin for maintenance and none for construction.

And last of all, ladies and gentlemen of the Assembly, the simple truth is that unquestionably and undeniably we have reached the end of our capacity to borrow. It profits us nothing to quarrel at those who hold the purse-strings and drive hard bargains in interest charges because of our predicament. The temples of the great money changers are far distant, and even the sovereignty of the State cannot reach them. To them in financial plight it must go a suppliant. The dollars we seek to borrow are theirs; they may lend or refuse as they choose, and we have found through sad experience that, in the case of states as well as individuals, a budget out of balance is an impossible basis of borrowing.

Ladies and gentlemen of the Assembly, the most important and imperative duty that rests upon you greets you at the threshold of your labors—The Budget Must Be Balanced Immediately! And when I say balanced I mean balanced on the basis of substantial certainty—beyond cavil, doubt, or disputation. Unless this is accomplished quickly chaos, confusion, contumely, defaults, scrip payments, and destruction of our institutions are immediately ahead. It is an ugly picture. I paint it with reluctance, but in such an hour the plain, unvarnished truth is best. North Carolina knows how "to take it on the chin and take it standing up."
The Way Out

Remember now that on the basis of present appropriation commitments (not amounts requested, which are greatly in excess of this) and present tax levies, we start this good year 1933 with a deficit of $9,430,000 accumulated in our general fund, with additional obligations to special funds approximating $3,000,000; that in addition to this we have a net funded debt of $147,740,877; that by the end of this fiscal year, that is, June 30, 1933, our deficit would probably reach $12,500,000; that we must on this basis find additional revenues to absorb this deficit and also to absorb the accumulating deficit we face as well as the interest charges on it and the $3,850,000 loss of State revenue by relinquishment of the yield from the 15-cent property tax levy; must absorb as well any additional shrinkage in revenue below present levels if further shrinkage occurs, as seems most likely, and you begin to get at the problem before you. What is the answer?

When income and outgo are out of balance states as well as individuals are compelled to do one of three things: (a) cut expenses, (b) increase revenues, or (c) work out a combination of both. To undertake the imposition at this time of additional tax levies sufficient to carry on our necessary governmental functions and to absorb as well in the next biennium our accumulated deficit would be, in the present burdened condition of our people and their activities, a cruelty as well as a practical impossibility. Some method of short-term or serial financing of this deficit must be found on a basis of interest charges that are not unduly burdensome. I speak within the bounds of accurate information when I say that even this is improbable except upon the basis of drastically reduced spending levels and a manifestly balanced budget. Our only hope of accomplishing such financing is predicated upon this.

Appropriations mean nothing unless they may be interpreted in terms of cash certainly available and may be relied upon as a sound basis of commitment, and we are warned by our situation that further borrowings on the present basis are impossible—that lavish commitments involve not merely the certainty of cuts for want of revenue, but the probability of payment in scrip. The way out is plain but pleasureless; it involves the eating, for a season at least, of the “herbs and dry bread” of a hard self-denial. It challenges our ingenuity for working out plans which will enable us to carry on in efficiency and the preservation of ideals, but on a greatly reduced spending basis. Nay, more than that, it challenges our patriotism. I for one have faith in North Carolina and in the men and women who are the flesh and blood and spirit of the Commonwealth. To say that it cannot be done is to confess failure in advance and invite disaster. Nor would I accept responsibility for what in my judgment is certain to happen if this Assembly should do the unthinkable thing of failing to balance this budget, and of making commitments beyond reasonable expectations and leaving upon the Executive the burden of financing them or cutting them through budgetary control.

Having in mind this situation and the commitments of both parties in the last election, I submit these recommendations for your consideration and approval.
Honesty and fair dealing as well as platform pledges demand that steps be taken at once to resume our time-tried policy of quadrennial assessments. We must have at once a revaluation of property by the usual methods or their equivalent. I mean by this that provision should be made upon the basis of the most economical methods and the greatest possible simplification and at considerable less expense than heretobefore. I am quite sure that such methods can be worked out by you. I concede that this means—in the absence of the effectuation of large economies in local governments—an increased local tax rate to produce the amount required for maintenance of the subdivisions. This fact in itself should prove a powerful force to bring and hold down local spending to reasonable limits—"a consummation devoutly to be wished." Revaluation also involves the danger of the too near approach to constitutional debt limitation by State and subdivisions.

In spite of all of this, I am convinced that such a step is necessary that we may know exactly where we stand, and that property—particularly real property—may have restored to it an honest value as the basis of its tax contribution.

Whether this valuation should stand for the full four years or—in order to restore the old order exactly—for the next biennium only (during which time we indulge the hope for better days), is a question for your wisdom and considered judgment. I am committed to the idea of an immediate revaluation and recommend it. The rest is left to you.

(2) Relief of Present Property Levy

I urge upon you also the immediate relief of property from the 15-cent State-wide levy for support of the six months school term. This is recommended not only as a contribution to the cause of more equitable distribution of the tax load, but also upon the sound theory that the State embarked some time ago upon the policy of segregation; that it has recognized, in the passage of the McLean Law, a constitutional interpretation which imposes the burden of support of the standard term upon the State, and thus has accepted the suggestion that such is an obligation of the State. It must follow, therefore, that this obligation shall be discharged out of revenues segregated or set aside to the State, rather than out of revenues from land or property, which are segregated to local purposes.

To those who would find in present difficulties or necessities an excuse for ignoring these equities as well as the platform pledges of both parties, I would say that such a course involving both personal and party perfidy, is impossible. And to the suggestion that the relief of his properties means but little to the individual, though much in aggregate to the State, I would reply that whether much or little, it is an equity due the landowner; it has been promised him, and woe betide the man or group that now denies him.

(3) Substantial Economy

A substantial, even drastic curtailment in our spending is imperative. Proud as we are of our social progress, we must remember that not even social progress can, for any great time, go ahead faster than material progress. There are many things we would like to do and do quickly, but it is an economic truth that all such undertakings "must have a direct relation to the ability of the State to pay for what it wants." I do not mean by this that we should embark upon a policy of parsimoniousness. Our party pledges, our personal preference, and our ideals and traditions of governmental activities all commit us to the maintenance of our schools, our institutions of higher learning, and our charitable and correctional institutions upon levels of efficiency and high public service. Though these, together with our highway system (which up to this point is self-supporting and about which I shall speak separately), absorb a high percentage of our total revenues, they must be financed in economical efficiency.

As I said on another occasion: "There is a sort of saving which wastes—which crucifies the ideal upon the altar of penuriousness—which in dreadful fear of poverty and privation sees only the costs in dollars of things purchased and senses not values which cannot be reckoned in monetary terms, though adding greatly to the public wealth and welfare. In protecting ourselves against thriftless spending we should be careful not to indulge in impulse towards miserliness or sacrifice those things which are necessary for the preservation of our ideals in government." But the burdens which rest upon our people, which bend the backs of our farmers and laborers, which have consumed the scant earnings of our clerical and professional men, which have devoured the incomes of our rich and powerful, and which have dried up the life blood of the State's support, are such that the levels of our spending must be reduced as the first step on the road to recovery and preservation of our credit and State solvency. Economy with us is not a mere political preachment; it is a way of life. I may mistakenly interpret the sentiment of our people about many things, but on this point I am quite certain. The cost of government—all government—must come down, and that substantially. Make no mistake about that. The demand of the people on this point is imperative and will not brook denial or equivocation.

Every individual taxpayer, every wage earner, every tiller of the soil, every professional man, every merchant, every clerical helper, every charity, every industry, every church, every institution, has seen its income go down, down, down. Some have shrunk "twenty, some fifty, and some an hundredfold." And with the shrinking process has come the necessity to "trim sails"—to cut down expenses. Individuals and corporations are doing it. Government must do the same.

To the suggestion that recession in expenditures means defeat of ideals I venture to reply, that there is no more certain way to insure their defeat than to pursue a path which leads certainly to scrip payments, financial chaos, and repudiation. The heritage of a restricted but honorable opportunity is far more priceless than one which, though enlarged, comes of profligate provision and is pointed towards dishonorable disaster.

For the efficient and economical maintenance of our essential services (and I include in these our schools, charities, and institutions of higher learning) we must bear the burden which such cost imposes. But before we add fresh levies, which do but add to the burdens of the great struggling mass of our people upon whom they ultimately and inevitably fall, it is imperative that we follow a vigorous and unrelenting pruning process. The cruelty of any other course would damn the efforts of all who benefited by it.

(4) Reduction in Operating Cost

The first field for saving is the one nearest at hand—the general governmental set-up, salaries and perquisites. I neither possess nor desire any power or control over the constitutional officers of the State. Save for budgetary control, they are supreme in their respective departments. And may I not at this point interject the observation that I have every confidence in my associates who have been set over these departments by the same sort of popular mandate as put responsibility upon me. I look to them, and I feel confident that I shall receive from each and all of them the utmost of coöperation in the work which is ahead. If there are to be inter-departmental wars they shall not be of my making. In the particular field of economy as in other activities the State expects and no doubt will receive from each of them a full measure of contribution. In the field controlled by executive and legislative appointment I submit the following recommendations:

(a) That the law of 1929 providing an entertainment fund for the Chief Executive be repealed. I have already suggested this to the Budget Commission. It merely evidences my desire to absorb my own share in the burden bearing.

(b) I suggest that the position of Executive Counsel be abolished and the Governor given authority to appoint a Pardon Commissioner at a salary to be fixed by the Legislature and with such stenographic assistance as may be necessary.

(c) The Bureau of Personnel has done valiant service in standardizing our salaries. The work of classification, however, has now been practically completed and the service may, therefore, be very well handled through consolidation of services and by a clerk in the Executive Department.

(d) The Local Government Commission can very well be transferred to the Treasury Department and operated thereunder at a saving of considerable cost, and what is quite as important, be thereby continued under the supervision of the capable officer who has developed its present efficiency and fine spirit of coöperative service.

(e) This General Assembly should give serious thought to the possibility of consolidating our Highway and Prison departments. Certainly there should be a consolidation of all motor vehicle collections under one department. Present practices work for competition in collection, with loss of revenue to the State.

(f) The whole field of governmental set-up should be carefully canvassed by this General Assembly to the end that duplications of effort may be avoided and eliminations and consolidations effected wherever practicable. I believe that the Legislature would make substantial contribution to the cause of economy if it should classify governmental activities into essential and non-essential classes, allowing to the Executive the power, under budgetary control, to discontinue in emergencies those classified as non-essential, or cut down their appropriations before going into the field of essentials. I am convinced that a considerable saving can be worked out through reorganization along these lines. What is equally important is that under such an arrangement a preference could be given to essential services under budgetary control.

(5) No New Commitments

It goes without saying that the State is already laboring under a burden which only the most heroic efforts can meet. It would be unwise under such circumstances for the State to assume any new commitments involving additional financial burden. I urge that the General Assembly refrain from the taking over of any additional obligations. However meritorious such projects may seem, their acceptance by the State at this time is beyond its reasonable capacities.

