* Deceased 4/23/02
 Appointed 6/10/02
The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment as provided by Resolution 2001-36, and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Almighty God, as we open the 2002 Short Session of the Legislature, we do so keenly aware of the empty seat Number 8, left that way by the untimely death of Senator Luther Jordan.

"We hold in honor not only our memory of Senator Jordan as a colleague and friend, but also for the causes he championed here with much passion and conviction.

"Now for the Senators and staff assembled here today ready to serve, if they ever needed your wisdom and guidance, it is now as they confront so many challenges to the sound health of our State. They were elected for this reason and if one believes in providence, they were born for such a moment.

"May their work be characterized by enthusiasm and guided by a clear conscience that fears no person or obstacle.

"Let the words of the Psalmist be written on their minds and hearts each day: 'We lift our eyes to the hills, but from where will our help come? Our help will come from you, O God. Amen.'"

June 4, 2002
The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"During the forty years the Israelites found themselves wandering around in the desert, free from their captivity in Egypt yet unable to occupy the promised land, you were there even when they didn't know it or worse thought you had deserted them.

"Scripture says you even went in front of them three days journey guiding those people with a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night.

"There's a certain lostness in all of us, whether here on the Senate floor or in our personal lives, that finds great hope in the imagery that you are three days ahead of us. Lead on, O King, eternal. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Horton and Senator Weinstein.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of yesterday, Tuesday, June 4, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The President of the Senate extends courtesies of the floor to Dr. Pedro Roca from Jacksonville, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day.

PRIVILEGES OF THE FLOOR

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the President extends the privileges of the floor to Kimberly P. Johnson from Cameron, North Carolina, Author and representative from the Smart Start Program.

With unanimous consent, upon motion of Senator Ballance, the remarks of Kimberly P. Johnson are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

"Sometimes I wonder what I'll be one day when I grow up. Perhaps I'll be a racecar champ and win a fancy cup. Maybe I'll be a baseball star and pitch with all my might, or when I get a turn at bat, I'll knock balls out of sight. Maybe I'll be an astronaut and walk across the moon, or learn to play an instrument and write a catchy tune. I think sometimes I'd really like to be a science teacher, to do some fun experiments and study every creature. Maybe I'll be a writer and gather all the news. I can follow all my dreams if that is what I choose. All I ask of you is to just believe in me and I will do great big things, just watch and you will see. Thank you.

"Honorable Senators of North Carolina, I am so honored to be here. It is a wonderful pleasure and privilege for me to stand before you. I am Kimberly P. Johnson and I am here because I have a passion for learning. I have a passion for education and I know that you have a passion for what you are doing. We have to make sure that our young children, that our early learners get every opportunity that they have to succeed. I grew up in Shelby, North Carolina. Does anybody know where Shelby is? I grew up in Shelby, North Carolina and I lived with my grandparents. It was not until middle school that I..." learned my grandfather was illiterate. He could not read or write, but he had a great passion for education. He wanted his children and his grandchildren to get the education that he never had the opportunity to receive. It wasn't because he didn't know how important it was, but during that time he had to stop going to school to help take care of the family and work. But everyday he would come home at the end of a long workday and he would say to his grandchildren, 'Did you get your book work done? Is that book work done?' And unless that book work was done, we couldn't go outside and unfortunately there are too many children today that don't have anyone who is concerned about them getting their book work done. So it is our mission, it has to be our passion, to make sure that programs that provide children with every opportunity that they have to succeed stay in place. I am here because I love what I do and so rarely in life do you find your mission and your passion in life. I know that children are great, educated people, they are great learners. If we start right now, we know that children can take us to great, great highs and bring us to great lows in the same breath and that's what makes them so amazing. I will show you what I mean."

"Not too long ago, I did a presentation for pre-schoolers and I tried to get them to make the connection between the title of the book and the author. I had a group of pre-schoolers and it was during the time when all the pollen was out and I couldn't breathe and I was sniffing and all kinds of wonderful things. I told the children, I said, 'The Adventures of the Itty Bitty Bunny by Kimberly P. Johnson, Kimberly P. Johnson that's me, that's my name, I wrote the book.' I am trying to get the children to make the connection and I said to them, I said 'If you have any questions, hold your questions until the end of the reading and I will answer any questions you have.' No sooner than I closed my mouth this little boy raised his hand and I said, 'Ok I am just going to keep reading the story and he will realize that I am going to answer the question after.' So he sat there with his arm up, he was determined. And then slowly the arm went down and I thought, Ok this is it, I can finish my story and then he did this...so I knew that he was determined to get his question out. So, I said, 'Yes sir, do you have question for me?' and he said, and this is why you love children, and he said 'Yes, Kimberly P. Johnson, do you need to go blow your nose?'

"Children are amazing and we have to do everything we can to keep them focused on the future. As a young child I was able to be a part of the Head Start Program. It allowed my grandparents the opportunity to know that those programs were out there and they could get me involved. So I know that these programs really work for early learners and we have to do everything that we can. I know that right now you are under a great deal of pressure, to say the least, to make decisions and decide where everything goes and how everything is balanced out. But you guys don't forget, don't ever forget that you are here because you are the best of the best, you are always the best of the best."

"I leave you with this. Senators, remember you are the best of the best. You will always be challenged and put to the test. But stay focused and clear on what you must do. Change lives and build dreams and help them come true. You may be the one that helps us believe that we're worthy, intelligent and able to achieve. So forget that you are tired and your worn mental state, we need you right now before it's too late. Continue to do the best that you can. Be consistent, persistent, and keep that good plan. And I promise that our citizens will get just what they need, opportunities, good values, and the ability to succeed. You are all the best of the best. Thank you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

With unanimous consent, upon motion of Senator Dalton, the remarks of Senator Hartsell who rises to a point of personal privilege, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

"Members of the Senate, about three months ago, unfortunately, my father passed away, as many of you know. I have not had the opportunity to thank you, formally, for the cards and letters which I genuinely appreciated, as did my mother. There were cards, there were letters, there were flowers, and there were other expressions of condolences. There were gifts to our Church which was my father's passion. I raise this today because, frankly, today would have been their 60th wedding anniversary. They were inspirations to me and inspirations to many people in the community, as I know that each of your parents were to you. But I cannot forget, and when I think about what we are trying to do here in this General Assembly and what we want to do with our own lives, the comments of Thomas Jefferson who said a long time ago that each generation owes to the next those opportunities and possibilities for life at least as great as those passed to it by its own parents. I thank you for your expressions and I thank you, Dad, for those possibilities. I hope that we will remember those comments as we proceed with this session. Thank you."

Upon motion of Senator Basnight, seconded by Senator Thomas, the Senate adjourns at 2:28 P.M. to meet tomorrow, Thursday, June 6, at 10:00 A.M.

"We applauded not only in appreciation for her poetry but I think also for the moment of insight that recognizes a similar spark of life and light that exist within each of us and which may also be used to your glory and for the good of humankind. "Kimberly, well done good and faithful servant and thank you for the inspiration. Amen."

ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY-FOURTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, June 13, 2002

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Almighty God, the poet Longfellow wrote, 'He speaketh not; and yet there lies a conversation in his eyes.'

"The stress produced by the tough decisions that must be made by the men and women of the Senate is already evident on their faces and in their eyes.

"No one solution will satisfy all the demands that must be addressed during this session. Many of the rest of us haven't had to 'stick our necks out' since we were the age of the Senate pages. We built personal comfort zones.

"The Senators, however, must do it everyday. Honor their risk-taking with the reward of a solution that benefits the most people. Amen."

"Almighty God, we give you thanks for our State of North Carolina, for its vibrant cities, its lovely villages, its glorious mountains, its inviting coastline, and its beautiful countryside.

"We give you thanks for all those who serve our State in a variety of ways to serve the common good and make it an even better place to live for all people.

"In these very difficult times, help those who gather here to have the patience needed to contend with the clamor of competing claims and the ability to hear this clamor as the voice of democracy.

"Help them to distinguish the truth and value of an idea from its popularity, and to live in the tension between tenacity and compromise which all living together requires.

"In the complexity of issues and the ambiguities of decision, give them insight and clarity as to the proper path for the following.

"Help them to hold their convictions with humility and the capacity to listen for correctives that may come from unlikely places.

"Give them the grace to reflect your love in being especially committed to help those who are poor and powerless and in greatest need.

"Empower them to govern with wisdom and boldness, with integrity and imagination and an abundance of grace.

"Bestow on them your blessings we pray to the end that, working together, ‘justice may roll down like waters and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.’ Amen."

ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY-EIGHTH DAY

Senate Chamber

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Honorable Virginia Foxx, Senator from Watauga County as follows:

"About two months ago, I had the privilege of speaking to the Surry County Extension and Community Association. They used a wonderful prayer and I promised that if given the opportunity to give the prayer here that I would use it in their honor. When I heard the very sad news this morning that Louis Freeman who worked in ISD was killed in an automobile accident last night, I thought about changing my plans but then realized that this prayer epitomizes how Louis lived his life. So I offer this prayer in tribute to Louis.

"Keep us, oh God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed. Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking. May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity and without prejudice. May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

"Let us take time for all things; make us to grow calm, serene, gentle. Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward, and unafraid. Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences, that in the big things of life we are at one.

"And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common human heart of us all, and, oh God, let us forget not to be kind. Amen."

Senator Weinstein, Senator Miller, Senator Purcell, Senator Reeves, Senator Soles, and Senator Swindell are appointed to escort Coach Yow and Chancellor Fox to the Well of the Senate, who are received with a standing ovation.

Upon motion of Senator Foxx, the remarks of Senator Weinstein, Chancellor Fox, and Coach Yow, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Weinstein:
"Mr. President and Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, please be seated. It is my pleasure to present to you Coach Kay Yow who will make a few comments and then turn the microphone over to Chancellor Fox. Coach Yow is one of the most admired and respected coaches on the international and national collegiate basketball scene. She was elected for enshrinement into the Basketball Hall of Fame on June 5, 2002. She has amassed over 568 wins in her 27 years at the helm of North Carolina State University’s ladies’ basketball team. She has taken this team to the Final Four in 1998. She currently ranks as the fifth winningest active Division I women's basketball coach with 625 career victories. In February 2000, Kay Yow Day was proclaimed in the City of Raleigh. In the year 2000, Kay Yow was named the National Coach of the Year by Sports Illustrated for Women. Also in the year 2000, Coach Yow received the Star Award from the Women's Center of Wake County. The award was presented to her by last year's recipient, Chancellor Marye Anne Fox. This award is given to recognize the achievements of individuals in the corporate community, whose actions have made a positive impact on the lives of women and their families in the community. At this time I'll turn over the microphone to Chancellor Fox, but before I do, Coach Yow, we are so proud to have you here. Chancellor Fox."

June 20, 2002

Chancellor Fox:

"Thank you so much Senators for allowing us to come and honor one of the great North Carolinians in our history. Kay Yow is so much more than a basketball coach. She is someone who understands the situation with student-athletes. She is someone who has always worked for achievement in the players with whom she works. I have always had the interesting opportunity when I go around and talk to alumni, to ask how many of them would be able to get into NC State now because we have a high school GPA, for this year's class it is almost a 4.0, and I ask them to raise their hands, but I won't ask you that. How many of you have 550 political wins since you have been in Raleigh? This is what this woman has done. She is an incredible role-model. She has coached Olympic teams and her players are represented in the Women's NBA. She is a person who is recognized world-wide for her excellence and, in fact, when I first came here from Texas, when I announced that I would accept this position, I was told to look up two people in North Carolina, Jim Graham and Kay Yow. So, she is a legend and we are so proud that she is part of the Wolfpack family and thank you for letting us make this special honor for her today."

Coach Yow:

"Thank you very much. Wow, this is impressive! This is my first time actually being in here. First of all, I know how hard and difficult your job must be. Unless you have been in somebody's shoes, you don't really know. Of course, everybody thinks they know how to coach in the State of North Carolina. I am willing to admit that I don't know that much about your job, but I really do know what a difficult task you have and how committed that you are and you must be in order to do a great job for our State. One of the things that I am proudest about probably, my five top players that have excelled the very most at NC State have been from the State of North Carolina. When I think about the things they have done starting way back with Gina Beasley, Andrea Stinson, Chastity Melvin, and Tanisha Lewis, my most recent, they go across the State of North Carolina. I can't leave out my youngest sister, Susan, who was our first Kodak All-American and was obviously from North Carolina. But, education is so critical. I am an educator at heart. My college degree was to be a teacher and I majored in English and minored in Library Science. It has always been important to me and education allows people not to just go through life but to grow through life. That is what I have been about, developing winners as people, hopefully, as I coach, or at least try to help them to develop as winners and as people and that is through education. I am not here really to, while I am here I want to say, I hope that as you talk about education that everybody in this room, I cannot imagine that there is anything more important in the State of North Carolina, or any state for that matter, than education. For how will people do anything without knowledge and knowledge becomes power and for people to be empowered, they must be educated. I am a part of that. I have spent my whole lifetime in education and I am really proud to be a part of one of our great universities in this State and to have gone all the way through all the systems in North Carolina and to be where I am today. I owe a lot to the great teachers that I have had along the way. They dug a lot of wells for me to drink from and I am trying to dig a lot of wells right now for a lot of other people. I just count on you to do the very best that you can for our programs in education and thank you so much for allowing me to be here this morning and for this honor. My honors are a tribute to the special people that I have had play for me and the special people I’ve had work with me. Anything that I get is a tribute, first and foremost, to those people and thank you very much for this honor.”

June 20, 2002

The President Pro Tempore, recognizes the Committee and the Senate Pages to escort the guests from the Chamber, who depart to a standing ovation.

The President Pro Tempore, extends privileges of the floor to The Honorable Marie Colton, former Member of the House of Representatives from Buncombe County.

Upon motion of Senator Ballance, seconded by Senator Plyler, the Senate adjourns subject to reading and referral of messages from the House of Representatives and in honor and memory of Louis Freeman, a General Assembly Staff Member who died in an automobile accident today, to meet Monday, June 24, at 7:15 P.M.

ONE HUNDRED NINETY-FIRST DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, June 26, 2002

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Rabbi Lucy H.F. Dinner, Temple Beth Or, Raleigh, NC as follows:

"Honorable Senators, Ladies and Gentleman, I dedicate this invocation in loving memory of Ilene Nelson, Merciful God.

"We pray for children who put chocolate fingers everywhere, who like to be tickled, who stomp in puddles and ruin their new pants, who sneak Popsicles before supper, who erase holes in math workbooks, who can never find their shoes.

"And we pray for those who stare at photographers from behind barbed wire, who can't bound down the street in a new pair of sneakers, who never 'counted potatoes', who are born in places in which we wouldn't be caught dead, who never go to the circus, who live in an X-rated world.

"We pray for children who bring us sticky kisses and fistfuls of dandelions, who sleep with the dog and bury the goldfish, who hug us in a hurry and forget their lunch money, who cover themselves with Band-Aids and sing off key, who squeeze toothpaste all over the sink, who slurp their soup.

"And we pray for those who never get dessert, who have no safe blanket to drag behind them, who watch their parents watch them die, who can't find any bread to steal, who don't have any rooms to clean up, whose pictures aren't on anybody's dresser, whose monsters are real.

"We pray for children who spend all their allowance before Tuesday, who throw tantrums in the grocery store and pick their food, who like ghost stories, who shove dirty clothes under the bed and never rinse out the tub, who love visits from the tooth fairy, who don't like to be kissed in front of the school bus, who squirm in church or temple or mosque, and scream in the phone, whose tears we sometimes laugh at and whose smiles can make us cry.

"And we pray for those whose nightmares come in the daytime, who will eat anything, who have never seen a dentist, who aren't spoiled by anybody, who go to bed hungry and cry themselves to sleep, who live and move and have no being.

"We pray for children who want to be carried and for those who must, for those we never give up on and for those who don't get a second chance. For those we smother...and for those who will grab the hand of anyone kind enough to offer it.

"Hear our cries, O God, and listen to our prayers. Amen.”

CALENDAR

A bill and a resolution on today's Calendar are taken up and disposed of, as follows:

S.J.R. 1422, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF ILENE B. NELSON, ADVOCATE FOR ABUSED AND NEGLECTED CHILDREN.

Upon motion of Senator Wellons, the joint resolution is taken up out of its regular order of business and is placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion Senator Wellons, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Foxx, the remarks of the Senators honoring the life of Ilene B. Nelson, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Wellons:

"One of the reasons that I introduced this resolution honoring Ilene Nelson was the same reason that I chose to run for the Senate in 1996. I had served as an attorney for the Guardian Ad Litem program, the Eleventh Judicial District, under Ilene and was trained by her. I became frustrated by the Legislature's lack of support for this Guardian Ad Litem program. I don't know whether ya'll remember the 1994 Sessions. I shared Ilene's passion of advocating for abused and neglected children. She encouraged me to run for the Senate and to do what I could for those children that she advocated and loved. I think it would serve the honor of Ilene Nelson if every time we were faced with issues when children were involved, especially those children that are not protected by others, that we ask ourselves what would Ilene do. Ilene Nelson was a fighter. She fought for those people in our State that could not fight for themselves. She never tired of being an advocate for our children, even when she was attacked by cancer. She continued her fight and would not let anything stand in the way of protecting the children, not even the cancer that eventually took her life on September 16, 2001. I think we owe it to Ilene that in her memory we continue to fight for the children that she so loved and protected because that is what Ilene would want us to do. She is joined today by her own children who are up in the gallery. I ask you to join me in supporting this resolution for the fighter of our children.”

Senator Garrou:

“Ladies and Gentlemen, often when we are honoring a person on the floor of the Senate, I have a hard time identifying with these people. Their qualities seem almost not human. I am here to tell you today that Ilene Nelson was a real human being. I served with her at the Guardian Ad Litem program. Ilene loved to sing and to laugh. She often spoke about growing up in the only Jewish family in a Mormon community in Idaho. While she made those experiences sound comical, I think they kindled her desire to offer a voice for the voice-less. Ilene Nelson could wear you out. She had more energy than anyone I had ever seen and I will tell you sometimes it was difficult to work for her. She could argue with you about an issue until, as my mother said, I was blue in the face. She could talk to you about the fact that we had to be really good stewards of our money and of our State money. She used the pencils down to a nub. If we ever did any traveling, she wanted eight or ten of us to sleep in a room together. She wanted to make sure that we always appreciated the fact that we had the opportunity to serve children and that we were very blessed to do so. She had a sparkle that permeated her work and she could often make a joke out of things. Once I had misspelled the word Messiah in a report or something that I was putting together for her and she told me that she was disappointed that I, as a Christian, should be able to spell Messiah and that she as a Jewish woman didn't need to know how to spell Messiah. She made that point. I still smile when I think about the fact that Ilene Nelson was the only Jewish woman I knew who sang in a gospel choir. It gave you another part of her personality. In the year 2001, over 14,000 children were represented by over 3,500 volunteers from your districts, who came and offered and served as a champion in court for each of these children. I am really proud that I had the opportunity to serve our State and to serve our children for ten years in North Carolina and to work with Ilene and some of the other folks who are in the gallery today. They do a magnificent job. I am grateful for the opportunity to work with Ilene and for the opportunity to speak on her behalf. I ask for your support of this resolution. Thank you.”

Senator Gulley:

“I will speak briefly but I knew Ilene Nelson for a long time and my experience follows that of the Senators who have already spoken. She was very special, she was intelligent and you knew it when you looked her in the eyes and when she talked to you about anything. She was tough and a fierce advocate but the other half of the time you were laughing with her. You were learning about life and you were learning about our commitment to children and you were enjoying it the whole time. She moved us forward as a State, deepened our commitment to children who were most vulnerable and most abandoned, most at risk. She made us much better as a State and as a people because of those commitments. I feel so lucky to have known her and work with her some and I feel so proud of her work and the inspiration it will be for us for years to come, so I am happy to join in support of this resolution. Thank you.”

Senator Ballance:

“As a member of Justice and Public Safety, we worked very closely with Ilene Nelson and she didn't like to take no for an answer. There was an issue about this was a volunteer program and some people raised the question about why does it cost so much to run a volunteer program. Well, she explained it to us and we put the money in the budget.”

June 26, 2002
Senator Kinnaird:

“In Orange County one name came up over and over when you talked about social justice, civic activism, and family court, and that was Ilene Nelson. She had a legacy and a reputation that reached into so many areas of so many lives and was so admired because of that. I would also like to say that she passed her legacy to her children who have carried on that tradition and that mission, and I am very proud to have known that wonderful woman, Ilene Nelson. Thank you.”

Senator Miller:

"Thank you Madame President. I have stood on the floor and debated, or spoken to, memorializing resolutions for many North Carolinians who I admired greatly, Terry Sanford, Richardson and Emily Preyer. They were people I knew some, but mainly at a distance, not as peers, not as contemporaries, not as personal friends. I know we are here to memorialize Ilene Nelson's personal life but I cannot think of the loss of Ilene Nelson except as a loss to all of us, the loss we all have as an advocate, I think is the first loss I feel. I think many of us feel, here on this floor, and I know here in this community in Raleigh who have known Ilene well. Ilene was not someone I knew from a distance, she was someone I'd see around town. She was someone I would bump into at the grocery store. I'd see her playing tennis at North Hills Club even when she was slick bald from the cancer treatments she was receiving. She was an enthusiastic, if not particularly skilled, tennis player. She did give it the same enthusiasm that she gave to everything else. She was a great political supporter of mine but never an uncritical one. I always knew that I could lose Ilene's support, so for those of you in the leadership who wondered why I have been unyielding sometimes on some issues, it is because I knew that I had to answer to the likes of Ilene Nelson. There are a lot of people I have known who are my contemporaries, my friends in politics and in the community, that I look forward to growing old with and Ilene Nelson was one of them and I am sorry that I will not get to do that."

Senator Lee:

"Thank you Madame President and members of the Senate. Time does not permit all that I could say about Ilene. I happened to be an active member of the faculty of the School of Social Work when Gary was appointed to the faculty and they returned from Hawaii. One could not meet her without certainly being infected by the enthusiasm and the commitment to helping and advancing the cause of children. We had a conversation on many occasions and I am delighted to have been a part of this body to help support the Guardian Ad Litem program and to watch it grow and become quite effective. I believe, as I am sure Ilene does, that if we really want to look into the future all we have to do is to look into the eyes of children. Then there is the question we often ask, what is life really like after death? If there is such a thing, it seems to me it is found in doing something before we die that will live a long time after we're gone. With the lives of the children and the advocacy she expressed on behalf of children, I have no question that Ilene Nelson will be living for a long time. I am delighted to have known her, I take pride in the work she achieved, and I am delighted that she has been a part of our lives."

Senator Reeves:

"Like Senator Miller, I knew Ilene very well. Of course she was our constituent and she was unyielding. I knew her pretty well, she came to my house a lot, dated a friend of mine for a while, and she was just a very extraordinary person. I will share with you just a brief story. When I ran for the State Senate in 1996, she and Marty Gear, who is now running for the Court of Appeals, had come by on yard sign day when we put yard signs out. Brad has always been the master at yard signs, I always tried to play catch-up to him, but Marty and Ilene came to help the cause. They came back and we always did hot dogs or pizza or something after the day and sat around on the front porch and talked about the experiences, and it was always fun to listen to what people said when they were putting yard signs in people's yards. Well, Ilene and Marty had gotten the idea that they didn't like the way Capital Boulevard looked and they decided that Capital Boulevard needed a few more yard signs, and of course they were putting them in the median. The police officer stopped them and asked them what they were doing. The police officer just let them keep the yard signs up. But it got in the paper the next day and that's where we came up with, everybody in this room knows exactly what I am saying, but we came up with the statement, well we just had some overzealous volunteers. Well, Ilene was just an overzealous person period. She is one of those people, that every time I'd sit in my office and she was there, or at home, or socially, she'd always just say, 'why not?, why can't you do this?'. I mean that is what she did, she just questioned authority. I guess it was the generation she came out of. But it was question authority, question what was going on, and it was great to be with her all the time. The memorial at the Temple was just unbelievable. I don't know if a lot of ya'll attended but it was one of the most bizarre and at the same time exhilarating events that I have ever attended. I learned things about her that I didn't know. I didn't know that she was in a gospel group and I knew her very well. I guess what I would like to end saying is that, while she did question authority and that she did push very hard for the things that she believed in, I always had wonderful discussions with her about her family. She was extremely, extremely proud of Aaron and Alicia and I think that is something that the two of ya'll need to know. At home or in the office, she spoke a lot about the both of you and was tremendously proud and I am proud of you."

