In accordance with law, as set forth in the Constitution of the State of North Carolina and G.S. 120-11.1, the Senate of the General Assembly of North Carolina assembles this day at the hour of 12:00 Noon in the Senate Chamber of the Legislative Building in the City of Raleigh.

The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor, calls the Senate to order.

The President extends privileges of the floor to the spouses of the Senators-elect and to the individuals invited by a Senator-elect and requests that they be seated beside their spouse or host.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Albert Osbahr from Hickory, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Eileen Kohlenberg from Greensboro, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

The President recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms of the 2007 Session of the General Assembly who announces that the members of the Judiciary and the Secretary of State are at the doors of the Senate. The President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to open the doors of the Senate and to escort the members of the Judiciary and Secretary of State to their seats.

The President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms of the 2007 Session of the General Assembly to open the doors of the Senate and to escort Katherine Fritsch, a fourth-grade student from Raleigh, to the Well of the Senate.

The President introduces The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain for the 2009 Session of the General Assembly, who offers prayer as follows:

"Dear God, the 148th Session of the General Assembly has begun. Lieutenant Governor Dalton now presides as President of the Senate. We pray that you will bless and guide him in his new responsibilities. Opening day of a new session is always a celebration and we are grateful that you are here to celebrate with us. You celebrate the call of these members to public service. You celebrate the families and friends gathered around the Senators who by their own sacrifices and encouragement have made this day possible. Look around this Senate Chamber, O God. These men and women have the equivalent of PhD's in lawmaking and they will have to summon all their knowledge and experiences to tackle the challenges before them. But most likely on some days they will be better served to forget all they've learned. To vision as if through new eyes—01 course work, entry level learning because a new vision may be the only good answer to the unprecedented problems never before faced in our lifetime. The Lieutenant Governor and Senators don't ask for an easy road. I know these women and men and you do, too, Lord. With your guidance and wisdom, they will be up to the task. In your holy name we pray. Amen.”

PRESENTATION OF THE COLORS

The Chair orders the Sergeant-at-Arms of the 2007 Session to open the doors of the Chamber for the presentation of the Colors by the Greene Central High School Army Junior ROTC from Snow Hill, North Carolina. (See Appendix.)

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Led by the Lieutenant Governor, the Senators-elect, distinguished guests, and all of those present remain standing and pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

ORGANIZATION OF THE SENATE

The President announces that the Senate stands ready to proceed with the election of officers, and declares the floor open for nominations for President Pro Tempore of the Senate, pursuant to Article II, Section 14(1) of the North Carolina Constitution.

The President recognizes Senator Weinstein who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I rise to nominate Senator Marc Basnight for President Pro Tempore of the Senate of North Carolina. Senator Basnight is currently serving his ninth term as President Pro Tempore of the Senate, a leadership post he has held since 1993. Senator Basnight has dedicated his life to help make North Carolina a better place to live. He is always willing to listen and consider the view of every Senator because it is the right thing to do. Senator Basnight is a strong supporter of education, affordable health care, job growth, and the general welfare of the citizens of North Carolina. In this difficult economic period, Senator Basnight is calling for government efficiency and job growth investment. Personally, I am proud of his leadership and the 2000 school bond building issue and his leadership in the construction of a new cancer hospital in Chapel Hill which will benefit all the citizens of North Carolina. We have a lot of hard work ahead of us and we need a Senate leader who can bring us all together to face these challenges. I ask you to join me in electing Senator Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore of the Senate in the 2009-2010 Session of the General Assembly. Thank you.”

The President recognizes Senator McKissick who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“It is a privilege and honor to stand here on behalf of Senator Basnight this morning. He has certainly been a tremendous visionary leader for the State of North Carolina. As Senator Weinstein indicated, he has been President Pro Tempore since 1993 and he is the longest serving person within our history to serve in that capacity. We have been fortunate to be blessed with his leadership. He is a consensus builder who understands the needs of North Carolina. He understands that North Carolina today has to be a community and a State where all of our citizens are embraced, where the aspirations of each of those citizens are able to be realized and, most importantly, that there is a need to chart a vision and a path and a plan for our State. He has been at the helm of our State when it comes to stewardship on environmental issues. He is the person who we have looked to for the clean water management trust fund, a fund which is dedicated to preserving our environmentally sensitive areas. He was also a leader when it came to the clean water responsibility act which is protecting our rivers. He understands that there is a need to protect our environment, not just for today, but for the generation that is yet to come. He has also been one of those that, looking at our legislative campus here, made sure when it came to energy sufficiency and efficiency and water conversation issues they were in fact embodied on our campus here. In the field of education, Senator Basnight has been one who always understands the fact that we need to have a population here in North Carolina with the skills to meet the needs of business and industry. In 2001, he worked hard to see that the $3.1 billion bond issue was approved to make certain the needs of our universities and community colleges were met. He championed the ABCs for public education to award schools for academic achievement. He sponsored the excellent schools act which raised teaching standards and teaching pay, as well. During his tenure, the pay of teachers in North Carolina has made a substantial stride forward in terms of the national average, something we can all feel proud of. As Senator Weinstein indicated, in terms of healthcare he always understands the needs for healthcare of our citizens. But most importantly, he understands that cancer touches the lives of virtually every family. He stood in the forefront in appropriating $50 million for the UNC System to build the cancer hospital that will benefit all of us in many ways. The counties needed help when it came to being relieved of the Medicaid burden and he stood forward in helping the counties meet that need and meet that obligation. He understands that our environment and our education are inextricably linked to our ability to attract industry and jobs for North Carolina. He has supported job tax credit programs and appropriate incentives to attract business and industry to North Carolina. He understands that we have to have the type of business environment that will thrive and prosper in North Carolina. During the sixteen years that he has been President Pro Tempore, North Carolina has been consistently ranked as having one of the best business environments in the United States of America and that we can feel proud of. Senator Basnight got us through our tough days back in 2001 when there was a severe economic downturn. He helped us meet our challenges then and we rebounded to a period of prosperity. This year we will face similar challenges, the same type of challenges that we saw then, but perhaps even more severe. There is no better person to see us through these difficult financial times that are on the horizon. Senator Basnight understands what it takes to balance those significant competing interests. Most importantly, he does listen. He listens to all the voices in North Carolina and all the voices here in the Senate. At the conclusion of our last session, Senator Fred Smith who is no longer with us, spoke very articulately of Senator Basnight in saying his door is always open, he is always approachable, he is always someone you can go to and always someone who will help you. That is the type of leadership we need in North Carolina. We need someone who reaches out, who builds consensus, but most importantly, embraces the needs of all the members of this Senate and faces the challenges in North Carolina in a meaningful, significant, and progressive way. We have had few people to serve sixteen years in this capacity. In fact, he is the only one. We have been fortunate and blessed with Jim Hunt to serve sixteen years in two different terms, but Senator Basnight’s leadership has been continuous. He is the man we need. He is the man who served us best and he is the one best prepared to continue assisting us in facing the challenges that we are facing now. We thank him for serving in the past and we thank his family for allowing him to serve. It is a privilege and honor that I am here today to second his nomination.”

January 28, 2009

The President recognizes Senator Jacumin who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“I would like to place in nomination the name of Senator Phil Berger for the office of President Pro Tempore of the Senate. The nomination is presented.”

The President recognizes Senator Goodall who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“I am proud to rise and second the nomination of Senator Phil Berger of Rockingham for the office of President Pro Tempore.”

Hearing no further nominations, the Chair directs the members of the Senate to answer the call of the roll and cast their vote for the President Pro Tempore nominee of their choice.

Those voting for Senator Basnight are: Senators Albertson, Atwater, Berger of Franklin, Boseman, Clodfelter, Dannelly, Davis, Dorsett, Foriest, Garrou, Goss, Graham, Hartsell, Jenkins, Jones, Kinnaird, Malone, McKissick, Nesbitt, Purcell, Queen, Rand, Shaw, Snow, Soles, Stein, Stevens, Swindell, Vaughan, and Weinstein ---30.

Those voting for Senator Berger of Rockingham are: Senators Allran, Apodaca, Berger of Rockingham, Bingham, Blake, Brock, Brown, Brunstetter, Clary, East, Forrester, Goodall, Hunt, Jacumin, Preston, Rouzer, Rucho, and Tillman ---18.

Senator Berger of Rockingham offers a motion that Senator Marc Basnight be elected by acclamation as President Pro Tempore of the 2009 Senate, which motion prevails.

The President declares Senator Basnight duly elected President Pro Tempore and appoints Senator Albertson, Senator Garrou, Senator Malone, Senator Soles, Senator Dannelly, Senator Queen, Senator Hartsell, and Senator Stevens to escort the President Pro Tempore-Elect to the Well of the Senate. Senator Garrou presents Senator Basnight to the President. The Sergeant-at-Arms escorts Senator Basnight's daughter, Caroline, to the Well of the Senate to join him as he receives the Oath of Office. The Honorable Howard E. Manning, Jr., Superior Court Judge, administers the prescribed Oath of Office.

The President recognizes Senator Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who addresses the Senate from the Well of the Senate and offers the following remarks:

“Thank you, Lieutenant Governor Dalton, former Senators, and welcome to all members and a special thanks to Judge Manning, who is not one of our favorites, but he is a personal friend! We are here at a crucial time in history. As I looked and waited out front, I recall that in 1963 this building was opened. Senator Soles, you were in the House at the time and I read that there was an Elton Aydlett from the First District which I represent, Manteo, and I read that there was a Senator Forsyth from Cherokee, John. John and I represent the extremes of the geography of North Carolina, as did Senator Aydlett and Senator Forsyth and today we stand here with two members from Manteo to Murphy. Yet today, we unite ourselves in our belief that the government does provide for its people in different ways. Certainly, one of the foremost ways is the education of its people. Without knowledge, there is no success and there is little opportunity and less progress. Through North Carolina’s history, it has provided for those opportunities. With the trouble that we face, declining revenues of double digits and growing, unemployment of double digits and growing, it is more so today than at any other time in my history or Senator Soles’ history that we continue to provide for a quality education for all kids that follow us in North Carolina and young adults who retrain their vision and refocus their place in life as they find new employment. The economic conditions do not bring great happiness to us today, but it is the hand that is dealt us and it is the hand we will play with. There are many challenges besides education. There is transportation or infrastructure, technology, water, sewer, the state health plan with which Senator Rand needs much help, probation, energy use, climate change. The list will continue but the focus that will be the greatest, Senator Garrou, will be the budget because it will affect all the different facets of government and if we craft it in that vein and in the way as we should and protect the most important ingredients of that budget, we will do well. Think of our condition today, not in a sad way or a depressed way, but think of what this budget can deliver. Think of what this session can give its people and, also, think for a second that if this was the opening day and you were in South Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia, or Virginia, you would be much worse off. Because of this body, to the new members, I will tell you today, they did a yeoman’s job in the past to protect that knowledge-based economy that we have to continue. Their condition is much worse than ours. I was thinking yesterday of a conversation I had with a young man at a Seven-Eleven in Manteo where I buy coffee in the mornings. He waited for me as I came out. He said he was a boat builder and he had a family and he was unemployed and that he would like to work for me in my yard or my house, painting, doing anything, digging holes, whatever it may be and he would work for minimum wage. He had a job that paid in excess of $20 per hour. He had health benefits, Senator Jenkins, and now he has none and he has no money for gas for the car. He can’t pay his mortgage payment today and the same can be said in Murphy and any other county in this great State of North Carolina. It is through employment that you protect the wishes of the family and the needs of such. Without the re-creation and the re-tooling of our industry of workers, North Carolina will suffer even greater and our deficit will be even larger. So, this session has to focus on jobs, jobs, and jobs. Now, not that we would be derelict in the other earlier mentioned difficulties and responsibilities that we have, absolutely not. But if we create that economy, re-tool it, make it available for all people, we all do well. I was also a bit mystified by the direction that South Carolina is taking in the closure of three universities. I do not have to encourage you to protect these universities. I do not have to encourage you to be frugal in your evaluation of state government, the elimination of waste, duplication, seeing that we’re more efficient and we do a better job with the monies that we have. These are givens. This will occur. But I would encourage you not to find your way out of this difficulty with cuts alone. There should be a more benign way of finding revenues than just cuts. So as we go through this budget through the finance chairs, Senator Clodfelter, you will be encouraged to look at ways to find revenue that will balance the cuts against the needs and the protection of education and our future in North Carolina. We have to be careful, we have to be steady, and we have to make no errors. You have given me this responsibility to lead you for another session. To Senator McKissick and my great friend, Senator Weinstein, I thank you for nominating me and seconding me to be your leader. I will do all within the powers and ability given me by the Good Lord who looks down upon us. Godspeed and thank you.”

January 28, 2009

III. MOTIONS

RULE 18. Motions generally. – Any motion shall be reduced to writing, if requested by the Presiding Officer or a Senator, and read by the Presiding Officer or Reading Clerk before the same is debated. Any motion may be withdrawn by the introducer at any time before decision or amendment. No motion relating to a bill shall be in order which does not identify the bill by its number and short title. Except as otherwise specifically provided in these rules, no second is required.

RULE 19. Motion; order of precedence. – When a question is before the Senate, no motion shall be received except those herein specified, which motions shall have precedence as follows:

(1) To adjourn.
(2) To lay on the table.
(3) For the previous question.
(4) To postpone indefinitely.
(5) To postpone to a certain day.
(6) To re-refer to a standing committee.
(7) To refer to a select committee.

RULE 22. Motion to substitute. – Subject to Rule 19, a member may offer a motion to substitute to any motion, except the motions for the previous question, to table or to adjourn. No motion to substitute shall be offered to a motion to substitute.

RULE 23. An authorized Senator moving the previous question shall specify to what the motion applies. Unless specifically limited, the motion shall be deemed to apply to the bill or resolution along with any pending amendments to its passage.

(b) The previous question shall be as follows: "Shall the main question be now put?" and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments and debate. If this question is decided in the affirmative, the "main question" shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution, or other matter under consideration; but when amendments are pending, the question shall be taken upon such amendments in their inverse order, without further debate or amendment.

(c) Only one of the following Senators may move the previous question:

(1) The chair of the committee submitting the report on the bill or other matter under consideration;

(2) The member introducing the bill or other matter under consideration;

(3) The member in charge of the measure, who shall be designated by the chair of the committee reporting the same to the Senate at the time the bill or other matter under consideration is reported to the Senate or taken up for consideration;

(4) The Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate; or

(5) The President Pro Tempore.

RULE 24. Motion to reconsider. – (a) When a question has been once put and decided, any Senator who voted in the majority may move to reconsider the vote thereof. No motion for reconsideration shall be in order unless made on the same day or in the next following legislative day on which the vote took place. When the next legislative day has by motion of the Senate been restricted as to matters which may be considered, a motion to reconsider shall be in order on the next succeeding day upon which regular business is conducted. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this rule, a motion to reconsider is in order at any time if made by the Chair or, in the Chair's absence, the Vice-Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate or the President Pro Tempore for the sole purpose of correcting grammatical errors in bills in the possession of the Senate.

(c) If a bill has gone out of the possession of the Senate and a motion to reconsider under these rules is passed, the bill shall not be enrolled unless it again passes third reading. The Principal Clerk shall notify the House of Representatives and the Enrolling Clerk of any action under this subsection.

IV. VOTING

RULE 25. Use of electronic voting system. – (a) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system, and the ayes and noes shall be recorded on the Journal:

(1) All questions on which the Constitution of North Carolina requires that the ayes and noes be taken and recorded on the Journal;

(2) All questions on which a call for the ayes and noes under Rule 26(b) has been sustained;

(3) Second and third readings of bills proposing amendment of the Constitution of North Carolina; and

(4) The vote on approval of a bill that was vetoed by the Governor.

January 28, 2009
(b) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system, and the resulting totals shall be recorded on the Journal:

(1) Second reading of all public bills, all amendments to public bills offered after second reading, third reading if a public bill was amended after second reading, and all conference reports on public bills.

(2) Any other question upon direction of the Presiding Officer or upon motion of any Senator supported by one-fifth of the Senators present.

(c) When the electronic voting system is used, the Presiding Officer shall fix and announce the time, not to exceed one minute, which shall be allowed for voting on the question before the Senate. The system shall be set to lock automatically and to record the vote when that time has expired. Once the system has locked and recorded a vote, the vote shall be printed by the system.

(d) The voting station at each Senator's desk in the Chamber shall be used only by the Senator to whom the station is assigned. Under no circumstances shall any other person vote at a Senator's station. It is a breach of the ethical obligation of a Senator either to request that another vote at the requesting Senator's station or to vote at another Senator's station. The Presiding Officer shall enforce this rule without exception.

(e) When the electronic voting system is used, the Presiding Officer shall state the question and shall then state substantially the following: "All in favor vote 'aye'; all opposed vote 'no'; _____ seconds will be allowed for voting on this question; the Clerk will record the vote." After the machine locks and records the vote, the Presiding Officer shall announce the vote and declare the result, and no member may vote thereafter.

(f) One copy of the machine printout of the vote record shall be filed in the office of the Principal Clerk, and one copy shall be filed in the Legislative Library where it shall be open to public inspection.

(g) When the Presiding Officer ascertains that the electronic voting system is inoperative before a vote is taken or while a vote is being taken on the electronic system, the Presiding Officer shall announce that fact to the Senate, and any partial electronic system voting record shall be voided. In such a case, if the Constitution of North Carolina or the Rules of the Senate require a call of the ayes and noes, the Clerk shall call the roll of the Senate, and the ayes and noes shall be taken manually and shall be recorded on the Journal. All other votes shall be taken as prescribed in Senate Rule 26. If, after a vote is taken on the electronic system, it is discovered that a malfunction caused an error in the electronic system printout, the Presiding Officer shall direct the Reading Clerk and the Principal Clerk to verify and correct the printout record and so advise the Senate.

(h) For the purpose of identifying motions on which the vote is taken on the electronic system (the identification codes having no relation to the order of precedence of motions), the motions are coded as follows:

January 28, 2009
(1) To lay on the table.
(2) For the previous question.
(3) To postpone indefinitely.
(4) To postpone to a day certain.
(5) To refer to a committee.
(6) To reconsider.
(7) To adopt.
(8) To concur.
(9) To take from the table.
(10) Miscellaneous.

RULE 26. Voice votes; call for division; call for ayes and noes.

- (a) When the electronic voting system is not used, all votes on which a call of the roll of the Senate is not required shall be taken by voice vote. The question shall be put as follows: "Those in favor say 'aye'," and, after the affirmative vote is expressed, "Opposed 'no"; after which the Presiding Officer shall announce the result. If a division on any vote is desired, it must be called for immediately before the result of the voting is announced on any question, and, upon such call, the Presiding Officer shall require the members to stand and be counted for and against the proposition under consideration.

- (b) The ayes and the noes may be called for on any question before the vote is taken. If a Senator desires the ayes and noes recorded on the Journal on a question, that Senator shall address the Presiding Officer and obtain recognition and say, "Upon that question I call for the ayes and noes." Whereupon the Presiding Officer shall say, "Is the call sustained?" If one-fifth of the remaining Senators present then stand, the vote shall be taken on the electronic voting system if it is operative, and the ayes and noes shall be recorded on the Journal. If the electronic voting system is inoperative, the roll of the Senate shall be called and the ayes and noes taken manually and recorded on the Journal. If fewer than one-fifth of the Senators present stand to sustain the call, the Presiding Officer shall announce, "An insufficient number up", and a vote by electronic voting or by voice, whichever is appropriate under the Rules of the Senate, shall be taken.

RULE 27. Pair votes.

- (a) If a Senator is paired with another Senator on a question, the Senator shall announce the pair as follows: "I desire to announce a pair. If Senator _____ were present, that Senator would vote _____; I would vote _____ (the opposite)." The Senator shall send forward at that time a written statement of the pair on a form provided by the Principal Clerk, and neither member of the pair shall vote on the question. A pair shall be announced before the vote is taken viva voce or, if the electronic voting system is used, before the machine is unlocked. The Clerk shall record the pair on the Journal when the Constitution or Rules of the Senate require a call of the roll and shall record on the electronic system printout all pairs announced.

- (b) No Senator who is absent shall pair unless the absent Senator has obtained a leave of absence.

- (c) This rule does not apply to committee or subcommittee proceedings.

January 28, 2009
RULE 28. Dividing question. – (a) If a bill is subject to division into separate parts so that each part states a separate and distinct proposition capable of standing alone, a Senator may move that the question be divided. The motion shall:

(1) Be in writing,
(2) Be submitted to the Principal Clerk at the time the motion is made, and
(3) Clearly state how the question is to be divided.

Upon a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, the motion shall be adopted.

(b) If the motion to divide the question is adopted, then there shall be no further amendment or debate on any of the distinct propositions.

(c) If the question is divided and any part thereof fails, then the bill or resolution and any pending amendments shall be removed from the calendar and re-referred to the committee from which the bill or resolution was reported.

(d) Only one motion to divide the question shall be in order during consideration of a bill or resolution.

RULE 29. Duty to vote; excuses. – (a) Every Senator who is within the Senate Chamber when the question is stated by the Presiding Officer shall vote thereon unless that Senator is excused by the Senate.

(b) A Senator who is a member of a committee shall, upon request, be excused from deliberations and voting on the bill while it is before the committee. The Senator must make the request to the chair of the committee when the bill is first taken up for consideration and before any motion or vote on the bill or any amendment to the bill. The Senator making the request for excuse in committee must renew that request for excuse on the floor of the Senate as set forth in this rule.

(c) Any Senator may move to be excused at any time from voting on any matter. The Senator may make a brief statement of the reasons for the motion which question shall be taken without debate on the motion.

(d) The Senator may send forward to the Principal Clerk, on a form provided by the Clerk, a concise statement of the reason for the motion, and the Clerk shall include this statement in the Journal.

(e) The Senator so excused shall not debate the bill or any amendment to the bill, vote on the bill, offer or vote on any amendment to the bill, or offer or vote on any motion concerning the bill at that reading, any subsequent reading, or any subsequent consideration of the bill.

(f) A Senator may move that the excuse of that Senator from deliberations on a particular bill be withdrawn, which question shall be determined without debate.

(g) A motion to be excused or for the withdrawal of an excuse shall be taken without debate.

(h) A motion by any Senator to change that Senator's vote must be made on the same legislative day as the vote is taken. This subsection may not be suspended.

If it is impossible to prepare a fiscal note within two legislative days, the Director of Fiscal Research shall, in writing, so advise the Presiding Officer, the Principal Clerk, and the member introducing or proposing the measure and shall indicate the time when the fiscal note will be ready.

(c) The fiscal note shall be prepared by the Fiscal Research Division on a form approved by the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate as to content and form and signed by the staff member or members preparing it. If no estimate in dollars is possible, the fiscal note shall indicate the reasons that no estimate is provided. The fiscal note shall not comment on the merit but may identify technical problems. The Fiscal Research Division shall make the fiscal note available to the membership of the Senate.