(6) Highways

The State Highway System in North Carolina is a matter of great pride to its citizenship. It has involved a vast expenditure of money, approximating two hundred millions. Today the State also is maintaining all former county highways. Provision for the discharge of our highway obligations and the maintenance of our highways is made by the imposition of gasoline and motor vehicle taxes. There is a moral, if not a legal, obligation resting upon the State to reserve these funds for highway use, certainly to the extent of discharging all maturing obligations and the provision of sinking fund reserves, and also to the extent of adequate maintenance of the system which has been provided by this great expenditure. In my judgment it would not only be unwise but a breach of faith with those who have purchased our bonds to turn these revenues now into the general fund. It is not difficult to picture consequences of far-reaching importance if such a course should be followed.

I am quite in sympathy with the suggestion that for the next biennium all new construction should be abandoned. But the idea that here is a limitless source of revenue waiting to be tapped for other purposes is manifestly erroneous. Before we begin to distribute the surplus of highway resources it would be best to assure ourselves as to whether there is to be any surplus. And for reasons already pointed out, it is extremely doubtful whether there will be any considerable surplus over the necessary requirements for debt service and adequate maintenance. A failure to maintain properly the system which has cost so much money might bring about a serious deterioration, or even the destruction of this great asset to our State, and this, of course, would mean loss of the entire revenue or a substantial part of the revenue now derived from it. There is a human element involved in this also, which is quite frequently overlooked. I am told that the school busses of North Carolina cover daily, with their load of precious freight, a hundred thousand miles. Surely here is additional reason for adequate maintenance.
(7) Education

The public schools of North Carolina are a matter of first concern. I regard our constitutional obligation along this line not only as mandatory, but as imposing upon us a primary and essential service. All possible economies should be effected before anything is done which would cripple our schools. Non-essential services should suffer or vanish before necessary economy hurts here. I am convinced, however, from personal observation and study, that even in this field there is great chance for saving. There are many things in the curricula of our schools which can presently be eliminated without serious impairment of the educational opportunity. There are consolidations still possible that would involve great reduction in expense. And the endless process of splitting up and specializing supervision does not always work for the weal of an enterprise. Reduction in salaries, if necessary, should be graduated, so as to fall least heavily upon the rank and file and most heavily upon overhead and supervision.

Please understand me. I am not speaking dogmatically here. Expert opinion should be consulted and considered. I have this much of settled opinion on this subject, however: first, a real effort, in full recognition of our necessities and the precarious condition of our finances, will be productive of fruitful suggestions, and I believe that we can count upon the patriotism of the teaching profession to come forward with these once they recognize the realities of our difficult position; second, the suggestion frequently made that we rank forty-fifth or forty-first in schools is either founded upon false standards or there is something radically wrong with our spending. No state which makes direct contribution to the cause of education in excess of the value of its principal crops can be accused of a niggardly policy, or of a lack of sympathy for the cause. With respect to our schools as with respect to our institutions of higher learning, the fullest measure of provision, consistent with our ability to raise revenue without oppression, should be given; but I cannot subscribe to the doctrine that the measure of a man's respect for ideals depends upon his willingness or unwillingness to preserve at all costs any particular salary standard.

(8) Local Government

In giving thought to possible reductions of governmental costs we must not overlook the field of local government. Experience has shown that its cost has arisen more rapidly than that of the State, and that even the taking over by the State of particular functions has not always resulted in local savings. I do not charge this entirely to local error; I think all too frequently the State has neglected a great opportunity to serve. It is my thought that we should begin at once a real effort towards a sympathetic and cooperative supervision of local governments. Accordingly, I propose that the Legislature should enact at once statutes designed to accomplish the following:

(a) Full opportunity for voluntary consolidation of counties through popular approval in every county affected.

(b) Similar opportunity for consolidation between counties and cities or towns.
(c) Provision for the consolidation of particular functions so that one officer may perform the same duty for both city and county, at a saving to both.

(d) The right of municipal boards or boards of county commissioners to consolidate or eliminate statutory offices, and thus effect savings in operation.

(e) A general statute eliminating any mandatory requirement of any particular office in county, city, or town.

(f) A general statute providing that all municipal salaries fixed by the General Assembly should be interpreted as establishing a maximum only, so as to facilitate local reductions when desirable or necessary.

(g) A provision for a supervision of expenditures and tax levies by governmental subdivisions through the Local Government Commission, and along the lines of present supervision of debt creations. The principle of publicity after departmental checking of increased tax levies could be utilized to hold down extravagant tendencies.

(h) A comprehensive plan of sympathetic assistance by the Commission in working out something of relief through extension of debt maturities. There is grave danger of an increase of municipal defaults, and these have unfortunate reflections in our State situation.

(i) A simplification and reduction of the cost of tax foreclosure. Present practices are nothing short of oppressive.

(j) Real consideration of possible plans of foreclosure postponement of back taxes should be given to the end that, if practicable, a reasonable scheme of sale postponement, without loss of lien, may be formulated. I have no reference to this year's taxes. We are trying to start a new deal. There is here no thought of invading the province of local self-government, but only to provide a supervisory restraint upon extravagant tendencies. A similar proposal has been made by Governor Roosevelt of New York. It must be remembered, too, that these subdivisions are the creatures of the Legislature, and that in providing supervision the Legislature is but safeguarding the power which it has itself granted.

Discontinuance of Unrestrained Fee Expenditures

As a relic of the past we have still in certain departments the practice of expenditure of fees without budget control. I favor the discontinuance of this and the requirement that all fees collected be turned into the General Fund and all expenditures of each department be upon a budget basis.

Agricultural Improvement

It is perhaps unnecessary for me to say here anything with reference to the need of agriculture for every possible consideration. There is little in the way of legislation which can be done to improve the situation. But I do wish this General Assembly and the people of North Carolina to know that I am genuinely interested in and firmly determined to do whatever possible to help this situation. The "live at home" campaign of the past four years has meant much more than was anticipated, and has helped immeasurably to soften the blow of our present economic crisis. It is my desire to lend every possible encouragement to a continuation of this activity. I am convinced, however, that the natural follow-up to this campaign is a campaign for more livestock, dairying, and poultry in North Carolina. The need for developing activities along this line is manifest when we consider that according to the census of 1920 North Carolina, with unexcelled possibilities, was next to the lowest state in the Union in livestock production.

And though we have made some progress in this respect, we are still far down the list of states in rank. It has been pointed out that the Northern agricultural states have a great advantage in per capita income over the Southern agricultural states, and this advantage is largely because of superior development of the livestock industry. I shall welcome the chance to assist in an effort to bring about a substantial improvement in this situation in the next years, and I urge upon the membership of this Assembly the utilization of every opportunity to assist in this movement.

Commendation for General Assembly

May I not commend this General Assembly for having, even in the brief period of its service, manifested a fixed determination to hold down expenses and expenditures? Under the splendid leadership of your presiding officers you will no doubt continue your efforts for real, constructive service to the State. Let me assure you that at no time will you be able to discover in me the slightest desire to usurp any legislative function or to encroach upon your prerogatives, but only an earnest wish to cooperate with you in the solution of our common problem. When all is said and done, the responsibility of matching tax provision with tax expenditure is yours, and I am quite confident that you will make expeditious progress towards the accomplishment of this balance. I am quite certain that nothing could happen in North Carolina which would give more heart to its struggling people and more strength to its credit than the expedition by this body of its consideration of the revenue, machinery, and appropriation bills.

There are other matters about which I may wish later to give you my opinion, or I may reach the conclusion that some matters herein should be discussed more elaborately. I have endeavored in this to set forth general principles, and this message has also been prepared under the handicap of personal illness.

An Appeal for Harmony

One thing more and I am through. In times like these it is inevitable that there should come to us wild and baseless rumors of cynical and unfriendly alliances. To believe is to discount essential patriotism and to court disaster. To all such I have invariably turned a deaf and disbelieving ear. May I not say this much further with reference to such suggestions?

If there are minds bent upon the mischief of unthinking opposition and policies of negation for mere negation's sake, I do not know them. If there are hearts which cherish, in the face of the State's tremendous need and the challenge of this pregnant hour, the petty animosities of past political conflicts, I shall not permit myself to be embroiled or embarrassed by them. If there are lances raised and shafts aquiver to spend themselves in frustrating our efforts merely for the joy of frustration or the advancement of personal or political prestige, I refuse to see them. The good God is my witness that I come to this moment with no sense of personal triumph or exaltation, that I am actuated only by the desire to serve my State well in its hour of need; to bind up party wounds, if wounds there be; to build in the land we love an enduring harmony, to take the good and great in every suggestion from whatever quarter it emanates, to bend in gentleness the combined and ultimate patriotism of the entire citizenship to the service and salvation of the Commonwealth. Ladies and gentlemen of the Assembly, there is war,—economic war—ahead; yea, it is even now upon us. There confronts us at this hour a peril as deadly, a conflict as momentous, as any which, in stirring days past, has summoned Carolina's sons to arms. In such an hour he who prates of petty quarrels wastes precious time in nothingness; he who puts personal advantage ahead of the State's good serves the cause of the enemy and brands himself traitor to his sovereign mother. I welcome the chance to work with you in high and unselfish endeavor. With hearts aflame and minds alert, let us go forward. We do battle for a holy cause. We shall triumph over our adversities only as and because under God we shall deserve to triumph. There is inspiration in the knowledge that we do battle for North Carolina."

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message is received from His Excellency, Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus:

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, and Members of the General Assembly:

In compliance with the provisions of our statutes I transmit to you here-with the budget for the biennium from June 30, 1933, to June 30, 1935, for the fiscal years 1933-34 and 1934-35, as submitted by the outgoing administration. Accompanying it also are revenue and appropriation acts prepared in accord with the budget proposals.

These of course were all prepared upon the basis of a continuance of the present governmental set-up. With them is a vast quantity of valuable and most useful information which no doubt will aid you greatly in the task that is before you. These bills also will provide a beginning point from which you may direct your efforts.
While there is much contained in these reports with which I find myself in accord, I feel constrained to record my dissent to them in certain substantial particulars.

You will observe by reference to the Budget, page 9, that "these recommendations as to balancing contemplate covering a probable deficiency, after repealing the 15 cent ad valorem property tax levy, of ten million dollars," for the year 1933-34, and substantially the same amount for the year 1934-35. You will observe also that the proposal to effect this contemplates:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>$</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1933-34</td>
<td>3,000,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1934-35</td>
<td>3,000,000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(a) Reducing General Fund Expenses...........$ 3,000,000
(b) Refunding General Fund B. Maturities 1,150,000
(c) Transfer of Highway Revenue............. 2,000,000
(d) and replacing the 15 cents on property tax with new levies........... 3,850,000

Totals ...........................................$10,000,000

In the very few hours since these were submitted to me I have had no sufficient opportunity for a careful review of the detail of each of these proposals. A submission of such detail is neither necessary nor proper at this time. It will be sufficient for me to submit the following observations:

The action of the General Assembly, in line with my inaugural suggestion that "the whole field of governmental set-up should be carefully canvassed to the end that duplications of efforts may be avoided and eliminations and consolidations effected wherever practicable," increases the prospect of even greater economies than those herein proposed, and certainly will result in the elimination of various items for which provision is herein made. The appointment of strong and able committees by both branches of the Assembly has reassured the public mind and met with widespread approval. I feel confident that out of this enterprise will come a real substantial economy and more accurate appraisal of what may thus be saved is, in my judgment, the first step in your preparation of budget, appropriation, and revenue measures for the next biennium. I am impressed, too, with the idea that the reductions here proposed follow too largely the idea of horizontal decreases without considering, as is vital, the difference between the essential and non-essential services. In this connection, I venture to repeat my suggestion that this General Assembly will do well if it will—even as to those for which it finally makes provision—"classify governmental activities into essential and non-essential classes," with provision for budgetary discrimination as therein pointed out; I am also of the opinion that all salary reductions should be graduated.