June 26, 2002

Senator Cunningham:

"Madame President, I will be brief. I was very honored to count Ilene Nelson as a friend. I was honored also to count her as a professor of mine at the UNC School of Law, she taught Juvenile Law. Children in the Legal System is actually what the course was called. Senator Wellons, it was in 1999 that I was taking that class when the 23rd Senate District seat came open and when Ilene Nelson would not take no for an answer. So, likewise, I am very much here for being prompted by Ilene. In addition to the many, many lives that she touched and the many children that she advocated for whose lives are better today, she leaves us with two outstanding additional legacies, the wonderful Alicia and my very, very close friend, Aaron Nelson, who are two people who are, perhaps more committed to social justice than any other two I know, and for that Ilene Nelson will continue to live with all of us."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (50-0) and third reading with members standing, and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

The President extends the courtesies of the gallery to Aaron and Alicia Nelson, children of Ilene B. Nelson, and family and friends.

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, July 3, 2002

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Almighty God, in a letter to his wife on July 2, 1776, John Adams wrote, 'Yesterday the greatest question was decided which ever was decided and debated in America; and a greater perhaps never was, nor will be, decided among people. A resolution was passed without one dissenting colony, that these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States.'

'Help us to understand what it is we celebrate tomorrow and all that it means, may our freedom be seen as the opportunity to do what is right and that our liberty, though some would dispute it, is based on the foundational truth that we are one nation, under God.

'Even as we struggle with threats of terrorism that challenge our freedom, let us be determined and not afraid to stand alone for the right of freedom for all people in our world.

'Help us to honor those who have birthed, kept, and safeguarded our liberty. For freedom, you have set us free. God Bless America. Amen."

Senator Basnight:

"Thank you Madame President and members of the Senate. When I think of this day and this special time, I think of John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, especially, the two of those. Jefferson who was so crafty in penning not the Pledge of Allegiance but the Declaration. But it was John Adams that truly spent the time and made the effort to convince all colonies that we should join and declare independence. New York was the one state that would not do so on that particular day, but it was on July 2, as you all know, that Adams made his famous speech and Jefferson would not debate at that time. Adams made the speech in Philadelphia with the doors nailed shut to convince all that independence, the freedom of life, the freedom to become whatever you choose to become was ever so important. He gave all that he had to do so. All through all his challenges of life with Abigail and his family and the difficulties with the children, he still believed that America needed to be independent and he made those sacrifices to convince others. So, that certainly was a famous day and continues to be the most famous of all for us in this Country and this State as we celebrate our independence from British rule. The Pledge of Allegiance, the pledge of our allegiance to our flag, it is also interesting that Francis Bellamy who wrote the pledge, and it was modified in 1954 when we put in Under God, which was amended at that time, was a socialist. He was the leader of public education in his community at that time, and he believed that there had to be allegiance, there had to be a Republic, and Republic was the word for which we stood that brought us all together, all states as one. We fought on those issues during the Civil War and we prevailed as one Union, as one people. I believe that each and every time that we look at the flag, and we use Under God as an oath to the hierarchy of what we are of life, the person who gave us life, it is critically important that we have that included in our words, in our pledge that America stands for. This is a fabulous time. Tomorrow is a great day and our pledge is ever so important to us and at a proper time I'd recommend that we say the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag and I encourage your endorsement of this bill."

July 3, 2002

Senator Ballantine:

"Thank you Madame President. Members of the Senate I want to thank Senator Rand and Senator Basnight. It is an important resolution and it is a time in our history where we need to renew our spirit and patriotism and I am proud to stand in support of this resolution. Senator Basnight, I believe a year or so ago on the Senate floor, mentioned a book that he was reading, John Adams, and I went and purchased that. A lot of times as politicians you are asked who your most admired politician is and I dare say that if any of you read that book, you will select John Adams. I have always said Thomas Jefferson, but John Adams is really under appreciated and one of the most remarkable people that has ever lived. The Declaration of Independence as Senator Basnight said, is the seminal document that is really the founding of our great country. We all know it's passage, 'We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal.' Those are remarkable lines that are a tribute to what we all stand for and the Declaration of Independence is a great holiday. Tomorrow we will dress my daughter who will be almost three in patriotic attire and put her in a wagon and go in a little neighborhood parade, as I am sure that all of you will have cook-outs and enjoy the family and the celebration of America. The Pledge of Allegiance, as we all know, is another symbol of our patriotism and Francis Bellamy wrote this so that we could show our loyalty to the United States of America. He wanted children to know about patriotism and give students that sense of pride that we all share in our country. So on this day, July 3, the day before the signing of the Declaration of Independence and at a time when we do need to understand the true meaning of our pledge. I appreciate the opportunity to rise and support this resolution that all fifty Senators signed and I urge your adoption. Thank you."

Senator Horton:

"Members of the Senate as you heard this is an important day for our Nation, but the Declaration of Independence itself was not a legal document. It was a proclamation, if you will. It was left to the individual states to put into effect the nuts and bolts of government, and we did that in North Carolina in New Bern, December 18th, 1776, at a time when war was raging in North Carolina and the entire southern states, when most of the ports had been occupied by British troops, when we were a beleaguered nation with hardly an army in the field. And at this time in North Carolina, when the outcome of this revolution was ever so uncertain, the framers of our North Carolina Constitution of 1776, put in there a provision, Article 41, that all useful learning shall be encouraged and promoted in one or more universities. We were the first, I believe, to recognize the importance of educating our leadership for generations to come and mind you this was in the midst of a war, the outcome of which was uncertain. Those universities were established and the purpose was to provide leadership of our State, many of whom sit in this Chamber and our sister Chamber across the way. It was to promote learning of that core of knowledge of literature and history that we share in common with all that lets our graduates participate in that great continuing conversation that goes back to the days of Homer and Abraham. I don't guess we probably ought to dwell on the fact that today you can now graduate from The University of North Carolina flagship in Chapel Hill without a single course in literature, a single course in western civilization, with no courses in philosophy and nothing in foreign languages. Perhaps we ought to show a little more oversight, really, as to whether what is being put out are going to be the leaders that we need. But, I think we here in this Chamber have a very special connection with what we have been talking about, because we in this Senate occupy seats in direct lineal descent from those people who sat in the first General Assembly in New Bern on April 7 to May 9th in 1777, just a few months after the Constitution was adopted. From that day until this, these seats have been filled by North Carolinians dedicated to the upholding of this State. Our Lieutenant Governor occupies the seat that was occupied in 1777 by Samuel Ashe of New Hanover and that seat has descended to her step-by-step over the generations. Our clerk, Ms. Pruitt, occupies the seat that in 1777 was occupied by James Green of Craven County, and each of us in our own way has occupied a place in this continuum and so when we talk about our history, when we talk about North Carolina, when we talk about what we want to leave behind us, we here have a very special connection with those people who started it all in 1776. Thank you Madame President.”

July 3, 2002

Senator Lee:

"Thank you Madame President. Members of the Senate, I was just sitting here allowing my mind to sit here and wander back through the annals of time. As a youngster growing up in Georgia and trying to recall what the Fourth of July meant to me, having a father who worked on a granite quarry and the owners of the quarry each Fourth of July would contribute fish and create an atmosphere in which there could be a great community fish-fry. I looked forward to every Fourth of July because the fish was great and I haven't had fish that good since. But it was also a time for us to come together as people to find strength and gather courage and inspiration form each other to go forth through another year until the next Fourth of July. Then I thought how in school we would recite the Pledge of Allegiance and then as I grew older and felt isolated from the mainstream of America and started to refuse to recite the line, 'indivisible', and refused to recite that line until the early sixties when I returned from Korea having for the first time experienced my first de-segregated living environment and recognized that people of all ethnic groups, of genders, had many of the similar experiences I have had of hopelessness, of fear, of feelings of oppressiveness, and in many cases feelings of discrimination. But it takes a trip outside of America for one to really appreciate what we have as a country and then to return. I begin once again to recite the words 'indivisible' with great pride. So when I think of both the Fourth of July and the Pledge of Allegiance and all the aftermath of 9/11, both have taken on an even greater meaning for me because as I sit in this chamber with all of you, I have to remember that I am not here because of something I did on my own but because a lot of people bent over and stooped down and allowed me to get on their backs and then they gave me a boost to grab the next rung. People of all ethnic groups, people of all genders, and people of all classes that of all of us are tied together in this one nation, and I say with great pride under God. So I recite the Pledge of Allegiance as I will with most of you today, with a renewed spirit of commitment and patriotism to America, with a great deal of thankfulness and greatfulness that I am an American, that I live in this country, that I've enjoyed the freedom, that I have enjoyed the opportunities. So, the Fourth of July for me has moved from being a time when we eat great fish and laugh and play to a day when I recommit myself to my country, to democracy, to freedom and do it with deeper appreciation. Today I express my appreciation to Senator Basnight, Senator Rand, and Senator Ballantine for joining together in the spirit of partisan unity and patriotism and for one day we put aside our differences and recommit ourselves to America. I am delighted to stand and give my support to the endorsement of this resolution."

Senator Allran:

"As I listened to these great remarks given by everyone else, I was sort of particularly interested in some of the things that Senator Lee said when he talked about feelings of frustration or alienation, or the various human feelings that Senator Lee alluded to. I think that in our own way all of us feel those feelings at different times or have had those feelings. I think that the reason we became so defensive and upset when we heard about the Judge's ruling in California is because we've come to realize that the one thing that unites this country with all its diversity and all the incredible amount of different people that we have in this country is our faith in, our belief in God. As Senator Basnight said, the pledge was originally written different than the way it is recited now. It was written by someone who was more or less a socialist, as Senator Basnight said. The 'one nation under God' part which was added in 1954 was not the only change to the pledge. The first change was to put the United States of America in it. When Francis Bellamy originally wrote it the pledge was, 'I pledge allegiance to my flag and to the republic, etc.' and, of course, it didn't have an illusion to God in it. The reason he wrote it like that was because he wanted any people anywhere in the world to be able to use this pledge. So what we have done over time with the pledge is we have made it more tailored-made to us, so the first thing we did was change it from 'I pledge allegiance to my flag and to the republic', we changed it to 'I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America', which was a change that Bellamy did not support. In 1954, we put in the change, 'one nation under God'. Another thing that is interesting about that, is that if you go back and look at the minutes in the Congress, Robert Taft was in Congress and Eisenhower was President, if you go back and look at the minutes of that debate, they said there is no reason to put a comma in between one nation and under God. So, although we are in the habit of saying 'One nation, under God', because it is easier to say. They made a big deal out of that in Congress saying there is no reason to put a comma in there, we should just say 'One nation under God'. Again, I think the reason that we have evolved the pledge over the years from the sort of socialist document that was intended to be used all over the world to our own situation is because that we realize that at the head of this country is in fact God, and that is what we believe and that is what we need to sustain us, all of us, equally. Thank you."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (44-0) and third reading with members standing and reciting the Pledge of Allegiance, and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

S.J.R. 1470, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF LUTHER HENRY JORDAN, JR., FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the rules are suspended, without objection, and the joint resolution is taken up out of its regular order of business and placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Basnight, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Ballance, the remarks of the Senators honoring the memory of Luther Henry Jordan, Jr., former Senator of the North Carolina General Assembly, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Basnight:

"Thank you Madame President, members of the Senate. I remember the first time that July 9, 2002
I had a chance to meet Luther. It was on the telephone. We were writing the highway bill and Luther had called about a bypass of Wilmington and why it was not in it. He continuously talked about the benefits of this road and the reasons why it should be included in this new plan, and I was thinking to myself, ‘Who is this fellow? I have never had a conversation with him in my life and he is telling me everything I've got to do, not what I should do or what I should consider.’ He was very strong in his opinion that that area of the State had been short-changed and we needed to change that and you could do it and you needed to do it tomorrow morning. Well, it wasn't quite that easy to add to the loop plan where Wilmington was not included in the original loop proposal that came off the top of the allocation of highway funds that we were to receive. Well, later we had some further conversations and some others got in and at the last minute we included in the loop plan this particular project in the Wilmington area. You have to give a lot of credit to Luther and you'll never hear that about what he did in that particular instance, but he was one of the major reasons that late one night we decided to include Wilmington in the loop plan and I give him a lot of credit for that. I can't give him much credit for the story that I am going to tell now because it is kind of hard to believe, but maybe it could be so if you knew Luther. He said, ‘I didn't choose to go into basketball, you know that don't you?’ and I said, ‘No, I really didn't.’ He said, ‘My cousin did. Michael, you know Michael.’ I said, ‘Well, I see him on TV and I'm a big fan of his.’ He said, ‘No, Michael went the basketball route and I went the political route. Now I have done better than Michael, now you wouldn't think so, but if you listen to me a little and hear what I'm telling you, we'll do pretty good.’ His analogy of how he succeeded and how Michael succeeded and how we all should succeed together was pretty interesting. He also told me one day, and I won't forget this, he said ‘You know you think I only study and concern myself with issues of color, black issues.’ and I said, ‘No, I don't have any reason to believe that.’ and he said, ‘You know, I could have been born white like you, but then what would I have been.’ He had a great way of lighting up a room. He cared a great deal, more than a great deal for others. He had a super concern for people not just of his district, but people of the State of North Carolina and people in general. He was a very learned man. Luther came on a little bit sometimes, as if ‘I'm a little slow,’ but you sit back and watch him operate. He was as successful as any member that we have in this Senate today or any that I have ever worked with. He was a very truthful person in that he cared. He cared that you give respect to others, his truthfulness laid in the fact that he would tell you, very directly and very candidly, what should be done and what should be done should simply just be right and if you'll be right by all of us then we'll get along pretty good, won't we? Then there were times when you could find him to be a little selfish for the people of southeastern North Carolina, Senator Soles. He would tell me real quickly, ‘You know Senator Rand is getting a little too much up there, don't you believe and shouldn't we be a little more sharing in our district?’ Or he would do the same thing for Senator Lee in Chapel Hill. ‘Lets never forget the Community College down in Cape Fear and we certainly can't forget UNC-Wilmington and, by the way, don't forget Central University and Shaw University, which is a private institution, but I got a degree from there, and so we’ve got to do what Senator Plyler says we need to do, but at the same time, don't forget all the people.’ He was a man for all the people, he cared a great deal about each and every one of you in here and he was one of the better friends that I had in this Senate and I think that all of us feel the same way. He was a special man and to his family and to everyone ever associated with this great North Carolinian we thank you for sharing him with us and for the great deeds he did for this State. God's speed Luther.”

Senator Ballance:

"Thank you Madame President. I hope I'm polite enough not to question what happens to people. It seems like 52 years is not enough for the personality that Luther Jordan brought to this world and that he brought to the Senate and that he brought to North Carolina. I knew Luther before he came to the Senate in 1992. I don't quite remember where I met him, but he was in politics. He was on the City Council. He was moving and shaking. The thing that I remember most about Luther Jordan, and I am glad that it is in the resolution, and that is his quick wit. He was a smart young man and he didn't mind sometimes letting you know about it. The second thing is what Senator Basnight has already talked about and that is his dedication to his people. He followed me and he had a lot of jokes to tell about some of the times he followed me, but as Chair of Justice and Public Safety he was a hard-working Chairman, he was a dedicated Chairman. Everybody knew he was the Chairman and he got things done as Chairman, but he and I enjoyed working together on that Committee. He loved Shaw University. He was responsible, Senator Lucas, as you remember for getting the famed trial attorney, Willie Gary, to come and speak to the Legislative Black Caucus Weekend last year because they served on the Board together at Shaw University. I have so many fond memories of Luther Jordan. One of the things, he was Majority Whip, but before him I served in that capacity and he always complained in a joking way about how he had already picked out the person to make his nomination and the person to second it. Then he got a phone call from me and, of course, he made the nomination for me to be Majority Whip. He sounded as if he was complaining but he really was not. He wanted me to have that position and he supported me in that position and, of course, I supported him. We were great friends. We shall always miss Luther, but we know that time, like an ever-flowing stream, bears all its sons away. Thank you very much."

Senator Lucas:

"Thank you very much. Members of the Senate, Luther Jordan was one of the most fun people I have ever known. Marc is right. When Frank would be sitting there and Larry here, and I'd be sitting here, he would walk into a room and say, 'Ya'll don't have to get up for me, royalty has entered the room, don't stand.' The other time I remember him, Marc, was when I first got here and he said, 'Jeannie, let me tell you one thing, don't you ever vote against the budget. They will throw you over that red carpet.' The other thing that I remember about him is, he grew up with my four nephews in Wilmington, Larry, Ellis, Vincent, and Charles. Their father was a preacher and whenever their mother wanted them, they could be five blocks from home, but all their mother had to say was their names and they would come running, but Luther said his momma would have to scream to the top of her lungs for him to get to the house. The other thing I remember about him was that he said, 'Jeanne, I never did want to be a mortician, but my momma said, 'Luther if you don't become a mortician you just won't be in our will. I will take you out of the will.' He said 'Momma, what time does the bus leave to go to Georgia?' Luther was our leader for the North Carolina Black Legislative Caucus. He was our energizer especially during the times when we had controversial issues. He was our friend and we will miss him and I urge your support for the resolution."

Senator Ballantine:

"Members of the Senate, being from Wilmington, Luther was my City Councilman, my friend, and my client. He said that he wanted at least one Republican lawyer so that everything he told me would be lawyer-client privilege. You may not know this, but Luther used to be a Republican. He actually showed me his voter registration card from days gone by when he was a Republican and he said, 'Yeah, the only reason I joined the Republican party was to see what ya'll were doing from the inside.' But he really was witty, what a humorous guy! He would talk about having to go to some economic development meetings and I would say, 'What do you mean?' and he would say, 'I got to go to six funerals. I am trying to improve my economy.' He would always say, you have July 9, 2002 heard him say on the Senate floor that he was going to be the last one to let you down. Luther was loved by all of Wilmington. I don't know if I have ever been to a larger funeral. It seemed like the entire town was there. Luther will be missed; he surely was loved. I hope he serves as an example as to how to endure the pain. What a fabulous ending Luther had with grace and dignity. Never did he complain, did he Frank, always positive and what a marvelous example that is to all of us. I urge your adoption."

Senator Lee:

"Madame President and Members of the Senate, I will make this very brief. Certainly one of the highlights of serving in this Body was the privilege of sitting next to Luther for the last term or so and hearing all the many stories and various aspects of his life and the journey that he traveled that brought him to this place. I joined with the others who recognize that he was a very learned man, a man with a great insight, but he was also a very smart man who had a strong compassion for doing what was right and cared deeply about people. I miss Luther because we would sit here and have conversations while many activities were going on and I found that I learned a great deal from him. One day I asked my grandfather why it appeared that some people were treated unfairly and his response to me was that there is nothing fair about life and that if you go around focusing on fairness you will miss the opportunities that are there for you to grasp. So when I on occasion ponder why some people die younger than others and I have been given the privilege to live longer, that question comes back into my mind, 'Why Luther?' Then I find not a complete answer but certainly one that makes me think that we should not measure people by how long they lived but by how well they lived and the legacies they created while they lived because I am convinced that our life after death is created before we die. So, as I think of my friend today, I paraphrase the words of the poem you have heard me repeat before and I think it is appropriate today. I say, 'Farewell my friend, farewell and hail, you're off to seek the Holy Grail and I do not understand why, but we'll remember now that you are gone 'twas aspiration that drove you on. Tiddlely-widdlely tootle-oo, someday each of us will follow you, but until then we join together and bid you goodbye.'"

Senator Gulley:

"I just wanted to say that I had the chance to come into the Senate with Luther Jordan. Senator Hoyle, I think it is just you and I that remain from that distinguished class that had Senator Marshall and Senator Winner with us, and he was special the whole time. His commitment, clear firm commitment to all the people of the State was wonderful to serve with. His wit has already been touched upon. Senator Clark before you there was Senator R L Clark from Buncombe County, and he was the first to realize that Senator R L Clark's machine was broken when Senator Clark voted yes one day before the rest of us had a chance to fully grasp that. He, I think, was a joyful warrior for the things that were important to him but a pleasure and joy to serve with the whole time and an inspiration particularly in his last couple of years I think, an inspiration in how to live. So, Senator Ballance, I think of the same hymn that you mentioned, 'Life is like an ever-rolling stream, soon bears us all away. We fare for God knows the mist dies at the break of day', which I think is always sort of a good context to think about here in the Senate where sometimes we feel a lot more immortal than that. But I think that Senator Jordan, his example and the joy of serving with him will obviously carry on far beyond that in our hearts and our lives, so thank you, Madame President, and I urge your support of the resolution."

Senator Webster:

"Senator Basnight, I am sure that when he made that phone call he was doing it for the best interest of the people and that is something that I saw in Luther. I saw a fairness in him. Sometimes in life you need to keep your mind open because you will find friends July 9, 2002 where you were told you would find no friends and that was the case with me. I found Luther to be very, very much the same person all the time. I’ll remember him forever for some advice he gave me, some personal advice that was a big help to me and, Luther, I thank you.”

Senator Rand:
"Thank you Madame President and Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. You know I have always wondered why Fayetteville didn’t get a loop in that bill. I think now I know. Luther was a great friend and a wonderful fellow to be with. Of course, those of us in the Cape Fear region always saw one another on various occasions around and about, so I knew Luther a long time before he came to this Body. He was always one you knew to be humorous, he was always one to do his part, he was always there when you needed him, and he was always a forceful advocate and a compelling figure for things that he believed in and the people that he represented. He will certainly be remembered a long time in this Body for the spirit that he brought to it, the kind of things that he did that were so much a part of everything we did. So, as we think about his contribution and we think about the kind of things he did for North Carolina, it is really a wonderful part of all our memories. Those of us, as I say, who are fortunate enough to live in the Cape Fear basin will always be thankful for Luther, be thankful for the things he did for us and did for the people there. So, we will miss him and we say to his family that it is the way a man lives that lives so long after him and we were most fortunate to have a person like this to reflect on. Thank you, Madame President.”

Senator Soles:
"Thank you Madame President and Ladies and Gentleman of the Senate. Luther Jordan finished high school the same year that I started serving in the North Carolina General Assembly. My district joined the county that he lived in but I didn't represent that county and I didn't know Luther at that time and I doubt seriously that he knew me. But over the years, in the 17 times I've run for the legislature, I have had some easy campaigns and some really bad campaigns and the first real bad one, probably the worst one I've had, was in 1977 and by that time Luther had come to the forefront over in New Hanover County and, although I wasn’t running there, I needed some help. I picked up the phone and I called Luther. I said, 'Luther I am really in a bad jam and I want to know if you can call some of your friends over here and talk with them for me.' He said, 'Sure, I'll be glad to do that. They tell me over there and in Raleigh that you are one of the Soul brothers anyway.' That kind of took me back, but I learned that was probably the highest compliment he could give me. So, from that day on we kind of modified that a little bit and he called me his Soles Brother and I called him my Soul Brother, so we laughed about that. I have enjoyed sitting here over the years with Luther in the seat directly in front of me because I could look at Luther and he didn't have to say a word and I knew exactly what he was thinking. Just about every time that Senator Ballantine would stand up, I would see Luther roll his eyes at me and that was because he, Patrick, and I represented for the last several years the same New Hanover County down there, and many, many mornings, particularly when Luther got so that he was going home fairly regularly over the night and coming back, I'd come into the Chamber and there would be a newspaper here and he'd have something circled on it and it would be something controversial that they were having in New Hanover County. There'd be a note to it that would say, 'You and Patrick can handle this.' I enjoyed knowing him and I am better and this Body is better for having had Luther here. Thank you.”

