SENATE JOURNAL
FIRST SESSION 1987

FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,

In accordance with law, as set forth in the Constitution of the State of North Carolina and G.S. 120-11.1 and Chapter 994 of the Session Laws of the 1985 General Assembly, the Senate of the General Assembly of North Carolina assembles this day, at the hour of 1:00 P.M., in the Senate Chamber of the Legislative Building in the City of Raleigh.

The Honorable Robert B. Jordan III, Lieutenant Governor, calls the Senate to order.

Prayer is offered by Bishop L. Bevel Jones III, Resident Bishop of the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, Charlotte, North Carolina, as follows:

"Almighty God, Who in times past led our mothers and fathers to these bountiful shores, and Whose guiding hand has made and preserved us a nation—Thy grace has been richly shed upon us. Thou didst inspire the founders of this republic to establish our government in constitutional law, thus promoting and protecting the rights of all our citizens equally. Grant, O God, that we shall ever cherish and refine that freedom in which we stand. Forbid that we should ever presume upon it, take it for granted, pervert it for selfish gain. Remind us that responsibility is the fabric of freedom, and truth the foundation of civilization. Give us a sense of the dynamic of democracy, the aliveness of legislation. Impress upon us that new occasions teach new duties, and time makes ancient good uncouth. Thou art just and righteous, a God Who delights in fairness and truth, and Whose face is ever set against tyranny and oppression. Undergird us in these unsettling times by Thy wisdom and uphold us by Thy love. 'Thy love divine hath led us in the past; in this free land by Thee our lot is cast; be Thou our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay; Thy Word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.' Amen."

Led by the Lieutenant Governor, the Senators-elect and distinguished guests remain standing, and pledge their allegiance to the United States of America.

The Chair directs the Reading Clerk of the 1985 Session to call the roll and the following Senators-elect appear with the proper certificates of election:

Those present take and subscribe to the following oath of office, which is administered by the Honorable James G. Exum, Jr., Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

February 9, 1987
"I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will support and maintain the Constitution and laws of the United States; and I do solemnly and sincerely swear or affirm that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina, and to the constitutional powers and authorities which are or may be established for the government thereof; and that I will endeavor to support, maintain, and defend the Constitution and laws of said State, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, to the best of my knowledge and ability; and I do solemnly and sincerely swear or affirm that I will faithfully discharge the duties of my office as a member of the Senate of the 1987 General Assembly of the State of North Carolina to the best of my skill and ability, according to law, so help me, God."

To which oath each Senator answers, "I do."

The President declares a quorum of the Senate present.

The President expresses appreciation to the Justices and Judges of the General Court of Justice for their participation in today's opening ceremonies.

The President directs Senator Harrington to approach the dais and relinquishes the gavel.

Without objection, the President addresses the membership and upon the motion of Senator Taft, his remarks are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

REMARKS BY LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR ROBERT B. JORDAN III

"Welcome to the 137th Session of the North Carolina General Assembly. I congratulate each of you Senators.

"You have just taken the oath of office and started a challenging opportunity for you and for our great State.

"To the families and guests of the Senators each of you in your own way helped make this day possible.

"To our distinguished guests, members of the Council of State, the Judiciary, representatives of the Executive Branch and visitors welcome.

"To my wife Sarah and my family thank you for your care and support.

"We are indeed a most fortunate people in North Carolina. Our ancestors worked long and hard and at great risk to bring us to this time. A time filled with possibilities for securing the future for ourselves and for our children. But there is no guarantee for a great future, only an opportunity.

"And today we in the Legislature have a clear choice. Do we adhere to the status quo, allowing our destiny to be shaped by forces outside North Carolina? Or do we build on the opportunity given us and ensure that the future of North Carolina is shaped by North Carolina?

"The choice is clear. The work is challenging. The rewards are certain.

"On Opening Day in 1985, I stated, 'The citizens of North Carolina have elected us to chart a sound and enduring course for the State... as it now moves into the closing years of this century. We must build upon past accomplishments, and we must utilize the available resources to the fullest as we chart the course for the future.' The same holds true for this Session. The course will not be easy. But progress never is.

"In 1985, we recognized the need for change. The General Assembly established the North Carolina Commission on Jobs and Economic Growth to plan for the changing complex nature of our position in the nation and the world. The result is a proposal that is innovative in substance, bold in approach and realistic in its applications. It embraces a partnership between citizens and their government. I propose a 'growth from within' strategy that builds on the strengths of our people and the full resources of our State. And to nurture this partnership, I ask that the General Assembly pass legislation to establish a Rural Economic Development Corporation to revitalize our rural communities.

"I ask that we target resources to areas of greatest need and recognize that education is the foundation for tomorrow's North Carolina. Too often, we accept the false notion that the fight for our future is a mysterious battle that will take place in some strange and faraway land. It is not. It is being waged every day in math classes in Northampton County, in biology labs in Mecklenburg and in kindergartens in Haywood County. Recognizing this critical need, we in the General Assembly passed the landmark Basic Education Program in 1985 and now warmly welcome our Governor's support of our initiative. We invite him to join us as a full partner in the daily battle to secure the future for young North Carolinians.

"The Basic Education Program was an historic step but certainly not the completion of our journey. We need to do more. We must raise the level of excellence in our schools and restore pride in teaching. In 1987, we must strengthen teacher education and recruit talented young people by funding a Teaching Fellows Scholarship Program. We should pilot the lead teacher concept in our schools and take a new look at teacher and student performance.

"State government cannot be passive. We cannot let events wash over us like a flood. Our government must work as a partner with its citizens in areas of legitimate concern. Nowhere is that approach more urgent and necessary than in the area of protecting our God-given resources our water, our air, and our land.

"Because North Carolina is such a blessed and special place, we in government must be vigilant in protecting our precious resources.

"We must never look at ourselves as occupiers of the land, for we are indeed its stewards.

"A European navigator who explored the North Carolina coast in 1524 described our State with its 'faire fields and plains, its good and wholesome aire, its beautiful trees, greater and better than any in Europe, as pleasant and delectable to behold, as is possible to imagine.'

"Well, that is the legacy we want to leave to the next generation.

"The concept that it is not proper for state government to protect the environment or that aggressive measures taken to protect our citizens is bad business is not only shortsighted, but extremely dangerous. The truth is that business will not move to or stay anywhere where water is undrinkable. Therefore, I urge the General Assembly to enact legislation to ban phosphate detergents and to work with the federal government in cleaning up abandoned toxic waste sites.

"While we in North Carolina are a frugal people, we are a caring people too. And we want North Carolina to be judged as much by our concern for our neighbors as by our dedication to wise management of the public purse. The greatest weapons we possess in our fight for the future are our values. And no value in North Carolina is stronger than our sense of compassion for our neighbors. We can never allow ourselves to ignore the homeless, the hungry and those who cannot care for themselves. A most basic and ancient need of those families is adequate shelter. Our sense of family compels us to provide a Housing Trust Fund to assist deserving families with shelter and warmth for their children. We are only as strong as the sum of our parts. And our job is unfinished.

"The voices of caution will say go slow.

"They will attempt to fill us with the fear that the fight for the future is too risky.

"We cannot throw up our hands at our future. We must instead, throw our talents and energy at making a better tomorrow in North Carolina.

"I urge that this General Assembly, collectively and strongly, reject the siren song of the status quo.

"Make no mistake about it, North Carolina's enemy is not Japan. North Carolina's enemy is not a changing world.

"Our enemy is the status quo.

"And our enemy is a government that doesn't believe as strongly in the people of North Carolina as the people of North Carolina believe in themselves.

"Oliver Wendell Holmes once said, 'I find the greatest thing in this world is not so much where we stand,... as in what direction we are moving.' Let the disciples of the status quo hear this clearly, what we don't get done this session, we will come back the next and try again. So we are faced with the challenge of securing a future for North Carolina. Let us secure a future worthy of our noble past. Let us rise to that challenge-- together!

"For if we do as we must, one hundred years from now one of our children's children will stand here and say, 'Our ancestors worked long and hard and at great risk to bring us to this time. A time filled with possibilities for securing the future for ourselves and for our children.'"

The President assumes the gavel and announces the Senate is ready to proceed with election of officers.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Senator Taft offers a motion that the remarks of the Senators offering nominations be spread upon the Journal, which motion prevails. (See Appendix)

The President recognizes Senator Royall who offers the following remarks:

"Mr. President, Honorable members of the Judiciary, distinguished visitors and guests, and my esteemed colleagues of the Senate.

"In olden times, the General Assembly's sessions were held in the Northeastern part of North Carolina known as the Albemarle.

"The well-known writer, Inglis Fletcher, described the Albemarle legislators in these words: 'The Albemarle men made a good showing. They were distinguished men of breeding, men of intelligence, but above everything, men of decision and proud integrity. They called them the iron men of the Albemarle.'

"This description applies to a modern-day man of the Albemarle, Senator J. J. 'Monk' Harrington, a member of this Body for a quarter of a century. It is with the greatest of pleasure and a feeling of honor that I place his name in nomination for election to the office of President Pro Tempore.

"He has performed the duties of that Office in a fine manner the past two years. I know of few persons who have filled the position with greater ability and dedication to duty.

February 9, 1987
“It has been my good fortune to serve with ‘Monk’ Harrington in every session of the Legislature since 1967. No member of this Body commands greater respect or is characterized by greater qualities of integrity, conviction and know-how.

“He is a gentleman in the classic sense of the word, an independent thinker, a model of decent and effective public service, and a compassionate, friendly, caring human being.

“He must surely feel proud that his labors in the vineyard of public service have earned such high marks from those whom he has served.

“I am pleased and proud to nominate for the office of President Pro Tempore the distinguished Senator from the Albemarle, the Honorable J. J. ‘Monk’ Harrington.

The President recognizes Senator Parnell who offers the following remarks:

“Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate.

“It is a very distinct honor that I have to rise to second the nomination of Senator J. J. ‘Monk’ Harrington from Bertie County, for the position of President Pro Tempore of the North Carolina Senate.

“I know of no one serving in the North Carolina General Assembly with better credentials to hold this position of leadership than my friend ‘Monk’ Harrington.

‘Monk’ Harrington is a businessman, he is a farmer, he is a politician, he is a legislator, and most of all he is a statesman who knows how to get things done.

‘Monk’ Harrington has served this great State of ours with honor and distinction as a member of the North Carolina Senate since 1963, total of 24 years.

“He has made major contributions to our State and particularly in the highway system of North Carolina through his service as Chairman of the Senate Transportation Committee. In this position, he has been responsible for guiding through this Senate, some of the major highway legislation enacted during the past twenty years.

“During his years of service in the Senate, he has served on every major committee of this Body, and having served on a few of these committees with him since I have been here, I know first-hand of his great leadership ability.

‘Monk’ Harrington is a team player. He will stand shoulder-to-shoulder with our great Lieutenant Governor, and the other leadership of this General Assembly in working for what is best for North Carolina.

“As our President Pro Tem during the 1985-1986 Session, Senator ‘Monk’ Harrington gave us fair, honest, and steady leadership. He offers that again to you.

“So I hope that you will join with me in voting for Senator J. J. ‘Monk’ Harrington for President Pro Tem of the North Carolina Senate.

“Mr. President, I move that the nominations be closed and that Senator ‘Monk’ Harrington be elected by acclamation.”

The President recognizes Senator Taft who offers the following remarks:

“Mr. President, ladies and gentleman of the Senate, our friends, political colleagues, families and loved ones gathered here for this opening day, it is my high honor, warm pleasure and solemn duty to nominate one of our colleagues to serve as the President Pro Tempore of the North Carolina Senate and of the people of the State of North Carolina.
"The Office of President Pro Tempore is a constitutionally sanctioned Office established and preserved through three constitutions and two hundred and eleven years of legislative history. This Office shares not only an important role in the organization and administration of the affairs of the upper legislative chamber of North Carolina but establishes the person second in line of succession to the Governor.

"The President Pro Tempore must be a person held in high esteem by his Senate colleagues, one they trust with not only the reins of power over this Chamber but able to serve as Chief Executive of this State if tragedy were to befall us.

"The Democratic Caucus and now the full Chamber must select one amongst us in which to vest this high authority and solemn trust. We have amongst our number a gentleman who has served nine terms, who has held distinguished chairmanships of our major committees, won the trust of his region by his championed commitment to extending medical care to the poor and distant of rural eastern North Carolina, who has demonstrated a levelness and evenhandedness in moments of high tension and charged partisanship and one who has championed the State's commitment to a fiscally sound government but yet insured a government progressive in its view and sensitive to the needs of the low as well as the mighty.

"That's all so very high sounding but so very true and so very important.

"Senator J. J. 'Monk' Harrington has already once served us as Pro Tem and if selected here today will again shoulder that responsibility in an honorable, capable and evenhanded manner.

"To be asked by Senator Harrington to make his nomination is a special pleasure for this young Senator. I first knew him when I was twenty-four and fresh out of law school to serve the Lieutenant Governor and President of this Body in 1973. One of Lieutenant Governor Hunt's most able and loyal allies in the Senate was 'Monk' Harrington.

"'Monk' Harrington showed a sensitive and warm interest in me and more than once saved me from my own youthful inexperience. He was willing to tone me down with a chuckle and a wink to his colleagues rather than a harsh backhand and sanguineous attitude of several of his colleagues.

"As a freshman Senator, I have seen 'Monk' Harrington make that special effort with other freshman as well, generated at least as much by his interest in other people as by his eye on the tally sheet. In fact, that reputation insured him the margin from among the new freshman essential to his aspirations.

"So the score of this man is great experience, long service, evenhandedness, respect of and for his colleagues, time and interest for the newly arrived.

"These are the qualities that make me so proud and confident, Mr. President, to place in nomination for President Pro Tempore of this North Carolina Senate, the distinguished Senator from Bertie County, the Honorable J. J. 'Monk' Harrington. Thank you."

The President recognizes Senator Redman who seconds the nomination of Senator Joseph J. Harrington for President Pro Tempore of the Senate. (See Appendix)

The President recognizes Senator Royall who offers a motion that the nominations be closed and that Senator Joseph J. Harrington be elected President Pro Tempore of the Senate by acclamation, which motion prevails.

Being declared duly elected, the President appoints Senator Hunt of Durham, Senator Guy, Senator Basnight, and Senator Martin of Pitt to escort the President Pro
Tempore, Senator Harrington, to the Well of the Senate where he receives the prescribed oath of office which is administered by the Honorable Willis P. Whichard, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina. Senator Harrington is recognized to address the membership from the Well of the Senate. (See Appendix)

For Majority Leader of the Senate, Senator Plyler places in nomination the name of Senator Anthony E. Rand of Cumberland County.

Senator Rauch seconds the nomination. (See Appendix)

The President recognizes Senator Basnight who offers the following remarks:

"I count it a great pleasure and honor to second the nomination of our North Carolina Senator 'Tony' Rand for Senate Majority Leader. I think all of us here know his accomplishments and his record, and I am not going to expound on that, but I would like to tell you the kind of man I have found Senator Rand to be.

"The 'Tony' Rand I know is a man who never stops giving of himself, giving of his time, giving of his energy, giving of his talent to make North Carolina a better place to live for all of its citizens. 'Tony' Rand is a man who works tirelessly for better government and better representation for the average North Carolinian. When I was a freshman member, Senator Rand took it upon himself to work with me, to listen to the issues that were important to my District and by his example, to show me the qualities of true leadership.

"The 'Tony' Rand I know cares about North Carolina and all of its people. I can think of no better Senator to serve as Majority Leader than 'Tony' Rand, and I am proud to second his nomination."

On the further motion of Senator Basnight the nominations are closed. The members of the minority party are excused from voting. Senator Anthony E. Rand is elected Majority Leader by acclamation.

Being declared duly elected, the President appoints Senator Hipps and Senator Warren to escort the Majority Leader, Senator Rand, to the Well of the Senate where he receives the prescribed oath of office which is administered by the Honorable Patricia Timmons-Goodson, Judge of the Twelfth Judicial District of the General Court of Justice. Senator Rand is recognized to address the membership from the Well of the Senate, as follows:

"Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate and distinguished guests.

"Thanks to Senator Plyler, Senator Rauch, and Senator Basnight. I'm glad my mother, wife and boys could be here to hear all this. Thanks to Senator Warren and Senator Hipps and to all of you for allowing me the opportunity to serve as Majority Leader.

"I would first like to express my deep gratitude and the gratitude of all the people of North Carolina to my predecessor in this office, Senator Kenneth Royall. Thanks to his leadership, North Carolina has a tradition of fiscal responsibility and good government. Our mental health programs are the model for this nation—all this in large measure to his great leadership.

"We are very fortunate to live in North Carolina. We have a great State of tremendous diversity—the charm of our seashores, the timeless beauty of our mountains, and the vitality and strength of the Piedmont. This diversity is our greatest strength! We must use this diversity to advance our State and not let it be used to pit one region against another or one section against another. Together we must carry North Carolina forward.

February 9, 1987
"Our great Lieutenant Governor, Bob Jordan, has spoken of not being content with the status quo. If we are to be content with the way things are, we would join the gentleman who advocated abolishing the patent office in the late 1800's. He said that everything that could be invented had already been invented. Obviously, he was not a prophet of the future.

"North Carolina has come a long way—but we have a ways to go. It's like the old man told my daddy—'we ain't what we wanta be, we ain't what we're gonna be, but thank God, we're better than we were.'

"Our schools are better, but the Basic Education Plan will make them better still. Our economy is progressing—but our Lieutenant Governor's Commission on Jobs and Economic Growth has charted an ambitious course for economic growth and expansion.

"It's our obligation to move North Carolina forward to the 21st Century. To assure that all our people can develop their full potential, make a contribution to our society and have a fulfilling life. If we succeed, we will make the best better and will make North Carolina the place where the 'weak grow strong and the strong grow great'!

"With Karen's help and your help, I will try to make this session of the General Assembly the best it can be."

For Principal Clerk of the Senate, Senator Harris places in nomination Sylvia Morris Fink of Wake County. Senator Plyer seconds the nomination. (See Appendix)

On motion of Senator Plyer, the nominations are closed and Sylvia Morris Fink is elected Principal Clerk by acclamation. Being duly elected, she receives the prescribed oath of office which is administered by the Honorable Robert B. Jordan III, Lieutenant Governor, and assumes her seat.

For Reading Clerk of the Senate, Senator Speed places in nomination LeRoy Clark, Jr. of Wake County. Senator Johnson of Wake seconds the nomination. (See Appendix)

On motion of Senator Johnson of Wake, the nominations are closed and LeRoy Clark, Jr. is elected Reading Clerk by acclamation. Being duly elected, he receives the prescribed oath of office which is administered by the Honorable Harry C. Martin, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, and assumes his seat.

For Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate, Senator Marvin places in nomination Gerda B. Pleasants of Wake County. Senator Speed seconds the nomination. (See Appendix)

On motion of Senator Speed, the nominations are closed, and Gerda B. Pleasants is elected Sergeant-at-Arms by acclamation. Being declared duly elected, she receives the prescribed oath of office which is administered by the Honorable James G. Exum, Jr., Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, and assumes her seat.

"The federal government has made changes in its tax laws and you should review those and determine what impact those may have on State and local governments, on citizens, and business.

"I ask you to review the economic picture of our State and determine what proposals will best serve the interests of all our citizens.

"You, Senator Martin, have time and time again demonstrated your concern and support for our system of higher education. You and the members of the Committee must look at ways our community college system can provide literacy training for those adults who are unable to read and write. You must see that our community colleges have the capability to train and retrain workers for the jobs of today and tomorrow and provide encouragement for small business development.

"Our public universities and private colleges have been on the forefront of research and education to prepare our students and workers for the changing demand of our National and State economy and a critical task is training classroom teachers. "From the sandy beaches of Manteo to the lofty peaks of Murphy we have assembled here, O God, to proceed with government of the people, by the people, and for the people. We thank You for the people they represent and for their commitment to making our great State a land of promise and progress.

"We offer up our prayers for all branches of our State government during these difficult but challenging times. Empower them with the wisdom and courage they need as they strive to be our servants rather than our masters. As they focus their attention on the critical issues that are before them, help them to make decisions on the basis of what is right rather than what is popular; on what is in the best interest of all our citizens rather than the few. And when the gavel has sounded to close this Session, and the last 'ayes' and 'nays' have been heard, give them a sense of assurance that they have been true to our motto that calls us "To Be Rather Than To Seem."

"For it is in the Name of the only wise God, to Whom be glory forevermore, that we pray. Amen."

Senator Barnes rises to a point of parliamentary inquiry as follows: "Mr. President, if a person introduces a bill at this point in time, can the bill be withdrawn at this time

February 25, 1987
or held without being read or introduced from the floor? Can it be held as introduced?"

The Chair rules that the Senator may make a motion that the bills be held as filed. Senator Barnes offers a motion to the end that S.B. 65, a bill to adopt a comparative fault system and make it inapplicable to State torts and S.B. 66, filed for introduction, be held as filed.

Following debate, Senator Barnes offers a substitute motion that the bills be committed to the Judiciary I Committee.

The Chair rules as follows: "... that the second motion, the substitute motion, which is the motion to send the bills to a committee is an opposite motion of the motion to hold as filed, which is to not send the bills to committee. So the Chair would rule that the first motion is before you, that is, the motion to hold the bills as filed."

Prayer is offered by Dr. Samuel D. McMillan, Jr., Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Almighty God, we confess that already we feel the pressure mounting on us. In addition to our family and business responsibilities, we are bombarded with calls from constituents and lobbyists, we are overwhelmed with endless breakfast and dinner invitations, and we are weary at the thought of the many committee meetings and sessions of this Body that lie before us between now and the summer.

