1973 GENERAL ASSEMBLY
SECOND SESSION 1974

NINETY-EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,
Wednesday, January 16, 1974.

The Senate of the 1973 General Assembly—Second Session 1974 assembles this day in the Senate Chamber, pursuant to adjournment on May 24, 1973, and is called to order by Lieutenant Governor James B. Hunt, Jr.

The following prayer is offered by the Reverend J. Marse Grant, Editor of the Biblical Recorder, Raleigh:

“Our Father,

“All of us stand in the need of prayer today. ‘It’s not my brother, nor my sister, but it’s me, Oh Lord, standing in the need of prayer.’

“Our nation stands in the need of prayer. We remember our country today with all the earnestness of our souls. We pray for the President and for the Congress and for all who face momentous decisions in this year of crisis for our nation.

“We pray for the Governor and for the Lt. Governor and their families. We are grateful for their devotion to the principles of honesty and character and for their sense of duty to their State and nation.

“Most of all, Father, we as individuals stand in the need of prayer. We pray for the members of the General Assembly as they begin another session. Be with their families who sacrifice so much so they can serve here. We pray for their health and physical well-being and for your protection over them as they travel. In their work in these halls, give them patience and tolerance, along with courage and conviction. If there are those with special needs, be so close to them that they will recognize Thee as a Helper and Friend.

“Our Father, these are crucial times, but may these days of challenge bring out the best in the members of this Body. May none of us be intimidated by the giants of defeatism and pessimism but may we lean heavily on Thee for guidance and direction in the days ahead. We depend so much on Thee our Father, please don’t let us down. In Thy name we pray, Amen.”

Senator Allen for the Committee on Rules and Operation of the Senate announces that the Journal of Thursday, May 24, 1973 has been examined and is found to be correct, and upon his motion the reading of the Journal is dispensed with and it stands approved as written.

JOINT SESSION

The Senate is received by the members of the House of Representatives standing, and the Joint Session is called to order by Lieutenant Governor James B. Hunt, Jr.

The President recognizes Senator Taylor who presents His Excellency, Governor James E. Holshouser, Jr., who delivers the following address:

"Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Members of the General Assembly.

"This marks the beginning of a new year — and of a new experience in North Carolina government. It's a beginning . . . and a continuation. For the first time, a Governor of this State stands before a legislature that has convened for a second year in succession to conduct a full order of business for the people of North Carolina.

"But this is not a 'new' General Assembly, not in the traditional sense. This session is not a new session, but a continuation of the work we began a year ago."
"Therefore, to know where we are going this year, it is important, more important than ever, that we pause for a moment and reflect on where we have been.

"1973 will be long remembered in North Carolina. Some people may remember it as a year of political change. But I believe that 1973 will be remembered more as a year of challenges met and opportunities realized.

"When the last word is written about 1973, I believe it will be remembered first and foremost for the many things that we accomplished together — accomplishments of which we can justly be proud.

"When you recessed last spring, you left an enviable record behind you.

"1973 brought the most progressive public education program in the history of our State.

"We made 1973 a landmark year for public kindergartens in North Carolina.

"You established by law a maximum class size for each teacher, creating an atmosphere in which the student is assured that he will get the personal attention from his teacher that every child needs and deserves.

"We began the task of providing our schools with $300 million for new school construction and renovations, and the voters of our State overwhelmingly completed that task in November.

"Our contributions to public education did not stop at the high school level. The tremendous boost given our community college system was the first major change in meeting that system's capital needs since it was established in 1963.

"The 1973 record of achievement was not in education alone, however.

"We recognized that North Carolina had lagged far behind in our State parks, and began a major thrust to establish a system of State parks and green areas for all our people.

"You approved the largest budget increase in history for mental health.

"In the field of corrections, we made a real head start in prison reform, implementing a number of the recommendations made by the State Bar Association's special study committee.

"These are just a few of the contributions this legislature made to our State's march forward in 1973 — contributions that will vitally improve the quality of life for the people we all serve. There were many others.

"As a legislature, you made a great beginning in 1973 — but only a beginning. The record of this General Assembly is not yet completed.

"You return to Raleigh facing a new set of circumstances and a situation clouded with uncertainties. The energy crisis holds the potential for having the greatest impact on our economy since World War II, and unfortunately, the worst problems may lie ahead.
“But let us not use the energy crisis as an excuse to retrench or retreat from our responsibilities to the people of North Carolina.

“Rather, let us adopt as our guide the ancient Chinese symbol for crisis. That symbol has two parts: one representing ‘danger’, the other standing for ‘opportunity’.

“The people expect this legislature to move this year with an awareness of the potential dangers that could result from the energy crisis. But they also expect us to continue moving forward—to continue the agenda for progress that was begun in 1973.

“The people expect us to continue this advancement because they know we are in a race against time.

“People who observe politics are fond of the saying: ‘After all is said and done, more has been said than has been done’.

“Let not that be said of this legislature.

“Let us make a distinction between the kind of problem that merely threatens our convenience and the kind of problem that challenges the best in us because it really does threaten the very quality and integrity of our life as a people.

“Let us resist the temptation to do too little simply because we can’t do everything.

“There are things that cry out to be done, and they are things that we can do.

“In the field of education, I urge you to continue to build on the solid blocks that we erected in 1973. The proposed budget submitted to you today shows some of the steps that we must take.

“I urge you to adopt the second step of the kindergarten program, making this opportunity available to twice as many children.

“Let us recognize that we are not meeting the needs of our exceptional children. These are special children who require special programs. I recommend to you a major expansion in special education programs at a cost of over $8 million.

“I also urge you to adopt other budget proposals for our children, including $5.7 million to provide for a strong increase in counseling and health services in our schools and $1.3 million to establish a comprehensive child health screening and information system for pre-schoolers.

“State government reorganization has given us a more effective tool with which to deal with these programs, and I urge you to give it an opportunity to succeed rather than attempting to create a major new department to deal with all the varied problems of one segment of our population.

“Recognizing the increasingly important role that our community colleges and technical institutes play in our educational system, let us con-continue to move forward in expanding and improving their ability to perform that role. We took major steps last year, and I recommend to you now another $10 million in capital improvement funds for these institutions.

"If there is anything more important than a person's ability to obtain a quality education, it's his ability to maintain good health and to receive adequate medical care when he needs it.

"It's a problem, but it presents an opportunity if we meet it with boldness, wisdom and imagination.

"It is a complex problem, one that has several parts. In sheer numbers, we don't have enough doctors. Particularly, we don't have enough doctors in the primary care fields — family doctors.

"But an equally important part of the problem — one that is shared by other states and other countries around the world — is the distribution of doctors. While some of our cities are able to maintain an adequate ratio of doctors and patients, others are having problems, and many rural areas are still not able to attract physicians.

"To help solve this problem of educating more doctors and the distribution of doctors, an exciting proposal is being offered to the people of this State. This proposal gives us the opportunity of moving into the forefront of the nation in getting medical care to the people — not just the people in the cities, not just the people with a lot of money, but people all across North Carolina.