New Taxes

These measures propose a substantial increase in tax levies. While I have no objection to readjustments which do not add to present burdens or which effectuate their more equitable distribution or to corrections of manifest errors or to levies upon enterprises which have heretofore escaped taxation, I do not think that substantial levies, involving new burdens, should be considered unless and until every effort has been exhausted for economy consistent with the preservation of essential services and activities. Until we have definitely determined how much we can save and only then will we be justified in considering the imposition upon our people of the burden which such new levies will entail. If this unhappy necessity should eventuate, then such levies should be "earmarked" for the essential services for which required. And it should be made plain also that such levies are temporary and emergency levies only. Under no consideration should we permit these to be considered or construed as invitations to spending agencies to raise or maintain spending levels. A substantial economy is not only imperative but it is the first step in budget balancing.

The Transfer of Highway Funds

You will observe that this budget proposes to divert two million dollars of highway funds to the general fund of the State as a means of balancing the budget. I cannot give my approval to this suggestion. An indirect diversion is just as objectionable as one directly made. My reasons for this opposition need not be here set forth at length. In the main they have been indicated in my inaugural message. However, it is proper to observe here that in view of the rapid decrease in highway revenues which has been noted since July 1, last, it would seem that the prospect of any such surplus above debt service and reasonable maintenance cost is too insubstantial to warrant us in accepting this provision as a basis of budget balancing. As a further evidence of the possibility of continued decreases and the uncertainty of supposing that we shall have the same revenue next year as last in this fund, there has recently been prepared a statement covering the sales of new passenger cars and trucks in North Carolina for several years past. Here are the figures:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Passenger</th>
<th>Trucks</th>
<th>Total</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1925</td>
<td>64,537</td>
<td>5,904</td>
<td>70,441</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1926</td>
<td>66,296</td>
<td>6,440</td>
<td>72,736</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1927</td>
<td>59,877</td>
<td>7,340</td>
<td>67,217</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1928</td>
<td>57,607</td>
<td>7,010</td>
<td>64,617</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1929</td>
<td>64,171</td>
<td>9,609</td>
<td>73,780</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1930</td>
<td>33,768</td>
<td>6,483</td>
<td>40,251</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1931</td>
<td>28,088</td>
<td>6,821</td>
<td>34,909</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1932</td>
<td>15,300</td>
<td>3,698</td>
<td>18,998</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

You will see from this table that the past year has shown a decrease in sales of new automobiles and trucks to the point where it is less than one-third of the peak. This is strong indication of the reasonable probability of an even greater shrinkage. The estimates of probable revenues as set out on pages 60 and 61 of the Budget, here transmitted, lends further proof and probability to this suggestion.
Refunding of General Fund Maturities

I must call your attention also to the fact as appears from a perusal of this budget, that the balancing here proposed contemplates the refunding of our general fund bond maturities during the next biennium amounting to $1,150,000 for the fiscal years 1933-34 and $1,738,000 for the fiscal year 1934-35. Most respectfully, but emphatically, I suggest that this does not constitute a balanced budget. Certainly it does not accord with my idea of the necessities of the present situation if we are to preserve our credit and set up a really balanced budget. It is not difficult to differentiate between the funding of a casual deficit—even one as large as we have presently accumulated—and the funding of a maturing obligation. Our casual deficit is due to unprecedented economic conditions, universally present, and resulting in unforeseen and largely unforeseeable shrinkage in revenue. The funding of a casual deficit is a recognized practice in the world of sound finance. The refunding of maturing obligations is there regarded as an evidence of financial instability.

There are other things which might be said here, but these are sufficient and I refrain for the further reason that I am anxious to get these measures before you at the earliest possible moment, to the end that you may promptly proceed with your labors.

Let me repeat, because it seems to me that it cannot be too greatly emphasized, that it is imperatively necessary that this Legislature should match its appropriations with its provisions and provide for an undeniably balanced budget. If the set-up which should be finally adopted is predicated upon what in reasonable probability may be classified as an uncertainty, or is built upon the basis of refunding maturing obligations, our whole financial structure is jeopardized and the credit of the State imperiled. We can never hope to float the bonds necessary to cover our accumulated casual deficit or to make such short term borrowings as may be necessary from time to time; we can never hope to obtain such financing as we need upon reasonable interest terms, unless and until we have provided a budget balanced upon the basis of substantial certainty. With this done, and with a real economy program, we can look hopefully towards the future.

J. C. B. Ehringhaus, Governor.

January 16, 1933.

The message is referred to the Committees on Finance and Appropriations.

Senator Moore for the Joint Committee of the Senate and House of Representatives on reorganization of the State Government submits the following report:

To the General Assembly of North Carolina:

Your Joint Committee on Reorganization of State Government respectfully submit for your consideration the following report:

The General Assembly having already passed such legislation as could become effective for a reduction in the salaries of the Governor and constitutional state officers and your Committee regarding such reductions as consistent with the remaining recommendations of the Committee do not further refer to these officers in the general scheme of economy which your Committee undertakes to present and in this report will undertake to take the several departments of government to which they will refer in the order in which the same are set up in the Budget Appropriation Bill submitted at this session.

Governor's Office

1. Your Committee recommend that the position of Executive Counsel shall be abolished.

2. Your Committee recommend that the office of the Director of the Department of Personnel shall be abolished and that the duties and functions of this department shall be transferred to the Budget Bureau.

3. We respectfully recommend that the Budget Bureau now being under the Governor's supervision and control, shall have its offices in the Capitol adjacent to the Governor's office so that he may at all times have contact therewith, and your Committee recommend for this purpose that this bureau shall be assigned to the offices in the Capitol Building now occupied by the Treasurer.
4. We recommend that the office of Superintendent of State-owned farms shall be abolished.

Secretary of State

5. Your Committee respectfully recommend that the office of the secretary of the State Board of Elections shall be transferred to the Secretary of State's office and his functions and duties shall be performed by the Secretary of State as an extra duty of his office, without additional compensation, and if legislation is necessary for this purpose then that such legislation shall be immediately enacted by this General Assembly.

6. The Secretary of State now the Secretary to the Board on Public Buildings and Grounds shall be charged with the management and care of public buildings and grounds, with full responsibility therefor subject to the directions of the Board and subject to the control of the Director of the Budget, and it is respectfully recommended that in many of the labors incident to the preservation of the grounds and buildings convict labor should be used in a part of this work with great economy to the State, and this Committee recommend that such legislation be adopted as may be necessary to carry into operation this recommendation so that the expenses of this department may be substantially reduced.

State Treasurer

7. It is recommended by your Committee that there shall be transferred to the State Treasurer the duties and functions of the Director of the Local Government Commission and that the duties and administration of this office shall be administered by the State Treasurer without other or additional compensation from the State and in connection with his office as treasurer.

8. We recommend that the office of the Treasurer be moved to the Revenue Building where space shall be provided.

8-a. Your Committee recommend that the World War Veterans' Loan Fund be transferred to the State Treasurer's office, and that the Office of Commissioner of the World War Veterans' Loan Fund be consolidated with that of the State Treasurer without additional compensation.

8-b. Your Committee recommend that the Tax Commission shall be abolished and that the essential duties of this Commission shall be transferred to the Department of Revenue without any appropriation therefor, and the Commissioner of Revenue shall make a biennial report on the tax situation without any additional expense to the State.

Attorney General

9. It is recommended that the Attorney General shall be the legal adviser to the Governor and all departments, bureaus, agencies and commissions of the State and shall at all times represent the State in all matters in which it may be interested; and shall have the assistant attorneys general as now provided by law. No department, agency, bureau or commission of the State shall employ any regular, special or any other counsel except by and with the advice and approval of the Governor and the Attorney General.
10. That the Department of the Legislative Reference Librarian shall be transferred to the Department of the Attorney General, and the Legislative Reference Librarian shall in addition to the duties of his office assist the Attorney General and perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Attorney General all without additional compensation.

Department of Revenue

11. Your Committee respectfully recommend that there shall be a readjustment of the Department of Revenue and that the legislation concerning its functions shall be so amended as to prevent loss of revenue resulting from inability to promptly collect revenues due this Department and to the end that the Department may function more efficiently. It is particularly recommended that the law relating to the collection of gasoline taxes and the giving of a bond in connection therewith for the protection of the State from loss of revenue due and owing to it shall be so amended as to fully protect the interests of the State and require and compel the payment of revenues due to it promptly.

12. We recommend that the Gasoline and Oil Inspection Division, now in the Department of Agriculture, shall be transferred to the Motor Vehicle Division of the Department of Revenue. The analytical work is to be continued in the laboratory of the Department of Agriculture as at present.

13. We recommend that the Department of Weights and Measures now in the Department of Agriculture shall be transferred to the Motor Vehicle Division of the Department of Revenue.

14. We recommend that the State Highway Patrol shall be transferred from the Highway Department to the Motor Vehicle Division of the Department of Revenue and that in addition to their other duties, the Highway Patrol shall be required to perform the duties of gasoline and oil inspectors, and the inspection of weights and measures, and to assume the duties of the Theft Bureau and such other duties as may be assigned to them.

Department of Public Instruction

15. The Superintendent of Public Instruction as the administrative head of the educational department of the State is presumed to have the advice and assistance of the Board of Education, which under the laws of the State consist of the Council of State who are so engaged in other duties pertaining to their respective offices that they have little time to give to the consideration of the essential functions of this department. In this situation, a division called the Board of Equalization consisting of one member from each congressional district, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and two members at large, has been set up as a body with certain powers and control over the school administration of the State, and your Committee recommend that the powers and duties of this Board of Equalization in connection with the conduct and administration of the public schools of the State, shall be somewhat enlarged, extended, and made more flexible to the end that greater economy may be effected and emergencies met in the administration of our Public School System.
16. That there shall be enacted legislation preventing "repeaters," that is, students who have finished and completed their course of public school education, from returning to or utilizing the public schools of the State for the purpose of acquiring additional or specialized educational training. Your committee is informed that this system of "repeaters" which has been permitted in the State adds to the public school cost approximately $180,000 per year which should be used in the education and training of the children entitled to the same.

17. In the Department of Public Education, your Committee respectfully recommend that supervisors should be eliminated or reduced to a minimum and this could be done at a saving of $30,000.00 per year.

18. Your Committee recommend that the appropriation for the conduct of the public schools shall be put under the control of the Advisory Budget Commission in the same manner as are all appropriations for the maintenance of all other departments and institutions of State government and that the educational bill of this session shall be so drawn as to permit all necessary economies to be effected in the administration of the same.

19. The Board of Equalization should be given power to fix and regulate the High Schools of the State and to fix the teaching load in the public schools and to lay down certain rules for the county superintendents. It is frequently more economical to transport high school students a few more miles where a sufficient number can be properly and economically instructed than it is to have and maintain high schools with a small attendance.

State Library and Library Commission

20. Your Committee recommend that the State Librarian shall be made the Director of the Library Commission thereby combining the two positions of State Librarian and Director of the Library Commission, without additional compensation, and thereby eliminating the salary of the Director of the Library Commission.