"We wonder how we will make it through this week, much less throughout this Session of the General Assembly. Then we recall the words of the prophet Isaiah, 'Even youths shall faint and be weary, and young men shall fall exhausted; But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint.'

"O God of Strength, deliver us from the temptation to seek to meet all the challenges of life alone. In the rush of this and every week, cause us to pause and wait upon Thee. Grant us a quiet time each day with Thee, help us to find a time of spiritual renewal each week-end in Your house, and thus renew our strength that we might face creatively and victoriously the pressure and the opportunities of this and every day. Amen."

REMARKS OF LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR JORDAN

"It is a particular honor for this General Assembly to have with us tonight two of the nation's leaders in seeing that our country mobilizes its resources and people to secure the future.

"It was only a few years ago that the South lagged behind the rest of the nation in the educational attainment of our children and the economic opportunities available to our people.

"But that has changed with the aggressive leadership of Governors and Legislatures willing to take risks to move their states forward. Two of the leaders in our efforts for better schools and better economic opportunities are with us tonight: William Winter of Mississippi and Martha Layne Collins of Kentucky.

"Both of them were Lieutenant Governor before being elected Governor, and both of them succeeded in strengthening their states' education ethic by helping their states understand the ever-closing link between economic development and educating our citizens.

“Our first speaker is well known to this General Assembly as one of the most progressive governors the South has had in its recent history. Currently, he balances his jobs as the senior partner in a distinguished law firm in Jackson with farming in his native community of Grenada. But since his term as governor expired in 1984, William Winter has become more than a citizen of Mississippi.

“He has become a leader of the South. He has been chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board, Southern Regional Education Board, Appalachian Regional Commission, and Southern Regional Education Board's Commission on Quality in Education.

“But most important for our purposes tonight, Governor Winter was Chairman of the Commission on the Future of the South, and Chairman of the MDC panel which produced SHADOWS IN THE SUNBELT. The Commission was composed of twenty of the South's most distinguished citizens. It included Dr. Bob Albright and Representative Betsy Cochrane from North Carolina.

“Its report, HALF WAY HOME AND A LONG WAY TO GO, was written by North Carolina's own Doris Betts, one of our State's finest novelists. Here to tell us about it is its architect, one of the most consistent and eloquent spokesmen for a revitalized Southern economy, the Honorable William Winter.”

REMARKS OF FORMER GOVERNOR WINTER

“It is almost like carrying coals to Newcastle to come to North Carolina to talk about new ideas and new strategies. For this is the State where so much of the successful effort in charting progressive educational and economic programs began. I think of Governor Luther Hodges and his concept of the Research Triangle carried to fruition by Governor Terry Sanford who put North Carolina years ahead of the rest of the South with an educational program that is just now being copied by some of the rest of us. This is where the idea of the Southern Growth Policies Board was advanced and where it was first organized.

“And while our Commission on the Future of the South was working last year to chart a course for the region, you were putting in place for this State your own strategies in your Commission on Jobs and Economic Growth under the leadership of Governor Jordan. I am particularly impressed with the recommendation for a North Carolina Rural Economic Development Center. That is the kind of innovation that will again have this state pointing the way to the solution of the problems of the region.

“It, of course, has been to try to address some of those problems that the Commission on the Future of the South was organized last year. I want to take a few minutes to give you a little of the background of our report. It was prepared against the background of serious structural changes in the South.

“Let us look for a moment at what has been happening during the 1980's. There has been a major shifting of public initiative from the federal government to the states and local subdivisions. There has been spotty economic growth that has adversely affected most rural areas. The farm economy, the energy economy, and the labor-intensive manufacturing economy have been having serious problems. The competition for business and for jobs has now moved to the Pacific Rim and Latin America. There is now a realization that only a continuing major investment in education is going to create the productive capacity that we need. And finally, there is the understanding that if we make it, we must make it together -- black and white, rural and urban, rich and poor -- that we are increasingly interdependent and that none of us can really get ahead unless we all get ahead.

March 2, 1987
"That is what this Report on the Future of the South is all about. It is not just a grab-bag of desirable alternatives. It is a statement of mandatory objectives which must be achieved ultimately if the South as a region is ever going to attain parity with the rest of the country. Because we do not have as much catching-up time as we did before, there is an urgency about the Report that we cannot ignore. That is why I hope you will respond to the call for specific constructive action that this Report presents.

"Let me say a word about our Commission. Representing leadership from every aspect of our region, the members brought a unique combination of ideas out of their own experience in government, in business, in education, and in journalism.

"The Commission identified three major work areas: human resource development, technology and innovation with special emphasis on global challenges, and government structure and fiscal capacity. There then followed what was the most systematic assembling of information about the region that has been undertaken in recent years -- maybe even for the first time ever.

"It was the feeling of the Commission that the structural changes that are taking place in the Southern economy today are so pervasive and far-reaching that only a massive unified strategy will be adequate to cope with our problems.

"We do not overstate that case when we insist that we are at a crossroads, and the direction we take or fail to take at this time can well prove to be irreversible in the future. Actually, the choices are rather clear. There should be little argument about their validity. The costs, however, will be considerable. I so not necessarily mean costs just in financial terms, although it would be naive to suggest that we can avoid substantial additional public and private investments. What may well be more difficult for us, however, is the giving up of some of our old ways of doing things -- in the running of our educational systems, in our economic development strategies, in our relationship to each other in the region, and to the rest of the world, in our parochial concerns over status and authority and turf, in the way we administer state and local governments.

"Nobody, least of all the members of the Commission, has said that it would be easy. We do, however, say that it is possible -- politically possible and economically possible -- to do everything that this Commission has recommended doing. These are not far-fetched, pie-in-the-sky fantasies. These are hard-nosed, no-nonsense programs that will move us to where we need to go. And we say that unless we take forthright, good-faith, action to carry out these recommendations, we shall relegate our region, or at least several million people of our region, to perhaps another hundred years of missed opportunity and unrealized goals.

"I would assume that you feel, as I do, that this is unacceptable -- unacceptable for purely humanitarian reasons, but also unacceptable out of simple political and economic self-interest. As our Report points out, just as our nation found more than a century ago that it could not endure half-slave and half-free, so our region cannot stand, much less move ahead, if we are permanently divided into two groups of people -- one thriving, prospering, enjoying the good life that comes from education and social privilege and political preferment -- the other struggling to survive, locked into an existence limited by ignorance, disease, and a changing way of making a living. There are more than sixty million of us living in this region now. That number increases rapidly each year. It is increasing very rapidly for poor children. It includes that six million adults over twenty-five, who are functionally illiterate. It numbers that 30% of land-owning farmers who soon must find a new livelihood. It embraces a rural population that after twenty years of steady upward progress during the sixties and seventies now has a per capita income less than three-fourths the national average and is now falling further behind each year.
"After a long, hard look at who we are and where we are, our Commission has come with a series of ten major strategic recommendations, which are in turn divided into a number of specific suggestions for action. When taken as a whole, they all add up to one overriding statement of policy -- that to get all the way home and guarantee our future, we must use our presently available resources more wisely and we must make major additional public and private investments in human capital. Some of the recommendations will cost more money now. But some will save money now -- and all will save money later over the long haul.

"I shall not take your time or Governor Collins time here tonight to detail those recommendations. They are presented in our report Halfway Home And A Long Way To Go in a very clear and concise way. I hope each of you will take the time to study that report, which I believe that you will find very readable, since it was put together in its final form by one of your own fine North Carolina writers, Doris Betts of Chapel Hill.

"I hope that you will feel after considering it that this report has hit right on the right priorities.

"I believe that we have, and I believe with equal assurance that a commitment of support from the General Assembly of North Carolina, aided and joined by other political leaders of the region, will make a critical difference in achieving parity for the South.

"That is not going to happen, though, if we approach it as we so often have in the past with a fragmented and casual strategy and a business-as-usual attitude. It will not happen if we listen to the cynics and the nay-sayers. We Southerners have been more inclined to put off doing things that we ought to do until the weather cooled, the crops were in, or the moon was right. Well let me suggest that the moon is right to do what we propose.

"This Report represents for the first time in the history of the South a carefully arrived at plan of action that will make a difference in the future of the South. Not just because this Commission has worked so hard on it -- and I cannot emphasize too strongly the hours and days and months of effort that have gone into this Report -- but because it does carry the right message and sends the right signals, I urge you to use it as a kind of playbook in the contest for the future. The lives of over sixty million people -- and of equal importance the lives of their children and grandchildren -- will be influenced by how you respond to the recommendations of this Report. The South is indeed at the crossroads, and we are looking for the right road to take. This is the road map, but we have to travel the road together. And if we do, I am satisfied that all of us can make it all the way home."

REMARKS OF LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR JORDAN

"Thank you Governor Winter for the challenges you have outlined for us.

"We are especially pleased tonight to have one of the nation's leading Governors with us. Martha Layne Collins is one of three women currently serving among the nation's fifty Governors. She chaired the 1984 Democratic National Convention.

"What Governor Collins preaches is education and economic growth. Everything else is a variation on that two-note theme.

"The Governor has just returned from an overseas industry hunt. In fact, you may know of her success in crafting the $125 million incentive package Kentucky offered to bring Toyota to her State.

March 2, 1987
"With the same determination, Martha Layne Collins picked up the flag of educational reform when it had fallen once in Kentucky prior to her administration.

"As a former teacher she knew about the needs of the classroom, and as Governor she launched a crusade which produced dramatic results, to improve Kentucky’s schools.

"During her first year, she proposed massive reform which failed to pass the Legislature. She then called a special session and pushed through a $320 million dollar package, one of the best in the nation. And like Governor Winter, she has been able to get the people of her state to understand that it is a matter of economic urgency that we strengthen our human capital.

"Currently, Governor Collins chairs the Southern Governors' Association. As Chairman of the Southern Growth Policies Board, she has dedicated her term to implementing the ten regional objectives of the Commission on the Future of the South.

"Her presence here tonight, while the Kentucky Legislature is in Session, is testimony to her commitment of moving our region forward. Members of the General Assembly, it is with great honor that I present the Honorable Martha Layne Collins."

REMARKS OF GOVERNOR COLLINS

"I'm delighted to be here this evening to talk with you about the future of the Southern states. We in the South have a right to be proud of many aspects of our culture and our quality of life, but they will not be enough to sustain us in the future. As we move into the 1990's and beyond, it is critical that the South take a hard look at where we have been and where we want to stand in the 21st century world economy.

"Governor Winter and the members of his Commission were handed a difficult job and they proved themselves more than equal to it. They have produced a blueprint for action in the South. Now we face the tough part—implementing the plan.

"At one point during World War I, Americans became concerned that enemy submarines were getting too close to American shores. Some of the country's leading thinkers were offering sage advice about what should be done, and someone asked Will Rogers what he would suggest. He thought for a moment and said, 'I'd just make the ocean boil so the subs would have to leave.' The next question, of course, was 'How do we do that?' Rogers replied, 'That's up to you. I just make recommendations. It's someone else's job to implement them.'

"That's our situation. The South is halfway home, and thanks to the Commission, we have a road map. How do we make it the rest of the way? One thing is certain. We cannot allow this Report—these thoughtful and timely goals—to gather dust on our office shelves.

"This is a crucial time, not just for the South, but for the nation as a whole. We're transforming the ways we work, communicate and conduct business. We see evidence of those changes in satellite dishes up and down the most remote Appalachian hollows, in the robots that are transforming our factories, even in the automatic banking facilities on our city street corners.

"Change and movement are taking place in every aspect of our lives, and it is crucial that we take advantage of the new patterns being established. We must move as quickly as possible because part of the reason we're only halfway home is that the target keeps moving. Other states aren't standing still. They're moving and changing while we're still trying to pull up beside them. To complicate matters further, we're not just competing with other states anymore. We're competing globally.
"There's a new century coming and a new economy with it, and I believe the South should lead the way. Do we have special problems? Of course we do, but we also have special advantages and special opportunities.

"Our advantages are that we're a region of dependable and hardworking people. We're a region with extraordinary water, land, and mineral resources. We're a region of enviable climate and rich tradition. We're renowned worldwide for our scenic beauty and reputation for warmth and hospitality.

"Our opportunities are that new foreign and domestic industries have discovered our states, and we must find ways to keep them here and attract still more while protecting our quality of life.

"Another opportunity will come next year when we'll hold our first multi-state presidential primary. It will go a long way toward strengthening our role in setting the national agenda. When those candidates come to seek our support, the Southern states must speak to them with one voice—as a region. The multi-state primary will give us an unprecedented opportunity to work together, pool our resources and our efforts, and ensure a secure future for our individual states and the region as a whole.

"The issues that affect the South are not partisan issues, nor are they limited to state boundaries. The barriers to productivity that have held us back are common threads running throughout the South. All of us face the problems of illiteracy, the need for better schools and the decline of some of our traditional industries, so we must break down those barriers together.

"As we begin to implement the Commission's ten regional objectives, three things are clear. We must identify and develop leaders who can motivate and mobilize our people; we must use our resources wisely; and we must set up a structure for on-going progress.

"Visionary, thoughtful leaders are essential to the South because the crucial key to making changes and getting the rest of the way home is persuading our people to buy into the idea of progress. Only if they feel a sense of participation and ownership will our fellow southerners join us in moving ahead to new opportunities.

"The question then comes back to you and me. Are we motivated to change? Can we mobilize our constituencies to accomplish these objectives? Can we offer the effective leadership necessary to move the South forward as a region?

"The essence of leadership is not a defense of the status quo—a contentment with things as they are. Leadership—genuine and true leadership—requires a willingness to push beyond what is convenient to what is necessary. It requires a willingness to reach beyond what is easy to what is right, and a willingness to measure ourselves by the highest standard rather than the least common denominator. The most important quality of leadership is a belief that we can do better.

"In North Carolina, you've been fortunate to have leaders willing to question the status quo, and their boldness has brought you special progress. When Luther Hodges committed this State to building the Research Triangle Park, he was not deterred by those who found him too idealistic. When Terry Sanford committed this State to racial justice and public education, he was not deterred by those who said it was not popular. When Sam Ervin committed this nation to a reaffirmation that our leaders must be held accountable under the law, he was not deterred by those who said it would be difficult. And when Jim Hunt committed this State to rapid economic development, he was not deterred by those who thought the competition was too keen or the job too big.
"Your leaders have achieved success through their ability to mobilize public support for their initiatives. Reaching people and making them aware of the need to change isn't easy. Just getting their attention is a challenge. People are constantly entertained today, so they aren't easily impressed with mild pleas and vague rhetoric.

"Statistics don't always work either. We've become numb to them. They're no longer meaningful. It has been said that one death is a tragedy, but a million deaths is a statistic. So to bring our point across to the Southern people, it is essential that we spotlight not facts and figures, but changes being wrought on our individual citizens.

"We could promote adult literacy programs by saying that twenty-three million American adults are functionally illiterate—or we could talk about the 51-year-old woman in Texas who is now learning to read for the first time because she wants to read the Bible.

"We could promote education by saying that thirty percent of our American people do not have high school diplomas—or we could talk about Steve, the janitor in the Kentucky Capitol Building, who dropped out of school after the 10th grade. He just completed his GED and his test scores were so high that he is now applying to several colleges, and his own positive experience has convinced his wife to continue her education, too. Southerners like Steve and the woman learning to read know that the world is changing and they want to keep up with it. They've bought in.

"While we're talking about our people who are still struggling, we should also tell our success stories because our situation isn't as bleak as some would have us believe. When the Toyota Motor Company decided to build a plant in the United States, they didn't go to Massachusetts or California. They came to Kentucky—to the South. That $800 million plant with its 3,000 jobs and $80 million payroll has been a turning point in the State's history.

"The changing economy has underscored even more clearly the critical need for preparing our young people for the jobs of tomorrow. We worked for two years to pass the most sweeping education reform package in Kentucky's history. That package brought with it smaller class sizes, more money for teachers, and new remedial programs, but more important, it brought about a new respect for learning among our people.

"Also in Kentucky, we've put more money into higher education than at any time in the past two decades, and I've recently created the Governor's Council on Science and Technology, because our own ability to generate and use technology will be a cornerstone of our future progress.

"All the Southern states have accomplishments like these to be proud of, and as we work toward our common goals, it's important to maintain our sense of pride while realizing that we must also work together as a region to motivate our people and achieve further progress.

"If motivating and mobilizing people is rarely easy, finding the resources to implement change is even harder. The more limited our resources are, the more important it becomes to use them thoughtfully and judiciously.

"Many of the programs needed to implement the Commission's recommendations will cost money, but many will not. Many can be implemented without additional cost or by using old money in new ways, but it is essential that we begin immediately to direct our resources toward these long-term investments that will give us the greatest return.

"As we distribute our resources, whether they involve existing funds or new appropriations, it is critical that we never lose sight of our goals and priorities. We must look beyond the immediate concerns of today and focus on where we want to be five, ten, and twenty years from now. Clearly, the South cannot afford short-term, quick-fix solutions. They haven’t worked in the past and they certainly won’t work in this new global age.

“To get the rest of the way home, we must set up a structure that will continue our momentum in the years ahead and clear the paths to opportunity for future generations. If we really are going to lead the nation and the world into the 21st century, we must be willing to take some very obvious steps.

“We must be willing to do what is necessary to recruit and keep the best teachers for our schools. We must be willing to do what is necessary to ensure that our students stay in school and learn while they are there. We must be willing to do what is necessary to help agricultural and manufacturing workers move into new lines of work with new skills and renewed faith in our economy. We must be willing to share ideas and resources, and to pull together. The progress of the Southern states, both individually and collectively, depends on it because if we don’t do it for ourselves, it simply won’t be done. No one in Washington or New York or Tokyo or London is going to do it for us.

“The ‘Halfway Home’ Report can be a turning point for the South. I’ve already seen great enthusiasm for its findings. Our challenge is to turn that enthusiasm into aggressive action in North Carolina, in Kentucky, and in every Southern state. Each of our states must adopt these goals and make them our top priorities in our budgets and our legislative sessions.

“While we’ll continue to compete good-naturedly among ourselves, we must also work together to move the entire region ahead. The Southern primary will be our best opportunity for the kind of cooperative effort that will give all of us a stronger voice on the national scene.

“I know that our goals are realistic, because I’ve seen how far we’ve already come, and while it’s true that we have a long way to go, none of us is making the journey alone. You and I share the same hopes and dreams for our states and for the South as a whole. We share a common vision of what our region can become, and each of us wants to be a part of making that vision a reality.

“In November, when this Report was presented to the Southern Growth Policies Board, a Commission member—Harriet Zimmerman—eloquently summarized our feelings and our challenge. She repeated an expression from her faith that you and I should carry in our hearts as we continue to take the South the rest of the way home. ‘We’re not commanded to perfect the world but neither are we permitted to desist from trying.’ ”

On motion of Senator Harrington, the Joint Session is dissolved and pursuant to the motion heretofore made, the Senate adjourns to meet tomorrow, Tuesday, March 3, at 1:30 P.M.

SEVENTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Robert B. Jordan III, Lieutenant Governor.

March 3, 1987
Prayer is offered by Dr. Samuel D. McMillan, Jr., Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"O God of Holiness and Compassion, we as preachers and politicians receive much praise and public recognition, which could easily lead us into personal and spiritual pride. But when we look into our heart of hearts, we know that we like all Thy other children stand in need of Thy grace, Thy forgiveness, and Thy guidance. So we put on sackcloth and ashes like the priests, prophets, and rulers of old, and pray with the Psalmist: Have mercy upon us O God according to Thy lovingkindness—blotting out all our transgressions—creating in us clean hearts and renewing a right spirit within us.

"So that others may see Your love, Your joy, and Your justice, and Your compassion expressed in all that we do and say in this place and in every place. Amen."

Senator Harrington for the Rules and Operation of the Senate Committee announces that the Journal of yesterday has been examined and is found to be correct. On his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

Grant us the will to serve for the greater good of all; fill our minds with an incentive to noble deeds. Give us the grace to say 'yes' or to say 'no' with sincerity, when in the course of responsibility we should. Keep ever before us those social responsibilities that rest so heavily upon us. Make us to know that our accomplishments are limited largely by the goals we set. Give us, therefore, faith to venture into paths of progress through concentrated effort. Dear Lieutenant Governor Jordan:

This letter is to officially notify you of my resignation from the North Carolina State Senate, 26th District. The effective date of my resignation will be March 11, 1987.

I find it difficult in my heart to leave an institution that I have held in such high esteem and great respect. I am convinced that few citizens of our State realize the tremendous responsibility that each member of this body shoulders. During my tenure in this office, one thing has become more clear to me—knowledge is not wisdom, but wisdom is knowing the will of God and applying it in practical everyday decisions. My prayer for this body is that you may have wisdom.

It has been an honor to serve as a Senator in the North Carolina State Senate. I shall cherish the memories and friendships and look forward to continued service to our State as a member of the North Carolina Utilities Commission.

With warm and personal regards, I remain.

Sincerely,
s/Wm. W. Redman, Jr.

CALENDAR

Bills and resolutions on the Calendar are taken up and disposed of as follows:

S.B. 138, a bill to authorize Moore County to levy a room occupancy tax, upon second reading.

On motion of Senator Rauch the bill is re-referred to the Finance Committee.

H.B. 39 (Committee Substitute), a bill to change the date for the Martin Luther King, Jr., legal public holiday to the same date provided by federal law and to provide for a paid holiday for State employees on that date.

Without objection, on motion of Senator Rauch, seconded by Senator Harris, the remarks of Senator Martin of Guilford are spread upon the Journal as follows:

"Section 1 of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday bill changes the date on which Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birth is recognized as a legal public holiday from January 15 to the third Monday in January. This is consistent with the federal holiday and with most states. The North Carolina General Assembly in 1983 enacted legislation making the January 15 date a legal public holiday, but we did not make it a paid holiday.