"This program will spread medical education centers across the State. By expanding our system of Area Health Education Centers, doctors and related health personnel will be receiving training at numerous locations instead of having medical education concentrated almost totally in Winston-Salem, Durham and Chapel Hill.

"We will have medical students, interns and residents getting a major part of their training at such places as Asheville, Roanoke Rapids, Charlotte, Rocky Mount, Fayetteville, Tarboro, Greensboro, Wilson, Raleigh, Wilmington, Greenville and others.

"Because our system of rural health clinics can be tied to these medical training centers, we will have, for the first time, an opportunity and a system to bring adequate health care to all our people.

"Not only does this proposal make tremendous inroads into the problem of distribution and location of our physicians, it also deals directly with the problem of getting more doctors.

"Indeed, under plans already being implemented, the number of North Carolinians enrolled in medical schools in this State will more than double during the present decade. In fact, that number of North Carolina medical students will rise from less than 400 to nearly 1,000 by 1980.

"Medical residencies are still the key, however. It's been clearly shown that the best way to attract and hold doctors is by influencing where they do their residencies — a step that comes after formal medical school work is completed.

"Under this proposal, the entire State will be used to provide the clinical training ground that medical education requires.

"If we want more doctors out there on the firing line, treating the people of the State, this proposal offers the fastest and least expensive way to do it. This exciting new proposal will almost double the number of doctors practicing in North Carolina within 16 years.

"I urge you to adopt it, together with the recommended expansion in the rural health program.

"This is a problem of health care delivery, but it's also a problem of medical education within our university system — a system which needs and deserves our support.

"Just a little over two years ago, as our special session drew to a close, a legislator from Watauga County rose from his seat in this chamber and talked about our actions in that session, saying that something great had just been accomplished in higher education in North Carolina.

"What I said then is just as true today.

"I was never more proud of the General Assembly than I was on that October day in 1971 when I saw personal and sectional considerations put aside in statesmanship to create something truly fine for our State — a new governing system for higher education.

"Those of you who were here in 1971 stood and applauded those words, not in tribute to the man who said them but in tribute to what they represented.

"But you'll recall that I also said the real test of whether our finest hour would survive would come in the next General Assembly — this General Assembly.

"I urge you with all of the strength I have to keep faith with our university system.

"Our Board of Governors is a young body, but it is already demonstrating a sense of accountability and responsibility in our higher education system.

"When you say in 1974 that you are still willing to place your confidence in that Board of Governors to operate the finest state-supported system of higher education in the country, you will have passed that test — and passed it with flying colors.

"And I will say again that never have I been more proud of the General Assembly.

"These proposals regarding health care are extremely important, but they are just part of a major package designed to increase our capacity to meet all the health needs — mental and physical — of our people.
"These recommendations include over a million dollars to help build a much-needed burn center at North Carolina Memorial Hospital and almost two million dollars to improve emergency medical services.

"This budget also includes twelve and a half million dollars in State matching funds which will provide a $48 million increase in Medicaid payments made necessary by rising costs and more eligible recipients.

"In the area of mental health, where we know we've got to run hard to catch up, the package of recommendations includes $9 million to improve State support of community-based programs and another $3 million for the construction of facilities required by these local and area programs. I urge your support of the recommendation for an additional $5.5 million to add over 600 staff members in our mental institutions and to improve the supportive services that will enable our patients to receive better care.

"It has become increasingly clear that the emotional strain of the time in which we live is taking its toll on our people. Of the North Carolinians who are patients in hospitals today, far too large a number of them are hospitalized for one form or another of mental illness.

"One important tool in this battle is the availability of sound counseling services in the communities across our State. An exciting program for the training of counselors and for the providing of facilities at the local level is included in this budget.

"This proposal has a tremendous potential, and I urge you to approve it. It does not have a large price tag, but it could very well be the most important money we can spend.

"All of these health and mental health programs are designed to correct some of the shortcomings we find as we examine the needs of North Carolina. As we pause and take a hard look at ourselves and our society, we also see other ills that are begging for a cure.

"It was not until recent years that we faced up to the fact that if we are to have the system of law, order and justice that we all want and need, we've got to have law enforcement officers that are adequately paid and properly trained. But once having recognized that need, we have moved surely and firmly in seeing that it is met.

"The Criminal Justice Training and Standards Council has provided us with a yardstick to measure the qualifications we want in our law enforcement officers. In 1973, we established a minimum salary level for local law enforcement officers across our State. And plans are well under way for the establishment of a criminal justice training center.

"But our system of criminal justice is composed of many parts. To neglect any of them is to weaken the entire system.

"More and more we've come to recognize that our correction system can be one of our very best tools for law and order if we give it the proper support, the right direction and the kind of facilities it needs. We already know that almost half of our prisoners today are repeaters. They've been there before — maybe several times — and they're likely to return again.

"Let us recognize that when that man or woman makes that first mistake, this particular crisis situation offers us not only danger, but an opportunity — an opportunity to do what we can to help that person return to society as a useful, law-abiding citizen.

"The prison reform steps you already have taken recognize the fact building projects will never be all the answer in providing a sound corrections system. But obviously, facilities that allow for single-cell housing can play a great role in helping with the true rehabilitation of the prisoner. The type of situation in which he is confined can be a major factor in determining whether he will go back to society as a productive citizen or as a hardened, embittered person ready to strike again.

"This budget recommends capital improvement appropriations of $21 million for correctional facilities, with special emphasis being placed on providing single-cell medium security units. I urge your approval of this recommendation, as well as other funding proposals that will contribute to our prison reform efforts.

"You also will be considering legislation asking you to increase the State Board of Paroles from three to five members. I believe that all the evidence presents clearly the need for a larger board, and I ask you to take this step.

"Finally, if we are to have a system of criminal justice that truly serves our people, we must have criminal laws and procedures that are written and applied so that there is no question that justice is being served.

"In recent months, we have heard and read reports indicating there has been possible misuse or abuse by some of our courts of the sentencing procedure known as 'prayer for judgment continued.'

"I urge you to examine the appropriate statutes and to rewrite them to assure that this sentencing device is applied only as it was originally intended — as a vehicle for mercy in special cases.

"In all that you do in this session of the General Assembly — whether it be in education, health or criminal justice — it is important that you consider not only the needs of our people today, but the legacy you will leave to future generations.

"Last year, three bills related to land use planning were introduced in this General Assembly. Since you recessed last spring, a number of you have served on committees that have gone about the State, holding public hearings and building public support for these important proposals.

"We have reached an important crossroads in North Carolina. One road leads to danger, and probably disaster. The other leads to opportunity. Let us seize this opportunity and move forward now with the kind of sound and sensible planning that will make North Carolina a model of 'balanced growth.'
"Let us not be timid. Let us not have to face our grandchildren someday and bow our heads in shame when they ask us: 'Why didn't you do something?'"