Senator Plyler:
"You know that when Luther first came here, I knew that he was going to be a July 9, 2002 successful Senator. He was friendly, he was smart, and it has already been alluded to, he was very witty. You could go to Luther and get some good advice or you could get some that you would have to weigh out a little bit but normally he gave you an answer on it. You know, as Chairman of the Justice and Public Safety Committee he did an outstanding job there. You'd never have to worry him not being on time with his meetings, you didn't have to worry about his reports or anything. He always did an excellent job there and I really appreciated working with him in that capacity. Luther and I talked several times on different things where business was concerned and he could always give you some advice. One day I told Luther, I said, 'You are in the funeral home business' and he said, 'Yes, I am' and I said, 'You know at one time I bought an interest in Harris/Wells Funeral Home in Monroe, and that worried me very, very much for several years that I had investments in that funeral home because all my friends would come to me and ask me for discounts. You know, we've been friends for a long time and we need a discount because uncle so and so has died,' and he said, 'Well, were you successful?' and I said, 'Well, fairly well, but I was glad to get out.' and he said, 'I want to ask you one question, did you get your money before you had the funeral?' So he was always coming up with something good. I urge you to support the resolution because Luther Jordan was one fine gentleman. Thank you.'

Senator Dannelly:

"Thank you Madame President, I was sitting and sort of reminiscing that I had a few years ago sort of the distinction of being the youngest steel cutter in the Wilmington shipyards and making more money than I had ever made in my life because that was a good paying job. I use to run around in Wilmington in the company of Luther Jordan, Sr. and another undertaker by the name of French Davis. Never saw Luther until I met him in 1977 in Atlanta, Georgia at the National League of Cities meeting because he was on the City Council in Wilmington and I was on the City Council in Charlotte. From that point on, Luther and I were not just good friends, great friends. I saw him several times every year after that because he became a frat brother of mine, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, and we would meet at those functions. No one has really said it that Luther and I were somewhat alike in that I like to have a good time. Luther really enjoyed having a good time, but I learned something from him. He knew how to go in and out of a crowd or a function. You could ask, 'Didn't I see Luther come in here?' and someone would respond, 'Yeah, he is over there or at least he was.' He could get in and out of a function without you even knowing it. It was alluded to how smart Luther was and he was a smart fellow. He knew exactly how to spell my name, how to pronounce it, but in his funny way he always called me 'Dantley'; 'so how's everything today, Dantley?' I loved him, I loved his city and your's Patrick, Wilmington, and I get there every chance I can. When Luther was there and he found out that I was in town, I either had to have lunch or breakfast with him. I tried to get out of the breakfast because when I am on my free time, I like to sleep late. Not with Luther. He took me to breakfast and every place we would go, when he walked in a place they knew him. The last time I had breakfast with Luther, a young lady in the Waffle House, we ordered and she said, 'I know you' and he said, 'Oh you do?' and she said, 'You were on the City Council, weren't you?' and he said, 'Yes, I was.' She said, 'I will never forget you because you were the only person that helped me and my momma out when we had a problem. We called everybody and you delivered for us and I will never forget you.' That just warmed my heart because every place we would go in Wilmington everyone was always waving at Luther because he was such a people person. That young lady was a white young lady and she remembered Luther from when he was on City Council and that was very, very impressive. I used to get on Luther about his cell phone, 'Luther, please take a break from that thing. I mean cut it off or leave it in your car or something.' But you know, he was such a businessman he was afraid to do that. He was afraid he would miss a deal. I became a little incensed at his memorial. I remember sitting there and a couple of times a phone rang. Somebody had their cell phone there and I became incensed. After about a minute I chuckled to myself, well you know that’s just like Luther. It is probably him calling just to see how things are going on. He really loved his cell phone, keeping in contact with people. I could go on for another hour about Luther, like many of you. I do miss my brother, my frat brother, my blood brother, my friend. I miss him and please vote for this resolution.”

July 9, 2002

"Faithful God, when is the last time we took the heat for doing what is right? As children we learned about three biblical characters Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who were thrown in a fiery furnace for refusing to worship the golden statue. They would only worship you, O God.

"The fact that the fire didn't harm the three boys is amazing enough, but the king saw four people amidst the flames and haze of that furnace, not three. Shadrach, Meshach, and Adebnego walked out of the furnace unharmed and you, O God, were vindicated. The presence of that mysterious fourth person in the furnace assures us that when we get in trouble for righteousness sake, you don't send someone else to help, you send yourself. Thanks be to God, Amen.”

July 10, 2002

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, there is not a day that goes by here in the Senate that we don't have to deal with some kind of struggle and conflict. Where is the peace that you promise?

"We remember that in Scripture one of the titles by which Jesus is known is Prince of Peace. He used the word himself in what seems at first glance to be two radically contradictory ways. On one occasion he said to his followers, 'I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.' (Matthew 10:34). And later on at their last supper together, he said, 'Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you' (John 14:27).

"I think the contradiction is resolved when we realize that for Jesus peace seems to have meant not the absence of struggle but the presence of God's love to sustain us when we go through it.

"Give us all that kind of peace this week, we pray. Amen"

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Lao-Hmong, which means "free people," are Laotian members of the Hmong tribe and are noted for their warrior tradition, loyalty and bravery; and

WHEREAS, beginning in 1960, the United States recruited thousands of the Lao-Hmong to fight against the Communist Pathet Lao and North Vietnamese Army regulars in Laos; and

WHEREAS, the United States relied heavily on the Lao-Hmong Special Guerrilla Units to engage in direct combat with North Vietnamese troops from 1960 to 1975, conducting tactical guerrilla actions, flying thousands of deadly combat missions in support of the Armed Forces and the Central Intelligence Agency, and fighting in conventional and guerrilla combat clashes with extreme casualties; and

WHEREAS, the Lao-Hmong, although outnumbered, fought against enemy forces to disrupt the flow of troops and war supplies along the Ho Chi Minh Trail; and

WHEREAS, the Lao-Hmong protected United States personnel, guarded United States Air Force radar installations, gathered critical intelligence about enemy operations, and undertook rescue missions to save the lives of downed United States pilots; and

July 22, 2002
WHEREAS, more than 35,000 of the Lao-Hmong lost their lives defending the democratic way of life, thousands suffered grievous injuries and permanent disabilities, and thousands more were captured and sent to Communist concentration camps; and

WHEREAS, after the conclusion of the war, many Lao-Hmong soldiers were the victims of acts of retribution and atrocities by the Pathet Lao, causing many of the Lao-Hmong to flee to neighboring Thailand and become refugees;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MICHAEL F. EASLEY, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim July 22, 2002, as "LAO-HMONG RECOGNITION DAY" in North Carolina, to recognize the bravery, sacrifice and loyalty to the United States exhibited by the Lao-Hmong in Southeast Asia.

CALENDAR (continued)

S.J.R. 1474, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF BASCOM LAMAR LUNSFORD ON THE OCCASION OF THE SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE MOUNTAIN DANCE AND FOLK FESTIVAL.

Senator Metcalf offers a motion that the joint resolution be taken up out of its regular order of business and placed before the Senate for immediate consideration, which motion prevails.

Upon motion of Senator Metcalf, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Wellons, the remarks of the Senators honoring the life and memory of Bascom Lamar Lunsford, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Metcalf:

"Thank you, Mr. President and Members of the Senate. I thank the Members of the Senate for the opportunity to speak today to you, in very short compass, in very short fashion about one of the icons of mountain culture. You know, I think that all of us, whether we admit it to ourselves in any kind of open way or to any kind of public way, are concerned to some extent about a legacy or some sense of immortality as to what we will leave to this world when we leave. I think on a personal level we all point with pride to our grandchildren, our children, our family, and those relationships that we have with each other. Politically, I suspect that everyone in this room, at one point or another, would say they'll introduce that landmark piece of legislation or have that building on that campus named for them, to ensure whatever legacy or immortality that we may achieve to our service in this Body or just in life. Today I speak to you about someone whose legacy was, quite frankly, nothing less than the documentation and the preservation of a culture, a wonderful culture and a very unique culture that those of us from our mountain region of the State know so very well. Bascom Lamar Lunsford was and continues to be an icon in our area, as far as our culture goes. He was born in the South Turkey Creek section of Buncombe County in 1882. He was married to Nellie Triplet and they had seven children. The resolution spoke to the many significant accomplishments of this individual. Let me just hold up two things to you today that I think you might find of some interest. In all the careers that Mr. Lunsford had, it didn't speak a lot to them in the resolution, but one of them was political and I think that you might find some interest in this. I am reading from his biography and it was an account given to us by another icon of the West, Senator Sam Irvin. In 1931, Senator Irvin was the floor leader for the Democratic Party in the North Carolina House of Representatives and we all know that Senator Sam went on to be a Justice on the North Carolina Supreme Court, a United States Senator, and became famous during the Watergate time. Let me read to you an account that he had of Bascom Lamar Lunsford. He said 'On the evening before the formal opening of the General Assembly of 1931, the Democrats of the House met in caucus in the House Chamber and nominated their candidates for major House offices. After two residents of Wake County had been nominated for the Post, I placed a name of a third candidate for nomination for the Office of Reading Clerk', Leroy, 'Bascom Lamar Lunsford of Buncombe County' who, in after July 23, 2002 years, rightly received nationwide acclaim as one America’s foremost collectors and preservers of folk ballads and folk music. Senator Irvin, quoting himself said, 'Fellow Democrats, I said, we have thus far exercised political wisdom in selecting our candidates. In naming our candidates for Reading Clerk we must not forget the Democrats residing in the west. Like the Democrats of other areas, they are troubled by the world, the flesh, and the devil. Unlike the Democrats of many other areas, however, they are compelled to wage unceasing warfare with another foe, the Republican Party.' Mr. Minority leader, I think it is of some interest to the Members. He went on to be elected Clerk that year and served four years as the Reading Clerk of the House from 1931-1934, but his first love was not politics, it was not teaching, it was not any of those other things. His first love was the documentation, the collection and the promotion of mountain music and mountain culture. If you understand the history of our region at all, you know that the first white settlers in our area, the first folks to settle in our area other than Cherokees, came from Scotland and Ireland. They settled in those hills and because of the remoteness of it, for so long the traditions of those folks were carried on for years and years and years, after decades after they settled. Bascom Lamar Lunsford documented their music. He not only recorded it, he often times, after talking with his daughter earlier, he would memorize it. He would memorize the tales, memorize the music, memorize the dance and he put it all together. What he did, and it is outlined in the Resolution, in terms of the documentation of that is in the Library of Congress and in other places, but what he did, I think, in terms of the significance of his life and getting back to that legacy to some extent, one is that his legacy still lives, still is very much alive and part of all of us who are part of the mountains. The Folk Heritage Committee of the Asheville Chamber of Commerce will, again this year, and it is comprised of fifteen volunteer members, sponsor the Mountain Dance and Folk Festival. This is their 75th year and it was started by Mr. Lunsford in 1928. Also, growing from that tradition is our tradition of, I think about the last thirty years, is our Shindig on the Green. Every Saturday night in the summer, some 2000-4000 people gather in downtown Asheville to listen to some of the best of our music. Let me say a couple of other things in terms of his significance in what he has meant to us and who we are. I was talking to my wife earlier this morning and she said, 'You are going to do this on Bascom Lamar Lunsford?’ and I said, 'Yes.' She said, 'You'll never capture the significance of him.' and I said, 'No, I can't, I know that.' I know full well that I can't, but let me raise two other issues if I may. One is that he bridged that gap, and I talked to you about the historical gap, but I think more than that he bridged a personal gap for those of us whose family goes back those two or three hundred years in Western North Carolina. If I may read to you just from his own words, he says, 'I want to call attention, for the good it may do, to the value of traditional culture as compared with the value of our artistic culture. The fella that knows the traditional background of his people has the advantage over the fella that's got no idea, except something he figured out on his own.' Bascom Lamar Lunsford let us understand where our families were some two hundred years ago and how we got to where we are today. Another part that I would say his significance, and again I was talking to the daughter earlier, was Bascom Lamar Lunsford loved the mountain people and he made us proud of ourselves, particularly at a time when he was doing the work he was doing and that was not necessarily something that we did in the mountains. Many of the stereotypes about us and about our music and about our people and a lot of the stereotypes we created ourselves, if you know the history of tourism in Western North Carolina. We created a lot of that to get flatlanders to come up and kind of see our hillbilly ways or whatever it might be. But he said, 'The key to whatever success that I've had has been in recognizing the value of the fine traditions of mountain people.' and we thank him for that. Let me just say in his life, he referred to his festival one time, he was a very unpretentious man, he spoke very straightforward a lot like Senator Irvin and others, like former Speaker of the House of Representatives Liston.

July 23, 2002
Ramsey that we will talk about maybe tomorrow or the next day. He was a very straightforward guy and although his festival is a model for all over the Nation and is probably the longest running festival of its kind in the Nation, he simply said it was ‘a plain tale, simply told.’ Well let me say that about his life. Mr. Lunsford’s life was a plain tale simply told and, if I may add, well done. I urge your support of the resolution."

Senator Foxx:
"Mr. President, it’s ironic that we have this resolution honoring Bascom Lamar Lunsford today and we are also going to do one for Lulu Bell Weisman and one of the things I was going to say in my remarks about her is that one of the most known tunes that Lulu and Scotty Weisman recorded is a song called ‘Mountain Dew’ which is a re-working of a Bascom Lamar Lunsford tune. So, whenever you hear that song, ‘Mountain Dew,’ you need to know that the originator of the writing of that song was Bascom Lamar Lunsford."

Senator Carpenter:
"Thank you Mr. President and Ladies and Gentleman of the Senate. Bascom Lunsford was quite a man. I think that Senator Metcalf did a good job explaining the type of person he was but there is a certain culture, Steve, about mountain people, particularly the music makers that is a little bit different than the regular type person. My father’s name was Ed Carpenter. He was a good friend of Herbert Hyde who used to be in the Senate and he was an old-time mountain fiddler. He has been dead, his life paralleled Lamar Lunsford for quite some time. I think Lamar was about sixteen years older than my dad but, nevertheless, the fact is that they played these old Irish jigs and you made some comments about the Irish a few minutes ago. I am still stopped many times on Main Street in Macon County for people to say, ‘Hey I knew your daddy. Boy he could make a fiddle talk.’ You know you hear those kinds of expressions. I guess if you were to sum it up, Shakespeare I think made this statement. He said, ‘Music has the charm to tame the savage beast.’ I urge your support of the Resolution."

Senator Albertson:
"I never knew this man, but I know he used to come down to Raleigh at the State Fair and have his dances and put on his music. I know that he was a great person as far as music was concerned. I appreciate Senator Foxx mentioning that he was the person who wrote the song, ‘Mountain Dew.’ I have sung that song many times, it is a good foot-stomper. Folks can enjoy it and have a good time by it and I recommend the resolution."

The joint resolution passes its second (48-0) and third readings and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, July 24, 2002

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, the announcement in a Church newsletter was not well-edited. It read: 'Next Thursday there will be tryouts for the choir. They need all the help they can get.'

"In a departure from our usual petitions for the Senate, today we pray for the July 24, 2002 lawmakers across the way in the House. I guess it's much harder to affect harmony in a 120-member choir than a 50-member one. Much is at stake for both sides in this building and the people of North Carolina. Pick up the baton and conduct the choir, O God. Amen."

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of yesterday, Tuesday, July 23, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

A special message is received from the House of Representatives transmitting a joint resolution which is read the first time and disposed of, as follows:

H.J.R. 1526 (Committee Substitute), A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF LISTON BRYAN RAMSEY, FORMER MEMBER AND SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the rules are suspended, without objection, and the Committee Substitute joint resolution is placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Carter, the Committee Substitute joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Foxx, the remarks of the Senators honoring the life and memory of former Member and Speaker of the House of Representatives, Liston Bryan Ramsey, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Carter:

'Thank you Madame President and Members of the Senate. Mr. Speaker is a fine person in the memory of Western North Carolina and there are a few people, and you can argue this very easily, that have done more for Western North Carolina than Liston Ramsey, or few that have done more for the entire State of North Carolina than Liston Ramsey. If you have ever been to Madison County, you know it's one of God's special places. It's high in the mountains. Of the times that I have been there, you'll notice that there is not much flat land up there. So, you are either in the valley looking up at the incredible mountains that are there or you are up on the mountains looking at some incredible valleys, beautiful views that are in our State and what a treasure it is for us to have Madison County in our State. I think that landscape impacts the people there, they have a very healthy perspective about life, they have a healthy perspective about their place. I have often paralleled it to people who live on the ocean. I think you can see how huge the world can be and it puts you in its perspective. Liston Ramsey was one of those who understood his place and he understood that he was simply a servant. He was someone who worked for the people of Madison County and throughout Western North Carolina and he invested in our people, greatly. He used the State resources and as his position as Speaker he gave many things to Western North Carolina. You can look at our Arboretum, which now brings over 500,000 visitors a year, you look at the Farmers' Market which is very profitable and helpful to our agrarian people in Western North Carolina. You can look at our University System; two different universities have buildings named after him, at the University of North Carolina-Asheville, where his daughter graduated, and from Western Carolina University. The Community Colleges, there is now a Community College in Madison County that is an AV-Tech out of Buncombe but annexed there in Madison. Haywood County had an incubator put in due to Liston Ramsey and that created jobs for people in Western North Carolina. Liston was such a magnanimous person, helped so many people, and constantly did things in a very quiet and relaxing way. I remember when I first got here and literally within the first week of my time as a Senator and I was so confused. Just didn't know my way around this building, didn't know where I was, had all these ideas and a lot of energy but didn't know exactly how to apply it. I remember one day I was at my desk busily working and this presence kinda filled the door and I looked up thinking it was some large man. Instead it was Liston Ramsey, very feeble and hunched over, and he had walked down the aisle to my office. He said, 'Senator', and I was kinda taken aback and I said, 'Yes, Speaker.' He said, 'May I join you or may I sit here?' and I said, 'Well, of course.' It was one of those moments where you realize that nothing you do will be as hospitable as it needs to be to such a fine person, and the only reason why he came down there was to make sure that I was comfortable, to make sure I knew my way around the building, make sure that I understood who the people were and if I had any questions about just the cadence of this General Assembly. I will say that in my very rookie year that there was no other person from Western North Carolina who had served here beforehand, who came by my office just to check on me. To make sure I was alright, to make sure I was ready to represent Madison County and all of Western North Carolina. He was a fine person who constantly kept his perspective on the little people, the working class, the people who really are the salt of the earth and he is someone that I have always tried to emulate in every bill that I put forward in this Body. He is a fine person, obviously because the people of Madison County in Western North Carolina sent him down here for longer than any other Legislator in the history of the State of North Carolina. That speaks volumes for somebody. No matter what the changes in the weather were, the change in the demographics, they continued to send Liston Ramsey down here to serve the people of the State of North Carolina. And so for a fine person, a populous, a mentor to me and a mentor to so many people, I hope that we will all vote and strongly affirm this resolution, not only for Liston Ramsey, for the family, but for the people of North Carolina.

July 24, 2002

Senator Metcalf:

"Thank you Madame President. I want to be cognizant of time after I spoke yesterday and I thank the members for allowing us to talk about good mountain people for the last two days. When I spoke yesterday, Senator Odom reminded me that there was still time to present the Oximeter to someone else if I spoke as long again today. So I want to be as quickly as I can and as short a compass as I can. I must tell you that I struggled with this resolution for the last two or three days and I thank Representative Haire and the members of the House for sponsoring it and sending it over and I thank Senator Carter for his remarks. We struggled with this because we all had a very special affection for Liston Ramsey. I can tell you when I decided that I was going to run for the North Carolina Senate, I had asked what seemed like everybody in North America if it would be a good idea for me to run and I talked to a number of people. People would always give you this long conversation and try to flatter you and this is a good thing and go into a long analysis of it and maybe even say, 'Have you had done any polls?,' or whatever. But I remember the day I decided I would run, it was in December of 1997 and I was in Marshall for the Marshall Christmas Parade and I was there shaking hands and talking to folks. And Charles, I'd been over on the island. If you've ever been to Marshall you know that there is an island right in the middle of the French Broad River and there is a school on that island. My cousin used to be the principal of that school for a number of years, and that is where they staged for the parade. I was over shaking hands and I was coming back across the bridge and it was one of those December days, Senator Albertson, that you would understand. The blue snow was blowing and it was absolute bitter cold and I came up beside a car and there sat Liston and he hit the button and the window came down. I said, 'Liston, I have been wanting to talk to you. I have been giving a great deal of thought for running for the North Carolina Senate. What do you think?' Liston sat there for a minute and leaned back and he looked up at me and said, 'I think that would be a good idea.' He rolled up the window. I knew full well that if he had not thought it'd been a good idea he would have said, 'I don't think that's a good idea.' So I knew from that point on that I was going to run and that Liston was going to be probably supportive of my campaign and that story speaks volumes in terms of the other ways that he conducted himself. I remember Senator Carter relaying personal stories about when he first got down here. I remember the day we were sworn in. I saw Liston out here in the hall and I was talking to him and one of the lobbyists came up and was talking about the session and saying, 'We're going to do this this session, and we're going to do that this session.' and just talking on and on. The fella walked away and Liston looked at me and said, 'That fella's right proud of himself, isn't he?' and I said, 'Indeed he is, Liston', and he said, 'He's a mighty poor judge of character I'd say.' Liston had a way of summarizing things and summarizing them very quickly. As most of you know and I have shared from time to time, the first speech I gave on this floor was to bring notice of Liston's 80th birthday. I had really a special relationship with him but I don't think any more special than any of the other folks in the mountains. That was the magic of Liston, everyone thought they indeed had a special relationship with him. Mine may have come from my own mom and dad, they were born in February of 1919, probably within about three or four miles of where Liston Ramsey was born. So, I know where they came from. I know they came from a very poor part of the world and they came of age in the middle of the depression, even poorer, and for Liston to go from that situation to being arguably the most powerful man in the State of

July 24, 2002
North Carolina, we sometimes have to ask ourselves why and I think there are two or three reasons. Liston worked hard, he believed in that, but we all work hard in this Body and we all understand the value of hard work. I would also point out to you that Liston had the support of a wonderful bride and a wonderful family. You can't talk in Western North Carolina about Liston Ramsey without talking about ‘Miss Florence’, his bride of some sixty years and his daughter Martha. I would also say to you two things that I think are very important. One was Liston loved his profession and was never ashamed of it. A lot of times we run as ‘Well I am a businessman, but I'm not a politician.’ or I am this but I am not a politician. Liston was a politician and he understood the notion of public service. He once told me, I said something about 'It's kinda political isn't Liston?' and he said, 'Son, let me tell you something. Politics is a way poor people access the system.' And I thought a lot about that. There probably aren't many folks in this room that couldn't access the system in terms of education and health care or whatever it may be if we wanted to. But we come here and work for those people who can't do it and it is a high and honorable calling and I am proud of Liston for recognizing that. I would also say to you that Liston loved this Body, he loved it a great deal, and I hate to keep relating stories, but I asked him one time again, 'Liston can I do something?’, and he looked at me and said, 'Son, you are a member of the North Carolina General Assembly. You can do anything you want to do if you can get twenty-six votes in the Senate and sixty-one votes in the House.' So he understood our institutions and he understood and loved working here, but I think the thing that Liston loved more than anything else was the people of North Carolina. He understood their needs, he understood you had to educate the children, find jobs for the people, give dignity to the elderly. He believed that as much as anybody I have ever known. Liston, also I would tell you, he loved people from Western North Carolina. He's subscribed to a theory that a lot of us hold forth from time to time, the only thing that is better than the beauty of our mountains is the grace of our people and he understood that more than anybody I have ever met. We certainly miss Liston, Martha, we always will. There are times, there is not a week that goes by that I am not sitting back home and somebody would say, 'Gosh, I wish Liston was here.' Well we all do. We really, really do. Ladies and Gentleman, I commend the resolution to you.