(d) A sponsor of a bill, resolution, or amendment may deliver a copy of that member's bill, resolution, or amendment to the Fiscal Research Division for the preparation of a fiscal note. The sponsor shall attach the fiscal note to the bill when the sponsor files the bill or resolution or to the amendment when the sponsor moves its adoption.

(e) The sponsor of a bill, resolution, or amendment to which a fiscal note is attached who objects to the estimates and information provided may reduce to writing the objections. These objections shall be appended to the fiscal note attached to the bill, resolution, or amendment and to the copies of the fiscal note available to the membership.

(f) Subsection (a) of this rule shall not apply to the Current Operations Appropriations Bill or the Capital Improvement Appropriations Bill. This rule shall not apply to a bill, resolution, or amendment requiring an actuarial note under these rules.

RULE 42.2. Actuarial notes. – (a) Every bill or resolution proposing any change in the law relative to any:

1. State, municipal, or other retirement system funded in whole or in part out of public funds; or

2. Program of hospital, medical, disability, or related benefits provided for teachers and State employees, funded in whole or in part by State funds, shall have attached to it at the time of its consideration by any committee a brief explanatory statement or note which shall include a reliable estimate of the financial and actuarial effect of the proposed change, as provided in G.S. 120-114. The actuarial note shall be attached to the jacket of each proposed bill or resolution that is reported favorably by any committee and shall be clearly designated as an actuarial note. Upon its introduction, a bill or resolution described in subdivision (a)(1) of this rule shall be referred to the Committee on Pensions and Retirement and Aging.

(b) The sponsor of the bill or resolution shall present a copy of the measure, with the sponsor's request for an actuarial note, to the Fiscal Research Division, which shall prepare the actuarial note as promptly as possible but not later than two weeks after the request is made. Actuarial notes shall be prepared in the order of receipt of request and shall be transmitted to the sponsor of the measure. The actuarial note of the Fiscal Research Division shall be prepared and signed by an actuary.

(c) The sponsor of the bill or resolution shall also present a copy of the measure to the chief administrative officer of the system affected by the measure. The chief administrative officer shall have an actuarial note prepared by the system's actuary on the measure and shall transmit the note to the sponsor of the measure not later than two weeks after the request is received. The actuarial note may be attached to the jacket of the measure.

(d) The note shall be factual and shall, if possible, provide a reliable estimate of both the immediate effect and, if determinable, the long-range fiscal and actuarial effect of the measure. If, after careful investigation, it is determined that no dollar estimate is possible, the note shall contain a statement to that effect, setting forth the reasons why no dollar estimate can be given. No comment or opinion shall be included in the actuarial note with regard to the merits of the measure for which the note is prepared. Technical and mechanical defects in the measure may be noted.

(e) When any committee reports a measure to which an actuarial note is attached at the time of committee consideration, with any amendment of such nature as would substantially affect the cost to or the revenues of any system, the chair of the committee reporting the measure shall obtain from the Fiscal Research Division and the administrator of the affected system an actuarial note of the fiscal and actuarial effect of the proposed amendment. The actuarial note shall be attached to the jacket of the measure. A Chair of the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee, or of the Finance Committee, or of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, or of the Ways and Means Committee, upon the floor of the Senate, may request that an actuarial note be attached to a bill, resolution, or an amendment which affects the costs to or the revenues of a system described in this rule and which is in the possession of the Senate, when in the opinion of that Chair, the effect to the cost to or the revenues of a system described in this rule are not apparent from the language of the measure. No bill, resolution, or amendment for which an actuarial note has been requested may be considered for passage prior to the actuarial note from both the Fiscal Research Division and the administrator of the affected system being attached to it.

January 28, 2009
(f) The Fiscal Research Division shall make all relevant actuarial notes available to the membership of the Senate.

RULE 42.3. Assessment reports. – (a) Licensing or Registration Boards. Every legislative proposal introduced in the Senate proposing the establishment of an occupational or professional licensing or registration board or a study for the need to establish such a board shall have attached to the jacket of the original bill at the time of its consideration on second or third readings by the Senate or by any committee of the Senate prior to a favorable report, an assessment report from the Legislative Committee on New Licensing Boards, pursuant to Article 18A of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes. The assessment report shall not constitute any part of the expression of legislative intent proposed by the formation of a licensing board.

Upon receipt of the request, the Legislative Committee on New Licensing Boards shall prepare and return the assessment report as soon as possible but not later than 60 days from the date of receipt of the request, reserving the right to extend this time to 90 days. A supplementary report shall be prepared and submitted to the requesting Senator not later than 30 days after the receipt of the request.

(b) Municipal Incorporations. Every legislative proposal introduced in the Senate, or received in the Senate from the House, proposing the incorporation of a municipality shall have attached to the jacket of the original bill at the time of its consideration on second or third readings by the Senate or by any committee of the Senate prior to a favorable report, a recommendation from the Joint Legislative Commission on Municipal Incorporations, established by Article 20 of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes. The recommendation of the Joint Legislative Commission on Municipal Incorporations shall be made in accordance with the provisions and criteria set forth in Article 20 of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes and shall include the findings required to be made by G.S. 120-166 through G.S. 120-170.

RULE 42.3A. Proposed increases in incarceration. – (a) Every bill, amendment, and resolution proposing any change in the law that could cause a net increase in the length of time for which persons are incarcerated or the number of persons incarcerated, whether by increasing penalties for violating existing laws, by criminalizing behavior, or by any other means, shall have attached to it at the time of its consideration by the Senate a fiscal note prepared by the Fiscal Research Division. The fiscal note shall be prepared in consultation with the Sentencing Policy and Advisory Commission and shall identify and estimate, for the first five fiscal years the proposed change would be in effect, all costs of the proposed net increase in incarceration, including capital outlay costs if the legislation would require increased cell space. If, after careful investigation, the Fiscal Research Division determines that no dollar estimate is possible, the note shall contain a statement to that effect, setting forth the reasons why no dollar estimate can be given. No comment or opinion shall be included in the fiscal note with regard to the merits of the measure for which the note is prepared. However, technical and mechanical defects may be noted.
(b) The sponsor of each bill, amendment, or resolution to which this subsection applies shall present a copy of the bill, amendment, or resolution with the request for a fiscal note to the Fiscal Research Division. Upon receipt of the request and the copy of the bill, amendment, or resolution, the Fiscal Research Division shall prepare the fiscal note as promptly as possible. The Fiscal Research Division shall prepare the fiscal note and transmit it to the sponsor within two weeks after the request is made, unless the sponsor agrees to an extension of time.

(c) This fiscal note shall be attached to the original of each proposed bill, amendment, or resolution that is reported favorably by any committee, but shall be separate from the bill, amendment, or resolution and shall be clearly designated as a fiscal note. A fiscal note attached to a bill, amendment, or resolution pursuant to this subsection is not a part of the bill, amendment, or resolution and is not an expression of legislative intent proposed by the bill, amendment, or resolution.

(d) If a committee reports favorably a proposed bill or resolution with an amendment that proposes a change in the law that could cause a net increase in the length of time for which persons are incarcerated or the number of persons incarcerated, whether by increasing penalties for violating existing laws, by criminalizing behavior, or by any other means, the chair of the committee shall obtain from the Fiscal Research Division and attach to the amended bill or resolution a fiscal note as provided in this section.

(3) Modifies any function of State government which necessitates a transfer of funds from one department to another; provided, that for a provision to be in order under this subsection, it must be recommended to the General Assembly in a written report adopted by the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee before or at the same time the bill is reported, or, if such provision is contained in a floor amendment, the sponsor of the amendment must present to the Principal Clerk at or before the time the amendment is offered an explanation of the amendment for distribution to each member of the Senate.

First reading; reference to committee. – All bills filed for introduction and all House bills received in the office of the Principal Clerk not later than one and one-half hours preceding the convening of the Senate, upon presentation to the Senate, shall be read in regular order of business by their number and title which shall constitute the first reading of the bill. The Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate or, in the Chair's absence, the Vice-Chair of the Committee, or the President Pro Tempore may refer to a Senate committee all bills introduced in the Senate or received from the House of Representatives. Upon the referral being made, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate shall notify the Principal Clerk of the Senate of the referral, and the Reading Clerk shall announce the referral of the bill. The Principal Clerk shall inform the Presiding Officer of the referral. The title and referral shall be entered upon the Journal.

Bills may be referred to more than one committee serially: e.g., "S.B. ________ is referred to the Committee on Finance and upon a favorable report referred to the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee."

RULE 44. Bills to receive three readings. – Every bill shall receive three readings before being passed, and the Presiding Officer shall give notice at each reading whether it be the first, second, or third. The Reading Clerk shall announce the referral as set forth in Rule 43. No bill shall be amended upon the floor of the Senate, except under Rule 45.1, until it has been twice read. Senate simple resolutions shall not require three readings.

RULE 45. Reports of committees. – Every Senator presenting a report of a committee shall endorse the report with the name of the committee and, in case of a minority report, with the names of the members making the report. The report of the committee shall show that a quorum of the committee was present and a majority of those present voted in favor of the report. Every report of the committee upon a bill or resolution shall stand upon the general orders with the bill or resolution. No committee shall report a bill or resolution without prejudice.

RULE 45.1. Action on amendment or committee substitute. – If any committee recommends adoption of an amendment or committee substitute of a bill or resolution, the amendment or committee substitute shall be considered adopted upon the reading of the committee report and shall be engrossed. Unless a committee substitute of a bill or resolution being considered by a committee is distributed to members of that committee no later than the day prior to the committee meeting, the committee substitute shall be carried over to the next day unless a majority of the members of that committee present and voting vote to take up the measure at that time. The bill or resolution, as amended, or its adopted committee substitute shall be placed on the calendar for the next legislative day or re-referred if the bill or resolution was serially referred. The committee substitute's original bill or resolution shall lie on the table.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this rule, a committee substitute for a simple resolution shall be placed on the calendar for the next legislative day for a vote on its adoption.

RULE 46. Unfavorable report by committee. — (a) All bills reported unfavorably by the committee to which they were referred, and having no minority report, shall lie upon the table but may be taken from the table and placed upon the calendar by a two-thirds vote of the membership of the Senate present and voting.

(b) When a bill is reported by a committee with an unfavorable report, but accompanied by a minority report, signed by at least three members of the committee who were present and who voted on the bill when the bill was considered in committee, then the minority report shall be placed on the calendar and considered the following day, and the question before the Senate shall be: "The adoption of the minority report." If the minority report is adopted by a majority vote of the membership of the Senate, the bill shall be placed upon the calendar; if the minority report is not adopted, the bill shall lie upon the table.

RULE 47. Recall of bill from committee and discharge petition. — (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, only the President Pro Tempore, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, or the chair of a committee to which a bill or other matter is assigned may, with the consent of a majority of the membership of the Senate present and voting, recall the measure to be referred to another committee or the floor.

No petition may be circulated for signatures until 10 legislative days after the bill has been referred to the committee. No petition may be circulated for signature until notice has been given on the floor of the Senate that the petition is to be circulated. If such a motion accompanied by a valid petition is filed, the Principal Clerk shall place that motion on the calendar for the next legislative day as a special order of business. If the motion is adopted by two-thirds of the members of the Senate, then the committee to which the bill or resolution has been referred is discharged from further consideration of the bill or resolution, and that bill or resolution is placed on the calendar for the next legislative day as a special order of business. If the committee had, prior to discharge, adopted any amendment or committee substitute for the bill, it shall be in order to offer that amendment or substitute on the floor as if it were a committee amendment or substitute. The Principal Clerk shall provide a form for discharge petitions.

(c) This rule shall not be temporarily suspended.

RULE 48. Calendar; order to be followed. — The Presiding Officer and the Principal Clerk of the Senate shall see that all bills are acted RULE 51. Special orders. – Any bill or other matter in consideration before the Senate may be made a special order for a subsequent day or hour by a vote of the majority of the Senators voting, and if action on the bill is not completed on that day, it shall be returned to its place on the calendar, unless it is made a special order for another day; and when a special order is under consideration it shall take precedence over any special order or subsequent order for the day, but such subsequent order may be taken up immediately after the previous special order has been disposed of.

RULE 52. Procedure when necessary number of Senators not present. – If, on taking the question on a bill, it appears that a constitutional quorum is not present, or if the bill requires a vote of a certain proportion of all the Senators to pass it, and it appears that such number is not present, the bill shall be again read and the question taken thereon; if the bill fails a second time for the want of the necessary number being present and voting, the bill shall not be finally lost but shall be returned to the calendar in its proper order.

RULE 53. Effect of defeated measure. – (a) After a bill has been tabled, or has failed to pass on any of its readings, the contents of such bill or the principal provisions of its subject matter shall not be embodied in any other measure. After an amendment has been tabled or defeated on the Senate floor, the contents of such amendment or the principal provisions of its subject matter shall not be embodied in any other measure. If a substitute amendment is adopted on the floor, the contents of the previously pending amendment which are not contained in the substitute shall be considered to have been defeated. Upon the point of order being raised and sustained by the Presiding Officer, such measure shall be laid upon the table and shall not be taken therefrom except by a vote of two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting: Provided, no local bill shall be held by the Presiding Officer as embodying the provisions of, or being identical with, any statewide measure which has been laid upon the table or failed to pass any of its readings.

(b) When a bill has been postponed indefinitely by the Senate, the bill shall lie upon the table and shall not be taken therefrom except by a vote of two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting.

RULE 56. Corrections of typographical errors in bills. – The Enrolling Clerk is authorized to make corrections of typographical errors in the text of bills at any time prior to ratification. Before the correction is made, the Enrolling Clerk shall have the approval of the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate or, in the Chair's absence, the Vice-Chair of said Committee, the President Pro Tempore, or the Deputy President Pro Tempore.

RULE 56.1. Amendments and committee substitutes adopted by the House to bills originating in the Senate. – (a) Whenever the House has adopted an amendment or a committee substitute for a bill originating in the Senate, and has returned the bill to the Senate for concurrence in that amendment or committee substitute, the Senate may not concur in that amendment or committee substitute until the next legislative day following the day on which the Senate receives that measure.

(b) The Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, (or in that Chair's absence the President Pro Tempore) may, or upon motion supported by a majority of the Senate present and voting shall, refer the bill to an appropriate committee for consideration of the amendment or committee substitute.

(1) Report the bill with the recommendation either that the Senate do concur or that the Senate do not concur; and

(2) Advise the Presiding Officer as to whether or not the amendment or committee substitute is a material amendment under Article II, Section 23, of the State's Constitution.

(d) If the amendment or committee substitute for a bill is not a material amendment, the question before the Senate shall be concurrence. In the event there is more than one House amendment, the question shall be concurrence in all the House amendments, and the question may not be divided, notwithstanding Rule 28. The question which shall be put before the Senate by the Presiding Officer shall be: "Does the Senate concur in the House amendments (committee substitute) to S.B.____?".

(e) If the amendment or committee substitute for a bill is a material amendment, the receiving of that bill on messages shall constitute first reading, and the question before the Senate shall be concurrence on second who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, it is my pleasure to nominate Senator Charlie Dannelly for the office of Deputy Pro Tempore. He is truly qualified to serve in this position as Deputy because he has experienced this. He has already served three terms as Deputy Pro Tempore. Charlie is an educator and a graduate of Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte. He also attended UNC-Chapel Hill where he received a Master’s Degree in education and administration. Charlie has served in the military. He served as First Lieutenant in the 82nd Airborne. He has been a teacher and a principal in the Mecklenburg County Schools for over twenty years before his retirement in 1991. Charlie has been a tireless public servant serving on the Charlotte City Council for twelve years before joining the Senate. He has been a member of this Chamber for sixteen years. He is a committed public servant not only to his district, but to all of the citizens of North Carolina. Charlie is a strong advocate for children, the erly, the homeless, the poor, and the mentally and physically challenged. As he moves through the Senate, he focuses his attention on improving education, providing jobs and improving the economy. He has been a voice for the voiceless. Charlie is a very active and great member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. He serves on many committees here in the Senate, Appropriations, Education, Finance, and Health, just to name a few. He and his wife have one adult son and his son and his wife are here with us today. The Dannelly family holds membership in the Friendship Missionary Baptist Church in Charlotte, North Carolina. It is my great pleasure to ask you to join me in nominating Charlie Dannelly for the Office of Deputy President Pro Tempore."

The Chair recognizes Senator Soles who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, it is my extreme pleasure and high honor to have the opportunity to second the nomination of our good friend, Senator Charlie Dannelly, to serve as the Deputy President Pro Tempore of the Senate. Having served in that same office several terms several years ago, I know full well the responsibilities that come with it. We often look to the President Pro Tempore for leadership. The President Pro Tempore is here on a daily basis, but there are many times when he can’t be here or needs assistance or a confidant and the Deputy Pro Tempore steps in and fills that challenge well. Senator Dannelly, as you heard, has a rich heritage and experience. He was born in Bishopville, South Carolina and finished his public schooling there, went off in the military where he served as a paratrooper. After that, he came to North Carolina and went to the North Carolina Universities and then served in public office throughout his City of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County. It was our good fortune to have him to come to the North Carolina Senate where he has served in a leadership position time after time with distinction. It is my pleasure and great honor to second the nomination for Senator Charlie Dannelly for Deputy President Pro Tempore of the Senate. Thank you."

A motion offered by Senator Soles that the nominations be closed and that Senator Dannelly be elected Deputy President Pro Tempore by acclamation prevails.

The President declares Senator Charlie Dannelly duly elected Deputy President Pro Tempore and appoints Senator Dorsett, Senator Soles, Senator Jones, Senator Clodfelter, and Senator Weinstein to escort the Deputy President Pro Tempore-Elect to the Well of the Senate. Senator Dorsett presents Senator Dannelly to the President. The President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort Mrs. Rose Dannelly, Chuck Dannelly, and Doreen Dannelly to the Well of the Senate where they join Senator Dannelly as he receives the prescribed Oath of Office. The Honorable Michael R. Morgan, Superior Court Judge, Judicial District 10, administers the prescribed Oath of Office.

The President recognizes Senator Dannelly, Deputy President Pro Tempore, who offers the following remarks:

“Thank you, Mr. President. First of all, let me give thanks to my Lord and Savior for my presence here and your presence. I would also like to thank the January 28, 2009
Honorable Michael Morgan for administering the oath. I want to thank the members for the confidence you’ve shown in me. Again, I want to thank my best friend, my wife, Rose, who has been here every time and our son, Charlie Dannelly II, and his wife, Doreen, who are here for the first time in my eight terms. It is a special feeling for me to have them here. Historic things have happened in this Country and in this State this year. On January 10, we swore in the first female Governor of our Great State of North Carolina. On January 20, we swore in the first African-American President of these United States. This has never happened before and I predict it will happen sometime again in the future. The glass ceiling has been somewhat broken. As a result of these happenings, positive change is occurring. Unfortunately, our Country and our State are facing the largest deficit in most of our lifetimes. I appeal to our constituents to have patience and understanding as we struggle to develop a balanced budget. It’s going to be very difficult to maintain funding for our existing budget. Someone once said when you take from Peter to pay Paul we generally leave Peter in worse shape than Paul ever was. In our current crisis we need to remember the philosophy of Epicurus who said, ‘One is rich not by one’s possessions, but through that which one with dignity can do without.’ When we strive to improve our economic outlook, we must still maintain strong support for our educational systems from preschools through the universities and community colleges. Education has always been our strength in rescuing us from large revenue shortfalls. When businesses see and recognize that we are willing to invest in ourselves, they feel that it is safe for them to invest in North Carolina’s future. We are at the point when we must demand strict accountability from every recipient of state funding and we must stretch every penny to its fullest extent. Additionally, we must monitor and make sure that those who provide services to our needy citizens are certified and/or qualified to deliver those services. We must punish anyone who abuses or neglects a citizen in our state-operated facilities. This is just a microcosm of the things we must do in this term as we develop a budget which will help all North Carolinians make a better life for themselves. Someone once said that things turn out for the best for those who make the best of the way things turn out. I think we’re in that position now where we will have to make the best of the way things turn out. Let me close by applying something President Bill Clinton said in one of his inaugural addresses about America. What I will do is substitute our own State. He simply said there is nothing wrong in North Carolina that cannot be cured by what is right with North Carolina. We have a big job to do. Thank you very much and God Bless.”

ELECTION OF STATUTORY OFFICERS

Pursuant to G.S. 120.37, the President declares the floor open to receive nominations for the Office of Principal Clerk.

The President recognizes Senator Weinstein who offers the following nomination and remarks:

January 28, 2009
“Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I rise to nominate Janet Pruitt for Senate Principal Clerk. Janet has served in this Chamber since 1997. During that time she has assembled a very competent staff and updated the technology in the Senate. She has flawlessly managed thousands of bills and amendments that we file each year. I have always appreciated her professionalism and her discretion in doing her job. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, it is my honor to nominate Janet Pruitt for the North Carolina State Senate Principal Clerk. Mr. President, I ask that the nominations be closed and that Ms. Pruitt be elected by acclamation.”

The President recognizes Senator Snow who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I consider it an honor and a privilege to stand to second the nomination for Janet Pruitt for our Principal Clerk. In seconding that nomination, I recognize her outstanding leadership and the courteous, dedicated, and flawless service that she and her professional staff provide for the North Carolina Senate and to the people of North Carolina. In further recognition of that service, I move that the nominations be closed and that Janet Pruitt be elected Principal Clerk by acclamation.”

The motion by Senator Snow that the nominations be closed and that Janet Pruitt be elected Principal Clerk of the 2009 Senate by acclamation prevails. The President declares Janet Pruitt duly elected and appoints Senator Foriest, Senator Bingham, and Senator Purcell to escort the Principal Clerk-Elect, Janet Pruitt, to the Well of the Senate. The Honorable Elaine Marshall, Secretary of State of North Carolina, administers the prescribed Oath of Office and the President directs the Principal Clerk to assume her seat.

The President declares the floor open to receive nominations for the Office of Reading Clerk. The President recognizes Senator Malone who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Mr. President, I am very pleased to nominate Ted Harrison as the Reading Clerk. Mr. Harrison has held that position for eight years and he has done it proficiently and with dignity consistent with the decorum of this Chamber. He is the only Reading Clerk I’ve known and so, therefore, I cannot imagine having anyone else in that position. Ted Harrison is a graduate of The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, but he really wishes he had graduated from North Carolina State University! With that being said, I am very pleased to place in nomination for Reading Clerk, Ted Harrison.”