Board of Charities and Public Welfare

21. Your committee find that there is much duplication between the Department of the Board of Charities and Public Welfare and the State Board of Health, and your Committee is of the opinion that many of the functions of both of these departments can be now suspended in the extreme necessity of the State, but we are of the opinion that the organizing and directing head of the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare should be preserved in order that it may function with the various county welfare officers, and your Committee recommend that this Department shall be coordinated with the State Board of Health and that only the head and a minimum of clerical help shall be preserved, and that its inspection functions shall be exercised by the present inspectors of the State Board of Health so far as they may be able to perform these duties, and that these two departments will so function under one department as to fully protect the health and welfare of the State and with great economy in the administration of each.
22. The State Board of Health has many valuable functions and we realize that this department is a technical one and the extent of any economies that might be instituted therein difficult of determination, but we recommend to the Committee on Appropriations for the adjustment thereof all such functions as are not immediately necessary to be retained for the preservation of the health of the State. In this department we find listed among other things 17 school dentists and 6 public health nurses; it would appear and does appear to the Committee that while these services are desirable in times of ability to pay therefor, they might be suspended or materially reduced without serious loss to the State in period of necessity, and we recommend that these be discontinued, the functions of which this Committee deem unnecessary in this emergency.

Corporation Commission

23. Your Committee recommend that the present set up of the Corporation Commission shall be abolished and that there shall be created a Commissioner of Public Utilities who shall administer the functions now performed by the Corporation Commission and such other functions as are assigned to him in the bill which your Committee has prepared and herewith submits for the establishment of this Commission. Your Committee is of the opinion that the great majority of the functions of the Corporation Commission can best be performed by one individual at the head thereof who shall be charged with full responsibility of protecting the interest of the citizens of the State from oppressive rates and compel efficient service. That whenever there should arise to be tried important questions or issues of fact as to the right to establish any rate or to make regulations which are resisted, then the Chief Justice of North Carolina shall assign two judges of the Superior Court to sit with the Public Utilities Commissioner and hear and determine all such questions as might be submitted for its consideration. This assures to the industries of the State and to the people of the State a proper and fair determination of their rights, and its cost of administration will be essentially less because the judges of the Superior Court are now paid by the State and could be spared for the period of such hearing without additional cost or expenses to the State, and your Committee is of the opinion that it will result in great saving as well as a more efficient administration of this department of government, and we recommend that this bill shall be adopted.

24. Your Committee recommend that the office and duties of the Securities Commissioner shall also be performed by the Public Utilities Commissioner without extra compensation.

Department of Labor

25. Your Committee recommend that the Department of Labor shall include the Department of Standards and Inspection and that the head of that department shall be dispensed with. We are advised that the present Act places the same in the Department of Labor and we recommend that the functions of the Director shall be performed by the Commissioner of Labor without extra compensation.
26. It is further recommended that the duties of the service officer of World War Veterans who has heretofore been stationed in Raleigh shall be performed by the Commissioner of Labor without additional compensation.

Department of Conservation and Development

27. Your Committee recommend that the appropriation to the Department of Conservation and Development shall be materially reduced and that the offices and functions now existing therein not immediately necessary for the preservation of the property belonging to the State and the enforcement of the laws shall be discontinued, and to this end the appropriation to this department during the next biennium shall not exceed the sum of Twenty-five Thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars per annum.

Department of Agriculture

28. Your Committee recommend that the Savings and Loan Division of the Department of Agriculture shall be abolished.

29. Your Committee recommend that the officer known as the Publicity Specialist of the Department of Agriculture shall be dispensed with.

30. Your Committee recommend that the operation of the test and experimental farms of the Department of Agriculture shall be immediately discontinued and abandoned, and the experiments now proceeding thereon, if any, and all special and scientific equipment, if any, in use thereon, shall be turned over and delivered to the Experiment Station Department of State College at Raleigh, now a part of the consolidated University, and that the actual real estate and farm implements and teams shall be turned over to the control and management of the Department of Highways and Prisons to be used in production of supplies and provisions, and that no further appropriation shall be made therefor. All other live stock on these farms not necessary for the proper operation shall be transferred to the other State institutions carrying on agricultural operations, to be distributed under the direction of the Budget Bureau.

Judicial Department

31. Your Committee recommend that Section 3883 of the Consolidated Statutes shall be amended, reducing the salaries and compensation of the Chief Justice and of each of the Justices of the Supreme Court One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars per annum.

32. Your Committee recommend that Section 3884 of the Consolidated Statutes shall be amended, reducing the salaries of each of the judges of the Superior Court and of the emergency judge One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars per annum.

Solicitors

33. Your Committee recommend that the salaries of the solicitors of the Superior Court shall be reduced One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, fixing their salary at Thirty-five Hundred ($3,500.00) Dollars per annum, and where any Solicitor prosecutes a docket in his district for more than twenty (20) weeks.
he shall be allowed additional compensation of One Hundred and Fifty ($150.00) Dollars per week for his services.

34. Your Committee recommends that Section 3890-A of the Consolidated Statutes allowing the Solicitors additional compensation for expenses, shall be repealed.

Highway Department

35. Your Committee recommend that the Highway Department and the Department of State's Prison shall be consolidated into a department to be known as the Department of Highways and Prisons.

The Highway Department now has under its jurisdiction and control about forty-seven hundred prisoners which it is working upon the highways of the State. The Committee are of the opinion that it can well handle and control the twenty-eight hundred prisoners now in the State Prison and that in doing so and working the same upon the highways of the State and other public activities, there will result a great economy in this combined department.

That your Committee are informed that by the combining of these departments of Government, a large saving to the people of the State can be accomplished. For the purpose of accomplishing this recommendation, your Committee have caused to be prepared a bill combining the departments as above recommended which they recommend shall be passed.

36. Your Committee recommend that all new construction work on the highways shall be discontinued after the completion of the work now under contract excepting such as may be paid for entirely by the Federal Government.

Educational Institutions

37. That your Committee recommend that the consolidation of the Greater University shall be proceeded with without delay and that appropriations for duplicating functions shall be discontinued at an early date to the end that the purpose of the Legislature in the consolidation of these institutions shall be accomplished. We cannot pass this department without calling the attention of the General Assembly to the per capita cost to the State of these institutions which is set out and tabulated on page 109 of the report of the Budget Bureau, and we recommend that this per capita cost to the State should be materially reduced and steps should be taken to bring about this result.

Charitable and Correctional Institutions

38. There should be some method adopted that will reimburse the State for the cost and expense of patients in these institutions who are able to pay therefor and that the head of each institution should be held responsible for the failure to collect charges under the Pay Patients Act of 1925.

Miscellaneous

39. The cost to the State for printing numerous non-essential reports and bulletins of the various departments is far in excess of their value, and your Committee recommend that there should be a substantial reduction in the printing of these reports and that the control of such printing shall be left to the Bureau of the Advisory Budget Commission. This will result in a large saving to the State in costs, and the necessary information can still be secured.

40. Your Committee find that in each department there is an annual travel cost of considerable proportions which is now based upon a mileage estimate and allowance of six cents per traveled mile by an employee of the departments. Your Committee recommend that this mileage cost shall be reduced to an amount not exceeding five cents per traveled mile.

41. Your Committee recommend that the operation of the State Fair be suspended and that no appropriation shall be made during this biennium by the State for the conduct of the State Fair and that no deficit or expense of any character for its conduct shall rest upon the State.

The foregoing is your Committee's report made after a careful study and investigation of the several departments affected. There are a number of other economies which may be effected but which your committee cannot embody in this report. Your Committee entered into this work with open minds and with the sole purpose of effecting all possible economies without impairing any efficiency in the function of the departments of our State government. In arriving at our conclusion, we have disregarded all personalities.

The report is the unanimous conclusion of the Committee and it is hoped that the members of the General Assembly will receive the report and adopt its recommendations. Our information and best advice is that if the recommendations hereinbefore set out are adopted and enacted into law that a saving of $2,000,000.00, or more, will result to the tax payers of North Carolina.

Respectfully submitted,

L. I. Moore, Chairman,
Ernest Graham, Secretary,
R. M. Hanes,
R. G. Cherry,
R. Bruce Etheridge,
T. C. Bowie,
S. G. Brawley,

The President announces receipt of the report of Honorable A. J. Maxwell, Commissioner of Revenue, in compliance with H. R. 68, a joint resolution of the General Assembly of North Carolina for the purpose of ascertaining the status of the affairs of the Revenue Department, together with a letter accompanying the report, as follows:
HONORABLE A. H. GRAHAM,
  President of the Senate.
HONORABLE R. L. HARRIS,
  Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Gentlemen:

In compliance with joint resolution bearing House No. 68, requiring the Department of Revenue to report on or before January 27th, "a detailed statement showing the names and amounts, and the reason for nonpayment, of each check in the Revenue Department unpaid, and all other items past due for sixty days or more, including gasoline taxes," I have the honor to submit such report herewith.

The resolution also invites "any explanation in regard to said matter," and I beg to submit the following explanatory comments with respect to the several classifications under which report is made:

Unpaid Checks

Under authority of statute and established custom uncertified checks have always been accepted in payment of taxes due the State. This means that there is a constant volume of checks moving through the department, totaling last year $37,727,350. An average of about a thousand checks per day for every working day in the year clears through the department. Even in the most prosperous times the bad check problem was an ever-present difficulty. It has been greatly intensified by the depression and bank failures.

Notwithstanding the large number of checks paid to avoid inclusion in this report, the amount of bad checks shown as of January 26th, is slightly larger than on the first of the month, by reason of the large number of checks recently received for automobile and truck license plates. Taking the first day of this month, January 1, 1933, as more nearly representative, the bad checks held amounted to $39,540.04, divided as follows:

- Highway fund .........................................................$20,037.01
- General fund ..........................................................19,503.03

Of this total sum, $9,463.68 represents checks that were caught in clearing in failed banks, after they had been charged to the accounts of the makers and stamped "paid." These checks represent a preferred claim against the assets of such failed banks, and presumably will be paid in full by their receivers. Proper claim has been filed in each case, with notice to makers of recourse upon them if claims are not liquidated in full by receivers. This course is followed on advice of the Attorney General's department. During the period of bank failures a large volume of checks went bad, through no fault of the makers, before reaching this preferred status. After deducting these preferred claims on checks caught in clearing in failed banks the amount of bad checks on hand January 1st was about equal, proportioned to volume of collections, to the amount on hand at the beginning of my administration. That the amount is not vastly greater, after three years of depression, is evidence of the diligence and persistence of our organization in handling this problem. I doubt if there is any private business in the State, handling an unrestricted line of uncertified checks, that can show a smaller percentage of uncollected checks.

There has been not only a heavy increase in volume of bad checks, but greatly increased difficulty in enforcing payment, notwithstanding drastic remedies provided by statute. More than half of the executions we serve through sheriffs' offices are ineffectual, presumably because no property can be found to satisfy them. Even the extreme remedy of criminal prosecution is becoming less effectual, as courts sometimes dismiss defendants without requiring payment of check for which indictment was made, and the Supreme Court gives admonition of restraint in foreclosures. This is not criticism; it simply means that every arm of the government is functioning with some recognition of existing hard conditions.