"I urge you to move forward, too, as we did in 1973, to build a system of parks and green areas throughout North Carolina so that our children and grandchildren will have a place to go to enjoy the outdoors and the wonders of nature.

"I commend to you the budget recommendations that call for an appropriation of $5 million to acquire additional land for parks and $3.6 million to develop and improve our present park sites. I also urge you to approve the Land Conservancy bill so that our State can compete in the market place for land suitable for parks — before that land is lost forever or gets a price tag that is out of reach. This bill can literally save the taxpayers millions of dollars.

"We are fortunate in North Carolina — fortunate for many reasons. For one thing, we are fortunate that about two-thirds of our land is covered by forests.

"Unfortunately, much of this forest land is failing to produce anything near its potential while demand for forestry products is expected to double by the year 2,000.

"We should begin now to develop a set of standards that will allow for the most effective management of our forest lands under a variety of conditions and situations, within the confines of environmental protection regulations. I ask you to establish a study commission to research this problem and propose effective forestry practice standards.

"All of these things we can do. Many of them will take money, but we have the money to do the job. Our Advisory Budget Commission has worked long, hard and well, and I want to express my personal appreciation to the members for a job well done.

"This is a budget that enables us to do many things. But it is also a budget that was drawn with proper regard for the effects the energy crisis may have on our economy and on State revenues.

"Because of the energy crisis, the Advisory Budget Commission has estimated that tax and non-tax General Fund revenues in 1974-75 will increase by less than 7 per cent — the lowest in a decade. For Highway Fund revenues, where the impact of the energy crisis may be felt more strongly, an increase of only 3.18 per cent is estimated.

"The General Fund budget prepared by the Advisory Budget Commission leaves only $3.6 million unappropriated.

"As we consider the use of these funds, it is essential that we provide adequate financing for the Energy Office to help us cope with this continuing problem. The mandatory fuel allocation program is requiring an immediate response on our part.
"The energy crisis is an unwanted item on our agenda, but one that must be given top priority in our considerations. I hope that you will move promptly in adopting the recommendations of your Energy Crisis Study Commission for emergency powers to deal with new difficulties presented by this crisis as they may arise.

"As you look at the funds we know are available, I also recommend that you revise sick leave benefits for school teachers, placing them on the same sick-days-per-month basis that we give our State employees.

"These recommendations leave unspent only a very small amount of the estimated available funds. As you continue your deliberations, I hope that some of the uncertainty is removed concerning just what impact the energy crisis will have on North Carolina and, in particular, our revenue picture.

"If the revenue estimates do improve, however, I urge you not to retreat from your forward march— for there are still so many needs out there in front of us.

"Keep in mind the fact that in only six states in this country do the state and local governments take less from the pocketbooks of their people to support their public school systems. Remember that the quality education we want for our children can never come unless we provide the means to attract the best teachers.

"If the revenues are available, I urge you to provide for additional salary increases for teachers and State employees beyond the 5 per cent that is recommended, recognizing that this 5 per cent increase is not even meeting the rise in our cost of living over the last 12 months.

"The need remains for a larger allocation for single-cell units in our prison system.

"Funds will be needed to implement the land management proposals.

"Keep in mind that the report of the Mental Health Study Commission soon will be placed in your hands, showing us how much more needs to be done in our mental health program.

"It is always a political temptation in an election year to propose tax cuts. I urge you to resist that temptation. Don't weaken our State treasury at a time when the full impact of the energy crisis is yet to be felt. We should face the stark, cold reality that thousands of North Carolina workers could lose their jobs for lack of adequate fuel supplies.

"One unfavorable ruling by one federal agency could bring disastrous consequences for many of our working people. If we should lose our fight before the Federal Power Commission regarding our natural gas allocations, it could result in plant shutdowns that would put over 80,000 North Carolinians out of work. I pledge to you today that the Governor's office, the Utilities Commission and the Attorney General's office will continue to fight that battle.
"But that is only part of the picture. Shortages of supplies in various types of fuels could seriously affect our industrial capacity to operate, our farmers' ability to produce crops and livestock, and all the other segments of our economy that depend on our industrial workers' and farmers' ability to earn an income.

"If any consideration is given to tax cuts — and obviously I believe that any such move would be unwise during this session — it should at least be postponed until we have some idea of how the energy crisis is affecting our revenue and until you have been able to examine the needs of our State.

"This is indeed a time of uncertainty — a time of crisis. It's a time of danger, but also a time of opportunity.

"I believe that when we look at the entire picture, it is one of optimism and hope.

"For one thing, during the past three years, a major, historic change has taken place in the governmental structure of this country.

"For the first time in the lifetimes of most of us, power has stopped flowing toward Washington and has begun flowing back to the state and local governments that are closest to the people.

"In this concept of the 'New Federalism,' Washington is saying to us that we can solve our problems best at the state and local level.

"For many years, governmental observers have been talking about the ineffectiveness of state and local governments. Now, we have the opportunity — and the responsibility — to prove that we can do the job.

"We are already moving in many areas. We are one of only three states that have chosen to implement the new Occupational Safety and Health Act rather than letting Washington do it. You will shortly have recommendations made to you to assure that North Carolina is able to continue to handle the Workmen's Compensation Act rather than letting this duty move to the federal government.

"I am optimistic today because we have the good fortune to be in the Southeastern part of the United States.

"It's been a standard policy for politicians to talk about the greatness of the state in which they live. Yet, because of the many areas in which we have fallen behind in the statistical comparisons with other parts of the country, I am afraid that we North Carolinians have tended sometimes to underestimate our potential.

"There is no question but that there are areas in which we must do better. But one fact is becoming increasingly clear. As the North Carolina industrial and trade mission toured Europe this past year, and as we talked with governmental and industrial leaders in many countries, it became clear that international leaders believe that we live in the region that offers the greatest opportunity for sound development and quality living of any area in the entire world."
"That fact is recognized around the globe. The opportunity is there, if we will just recognize it.

"If we will protect our assets with land management, with park development and with transportation planning . . . If we will recognize that the New Federalism offers us a whole new wave of opportunities . . . If we will refine our abilities to work with the federal government, with local governments and with other states surrounding us . . . We can and we will make North Carolina the leader of the New South and set an example for the country.

"But if we are to do these things, and if we are to deal with the problems of today and tomorrow, effective government is an absolute necessity.

"This legislature in 1969 began the long journey of state government reorganization. The voters of North Carolina approved the constitutional changes in 1970, and that vote was followed by the extensive work of the special study commission, the Executive Reorganization Act of 1971 and continued progress in 1973.

"I urge you to finish the job of state government reorganization in this 1974 session.

"For several months during 1973, the Governor's Efficiency Study Commission looked hard at state government. It has given us a blueprint for more effective use of our tax dollars.

"Many of these recommended changes can be adopted administratively, and the implementation process has already begun. A number of the changes recommended will require legislative approval, and we send a series of proposals for your consideration in the very near future.

"The New Federalism demands that we make greater efforts than ever before to maintain strong ties with federal and local governments. I expect to announce within the next few days an expansion of our Office of State-Federal Relations into a new Office of Intergovernmental Relations.