Senator Robinson:

"If I may I would like to make one of these short speeches. Members of the Senate, Liston Ramsey, of course, was very special to everyone in Western North Carolina and I didn't realize it but evidently when Steve, Charles, and I came down here together in '98 he must have made the rounds because he came by to see me one day. I wasn't there and he told Jean, he said, 'Jean, tell Dan to come up and see me.' I went up and he was sitting in his office and he said, 'Dan, how are you getting along?' and I said, 'I don't know Liston.' I said, 'It's an unusual place.' and he said, 'Can I give you some advice?', and I said, 'Yes, I wish you would.' He said, 'Number one Dan, don't ever take anything personal that happens down here'. If I may I am going to say it like I said it to him, I said, 'Well, how in the hell do you do that?' and he said, 'Dan you must, you must. Don't ever take anything personal. Secondly, I know you pretty well, things are going to move slower here than you want them to and you must always remember that progress is made in very small increments.' I tried very hard to remember those wise words, but to this day I sometimes have trouble with them. Liston took great pride in helping people to understand that it is 130 miles from Asheville to Murphy. Most people in this State have no idea how much of North Carolina is west of Asheville and he took great pride in that. He took great pride in the region that he represented and as well as representing the State of North Carolina. I'll always remember him as a person that if he told me something and if he shook hands with me, I knew that I could count on it. You did not have to get it in writing, his word was his bond and I've never known him to go back on his word. He had great pride in serving in the wonderful chamber in the State House of Representatives, the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina. He took great pride in that, I heard him speak of it in ways that only he could speak. I heard him recommend to young people to consider it because it was a way to serve your people. Whenever I heard that Liston had passed on and went up to the funeral, to me I knew that for most people in Western North Carolina, his legacy would be that he, of all people, a man from Madison County who started with meager beginnings became the most powerful man and the man that did the most for Western North Carolina of any person that ever lived. Thank you very much.”

July 24, 2002

Senator Warren:

"Excuse my weak voice but I want to say a couple of things about Ramsey. I came here in 1980 and out in Eastern North Carolina we didn't have anything down there, we didn't even have a medical school. Starting at that time, we didn't have a four lane road down that way and he was a man to understand East from West. Every time he built a building in Western North Carolina he put one in Eastern North Carolina and that impressed me when he had that vision to look at all of us throughout the State. When I came here in 1980, I believe, and Senator Plyler led me around, I didn't know much about this type of business up here and what we could do and couldn't do. I went to Liston Ramsey and said, 'Liston, give me some good advice. I am a country boy on a tobacco farm down there in Pitt County, I don't know a lot. What should I do up here?' and he said, 'Three things: Number one, just remember that there is always somebody smarter than you are up here listening. Number two, you can't buy your way because somebody's got more money that you have. And three, you'd better steer away from reporters and stay away from the press.' Those are the three things he taught me and I tell you they are true today, the same three things are true today, as I see. But I think the most important thing in my ten years with him was that he always thought about the working people, he didn't care whether it was East or West, his commitment was always there. He was not a tight person he didn't talk a lot, but when he stood up everybody listened and I was so impressed with that. He just had the ability when he knew what he was talking about and the House paid attention to that and I think Senator Soles knows that. I was so impressed with his attitude and what he tried to be, he was from North Carolina where there are a lot of poor people and how he helped to get a medical school to help the poor people in our part of the State. That meant so much to me in my whole career. I tried to follow him in some degree, not talk too much, but I think that when Senator Plyler was leading me around, those were the best years of my life until I came to the Senate and been even better here under Senator Basnight's leadership. What I liked about Ramsey was that Eastern North Carolina was important just like Western North Carolina, rich or poor, it didn't make any difference and he would divide State dollars between the West and the East where it should have been and, therefore, I can speak to that point because I was a part of it. I urge your support of the resolution.”

Senator Albertson:

"Thank you Madame President and Members of the Senate. I was elected to the House in 1989 and, Madame President, as you well remember what a year that was to get elected to the House, a country boy coming to Raleigh from Duplin County and didn't know much about politics and jumping all in the middle of that. Of course, I had committed myself previously to the time we took the vote to support Speaker Ramsey for another term as Speaker of the House and I kept my commitment and I've always been glad that I did. But the two things I remember, in particular, about Liston Ramsey was I observed him after he was defeated on that date, that historic date. I never was able to detect any bitterness on his part for having lost that Speakership race under the conditions that he did. If there was any bitterness there I was never able to see it. He was always so kind to everybody and to look at him and be around him you'd never have known he was Speaker, that was one of is outstanding qualities that I remember so well. The other thing that I remember about him was, I know of an individual he gave a second chance to and that person has told me how grateful he was always to Liston Ramsey for giving him a second chance in life and what a wonderful attribute that is for one to have. Many of us should emulate that as well. I was honored that I was asked to sing at the Memorial Service that we had for Speaker Ramsey up in the Auditorium. One of his favorite songs I was told, was one of Hank Williams’ songs called ‘I Saw the Light.’ It was obvious to me that Liston Ramsey had seen the light and knew what life was all about and that it was serving other people and he did that so magnificently. What a wonderful man he was who did so much to make our State a better place and I commend the resolution to you.”

July 24, 2002

Senator Dalton:

“I did not know Liston that well. I served with him on Revenue Laws and knew him in the building, but in another sense, I knew him very well because of my friend and mentor, Jack Hunt. I think I see Jack up in the audience. Jack was Liston’s Rules Chair and Speaker Pro Tempore, and certainly Liston lives on with Jack Hunt telling the stories of the tough times and the good times and the great mark that this man made for North Carolina. Also, I remember the memorial service and something that was read at the memorial service and I think Senator Odom read it on this floor. I wish had it today but I think it said something like when Liston did his acceptance speech he said, ‘We should have two priorities, we should make sure we have food for the stomachs of our people and food for their minds.’, and I think those are two great priorities and we will miss this great man.”

Senator Soles:

“Thank you Madame President and Ladies and Gentleman of the Senate. I had the great opportunity and pleasure of serving four terms in the House of Representatives with Liston Ramsey. He had only served two terms when I came on the scene so my career and his career have paralleled each other to a great extent. We always talk about Liston and the power that he had and the power that he gained as a member of the Legislature and I wondered where that power came from. I once thought it came from the fact that his character, his personal well being, and his love for the people of the mountains, but it also came from his knowledge and his respect of the rules that were written and the unwritten rules and traditions of the Legislature. You know we have a rule book here and they have one in the House and you are supposed to abide by them but there are lots of rules that have grown-up around here over tradition and over the years and those rules are just as important, I say to you, as those rules that are in the book. Liston knew those rules and he expected everyone to know them and abide by them. I was rather amazed to see here that Liston served the longest of anyone of the State’s history because if that’s correct, then I am serving the second longest of anyone of the State’s history and I frankly had not taken the time to look that up and to see that. He and I were good friends and we were always talking about who was going to last the longest, stay around the longest, and that was always done in jest. I hope that whenever I leave here that I will have the respect that he has.”

Senator Miller:

“I was elected to the State House in 1992 and at the time I referred to it as my first term. My service in the House ended involuntarily at the 1994 election and I now refer to that as my term. Speaker Ramsey, when I got there was then the former Speaker and his tenure as Speaker had ended also involuntarily. Senator Albertson referred to that, and I think it would have been easy for him to sulk and not be fully engaged. I remember sitting in the Finance Committee and he was front and center, fully engaged and paying attention to every detail of every bill, asking very informed, thoughtful, penetrating questions. I remember the amendment that he added to every bill that provided for a board or commission that had more than twelve members and that required that one member of a commission come from each of the State's twelve congressional districts. That amendment which, of course, always passed, that amendment I'm sure deprived a lot of my constituents, Senator Reeve's and my constituents, of seats on the State's Boards and Commissions. That amendment assured that the State government did truly represent the whole State. On the floor he was a good deal less likely to play that role, he did not believe in doing committee work on the floor and there were many times when someone would ask a question that the bill sponsor who did not know the bill as well they should, the bill sponsor would fumble answering questions and there would be more questions and more fumbled responses and we'd start looking around nervously wondering if the bill was ok and he would speak up and speak as briefly as the advice that he gave Senator Metcalf about running for the Senate. His speech would be, 'Mr. Speaker I think this is a good bill and we ought to support it.' and he would sit down and the whole House would settle right down. That was all they needed to hear. He was a great legislator; he was a great example to any of us in either Chamber, House or Senate, to what our role should be, to how we should behave, to how we should do the people's business. He was an old-fashioned paw and we'd be much better off if there were more like him."

July 24, 2002

Senator Lee:

"Thank you Madame President and Ladies and Members of the Senate, I met Liston back in 1972 when we were appointed to serve on a committee reorganizing the Democratic Party. I had heard of him and, of course, when we first got on the committee our relationship was a little rocky. He considered me that Wide-Eyed Liberal from Chapel Hill and I considered him that Right-Wing Conservative from the mountains. During the time, we went at each other but over the course of working on that committee, we developed a healthy respect for each other and learned very quickly that we had false impressions of each other from the very beginning. Liston and I developed a very positive relationship and the thing I remember most is how this man could preside over a committee. He understood rules, he understood how to manage a committee, he understood what the goal was, and he very precisely had us on task throughout our efforts. So, when we left that committee we left with a high degree of respect and admiration for what each of us had contributed to our responsibility. I did not see him again until the late 70's when Governor Hunt appointed me to his cabinet and I was assigned to work the Legislature on behalf of the Zoo to try to get an appropriations. That was not fun because I had to come see people like Liston Ramsey and Aaron Plyler and many others who reminded me that the Legislature had made an appropriations to the Zoo early on and that they were promised if that appropriation was made we would never ask again for any more money. We successfully got the funds for the Zoo and I, of course, developed again a strong relationship with Speaker Ramsey. When I came to the Legislature in the early 90's, of course, he had become former Speaker but the admiration which started in the early 70's certainly continued and our relationship with each other grew to be even more positive during the time I served in the Legislature. I think one goal in life we should all have is to try and make a contribution in such a way that will leave behind when we are gone something that will go on forever and that I think that is where life after death is grounded. If that is indeed true, Liston Ramsey will live forever because he has left behind many contributions from which those of us who now live and young people and generations yet unborn will have great benefit to enjoy from his work. I'm delighted to stand in support of the resolution and recommend it to you for consideration."

Senator Plyler:

"Thank you Madame Chairman and Members of the Senate. I knew Liston Ramsey July 24, 2002" for a long, long time. When I first came to the Legislature, I was elected in 1974 and started in 1975, but I remember right after the general election he had an orientation of the House Members over at one of the buildings at the Fairground and the first advice that Liston gave me was, 'Plyler, you are in the House of Representatives now, you be careful about how you commit to people like the Speaker and all. You do not want to get out too early.' Of course, I thought I knew it all at that time which I didn't, but that was good advice. Then I went on and served with Liston for eight years and then he was Speaker and he was always the fairest person that you could find anywhere. He believed in the Legislative process and he followed the Legislative process right down to the end all of the time. He would organize the House in a way that there would be eight cubicles there and each cubicle had a certain group of people that they would talk to. It was certain people in that cubicle who would talk to the other people and when the vote came, it would come the way it should come, the right way, and the way Liston saw it. I served on with him, as many of you have, up until near the time that he passed away, in the sub-committee on General Government and Appropriations. We met there about once a month and Liston would always take a part in it in some way, but noticing him when he was defeated for Speaker he never, like Senator Robinson said, he never did show any part of anger or anything. He just went on about his work and worked hard and tried to do what was best for North Carolina. So I miss Liston. I thought the man was one of the finest men that I have ever known, and I would encourage your support of this resolution."

Senator Rand:

"Mr. Ramsey loved the mountains, he loved his family, he loved the Democratic Party, and loved this institution and he was very important in all of those areas. I was one of the members of the Gang of Eight along with Senator Plyler. I guess we are the last of those, no Representative Nesbitt is still around. But in all of that, you could not be exposed to that and exposed to him for that period of time without understanding the strength of character and the commitment he brought to the process. To him politics was almost a contact sport. He loved it and he went at it as hard as he knew how. He loved the people of North Carolina not as a group but he loved them individually, I think. He really meant for the people of this State to be better off and to be looked after and he was there to make sure that when things were done that they were considered. He was an unusual man, he was a mountain man in every sense of the word and our State owes him a great deal. Thank you Madame President."

Senator Ballance:

"Thank you Madame President. I served with and under the leadership of Liston Ramsey in 1983 and 1985. He was a good man."

Senator Kerr:

"Madame President, as you know, you and I went to the House together and we talk about Ramsey, he loved the members, and he supported the members. You could have the most powerful person in North Carolina in his office and if a member, who was a freshman, a Democrat or Republican, came there and saw Miss Dot, and I would have to say a word about Dot Barber too, you went right into the office and the elegant old lady went outside. So, he not only was loyal to his family and to the people of North Carolina, but he was loyal to the members of this institution. He had a terrific mind, he was not a quitter, and as Charlie said and as everybody has said, ten years after he had a tragic defeat and betrayal he came here and did the job and went to the committees every day, a lot better than some of us do, he was on the front row. When I used to take a bill, when I came to the Senate, to the House Finance Committee and he started asking questions you knew you were in trouble because he was right on the money. His mind was like a steel trap and he understood Finance. When I first came here everyone wanted to be on Appropriations. I guess Beverly got on appropriations. He said Kerr, we can always find the fools who can spend money, you need to go to Finance and find out how this institution really ticks because you will enjoy what you’ve got to learn on Finance, you won’t learn it on Appropriations because you have got everybody in the State begging you to death and, of course I said, I got all these State institutions and hospitals in my district, I got to be on Appropriations', he said, 'No you're going to Finance', and in the long run it was the best thing he ever did for me. I appreciate that loyalty and that friendship and Dot Barber was certainly a big part of his life as his assistant all through the good times and the tough times and I certainly appreciate what she did and it was a real honor to know that you had a mountain man whose word was his bond and some people I think forgot some things and betrayed him. He never let you know that he held any grudge against anybody and I think this collective Body has summed up the man, as a great man, a friend of mine, and I certainly commend the resolution."

July 24, 2002

Senator Basnight:
"Thank you Madam President and Members of the Senate. Unfortunately, for all the North Carolinians that are much younger than us, and I say this to all the Pages and all the Pages in this State, and all the people who are in school today, and of a different generation who will never have another Liston Ramsey. North Carolina is the loser because of that. He was so gracious and he was so kind. His persona was much different, he would never have a tie on such as I have on today which happens to be a gift from one of you. He wasn’t that flashy, he wasn’t the kind of person that when he walked in the room you expected a great deal but when you settled down in the room you learned very quickly that there was a lot to be said and a lot to be heard from. Dot, the first time that you opened the door and allowed me in his office to speak with him is one that I'll treasure forever just as all of you treasure the different moments you had with him and him telling me and explaining me that there wasn't much difference in us than I was a lowlander and he was a highlander, but we needed to remember that all of us were a people that were granted an opportunity that should be given the chance to succeed and not to forget the little person,. Everyone spoke so nicely of that, that he was a man that never forgot and he's a man that we'll never forget. Thank you Martha, thank you Dot, thank you family, thank you mountains."

Senator Webster:
"I met Liston Ramsey after years of hearing things about him from some friends of mine and I learned another lesson from this process: Don't let anybody ever tell you whether the pot is seasoned right, taste it for yourself, and don't ever let other people pick your friends for you. I found Liston Ramsey to be all of the things you said, a man of his word, respectful of other people and he would always help you. I was very fortunate to work with Speaker Ramsey on the Revenue Law Study Commission, and that is where I got to know him and, Martha, I thank you for the opportunity. Otherwise, I'd probably never gotten to know him. I really, really missed him, I tell you, when he wasn't there anymore. Thank you for sharing him with us."

Senator Foxx:
"Thank you Madame President. I think the resolution now is a fine resolution for us to send on to these folks who are doing their best to promote economic development in the Appalachian region and the western part of North Carolina. I want to make just a couple of comments about 'Lulu Belle' Weisman Stamey and I have some material that we gathered in preparation for this and I want to share just a couple of comments with you. This is from her obituary which occurred in the Guardian. 'Male American country musicians have taken readily to the political campaign trail but one of the few women to take that path, and almost certainly the first to hold office, was Lulu Belle Weisman, a 30's and 40's country radio star who went on to serve two terms as a North Carolina State Representative.' They talk a lot about the role that she played as a perky, sassy, hillbilly gal in gingham and high-laced boots. She really was an extraordinarily fine entertainer. I got a chance to know Lulu Belle when she retired and lived in the mountains when I was President of Mayland Community College. Her second husband, Earnest Stamey, became a really, really good friend of mine through the Rotary Club and Lulu Belle was a terrific person. She was quick to come and join in events, sing an impromptu song, but she was always so positive and upbeat in everything that she did. People admired her tremendously in our area and we were really very, very fortunate to have her come back to the area and be a part of the community along with her second husband and be involved with lots and lots of things that went on there. Mindful of the time today, I am going to cut short my remarks, but I say to you I think it is a very fine thing that we do to honor her memory and to think about again what a terrific role model she was. She left a very, very successful career and came back to the mountains, as many of us wish to do. The mountains have a strong hold on us as the comments about Speaker Ramsey have been made and they did on Lulu Belle, too. I commend the resolution to you."

The Committee Substitute joint resolution, as amended, passes its second (45-0) and third readings and is ordered engrossed and sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

S.J.R. 1473, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF CHARLES EDWARD TAYLOR, THE WORLD'S FIRST AIRPLANE MECHANIC,

July 25, 2002
AND URGING THE CITIZENS OF THIS STATE TO RECOGNIZE MAY 24 OF EACH YEAR AS NORTH CAROLINA AVIATION MAINTENANCE TECHNICIAN DAY IN HONOR OF CHARLES EDWARD TAYLOR AND ALL THE AVIATION MAINTENANCE TECHNICIANS WHO HAVE FOLLOWED IN HIS FOOTSTEPS.

Upon motion of Senator Berger, the rules are suspended, without objection, and the joint resolution is taken up out of its regular order and placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Berger, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Foxx, the remarks of Senator Berger and Senator Basnight memorializing Charles Edward Taylor, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Berger:
"Thank you Madame President. You know one of the great things about serving in the Senate is we learn a lot about North Carolina history that we didn't know about before and Charles Edward Taylor is probably one of the more significant people that most of us have never heard of. He is the third person that is significant in the Wright Brothers' Flight. Everybody knows about Orville and Wilbur, but nobody really knows about the individual that actually built the engine that powered the airplane that took that first historic flight. Charles Taylor was born in Illinois and his family moved to Nebraska when he was very young. He quit school at age 12 and found that he could work with his hands and tools very well. He got a job in a bicycle shop when he moved to Ohio and it happened that the owners of that bicycle shop were Wilbur and Orville Wright and they were in the process of making trips to a place near Kitty Hawk, North Carolina testing a glider. Before Charles Edward Taylor came along, the Wright brothers were glider pilots. After he worked with them and built their engine, they were airplane pilots. I think Mr. Taylor was very significant in the life of North Carolina, in the life of our nation, and it is a fitting thing that we honor him with this resolution. He died in 1956. Federal Aviation Administration recognizes and honors Mr. Taylor with an award to individuals who work in aviation mechanics or maintenance and that award is called the Charles Edward Taylor Master Mechanic Award. That award is issued to mechanics and repairman who have worked in aviation for at least fifty years and of those fifty years at least thirty of those years the applicant has to be an FAA mechanic or repairman with a certification. We have some gentlemen here that are interested in flight and interested in aviation mechanics, and I understand the Lieutenant Governor will recognize those gentlemen after the resolution is voted on. I do urge your support of the resolution.

Senator Basnight:
"Thank you Madame President and Members of the Senate. Thank you Senator Berger and Senator Carpenter for bringing this resolution to the Senate today to honor, obviously, someone who made a huge contribution to flight that day. Without his knowledge of making things work with an engine that had to be awfully light at the time, the brothers would not have flown. It would have happened to someone else somewhere else and not in Kitty Hawk. It's rare that we give much recognition to this effort, the first flight, in North Carolina. I kind of look around here and I don't even know if there is a picture of the first flight in Raleigh anywhere. We had some initiative at one time to maybe give some recognition to that famous day in 1903 and maybe that'll still happen. But, bringing this forward is fantastic and I salute you and thank Charles Taylor for what he did.

The joint resolution passes its second reading (47-0) and third readings and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

Upon motion of Senator Berger, the President extends the courtesies of the gallery to July 25, 2002

No guaranteed energy savings contract shall be awarded by any governmental unit unless at least two proposals have been received from qualified providers. Provided that if after the publication of the notice of the request for proposals, fewer than two proposals have been received from qualified providers, the governing body of the governmental unit shall again publish notice of the request and if as a result of the second notice, one or more proposals by qualified providers are received, the governmental unit may then open the proposals and select a qualified provider even if only one proposal is received.

Proposals shall contain estimates of all costs of installation, modification, or remodeling, including costs of design, engineering, installation, maintenance, and debt service, and estimates of energy savings.

(2) The local governmental unit finds that the energy savings resulting from the performance of the contract will equal or exceed the total cost of the contract.

(3) The energy conservation measures to be installed under the contract are for an existing building.

(b) Before entering into a guaranteed energy savings contract, the local governmental unit shall provide published notice of the time and place or of the meeting at which it proposes to award the contract, the names of the parties to the proposed contract, and the contract's purpose. The notice must be published at least 15 days before the date of the proposed award or meeting.

(c) A qualified provider entering into a guaranteed energy savings contract under this Part shall provide a bond to the local governmental unit in the amount equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the total cost of the guaranteed energy savings contract to assure the provider's faithful performance. Any bonds required by this subsection shall be subject to the provisions of Article 3 of Chapter 44A of the General Statutes. If the savings resulting from a guaranteed energy savings contract are not as great as projected under the contract and all required shortfall payments to the local governmental unit have not been made, the local governmental unit may terminate the contract without incurring any additional obligation to the qualified provider.

(d) As used in this section, "total cost" shall include, but not be limited to, costs of construction, costs of financing, and costs of maintenance and training during the term of the contract. "Total cost" does not include any obligations on termination of the contract before its expiration, provided that those obligations are disclosed when the contract is executed.

(e) A guaranteed energy savings contract may not require the local governmental unit to purchase a maintenance contract or other maintenance agreement from the qualified provider who installs energy conservation measures under the contract if the local unit of government takes appropriate action to budget for its own forces or another provider to maintain new systems installed and existing systems affected by the guaranteed energy savings contract."

In addition, within 60 days after each annual anniversary date of a guaranteed energy savings contract, the State governmental unit must report the status of the contract to the State Energy Office, including any details required by the State Energy Office. The State Energy Office shall compile the information for each fiscal year and report it to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations and to the Local Government Commission annually by December 1. § 142-64. Procedure for incurrence or issuance of financing contract.

(a) When a State governmental unit has solicited a guaranteed energy conservation measure, the State governmental unit shall request that the State Treasurer approve the State governmental unit's entering into a financing contract to finance the cost of the energy conservation measure. In connection with the request, the State governmental unit shall provide to the State Treasurer any information the State Treasurer requests in order to evaluate the request. In the event that the State Treasurer determines that financing efficiencies will be realized through the combining of financing contracts, then the State Treasurer is authorized to execute and deliver, for and on behalf of the State of North Carolina, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Article, a financing contract for the purpose of financing the cost of the multiple energy conservation measures.

(b) A financing contract may be entered into pursuant to this Article only after all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The Office of State Budget and Management has certified that resources are expected to be available to the State to pay the payments to fall due under the financing contract as they become due and payable.

(2) The Council of State has approved the execution and delivery of the financing contract by resolution that sets forth all of the following:
   a. The not-to-exceed term or final maturity of the financing contract, which shall be no later than 12 years from the date the financing contract is entered.
   b. The not-to-exceed interest rate or rates (or the equivalent thereof), which may be fixed or vary over a period of time, with respect to the financing contract.
   c. The appropriate officers of the State to execute and deliver the financing contract and all other documentation relating to it.