There is only one remedy for bad check difficulties, and that is a complete denial of acceptance of uncertified checks. Even if this drastic remedy had been in force in the period back of us we would have nearly ten thousand dollars of unpaid checks on hand through bank failures. A public collecting agency cannot consistently employ selective protective measures, as private business can. We cannot justifiably discriminate between persons.

In our own difficulties with this problem it is a well balanced question as to whether present practice should be changed. It is a convenience to three hundred thousand people to have their uncertified checks accepted. It is a convenience to the department and its field agents to handle and transmit checks instead of cash. It is increasingly expensive and burdensome to run down and collect the bad ones. Penalties collected on bad checks do not compensate for the expense and lossage. The department would welcome legislative instruction on this subject.

Gasoline Taxes

Gasoline taxes sixty days overdue on January 1st were $234,612.88. There has never been a dollar of loss charged off in a gasoline account. Therefore, this is the total cumulative sum of overdue taxes in this account from the first enactment of our gasoline tax, after collecting ninety million dollars of revenue from it, and half of this total sum in the three years and ten months of the administration of the present Commissioner.

The handling of this account has been exceptionally difficult during the last two years. In memorandum to the Budget Bureau in December the Commissioner recommended important protective changes in our gasoline tax laws, and elaborated these recommendations in the report of the Tax Commission.

A fundamental difficulty has been the too liberal terms of credit authorized by statute before payment can be enforced. Interpretation of existing statutory provisions permits an average of sixty-five days after gasoline is received by a distributor before payment can be enforced. Under present tax rates this means an outstanding current liability at all times of between two and a half and three million dollars, distributed through more than a hundred licensed distributors. This too liberal basis of credit presented difficulties of management, with resulting delinquency, even in prosperous times. In the period of economic breakdown we had the convergence of higher rates of tax, shrinkage in volume of sales, dealer lossage from price wars, and general bank failures with tie-up of deposits and loss of bank credit to both the dealers and their customers. The problem became greatly intensified by convergence of these conditions. More than a third of the total sum listed as overdue would be carried as current account, except for cancellation of license of many dealers, putting them on a tax-paid purchase basis, with resulting maturity of their entire accounts as overdue. Of the total number of delinquent gasoline accounts shown in this report only ten are operating as licensed dealers. As to all other dealers the amount shown as over-due represents their total liability to the State.

Accounts are not completely covered by bond protection. There is a statutory limitation of twenty thousands dollars of bond, when actual current liability in particular cases runs ten to thirty times as great as that, indicating a statutory purpose to rely in part upon financial responsibility of the distributor. The liability to the State constitutes a prior lien upon the property of the distributor, in addition to his bond; and for this reason there will be relatively small, if any, actual loss in final liquidation of these accounts.

A difficult phase of the problem has been that the same conditions that increased delinquency created a situation in which properties could not be sold at foreclosure for more than a fraction of fair value. These conditions have seemed to require the use of "the rule of reason" in handling these cases, from the standpoint of conserving the interests both of the State and of taxpayers, until private sale of properties can be arranged, or until delinquents can by partial payments bring their account within date. A number of such sales have been made, and wherever possible accounts are being gradually liquidated in installment payments.

Before the General Assembly convened the Commissioner of Revenue brought into conference the Attorney General, the Chairman and Counsel of the Highway Commission and the Commissioner of Agriculture with a view of presenting a composite bill to shorten time of payment of gasoline tax, to better protect its payment, to provide additional safeguards against evasion of the tax, and to insure the motorist of uncut gasoline from every station pump in the State. We expect to present such a bill for the consideration of the General Assembly, intended to provide complete protection of the integrity of this tax.

Corporation Franchise Tax

Corporation franchise taxes have come to closely rival the State income tax in volume. Collections under this schedule the last fiscal year were $6,677,071. Only $178,285.15 is delinquent at this time, which is as close as it has ever been collected at this date. Of this total sum $142,385.42 is against corporations in receivership, with preferred claims properly filed with receivers. The most of other delinquent items are in the hands of sheriffs for enforced collection, and some of the items may have been paid to sheriffs at time of this report.
Bus and Truck Franchise Tax

The statement shows a total of $29,813.97 sixty days overdue January first under this schedule. Some of the accounts stated will be varied by complete audit of the operators.

This has been an exceptionally difficult tax to handle during the last year, in part by reason of unprofitable operations and particularly for a reason that may be frankly stated, now that the General Assembly is in session and can correct a manifest legal difficulty with respect to this tax. There has been much litigation with respect to franchise or license taxes applied to interstate transportation of freight and passengers on highways. The trend of opinions became so definite against any tax of this character unless the proceeds were used to maintain the highways that the department was advised by the Attorney General that payment of the tax could not be enforced unless and until our franchise tax law was changed to place the revenue from this tax in the highway fund. For this reason the section levying this tax was omitted from the Budget Revenue bill, and a bill will be presented incorporating this tax in the motor vehicle law and transferring the revenue to the highway fund. The larger part of taxes delinquent under this schedule are on account of the percentage tax on interstate business.

Inheritance Taxes

The total sum of inheritance taxes assessed and uncollected at date of this report is $64,095.94. A detailed list of these assessments is not included in this report for the reason that assessments are of a tentative character, and subject to important adjustments before final settlement. There are also important items of liability not included in the above figures which cannot be determined with respect to particular estates until Federal estates tax questions are settled.

Schedule B Taxes

Schedule B taxes are not assessed on reports such as are made with respect to income, franchise or inheritance taxes. Lists of parties presumed to be liable are built up for each schedule, but since there are many reasons, why liability may not apply in particular cases, such liability is determined as settlement is made, or as investigation is made by field representatives. It does not seem practical, therefore, and particularly on short notice, to set up a delinquent list under this schedule.

Income Taxes

The list of delinquent income taxes attached covers delinquency with respect to all amounts shown by reports to be due, including delinquency in meeting deferred payments, in the sum of $7,443.03. Our assessment ledger shows additional assessments on January 1st of $713,768.82. Additional assessments represent interpretation of liability upon some basis differing with the taxpayer. The taxpayer has stated his view of liability in his report. On the other hand assessments made are of a tentative character, covering maximum of liability, construing doubtful questions in favor of the State. In many of these cases there is merit in each viewpoint, requiring patient consideration and adjustment. Many of them are held pending Federal decision upon the point in controversy. For illustration, one assessment of $91,000 is awaiting decision of the Federal Board of Tax Appeals upon the question of a correct rate of depreciation on properties of power companies. For these reasons it has not seemed to me proper to include in this report as taxes overdue and unpaid an itemization of assessments not finally adjusted.

During the period of administration of the present Commissioner there has been assessed and collected additional income taxes in the sum of $1,814,267.70, in addition to the $713,768.82 additional assessments in process of adjustment. There has also been assessed and collected additional franchise taxes in the sum of $188,751.27, or a total of $2,003,018.97 of additionally assessed and collected taxes under these two schedules. These additional assessments and collections, together with important changes in our statute which resulted in additional collections of income tax last year of $1,854,000, are responsible for the gratifying fact that our income tax revenue is holding up to the average of prosperous years, while the Federal government and many States are collecting about thirty-five per cent of their prosperity income tax revenue.

Annual Report

Experience with respect to this report suggests consideration of the value of incorporating in the Revenue Act provision requiring the Department to make annually, as of December 31st, a report to the Governor covering the scope anticipated in this joint resolution, such reports to be furnished biennially to the General Assembly. With such statutory notice, reports could be carefully built up in more complete form under each schedule each year; and the fact that the department was under legal compulsion to make such report of all delinquency would have a helpful and wholesome influence in reducing delinquency.

May I use this opportunity to invite consideration of the magnitude of the task of the State Department of Revenue, and its importance to our whole structure of government in the State? After three years of the depression it is collecting annually a larger stream of revenue than was collected in 1921 by every tax collecting agency in the State—State, county and municipal combined. Upon the successful functioning of this department depends the credit of the State, the solvency of orderly government—its necessary institutions, its services in schools and roads, reaching into every community and every home, and the ability of the State to carry its increased load in relieving local property taxes. There should be common knowledge and understanding of the extent to which economic conditions have increased the difficulties of its task. Its organization will function in a cooperative spirit upon the basis of compensation that may be applied to the State's pay roll. But it cannot successfully administer constantly increasing responsibilities under increasing difficulties, without increasing organization to do it. It is not expensive to skim the cream of taxes levied; but unless machinery is adequate for thorough enforcement disintegration of the tax structure will result.

Respectfully submitted,

A. J. Maxwell,
Commissioner.

Senator Burgin rises to a point of personal privilege and submits the following statement, together with a copy of audit report of the North Carolina Park Commission.

"I stated on the floor of the Senate last week that I had heard innumerable surmises and rumors which led me to believe that there was something rotten in Denmark in regard to the Park Commission. I further stated that I had no proof of these surmises and rumors but I did have information that the Park Commission had on deposit in the Central Bank and Trust Company at Asheville, when it failed, the sum of around $330,000.00, and that the Park Commission did not have any security for this money. I further stated that any government commission that placed that much money in a bank without security ought to be displaced. The statement which I made regarding the security for this money was made from information which came to me from a source which I considered reliable. I will frankly say that I was mistaken but in degree only, and after a check of the matter I find that at the time the bank closed the Park commission did have their deposits covered by bond with the exception of $47,716.35 as can be ascertained by Exhibit C of the audit made by the State Auditor. I am informed that there is still unpaid of the money the Park Commission had on deposit in the Central Bank and Trust Company at the time it failed the sum of $122,716.35. I am informed by the Attorney General that he has instituted suit for the Park Commission in the court of Wake County endeavoring to collect on these bonds. After some delay I have secured a copy of the audit made by the State Auditor. One of the bonding companies, the Central Indemnity Company, has refused to pay for the reason, I am informed by the Attorney General, that they claim they canceled the bond prior to the time the bank failed, and the Park Commission has not filed a denial of the allegation by the Indemnity Company.

"I am substituting herewith comments made by the auditor on the audit, which shows that the Commission purchased during the term covered by this audit $1,045,000 worth of property, and that the expenses of the Commission during the term of this audit was the sum of $228,139.13 or 21.8 per cent of the total amount expended. I have been criticized by the Treasurer of the Park Commission (strange to say he is the only member who has taken an exception) for making the statement that there was something wrong in Denmark. I am now constrained to believe that it will extend further than Denmark."

Upon motion of Senator Moore, the report submitted with the statement of Senator Burgin is referred to the Committee on Reorganization of State Government.
Upon motion of Senator Kirkpatrick, the Senate adjourns to meet tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message is received from His Excellency, Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus:

March 8, 1933.

To the President of the Senate, and Speaker of the House of Representatives, and Members of the General Assembly.

Gentlemen:

I feel it my duty to advise that I shall desire to address a joint session of the General Assembly in the near future, though I am at present unable to suggest a definite date. The present banking crisis has become a national one, with which the Congress of the United States must deal in the immediate future, and it seems inadvisable to present my views on matters of finance and appropriations for schools and other governmental activities until there is some further clarification of this situation, which it is anticipated will take place during the week.

Under the circumstances, I venture to recommend that you postpone, for a brief time, consideration of the revenue and finance bills. Your pending Calendars no doubt will furnish ample opportunity for the satisfactory and worthwhile employment of the intervening time.

Respectfully yours,

J. C. B. Ehringhaus,
Governor.

JOINT SESSION

The Senate is received by the members of the House of Representatives standing and the Joint Session is called to order by Lieutenant-Governor A. H. Graham.