"This office will have the responsibility of working closely with national officials as well as leaders in local government across North Carolina.

"This office also will have the responsibility of working with other states in our region, and it will include an office in Washington to maintain close relations with our congressional delegation as well as federal officials.

"One of the responsibilities of the Intergovernmental Relations Office will be to monitor federal grants.

"Some months ago, the State of Louisiana installed a new computerized system for tracking federal grants. They found that over a 28-month period, Louisiana had overpaid its share of federal-state matching programs by $16 million. The result was a $16 million refund from the federal government."
“This is the kind of tracking effort we need in North Carolina.

“I believe that this entire program represents an important step in North Carolina’s efforts to move into the forefront of the New Federalism.

“There is an old saying that runs like a thread through the fabric of this country: ‘Necessity is the mother of invention.’

“This is the spirit that has characterized the people of this State.

“As we face our crises and opportunities, let us not whimper and accuse and look for scapegoats for our problems. Let us take counsel with our courage and our faith instead of our fears.

“Some of you already know that the City of Asheville has a motto that reads: ‘God, give us men to match our mountains.’

“That’s a worthy goal. But let us paraphrase it today and ask, ‘God, give us men and women to match our needs and opportunities’—and then let us be such men and women.”

Upon motion of Senator Allen, the Joint Session is dissolved, and pursuant to his motion heretofore made, the Senate adjourns to meet tomorrow at 10 A.M.

APPENDIX
INTERIM STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS
SECOND SESSION — 1974

INTERIM APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE

In each General Assembly session, the budget process is always the single biggest "issue" that we have to face. Each time we meet, we must decide how much of the people's money must be used as a State, and for what purpose.

In years past, we have had wise and prudent leadership that has, through careful planning and administration, given us the funds that have made possible programs that have enriched the lives of all North Carolinians.

Much of what we accomplish is done through the appropriations process. The 1973 Session, for example, will go down in history because of the record amount appropriated to further educational programs in our State.

During the 1974 Session, we will continue the progress made in education and other areas, and, at the same time, undertake certain new, and critically needed programs.

An Appropriations subcommittee chaired by Senator Gudger has been studying the State's role in providing services for exceptional children, and a major legislative program is expected in this area.

A subcommittee chaired by Senator Hardison will propose major modifications in the State Retirement System.

And a subcommittee which Representative Harris and I headed has been trying to work out with the House differences in the Land Conservancy Bill.

In the upcoming budget, all phases of education are well recognized.

We will seek expansion of the kindergarten program.

I am hoping we can improve the physical education program in our public schools.

I am hoping we can provide more secretarial help for school administrators.

In other areas:

We will seek a 5 per cent, across the board, salary increase for all State employees, and, if the economy shows any improvement to where it is justified, this amount might go higher.

We will seek additional programs in the Human Resources area.

And we certainly need a capital outlay in the Department of Corrections — but we need leadership over there more than anything.
Through the appropriations process, we will be building a strong North Carolina, and I think we can be proud of what we have done and will do in this area.

INTERIM COMMITTEE ON NATURAL & ECONOMIC RESOURCES

In North Carolina today, the wise use of our land is one of our greatest challenges. We are blessed with natural resources that are fast disappearing in other sections of our country. Those resources, once gone, are difficult—if not impossible—to regain. The effects of rapid development and poor planning are beginning to be felt in many sections of our State.

During the last session, major bills were introduced to deal with the problems in this area. They are the Coastal Area Management Act, the Mountain Area Management Act, and the Land Use Policy Act.

Interim committees of the Senate and House carried out an extensive series of hearings throughout the State on all three of these bills. The people responded in large numbers and expressed their views both on the need and suitability of such legislation.

As a result, the coastal and mountain bills are now being rewritten and will be introduced in a form providing for every substantial local government input. The land use bill, a culmination of work begun in the administration of Governor Scott, has received wide public acceptance, and with minor amendments, is ready for your consideration. We proudly recommend these bills as key measures to help keep North Carolina the kind of State we all want it to be.

WILLIAM W. STANTON
Chairman

INTERIM COMMERCE COMMITTEE

Virtually every citizen of North Carolina has felt the effect of what we now call the “energy crisis.” The shortage of fuel has affected every facet of the lives of the people of our state—their homes, their jobs, their recreational opportunities, their contacts with one another.

By its very nature, the energy crisis goes far beyond state lines, or state power to control, but during the last eight months, much careful consideration has been given to what courses of action the state might take.

Work begun by the Interim Commerce Committee in this area immediately after the 1973 session adjourned provided the impetus for action by the Energy Crisis Study Commission. Recommendations of this commission will be forwarded to the General Assembly soon, and specific legislation to aid in meeting the energy crisis will be introduced.
In another area, the committee considered the question of apparent discrimination in automobile insurance rates for young drivers, and specific legislation is forthcoming.

In addition, I served with Senator McNeill Smith on the Housing Study Commission, which has met for many hours in a serious study of the State's role in meeting the housing needs of North Carolinians. A major report from this commission will suggest a continued state effort in this area.

INTERIM COMMITTEE ON COURTS AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

MR. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE SENATE:

The Interim Committee on Courts and Law Enforcement consists of the regular Standing Committees of Courts and Judicial Districts and Social Rehabilitation and Control. A great deal of the responsibility for studying and revising legislation to upgrade our courts and to recodify laws relating to the courts necessarily continued in the hands of the statutory Courts Commission. The Courts Commission has met periodically between Sessions and will propose legislation dealing primarily with technical changes of existing laws. The Courts Commission and the standing legislative committee continue to have under consideration the merit selection of judges. It appears that we will face competitive elections at the Supreme Court, at the Court of Appeals and at the trial court level. The General Assembly has the obligation to debate and analyze very closely the merit selection plan. This plan has been in the Courts Commission for several years and has been studied by the Courts and Judicial Districts Committee for at least two Sessions. It is timely that we take some action on the plan. While the plan, if implemented, could not reasonably be effectuated this Session, the machinery could be established for future elections.

There is presently pending a bill to increase the number of judges at both the district and superior court level. As Chairman of the Courts and Judicial Districts Committee, I invite your attention to that bill and your suggestions.

The Interim Committee had the pleasure of hearing those persons responsible for directing control and rehabilitation of defendants convicted of crimes. Secretary David Jones spoke to our committee and stressed the need for substantial capital improvements in our prisons. A $21 million dollar budget is proposed for capital improvements. The Legislature should be alerted to the extremely overcrowded conditions that exist in our prisons which can lead only to inefficiency, the destruction of hope toward rehabilitation, as well as unrest among prison population. Mr. Ralph Edwards advised the committee of several corrective legislative proposals which should be before this body for consideration. The involuntary commitment statute to mental hospitals has posed a problem for prison officials with regards to those prisoners who need commitment for psychiatric examinations.
The committee also had the opportunity to hear Mr. Mac Boxley, Chairman of the Board of Paroles. North Carolina has the largest felon population in the country and the fifth largest prison population and it is one of 16 states with a three member parole board. Mr. Boxley urged approval of House Bill 465 with modification that would increase the number of parole board members.