"Section 2 of the bill dictates that the State Personnel Commission shall designate Dr. King's birthday, the third Monday, as a paid legal holiday if any holidays are to be paid legal holidays. Section 2 also limits the number of paid holidays the Commission is authorized to establish without, legislative action, to eleven. Currently there is no numerical limit. In essence, the King Holiday would be substituted for some other paid holiday, with the decision as to which day is to be substituted being in the discretion of the State Personnel Commission, which already has such discretion to designate paid holidays. Days currently recognized as paid legal State holidays are New Year's Day, Easter Monday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Veterans Day, Thanksgiving Day—2 days, and Christmas—either 2 or 3 days, depending on which day Christmas falls.

"Section 3 simply provides that the bill is effective upon ratification.

"I will now move from the mechanics and processes of the bill, and discuss the rationale and expectations.

"By passing this legislation, we will be celebrating the birth and the works of Martin Luther King, Jr.; but, much more importantly, we will be celebrating the maturation, the coming of age of our Declaration of Independence and our Bill of Rights, the application of the theory and principles upon which our Declaration of Independence and Bill of Rights are grounded. We are celebrating the message more so than the messenger. While the messenger is important in his own right, the message is, by far more important. It is fitting and historically consistent that it should be this way.

"If we honor a person over and above the message, we are imprisoned within the limiting confines of that person's existence. On the other hand, if we are honoring the person as a symbol of some high ideals, a symbol of the message we want to perpetuate for posterity, then we are well-served. As the years, the decades, and even the centuries go by, the importance of the person being honored and celebrated in any instance declines once his contemporaries have departed. But the symbol he represents can endure forever in the hearts and minds of the people.

March 18, 1987
“The Martin Luther King, symbol to so many millions of persons of African-American descent, and other ethnic and racial groupings looms as greatly as anything else that constitutes a part of our American heritage. This year we will be focusing a great deal of attention on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution. Through the symbol represented by Martin Luther King, a new breath of life, a new and broadened consciousness has evolved relative to those documents. King's dream of man's humanity to other human beings; the dream of justice applied not just in accordance with the letter of the law but in accordance with the spirit of the law; and his dream relative to justice being applied not just with equality but with equity, which is a greater mandate; of an unprecedented elevation of and respect for human dignity; his dream that the significance of the words 'with liberty and justice for all' would never be questioned, much less abrogated. This composite dream is the message transmitted by Dr. King and by so many other of us who are his contemporaries and who come after him, and by so many others who preceded him.

“The dream, the message, that Martin Luther King lived is that we must seek out and stress the commonalities of humankind rather than the differences that tend to separate us. Dr. King’s philosophy is based, in part, on the assumption that out of the differences that exist between individuals, between groups, even between nations, we can find the foundations for agreement and cooperation if we are forced to seek them, if we are forced to look within ourselves for those remnants of sameness and togetherness. This we are more prone to recognize as we pause to look at the lessons that we are taught by this great individual. We are prone to recognize those factors that link us together in a bond of mutual security so that we can exercise our rights to be different, our rights to be a diverse people without fear of oppression, of repression, of suppression. In this manner, diversity enhances the value, the potential and the beauty of our common bond.

“As a result of my involvement in the civil and human rights movement, I know about the various factions within the movement and how diverse they were. I know that many persons and organizations involved in the movement disagreed with Dr. King with respect to tactics and strategy, and sometimes goals. Yet, I also know that his moderating influence, one that I would characterize as centralist but not status quo, probably had more to do with preventing a serious disintegration of America’s social, economic and political structure than anything else.

“During the last term of the General Assembly, we in the Senate referred to Senator Mel Watt as the conscience of the Senate; well Dr. King was the conscience of America during one of its most crisis-laden periods. There were many more individuals who were classified as much more radical and militant than he, but due to an appreciation of his influence and methodology, have become positive contributors to the well-being of America. His influence resulted in an atmosphere conducive to conciliation and keeping the peace, an atmosphere that enables persons to identify, and work together for mutual interests. All this is what we are celebrating through the symbol represented by Martin Luther King.

“The primary points raised as justification for opposing this bill have focused on the following concerns:
1. Cost;
2. Adding another winter holiday;
3. Not designating the holiday as an 'all heroes day';
4. Not designating the holiday as a 'human rights day';
5. We have no other holidays honoring an individual.

“On the issue of cost, a fiscal note has been obtained that indicates there would be no additional costs.

March 18, 1987
"Relative to exchanging a spring holiday for a winter holiday, the General Assembly is not designating the holiday that will be substituted; the State Personnel Commission has full discretion to select any holiday it deems most appropriate.

"Those who suggest designating the holiday as an 'all heroes day' or a 'human rights day' are, in my opinion, looking at it strictly as a bill that recognizes an individual rather than a holiday that represents the symbol that I discussed earlier.

"It is true that we do not have a holiday honoring an individual. So why is it appropriate to do so at this time? Most of our current holidays cannot be embodied in nor well represented through the life of one individual; there is no one person that has had such a dramatic impact in shaping the ideas we seek to perpetuate through the observance of Memorial Day, Labor Day or Veteran's Day. How could one comprehensively and understandably express the ideas and ideals symbolized by Martin Luther King, Jr. through any other method that would be as effective as designating this holiday for which his works would be a symbol of many accomplishments of humanity in the United States? I can think of no better way.

"In summary, allow me to make the following points:
1. This bill does not give the State Personnel Commission any new power to increase the number of holidays; the Commission already has the authority to increase the number without legislative action.
2. In addition to the current paid holidays, the State Personnel Commission, under present law, has the authority to declare ten more paid holidays without the necessity of any legislative action under current law. The Commission can declare any public holiday as a paid State holiday, and we now have ten legal public holidays that are not paid holidays but that can be made so without legislative action. This bill will prohibit the Commission from adding more than eleven paid holidays, the number recognized in 1986.
3. Currently, forty American states, along with the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, and our federal government, have designated Dr. King's birthday as an official paid holiday. We are the only southern state that has not yet done so.

"I will close with a direct quotation from Martin Luther King, Jr., that exemplifies one of the ways in which this holiday is significant to all of us: 'The Negro freedom movement would have been historic and worthy even if it had only served the cause of civil rights. But its laurels are greater because it stimulated a broader social movement that elevated the moral level of the nation. In the struggle against the preponderant evils of society, decent values were preserved. Moreover, a significant body of young people learned that in opposing the tyrannical forces that were crushing them they added stature and meaning to their lives. The Negro and white youth who in alliance fought bruising engagements with the status quo inspired each other with a sense of moral mission, and both gave the nation an example of self-sacrifice and dedication.'

"Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, I anticipate that some persons who oppose the bill might desire to use this forum to make personal attacks against Dr. King. I hope that in discussing the bill, I have in some way aided those who have doubts to see that what we are doing here today, if we pass this bill, exceeds the bounds of any individual human personality and cry out for universal compassion, understanding and cooperation. Regardless of what some may think of Dr. King, I do not believe that any of us can genuinely question the significance of his contributions to our nation, nor the fact that his contributions embody the essence of centuries of struggle for human dignity. Further, I believe each of us now knows how he or she will vote on second reading. Therefore, Mr. President, with the desire to allow some latitude for debate on third reading, I call the question on second reading."

Senator Martin of Guilford calls the previous question, which motion fails to prevail for lack of a second. Senator Kincaid offers Amendment No. 1. Senator Martin of Guilford offers a motion that Amendment No. 1 do lie upon the table, seconded by Senator Rauch. Senator Kincaid calls for the ayes and noes. The call is not sustained. The motion offered by Senator Martin of Guilford that Amendment No. 1 do lie upon the table prevails (electronically recorded). Amendment No. 1 lies upon the table.

Senator Winner offers Amendment No. 2, which changes the title to read, H.B. 39 (Committee Substitute), a bill to change the date for the Martin Luther King, Jr., legal public holiday to the same date provided by federal law and to provide for a paid holiday for State employees on that date and on Washington's Birthday, which fails of adoption (electronically recorded).

Senator Martin of Guilford calls the previous question, seconded by Senator Rauch. Senator Simpson calls for the ayes and noes. The call is not sustained. The call for the previous question by Senator Martin of Guilford is sustained (electronically recorded).

The Committee Substitute bill passes its second reading (electronically recorded).

On objection of Senator Harris to its third reading, the Committee Substitute bill remains on the Calendar for tomorrow for further consideration.

Oh, God, Maker of us all and the One Who is above all else, You have given us a heavy burden in the responsibility to make policies and be responsive to the needs of Your people. At the same time, You have made us human; vulnerable to the cries of competing needs and opinions. In these situations, give us the thinking hearts and feeling minds to be able to discern Your voice above the clamor of so many desires, so that all may come to live in peace and acceptance. Let us realize that although we have responsibilities, stress, and burdens, Your wisdom and power have been with all leaders since the time of Moses; they are sufficient to carry us forth if we but do our work, then rest in faith in You. Give us a sense of peace and assurance while still staying open and vulnerable to the God Who is present in all.

1. All questions on which the Constitution of North Carolina requires that the ayes and noes be taken and recorded on the Journal.
2. All questions on which a call for the ayes and noes under Rule 26(b) has been sustained.

(b) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system, and a copy of the machine print-out of the votes shall be filed in the Legislative Library where it shall be open to public inspections:

1. Second reading of all public bills, all amendments to public bills offered after second reading, third reading if a public bill was amended after second reading, and all conference reports on public bills.
2. Any other question upon direction of the Chair or upon motion of any Senator supported by one-fifth of the Senators present.

(c) When the electronic voting system is used, the Chair shall fix and announce the time, not to exceed one minute, which shall be allowed for voting on the question before the Senate. The system shall be set to lock automatically and to record the vote when that time has expired. Once the system has locked and recorded a vote, the vote shall be printed by the system.

(d) The voting station at each Senator's desk in the Chamber shall be used only by the Senator to which the station is assigned. Under no circumstances shall any other person vote at a Senator's station. It is a breach of the ethical obligation of a Senator either to request that another vote at the requesting Senator's station, or to vote at another Senator's station. The Chair shall enforce this rule without exception.

March 31, 1987
(e) When the electronic voting system is used, the Chair shall state the question and shall then state substantially the following: "All in favor vote 'aye'; all opposed vote 'no';_____ seconds will be allowed for voting on this question; the Clerk will record the vote." After the machine locks and records the vote, the Chair shall announce the vote and declare the result.

(f) One copy of the machine print-out of the vote record shall be filed in the office of the Principal Clerk, and one copy shall be filed in the Legislative Library where it shall be open to public inspection.

(g) When the Chair ascertains that the electronic voting system is inoperative before a vote is taken or while a vote is being taken on the electronic system, he shall announce that fact to the Senate and any partial electronic system voting record shall be voided. In such a case, if the Constitution of North Carolina or the Rules of the Senate require a call of the ayes and noes, the Clerk shall call the roll of the Senate, and the ayes and noes shall be taken manually and shall be recorded on the Journal. All other votes shall be taken by voice vote as prescribed in Senate Rule 26(a). If, after a vote is taken on the electronic system, it is discovered that a malfunction caused an error in the electronic system print-out, the Chair shall direct the Reading Clerk and the Principal Clerk to verify and correct the print-out record and so advise the Senate.

(h) For the purpose of identifying motions on which the vote is taken on the electronic system (the identification codes having no relation to the order of precedence of motions), the motions are coded as follows:

2. For the previous question.
3. To postpone indefinitely.
4. To postpone to a day certain.

8. To concur.
9. To take from the table.
10. Miscellaneous.

RULE 26. Voice votes; call for ayes and noes.—(a) When the electronic voting system is not used, all votes on which a call of the roll of the Senate is not required shall be taken by voice vote. The question shall be put as follows: "Those in favor say 'aye';" and, after the affirmative vote is expressed, "Opposed 'no';" after which the Chair shall announce the result. If a division on any vote is desired, it must be called for immediately before the result of the voting is announced on any question, and upon such call, the Chair shall require the members to stand and be counted for and against the proposition under consideration.

(b) The ayes and the noes may be called for on any question before the vote is taken. If a Senator desires the ayes and noes recorded on the Journal on a question, he shall address the Chair and obtain recognition and say, "Upon that question I call for the ayes and noes." Whereupon the Chair shall say, "Is the call sustained?" If one-fifth of the Senators present then stand, the vote shall be taken on the electronic voting system if it is operative, and the ayes and noes shall be recorded on the Journal. If the electronic voting system is inoperative, the roll of the Senate shall be called and the ayes and noes taken manually and recorded on the Journal. If fewer than one-fifth of the Senators present stand to sustain the call, the Chair shall announce, "An insufficient number up" and a vote by electronic voting or by voice, whichever is appropriate under the Rules of the Senate, shall be taken.

RULE 27. Pairs.—If a Senator is paired with another Senator on a question, the Senator shall announce the pair as follows: "Mr. President, I desire to announce a pair. If Senator _____ were present, he would vote _____; I would vote _____."
opposite)." The Senator shall send forward at that time a written statement of the pair on a form provided by the Principal Clerk and neither member of the pair shall vote on the question. A pair shall be announced before the vote is taken viva voce, or if the electronic voting system is used, before the machine is unlocked. The Clerk shall record the pair on the Journal when the Constitution or Rules of the Senate require a call of the roll and shall record on the electronic system print-out all pairs announced.

RULE 28. Dividing question.--If any question contains several distinct propositions, it shall be divided by the President, at the request of any Senator, provided each subdivision, if left to itself, forms a substantive proposition.

RULE 29. Duty to vote; excuses.--(a) Every Senator who is within the bar of the Senate when the question is stated by the Chair shall vote thereon unless he is excused by the Senate. The bar of the Senate shall include the entire Senate Chamber.

(b) Any Senator may request to be excused from voting, either immediately before or after the vote has been called for and before a viva voce vote result has been announced or before the electronic voting system has been unlocked. The Senator may make a brief statement of the reasons for making such request, and shall send forward to the Principal Clerk, on a form provided by the Clerk, a concise statement of the reason for the request, and the Clerk shall include this statement in the Journal. The question on granting of the request shall be taken without debate.

RULE 30. Explanation of vote.--Any Senator may explain his vote on any bill pending by obtaining permission of the President after the final vote is taken: Provided, that not more than three minutes shall be consumed in such explanation.

RULE 30.1. Questions of personal privilege.--Upon recognition by the President for that purpose, any Senator may speak to a question of personal privilege for a time not exceeding three minutes. Personal privilege may not be used to explain a vote, debate a bill, or in any way disrupt the regular business of the Senate. The President shall determine if the question raised is one of privilege and shall, without the point of order being raised, enforce this rule.

V. Committees

RULE 31. Appointment of committees.--(a) The President of the Senate, unless he has by law disqualified himself from that office, shall have the exclusive right and authority to appoint all committees, regular or select, and to appoint committee chairmen and vice-chairmen, but he may delegate said authority in any instance, as he may choose. FORTY-FOURTH DAY

Senate Chamber,
Thursday, April 9, 1987.

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Robert B. Jordan III, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Bill Lowdermilk, Vice-President of Methodist College, Fayetteville, as follows:

"Our Father, how much simpler life would be if all issues were clearly right or wrong, good or bad. But, as we face our societal problems, we find ourselves with the choice of the lesser of two evils or the better of two goods. Sometimes our choices lead us down a dead-end street even when we had the purist of motives; such as the pesticides that protect our crops but pollute our streams and poison our bodies. We struggle with the need for less dependency on foreign fuel and what to do with our nuclear waste. Therefore, today and every day, we ask Your presence here to help us make wise and sensitive decisions that ten, twenty years from now, those living with the results of our actions can appreciate our having sought Your guidance, used the most gifted minds available to us, and worked for the best solutions for all concerned. Clarity of thought, purity of motive and sensitivity to need call us to the best that we know and can be, and it is in this attitude that we ask Your presence, guidance, and strength in all the sessions of this Body. Amen."

Senator Harrington for the Rules and Operation of the Senate Committee announces that the Journal of yesterday has been examined and is found to be correct. On his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

"Gracious God, we gather in this Chamber on the Monday of a week that most of the citizens of our State regard as holy. We remember slave people long ago who, through faith in You and the leadership of Moses, were led to freedom from bondage. Several hundred years later, we remember how Jesus of Nazareth, through unity with You, proclaimed that Your love is for every human being. Through His life and death, He led us all to a new life of liberty as we learn to see the worth of every human being.

"Almighty God, we also recall that on this day in Holy Week that Jesus of Nazareth accused the religious and political leaders of His day of not being faithful to their responsibilities and of killing the prophets whom You had sent. We confess that in the events of 'Irangate' and of the 'Pearlygate' that once again the political and religious leaders have not been found faithful to their sacred trust.

Inspire all preachers, priests, and politicians to be faithful stewards of that which You have entrusted to them, and grant that we may welcome and not silence the voice of Your prophets in both the religious and the political arena.

April 22, 1987
Prayer is offered by Rabbi David M. Zielonka, Temple Emanuel, Gastonia, as follows:

"God of the Beginning and the End, Lord of all time and every generation, Guide of all creatures and all people, we who stand before You today, ask Your blessing on ourselves and our loved ones, and seek Your guidance in this day's deliberations. Make us aware of Your presence among us, attune our hearts and minds to Your voice; make us grateful for all Your blessing.

"You have made us in Your image, capable of balancing love and justice in the pursuit of a righteous life. You have given us knowledge and reason, to interpret wisely Your commandments. You have set before us limitless challenges to choose between good and evil, between concern for others and self indulgence, between the paths of righteousness and the ways of hatred and strife. In all that we do and think and feel, we sense Your presence among us, You are with us when we pray, when we learn, and when we work to build a better and more peaceful world. You are with us when we believe and when we doubt, when we are strong and when we fear, when we know joy and when we feel pain, at all times You are our friend and our teacher.

"We pray for insight into Your truth, for increased understanding of Your ways, for the strength of heart and soul to choose good in all that we do. May all turn to You with renewed hearts, confident that those who love goodness and do justly will find new strength for Your service. Lord, our God, You have blessed us with noble powers. Teach us to make wise use of them. Make us Your partners in the on-going work of mending creation, Your co-workers dedicated to the well-being of those around us, that all we do may bring nearer the coming of Your Kingdom on earth. Amen."

FIFTY-EIGHTH DAY

TOWN COMMONS,
TARBORO, NORTH CAROLINA,
Thursday, April 30, 1987.

Prayer is offered by the Dr. Sam McMillan, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"O God of the Nations, we give Thee thanks for this great land of freedom and opportunity, for the beauty of our fair State, and for the historic community of Tarboro in which we meet today. Give to us one and all a sense of calling as citizens and servants and use each of us as instruments of Your grace and peace in all those places where we live, work, and play.

"O God of Love, we thank Thee for the love with which the Members of the General Assembly were received in this community in 1787 and for the spirit of love and affection with which we have been received here yesterday and today. Inspire us to show this kind of love not only to friends and dignitaries, but to all whom we meet not only this day, but every day.

"O God of Justice, we thank Thee for the system of citizen-legislators in our State, for all who have served from this district in years past, and for all who serve in this and other districts now. Bless the leaders and citizens of our State with a love for justice, and a zeal for compassion, so that justice may flow down like waters and righteousness like an ever flowing stream, and so that Your Will may be done on earth, even as it is in Heaven. Amen."

"Mr. President, Members of the Senate, Citizens and Friends of the Town of Tarboro:"

"I'm not what I ought to be
I'm not what I'm going to be
But thank God Almighty, I'm not what I was."

"Those words have a very special meaning to us. They implore us to recognize the fact that no matter how great we might think we are, we are not that great! Even in perfection, we can find imperfection if we look hard enough, and in the right places; even in the best of us, there is something less than the best. Therefore, since we all should continuously strive for improvement, there is an inherent acknowledgment and admission that we're not what we ought to be. Also, implicit in that statement, is the acknowledgment that if we continue to strive for improvement, we are going to get even better. Therefore, we're not what we're going to be. As we get older, and hopefully wiser, we become very aware that we can look back over the years and objectively see that we were actually worse than (at that time) we thought we were; otherwise, how could we have improved as much as we have done? Therefore, we can give thanks to God Almighty, that we're not what we were.

"You've probably heard from time to time that there are two things you never want to see made—sausages and laws. In both instances it might seem better to consume and observe the end result, and not worry about the past; not worry about how they came to be. While it is very tempting and very easy to do just that, I submit to you that the end result cannot be fully understood nor appreciated without knowing something about the processing, something about how they were made. Without that knowledge as to the evolutionary history, those points of reference along the way, we have no benchmarks as to what ought to be; how can we know what ought to be, and will be, if we don't know and understand what was?

"Everything I've said is particularly applicable to that great document known as The Constitution of The United States of America. By professional training, I, along with a good number of my colleagues, am a lawyer, with a growing love for history, and I can say without equivocation that one of the most important benefits I have gained from that training and exposure is a true respect and love for our United States Constitution as it has been amended over the years. Some people grow tired of lawyers and legislators saying, 'I'm afraid I can't support this provision because, in my opinion, it is clearly violative of the Constitution.' But, ladies and gentlemen, that document means so much to us, we're jealous of it, that we become very protective of it.

“As students of history, we all should know, particularly in retrospect and through 20/20 hindsight, that the Constitution initially was a flawed document. It was something that Americans of good faith and good will and good conscience today, for various reasons, would staunchly refuse to ratify. As one example, many citizens of America today, especially persons of African-American and native American (Indian) heritage, would not have been considered as whole persons, much less which would not have been endowed with the rights, privileges, and protection of the Constitution. America has come a long way since those days. There was a major flaw in that document, that, I am very proud to say, North Carolinians, played a major and decisive role in rectifying. We were the last State to ratify the Constitution, because we refused to endorse a document that did not specifically protect the rights of the people. Finally, the Bill of Rights was added and we ratified it. Residents of Tarboro can be particularly proud that your Town was the one in which your General Assembly met when the decision was made to form the committee to study whether or not to ratify the proposed Constitution. We have had many legislative study committees over the years, but none so important as the one formed in 1787 in Tarboro.