Mr. Johnson of Pender County, on the part of the Committee appointed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House to escort His Excellency to the Hall of the House, presents Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus, who delivers the following message:

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, and Members of the General Assembly:

Last week I suggested to you my desire to come before you, and in this connection asked that you postpone the consideration of your revenue and appropriation bills for a brief season. At the time the country was in the midst of the greatest banking crisis of this generation, and until this situation had clarified itself it seemed inadvisable to take up these matters. Happily, the national crisis seems now well in hand and we are apparently on the road to the restoration of normal banking activities. In this connection, it is pleasant to recall that North Carolina was the last of the States to go on a holiday, which is the surest indication of the essential soundness of her banking structure. Through the emergency banking legislation which has been recently proposed and promptly enacted by you, we have been able as well, to keep exactly abreast of the developing national situation and not only coordinate our efforts with those of the Federal Government, but avoid the confusion which has existed in some other commonwealths. With this behind us, and with the increasing spirit of optimism and confidence which pervades the country, we can turn our attention to our own immediate problems.

My coming before you now has in it no purpose to coerce but only a sincere desire to help you in solving the difficult problems which still perplex us and which hold you in session beyond the usual time. It has been delayed not by want of willingness to express my views, but in order to give full opportunity for the development of yours, and only the manifestly increasing divergence of these and the importance of an early adjustment have brought me to the point where it seemed advisable that I again address you.
For however inconvenient and distressing it may be, the duty to see this thing through and see it through now rests upon every one of us. It is the task to which we were called, the work which we voluntarily assumed, the trust that a popular mandate has imposed upon us. It can neither be delegated nor deserted. It is relentless in its demands for immediate and patriotic consideration.

In my inaugural message I attempted to direct your attention to the necessity for a balanced budget and stern economy. In aid of this I endeavored to point out certain possibilities in readjustments and consolidations. Your attention was also invited to the whole field of governmental activities, to the end that all possible might be done in the way of eliminating unnecessary expenditures and the avoidance of new taxes. Through your committees and as individuals you have given much thought and effort to this enterprise, and, as a result, certain outstanding legislation along this line now is on our statute books.

The work of your Appropriations Committee, the original Budget Commisson Appropriation Bills and the substitutes prepared by some of your prominent and diligent members, along with various programs for balancing the budget, are all now before you. You have as well various suggestions for supplementing the diminishing revenues of the State, with all of which your membership is thoroughly familiar and with regard to which, in most instances, opinions are well developed and members ready to vote. Perhaps it would not be amiss to endeavor for a moment to get our bearings, or rather to restate the problems we face.

Our debt-service requirements for each of the next two years, exclusive of any payment on our accumulated current deficit, will exceed four and a quarter million dollars. If we are to prepare to retire the deficit in ten years, as is usual in such cases, an additional million would be expected.

Our departmental and institutional expenditures have been greatly reduced from the peak of about nine millions, but on the basis of your Appropriations Committee's recommendation (after a reduction of over 25 per cent under last year's spending and nearly 60 per cent under peak spending) still require about five millions. Our annual and irreducible burden of highway bond maturities and interest thereon aggregates approximately nine millions, which, when deducted from a reasonably estimated highway revenue of fifteen to sixteen millions, leaves from six to seven millions, at the outside, to maintain our 55,000 miles of State highways and county roads and do the work that heretofore has required nine to ten million dollars. In view of the monthly decline in gasoline revenue since last July and the terrific falling off in the automobile license issues, there is no substantial hope of realizing the seventeen millions used as the basis of certain programs, and certainly none of having any substantial surplus which could be diverted to other usage, even if such were proper or desirable. And when we recall that there is in the highways an investment of some two hundred millions which inadequate maintenance would seriously and immediately jeopardize—that a few months neglect could really cause a loss of many millions—the futility as well as the folly of expecting help for other activities out of the highway fund is manifest. Frankly, any cutting of maintenance below the level of your Appropriations Committee's provision involves a serious threat to this great investment and activity of the State, and I again urge that this Assembly move slowly and cautiously along this line and refrain from taking a step which might work an irretrievable hurt and an inestimable loss.

The obligation to maintain our schools arises out of the Constitution, the fundamental law that governs us all. You will find it set forth not only in the declaration of rights, but in the opinion of our fathers education was of sufficient importance to demand a special article (Article IX) in the Constitution. Here the duty to provide "by taxation and otherwise for a general and uniform system of public schools wherein tuition shall be free" is mandatorily placed upon the General Assembly, and the further provision that certain schools "shall be maintained at least six months in every year" is here written.

Our six-months term cost the State last year, in direct provision, approximately sixteen and a half millions. This does not include, of course, the aid to extended term given by the State, for which one and a half millions were appropriated and $875,000 actually expended. Prudent estimates indicate that our present revenue bills, exclusive of the 15-cent levy which we are pledged and in honor bound to relieve, would yield approximately sixteen millions. An estimate beyond this is, in my judgment, too high, as not making sufficient allowance for shrinkage, particularly in income and franchise yields. The highway possibilities, as already noted, should be cautiously placed at fifteen millions. There is no reasonable possibility of recoupment from this fund, even if it were desirable or consonant with our past pledges. Your Finance Committee bills, exclusive of sales tax provisions, after careful checking, I am informed, cannot be prudently counted upon to yield in excess of seventeen millions. How, then, without a sales tax or some equivalent income producer, is the prudently estimated revenue total of thirty-one millions under present, and thirty-two millions under proposed revenue bills, to meet, exclusive of schools and road maintenance, revenue necessities of four and a quarter millions for debt service, five millions for departments and institutions, nine millions for highway debt service, and one million for application to our accumulated deficit—a total of nineteen and a quarter millions? Deducting this nineteen and a quarter from the two revenue proposals, leaves a balance available for schools and road maintenance under the present law of eleven and three-quarter millions, and under the committee bills of twelve and three-quarter millions, and nothing whatsoever left as a cushion or safety margin to absorb any shrinkage that the times may reasonably be anticipated to develop. This is highly essential in any plan of sound and assured budget balancing. It would seem that without the sales tax provisions, and upon the basis even of their scant provision, each and every plan of budget balancing so far proposed is headed towards another deficit.

A moment's consideration of these figures makes manifest, also, the impossibility of balancing our budget without additional revenue in substantial sum or doing one or more of the following things, namely: crucifying the credit of the State by failing to provide funds to meet its bond maturities; crucifying the schools by providing only skeleton six-months term and assuring thereby the collapse of our educational structure; crucifying the highway system of the State; or crucifying the various State institutions and necessary departmental activities of the State.

Let us not deceive ourselves. There isn't anybody who seriously thinks the credit of the State can be maintained by ignoring, as some propose, our maturing obligations, general or highway, or that the Executive could, under such circumstances, float a bond issue covering our present deficit, much less accomplish refunding of those so neglected. We would pay the price and suffer the penalty of such default for generations. There isn't anybody who seriously thinks the 55,000 miles of State highway and county roads can be maintained on much less than the Appropriations Committee's provisions for this work. There isn't anybody who seriously thinks the schools can be maintained in any sort of efficiency, even for six months, on the starvation wage of ten million dollars, or that the abandonment of extended term levies without State provisions does not mean a complete breaking down of our educational system and the crucifixion of child opportunity in North Carolina. There isn't anybody who seriously thinks that the State departments and institutions, which for weeks since your assembling have been subjected to severest examination and scrutiny, can adequately function on less than the committee bill provides.

My friends, we are facing a collapse of our highway, educational, institutional, and governmental activities. We cannot ignore the challenge to preserve them; we cannot forget the constitutional obligation that rests upon us to "carry on."

I believe in economy—drastic, rigid economy. I have preached it. I have practiced it. I shall continue to advocate it. I shall continue to stand against wastefulness and extravagance in any activity. But there is a point, even in economy, beyond which self-respecting government cannot go. For to do so means not merely an abdication of its functions, but social bankruptcy, collapse of morale, and repudiation of our constitutional, social, and political obligations. Government must make reasonable provision for the activities contemplated by its Constitution, or it surrenders and invites the scorn and contumely of its citizens and the world at large.

We are not dealing here with the loss of homes and firesides through tax foreclosures. We are doing and will continue to do everything possible to prevent these; and this Legislature has made substantial strides in that direction. Indeed, the plan hereinafter proposed will afford the greatest relief ever given by government to property owners and the broadest protection against foreclosures through abandonment of heavy taxes against them. We are simply facing a terrific emergency and the manifest necessity for the levy of some new taxes if the schools and the State's credit are to be saved from utter wreckage. A six months term with no chance for extension is a poor educational opportunity at best; inadequately financed, it is a delusion, a snare, an utterly unjustifiable waste and extravagance.

Again, a very few thousands, which in the general scheme of economy amount to little, may bridge the boundary between life and death—may prove the salt that will save the University, the Board of Charities and Public Welfare, and kindred activities.

In such dilemma our thoughts turn naturally to the sales tax field as the one most usually discussed. If you know of a better way through which a sufficiency of revenue may be produced, and which will not destroy our homes or cripple our activities, in the language of the street, "Go to it!" Frankly, under our present constitutional limitations, I do not. The prerogative of choosing methods, however, is yours. I can only beg that you follow the one which in your judgment will rest less heavily on the lives, the habits, and the activities of our people. My concern is adequate though economical provision and an unmistakably balanced budget.

You will permit me in passing to observe that I am quite sincere in saying that I loathe either form of sales tax, but I love the honor and credit of my State and the maintenance of its self-respect more even than I dislike such impositions. There are some things more odious, more undemocratic, more objectionable even, than this form of taxation. They at least have the virtue of universal application and something of relation to ability to pay, if spending has reasonable relationship to income.

In campaign declarations on this question I have invariably coupled my opposition to such taxes with the statement that they were justifiable only as temporary and emergency measures, to save the credit of the State or keep going its essential activities. That moment has apparently arrived. If it is a choice between a sales tax on the one hand and a decent school on the other, I stand for the school. God helping me, I can do no otherwise.

Besides, we have secured credit extensions to the State under the assurance of budget balancing beyond cavil or dispute. Our good faith is pledged; budget balancing is imperative. The suggestion that in such insistence we are worshiping a fetish is unwarranted; we do but indulge the honorable impulse to make reasonable effort to pay our debts. Surely there is no disgrace in this. It is the other road which leads to shame and dishonor.

Having seen that some form of sales tax, or other new tax providing substantial yield, is inevitable if we are to discharge our obligations to the essential activities of the State (including an adequately financed six-months term) and save its credit, I am impressed that an opportunity is here presented which this General Assembly cannot afford to ignore, and I have come unhesitatingly to that conclusion.

I earnestly beg, therefore, that this Legislature establish a State wide uniform State-controlled school system; that you abolish immediately all local levies for extended terms and all special tax and charter districts save only for debt service; that you appropriate for the conduct of this school such sum as will make, on a basis of real economy in administration and conduct, reasonable provision for it; that you set up a board with wide and plenary powers that will administer this fund so as to carry on in North Carolina a school for a full eight-months term, or as near it as the funds available will permit; and that this fund, as all others, be subject to budgetary cuts if revenue realizations should not match expectations.

This board should be vested with ample powers to work out economies in curricula, teacher load, regulation of repeaters, and other similar administrative matters, in order that our people may be provided with the very best schools our presently limited resources will permit and our constitutional obligations may be discharged.