In summary, Mr. President and Members of the Senate, as Chairman of the Committee on Courts and Law Enforcement, I would urge this body to consider changes in our prison laws and upgrading prison facilities as a priority of such great proportions that we can ill afford to adjourn this Session without major change.

INTERIM EDUCATION AND HEALTH

The members of the Interim Education and Health Committee recognize that a sound educational system is the key to all that we accomplish as a state. The 1973 General Assembly took a giant step forward in strengthening our system of public education, and proposals will be made this year to continue that advancement.

In one specific area, Senator Alford has chaired a study on the problem of school bus standees, and a report from that group will request the necessary buses to alleviate this problem.

One of the most pressing needs in North Carolina today is that of providing every citizen of our State, no matter where he or she lives, with adequate medical care.

Our present situation is far from encouraging. Many of our small towns are without basic medical care services. Six of our counties are each served by only one doctor. The number of licensed physicians in our State has declined — while our population continues to grow.

Where medical services are available, the cost of such services varies considerably from one section of our State to another.

If we are to do something about this in the months and years ahead, it will require action, concern, commitment, and the kind of decisions that only we here in the General Assembly can properly make.

One of those decisions most certainly should be the formulation of a comprehensive state policy of better medical care.

During the last eight months, three separate committees have been working on various aspects of the medical care problem.

Out of that work have come specific proposals to provide more doctors, to help insure a better distribution of those doctors, and to provide improved medical care services for all people of our State, no matter where they might live.
These proposals include:

—Expansion of the Area Health Education Centers program across our State.

—Expansion of the medical school at East Carolina University.

—Aid to financially disadvantaged undergraduate medical students through a scholarship program.

—Continuation of supplemental grants to the medical schools at Duke, Bowman Gray, and Meharry.

We have the opportunity now to make historic progress in providing better medical care for the people of North Carolina, and these proposals, along with others, will do much to bring this about.

SENATE JUDICIARY I INTERIM COMMITTEE

The Senate Judiciary I Interim Committee had its first meeting on October 12, 1973, in the Legislative Building. The Committee members decided to delay action on all pending bills until a solution could be worked out on the “Involuntary Commitment Act” — H. B. 1081, Chapter 726, ratified by the 1973 General Assembly. The Lieutenant Governor contacted Senator Allsbrook asking that some action be taken at the beginning of the 1974 Session to correct problems encountered by judges, magistrates, mental health officials, police officers and sheriffs, doctors, and families of patients in carrying out the provisions of the Act.

The Committee held three public hearings — October 19, November 2 and November 9 giving those people who encountered problems with the act a chance to voice their complaints to the Committee. The attendance was high at the hearings and several speakers were Judge Hal Walker; Representative Howard Twiggs — sponsor of H. B. 1081; Judge Phil Carlton; Taylor McMillan, Administrative Office of the Courts; Dr. Mike Zarzar, Director of Mental Health Services from the Department of Human Resources; Dr. Philip Nelson, Dr. R. S. Clemmons, Dr. David Rogers, Dr. Ben Monroe, Dr. Bob Ratcliffe and other psychiatrists from the mental health centers and institutions; sheriffs and magistrates; and admissions directors from Dorothea Dix and Umstead Hospitals. All of these people gave the Committee a better insight into the problems of the commitment procedure and also suggested revisions.

After the final hearing, Senator Allsbrook appointed a Subcommittee to study and draft a bill to revise the law.

Senator Folger was appointed as Chairman of the Subcommittee; other members appointed were Senator Philip P. Godwin and Senator Joe Raynor.

JULIAN R. ALLSBROOK
Chairman
The Subcommittee met on November 29 and 30. Ed Hinsdale, from the Institute of Government, who was present at all meetings and hearings, drafted a bill and presented it to the subcommittee for their deliberation. It was decided that when the draft was complete, a copy would be sent to those people who spoke before the Committee giving their objections to the new law.

On December 7, the full Committee met. Senator Allsbrook reappointed two subcommittees to serve during the remainder of the Interim and during the 1974 Session. These subcommittees are:

(1) Subcommittee on Drugs
   SENATOR GODWIN, Chairman SENATOR GUDGER
   SENATOR HORTON
   SENATOR STATON

(2) Subcommittee on Capital Punishment
   SENATOR FOLGER, Chairman
   SENATOR RHYNE
   SENATOR SOMERS

The next meeting of the Senate Judiciary I Committee will be held on January 16. Reports will be heard from each of the Subcommittees with emphasis on the findings of the Subcommittee studying the Involuntary Commitment Act.

SENNATE JUDICIARY II INTERIM COMMITTEE

On June 21, 1973, after the recess of the 1973 Session of the Senate, the United States Supreme Court handed down four major Supreme Court decisions that substantially rewrote the Law in the field of anti-obscenity legislation.

At the suggestion of Lt. Governor Jim Hunt and with the assistance of the Attorney General's Office, the Senate Judiciary II Interim Committee undertook a study of the North Carolina laws dealing with obscenity.

As a result of this study, legislation was drafted for introduction when the 1974 Session of the Senate convenes that will conform the North Carolina Obscenity Statute with the recent decisions of the United States Supreme Court.

It is our belief that the revisions to the North Carolina Anti-Obscenity Statute will set a constitutional standard of obscenity that will lead to the removal of the most offensive obscene materials without interfering with legitimate materials or individuals' rights.

The anti-obscenity bill ready for the consideration of the Senate. The bill would return the test of whether matter is obscene to the community standards rather than to the national standards and sets the definition of obscenity within the meaning of the Supreme Court decisions as follows:

1. Whether the "average person," applying contemporary community standards, would find that the work, taken as a whole appeals to the prurient interest.

2. Whether the work depicts or describes in a patently offensive way, sexual conduct specifically defined by the applicable state law.

3. Whether the work, taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, artistic, political or scientific value.

INTERIM STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT COMMITTEE

The reorganization of state government in North Carolina that has been underway for several years is designed to provide us with a state government that is efficient, effective, and responsive to the needs of the people.

The final phase of this reorganization effort has been under careful study by three subcommittees during the interim period. These subcommittees, chaired by Senators Mauney, Stallings, and Garrison, have held numerous hearings across the State.

As a result of those hearings and the evaluation of the testimony received, extensive revisions have been made in the reorganization bill. The General Assembly has truly had tremendous input into the reorganization process through this action.

Certain portions of the reorganization package are ready for consideration now. Other portions are still receiving active consideration by subcommittees or the full committee and will be ready soon.

A special area of attention in the weeks ahead will be the proposals to insure that our career state employees are treated in a fair manner as far as state personnel policies are concerned.