“Since ratification, the Constitution has been amended from time to time, but never unnecessarily so. It is purposefully a very difficult process to amend the Constitution. The process reduces the possibility that we will react to trends and passions rather than to well deliberated and carefully considered social, political, and economical mandates of great magnitude.

“Thus, it is particularly fitting that we convene here in Tarboro in this year, 1987, two hundred years after that study committee was formed in Tarboro. In gathering and convening here today, we pay homage to a dynamic and living document, not one that is static and fixed in time. It is a document that is solid enough in its permanency to withstand the stormy seas of time, yet pliable and fluid enough to change as dictated by the smooth flow of the river of time as the current gently changes the course of time's river.

“Mr. President, members of the Senate, citizens and friends of Tarboro, I am truly honored to have had the opportunity to express my gratitude for our evolving United States Constitution, and to express my appreciation to the citizens of Tarboro today and in 1787. Thank You.”

Senator Rand is recognized to address the membership, as follows:

“Mr. President, Members of the Senate, last night as I walked through the Blount-Bridgers house, I noticed a small plaque on the wall honoring, among others, Speaker Ramsey, Representative Watkins, and Senator Hardison. I got a little curious about that and asked some questions and found out why that plaque has been on the wall since 1981. It seems as though the restoration of that famous House was at a standstill, and there just wasn't enough money to complete it. The local restoration council was afraid the whole project was going to fall apart, but a special appropriation (which required matching funds) got it going again. That special appropriation by the General Assembly put it over the top. Not only that, but because there was enough money to complete the restoration, Mrs. Alice Weeks Gordon, sister of one of the former members we have honored today, gave the second finest collection of Hobson Pittman paintings in America to the Town of Tarboro. So not only did a special appropriation from the General Assembly finish that remarkable example of Georgian Architecture, but that special appropriations also triggered the gift of a magnificent art collection. The Town of Tarboro has shown us by example just how much can be done with a special appropriation from the people of North Carolina.

"Last night, during the candlelight stroll down Main Street, we saw the new wing on the Edgecombe County Memorial Library, funded in part by an appropriation of the General Assembly. A room in that wing was a part of the enticement for the Historian in Residence for Edgecombe County. Had we walked further down Main Street, we would have seen the premier example of the National Main Street Program in North Carolina. Tarboro leads that Program with over twenty-two million dollars reinvested in Main Street Redevelopment.

"A special appropriation from the General Assembly enabled Edgecombe County to have the first County Historic Preservation Fund in America. It is still going strong with five historic properties saved from ruin last year alone. If anyone ever asks you about special appropriations, tell them to come to Tarboro and see what they can do to preserve our heritage and expand our economy."

Senator Marvin is recognized to address the membership, who offers remarks as to the requirements met by the individuals seeking to serve as pages in this historical meeting.

The President recognizes the following pages serving in the Senate today: from Rocky Mount—Henry Baggett, Natalie Crocker, Tyretta Arrington, Catherine Carmody, and Ruth Ann Woodley; from Edgecombe County—Susan Bradley, Andrea Tolson, Jackie Eason, Eric Russ, Gwendolyn Williams, Christopher Dunn, and Felicia Evette Phillips; from Tarboro—Karen Joyner, Jeff Barnes, Sylvia Rogers, Kevin Womble, Beth Young, Janice Daughtry, Teresa Freeman, Vickie Hussey, Marcia Sherrod, Mary Margaret Hussey, Derrick Hyman, Margaret Anne Hoard, Wyatt Jones, Virginia Jenkins, Angela Hudson, Billy Wooten, and Blaire Creech.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

A message is received from the House of Representatives, transmitting the following resolution, which is read the first time and disposed of as follows:

H.J.R. 919, a joint resolution honoring the life and memory of Joseph Elliot Eagles, former member of the North Carolina General Assembly.

Without objection, the rules are suspended, and the joint resolution is placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

The joint resolution passes its second and third readings with members standing and is ordered enrolled.

The President recognizes the Honorable L.H. Fountain, former member of the United States House of Representatives from the Second District and former North Carolina State Senator from Edgecombe County, Henry Gray Shelton, former North Carolina State Senator from Edgecombe County, and Eugene Simmons, former Reading Clerk of the North Carolina State Senate.

Senator Royall, Deputy President Pro Tempore, is recognized to address the membership expressing appreciation to the citizens of Tarboro for their hospitality, as follows:

"Mr. President, fellow Members of the Senate, about 200 years ago, when legislators arrived in Tarboro for their November 19 to December 22, 1797 Session, they discovered a pleasant Town of some twenty families, all of whom lived in wooded dwellings. More people came to Town than lived in the Town. Yet accommodations were found and mattresses brought in from the country side, horses were stalled, good food was prepared, entertainment provided, and the public's business attended to.

"In his diary, William Attmore wrote, 'The Bar at the Senate was a board laid across two old trunks standing on the ends, which served very well pro-tem.' Fifty-six laws were enacted. Among these, one designed to prevent tobacco fraud. That Assembly, at a time when the Legislature chose the Chief Executive, elected Samuel Johnson of Edenton, Governor of this State.

"When the Session of 1787 ended, its Members rode away some as far as what is now Tennessee, with the satisfaction of a job well done and warm memories of a small Town that had opened its heart, as well as its doors.

"History does repeat itself. For the past twenty-four hours, we have repeated that Session of two hundred years ago. The horses are now under the hoods of cars, trucks, and buses; mattresses of corn shucks or pinestraw have been replaced by posture-pedic; last night, crabmeat, barbeque, potato salad, and strawberries replaced collards, 'chitterlins,' turnips, and hominy. Better manners have prevailed over fights and 'cussing,' but the essence of it all is the same.

"The fine people of Edgecombe County and this historic Town of Tarboro have once again opened their homes and their hearts to North Carolina's General Assembly. I am told that over two hundred volunteers have worked for months to make sure that every Member of this Body has enjoyed smalltown living at its finest. They have done a marvelous job. The eleven committee chairpersons under able leadership of Co-chairmen Tom Bardin and C.B. Martin have made memorable, House Joint Resolution 1034 which requests that the 1987 General Assembly meet for a day in the Town of Tarboro in honor of the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the 1787 General Assembly Session Meeting in Tarboro.

"Today is a very special one in each of our lives. None of us can share it again. Before another Bicentennial, the United States of America will be over four hundred years old and about ten generations of North Carolinians will have been born.

"Every one of the citizens of Edgecombe County and Tarboro, Senator Bob Martin and every other person or group that helped them, all of them, have given each of us in the 1987 General Assembly a gift of great value. They have let us see how the best of our past can be woven into the fabric of our future. Mr. President, I ask the Members of this Body to join me in applause for their kindness and the hard work of all who made this historic occasion possible." (Members respond with prolonged applause.)

Senator Martin of Pitt is recognized to address the membership, and responds for the Town of Tarboro and Edgecombe County.

On motion of Senator Royall, seconded by Senator Martin of Pitt, the Senate adjourns to meet tomorrow in the Senate Chamber, in the Legislative Building, in the City of Raleigh, North Carolina, at 10:00 A.M.

FIFTY-NINTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,
Friday, May 1, 1987.

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Robert B. Jordan III, Lieutenant Governor.

May 1, 1987
Prayer is offered by the Reverend Charles M. Smith, Superintendent of the Goldsboro District of the United Methodist Church, Goldsboro, as follows:

"We give You thanks, O Lord, for yesterday's session in Tarboro and its power to stir our awareness of our heritage. We are indeed grateful for all those who have set good examples for us to follow.

"Now we ask Your help today in our deliberations, so that years from now our descendants will look back at our work and bless us for the wise leadership we gave our State in helping it become more caring for all classes and colors of its citizens, more concerned about education of its children, and more protective of the quality of its beautiful rivers and streams. Bless our labor today, and our leisure this May weekend, as we live out our lives in constant awareness of Your love for us and all Your creation. Amen."

Senator Rauch for the Rules and Operation of the Senate Committee announces that the Journal of yesterday has been examined and is found to be correct. On his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

SIXTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Robert B. Jordan III, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Robert Collins, Kings Mountain Baptist Church, Kings Mountain, as follows:

“Our Eternal God and Heavenly Father, we want to thank You for all the blessings of life, and praise You for those blessings. We are thankful for life, and we are thankful for health. Father, we are thankful for the families that we have and the friends that we know and associate with. Father, we are thankful for the opportunity that we have to serve, both mankind and also the opportunity to serve You and for the purpose that brings to our life.

“Father, we are reminded in Scripture that all authority begins and ends at Your feet, and though each one of these has been elected by a constituency of their friends and neighbors, we realize that we have a higher calling and a higher authority in You. Father, You have placed in their hand that authority to make the decisions that need to be made for this State. Father, what a privilege that is. What an awesome responsibility that is.

“Father, I want to pray for this meeting tonight and the meetings in the days ahead, that You will give and empower each one of these to catch a glimpse of Your will for this State, and then Father, give them the wisdom to know and the courage to act.

“Thank You, Father, for Your love and Your presence always in our lives, and we just pray that You would bless this meeting and bless these men who are Your servants, and we pray this in Your Name. Amen.”

SIXTY-SIXTH DAY

SENA TE CHAMBER,
Tuesday, May 12, 1987.

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Robert B. Jordan III, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Samuel D. McMillan, Jr., Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"O God of History, the news media has focused recently on the sins and shortcomings of preachers, political candidates, government employees and private citizens engaged in arms deals. We confess that we, who are pastors, politicians, and parishioners, have smugly made jokes about the misfortune of our fellow citizens.

"O God of Judgment, You have said, 'Judgment is mine,' and we ask Your forgiveness for those times when we have harshly judged our brothers and our sisters or callessly joked about their fall from fame and fortune.

"O God of Mercy, help us to take the log out of our own eye so that we may see clearly the speck that is in our brother's eye, and then grant that our judgment, like Yours, may always be tempered with mercy.

"O God of Righteousness, we recall Jesus saying, 'Unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall in no way enter the Kingdom of God.' We pray that we, who are representatives of the media, the business community, the church, the synagogue, and the government may lead godly, sober, righteous, caring lives that are well pleasing in Your sight. Amen."

Senator Harrington for the Rules and Operation of the Senate Committee announces

"Eternal God, Whose providence undergirds and sustains us all our days, we come to You at the beginning of this week to acknowledge Your guidance in our lives and in the events of history. It would be presumptuous to undertake the tasks of this legislative session relying solely on human strength and wisdom. Grant to these Senators those gifts that come only from You: a sense of the sacredness of human life, compassion for the oppressed and downtrodden, stewardship of our natural resources, and justice for all. Grant, O God, that they may be motivated not by the applause of constituents, but by the integrity of their decisions. When their work is done may they know Your commendation, 'Well done, good and faithful servants.' Amen."

"Almighty God, we thank Thee that Thou doest call each of us by name and doest give to us a sacred calling to be Your ministers and servants in all those places where we live, work, and play. "Help each of us, as chaplains, Senators, clerks, pages, and other State employees, to reaffirm our belief in the priesthood of all believers and to understand the special opportunity which is ours to be priests, prophets, and pastors in this arena.

"As priests, inspire us to intercede for the children, youth, and adults of our State who have no one to speak for them. As prophets, inspire us to speak and work for the protection of the environment, for the rights of the minorities, for the concerns of the consumer, and for the good of all the citizens of our State, not simply some special interest group. And as pastors, grant that we may minister to those in our local communities and in this Chamber who are wounded, weary, heavy laden, sick, or bereaved.

"All this we ask in the Name of Him who said, 'You shall be called priests of the Lord and men shall speak of you as ministers of our God.' Amen."

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Frank Bowers, Minister of Parkton Baptist Church, Parkton, as follows:

"Dear God, we thank You for letting us live on this good earth of Yours. We thank You for revealing Your main characteristic as Love. We thank You for trusting us to behave as You wish.

"We ask Your forgiveness for our failures. We have often misused and abused Your trust for our own selfish reasons. Many times we have done evil to others, selfishly reasoning that we must do them before they do us. We often break the command You give to at least seven major religions. Forgive us for forgetting or just failing to, 'do unto others as we would like them to do unto us.'

"We thank You for this nation. May we be great and do unto other nations as we would like them to do unto us. We thank You for this great State of North Carolina. We thank You for the ladies and men here trusted to do their best for others, all North Carolina citizens.

"We pray that You Will will be known in this Session of the Senate and that these trusted representatives will fulfill their duty here and now as You wish. We pray for our State. May we find greatness as we follow the righteousness You inspire. We make our prayers to the God of Love. Amen."

SEVENTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Robert B. Jordan III, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Randall Lolley, President of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, as follows:

"Almighty God, our Father, Lord of all who name Thy name in the Earth, we praise Thee present with us this Thursday in May. Thy designs are not always discernible. Thy signature is not always legible in the events of our lives. Yet, our hearts tell us that apart from Thy Spirit even this high Senate event of our devising will be as lifeless as a painted ship on a painted sea. We see collages. We hear calliopes. The days are full of much endeavor. Help us as we struggle for the meaning of it all. "Convict us of error or laziness where we need it. Take the wind out of our pride. Show us new horizons of public service. Teach us to pray. "We have some help, O God; help us to find the doors. Protect us from too much safety. Grant us PEACE—not of the graveyard or the stagnant pool, but of deep waters flowing free. Grant us POISE—not of the sheltered tree, but of the great oak, deep-rooted, storm-strengthened and firm. Grant us POWER—not of fisted might, but of the quickened seed straining toward the sun.

"In Christ, we pray. Amen."

"Gracious Lord, the Giver and Sustainer of Life we pause in this moment to give thanks for all of Your blessings not the least of which is the sense of Your Presence here with us today.

"During this Memorial Week, we remember with profound gratitude all those who have died in the service of our nation, assuring our freedom and our hope for the future. And we thank You also, Lord, for those legislators and government leaders who have left their footprints of commitment all about these solemn halls.

"Walk with us all as we pursue the hard tasks and responsibilities of this day. Grant that we may have patience, good judgment, and sensitivity as we seek to serve all of Your people. Give us strength for our convictions and hope for the vision we hold for our State and nation. And, Lord, we ask for courage to put into action the faith in our hearts.

SEVENTY-EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Robert B. Jordan III, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Samuel D. McMillan, Jr., Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Almighty God, Thou hast been our refuge and our strength all the days of our lives, and for this we give Thee thanks. Now we ask Thy special blessing upon us on this hectic day in the life of the General Assembly. The workload has increased, and the pace has become frantic as we seek to meet our deadline for the introduction and passage of bills.

“We thank Thee for our Lieutenant Governor, our secretaries, and the staff of the Senate who are working so hard to help us get our work done.

“We now pray Thee to give us patience as we work with one another, and to help us not to try the patience of others. Deliver us from long speeches and short tempers. Help us to express our ideas with brevity and conviction. Give us attentive ears and perceptive minds as we listen to the concerns and speeches of others.

“Enable us to move with all deliberate speed, but deliver us from moving with such haste that we pass shoddy legislation, and grant that the bills which we pass this day may bring honor to our labor and good to the people of our great State. Amen.”

RECESS

The Senate meets pursuant to recess and is called to order by the Honorable Robert B. Jordan III, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Samuel D. McMillan, Jr., Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"O Lord, Thou art our shepherd, so we shall not want. Lead us away from this legislative jungle, and let us lie down and rest in green pastures. This week, we feel like we have been shooting the rapids. Lead us this weekend beside the still waters, and renew our strength; so that with renewed zeal we may walk in paths of righteousness. Even though we walk through the very valley of the shadow of death, we will fear no evil; for Thou art with us. And even in the face of predators, evil, and death Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort us. Thou hast prepared a bountiful table before us; and we are safe in Your fellowship from our enemies who lie in wait for us outside the door of Your tent. We are weary from the fray of battle; but Thou dost refresh us by anointing our heads with oil and by giving us a cup that overflows with Your love and Your grace.

"When we concentrate on the avalanche of bills before this Body, we are overwhelmed with anxiety. But we pray for grace to concentrate on Your love and mercy; for then we find strength for the task that is before us this day; and then we are able to say with the Psalmist, surely goodness and mercy shall follow us all the days of our lives, and we shall dwell in the security of Your love and protection forever. Amen."

EIGHTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,
Monday, June 1, 1987.

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Robert B. Jordan III, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Dr. F. Belton Joyner, Director of the Conference Council on Ministries of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, as follows:

June 1, 1987
"Gracious God of all times and places, as we struggle with our deadlines and as we rush through the press of decision and duty, we remember that the time for serving You is always at hand. We claim the gift of Your preceding love—grace that gets to the hard places of life ahead of us, Spirit that moves in the midst of tough choices, and Your image which struggles to break free even in those in whom we take only dim pleasure.

"Lord, we confess that we have grown much too comfortable with the things that separate us. We are at ease in a world of ‘we’ and ‘they.’ Bring Your parental love upon us that we might renew ourselves as family and might put ourselves upon a mutual mission of justice and mercy, of fairness and service.

"Now, Creator God, we can only bring our minds and bodies back to You to be refreshed and restored and restarted. The path looms crowded with thickets of despair and the rocks of uncertainty. Come, walk that way with us. And to You be the glory. Amen."

Senator Harrington for the Rules and Operation of the Senate Committee announces that the Journal of Friday has been examined and is found to be correct. On his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The President grants leaves of absence for tonight to Senator Cobb, who is attending a meeting in Charlotte, and to Senators Rauch and Taft. (Senator Taft is noted present for a portion of tonight’s Session.)

"Be with the Lieutenant Governor that he may continue to preside with honor and fairness over the affairs of this Chamber. Be with the Members of this Body, both Democrats and Republicans, that they may seek to enact laws and that they may work to approve a budget which will promote the well-being of all our citizens, not just the well-being of powerful special interest groups. And be with all the residents of our State; rich and poor, black, native American, and white, young and old, male and female, that they may feel that their concerns are being seriously considered by the General Assembly and that they may sense that they are being represented by Senators and Representatives who are men and women of integrity, vision, and compassion. Amen."

Prayer is offered by the Reverend John Nagel, Minister of Christ the King Lutheran Church, Cary, as follows:

"Lord God, it’s only Wednesday, and already we’re becoming fatigued. The absence from family and business seems greater all the time. The desire for superhuman endurance eludes us. The pressures of our individual lives collide with the work of the State. The days lengthen, and the needs remain so great. There are days when we wonder if anyone notices what we do. And there are days when we’re certain nothing we do matters very much.

"And yet, in Your continuing love, You remind us of the constancy of Your Presence, that no work is done without Your support. So send Your strength to these who labor on our behalf, so that the work takes on new meaning. Increase Your guidance, that our leaders may be honest in their feelings, responsive to their constituents, and careful in their deliberations. Let justice and mercy abound, that our people may be served, our State may be blessed, and Your Name glorified through Your intentions carried out in this Chamber, this day. Amen."

Prayer is offered by Dr. Robert E. Poerschke, Professor of the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, as follows:

"O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come; our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home, we thank You, Almighty God, for the blessings without number that are ours, for the rich heritage of our great nation, and of our noble State, and for the constant evidence of Your favor in preserving and keeping us to this day. We thank You, as well, for the leaders of our land; the President, our national congressmen, our North Carolina Representatives, and for these gathered here, officers and members of the North Carolina Senate, who are elected to guide our nation and our State in the days to come. During these sacred moments of prayer, we petition that You will grant to all of us Your Holy Shalom, Your Wholeness, Your Completeness, and Your peace, as well as the continuing assurance that You are yet here among us. Help us, one and all, to turn our thought toward You, to achieve Your understanding in our thinking, to claim for ourselves Your wisdom in our decision making, to open our hearts to Your Spirit, to achieve Your mercy in our judgments, and to capture Your love in our attitudes. Being so refreshed by Your great power, O God, grant that what is done here in this Chamber today, may be acceptable and pleasing in Your sight. Bless us in all that is right, and correct us in all that is wrong, and help us, ever, to see clearly the distinction between the two. Hear our prayer, O God. Amen."

SENATE CHAMBER,
Tuesday, June 16, 1987.

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Robert B. Jordan III, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Samuel D. McMillan, Jr., Senate Chaplain, who delivers his last invocation as Senate Chaplain prior to assuming his responsibilities as Superintendent of the Wilmington District of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, as follows:

"Almighty God, I offer unto You my prayer of thanksgiving. For the opportunity which has been mine to serve You in this arena, for the integrity and leadership of our Lieutenant Governor, for the faithful labors of each member of the Senate staff, for the significant legislation passed in this Chamber, and for those times when integrity, vision, and compassion, have been demonstrated in lives and actions of the Members of this Body, I give You thanks, O Lord.

June 16, 1987
"O God of Strength, in the closing weeks of this Session of the General Assembly, renew our strength, our patience, and our perseverance that we may with wisdom, integrity, and compassion approve a budget and finish the other matters pending before this Body.

"O God of Integrity, deliver us from petty politics within political parties, between parties, and between Members of the House and Senate. As we wrestle with the approval of a budget, save us from bickering, childishness, and name calling which belittles our calling as legislators. Give the Members of the Senate and the House, courage to stand up for their convictions, but make us all tolerant of the views of others, and give us the wisdom to make those compromises which will enable us to approve bills and a budget which minister to the needs of all our citizens not just some special interest groups or some political faction. And when we have thus acted with maturity and integrity, we will have won the honor, respect, and thanks of the citizens of this great State.