(3) The State Treasurer has approved the financing contract and all other documentation related to it, including any deed of trust, security agreement, trust agreement or any credit facility.

The resolution of the Council of State shall include any other matters the Council of State considers appropriate.

(c) In determining whether to approve a financing contract under subdivision (b)(3) of this section, the State Treasurer may consider the factors the State Treasurer considers relevant in order to find and determine all of the following:

(1) The principal amount to be advanced to the State under the financing contract is adequate and not excessive for the purpose of paying the cost of the energy conservation measure.

(2) The increase, if any, in State revenues necessary to pay the sums to become due under the financing contract are not excessive.

(3) The financing contract can be entered into on terms desirable to the State.

(4) In the case of delivery of certificates of participation, the sale of certificates of participation will not have an adverse effect upon any scheduled or proposed sale of obligations of the State or any State agency.

(d) The Office of State Budget and Management is authorized to certify that funds are expected to be available to the State to make the payments due under a financing contract.
contract entered into under the provisions of this section as the payments become due and payable. In so certifying, the Office of State Budget and Management may take into account expected decreases in appropriations to the State governmental unit that will offset payments expected to be made under the financing contract.

§ 142-65. Security; other requirements.

(a) In order to secure the performance by the State of its obligations under a financing contract or any other related documentation, the State may grant a lien on, or security interest in, all or any part of the energy conservation property or the land upon which the energy conservation property is or will be located.

(b) No deficiency judgment may be rendered against the State or any State governmental unit in any action for breach of any obligation contained in a financing contract or any other related documentation, and the taxing power of the State is not and may not be pledged directly or indirectly to secure any moneys due under a financing contract or any other related documentation. In the event that the General Assembly does not appropriate funds sufficient to make payments required under a financing contract or any other related documentation, the net proceeds received from the sale, lease, or other disposition of the property subject to the lien or security interest created pursuant to subsection (a) of this section shall be applied to satisfy these payment obligations in accordance with the deed of trust, security agreement, or other documentation creating the lien or security interest. These net proceeds are hereby appropriated for the purpose of making these payments. Any net proceeds in excess of the amount required to satisfy the obligations of the State under the financing contract or any other related documentation shall be paid to the State Treasurer for deposit to the General Fund of the State.

(c) Neither a financing contract nor any other related documentation shall contain a nonsubstitution clause that restricts the right of the State to (i) continue to provide a service or conduct an activity or (ii) replace or provide a substitute for any State property that is the subject of an energy conservation measure.

(d) A financing contract may include provisions requesting the Governor to submit in the Governor's budget proposal, or any amendments or supplements to it, appropriations necessary to make the payments required under the financing contract.

(e) A financing contract may contain any provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the person advancing moneys or providing funds under the financing contract that are reasonable and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the State in respect of the purposes to which the funds advanced under a financing contract may be applied, and the duties of the State with respect to the property subject to the lien or security interest created pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, including, without limitation, provisions relating to insuring and maintaining any property and the custody, safeguarding, investment, and application of moneys.

(f) The interest component of the installment payments to be made under a financing contract may be calculated based upon a fixed or variable interest rate or rates as determined by the State Treasurer.

(g) If the State Treasurer determines that it is in the best interest of the State, the State may enter into, or arrange for the delivery of, a credit facility to secure payment of the payments due under a financing contract or to secure payment of the purchase price of any certificates of participation delivered as provided in this Article.

§ 142-66. Payment provisions.

The payment of amounts payable by the State under a financing contract and any other related documentation during any fiscal biennium or fiscal year shall be limited to funds appropriated for that purpose by the General Assembly in its discretion. No provision of this Article and no financing contract or any other related documentation shall be construed or interpreted as creating a pledge of the faith and credit of the State or any agency, department, or commission of the State within the meaning of any constitutional debt limitation.

§ 142-67. Certificates of participation.

(a) If the State Treasurer determines that the State would realize debt service savings under one or more financing contracts if certificates of participation are issued with respect to the rights to receive payments under the financing contract, then the State Treasurer is authorized to take actions, with the consent of the Council of State, that will effectuate the delivery of certificates of participation for that purpose.

(b) Terms; Interest. – Certificates of participation may be sold by the State Treasurer in the manner, either at public or private sale, and for any price or prices that the State Treasurer determines to be in the best interest of the State and to effect the purposes of this Article, except that the terms of the sale must also be approved by the special corporation. Interest payable with respect to certificates of participation shall accrue at the rate or rates determined by the State Treasurer with the approval of the special corporation.

(c) Trust Agreement. – Certificates of participation may be delivered pursuant to a trust agreement or similar instrument with a corporate trustee approved by the State Treasurer.

§ 142-68. Tax exemption.

Any financing contract entered pursuant to this Article, and any certificates of participation relating to it, shall at all times be free from taxation by the State or any political subdivision or any of their agencies, excepting estate, inheritance, and gift taxes; income taxes on the gain from the transfer of the financing contract or certificates of participation; and franchise taxes. The interest component of the installment payments made by the State under the financing contract, including the interest component of any certificates of participation, is not subject to taxation as income.

§ 142-69. Other agreements.

The State Treasurer may authorize, execute, obtain, or otherwise provide for bond insurance, investment contracts, credit and liquidity facilities, credit enhancement facilities, interest rate swap agreements and other derivative products, and any other related instruments and matters the State Treasurer determines are desirable in connection with entering into financing contracts and issuing certificates of participation pursuant to this Article. The State Treasurer is authorized to employ and designate any financial consultants, underwriters, fiduciaries, and bond attorneys to be associated with any financing contracts or certificates of participation under this Article as the State Treasurer considers appropriate.

§ 142-70. Investment eligibility.

Financing contracts entered into pursuant to this Article, and any certificates of participation relating to them, are securities or obligations in which all of the following may invest, including capital in their control or belonging to them: public officers, agencies, and public bodies of the State and its political subdivisions; insurance companies, trust companies, investment companies, banks, savings banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, pension or retirement funds, and other financial institutions engaged in business in the State; and executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries. Financing contracts entered pursuant to this Article, and any certificates of participation relating to them, are securities or obligations that may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any officer or agency of the State or any political subdivision of the State for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds, notes, or obligations of the State or any political subdivision is now or may later be authorized by law.

CALENDAR

Bills and resolutions on today’s Calendar are taken up and disposed of, as follows:

H.J.R. 1778, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF LINWOOD EBORN MERCER, FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Senator Martin of Pitt offers a motion that the House joint resolution be taken up out of its regular order of business and placed before the Senate for immediate consideration, which motion prevails.

With unanimous consent, upon motion of Senator Martin of Pitt, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Foxx, the remarks of the Senators memorializing the life and memory of Linwood Eborn Mercer, former Member of the House of Representatives, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Martin of Pitt:

"Madame President and Members of the Senate, I apologize to you for putting this on the Calendar. I know that everybody is in a big hurry to go home. It looks like half of them have already deserted us and gone on. It was either that and the Rules Chairman said we had better get it on here because our future meetings are uncertain. So here we are and we have with us members of the family and, Madame President, at the proper time I wish that you would recognize them. We have Becky Mercer and Gary with us and also members of her staff. Alice, his wife, had to go home because of a medical situation. She had a meeting this morning and the other children with new babies thought it best that they go home, too. So here we are. Linwood Mercer and his family and I were dear friends. We got to know each other years ago. Linwood was a native of Pitt County. If you want anything funny told about Linwood, you will have to see Representative Zeno Edwards. He was raised with Zeno Edwards. Zeno was his dentist and he knows a lot of things about Linwood that I didn't know and he tells me a lot of things. Linwood was quite a character; he was educated and raised in Beaufort County and moved to Pitt County in 1974 and went into the warehousing business. It is noted that the warehousing goods and things for manufacturers and what have you so that they have a quick, short distance to be delivered. Being a good businessman that he was, he soon expanded into other businesses, a hardware store and real estate and Alice, his wife, ran the hardware store and I think in the real estate business he had a hired employee for that. Anyway, he expanded real fast and Linwood incorporated himself into what was known as The Mercer Group. It proved very good to him. Being the good businessman that he was, he wanted to be in a good community, a well-operated community, a business community that was out on the move and trying to go somewhere and he was real interested in that. He took the lead in that and he was elected Mayor not long after moving to Farmville and he served, I think, about five or six years as Mayor. If you went to Farmville at that time as I was doing and you wanted to get any notice or you wanted to get any political attention, you went to see Linwood Mercer first. He set the stage for it and if he didn't set the stage for it, you would have a heck of a time. He served as a County Commissioner of Pitt County for six years after that. Of course, he came to the Legislature for another six years. After losing the election for Congress, he decided to go into lobbying as you know. I know that he has lobbied some of you, not all of you, he was very successful in it. Linwood was a good fellow, he was a good man, always had a smile on his face. He was not brash, not overbearing, but someone who came to you very softly and you couldn't help but like the fellow and soon you'd find yourself trying to find ways to help him if he had a problem or if you had a problem he was always willing and ready to help you solve that problem. He could do it, too, in most cases. He was a man who wanted to help his fellow man. He just loved the people and wanted to help the people in their problems and in their positions, not brash at all. He wanted a good community, he was very interested in that which he worked at and later as a Representative he worked real hard. Everybody liked him and he was doing a good job in Pitt County and parts of Edgecombe County as a Representative. His family and my family spent a lot of time together over fried chicken that was fried by Representative Edith Warren, and she has quite a reputation for fried chicken and we have gotten to know each other real well through the years. They are a fine family and, as I noted, his daughter Becky, Madame President, is in the gallery and we would appreciate her recognition and thank you. I commend the resolution to you and urge its adoption.”

August 15, 2002

Senator Rand:

"Thank you very much Madame President and Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. Linwood Mercer was truly a great man. He was a great friend to our family and he and my sister were classmates in Chapel Hill together and Linwood became a good friend of our mother and he would go by and see her from time to time. That was a great source of laughter and joy in her life when Linwood would visit with her from time to time and I always greatly appreciated him doing that. He was a great friend of mine, he was a wonderful fellow to politic with, he was a wonderful fellow just to be with and he always brought a great deal of joy and pleasure to whatever involvement that you might have with him. So, I greatly support this resolution and I give thanks for the life of Linwood and thanks to his family for allowing us to share him with them over the years because he added a great deal to everything we do. Thank you."

Senator Miller:
"Thank you Madame President. Senator Martin of Pitt said that in his youth Linwood Mercer was quite a character. As near as I can tell that is not something that changed throughout the course of his lifetime. He was a character the whole time I knew him. After I was elected to the House in 1992, that was when Linwood was elected also and he was one of the first people I got to know and he quickly became the social chairman for our class. He invited us all over to his condominium, serving us scotch, becoming friends and I quickly realized that this place, the House and the Senate, is largely based upon personal relationships. He was a companionable guy, he was fun to be with. He did not take himself too seriously nor did he take any of the rest of us too seriously, which probably helped all of us to not take ourselves too seriously. I will miss Linwood, I will miss his scotch and I will miss his company."

Senator Dannelly:
"Thank you Madame President. When I first came to the Senate and went on my first conference trip and I was standing out at a reception and a young man I didn't know walked up and introduced himself with a big smile on his face. 'Hey, I'm Linwood Mercer.' I asked him, 'What do you do?' and he says, 'I'm across the hall from you.' From that point on we had been friends. Linwood never met a person, it seems, that he didn't like or could not get along with. One thing I found out about him, if he promised you something he would break his neck doing whatever he promised and he would put 150% behind it. He is one person that when his daughters would approach him, a smile would come across his face every time, and it was a beautiful thing to see on a father's face because of his love of his children, his daughters, his family. The last time that, Linwood liked a good time, and the last time we had a good time together was in Quebec, Canada. I am sorry to say that I was the only Senator there from North Carolina, but I thoroughly enjoyed that trip and thoroughly enjoyed getting to know Linwood better and I would say to his family, thank you for allowing him to be a friend of mine."

Senator Basnight:
"Thank you Madame President. Members of the Senate and to the family, thank you for being here. In thinking of Linwood, he certainly had a great love for his constituents and for the State of North Carolina and for us. This was his home as John said. This is the place of his business, but also he had other businesses as well, and that was the people of the district that he represented. He better knew the people that lived on the dirt roads than anyone I knew. He understood their difficulties, their strain in life. He could have commerce there, he had conversation there. I first met him through Bob Martin. There were ways that Linwood had of touching you. It was invisible and you didn't know it was going on. You knew Ed Warren was saying something about some need. Bob Martin had a more direct approach of, 'Why are you so slow? Why aren't we doing this?'. Then you could feel him come from different places, House members would show up. John Kerr, he has a hidden way of making sure things are known in his community without telling you about it until the very end. So, he would influence a lot of different people with his goals and with what he was trying to achieve. He was a person who cared a great deal about each and everyone in the General Assembly. He was a good human being. We will miss people like Linwood more later than we do today, because he brought to the building a connection to the people who lived on the dirt roads. We loved him and thank you very much.”

August 15, 2002

TWO-HUNDRED TWENTY-THIRD DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, August 29, 2002

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, this is a most unusual and difficult time in the Senate. This is an election year. There are colleagues of the same party running against each other in primary elections. There are Senators sorting through their years of service here, having decided not to run again. There's a budget still to be negotiated."

"I know how other people have described 'defining moments', like hoisting a flag at Iwo Jima, the heroism of September 11, Moses experiencing the burning bush.

"Today, I pray that these Senators will experience something of a defining moment, when the wealth of their experience, their knowledge of the needs of the people, and their passion for helping will energize their actions during the remaining days in this legislative session. Amen."

Senator Rand announces that the Journal of yesterday, Wednesday, August 28, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

With unanimous consent, upon motion of Senator Reeves, the privileges of the floor are extended to Miss North Carolina 2002, Misty Clymer. Senator Lee, Senator Miller, Senator Purcell, and Senator Reeves are appointed to escort Miss North Carolina to the Well of the Senate.

Upon motion of Senator Fox, the remarks of Senator Basnight, Senator Miller, Senator Reeves, and Miss North Carolina, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Reeves:

"Thank you Mr. President. I would like to present to the Senate Miss Misty Clymer from Raleigh, North Carolina. She has lived in a number of states and she works for IBM; she is an accountant there. Her big issue that she has for the State right now, and I would like to address that to Ed Warren, deals with the importance of CPR and basic life saving techniques. Ed has been a real champion of these issues here. Welcome to the Senate and we look forward to your thoughts."

Miss North Carolina:

"President Pro Tempore Basnight, Members of the Senate, Ladies and Gentlemen, the opportunity to embark on a year of service as Miss North Carolina has been an opportunity to observe and appreciate the true beauty of our State - its people. Since I was crowned, I've traveled from the mountains to the coast making personal appearances, giving interviews, and meeting our citizens. I believe that even though we all came here on different ships, we are all on the same boat now. I came to be Miss North Carolina in a unique time, one of economic transition, workplace uncertainty, and also at a time of unprecedented patriotism and national resolve. I sought the title of Miss North Carolina for the scholarship. It would provide me an opportunity to pursue my master's degree at Campbell University. My undergraduate degree is in accounting and I work as an accountant for IBM in the Research Triangle Park. I saw, firsthand, the results of the slump in the technology industry and that experience has provided me the theme for my service as Miss North Carolina. I understand the challenges in our economy and I have dedicated myself to speaking about the need for corporate accountability, economic development, and encouraging and celebrating the commitment to our communities. For over sixty-five years, the Miss North Carolina Pageant has existed to make the academic and career dreams of young women a reality. The Miss North Carolina Pageant, first and foremost, gives its participants life skills. It gives young women the opportunity to pursue education but also to pursue important life goals. Community service, scholarship, and performance are the hallmark of this program. The Miss North Carolina pageant encourages young women to not wait until they’re older to make a difference. They encourage them to have a voice now. My Miss America story has been ongoing for the past six years. The pageant has given me the opportunity to complete my undergraduate degree and has given me a forum to discuss an important issue that is very close to my heart - CPR and basic life saving education. One in three Americans will be presented with the opportunity to assist in an emergency situation. Sadly, Americans are not prepared for this situation. I have ... at the Red Cross for several years in CPR education and I know the importance of this training. I serve on the IBM Emergency Response Team and I have been called upon to administer emergency treatment. I am committed to enhancing community-based support services for emergency first-aid care. I will leave on September 6, with all the other Miss America 2002 Contestants, for Philadelphia for a couple of days and then we will move on to Atlantic City for the actual pageant. The pageant will be televised on ABC on September 21. This opportunity is one that I take very seriously because Miss America is a celebrity and this will allow me to advocate for first-aid both to a corporate culture that needs to have faith restored, as well as for physically injured people who need emergency medical treatment. I am proud to be Miss North Carolina, I am proud to be a North Carolinian. Leadership opportunities come to us in a variety of ways and I have seized upon this opportunity to serve as Miss North Carolina 2002 as my chance to lead, as an ambassador for our State and as a spokesperson for issues that affect quality of life. I truly believe that the road to success is always under construction. Our aim must be to use tools we are given and opportunities we are blessed with to create positive change in our communities. I, along with you, eagerly accept this challenge because if we place others first we will never be last. Thank you.”

August 29, 2002

Senator Miller:

“We do have something for you to remember your visit to the Senate. We have a flag of the State of North Carolina that is presented to you on behalf of Senator Basnight and all the Members of the Senate. We hope you will take this and remember us and perhaps you can display this in your hotel room in Atlantic City.”

Miss North Carolina:

“Absolutely. The Miss America Convention Hall actually encourages banners and flags to be flown, so this will be flown right beside my family in the Miss America Convention Hall. I appreciate this gift. Thank you.”

Senator Basnight:

“You represent the finest of all the States and you will do so properly and, hopefully, bring back the crown as Miss America, but if not, remember that this is a State that gives opportunity and properly so on behalf of freedoms, gives the best educational opportunity of all States, and it’s a State of great love for its people. God Speed.”

The President Pro Tempore recognizes the Committee to escort Miss North Carolina from the Chamber.

Upon motion of Senator Gulley, seconded by Senator Rand, the Senate adjourns at 10:51 A.M. to meet tomorrow, Friday, August 30, at 9:05 A.M.

"As we prepare for the Labor Day holiday weekend, O God, we are aware of the many people who have lost jobs and careers due to the economy. Income can be replaced but more devastating to many is the loss of their vision for the future and their self-esteem. "Reach out to these people and restore to them a joy for living and a place at which to resume their vocations. Those of us with jobs are more grateful than words can express. As part of our good fortune, help us to bless others on this Labor Day weekend. Amen."

"Dear Lord, it is September 16 and there is still much legislation pending before the Senate and House, including the negotiation of a budget.
"Is it presumptuous for us, who are not actively involved in this process to pretend to know exactly how to pray in their behalf?
"Some want a lottery, others do not; some want the revenues from an additional tax, others do not; some want their way and no other; some are willing to negotiate.
"We pray for the conferees who have returned to negotiate this state budget.
"Maybe the best we can do is ask that you take away any resentments and frustrations that accompany such debate.
"Replace the microscope through which they look at the details of such legislation with a telescope through which they may see the benefits of their completed work. Give them hope and help. Amen."

No guaranteed energy savings contract shall be awarded by any governing body governmental unit unless at least two proposals have been received from qualified providers. Provided that if after the publication of the notice of the request for proposals, fewer than two proposals have been received from qualified providers, the governing body of the local governmental unit shall again publish notice of the request and if as a result of the second notice, one or more proposals by qualified providers are received, the governing body of the governmental unit may then open the proposals and select a qualified provider even if only one proposal is received.

(b) The local governmental unit shall evaluate a sealed proposal from any qualified provider. Proposals shall contain estimates of all costs of installation, modification, or remodeling, including costs of design, engineering, installation, maintenance, repairs, and debt service, and estimates of energy savings.

(d) The local governmental unit shall select the qualified provider that it determines to best meet the needs of the local governmental unit by evaluating all of the following:

1. Prices offered.
2. Proposed costs of construction, financing, maintenance, and training.
3. Quality of the products.

1. The term of the contract does not exceed 12 years from the date of the installation and acceptance by the local governmental unit of the energy conservation measures provided for under the contract.
2. The local governmental unit finds that the energy savings resulting from the performance of the contract will equal or exceed the total cost of the contract.
3. The energy conservation measures to be installed under the contract are for an existing building.

(b) Before entering into a guaranteed energy savings contract, the local governmental unit shall provide published notice of the time and place or of the meeting at which it proposes to award the contract, the names of the parties to the proposed contract, and the contract's purpose. Any bonds required by this subsection shall be subject to the provisions of Article 3 of Chapter 44A of the General Statutes. If the savings resulting from a guaranteed energy savings contract are not as great as projected under the contract and all required shortfall payments to the local governmental unit have not been made, the local governmental unit may terminate the contract without incurring any additional obligation to the qualified provider.

September 20, 2002
(d) As used in this section, "total cost" shall include, but not be limited to, costs of construction, costs of financing, and costs of maintenance and training during the term of the contract. § 142-63. Authorization of financing contract.
Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Article, a State governmental unit that has solicited a guaranteed energy conservation measure pursuant to G.S. 143-64.17A or G.S. 143-64.17B or the State Treasurer, as designated by the Council of State, is authorized to execute and deliver, for and on behalf of the State of North Carolina, a financing contract to finance the costs of the energy conservation measure. The aggregate principal amount payable by the State under financing contracts entered pursuant to this Article shall not exceed fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) at any one time.

§ 142-64. Procedure for incurrence or issuance of financing contract.
(a) When a State governmental unit has solicited a guaranteed energy conservation measure, the State governmental unit shall request that the State Treasurer approve the State governmental unit's entering into a financing contract to finance the cost of the energy conservation measure. In connection with the request, the State governmental unit shall provide to the State Treasurer any information the State Treasurer requests in order to evaluate the request. In the event that the State Treasurer determines that financing efficiencies will be realized through the combining of financing contracts, then the State Treasurer is authorized to execute and deliver, for and on behalf of the State of North Carolina, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Article, a financing contract for the purpose of financing the cost of the multiple energy conservation measures.

(b) A financing contract may be entered into pursuant to this Article only after due and payable.

2. The Council of State has approved the execution and delivery of

(3) The State Treasurer has approved the financing contract and all other documentation related to it, including any deed of trust, security agreement, trust agreement or any credit facility.

The resolution of the Council of State shall include any other matters the Council of State considers appropriate.

(c) In determining whether to approve a financing contract under subdivision (b)(3) of this section, the State Treasurer may consider the factors the State Treasurer considers relevant in order to find and determine all of the following:

(1) The principal amount to be advanced to the State under the financing contract is adequate and not excessive for the purpose of paying the cost of the energy conservation measure.

(2) The increase, if any, in State revenues necessary to pay the sums to become due under the financing contract are not excessive.

(3) The financing contract can be entered into on terms desirable to the State.

(4) In the case of delivery of certificates of participation, the sale of certificates of participation will not have an adverse effect upon any scheduled or proposed sale of obligations of the State or any State agency.

(d) The Office of State Budget and Management is authorized to certify that funds are expected to be available to the State to make the payments due under a financing contract entered into under the provisions of this section as the payments become due and payable. In so certifying, the Office of State Budget and Management may take into account expected decreases in appropriations to the State governmental unit that will offset payments expected to be made under the financing contract.

§ 142-65. Security; other requirements.

(a) In order to secure the performance by the State of its obligations under a financing contract or any other related documentation, the State may grant a lien on, or security interest in, all or any part of the energy conservation property or the land upon which the energy conservation property is or will be located.

(b) No deficiency judgment may be rendered against the State or any State governmental unit in any action for breach of any obligation contained in a financing contract or any other related documentation, and the taxing power of the State is not and may not be pledged directly or indirectly to secure any monies due under a financing contract or any other related documentation. In the event that the General Assembly does not appropriate funds sufficient to make payments required under a financing contract or any other related documentation, the net proceeds received from the sale, lease, or other disposition of the property subject to the lien or security interest created pursuant to subsection (a) of this section shall be applied to satisfy these payment obligations in accordance with the deed of trust, security agreement, or other documentation creating the lien or security interest. These net proceeds are hereby appropriated for the purpose of making these payments. Any net proceeds in excess of the amount required to satisfy the obligations of the State under the financing contract or any other related documentation shall be paid to the State Treasurer for deposit to the General Fund of the State.