PROPOSED STATEMENT ON THE WORK OF REGIONAL COUNCILS OF LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

Mr. President, Lady and Gentlemen of the Senate, the special committee to study the role of regional councils of local governments held a total of seven meetings in the interim between the closing of the '73 Session and the beginning of the '74 Session. We were charged with the responsibility of studying the role of regional councils of local governments to determine how they are functioning and to make any recommendations deemed advisable by the committee to the Senate.
In our deliberations, we held five public hearings across the State and heard testimony from in excess of 72 speakers. I am grateful to the members of the special committee for their hard work on this subject. A final written report and recommendations has been adopted by the committee and is in the process of being printed for distribution to the members of the Senate. We expect this report to be ready for distribution within a week or so, at which time I will ask leave of the chair to explain it in detail.

One noteworthy recommendation of the committee is that consideration be given to the creation of a state agency to continually monitor and make recommendations to the General Assembly and the executive branch of government in the field of intergovernmental relations.

Again, I wish to publicly express my appreciation to the members of the committee for their hard work during the summer and fall.

I would especially like to thank the office of the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners for the loan of Mr. Ronald Aycock who served as staff assistant to the committee. Ron did an outstanding job and was quite an asset to the committee.

CRIME PREVENTION STUDY COMMISSION

The Crime Study Commission created during the 1973 Session has been charged with the responsibility of studying legislation designed to reduce crime in North Carolina and improving the overall effectiveness of our criminal justice system.

This Commission has hired a full-time secretary and an administrative assistant and has held regular meetings since September. During this time, we have heard from experts in almost every phase of the criminal justice system including:

1. The Lieutenant Governor
2. The Attorney General
3. The Secretary of the Department of Social Rehabilitation and Control
4. The Commissioner of Corrections
5. The Director of the SBI
6. And many others

Though our investigation has only begun to scratch the surface and realizing that we certainly do not pretend to have all the answers, we have been able to identify certain specific issues which we feel are important enough to merit special consideration. Among these are:

1. A police academy for the training of officers and personnel of law enforcement agencies.
2. Adequate pay and training for all law enforcement officers.

3. Enlistment of people in opposition to law violations and other evils that may contribute to crime.

4. Mini-courses in public schools in regard to criminal law and obedience to law.

5. Development of a court system looking toward speedy trials, and especially more judges and district attorneys.

6. Merit selection of judges as proposed by the North Carolina Bar Association.

7. A more enlightened and practical parole system.

8. Modernization of the work release and study release laws and the expansion of their use.

9. Constructive in-house work, educational and development programs.

10. A more enlightened understanding of the problem that the use of marijuana and other drugs, not including hard drugs, presents. Is this problem basically a social one for society or is it a problem for law enforcement?

11. Adequate housing and physical facilities for proper separation and quartering of prisoners.

In order to deal with these issues in greater detail, we have appointed subcommittees to prepare specific recommendations which will be incorporated into a formal report and presented to the Legislature within the next month.

Hopefully this report will contain concrete proposals for action that can be taken now to improve the overall effectiveness of the Criminal Justice System and a comprehensive outline for further study by this commission that will lead to additional recommendations in the future.

COMMENTS ON ISSUE NO. 4

In the study of crime first consideration must be given to the reasons for and the causes of crime and criminal activities. People who ostensibly constitute the law-abiding majority may be one of the prime reasons for crime. Crime can not flourish with total or near total opposition by those who do not violate the law. Perhaps one of the great reasons for the existence of crime is the acceptance of it by people. Crime together with other evils may destroy any society. This is especially true when crime and other evils abound in high places and are practiced by persons of prominence and influence. The time has come in this State and Nation when men and women who occupy high places, in government, education, in the field of religion, and in other sensitive and influential businesses and occupations must practice honesty, integrity and uprightness in all things.

MENTAL HEALTH STUDY COMMISSION

Senate Joint Resolution 702 established a Commission to study and evaluate the existing system of delivery of state health care for mental illness, mental retardation, alcoholism and related health problems and to recommend an improved system for the delivery of such care to meet the short and long term needs of the citizens of North Carolina.

The Commission held 20 meetings. Five of these meetings were public hearings held in Raleigh, Greenville, Fayetteville, Greensboro and Morganton.

After hearing proposals from five nationally known consulting firms, the Commission selected the firm of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co. to perform the study. The Commission along with the Department of Human Resources and the consulting firm set forth a scope of work which was divided into two phases. The first phase dealt primarily with an inventory of the existing system of every phase of mental health and alcoholism in the State. The 150 page report was presented to the Commission by the consultants on November 15. After reviewing Phase 1 of the report, the Commission felt that Phase 2 should be revised to be more comprehensive in scope.

On February 1 the consultants will submit a rough draft of Phase 2 of the report to the Commission. At that time, the Commission, working with the consultants, will decide on a final draft that will be submitted on February 15. In this final report, an overall model program to meet the short and long term needs of the citizens of North Carolina will be submitted covering the following areas:

(1) Mental Retardation — Developmental Disabilities.
(2) Emotionally Disturbed Children.
(3) Adult Mental Disorders, Alcoholism, Geriatrics.
(4) Organization and Financial Arrangements.
(5) Management Information System.

Legislation will be recommended to carry out these model programs.

SENATOR HAROLD W. HARDISON
REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO STUDY THE ROLE OF REGIONAL COUNCILS OF LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

Mr. President and Fellow Members of the Senate:

When I was asked to chair a special Senate Committee to study the role of Regional Councils of Governments, I accepted that responsibility with some trepidation. I was aware in a very vague way that we had Regional Councils in North Carolina but was not convinced that they were adding very much to the total governmental system in North Carolina. I am happy to report to the Senate that after the study conducted by the Special Committee during the interim, my view has changed. My view now is, that the Regional Councils are in fact, performing essential services for North Carolina. Regional Councils are assisting local governments in North Carolina in dealing with problems which affect more than one governmental jurisdiction. This work in helping local governments deal with intergovernmental issues is essential, as North Carolina becomes more and more urbanized and the necessity for intergovernmental cooperation increases.

After those brief introductory remarks, let me now move into a report from the Committee.

We have placed on each Senator's desk a copy of the written report of the Special Committee. You may refer to that as needed. The Special Committee held a total of seven (7) meetings during the summer and fall. Included in those seven (7) meetings were five (5) public hearings held at various points across the State. At those public hearings, we had some 72 speakers to make presentations to the Committee. With few exceptions, those 72 speakers spoke favorably concerning their particular regional council area. Regional Councils are essentially a confederation of cities and counties within a particular multi-county region which have banded together to perform activities which can better be done jointly than by individual units working separately. We do have 17 official multi-county regions in North Carolina covering the entire State. Local governments within each of the 17 regions decide what type of organization to have within that region, and again, with few exceptions control the operations of the Regional Council by having members of their governing boards sit on the governing board of the Regional Council. Thus, to reiterate, Regional Councils are really extensions of local governments in North Carolina and are subject to control by local governments in North Carolina. Regional Councils are involved in a variety of activities, almost all of which relate to planning. We have listed for you on pages three through five of the written report some examples of the activities Regional Councils are engaged in. Regional Councils do not have authority to implement any decisions. Instead, they make recommendations to their member local governments for local governmental implementation.