It is my sincere belief, and in this opinion I am supported by many who have carefully studied this question, that, with the savings and economies I have in mind, this can be done on an appropriation which is comparatively little—roughly, ten or eleven per cent—above the fourteen million fifty thousand dollars provision of the original budget bill for school aid and considerably below not only the provision of the last Legislature for State aid to schools, but also below the actual spending last year in aid of the six-months term under that bill, which totaled sixteen million three hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars.

Such a step would immediately relieve property, not only of the 15 cent levy (which is our solemn pledged and inescapable duty), but also of an additional average of 20 cents for a total average of 35 cents, and would thus work a saving not only of millions to the State government, but also of more millions—approximately seven million—to the counties, cities, towns and districts by the elimination of all special-tax levies for school support. It would be the greatest economy, the most constructive and far-reaching step in behalf of our people and in relief of their homes and farms, afforded any people in modern times; would place North Carolina in the forefront of states, not only in accomplished economies and ad valorem relief, but in the field of education as well; would afford an infinite relief to the property owners throughout the State from the spectre of tax foreclosures so constantly haunting them, and would give also a breathing spell to our presently burdened business activities. Everyone would share in the benefit. Even the merchant, through relief of his stocks from ad valorem levy, would profit infinitely more than he could possibly lose in any necessity to absorb a part of the new tax levy. At least, too, even if budgetary cuts should later prove necessary, we could preserve the skeleton of an eight-months term and the child opportunity which our Constitution, our traditions, and our political promises contemplate.

To the suggestion that a new tax can be avoided by further slashing of appropriations, I would say that we could save more money by closing down all operations and activities; but what would become of our self-respect, and how could we square such action with the obligation to maintain, which our Constitution imposes? And the curtailment of provision below a certain point means, in almost every case, an inadequate functioning, which is waste. And if it be said that a sales tax, if such should be adopted, will bring a storm of protest, I would observe that so far the protest has come largely not from those who will pay, but from those who in the main will only collect. We can take steps to see that the fullest possible opportunity to pass on the tax is provided, and the relief which this class will receive under ad valorem abandonment will more than compensate for the part which it will be compelled to absorb.

I can see the possibility of a mistaken judgment, but I think I know the hearts of our people. Just now they are burdened and sorely oppressed primarily with property taxes. We are proposing to relieve these. I am one of those who think that if their homes are secured they will proudly pay their pennies rather than permit the destruction of that which is near and dear to their hearts, namely, their children's opportunity. Be assured also that the storm of such protest will be as nothing compared to the storm which the failure to provide will assuredly provoke, if not now, then very soon—a storm whose relentless waves will be beating upon our political fortunes for years to come.

There is another side to this proposal, which to me is particularly appealing. Here is a real chance to establish in our schools that equality of opportunity between the city and the country boy and girl of which we “long have dreamed and oft despaired of.”

And lastly, we may as well face the facts. The present system of extended terms through ad valorem tax has completely broken down. It cannot continue through this year, much less the year to follow, and unless the system here proposed is adopted the educational structure of our State will collapse.

I have been told that the cause for which I speak is dead; that the fight is already lost in this General Assembly. I do not believe it. Those who so express themselves mistake the temper of its advocates and the views of the great rank and file of the people throughout the State. We who would preserve our essential institutions and activities are not alarmed. We have not yet begun to fight. The people will rally to our support, and our cause will triumph.

We are facing a new day. The country, which for so long has staggered under a terrific depression, has now, under the exalted and inspiring leadership of our President, set its face towards the rising sun. The optimism which is becoming increasingly widespread has even suggested in some quarters the possibility of an extra session in the future to keep step with the advancing prosperity. In the tasks which confront you in this General Assembly there is challenge to our capacities, our courage, and our patriotism. We must, of course, practice a diligent enterprise towards economy, but let us not surrender to a philosophy of fear or adopt a demeanor of despair and defeatism. These problems are not of our creating. Perhaps we had nothing to do with the making of the debts which now weigh heavily upon us. But ours is the present responsibility to provide, and, please God, we shall measure up to it, and that without neglecting provision for necessary State functions. We cannot all have our way. Legislation necessarily contemplates the submergence and accommodation of conflicting views. I am ready to submerge my own, as this message shows. I am persuaded that in the plan here offered lies real opportunity for early adjustment of opinion differences and a chance to get back to our routine lives.

One thing more and I am through. If a sales tax is levied, it should be levied with the distinct understanding that it is an emergency measure, adopted for the period of the emergency, to save the State’s credit and keep going its essential activities. I believe it should be ear-marked for schools, as our highway revenue is ear-marked for road purposes; and with this understanding I have no fears of its ready and cheerful acceptance by our people.

Briefly, my proposals are these:

1. Preserve the credit of the State by balancing the budget, even at the cost of a sales tax; and make sure provision to keep it in balance or prevent an imbalance by making all appropriations subject to budget cuts.

2. Preserve the school opportunity in economy by the provision of a lump sum, with a board to administer it, as hereinbefore pointed out.
3. Preserve the homes of our citizens from the foreclosures which present ad valorem taxes threaten, and reduce the tax load which now weighs heavily upon them, by abolishing special levies for support of extended term.

4. Preserve the highways and our great investment therein from the waste and losses which inadequate maintenance provision would certainly entail.

5. Preserve our institutions and departments from the destruction which too heavy curtailment threatens, to the end that they may continue to serve our citizenship and prepare the youth of our land for better service to the State.

On this rock we shall build our State, and the forces of ignorance, inequality, depression, and despair shall not prevail against it.

At the conclusion of the Governor's Message, upon motion of Senator Fuller, the Joint Session dissolves and the Senate returns to its Chamber.

The Senate resumes consideration of its regular business.

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

The undersigned, your Committee on conference, touching the differences between the two houses of the General Assembly in respect to House Bill 914, known as the Machinery Act, beg leave to report that we have carefully considered these differences and recommend:

First: That the House concur in the amendment of the Senate in respect to the proposed tax on the stock of foreign corporations, which amendment is as follows:

"Amend by adding at the end of sub-section 5-a under Section 304 the following: "Provided further that the governing boards of cities and towns shall require a sworn statement to the effect that such bills have not and will not be presented to any board of county commissioners as a debt against that county, or as a credit on taxes due that county."

Third: That the House concur in Senate Amendment to Section 805, sub-section 8, in the last paragraph thereof, as follows:

"By inserting 2½% in lieu of the 4% as now written; by inserting 1½% in lieu of 3% as now written; by striking out the entire line next to last line thereof, and by inserting ½ of 1½% in lieu of the 1½% as now written."

Fourth: That the Senate recede from its amendment to Article IV, Section 400, sub-section I, as follows:

Sixth: That the House concur in Senate Amendment known as Committee amendment to Section 521, in which two sub-sections are added numbered respectively ten (10) and eleven (11), as follows:

“Section 10. That all assessments made under the provision of Section 521 shall be subject to appeal by the party assessed to the Superior Court upon notice given within ten days after the assessment is made to be served upon the chairman of the board of commissioners. Upon the service of such notice the clerk to the board shall transmit to the clerk of the Superior Court of the county wherein the property assessed is located all notices, orders and other records, together with all findings of the board with respect to the assessment and the clerk shall enter such appeal upon the civil issue docket of the county when a trial de novo shall be had, the hearing of which shall take priority over all other civil actions. The Superior Court shall, upon such appeal, have the right to modify, confirm or reject in full any such assessment as may have been made by the board of commissioners under and by virtue of the section herein-above referred to and shall have the right and power to find all facts connected with such assessment or to refer any question of fact that may arise back to the board of commissioners for further finding and shall pass upon all matters of law relating to the legality of the assessment fixed by such board of commissioners and from such rulings upon matters of law either party shall have the right of appeal to the Supreme Court.

R. A. Doughton,
R. G. Cherry,
Lawrence McEachern.

Members of the Conference Committee on the part of the House.
Upon motion of Senator Rankin, the report of the Conferees is adopted, and a message is sent to the House informing that Body of such action.

Senator Fuller, one of the Conferees appointed to consider this bill, submits the following statement, which without objection, is ordered entered in the Journal:

As a member of the Conference Committee relative to the Machinery Act, I signed the report which, among other things, recommended that the House recede from its position on the matter of requiring stocks held in foreign corporations to be taxed ad valorem.

I signed this report solely and simply because I felt that I was representing the Senate which had voted 38 to 6 and therefore was overwhelmingly opposed to the removal of this exemption, and to have refused to sign the report of the Conference Committee, whose duty it was to straighten out a legislative tangle, would have had no beneficial effect.

My personal position is unchanged. The exemption of foreign stocks from taxation should be repealed. To retain this exemption is unjust, unwise and ought not to be allowed.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID H. FULLER.

Senator Kirkpatrick asks and is granted permission to submit a statement relative to the beer bill as follows:

Mr. President and Senators, I have not receded, and do not now recede, from my contentions that this bill should not be enacted into law without first submitting it by a referendum to the people of North Carolina, to be decided by them. No question is settled until it is settled right. The people of North Carolina have the inherent right to pass upon all questions affecting legislation and their interest; and where there is a division of sentiment, they alone are the final arbiters in the adjustment of the matters.

I reiterate that this question ought to go to the people as provided for in Senator Waynick's amendment to S. B. 367, which I signed and heartily supported. Such a course, if adopted, would have been for the best interest of the Democratic Party and the State. However, Mr. President and Senators, the overwhelming majority of the Senate has decreed otherwise. Therefore, as the question will not be submitted to the vote of the people by a majority of the Senate, I am changing my vote for the following reasons:

1. I recognize that there are a large number of citizens throughout North Carolina, including my own district, who want beer, and I always respect, as far as I can, the expression and the will of the people of North Carolina. I am filing with the clerk a petition from a large number of my constituents, demanding an immediate settlement of this question.

2. Since it is apparent that the question will not be submitted to a vote of the people by this General Assembly, it is my judgment that, in deference to all concerned and great respect for the different views of my constituents and the interest of North Carolina, the State should be put in a position where it can prevent itself from becoming the "dumping ground" of bootleggers and beer runners, which condition would be intolerable.

3. The sale of beer has been recommended by President Roosevelt. Under his recommendation United States Congress has enacted into law the right to sell beer. Whatever revenue is to be obtained from the sale of beer to our citizens should be had for North Carolina to help out her depleted Treasury, and not be allowed to be spent by her citizens to help out the Treasury of other States. Therefore, I vote aye.

Up on motion of Senator Kirkpatrick, the Senate adjourns to meet tomorrow morning at 10:00 o'clock, at which time only Public-Local bills are to be considered.

Under this assumption, it is deemed that one million dollars a year would be a reasonable contribution by the Highway Fund to the debt service cost of general government, and there is hereby appropriated out of the surplus, if any, of the Highway Fund for transfer to and use by the General Fund for debt service, or for any existing deficit, the sum of one million dollars for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934, and the sum of one million dollars for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935:
Provided, these sums shall not be available unless and until full provision is made for the expense of collecting Highway revenues, for the administration of the Highway Commission, for the service of the Highway Debt, and for maintenance of the State and County Highways (as set out under titles XII and XIII of Section 3 of this act), and there then remains a sufficient balance or surplus in the State Highway Fund.