"O God of Love, give us grace to love You with all our being, to love one another as You have loved us, to love our neighbor as ourselves, and to love even those who have wronged us so that love may become the hallmark of our lives. Amen."

Senator Harrington for the Rules and Operation of the Senate Committee announces that the Journal of yesterday has been examined and is found to be correct. On his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The President grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Thomas.

NINETY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,
Thursday, June 18, 1987.

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Robert B. Jordan III, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend D.E. Parkerson, Minister of First Baptist Church, Sanford, as follows:

"God of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Joseph, and the Father of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, it is with conviction and sincerity that we bow in prayer at the beginning of this Senate Session to acknowledge Your divine sovereignty in the universe and Your Lordship over our lives.

"We praise Your Holy Name for the divinely-given privilege of living and laboring in what we believe to be the greatest State in the Nation on earth. Visit this day, therefore, with Your presence, Our Father, and direct by Your Divine Spirit, the members of this legislative body. Grant them wisdom as they seek to serve the twin causes of justice and mercy through the codification of laws.

"From the stirrings of self-will within their hearts; from cowardly avoidance of necessary duty; from bitterness of spirit that would eliminate cohesive unity; from jealousy of those whose positions are higher or more powerful; from corrupting pride which elevates oneself at the expense of others; from undisciplined thought; from unwillingness to learn and unreadiness to serve, O God, set these Senators and our Lieutenant Governor free.

"Grant to each Member of this Body a fuller understanding of spiritual things and a closer walk with You that he or she may interpret aright the difficult times in which we live. And may each have a growing awareness that true and lasting greatness always comes through serving others.

"In the name of Him who taught us by word and by personal example the value of serving others, even Jesus Christ our Lord, we pray. Amen."

Prayer is offered by the Reverend E. Powell Osteen, Jr., Minister of the Resurrection United Methodist Church, Durham, as follows:

"Almighty and Most Merciful God, keep us ever mindful of where we see Your face: in works of compassion, mercy, peace, justice, service. Keep us mindful, too, of where you are not: in racism, sexism, militarism, and materialism. Even in the face of Your great power and mercy, we continue to raise up false gods such as economic policies, political powers, and national defenses in which we trust rather than trust in Your truth and way. Forgive us our idolatry.

"O Lord, bless these leaders who have been chosen by the people of our great State. Empower them with wisdom and with grace. Open the eyes of their hearts that they may indeed serve not just the rich and powerful, but also the poor and powerless, the homeless, the aged, the unemployed, the handicapped. Keep ever before them Your way of servant leadership.

"Bless these women and men gathered here. Keep them in Your care as they work here and as they travel home to be with families and friends. Grant them all Your Divine Spirit that all they do, in word and deed, may be done to Your glory. In the Name of the one True God, Amen."

"The long hot summer is upon us and numerous responsibilities still confront us. We each make our long list of things that need to be accomplished and become frustrated. The lists are endless and the concerns of the citizens of our State are countless. Lord, we ask for Your patience and guidance as we work swiftly and judiciously to accomplish these tasks.

NINETY-SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,
Wednesday, June 24, 1987.

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable J. J. Harrington, President Pro Tempore.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Susan L. Pate, Hollands United Methodist Church, Raleigh, as follows:

"Almighty God, our Eternal Ruler, from Whom comes the privilege of power, and to Whom we must all account for our use of the powers entrusted us, send down upon Your servants in office here Your powerful wisdom, and charity, and justice, that with Your guidance they may steadfastly serve You and all Your people. Give them the courage to do bravely what is right, rather than to do safely what is not. Help them, as they struggle to find and establish justice and peace, to confront one another without bitterness and pettiness, and to work together with respect and forbearance, each one for the other. In Your great mercy, forge in them a spirit of mercy toward all those who live with injustice as a daily companion. Stir up in their minds the remembrance of those whom it is easy to forget; the poor and the homeless, the old and the young, the sick and those who have no one to care for them. Direct this day, those who speak where many listen, decide that by which many live, that they may, in all their actions, proclaim Your truth; help them to do their part to make the heart of this people wise, and sound, and righteous. O Lord of all, we humbly pray, that in all the issues and decisions of this session today, these Your servants may never forget You, but remember that they are always walking in Your sight, for it is in Your Name, Your Spirit, and Your Strength that we pray. Amen."

"Thou, Who art the Great Law Giver and Law Maker, we confess that often we forget that we are a nation under God and trick ourselves into believing we are a nation above God. Enable us to get our priorities in order so that no cause, special interest, or personal concern can ever be above second place in our voting. We pray that You will always be first.

"Give each elected official in this Body divine guidance and humble submission to Your will. Never let laws, circumstances, economics come ahead of persons and human needs. Let us never lose sight of the value of each individual. As You cleansed the temple long ago, cleanse our governing bodies from deceit, personal gain or power. Turn over our desks and reorder our agenda and priorities.

"Lord, we thank You for these persons elected to make these important decisions. Help them with the burden of their office. If they do Your will, bless and prosper each of them, but if they do not do Your will, may they fail at their endeavors.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Glenda Johnson, Associate Minister of Highland United Methodist Church, Raleigh, as follows:

"Eternal God, to You we turn at the opening of this day of meeting for these who serve us as Senators in North Carolina. We are thankful for this great State in which we are blessed to live and to work.

"Great God, through all these many years of statehood, we have freely sought Your blessing and have received such in gracious abundance. It is my prayer today that we will ever remember to turn to You seeking blessing but also seeking guidance, that our decisions may be unselfish ones, made insofar as possible in the best interest of all of our people.

"Gracious God, visit anew the hearts and minds and spirits of all gathered here. Give rest and refreshment to those who are weary and who carry heavy burdens; place Your healing touch upon the lives of all who are unwell in body or in spirit; lend a forgiving spirit to those who hurt with a need for reconcilement; and grant to us, each and all, a loving and gentle spirit which can transcend and overcome daily hurts, burdens, and disagreements.

"Keep before us the sure knowledge that as our leaders turn to You, trust in You, and follow Your precepts, then the wrong will be corrected, the right will prevail, and this State and the world will become increasingly a better place for ourselves, for our children, and for our children's children. Amen."

Prayer is offered by Dr. Robert Dale, Professor of Pastoral Leadership and Church Ministries at the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, as follows:

"Lord, people have trusted us to lead. They expect us to make healthy and courageous decisions. But good decisions are usually tough to make. So help us, Lord.

"When we must make decisions under pressure, give us a sense of inner quiet.

"When we face decisions with contradictory facts, teach us to listen and learn before we act.

"When we must make decisions that leave us caught in the crossfire between constituent groups, lend us an extra measure of courage.

"When we face decisions that run counter to the best traditions of our State and region, protect us from trying to heed every new wind of opinion.

"When decisions seem cut-and-dried, open our eyes to the blindspots in our lives that let us ignore others and their interests.

"When we decide and choose the wrong option, forgive us.

"For guiding us while we decide, we thank You, Lord. Amen."

You created us with minds capable of understanding and caring for this world in which You placed us, yet we confess that we are often overwhelmed by conflicting claims and loyalties. Grant us wisdom to sort out the truth and courage to pursue it. We have faced the challenge of reconciling limited dollars to what appears to be unlimited needs.

"Forgive us for errors of heart and mind and for commitments made but not kept. We have made decisions for ourselves and others; help us to accept responsibility for the consequences. "O Lord, as we assemble here at the beginning of what we expect to be the last week of the 1987 Session of the General Assembly to finish our work which we started in February, we ask that You give us the courage and intelligence to finish this work in such manner as will find approval in Your sight.

"We further pray, Oh Lord, that when we have finished this work, it will be beneficial to all of the people of North Carolina, and You can say, well done thy good and faithful servants.

"Give us strength, Oh Lord, to accept the approval that will come from some people, and to accept the criticism that will come from other people, and help us to treat both the approval and the criticism just the same.

"As the pressure of these final days amounts to an agonizing frenzy, as we know it will, let us not forget that we will do our best work for the State and our people if we remain friends with one another. Let us then try to help each other in our common goals. This is our prayer, Oh Lord, and in Your Name, we pray. Amen."

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. Effective on the date of ratification of this act, the Iredell County Board of Education is expanded from five to seven members. Five members shall be those presently serving as members of the Board of Education, and two members shall be appointed by the Board of Education. Within 30 days of ratification of this act, the Iredell County Board of Education shall appoint two persons, one to serve until the first Monday in December of 1988, and until a successor is elected and qualifies, and one to serve until the first Monday in December of 1990, and until a successor is elected and qualifies. In making appointments, the Iredell County Board of Education shall consider the geographic and demographic makeup of the then current board so that the appointments can help ensure that the board broadly represents all the citizens of the school unit.

Sec. 2. In 1988 and quadrennially thereafter, three members of the Iredell County Board of Education shall be elected for four-year terms. In 1990 and quadrennially thereafter, four members of the Iredell County Board of Education shall be elected for four-year terms.

Sec. 3. The Iredell County Board of Education may adopt an apportionment plan which provides that the Iredell County School Administrative Unit is divided into electoral districts for the purpose of electing members of the Iredell County Board of Education. Such plan shall not affect the right of appointed members under Section 2 of this act to finish the remainder of the term of office. The qualified voters of each district shall elect a person who resides in that district for the seat apportioned to that district. Each district shall elect one member. The apportionment plan may provide for up to three of the members of the Board of Education to be elected at-large by all the qualified voters of the school administrative unit. Any apportionment plan under this section, in order to become effective for elections in the succeeding year, must be approved by the Iredell County Board of Education no later than December 31.

House of Representatives

The Chair rules the Conference Report material and declares submission of the Report constitutes the first reading of the House Committee Substitute bill, which changes the title upon adoption to read, S.B. 944 (Conference Committee Substitute), a bill to increase the excise tax on spirituous liquor, and to provide that local sales taxes shall be levied by the county in which the retailer is located when the property sold is delivered to the purchaser in another county. The Chair orders it placed on the Calendar for tomorrow, August 12, 1987, for adoption upon second reading.

The text of the attached proposed Conference Committee Substitute is as follows:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT TO INCREASE THE EXCISE TAX ON SPIRITUOUS LIQUOR AND TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL SALES TAXES SHALL BE LEVIED BY THE COUNTY IN WHICH THE RETAILER IS LOCATED WHEN THE PROPERTY SOLD IS DELIVERED TO THE PURCHASER IN ANOTHER COUNTY.

Whereas, the 1985 General Assembly during its 1986 Session enacted additional law enforcement retirement benefits which costs may have exceeded available financial resources across the State requiring that additional revenue be expended; and

Whereas, it is the intent of the General Assembly that the additional revenue that will accrue to local governments as a result of this act be used to the extent necessary to fund the additional law enforcement retirement benefits; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. G.S. 18B-208(b) reads as rewritten:

“(b) Special Fund. A special fund in the office of the State Treasurer, the ABC Commission Fund, is created. On and after November 1, 1982, all moneys derived from the collection of bailment charges and bailment surcharges shall be deposited in the ABC Commission Fund for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Chapter. The ABC Commission Fund shall be subject to the provisions of the Executive Budget Act except that no unexpended surplus of this fund shall revert to the General Fund. The Commission shall fix the level of the bailment surcharges at an amount the retirement of bonds issued for construction of a Commission warehouse and offices. The Commission may impose a bailment surcharge only when revenue bonds issued under this section are outstanding.

All moneys credited to the ABC Commission Fund shall be used to carry out the intent and purposes of the ABC law in accordance with plans approved by the North Carolina ABC Commission and the Director of the Budget, and all these funds are appropriated, reserved, set aside, and made available until expended for the administration of the ABC law.”

Sec. 2. G.S. 105-113.80(c) is rewritten to read:

“(c) Liquor. An excise tax of twenty-eight percent (28%) is levied on liquor sold in ABC stores. Pursuant to G.S. 18B-804(b), the price of liquor on which this tax is calculated to cover operating expenses of the Commission and the ALE Division and computed is the distiller’s price plus (i) the State ABC warehouse freight and bailment charges, and (ii) a markup for local ABC boards. This tax is in lieu of sales and use taxes; accordingly, liquor is exempt from those taxes as provided in G.S.

105-164.13(37)."

Sec. 3. Operating expenses for the ALE Division shall be paid from the budget of the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety.

Sec. 4. The last paragraph of G.S. 105-467 reads as rewritten:
“The local sales tax authorized to be imposed and levied under the provisions of this Article shall be applicable to such retail sales, leases, rentals, rendering of services, furnishing of rooms, lodgings or accommodations and other taxable transactions which are made, furnished or rendered by retailers whose place of business is located within the taxing county. The tax imposed shall apply to the furnishing of rooms, lodging or other accommodations within the county which are rented to transients.
However no tax shall be imposed where the tangible personal property sold is delivered to the purchaser at a point outside the taxing county by the retailer or his agent, or by a common carrier. For the purpose of this Article the situs of a transaction is the location of the retailer’s place of business.”

Sec. 5. Section 4 of Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws, as amended, is further amended by deleting the sentence at the end of that section that begins “No tax shall” and substituting the following:
“For the purpose of this act, the situs of a transaction is the location of the retailer’s place of business.”

Sec. 6. G.S. 105-486 reads as rewritten:
§ 105-486. Distribution of additional taxes. (a) County Allocation. The Secretary shall, on a quarterly basis, distribute allocate the net proceeds of the additional one-half percent (1/2%) sales and use taxes levied under this Article to the taxing counties on a per capita basis according to the most recent annual population estimates certified to the Secretary by the State Budget Officer.

(b) Adjustment. The Secretary shall then adjust the amount allocated to each county under subsection (a) by multiplying the amount by the appropriate adjustment factor set out in the table below:

(c) Distribution Between Counties and Cities. The amount distributed to a allocated to each taxing county shall then be divided among the county and its municipalities in accordance with the method by which the one percent (1%) sales and use taxes levied in that county pursuant to Article 39 of this Chapter or Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws are distributed. If any taxes levied under this Article by a county have not been collected in that county for a full quarter because of the levy or repeal of the taxes, the Secretary shall distribute a pro rata share to that county for that quarter based on the number of months the taxes were collected in that county during the quarter.

Sec. 7. G.S. 105-493 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-493. Distribution of taxes. The Secretary shall, on a quarterly basis, distribute allocate the net proceeds of any one-half percent (1/2%) sales and use taxes levied under this Article in accordance with G.S. 105-486. For the purposes of the distribution allocation under G.S. 105-486, a county that levies one-half percent (1/2%) sales and use taxes under this Article is considered a taxing county under that section. To make the distribution allocation required by G.S. 105-486 and this section, the Secretary shall add the net proceeds of local sales and use taxes levied under Article 40 of this Chapter and under this Article, and shall then distribute allocate this amount to the taxing counties on a per capita basis as provided in G.S. 105-486. The amount distributed allocated to a county that levies one-half percent (1/2%) sales and use taxes under this Article shall be adjusted by multiplying it by the appropriate adjustment factor set out in the table in G.S. 105-486(b) and then divided among the county and its municipalities on either a per capita or an ad valorem tax basis, as designated by the board of county commissioners in a resolution adopted pursuant to G.S. 105-472. If any taxes levied under this Article by a county have not been collected in that county for a full quarter because of the levy or repeal of the taxes, the Secretary shall distribute a pro rata share to that county for that quarter based on the number of months the taxes were collected in that county during the quarter."

Sec. 8. G.S. 1105-501 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-501. Distribution of additional taxes. The Secretary shall, on a quarterly basis, distribute allocate the net proceeds of the additional one-half percent (1/2%) sales and use taxes levied under this Article to the taxing counties on a per capita basis according to the most recent annual population estimates certified to the located in the county in accordance with the method by which the one percent (1%) sales and use taxes levied in that county pursuant to Article 39 of this Chapter or Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws are distributed.

August 11, 1987
Secretary by the State Budget Officer. The Secretary shall then adjust the amount allocated to each county by multiplying the amount by the appropriate adjustment factor set out in the table in G.S. 105-486(b). The amount distributed to a county shall then be divided among the county and the municipalities of the local sales tax levy.

If any taxes levied under this Article by a county have not been collected in that county for a full quarter because of the levy or repeal of the taxes, the Secretary shall distribute a pro rata share to that county for that quarter based on the number of months the taxes were collected in that county during the quarter."

Sec. 9. The board of commissioners of any county may, by resolution, after 10 days' public notice and a public hearing held pursuant thereto, adopt the expansion of the local sales tax levy provided in this act. Upon adoption of such a resolution, the board of commissioners shall forward a copy of the resolution to the Secretary of Revenue. Pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 105-483, 105-490, and 105-498, adoption of the expansion of the Local Government Sales and Use Act provided in Section 4 of this act constitutes adoption of an equivalent expansion of the local sales taxes levied under Articles 40, 41, and 42 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes.

Sec. 10. If a county fails to adopt the expansion of the Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act provided in Section 4 of this act on or before February 1, 1988, the sales and use taxes levied by the county pursuant to Articles 39, 40, 41, and 42 are repealed effective March 1, 1988, because they will be inconsistent with the scope of the levies authorized by those Articles as amended effective March 1, 1988. If Mecklenburg County fails to adopt the expansion of Section 4 of Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws provided in Section 5 of this act on or before February 1, 1988, the sales and use tax levied by Mecklenburg County pursuant to Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws is repealed effective March 1, 1988, because it will be inconsistent with the scope of the levy authorized by that Chapter as amended effective March 1, 1988, and the sales and use taxes levied by Mecklenburg County pursuant to Articles 40, 41, and 42 are repealed effective March 1, 1988, because those Articles will no longer apply to Mecklenburg County, as provided in G.S. 105-482, 105-489, and 105-497. If the sales and use taxes levied by a county are repealed as provided in this section because the county failed to adopt the expansion of the local sales tax levy, the county may, on or after March 1, 1988, levy local sales and use taxes in accordance with the provisions of Articles 39, 40, 41, and 42 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws, as applicable.

Sec. 11. This act does not affect the rights or liabilities of the State, a taxpayer, or other person arising under a statute amended or repealed by this act before its amendment or repeal; nor does it affect the right to any refund or credit of a tax that would otherwise have been available under the amended or repealed statute before its amendment or repeal.

Sec. 12. It is the intent of the General Assembly that a Select Committee composed of members of the General Assembly shall be appointed to study the impact on local sales and use tax revenue and the administrative cost savings to the State of consolidating the local sales and use taxes levied under Articles 39, 40, 41, and 42 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes and under Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws, as amended, with the State sales and use tax levied under Article 5 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes. It is further intended that the Select Committee shall report to the 1987 General Assembly on the first day of the 1988 Regular Session.

Sec. 13. It is the intent of the General Assembly that if the local sales and use taxes levied under Articles 39, 40, 41, and 42 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes and under Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws, as amended, are at a later date consolidated with the State sales and use taxes levied under Article 5 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, then the legislation enacting the consolidation shall also change the method of distributing the proceeds of the excise tax on liquor levied under G.S. 105-113.80(c) from the current formulation to a new method that would distribute one-eighth (1/8) of the total proceeds of that excise tax to local governments in the same manner as the State sales and use tax proceeds that are distributed to local governments under the legislation that consolidates the local sales taxes with the State sales tax.

Sec. 14. Section 1 through 3 of this act shall become effective October 1, 1987. Sections 4 through 8 of this act shall become effective March 1, 1988, and apply to sales made on or after that date. The remainder of this act is effective upon ratification.

On motion of Senator Harrington, seconded by Senator Bryan, the Senate adjourns to meet tomorrow at 1:30 P.M.

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Honorable Robert B. Jordan III, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by the Reverend Arlee Griffith, Minister of Greenville Corner Stone People's Free Will Baptist Church, Greenville, as follows:

"Our Heavenly Father, we thank You for this opportunity to serve You. We must not let the beauty of this day, or the glow of good health, or the present success of our undertakings deceive us into a false reliance on our own strength.

"You have given us every good thing. We cannot expect Your blessings and guidance in our public lives while we close the door to our private lives. You know what we are, wherever we are. Help us to do the best that we can for all the people that we serve. Amen."

REPORT OF JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE

Senator Winner, Chairman of the Joint Legislative Ethics Committee submits the following report:

REPORT OF THE LEGISLATIVE ETHICS COMMITTEE
WITH RESPECT TO AN INQUIRY INTO THE ACTS OF REPRESENTATIVE JAMES HUGHES

The Joint Legislative Ethics Committee pursuant to G.S. 120-103 is empowered to determine if legislators have violated the provisions of Article 14 of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes and only of that Article (except for G.S. 143-559). The Committee understands G.S. 120-103 to mean that it shall determine whether legislators have violated specific statutes contained in said Article or the ethical rulings previously determined by the Committee or its predecessors and disseminated to the individual members of the General Assembly.

August 12, 1987
The Committee met in executive session five times to consider the allegations of unethical conduct against Representative Hughes before its public hearings. The Committee heard the SBI investigative report on these allegations. The Committee held two public hearings, one in Raleigh and one in Boone. The Committee has heard evidence from all of the witnesses which it subpoenaed in this matter and from some of the witnesses subpoenaed by Representative Hughes. More than twenty-five witnesses appeared before the Committee.

The Committee finds that there is no evidence from which it could find that Representatives Hughes violated any statutes contained in Article 14 of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes or from any ethical ruling which it has or its predecessors has previously made and disseminated to the membership of the General Assembly.

The Committee therefore dismisses the complaint and inquiry into the alleged acts of Representative James Hughes.