September 20, 2002
(c) Neither a financing contract nor any other related documentation shall contain a nonsubstitution clause that restricts the right of the State to (i) continue to provide a service or conduct an activity or (ii) replace or provide a substitute for any State property that is the subject of an energy conservation measure.

(d) A financing contract may include provisions requesting the Governor to submit in the Governor's budget proposal, or any amendments or supplements to it, appropriations necessary to make the payments required under the financing contract.

(e) A financing contract may contain any provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the person advancing moneys or providing funds under the financing contract that are reasonable and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the State in respect of the purposes to which the funds advanced under a financing contract may be applied, and the duties of the State with respect to the property subject to the lien or security interest created pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, including, without limitation, provisions relating to insuring and maintaining any property and the custody, safeguarding, investment, and application of moneys.

(f) The interest component of the installment payments to be made under a financing contract may be calculated based upon a fixed or variable interest rate or rates as determined by the State Treasurer.

(g) If the State Treasurer determines that it is in the best interest of the State, the State may enter into, or arrange for the delivery of, a credit facility to secure payment of the payments due under a financing contract or to secure payment of the purchase price of any certificates of participation delivered as provided in this Article.

§ 142-66. Payment provisions.

The payment of amounts payable by the State under a financing contract and any other related documentation during any fiscal biennium or fiscal year shall be limited to funds appropriated for that purpose by the General Assembly in its discretion. No provision of this Article and no financing contract or any other related documentation shall be construed or interpreted as creating a pledge of the faith and credit of the State or any agency, department, or commission of the State within the meaning of any constitutional debt limitation.

§ 142-67. Certificates of participation.

(a) If the State Treasurer determines that the State would realize debt service savings under one or more financing contracts if certificates of participation are issued with respect to the rights to receive payments under the financing contract, then the State Treasurer is authorized to take actions, with the consent of the Council of State, that will effectuate the delivery of certificates of participation for that purpose.

(b) Terms; Interest. – Certificates of participation may be sold by the State Treasurer in the manner, either at public or private sale, and for any price or prices that the State Treasurer determines to be in the best interest of the State and to effect the purposes of this Article, except that the terms of the sale must also be approved by the special corporation. Interest payable with respect to certificates of participation shall accrue at the rate or rates determined by the State Treasurer with the approval of the special corporation.

(c) Trust Agreement. – Certificates of participation may be delivered pursuant to a trust agreement or similar instrument with a corporate trustee approved by the State Treasurer.

§ 142-68. Tax exemption.

Any financing contract entered pursuant to this Article, and any certificates of participation relating to it, shall at all times be free from taxation by the State or any political subdivision or any of their agencies, excepting estate, inheritance, and gift taxes; income taxes on the gain from the transfer of the financing contract or certificates of participation; and franchise taxes. The interest component of the installment payments made by the State under the financing contract, including the interest component of any certificates of participation, is not subject to taxation as income.

September 20, 2002

§ 142-69. Other agreements.

The State Treasurer may authorize, execute, obtain, or otherwise provide for bond insurance, investment contracts, credit and liquidity facilities, credit enhancement facilities, interest rate swap agreements and other derivative products, and any other related instruments and matters the State Treasurer determines are desirable in connection with entering into financing contracts and issuing certificates of participation pursuant to this Article. The State Treasurer is authorized to employ and designate any financial consultants, underwriters, fiduciaries, and bond attorneys to be associated with any financing contracts or certificates of participation under this Article as the State Treasurer considers appropriate.

§ 142-70. Investment eligibility.

Financing contracts entered into pursuant to this Article, and any certificates of participation relating to them, are securities or obligations in which all of the following may invest, including capital in their control or belonging to them: public officers, agencies, and public bodies of the State and its political subdivisions; insurance companies, trust companies, investment companies, banks, savings banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, pension or retirement funds, and other financial institutions engaged in business in the State; and executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries. Financing contracts entered pursuant to this Article, and any certificates of participation relating to them, are securities or obligations that may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any officer or agency of the State or any political subdivision of the State for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds, notes, or obligations of the State or any political subdivision is now or may later be authorized by law."

"Jacob cheated Esau, O God. Joseph's brothers sold him into slavery. The Prodigals elder brother couldn't stand to be in the same room with him. As the Bible presents it, one of the closest of all relationships, brotherhood and sisterhood, can also be one of the most contentious.

"We're like that, aren't we? Afraid some are loved more, favored more, or given more, or get away with more. Somehow signals are crossed, opportunities are missed, messages are unheard or unheeded.

"We can't help thinking what friends we might have been with some people if they hadn't been our enemies.

"We have pretty much the same fears and hopes. In this life, we come from the same place and are headed in the same direction. Enough said. Amen."

Senator Rand announces that the Journal of Friday, September 20, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

SECTION 1. Chapter 136 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

The General Assembly finds that the existing State road system is becoming increasingly congested and overburdened with traffic in many areas of the State; that the sharp surge of vehicle miles traveled is overwhelming the State's ability to build and pay for adequate road improvements; and that an adequate answer to this challenge will require the State to be innovative and utilize several new approaches to transportation improvements in North Carolina.

Toll funding of highway and bridge construction is feasible in North Carolina and can contribute to addressing the critical transportation needs of the State. A toll program

September 23, 2002

Upon motion of Senator Plyler, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Foxx, the remarks of Senator Plyler and Senator Purcell memorializing J.W. Marsh and honoring the Town of Marshville upon its 125th Anniversary are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Plyler:

"Thank you Mr. President. Members of the Senate, it is a real pleasure for me to stand here this evening and talk about Marshville, North Carolina. You know when you go up Highway 74 out of Anson County you go into a little area there and it looks like it's just a wide place in the road but it is a very important part of Union County and North Carolina. Marshville is about fifteen miles from Wadesboro and about twelve miles from Monroe and it has over the years been one of the favorite places in Union County. Some of the people that have lived there have really and truly developed a great market for their products and agriculture and various things that they have done in the town of Marshville and the surrounding areas. It is already listed on the Resolution that several businesses that are there, some of the ones that have done the major parts of developing Marshville and the area, but I would like to mention two or three others. The Stegall Company, the Stegall Trucking Company, the Stegall Lumber Company, and the various things that the Stegalls have done over the years, have helped develop that area very much. One of the young men that has one of the thriving business across the Country is U.S. Helicopter by young Chris Horne, Jr. He has about twenty helicopters and when you see news on the TV across the southeast and into Texas, Colorado and other places, you'll see the helicopters owned by this company. They have made a lot of movies and young Chris is rated as the second top helicopter stunt pilot in the whole world. They made the movie there that has already been mentioned, The Color Purple. I was going to Monroe one Friday afternoon and it was 101 degrees on the thermometer on my car and I happened to look to my right there in downtown Marshville and it was snowing like you have never seen it snow before. They were making artificial snow there so that was one of the spectacular things of this movie. Randy Travis, which is Randy Trawick as known there, but Randy Travis is known all over the world for his singing. He was born and raised right outside of Marshville. Many people have developed the area there and, of course, one of the things that we have always prided ourselves with was turkeys, poultry, and all kinds of livestock. If you have ever eaten any smoked turkey from the Stegall Smoked Turkeys in Marshville, you will know that is the original smoked turkey in the country. They started it there some forty-five to fifty years ago. You know its a real pleasure to have served the people in Marshville and surrounding area for twenty-eight years in the General Assembly and seeing how it has grown and seeing how they have progressed in many ways. It is just a real thrill for me to go to Marshville, as I did on Saturday, to their Boll Weevil Jamboree and they'd have the town full of people and people come from all over down in South Carolina and other areas across North Carolina. They have that every year. If you ever have the opportunity to go to the Jamboree, they have good food, good music, and good fellowship. Mr. President, the Mayor, the Council, and the Mayor's family and another person is in the gallery and at the proper time I would ask that you introduce them and at the proper time I would like to make a motion that this resolution go to the House by special message. Thank you."

Senator Purcell:

"Thank you Mr. President. I just want to speak briefly on the Resolution. I think the resolution and Senator Plyler really covered it pretty well, but I would encourage you if you are ever going through Marshville and need really a treat, get one of their smoked turkeys that Senator Plyler mentioned. They are really a great treat and make great gifts, also. If you ever want to give me one that would be fine. But, I want to say to the Mayor and members of the Council and all that are here that we are very happy about this occasion and I extend my sincere congratulations on the 125th Anniversary of Marshville and I know that there are going to be many, many more very successful years ahead."

September 23, 2002

The joint resolution passes its second reading (40-0) and third reading with members standing, and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

Upon motion of Senator Plyler and Senator Purcell, the President Pro Tempore extends the courtesies of the gallery to Mayor Larry B. Smith, Jr., his wife Tina, and his children, Camden and Russell; Council Member Dora Bridget; Council Member Denise Whitley; Town Administrator Carl Webber; and Ann Marsh McBride, great niece of founding father J.W. Marsh.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

By Senator Rand for the Rules and Operations of the Senate Committee:

S.R. 1456, A SENATE RESOLUTION HONORING FRANCES BASDEN FOR HER SERVICE TO PENDER COUNTY, with an unfavorable report as to Senate resolution, but favorable as to Committee Substitute joint resolution.

Pursuant to Rule 45.1, the proposed Committee Substitute joint resolution 6890, which changes the title to read S.J.R. 1456 (Committee Substitute), A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF FRANCES DAWSON BASDEN FOR HER SERVICE TO PENDER COUNTY, is adopted and engrossed.

With unanimous consent, upon motion of Senator Albertson, the Committee Substitute joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Soles, the remarks of Senator Albertson, Senator Ballantine, and Senator Soles, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Albertson:
"Thank you Madame President. Members of the Senate, I think it’s both fitting and proper that we take this time to honor this wonderful lady, Frances Basden from Pender County, for her years of service to the people of that county. Someone said one time that life was like a tennis game, the winners know how to serve. I can tell you based on what I knew about this lady, she was a winner in every sense of the word because she knew how to serve the people. As I think about Frances and as you listen to this resolution, she was really a trailblazer, a pioneer, in many ways. She was first Assistant Register of Deeds in Pender County, she went on to become the first woman to serve as the captain of the rescue squad, and she served in that position for a number of years. She also became a member of the Pender County Rotary Club and served as the first President for that organization. I truly believe that this lady knew what life was all about. She devoted the years of her life to serving her fellow human beings and I think that when the truth is known, that is what all of us are called to do and she was one of the best and I would recommend this resolution to you. Madame President, at the proper time we have members of her family and friends in gallery and I would appreciate it if you would recognize them."

Senator Ballantine:
"Thank you. Just briefly I wanted to say that in an age of partisan politics, me being a Republican and a part-time lawyer who sometimes went to Pender County, but my wife also practices law or did before our child, and did a lot of real estate closings, Frances was fair and honest, a woman of character and integrity, and just a fine decent person to all that came into her office, no matter what party, no matter what county. She was a woman that was admired by everyone."

Senator Soles:
"Frances Basden was truly an outstanding person. She went around doing good. In simple terms, she always was trying to find some way she could help someone else, whether you were in the Clerk of Court's Office, the Register of Deeds’ Office, whether you needed the rescue squad or otherwise, she always was putting others first. I was interested to see that she was the first President of the Pender County Rotary Club, and having been a member of the one in Tabor City for some thirty or so years, I am reminded that the motto of that club is ‘service before self’ and certainly she took that motto to heart and she went around putting service to others before herself and I encourage you to support this resolution."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (39-0) and third reading with members standing, and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

SECTION 1.(b) The Department of Health and Human Services, in conjunction with the Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, the Department of Public Instruction, and other affected agencies, shall submit a report on April 1, 2003, on the method of identifying and tracking children placed outside of the family unit in group homes or therapeutic foster care home settings to the House of Representatives Appropriations Subcommittee on Health and Human Services, the Senate Appropriations Committee on Health and Human Services, and the Fiscal Research Division.

SECTION 2. G.S. 115C-140.1(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other statute and without regard for the place of domicile of a parent or guardian, the cost of a free appropriate public education for a child with special needs who is placed in or assigned to a group home, foster home or other similar facility, pursuant to State and federal law, shall be borne by the local board of education in which the group home, foster home or other similar facility is located. However, the local school administrative unit in which a child is domiciled shall transfer to the local school administrative unit in which the institution is located an amount equal to the actual local cost in excess of State and federal funding required to educate that child in the local school administrative unit for the fiscal year. Nothing in this section obligates any local board of education to bear any cost for the care and maintenance of a child with special needs in a group home, foster home or other similar facility."

SECTION 3. The State Board of Education shall provide for a local school administrative unit to request funds from the Group Homes Program for Children with Disabilities if a child assigned to that unit was not in that unit's April headcount for exceptional children for the previous school year, even if the local school administrative unit received Group Homes Program funds for that child for a portion of the preceding school year.

(2) The monitoring of mental health, developmental disability, and substance abuse services.

(3) The communication procedures between the area authority or county program, the local department of social services, the local education authority, and the criminal justice agency, if involved with the individual, regarding the placement of the individual outside the individual's community and the transfer of the individual's records in accordance with law.

(4) The enrollment and revocation of enrollment of Medicaid providers who have been previously sanctioned by the Department and want to provide services under this Article."

SECTION 4.6. G.S. 150B-21.1 is amended by adding a new subsection (a10) to read:

After having the proposed temporary rule published in the North Carolina Register and at least 30 days prior to adopting a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, the Department shall:

SECTION 4.7. G.S. 7B-505 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-505. Place of nonsecure custody.

A juvenile meeting the criteria set out in G.S. 7B-503 may be placed in nonsecure custody with the department of social services or a person designated in the order for temporary residential placement in:

(1) A licensed foster home or a home otherwise authorized by law to provide such care; or

(2) A facility operated by the department of social services; or

(3) Any other home or facility, including a relative's home approved by the court and designated in the order.

In placing a juvenile in nonsecure custody under this section, the court shall first consider whether a relative of the juvenile is willing and able to provide proper care and supervision of the juvenile in a safe home. If the court finds that the relative is willing and able to provide proper care and supervision in a safe home, then the court shall order placement of the juvenile with the relative unless the court finds that placement with the relative would be contrary to the best interests of the juvenile. In placing a juvenile in nonsecure custody under this section, the court shall also consider whether it is in the juvenile's best interest to remain in the juvenile's community of residence. In placing a juvenile in nonsecure custody under this section, the court shall consider the Indian Child Welfare Act, Pub. L. No. 95-608, 25 U.S.C. §§ 1901, et seq., as amended, and the Howard M. Metzenbaum Multiethnic Placement Act of 1994, Pub. L. No. 103-382, 108 Stat. 4056, as amended, as they may apply. Placement of a juvenile with a relative outside of this State must be in accordance with the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children, Article 38 of this Chapter."

October 3, 2002

SECTION 4.8. G.S. 7B-903(a)(2)c. reads as rewritten:

"c. Place the juvenile in the custody of the department of social services in the county of the juvenile's residence, or in the case of a juvenile who has legal residence outside the State, in the physical custody of the department of social services in the county where the juvenile is found so that agency may return the juvenile to the responsible authorities in the juvenile's home state. The director may, unless otherwise ordered by the court, arrange for, provide, or consent to, needed routine or emergency medical or surgical care or treatment. In the case where the parent is unknown, unavailable, or unable to act on behalf of the juvenile, the director may, unless otherwise ordered by the court, arrange for, provide, or consent to any psychiatric, psychological, educational, or other remedial evaluations or treatment for the juvenile placed by a court or the court's designee in the custody or physical custody of a county department of social services under the authority of this or any other Chapter of the General Statutes. Prior to exercising this authority, the director shall make reasonable efforts to obtain consent from a parent or guardian of the affected juvenile. If the director cannot obtain such consent, the director shall promptly notify the parent or guardian that care or treatment has been provided and shall give the parent frequent status reports on the circumstances of the juvenile. Upon request of a parent or guardian of the affected juvenile, the results or records of the aforementioned evaluations, findings, or treatment shall be made available to such parent or guardian by the director unless prohibited by G.S. 122C-53(d). If a juvenile is removed from the home and placed in custody or placement responsibility of a county department of social services, the director shall not allow unsupervised visitation with, or return physical custody of the juvenile to, the parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker without a hearing at which the court finds that the juvenile will receive proper care and supervision in a safe home.

In placing a juvenile in out-of-home care under this section, the court shall first consider whether a relative of the juvenile is willing and able to provide proper care and supervision of the juvenile in a safe home. If the court finds that the relative is willing and able to provide proper care and supervision in a safe home, then the court shall order placement of the juvenile with the relative unless the court finds that the placement is contrary to the best interests of the juvenile. In placing a juvenile in out-of-home care under this section, the court shall also consider whether it is in the juvenile's best interest to remain in the juvenile's community of residence. Placement of a juvenile with a relative outside of this State must be in accordance with the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children."

SECTION 4.9. G.S. 7B-2502(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) In any case, the court may order that the juvenile be examined by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other qualified expert as may be needed for the court to determine the needs of the juvenile. In the case of a juvenile adjudicated delinquent for committing an offense that involves the possession, use, sale, or delivery of alcohol or a controlled substance, the court shall require the juvenile to be tested for the use of controlled substances or alcohol within 30 days of the adjudication. In the case of any juvenile adjudicated delinquent, the court may, if it deems it necessary, require the juvenile to be tested for the use of controlled substances or alcohol. The results of these initial tests conducted pursuant to this subsection shall be used for evaluation and treatment purposes only. In placing a juvenile in out-of-home care under this section, the court shall also consider whether it is in the juvenile's best interest to remain in the juvenile's community of residence."

SECTION 4.10. G.S. 7B-2503 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-2503. Dispositional alternatives for undisciplined juveniles.

The following alternatives for disposition shall be available to the court exercising jurisdiction over a juvenile who has been adjudicated undisciplined. In placing a juvenile in out-of-home care under this section, the court shall also consider whether it is in the juvenile's best interest to remain in the juvenile's community of residence. The court may combine any of the applicable alternatives when the court finds it to be in the best interests of the juvenile:

(1) In the case of any juvenile who needs more adequate care or supervision or who needs placement, the judge may:

a. Require that the juvenile be supervised in the juvenile's own home by a department of social services in the juvenile's county of residence, a juvenile court counselor, or other personnel as may be available to the court, subject to conditions applicable to the parent, guardian, or custodian or the juvenile as the judge may specify; or

b. Place the juvenile in the custody of a parent, guardian, custodian, relative, private agency offering placement services, or some other suitable person; or

c. Place the juvenile in the custody of a department of social services in the county of the juvenile's residence, or in the case of a juvenile who has legal residence outside the State, in the physical custody of a department of social services in the county where the juvenile is found so that agency may return the juvenile to the responsible authorities in the juvenile's home state. An order placing a juvenile in the custody or placement responsibility of a county department of social services shall contain a finding that the juvenile's continuation in the juvenile's own home would be contrary to the juvenile's best interest. This placement shall be reviewed in accordance with G.S. 7B-906. The director may, unless otherwise ordered by the judge, arrange for, provide, or consent to, needed routine or emergency medical or surgical care or treatment. In the case where the parent is unknown, unavailable, or unable to act on behalf of the juvenile or juveniles, the director may, unless otherwise ordered by the judge, arrange for, provide or consent to any psychiatric, psychological, educational, or other remedial evaluations or treatment for the juvenile placed by a judge or the judge's designee in the custody or physical custody of a county department of social services under the authority of this or any other Chapter of the General Statutes. Prior to exercising this authority, the director shall make reasonable efforts to obtain consent from a parent, guardian, or custodian of the affected juvenile. If the director cannot obtain consent, the director shall promptly notify the parent, guardian, or custodian that care or treatment has been provided and shall give the parent, guardian, or custodian frequent status reports on the circumstances of the juvenile. Upon request of a parent, guardian, or custodian of the affected juvenile, the results or records of the aforementioned evaluations, findings, or treatment shall be made available to the parent, guardian, or custodian by the director unless prohibited by G.S. 122C-53(d).

(2) Place the juvenile under the protective supervision of a juvenile court counselor for a period of up to three months, with an extension of an additional three months in the discretion of the court.

(3) Excuse the juvenile from compliance with the compulsory school attendance law when the court finds that suitable alternative plans can be arranged by the family through other community resources for one of the following:
   a. An education related to the needs or abilities of the juvenile including vocational education or special education;
   b. A suitable plan of supervision or placement; or
   c. Some other plan that the court finds to be in the best interests of the juvenile."

SECTION 4.11. The Department of Health and Human Services shall report to the Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities, and Substance Abuse Services and to the Senate Health and Human Services Appropriations Subcommittee and the House of Representatives Appropriations Subcommittee on Health and Human Services by June 1, 2003, regarding the business plan information required by G.S. 122C-115.2(b), as amended by Section 4.3 of this act.

SECTION 5. Section 1 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2003. Sections 2 and 3 of this act become effective July 1, 2003. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law. Section 4.6 of this act expires on October 1, 2004.

SECTION 1.1. G.S. 105-129.9(a) and (c) read as rewritten:

"(a) General Credit. – If a taxpayer that has purchased or leased eligible machinery and equipment places them in service in this State during the taxable year, the taxpayer is allowed a credit equal to seven percent (7%) of the applicable percentage of the excess of the eligible investment amount over the applicable threshold. Machinery and equipment are eligible if they are capitalized by the taxpayer for tax purposes under the..."
Code and not leased to another party. In addition, in the case of a large investment, machinery and equipment that are not capitalized by the taxpayer are eligible if the taxpayer leases them from another party. The credit may not be taken for the taxable year in which the machinery and equipment are placed in service but shall be taken in equal installments over the seven years following the taxable year in which they are placed in service. The applicable percentage is as follows:

(c) Threshold. – The applicable threshold is the appropriate amount set out in the following table based on the enterprise tier where the eligible machinery and equipment are placed in service during the taxable year. If the taxpayer places eligible machinery and equipment in service at more than one establishment in an enterprise tier during the taxable year, the threshold applies separately to the eligible machinery and equipment placed in service at each establishment. If the taxpayer places eligible machinery and equipment in service at an establishment over the course of a two-year period, the applicable threshold for the second taxable year is reduced by the eligible investment amount for the previous taxable year.

SECTION 1.2. G.S. 105-129.4 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(b6) Overdue Tax Debts. – A taxpayer is not eligible for a credit allowed under this Article if, at the time the taxpayer claims an installment or carryforward of the credit, the taxpayer has received a notice of an overdue tax debt and that overdue tax debt has not been satisfied or otherwise resolved."

SECTION 1.3.(a) If House Bill 1665, 2001 General Assembly, does not become law, then G.S. 105-129.4(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Wage Standard. – A taxpayer is eligible for the credit for creating jobs or the credit for worker training in an enterprise tier three, four, or five area if, for the calendar year the jobs are created or the worker training is provided, the average wage of the jobs for which the credit is claimed meets the wage standard and the average wage of all jobs at the location with respect to which the credit is claimed meets the wage standard. No credit is allowed for jobs not included in the wage calculation. A taxpayer is eligible for the credit for investing in machinery and equipment, the credit for research and development, or the credit for investing in real property for a central office or aircraft facility, or the credit for substantial investment in other properties in a tier three, four, or five area if, for the calendar year the taxpayer engages in the activity that qualifies for the credit, the average wage of all jobs at the location with respect to which the credit is claimed meets the wage standard. In making the wage calculation, the taxpayer must include any positions that were filled for at least 1,600 hours during the calendar year the taxpayer engages in the activity that qualifies for the credit even if those positions are not filled at the time the taxpayer claims the credit. For a taxpayer with a taxable year other than a calendar year, the taxpayer must use the wage standard for the calendar year in which the taxable year begins. No wage standard applies to credits for activities in an enterprise tier one or two area.