The President recognizes Senator Swindell who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

January 28, 2009
“Mr. President, Ted Harrison, many of you may not know this, began his career with WFMY-TV in Charlotte. He then became a focal point on television doing UNC broadcasts covering the North Carolina General Assembly for many, many years. His wife, Betsy, is a native of Caswell County and her father, Joe Warren, was a member of the North Carolina House and later became Sergeant-at-Arms of the House. He has a rich history in this building. He knows the history, he is willing to share it, and I would not only second his nomination, but I move we accept Ted Harrison as Reading Clerk of this Body by acclamation. Thank you.”

The motion offered by Senator Swindell that the nominations be closed and that Ted Harrison be elected Reading Clerk of the 2009 Senate by acclamation prevails. The President declares Ted Harrison duly elected and appoints Senator Albertson, Senator Stevens, Senator Soles, and Senator Nesbitt to escort the Reading Clerk-Elect to the Well of the Senate. Senator Soles is recognized and presents the Reading Clerk-Elect, Ted Harrison. The Honorable Robert C. Hunter, Judge, North Carolina Court of Appeals, administers the prescribed Oath of Office and the President directs the Reading Clerk to assume his seat.

The President declares the floor open to receive nominations for the Office of Sergeant-at-Arms. The President recognizes Senator Rand who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Thank you, Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. It is my great privilege and high honor to place in nomination the name of Cecil Goins as the Sergeant-at-Arms for the one-hundred and forty-eighth session of the North Carolina Senate. Cecil is a graduate of North Carolina A&T. He served as a commissioned officer with the Big Red One. When he completed his service to our Country in that regard, he came back and joined the United States Marshal Service where he served until his retirement as a Deputy United States Marshal. It was during that period of time that I had the opportunity to get to know Cecil and get to know him well. During that period in my life I had the pleasure of representing certain people that were charged with anti-social behavior that was dealt with in the Federal Courts of the Eastern District of North Carolina and I always was impressed with the way Cecil did his duties. He was unfailingly courteous and very direct and straightforward, but always very serious about the performance of his duties. He has served us in the Senate, I think about nine terms, for a long time and has always done extremely well. He has always been unfailingly courteous and polite to people, but always maintained the dignity and the traditions of the Senate. If any of you have never had the opportunity to have Cecil tell you the story about the animal trainer, I would suggest you take an hour or so off one afternoon and get him to do that. It is an unforgettable experience. He is a wonderful man, he has served us well and I would solicit your support for him for this important position. Thank you, Mr. President.”

The President recognizes Senator McKissick who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

January 28, 2009
“I can’t say much more than what Senator Rand has already said about Cecil. He is a wonderful gentleman with such dignity. When I think about words that really epitomize him I think about the word class. I think of the word distinction. But most importantly, he is respected by all, everyone he touches. One thing you might not have known about him is that he also was once a private investigator. If you ever go and speak to him, you realize that his eyes and ears are open at all times. His mind is engaged and he has an opinion about everything that we do in here. He is one of those go-to people that you can go to and ask a question about anything and he has an incredible memory. He is an institutional memory for this Body and is an archive that is really treasured. It is a privilege and an honor to second his nomination. I move that the nominations be closed on said name.”

The motion offered by Senator McKissick that the nominations be closed and that Cecil Goins be elected Sergeant-at-Arms of the 2009 Senate by acclamation prevails. The President declares Cecil Goins duly elected and appoints Senator Soles, Senator Forrester, Senator Jones, and Senator Swindell to escort the Sergeant-at-Arms-Elect, Cecil Goins. The Honorable Robert C. Hunter, Judge, North Carolina Court of Appeals, administers the prescribed Oath of Office and the President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to assume his seat.

REMARKS BY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

The President of the Senate, The Honorable Walter Dalton, offers the following remarks:

“Ladies and gentlemen, we are drawing near to the end of this and I want to take this opportunity to again congratulate Senator Basnight on what is a very historic election. It is historic not only for the number of years of service, but it is historic for the accomplishments that have been made during that period of time. You have already heard reference to many of those – the Clean Water Management Trust Fund, money to keep this State beautiful, money for infrastructure that leads to economic development, the university and community college bond bill in 1998, the largest in history. I think it’s one of the things that makes our community college system probably the very best in the Nation. It’s one of the things that makes our university system one of the best, if not the best, public university system in the Nation. That money has gone to work to prepare for the 21st Century jobs. The money for cancer research has been transformational for North Carolina. They will tell you that with that appropriation it will be the number one public cancer research center in the Nation in the very near future. It is money that supports the research of people like Dr. Smithies who last year won a Nobel prize in genomics. Money to support the research of Joe D. Simone who was recently named North Carolinian of the Year and won MIT’s award last year because he is working on a delivery system through nanoscience that may cure cancer. It will not only create jobs in North Carolina and attract businesses here but it’s going to save lives. These are investments that set North Carolina apart and these are the investments that will define North Carolina for the future. So Senator Basnight, I congratulate you. It is a great legacy. I congratulate the leadership of the majority party, Senator Dannelly, Senator Rand, Senator Dorsett and Senator Soles, and I look forward to working with you. I also want to take this opportunity to congratulate Senator Phil Berger for what is also an historic election. Three consecutive terms ties a modern-day record, Senator Berger. You can be very proud of that. It has been my privilege to serve with you for many years. You have always served with integrity and with character. You have my utmost respect and I look forward to working with you. I say the same to Senators Brown, Brunstetter, Hunt, Tillman and Goodall. Congratulations on your election and I look forward to working with you. Thankfully, the long, hard-fought battles of the campaign are over and it is time for us to put those battles aside and it is time for us to put politics aside and work for the future of North Carolina. This is the time to work together and set an example for our constituents.”

January 28, 2009
North Carolina and the betterment of our people. You’ve already heard it referenced today. We know this is a difficult time. Federal trade policies and federal credit policies have crippled our Nation. Too many families are struggling to make ends meet and they are sitting around the kitchen table trying to figure out if they are going to keep their job, if they’re going to be able to pay the bills. That’s why it is necessary that we invest in innovative programs and policies to create jobs across this State, jobs that are sustainable, jobs that will be part of the new economy, and I think we have already done that to a great degree in some of the investments that we have made. But while we are positioned to lead in the future, we cannot abandon what we have done. We must focus our attention and make sure we continue to make those investments. Here in North Carolina, we have additional challenges other than the economy. We have challenges in mental health, probation and parole, and transportation and if we are going to compete in the global economy we have to continue to improve our public schools, not only in North Carolina, but across this Nation. We are truly in international competition and there is no question that we face many, many obstacles. But out of chaos and adversity can come opportunity. Martin Luther King once said, “It is only when the sky is dark enough that you can see the stars.” It will be our challenge to find the stars and polish those stars and work together to get through these tough times and take advantage of the opportunities that are presented. To the new members, we welcome you. You will find the Senate is a very collegial body. I believe you will find that all members are well intended and it is their desire to make North Carolina better. As we all assume our duties, I ask you to remember a few things. First, remember that 70% of the money that we appropriate for the operation of government is human capital, people serving the citizens of our State. People like James Wilder and Larry Summerlin who lost their lives saving lives during Hurricane Floyd, or Sally Rohrback last year, an auditor for the Department of Insurance, who was murdered in Charlotte as she did her job, or Troopers David Blanton and Andrew Stocks who were killed last year in the line of duty. I’m talking about people like our teachers and our school administrators who invest their time and talents each day to teach our children to build that brighter future we all talk about. To make North Carolina great, we must have good people providing those services and I believe that we do. I ask that you remember them. I also ask as we go forward doing our duties that you remember that there are approximately one million working people in this State who, despite their labors, remain in poverty. For many of those, we have not fulfilled our duty to see that they have the opportunity and the tools to succeed. While it is important to keep our financial industry healthy and the Congress has said that, it is also critically important to improve the plight of the many who struggle each day to make ends meet. That means improving education and recruiting better jobs and valuing the quality of life of our citizens. As we look at the needs of our people, I ask you to also look at the abilities of our people and not the physical and mental hardships that they may face. There is tremendous potential in their abilities but that potential too often goes untapped because we fail to look beyond the surface. Let us also celebrate the diversity of our State and the strength that comes from that diversity. If we work together for the common good we will see progress and as we face these challenges of today we look for solutions. Let us remember that new economies often follow new inventions. That’s why our investment in cancer research and photonics and nanoscience and genomics and regenerative medicine and biofuels and others is so important. North Carolina is a leader prepared to move forward in the new economy once this National economic picture improves. For this reason, we must continue our investment in research and development and we should use that knowledge and innovation to create companies and attract companies to this area to provide good jobs with good benefits for our people. In doing so, we must insure that all of North Carolina can take advantage of these opportunities, particularly the rural areas of North Carolina which have sustained repeated blows. Infrastructure investment and continued high speed broadband build-out will help them succeed. While these tough times attempt to divert our path and our path of progress we must navigate our course for the future. At the end of the day if we make government more efficient and more responsible and if we invest wisely we will be better for the struggle. Again, we must make sure that there may be a detour but it cannot be a derailment. I will close by telling you a story of my friend, The Reverend Everett Chapman. Reverend Chapman serves a rural area of North Carolina and one day one of his parishioners came to him and said ‘I would love for you to do the service for my mother. She passed away just the other day.’ It was at another church. Reverend Chapman went there and he did the service and when he came out the funeral service came over to him and said, ‘Reverend Chapman, the burial is fifteen miles away and the police escort didn’t show up and we don’t know how to get there. Do you know where that graveyard is and can you help get us there.’ He said, ‘Yes, I know where it is. I’ll be happy to.’ So Everett pulled his Buick to the front of the funeral procession, cranked it up, started out, and put in his classical music. Everett is not as young as he used to be and he will admit that sometimes he gets a little forgetful. He was driving down the road and he remembered that he needed some shave cream. So Everett put on his right turn signal and turned into the Wal-Mart parking lot. He looked in his rearview mirror in shock and horror as he realized what he had done and the funeral procession was right behind him. As he went through the Wal-Mart parking lot all the shoppers stood at attention very reverently. He got to the gravesite, he did the service, and afterwards his parishioner, the son, came over to him, and said, ‘Pastor, that was a stroke of genius. How you knew to do that I will never know. My mama loved Wal-Mart.’ Well, you know sometimes we get diverted off the direction but we have to make that destination and I think we will. Our difficulties may have thrown us off track but I am convinced that if we work together we will get through the tough times, seize the opportunities presented and build a better future. There are many other thoughts I have but I realize that we’re going to be together for several months so I will conclude by saying again that I welcome each and every one of you. I express my gratitude to the people who cast their votes to give you this opportunity. They have sent you here to make a better North Carolina. Many of them want better jobs, some want to improve education or roads or law enforcement. Others are focused on access to health care and lower taxes. It will be your job to balance those issues and lay a solid foundation for the future. I look forward to working with you and I stand ready to help you in any way that I can.”

Upon motion of Senator Basnight, seconded by Senator Vaughan, the Senate adjourns at 1:49 P.M. to meet tomorrow, January 29, at 11:00 A.M.

SECOND DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, January 29, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Gracious God, there was a roll call yesterday but I thought another would be appropriate today. Five are present and one is absent. Those present, Senators Clary, Davis, Rouzer, Stein, and Vaughan. Welcome to your second day as North Carolina Senators. We hope that you are encouraged to know that our prayers are with you and that the veteran Senators, who themselves were once second-day Senators, are here to help and encourage you during the first days and weeks of orientation. We wish you Godspeed. The sixth person, the person absent, is Coach Kay Yow. She was an inspiration to all of us. Thousands have mourned her death and celebrated her life. Kay Yow was a great ambassador for North Carolina State University, the State of North Carolina and, most importantly to her, a great ambassador for you, O God. The roll call she answered last week was your call to her to the kingdom of heaven. We shall miss her. Amen."

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Wednesday, January 28, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. John Ebert from Charlotte, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Julie Zaha from Fayetteville, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

TENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, February 12, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Loving God, it might be enough for the Chaplain to simply remind the Members that this Saturday is Valentine's Day. A word to the wise. It might be enough to remember what Holy Scriptures says that faith, hope, and love abide these three, but the greatest of these, of course, is love. Of all the people in this Chamber, two don't really need those reminders. Senators Weinstein and Kinnaird, each of you have found a special Valentine. You are engaged to these persons and will be getting married. We both forgive and envy you for being like a couple of teenagers so much in love with your respective fiancées. Happy Valentine's Day and God bless you. You deserve such happiness. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Brunstetter and Senator Dorsett.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Wednesday, February 11, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Daniel J. Albright from Raleigh, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Linda O'Boyle from Elm City, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

INTRODUCTION OF A RESOLUTION

A joint resolution is filed for introduction today, the rules are suspended and it is read the first time, and disposed of, as follows:

By Senators McKissick; Albertson, Allran, Atwater, Basnight, Berger of Franklin, Berger of Rockingham, Bingham, Blake, Bozeman, Brown, Clodfelter, Dannelly, Davis, Foriest, Forrester, Garrou, Goodall, Goss, Graham, Hartsell, Hoyle, Jacumin, Jenkins, Jones, Kinnaird, Malone, Nesbitt, Preston, Purcell, Queen, Rand, Rouzer, Shaw, Snow, Soles, Stein, Stevens, Swindell, Tillman, Vaughan and Weinstein:

S.J.R. 162, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE (NAACP) ON ITS ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY.

With unanimous consent, upon motion of Senator Rand, the rules are suspended and the joint resolution is placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Shaw, the joint resolution is read in its entirety. Upon motion of Senator Kinnaird, the remarks of the members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator McKissick:

“On this auspicious occasion, it is a pleasure to be here sponsoring this bill commemorating the 100th Anniversary of the NAACP. The bill is at your desk for your respectful consideration. Ironically, today, February 12, is Abraham Lincoln’s birthday. It was exactly 100 years ago today, February 12, 1909, when the NAACP was founded in Springfield, Illinois. I simply say it’s a very significant occasion that we are here for today. The NAACP is legendary in its reputation and legendary in its passion for civil rights and civil liberties for all people. A striking irony is that in this year we inaugurated our first African American President. In fact, when he declared his candidacy for President he did so in Springfield, Illinois, the home of Abraham Lincoln. The NAACP at its inception was a multi-racial organization. It was founded as a result of violence that was perpetrated against African Americans living in Springfield, Illinois. It was founded by white progressives, people who felt that it was wrong to see the rights and liberties of individuals in their community trampled upon. It was heard about occurring in other places and in other jurisdictions throughout the Country at that time, but not in Springfield. It was those people who had aspirations for a better society. They called upon their colleagues throughout our Country to come forth and challenged them to create an organization that would be about the advancements of the rights and liberties of all people. The NAACP as we know it is an acronym. It stands for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Back in 1909 what we know as African Americans were known as colored people before the vernacular Negro became more popular and then people referred to each other as black and today it’s African American but it’s the very same thing. But that name has never

February 12, 2009
changed and the organization and its reputation is legendary. When they made that call back on February 12, 1909, they said that we call upon all the believers in democracy to join in a national conference for the discussion of present evils, the voicing of protest and the renewal of the struggle for civil rights for political liberty. People like W. B. Dubois were present there. The thing that most people today don’t realize is that in the early days the NAACP was led by whites. They were the ones that were the executive directors and presidents of that organization and they have remained a part of its membership through the years. The NAACP’s mission has remained the same. It has been a constant reminder during this century to look out for the rights and liberties, the grievances, both that had been trampled upon. They’ve done it through peaceful, non-violent protests and have been quite successful in doing so. They have effectively lobbied and used political pressure through their membership. They have, most importantly, gone forth with efforts to change the very character of the laws of this Country through Brown vs. Board of Education, that very significant Supreme Court case, that found that separate but equal could no longer be the law of the land in this Country. We have people like Thurgood Marshall who, of course, was involved with the NAACP, a member of their legal defense fund. He was one of those advocates who always made sure that wherever causes were igniting throughout America that there was legal representation there to be available to meet the challenges. Thurgood Marshall went on to become the first African American Justice of the Supreme Court. Probably one of the things you may not know is that here in North Carolina he had a very significant impact on our institutions here. There was a case known as McKissick vs. Carmichael argued in the United States Court of Appeals back on March 15, 1951, in which my father was the plaintiff. Thurgood Marshall was there that day. That case resulted in the integration of the Law School at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, an institution that is a fine jewel but up until that day at that point and that time and in that era, was segregated. Just yesterday, we received a presentation dealing with our universities and community colleges and we saw the progress which they have made in so many ways. But the striking thing about one of the things that did not come up with many of the questions that were asked was about the racial composition of our institutions today. That’s a significant sign of the progress that we have made because it’s no longer necessarily in the forefront of our minds as we meet the challenges to this State. Those institutions are now integrated. Those institutions that were historically black campuses are part of our System in this State today. They are provided resources, but not quite what they need but significantly more than what they ever had in the past and are part of the University System that is making inroads in providing access to opportunity. If there’s one thing that equalized the playing field for those in this Country, it was access to education through the public school systems, through our universities, through our community colleges that has allowed so many of the glass ceilings to be broken. That’s something for which we can all feel proud. Of course, when we sit back and we look at Thurgood Marshall and his leadership with the NAACP and Legal Defense Fund, think of others that followed him such as Julius Chambers who was also in charge of that agency and program for quite some time and became a Chancellor at North Carolina Central University. Mr. Chambers was also involved with a law firm in Charlotte, North Carolina. It was one of the first integrated law firms in this State and Senator Stein’s father, Adam Stein, was a part of that firm. There were many other people involved with those challenges of civil rights. People like Dan Pollitt over in Chapel Hill who happens to be the fiancé of Senator Kinnaird. He was someone who did not hesitate to stand out firmly and aggressively in courtrooms throughout this State and, when necessary, throughout this Country. I think back about people like Dan who was very close to our family and was someone who didn’t hesitate back in the 60’s and 50’s to travel with you along the highways and to go to places that were segregated at that time, black families and whites together. When you might stop in a small town like Creedmoor, you would sit there at the stoplight and a mob might come around you, jeerers might be looking at you, people would start picking up sticks perhaps because they just didn’t like to see black folks and whites together. Those are the types of barriers that we don’t have to deal with today and today when you go back to your districts and your homes and you drive on highways, you take for granted that when you get off of that exit you’ll be able to go to that service station and you won’t be faced with a sign, if you’re African American, that says ‘whites only.’ You can stop at any eating establishment along that highway and not have to pick up take-out food or be told that you have to eat at the picnic table. These are things that have changed within my lifetime and my generation. But as a young African American growing up in North Carolina, I saw and I witnessed those things. That created an indelible impression upon a youthful mind but it’s those challenges, those types of barriers to access for African Americans and for others that today we do not have to think about because we have come so far and we have met the challenges. The NAACP has carried that moral crusade for us. They have challenged our very consciousness. They have caused us to look deep within our souls, through our values, through our sensibilities, to our sense of fairness and to our sense of justice. In doing so, they set forth compelling justification for the change of laws in this Country, the passage of the Civil Rights Act back in 1964, the passage of the Voting Rights Act in 1965, and the passage of the Fair Housing Act. These are things that we take for granted today. For many of us that are in this room today that are African American, had it not been for the Voting Rights Act and its passage, we may not have been here. If it had not been for their renewal, we may not have been here. It’s quite ironic that I should be here. It’s quite ironic that over in the House, Kelly Alexander, Jr. is here. His father was a leader of the NAACP in the State of North Carolina. He was someone who understood those moral challenges and understood those obligations that are necessary to put your lives on the line to make certain that the rights and privileges of all are not trampled upon. It’s more appropriate today that we recognize how far we have come as a Country and as a Nation and that we pay tribute to an organization that led those challenges. In the face of bomb threats and in the face of killings they continued to pursue what was right and what was morally justified. As a result of that vision, as a result of that crusade, as a result of the lives and energies of those that were members, we have come so far. Within my family, everybody was a member of the NAACP, everyone. When my father was active in CORE and a leader of that organization and active in SNIC and active in SCLC with Dr. King, the NAACP always had its legacy. Even if young men came to date my sisters, I had three of them, the first thing they’d be confronted with is, ‘Are you a member of the NAACP?’ And if they were not there was an application that they could sign and they would sign and pay their fifty cents to become a member that day. Of course, they could pay me fifty cents and I wouldn’t bother them the rest of the evening! But notwithstanding that fact, there were many, many people who joined that crusade. There were many people who tried to make certain that rights and liberties that we take for granted today, getting people registered to vote, getting people out there voting on election day, tearing down those ostensible barriers of discrimination, but most importantly, making sure that we were a just society for all was accomplished. And we’ve come so far. Do we have challenges ahead? The answer is yes. But can we take pride? Can we take glory in knowing that we have all together, collectively, as a society, come ever so closer to being in that community where regardless of race, creed, color, or religion we can look at each other and unite as brothers? Yes, the irony of this organization’s beginning in Springfield, Illinois, on February 12, 1909, should not be lost with the election of President Obama and what he represents symbolically in terms of our being able to vote for candidates based upon their qualifications, based upon their position on issues, based upon their capacity to serve our country. For those reasons, I stand in tribute to the NAACP. If you have not had a chance to sign the bill please feel free to sign on after this action is taken. I would hope that all of you as members today would be able to sign on and to be able to symbolically say that I was a part of that group that recognized the accomplishments of this organization that represented how far we have come notwithstanding the challenges that we face today. Thank you.”

Senator Foriest:

“Mr. President, members of the Senate, I think it’s very appropriate that we honor the NAACP for its vision going back one hundred years. The idea of removing barriers to racial discrimination and securing civil rights through the democratic process and informing the public of adverse affects of racial discrimination are very admirable and I think we need to understand that the NAACP was doing this before it was ‘so called’ fashionable. It was doing it when people who would stand up and would take their lives into someone else’s hands. I don’t know if you’ve thought a lot about this, but racism is not just the occasional mistreatment of one or two people by somebody who’s stupid or ignorant. But it’s better defined, I think, by one group having the power to make it very difficult or unfair to another group by denying them life, liberty, and even the pursuit of happiness. For the NAACP to organize itself and to do what it has done over the last few decades is extremely admirable. The State, I think, kind of set the tone for what we had to overcome and when I say the State, I’m talking about the government and the idea is that once racism takes hold it should be easy to see that centuries worth of damage can’t be undone by just changing a few laws here and there. Once the damage is done sometimes it takes generations for it to sink in and for people to change in their hearts. It seems that attitudes are beginning to change now but again the problem is not with just one or two misguided souls. The thing that has to change is the institutions themselves that perpetuate the problems dealing with racism and I very much applaud the NAACP in being foremost in coming out and speaking out against these things. I think honoring the NAACP is very appropriate and, Mr. President, I certainly recommend passage of this resolution.”