This 12th day of August, 1987.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. G.S. 50-21 is rewritten to read:

's 50-21. Procedures in actions for equitable distribution of property.—(a) At any time after a husband and wife begin to live separate and apart from each other, a claim for equitable distribution may be filed, either as a separate civil action, or together with any other action brought pursuant to Chapter 50 of the General Statutes, or as a motion in the cause as provided by G.S. 50-11(e) or (f). During the pendency of any such action for equitable distribution, discovery may proceed, and the court may enter temporary orders as appropriate and necessary for the purpose of preventing the disappearance, waste, or destruction of marital or separate property or to secure the possession thereof.

A judgment for an equitable distribution shall not be entered prior to entry of a decree of absolute divorce, except for a consent judgment, which may be entered at any time during the pendency of the action.
Real or personal property located outside North Carolina is subject to equitable distribution in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 50-20, and the court may include in its order appropriate provisions to ensure compliance with the order of equitable distribution.

(b) For purposes of equitable distribution, marital property shall be valued as of the date of the separation of the parties.

(c) Nothing in G.S. 50-20 or this section shall restrict or extend the right to trial by jury as provided by the Constitution of North Carolina.'

Sec. 2. G.S. 50-20(k) is rewritten to read:

 '(k) The rights of the parties to an equitable distribution of marital property are a species of common ownership, the rights of the respective parties vesting at the time of the parties' separation.'

Sec. 3. G.S. 50-11(f) is rewritten to read:

 '(f) An absolute divorce by a court that lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse or lacked jurisdiction to dispose of the property shall not destroy the right of a spouse to an equitable distribution of marital property under G.S. 50-20 if an action or motion in the cause is filed within six months after the judgment of divorce is entered. The validity of such divorce may be attacked in the action for equitable distribution.'

Sec. 4. This act shall become effective October 1, 1987."

And the Senate agrees to the same.

To this end, the conferees recommend that the Senate and House of Representatives adopt the foregoing report.

Conferees on the part of the House of Representatives

On motion of Senator Parnell, the Conference Report is adopted (electronically recorded), and a message is ordered sent to the House of Representatives informing that Honorable Body of such action.

Senator Martin of Guilford offers a motion that the remarks of Senator Parnell in explaining the Conference Report, be spread upon the Journal, which motion prevails.

The remarks of Senator Parnell are as follows:

"Mr. President and Members of the Senate,

"Let me just say in the explanation, first of all, the House accepted the Senate Amendments No. 2, 3, 6, and 7 which were mostly technical amendments in nature.

"The Senate conceded on Amendments No. 4, 5, and the part of Amendment No. 8 dealing with the increase in the allowable speed to 70 miles per hour before being charged recoupment surcharges.

"Amendment No. 1 as offered by Senator Johnson was accepted by the House with the modification that only one prayer for judgment in a three-year period would be exempted from recoupment surcharges.

"Basically, that is what the bill does and I hope that you will accept it. I understand and know that some of the attorneys in here raised some questions about the language. We have looked that up and we have determined that the language used in here is lifted right out of the Statutes now from 58-30.5(6) and so it is language that is presently in use in the Statutes and we feel that it will do what we intend for it to do. So basically the change that's in here that is accepted is the one PJC in a three-year period.

"I'll be glad to try to answer any questions and I hope that you will support the Conference Report."

In reviewing a final decision in a contested case in which an administrative law judge made a recommended decision, the court shall make two initial determinations. First, the court shall determine whether the agency heard new evidence after receiving the recommended decision. If the court determines that the agency heard new evidence, the court shall reverse the decision or remand the case to the agency to enter a decision in accordance with the evidence in the official record. Second, if the agency did not adopt the recommended decision, the court shall determine whether the agency's decision states the specific reasons why the agency did not adopt the recommended decision. If the court determines that the agency did not state specific reasons why it did not adopt a recommended decision, the court shall reverse the decision or remand the case to the agency to enter the specific reasons.

(b) Standard of Review. After making the determinations, if any, required by subsection (a), the court reviewing a final decision may affirm the decision of the agency or remand the case for further proceedings. It may also reverse or modify the agency's decision if the substantial rights of the petitioners may have been prejudiced because the agency's findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are:
(1) In violation of constitutional provisions;
(2) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the agency;
(3) Made upon unlawful procedure;
(4) Affected by other error of law;
(5) Unsupported by substantial evidence admissible under G.S. 150B-29(a), 150B-30, or 150B-31 in view of the entire record as submitted; or
(6) Arbitrary or capricious."

Sec. 20. G.S. 150B-52 is rewritten to read:

"§ 150B-52. Appeal; stay of court's decision. -- A party to a review proceeding in a superior court may appeal to the appellate division from the final judgment of the superior court as provided in G.S. 7A-27. Pending the outcome of an appeal, an appealing party may apply to the court that issued the judgment under appeal for a stay of that judgment or a stay of the administrative decision that is the subject of the appeal, as appropriate."

Sec. 21. G.S. 150B-2 is amended by adding the following definition in the appropriate alphabetical order:

"(01) 'Substantial evidence' means relevant evidence a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion."

Sec. 22. G.S. 150B-47 is amended by rewriting the first sentence of the section to read:

"Within 30 days after receipt of the copy of the petition for review, or within such additional time as the court may allow, the agency that made the final decision in the contested case shall transmit to the reviewing court the original or a certified copy of the official record in the contested case under review together with: (i) any exceptions, proposed findings of fact, or written arguments submitted to the agency in accordance with G.S. 150B-36(a); and (ii) the agency's final decision or order."

Sec. 23. G.S. 150B-34 is rewritten to read:

"§ 150B-34. Recommended decision or order of administrative law judge. -- (a) In a contested case, the administrative law judge shall make a recommended decision or order that contains findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(b) After hearing the contested case and prior to issuing a recommended decision, the administrative law judge shall give each party an opportunity to file proposed findings of fact and to present written arguments to him."

Sec. 24. G.S. 150B-36 is amended by designating the current language of that section as subsection (b) and adding a new subsection (a) to read:

"(a) Before the agency makes a final decision, it shall give each party an opportunity to file exceptions to the decision recommended by the administrative law judge, and to present written arguments to those in the agency who will make the final decision or order."

Sec. 25. G.S. 150B-37 is amended as follows:

(1) by rewriting that part of subsection (a) preceding the colon to read:

"In a contested case, the Office of Administrative Hearings shall prepare an official record of the case that includes;"

(2) by adding the word "and" after the semicolon following subdivision (a)(4);

(3) by deleting subdivision (a)(5);

(4) by deleting the phrase ", opinion, order, or report" in subdivision (a)(6) and substituting the words "or order"; and

(5) by adding a new subsection to read:

"(c) The Office of Administrative Hearings shall forward a copy of the official record to the agency making the final decision and shall forward a copy of the recommended decision to each party."

Sec. 26. G.S. 150B-33(b)(9) is amended by deleting the word "administrative".

Sec. 27. G.S. 150B-44 is amended by deleting the second sentence and substituting the following:

August 14, 1987
"Except for an agency that is a board or commission, an agency's failure to make a final decision within 60 days of the date on which all exceptions or arguments are filed under G.S. 150B-36(a) with the agency constitutes an unreasonable delay. A board or commission's failure to make a final decision within the later of the 60 days allowed other agencies or 60 days after the board's or commission's next regularly scheduled meeting constitutes an unreasonable delay."

Sec. 28. Sections 1 through 20 of this act shall become effective September 1, 1987; the remaining sections of this act are effective upon ratification. Sections 1 through 15 shall apply to contested cases commenced on or after September 1, 1987. Sections 16 through 20 shall apply to petitions for review filed on or after September 1, 1987.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following special message is received from the House of Representatives:

H.J.R. 2165

House of Representatives
August 14, 1987

Mr. President:

It is ordered that a message be sent your Honorable Body respectfully advising that the business of the House has been concluded and that this Body will be ready to adjourn pursuant to House Joint Resolution 2165, A JOINT RESOLUTION SETTING THE TIME FOR ADJOURNMENT OF THE 1987 GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO RECONVENE IN 1988, AND LIMITING THE SUBJECTS THAT MAY BE CONSIDERED IN THAT SESSION, upon notification that your Honorable Body stands ready to adjourn.

Respectfully,
S/Grace Collins
Principal Clerk

Pursuant to H.J.R. 2165, a joint resolution setting the time for adjournment of the 1987 General Assembly to reconvene in 1988, and limiting the subjects that may be considered in that Session, and to the information received from the House of Representatives, Senator Rand, seconded by Senator Hipps, offers a motion that the Senate do now adjourn to reconvene at Noon two days after the date set by law for a second primary in 1988, which is Thursday, June 2, 1988, which motion prevails.

The hour for adjournment having arrived as fixed by H.J.R. 2165 and passed by the two Houses, Lieutenant Governor Jordan, by the authority vested in him as President of the Senate, declares the Senate stands adjourned to reconvene at Noon two days after the date set by law for a second primary in 1988, which is Thursday, June 2, 1988.

ADDENDUM
The following bill and motion of Senator Parnell are inadvertently omitted from the report of the State Government Committee and should appear immediately following H.B. 477:

H.B. 824 (Committee Substitute), a bill to amend Chapter 122A to allow the North Carolina Housing Finance Agency to temporarily adjust income requirements for certain multi-family housing, to own certain housing projects, and to correct certain statutory drafting errors, with a favorable report.

On motion of Senator Parnell, the Committee Substitute bill is recommitted to the State Government Committee.

It will be noted that a number of bills and resolutions passed second reading and then were read a third time on the same day.

Rule 50 states:

No bill on its third reading shall be acted upon out of the regular order in which it stands on the calendar, and no bill shall be acted upon on its third reading the same day on which it passed its second reading, unless so ordered by two-thirds of the membership of the Senate.

In order to comply with this Rule, no bill which has passed its second reading is read a third time except:

(1) when a member moves that the Rule be suspended, and this motion prevails by at least a two-thirds vote of the membership of the Senate, or

(2) when the Chair determines that there is no objection from any member present which constitutes unanimous consent that Rule 50 be suspended.

In these cases, the bill is read a third time and remains before the Senate for further consideration.

It will be noted that when a bill passes its second reading and remains on the Calendar for further consideration, unless indicated otherwise, the measure is placed on the Calendar for the next legislative day in its regular order of business.

It will be noted that Rule 20 (2) of the House of Representatives requires that "all measures affecting a fee imposed by the State or any subdivision thereof" are classified roll-call measures for the purpose of spreading the ayes and noes on the Journal. Though the Senate Rules do not require, the Rule of the House of Representatives is honored and the measures are considered as roll-call measures, unless ruled otherwise by the presiding officer.

S.R. 1546, TO AMEND THE PERMANENT RULES OF THE SENATE
OF THE 1987 GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO CLARIFY THE APPLI-CABILITY OF THE LICENSING BOARD PROCEDURE ESTAB-LISHED BY CHAPTER 180 OF THE 1987 SESSION LAWS TO BILLS ALREADY INTRODUCED.

Adopted June 29, 1987 (See page 732 Senate Journal)

S.R. 1554, A RESOLUTION TO ESTABLISH THE PROCEDURE FOR NOMINATING AND ELECTING MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Be it resolved by the Senate:

Section 1. The following procedures for nominating and electing members of the Board of Governors of the University of North Carolina are adopted:

I. COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

1. It is the duty of the Select Committee on University Board of Governors of the Senate (hereinafter referred to as "the Senate Committee") to choose at least two nominees for each opening in each category of seats on the Board of Governors of the University of North Carolina to which the Senate is to elect members.

2. The Senate shall vote only upon those nominees in the four-year at-large category chosen by the Senate Committee or proposed as nominees from the floor of the joint session of the Senate and House of Representatives.

3. The Senate Committee shall receive suggestions of proposed candidates for nomination for the University Board of Governors through June 17, 1987. In order for a person to have standing to be considered as a candidate for nomination by the Senate Committee, that person must be formally proposed as a candidate for nomination by a member of the Senate Committee.

4. After June 17, 1987, the Senate Committee shall meet and receive from members of the Committee formal proposals of candidates for nomination. A Committee member may propose candidates for nomination only for the categories available for election by the Senate.

5. The Senate Committee shall screen the proposed candidates for nomination produced to it as to their qualifications and background and may interview each one to make sure that suitable persons are nominated for each category and that each candidate for nomination is willing and able to serve and has no statutory disability.

6. There is no limit on the number of persons a Senator may propose as candidates for nomination. When the proposing process is closed, the Senate Committee shall list all proposed candidates for nomination by category and shall vote on each candidate proposed for nomination and listed on the Senate ballot. A vote of a majority of those members of the Senate Committee present and voting shall constitute one a nominee. An individual cannot be a candidate for nomination or be nominated in more than one category.

7. Senate Committee nominees shall be placed before and recommended to a joint session of the House of Representatives and Senate.

II. JOINT SESSION – SELECTION OF NOMINEES.

1. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet in joint session at 1:30 p.m. on July 1, 1987, for the purpose of nominating persons for election to the Board of Governors of the University of North Carolina. In the joint session of the Senate and House of Representatives, committee nominations shall be made first and then the floor shall be opened for the nomination by any Senator or Representative of persons for election to the Board of Governors. Nominees shall be grouped into the following categories, as required by G.S. 116-6:

   (1) Women nominees for four-year term,
   (2) Minority race nominees for four-year term,
   (3) Minority party nominees for four-year term,
   (4) At-large nominees for four-year term, Senate,
   (5) At-large nominees for four-year term, House of Representatives.

Notwithstanding any provision herein, any person may be nominated in either category (4) or (5) above so long as his name does not appear in more than one category.

2. In proposing a nominee, the nominator shall state the category for which the nominee is being proposed. An individual cannot be proposed in more than one category.

3. There is no limit on the number of persons one Senator may nominate and no limit on the categories for which he may nominate persons in the joint session.

4. Names shall continue to be received until the number of nominees in each category is at least twice the number of places to be filled, that is, there shall be nominated a minimum of two women, two Republicans, two racial minority members, six at-large nominees (Senate), and four at-large nominees (House of Representatives), all for four-year terms.

5. No vote shall be taken on the nominees in the joint session. When the names of all nominees have been received, the joint session shall be dissolved.

6. The Chairman of the Senate Committee shall contact all nominees for election by the Senate and ascertain whether they would serve if elected. Any nominee may withdraw his name without the approval of the person who proposed his name. If withdrawals reduce the number of nominees below twice the number of places to be filled in any category, another joint session of the Senate and House shall be held to receive sufficient additional nominations in that category.

III. ELECTIONS IN THE SENATE.

1. A ballot shall be prepared under the supervision of the Chairman of the Senate Committee for the use of the Senate.

2. The ballot shall list only those nominees proposed by the Senate Committee who have consented to run and all those nominees proposed from the floor in the joint session who have consented to run and for whom the Senate is entitled to vote. Their names shall be arranged (a) by category and (b) within each category, alphabetically by surname.

3. The Senate shall hold its election at the beginning of the daily session on July 2, 1987. Before the voting begins, the President of the Senate shall explain the voting rules, which are:

   (i) No nomination shall be received from the floor.
   (ii) In order to be chosen, a nominee must receive the votes of a majority of all members present and voting for his category.
   (iii) Each member present and voting shall vote for as many nominees as there are positions to be filled in each category, and any ballot not so marked shall be deemed void as to that category.
   (iv) When a member for a category containing a single position is to be chosen and no nominee receives a majority of the votes cast for all the nominees in that category, a runoff shall be conducted between the person receiving the highest and the person receiving the second highest number of votes cast.

(v) When fewer than three nominees in the four-year at-large category receive the votes of a majority of all members present and voting for positions in that category, a runoff to fill the open position or positions shall be conducted among the nominees receiving the highest number of votes cast, and the number of nominees eligible to be voted on in the runoff shall be twice the number of positions to be filled.

(For the purpose of illustration, if when the first ballot is taken, no nominee receives a majority, then the top six vote-getters will be in the runoff, because there must be twice the number of persons in the runoff that there are positions to be filled and the Senate has three such positions to fill. If one person receives the votes of a majority of all members present and voting for that category, then he is elected and a runoff will be held among the four next highest vote-getters. This is so because there are two positions remaining to be filled and there must be twice the number of nominees in the runoff that there are positions available, therefore four. If two persons receive the votes of a majority of the members present and voting, both will be elected and a runoff will be held between the two next highest vote-getters, because only one position remains to be filled.)

(vi) If there is a tie for the last position between two nominees who are eligible for the next runoff, both nominees shall be included in the next runoff balloting, even though there would thereby be more than two nominees per available position on the Board of Governors.

(vii) When more than three nominees in the four-year at large category receive the votes of a majority of all members present and voting for positions in that category, then the three nominees receiving the highest number of votes shall be deemed to have been chosen.

4. The Senators shall proceed to mark their ballots for the following: Three persons in the at-large category for a four-year term, and one person in the minority party category for a four-year term.

Every ballot shall be signed by the Senator casting it, and no unsigned ballot shall be counted.

5. The Chairman of the Senate Committee shall be responsible for canvassing the vote and declaring the results thereof. All ballots shall be retained by the Principal Clerk as part of the permanent records of the State Senate and shall open for immediate public inspection.

6. When the Chairman of the Senate Committee has determined that the Senate has elected one member of the Board of Governors from the minority party category for a term of four years and three members of the Board of Governors from the at-large category for terms of four years, the President of the Senate shall declare those four persons to have been elected.

7. The results of the election in the Senate shall then be sent by Special Messenger to the House of Representatives.

IV. NOTIFICATION OF ELECTION RESULTS.

When the election process is complete, the Chairman of the Senate Committee shall notify the Secretary of the Board of Governors of the University of North Carolina of the names of the persons elected by the Senate and the category for which and term for which each of them was elected.

Sec. 2. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

S.R. 472, A SENATE RESOLUTION HONORING THE SERVICE OF J. ROBERT GORDON TO THE NORTH CAROLINA WILDLIFE RESOURCES COMMISSION AND PROCLAIMING THE
Whereas, J. Robert Gordon, an attorney of distinction from the City of Laurinburg, served with unparalleled devotion as Chairman of the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission for many years; and

Whereas, during these years he guided the Commission with loving care and meticulous attention through one of the more troubled periods of its long history; and

Whereas, he gave unstintingly of his time during these years, attending and presiding over every meeting of the Commission and attending virtually every public hearing the Commission held in North Carolina; and

Whereas, during this long period of dedicated service, he kept the Commission fully mindful of its responsibility to serve the hunters and fishermen of North Carolina and also to protect the environment, to assure the continued existence of endangered species, and to preserve adequate numbers of game species for the sportsmen of the future; and

Whereas, his careful guidance helped the Commission reach new plateaus of respect with the sportsmen of North Carolina and also with the General Assembly; and

Whereas, during the Commission’s 38-year history, no one has previously held the position of Chairman for as many years in succession; and

Whereas, on the 25th day of February 1985, the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission, by unanimous vote, decreed that, in recognition of the long, able, and devoted service of J. Robert Gordon, the Sandhills Field Trial Area, one of the nation’s premier field trial grounds, be thereafter designated and known as the J. Robert Gordon Sandhills Field Trial Area, and that a suitable plaque be erected within the area;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Senate:

Section 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina honors the long, able, and devoted service of J. Robert Gordon to the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission, and to North Carolina.

Sec. 2. The General Assembly of North Carolina proclaims the designation of the J. Robert Gordon Sandhills Field Trial Area. The North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission shall continue to so designate this area, and shall ensure that the suitable plaque decreed by the Commission on 25 February 1985 be maintained in proper order.

Sec. 3. The Secretary of State shall submit a certified copy of this resolution to J. Robert Gordon and to the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission.

Sec. 4. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

STATE-OF-THE-STATE ADDRESS
by Governor James G. Martin

Mr. Speaker, Lieutenant Governor Jordan, Members of the 137th North Carolina General Assembly, Distinguished Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am here this evening at your kind invitation, and in obedience to our State Constitution, which for 211 years has manifested the sovereignty of our State in a proud and virtuous people. It is to you their representatives, directly, and to them, indirectly, that I am pleased to present my Biennial Budget Message and report on the "State of the State," which I may supplement from time to time.

Economy of the State

Overall, our economy has had a relatively strong year. The total number of jobs broke above three million for the first time in December, 1985, and throughout 1986 averaged above that three million mark. Correspondingly, the rate of unemployment, which had dropped from 7% in 1984 to 5% in 1985, (averaging 5.4% for the year 1985) has held to that level, averaging 5.3% throughout 1986, and is currently below 5%. Certainly, there’s still room for improvement, but it’s worth noting that only a couple of states ranked better throughout this past biennium; none in the Southeast.

Our so-called gross-state-product, consequently, has steadily outpaced the gross-national-product. One of the most reassuring reports was the resurgence of manufacturing jobs, especially among textiles and apparel, which regained more than six thousand jobs, in a dramatic reversal from the previous decade’s trend.

Average personal income showed only modest improvement, clearly an area which will command greater attention in the next few years.

Our greatest concern regarding the economy is the increasing difficulty experienced recruiting new business investment to North Carolina. The competition from other states is tougher and more aggressive than before, and there are fewer known prospects in the field to satisfy all this competition. So, our pipeline is not as full as in years past. Surely, this is no time for complacency or negativism.

Blueprint

That is why our Commerce Department has laid out a bold plan to set fresh targets of opportunity for our recruiting efforts. With all our "high tech" successes, we have not scratched the surface of the aerospace and defense related industries. They are eager to expand—our way.

My administration discovered early on that with all our efforts to recruit new industry to North Carolina, there previously wasn’t much of an effort, or have much of a program, for the hundred thousand businesses already here. Our new office for “traditional industries” is a pioneering effort that we are sharing with other states.

North Carolina’s “traditional industries” have gotten (indeed have sought) very little of the business for supplying the needs of America’s Armed Forces. Surely, we can improve on this. We are making progress attracting manufacturers of automotive components, and many other targets appear attractive for us. We have had some spectacular successes bringing foreign companies to invest here, and we can do much more.