Jobs meet the wage standard if they pay an average weekly wage that is at least equal to the applicable percentage times one hundred ten percent (110%) of the applicable average weekly wage for the county in which the jobs will be located, as computed by the Secretary of Commerce from data compiled by the Employment Security Commission for the most recent period for which data are available. The applicable percentage for jobs located in an enterprise tier one area is one hundred percent (100%). The applicable percentage for all other jobs is one hundred ten percent (110%). The applicable average weekly wage is the lowest of the following: (i) the average wage for all insured private employers in the county, (ii) the average wage for all insured private employers in the State, and (iii) the average wage for all insured private employers in the county multiplied by the county income/wage adjustment factor. The county income/wage adjustment factor is the county income/wage ratio divided by the State income/wage ratio. The county income/wage ratio is average per capita income in the county divided by the annualized average wage for all insured private employers in the county. The State income/wage ratio is the average per capita income in the State divided by the annualized average wage for all insured private employers in the State. The Department of Commerce must annually publish the wage standard for each county."

SECTION 1.3.(b) If House Bill 1665, 2001 General Assembly, becomes law, then G.S. 105-129.4(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Wage Standard. – A taxpayer is eligible for the credit for creating jobs or the credit for worker training in an enterprise tier three, four, or five area if, for the calendar year the jobs are created or the worker training is provided, the average wage of the jobs for which the credit is claimed meets the wage standard and the average wage of all jobs at the location with respect to which the credit is claimed meets the wage standard. No credit is allowed for jobs not included in the wage calculation. A taxpayer is eligible for the credit for investing in machinery and equipment, the credit for research and development, or the credit for investing in real property for a central office or aircraft facility, or the credit for substantial investment in other property facility in a tier three, four, or five area if, for the calendar year the taxpayer engages in the activity that qualifies for the credit, the average wage of all jobs at the location with respect to which the credit is claimed meets the wage standard. In making the wage calculation, the taxpayer must include any positions that were filled for at least 1,600 hours during the calendar year the taxpayer engages in the activity that qualifies for the credit even if those positions are not filled at the time the taxpayer claims the credit. For a taxpayer with a taxable year other than a calendar year, the taxpayer must use the wage standard for the calendar year in which the taxable year begins. No wage standard applies to credits for activities in an enterprise tier one or two area.

Part-time jobs for which the taxpayer provides health insurance as provided in subsection (b2) of this section are considered to have an average weekly wage at least equal to the applicable percentage times the applicable average weekly wage for the county in which the jobs will be located. There may be a period of up to 100 days between the time at which an employee begins a part-time job and the time at which the taxpayer begins to provide health insurance for that employee.

Jobs meet the wage standard if they pay an average weekly wage that is at least equal to the applicable percentage times one hundred ten percent (110%) of the applicable average weekly wage for the county in which the jobs will be located, as computed by the Secretary of Commerce from data compiled by the Employment Security Commission for the most recent period for which data are available. The applicable percentage for jobs located in an enterprise tier one area is one hundred percent (100%). The applicable percentage for all other jobs is one hundred ten percent (110%). The applicable average average weekly wage is the lowest of the following: (i) the average wage for all insured private employers in the county, (ii) the average wage for all insured private employers in the State, and (iii) the average wage for all insured private employers in the county multiplied by the county income/wage adjustment factor. The county income/wage adjustment factor is the county income/wage ratio divided by the State income/wage ratio. The county income/wage ratio is average per capita income in the county divided by the annualized average wage for all insured private employers in the county. The State income/wage ratio is the average per capita income in the State divided by the annualized average wage for all insured private employers in the State. The Department of Commerce must annually publish the wage standard for each county.

SECTION 1.4. G.S. 105-129.3A is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) Parcel of Property Partially in a Development Zone. – For the purposes of this section, a parcel of property that is located partially within a development zone is considered entirely within the development zone if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

1. At least fifty percent (50%) of the parcel is located within the development zone.
2. The parcel was in existence and under common ownership prior to the most recent federal decennial census.
3. The parcel is a portion of land made up of one or more tracts or tax parcels of land that is surrounded by a continuous perimeter boundary."

SECTION 1.5. G.S. 105-129.2 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"§ 105-129.2. Definitions.
The following definitions apply in this Article:

... (17a) Overdue tax debt. – Defined in G.S. 105-243.1."

SECTION 1.6. In addition to heightening the incentive effect of the William S. Lee Quality Jobs and Business Expansion Act in lower-tiered counties, the changes in Section 1.1 of this act are intended to reduce the cost of the Act and make more revenues available to the State of North Carolina in future years. It is the intent of the General Assembly in making these changes to provide a source of funds that could be used in future years to support other, more targeted economic development programs aimed at helping create new jobs in North Carolina.

SECTION 1.7. Section 1.1 of this act is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2003, and applies to business activities that occur on or after January 1, 2003, but does not apply to business activities that occur on or after January 1, 2003, that are subject to a letter of commitment signed under G.S. 105-129.9 before January 1, 2003. Sections 1.2 through 1.5 of this act are effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2003. The remainder of this part is effective when it becomes law.

PART 2. JOB DEVELOPMENT INVESTMENT GRANT PROGRAM

SECTION 2.1.(a) Article 10 of Chapter 143B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Part to read:

"Part 2F.
"Job Development Investment Grant Program.

§ 143B-437.44. Legislative findings and purpose.
The General Assembly finds that:

October 3, 2002
(1) It is the policy of the State of North Carolina to stimulate economic activity and to create new jobs for the citizens of the State by encouraging and promoting the expansion of existing business and industry within the State and by recruiting and attracting new business and industry to the State.

(2) Both short-term and long-term economic trends at the State, national, and international levels have made the successful implementation of the State's economic development policy and programs both more critical and more challenging; and the decline in the State's traditional industries, and the resulting adverse impact upon the State and its citizens, have been exacerbated in recent years by adverse national and State economic trends that contribute to the reduction in the State's industrial base and that inhibit the State's ability to sustain or attract new and expanding businesses.

(3) The economic condition of the State is not static and recent changes in the State's economic condition have created economic distress that requires a reevaluation of certain existing State programs and the enactment of a new program as provided in this Part that are designed to stimulate new economic activity and to create new jobs within the State.

(4) The enactment of this Part is necessary to stimulate the economy, facilitate economic recovery, and create new jobs in North Carolina; and this Part will promote the general welfare and confer, as its primary purpose and effect, benefits on citizens throughout the State through the creation of new jobs, an enlargement of the overall tax base, an expansion and diversification of the State's industrial base, and an increase in revenue to the State and its political subdivisions.

(5) The purpose of this Part is to stimulate economic activity and to create new jobs within the State.

(6) It is not the intent of the General Assembly that grants provided through this Part be used as venture capital funds, business incubator funds, or business start-up funds or to otherwise fund the initial capitalization needs of new businesses.

(7) Nothing in this Part shall be construed to constitute a guarantee or assumption by the State of any debt of any business or to authorize the taxing power or the full faith and credit of the State to be pledged.

§ 143B-437.45. Definitions.
The following definitions apply in this Part:

(1) Agreement. – A community economic development agreement under G.S. 143B-437.51.

October 3, 2002
Eligible position. – A position created by a business and filled by a new full-time employee in this State during the base years or in subsequent years of a grant.

Full-time employee. – A person who is employed for consideration for at least 35 hours a week, whose wages are subject to withholding under Article 4A of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, and who is determined by the Committee to be employed in a permanent position according to criteria it develops in consultation with the Attorney General. The term does not include any person who works as an independent contractor or on a consulting basis for the business.

New employee. – A full-time employee who represents a net increase in the number of the business’s employees statewide. The term includes an employee who previously filled an eligible position who is rehired or called back from a layoff that occurs during or following the base years to a vacant position previously held by that employee or to a new position established during or following the base years.

§ 143B-437.46. Job Development Investment Grant Program.

(a) Program. – There is established the Job Development Investment Grant Program to be administered by the Economic Investment Committee. In order to foster job creation and investment in the economy of this State, the Committee may enter into negotiated agreements with businesses to provide grants in accordance with the provisions of this Part. The Committee, in consultation with the Attorney General, shall develop criteria to be used in determining whether the conditions of this section are satisfied and whether the project described in the application is otherwise consistent with the purposes of this Part. Before entering into an agreement, the Committee must find that all the following conditions are met:

(1) The project proposed by the business will create, during the term of the agreement, a net increase in employment in this State by the business.

(2) The project will benefit the people of this State by increasing opportunities for employment and by strengthening this State’s economy by, for example, providing worker training opportunities, constructing and enhancing critical infrastructure, increasing development in strategically important industries, or increasing the State and local tax base.

(3) The project is consistent with economic development goals for the State and for the area where it will be located.

(4) A grant under this Part is necessary for the completion of the project in this State.

(5) The total benefits of the project to the State outweigh its costs and render the grant appropriate for the project.

(b) Cap. – The maximum number of agreements the Committee may enter into each calendar year is 15.

(c) Ceiling. – The maximum amount of total annual liability for grants for agreements entered into in any single calendar year may not exceed ten million dollars.

October 3, 2002
§ 143B-437.47. Eligible projects.

(a) Minimum Number of Eligible Positions. – A business may apply to the Committee for a grant for any project that creates the minimum number of eligible positions as set out in the table below. If the project will be located in more than one enterprise tier area, the location with the highest enterprise tier area designation determines the minimum number of eligible positions that must be created.

(b) Ineligible Businesses. – A project that consists solely of retail facilities is not eligible for a grant under this Part. If a project consists of both retail facilities and nonretail facilities, only the portion of the project consisting of nonretail facilities is eligible for a grant, and only the withholdings from employees in eligible positions that are employed exclusively in the portion of the project that represents nonretail facilities may be used to determine the amount of the grant. If a warehouse facility is part of a retail facility and supplies only that retail facility, the warehouse facility is not eligible for a grant. For the purposes of this Part, catalog distribution centers are not retail facilities.

A project that consists of a professional or semiprofessional sports team or club is not eligible for a grant under this Part.

(c) Health Insurance. – A business is eligible for a grant under this Part only if the business provides health insurance for all of the full-time employees of the project with respect to which the grant is made. For the purposes of this subsection, a business provides health insurance if it pays at least fifty percent (50%) of the premiums for health care coverage that equals or exceeds the minimum provisions of the basic health care plan of coverage recommended by the Small Employer Carrier Committee pursuant to G.S. 58-50-125.

Each year that a business receives a grant under this Part, the business must provide with the submission required under G.S. 143B-437.52 a certification that the business continues to provide health insurance for all full-time employees of the project with respect to which the grant is made. If the business ceases to provide health insurance to all full-time employees of the project with respect to which a grant is made, the Committee shall amend or terminate the agreement as provided in G.S. 143B-437.53.

(d) Wage Standard. – In order for a business to be eligible for a grant under this Part, the average wage of all jobs at the location with respect to which a grant is made must meet the wage standard set out in G.S. 105-129.4(b). If a project is to be located at more than one location, the average wage of all jobs at a location must meet the wage standard set out in G.S. 105-129.4(b) in order for that location to be included in the agreement.

(e) Safety and Health Programs. – In order for a business to be eligible for a grant under this Part, the business must have no citations under the Occupational Safety and Health Act that have become a final order within the past three years for willful serious violations or for failing to abate serious violations with respect to the location for which the grant is made. For the purposes of this subsection, “serious violation” has the same meaning as in G.S. 95-127.

§ 143B-437.48. Economic Investment Committee established.

October 3, 2002
(a) Membership. – The Economic Investment Committee is established. The Committee consists of the following members:

1. The Secretary of Commerce.
2. The Secretary of Revenue.
3. The Director of the Office of State Budget and Management.
4. One member appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives.
5. One member appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

The members of the Committee appointed by the General Assembly may not be members of the General Assembly. The members of the Committee appointed by the General Assembly serve two-year terms that begin upon appointment.

(b) Decision Required. – The Committee may act only upon a decision of three of its five members.

(c) Conflict of Interest. – It is unlawful for a former member of the Committee to, within two years after the end of service on the Committee, provide services for compensation, as an employee, consultant, or otherwise, to any business or a related member of the business that was awarded a grant under this Part while the former member was serving on the Committee. Violation of this subsection is a Class 1 misdemeanor. In addition to the penalties imposed under G.S. 15A-1340.23, the court shall also make a finding as to what compensation was received by the defendant for services in violation of this section and shall order the defendant to forfeit that compensation.

If a person is convicted under this section, the person shall not provide services for compensation, as an employee, consultant, or otherwise, to any business or a related member of the business that was awarded a grant under this Part while the former member was serving on the Committee until two years after the person's conviction under this section.

(d) Public Notice. – The Committee shall do all of the following at least 15 business days prior to the adoption of or amendment to any proposed criteria:

1. Publish the proposed criteria on the Department of Commerce's web site.
2. Provide notice to persons who have requested notice of proposed criteria.
3. Accept oral and written comments on the proposed criteria.

(e) Sunshine. – Meetings of the Committee are subject to the open meetings requirements of Article 33C of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes. All documents of the Committee, including applications for grants, are public records governed by Chapter 132 of the General Statutes and any applicable provisions of the General Statutes protecting confidential information.

§ 143B-437.49. Applications; fees; reports; study.

(a) Application. – A business shall apply, under oath, to the Committee for a grant on a form prescribed by the Committee that includes at least all of the following:

1. The name of the business, the proposed location of the project, and the type of activity in which the business will engage at the project site or sites.
2. The names and addresses of the principals or management of the business, the nature of the business, and the form of business organization under which it is operated.
3. The financial statements of the business prepared by a certified public accountant and any other financial information the Committee considers necessary.

(8) Information concerning any other State or local government incentives for which the business is applying or that it has an expectation of receiving.

(9) Any other information necessary for the Committee to evaluate the application.

A business may apply, in one consolidated application in a form and manner determined by the Committee, for a grant on its own behalf as a business and for grants on behalf of the related members of the business who may qualify under this Part.

The Committee will consider an application by a business for grants on behalf of its related members only if the related members for whom the application is submitted have assigned to the business any claim of right the related members may have under this Part to apply for grants individually during the term of the agreement and have agreed to cooperate with the business in providing to the Committee all the information required for the initial application and the agreement, and any other information the Committee may require for the purposes of this Part. The applicant business is responsible for providing to the Committee all the information required under this Part.

If a business applies for a grant on behalf of its related members, the related members included in the application may be permitted to meet the qualifications for a grant collectively by participating in a project that meets the requirements of this Part. The amount of a grant may be calculated under the terms of this Part as if the related members were all collectively one business entity. Any conditions for a grant, other than the number of eligible positions created, apply to each related member who is listed in the application as participating in the project. The grants awarded shall be paid to the applicant business.

A grant received under this Part by a business may be apportioned to the related members in a manner determined by the business. In order for an agreement to be executed, each related member included in the application must sign the agreement and agree to abide by its terms.

(b) Application Fee. — When filing an application under this section, the business must pay the Committee a fee of five thousand dollars ($5,000). The fee is due at the time the application is filed. The proceeds of the fee are receipts of the agency to which they are credited.

(1) A listing of each community economic development agreement negotiated and entered into during the preceding calendar year, including the name of the business, the cost/benefit analysis conducted by the Committee during the application process, a description of the project, the term of the agreement, the percentage used to determine the amount of the grant, and the amount of the grant made under the agreement during that year.

This report shall include a listing of each community economic development agreement negotiated and entered into during the preceding quarter, including the name of the business, the cost/benefit analysis conducted by the Committee during the application process, a description of the project, and the amount of the grant expected to be made under the agreement during the current fiscal year.

(e) Study. – The Committee shall conduct a study to determine the minimum funding level required to implement the Job Development Investment Grant Program successfully. The Committee shall report the results of this study to the House of Representatives Finance Committee, the Senate Finance Committee, the House of Representatives Appropriations Subcommittee on Natural and Economic Resources, the Senate Appropriations Committee on Natural and Economic Resources, and the Fiscal Research Division no later than March 1 of each year.

§ 143B-437.50. Calculation of minimum and maximum grants; factors considered.

(a) Subject to the limitations of subsection (d) of this section, the amount of the grant awarded in each case shall be a percentage of the withholdings of eligible positions. The percentage shall be no less than ten percent (10%) and no more than seventy-five percent (75%) of the withholdings of the eligible positions for a period of years. The percentage used to determine the amount of the grant shall be based on criteria developed by the Committee, in consultation with the Attorney General, after considering at least the following:

grant.

for any eligible position that is located in an enterprise tier four or five area.

SECTION 4.2. This part is effective when it becomes law.

PART 5. INDUSTRIAL AND POLLUTION CONTROL FACILITIES FINANCING

SECTION 5.1. The General Assembly finds that there are small manufacturing companies in the State that are eligible for industrial development bond financing for capital improvements and expansions, but are not able to take advantage of that financing because of the administrative costs involved. This problem can be addressed by reviving the composite bond program under Chapter 159D of the General Statutes, under which the North Carolina Capital Facilities Finance Agency could combine several series of bonds into a single bond offering, thereby reducing transaction costs and permitting eligible small manufacturers to access tax exempt financing for capital investments. The composite bond program would be facilitated by the changes proposed to Chapter 159D in this part that will streamline the procedures for composite issues by requiring only one public hearing and aligning the review standard for bonds issued as part of a composite bond program with the standard for bonds issued by county industrial development projects.

SECTION 5.2. G.S. 159D-7(d) reads as rewritten:
"(d) Public Hearing. Hearing, Generally. – The Secretary of Commerce shall not approve any proposed project pursuant to this section unless the governing body of the county in which the project is located has first conducted a public hearing and, at or after the public hearing, approved in principle the issuance of bonds under this Article for the purpose of paying all or part of the cost of the proposed project. Notice of the public hearing shall be published at least once in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the county not less than 14 days before the public hearing. The notice shall describe generally the bonds proposed to be issued and the proposed project, including its general location, and any other information the governing body considers appropriate or the Secretary of Commerce prescribes for the purpose of providing the Secretary with the views of the community. The notice shall also state that following the public hearing the agency intends to file an application for approval of the proposed project with the Secretary of Commerce.

(d1) Public Hearing, Multiple Projects. – Notwithstanding subsection (d) of this section, in the event the bonds proposed to be issued are to finance more than one project, the public hearing shall be conducted by the agency or by a hearing officer designated by the agency to conduct public hearings. The public hearing may be held at any location.

October 3, 2002
designated by the agency. Notice of the public hearing shall be published at least once in at least one newspaper of general circulation in each county in which a proposed project is to be located not less than 14 days before the public hearing. The notice shall describe generally the bonds proposed to be issued and any proposed project in that county, including its general location, and any other information the agency considers appropriate or the Secretary of Commerce prescribes for the purpose of providing the Secretary with the views of the community. A copy of the notice of public hearing must be mailed to the board of county commissioners of any county in which a proposed project is to be located and to the governing body of any municipality in which a proposed project is to be located."

SECTION 5.3. G.S. 159D-8(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In determining whether a proposed bond issue should be approved, the Local Government Commission may consider, without limitation, the following:

(1) Whether the proposed operator and obligor have demonstrated or can demonstrate the financial responsibility and capability to fulfill their obligations with respect to the financing agreement.
In making such determination, the commission may consider the operator's experience and the obligor's ratio of current assets to current liabilities, net worth, earnings trends and coverage of fixed charges, the nature of the industry or business involved and its stability and any additional security such as credit enhancement, insurance, guaranties or property to be pledged or secure such bonds.

(2) Whether the political subdivisions in or near which the proposed project is to be located have the ability to cope satisfactorily with the impact of such project and to provide, or cause to be provided, the public facilities and services, including utilities, that will be necessary for such project and on account of any increase in population which are expected to result therefrom.

(3) Whether the proposed date and manner of sale will have an adverse effect upon any scheduled or anticipated sale of obligations by the State or any political subdivision or any agency of either of them."

SECTION 5.4. This part becomes effective January 1, 2003.

PART 6. CAPITAL PLANNING COSTS FOR BIOPHARMACEUTICAL
TRAINING CENTER AND CANCER REHABILITATION TREATMENT CENTER.

SECTION 6. The State Board of Community Colleges, the Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina, and the North Carolina Biotechnology Center are authorized to initiate planning and development of a new biopharmaceutical/bioprocess manufacturing training center to be centrally located and related training facilities to be located at various community colleges. The Board of Directors of the University of North Carolina Health Care System is authorized to initiate planning and development of a new cancer rehabilitation and treatment center to be

PERSONAL PRIVILEGES

Upon motion of Senator Kinnaird, the following remarks honoring departing Senators are spread upon the journal as follows:

Senator Kinnaird:
"I rise to recognize an outstanding member of our Senate. It is sad that the citizens of this State have lost a person who has given so much on every level of government because of redistricting. Howard Lee is one of the finest public servants we have in our State. Senator Lee is a person of keen intellect, great heart, as well as being the greatest orator in the State. I am saddened by this loss, as I know all of us are. Senator Lee is due our thanks and commendations for his many years of service."

Senator Martin of Guilford:
"Thank you Mr. President and Members of the Senate. I am not sure how to handle this. Of course I will not be coming back, this is my last session here and I have thoroughly enjoyed the association and, as a matter of fact, there were some things I wanted to point out to everybody in terms of not only things that have transpired during the time that I have been here, but some of the things that I believe it would be wise for future General Assemblies to consider. However, I was admonished by a couple of other Members that they did not want to hear a long speech and, although I spent a lot of time and I don’t usually do a prepared statement or anything, I did spend a long time preparing one to make sure that I conveyed those things I wanted to convey to you. It’s about five pages and would take about ten and a half minutes. So, for the comfort of the Body, of course, I could forego that and send it to everybody by email and I will do that instead and express my feelings of appreciation to the General Assembly, to the Senate, to our leadership, to the wonderful staff that we have, not only here in the Chamber, but in general throughout the divisions we have in the Legislature, and our Legislative Assistants, and even members of the House and advocates and lobbyists and everybody. I’ll do that through this email. At the same time one of the things I am pointing out in it, some of the things that I’ve been particularly involved and interested in during my twenty years here relating to education, relating to health care, relating to make sure folks do get equal opportunity, addressing some disparities and I’ve observed through this time some of the things we are doing now that ought to be changed, in my opinion, and sort of set the course for the things we need to do in engaging the public as we proceed as policy makers and lawmakers in this State. But as I said, what I’ll do is abide by the wishes of the Body and I will gladly forego this opportunity. You know, I was really hoping – I have never gotten the Ox Meter Award and I was thinking today that now I won’t ever get that, but that’s O.K. I think it’s better where it is. But I will just send this to everybody through email to make sure you get it. When you get it, read it carefully and give thought to it and again the association I’ve had with all of you has truly been wonderful and will always be remembered. With that, I’ll sit down. Thank you."

Senator Plyler:
"Mr. President, I’ve been here a long time and we’ve had that Ox Meter for many, many years and this is the first time I have ever heard anyone ask for it. If it’s the pleasure, Mr. President, if it’s your pleasure and the rest of the committee’s pleasure I would make a recommendation that we do present him with the Ox Meter Award to keep it as long as he wants to.”

Senator Rand:
“For twenty years Senator Martin has been an advocate and a voice for a lot of people who have no advocate or voice and he has done a wonderful job for the people of this State in the kind of things he’s done and the things he’s stood for. He’ll certainly be a wonderful part of the record he has made as a member of this body. Thank you, Senator Martin. Thank you for your contributions.”

Senator Moore:
“Mr. President, just a couple of brief comments because I, too, will not be coming back next year and I want to thank the members of this Senate and the staff for their fantastic service, their friendships, their ability to make anyone come here and feel a part of this team and this group. You’ve allowed input and occasionally we’re reminded that we sit on the back row – that’s quite O.K. – we know how the game is played, but more than anything else and I’ve done this personally for Senator Martin and others before and Senator Bill sitting right here in front of me, I thank you for the opportunity even as a minority member of some very key appropriations committees and so forth, to have some input and to have you sit and listen and to see some things happen that we’re all pleased with. So to each and every one of you, I thank you. I thank you for your friendship and Godspeed. Thanks.”