The costs of all salaries and wages to be paid out of or under the appropriations made in sections one, two and three of this act, or to be paid out of any expendable receipts, to officers, employees and agents of the State, or of any of its departments, bureaus, institutions and agencies, are hereby reduced to not more than such sums as are provided under the appropriations to the several departments, bureaus, institutions and agencies for each of the fiscal years 1933-34 and 1934-35.

(a) It is the intention to reduce the costs of all such salaries and wages under the appropriations, and/or expendable receipts, under titles II Supreme Court Departmental Expense, III Executive and Administrative and VI State Aid and Obligations, of section one; under title XI Agriculture, of section two; and under title XII Highways, of section three, by at least thirty-eight per cent (38%) of the salaries, wages and rates that would have been in effect July first, nineteen hundred thirty, taking into consideration changes in organization, staff requirements and such other factors as might have changed the basis:

(b) It is the intention to reduce the costs of all such salaries and wages under the appropriations, and/or expendable receipts, under titles IV Educational Institutions and V Charitable and Correctional Institutions, of section one, by at least thirty-two per cent (32%) of the salaries, wages and rates that would have been in effect July first, nineteen hundred thirty, taking into consideration changes in organization, staff requirements and such other factors as might have changed the basis:

(d) It is the intention to reduce the costs of all salaries and wages under appropriations under title IX Public Schools, of section one, by at least thirty-five per cent (35%) as concerning superintendents, of the salaries, wages and rates in effect the present scholastic year, 1932-33; by at least thirty-five per cent (35%) as concerning principals and by at least thirty per cent (30%) as concerning teachers and all other employees, of the salaries, wages and rates that would have been in effect July first, 1930. The reduction and adjustments shall be effected by the State Board of

MESSAGE FROM THE SUPREME COURT

The President announces receipt of a communication from the Supreme Court of North Carolina as follows:

To the General Assembly of North Carolina:

GENTLEMEN: In compliance with your request contained in Joint Resolution No. 31, copies of which have been transmitted to each of us by the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, as directed by the Resolution, we, the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, have inspected, and carefully considered the provisions of Senate Bill No. 320, introduced by Senator A. D. MacLean, and of House Bill No. 879, introduced by Representative Murphy.

You request us further to advise you whether in the opinion of said Chief Justice and Associate Justices, the said bills, either or both of them, set up the Constitutional procedure by which a Convention of the people of this State may be called for the purpose of passing on the proposed amendment of the Constitution of the United States, referred to in said Resolution. We herewith comply with this request.

It is the opinion of the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, as individuals, that a Convention called, organized and held under the provisions of Senate Bill No. 320, introduced by Senator MacLean, and now pending in the Senate, if said bill shall be enacted by the General Assembly of North Carolina, would be valid under the provisions of Section 1, Article XIII, of the Constitution of North Carolina, and that the action of such Convention upon the proposed Amendment to the Constitution of the United States would be valid and effective for all purposes.

There is a difference of opinion, among the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, as to the validity of a Convention in this State as provided for, organized and held under the provisions of House Bill No. 879, introduced by Representative Murphy, and now pending in the House of Representatives, if said bill shall be enacted by the General Assembly, the majority being of opinion that such Convention would not be valid for any purpose, the minority being of a contrary opinion.

It is deemed proper to say that it is the opinion of the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of North Carolina that the question presented by Joint Resolution No. 31, in its final analysis, is a Federal question, and can be answered only by the Supreme Court of the United States, when properly presented to that Court. Whether or not a proposed Amendment to the Constitution of the United States has been submitted by Congress and ratified in accordance with the provisions of Article V of said Constitution, must necessarily be determined finally by the Supreme Court of the United States.

Notwithstanding this principle, we have deemed it our duty as Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of this State to comply with the requests of the General Assembly contained in Joint Resolution No. 31.

Respectfully,

W. P. Stacy,
Chief Justice.
W. J. Adams,
Associate Justice.
Heriot Clarkson,
Associate Justice.
G. W. Connor,
Associate Justice.
W. J. Brogden,
Associate Justice.

Upon motion of Senator MacLean, the report is referred to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

Upon motion of Senator Kirkpatrick, the Senate adjourns to meet tomorrow morning at 11:00 o'clock.

Senator Kirkpatrick submits the following statement in explanation of his vote upon the revenue bill, which without objection, is ordered entered in the Journal:
Mr. President and Fellow Senators:

I desire to explain my position in casting my vote against the sales tax, as provided for in Article 5, Schedule E, page 226.

I am perfectly willing to do all in my power and lend my coöperation and vote in balancing the budget and maintaining the honor and credit of the State of North Carolina, and I will go the limit in voting to provide revenue through legitimate and proper sources.

I believe in providing the necessary funds for the education of the children of North Carolina and the maintenance of the charitable, eleemosynary and benevolent institutions of the State, and also for their general operating expenses for the next biennium.

However, in carrying out the mandate for the above-needed measures, I cannot support the sales tax bill as proposed to raise revenue for the following reasons:

(a) I believe the present law as proposed is subversive of the fundamental principles of constitutional democracy;

(b) I am further of the opinion that the Machinery providing for the enforcement of the collection of sales tax against the merchants of North Carolina, and the imposition thereunder to be imposed upon the citizens of North Carolina, is an invasion of their sacred personal liberties and rights;

(c) Further, that said law as proposed is oppressive, not only on the merchant but also on the consumer, and is in direct violation of the inalienable rights of the citizen as granted to him by the Constitution to the right of pursuit of happiness, the preservation of his property rights, and the full enjoyment of liberty;

(d) That the sales tax law as proposed will prove highly detrimental, if not destructive, to the mercantile interest of North Carolina, and will also retard the general income heretofore paid by merchants into the State coffers;

(e) That this Legislature has no right to confer upon the "Director of the Budget" the responsibility and constitutional prerogative of the Governor, as proposed in section 403, sub-section b, lines twenty-five through twenty-nine of said Article 5, Schedule E of the sales tax bill;

(f) And last, Mr. President and Fellow Senators, under the proposed sales tax bill, constitutional government in North Carolina is being menaced by the growing centralization of power in the hands of bureaus and commissions to the destruction of the liberties of the people;

(g) That the present act magnifies the State at the expense of the individual, and when the individual's freedom is taken away, he is in slavery and servitude even though his master be the State.

Therefore, for the reasons above assigned, I cast my vote, "no."

T. L. Kirkpatrick,
Senator.

Senator McNeill of Cumberland, by unanimous consent, is allowed to enter in the record that he was detained from the Senate Chamber by a long distance telephone call, while the vote was being taken on the Revenue Bill, and that if he had been present, he would have voted, "no."

Senator Joyner, by unanimous consent, is allowed to enter in the record that he was not present when the vote on the Revenue Bill was being taken, due to the train upon which he was returning to Raleigh from home being some late, and that if he had been present and allowed to vote, he would have voted, "aye."

Upon motion of Senator Hartsell, a letter from Willard Dowell, as follows, Secretary State Merchants Association, read by Senator Hinsdale, relative to the bill, is ordered entered in the Journal:

SENATORS HINSDALE AND WAYNICK, State Senate, Raleigh, N. C.

GENTLEMEN:Replying to your inquiry of this date as to whether or not the organized merchants of the State will contest the constitutionality of the "sales tax" section of the Revenue Act if the Assembly enacts a supplemental bill making it mandatory that the tax imposed be passed on to the consumer, I regret to advise that I am without authority to give you definite assurance that the act will not be contested, however, I will state, that in my opinion, if the merchants are protected in the matter by the passage of a mandatory feature which will insure the passing of the tax the probabilities are that the act will not be contested.

On the other hand, if no protection is accorded the merchant and no mandatory provision for passing the tax on to the consumer is provided, I am positive the validity of the act will be contested and carried, if necessary, to the United States Supreme Court.

The merchants of North Carolina recognize the needs of the State as much as any other class of our citizenship. They are as loyal and patriotic as any group of our people, they have no disposition or desire to retard the efficient operation of any law, but they do resent being singled out as the major tax bearers of the State at a time when they are finding it extremely difficult to remain in business. If they can be protected in the matter of passing on the sales tax they will, in all probability, graciously accept the law and endeavor to coöperate in making it a success, but without such protection, I am sure no one can blame them for contesting an act that imposes an additional tax burden of $9,000,000 upon them especially since the principle of a general sales tax has never been sustained by the courts of this country.

Only yesterday, May 10, 1933, the Illinois Supreme Court held the sales tax law of that State invalid and if you will examine the Illinois and North Carolina Statutes, you will observe that the respective sales tax laws are strikingly similar. We believe the sales tax law as passed in this State is also unconstitutional, but, as above stated, if the merchant is protected in the matter of passing the tax on to the consumer, he will probably accept the tax as a temporary measure and refrain from carrying the matter to the courts.

I wish to be perfectly fair and, therefore, I again state, that I cannot speak with authority on the question of contesting the act, but I do not think it will be contested if a satisfactory mandatory feature for passing the tax on to the consumer is enacted.

Yours very truly,

W. L. Dowell,
Executive Secretary.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message is received from His Excellency, Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus:

To the members of the General Assembly:

May I not, in these closing moments of your 1933 session, express to you collectively, as I have tried to do to many of you individually, my sincere appreciation of the splendid work which you have done in the most difficult days of modern times. It has been particularly pleasing to me to note that though differences of opinion were freely expressed there has been an almost universal regard for the rules of good sportsmanship and recognition of the essential patriotism which was behind them. This is altogether healthy, and though each of us may find in the final results things that are not exactly to our liking, the sum total of your accomplishment is, in my humble opinion, a splendid contribution to the welfare and progress of the Commonweal th.

In the first moments after adjournment there may be something of misunderstanding, but time will bring to the people an ever-increasing conviction of the essential righteousness of what has been done and approval of the course which you have pursued. For time will show, as nothing else, that you have wrought a substantial economy, a substantial reduction in tax burdens upon property, a preservation of the essentials in our civilization and the fundamentals of our economic and social progress. No government on the continent can surpass your record of achievement in economy, and yet you have pioneered in making North Carolina the first State in the American Union to guarantee to every child within its borders an eight months school term at State expense.

And last, but by no means least, by provision for a real and unmistakably balanced budget you have preserved the credit of the State in the most difficult time within our memory and given proof once more to the world of North Carolina's high regard for its good faith pledged and determination that its honorable obligations shall be honorably met.

It has been a pleasure for me to cooperate so far as possible with you in the labors which have engaged our attention, and individually as well as collectively you will depart with my admiration, respect and very sincere good will. It is for those of us who remain here in office after you have gone to carry on according to the pattern which you have fashioned.

In ancient Rome at the beginning of a gladiatorial contest the gladiators stood before the Emperor and gave the pledge: "Hail, Caesar, we who are about to die salute you!" In the presence of this splendid General Assembly which is now approaching its dying moment, those of us who are left behind would reverse the ancient pledge and say instead: "General Assembly, we who live on in service of the State when you have gone, salute you!" You are entitled to and will receive a faithful effort to carry out the provisions for the conduct of the government which you have made and the plaudits and commendation of the people whom you have so well served.

J. C. B. EHRINGHAUS,
Governor.

Upon motion of Senator Moore, by a unanimous rising vote the message is accepted and the thanks of the Senate extended to His Excellency, the Governor, for message and earnest spirit of cooperation which has been evidenced throughout the Session.