With the U.S. dollar finding a truer exchange rate with foreign currencies, the time is ripe. The next two years should also be a prime time for us to become more aggressive about exporting North Carolina’s many quality products into their markets, for a welcome change. That’s why we propose a bolder commitment of State Offices overseas – to help sell North Carolina. That’s why I proposed new summer institutes for foreign languages – to help North Carolina compete in world markets. It just makes good sense.

Our regional offices in-state will also be strengthened, and our State Library’s new telecommunications network will give every county immediate access to vital business information. Far exceeding any other state, this will share a powerful weapon for recruiting and helping technology-dependent business in rural areas far removed from resource centers.

We will strengthen our North Carolina film office, to assist movie makers in taking advantage of the attitudes and skills of our workers, our climate, our natural lighting so admired by Steven Spielberg for "The Color Purple."

Currently, we have three production studios with fifteen sound stages. That far exceeds what any other state has to offer with the giant exception of California, of course; which explains why we're already being called the "Hollywood of the East."

Of the top ten films at the box office last month, three were "Made in North Carolina."

There is so much we can do to help build a brighter future for North Carolina's small businesses. They have two major problems. One is the vast and complicated array of permits that are required to do business—too much red-tape. Another is access to adequate capital.

Here's what we should do with the red-tape: give them a break, with a one-stop permit office that will develop a complete checklist with simplified directions of all the permits and licenses that are needed from all levels of government. Time is money in business, and anything we can do to save time for a business saves money. Now that makes good sense, doesn't it?

We are establishing such an office in a bipartisan effort to get businesses the information they need quickly, so they can accomplish what they want to do by knowing what is expected of them for compliance with our laws and regulations. We will offer the same special help to counties, to shorten the delays they have encountered with landfill permits. I am establishing an interagency task force to give them quicker, better coordinated, on-site decision-making.

Your own task force on Jobs and Economic Growth has identified a number of areas needing legislation to give us the weapons to win new victories in economic development, especially with existing businesses, and especially in rural areas. I ask you to join with me in a coordinated assault from both our branches of government. Some improvements we can do internally, and some will need your legislative approval. In many ways, the two plans are complementary. That's good.

Your proposal for a Rural Economic Development Corporation deserves support as an excellent mechanism for giving long-term direction and stimulation for investment in those small cities that can serve as growth centers in rural areas. It avoids setting up an uncoordinated rival that might undermine the main strength of our Commerce Department, and confuse prospective investors as to who negotiates for North Carolina.

Even in the single, solitary area where we have found some disagreement, I believe we can agree on the goal, and work out our differences. It is not disputed that while many Venture Capital Funds are actively investing in home-grown businesses there is considerable need for early seed money. The sticking point has to do with the means of solving this need.

My concern is with the notion of creating a State-funded authority for doling out the money and for choosing the winners who would receive the capital boost. Such a mechanism would always be suspected of political favoritism, and would be unable to function without a typical, governmental overlay of formulas and extraneous, unbusinesslike factors. It would probably find itself unable to replenish its capital from profits, relying instead on never-ending doses of tax dollars. There is a better way: it's called "free enterprise."

Drawing on the expertise of North Carolina investment specialists, we have developed no less than six new financing mechanisms to help increase the availability of both capital and credit for new businesses and expansions, with special emphasis on small business ventures, and with special attention to rural North Carolina. I invite you to work with me to make these innovative ideas into a productive reality:

1. To increase the availability of fixed-rate, long-term financing for small business;

2. A secondary market for small business loans under various SBA loan guarantees;
3. To make industrial revenue bonds more widely accessible to small businesses, especially in rural counties that previously had been left out;
4. To authorize (but not require) State trust funds to be able to invest in private, investment-quality venture capital funds;
5. To create a private, early-venture-capital fund, for seed capital in North Carolina, which might include tax credits or similar incentives for investors; and
6. A State-wide "504" Certified Development Corporation to act as loan originator and facilitator in those forty-eight counties that now lack those services.

Farming
No sector of our economy has had to endure a heavier burden longer than our small family farms. The number of farms has been steadily declining for over twenty years, so it is not a recent phenomenon as some have tried to portray it for political purposes. Excessive credit accumulated in the seventies is now crushing our farmers, and pressure to undermine the Tobacco Stabilization Program has threatened the commodity that once was our number one source of farm income.

This has been a major focus of attention for me and my administration. Working with Agriculture Commissioner Graham, I have organized a task force of financial institutions to assist farmers in restructuring their credit along more affordable terms.

Another series of meetings at the Executive Mansion brought together farm organizations, cigarette manufacturers, bankers and most of our Congressional delegation. Together, we forged an agreement that produced the largest business deal in the history of North Carolina, to buy out the surplus of stockpiled tobacco, and eliminate the oppressive assessment that faced our farmers.

Together, during the long drought, we mobilized the resources of our State, public and private, for an orderly and fair distribution of donated hay, that had come to us in a magnificent, outpouring example of neighbors helping neighbors.

By my order, job training programs that had been designed for dislocated factory workers were extended for the first time to dislocated farm workers, as well as to our Vietnam veterans.

To strengthen the markets for our farm commodities, I am asking you now to establish three innovative Agriculture Parks, one in our Northeastern area, one in our Southeastern counties, and a third at the Western Farmers Market at Asheville. In addition to the more conventional tailgate retail operations, modern food processing services would be available to improve the marketability of our field crops.

I have commissioned a Task Force on Rural Economic Growth, headed by former Lieutenant Governor Jimmy Green, to work closely with your Rural Economic Development Corporation to develop these and other ideas to renew the agricultural vitality of rural North Carolina.

Transportation
Crucial to our "Blueprint for Economic Development" is transportation. Thanks to your adoption of my proposal for major strengthening of our highway construction program (as amended), our major funding commitment is now in place. As soon as the U.S. Congress gets its highway act together, we can begin to schedule long awaited improvements in every highway district.

More Roads to the Future
There are a couple of missing pieces that will be submitted for your approval. North Carolina can save time and a great deal of money with a permanent State construction fund, avoiding many of the costly federal requirements for federally matched projects.

At the same time, local governments need greater authority to identify, protect and/or acquire costly rights-of-way, so that developers can be kept from encroaching with buildings that we later would have to condemn and purchase at great cost.

These two bits of unfinished business would soon be able to save us fifty-to-sixty million dollars a year, which is already anticipated in our current Transportation Improvement Plan. The Senate passed both measures last year; and I ask you to join with me to complete our "Roads to the Future." It means a lot of dollars, and it makes a lot of sense!

Fair Roads Law

For years our mountain counties have suffered an unfair distribution of secondary road construction. Giving each county the same percentage of secondary road money as its percentage of total unpaved miles shortchanges those in the mountains where road-building costs are naturally much higher. They don't get much mileage out of that. I will ask you to join with me to adopt a fairer formula, a fair roads law, with a bonus provision so that no county will receive less than it gets this year.

Public Schools

Now, let's face up to our weakest record as a State: public schools. This is the largest and most important responsibility of State and local governments, and hardly any measurement has earned us satisfaction or pride.

Our students' performance on standardized tests is falling behind. The dropout rate is embarrassing and unacceptable. We have had great difficulty attracting enough talented teachers to our classrooms, and keeping them there. On this subject, without a doubt, North Carolina "needs improvement."

Our State must pull together to strengthen our support for public schools. Responsibility for this situation falls not on our schools, but on all of us together; and that means we, the people, must join together to revitalize North Carolina's schools. The Southern Growth Policies Board will report to you tomorrow on its efforts to invigorate schools in all southern states, in the belief we can make our schools competitive with any in America.

We have made a start. In 1984 and 1985, you made a monumental commitment to strengthening our basic State funding of local schools, through the first two years of the Basic Education Plan. Together, we rallied behind the 16 pilot programs for the career ladder concept, to develop for the first time a fair and effective system for evaluating and rewarding good teaching, to provide a way to give promotions to good teachers without their having to leave the classroom to offer "better pay for better teachers."

The budget which I am submitting to you clearly spells out a renewed commitment to public schools as the highest priority for our available resources.

For the twenty-four years before my administration, spanning five "education governors," the percentage of the General Fund budgeted for public schools declined every year except two, 1966 and 1984. Even with my tax cut proposals, school spending was increased even as a percentage of the General Fund, and if you will join with me to approve my budget for the next biennium, we will improve it five years, back-to-back.

It is fitting for you to show pleasure that my budget supports some of your best ideas. And why not? The same bipartisan spirit should earn your support for the bold initiatives in my budget.

Basic Education Plan

It begins with a giant step forward to add another $375 million to the Basic Education Program over the biennium. That will fully fund your goals for the fourth year of this eight year plan for boosting State financing of public schools by one-third.

Of vital importance, my proposal will keep us moving steadily forward to reduce classroom size, by hiring the extra teachers needed to lower the critical pupil - teacher ratio. It avoids the suggestion of skipping even one year, for that would break the stride of our momentum, and would miss the full advantage of this year's college graduating talent.

You will recall my earlier questions related only to the order of priorities within the Basic Education Plan. Its chief virtues have been (1) that it increase in a substantial way our State funding of public schools state-wide, and (2) its strong allocation of resources to remedy the conditions that contribute to so high a dropout rate. Yet, even if it were an ideal plan for the average condition of our schools, that would not make it ideal for the typical school, which is not average at all.
Local Control

Some will need to allocate even more of these resources to countering "dropitis," while others may have better than average dropout rates, and might need to allocate more resources for college preparatory work, if that fits their situation better. For such reasons, I propose that you join with me to provide a greater degree of local flexibility.

Local school boards need to be able to initiate a variance from the standard program, subject to the approval of the State Board of Education. In this way, a major advantage will be won for all our schools by strengthening their local control. It is well established that more effective schools result from a greater degree of local control and local determination of priorities. It just makes sense!

Career Ladder

At the same time, I am proposing that we strengthen our commitment to the Career Development Program, which holds the brightest promise for heightened excellence in education by raising the stature and appeal of classroom teaching as a profession and career.

The first year of the experimental pilot project did not meet all the goals we had set, but it demonstrated clearly a high degree of success in helping our teachers improve their skills and their effectiveness. Some schools had difficulty with the evaluation methods, particularly if they had little prior experience, but it appears that will be overcome with practice and familiarity, just as with any other academic undertaking.

I am proposing that we continue with the third and fourth year of the pilot projects in the sixteen school systems that are now in their second year. They have prepared their participating teachers for Career Level I, and a high percentage of them qualified, as expected. This year, these sixteen systems are moving forward to prepare for the next promotions to Career Level II, while at the same time making some necessary adjustments in Career I, based on last year's findings.

To validate the revised first year step of preparing for Career Level I, I propose that we add an additional twelve school systems to initiate the revised procedures from a fresh start. They will have the benefit of the research from the first sixteen, and will give us a much truer example of the adaptation of new schools to the revised program under more normal (that is non-experimental) conditions. They will bring a larger, more representative sample of new teachers starting afresh with the revised first year than would be likely among the new candidates available in the original sixteen pilot systems. Certainly, they should be allowed more flexibility and a lot less paperwork!

I am confident that we will have plenty of new school systems eager to become an early part of his bold, new concept offering promotions to outstanding teachers. Indeed, I am concerned that if we prolong the experimental steps without moving forward with the rest of North Carolina, great stress and pressures will build among those schools left behind and unable to offer the enhanced pay and promotions available in the pilot systems. Already, superintendents have told me that their non-pilot schools risk losing their best teachers to neighboring pilot systems, where they can qualify for promotions and better pay.

For that reason, and because I have full faith and confidence in the ability of our schools and teachers to generate the full potential of this program, I am proposing to begin in the second year of the biennium to move all the remaining 113 school systems in the first year of preparing their participating teachers to qualify for Career Level I. That would be the best way to provide another 5% better pay for the 95% or so who would qualify for this promotion. And it would surely break away from the status quo!

I propose that we go only just that far, withholding until the next budget cycle the decision whether to continue on to Levels II and III. The first sixteen pilots will have reached Career Level III, with their highest qualified teachers drawing salaries at that highest level in 1988-89. The twelve additional pilot systems will have completed the demonstration of their adaptation of the first year of preparation for Level I, giving us three full years of experience with that crucial first year of preparation, and I say let's move forward.
Failure to do so will only risk bogging down what ought to be the most dynamic improvement in our public schools since Governor Charles Brantley Aycock welded the State to public schools at the turn of the century.

Of course, there are some who would be timid, and wait, and wait, and wait. There are also some who have never wanted this career promotion concept to work, or even to be attempted, and who would argue for delay after delay, until we give up in despair.

I say: Let's go forward. Let's have the courage of our convictions and the total commitment to this major and well conceived reform to strengthen the most strategic educational resource for which we have responsibility: our classroom teachers.

Of all the good ideas that have been advanced for better schools, none has the tremendous prospect that this career ladder has for profoundly improving the output performance of our schools. Nothing will or can do more to raise the scholastic achievement of our elementary and secondary students than this commitment to reinvigorate the profession of classroom teacher.

Adoption of my budget will dramatically lock North Carolina into the most important boost in public support of public schools in eighty years. That will be our most lasting legacy. Even in a year of mild revenue growth, we will have shown that public schools are clearly our first priority. I call on you to join with me to make it so.

Building Schools

There is another monumental responsibility facing us and our schools. We are more than a billion dollars behind in school buildings all across North Carolina. For many years, we have depended upon County governments, with their traditionally limited tax base, to build the schools in our State. Some have done well, with modern facilities to which they can point with pride. Many other counties, however, have lacked the resources to meet their construction needs.

I ask you to join with me to authorize and promote a school bond issue, on the order of $1.5 billion, the amount to be based on a current survey of county commissions and their school boards. Proceeds from the sale of these bonds would be available to loan to counties at the State's most favorable interest rate, to share with them the advantage of our triple-A bond rating. Counties would pay back to the State over a 20-year period, using the proceeds from their current sales tax already allocated to public schools. In this way, the half-cent sales tax already earmarked for schools or for school debt service could finance as much as $1.5 billion.

This plan has strong, widespread support, including the State Associations of School Boards and of County Commissioners, and notably the State Treasurer and Superintendent, both of whom made great contributions to this bold and innovative proposal.

The key to it is the decision you made in recent years to allocate the proceeds from the local option sales tax on a per capita basis, thus providing each county the same revenue base per pupil. You should take credit for that feature.

It's your call whether to require a separate, local referendum, or you may want to authorize a local vote simultaneously with the state-wide issue. State Treasurer Boyles and I believe it's not required by the Constitution, and therefore don't propose it. The main thing is not to let that consideration be an excuse for the status quo.

This plan will get the job done; and it is affordable. It preserves the historic responsibility of counties for school buildings; yet it assists them in keeping this responsibility affordable. It means that we will be able to build now the schools that we need now, including those required for the expanded programs under the Basic Education Plan. It will be fiscally sound, because we will not risk paying the next future round of inflation, and won't have to wait so long to upgrade our communities, and can pay for the new schools as we go and use them.

It just makes such good sense, that I invite you and urge you every one to join with me to present to the people for their approval this timely plan to modernize our school buildings at the same time that we modernize the programs and strengthen the teaching that will be offered in them. If we are going to upgrade our educational system to prepare North Carolina for its future, then let us not undercut ourselves. Let us not defeat our own best efforts.
If you will join with me, together we can assure our people of the best system of public education in America, and assure that every community will have the school facilities to match those programs and to be worthy of those teachers. Then, every county will point with pride.

Governance

This Session is also the critical window of opportunity for making the State Superintendent appointive. The reason for doing this is to improve the line of responsibility and accountability. For that reason, if the appointive power is to be given to the State Board of Education, I urge you not to dilute that accountability by eroding the responsibility of the Governor to appoint the Board.

Four Pillars

Here, then, is my proposal for building four strong pillars under education. With your help, it can be done.

Prisons

Last year, I recommended to you a major expansion of our prison capacity, coupled with a variety of alternative punishments, such as intensively supervised probation and parole, to reduce the prison population. I wish to commend the legislative leadership for offering to work together with me in a bipartisan front to meet this emergency.

We have encountered some typical governmental delays, just as in the previous administration, and yet our Corrections Department has developed a number of steps that can help to expedite the facilities we need: metal or concrete buildings that are quicker and cheaper to build are suitable in many applications, and for conventional construction we propose to make repetitious use of a new design that has helped us move swiftly and "under budget" in meeting the South Piedmont consent decree.

We are now ready to move forward on those, and have recruited an experienced and professional contractor to "ride herd" on these projects, so that we will have the benefit of his business skills in driving construction projects to prompt completion.

Capital Improvements

North Carolina must meet other responsibilities. I am proposing major improvements for our two seaports, construction of a new Judicial Center and a Revenue Building, additional improvements at our college campuses, and $120 million in State and Federal money for a new fund to provide low-interest loans to local governments for water, sewer, and solid waste facilities. Capital improvements of $415 million can be financed primarily through appropriations, and partly ($77.5 million of it) through the "Two-thirds Bond" authority.

Environment

Protection of our fragile water resources is among the most vital challenges facing us. Consequently, I am asking for more environmental specialists, to handle the growing backlog of wastewater discharge permits; to monitor and evaluate groundwater quality; to reclassify coastal waters that are unsuited for shellfishing; and to locate leaking, underground storage tanks to be cleaned up. I am also requesting additional funding to improve our State Parks.

Pay Increase

Even in a tight budget year, we must not neglect to make some progress in improving pay for State employees. Based on January revenue estimates, I have shown that money is available, after major program improvements, to provide a four-and-a-half percent increase in compensation for school and State employees. Part of this should be devoted to across-the-board scale increase, to offset inflation, and part should be used for a round of performance increments.

Later on, if revised revenue estimates permit, you may find that an additional increment could be made available, in which case you will find that I would welcome you to outbid me again. Our Office of State Personnel has prepared a new Pay Plan for your consideration, which will greatly improve the equity and the job security of our State workers.

Veto

The constitutional amendment to provide for the veto was quickly buried in the last Session, despite the strong popular support for this historic measure. This issue deserves full debate, and should be submitted to a referendum.

North Carolina should not continue to be the only State in America where the people have never been allowed to vote on whether to give their Governor the veto. How's that for status quo?

Non-Partisan Judicial Election

There is also strong sentiment and logic favoring non-partisan election of judges. Let me suggest a useful distinction between trial judges and appellate judges that might help move this issue forward. Trial judges, those before whom you or I might stand in the courtroom, should be elected in their own districts in a non-partisan election, for both District Court and Superior Court judges. The time is ripe to act on that, and all but the most partisan among us should see the virtue of that reform.

For the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, I propose that you authorize the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the House of Representatives to join with me in appointing a bipartisan "Blue Ribbon Committee" of lawyers and non-lawyers to devise a plan for non-partisan election and meritorious selection. Judges on these Appellate Courts are not as well known in the local communities, and voters have so little to go on in the voting booth. This approach makes sense, and might help break the logjam.

Currently, partisan judicial elections are required by statute, but in truth hardly anyone wants them to be partisan. The people of North Carolina are much more interested, I believe, in having qualified, competent judges sitting on the bench, no matter what their political affiliation. There's a time to study and a time to act. This way, we could study one level while we act on the other before the Federal Courts decide it for us.

 Abortions **

In 1985, you approved some restrictions on State funding of elective abortions. Again, I will recommend that we discontinue paying for abortions where the pregnancy is not associated with a felony or a risk of death or serious physical injury to the mother.

 Workfare **

I am proposing additional increases in the "Workfare" Program, which assists families in breaking out of the cycle of poverty.

 Legislative Reforms **

Your leaders are to be commended for proposing reforms in the legislative process. In a spirit of harmony, I will simply say that anything you can do to open up the process—so that the public, the press, even the loyal opposition can examine legislation before it is voted on—will strike a blow for good government.

 Unifying Themes **

There are other such topics on which there may be dissension, and which ultimately will yield to majority wisdom. I will not parade them all out this evening. It has been my intention here mainly to emphasize those subjects on which there is a great potential for bipartisan agreement.
Those unifying themes need our strong support, and will take us further along on our journey toward the vision we share for North Carolina. North Carolina’s future depends upon us, and upon our ability to overcome our differences and unite our efforts to build the brightest future for our people.

"Year of the Reader"

Each year, I have directed my administration to devote special emphasis to one unifying theme for the year. The "Year of the Child" in 1985 built upon a number of children’s issues, including the Missing Children’s Center, culminating in the hearings and report of the Governor’s Commission on Child Victimization, chaired by our First Lady, and the creation of the North Carolina Fund for Children and Families.

The "Year of the Family," 1986, keyed many departmental programs to ways to strengthen the family as a self-supportive unit. Special attention was directed at innovations for breaking the cycle of poverty.

What special direction should we set for 1987? I propose that together we make this the "Year of the Reader," and pledge our special emphasis to the rescue of so many of our citizens from the anemia of functional illiteracy. Our Community Colleges have pioneered a strong remedial reading program offered in Adult Basic Education, yet it reaches no more than 6% of the potential population.

The State Library is working with the Department of Corrections to develop a remedial reading program for women inmates, especially those with children. Called "MotherRead," it will allow them to visit with and read to their children on weekends outside the prison, and we believe this will present a powerful motivation for learning to read.

At the same time, it is troubling that our schools are turning out a fresh crop of dropouts every year, to replenish the supply of illiterates faster than we can save them. Many of our school systems have made a special effort to reduce their dropout rates, some with notable success, such as Weldon, Pender, Currituck, Hertford, Pamlico, Mooresville, and Granville. Their results need to be emulated all across North Carolina. Already, sixty Literacy Councils have been organized locally.

Burlington Mills has a reading program for employees and their children. Charlotte businesses helped pioneer the exciting “Cities in Schools” program which other business leaders are planning to extend to Rocky Mount and two or three other cities.