Senator Dannelly:
“Mr. President, may I have a point of personal privilege? Thank you very much, Mr. President. Ladies and Gentlemen of this august body, I really want to thank Senator William Martin for what he has done not only for the citizens of this great State, but I want to thank him for what he has done for me. When I came here eight years ago, Bill took me under his wings, showed me all the ropes he knew. I couldn’t remember them all but he taught me dedication to the causes and the needs that we had in this State. He taught me about caring for those who felt that no one cared for them, particularly their elected officials. Bill was never in a hurry to get away from any constituent that walked in his door; he always had time for them. He will still have time for them and work for them. I know that. One thing about Bill, everyone is aware of this. He will email you at 3 a.m. in the morning and then when you get in and read your email, later on additional emails will come from Bill. When ideas pop into his head he gets on his computer and sends emails. I’ve been trying to think of the name of his office and the best thing I can think of is it is a technology center. He had everything in there to communicate with anyone in the United States. I do want to thank him for his patience, his concern, his services to the citizens of this State and his help to me. Thank you, Bill.”

Senator Soles:
“Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I was sitting here thinking about the people that are leaving and the people that have been here before us and how much we owe to the contributions they’ve made. We have two members that are probably going to be members of the U. S. House of Representatives next time and I was thinking about how many people that have had the General Assembly as a proving ground or training ground to go on to higher offices and I pulled this little book, the Rules Book, and just since I’ve been here, just on this page I see the Congressmen I have served with in this legislature - Representatives Bob Etheridge, Walter Jones, Howard Coble, Robin Hayes, Cass October 3, 2002
Ballenger, Charles Taylor, Mel Watt and perhaps Frank Ballance and Brad Miller. Going on, the Lieutenant Governor was a member of the Legislature, the Secretary of State, Elaine Marshall; the Attorney General Roy Cooper; Commissioner of Labor, Cherie Berry; and Commissioner of Insurance, Jim Long. All of those people have been members of the Legislature since I’ve been here and I haven’t been here since time was begun but when you sit here and you’re talking with your neighbors and talking legislation, just remember you may be sitting beside the next Congressman or the next President or somebody. You never know, so be careful.”

The Senate recesses at 5:44 P.M. to reconvene at 7:30 P.M.

CALENDAR (continued)

Upon motion of Senator Swindell, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Foxx, the remarks of the Senators memorializing Philip Pittman are read. October 3, 2002
Godwin, Sr., former Speaker of the House of Representatives, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Basnight:

"Philip Godwin loved the State of North Carolina and the people of the State and gave so much. He most especially cared for those in his home county of Gates. I became a friend of Representative Godwin or Speaker Godwin when he served on the Board of Transportation under the Martin Administration and it was at that time I realized the power of his commitment to a very poor region of the State, Senator Ballance. He wanted the people of his county that he represented and the district on the State Board of Transportation to receive their fair share and that is something that had not been happening in that community or that region of the State up to that point in time and even to today. We have Governors and others who speak very eloquently about the two North Carolinas. Where Philip Godwin lived is the second North Carolina. It borders the Virginia line. It has very little industry but a great beauty. He loved its State Park. He fought for appropriations and recognition. He was part of the fabric of the community. The great dismal swamp, of which Gates County is a portion of as Pasquotank and Camden County are as well, helped develop North Carolina’s earlier history and he spoke of that and what it meant to live in the conflict with nature. He had a little small house on the back of this swamp, on the edges, the fringes of it and it was there that he fed wildlife and sort of enjoyed his later years of life. It was a little trail not so much a little more than a path that would take you to this and it wandered down where the water and the stream flowed. He found a great deal of peace there but it was part of him, it was part of the natural part of what he was. It was there on the little porch or the front of that cottage one day or that little camp, that he told me that it was important that you take care of the smaller people and he was speaking of smaller counties, Gates obviously being one of those, and not get too big headed and not just look for the prestige that can be found in the papers in the more prosperous areas. He also told me, ‘Don’t let people influence you too much, people with deep pockets’, he would say. Don’t let the lobbyists control your vote. He was a very conservative man and he had come up in a very tough time of our history and he had worked his way through life and he was willing to give back to others. He never left his small town, he stayed there to practice law and to help develop the opportunities for others. He always had a quick line and a happy face about himself, but he is one of the pioneers of change for that region of our State. There will be others that follow behind him. He leaves behind a wonderful family and a great legacy. He was the only Speaker of the House we’ve ever had from that region, I believe. He is probably known some for his opposition to communism, the Speaker Ban, more so than the better works of what he did. He loved this Country. He loved it as much as any of us here today. We’ll certainly miss you, others as well. To the family, thank you for letting North Carolina have Philip Godwin."

Senator Ballance:

"I represented Gates County beginning in 1988 and I had known Speaker Godwin prior to that time, because in the practice of law, I did not know him in this Body, but in the practice of law I got an opportunity to go to Gatesville and to be at the Gates County Courthouse and his office was two doors away from the Courthouse, from the new Courthouse and right across the street from the old Courthouse where you and I, Mr. President, met down there several years ago about historic preservation of that Courthouse. Whenever I would campaign in Gates County, you’re right, Phil Godwin was known as a very conservative person but I was always received well by him and his son, Pitt they call him, Phil junior, who is also an attorney who practices in Gatesville. I had many good conversations with Speaker, the late Phil Godwin, and when I read in the

October 3, 2002
News and Observer that he was being funeralized I had not gotten word about his death, but I made time to drive down to Gatesville because I remembered that he was a prominent politician from my district and from that region of the State. He was, I view him sort as one of the last of a breed of strong political figures, put him in with J. J. (Monk) Harrington and Kenneth Royall and Billy Watkins, people who at that time worked and served in this Body. I am proud to speak briefly on behalf of this resolution.”

Senator Soles:
“Thank you Mr. President and Ladies and Gentleman of the Senate. It was my honor to serve in the House of Representatives when Speaker Godwin was the Speaker. The resolution says that he was the Speaker of the House from 1969 to 1972 and I served there from 1969 through 1977. So I was there all the time he was the Speaker. He and I had many things in common. I represented a small rural part of North Carolina that was joining the South Carolina line and he had the same type counties joining the Virginia line and we’d often talk back and forth about the needs and how our areas lagged behind. I also remembered that he and I both lived at the same hotel and his room was next to mine and we’d have lots of time to talk there and he was extremely helpful to me. He never was too busy to take time for the smallest person or the most fresh person in the Legislature and he always gave good advice and it was my honor to have the opportunity to serve with him.”

Senator Lee:
“Mr. President, I met Phil in 1969. It was the year that I was elected Mayor and he, of course, was Speaker and I came over and was introduced to him. I had not known him up to that time and then worked very closely because I had to work to get some legislation through the Legislature and Speaker Godwin was always a gentleman, always warm and respectful. I had the privilege of serving with him on the Board of Trustees at Wake Forest and he really thought highly of that school and I was delighted to have been honored with that privilege. I think he was one of the fine politicians of this State, a man who was a wonderful model of productivity and I am delighted to have had the privilege to get to know him.”

The joint resolution passes its second reading by voice vote and third reading with members standing, and is ordered enrolled.

S.B. 1455 (House Committee Substitute No. 2), A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION AND OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES TO STUDY THE PROVISIONS OF SENATE BILL 1455, 4TH EDITION, STRENGTHEN SECURITIES FRAUD ENFORCEMENT LAWS, INTRODUCED IN THE 2001 GENERAL ASSEMBLY, AND TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE 2003 REGULAR SESSION OF THE 2003 GENERAL ASSEMBLY; TO INCREASE CERTAIN FILING AND RENEWAL FEES WITH THE SECRETARY OF STATE; TO FUND ADDITIONAL SECURITIES INVESTIGATOR POSITIONS; TO PROHIBIT THE STATE FROM CONTRACTING WITH BUSINESSES THAT HAVE ANY OFFICERS OR DIRECTORS WHO HAVE BEEN CONVICTED OF SECURITIES FRAUD; TO PROHIBIT THE STATE FROM CONTRACTING WITH VENDORS THAT ARE INCORPORATED IN A TAX HAVEN COUNTRY BUT THE UNITED STATES IS THE PRINCIPAL MARKET FOR THE PUBLIC TRADING OF THEIR CORPORATION'S STOCK; AND TO AUTHORIZE THE STATE TREASURER, IN CONSULTATION WITH THE SECRETARY OF STATE, AND THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH COMMISSION TO STUDY THE CREATION OF A PENSION ASSURANCE FUND TO PROTECT THE

RETMIRET SAVINGS AND INVESTMENTS OF THE CITIZENS OF NORTH CAROLINA, placed earlier on today’s Calendar, for concurrence in the House Committee Substitute bill No. 2.

Upon motion of Senator Kerr, the Senate concurs in the House Committee Substitute bill No. 2 and the measure is ordered enrolled and sent to the Governor.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGES

Upon motion of Senator Dannelly, the remarks for, by, and about the departing Senators, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Cunningham:

“I didn’t want to make these remarks when we were speaking of Speaker Godwin, because I certainly did not know him. I had occasion earlier today to look through Senator Henson Barnes’ Work in Progress: The North Carolina Legislature, again. To contextualize, to put into perspective the interesting times that we’ve had here in the Legislature in the last two years, an old Chinese proverb says, ‘May you live in interesting times.’ It certainly has been a terrific personal honor. As we were reflecting on the Speaker, I flipped to thirty years ago and what the Legislature was doing when the Speaker was Speaker. That was the first time that the Legislature ever had a short session. I am sure it was part of the Speaker’s wisdom to see that the economy of North Carolina times were changing so rapidly that we could put together a budget in one year and the economy would dip, it would have a recession or something of that nature, and we’d have to come back and fix it the next year. That was the first time, 1972, was the first short session, thirty years ago. Interestingly enough, in that same short session, the Legislature voted to enlarge North Carolina’s kindergarten program which sounds, of course, familiar as we have debated pre-kindergarten this time. It was also the first time in that session, the first time since 1933, that the State sales tax was raised as the State Legislature transferred to local government the authority to raise the sales tax by one penny in order to help out with local government needs. It was at times in that session when, for the first time, North Carolina’s Legislature decided that it needed a professional staff. I particularly think of the important role that professional staff has played in our experience here in making possible those bills that were just put on the clerk’s desk. I guess, though we have struggled mightily in these two years to keep our State on path to prepare for the future, many of these issues have been dealt with before. So earlier, I flipped back to what was happening two hundred years ago this year in North Carolina’s Legislature. In 1802, Senator Kinnaird and Senator Kerr would be interested to know that was the first year that North Carolina ever directly appropriated money to recruit jobs to North Carolina. They did it in part by signing a contract for one of Eli Whitney’s cotton gins so that the eastern part of the State where so much cotton was being grown could develop. I would encourage any of you to take the opportunity to take a look back at the many years of history of this State, the wonderful things, the contributions that so many of those who have come before us have made. It helps each of us that our time here is very fleeting but the contributions and work are lasting and are important in making North Carolina the great place that it is. Thank you Mr. President.”

Senator Basnight:

“I’d like to thank each and everyone of you who will not be returning individually but I don’t know what has been said up to this point in time. I do understand that there have been some words of some thanks to Senator Martin and Senator Lee. But to Senator Harris and Senator Lee and Senator Moore and Senator Martin and Senator Ballance and Senator Cunningham, you are a big part of our family and you are what makes the State become successful or what makes it in part become not what we would want it to be, were you not here. Senator Harris, I knew you earlier on from our relationship on the Board of Transportation and understood very well your commitment to our transportation system but I didn’t fully understand the values that you stood for until you came here. The values of life, family, and religion and the important part it plays in your life. Your willingness to get on a truck and drive to Indiana over a weekend just recently with one of your clients, one of the people you work with and for because he gives so much in your community. He is one of the major employees in your community and you wanted to be with him and bond with him, to plan and think for better days in Harnett County. You are truly going to be missed sitting in that chair and the colorful dress that you can bring to this Body from time to time. I asked Oscar one day, I said, ‘Why, why such a baldhead?’ You could have a transplant or maybe a snippy little hair piece.’ He said, ‘I did this for a friend of mine who had lost his hair in radiation or chemotherapy.’ That is the kind of man he is. That’s why you saw the change in Oscar from one day to the next, the visual change not the inner change, not the love for his fellow man that he carries. I was with Oscar the other day in Harnett County and the people there love him a great deal and when you are in a Member’s home district, you’d better understand what he means to others.

“Senator Lee, I’ll never be able to repay you for what you have done for me, my county, the people that I live with and I am surrounded with and what you have done for this State and our University System as well public education and people who cannot help themselves, as well as business and industry and all of us. You have made it a greater place to live. But your knowledge of our State and the reasons why we make the decisions that we make to better the opportunities for others have helped mold and shape me. Your friendliness and kindness to me and my family, and my friends, and my community can never be forgotten. When you were Secretary of Natural Resources you came to help us on dredging projects when no one else was helping. It was a very poor area of our community that you assisted and you recognized it ever so quickly. We had been years in lobbying Raleigh for help and until you came that day, we had no success. People still ask about you today. I know that the schools that you love so much would not, to this day, have the kind of graduates that we do have had it not been for your appearance in this building. I know, probably as well as anyone, that our bond package would not have occurred had it not been for your commitment that strengthened the support for that particular package that we’re now enjoying today. You have a beautiful wife, a beautiful family, and wonderful children and we are all better people because of you. To me, I don’t have a better friend in this Chamber than you. Better than that, I don’t know if I have a better friend in this State than you. But I think we all feel that way. You are pretty special.

“Bill Martin, I roomed next to Bill. When I say I roomed next to him, it is because it seemed like I was trying always to catch-up when I first came to the North Carolina Senate. They moved me to a room, temporarily, and Bill Martin was in that room and I’d work late at night, but boy you could not work later than Bill Martin could work. He always was there to help me understand why we did certain things, which was very confusing to me. He never hesitated to help someone who was smaller. That has had an impact on me today, on others and when I say myself, it never means to be I. It means to be us and we. I understood, or thought so, that we were all created equal because the Word said so and I was taught that. But I didn’t fully understand it until I better understood you, that we truly are equal. You made me realize that in the terms that we all should understand. Not just the verbiage, but to live that belief. You’ll continue to give and make your contributions because you never sleep. Thank you, Bill Martin.

“Senator Ballance, you and I have recognized each other pretty easily so because we pretty much have the same geography except for the ocean. We have the same people, all in need, all striving to do better, all looking for a better day. We have a mixture of people in the district that Frank and I shared. He had part of Bertie County, I had a part of Bertie County, I had Gates one time and he had Gates one time. We represented, in general, people who did not have a great deal. Frank never found a bad or evil word for people and he was known for that through our community and I wanted to be like Frank. Frank came to the Senate after I came to the Senate but Frank helped show me a better way to do business with people. Frank you led this Senate in these past years and many of us have tried to mimic what you are. In fact, I don’t know one of us who has not in some way or another looked at Frank when he spoke at just the right time on the Senate floor, just when we were in the greatest of need to calm this Body and this Chamber. That makes me a better person. Frank Ballance you are going to keep leading and as I said earlier today, boy would I love to see him Speaker of the House of the United States Congress. You would not have a fairer man and you would not have a better man. Thank you, Frank.

“You are more like my son, Senator Cunningham. Spend enough time around here and you get a little older. I don’t know if I am wise enough to speak the kind of language and work the words as well as you do. I wish you had a lot more time here, we all do. But I think there is a reason for this. I can’t tell you exactly what it is yet, but your place in this political community and this place of giving are not found yet. Your talents and your abilities, you as a person, is what I would hope will lead our State. You are one of those people who have those talents. I thank you very much and wish you Godspeed with your beautiful family and your little Caroline.

“Senator Moore, you’re still busy. He brought a lady up to the podium today and she possibly, I don’t want to talk out of place, there is a small possibility that this person he brought here maybe will relocate a major business enterprise in our State. Haven’t quit working have you? Won’t quit working either. You are a person of great talents and a person willing to stand on your feet and ask questions and find out reasons why we do certain things and to be certain that we end up at the end of the day better by what we have done. We are very fortunate to have you and our paths will surely cross again.

“Thank you, each and every one of you. You are very special, you are part of our Senate, and you’re part of our family. We all leave at one time or another. God Bless.”

Senator Moore:

“Mr. President, I didn’t plan to be standing here in this position tonight. This year has been an interesting year, but in some ways it mimics life. I was thinking back earlier today that when the filing date first ended, it was the first time in my entire political life when I thought that I would have a walkover without any opposition. Little did I know that things would change so drastically that I would be walking out. But that is life. We have no way of knowing what the next day will bring but we’re always able to meet the challenge in ways that help us recognize that there may be greater opportunities farther out and so we gain strength from that. I look to my left here to show you how fragile life is and I remember my colleague and our long-time friend, Luther Jordan, who sat here in this seat at the beginning of this session and had no idea he had a problem. He lost not a small campaign like I did, but the big campaign, and Luther is not with us and so what do I have to be sad about. I do feel a sense of loss of leaving what I considered to be a family, all of you in this Body and this Chamber, because we bond. We have our differences, we talk at each other and over each other but we still have a special love and caring for each other and I think that is what makes this Chamber and this Body so special. But I can tell you tonight I am at peace. I am at peace because I have had six good years to work with Senator Basnight as our leader, and to work with all of you in the Chamber to bring into existence some landmark educational legislation that will serve generations yet unborn and I am delighted to have been a part of that. I am at peace because I ran the best campaign that I have ever run in my entire political life and there is nothing else that I could have done or would have done differently and so I am at peace with that. But I really wanted to rise to say to Marc Basnight, whom I consider to be a very, very special person, the first time we met in the 70's, we connected almost immediately and the friendship began to blossom and has grown. What a delight it has been for me and what a learning experience it has been for me to be able to engender his trust and confidence as a leader in education, as an appropriations chair, and to have the chance to represent all of you in those capacities but always with his encouragement, always with his support, and Marc, I wanted to stand and express my deep appreciation to you. Now let me make it very clear, I am not dying, I don’t think. I am not dead, I am not going anywhere. I fully expect that there will be opportunities for me to continue to serve. I will put some distance between the Legislature and me for a few weeks. I’ll get out and try and raise some money so I can pay off my debts, Frank. You don’t know anything about that do you? And then I certainly hope there will be an opportunity for me to continue to serve, but I have also made another decision. If, in the process of my travels, I happen to find myself in a jungle and Judge Knox Jenkins in a fight with a bear, I have decided that I ain’t helping Knox Jenkins. I am going to help the bear!”

October 3, 2002

November 13, 2002
S.B. 1283. AN ACT TO APPOINT PERSONS TO VARIOUS PUBLIC OFFICES UPON THE RECOMMENDATION OF THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE OF THE SENATE AND THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND TO MAKE VARIOUS CHANGES TO BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS.

Following adjournment of the legislative session, information has become available to the appointing authorities that several of the appointees, under the bill, to either new, expanded or existing boards and commissions do not meet the statutory requirements necessary to serve on the board or commission to which they were appointed. Two of the appointees are deceased, and at least five of the appointees are not qualified for other reasons, principally because they do not meet the statutory requirements for appointment or they have conflicts that statutorily prohibit their appointment. In addition, the bill mistakenly makes six appointments that are required to be made by the Governor.

Therefore, I veto this bill.

The bill, having been vetoed, is returned to the Clerk of the Senate on this 3rd day of November, 2002 at 2:40 p.m. for reconsideration by that body.

s/Michael F. Easley

The bill and the veto message are referred to the Rules and Operations of the Senate Committee.

ADDENDUM

SENATE JOURNAL

2001 SESSION

SECOND SESSION

2002
EDITOR’S NOTES

A number of bills and resolutions passed second reading and were read a third time on the same day.

Rule 50 states:
No bill on its third reading shall be acted upon out of the regular order in which it stands on the calendar, and no bill shall be acted upon on its third reading the same day on which it passed its second reading, unless so ordered by two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting.

In order to comply with this Rule, no bill which has passed its second reading is read a third time except:
(1) when a member moves that the Rule be suspended and this motion prevails by at least a two-thirds vote of the membership of the Senate present and voting, or
(2) when the Chair determines that there is no objection from any member present, which constitutes unanimous consent that Rule 50 be suspended.

In these cases, the bill is read a third time and remains before the Senate for further consideration.

The phrase “without objection” appears throughout the Senate Journal. Upon a motion offered, this reflects a determination by the Chair that there is no objection from a member present, which constitutes unanimous consent, for the order of the Chair.

When a bill passes its second reading and remains on the Calendar for further consideration, unless indicated otherwise the measure is placed on the Calendar for the next legislative day in its regular order of business.

Rule 20(2) of the House of Representatives requires that “all measures affecting a fee imposed by the State or any subdivision thereof” are classified roll-call measures for the purpose of spreading the ayes and noes on the Journal. Though the Senate Rules do not require the same, the Rule of the House of Representatives is honored and the measures are considered as roll-call measures, unless ruled otherwise by the Presiding Officer.

The Presiding Officer of the Senate rules in a number of instances that “the bill does not require a call of the roll” or “requires a call of the roll.” The ruling is made pursuant to the following citation which reads:

North Carolina Constitution—Article II
Sec. 23.—Revenue bills. No laws shall be enacted to raise money on the credit of the State, or to pledge the faith of the State directly or indirectly for the payment of any debt, or to impose any tax upon the people of the State or to allow the counties, cities, or towns to do so, unless the bill for the purpose shall have been read three several times in each house of the General Assembly and passed three several readings, which readings shall have been on three different days, and shall have been agreed to by each house respectively, and unless the yeas and nays on the second and third readings of the bill shall have been entered on the journal.

The numerical figures which appear within parentheses throughout the Senate Journal represent the affirmative and negative votes cast and recorded electronically, pursuant to Rule 25. Copies of the vote print-out are on file in the Legislative Library and the original is deposited in the Division of Archives and History of the Department of Cultural Resources.

S.R. 1475, A SENATE RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THE IMPORTANCE TO THE ECONOMY OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA OF BIOBASED AND VALUE-ADDED AGRIBUSINESS.

Whereas, North Carolina's agricultural production is one of the highest in the nation; and

Whereas, North Carolina's transportation infrastructure offers excellent support for agribusiness by way of highway, rail, and ocean delivery systems; and

Whereas, North Carolina's State and county governments have demonstrated strong support for new and expanding commercial enterprises; and

Whereas, North Carolina has historically offered agriculture and businesses an excellent and productive labor force; and

Whereas, biobased and value-added products are rapidly replacing petroleum-based products with fuels, feeds, medicines, and other materials from renewable plant resources that create less pollution, are more biodegradable, and generally have fewer harmful environmental impacts; Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate:

SECTION 1. The Senate of the State of North Carolina supports business and agency efforts to increase North Carolina's position in utilizing the State's productivity in agriculture and forestry by expanding biobased and value-added products.

SECTION 2. The Senate of the State of North Carolina encourages the North Carolina Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services to take the lead in expanding biobased and value-added production using current crops and fiber and exploring new production opportunities for the State's farmers.

SECTION 3. The Senate of the State of North Carolina requests that the United States Department of Agriculture provide suitable funding to North Carolina from the 2002 Farm Bill Value-Added Agriculture Product Market Development Grants to assist independent producers, farmer cooperatives, and others in further refining agricultural commodities and biobased opportunities.

SECTION 4. The Principal Clerk shall send a copy of this resolution to the North Carolina Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services and to the United States Department of Agriculture.

SECTION 5. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

ALPHABETICAL INDEX

The North Carolina General Statutes titles from the basis for the Alphabetical Index. Following each bill title, the last action for the bill is reflected. For example, a ratified bill is followed by its Chapter Number in the Session Laws. Bills which are included in whole or in part in other measures are reflected as such, if known.

Bills dealing with funds are indexed under Appropriations, Local or Appropriations, Public. Local bills are indexed under the counties which are affected.

Bills and resolutions introduced by a specific Senator are found under the Senator's name and are noted as to whether or not the Senator is the primary sponsor or a co-sponsor.