February 12, 2009

Senator Graham:

“There is an old saying that it is not your environment, it is you. It is the quality of our minds, the integrity of our soul, the determination of our wills that will decide our future and shape our lives. I stand today to salute the NAACP for creating an environment for inclusion, an environment for what is not popular but what is right, an environment for little boys and little girls to go to school where they choose, an environment that allows us to be who we are, an environment that treats people by the integrity of their souls and the determination of their wills that will create a new future for all of us. This resolution is important. It’s significant and I urge each and every member here to support it. Thank you, Mr. President.”

The joint resolution passes its second reading (45-0) and, without objection, is read a third time and passes its third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

ELEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, February 16, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, recently sixty-five historians ranked the top five Presidents as Abraham Lincoln, George Washington, Franklin Roosevelt, Theodore Roosevelt, and Harry Truman. I don't think it's coincidental that under the leadership of these men, our Country faced national and international crises. Their leadership was successful partly because the people of the United States came together to fight a common foe. That fact reminds me of what a preacher once prayed after hearing some of his members petition during an extended prayer meeting: 'Lord, I lay before you the prayer concerns voiced this evening, even though most of them sounded like whining to me.' President Obama can lead, Lieutenant Governor Dalton and the Senators can lead. The last thing they need is for the rest of us to be whiners. We need to be thoughtful, supportive, and sacrificial until we defeat the economic crises we all face together. We humbly ask for your help and leadership to that end, O God. Amen."

Prayer is offered by Dr. Quincy Scott, Jr., Dean of the Chapel from Shaw University, Raleigh, North Carolina as follows:

"Lord, in this moment of sacred quiet, surrounded by a countless cloud of witnesses who have passed to us a legacy and a trust which we cherish and honor, we struggle to find prayer language suitable to express our thanksgiving for the privilege of living in a time and place where we can meet the challenge of mending political, social, economic, cultural and spiritual upheaval and bring healing to divisiveness, justice to injustice, mercy to uncertainty, forgiveness to transgressions, disturbance to complacency, order to confusion and hope to despair. We lay before you, O God, these United States, our President, his administration and all those in leadership positions who give of their gifts in pursuit of a world where our natural resources are preserved, where diversity is honored and where peace among all peoples is the order of the day. In these moments, we most especially lay before you the Governor and Lieutenant Governor of the State where the blue skies, the long leaf pine and coastal Tar Heel plains serve to remind us of your creative grace and blessing. As this Congress assembles itself in order to orchestrate the business at hand, purge from individual and collective hearts anything which might mar your purpose or stifle the journey of a people marching towards redemption. Make the work of Congress your work, make their agenda your will and make their laws, old and new, evidence that you have heard the cries of your people and that you have indeed come to rescue them from oppression and restore them to a place of harmony and possibility. In these desperate times, save us from desperation and remind us in whichever way you choose, that the real power and glory belongs to you. We pray this simple yet earnest prayer in the name of the Holy God in whose spirit our differences are overshadowed and the miracle of our joy is made new. Amen."

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, February 25, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, last night, a young African American girl sat next to the First Lady during the President's speech to the Nation. Ty'Sheoma Bethea goes to a school in Dillon, South Carolina, a place where the ceilings leak, the paint is peeling. They have to stop teaching six times a day because of trains passing their classrooms. Even though she had been told her school is hopeless, Ty'Sheoma, after class, went to the public library and typed a letter to members of Congress. She got money to buy a stamp from the principal. She wrote, 'We are just students trying to become lawyers, doctors, and congressmen like yourself and one day President, so we can make a change to not just the State of South Carolina, but also the world. We are not quitters.' O God, we honor and celebrate Ty'Sheoma Bethea and offer our deepest gratitude for her determination as inspiration to us all. Amen."

He was actually a classmate of Senator Hartsell's and we practiced law together for almost thirty years. He was one of the most intelligent and most caring people. Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Forgive us, O God, for the times that we exonerate ourselves at your expense. We blame you for things for which we are responsible and we praise ourselves for things for which you are responsible. Yet a cloud of witnesses surrounds us. They are those who look not to Wall Street for guidance but to the prophets and apostles who slay the dragon of personal greed on the altar of human service. Who risk failure for the sake of honesty rather than seek advantage through dishonesty. Who measure success not by the speed with which they move up, but by the grace with which they reach out. If we have yet to catch a glimpse of these good people, open our eyes, O Lord. I pray that we may be counted among them. In your holy name we pray. Amen."

Senate Chamber
Thursday, March 5, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Lin Carter, Associate Minister, First Baptist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, as follows:

"Dear God, last night as I attended a gathering of the two First Baptist Churches of Raleigh, the mostly black church on Wilmington Street and the mostly white church on Salisbury Street, I thought of the differences and commonalities of those two congregations. I thought of this gathering and the people of North Carolina represented here with their diverse backgrounds yet common hopes. And so I pray for unity of purpose among those two churches, among North Carolinians across the State, and among these leaders. May we live today with the singular goal of serving you by serving each other. Amen."

Upon motion of Senator Swindell, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and upon motion of Senator Bingham, the remarks of the members, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Swindell:

“Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I stand here today and I hope I can remember some of the things that I said this morning coming to Raleigh in my car because Reba, Fred, Jacob, Caleb, Laura, I made a pretty good talk this morning about my friend, Roger Bone, and two or three things came across my mind. To begin with, we got to honor a man while he was still living. We got to tell him how much we loved him. We got to go to his home. He never talked about Roger. He wanted to know what was going on in Raleigh. One day when I went over there, we were talking and you would think that no one had been there from Raleigh but they had. In fact, Wendell Murphy had been there shortly before I got there and visited with Roger at home. Roger Bone was from a community named Sandy Cross. Now if you don’t know where Sandy Cross is, we are the producer and breeder of gnats in North Carolina. We have more gnats per square acre in Sandy Cross than anywhere else I’m aware of but we learned to live with the gnats, too! But in that community, there is something that grows even stronger and that is the close bond between the people of a community. Roger was never more than the boy from Sandy Cross. He never pretended to be more and he always loved his community and where he came from. Now most of us in here knew Roger as a lobbyist. Some of you who are new did not know Roger Bone. But let me tell you this, if you think back about Roger Bone, his word was always his bond. He was always helpful and he would go to the twelfth degree in trying to help you understand his client’s issue. However, he would not ask you how you were going to vote. He would try to provide you with information. He would provide you more information, oftentimes more than you wanted. But he knew where to cut it off. One day I heard him talking to someone who was a member. The member said, ‘Roger, if I don’t support you on this are you going to be upset with me?’ And Roger’s answer was ‘No, I’m not going to be upset with you. I’m going to need you in the morning.’ So, I think many of our young lobbyists up here could take a lot from that. But as we face the next two or three days, we’ve heard this resolution about Roger and we’re going to see spring when we walk out this afternoon. There is something special about that time of year because as we celebrate Roger we can all see him sitting up there in the gallery right now. We’re going to get to celebrate his life again and maybe for this special family and all these special friends from Nash County, we will all say a special prayer for Reba who has just been so brave through all of this. Reba, we thank you for being a retired school principal, too, and what you’ve done for the children of our county. But I say to you folks, I commend this resolution to a great North Carolinian, to one who was a friend to us all and one that we will not forget. So I would ask you to support this resolution and I thank you, Mr. President and the family.”

March 5, 2009

Senator Nesbitt:

“Thank you, Mr. President. I’m not really good at these kinds of things. This is really tough to talk about friends that you’ve known as long as you’ve known them. When I came into the General Assembly in ’79, I came in mid-term and in Roger’s freshman class which was Martin Lancaster, Paul Pulley, several other very high-quality people and I kind of got adopted by them but really mentored by them. I knew Roger, what I’ll call from the beginning, because he was a freshman at the time and he was just getting started and I watched his life go on parallel lines with mine. And I’ll tell you something. A. B. was talking about what people can take from Roger Bone. Roger made it to the top. He was rated the number one lobbyist in this town by being a very personable, common man. He didn’t have ten of us in the back room at Sullivan’s. He had us all over there for the Growler and you ate barbecue and listened to Bluegrass and did it in a very common way. He was just a good, solid, common man who cared about this State. He cared about us and, of course, the good of the State. I’ll share something with you all that is one of the tricks of the trade. You know, we passed this lobbying law to where lobbyists can’t buy you dinner. I saw Roger last year before we knew he was sick and I told him that I was getting so lonesome that I had figured out a way to do this. I would buy him dinner! And by the way, that’s legal. You’re allowed to buy them dinner if somebody would just go eat with you. And we got a kick out of that. Unfortunately, as we do in life, we all got so busy we never got to have that meal. Life just really gets sudden at times. But I certainly commend the resolution to you and would say one other thing about him. Throughout all the power that he may have known in Raleigh, his family was absolutely first to him. Period. We’re all going to miss him. He was a good friend.”

March 5, 2009
Senator Rand:

“Thank you, Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. Roger Bone loved the legislature. He was very much an integral part of it but he loved the things we did. He loved to just be around it, as so many of us do. And he kind of presided over at Finch’s for breakfast and the Dead Ham Breakfast. He was one of the founders of the famous Dead Ham breakfast and that’s a great part of what we do to enjoy one another’s company and one another’s time. So as we think about what he meant to all of us and what he meant to North Carolina, the things we do here and the friendships we enjoy are very much a part of it. He was a great part of it and for that I think we all owe him a debt of thanks for just making this a place where we can enjoy one another’s company and enjoy being with one another as we talk about the things that really make North Carolina better. So I would certainly join with all of us in asking that we support this resolution and thanking his family for the service that he provided to so many people in so many different ways. Thank you, Mr. President.”

Senator Albertson:

“Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Senate, I probably got to know Roger Bone better than any other lobbyist since I’ve been here. He and I worked together a lot on the swine legislation when all of that was going on in that industry back at that time. Of course, Roger always did a good lobbying for his client but as Senator Swindell said, at the end of the day he always respected your decision to do what you thought was right. But what I learned about Roger even more important than that, I found that Roger Bone had a lot of compassion for people and that is, I think, the thing I will remember about him more than any other thing. He had learned from his own life experiences and the experiences of other people and I found him to be a person with a big heart and that’s the way I will always remember him and I commend the resolution to you.”

Senator Purcell:

“Senator Rand has already mentioned Finch’s Restaurant and I just want to elaborate on that a little bit as a member of the unofficial club that meets down there for breakfast every morning. It’s an unwritten rule that you can’t lobby at breakfast and Roger was one that really stuck to that rule and then you got to really know what kind of person he was. Roger was just a great guy and just a regular sort of fellow who had concern for people and issues that were important and he was willing to give on things that he was fighting for if it meant something better for the people of North Carolina. I’ll just tell you that Finch’s is not the same for breakfast since Roger Bone is gone. He was kind of a fixture down there and we all miss him and I commend this resolution to you.”

Senator Basnight:

“Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Senate, if you were to google Sandy Cross it would be just that, sandy land and a crossroads. In that crossroads is a country store that Roger’s family operated and ran. He has renovated that store and now has leased it to a Mexican family and they are prospering in seeing that the community has a place to join together in the afternoons after work or during lunch but he is providing a place, I am sure, at an expense to him but he wants to see the life continue. If you look at the community around the crossroads, you find tobacco fields, the finest sweet potatoes you can purchase, cucumber fields, strawberries, and all types of greens are grown there. But it is not far down that road in a community of people that he grew up and I’d stop there many times at Royce’s place and at his cousin’s place and Roger would ask me, ‘Did you pick up any of those good sweet potatoes?’ He was always curious about my connection to his community of people, those very people that he grew up with. He was a man like the crops in that community, that grew strong and provided for all nutrition in all of life. He was a farmer from heart but he was a man that gave more to us than that community had ever given to others. He cared so very much for the common man and what life was. We lost a good friend and a champion of what rural life in North Carolina is about. I recommend the resolution to you.”

March 5, 2009

Lieutenant Governor Dalton:

“I just want to make a comment. One of the first people I ever met when I came to Raleigh was Roger Bone. He was a good friend of former Speaker Pro Tem Jack Hunt who was a mentor to me. Jack was my dentist. Jack called him up and said, ‘Go by Walter’s office and welcome him to Raleigh.’ But Roger would have done that anyway. That’s the kind of guy he was. Jack Hunt was somewhat of a mentor to me and Roger later became a mentor to my daughter and I always appreciated his friendship. He ate breakfast every morning at Finch’s and lunch usually at the Oyster Bar. He lobbyied for tobacco companies, he lobbyied for the Pork Council and he always said his job would be a lot easier if he could teach pigs to smoke! That’s the kind of a guy Roger was. He also lobbyied for the volunteer firemen and I know they were always grateful for his efforts. In the gallery today is his wife, Reba Bone; his son, Fred Bone and his daughter-in-law, Laura Bone; his grandsons, Jacob and Caleb Bone; his brothers, Royce Bone and his wife, Faye; and Mike Bone and his wife, Jo Lynn; and his brothers-in-law, Al Batten and Glen Batten. We are happy to have you here today. He was a great man and we appreciate all he did for us and appreciate your being here. I’ll ask you to stand and give them a round of applause.”

The joint resolution passes its second reading (45-0) and, without objection, is read a third time and passes its third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

STATE-OF-THE-STATE ADDRESS

“Speaker Hackney, President Pro Tem Basnight, Lieutenant Governor Dalton, members of the General Assembly and all honored guests who are assembled here with us tonight, let me recognize some folks who are really important to me, the people who put up with this for so long – my sons, Garrett and his wife, April, and Emmett and his fiancée, Sarah. And, then there is another really important guy in my life. Unlike most of us, he didn’t seek this position but he accepts it. The truth would be that on some nights he puts up with it because there is never a home-cooked meal in our household – North Carolina’s very first, First Gentleman, Bob Eaves. Tonight, I ask you to join me in expressing North Carolina’s deepest gratitude to our Nation’s Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, Marines, Coast Guard, the members of the National Guard and all those Reserves across this great State. They call North Carolina their home. We send a special thank you to the families of the military because we in North Carolina understand that service to the military is a family commitment. With us tonight is Lieutenant Colonel Jeffrey Copeland and his wife, June. Jeff is the Commander of the 1st-130th Attack Reconnaissance Battalion. He is joined by Staff Sergeant David Rhodes, who is an aircraft mechanic in Delta Company, and his wife, Michelle. Let’s all recognize them and say thank you. Let me tell you a little bit about this squadron. They were the Nation’s very first reserve helicopter battalion that was deployed after 9-11. They served seventeen months in Afghanistan. In a week, Jeff, David and 480 other members of this same unit will leave again in a deployment to Iraq. We thank you and all the members in your battalion. We hold you in our prayers and wish you success and God’s Speed in your mission. It is a privilege and honor to be here with you tonight. I want to thank the citizens of North Carolina for giving me the opportunity to serve as the Governor of the greatest State in America - and might I add, in case some of you have forgotten, North Carolina's first female Governor. I remember the first time I sat in this Chamber as a freshman, right up here. I don’t know why they put freshmen in the front in those days but that’s what they did. There were twenty-four women in the General Assembly. Today, as I look around there are forty-three women in this Body. The legislative choir in these times has a broader, stronger and more diverse voice. More points of view are being heard in state government. That is a very good thing for North Carolina. North Carolina, like most states, has been thrown into the midst of a global economic crisis. To come through it, and we will, we must make tough decisions -- choices that I will make and that you will make. That is our job and our responsibility:

March 9, 2009

- To confront the difficult circumstances and deal with them;
- To move wisely, prudently and decisively;

To do what we must do to get through the tough times, as we also position ourselves and North Carolina to seize the opportunities of the future. That is why, as much as it is my privilege to talk with you tonight, I also want to speak frankly and directly to the citizens of North Carolina. Let me frame the picture for all of you. Families all around North Carolina are anxious. Many have lost their jobs. Many others have lost their homes. As I travel around this State, and I do just like you do, I see the uncertainty and worry in the eyes of North Carolinians. When I made one of my surprise site visits to a state employment office, I spent about an hour talking to the people and listening to them and I heard what they were saying. I talked to a 70-year-old gentleman about why he was there and he told me about how he had spent or lost all of his retirement savings and there he was looking for a job, not what he thought his life would hold for him looking toward retirement. A woman with her three children in tow had lost her job and I listened to her tell the employment counselor that she’d take anything. In that same line, there was a Ph.D. who thought he was in a cutting-edge permanent 21st Century career. But instead, that day he found himself in the unemployment line. These people are North Carolina. They are America and as elected officials, it is our moral responsibility to work together to help our citizens restart their lives. That is why we are here. Now I know those of us in this chamber tonight can't fix everything. No one can. But there are some things we can do. By making the tough choices, by taking decisive action to meet our challenges, we can and we will be part of the solutions we need to move North Carolina forward. For me, I will do whatever it takes to:

- Pay our State's bills.
- Keep all our kids healthy and in school.
- Make sure, that when our seniors need care, they can get it.
- Keep prisoners locked up and keep our people safe.
- Create jobs and provide ways for those who are out of work to learn new skills.
So, let me be direct with you. This is what we must do now and for the future of North Carolina. WE START BY REVIVING NORTH CAROLINA'S ECONOMY. We must go after every federal recovery dollar that is available. We need to get that money into North Carolina and we will put our people back to work by:

- Building bridges.
- Paving roads.
- Expanding and renovating our infrastructure.

It will take engineers, architects, contractors, technology experts and laborers of all types. It was no joke when I said if South Carolina's Governor doesn't want his federal recovery funds, as bad a robber as I am, I'd drive a pickup truck down and I would get his share of the money. I know and you know how to put those dollars to good use and help our people. To those folks in South Carolina, I offer a warm invitation. ‘Come on up here to North Carolina. Stay a while.’ See how we in the Tar Heel State can push forward—even in tough times. That’s what we can do for the people in our State. But, back to business. We will ensure that the recovery dollars are spent with maximum efficiency, transparency, and accountability. That’s really important. I have put a team together in my Office of Economic Recovery & Investment that will track every dollar. With the click of a mouse, taxpayers can go to www.NCRecovery.gov and see details of what North Carolina is doing and how we are investing those funds. You'll know where the money went, who got the contract, and when they completed the work. Soon, NC OpenBook will do the same for every state contract and grant worth more than $10,000. This is taking care of the people's business, North Carolina style. But we can't rely on the federal government alone. We have to do whatever it takes, on our own, here in North Carolina to create jobs, to help displaced workers get new jobs, and to keep families in their homes. We cannot and we will not let our citizens' dreams for the future die. Not in North Carolina. We are already transforming our traditional industries into 21st Century jobs. N.C. State is leading the Nation in developing lightweight textiles that are used in the aerospace industry. That’s how we got cutting-edge work that helped us bring SpiritAero Systems here, with more than 1,000 jobs. We have broadened our traditional agricultural economy and become a Mecca for biotech, pharmaceuticals, and life sciences by uniquely bringing together government, higher education and the private sector. This allows ideas to springboard from the lab to the market place. Just look around the State. There's Quintiles, Merck, Bayer, Biogen, PPD and more. Even as we work to grow the economy, WE MUST ALSO TRANSFORM THE WAY WE INVEST THE PEOPLE’S MONEY. Starting today, it is no longer business as usual for North Carolina's budget. I want all of our citizens to know it is a new day in North Carolina. Everything is on the table. We don't have time for talk-show political posturing or petty partisan games. Not on my watch. Not in these times. We are confronted with challenges that our State has not seen since the Great Depression. With a $3 billion plus shortfall, we have to be upfront and make hard, painful decisions. ‘Truth in budgeting’ time is here, now today. It is what we must do to balance the budget and put North Carolina on strong footing for now and for the future. ‘Cutting the fat’ is a cliché that does not go far enough. In the budget I present next week we will reduce and cut state government programs and services that many, including me, know have been effective but which, in these times, we simply cannot afford. FOR NORTH CAROLINA, EDUCATION IS THE PRIORITY. Even as we search out ways to cope with our deteriorating economic landscape, we have to be sure to protect our most precious asset -- our children -- who are our future workers. So we must find ways to be inventive and engaging in the way our schools work and students learn. We must, as the saying goes, ‘not eat our seed corn,’ but continue to move forward on education to keep North Carolina competitive in the global market place. And yes, even in these tough times, we will increase per-pupil spending in our public schools this year. And while we will hold schools, teachers and students accountable, we will bring some sanity to North Carolina's own testing mania by eliminating duplicative or unnecessary tests. I have reorganized our public schools with Bill Harrison becoming both the CEO of the State Board of Education and of the Department of Public Instruction -- adding accountability and clear direction to a system that is badly in need of both. And, as we make sure our schools perform, we must expect no less from all of our citizens. No child in North Carolina has permission to drop out of school and in North Carolina no teacher has permission to give up on any student. No parent has a free pass from their responsibility to be fully involved in their child's education. And no segment of our community, particularly our business community, gets a free pass on education. Our business leaders need to put a lot of energy, as they do now, into making sure that North Carolina's tax rate is competitive. They really need to put the same effort into helping North Carolina be the home of the Nation's best educated workforce. And we will begin my College Promise to remove financial barriers for access to higher education. In this global economy, education beyond high school is not a luxury, it's a necessity. My efforts create a pathway that starts in pre-kindergarten, offering courses of study that fit students' needs -- all the way through vocational, community college, or college system. Seamless learning, pre-K through 20, that's the goal. And we will in North Carolina use technology to modernize the classroom and enable teaching to catch up with the way our kids live. Let's face it. Today's students show up at school with more technology in their pockets and backpacks than they find in their classrooms. For too many students, they ignore what's going on in the classroom while they are busy ‘tweeting’ on twitter just like I see some of you doing while I am talking! North Carolina's Virtual Public High School will ensure that any kid in any high school can take any class he or she needs. This is the 21st Century North Carolina. This levels the education playing field for students and it also assures educational equity. AND, AS WE FOCUS ON EDUCATION, WE WILL ALSO WORK TO RESTORE CITIZENS' FAITH IN THEIR GOVERNMENT. In the 21st Century we must conduct the business of government in ways that bring transparency and accountability to the people. We will restore our citizens' confidence that government can help solve problems and work efficiently without wasting tax dollars. On my first day in office I ordered reforms to change the face of state government. At the Department of Transportation I insisted on openness and bringing professional decision-making to the process. And some major policy decisions, like the new ‘zero tolerance’ policy in mental health, corrections, and other systems throughout state government, will sometimes be painful because I am exposing weaknesses and individual actions that are simply unacceptable and wrong in North Carolina. I believe ‘zero tolerance’ is how we find and correct the weaknesses that put people's lives at risk and undermine faith in state government. I have set high expectations for myself and for everyone who works for North Carolina. We will be open, ethical, and put the public's interest first. Taxpayers deserve no less from every state worker and I expect nothing less from every state employee. And, again my friends, these same taxpayers deserve no less from you. As the legislature starts work on the budget and the important services that our citizens need, let me be clear about where I stand. Education is the engine that propels North Carolina's future. It cannot and it will not be sacrificed. This is the time to stand up to the sweet seductions of special interests, to the temptations of politically popular pork barrel spending, and end the practice of backroom dealing. Those days are gone because we simply cannot afford them. We cannot afford them in these perilous times. Our first and only duty is to stand by North Carolina’s families. That is why we are here. The choices we face are clear. We are each called to service, to courage, and sacrifice. We have been given the privilege and the responsibility to govern during a really difficult time. We have been called, quite frankly, to the responsibility of leadership in North Carolina. This is the time for all of us to answer that call. It is a time for ordinary citizens in this citizen legislature to be extraordinary leaders. And we need not look far in North Carolina to find living examples of that kind of determination, hard work and sacrifice that make ordinary people extraordinary heroes and ‘she-ros.’ I look to Donna Dent, one of the heroic flight attendants on US Airways Flight 1549 - the ‘Miracle on the Hudson.’ Donna is with us this evening in the gallery. Stand up so people can see you. Let me tell you a little bit about Donna. Donna calls herself just a ‘little Winston-Salem girl’ who did her job. What a job this 1975 Reynolds High grad did! She made sure every passenger got out of that Airbus 320 alive. She was the last to leave the plane with the co-pilot and pilot and then she took off her sweater and she gave it to a freezing passenger in a life boat. She did her job and she was willing to give her life to help others. Donna Dent -- an ordinary person -- who showed extraordinary leadership and courage as she did her job. She is North Carolina! Acting courageously. The words are simple, aren’t they, but today's challenges are not. Three quarters of a century ago, at a time not unlike now, Governor Max Gardner told the General Assembly, ‘The whole future of this State will be profoundly affected by the work you do here in the eventful days that lie just ahead. So, as Governor Gardner called on the 1931 legislature to change the way government did business, I call upon you to join me in renewing and reinvigorating our service to North Carolina -- with the spirit of innovation and a purpose that these times demand. Last November, you, the voters of North Carolina, gave us the opportunity to make the tough decisions that the 21st Century demands. You put your most sacred trust, your votes, in us. You believed in us. You placed your futures, literally, in our hands. We must not -- and we will not -- let you down. In these tough times, North Carolina must continue pushing ahead. We North Carolinians do not shy away from challenges and we absolutely do not quit. Simply getting our economy back to what it was isn't good enough. We will make our economy stronger. We all must have high expectations for ourselves and for North Carolina's futures. We all must exhibit extraordinary leadership, courage, determination, and make the tough, but right decisions. We will move North Carolina forward even in these challenging times. And, as a new day dawns for North Carolina and America, and it will, and as we come out of this global recession, North Carolina, the Old Tar Heel State, will be poised to take on the world. Good night. God bless you and God bless North Carolina.”