One key to this will be how well we involve the strength of the people, by calling on them for help as tutors, in that same volunteer spirit that has made North Carolina great.

To pull all this together in a coordinated assault on illiteracy, I will ask the heads of these and other pertinent agencies and groups to serve on a new North Carolina Literacy Council, and I have asked former UNC President “Bill” Friday to serve as its first chairman. We must mount a sustained, nonpartisan effort if we are to succeed.

Preparation for our challenging and bright future depends upon a population of workers who are trained and trainable; who can read; who can read to learn because they have learned to read. What a tremendous challenge for North Carolina! Surely, you remember the national thrill that responded to President Kennedy’s exciting call to greatness when he said, “We are going to the moon!” It was an enormously difficult task, but America did it. A courageous few Americans actually made it: “One giant step” for a precious few of us.

Would it not be a reachable and exciting goal for us to say: “We are going to read!” Could we make that simple challenge into a mighty and dedicated undertaking, but one which would seek to take all of our people along on the mission—to become readers?

If we fail, North Carolina will suffer more generations of inadequately prepared workers. And yet, if we succeed, it would truly be one giant step for a million of us. It is one of the most worthy objectives we could set for our State. I ask you to join with me to direct our minds and energies to solving this problem. Together, we can chart our course, and boldly proclaim on behalf of everyone in this one United State: “We are going to Read—all of us! We are going to learn to read!”

Thank you. And generations yet to come will thank you.
"North Carolina Is My Home"

In one of the most remarkable collaborative contributions to our contemporary culture, two brilliant North Carolina native sons, Charles Kuralt and Loonis McGlohon, have composed a splendid musical tribute entitled, "North Carolina Is My Home!" In its lyrics and in its melodies and rhythms, it captures the heritage and the natural splendor of this magnificent land of ours, its waters, its mountains, its cities and towns; and most of all, its people.

With a reverence for North Carolina, they have distilled the essence of a State "where the weak grow strong, and the strong grown great." They have used their considerable talents so effectively to remind us of who we are, and where we have come from. Along with a humorous conterpoint about how we named some of our places, they have reminded us, too, of how we named our noblest aspirations with a pledge to integrity in our State's Motto: Esse Quam Videri, "To be rather than to seem."

North Carolina is our home. We are truly blessed with all that North Carolina has to offer. A large part of that is a God-given natural resource—ours to enjoy and protect. A good part of it can be said to be a God-given human resource. That, too, is ours to enjoy, but also ours to build for future generations. We must make the most of our time and opportunities here. We must join together as representatives of this "one united state" to build that home.

There will always be issues and causes that divide us. There will be rivalries and the usual kinds of suspicions that one team has for another. There is, surely then, a time for partisanship, as when we compete for electoral trust and favor. That's healthy. Yet, there is just as surely a time for bipartisanship, when we must set aside partisanship to unite for the good of all of North Carolina.

Such a time is now; and the goals and objectives which I have addressed with you this evening are surely the issues around which we ought to unite. Education, transportation and vocation: schools for the future, roads to the future, and jobs of the future. Join with me, then, and let us build together those schools, those highways, those jobs, and that future—for what must become increasingly: one truly united State.

REMARKS BY SENATOR KENNETH C. ROYALL, JR.
DEPUTY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Mr. President and fellow members of the Senate:

Thank you very much.

Gratitude most deeply felt is hardest to express. I am highly honored and very appreciative.

Members of the North Carolina Senate represent the type of solid citizens that we must have in order to advance the interest of our State and our Nation.

Your good will and support have played a vital part in whatever success I have achieved up to now. This expression of friendship will inspire me to better my service and widen my understanding of your wishes and desires.

I look forward to working with Lieutenant Governor Jordan and President Pro Tempore Harrington and with each of you in promoting the best interest of our State and its people.

Please accept my warmest personal thanks for this fine honor.
REMARKS BY HILL CARROW
PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF
NORTH CAROLINA AMATEUR SPORTS

Lieutenant Governor Jordan, Senators Staton and Royall, Members of the North Carolina Senate.

Today marks less than fifty days to go to the first day of competition in U. S. Olympic Festival '87 and already this legislative body has been tremendously helpful towards the success of the Festival. We have been able to raise probably 1.6 million dollars to meet the matching grant from this Body and we have added to that an additional $600,000. We are also fortunate to be able to reduce our operational expenses thanks to the assistance of the prison laundry services. The Torch, which Dr. Walker is about to present, is a token of appreciation which the 7,000 volunteers and staff have and the thousands of media, spectators, and athletes will have, for your outstanding support. Let the flame symbolize your belief in the future of North Carolina as represented by your great investment in U. S. Olympic Festival '87.

REMARKS BY DR. LEROY WALKER OF DURHAM
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF NORTH CAROLINA
AMATEUR SPORTS

Lieutenant Governor Jordan, and Members of the Senate.

As Hill indicated, those of us on the Board of Directors of the Festival are indeed appreciative of the support given by the General Assembly. In all of the years that we’ve attempted to bring outstanding events to our State, beginning in 1971 with the first Pan-African Meet, the purpose has been to bring people to our great State and to showcase it and even to have an economic impact. It is also very clear to us that we have to have the support of all the facets of the State and even more so for the Olympic Festival, as Hill just indicated, because we’ll have over 300,000 people coming to our beautiful State and 2,500 athletes, and 1,500 media people. So even more so, it was important to have the support of all facets and when it was clearly in evidence by the support of the General Assembly, I think it set the tone for the kind of support that was imminent from business and industry and all of our other citizens.

The Torch that I hold is symbolic of the flame that is run from Mount Olympus to the awarded city for the Olympic Games. It is also symbolic of the Torch that is run from Pikes Peak for the Olympic Festival to our State in July. And so, in order to have a material presence of our great appreciation, it is my pleasure, Lieutenant Governor, to present this symbol of the Olympic Festival to you in deep appreciation of the Board of Directors of North Carolina Amateur Sports and all of those who are connected with it, and we hope that you will find some place in this august house to display it as a symbol of our thanks.

REMARKS BY LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR JORDAN
ACCEPTING PRESENTATION
UNITED STATES OLYMPIC FESTIVAL

Thank you Dr. Walker. You know, Dr. Walker and Mr. Carrow, we are all very proud of our State, but I think you make us even prouder with what you’re doing and what you have done to bring this together. It’s been an untiring effort on their part to make this a success.

And, yes, on behalf of the Members of the Senate, we do accept this with pride, but also note that you talked about 7,000 volunteers that will be working with you for the Summer Olympics, and we know that that is just typical of the kind of things that go on in North Carolina; and I take pleasure in accepting this for the Members of the Senate and will turn it over to the Legislative Services under our President Pro Tem and ask them to find an appropriate place so that this can be shown with pride.

REMARKS BY SENATOR JAMES F. RICHARDSON
NORTH CAROLINA SENIOR GAMES

Mr. President, and members of the Senate, as you know the North Carolina Senior Games will be held in Raleigh, in October of 1987.

Many counties held local Senior Games, as we did in Mecklenburg County. One of the gentlemen from the Mecklenburg delegation, Senator Jim McDuffie, not only participated, but won not one, not two, not three, but six medals—four gold and two silver. The gold medals were won in golf, basketball, shot-put, and the football throw. The silver in the softball and discus-throw.

Will Senator McDuffie please stand and accept these medals being presented by Senator Hipps. Please join me in commending Senator McDuffie.

Thank you, and remember to support the North Carolina Senior Games.

Senator Kenneth C. Royall, Jr.
Chairman, Select Committee
University Board of Governors
Room 300 LOB
Raleigh, North Carolina 27611

RE: University Board of Governors Nominating Committee

Dear Senator Royall:

I would like to withdraw my name as a nominee to the minority political position on the University Board of Governors.

Thanking you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

S/George W. Little

Special Order, University Board of Governors election.

Let me have the attention of the Members of the Senate. Listen closely because it might cost you your vote. Next order of business is the election of four members of the Board of Governors of the University of North Carolina. Under the Statute it is the duty of the Senate this year to elect to the Board, one Republican, and three at-large members all for four-year terms that began yesterday. You will receive ballots on which all the persons who have been nominated by the Joint Session in each of the two categories will be listed. I understand that all of the persons whose names appear on your ballot have consented to run. Is that correct Senator Royall?

The rules under which votes will be cast and counted and results declared is set out in Senate Resolution 1554 and are as follows:

No nomination will be received from the floor.

In order to be chosen, a nominee must receive the votes of a majority of all the members present and voting for his category.

Each member present and voting shall vote for as many nominees as there are positions to be filled in each category and any ballot not so marked shall be deemed void as to that category.

When a member for a category containing a single position is to be chosen and no nominee receives a majority of the votes cast for all the nominees in that category, a run-off shall be conducted between the person receiving the highest and the person receiving the second highest numbers of votes cast.

When fewer than three nominees in the four-year at-large category receive the votes of a majority of all the members present and voting for the positions in that category a run-off to fill the open position or positions shall be conducted among the nominees receiving the highest number of votes cast and the number of nominees eligible to be voted on in the run-off shall be twice the number of positions to be filled. For example, if you only elect, if only one person gets the majority of the votes in the at-large position and you have two positions vacant then the four remaining top vote-getters will run-off for the two seats.

When more than three nominees in the four-year at-large category receive the votes of a majority of all the members present and voting for positions in that category then the three nominees receiving the highest number of votes shall be deemed to have been chosen. That means that if you have in the category where you have six nominees, if four people all receive a majority only the top three will be the winners without a run-off, even though a fourth person may have received more than a majority.

The Pages—Senator Royall. Senator Royall is recognized.

(Senator Royall responds as follows)

Mr. President, Senator Walker and Senator Harrington and I will deliver the ballots. I'd like to call to the attention—on the ballots it says, please circle the candidates of your choice. So if you would please follow that instruction on the ballot and then of course it tells you down at the bottom, you must sign the ballot. If there are any questions I'll be happy to answer them.

Lt. Governor Jordan:

Are there any questions before the ballots are distributed. If not Senators Royall, Walker and Harrington will distribute the ballots.
The Senators will now mark their ballots for the following:

One person in a Minority Party Category for a four-year term and three persons in the At-large Category for four-year terms. Again you are reminded that under the Senate Resolution you must vote for as many candidates as there are places to be filled in each category, otherwise your vote will not be counted for that category. You must also sign your ballot, otherwise it will not be counted. If your signature is illegible, you should print your name so we will know who you are, present party excluded.

Does anyone not have a ballot? Does anyone have two ballots?

The Chairman of the Senate Committee along with Senator Walker and Senator Harrington will canvass the vote — collect the ballots, canvass the vote, and report the results. Once the ballots are counted and results are reported to the Chair, the ballots will then be deposited with the Principal Clerk and made available for public inspection.

REMARKS OF SENATOR JAMES F. RICHARDSON
TO THE PARTICIPATION OF SENATOR JAMES MCDUFFIE IN THE FIRST NATIONAL SENIOR OLYMPICS

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I rise again to commend a Member of this Chamber for achievement. Approximately eighty-five North Carolina citizens were in St. Louis, Missouri, from last Saturday until today competing with twenty-five hundred others in the First National Senior Olympics. Groups start at fifty-five years old. State qualifiers were invited to St. Louis to compete against thirty-five states and Puerto Rico. Senator Jim McDuffie, as I’ve told you before, my hero, has qualified in two events, golf and bowling. The two-day tournament was held at the Belvedere Country Club where the 1965 U.S. Open Professional Tournament was won by Gary Player with a one-over-par score. Out of thirty competitors, Senator McDuffie was in sixth place after the first round with a score of 83. After the second round of 82, he was tied for third with two other players. On the first extra hole, Senator McDuffie made a twenty foot putt to win the Bronze Medal.

In bowling, his 590, three-game set average of 196, he led the tournament up until Wednesday. The final results are now in. Our Senator finished second, winning the Silver Medal. Our Senator qualified for two events and won medals in both against competition from all over the country. If he could make legislation like he plays sports, he’d be a "hell’ova" Senator even if he can’t walk very well. Thank you, Mr. President.

REMARKS BY LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR ROBERT B. JORDAN III

I want to thank all of the people who have been involved in this particular Session of the Senate. It has been a long one. I said on the opening day of the Session I welcome you to the 1987 Session of the Legislature. I hope, right now, I am welcoming you to the end of the Session!

I want to thank the Senate Principal Clerk and her staff. I want to thank Pat and all those who have been involved with the pages, Gerda and her staff, the fiscal research group, the bill drafting section, and the general research section, because everyone has worked hard. We have had some real moments where we have been crowded and had more to do than we could do but I think overall it has been a good Session and if I have anything that bothers me about the Session is that it lasted longer than we would have hoped for it to.
As we think, have me, for our going certainly been more open and you have responded to that and both Parties, I think, have indicated that they are pleased with what has happened.

The exciting thing, I guess, that has happened about the Session and maybe that is culminated in some remarks made the other day by Jay Robinson. Jay told me, "I think that the Session of 1987 is one of the best," and then he qualified it. He said, "I think that it is probably the best session that education has ever had in North Carolina." And that’s because of all of you, because of the work you have done.

As we opened the Session, I asked you to be sure that we not be happy with things the status quo — that we not leave things as they are. That we needed to be sure that we controlled our own destiny rather than having people from the outside and that recalls for me, I guess, the time during the Session when all of a sudden we saw Burlington Industries being attacked. And while we didn’t plan to do those kinds of things this Session, those of you here — some taking the leadership roles saw to it that we had in this Session legislation enacted — while it didn’t totally protect Burlington, you did enact the toughest legislation in America for preventing hostile takeovers. And we are going to look at that in between Sessions and, hopefully, be sure we didn’t do the wrong thing so that we can tune it up if we need to tune that up. But you did respond.

You dealt with a lot of issues. The opening day of the Session, I asked you to look at the Rural Economic Development Corporation, and look at the growth from within policy. The Governor’s Blueprint and the Job and Economic Growth Commission came forth with a lot of suggestions. I put forth a lot of those from the Job and Economic Growth Commission before you. I asked you to look at the Rural Economic Development Corporation, at tax incentives and growth opportunity counties, at giving cities and towns across the State the opportunity to get more involved in economic development.

You passed I think every one of those. It has just been amazing as to what we have been able to accomplish.

In areas of education, we talked about funding the Basic Education Plan to be sure we continue that. I want to congratulate you because you now have funded the first four years of the, I think, one of the best programs in America for funding basic education. You are half-way through that eight-year program. Two hundred and sixty-some millions dollars in this year’s budget for that.

You continued the Career Ladder Plan; you added to that the lead teacher pilots which I hope will strengthen the Career Ladder Plan. On top of that I asked you to look at increasing our ability to entice bright young students to go into education. You funded the Teaching Fellows Plan. The Teachers Preparation Program has also been begun and that’s happened because of strong leadership from those of you in education and support of you all across the Senate.

You have done some other things that I think are very critical. You have reached out and come up with what I think is the best rewrite we have had in years, certainly since I have been in the Legislature, in the worker’s compensation laws. Those weren’t changes that hurt business. Those weren’t changes that necessarily hurt the individuals that much but those were just changes of fairness. It was the kind of thing that should have happened to those laws to update them, to bring them, I guess, into tune with the things we should be doing here today.

You have formed the North Carolina Capital Corporation which is going to give the banks in this State the opportunity to see that they can take venture capital and get it out to the people who need it. The innovative leaders, innovative managers who can start new businesses.
Just today, we have signed into law or will sign into law the Venture Capital Fund. You just passed that a few minutes ago in the Senate, to provide tax incentive to those people who will furnish money for the North Carolina Capital Corporation.

You have passed, and which I hope we still have a chance to get out of the Senate the incentive bill to form -- the ethanol incentive bill, to try to get those industries to start to use some of the crops. It has not come back from the House at this point in time.

You have done some things for the environment. I asked you on opening day to pass the phosphate detergent ban. Not an easy thing to pass -- didn't solve all the problems—but you took the first step in making those things happen here in this Legislature that will help see that we continue to have clean water in North Carolina. You passed the Clean Water Loan and Grant Fund the other day in the appropriations bill.

You passed the orphan dump bill, the toxic waste bill. And I could go on and on.

I just want to tell you all that to sit here now and to go back and look at what we started off to do in the beginning of the Session and to look at what you have done in salaries, you have increased teachers salaries thirty-seven percent in the last four years. This year, you were only able to do five percent but you put forty-seven million dollars to make the health insurance plan—keep it whole.

You have just done so many things, you probably provided more money per capita in one year than I can ever remember for the University System—sixty-some million dollars. Over a hundred million dollars already sent out to the University System for capital construction. You have just done the things and made the investments that is necessary to see that North Carolina keeps moving forward.

Yesterday at lunch I spoke to the Poultry Federation. I talked to them about the things that you have done. At the end the President of the Poultry Federation didn't talk much about eggs and chickens and turkeys and stuff. He said, "You know what we are proud of here is that the Legislature is making those investments in education. Because education and business environment are the kind of things that really make us be able to succeed here in North Carolina."

You have recognized that there are two North Carolinias—we talked about the urban area going one way and the rural area going another, and the urban members of this Senate supported the Rural Economic Development Corporation in growth opportunity counties and I congratulate you for it. Because it is a State of the Whole — this is not a State of two separate entities.

Urban North Carolina got some advantages this year, but we have a lot of work to do. Urban North Carolina is going to continue to have to tell the story in this Legislature that it has specific problems that if the Legislature itself is not going to deal with it then we have to give them the tools to deal with it.

But it has just been one heck of a wonderful Session of the Legislature. I am proud of it; I think you should be proud of it. I thank everybody who had anything to do with it and congratulations to you all! Thank you.

THE STATE OF WISCONSIN

(Seal of the State)

1987 Assembly Joint Resolution 27

ENROLLED JOINT RESOLUTION

Ratifying an amendment to the constitution of the United States pertaining to the effective date for congressional pay changes.

Whereas, the congress of the United States has submitted to the several states, by action of the house of representatives on September 24, 1789, and by action of the United States senate on September 15, 1789, a proposed amendment to the constitution of the United States pertaining to the effective date for congressional pay changes, which amendment reads as follows:

No law varying the compensation for the services of the Senators and Representatives shall take effect, until an election of Representatives shall have intervened.

Whereas, while the congress of the United States has the power to impose reasonable time limits for the ratification of proposed amendments to the constitution of the United States, and has done so for many of the amendments submitted to the states in recent decades, the congress did not impose any time limit whatsoever on the ratification of the congressional pay change amendment; and

Whereas, the congressional pay change amendment was validly ratified by the state of Vermont on November 3, 1791, even though Vermont had not been one of the original 13 states to which the proposed amendment had been submitted, and had not yet achieved statehood when the amendment was submitted; and

Whereas, by the act of congress dated May 29, 1848 (9 U.S. Stats., Ch. L, pp. 233–235), "for the Admission of the State of Wisconsin into the Union", this state was..."admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States, in all respects whatever"...; and

Whereas, almost 26 years following the admission of the state of Wisconsin into the union the state of Ohio, on May 6, 1873, became the 7th state to ratify the congressional pay change amendment. A century later, on March 6, 1978, Wyoming submitted the 8th ratification. Maine ratified on April 27, 1983; Colorado on April 22, 1984. Five states ratified the amendment in 1985: South Dakota in February; New Hampshire on March 7; Arizona on April 3; Tennessee on May 28 and Oklahoma on July 10. Three more ratifications — bringing the total number to 18 — were received in February 1986: New Mexico on the 14th; Indiana on the 24th; and Utah on the 25th; and

Whereas, the people of the sovereign state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, have studied said proposed addition to the constitution of the United States and it is their consensus that the federal government, three-fourths of the states concurring, be directed to thus alter the constitution of the United States; now, therefore, be it
Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the said proposed congressional pay change amendment to the constitution of the United States is hereby ratified by the legislature of the state of Wisconsin; and, be it further

Resolved, That a duly attested copy of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the president and secretary of the senate of the United States, to the speaker and clerk of the house of representatives of the United States, to the office of the federal register, to the library of congress, to each member of the congressional delegation from this state, to the national conference of state legislatures, to the council of state governments, and to the presiding officer of each house of each state legislature in the United States, attesting the adoption of this joint resolution by the 1987 legislature of the state of Wisconsin.

NEVADA LEGISLATURE

(Transmitted by the Honorable Janice L. Thomas, Secretary of the Senate, on May 11, 1987.)

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 27—Senators Hickey, Beyer, Coffin, Gibson, Horn, Jacobsen, Joerg, Jones, Malone, Mello, Neal, O'Connell, O'Donnell, Raggio, Rawson, Redelsperger, Rhoads, Shaffer, Townsend, Vergiels and Wagner

FILE NUMBER 77

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION—Declaring August 13, 1987, as Senior Citizens' Day in Nevada.

WHEREAS, it is with special affection that the Legislature of the State of Nevada recognizes its older residents; and
WHEREAS, it is especially appropriate that we analyze the needs of elderly Nevadans because for many, daily living on fixed incomes has become particularly burdensome; and
WHEREAS, the elderly have contributed to this state, to our towns and cities, and to our families for years, yet they are very often the most neglected and ignored group of persons living today; now, therefore, be it
RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE ASSEMBLY CONCURRING, That the Nevada Legislature is proud to declare August 13, 1987, as Senior Citizens' Day in the State of Nevada; and be it further
RESOLVED, That the Legislature urges friends or relatives of elderly persons to do something special for these aging persons to show them appreciation and love while the opportunity exists; and be it further
RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be prepared and transmitted forthwith by the Secretary of the Senate to every Legislature in the United States; and be it further RESOLVED, That Legislatures across America are urged to join this body in recognition of senior citizens.