Financial support for Regional Councils comes from two primary sources: local governmental funds and federal grants. The federal grant programs normally require a matching local amount and is for a specific planning function. For example, a grant from the Farmer's Home Administration will be to perform water and sewer planning functions. The local governmental contribution is normally on a per capita basis with each member, city and county, agreeing to pay a certain amount per person within their jurisdiction. This per capita amount varies from each Regional Council from a low of ten cents ($0.10) to a high of thirty-five cents ($0.35).

I will now move to a discussion of the recommendations of the Committee.

First of all, it was the feeling of the Committee that since Regional Councils are really in their infancy in this State, having been created across the State only since 1971, it would not be wise to make specific legislative recommendations. Instead, the Committee elected to make some broad policy recommendations to guide the General Assembly in its consideration of issues which may have implications for Regional Councils. Our first recommendation has to do with the possibility of creating some agency to monitor intergovernmental relations in North Carolina. In making this recommendation, we are mindful of the federal model in the United States Advisory Commission Intergovernmental Relations. This United States Advisory Commission Intergovernmental Relations is composed of representatives from the private sector and from federal, state and local governments. North Carolina has been well represented on that Commission, with both Senator Sam J. Ervin and Representative L. H. Fountain serving as charter members of the Commission. In making the recommendation for consideration of the creation of a state level advisory agency on intergovernmental relations, we are aware that intergovernmental relations is a phenomenon of government which is increasing in intensity and scope. Regional Councils are heavily involved in this activity. Potentials exist for duplication of some activities of federal, state and local governments and Regional Councils. We feel that the creation of the state agency with prime responsibility for monitoring intergovernmental issues would allow this State to isolate those potential areas of duplication before they occur and would give the General Assembly and the Governor a mechanism for expert advice on these issues.

II.

Our second recommendation acknowledges the fact that there are some single-purpose regional planning agencies in the State and that in order to insure a maximum degree of economies of scale and coordination, that it would be better to have all single-purpose regional planning under a single multi-purpose planning agency. We recommend that the General Assembly have a policy that any single-purpose regional planning programs come under the umbrella of an existing multi-purpose planning agency unless a compelling reason for exclusion can be shown in a particular program.

III.

Our third recommendation has to do with funding: Here in this recommendation, the Committee acknowledged the fact that multi-county regional planning programs operate better when there is a high level of participation in support from local government. We recommend that in order to insure local governmental support and control of regional planning activities that appropriations of State funds for support of Regional Councils not be made presently.

IV.

Our fourth recommendation has to do with composition of governing boards. As you recall, I have stated that the Governing Boards of the Regional Councils are composed, in most cases, entirely of elected officials. The Committee recognizes that the present enabling legislation authorizing the creation of Regional Planning and Economic Development Commissions and Regional Councils of Governments gives authority to the cities and the counties to decide the composition of the governing boards. They may decide that they want the governing boards to be composed entirely of city council members, mayors and county commissioners, so our recommendation to the Senate is that any further legislation affecting Regional Councils encourage the retention of control of Regional Councils' Governing Boards by elected officials of general purpose local government.

V.

Our fifth recommendation has to do with the names given to Regional Councils. We acknowledge that quite a bit of confusion has arisen as to the whole concept of Regional Councils. Some persons have confused the 17 Regional Councils with the 10 federal Regional Councils which are administrative groupings of the federal governments. In order to avoid such confusion, the Committee recommends that consideration be given to the renaming of the Regional Councils and the Committee believes that an appropriate new name would be Area Planning Commissions.

Mr. President, I would be glad to respond to any questions at this time.
SENATE RESOLUTIONS
SECOND SESSION 1974

S. R. 1080, A SENATE RESOLUTION URGING THAT THE HISTORICAL SITE IN ONSLOW COUNTY KNOWN AS MONTFORD POINT CONTINUE TO BE KNOWN BY THAT NAME.

WHEREAS, "Montford Point" is an historical landmark in Onslow County; and

WHEREAS, Montford Point came into being about 250 years ago when a small boat edged up to these shores and out stepped Edward Montford and his brother Joseph Montford, godsons of the great Thomas Fullwood of England. Here on this point of land they hewed out the forest and built their homes and established their families long before Onslow County was ever formed; and

WHEREAS, in Public Records in the Onslow County Courthouse in Book A, page 1, it is recorded that "Joseph Montford had died leaving a will but the executors refused to act," not wishing to disturb the harmonious activities being carried on across the vast holdings of the Montford's plantations; and

WHEREAS, it was not until Charles Ratliff married the widow Montford and went into court asking for letters of administration to settle the estate that the inventory of the deceased was even recorded in the year of 1734, the same year Onslow County came into being; and

WHEREAS, the first census of Onslow County in 1790 shows that James Montford and his wife, Penelope, Jehue Montford and his wife, Winnefort, Lewis Montford and his wife, Elizabeth, and William Montford and Leark Montford with their families, all living on the point at Montford's Landing, carried on extensive farming, cattle raising and turpentine business with the help of more than a hundred slaves; and

WHEREAS, public service and military duty was an accomplished fact with this outstanding family of Onslow. Joseph Montford served in Onslow Regiment of Militia under the command of Captain John Shackelford from 1754 until 1775 when independence was finally gained. When the Civil War came to Onslow, William P. Montford and Joseph Montford enlisted and both served throughout the conflict under the illustrious officer, Colonel Simon B. Taylor; and

WHEREAS, at the same time, Edward W. Montford, who was already past his fiftieth year, was appointed a member of the Finance Committee to raise funds to equip and support our volunteer soldiers. His brother, Dr. W. J. Montford, was one of the few doctors in Onslow to take care of the ill during those troubled times; and

WHEREAS, numerous local historical landmarks coming under control of the federal government have been lost; and WHEREAS, every effort should be made to preserve historical Montford Point.

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Senate:

Section 1. That Montford Point in Onslow County is an historical landmark which should be preserved.

Sec. 2. That the Secretary of the Navy, the Commandant of the Marine Corps and the Commanding General of Camp Lejeune are urged to preserve this historical landmark.

S. R. 1502, A SENATE RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF GILBERT H. "HASHMARK" JOHNSON, ONE OF THE FIRST BLACK MEN TO SERVE IN THE MARINE CORPS.