"Dear Lord, now that you have seen the entire family smiling at the same time, not a miracle we would say. We ask you to come among us. When we pray for your presence, we pray with some reservation. After all, how do we know what you will say to us or how you might appear to us. Will you challenge us or will you make us uncomfortable. Yet, boldly we pray, come to us today. Speak to us, stand against us, stand beside us. Love us as you will, not necessarily as we want. Amen.”

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, since 1912 when the Girl Scouts of America was founded, that organization has faithfully promoted the social welfare of young women. Some are serving this week as Pages in the Senate. Others are here today to honor the legislators with a reception. So we honor them by using the words of their law as our prayer. O God, help us do our best, to be honest and fair, friendly and helpful, considerate and caring, courageous and strong, and responsible for what we say and do, and to respect ourselves and others, respect authority, use resources wisely, make the world a better place. Good principles for all of us to live by, O God. Continue to bless these young women and the Girl Scouts organization. Amen."

Pursuant to Senator Basnight's motion to adjourn having prevailed, the Senate adjourns at 3:48 P.M.

March 11, 2009
The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

Almighty God, you have promised that if we possess faith the size of a mustard seed, mountains shall be moved. Though it is still early in this session, formidable mountains already have appeared to the members and are closer than some distant horizon. We are trying to move one of those mountains right now as we pray. Increase the Senators’ faith, that they will not be discouraged by these difficult and complex problems. Hold them each day by your mighty hand. Encourage and sustain them by the power of your presence. Then they will find through you that all things are possible and the mountains, one by one, shall be moved. Thank you for such a promise. Amen.”

TWENTY-NINTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, March 18, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, Governor Perdue's budget is now on the table in black and white, confirming the difficult decisions that must be made by the Senators as they debate their own version of the State's budget. The early first century church faced economic distress similar to our own. The Book of Acts describes how they responded to their own budget crisis. 'The whole group was of one heart and soul. For as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds to the church. There was not a needy person among them.' (Acts 4:32, 34). Such a solution is not the answer to this year's budget preparation here, but the example of the early church does suggest that the bottom line is as much about attitude and spirit as about money. I hope this is an encouragement to the Senators in the days ahead. Amen."

March 18, 2009

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Jenkins.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Tuesday, March 17, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

Remind us of this simple truth amidst the great press of activities each day here in the Senate. Amen."

If we ever needed your wisdom, knowledge, and guidance, we need it now. So we boldly declare and decree that skillful and godly wisdom has entered into the hearts of these leaders. "Dear God, Myrtle Ware was a high school English teacher. She directed the school newspaper, the literary club, and the boys and girls debate teams. At her funeral, a very successful woman spoke these words to one of Mrs. Ware's sons: 'Your mother was my English teacher. She was the first person who taught me how important it is for things to be done right' 'How did she do that?' Mrs. Ware's son asked. The woman responded, 'First, she gave me a failing grade on my term paper. Then when I went to talk with her about the grade, she listened carefully and we both cried.' We are grateful for those who teach our children, O God, and for young people in college right now studying to become teachers. We pray they will be as dedicated as Myrtle Ware to teaching children, not only about academics, but also about how important it is for all things to be done right. Amen."

REMARKS ON DR. JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN

Upon motion of Senator Atwater, the remarks of the members about Dr. John Hope Franklin are spread upon the Journal as follows:

Lieutenant Governor:
“...I will note members before I call for notices and announcements that one of the new members of the Board of Governors is someone who is a great civil rights leader, Franklin McCain, one of the A&T students with the non-violent sit-in. It is ironic that that occurs today, on a day that I regret to tell you that a great North Carolinian has passed away, Dr. John Hope Franklin, at the age of ninety-four years. A revered historian and a former Tar Heel of the Year, who wrote the book From Slavery to Freedom, did some of the research for the landmark case of Brown vs. Board of Education, marched with Dr. King from Selma to Montgomery, and as was said of him, ‘he not only writes history, he is history.’ He passed away today at Duke University and Senator Basnight when we adjourn I think it would be appropriate to adjourn in his honor.”

Senator McKissick:
“...I simply would like to say that Dr. Franklin was a resident of Durham. He was certainly someone who was internationally known and someone who was a personal friend to me and his loss will be greatly experienced not only in Durham but throughout the State of North Carolina and throughout the entire Nation. You might even recall when President Clinton was President, he appointed him Chairman of a Racial Reconciliation Commission which conducted hearings throughout the entire Country. He was someone who, I..."
think, we can all be proud of for his accomplishments, not only for him individually, but what he represented as a North Carolinian and as a great American. Thank you.”

Senator Basnight:
“If I may, Mr. President, I would also add to John Hope Franklin his contribution to this Country and historic value of our place in history as a people. On the march with Martin Luther King from Selma to Montgomery, our Sergeant-at-Arms was there, as well as John Hope Franklin and he participated in that march. Mr. Goins was a U.S. Marshal assigned to that four-day march.”

Upon motion of Senator Basnight, seconded by Senator McKissick, the Senate adjourns in memory of Dr. John Hope Franklin subject to introduction of bills and receipt of messages from the House of Representatives, to meet Thursday, March 26, at 11:00 A.M.

three injured in the tragic event yesterday in Carthage. Let’s also remember families whose lives were threatened and uprooted by the tornadoes that hit last week in the eastern part of the State. In the wake of such events, we simply pray that in the task before us this week, help us to exhibit workmanship as you have defined it. The kind in which the character of our work and our character become inseparably, godlike and good. Then we shall be instruments of your peace to others. Amen.”

CALENDAR (continued)

S.J.R. 855, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF MARVIN MARTIN WARD, FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Upon motion of Senator Vaughan, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Brock, the remarks of the members, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Vaughan:

“It is indeed a privilege to speak before this Body on behalf of Senator Ward. I first got to know him as a law student at Wake Forest in the 1970’s and he was a great counselor to me over the years in representing clients before this and other Bodies. His family is from Greensboro. They are in the gallery. Betty Cone is sort of known as ‘Miss Greensboro’ and has her hand in everything good in our community. He was a great leader in Forsyth County and all of the Piedmont-Triad, particularly in education. I commend the resolution for a great gentleman to you.”

March 30, 2009
Senator Garrou:

“Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, Marvin Ward was my hero. I admired him so much for all the work and efforts he put into whatever he did. He was the Superintendent of the schools during the consolidation and during the time when the schools were integrating. It was such a terrible time and unrest and he stood up to the segregationists. He was a man of integrity and hard work and determination and made sure that all the children in our school system would be served well. He also had a great sense of humor. You could always count on him to give a smile to you and share a witty thought about things that he thought were funny and things that he thought were interesting. He was a charming fellow. And then I had the privilege of serving as his constituent for sixteen years. When I decided to run for the Senate, we had great conversations about the opportunities before us and an opportunity to serve and come down here and provide quality education for all of the children of North Carolina. He loved his family. He always spoke about his children and about June, his wife, and she is with us. He was such an outstanding father and grandfather and husband and he is missed and will continue to be missed and to all of you we say thank you for sharing him with us.”

Senator Rand:

“Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, the first thing was that Marvin Ward was a consummate gentleman. He was really sort of the old school. I mean he told you what he thought and would not mince words about it but once he told you, you didn’t have to worry about it again because to him that’s the way it was. And, of course, he and June were a wonderful couple and meant so much to so many people here. When the women got together they always enjoyed her tremendously and I know my wife enjoyed her immensely and it meant a lot to all of us everywhere. The work he did on education was truly unique during those days and there were a lot of things being done to try to improve North Carolina’s educational system and a lot of creative things being tried and a lot of innovative things that Marvin worked on are with us still. He was a wonderful gentleman and he was a wonderful man to serve with and we all enjoyed his company and his presence so much and, as Senator Garrou said, we owe his family a great debt for allowing him to spend that time with us for the benefit of the people of North Carolina. Thank you, Mr. President.”

Senator Brunstetter:

“I think it’s also important to add that Marvin Ward was widely respected on both sides on the aisle. I remember when I was Chairman of the Board of Commissioners we had the recommendation to name one of our new elementary schools after Marvin Ward and it was a great pleasure to see that come through. I think it is a fitting legacy that each day as children go to school in Forsyth County there’s a number of them going to Marvin Ward Elementary School. I think it’s fair to say that because of his dignity and professionalism we were able to get through the desegregation issue and without him we would have had a much more difficult time.”

March 30, 2009
Senator Basnight:
“Members of the Body, I can see June and Marvin walking down the hall now, one kind of tall and one kind of short; one smiling and one not. Marvin had a way of speaking his opinion, placing his mind of how he felt before you in a pretty straightforward fashion. There was no trickery in his approach to life. He believed it to be one of character and he believed that one should do basically what he told you he would do. I remember a particular time when Ted, his companion Senator from Forsyth County, had a bill that would benefit his community and Marvin was all for that bill. It was an appropriations bill and it would have done great things. He explained it well to me and said Ted was a great man to present this. Then a few weeks later, Ted had some screwball idea, some proposal, and he was good at that at times, and he brought that forward and Marvin came in to let me know what a crazy guy Ted was! So he went from great to pretty bad, but Marvin could understand what was good and if it benefited the people of his district, boy, he was for it. If it would do a great good for the people of this State, if it would advance opportunity, if it would improve education, if it would provide for a good job, Marvin was there. What a wonderful man and what a colorful person in an indirect way. We miss him very much. Good to see you, June.”

Lieutenant Governor Dalton:
“Before I call for the third reading, I would just like to thank Senator Vaughan for bringing forth this joint resolution. I am pleased we are honoring Senator Ward tonight. His grandson, B.C., and I belong to the same fraternity. I have valued B.C.’s friendship throughout the years. I know he’s proud of his grandfather and Senator Ward is well known to this day by reputation in the General Assembly. He was a great educator, a great champion of education during his time in the Senate and we honor him and we thank the family for sharing him with the State of North Carolina.”

The joint resolution passes its second reading (46-0) and, without objection, is read a third time and passes its third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives.

Upon motion of Senator Vaughan the President extends the courtesies of the gallery to June Darden Ward, his wife; Betty Ward Cone, his daughter; Marvin Thomas Ward, his son; Benjamin Cone III, his grandson; Robert Phillips, his nephew, and his wife Kathy; Jake Philips, his great nephew; Clare Phillips, his great niece; and Linda Starke, his caregiver.

May the work of these esteemed leaders advance the needs of the one and the many, and inspire citizens to uphold the rights of all. May those entrusted in these chambers with the care of our State lead wisely and with civility and work together for the common good. May they take to heart the profound losses of those affected by economic hardships, loss of jobs, homes, and hope. May they seriously consider the welfare of those who lack access to medical care for the physically and mentally ill. Guide them that their efforts and deliberations will strengthen the name of the great State of North Carolina. We ask your blessing, eternal God, to accompany these men and women who hold the fate of our State in their hands, that in their work they will be humbly mindful of your presence and the great responsibility that they hold in their hands. THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, April 2, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Gracious God, my high-school daughter's best friend was at our home last night crying when I arrived. Her mom had lost her job yesterday and an eleven-year-old boy and family friend learned that his cancer had recurred and that a second major operation was looming. I know that Holy Scripture says that of the three, faith, hope, and love, the greatest is love. But I'm also convinced that right now, for most of us, the rarest of these is hope. Offering hope in word and deed may surely be the greatest single gift offered by the members, by all of us during this legislative session to people who have lost hope. You said surely I know the plans I have for you. Plans for your well being, to give you a future with hope. Help us to be ambassadors of that promise, O God. Amen."

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, on this Monday night, April 6, 2009, we pray for your presence and guidance in all matters deliberated by the members this week and in committees, and in hallway conversations and in this Chamber. The truth is that on this Monday night many of us are also thinking about the NCAA National Basketball Championship which tips off later this evening between our own University of North Carolina Tar Heels and the Michigan State Spartans. We pray for both teams. They've worked hard to get to this game. We pray that each team plays well, that the game is injury free and that both teams will walk off the court feeling like winners. I'm thinking it, O God, and you know what I'm thinking, so I unashamedly pray it. When the game is over, I hope the Tar Heels have at least one more point on the scoreboard than Michigan State so that they may bring the National Championship home. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for tonight to Senator Brown and Senator Goodall.

RECESS

The Senate meets pursuant to recess and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

April 7, 2009
Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, sometimes we pray for something and we get what we prayed for and then forget to thank you. That won't be the case today. Last night we prayed that the Tar Heels would have at least one more point on the scoreboard at the end of the National Championship game. They did and we do thank you. They brought the National Championship back to North Carolina. Instead of buying into the psychological hype that winning would somehow act as an economic stimulus, they just did what they do best, played great basketball. But I'm sure the team would like to visit the Legislature to be honored for their accomplishments by you men and women here in the Senate whom they trust to deal with the economy by doing what you do best. I also trust and believe that you will perform your difficult task just as admirably as the Tar Heels last night. Amen."

FORTY-SECOND DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, April 9, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Almighty God, we close this week in the Senate reminded that we are in the midst of Holy Week for two of the world's three largest religions. Those words 'Holy Week' conjure up different experiences for people listening to this prayer. For the Jewish Community of faith, the celebration of Passover began at sundown last night and last seven days. The holy remembrance of God rescuing and liberating his people from captivity in Egypt and opening the way to their promised land. For Christians, Easter Sunday is the highest and holiest of days. The remembrance of the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus as Christ is the source of the Christian's salvation and eternal hope. We are grateful, O God, for such experiences, you rescuing us from others and ourselves. Nothing is more important than our relationship with you. Yahweh, Adonai, Jesus the Christ. In humble and complete gratitude for your saving grace we pray. Amen."

S.J.R. 182, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF ROBERT WALTER "BOB" SCOTT, FORMER GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Upon motion of Senator Foriest, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Dannelly, the remarks of the members, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Foriest

“On January 23, 2009, this State lost a champion and a true public servant. Governor Robert Walter Scott left this physical world to take his place with other family members, friends, and movers of this State who have made a significant difference in the world that we now enjoy. It is a privilege to introduce, Mr. President, this legislation that honors the life and memory of this special statesman and someone I can truly call a friend. I really don’t know what is in store for me personally in the future but if it is anything positive, there has been some influence by Bob Scott and his family. His is the type of life and he has been the type of role model that has greatly influenced me as I grew up in Alamance County. From a distance, I was always impressed with his reputation and his standing in our rural community. You see, before it was chic, Bob Scott had a reputation for standing up for those who had no one, standing up for the everyday folk without money and without clout. With all that he had accomplished, even in the early days, he was considered somewhat of a maverick. Before I knew him personally, I remember my parents and their friends talking about Bob Scott and his family. Before integration, my folks spoke of his positive influence in helping neighbors and friends with issues and with problems. I am sure there were others but I specifically remember Bob’s

April 9, 2009
name being spoken as symbolic of someone that could be counted on to be fair, honest, and trustworthy. Even as a teenager back in 1964, I was in awe that my parents knew the Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina and he only lived a few miles from my home. Back then, someone who championed for integration was automatically a hero for many of us. But even beyond that, this maverick took on leading the charge for the importance of education to all North Carolinians and I guess it is so apropos considering the discussion we’ve just had here in this chamber talking about the importance of education to us all. My parents were also educators and they used the Scott family as a beacon for what could be done for all citizens of North Carolina. In 1968 when he became Governor, Bob and Jessie Rae were really our pride and joy. We felt like one of us had made it. Bob faced tough choices on integration and public education during his tenure but he did not shy away from controversy. He actually pushed through the State’s first retail tax on cigarettes but the reason was to help finance the first public kindergartens in this State. Bob and Jessie Rae were lead supporters of the Equal Rights Amendment in the 1970’s. But his real love, my friends, was always education, and it is only fitting that he was chosen as President of the North Carolina Community College System from 1983 to 1994. Governor Scott is also credited with creating the current University of North Carolina system. When I first thought of getting involved in politics with our local party, it was Bob Scott who encouraged me. When I first ran for elected office with our local party, it was Bob Scott who advised me. When I first made a conscious effort to serve my community, Bob Scott was my inspiration. Jessie Rae, to you and your family, you are not alone. Your loss is our loss. Your loss is the State’s loss. I think it is best summed up by John Dunne in the Tolling Bell when he said this:

‘No man is an island entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main. If a clod be washed away by the sea, Europe is the less, as well as if a promontory were, as well as if a manor of thy friend's or of thine own were; any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind, and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee.’

Jessie Rae, to you and your family, please accept our deepest sympathy and greatest gratitude for sharing your life and sharing Bob with us. I commend this resolution to my Senate colleagues.”

Senator Rand:

“Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, Bob Scott truly had a very distinguished life and his contribution to North Carolina will always be remembered. He, of course, was a distinguished son of a distinguished father, and uncle and the whole family as it goes back. His work with the Community Colleges, of course, was a labor of love for him, I think, and he did a great deal of truly good work for that group. But what I always loved about him and my fondest memories are that he was the successor as the leader of the Branch-head

April 9, 2009
Boys and he gloried in it. Those possum dinners he had when he was Governor were just wonderful stuff and then he was the guiding force behind the Chitlin Club. It’s not in the resolution that he was a member of the Chitlin Club and I think he would find it offensive that it wasn’t in there because he was always there and he loved the spirit of that group and he loved to be a part of it. I think he even loved the chitlins which requires an act of conscious will that many of us are not capable of! But he loved life, he loved his friends, and he really loved North Carolina and what it was. I think for that, I will always remember him along with the other things, but that is just his wonderful personality and the joy in life that was so evident with him. He was truly a good fellow and truly had a great impact on our State and we sure do miss him. Thank you, Mr. President.”

Senator Soles:

“Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, my life and my political career in many, many ways have been influenced by the Scott family. One of my earliest recollections of politics is riding with my father and Kerr Scott throughout Columbus County when Governor Kerr Scott was campaigning to be the Governor. To this very day, hanging in my office over there is a picture of Kerr Scott with his hands crammed into his coat pockets standing on a flatbed truck in front of a warehouse in Columbus County and yours truly is sitting in the band right behind him. I was still in high school back then and that was my first contact, I guess, with the Scott family. I was elected to the North Carolina House of Representatives in 1969. That’s the same time Governor Bob Scott was elected Governor. I was in the group that went over to the Administration Building auditorium at the Governor’s request and he shut the door and started talking to us about tobacco tax. Those from the east, the tobacco areas, tried to get out but he had all the doors shut so we couldn’t get out. We had to sit there and listen to him. I admit it today that I ended up voting for this proposition. Then, in 1977, when I came to the Senate, Ralph Scott sat right over there and I served with the Governor’s uncle. All the time whether you talk about Kerr Scott, Bob Scott or Ralph Scott, they were true North Carolina leaders. You could depend on what they said and what they said generally was right. North Carolina and I are both better off for having been associated with them. Thank you very much.”

Senator Swindell:

“To follow up on what some have said here and if you come to my office, Ms. Jessie Rae, on my wall I have a picture of me, my father, and Governor Kerr Scott when I was about five years old. Governor Kerr Scott used to come down to Mattamuskeet and goose hunt with us and stay at our house every winter and he always wore a necktie when he hunted and he always had a big plug of tobacco in his mouth. Sergeant Minges was his chauffeur and in that day and time you took Car #1 wherever you went as Governor of this State and in the picture you can notice on the left side of the picture you see the #1 tag on the license plate. Well, as a five-year old in pre-school, every afternoon at about three o’clock, Sergeant Minges would drive me to Swan Quarter to buy bbs for my bb gun and we would ride by the school about three times where I would sit in the back seat and wave out the window to my sisters and other folks on the playground! My memories are very fond of this wonderful family. I remember as a small child it was Kerr Scott who paved the road in front of our house with his road bond issue. We had a dirt road and Kerr Scott paved our road. Bob Scott was no different. My father, as he came along in his activities with the Community College System in North Carolina, he and Bob Scott became dear friends, also. Every year for the opening day of dove season, my father, Russell, and I would have the big dove hunt up at the farm and Jessie Rae you would be frying ham out under the garage and would serve us all ham biscuits for brunch. Every year we would begin our dove season there. I also am very proud of the fact that when I was about 21-years old, I really haven’t done the math though, I was active with the Teen Democrats of North Carolina. I also have in my office, the Order of the Long Leaf Pine that was presented to me by Governor Bob Scott many years ago. It hangs in my office. I also can well remember about seven or eight years ago we had a reunion down at Monk Harrington’s for those of us who used to go down to the deer hunt every year. I got a call from Russell Clay and they picked me up at McDonald’s in Nashville and about six of us, Ben Rooney’s son, Ben who is an attorney in Rocky Mount, and whose dad was Chief of Staff with Governor Scott, got in a van. It was a cold day and the windows were rolled tight and it may have been longer than that because our good friend, Jim Graham, was on that trip and he smoked his cigar all the way down to Lewiston. I have wonderful memories of the Scott family and I say to you, thank you, Jessie Rae, for being by his side, for giving us our wonderful systems we have now in North Carolina, and I thank the entire Scott family for the dedication and loyalty you have shown to the State of North Carolina. I urge you to support the resolution.”

April 9, 2009

Senator Albertson:

“Mr. President, members of the Senate, if you ever met Bob Scott you simply could not help but like him. He was just what you would call a down-to-earth, simple person in so many ways. What I always learned from him or picked up from him more than anything else was his roots in the rural areas of this State. He understood agriculture and knew how important that was. He knew where the food came from and how important the soil and water was and all that working together to make good things happen. He did a lot for this State but I think one of the things that he did, in my estimation that was so great, was when he served as President of the Community College System. I recall I was serving on the Board down at James Sprunt at that time and prior to his service as President of the Community College System, as I remember, we had someone who lived way out-of-state somewhere across the Country who was serving in that capacity and, of course, he was a great fellow, I think, but when he came here nobody knew him and he knew nobody in the State, virtually speaking. So when Bob Scott took over that leadership position I think it was just a great sigh of relief to everybody who was connected to the Community College System. I recall we talked about it down at James Sprunt. We said we have someone now who knows us and we have someone we know. He did a lot to booster the Community College System as one of the greatest Systems across the Country today and we are thankful to the Good Lord for his service."

April 9, 2009

Senator Basnight:
“To Jessie Rae and your family, many thanks for the memories and the experiences of living in North Carolina under your husband’s tutorage. I remember going to Monk Harrington’s event in Lewiston and your husband was there and the hunt had occurred during the day and everyone gathered around for stew of whatever kind we had, oysters, and there was always a liquid beverage that could be shared and sort of loosened the tongue, so they say. If you missed in the hunt a deer or whatever you may be hunting you could lose the tail of your shirt. Well, Jim Graham was there that day and obviously he was not very successful in the hunt and your husband helped cut off the shirt that he had on and that was part of the fellowship that you experienced at Monk’s hunt. You saw the people in North Carolina in a way that you rarely found them. But with Governor Scott that was not so. What you saw was what you had, a man who had a love affair with the people of our State and who had a great concern for the common man. He and I had a conversation last year. I was driving and we were talking and he told me to turn at exit so and so and drive a few miles and you will find me and the door will be open and if you need a bed that will be available or a hot meal. He said we need to talk a little about the condition of the fishermen in North Carolina. He had these memories of all the different groups of people regardless of your station in life. He had that care of the welfare of your family and our people. What a great man, one of the finest this State has ever had. We thank you for that relationship.”

Senator McKissick:
“There’s little I can add to all that’s been said about Bob Scott. He was certainly an admirable person, someone who set a positive tone for this State in so many memorable and remarkable ways. In many respects, my memories of him date back to the time that I was in 7th grade. He was Lieutenant Governor and at that time it wasn’t common for many of the white politicians in this State to come to black churches and when they did come on occasions, they were afraid to stand next to an African-American minister to take a photograph or to be seen for an extended period of time. It was essentially a cordial offering to stand near them and to walk away. Well, I was a member of the congregation known as Union Baptist Church over in Durham. We invited him to attend. Not only did he attend and stay the entire length of the service, but after the service was over he came over to the parsonage, the minister’s home. I sat there as a child and probably spent a good half hour of time talking to the Lieutenant Governor. It was remarkable to me because he sat there and wanted to know from me as a child what it was like integrating the public school system in Durham, what challenges I saw, what types of issues were important to me. I’m simply a little child listening to him making those thoughtful inquiries but doing it in a most remarkable and a most sensitive way. And, of course, it touched my heart in a special way, also. He gave me one of his business cards and he signed his name on the back and it became one of those cherished possessions which I kept with me for many, many years. I put it there next to the autograph I had of Cassius Clay, signed as Cassius Clay also known as Mohammed Ali, with Vice-President Hubert Humphrey’s, and many other notables I had occasion to meet. The thing that most impressed me about Bob Scott is that in a time where we still had segregationists running as Governor in this State, he chose to take a different route. He followed that liberal, progressive tradition of Terry Sanford. He wasn’t afraid to stand up and to speak out on what was morally correct at a time when it was not fashionable to do so. When the polling would suggest that that was not necessarily the bright thing to do, while it might not be the bright thing, it was the right thing to do and for that kind of political courage I commend him. For those strides that he took this State forward at that period, I commend him. When I look at what he did for our State in moving in a direction in terms of embracing education and building our Community College System and a unified system that is still in place today, he deserves special recognition. But one of the things he also did was to bring to us our Council of Governments and regionalism and encouraged counties and cities and communities to think together, collectively, about the vision of where they should go and provided the resources to begin to look at doing land-use planning, cooperation on projects of regional significance, something which remains in place today. That type of regionalism that he brought was never known in North Carolina before and that’s something which, though not written in a resolution, is something which he deserves to be recognized for, as well. So when all is said and done and we think back to the life and accomplishments of this distinguished gentleman and you think of how he touched the lives of so many people, some went duck hunting with him, some ate that stew and drank that special concoction that loosened the tongue, but most importantly, we all can relate to him in a personal way. Very few people have a sort of charismatic personality and are able to deal with people from every walk of life and especially touch the hearts and souls and imaginations of us and to provide, most importantly, visionary leaders that were so essential for North Carolina at that point and place in time. For that I thank his family for sharing him with us. Most importantly, I say to you, you had a remarkable man, someone who really understood this State, someone who knew what we needed, but someone we could not have possibly replaced had it not been for him because he possessed certain characteristics that were appropriate for that day and for that time that brought unity, vision and leadership that have helped North Carolina become what it is today. Thank you.”

April 9, 2009

Senator Atwater:

“I think the first thing that I want to share is that I’m very appreciative that he was of great influence upon me and that Governor Scott encouraged me to run for public office and to my eye, when I think of Governor Scott, he was a big man, a large man. I think when I reflect upon the substance of his life, the sum of his life, certainly including his political life, he was bigger yet. And I think that when I think upon the contributions in the political affairs of this State and beyond that, to me, it renews some of those great words in our Declaration of Independence that, indeed, this is a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. I am very grateful to him for what he’s done for this State and I pray God’s richest blessings upon his family and his memory and I commend this resolution to you.”

April 9, 2009

Lieutenant Governor Dalton:

“Members of the Senate, I would just like to comment. Certainly, I think we all have to agree that Bob Scott was a great leader and his leadership, obviously has been heard today, was multi-faceted. My knowledge of Bob Scott came more from his role as President of the Community College System. For ten years I served on the Board of the Community Colleges that coincided with his term pretty much as President and I had many opportunities to be with him. Anytime I was with him, it was always obvious he was very proud of his leadership in helping to create that Community College System, proud of his leadership in developing that Community College System, as the President of that System. Today, I think we can say in North Carolina and be very proud that it is perhaps the best Community College System in the Nation, one of the most affordable, one of the most accessible, and obviously, one of the most excellent. That is certainly a tribute to him and it is certainly a part of his great legacy and I think we all thank him for his leadership and thank his family for sharing him with us.”

That verse was as synonymous with Coach Yow's signature as it was in the way in which she lived her life. I believe she would think it the highest of honors to be remembered that way. Kay Yow, Philippians 4:13, 'I can do all things through you, O God, who strengthens me.' Thank you for how she lived her life and for the testimony regarding the source of its greatness. Help us to so live. Amen."

Senator Stein:

“On January 24, 2009, NC State Women’s Basketball Coach Kay Yow succumbed after a long and spirited battle with breast cancer. Characteristically, Coach Yow competed with determination and guts that we would expect and in the process impacted more people than she could ever know. Coach Yow was a native North Carolinian born in Gibsonville to Hilton Lee and Elizabeth Cora Scoggins Yow. After attending ECU for her undergraduate and UNC-Greensboro for her Masters, Kay began her collegiate coaching at Elon College in 1971 as North Carolina’s first female head coach of a college basketball team. She then coached at NC State University for 34 successful years winning 737 games. I had the pleasure of witnessing a few of those victories. A season or two ago, I took my kids to Reynolds Coliseum to watch Kay’s Pack play my Alma Mater, the Big Green of Dartmouth. Dartmouth played hard but State played harder and substantially better. My family had a great time and we developed a new found appreciation for the Lady Pack. Coach Yow led the Wolfpack to five ACC regular season championships and four ACC tournament titles helping to spark the top level competitive environment that characterizes ACC Women’s Basketball today. In 1998, Kay coached the U.S. Women’s National Team to a gold medal in Seoul, Korea. An eight-time National Coach of the Year, I’ll say that again, eight-time National Coach of the Year, Coach Yow was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2002. She is one of only five women who have achieved that honor. In recognition of her remarkable achievements, NC State dedicated the basketball court at Reynolds Coliseum, Kay Yow Court. While these professional accomplishments are truly outstanding, Kay Yow represents so much more. She was an influential teacher and caring mentor to her players and an inspirational leader in the fight against breast cancer. She was also just a good person. A couple of weeks ago, a friend told me how he had signed up for a charity golf tournament for breast cancer research a few years ago and on the day of the tournament it was pouring rain. He had nothing else to do that afternoon so he went to see what was going on. Only about 10 people showed up but that didn’t stop Kay from sitting at the table with those guys and talking to them for hours, charming them all, including my friend. That day she made a life-long Kay Yow fan out of him and he is a loyal committed member of the Iron Dukes! Kay Yow left a legacy to her players, her friends, and her fans. She taught her players how to play the game of basketball at the highest level and taught all of us how to face life and the challenges it presents with grace and dignity. Coach Glance, who along with many others, is here tonight, I believe, relayed something to the paper that Coach Yow frequently said, ‘We have no control of our circumstances, no control over what happens to us. But we have 100% control over how we respond and that has everything to do with a person’s attitude.’ Kay’s attitude was unfailingly positive and selfless. This evening we honor the memory of Sandra Kay Yow and express the appreciation of the State and its residents for her contributions to women’s athletics and for enriching our lives. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, I commend this resolution to you.”

Senator Garrou:

“Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, I only met Kay Yow once. I went to a meeting in Charlotte where she and I were being honored for something or other and I was sitting at the table with her and we got into a long discussion about playing basketball. For those of you who know how old I am know that I probably played half-court basketball like she did when she first started playing. But the fun thing, I was on the defense and I got to shoot all the free throws so that was a great experience except that my poor team, I was at a Girls’ School, lost every single game we played. I was the tallest person on the team. Not only did we have a great time talking about basketball, we talked about her life experiences and the way she felt that we ought to reach out to people and help them. She said something to me and I can’t for the life of me put it into the eloquent words that she said but she said her life’s goal was to dig deep wells for others who follow after us to drink. I mean it gives me shivers to think about that, to think about those words and I will tell you, yesterday when I was sitting in my church on Easter Sunday and we were talking about victorious in death and life everlasting I couldn’t help but think about the fact that we were going to be honoring her tonight. I am sure she is in a triumphant place and I urge you to support this resolution. Thank you.”

Senator Weinstein:

“Being a graduate of North Carolina State University, I took special interest in the career of Kay Yow. Years ago I got to meet her at a fundraiser in Robeson County. At that time we had a young lady on her team, Billie McDowell, and I talked with Coach Yow for quite an extensive time. I’d like to give you my impression of Kay Yow. She was a great coach but she was a greater human being. She taught not only basketball to her players but she taught character. She cared for her players. She was respected by her players. She was respected by her peers. Coaches from all over the Country in ladies basketball spoke of Kay Yow with great esteem but, most of all she was loved by her fans and Wolfpack supporters. She was a lady. She brought pride and dignity to North Carolina State University. I can relate with her as she fought her dreaded disease because she fought it with courage and determination. She was an inspiration to all that knew her and I think her legacy will live on for many years. Mr. President, I commend the resolution to you.”

April 13, 2009

Senator Hunt:
“I don’t know how many of you all got to see the eulogy that Kay Yow dictated for her own funeral, but it was really outstanding. She was a great example of our Lord’s admonition to go out there and spread the gospel to all the world. I think she would probably like for us to remember that since she took that time to dictate her own eulogy for her own funeral. I absolutely commend the resolution to you all.”

Senator Rouzer:
“Mr. President, it’s a great honor for me to speak in support of this resolution in honor of Kay Yow and her life. I was at that funeral that Neal mentioned and it was extraordinarily touching. In fact, today I went and took a tour of the Cancer Center over at UNC-Chapel Hill and what a marvelous facility that is going to be. I could not help but think of the two, Kay Yow and the Cancer Center, and the work that has been done on behalf of cancer research and all the lives that have been touched by cancer and you know, there’s a lot that I don’t understand. My brother, in fact, was touched by cancer, was diagnosed with brain cancer about six years ago. He is in the five percent that have made it this far without any recurrence and I have often wondered in my mind why was it him and why it wasn’t me, and at Kay Yow’s funeral it became very, very clear. You know there are so many things that we don’t understand as human beings and when you watched Kay Yow and you watched that eulogy, you couldn’t help but know that there’s a higher power. I brought with me today the brochure that was handed out at that funeral and I want to read just a little bit here on the back. But in essence it talks about her faith and here on the side, it says ‘Cancer is limited. Cancer cannot cripple love, cancer cannot shatter hope, cancer cannot erode faith, nor can it steal eternal life.’ It was mentioned here on the floor earlier that Kay Yow was a great basketball coach. She was great at everything she did. She touched a lot of lives and as a member of the NC State family, I did not have the opportunity to meet Kay Yow but she certainly touched my life and so many others because of who she was as a person. It struck me very sincerely at that funeral that who she was as a person was due to her faith and it also struck me at that funeral that we are all going to be gone far longer than we are alive here and, as we deal with a number of issues that come before us, I think that’s an appropriate thing to keep in perspective. I very sincerely and very genuinely

April 13, 2009
commend this resolution in support and honor of Kay Yow, a great woman, a great human being and there’s no doubt in my mind she has eternal life. Thank you.”

Senator Rand:
“Ladies and Gentlemen, Kay Yow was an elegant person and she lived her life to the fullest whether she was competing or interacting with other people.
She served as an example of how you live your life and continue with living life to its fullest while you’re faced with some pretty difficult circumstances. I think the way she conducted herself and the way that she showed the rest of us how to live is a wonderful example of what a person can mean to a state. I don’t think you could live in North Carolina for the last 10 years or so, or the last 25 for that matter, without being aware of Kay Yow and what she meant to so many people.
She was a wonderful competitor and her reputation on the national stage was as a wonderful coach and a good human being. Just the story of her problems and how she addressed them, I think, says a great deal about the type of person she was and she made all of us in North Carolina just so proud that we shared her time and shared her experiences and shared her view of the world and life and that she allowed us to participate in all that with her. She was a wonderful human being, she was a great North Carolinian and we certainly will miss her shining presence in the days to come. Thank you.”

Senator Basnight:
“Members of the Senate and Chancellor, she was known as a coach of basketball but to many of us she was much more than that. She was a coach of life. She loved so very much her players, as we all know, but she also had a deep underlying love of humanity and its meaning. She cared a great deal about life and the people of life. She wanted to make certain that we all succeeded.
Senator Apodaca, you spoke of the kindness of a golf player and what it meant to another person, another human being. She showed that on a daily basis in the way she carried herself and the way she showed people how we should live and how kindness and generosity and loving concern for others is paramount in life.
She was a great, great human being. We were blessed to have her in our State representing one of the greater universities in this Country. God bless.”

Lieutenant Governor Dalton:
“Members of the Senate, with your leave, I would like to say I did not know Kay Yow personally but, like a lot of you and a lot of other people, I knew her by reputation and inspiration. She was indeed an inspiring leader and Senator Apodaca mentioned Coach Valvano in the meeting tonight. In that great speech that he gave, he said everybody every day should do three things, laugh, think, and believe in something so passionately you could cry about it. But Kay Yow did not follow that advice to the letter because she was not passionate about just one thing, she was passionate about many things. If you attended her service, you knew she was very passionate about her faith and she was passionate about her devotion to her God. She was passionate about her family who supported her in everything she did, particularly in that battle against cancer. She was passionate about NC State. The minister told the story about how Coach Yow was to look after the four- and five-year olds during the church service one day. They didn’t know how that would go. Somebody peeked in and they saw Coach Yow leading about twenty four- and five-year olds in a march with their fists pumping saying, ‘Go State, Go Wolfpack!’ She was also very passionate about her battle against cancer and I think she would be pleased that the North Carolina Senate is honoring her tonight. In this Senate, we have seen Senate members and loved ones of Senate members fight that battle, also, and through the leadership of Senator Basnight and this Senate money was appropriated to make North Carolina one of the leaders in cancer research, as Senator Rouzer mentioned. I think she would be very pleased that NC State and UNC are working together with that joint employee of Joe DeSimone and many others who are working for that cure for cancer. She would be very pleased about that. She was a very special person and regardless of whether your colors are red, or black and gold or some hue of blue, you had to admire, respect and appreciate Kay Yow and appreciate her courage and her leadership. She was one of a kind and she will be missed.”

April 13, 2009

The joint resolution passes its second reading (32-0) and, without objection, is read a third time and passes its third reading with members standing and is ordered enrolled.

Upon motion of Senator Stein the President extends the courtesies of the gallery to family and friends of Kay Yow and members of the North Carolina State women's basketball team.

Please help us as we follow the scriptural admonition in 2 Chronicles 7:14 to humble ourselves, pray, and seek your face and turn from our wicked ways. It is then and only then that you promise to forgive our sins and to heal our land. Help us, Lord, to study to live a quiet and peaceable life. Today, we lift up our public officials to you. In your divine sovereignty you have lead them to lead us. May we continue to pray for them daily as they serve our community. Lord, give us help from trouble for vain is the help of man. FORTY-SEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, April 20, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Loving God, we do open this week's work in the Senate saddened and grieving the death of colleague and friend, Senator Vernon Malone. It just doesn't seem possible only a few days ago he walked among us, offering his gifts, affirming ours. Scripture describes another godly man's sudden departure this way. 'And Enoch walked with God.' Enoch, like Senator Malone, was vital and active, but suddenly, he was gone from all who cared about him. Our consolation is that on Saturday, in the blinking of an eye, Senator Malone left us, but was gladly welcomed into heaven by you, O God, and most probably by a welcoming committee made up of untold numbers of people whom he helped while on this earth. Raise up a person among us who will champion the causes that meant so much to Senator Vernon Malone. We are better for having known him. In your holy name we pray. Amen."

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Garrou.

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, April 21, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, at a time when we still mourn the loss of Senator Malone, realizing that life is fragile and fleeting, it might also be a good time for some personal reflection. We know there is no darkness in you and we call ourselves children of light, but sometimes we act otherwise. Sometimes we love ourselves more than others. We work too hard to get our own way. We deceive ourselves when we pretend to be innocent. Shine your light into our dark places. Bring the truth to our lips. In your faithfulness, receive our confession, forgive us and help us to live better each day. Amen."

The text of the attached Proposed Conference Committee Substitute, S287-PCCS35293-LN-3 is as follows:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT TO APPROPRIATE FUNDS FOR THE STATE HEALTH PLAN FOR TEACHERS AND STATE EMPLOYEES AND TO MAKE OTHER CHANGES RELATED TO THE STATE HEALTH PLAN.

Whereas, the General Assembly must act quickly and prudently to maintain a financially stable State Health Plan to ensure that all members of the Plan have affordable access to medically necessary health benefits and services within available resources; and

Whereas, in order to meet current fiscal obligations, the General Assembly must appropriate $250,000,000 for the 2008-2009 fiscal year to cover the current year shortfall in funds; and

April 22, 2009
Whereas, estimates indicate that a substantially larger appropriation will be necessary to maintain the fiscal integrity of the Plan in the next and ensuing fiscal periods; and

Whereas, in order to ensure continued access to medically necessary health care to Plan members, the Plan must implement measures to contain costs through premium increases, benefit changes, and healthy lifestyle programs that not only reduce costs but improve member health; and

Whereas, the Plan estimates that over 70,000 Plan members use tobacco, resulting in a cost to the Plan of $2,000 per member per year more than the cost of providing coverage for non-users of tobacco; and

Whereas, cessation of tobacco use has been demonstrated to result in improved member health and substantial savings in health care costs making it fiscally prudent to implement smoking cessation incentives and initiatives with mechanisms to verify member compliance with smoking cessation requirements; and

Whereas, over 60% of North Carolina adults are obese or overweight; and

Whereas, obesity is linked to an over 37% increase in health care spending at a cost of $2,445 per member per year; and

Whereas, weight management and cessation of tobacco use have been demonstrated to result in improved member health and substantial savings in health care costs making it fiscally prudent to implement smoking cessation and weight management incentives and initiatives with mechanisms to verify member compliance with smoking cessation and weight management requirements; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART ONE: Appropriations, Definitions, and Scope.

SECTION 1.(a) Appropriation for 2008-2009 Fiscal Year. – There is appropriated from the Savings Reserve Account established in G.S. 143C-4-2 to the Health Benefit Reserve Fund established in G.S. 135-44.5 the sum of two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000) for the 2008-2009 fiscal year. These funds shall be used to cover health care and administrative costs to the Plan in the 2009-2011 fiscal biennium.

SECTION 1.(d) All other agency funds required to fund the premium increase enacted in this act, other than funds appropriated in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, are appropriated for the 2009-2011 fiscal biennium.

SECTION 1.(e) Definitions. – As used in this act unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

2. "Basic Plan." – The Plan's PPO option providing for 70/30 in-network coverage after deductibles and co-payments.
3. "Smoking" or "Smoking cessation." – Includes cessation of the use of all tobacco products.

SECTION 1.(f) Scope. – In the event of a conflict between the provisions of this act and Article 3A of Chapter 135 of the General Statutes, this act prevails.

PART TWO: HEALTH BENEFIT CHANGES.

SECTION 2.(a) Eliminate PPO Plus Option. – Effective July 1, 2009, the PPO Plus option (90/10 in-network coverage) under the State Health Plan for Teachers and State Employees ("Plan") is eliminated. The Executive Administrator shall provide notice to all members of the Plan that this option will no longer be available as of July 1, 2009. Employees enrolled in the Plan's Plus option shall have the choice of enrolling in the Basic or Standard Plan options for the 2009-2010 benefit year.

SECTION 2.(b) Implement Comprehensive Wellness Initiative.

1. Program development. – The Plan shall develop a Comprehensive Wellness Initiative that includes a focus on smoking cessation and weight management and that is designed to be implemented effective July 1, 2010, for smoking cessation and July 1, 2011, for weight management. Benefit levels shall be determined by the Plan based upon tobacco use or the inability of the member to meet national, evidence-based healthy weight clinical guidelines. For purposes of the Comprehensive Wellness Initiative, "member" includes all State Health Plan primary subscribers and their covered dependents. The Plan shall develop a process whereby a Plan member may appeal the Plan's basis for action it takes due to the member's failure or refusal to comply with the Plan's smoking cessation or weight management requirements.

(2) Smoking cessation. – Effective July 1, 2010, all members of the Plan who do not have Medicare as their primary coverage shall be enrolled in the Basic Plan under the Plan's PPO unless the subscriber can attest that the subscriber or any qualifying dependent does not smoke or otherwise use tobacco products. The Plan shall develop a mechanism for verifying that the member does not smoke or use other tobacco products. Tobacco use will be reassessed annually at the time of Plan enrollment. All subscribers who have attested that neither they nor their dependents use tobacco, or whose physician certifies in writing that the member is participating in a smoking cessation program, shall have the choice of remaining in the Basic Plan option or enrolling in the Standard Plan option. For purposes of the smoking cessation initiative, "member" includes all members covered under the Plan. As used in this section, "smoking cessation program" means active participation in a Plan-approved cessation program to include counseling or use of tobacco cessation medications.

(3) Weight management. – Effective July 1, 2011, all members of the Plan who do not have Medicare as their primary coverage shall be enrolled in the Basic Plan under the Plan's PPO Plan unless the subscriber attests that the weight and height ratio of the member is within a range determined by the Plan based on evidence-based healthy weight clinical guidelines, or unless the member's physician certifies in writing that the member has a medical condition that prevents the attainment of the specified weight range or that the member is actively participating in a Plan-approved weight management program. In either case, the member shall have the option to enroll in the Basic or Standard Plan.

Not later than October 1, 2009, the Executive Administrator shall inform Plan members of the healthy lifestyle initiatives, requirements for compliance, and consequences of noncompliance. The Executive Administrator shall provide to members education and training to assist members in complying with healthy lifestyle initiatives. The Executive Administrator may implement incentive initiatives to further encourage member achievement in smoking cessation, weight management, and other integrated health management programs.

The Executive Administrator shall report to the Committee on Employee Hospital and Medical Benefits recommendations the Plan may have

April 22, 2009
for additional sanctions that may be imposed when the Executive Administrator finds that a member intentionally makes a false statement on a Plan document.

SECTION 2.(c) Prescription Drug Co-Payments. – G.S. 135-45.6(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Prescription Drugs. – The Plan's allowable charges for prescription legend drugs to be used outside of a hospital or skilled nursing facility shall be as determined by the Plan's Executive Administrator and Board of Trustees, which determinations are not subject to appeal under Article 3 of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes. Co-payments and other allowable charges or coverage for prescription drugs shall be as follows:

(1) The Plan will pay allowable charges for each outpatient prescription drug less a copayment to be paid by each covered individual equal to the following amounts: pharmacy charges up to ten dollars ($10.00) for each generic prescription, thirty dollars ($30.00) thirty-five dollars ($35.00) for each preferred branded prescription without a generic equivalent, and forty dollars ($40.00) for each preferred branded prescription with a generic equivalent drug, and fifty dollars ($50.00) fifty-five dollars ($55.00) for each nonpreferred branded or generic prescription. For each branded prescription drug with a generic equivalent drug, the member shall pay the generic co-payment plus the difference between the Plan's gross allowed cost for the generic prescription and the Plan's cost for the branded prescription drug.

(2) The Plan shall provide coverage of nonacute specialty medications, excluding cancer medications, under the Plan's pharmacy benefit through a specialty pharmacy vendor under contract with the Plan. The Plan may transfer coverage of specified specialty disease medications covered under the Plan's medical benefit to the contracted specialty pharmacy vendor. Specialty medications are covered biotech medications and other medications designated and classified by the Plan as specialty medications that are significantly more expensive than alternative drugs or therapies. Medications classified by the Plan as specialty medications shall meet all of the following conditions:
   a. Have unique uses for the treatment of complex diseases.
   b. Require special dosing or administration.
   c. Require special handling.
   d. Are typically prescribed by a specialist provider.
   e. Exceed four hundred dollars ($400.00) cost to the Plan per prescription.

The Plan shall impose a co-payment in the amount of twenty-five percent (25%) of the Plan's gross allowed cost of the specialty drug not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) per prescription per 30-day supply.

April 22, 2009

(3) The Plan may exclude coverage of drugs that have therapeutic equivalents, as defined by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, that are available over the counter. Before excluding coverage under this subdivision, the Plan shall consult with the Plan's Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee.

These co-payments apply to all optional alternative plans available under the Plan.

(4) Allowable charges shall not be greater than a pharmacy's usual and customary charge to the general public for a particular prescription. Prescriptions shall be for no more than a 30-day supply for the purposes of the copayments paid by each covered individual. By accepting the copayments and any remaining allowable charges provided by this subsection, pharmacies shall not balance bill an individual covered by the Plan. A prescription legend drug is defined as an article the label of which, under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, is required to bear the legend: "Caution: Federal Law Prohibits Dispensing Without Prescription." Such articles may not be sold to or purchased by the public without a prescription order. Benefits are provided for insulin even though a prescription is not required. The Plan may use a pharmacy benefit manager to help manage the Plan's outpatient prescription drug coverage. In managing the Plan's outpatient prescription drug benefits, the Plan and its pharmacy benefit manager shall not provide coverage for sexual dysfunction, growth hormone, antiwrinkle, weight loss, and hair growth drugs unless such coverage is medically necessary to the health of the member. The Plan and its pharmacy benefit manager shall not provide coverage for growth hormone and weight loss drugs and antifungal drugs for the treatment of nail fungus and botulinum toxin without approval in advance by the pharmacy benefit manager. The Plan may adopt utilization management procedures for certain drugs, but in no event shall the Plan provide coverage for sexual dysfunction or hair growth drugs or nonmedically necessary drugs used for cosmetic purposes. Any formulary used by the Plan's Executive Administrator and pharmacy benefit manager shall be an open formulary. Plan members shall not be assessed more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per person per fiscal year in copayments required by this subsection. The Plan's Pharmacy Benefit Manager, or any pharmacy or vendor participating in the Plan shall charge the Plan for any prescription legend drug dispensed under the Plan's pharmacy benefit based upon the original National Drug Code (NDC) as established by the manufacturer of the prescription legend drug and published by the United States Food and Drug Administration.

Co-payments and other allowable charges under this subsection shall be the lesser of the Plan's discounted cost of the drug or the co-payment amount or allowable charge and apply to all optional alternative plans available under the Plan."

SECTION 2.(d) Routine Eye Examinations Not Covered. – Effective January 1, 2010, G.S. 135-45.8(13) reads as rewritten:

"§ 135-45.8. General limitations and exclusions.

The following shall in no event be considered covered expenses nor will benefits described in G.S. 135-45.6 through G.S. 135-45.11 be payable for:

(13) Charges for routine eye examinations, eyeglasses or other corrective lenses (except for cataract lenses certified as medically necessary for aphakia persons) and hearing aids or examinations for the prescription or fitting thereof."

SECTION 2.(e) Deductible and Co-Payment Changes. – Effective July 1, 2009, the Executive Administrator shall make the following changes to deductibles, coinsurance maximums, and co-payments under the Basic and Standard PPO Plans:

(1) Basic plan (70/30):

e. Increase the in-network and out-of-network inpatient co-payment to two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) per covered individual.

f. Increase prescription drug co-pays as required under G.S. 135-45.6(b) as enacted by this act.

g. Except as otherwise provided in this act, co-payments and coinsurance for coverage not otherwise listed in this subdivision shall remain as applicable in the 2008-2009 benefit year.

(2) Standard Plan (80/20):

a. Increase the in-network annual deductible to six hundred dollars ($600.00) for member-only coverage and to one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200) for the member-only out-of-network annual deductible. The aggregate maximum annual deductible for employee-child and employee-family coverage shall be three times the member-only annual deductibles.

d. Increase the in-network primary care co-payment to twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per covered individual.

e. Increase the in-network specialist co-payment to sixty dollars ($60.00) per covered individual, except that for mental health and substance abuse services, chiropractic services, and physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech therapy services, the in-network specialist co-payment shall be forty-five dollars ($45.00) per covered individual.

g. Increase prescription drug co-pays as required under G.S. 135-45.6(b) as enacted by this act.

h. Except as otherwise provided in this act, co-payments and coinsurance for coverage not otherwise listed in this subdivision shall remain as applicable in the 2008-2009 benefit year.

SECTION 2.(f) Limitation on Authority to Change Benefits. – G.S. 135-45(g) reads as rewritten:

"(g) The Executive Administrator and Board of Trustees shall not change the Plan's comprehensive health benefit coverage, co-payments, deductibles, out-of-pocket expenditures, and lifetime maximums in effect on July 1, 2008, July 1, 2009, or a later act of the General Assembly, that would result in a net increased cost to the Plan or in a reduction in benefits to Plan members as a whole unless and until the proposed changes are directed to be made in an act of the General Assembly."

SECTION 2.(g) Premium Increases. – Premium rates for contributory coverage established in accordance with G.S. 135-44.6 shall be increased to eight and nine-tenths percent (8.9%) for contributory coverage for the 2009-2010 fiscal year and shall be increased by an additional eight and nine-tenths percent (8.9%) over the premium rate for contributory coverage for the 2010-2011 fiscal year.

SECTION 2.(h) Pharmacy Benefit Savings. – The Plan shall direct its pharmacy benefit manager (PBM), within the terms of the Plan's PBM contract, to achieve the sum of eighteen million dollars ($18,000,000) in savings in pharmacy benefit costs in the 2009-2010 fiscal year, and the sum of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) in savings in pharmacy benefit costs in the 2010-2011 fiscal year through reduced reimbursements paid to pharmacies for prescription drugs. If the savings achieved in each six-month period of the fiscal year do not exceed one hundred five percent (105%) of the savings amount specified in this section for that fiscal year, there shall be no further adjustment to reimbursements paid to pharmacies for that six-month period. If the total savings achieved, by fiscal year, exceeds one hundred five percent (105%) of the specified savings amount in each six-month period of the fiscal year, the Plan shall adjust pharmacy reimbursement reductions accordingly. The Plan shall review savings achieved twice annually to ensure compliance with this section. The Plan shall calculate the savings to be achieved based on Plan enrollment and estimated cost and utilization trends incorporated in the Plan's Financial Projections as of March 20, 2009. The total savings by fiscal year achieved in this section may be increased or decreased without adjustment based on a change in total enrollment provided that the rate of savings achieved on a per-member per-month basis remains constant. Not later than 60 days immediately following each six-month period, the Plan shall report the amount of savings achieved and any adjustments made for that period to the Committee on Employee Hospital and Medical Benefits.

Eligibility of dependent children is subject to the requirements of G.S. 135-45.2(d). The Plan may require documentation from the member confirming a child's eligibility to be covered as the member's dependent."

SECTION 3.(b) Eligibility of Full-Time Students. – G.S. 135-45.2(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) A foster child is covered as a dependent child (i) if living in a regular parent-child relationship with the expectation that the employee will continue to rear the child into adulthood, (ii) if at the time of enrollment, or at the time a foster child relationship is established, whichever occurs first, the employee applies for coverage for such child and submits evidence of a bona fide foster child relationship, identifying the foster child by name and setting forth all relevant aspects of the relationship, (iii) if the claims processor accepts the foster child as a participant through a separate written document identifying the foster child by name and specifically recognizing the foster child relationship, and (iv) if at the time a claim is incurred, the foster child relationship, as identified by the employee, continues to exist. Children placed in a home by a welfare agency which obtains control of, and provides for maintenance of the child, are not eligible participants.

Coverage of a dependent child may be extended beyond the 19th birthday under the following conditions:

As used in this section, a full-time student is a student who is pursuing a course of study that represents at least the normal workload of a full-time student at a school or college accredited by the state of jurisdiction. In accordance with applicable federal law, coverage of a full-time student that loses full-time status due to illness may be extended for one year from the effective date of the loss of full-time status provided that the student was enrolled at the time of the onset of the illness.

2. The dependent is physically or mentally incapacitated to the extent that he or she is incapable of earning a living and (i) such handicap developed or began to develop before the dependent's 19th birthday, or (ii) such handicap developed or began to develop before the dependent's 26th birthday if the dependent was covered by the Plan in accordance with G.S. 135-45.2(5)a.

SECTION 3(c) Waiting Periods Subject to Federal Law. – G.S. 135-45.3(b) reads as rewritten:

A dependent can become qualified due to marriage, adoption, entering a foster child relationship, due to the divorce of a dependent child or the death of the spouse of a dependent child, and at the beginning of each legislative session (applies only to enrolled legislators). Effective date for newly acquired dependents if application was made within the 30 days can be the first day of the following month. Effective date for an adopted child can be date of adoption, or date of placement in the adoptive parents' home, or the first of the month following the date of adoption or placement. Firefighters, rescue squad workers, and members of the national guard, and their eligible dependents, are subject to the same terms and conditions as are new employees and their dependents covered by this subdivision. Waiting periods for preexisting conditions administered under this Article are subject to applicable federal law."

SECTION 3.(e) Eligibility Audit. – The Executive Administrator shall provide for an audit of dependent eligibility under the Plan. The audit shall be designed to determine whether all dependents currently covered under the Plan are eligible for coverage under current law. Upon identification of an individual who is enrolled as a dependent but not eligible, the Plan shall disenroll the ineligible dependent effective within 10 days of sending written termination notice to the employee. The notice shall state the date upon which disenrollment will become effective and the basis on which the determination of dependent ineligibility is made. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Executive Administrator may waive requirements to collect from the member reimbursement for claims paid for the ineligible covered individual.

SECTION 3.(f) Cessation of Coverage of Ineligible Individuals. – G.S. 135-45.12 is amended by adding the following new subdivision to read:

to the President of the Senate, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Committee on Employee Hospital and Medical Benefits."

SECTION 5.(g) The Executive Administrator of the Plan shall include in the development of its Request for Proposal (RFP) for an independent audit of the Plan, an audit of claims paid by the State Health Plan for Teachers and State Employees. One purpose of the audit is to determine whether savings to the Plan and to Plan members could be achieved if claims payments and processing were more efficiently and effectively administered. The audit shall encompass Plan years beginning in 2005, or earlier, through 2008 and shall look at claims administration and payment under the former Indemnity Plan as compared to the present PPO Plan. In developing the RFP, the Executive Administrator shall consult with the Fiscal Research Division staff and the Director of the Program Evaluation Division of the General Assembly to ensure that all of the following are addressed by the independent audit.

1. Estimated or actual savings that could be achieved if changes recommended by the independent auditor were enacted by the General Assembly, and how those savings should be allocated to the benefit of Plan members.

2. The governance structure of the Plan and whether it should be under the supervision and oversight of the Governor or a State agency.

3. The extent to which the failure or inability to share confidential or otherwise protected information with the Board of Directors and the General Assembly contributes to financial weaknesses in the Plan, and how such data sharing should be strengthened.

4. The role of the Board of Directors of the Plan and whether the role should be strengthened or otherwise changed.

5. Past, present, and potential areas of overpayments, overutilization, underutilization, or abuse that contributes to increasing costs of Plan benefits, including deductibles, co-payments, dependent premiums, and co-insurance maximums.

6. Safeguards to ensure the prompt reporting of claims data and trends to the actuaries under contract with the Plan and the General Assembly.

7. Any other matters the Executive Administrator, Fiscal Research Division Staff, the Director of the Program Evaluation Division, or the contracting entity believe would be useful in helping to strengthen the financial integrity of the Plan and Plan benefits.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that savings identified by the independent audit and realized through enactment by the General Assembly, and overpayments identified by the audit or by the Plan, will be allocated by the General Assembly to minimize benefit reductions and maintain affordable contributions, deductibles, and co-payments by Plan members and to maintain the fiscal integrity of the Plan itself.

The Executive Administrator shall provide the RFP developed in accordance with this section to the Division of Purchase and Contract not later than July 1, 2009. A copy of the audit report submitted to the Plan by the contracting entity shall be provided to the Committee on Employee Hospital and Medical Benefits.

SECTION 5.(h) G.S. 135-45(d) reads as rewritten:

Such contracts shall include the applicable provisions of G.S. 135-45.1 through G.S. 135-45.15 and the description of the Plan in the request for proposal, and shall be administered by the respective claims processor or Pharmacy Benefits Manager, which will determine benefits and other questions arising thereunder. The contracts necessarily will conform to applicable State law. If any of the provisions of G.S. 135-45.1 through G.S. 135-45.15 and the request for proposals must be modified for inclusion in the contract because of State law, such modification shall be made. The Executive Administrator shall ensure that the terms of the contract between the Plan and the Plan's Claims Processing Contractor, the Pharmacy Benefit Manager, and the Disease Management Contractor require the contractor to provide the following:

1. Detailed billing by each entity showing itemized cost information, including individual administrative services provided;

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"All knowing God, a homeless person that I know came by the church today and asked for ten dollars for a prescription. I admit I hesitated before offering the money. Advocates for causes and programs ask the members here for millions of dollars to help fund their particular programs. In both of these kinds of conversations we admit that we want to discover, to hear, and to speak the truth. It seems like there is such a scarcity of truth in our culture nowadays. We ask that you forgive our cynicism and remind us of your promise that we shall know the truth and the truth shall set us free. Help us this week to let truth-telling begin with each of us. Amen."

It's no wonder, as adults, that we measure success in vertical terms...upward mobility...climbing the ladder of success, while we all would aspire to the most excellent way. Remind us that it is in the more horizontal position, bowing humbly in your presence and asking forgiveness that we realize our shortcomings. Only then shall we attain true stature in your sight, O God. Amen."

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, in Pilgrim's Progress, John Bunyan wrote: 'A man there was, tho' some did count him mad, the more he cast away the more he had.' It is a spiritual paradox, O God, that when we give to others what you have given to us, it is we who receive the blessing. Our generosity may be measured simply in an act of kindness, attentive listening, a word of affirmation. Lord, we don't want to hunker down and hoard what you have given to us. May others know you because they see your love expressed generously through us this day. Amen."

FIFTY-FIFTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, May 4, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, even at the beginning of a week in the relative quiet of a Monday evening session, prayer, at times, may be hard work. Our minds wander. We can't seem to focus on our real concern. Are our efforts getting beyond the ceiling? Maybe this is not doing any good. Such thoughts reflect our struggle with becoming open to you, O God. They are the price of admission to the mystery of your hiddenness and the sweat that comes with the exercise of our prayer each day. So help us to work hard and pray hard this week. You'll make yourself known amidst our good effort. Amen."

The Chair grants a leave of absence for tonight to Senator Nesbitt.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Thursday, April 30, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

FIFTY-SIXTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, May 5, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, some days everything about our relationship and journey with you seems to go just as you and we would like. We're authentic in our dealings with others, non-judging, humble, compassionate. Other days, it's a struggle. We feel like a child who prays, 'God I'm doing the best I can.' On those days we find ourselves saying one thing with our words and doing another with our actions. We criticize others for that which we allow in ourselves. The next time we throw our hands up in exasperation and say, 'We're doing the best we can,' what we mean is, 'We want to do better.' That's our prayer today. Help us to do better. Amen."

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Blake.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Monday, May 4, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Ericka Everly from Durham, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

SIXTIETH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, May 12, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Rabbi Fred Guttmann, Temple Emmanuel, Greensboro, North Carolina as follows:

Almighty God, we stand here today reaffirming your sovereignty and our belief that you are the parent of us all. In your wisdom, you have granted to us the faculty of appreciating the value of representative government. We ask your guidance for those of the North Carolina Senate who are charged with the awesome responsibility of directing the affairs of this State. Help them, God, to understand that virtually every issue which they will deal with in their deliberations today and in the future has a spiritual component. Our task as a nation and as a state is to live according to the highest ethical and religious values of our tradition. Help us to appreciate our diversity and the fact that our State functions best when we acknowledge that all who live here have their own particular contribution to make, their own spiritual melody to play. May the spirit of compromise fill this body. Help the members of the Senate to understand that their task is to raise the welfare of all of the citizens, not to help some up while pushing others down. God, let us recognize that you are truly on our side when we direct our attention to issues such as the betterment of education and the eradication of poverty. We ask with all of our hearts that you will grant wisdom and insight to our State Senators. Help them, God, to see and to understand that when it comes to the welfare and education of our children, their decisions are not only political ones, but are also religious ones. Let them and all of us commit ourselves out of a respect for your teaching to the future of the children of this State. We ask that you bless our leaders with such wisdom, courage, and strength needed to respect all children as created equal and equally cherished by God. Bless, O God, this State and its leaders. Bring us together with bonds of friendship and fellowship and may the love of you be in the hearts of us all. May the biblical ideals of freedom, justice and equality, enshrined in the constitution of this State and that of our nation, become the heritage of all. Amen.

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Blake.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Monday, May 11, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

Dear Lord, crossover week is always like a marathon so it might be helpful to remember what someone said about getting to a final destination. It also takes practicality and perseverance. Bless the members and staff with a good measure of these qualities in the final days and nights of this week. In your holy name we pray. Amen."

  Deputy Chairman and Chief Counsel
  The Chairman of the ESC has requested that this position, which reports directly to the Chairman and has significant commission-wide responsibilities be designated as policy-making exempt.

Department of Health and Human Services:
- 8 additional policy-making exempt position designations
  - Assistant Secretary for Mental Health Services (responsible for development of community services/capacity and coordination of related policy)

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Lin Carter, Associate Minister, First Baptist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina as follows:

Great God, as we come to you today, we look to scripture as the inspiration for our prayer. For millennia you have guided those who govern, including men such as King Solomon of Israel. Solomon had a dream and in that dream you appeared and told him to ask for anything. Of all the requests he could have made, Solomon asked for wisdom and 'an understanding mind to govern your people.' Scripture also tells us that you were pleased that he thought of others before himself and you granted Solomon's wish. God of all, I pray that you would grant these leaders both wisdom and the selflessness of Solomon. Amen."

Pursuant to Senator Basnight’s motion to adjourn having prevailed, the Senate adjourns at 3:57 P.M.

May 19, 2009
The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Lin Carter, Associate Minister, First Baptist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, as follows:

"Dear God, again we look to scripture as we pray. We think of Job, of his bitter suffering and harsh trials, and we are reminded of our own difficulties, both minor and severe. As we work to solve our problems and make a difference in our State, we think of Job debating with you. Perhaps we, too, argue with you more than we should. Lord, you spoke words of wisdom and guidance to Job. Our prayer is that you would speak to us as well in our need. May we listen expectantly for your voice. Amen."

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Tuesday, May 19, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Gregory Cannon from Cary, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"O God, some days all of our business seems to be withdrawals. No deposits, small balance, little to draw on, we're tired. On such days help us to listen to stories and watch the heroism lived out right in front of us, people with nothing or very little achieving, succeeding. Last week in Red Springs I met Vicky, a young Lumbee Indian woman, mother of two boys, working two jobs and living in a run-down trailer we were attempting to renovate on land passed down through generations. Her joy for life, even as it is, was inspirational. If we're attentive, we'll realize that people like Vicky make a rich deposit into our accounts everyday. Suddenly we're no longer tired, just grateful. Amen."

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Ever present God, at the beginning of this week, apparently so busy that local newspapers are listing the lobby groups coming in to talk to the members on a daily basis. We pray that the Senators and staff will experience an inner quiet amidst the multitude of people and events that clamor for their attention. Filtering through all the voices, may they listen attentively for the lone, quiet voice that centers them, the voice of reason, guidance, justice, mercy and grace. That is your voice, O God. Then assured of your presence, may they go forth to all the tasks set before them with peace. Finally, we pray for Senator Stevens

June 1, 2009

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, June 2, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, it can happen anywhere, in one of the members’ office, at the church, in a restaurant. We encounter people who are out to ambush us. It's like encountering a dog that approaches with teeth bared and tail wagging. We just don't know which to believe. Jesus had to deal with these people throughout his life, too. I know that we are encouraged in such circumstances to offer a word of grace, but what we are really thinking is if I get to heaven and see one of these people there, Lord, I'm going to be very disappointed. Forgive us our trespasses. Amen."

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Stevens.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, a Rabbi once taught, 'In seeking wisdom, we are wise, but in imagining that we have attained that wisdom, we are foolish.' Some decisions we face are so complex they are difficult for us to understand and handle. Give us discretion as we weigh these issues. May we not act impulsively and then live to regret our decisions. Alternatively, may we not be afraid of standing against what is just expedient. Finally, O God, give us faith to commit our decisions to you for your glory and our good. Amen."

Upon motion of Senator Goodall, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Rouzer, the remarks of the members, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Goodall:

"Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the Senate. I am not sure I can add much to what was said nor speak to the eloquence that many spoke last July as North Carolina paid its final respects at Hayes Barton Baptist Church. What a passing as this does and should do is cause a period of reflection for those of us in public service about who we serve. Beyond the monumental impact Senator Helms had on America and the world, I think, for me, it is in the small personal stories constantly recounted that we realize how giant of a public servant he was. His personal commitment to constituent needs is legendary. His dedication to meeting students visiting Washington, D.C. is also legendary and his legacy will live on for years through the fine work of the people at the Jesse Helms Center in Union County. The Senator from my hometown of Monroe journeyed a long way from Union County yet he never really left in a sense. His roots were deeply planted in his southern small town values throughout his life of public service. Let me share a story I read describing his invitation to a U2 concert in 2001 by the band’s lead singer, Bono, who was lobbying legislators on one of his issues. The article said, ‘Seated down front at U2’s Elevation Tour concert in Washington, D.C. among the expected celebrities, supermodels and record company execs, there is a special guest of Bono, conservative North Carolina Senator Jesse Helms. The octogenarian was experiencing his first ever rock concert and was amazed. Jesse said people were moving back and forth like corn in the breeze but he also admitted turning off his hearing aid shortly after the show began!’ Finally, I think all of us in the Chamber recognize that we do not serve alone. Those close to us, our family and friends, also serve. They, however, do not receive the accolades and attention we do but they do share the burdens and sacrifices equally with us. I hope that Senator Helms’ family and close friends recognize that as we honor him, this honor is also bestowed upon you and we thank you for the years of support you gave Senator Helms. You sacrificed a large part of your personal life for the contributions Senator Helms gave to North Carolina, the United States, and, indeed, to the world. Thank you.”

June 9, 2009

Senator Hunt:

“It was my pleasure to grow up in Raleigh, North Carolina during the 50’s and Jesse Helms was on WRAL-TV doing commentaries, I think about every day and I believe I heard about every one of them. Typical of his later career, you had no problem understanding what Jesse was saying. He was very clear and unequivocal in everything he said. Jesse was a man of integrity, he was a man of patriotism, he was a man of compassion, he was a man of boldness, he was a man of enthusiasm, he was a man of wisdom, he was a man of honesty and even his political opponents, and they were many, had to agree that he exhibited those characteristics. I commend this resolution to you.”

Senator Weinstein:

“I’d like to share with you a Jesse Helms story and I’ll admit Senator Helms and I disagreed probably more than we agreed on various topics. In 1988, I was Mayor of Lumberton and I went to Washington with my wife and we went to see our Democratic representatives who mostly were too busy to see us. We were walking down the hall and we passed Senator Helms’ office and, sure enough, there was Jesse. He came out and, of course, being nice I introduced myself as Mayor Weinstein and this is my wife, Karen, and he knew we weren’t Republicans but he grabbed us and he said, ‘Come on in my office and let’s talk some.’ So we went into the office and you all who didn’t know my wife, Karen, she and Senator Helms hit it right off. They started talking and we talked. We were in there and he would not let us leave. We started to leave and he called a photographer to come into the office and he put my wife back of his desk, he stood by there and we had a photo session and finally I had to go to a meeting. We were in his office over an hour. That man took the time to talk to a little Democrat from Lumberton, North Carolina, who was not his supporter, who was just a North Carolina citizen. We were strangers and he took us in, I’ll put it that way. The next week when we got home, we received a package in the mail. It was a giant crystal with the United States Senate seal with a signature of Senator Jesse Helms saying how much he enjoyed our visit. The thing I have always heard about Jesse Helms was he took care of his constituents. They would call and he would answer them regardless of who they were and what their status in life was. Like I said, and I’ll repeat, he and I disagreed probably more than we did agree, but he was a man as everybody says, you knew where he stood. Thank you.”

Senator Brock:

“You know, I think about the times that I spent with my father going out campaigning and politicking back when I was little and one of my favorite pictures I have is Senator Helms and my Dad enjoying a good laugh and it made national publications. That same year he taught me a lesson that I carry today and a very important one. I was ten years old and I was getting off the school bus and Senator Helms was at the house and they were on their way out leaving and, of course, that was the 1984 campaign and anyone who is a political science major knows that there are books and books written about the Hunt-Helms race. I was walking off the school bus and walking up the driveway and the car was pulling out of the driveway and Senator Helms had stopped the car. He rolled down the window and wanted to see how my day was, see what I was learning in school, and take time to talk to me. Like Senator Weinstein, that meant a lot to a ten-year old boy that a person that you knew was more than a state figure, more than a national figure, somebody known throughout the free world, even those that were in captivity in Cuba knew him very well, as well, that he would take the time and effort to talk to some young kid. I think about that now when a school group or somebody or a school calls me. I always think about Senator Helms and try to live the life of a legislator that he would have. He set a great example with constituent service, standing by his ideals, being a great family man, and taking care of his people that he truly loved. He was truly a North Carolina treasure but he is greatly thought of throughout the free world. I commend the resolution.”

Senator Rouzer:

“This may in many ways be the most difficult speech I’ll ever give on the Senate floor. I have so much emotion and so many memories from my time and work with Senator Helms. I had two different stints with him, in total about seven years that I worked for him. He didn’t call us a staff, he called us the Helms Senate family, and indeed we were family. I very vividly recall, I guess about the second month I had been working with him, a fellow by the name of Jim Graham called. I handled Agriculture for Senator Helms and I had met Jim Graham a couple of times and, of course, Senator Helms served as the senior member on the Senate Ag Committee and they worked very, very closely together. Since I was the senior aide for agriculture issues I dealt a good little bit with Jim Graham and the first time he called me on the phone I do dare tell you I did not understand one word he said. The conversation went for about ten minutes and I thought to myself, well, do I tell the Commissioner that he needs to try again, I can’t understand what he’s saying or do I just continue on and say, yes sir, and move on with it. Well, I decided the latter was the most appropriate since I had just met the man and when I hung up the phone, I thought to myself, ‘Lord, David, you don’t know what you’ve committed yourself to nor do you have any idea what you just committed the Senator to.’ So I thought I’ve got to go in and tell the boss. As I mentioned before, I’d only been on board for about two months so I wasn’t quite sure how he was going to respond to this. So I went in and I asked the Senator if he had a moment. He said, ‘Sure.’ So I went on in and said I’ve got something I’ve got to tell you. He said, ‘Well, what’s that, son?’ I said ‘I just spent fifteen minutes on the phone with Jim Graham and I have no idea what he told me.’ The Senator looked at me and he said, ‘Was he talking like this?’ (unintelligible imitation), and I said, ‘Yes, Senator, how did you know?’ He said ‘Well, I’ve been saying yes to Jim Graham for more than thirty years and I still don’t know what I’ve committed myself to!’ The reason I share that story is he knew exactly how I felt when I walked through that door. He had a great way of putting himself in your shoes. There was another time when he buzzed me and you could always tell when he was buzzing you on the phone; there was just something about it when that buzzer would ring or that intercom would ring, there was no caller ID or anything, it would just ring but you could always tell there was a distinctive voice to signify to you that it was Helms. One day it buzzed and I hit the little intercom button and on the other end he said, ‘David, can you come back to see me a minute.’ Of course, I said, yes sir, Senator. I went back there and we were working on a letter to some tobacco companies at the time, trying to get them to purchase more U.S. leaf which was a continual battle and we got through with the letter and he looked at me and said, ‘David, I noticed that you’re not quite the same today; what’s going on?’ And so I shared it with him. And when I shared it with him, it was a fairly difficult situation I was going through, but when I shared it with him, there was a tear that welled up in his eye and when he cried, I cried. That’s the kind of man that Jesse Helms was. I don’t think there was anybody in public life who was more opposite of the way they were portrayed by the media than Jesse Helms. I remember times when we were on the Senate floor together and there were many of those where we’d go back to the hideaway and he’d be frustrated with how things were going on the floor and, of course, most of the time when I was with him we were dealing with a tobacco issue of some sort and, of course, tobacco’s not the most popular commodity in Washington, D.C. by any means, and certainly isn’t today. But we’d go back to the hideaway and after we had done the best we could he told me many times ‘I’ve been frustrated many a time on the Senate floor and I’d come back here to the hideaway and I’ll sit and I’ll pray and I’ll think about what can I do different.’ He said many a time I just look up and tell the Lord, ‘God, I don’t know what else to do.’ Then after a little bit a new idea would come and he’d go back on the Senate floor and try again. Those were remarkable moments that I shared with a great, great man. He was always a stickler for time. I remember any time you’d travel with him he’d always be looking at his watch. He’d even look at his watch in church. We both attended the same church, First Baptist in Alexandria, when I was there, and there was one Sunday in particular that the service went over about forty minutes and there was a new, young pastor who was filling in for the regular pastor there, and he kept holding the hymn open, you know, for folks to come down. Of course, nobody came down because we were all tired and wanted to get out of there. We walked out of the church building and this was about 12:40 and Helms looked at me and said, ‘Son, the boy has got to learn that you can’t save any souls after 12:00 Noon!’ I think that shows the practical, the pragmatic side of the Senator. He understood human nature very, very well. I remember I told him one time, we were dealing with an issue in the office and he always had some constituents who were easier to handle than others, and this one in particular, he was just adamant about this, that and the other, and I remember I got frustrated one time and I told the Senator, he’s just wrong, he’s just wrong. And he looked at me and said, ‘Son, let me tell you one thing about human nature, he’ll never admit it.’ I learned a lot from a great, great man. In closing I’m going to share an excerpt from the farewell speech that he gave on the Senate floor on Wednesday, October 2, 2002, and I remember that day because the members came and they came and they came, Republican and Democrat. In fact, they talked so long and so many of them came that Helms ended up saying just a few remarks and inserting the rest of his remarks into the Record. I want to read you a portion of what he said that day of what he had written to be included in the Record. He said, ‘As I approach the end of my five terms in the Senate, I realize that being remembered isn’t important. What is important is standing up for what you believe to be right, hoping that you have done everything you can to preserve the moral and spiritual principles that made America great in the first place. My father, rest his soul, was a good man who taught me many things. In my office there is an inscription of something that he told me many years ago. Son, he said, the Lord doesn’t expect you to win, he just expects you to try. With the remarkable Dot Helms at my side we have done our best to live up to my father’s admonition and while we are certainly not perfect and we certainly haven’t always had all the answers, we have the comfort of feeling that we have done the best we can. Nobody can claim to have had a better life or to be more blessed and honored by the people of North Carolina than Dot Helms and me.’ And speaking of Dot Helms who is in the gallery today with the family, she was the real conservative in the family. In fact, the Senator told me one time, he said, ‘You know where I get all my good ideas.’ I said, ‘no, where?’ He said, ‘Dot Helms.’ Dot, he loved you very, very dearly and his family, too. You know one of the things that really struck me about the Senator is when he retired he didn’t go buy a big mansion in Washington, D.C. and stay up there. He and Dot returned home to Caswell Street right around the corner here. He never forgot where he came from, he never forgot who he represented, and he did it extraordinarily well. I remember reading an editorial one time that said that Jesse Helms was a real tiger in a Chamber full of paper cutouts. Indeed, he was because of the courage of his convictions and so, Dot, and to the family, God bless you. We honor you and I commend this resolution to the Chamber today. Thank you.”

Senator Preston:

“I would like to share a short personal story that is an example of the constituent service that Senator Helms was so well known for. My late husband, John Preston, after retirement from the U. S. Army became a volunteer in Raleigh at the Congressional Club during the 70’s and spent many hours with Senator Helms and really came to have a great deal of love and respect for Senator Helms. In 1996 when John passed away, the day after his death Senator Helms called me at home. I picked up the phone, he was on the phone and didn’t have anybody doing it for him, and he spent at least thirty minutes reminiscing about the experiences he had with John and I could not believe that Senator Helms was spending this kind of time with John’s widow. But during the course of the conversation he said is there anything I can do for you. And I thought about it and I said that John had requested to be buried at Arlington National Cemetery and I was preparing to fill out an application to get that done because sometimes it took weeks to get on the calendar to be buried in Arlington. He said that’s not a problem let me do it for you. So within a week, we were scheduled for that interment in Arlington and I will forever and ever be grateful for that kindness that he showed to me. I would like to point out one of the guests in the gallery today. Judy, would you stand for me, please, if that’s permissible, Mr. President. Judy worked with Senator Helms in his Washington office and after a few years she decided to come back to Raleigh. I was advertising for a legislative assistant and I did not know Judy but she came into the office and we had a great deal of fun just talking about politics and she shared with me many, many, many experiences that she had with Senator Helms. Of course, I would not let her leave without hiring her on the spot. However, when he came back to Raleigh to settle in his Raleigh office, she said, I’m sorry, Jean, I’ve got to leave you, Senator Helms wants me back. But, Judy, thank you for those years of service with me, and thank you, family, for sharing Senator Helms with us all those years. Thank you.”

June 9, 2009

Senator Basnight:

“Members of the Senate, it was in my earlier years in politics that my community found itself in need of a rock jetty at Oregon Inlet. We had had little success with dredging that waterway and so we appealed to our government to build this rock jetty and it fell on deaf ears. The Democrats in power at the time felt like that would be a foolish attempt at controlling the currents and the water that came out of Oregon Inlet. Needless to say, these kinds of structures had worked well in waters around the world and in America all across our Country. But we did not prevail and so we had a meeting in Washington and I was asked to attend with our Congressional Delegation. As a side note, they asked a few of us to go see Senator Helms and I was sure I had been told that this Republican would not be helpful, that he would turn us down just as others had done. Well, not only did he not turn us down, he pushed full throttle ahead in the stormy conditions of that Inlet and through his time as Senator he would call Chad Wright and talk about Oregon Inlet and when I would have conversations with him, he wanted to know more than just about the rock jetty which he supported. He wanted to know about the people that worked on the boats, that made their living on the water and I believe he would cherish those conversations. He enjoyed learning about the people of North Carolina and we built a very firm and guiding relationship as it pertains to the needs of our people. When we would call his office about a constituent need he was always there. Now he and I disagreed as much as David said on much of the philosophy of the need of government and its purpose, he being much to the right of where I am. But, boy was he not true in his belief and his commitment to his Country and what he thought was right. Godspeed, Jesse, and his family. Thank you.”

POINTS OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Upon motion of Senator Atwater, the remarks of Senator McKissick, Lieutenant Governor Dalton, Senator Brown, and Senator Basnight are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator McKissick:
“I just wanted to bring to everyone’s attention that this past Thursday in Durham there was a wonderful, wonderful service honoring Dr. John Hope Franklin and his wife. Lieutenant Governor Dalton was there as well as many other dignitaries including Vernon Jordan, Civil Rights activist formerly of the Urban League, as well as President Clinton. I thought it was one of those services which you seldom see which brought together a vast array of people not only from North Carolina but from throughout the United States. I think President Clinton certainly honored him in a very fitting and appropriate manner and spoke of him as being a gentle but angry man at the same time due to his forcefulness and his ability to let those around him know the seriousness of his concerns and his discontent but doing it in a most dignified, gracious way with class at all times. I certainly wanted to bring that to your attention. It was a very fitting and appropriate tribute in his honor, I know, for those that were able to attend. I know Senator Blue, many other honorees and many other guests were there. It was a wonderful occasion.”

Lieutenant Governor Dalton:
“I will echo that it was a marvelous ceremony. I will correct you on one thing. It honored a marvelous couple. His wife was also honored and I think that was very fitting, also. He was a remarkable man.”

Senator Brown:
“This past Saturday in Jacksonville we had a dedication ceremony for our Vietnam Memorial. I would say that this Memorial would probably challenge any Vietnam Memorial anywhere in the Country except maybe in Washington. Retired General Ray Smith was our main speaker at the event and General Smith spent quite a bit of time in Vietnam during the war and he talked about some of those experiences. He mentioned that after he retired and later in life in 1999, he ran into a decorated Russian soldier, probably as decorated as he was, and he had a great conversation with him. This individual from Russia talked to him about how, during that conflict, the Russians were supporting the North Vietnamese and about how the Americans stood out in that fight to protect a Country that was just a small ally of the United States. But the main thing he talked about, General Smith said, was at that time Russia was really on the verge of invading Europe and he said that Russia felt like Germany wouldn’t be much of a challenge and that France wouldn’t be a challenge. They felt like they could march across Europe until they got to England and they felt like they could push England to the same point they were during World War II. He said what kept them from invading Europe at that time was the American presence in South Vietnam. He said that because we were so resilient to help protect that Country at that time that they never invaded Europe and that was something they were truly considering. He thanked the Vietnam vets for that ceremony because he truly felt that that war prevented a nuclear war from occurring at that time because of their thoughts of invading Europe. It was really an interesting speech from General Smith about what was going on in that time of our history and what could have happened. You know, we look at that war as a negative for most Americans, I think, but he turned it into the positive that it was at what could have happened if we hadn’t gone to Vietnam and helped fight for the South Vietnamese. It was very interesting.”

Senator Basnight:

“Mr. President, members of the Senate, today we honored a Marine, not so much for his service in the war, but that was certainly mentioned, but for his contributions to North Carolina and the gifts that he made. His name was David Stick, a noted author on the Outer Banks, and he came there early in life. He donated to our State the collection of art and prints and newspapers and the history of the coast of that region of North Carolina. It is the greatest collection of papers and publications and record-keeping of the old long-ago lifesaving service on the Outer Banks which later was to become the United States Coast Guard. He also collected papers and writings of the brothers from Ohio and the first maps that were drawn of America by an English artist, John White, and he was an explorer. That collection today is housed by the State of North Carolina in our History Center. It is worth millions of dollars and was when he gave it, but he was a very generous man who cared for all of us in this State. So today, at the Wright Brothers Memorial, there were great words spoken about David Stick. When we leave tonight, let’s give thoughts to all the veterans of all wars and the one that you attended, too, Harry. Certainly that would be spoken of to all Americans in conflict today.”

June 15, 2009
Upon motion of Senator Basnight, seconded by Senator Brown, the Senate adjourns at 7:57 P.M. to meet Tuesday, June 16, at 1:00 P.M.

EIGHTIETH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, June 16, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, we all can empathize with the traveler who entered a small town that had two hotels. After looking inquiringly around he asked a local, 'So which one is better?' The towns-person responded, 'Sir, no matter which one you choose, you'll wish you had gone to the other.' We all face similar dilemmas. The Members here face them everyday and sometimes, like in the story, there seem to be no good choices. That's why we start each session with prayer, trusting you, O God, to be a lamp unto our feet and light to our pathway. Help us to make good choices today. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Shaw and Senator Stevens.

Senator Dannelly, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Monday, June 15, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Marsha D. Ford from Charlotte, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Wanda Avetta from Aberdeen, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Eternal God, as the conferees from the Senate and House continue to work on a budget for our State, remind them that you are the source of all truth, and wisdom, and justice. Help them constantly to rest their decisions upon the foundations of your love and your presence. Often times in such a contrary, heated environment, we discover we're not always the persons we would like others to think we are. In fact, we realize we're not even the persons we would like to think of ourselves as being. Hear our confession and by your grace help us to live each day, not based on the expectation of others, but based on your expectations of us. In your holy name we pray. Amen."

_______

EIGHTY-FOURTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, June 23, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, I once prayed in the Senate that compromise is a good tent but a poor roof. That prayer must have resulted from a fleeting moment of idealism. The reality is that compromise is our business because we seek identical ends by different means and we need the knowledge and experience that differing views bring to the issues. But keep us, O God, from compromising with error. Deliver us from the pragmatism which defers to expediency and allows us to justify any means, however wrong, because we seek a good end. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Shaw and Senator Stevens.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Monday, June 22, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Keith H. Nelson from Greenville, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Christy Gee from Pisgah Forest, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

SENATE JOURNAL

EIGHTY-FIFTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, June 24, 2009

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, last Sunday, Eugene, came by the church for help. When he couldn't find me he helped himself by stealing a wallet from a 90-year old woman's purse. Thirty minutes later, after disposing of the wallet, he was found a few blocks away. The police arrested Eugene, handcuffed him and took him to jail. I thought about all the times Eugene had gotten free clothing and financial assistance from our church, only to betray my trust out of desperation. We all understand betrayal, but few of us know desperation. Admirably, the majority of those in desperate straights don't break the law; they work through their difficult times. I couldn't help but think, though, that if those of us who are so blessed understood desperation better, we would be better mentors to the Eugenes of the world. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Dorsett, Senator Hartsell, Senator Shaw, and Senator Stevens.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Tuesday, June 23, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Carol Taylor from Raleigh, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.