WHEREAS, Gilbert H. "Hashmark" Johnson, a retired Marine Corps Black Sergeant Major died on August 5, 1972, at the age of 65 while addressing the annual meeting of the Montford Point Marine Association, Jacksonville, North Carolina; an organization which he helped form; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Major Gilbert "Hashmark" Johnson served more than 30 years of active duty in the U. S. Armed Services, the last 15 as a Marine; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Major Johnson's military career began in 1923 when he enlisted in the army at the age of 16; and

WHEREAS, during his military career he exemplified the highest traditions of the military services and distinguished himself by his extraordinary service; and

WHEREAS, during his military service, especially his last 15 years as a Marine, he became a living legend becoming known as the old "Top Kick" and "Hashmark"; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Grant T. Hallmon has composed an "Ode to Sergeant Major Gilbert 'Hashmark' Johnson" as follows:

He wasn't at the Halls of Montezuma
Nor the Shores of Tripoli.
On a drill field at Camp Lejeune's
Montford Point Camp — he made history.
Sgt. Major Johnson, Gilbert H., USMC
The old “Top Kick” signed his name.
He was called “Hashmark” by the Chosen few — they helped him gain his fame.
167 years: The Marine Corps was Lily White.
The 32nd President and Executive order
8802 set things right.
Roosevelt and Knox was quite a team
That's a known fact. They wanted a new Type Marine and decreed he had to be black.
Montford Point Camp was where Black
Marines first heard the Old Top Kick's Bellow
Twenty-two thousand of them soon learned
That he was a helluva tough fellow.
He drilled them in the morning, at noon,
and after sup.
He was determined to see that Black
Marines measured up.
“Hashmark” instilled in those Black Gyrenes
An immeasurable amount of self pride.
They wore the Globe and Anchor well
Semper Fidelis was their Guide.
Everyone of those hellions — wore “Hashmark’s” brand.
They were the outfightingest, Drinkingest, Lovingest
Demons ever to protect this Land.
Many men have worn the Globe and Anchor.
All Devil Dog Marines are rough and tough.
Just to mention “Chesty” Puller “Lou” Diamond
And “Hashmark” Johnson is enough.
Ask any Black Marine about the Old “Top Kick” Pridgen, Huff, Young, Baugh, Johnny
Johnson, Ghazlo, Lyons, Sneed, Rutland, Givens, Gray and Dick Dalton, too. They will all tell you That “Hashmark” brought them through.
“Hashmark’s” men earned their Glory
At Guam, Saipan, Tinian, Iwo Jima,
Okinawa and Kwajalein Atoll.
They became the damnedest fighting men
The world has ever known.
Now “Hashmark” has been called to his Home in Glory.
Montford Point Marines are filled with Grief and Despair.
They know when they are called to
That heavenly city.
The Old “Top Kick” will be calling cadence there.
5 August 1972 the Supreme Commander
Told the Old “Top Kick” “Hashmark” I need you.
For 34 years you have served to your country’s delight.
You trained thousands of men to help make things right.
Your name will forever be remembered throughout the Nation.
Songs of Praise will be sung to you by the Montford Point Marine Association.
Since “Hashmark” wasn’t at the Halls of Montezuma, nor the shores of Tripoli.
He is now in that heavenly city where all men are free.
The Old "Top Kick" resumed his duties — soon as he got there.
Whenever a soldier or sailor gets out
Of line they will be eaten out on the square.
All Marines will welcome him for they know about his past.
St. Peter in extending the right hand of fellowship will say —
Welcome Home "Hashmark" I've got a Good "Top Kick" at last.

WHEREAS, the Commandant of the Marine Corps will honor Sergeant Major Gilbert H. "Hashmark" Johnson on April 19, 1974, by changing the name of Camp Lejeune's Montford Point Camp to Camp Gilbert H. Johnson, the first major military installation named in honor of a Black Marine;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Senate:

Section 1. That in the death of Gilbert H. "Hashmark" Johnson, the Marine Corps and the nation have suffered the loss of an outstanding citizen.

Sec. 2. That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of both the Senate and the House of Representatives and that two copies of this resolution shall be duly certified by the Secretary of State and by him transmitted to the Commanding General, Marine Corps, Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, with instruction that one copy be retained at Camp Lejeune and the other copy be transmitted to the family of Gilbert H.
"Hashmark" Johnson.

Sec. 3. This resolution shall become effective upon ratification.

S. R. 1503, A SENATE RESOLUTION ACCLAIMING THE PATRIOTIC EFFORTS OF THE AMERICAN HERITAGE COMMITTEE AND THE

recapture fundamental American principles; and

WHEREAS, this intent was clearly expressed by Congress when it created the American Revolution Bicentennial Commission on July 4, 1966; and

WHEREAS, the language in the Congressional Resolution PL 89-491, which created the ARBC required that "the ideas associated with the Revolution" be given emphasis in all bicentennial activities; and

WHEREAS, this language was repeated in the amendment to PL 89-491 in December, 1973; and

WHEREAS, there is no evidence that this Congressional mandate has been carried out; and
WHEREAS, it has become increasingly clear that this essential requirement should be carried out at a grass roots level by the states, especially by the thirteen original states; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina, through the American Heritage Committee of the North Carolina Veterans Council is taking the national initiative in achieving this purpose; and

WHEREAS, the American Heritage Committee of the North Carolina Veterans Council, which was created under the leadership of former Governor Robert Scott for this purpose, is strongly supported by Governor James Holshouser and the entire North Carolina delegation in Congress; and

WHEREAS, this effort is beginning to spread throughout North Carolina, and the American Heritage Committee seeks now to enlist the original thirteen states in this common commitment to the cause of freedom;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Senate:

Section 1. That the North Carolina Legislature acclaims this patriotic effort and pledges its unanimous support to its conclusion.

Sec. 2. That this resolution shall become effective upon adoption.

S. R. 1507, A SENATE RESOLUTION CALLING FOR THE NORTH CAROLINA COURTS COMMISSION TO STUDY MEANS OF EXPEDITING THE PROMPT DISPOSITION OF CRIMINAL CASES IN THE GENERAL COURT OF JUSTICE.

WHEREAS, the North Carolina Courts Commission has long been engaged in the restructuring of our courts system for the express purpose of improving and expediting the administration of justice in North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, both the Criminal Code Commission and the Crime Study Commission have recommended methods of achieving more prompt disposition of criminal cases, and the General Assembly has passed significant legislation to this end; and

WHEREAS, the implementation of the proposals of these commissions should be accomplished as quickly and as efficiently as possible within the framework of our unified courts system;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Senate:

Section 1. That the North Carolina Courts Commission is requested to study means of expediting the prompt disposition of criminal cases in the General Court of Justice, including manpower and administrative problems, if any, which may be occasioned by pending proposals, and to report its findings and recommendations to the 1975 Session of the General Assembly.

Sec. 2. That this resolution shall become effective upon its adoption.

S. R. 1508, A SENATE RESOLUTION ESTABLISHING A COMMISSION TO STUDY AND RECOMMEND POSSIBLE CHANGES IN THE TAX STRUCTURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, the tax laws of every state should be periodically examined in light of changing economic and governmental factors such as inflation, wage and employment levels, fairness of tax burdens, effects on industrial and commercial location and competitiveness, relativity to neighboring states and the fiscal needs of the state; and

WHEREAS, the most intelligent, logical and fair approach to deal with the question of taxation is to charge a study commission with responsibility to study the entire tax structure rather than to approach the question in a piecemeal manner to the end that equity for all taxpayers may be attained;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Senate:
