In accordance with law, as set forth in the Constitution of the State of North Carolina and G.S. 120-11.1, the Senate of the General Assembly of North Carolina assembles this day at the hour of 12:00 p.m. in the Senate Chamber in the Legislative Building in the City of Raleigh.

"O God, on this significant day for our North Carolina Senators, their families, their staffs and we the people of this great State, I echo the words of the hymn writer Martin Luther, 'A mighty fortress is our God, a bulwark never failing.' Please be a fortress and bulwark for our Senators and our State. I echo the words of the hymn writer Isaac Watts, 'O God our help in ages past our hope for years to come.' Please be a help and hope for our Senators and our State. I echo the words of the Psalmist who spoke of you drawing him out of a desolate pit and mire bog, setting his feet upon a rock and making his steps secure. God, through the leadership and tough decision-making of these our Senators, please set the feet of our State on a rock and make our steps into the future secure, Amen."

January 26, 2011
OATH OF OFFICE

The President of the Senate recognizes The Honorable Sarah E. Parker, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, who administers the following Oath of Office, to which those present respond and subscribe:

“I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will support the Constitution and laws of the United States, and I do solemnly and sincerely swear or affirm that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina, and to the constitutional powers and authorities which are or may be established for the government thereof; and that I will endeavor to support, maintain, and defend the Constitution and laws of said State, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, to the best of my knowledge and ability; and I do solemnly and sincerely swear or affirm that I will faithfully discharge the duties of my office as a member of the Senate of the 2011 General Assembly of the State of North Carolina to the best of my knowledge and ability, so help me, God.”

ORGANIZATION OF THE SENATE

The President announces that the Senate stands ready to proceed with the election of officers and declares the floor open for nominations for President Pro Tempore of the Senate, pursuant to Article II, Section 14(1) of the North Carolina Constitution.

The President recognizes Senator Apodaca who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“I rise today to do something that was only a dream for many of us over the past ten to one hundred twenty to one hundred thirty years. I rise to nominate a Republican for the President Pro Tempore of the Senate. As I was thinking about remarks, one thing that came to mind was, as you look around Senator Berger and you see some of the most beautiful grandchildren anyone could ever want to have, it’s hard to believe they came from him. But then, behind him, you see his beautiful wife and you see where that comes from. In all seriousness, as you know, children are our future. We have unprecedented times before us, and we have tough decisions to make. I really cannot think of anybody else I would rather see lead the North Carolina State Senate. So with that, he told me to keep it brief, I gladly nominate Senator Phil Berger for the President Pro Tempore of the North Carolina State Senate.”

The President recognizes Senator Brown who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I rise to second the nomination of Senator Phil Berger to be President Pro Tempore of the Senate and I also move that the nominations for President Pro Tempore be closed and that Senator Phil Berger be elected by acclamation.”

January 26, 2011
A motion offered by Senator Brown that the nominations be closed and that Senator Philip E. Berger be elected President Pro Tempore by acclamation prevails.

The President declares Senator Philip E. Berger duly elected President Pro Tempore and appoints Senator Harrington, Senator Nesbitt, Senator McKissick, Senator Stein, Senator Stevens and Senator Clary to escort the President Pro Tempore-elect to the well of the Senate. Senator Stevens presents Senator Philip E. Berger to the President. The Honorable Paul M. Newby, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, administers the prescribed Oath of Office.

The President recognizes Senator Philip E. Berger, President Pro Tempore, who addresses the Senate from the well of the Senate and offers the following remarks:

“Thank you, ladies and gentlemen, for the warm welcome and thank you to my colleagues for selecting me as President Pro Tempore of the North Carolina Senate. Thank you, Lieutenant Governor Dalton, for your kind words of introduction. I would also like to, although you’ve already seen them a couple of times, just recognize and thank my family -- my wife, Pat, my children and grandchildren, and my two wonderful daughters-in-law, for being here and all the support they’ve given me. Also, I would like to thank our Supreme Court Chief Justice, Sarah Parker; Supreme Court Associate Justice, Paul Newby; Court of Appeals Judge, Ann Marie Calabria; Superior Court Judge, Ola Lewis; my Senate colleagues; Hogan Medlin; and the Junior Army ROTC Color Guard from John Motley Morehead High School in Eden, North Carolina. I also want to give a special thank you to Senator Marc Basnight for the assistance and guidance that he, his Chief of Staff, Amy Fulk, and the rest of his team provided during the transition process. Actions speak volumes and Senator Basnight’s actions are appreciated more than he will ever know. I am humbled and honored to stand before you today. This is a historic moment for this body and our State. But this is just a moment. History will judge us based on the substance of this session -- not this moment. North Carolina is suffering the effects of a national recession. Policy choices made over the last twenty years have deepened the recession in North Carolina. The result is that our principal order of business this session is to eliminate a $3.7 billion budget deficit. This is our primary task if we expect to see private sector job growth resume in our State. Our population is growing, but job creation in North Carolina is not keeping pace. From 2000 to 2009, North Carolina’s workforce increased by nearly 330,000 workers. Yet during the same time period, our State’s economy added only 13,806 jobs. We must do all in our power to change this trend. That means first and foremost improving North Carolina’s business climate, the costs associated with the set of regulations that must be followed, the fees and taxes that must be paid, and the government red tape that must be cut in order for private business to turn a profit. Business cannot grow if it cannot profit and if it cannot grow, it will not add jobs. Balancing the State’s budget and reducing government costs to families and business is how we can most effectively create jobs in North Carolina. It is time for a different philosophy in State government, one that will return North Carolina to its rightful place as the Southeast’s leader in job creation, education, transportation, and quality of life. Just as working families and small businesses have to make difficult decisions and tighten their belts to make ends meet, we, as a state, will also have to tighten our belt to put our financial house in order. State government and state employees will have to do more with less as we work to right-size state government. It’s not going to be easy, but streamlining state government will pay dividends in the long run.
Today is a new day for North Carolina with a new vision for our State’s future.
We will lead North Carolina on a path of smaller, smarter, more efficient government. We will reduce spending, balance our budget, and reform North Carolina’s regulatory environment to make our State a better place to live, to work, to raise a family, and to start and grow a business. We will implement common-sense tort and medical malpractice reforms. We will lift the cap on charter schools and support our State’s education and job skills training programs to better prepare our students and workforce for today’s economy.
Senate members of both parties understand the great responsibility the voters have placed on our shoulders by electing us to this body. To date, we are encouraged that Governor Perdue, knowing the magnitude of the challenges that lie ahead and having demonstrated a willingness to work in a bipartisan fashion to address our State’s problems, will continue to be our partner as we take steps to move North Carolina forward. We must work together to bring about real, positive, and lasting change. We, Republicans and Democrats, all know our constituents expect us to provide common-sense solutions to address the fiscal and other problems we face. Today, we see the hallmarks of all new beginnings, optimism, expectation of opportunity, and confidence for a better quality of life for all North Carolinians. We are excited and energized at what the future will bring and stand ready to address the challenges at hand. To the people of this great State, we thank you for your support and for the opportunity to serve.
Thank you very much.”

In the event of the absence of the President and President Pro Tempore at any time fixed for the reconvening of the Senate, the Senate shall be called to order by a member designated by the President Pro Tempore, or if no member is designated, by the Deputy President Pro Tempore of the Senate. In the absence of the Parliamentarian, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate shall act as Parliamentarian.

January 26, 2011
RULE 10. Points of order. – (a) The Presiding Officer shall preserve order and decorum and proceed with the business of the Senate according to the rules adopted. The Presiding Officer shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Parliamentarian, whose decision may be appealed to the Senate by any member, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once unless by leave of the Senate. A two-thirds vote of the membership of the Senate present and voting is necessary to sustain any appeal from the ruling of the Parliamentarian.

(b) In the event the Senate Rules do not provide for or cover any point of order raised by any Senator, the rules of the United States House of Representatives shall govern.

(c) When a Senator is called to order, that Senator shall take the assigned seat until the Presiding Officer determines whether that Senator was in order or not; if decided to be out of order, that Senator shall not proceed without the permission of the Senate; and every question of order shall be decided by the Presiding Officer, subject to an appeal to the Parliamentarian, whose decision may be appealed to the Senate by any Senator; and if a Senator is called to order for words spoken, the words to which an exception is made shall be immediately preserved by the Principal Clerk, so that the Presiding Officer, Parliamentarian, or Senate may be better able to judge the matter.

RULE 11. Debating and voting by Lieutenant Governor. – The Lieutenant Governor, as President of the Senate, being a Constitutional Officer, shall not have the right to debate any question or to address the Senate upon any proposition unless by permission of the majority of members present and shall have the right to vote only when there is a tie vote upon any question or election.

RULE 12. Obtaining recognition. – (a) When any Senator is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the Senate, that Senator shall rise and respectfully address the Presiding Officer. No member shall speak further until recognized by the Presiding Officer. The Presiding Officer shall recognize the first to rise and, when two or more members rise at the same time, the Presiding Officer shall name the member to speak, giving priority to the President Pro Tempore, the Deputy President Pro Tempore, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, or the Parliamentarian.

(b) A Senator who has the floor may yield the floor to another Senator only for the purpose of allowing another Senator to state a question. Only the Presiding Officer may award the floor to any Senator.

(c) A Senator who has obtained the floor may be interrupted only for the following reasons:
   (1) A request that the member speaking yield for a question;
   (2) A point of order; or
   (3) A parliamentary inquiry.

(d) When a Senator refers to a bill, the bill number and short title must be used.

RULE 13. (Reserved for future use).

RULE 14. Limitations on individual debate. – (a) No Senator shall speak on the same reading more than twice on the main question, nor longer than 30 minutes for the first speech and 15 minutes for the second speech. No Senator shall speak on the same reading more than once on any motion or appeal, and then no longer than 10 minutes.

(b) With leave of the Senate, any member of the Senate may address the Senate from the well of the Senate.

RULE 15. Questions of personal privilege; explanation of vote.

(a) Upon recognition by the Presiding Officer for that purpose, any Senator may speak to a question of personal privilege for a time not exceeding three minutes. Personal privilege may not be used to explain a vote, debate a bill, or in any way disrupt the regular business of the Senate. Personal privilege shall not be used to solicit support or sponsors for any bill. The Presiding Officer shall determine if the question raised is one of privilege and shall, without the point of order being raised, enforce this rule, subject to an appeal to the Parliamentarian, whose decision may be appealed to the Senate by any Senator, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once unless by leave of the Senate. A two-thirds vote of the membership of the Senate present and voting is necessary to sustain any appeal from the ruling of the Parliamentarian.

(b) Any Senator may explain that Senator's vote on any bill that day by obtaining permission of the Presiding Officer after the final vote is taken. No more than three minutes shall be consumed in such explanation.

(c) Questions of personal privilege and explanations of vote shall be the last orders of the Senate's business that day.

RULE 16. (Reserved for future use).

RULE 17. General decorum.

(a) Male Senators and male visitors shall not wear any head covering in the Senate Chamber while the Senate is in session, unless one's religion requires his head to be covered. All persons on the Senate floor while the Senate is in session shall be dressed in business attire, including coat and tie for men.

(b) No derogatory remark reflecting personally upon any Senator shall be in order upon the floor of the Senate unless preceded by a motion or resolution of censure.

(c) When the Presiding Officer is putting a question, or a division by counting is in progress, no Senator shall walk out of or across the Chamber, nor when a Senator is speaking, pass between that Senator and the Presiding Officer.

No motion to substitute shall be offered to a motion to substitute.

RULE 23. Motion for previous question. – (a) The previous question may be moved upon a pending single motion, any pending amendment or amendments, and/or the pending bill to its passage on that reading or all readings or the pending resolution to its adoption. An authorized Senator moving the previous question shall specify to what the motion applies. Unless specified, the motion shall be deemed to apply to the current question.

(b) The previous question shall be as follows: “Shall the main question be now put?” and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments and debate. If this question is decided in the affirmative, the “main question” shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution, or other matter under consideration; but when amendments are pending, the question shall be taken upon such amendments in their inverse order, without further debate or amendment.

(c) Only one of the following Senators may move the previous question:

IV. VOTING

RULE 25. Use of electronic voting system. – (a) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system, and the ayes and noes shall be recorded on the Journal:

1. All questions on which the Constitution of North Carolina requires that the ayes and noes be taken and recorded on the Journal;
2. All questions on which a call for the ayes and noes under Rule 26(b) has been sustained;
3. Second and third readings of bills proposing amendment of the Constitution of North Carolina; and
4. The vote on approval of a bill that was vetoed by the Governor.

(b) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system, and the resulting totals shall be recorded on the Journal:

1. Second reading of all public bills, all amendments to public bills offered after second reading, third reading if a public bill was amended after second reading, and all conference reports on public bills.
2. Any other question upon direction of the Presiding Officer or upon motion of any Senator supported by one-fifth of the Senators present.

(c) When the electronic voting system is used, the Presiding Officer shall fix and announce the time, not to exceed one minute, which shall be allowed for voting on the question before the Senate. The system shall be set to lock automatically and to record the vote when that time has expired. Once the system has locked and recorded a vote, the vote shall be printed by the system.

(d) The voting station at each Senator's desk in the Chamber shall be used only by the Senator to whom the station is assigned. Under no circumstances shall any other person vote at a Senator's station. It is a breach of the ethical obligation of a Senator either to request that another vote at the requesting Senator's station or to vote at another Senator's station. The Presiding Officer shall enforce this rule without exception.

(e) When the electronic voting system is used, the Presiding Officer shall state the question and shall then state substantially the following: "All in favor vote 'aye'; all opposed vote 'no'; ______ seconds will be allowed for voting on this question; the Clerk will record the vote." After the machine locks and records the vote, the Presiding Officer shall announce the vote and declare the result, and no member may vote thereafter.

(f) One copy of the machine printout of the vote record shall be filed in the Office of the Principal Clerk, and one copy shall be filed in the Legislative Library where it shall be open to public inspection.

(g) When the Presiding Officer ascertains that the electronic voting system is inoperative before a vote is taken or while a vote is being taken on the electronic system, the Presiding Officer shall announce that fact to the Senate, and any partial electronic system voting record shall be voided. In such a case, if the Constitution of North Carolina or the Rules of the Senate require a call of the ayes and noes, the Clerk shall call the roll of the Senate, and the ayes and noes shall be taken manually and shall be recorded on the Journal. All other votes shall be taken as prescribed in Senate Rule 26. If, after a vote is taken on the electronic system, it is discovered that a malfunction caused an error in the electronic system printout, the Presiding Officer shall direct the Reading Clerk and the Principal Clerk to verify and correct the printout record and so advise the Senate.

(h) For the purpose of identifying motions on which the vote is taken on the electronic system (the identification codes having no relation to the order of precedence of motions), the motions are coded as follows:

1. To lay on the table.
2. To resolve into the Committee of the Whole Senate.
3. For the previous question.
4. To postpone indefinitely.
5. To postpone to a day certain.
6. To refer to a committee.
7. To reconsider.
8. To adopt.
9. To concur.
10. To take from the table.
11. Miscellaneous.

RULE 26. Voice votes; call for division; call for ayes and noes.

- (a) When the electronic voting system is not used, all votes on which a call of the roll of the Senate is not required shall be taken by voice vote. The question shall be put as follows: "Those in favor say 'aye'," and, after the affirmative vote is expressed, "Opposed 'no';" after which the Presiding Officer shall announce the result. If a division on any vote is desired, it must be called for immediately before the result of the voting is announced on any question, and, upon such call, the Presiding Officer shall require the members to stand and be counted for and against the proposition under consideration.

- (b) The ayes and the noes may be called for on any question before the vote is taken. If a Senator desires the ayes and noes recorded on the Journal on a question, that Senator shall address the Presiding Officer and obtain recognition and say, "Upon that question I call for the ayes and noes." Whereupon the Presiding Officer shall say, "Is the call sustained?" If one-fifth of the remaining Senators present then stand, the vote shall be taken on the electronic voting system if it is operative, and the ayes and noes shall be recorded on the Journal. If the electronic voting system is inoperative, the roll of the Senate shall be called and the ayes and noes taken manually and recorded on the Journal. If fewer than one-fifth of the Senators present stand to sustain the call, the Presiding Officer shall announce, "An insufficient number up," and a vote by electronic voting or by voice, whichever is appropriate under the Rules of the Senate, shall be taken.

January 26, 2011
RULE 27. (Reserved for future use).

RULE 28. Dividing question. – (a) If a bill is subject to division into separate parts so that each part states a separate and distinct proposition capable of standing alone, a Senator may move that the question be divided. The motion shall:

1. Be in writing,
2. Be submitted to the Principal Clerk at the time the motion is made, and
3. Clearly state how the question is to be divided.

Upon a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, the motion shall be adopted.

(b) If the motion to divide the question is adopted, then there shall be no further amendment or debate on any of the distinct propositions.

(c) If the question is divided and any part thereof fails, then the bill or resolution and any pending amendments shall be removed from the calendar and re-referred to the committee from which the bill or resolution was reported.

(d) Only one motion to divide the question shall be in order during consideration of a bill or resolution.

RULE 29. Duty to vote; excuses. – (a) Every Senator who is within the Senate Chamber when the question is stated by the Presiding Officer shall vote thereon unless that Senator is excused by the Senate.

(b) A Senator who is a member of a committee shall, upon request, be excused from deliberations and voting on the bill while it is before the committee. The Senator must make the request to the chair of the committee when the bill is first taken up for consideration and before any motion or vote on the bill or any amendment to the bill. The Senator making the request for excuse in committee must renew that request for excuse on the floor of the Senate as set forth in this rule.

(c) Any Senator may move to be excused at any time from voting on any matter. The Senator may make a brief statement of the reasons for the motion which question shall be taken without debate on the motion.

(d) The Senator may send forward to the Principal Clerk, on a form provided by the Clerk, a concise statement of the reason for the motion, and the Clerk shall include this statement in the Journal.

(e) The Senator so excused shall not debate the bill or any amendment to the bill, vote on the bill, offer or vote on any amendment to the bill, or offer or vote on any motion concerning the bill at that reading, any subsequent reading, or any subsequent consideration of the bill.

(f) A Senator may move that the excuse of that Senator from deliberations on a particular bill be withdrawn, which question shall be determined without debate.

(g) A motion to be excused or for the withdrawal of an excuse shall be taken without debate.

(h) A motion by any Senator to change that Senator’s vote must be made on the same legislative day as the vote is taken. This subsection may not be suspended.

No bill, resolution, or amendment for which a fiscal note has been requested may be considered for passage prior to the fiscal note's being attached to it.

(b) The fiscal note shall be filed and attached to the bill, resolution, or amendment within two legislative days of the request. The actuarial note shall be attached to the jacket of each proposed bill or resolution that is reported favorably by any committee and shall be clearly designated as an actuarial note. If, after careful investigation, it is determined that no dollar estimate is possible, the note shall contain a statement to that effect, setting forth the reasons why no dollar estimate can be given. No comment or opinion shall be included in the actuarial note with regard to the merits of the measure for which the note is prepared. Technical and mechanical defects in the measure may be noted.

(e) When any committee reports a measure to which an actuarial note is attached at the time of committee consideration, with any amendment of such nature as would substantially affect the cost to or the revenues of any system, the chair of the committee reporting the measure shall obtain from the Fiscal Research Division and the administrator of the affected system an actuarial note of the fiscal and actuarial effect of the proposed amendment. The actuarial note shall be attached to the jacket of the measure. A described in this rule are not apparent from the language of the measure. No bill, report shall not constitute any part of the expression of legislative intent proposed by the formation of a licensing board.

Upon receipt of the request, the Legislative Committee on New Licensing Boards shall prepare and return the assessment report as soon as possible but not later than 60 days from the date of receipt of the request, Incorporations, established by Article 20 of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes.

The recommendation of the Joint Legislative Commission on Municipal Incorporations shall be made in accordance with the provisions and criteria set forth in Article 20 of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes and shall include the findings required to be made by G.S. 120-166 through G.S. 120-170.

RULE 42.3A. Proposed increases in incarceration. – (a) Every bill, amendment, and resolution proposing any change in the law that could cause a net increase in the length of time for which persons are incarcerated or the number of persons incarcerated, whether by increasing penalties for violating existing laws, by criminalizing behavior, or by any other means, shall have attached to it at the time of its consideration by the Senate a fiscal note prepared by the Fiscal Research Division. The fiscal note shall be prepared in consultation with the Sentencing Policy and Advisory Commission and shall identify and estimate, for the first five fiscal years the proposed change would be in effect, all costs of the proposed net increase in incarceration, including capital outlay costs if the legislation would require increased cell space. If, after careful investigation, the Fiscal Research Division determines that no dollar estimate is possible, the note shall contain a statement to that effect, setting forth the reasons why no dollar estimate can be given. No comment or opinion shall be included in the fiscal note with regard to the merits of the measure for which the note is prepared. However, technical and mechanical defects may be noted.

(b) The sponsor of each bill, amendment, or resolution to which this subsection applies shall present a copy of the bill, amendment, or resolution with the request for a fiscal note to the Fiscal Research Division. Upon receipt of the request and the copy of the bill, amendment, or resolution, the Fiscal Research Division shall prepare the fiscal note as promptly as possible. The Fiscal Research Division shall prepare the fiscal note and transmit it to the sponsor within two weeks after the request is made, unless the sponsor agrees to an extension of time.

(c) This fiscal note shall be attached to the original of each proposed bill, amendment, or resolution that is reported favorably by any committee, but shall be separate from the bill, amendment, or resolution and shall be clearly designated as a fiscal note. A fiscal note attached to a bill, amendment, or resolution pursuant to this subsection is not a part of the bill, amendment, or resolution and is not an expression of legislative intent proposed by the bill, amendment, or resolution.

(d) If a committee reports favorably a proposed bill or resolution with an amendment that proposes a change in the law that could cause a net increase in the length of time for which persons are incarcerated or the number of persons incarcerated, whether by increasing penalties for violating existing laws, by criminalizing behavior, or by any other means, the chair of the committee shall obtain from the Fiscal Research Division and attach to the amended bill or resolution a fiscal note as provided in this section.

RULE 42.4. Content of appropriations bills. – (a) No provision changing existing law shall be contained in any of the following bills: (i) the Current Operations Appropriations Bill; (ii) the Capital Improvement Appropriations Bill; (iii) any bill generally revising appropriations for the second fiscal year of a biennium.

January 26, 2011
(b) No amendment to any bill listed in subsection (a) of this rule shall be in order if the language is prohibited by that subsection.

(c) Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b) of this section, any of the bills listed in subsection (a) of this section or an amendment to such bill may change existing law if the change:

   (1) Alters expenditures or salaries;

   (2) Changes the scope or character of a program which must be reduced, increased, or changed because of an increase or decrease of funds appropriated for the program or because of changes in federal law or regulation; or

   (3) Modifies any function of State government which necessitates a transfer of funds from one department to another; provided, that for a provision to be in order under this subsection, it must be recommended to the General Assembly in a written report adopted by the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee before or at the same time the bill is reported, or, if such provision is contained in a floor amendment, the sponsor of the amendment must present to the Principal Clerk at or before the time the amendment is offered an explanation of the amendment for distribution to each member of the Senate.

RULE 42.5. Appropriations/Base Budget Committee meetings.

– The Appropriations/Base Budget Co-chairs may in their exclusive discretion direct that the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee or its subcommittees or both may consider the budget and the budget plan including all appropriations in separate meetings from the House of Representatives and may do all things set forth in said statute separately from the House of Representatives.

RULE 43. First reading; reference to committee.

– All bills filed for introduction and all House bills received in the Office of the Principal Clerk not later than one and one-half hours preceding the convening of the Senate, upon presentation to the Senate, shall be read in regular order of business by their number and title which shall constitute the first reading of the bill. The Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate or, in the Chair's absence, the Vice-Chair of the Committee, or the President Pro Tempore may refer to a Senate committee all bills introduced in the Senate or received from the House of Representatives. Upon the referral being made, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate shall notify the Principal Clerk of the referral, and the Reading Clerk shall announce the referral. The title and referral shall be entered upon the Journal.

Bills may be referred to more than one committee serially: e.g., “S.B. _________ is referred to the Committee on Finance and upon a favorable report referred to the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee.”

RULE 44. Bills to receive three readings.

– Every bill shall receive three readings before being passed, and the Presiding Officer shall give notice at each reading whether it be the first, second, or third. The Reading Clerk shall announce the referral as set forth in Rule 43. No bill shall be amended upon the floor of the Senate, except under Rule 45.1, until it has been twice read. Senate simple resolutions shall not require three readings.

RULE 45. Reports of committees. – Every Senator presenting a report of a committee shall endorse the report with the name of the committee.
The report of the committee shall show that a quorum of the committee was present and a majority of those present voted in favor of the report. Every report of the committee upon a bill or resolution shall stand upon the general orders with the bill or resolution. No committee shall report a bill or resolution without prejudice.

RULE 45.1. Action on amendment or committee substitute. – If any committee recommends adoption of an amendment or committee substitute of a bill or resolution, the amendment or committee substitute shall be considered adopted upon the reading of the committee report and shall be engrossed. Unless a committee substitute of a bill or resolution being considered by a committee is distributed to members of that committee no later than the day prior to the committee meeting, the committee substitute shall be carried over to the next day unless a majority of the members of that committee present and voting to take up the measure at that time. The bill or resolution, as amended, or its adopted committee substitute shall be placed on the calendar for the next legislative day or re-referred if the bill or resolution was serially referred. The committee substitute's original bill or resolution shall lie on the table.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this rule, a committee substitute for a simple resolution shall be placed on the calendar for the next legislative day for a vote on its adoption.

RULE 46. Unfavorable report by committee. – All bills reported unfavorably by the committee to which they were referred shall lie upon the table but may be taken from the table and placed upon the calendar by a two-thirds vote of the membership of the Senate present and voting.

RULE 47. Recall of bill from committee and discharge petition.
– (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, only the President Pro Tempore, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, or the chair of a committee to which a bill or other matter is assigned may, with the consent of a majority of the membership of the Senate present and voting, recall the measure to be referred to another committee or the floor.

(b) A motion to discharge a committee from consideration of a bill or resolution may be filed with the Principal Clerk if accompanied by a petition signed by two-thirds of the members of the Senate asking that the committee be discharged from further consideration of the bill or resolution. No petition may be circulated for signatures until 10 legislative days after the bill has been referred to the committee. No petition may be circulated for signature until notice has been given on the floor of the Senate that the petition is to be circulated. If such a motion accompanied by a valid petition is filed, the Principal Clerk shall place that motion on the calendar for the next legislative day as a special order of business. If the motion is adopted by two-thirds of the members of the Senate, then the committee to which the bill or resolution has been referred is discharged from further consideration of the bill or resolution, and that bill or resolution is placed on the calendar for the next legislative day as a special order of business. If the committee had, prior to discharge, adopted any amendment or committee substitute for the bill, it shall be in order to offer that amendment or substitute on the floor as if it were a committee amendment or substitute. The Principal Clerk shall provide a form for discharge petitions.

January 26, 2011

(c) This rule shall not be temporarily suspended.

RULE 48. calendar; order to be followed. – The Presiding Officer and the Principal Clerk of the Senate shall see that all bills are acted upon by the Senate in the order in which they stand upon the calendar, unless otherwise ordered as hereinafter provided. The published calendar shall include all bills reported favorably from committees, or placed on the calendar on motion, and shall include the bill number and short title of each bill on the calendar.

RULE 49. (Reserved for future use).

RULE 50. Third reading requirements. – No bill on its third reading shall be acted upon out of the regular order in which it stands on the calendar, and no bill shall be acted upon on its third reading the same day on which it passed its second reading, unless so ordered by two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting.

RULE 51. Special orders. – Any bill or other matter in consideration before the Senate may be made a special order for a subsequent day or hour by a vote of the majority of the Senators voting, and if action on the bill is not completed on that day, it shall be returned to its place on the calendar, unless it is made a special order for another day; and when a special order is under consideration it shall take precedence over any special order or subsequent order for the day, but such subsequent order may be taken up immediately after the previous special order has been disposed of.

RULE 52. Procedure when necessary number of Senators not present. – If, on taking the question on a bill, it appears that a constitutional quorum is not present, or if the bill requires a vote of a certain proportion of all the Senators to pass it, and it appears that such number is not present, the bill shall be again read and the question taken thereon; if the bill fails a second time for the want of the necessary number being present and voting, the bill shall not be finally lost but shall be returned to the calendar in its proper order.

RULE 53. Effect of defeated measure. – (a) After a bill has been tabled, or has failed to pass on any of its readings, the contents of such bill or the principal provisions of its subject matter shall not be embodied in any other measure. After an amendment has been tabled or defeated on the Senate floor, the contents of such amendment or the principal provisions of its subject matter shall not be embodied in any other measure. If a substitute amendment is adopted on the floor, the contents of the previously pending amendment which are not contained in the substitute shall be considered to have been defeated. Upon the point of order being raised and sustained by the Presiding Officer, such measure shall be laid upon the table and shall not be taken therefrom except by a vote of two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting: Provided, no local bill shall be held by the Presiding Officer as embodying the provisions of, or being identical with, any statewide measure which has been laid upon the table or failed to pass any of its readings.

(b) When a bill has been postponed indefinitely by the Senate, the bill shall lie upon the table and shall not be taken therefrom except by a vote of two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting.

RULE 54. Taking bill from table. – No bill which has been laid upon the table shall be taken therefrom except by a vote of two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting.

RULE 54.1. Bill title. – The title of each bill shall adequately and fairly reflect its subject matter.

RULE 55. Amending titles of bills. – When a bill is materially modified or the scope of its application extended or decreased, or if the county or counties to which it applies is changed, the title of the bill shall be changed by the Senator introducing the bill or by the committee having it in charge, or by the Principal Clerk, so as to indicate the full purport of the bill as amended and the county or counties to which it applies.

RULE 56. Corrections of typographical errors in bills. – The Enrolling Clerk is authorized to make corrections of typographical errors in the text of bills at any time prior to ratification. Before the correction is made, the Enrolling Clerk shall have the approval of the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate or, in the Chair's absence, the Vice-Chair of said Committee, the President Pro Tempore, or the Deputy President Pro Tempore.

RULE 56.1. Amendments and committee substitutes adopted by the House to bills originating in the Senate. – (a) Whenever the House has adopted an amendment or a committee substitute for a bill originating in the Senate, and has returned the bill to the Senate for concurrence in that amendment or committee substitute, the Senate may not concur in that amendment or committee substitute until the next legislative day following the day on which the Senate receives that measure.

(b) The Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, (or in that Chair's absence the President Pro Tempore) may, or upon motion supported by a majority of the Senate present and voting shall, refer the bill to an appropriate committee for consideration of the amendment or committee substitute.

(c) The Presiding Officer shall, in placing the bill on the calendar, rule whether the amendment or committee substitute is a material amendment under Article II, Section 23, of the State's Constitution. If the measure is referred to committee, the committee shall:

(1) Report the bill with the recommendation either that the Senate do concur or that the Senate do not concur; and

(2) Advise the Presiding Officer as to whether or not the amendment or committee substitute is a material amendment under Article II, Section 23, of the State's Constitution.

January 26, 2011
(d) If the amendment or committee substitute for a bill is not a material amendment, the question before the Senate shall be concurrence. In the event there is more than one House amendment, the question shall be concurrence in all the House amendments, and the question may not be divided, notwithstanding Rule 28. The question which shall be put before the Senate by the Presiding Officer shall be: "Does the Senate concur in the House amendments (committee substitute) to S.B.____?".

(e) If the amendment or committee substitute for a bill is a material amendment, the receiving of that bill on messages shall constitute first reading, and the question before the Senate shall be concurrence on second reading. If the motion is passed, the question then shall be concurrence on third reading on the next legislative day.

(f) No committee substitute adopted by the House to a bill originating in the Senate may be amended by the Senate.

RULE 57. Conference committee. – The President Pro Tempore of the Senate, or in the President Pro Tempore's absence, the Deputy President Pro Tempore, upon motion, shall appoint a conference committee when the Senate fails to concur in amendments or committee substitutes put by the House to a bill originating in the Senate, or when the House of Representatives fails to concur in amendments or committee substitutes put by the Senate to a bill originating in the House. Senate conferees shall include the primary sponsor of the bill. In considering the bill committed to the conferees, only such matters as are germane to the bill shall be considered by the conferees, and the conference report shall deal only with such matters. The matters referred to the conference committee by the conference committee chairs shall go to and be considered by the conferees appointed by the Senate and the House of Representatives. While the bill is in conference committee, the Senate's position shall be determined by a majority of the Senate conferees. Upon agreement by the Senate and House of Representatives, a conference report shall be drafted reflecting the matters considered and agreed upon by the conferees. The conference report shall not be amended.

RULE 57.1. Germaneness of amendment or committee substitute. – All amendments and committee substitutes shall be germane to the subject matter of the original bill. The question of germaneness is in order at any time the measure is before the body prior to final action on the measure.

RULE 58. Certification of passage of bills. – The Principal Clerk shall certify the passage of bills by the Senate, with the date thereof, together with the fact whether passed by vote of three-fifths or two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting, whenever such vote may be required by the Constitution or laws of the State.

ELECTION OF OFFICER ESTABLISHED BY THE SENATE RULES

Pursuant to Senate Rule 65, the President declares the floor open to receive nominations for Deputy President Pro Tempore and recognizes Senator Hunt who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Ladies and gentlemen, I rise to nominate Senator Jim Forrester to be Deputy President Pro Tempore. Senator Forrester has an unbelievable resume. Senator Forrester is not only a State Senator, he is a medical doctor, he’s a retired General in the Military, he’s even been knighted by the Country of Portugal. The only thing I could find in his resume that he has not done is he is not a golf pro, but his father was. Senator Forrester has been in the Senate for twenty-one years and he has been Republican Whip, Republican Deputy Leader, Republican Senate Leader, Republican Joint Caucus Leader and all during those years he represented his values. These values include lower taxes, smaller and efficient government, less regulation, private sector job promotion, individual liberties as well as individual responsibilities and traditional family values. So it is my pleasure to nominate Senator Jim Forrester as Deputy President Pro Tempore.”

The Chair recognizes Senator Tillman who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

January 26, 2011
“I rise to second the nomination for Jim Forrester as Deputy President Pro Tempore of the Senate and I also move that the nominations for Deputy President Pro Tempore of the Senate be closed and we elect Senator Forrester Deputy President Pro Tempore by acclamation.”

A motion offered by Senator Tillman that the nominations be closed and that Senator Forrester be elected Deputy President Pro Tempore by acclamation prevails.

The President declares Senator Jim Forrester duly elected Deputy President Pro Tempore and appoints Senator Rucho, Senator Allran, Senator Hartsell, and Senator Harrington to escort the Deputy President Pro Tempore-elect to the well of the Senate. Senator Rucho presents Senator Forrester to the President. The Honorable Ann Marie Calabria, Judge, North Carolina Court of Appeals, administers the prescribed Oath of Office.

The President recognizes Senator Forrester, Deputy President Pro Tempore, who offers the following remarks:

“Thank you, Mr. President, President Pro Tempore, and distinguished members of the Judiciary, visitors and guests and fellow members of the Senate. I thank my wife for being here today and my grandson, James Summers Forrester III, and my son, James Summers Forrester, a doctor. He is here somewhere with his wife, as well. I will keep my comments brief. Thank you for your vote of confidence in the dawn of a new age in the history of the North Carolina Senate under the capable leadership of Senator Phil Berger. For the first time in over one hundred years, the Senate will be led by another party. Yes, I am excited to be a part of that. I’m looking forward to open debate, which I think we started this morning, and transparency in our legislature and rules that will give every Senator the opportunity to represent their constituents and I can assure you there will be a fair and legal redistricting process under the leadership of Senator Bob Rucho. I hope all of us will put partisanship in a proper perspective and concentrate on good public policy that serves the best interests of the people of North Carolina. Representative John Boehner, Speaker of the United States House of Representative, said it well when he said, ‘It is not as much a time for celebration as it is for humility and hard work.’ With our fragile economy, job creation in the private sector, not the government sector, is a priority we all face as we face this almost four billion dollar shortfall. We will be charged to meet the needs of our citizens with fewer resources. But these challenging times can present new opportunities and can create new jobs in industries, but we must all work together. I hope Governor Perdue gives us some major savings recommendations in a few weeks when she presents to us her budget. I hope it will include a consolidation of government functions, elimination of duplicate services, elimination of State Boards that have little value, and a hiring freeze on all State government employees. We cannot tax and spend our way into economic recovery. It is times as these that remind me when I first came to the United States. Born in Scotland, I came over with my mother on the ship, SS John Ericsson. I was ten years old, wearing my kilt, as we passed the Statue of Liberty going to Ellis Island where thousands of us immigrants came to this Country to be citizens. Then I went on to Wilmington where my uncle sponsored us and that’s how I ended up in North Carolina. As I passed the Statue of Liberty, my mother was standing on the deck of the ship holding my hand and she said to me, ‘Son, this is America. This is your new home. Soon you will be a naturalized citizen of this great Country and you can do anything and you can succeed in America if you try hard enough. But always remember to thank those that helped you. Reach down and help someone else and always give back to your community, to your State, and to your Nation more than you have received.’ I have tried to do that in the community as a physician for over forty years. I’ve treated thousands of patients and delivered hundreds of babies for fifty dollars, would you believe. As far as the federal government, I served almost thirty-five years in the United States Air Force and the Air National Guard. I’ve been all over the world. I was in air evacuations, a command flight surgeon bringing patients back out of Vietnam, wounded Marines and soldiers, to Japan and to the United States. In the community, I have served like many of you have, eight years as a County Commissioner and now over twenty years in the North Carolina Senate. During my tenure in the Senate, I’ve served alongside a few outstanding members, Democrats and Republicans, who served their constituents with distinguished achievement and are no longer with us. I want to honor their memory here today and pay tribute to their service at this time. They are Jeanne Lucas from Durham County, Vernon Malone from Wake County, Jim Richardson from Mecklenburg County, Ham Horton from Forsyth County, Tina Little from Moore County, Robert Holloman from Hertford County, Russell Walker from Randolph County, Marvin Ward from Forsyth County, and Jim Speed from Franklin County. Their legislative footprints are well marked throughout this hall. Today, as we begin this new era in North Carolina, let us remember that good government requires a lot of hard work and a lot of cooperation and a lot of us all working together for the betterment of all the citizens of this State. I am personally looking forward to working with every one of you. May God bless you, each one, may God bless the great State of North Carolina and may God bless America. Thank you.”

January 26, 2011

ELECTION OF STATUTORY OFFICERS

Pursuant to G.S. 120.37, the President declares the floor open to receive nominations for the Office of Principal Clerk.

The President recognizes Senator Stevens who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, those of you who have been here and worked here before know the quality work of our current clerk, Janet Pruitt, and the professionalism that she and her staff have brought to that position working with all of us, both parties, in all of her time here. The first time I met her about eight years ago, she said something that I’ve never forgotten. She said the Senate of North Carolina is like your family. You have good times or bad times, births, deaths, weddings. You experience that as a family and I’ve thought about that many, many times and I’ve thought of the people Senator Forrester just mentioned and those members of our family who passed on. She has done an outstanding job and, Mr. President, I recommend and now nominate her to continue as our Principal Clerk.”

The President recognizes Senator Brown who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

He was born in Mississippi, moved to Michigan and from there he got his education at the University and then he became an employee with Ralston Purina. I used to know them as a feed company, but he was in the fast food business of that division and then he moved to California, spent several years there and then he got wise and came to North Carolina and especially Pinehurst. I got to know Mr. Settle about ten years ago and I can say that we today are going to appoint as our Reading Clerk a first-class citizen. I’m sure we will all be proud of his work in the Senate and I am here to recommend him to be our Reading Clerk.”

The President recognizes Senator Hise who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I rise to second the nomination of Lee Settle for the position of Reading Clerk and I also move that the nominations for Reading Clerk be closed and that Lee Settle be elected by acclamation.”

The motion offered by Senator Hise that the nominations be closed and that Lee Settle be elected Reading Clerk of the 2011 Senate by acclamation prevails.

The President declares the floor open to receive nominations for the Office of Sergeant-at-Arms. The President recognizes Senator Rabon who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I rise to nominate Philip King III as Sergeant-at-Arms of this body. Philip was a Captain in the United States Navy, a Navy Seal, and a member of the Federal Bureau of Investigation where he led and saw several high profile cases. It is with great pleasure that I make this nomination.”

REMARKS BY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

The President of the Senate, The Honorable Walter Dalton, offers the following remarks:

“Members of the Senate and guests in the gallery, I know you are happy to know that these proceedings are soon drawing to an end, but I do want to take this opportunity to congratulate Senator Berger on his historic election as the President Pro Tempore of the Senate. As I said two years ago and as I say today, I have great respect for Senator Berger. I look forward to working with him in the coming months. Also, I want to congratulate all of the leaders elected by the respective caucuses, particularly Senator Brown, the Majority Leader, and Senator Nesbitt, the Minority Leader. You both have tremendous experience and leadership ability as shown by the faith and trust placed in you.

by your peers. While we have a challenging session ahead, I know you will represent your positions well. But even more, I know at the end of the day you will work in a positive and respectful fashion for the betterment of the people of North Carolina. I would also like to pause a moment and salute Senator Marc Basnight who is not present today, but his presence will be missed. On behalf of the people of our State, we are grateful for his many years of service in the Senate. His term of office was unprecedented but that is secondary, I think, to the accomplishments which were achieved. It was Marc who had the vision to create the Clean Water Management Trust Fund that has funded many water and sewer projects across the State. That’s the foundation of economic development. It also helped preserve the beauty of this State which is so critical to our tourist industry. It was Marc who drove the University and Community College bond bill at the turn of the century that prepared our campuses for the twenty-first century and set North Carolina apart as a leader in higher education, research, and innovation. And finally, his successful effort to fund cancer research has made North Carolina a world leader. I was with Dr. Victor Dzau just a few weeks ago before a group of about five hundred. Victor is the head of Duke Health System. He applauded what this General Assembly did in that vision. He said with that appropriation and what Duke is doing in other research campuses in North Carolina, he felt that North Carolina would become the epicenter of cancer research in this Country. That will lead to a better economy but more importantly, it will save lives within our borders and outside our borders. To all of you who have been elected, you are going to be assessed every two years by the voters, but I will say to you that you will truly be judged by future generations. I think that Senator Basnight’s contributions to North Carolina will be judged in a most favorable light and children not yet born will benefit from his vision. So again, I say thank you to him and congratulations on his engagement. To you new members, I want to congratulate you. Your constituents have given you their most prized possession. They have given you their trust and I know you will never abuse that trust. As President of the Senate, it will be my job to preside over this body to ensure fair and open debate and to enforce the rules that you, as Senators, have instituted. I pledge to you that I will continue to do just that without regard to party or ideology. With that said, I was elected to this office to represent all nine and a half million North Carolinians. They are my constituents and I will speak out on their behalf. I will not participate in Senate debate. That is not my role in this Chamber, but I will add my voice to the debate outside of these walls. I would like to take a moment just to tell you what I am hearing from those constituents as I travel across the State. As you know, they are frustrated with these difficult times. They want opportunity to work and to provide for their families. They have been calling for a ‘change’ but given the swings in recent elections in the last four years, they are not sure how that change is to be defined. The people I talk to in Greenville, Senators Jenkins and Pate, or Winston-Salem, Senator Brustetter and Senator Garrou, want us ‘to do the right thing.’ Whether they are Republican or Democrat, their wants are similar. They want good jobs, they want better schools, they want better roads, and they want lower taxes. To some degree those needs are sometimes diametrically opposed or at least in competition with one another, but as a voter they have that right and privilege. They do not have to make it balance--you do. They understand deep that tough decisions will have to be made and perhaps some of those will not be to their liking. But they have put their trust in you to do the right thing. I believe the right thing will be that which provides an opportunity for people to succeed and to build a better life and to build a better future just as Senator Forrester said a while ago. I believe in a bubble-up economy where people have the opportunity to compete. It's not competition when one team walks on the field with the best uniforms and the best coaching and the other team walks on the field barefooted and they don't know the rules. But, Coach Tillman, you know when you equip both teams to play the game they both get better. That's how you drive a stronger economy. In real terms that would lead to a stronger economy. In today's world, the equipment for success is a good education. In North Carolina, we are fortunate to have a heritage of providing those opportunities. The nascent act of the General Assembly in this State when we became a State was to create the first public university in this Nation. Now there were great colleges at that time, Princeton, Harvard, Yale, William & Mary, all great private institutions, but to go there you had to be 'landed gentry,' another way to state that is you had to be rich. But North Carolina had the vision that if you had the desire, the ability, and the talent, then you should have the opportunity to better yourself. It is a great heritage that has reaped great benefits for our State and which also inspired the vision to create what is probably the best community college system in our Nation. Even in the toughest times, North Carolina has stood tall for education. During the Great Depression, there was one state in the Union that kept its public schools open. That was North Carolina because no future economy will be a good economy without the tools to compete and again, those are rooted in education. We all know it has been a tough time. Federal trade policies have encouraged companies to go offshore. Federal credit policies and oversight have led to distress. A national recession has resulted but this is not the first time our Nation has encountered hardship. Look at the last one hundred years. We saw the Great Depression, World War I, World War II, Korea, Vietnam, The Gulf War, and other conflicts and recessions. Yet, during that time, we saw the advent of the automobile, the invention of the airplane. We landed a man on the moon; we invented the computer and the internet and amazing medical discoveries that led to a better quality of life. Despite hardships, generally, our path through history has been one of progress, and if you look at history, new economies have followed new inventions and cutting edge research. That's why our State's investments in things like photonics, Senator Rucho, at the University of Charlotte, the storage of information through the use of light, are so important to the financial industry, the medical industry, and the insurance industry. Research in gerontology, biofuels, regenerative medicine, and cancer has positioned North Carolina well to lead out of this recession if we do the right thing. Many people say they want change but there are certain things I do not think the people do want to change. They want us to continue to have the best public university system in the Nation and they want us to continue to have the best community college system in the Nation. They are proud to be in a state that has been rated numerous times by Forbes and Site Selection and others as one of the best states in which to live, work, retire, do business, or start a small business. People want to live here and we’ve obviously been doing something right because our enormous population growth has added an extra burden to our state budget. We must also remember that the problems we face, which are faced by other states, are caused by a national recession. We must remember that we cannot and should not unilaterally disarm when it comes to aggressively attracting new employers, especially ones with skilled, good-paying jobs. We are not only competing with South Carolina and Virginia, we are competing with China and India. I would put our work force up against anyone anywhere, but we have to keep creating good jobs to fill. Now more than ever, we need every tool at our disposal. We must be wise stewards of our taxpayer dollars and maintain our Triple-A bond rating and look for every efficiency in government. But please remember that state employees constitute about seventy percent of the budget and the demand for services has been increasing. School enrollment is up. People need to be retrained for new jobs. People who never thought they would need governmental services are now in line for those services and they are grateful for the safety net that is there. It will be hard work. Roy Williams, in the foreword of his book entitled Hard Work, comments, ‘We should not be pushed by our problems but we should be led by our dreams.’ I agree and, as a State, we must have the long-term health of this State and our future as a guiding star. North Carolina is a great State and you have been entrusted with its future. Difficult days are ahead, but opportunities do exist. Again, I ask that we conduct the debate with respect and dignity and that we remember that the judgment of our actions will be in the years to come and that we must have a sound, strong, and lasting foundation upon which that future can rest. While we may differ in philosophy, I will forecast to you that the greatest debates will occur within your respective caucuses. In the end, we must strive for an accord and a plan that responsibly bridges the shortfalls of a recession that is ending without doing harm to the foundation of a future that offers great promise to our citizens. Now, I apologize for speaking at such length and I know celebratory events are at hand as your constituents and your families and friends honor you on this day. So, I conclude by again congratulating each and every one of you and I wish you Gods speed in your endeavors and that He grant you the wisdom to do the right thing for the citizens and the future of North Carolina.”

Upon motion of Senator Phil Berger, seconded by Senator Apodaca, the Senate adjourns at 2:06 p.m. to meet Thursday, January 27, at 11:00 a.m.
SECOND DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, January 27, 2011

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Lord, we are thankful today because you have brought us to this place. Thank you for bringing us here to this Chamber to do your will and to bless this State and to listen for your voice. You have been our dwelling place in all generations before the mountains were brought forth or even before you formed us in our mothers' wombs. From everlasting to everlasting, you are God. You return us to dust for a thousand years in your sight or as watch in the night. It is by your steadfast love that you have sustained us and drawn us from the pit. Lord Jesus, we are grateful that you have given us this State and this fine group of humble servants. Prepare them in mind and heart to do their public duty. We ask you to give them clean hands and pure hearts, to serve you and your people. Equip them to give and to make our State a better place for the glory of your name. Give them peace of soul when their thoughts and plans are right and disturb them when they drift from what's best. Lead them in the paths of righteousness and truth. In the words of the prophet Micah, 'May they do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with you their God.' Lord be their shelter and their refuge. We pray these things in the name of Jesus. Amen."

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Preston.

Senator Phil Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, January 26, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Stacy Thomson from Greensboro, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

STATE-OF-THE-STATE ADDRESS

“Good evening. Thank you, Lieutenant Governor Dalton, and good evening to all of you. Thank you, Speaker Tillis, President Pro Tem Berger and all of you here, ladies and gentlemen of the General Assembly, members of the Cabinet and Council of State. Thank you for coming. To our distinguished members of the judiciary and honored guests and all of our fellow North

February 14, 2011
Carolinians around the State tonight, it is my privilege to be here with you tonight. I am joined by some very special people in my life and I would like to introduce them. My husband, Bob Eaves, North Carolina’s First Gentleman, and my sons and their wives, Garrett and April, and Emmett and Sarah. Now before I begin, I’ve been told all day that many of you in this room have been blaming me for destroying your Valentine’s Day for your significant other or whomever it might be. This speech doesn’t last all night and I’m sure you can still find flowers or candy or a good restaurant somewhere tonight and so just don’t blame me. I know that I have made life difficult for legislators before, but tonight I am not your excuse. This is my second opportunity to speak to you about the state of our State. Tonight finds us in a very different place than two years ago. Two years ago we stood at the precipice of economic disaster. The stock market was in tatters, construction in North Carolina had come to a screeching halt, business profits were down and companies were closing their doors. Workers were losing their jobs and families were losing their homes. We literally stood on a cliff, the very edge of that cliff, and when we looked over we saw the potential collapse of the very foundations on which we have built the North Carolina I love today. We saw deficits and foreclosures; we saw unemployment and we saw bankruptcy. It was enough to make the best and strongest turn and just give up. But, my friends, we in North Carolina did not give up. We North Carolinians looked over that edge and we did not flinch. Instead, we began systematically one day at a time to overcome whatever the global recession threw at us. We squared up and put the bat to our shoulder and we swung hard. Two years later, North Carolina is winning at that game and the nation, my friends, is noticing. We have garnered national acclaim as leading the way out of the recession and creating a business climate that is the envy of every other state in America. We are in the top ten states to improve our unemployment record. Our rate has dropped by nearly one-and-a-half points since last February. Businesses are now investing in North Carolina, building new facilities, expanding their existing plants and putting our people to work. We have announced more than 300 new projects. Companies we all know, Red Hat, Caterpillar and Electrolux and on and on, and some companies we are getting to know like NS Aviation in Winston-Salem or Tasz in Caldwell County. Businesses have pledged to create 58,000 jobs and they are investing 12.5 billion dollars into the Tar Heel State and our people. We are moving forward. In a twenty-four month period, we have faced down a collective 5.5 billion dollar deficit in this state's budget and we have made tough decisions. We’ve cut services, saving more than half a billion dollars. We’ve furloughed workers, saving 60 million dollars. We’ve frozen salaries and closed programs, saving a combined 350 million dollars, cuts that saved us hundreds of millions of dollars. In spite of these tremendous financial challenges, North Carolina, our State, stands tonight with a balanced budget, one of only eight states in America to maintain our Triple-A bond rating, and we’re recognized by Site Selection magazine, Forbes, USA Today and others around the Country as either the very best place to live, to work and to play or one of the best States. That’s North Carolina I’m talking about. But there is much work still to be done, and there are many North Carolinians still hurting but they are still fighting. We all know someone, all of us do; a spouse, a neighbor or a friend who is out of work who is continuing to look. As long as this is true, our work here in this body is not finished. But North Carolina, my friends, is moving forward. You can take it to the bank. We are not afraid to change in this State, to adapt to a new economic reality. And as I've said before over and over, all of us have to manage for results. That means resetting the way we do things. It's more than just making those hard decisions about where to cut the budget and what jobs to eliminate. It's more than just repositioning our resources or shuffling things around or simply moving chairs on the deck. It's about real, significant, and sustainable change, resetting state government to work in this new reality that we find ourselves in and to work for the people who call this State home. North Carolina looks very different today than she looked two years ago. We've welcomed more than 400,000 new people into this State. Our public schools continue to grow to meet the demands of a new North Carolina. We've enrolled more than 5,000 new students over the last two years. And our business recruitment strategies have been renewed with an eye on global, high-tech economies where North Carolina is no longer competing simply with Georgia, Virginia, or South Carolina, but today we compete with China and India and countries around the globe. The budget that I will deliver to you later this week is 2.2 billion dollars less than the budget I inherited in 2009. It spends 11 percent less per capita and it sheds thousands and thousands of state positions. Never before in history has North Carolina better lived the phrase "doing more with less" and we have to continue to do more. North Carolina must be agile and responsive to our citizens, less bureaucratic as we focus our limited resources on our core missions which are jobs and education. I've called upon the General Assembly to act where I am unable to. I've sent over 345 boards and commissions for your review. I've asked you to eliminate those that don't clearly benefit our businesses or our people. I submitted more than 900 state regulations that are outdated and confusing. It's the first wave of the results of the Regulatory Review that I began three months ago. Eliminate those 900 now and get ready because there are hundreds more that I will be sending to you in the coming weeks. Later this week, I will present to you a budget that consolidates 14 state agencies into 8. That privatizes some services. That continues the hiring freeze and halted pay raises in all but critical jobs areas. We are going to offer an early retirement package in this budget to those who qualify shedding as many as a thousand workers. So we will not just make government smaller, we will make it more efficient, more capable of serving the 9.5 million people who call this great State home. We have embraced public and private partnerships and new technology, not as a substitute for our own ingenuity, but as a way to enhance what we do. Cops on our street are using new databases and radio networks. Probation officers now communicate with the entire justice system to better protect us and themselves. Medicaid officials are using new software to hunt down fraud, saving money and helping catch those bad actors who are trying to scam our system. We are also providing a 21st century education imbedded with technology, more career and academic choices for students of all ages. We've established a new level of accountability for our teachers and our administrators. Today, 46,000 high school students are taking courses, probably as we speak tonight, from the North Carolina Virtual High School. Teachers are using handheld computers all over the State to determine what a child needs to know so the child can get the help needed before he or she falls so far behind they’ll never be able to catch up. It makes such good common sense. A year ago I asked this General Assembly and folks across North Carolina to join me in our Career and College Ready Set Go initiative. We challenged educators at all levels, from kindergarten through community colleges and the universities, to focus on one single goal - to prepare all of our students to graduate ready for a career, college or technical training. North Carolina accepted that challenge with gusto. Leaders from throughout the education community and beyond joined together to make Career College Ready Set Go the standard for public schools all across the State. Then, as North Carolina so often does, we took it a step further. Using Ready Set Go as our foundation, we applied for federal Race to the Top dollars, and we won. We won because we are not afraid to think differently and to demand more from our students and our educators. We were recognized nationally. We are one of 12 states in America that won this contest. Career and College Ready Set Go won us 400 million dollars. That’s funds to help our kids and teacher do better and now North Carolina sits on the spot of states to watch across America as we transform our public education system. So we are resetting state government, and we’re resetting education. And we are also resetting the way we go after businesses and the jobs that they bring North Carolina. Last summer, a company called Clearwater Paper was looking for a site for a new manufacturing and distribution center. They looked everywhere. When they came to North Carolina, they found a business climate where clusters of 21st Century industries thrived. They talked to us about the green business, companies that are tied to our vibrant military bases, about the innovative start-ups that are all over the state, the next generation of SAS or Quintiles. They saw local and state governments that are willing to work together and don’t care who gets the credit. They found flexible recruiting tools like the One North Carolina Fund. Last June, after considering more than 100 different sites in several states across America, Clearwater Paper decided, like so many other companies have decided, that North Carolina is the state for their business and workers. They are investing 260 million dollars to set up shop in Shelby and over five years, they are going to employ about 250 people. Gordon Jones, the company’s Chairman and CEO, explained his decision in choosing North Carolina to me this way. He said, ‘It was a critical combination of four things: reasonable taxes, good highways, an available quality workforce and a very good working relationship with city, county and state agencies. Put them together and that made North Carolina the right choice for us.’ Mr. Jones is here with us tonight in the gallery. Would you please stand up, Gordon. Let’s welcome you and Clearwater to North Carolina. Now Clearwater and its 250 jobs could have gone anywhere. So could Plastek, which is bringing 250 new jobs to Hamlet and that’s a huge deal in a town of only 6,000 people. They all seemed to pick North Carolina because we use every tool in our toolbox to convince companies that the Tar Heel State deserves our reputation as the best place in the Nation to do business. Let me be very clear tonight, that includes our use of business incentives. Tonight, I propose giving North Carolina one more tool to attract new jobs and to grow jobs here in existing small businesses - tax relief for corporations and for small businesses. Right now, we have, in North Carolina, the highest corporate tax rate in the southeast. That means our businesses are paying more taxes when they could be creating jobs. That's a strike against us from day one as we work to convince businesses that North Carolina is the best value for them and their company. Businesses look at more than the bottom line, but the bottom line is the big difference maker in a company's decision to relocate. So in this budget we will continue to fund our business incentives for job growth and job recruitment and I am asking the General Assembly to lower North Carolina’s corporate tax rate to 4.9 percent. That will make us, North Carolina, the lowest in the southeast and one of the lowest in the Nation. This change will push our State to the forefront in growing jobs for our people and that, my friends, must be the number one priority for every one of us in this Chamber tonight. I also understand clearly that existing small businesses are the core of our State’s economy. That's why I worked with the North Carolina Rural Center to develop the Capital Access Program. Now the Capital Access Program is the very first in the Nation to put federal Treasury funds into the hands of small business owners who are desperate out there to find capital in loans. With 46 million dollars in federal money, North Carolina can leverage up to 800 million dollars in loans from banks all over this State. Those loans will be used to grow businesses and create jobs. Everywhere I have gone for the last two years, this is the number one worry I have heard from small business owners or from companies who are desperate and hungry to start up. They say to me, ‘I can't find capital.’ Well, now you can in North Carolina. My job creation package will be more robust than ever before, investing in incentives to support small businesses and green companies. We will provide tax breaks for companies like LSG Printing here in Raleigh. Let me tell you a little bit about LSG Printing and Wayne Branch. Mr. Branch started his company ten years ago. He had two employees and he shared an 800-square-foot space with another printer. He carved out a niche. He printed plans and technical documents for architects and engineers and his business began to grow. But then the recession hit and construction just went to the bottom. Wayne adapted his business in the spirit of reinvention that we know so well here in North Carolina. He started providing green projects, producing electronic documents instead of using paper. He started selling copy equipment and those giant signs that wrap around trucks and buses. And he ventured into web design. Wayne now has 36 employees, a 14,000 square-foot printing plant and a satellite office in Greensboro. Wayne is in the gallery tonight. We welcome you and would you please stand up so we can say congratulations on having that North Carolina spirit. And we know we also want to draw outside money into our State, but, more importantly, we also want to keep North Carolina dollars and jobs here. So I have expanded our North Carolina Business Preference to include information technology purchases, making sure that more North Carolina tax dollars go to North Carolina-owned businesses. A year ago we used an Executive Order to create the North Carolina Business Preference. It gives our own home-grown companies the opportunity to match the low bids for state government contracts. That means we keep those North Carolina tax dollars here and we keep our citizens working. That's just plain ol' good North Carolina common sense. These days our economy is increasingly driven by knowledge instead of muscle, so as the State transforms, government must adapt. It's the only way to continue our progress. We are writing our own story of North Carolina as we continue to create the promise of tomorrow for our children and grandchildren. Friends, we in North Carolina know how to do this. This is not the first time that our State has been challenged by adversity, nor the first time North Carolinians have had our resolve tested. We were the first state, in America to call for independence before the American Revolution. The Nation's very first public university sits in North Carolina. North Carolinians transformed a Greensboro lunch counter into a beacon for the Civil Rights movement. We turned a plot of undeveloped pine forest into the world-renowned Research Triangle Park. Tar Heel families give our sons and our daughters to the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, the Marines, the Coast Guard, and the National Guard. We cry together when they are wounded or when they give their lives for America and we rejoice together when they come home. Through it all, we declare ourselves in this State, declare ourselves our North Carolina, the most military-friendly state in America. We are the people who refuse to turn backwards. That's just not in our bloodstream. We have the ambition to conquer tomorrow, all of us in this room and across this State. Generation after generation, North Carolinians have risen to meet the challenge and they've overcome what many other states, especially states in the South, have never been able to get right. Decade after decade, in this State, our leaders, from both parties, from the public and private sectors, have consciously chosen to do whatever it takes to ensure that North Carolina is the most progressive state in the South and in America. I'm talking about Governors Hunt and Sanford, Martin and Holshouser - visionaries who knew how to focus on what sets North Carolina apart. They were never afraid to reinvent, to innovate, or change the game. They never ran away from tough choices or necessary investments to protect what's core to us as a people, education. Last year I had the privilege to visit China on a trip to recruit new businesses and to develop our economic relationships with North Carolina's second largest trading partner, China. It was my first time in the Country, and I'll tell you, I wasn't fully prepared for what I saw or how I felt when I came back home. I went into classrooms where children were studying concepts far in advance of American children of similar ages. They seem to demand more work out of their kids. They require much more involvement from parents. They expect no less than excellence from their teachers and their parents and their schools. Education in China is a major part of the reason that their workers are now global competitors. Make no mistake, my friends, they are North Carolina's competition and they have learned from our successes. Brian Crump of Catawba County knows what I mean. Let me tell you a little bit about Brian tonight. China changed his life too, but in a very different way. Brian was a high school football player. He got decent grades; he graduated high school and he went to work in a furniture factory shortly after he graduated high school. He got married and they have three beautiful kids. Life was great for Brian and his family. Then the factories started laying off workers or they started closing. You saw the influx of the Chinese imports coming into our Country and State, competing with American products. Six years ago, Brian lost his job. He was angry. He'd worked hard and he had built a good life as a factory worker. He didn't know how to do anything else. But he had a family at home to support and couldn't take time to feel sorry for himself. Brian made a choice that so many North Carolinians have made throughout this recession. Brian decided he had to reinvent himself. He turned to Catawba Valley Community College and he started training for a job that had always called out to him, but a job he had never actually dreamed would be possible for him, being a paramedic. It wasn't an easy choice. After a year in school, Brian's finances were short. He fell behind on his mortgage and at one point he even had to sell his truck to make ends meet. He said to me: ‘I was in shambles.’ But Brian did something else. We North Carolinians are known for - what got us our nickname as the Tar Heel state - he stuck with it. He slogged through that second year, and today, Brian Crump is a paramedic for Catawba County EMS. Brian took a hard time and an economic challenge, and turned it into an opportunity to change his life and his family’s life. Brian is here with us tonight. Brian, will you and your family please stand up? This is who we are in North Carolina. We have an unmatched capacity to persevere. We grow stronger with adversity. The fires of the recession have forged a new North Carolina, one where we never, ever lose faith in our possibilities. So many of those possibilities point directly back to education. Brian Crump had access to a stellar community college system that could help him retool and retrain. He took advantage of that resource and took a life that was turned upside down and righted it. There are thousands and thousands and thousands of North Carolinians out there right now who are looking for that same kind of turnaround. Others are looking for a start. While we’ve seen North Carolina’s high school graduation rate increase to 74 percent. That simply is not good enough to reach our North Carolina's goal for EVERY child to graduate high school ready for a career, college or technical training - how many of those students drop out of high school because they see no way to ever be somebody? They never have big dreams. How many give up because they don't understand the value of a high school education or because they never dreamed about career training or college because they didn't think they could afford it? Tonight I am following through with a promise I made to North Carolina more than two years ago, a College promise. Except tonight I am rebranding it as North Carolina's Career and College Promise. By consolidating existing programs and nurturing partnerships between high schools and our community college system, career training and a college degree will be more affordable to our students than ever before. In the budget I will submit to you, any high school junior who signs up at school for the Career and College Promise - who meets certain criteria while maintaining high academic standards will be eligible to earn a two-year college career or college degree at no cost. The students of the Career and College Promise will have a new reason to stay in school - because for what may be the first time for many of them or for their families they will have a clear, attainable path to success. They will have the ambition to conquer tomorrow. You know they will be the workforce we depend on to propel our futures. These students will be the workers who fill our 21st Century industries and workplaces. The North Carolina Career and College Promise will set them on the path to a career or college degree. But we can never forget that real education begins in the early years, long before a child reaches high school. Every single child in this state must have the very best education we can muster. Every single child has a right under North Carolina's constitution to a basic, quality, sound public education, no matter where he or she lives. I go in and out of schools all across North Carolina and I meet many, many marvelous teachers and principals. Teachers like Jennifer Facciolini, of Midway High School in Newton Grove. Jennifer is North Carolina's teacher of the year and she is here with us tonight. Jennifer, will you please stand up. Now, we wish every classroom in this State had a teacher like Jennifer. But the truth is, teaching positions have been lost during this recession. There are schools all over the State that are failing our children and there are teachers and administrators failing to meet the standards of excellence that we need and demand from them. My friends, this is unacceptable. The budget I submit to you will fund every current state-supported teacher and teaching assistant position. We will demand that all teachers and administrators meet our standards of excellence or we will replace them. Now is not the time to let our children fall behind. We have to act decisively and we must act now to ensure all children in every single school system get the sound, basic education they must have to compete in the workforce of tomorrow. And it's good for us because it keeps North Carolina competitive. I urge the General Assembly to join me in making critical decisions about how we invest our State's resources. The leaders in this room tonight have a decision to make. You can invest in our students or cross your fingers and hope for the best. We all understand this state is facing a 2.4 billion dollar deficit. The cuts have already begun, and so has the debate over where to cut more and more and more. I have made deep and painful cuts and I want you to know that I will listen to any suggestion for cutting waste, for finding savings and stretching our limited resources. But there is one thing I will not do - I will not sacrifice our children's future. We cannot eliminate teachers, whose job it is to build that future and the future of this great State. You know how I love history and I read a lot of history and if you read the history of North Carolina you know that no governor or legislature in our history has ever walked away from that core responsibility, and I refuse to be the first. Tonight, you have heard me talk about what makes North Carolina great. You have heard me praise the leaders that came before us, who made conscious choices to invest in our children and their future and you heard me talk about my priorities of creating jobs and educating our children and transforming state government. Hear me now. I will not back down from those priorities. I will not play partisan politics and I will reach across the aisle day after day to find compromise. I will sacrifice some of my goals if it means protecting our children's education and growing new jobs for our people and for this state. I challenge you to do the same, for our people, for our state, and for our children. We in North Carolina can never forget what those leaders before us knew so well. The story of North Carolina is still being written and this chapter belongs to us. Someday, when our children learn of our present struggle and the choices we made - when they read the history of this moment - they will turn the page and learn that in this great State, we, like our forbears, refused to betray our future just to soothe the sting of our present need. They will learn that through our faith in each other and in God, we were undaunted. Join me in this endeavor so when that day comes, our children can proudly recall our fierce ambition for their tomorrows. God bless you and God bless the great State of North Carolina."

February 14, 2011

Lord, we often shy away from wrestling with tough issues. Even more, Lord, we shy away from wrestling with you. We hear of Jacob wrestling with you, and it actually encourages us because we are all human. Whether it is the health of our own moms, our friend in the hospital, or the health of this State, Lord, we come to you because we know we are not just wrestling as men and women. You are in our midst, El Ohim, turning water into wine. And as you turn us from water into wine, remind us that you care and that you have the last say. You love us,

February 16, 2011
Lord, and that is good news. Father, as we wrestle, help us to trust this process. Would you direct your piercing love down upon us to lead us down paths of righteousness. May you be our vision. May you be our 'very present help in a time of need.' And Jesus, you do that. You protect us. In you, Lord, we can say with David, 'Hide me under the shelter of thy wing.' Amen."

"Lord, we thank you for binding together this body. We thank you for making us a bit of a family. And, Lord, at this moment one of our family is grieving. Lord, we just don't understand you sometimes. It's really that simple. Lord, you are the creator of all things and you are the balm of Gilead, but sometimes we just don't feel that balm. So I lift up your beloved daughter, Kelly Nicholson, as she has lost her husband and we ask you to comfort her, Jesus. Comfort her as only you can. As a woman of faith, I pray that you will surround her in this time by her family, her church body at Apostles, and through her friends. We come to you because we are weak and we thank you because we have confidence that you are strong, that you are our 'fortress' and that you are 'very present' in a time of need. Sometimes we just have to throw our hands up and trust the words you say, 'Come to me all who are heavy laden and burdened and I will give you rest.' We know that there are others that are around us dealing with loss. And, Lord, we simply beg you to draw near and to do your work. Amen.”

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Lord we are all weak and we pray for our brother who is resting. We pray you be with him. That you would go to him as only you can and comfort him with your spirit. And Lord it’s good that you find joy in us, your children. You take delight in us despite being prone to wander. Despite our unrighteousness, our wretchedness, you have laid down your life for us, your friends. Greater love hath no man. We are grateful for your presence today here amongst us. We are grateful because sometimes we are hard of hearing. We come into this Chamber very different from different places, with incredibly different motivations and, Lord, we are thankful that you not only can see through those struggles, but that you can see to the bottom of them. You place us in situations that bring us to the end of our rope. Ultimately, Lord, we must not stand, but kneel. To ask for your help. And so in the face of that, and in the face of, many issues that we face, my prayer is that you, Holy Spirit, would speak to them and that you would help them hear from you. And as we consider that, Lord, we are thankful that we are not left alone, but like a great doctor, you come to us and you speak over us and so Lord I ask that you speak over these men and women the words you spoke over the prophet Zephaniah, 'Sing aloud O daughter of zion. Shout O Israel, rejoice and exalt with all your heart, O daughter Jerusalem. The Lord has taken away the judgments against you. He has turned away your enemies. The King of Israel, the Lord is in your midst. You shall not fear disaster. The Lord is in your midst. O warrior who gives victory. He will rejoice over you with singing, he will renew you in his love, he will exalt over you with loud singing.' Amen."

February 22, 2011

GOVERNOR'S OBJECTIONS AND VETO MESSAGE

Senate Bill 13, "An Act to Enact the Balanced Budget Act of 2011."

Section 2 of Senate Bill 13, "An Act to Enact the Balanced Budget Act of 2011," was designed to grant authority to the Governor to reduce expenditures for the remainder of fiscal year 2010-11. This bill provides that the Director of the Budget shall exercise these powers with a goal of reducing recurring expenditures by at least four hundred million dollars ($400,000,000).

I have already used powers granted to me through existing statutes to reduce expenditures by at least $400,000,000 for fiscal year 2010-11. This $400,000,000 has been accounted for in my 2011-13 recommended budget presented to the General Assembly on February 17, 2011.

The remaining sections are not necessary and interfere with the State's capacity to generate jobs and retain industry.

Therefore, I veto this bill.

EIGHTEENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, February 24, 2011

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Holy and everlasting God, it’s a joy that you would admit us today into your presence. It’s especially joyful because we know that we have a thousand things on our mind and a million desires within our fickle hearts and so we are thankful that your primary property is one of forgiveness. Sometimes we just need courage to accept our acceptance and frankly, Lord, we need courage to open that. Where is our hope? Where is our shelter? Lord, we need not look any further than you for our help. As the great hymn writer Isaac Watts said, 'You are our help in ages past and our hope for years to come.' You remind us in Psalm 121 that you keep watch over us. You neither slumber nor sleep. And so as we live our lives before you, Lord, we ask you to give us wisdom as a collective body. Teach us how to live our lives at eleven o'clock on a Thursday morning. And, Lord, we implore you by the power of your Holy Spirit to come and watch over us, Jesus. A thousand ages in thy sight are like an evening gone, our shelter from a stormy past and our eternal home. Amen."

Senator Phil Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, February 23, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal and it stands approved as written.

NINETEENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, February 28, 2011

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Reverend Dr. Robert M. Thompson, Pastor, Corinth Reformed Church, Hickory, North Carolina as follows:

"Creator God, who launched trillions of stars into space like hands full of sand, humble us this night with our insignificance. Father God who invites us into your family by grace, remind us this night of the significance of every life, every action and every word. Sovereign God who rules nature, government, businesses, and families, thank you for the freedoms you entrust to those you create in your image. Forgive us when we abuse those liberties and the service itself. God I'm grateful to stand in this place with men and women committed to serve the public, especially in these challenging times. I know only one of them personally, but I'm sure Austin Allran represents a chamber full of Senators who forfeit time for self, family and church because they believe that sacrifice will make a difference in the lives of the people of North Carolina. Grant to each of them this night, and throughout this session of the General Assembly, wisdom that can come only from on high and a collective capacity to make decisions that will enable the people of this state to live peacefully and quietly and in godliness.
and dignity. And, God, we would remember this night the family of Jennie Dorsett, known to many in this chamber, we pray that you would surround her family in this time of shock and loss and confusion. With the love of the Father and the grace of a Savior and the peace of the spirit. We make this prayer and all our prayers humbly and thankfully and hopefully knowing that you hear and you care. Amen.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Upon motion of Senator Pate, the words of Senator Jones are spread upon the Senate Journal as follows:

Senator Jones: "This being the last day of February, which we celebrate Black History Month. I know no one has stood up in here and said anything and since I’m black I thought I would stand up and say something. I’ll just give you a little bit about where I came from and how I got here. My grandmother worked at a bus station in Asheville. She was a cook there and for our vacations we would take a bus trip every two months. We would ride from Asheville to Black Mountain and we rode in the back of the bus and I never understood why. No one else talked to us about race then and on the way back from Black Mountain there wouldn’t be that many people on the bus and you would get to go to the front of the bus and you would get to sit down next to the driver. That was the highlight of that day. A little later in my life my grandmother got me a job at the bus station shining shoes and I thought it was the greatest job I ever had in my life and I learned a lot from that. I carried that skill on into the military with me. Growing up in Asheville, I remember that when I was in the seventh grade, we all were going on a field trip in my class and they decided we couldn’t go because it was in Maggie Valley. We were going to an ice skating rink there and they didn’t allow blacks to go ice skating there and the whole class liked to never forgive me for not going on that trip. A little later on in life I played football with Asheville High School. It was Lee Edwards at that time and a lot of schools that did not have blacks on their team would cancel and elect not to play. I have people ask me what was the stupidest thing you’ve ever done in your life and I’ll tell you what it was. I was at Lee Edwards High School and I tried to join a square dance team where all the girls were white. Of course I didn’t make it. But I left there and went on into the military and I was in a foxhole one night with a friend, Billy Dupont from Mississippi, and we were sitting in that foxhole and we were looking at the sky. You would be surprised at what people will talk about and when I was sitting there with him, he said, ‘Why do black people not like white folks?’ And I said, ‘Well I guess because of the missed opportunities in life and so many of them have been beat and so many have been hanged and there is a lot of reasons that people don’t like each other.’ And he said, ‘I’ve never done anything to a black person.’ And I said, ‘Sometimes we don’t, but it’s perception we have out here of each other.’ And he told me, ‘You know it might not be that you’re black. People call me different names because I live in a trailer park.’ And he said, ‘Do you think it could be because we are poor.’ And I said, ‘I never thought about us being poor as the reason people look down on us.’ And he said, ‘Well you start looking at that.’ A little later in life I went to the Sheriff’s department after leaving the bank and I was on an elevator and I see police officers beating people no matter if they’re black or white, but they were all poor. And so later in life I joined the Highway Patrol and did thirty years and I tried to change that perception of people and how you treat each other. And then I’ve been all my life. I’ve been looking out for poor people and God put me in a district that is one of the poorest in the state so I can continue to look out for folks and I do that proudly, but when I came up here I knew I had arrived when I got to sit up here with the other forty-nine of you. But I have always sat on the back row. I’ve never been on the front row. I’ve been on the back row ever since I’ve been here, but one of the nicest people I have met when I sat in seat 33 was Stan Bingham and I’ve met Fletcher Hartsell. I like these people because they were simple people. We go out and eat hotdogs together and so forth. We learn to live together and so forth, but when I look today, it’s just like being black and white in here. We have Republicans one place and Democrats in another place. We are not showing a very good example of how we all should be getting along together sitting side by side. So I know we can’t change it this year and I know we can’t change it next year, but the next time we have a General Assembly election, I hope we can all sit by names, so I can learn different folks like I did with Stan Bingham. So again it sets an image for North Carolina for how we conduct ourselves here. And again, I just thank you for letting me say these few words on black history. Thank you.”

February 28, 2011
Upon motion of Senator Phil Berger, seconded by Senator Nesbitt, the Senate adjourns at 7:25 p.m., subject to the introduction of bills, to meet Tuesday, March 1, at 3:00 p.m.

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Rabbi Eric Solomon of Beth Meyer Synagogue of Raleigh, North Carolina as follows:

"O God, the God of our fore-mothers and our fore-fathers, the God we call by many names. We first and foremost thank you for letting us be here today to reach this moment. We thank you for giving us the opportunity to serve you and the people of our State and our Country. And we ask for your blessings on all the wonderful leaders who serve the people, the citizenry, who do their best for our wonderful State. We ask your Holy One for your wisdom to help remind us, all of us, especially our leaders, that as we grow in numbers and in size in North Carolina, may we continue to grow as we have in justice, in warmth, in compassion, and in welcome. We ask for your strength in these challenging times. Help us to stand by our core principles, our integrity, what we believe in, seeking that Promised Land. Lastly, we ask you to remember all the citizens of North Carolina. Help us to remember those who are successful and thriving, providing opportunity, economic, and social for all and yet help us never to forget those who are on the lower end of the ladder who are struggling and suffering and who need your love and our help. Please we ask you to remember at this time as well, and help us to always remember those who serve in uniform who are far away from our State, right now physically, but spiritually and in heart know we are one always with them. May God bless us and keep us, may God's face shine upon us and be gracious to us. May God always look upon our wonderful State and grant us peace. We say together, Amen."

March 3, 2011

Would you transform us today, by the renewing of our minds, in the knowledge that you not only are with us, but that you have forgiven us for our sins, that you have blotted out our transgressions, and that you are leading us down paths of righteousness. Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Lord have mercy. Amen."

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, March 8, 2011

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Heavenly Father, how fortunate we are Lord. How fortunate we are to live in this land. We have freedom. We have liberty. Lord, how fortunate we are that you have gathered us into your presence here. And Lord would you take our deaf ears and open them? Would you show us the simplest blessings of all? Perhaps it’s our kid that asks us to put on his shirt. Perhaps it’s a dinner with a friend. We have so many blessings, and sometimes forget that you are our greatest gift. So Lord, simply remind us today of where we have come from, and where we are going. We are blessed, most of all, to be your friends, and that in you we have a steadfast lover. Admit us into your blessed presence, and sing over us with blessings Lord, because we recognize that our strength comes from you, the maker of heaven and earth, Amen."

Senator Phil Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Monday, March 7, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal and it stands approved as written.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend John McCall of Westminster Presbyterian Church of Greensboro, North Carolina as follows:

"Gracious God, we begin this session and this day with hearts of gratitude. We are grateful for your promise to be with us in the good days and the more challenging days. We are grateful for spring rain which waters our earth and brings forth new growth and new hope. We thank you, Lord, for the beauty of this State. For mountains, for rivers and oceans. We are grateful for the people of North Carolina. For our unity and our diversity. We are even thankful for the gift of basketball, which brings joy to our hearts. We are grateful for your public servants who seek to serve you and us in this chamber. God, what happens in this session, may it be pleasing in your sight. Guide each Senator that they may be led by your spirit. Transcend our differences that this Senate may together seek the welfare of your people in this State. SENATE JOURNAL

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, March 14, 2011

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Lord Jesus, we come before you tonight with grateful hearts. Our collective lives are filled to overflowing. And Lord, as the people of Japan watch thousands of bodies wash onto the shores, may they be comforted as only you can comfort. We do truly live in a global community, Lord, and while it may be hard to watch images stream by, it is also helpful to us because now we know how to pray. We can pray because we know that even in pain and in death, there is a God above that embraces suffering, and in fact, died to redeem its horror. Lord, your love towards us is strong, and your faithfulness endures forever. Your love for us is like a newlywed bride who looks at her new lover with incredible admiration, love, and trust. So Lord, as we come before you in this new week, fill us up with hope and love and give us renewed confidence to serve you with the same love. Amen."

The Lord of hosts is with us, the God of Jacob is our stronghold. The waters of a river give joy to God's city, the holy place where the Most High dwells. S.R. 65, A SENATE RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF JOHN ALLEN GARWOOD, FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Upon motion of Senator Forrester, the remarks of the members are spread upon the Senate Journal as follows:

SENATOR APODACA:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I was just speaking to Senator Berger here and we were looking at these beautiful children in the chamber and watching them walk out orderly. I know John is smiling in heaven because there’s nothing he loved more than the children of North Carolina. I guess as much as anybody I’ve met here. That was his focus, the education of the children of North Carolina. He had a wife that is a former school teacher, and has a daughter that’s a school teacher, I believe, so I think he would really appreciate what was here and probably wished they could have stayed, but understood they needed to go to other things. It’s a bittersweet moment for me because John Garwood and I were very close and his funeral was one of the, if you can say, one of the nicest celebrations of life I’ve ever attended. Senator Hartsell and Senator Garrou were there and, I think, we all walked away from it inspired. I think it brought out the essence of John Garwood because it was multi-dimensional in many, many ways. His love of jazz music comes to mind, his love of a good adult beverage on occasion, not to be abused, but John enjoyed that. John enjoyed life and I think John was happy with the way he lived his life when he left us. He was a savior to me when I came down here and, Lord knows, Senator Mansfield, as you’ve already mentioned, I needed guidance from many people; John Garwood was there along with Senator East and former Senator Scott Thomas. They had a full day keeping me straight, but John did the best job. I enjoyed John’s company as much as anybody’s company I’ve ever enjoyed in my life because of a good sense of humor. If you can’t laugh in life, you’re not going to have a very good time and John Garwood had a good time. But, there was a serious side to John and I saw that often. A lot of people didn’t, but I did. And it was mainly around education, Senator Tillman, it was mainly around our children and making a better future for them. I think if John leaves a legacy that will be what it is. I think that’s how he’d like to have it and I think that’s how it should be. So I highly recommend the resolution on the life of John Garwood and for those of you who didn’t get to meet him, you truly missed something. When you serve in this chamber you’ll find some people enter your life that you’ll never forget. I always have three people jump to mind every time, and the first one is John Garwood, Jeanne Lucas, and Ham Horton. Those are people I’ll go to my grave thinking about and respecting for what they brought to this body so I recommend this to you.”

March 17, 2011

SENATOR EAST:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I am proud to have called John Garwood my friend. John Garwood and I go back a long ways. John was from Wilkes County and I’m from next door, in Surry County. I was a member of the Surry County Board of Commissioners and John belonged to the Wilkes County Board of Commissioners so we had many like issues and we had many conversations together. When John came to Raleigh we brought our friendship. I and John, along with Senator Apodaca and so many other folks, had many meals together and many memories together. John Garwood was a wonderful friend. I visited John and his wife, Wanda, probably about 30 days before John passed away and I left the hospital so impressed because John and Wanda both said John is here to die. John Garwood knew he was dying and he handled death just like he handled life, in a gentlemanly fashion. John Garwood was a wonderful individual. He told me many, many stories about his Sunday School lessons that he taught on the previous day. Wanda and family, thank you all for letting us have John Garwood for a while. He will certainly be missed forever. Thank you all for being here today.”

SENATOR ALLRAN:

“I had the pleasure, the privilege, and the honor of serving with John Garwood in the Senate also. In addition to being a great public servant and elected official, personality wise, he was simply one of those people you never forget. As has been mentioned, John had a great sense of humor. He had a booming voice and imposing appearance. It was always a pleasure just to see this individual, particularly in caucuses. He always had something funny to say and one of the main things I remember about him is that he used to laugh and make fun of me when I ate popcorn in the caucuses. I guess I ate more than my fair share! But at any rate, besides the fact that he served in the Senate district next to me, part of his family lives in Hickory. His daughter, Susan, lives there with her fine family and it’s great to see her up in the gallery. John is a man we’ll never forget. We’ll always cherish our fond memories of him and also it is always a pleasure being around Wanda as well. But John’s unique personality, enthusiasm for life, and outstanding contributions to his fellow man will always be with us and I urge the Senate’s support of this resolution. Thank you.”

March 17, 2011
SENATOR BINGHAM:

“Thank you, Mr. President, John and I were good friends, but I didn’t know John before I came here and I also, as Senator East mentioned, went to the hospital to see John. John and I were seatmates and myself, being in the lumber business for many years, knew a lot of people and bought a lot of lumber from Wilkes County as well as some brandy from up that way. I don’t know that it had a legal tax stamp on it, but at any rate I bought some of that here in the legislative building and had it in my office and shared it with some of the LA’s and I found out later that I shouldn’t be doing those things! But I did get a lot of information in doing that but it was very beneficial but John, I must say, was one of the most pleasurable men that I have been around. He had a wonderful sense of humor and he loved jokes. We would tell jokes, share jokes, I would hear one at home when I’d come back and, Mr. President, I’d be happy to tell one of those but I know you’d stop me midstream, so I’d better not! But one that he truly loved, you and all the family and he spoke of you often and he certainly missed you while he was down here. We truly appreciate you and as I have mentioned before, this body is about relationships and I don’t know of anyone here that I’ve felt closer to than John Garwood. He was a wonderful, splendid man and brought a lot to this body. Thank you so much for sharing him with us. Thank you, Mr. President.”

SENATOR GARROU:

“Thank you. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I loved John Garwood. My first day of a committee meeting I sat on one side of John Garwood and our now U.S. Senator Kay Hagan sat on the other side of John Garwood. It was a real learning experience for us. We loved him. Both of us had defeated Republicans and we didn’t know how this Republican who was sandwiched in between the two talkative women would respond to us and being with us. But we had a great time. We learned a lot from him. We were impressed with his passion for education, his passion for the University and certainly we learned as we worked through the Senate all these years how important our University system is. John Garwood loved his wife and he loved his daughter, Susan. He used to talk to me about Susan and the important things that she brought to his family and his wife. I think he valued the role of women and families and in service to our state and service to our communities. He was such a wonderful gentleman and he is certainly missed and family, we thank you so much for sharing him with us. Thank you.”

SENATOR KINNAIRD:

Thank you. I’m going to be very short. I met this wonderful man as many of us did when I came here and I just want to say two words that come to mind. He was the sweetest person I think I’ve ever met and one of the kindest people I’ve ever met.”

March 17, 2011
SENATOR P. BERGER:
Thank you, Mr. President. I was first elected to the General Assembly in 2000 and I knew John Garwood before I came to the General Assembly. The thing is that the John Garwood I knew was the one that’s sitting up in the gallery. John’s son, John, actually lived in Eden and was my banker. I didn’t know his Dad and didn’t know anything about the political background. When I got down here I met, forgive me, John, the ‘real’ John Garwood, and it was a pleasure. I mean a real pleasure. Now, Senator Bingham, sometimes things get said on this floor and someone will come up to you later and say, “I don’t think you ought to have told that,” but there are probably a lot of John Garwood stories that are in that vein! Good natured, good friendship, the sort of folks that you hope to have an opportunity to get to know as you’re going through life and I think every member of this body was blessed by their association with John and continues to be blessed with the memories that we have. I know that, as has been indicated by others, that education, kids, the future, were things that were front and center on his mind. And he didn’t do anything, so far as I know, in this General Assembly, where it was not a priority for him to make sure that things were better for the folks that came after him. That was something that was important to him and I think it’s something that is, and ought to be, important to every one of us. Wanda, we miss him. We know that you miss him, we know that his children miss him and he often talked about and thought about those grandchildren of his and so I know they miss him as well. A great North Carolinian, a great American and certainly someone that we have been blessed to be associated with. I certainly commend the resolution to you.”

The Senate Resolution is adopted (47-0).

LT. GOVERNOR:
Members of the Senate, I will tell you that John Garwood was a great man and a great Senator and a great friend. We came into the Senate the same year, in 1997. He was a great family man and as Senator Garrou said, he was absolutely passionate about education. In fact, he was so passionate that there were times he would get emotional about it. But that’s all right, it just meant that John Garwood cared. And when John spoke, you listened to him because of that caring attitude, because he was always knowledgeable. He did his homework. He had been a member of the Board of Governors and he believed in this university system and believed it was one of our greatest assets. And he fought for our universities, he fought for all of education because he believed he was fighting for our future; indeed he was. While that was one of our greatest assets, I will tell you that John himself was one of the greatest assets of this Senate and one of the greatest advocates for educational opportunities.

March 17, 2011
He certainly will be missed and we want to thank his family for sharing him with us. We are pleased to honor him today and in our gallery is the family of Senator John Garwood. I would ask that you would stand as I call your name. His wife, Wanda; his sons, John and David; his daughter, Susan Robertson; and his grandchildren, Madeline and Liza Grace Robertson. Thank you so much and I will now ask that the family of the Senate stand and show our appreciation to the family."

Monday, March 21, 2011

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Lord, not only do you move in mysterious ways, but you move in our hearts by showing us the canvas of your creation. To look at a cherry blossom tree as a thing of majesty. Glory be to God for dappled things. And Lord, sometimes we fear that our lives do not have traction, and that our lives lack meaning. But then Lord, you do something new, and you bring forth the blossoms of springtime. Lord, I pray for us now that we would trust you, and that in you, there is an eternal heart of spring. In Christ, Amen."

Senator Phil Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Thursday, March 17, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal and it stands approved as written.

"Lord, you remind us throughout scripture that you are very much like a city. You are great Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city. Your holy mountain, beautiful in elevation, is the joy of all the earth. Mount Zion, in the far north, the city of the great King. Within her citadels, God has made himself known as a fortress. We are grateful to you, Father, that we, your children, are in the streets of your fortress. And I am thankful that you have put our feet on this hallowed ground, and that you have called us to go out and be the ‘repairers of the breach.’ You call us to go around her, to number her towers, consider well her ramparts, go through her citadels. Lord, may we tell the next generation that this is God, our God forever and ever. He will guide us forever. Amen."

"Lord, thank you for the weekend. Thanks for its restorative power. And this reminds us of what Jeremiah says about the restoration of Israel. ‘Cursed is the one who trusts in man and makes flesh his strength, whose heart turns away from the Lord. He is like a shrub in the desert, and shall not see any good come. He shall dwell in the parched places of the wilderness in an uninhabited salt land.’ ‘Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose trust is the Lord. He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit.’ Our hope comes from you Lord, and we turn to you, the Lord of all creation, as we come to a new week. Amen."

And it’s hard for us to hear that when we see hardship and captivity in our midst. The prophet Isaiah says: ‘How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of happiness, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, Your God reigns. The voice of your watchmen – they lift up their voice; together they sing for joy; For eye to eye they see the return of the Lord to Zion. Break forth together into singing, you waste places of Jerusalem. The Lord has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations, and to the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.’”

March 29, 2011
The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"You have searched me, Lord, and you know me. You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar. You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways. Before a word is on my tongue you, Lord, know it completely. You hem me in behind and before and you lay your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain. Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence? If I go up to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there. If I rise on the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the sea, even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast. If I say, 'Surely the darkness will hide me and the light become night around me,' even the darkness will not be dark to you; the night will shine like the day, for darkness is as light to you. We pray in Christ's name, Amen."

Senator Phil Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Tuesday, March 29, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal and it stands approved as written.

Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the rules are suspended and the Joint Resolution is read in its entirety and is debatable.

Upon motion of Senator Stevens, the remarks by the members are spread upon the Senate Journal as follows:

March 30, 2011
Senator Vaughan:

"Mr. President, this body has been the home to many great leaders and orators in North Carolina history. McNeill Smith is certainly no exception. He served three terms in this body taking the place by appointment of Hargrove “Skipper” Bowles. He helped lead the effort to consolidate the University of North Carolina system, he helped create the Department of Transportation as we know it today. He was an advocate for 18 year olds having the right to vote and many other things. He was known in Greensboro as the lawyer that mediated the dispute in 1960 in the Civil Rights Movement between Woolworth’s and the students at North Carolina A & T State University. He was not known for taking the popular cause. In 1963, he represented those that thought their rights had been infringed upon with the Speaker Ban put on by the North Carolina General Assembly which, fortunately, the court upheld his ability as a great lawyer. He was listed as one of the top 100 lawyers in America by the National Law Journal. The News and Observer, several weeks ago, ran his obituary and they ran a quote from one of the editorials back in those days that said that debating McNeill Smith was like going one-on-one in basketball with David Thompson, the North Carolina State great. A very interesting gentleman, who rode his bicycle to work every day, rode his bicycle from the Velvet Cloak here to the North Carolina General Assembly every day and his legislative assistant, Charlotte Johnston, is still with us today as our floor clerk doing the minutes of this body. Charlotte, come out. She worked for him, and she’s still here today with us. He was an absolutely outstanding individual. The North Carolina Bar Association Constitutional Award that’s given every year was named the McNeill Smith Award. I commend the resolution to you. His family is with us today."

Senator Robinson:

"Thank you, Mr. President, and to members of the audience. In the late 60’s I was a newcomer to Greensboro and had the opportunity to witness from that point on McNeill Smith’s activism in the community. McNeill Smith fought for the rights of everybody. He was not concerned about the rights of one side as opposed to the other but he was concerned about what is right and we saw that throughout our community and because of his involvement, Greensboro became a richer place. It became more community oriented and a place that people could expect support in all facets of the community. And you can see by the resolution he was involved in the church community and the faith community. He was involved in organizations in the community such as the YMCA that really had an impact on the lives of people in the community. So I commend this resolution to you and we really thank his family. I also knew his wife who was very involved in the community as well. So we thank you for your support of this resolution."

Senator Kinnaird:

"Thank you. McNeill Smith was a giant at a time when there were giants in North Carolina. He led so many causes that were unpopular and it takes a giant to do that, to gather people around so that he can do that with other like-minded people who might not step out, who might not speak out. He and my late husband, Dan Pollitt, actually went to the Supreme Court upon the Speaker Ban law and that was, of course, a great stride forward and an unpopular one. We need more giants like McNeill Smith and we are so grateful that he was here, that he led the way in so many areas that people were afraid to step out, but he was not. He knew what was right, he knew what should be done. He loved the Constitution more than anything and he lived by that and I hope that we all will support this wholeheartedly. Thank you."

Senator Phil Berger:

"Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Senate, I echo the words of Senator Kinnaird because McNeill Smith was a giant. And he was one of us. He was a member of this body and he was someone who served here with distinction. He also served with distinction as a lawyer, served with distinction in his church, but most of all he served with distinction in his community, doing things that were not necessarily the easy things to do. An example for all of us, someone that we can all look to if we’re looking for models for our behavior. I commend the resolution to you as well."

The Joint Resolution passes its second reading (50-0) and, without objection, is read a third time. The resolution passes its third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives.

S.B. 130 (Committee Substitute), A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO PROHIBIT A WINE WHOLESALER FROM DISTRIBUTING WINE BEYOND ITS DESIGNATED SALES TERRITORY AND TO AUTHORIZE CERTAIN INTRATERRITORY TRANSFERS OF WINE BETWEEN OFF-PREMISES WINE PERMITTEES UNDER COMMON OWNERSHIP.

The Committee Substitute bill passes its second reading (50-0) and, without objection, is read a third time and passes its third reading and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives.

"Almighty God, when we come before you, we come before royalty. And we are humbled by your holiness, your hallowedness. Father, you accept and receive us 'as we are,' not as 'we should be.' It's a divine mystery why you, a Holy Lord, would accept us fickle folks into your presence. And for that we are eternally grateful. In the face of all we need and all we bring before you, we affirm that your resources are far greater than our needs. Lord, you remind us through James, the brother of Jesus, that 'you are the giver of every good and perfect gift,' streaming down from heaven above. Your gifts are sufficient in our weaknesses. And so we thank you, that we do not serve a God of stone and wood, but that we serve alongside a personal Lord that calls us and empowers us to be a light to the nation, a hope in times of distress. And because you have rescued us from sin and death, you mobilize us to go out into this world to be the hope for the hopeless, and rest for those in trauma. For your namesake, to the praise of your glorious grace. Amen."

FORTIETH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, April 5, 2011

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Almighty God, we come before you today, Lord, to confess that we have sinned against you, in thought, in word, and in deed. We do not always ‘Love our neighbors as ourselves.’ We are often like the priests that went to the other side of the road as their Samaritan friend was alone and withering. And so, Lord, we first pray for your mercy to flow abundantly, that you would renew us as we fail and turn our backs not only on you, but on our neighbors. And, Lord, reassure us by your pardon today, that in You, we have received reconciliation and are loved, despite our failings. Give us the heart to love this city and this State with the love that you have displayed for her. We plead that you would show us the way forward, that You would direct our paths. Amen."

Statement: Celebrating Tartan Day

The date of April 6 has special significance for all those of Scottish heritage. It is the 689th anniversary of the signing on April 6, 1320 of the Declaration of Arbroath, the Scottish Declaration of Independence, which includes these inspirational lines: “It is in truth not for glory, nor riches, nor honours that we are fighting, but for freedom … for that alone, which no honest man gives up but with life itself.”

You may remember the movie, BRAVEHART, starring Mel Gibson. At the end of the movie when he was being executed (quartered), he yells out the words, “freedom – freedom.”

[Session

FORTY-SECOND DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, April 7, 2011

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Ronald Shive, First Presbyterian Church, Burlington, North Carolina as follows:

"Gracious God, the one who loves with a love that is like a mother who will not forsake her nursing child, like a father who runs to welcome the prodigal home. On good days, we find this love and grace to be amazing, but on most days, we find it to be infuriating for it includes those that our frail humanity wants to exclude. On honest days, we have to admit that it is amazing that we are included. So, today, we simply bow before the wonder of your embracing love and grace. We do ask this day that you give to all who gather in this room the gift to reflect such love in the passionate discussions that will occur, in the life-changing decisions that will be made, and even in the way that we greet each other in the hallways of this historic place. We also ask that you give us not only love, but wisdom that sees beyond our limits, common sense that we all too often forget, humility that we all too often lose, and a memory so that we might never forget who we are. Amen."

Senator Phil Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, April 6, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal and it stands approved as written.

April 7, 2011
The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Lord God, it’s awe inspiring to be in this public space where we are stretched and surrounded by a sense of your presence. Remind us tonight, Lord God, that you have been in this place far before we even set eyes on it or thought about it. You hallow this place by placing us, thy servants, in your service. May a sense of your holiness, and a humility before your grace impregnate all the decisions we make as a body. And as we make decisions may our lives echo the words of the hymn writer, Joseph Hart: ‘Bruised and broken by the fall; If you tarry ’til you're better, You will never come at all. Not the righteous, not the righteous; Sinners Jesus came to call.’ Amen."

CALENDAR (continued)

S.J.R. 256, A JOINT RESOLUTION TO PARDON WILLIAM W. HOLDEN FROM THE JUDGMENT IMPOSED UPON HIM BY THE SENATE ON MARCH 22, 1871, ON CONVICTION OF ARTICLES OF IMPEACHMENT.

Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the rules are suspended and the Joint Resolution is read in its entirety and debate is allowed.

Upon motion of Senator Kinnaird, the remarks of the members are spread upon the Senate Journal as follows:

Senator Hunt:

“Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, a little over 140-years-ago, Governor William W. Holden was impeached and removed as Governor of North Carolina. This act was initiated and carried out by his political opponents in retaliation for Governor Holden’s actions to stop Ku Klux

April 12, 2011
Klan violence. His impeachment was intended to suppress the civil rights and voting rights of newly freed black American citizens. Today we can correct a 140-year-old wrong by officially pardoning Governor Holden for his actions which are both legally and morally correct. It is time for the North Carolina Senate to pardon Governor William W. Holden. I urge your support for this resolution.”

Senator Doug Berger:

“Senator Hunt, President Pro Tempore Berger, and Rules Chair Tom Apodaca, I want to thank you for giving us this opportunity to let us all look back at this dark day in history for North Carolina. You may recall two years ago there was an attempt to remove North Carolina history from being taught in public schools. We came together as Democrats and Republicans in the Senate and said, ‘no’. North Carolina history is important and it should be a subject taught on its own. I think there are acts today that reflect consequences of North Carolina history. Last week I shared with you the origins of the Republican Party in this state which occurred 140-years-ago beginning March 27, 1867. I would like to share with you the words written by the then first leader of the Republican Party and Governor of North Carolina, William Holden. ‘To commence what a noble spectacle in which the former master and the former slave has an equal in all that pertains to humanity and the rights of self-government…and was cordial and respectable, kind and abiding on both sides.’ Former master and former slave…and just as those two groups of politicians came together, we come together as Republicans and Democrats today to affirm the important values of racial equality in our society. Now the Lieutenant Governor, Walter Dalton, made reference to the Halifax Resolves. Those resolves took place in April of 1776. In July, 1776, the Declaration of Independence was issued and the author of that document, which said that it was self-evident that all men are created equal, was Thomas Jefferson, the founder of our party, the Democrat Party. In the 1850s, your party came along, and the father of your party was Abraham Lincoln and your party followed to fulfill that commitment that all men are created equal. As we come here together to recognize the injustice that was done to Governor Holden 140-years-ago today, I would like to close by reading to you Governor Holden’s own defense that he put forward in that impeachment hearing which, I believe, clearly states the circumstances that he faced when the Ku Klux Klan threatened civil authority. Why he did what he did those many years ago today. On January 23, Holden officially answered the impeachment charges against him. Holden insisted that in sending troops to Lee County he was actuated by the purest motives, by sincere desire to restore the efficiency of the civil authority, to protect life and property, and to promote welfare to the people of the whole state. He also insisted that his refusal to honor the writ of Habeas Corpus issued by Pearson was motivated solely by his desire to preserve the safety of the state. He explained what he faced in using his power of the Constitution to suppress this insurrection while at the same time sustaining the right of the writ. And this is what Holden had to say: ‘It would be mockery indeed to declare that the civil authority was unable to protect the citizens against the insurgents, the Ku Klux Klan, and then turn the insurgents over to the civil authorities.’ Ladies and gentlemen, I second Senator Hunt’s request that you vote for this resolution. I thank you.”

April 12, 2011
Senator Blue:

“Thank you, Mr. President and my colleagues. I proudly stand to support this resolution. What a historian said, ‘he who does not learn from the lessons of history is bound to repeat his mistakes.’ We are a country that has been richly blessed because we are the beacon for freedom throughout this world. I tell you that we are unique in that regard. We are the country that nations around the world look to when they are searching for freedom. I believe that the universe does bend towards freedom. The stories of the past thousands of years as we start marking time is about freedom. And right now because of the efforts of these United States there are more people across this globe who are free than there have ever been free in history. 140-years-ago the House was holding proceedings on impeaching Governor Holden, there were 17 black members who were serving in the House at that time. Those 17 black members collectively circulated petitions throughout their communities pointing out that the only thing that Governor Holden had done was trying to protect all of the citizens of this state, trying to put down the oppressive violence and even suppressed the precious right of habeas corpus. To get their communities to support this effort to keep Governor Holden from being impeached, they knew that this was the beginning of a march to reverse the freedoms that they had discovered. This march in this state went on for thirty years. A vicious effort to take back freedom that had been so hard won in the Civil War so that by 1900 these legislatures, mostly republicans, had basically been ousted from power, for a period of over sixty years in this state. So it is only timely that we now hold this meeting, learning the lessons of history of 140-years-ago. Knowing why they occurred, when they occurred, but putting North Carolina into a historical perspective. Back in this endless march for freedom for citizens in this state and citizens around the world today, we have troops stationed around the world for various reasons. But the primary one is for what we so strongly believe in as Americans and that is freedom for all of our citizens and the freedom to do the things that allow us to worship in our own practice. So I think that while we bring this resolution before us today, we acknowledge that we will continue to learn who we were so that we can better determine who we are capable of being. I commend this Resolution to you and join all of you in saying 140-years-ago this legislature committed great injustice by impeaching a man not because of some high crime, but solely because he was doing the job that lived up to the oath that he took to protect all the citizens of this state. I commend the resolution to you.”

Senator McKissick:

“The impeachment of Governor Holden was an illegal, morally, reprehensive act. It was repugnant in every respect. Justice demands that it be reversed. I think a wonderful thing is that as you look back at that day and say, well that was 140-years-ago. But many of those who sat in these chairs in this chamber were owners of slaves. They owned people like cattle in chains. But we have come a very long way since that Civil War. We have come a very long way since Governor Holden was impeached. To think back to that day when someone stood up for the rights of liberty and privileges for human beings is something that any of us would want. To stand up and speak out and have jobs, have property, and hold office: it’s not something that today we think of as being particularly unique. But when Governor Holden stood up to maintain the rights, he was brought back and held accountable, impeached for his deeds. I hope today, by taking this action and by pardoning him, that we would help mend those fences that were broken. I think it’s wonderful that we as a body, collectively, regardless of whether we’re democrat or republican, can say today that this action should be reversed and that it was a despicable act. We need to make sure, in the future, that history stays true and doesn’t change based on the current feelings of the day. But, when you think today that we have the sons and daughters of former slave owners and the sons and daughters of former slaves coming together to chart a course for North Carolina; that hopefully will be a path that protects the rights and privileges of all of our citizens regardless of race, regardless of ethnicity. Those are those types of privileges that we all cherish. It’s the thing that’s imbedded within our Constitution as a country, imbedded within our Constitution as a state. It’s wonderful to know that as we sit back and think back about the hypocrisy of our past, that when you think of our country and our state and you think about it being the land of the free, we also don’t have to think about the hypocrisy, that we are also the land of the slaves. In many instances those that were just great were not recognized for their contributions. So I would like to recognize Senator Hunt who brought forth this bill. I think each and every one of my colleagues in here understands that it’s an appropriate time to mend those fences and to arrest these types of actions that occurred in our past. I say to each of you, let us continue to work and gather at this place and let us make certain that, as we serve in the state Senate, that we can be proud of our legacy, that we can be proud of our Constitution, that we can know what we stood for, with courage and conviction, to undue an act that was morally wrong and reprehensible."

Senator Phil Berger:
“Members of the Senate, we live in a much different time than our predecessors did during the impeachment of William Holden. And in some respect, it’s easy to look back and see where history led, back during that time. I think, at this point, when we look back with the benefit of time, we can see what Governor Holden was trying to do. And this is what history tells us that he was trying to do. He was on the right side of history for freedom and opportunity for all North Carolina citizens. I commend the resolution to you and I thank Senator Hunt for bringing it forward.”

"Lord God, it was a true joy to honor you yesterday in our State Capitol. Because we are grateful to you, almighty God, and because we depend upon you, it was easy to see your hand in the movement of the history of this great state. It was a good reminder of the value of public discourse and a testimony to the beauty of democracy. Lord, it was a reminder of your strong ability to reconcile history and reconcile wrong. And, Lord, your primary mission is that of reconciliation. For Lord, the apostle Paul reminded us: 'Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: The old has gone, the new has come! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation:' (II Corinthians 5:17-19). So we stand before you today and ask you to test our hearts and weigh our decisions in the light of who you are. Would you come again into our narrative, into our story today and make it one of reconciliation. 'For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever and ever,' Amen."

GOVERNOR'S OBJECTIONS AND VETO MESSAGE

Senate Bill 265, "An Act To Make Appropriations and Adjustments For The 2011-2013 Fiscal Biennium To The State Health Plan For Teachers And State Employees; And To Transfer The State Health Plan For Teachers And State Employees To The Office Of State Treasurer."

The General Assembly has attempted to reform the State Health Plan, which serves approximately 663,000 people - 160,000 of them retired workers and 181,000 of them teachers and public school employees.

But other than 60 seconds in front of a legislative committee, retired workers and teachers' groups had no opportunity to be involved in the legislative discussions about changes to their health plan that could dramatically affect their costs and their benefits.

This bill is in effect a tax on teachers, who have not received a pay raise - and have effectively seen their pay drop - for the past three years. In 2008, North Carolina ranked 25th in the nation in teachers' salaries. By 2011, we have dropped to 45th. Now is simply not the time to cut teachers' pay yet again. To do so would be a tremendous step backward for North Carolina, and we know clearly that teachers will flee the profession at a time when education is most critical to the future of this state.

I believe there must be a way to bring these groups to the table and to negotiate a solution.

I ask the General Assembly for another, more inclusive version of this bill back on my desk without delay. I support the General Assembly's reform efforts -- moving the Plan to the Treasurer's Office, where it will receive greater scrutiny and oversight, is something I support wholeheartedly. But I simply cannot sign a bill that harms our teachers and retirees without ever giving them a significant voice in the discussion.

Therefore, I veto this bill.

S/Beverly Eaves Perdue

This bill, having been vetoed, is returned to the Clerk of the North Carolina Senate on this thirteenth day of April, 2011, at 5:56 p.m. for reconsideration by that body.

Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the bill is placed at the end of today's calendar.

April 19, 2011
FIFTIETH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, April 20, 2011

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Heavenly Father, perhaps, Lord, what we need most right now, is mercy, fresh mercy. Whether we like it or not, Jesus, we are empty handed in reality, and we are beggars at your door. And we confess that this is hard for us, the privileged. Send, oh Father, your spirit to non-profits, churches, families, representatives of constituents, and entire communities as we fall prostrate to the weight of your strength. Like many houses and trees, we are leveled by your power, and we humbly acknowledge our dependence on you for all we do. Increase our vision and give our eyes technicolor, to reach out towards the broken with what you would have us do in the wake of this tornado. You love your children Lord, and ‘You came to serve, not to be served.’ You came to wash the tears from our eyes, and you came not to judge, but to pronounce blessing to the downcast. So may these recent events remind us all that we, your children, are not a big mistake, Lord. No. We are your delight. We are the crown of your creation. Make us ambassadors of this reality, filled with your love, planted in the field of service to your kingdom. For Christ’s sake, Amen."

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Graham.

Senator Phil Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Tuesday, April 19, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal and it stands approved as written.

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, April 27, 2011

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Our Father, as we come before your throne of grace this day, we admit our own weariness in this land. I know Lord, that I am tired. As these blessed servants have gathered to do your work, make it plain to them the direction they may go, and the sufficiency of your provision set before them. We know, Lord, that criticism will come. Help these servants to take what is helpful within the criticism and forgive what is unjust and unkind. And remind them of the manna that fell fresh for your people Israel, from on high, the manna in the wilderness, for 40 years. And, Father, let these servants feel the support of the prayers of hosts of angels, congregations, and families, other true patriots around this land. May we always come to your throne of grace, ready to receive your fresh feeding, your fresh food, the only true resource that will ever give us freedom. For Christ’s sake. Amen."

Prayer is offered by The Honorable Eric Mansfield, Senator from Cumberland County as follows:

"Dear God, we come as a thankful Nation. Thankful for your blessing this country. We are thankful for our troops who stand and stood in harm’s way just to allow us to stand and debate democracy. We thank you for our troops who stay awake late at night so that we can sleep comfortably at night. We thank you for those who fight terror so that we can fight over laws here in the General Assembly. Remind us, Lord, that we are a Nation that does not take pride in violence, we do not seek those who oppose us for retaliation or revenge, but we oppose those because it is the right thing to do. We are a Nation that stands on the conviction that despite our differences, whether we're red or blue, conservative or liberal, Republican or Democrat, above all of that, we are Americans. We pray for the families of the victims of September 11. While the events of last night may never bring closure, may it bring them comfort. While the prize of justice sometimes is long, it always bends towards liberty. Give us the hope that we will live to see the day that we will hammer the swords into plowshares; turn spears into pruning hooks; nation will no longer fight against nation; and we will study war no more. It is in the majestic and matchless name of God we pray. Amen."

POINTS OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Upon motion of Senator Doug Berger and Senator Atwater, the remarks of the Members are spread upon the journal as follows:

Senator Stein: "Thank you, Mr. President, Members of the Senate. Today is the Jewish holiday of Yom Hashoah, probably a holiday many of you haven’t heard of. It’s also known as Holocaust Remembrance Day. It commemorates the lives and heroism of the millions of people who died in the Holocaust between 1933 and 1945, Jews, Catholics, gypsies, homosexuals, and the Christians who helped these people. When he retired last session, Senator Weinstein passed on to me the tradition of reflecting on this day. The tradition was started by Senator Marshall Rauch who served in this chamber between 1967 and 1990. It was then passed on to Senator Winner of Buncombe and then Senator Winner of Mecklenburg. I have now inherited this tradition. The Holocaust forces us to think deeply about the nature of man. It’s jarring to contemplate the horrible things that people can do to other people. The fundamental premise of the holiday is to force us to look at the ugly part of humanity, to not avert our eyes. In this way we not only remember and honor the millions who were slaughtered but we also recommit ourselves to the precept that we must condemn all manifestations of intolerance, harassment and violence against persons or communities whenever we are aware it is happening. It is timely, therefore, that we reflect on this lesson on the very day that Osama bin Laden, who spewed hate and committed horrendous acts of violence, was brought to justice. Thank you."

May 2, 2011

Senator Tillman: "Last night was a great night and today’s a great day. We opened this session today praising the troops and especially Group 6 of the Navy Seals. What a great job to send four helicopters in, I guess about 40 men, and to come out of there not losing a single soul and killing Osama bin Laden. It doesn’t get any better than that. I think that the real message is that we need to thank our troops, and especially these great, highly trained Seals. We thank the Obama administration, the George W. Bush administration, who vowed from the get-go we were going to find this killer terrorist, if it was the last thing we ever did. I think that the message to the world is we will not tire in this fight against terrorism; we will not quit, we will find you, we will kill you. It’s a great day for America, a great day for our troops and our country. I hope we can close today with honoring our Seals and all the folks involved in this."

Senator McKissick: "One thing I think we all recognize in these chambers and in each of our lifetimes is certain days become and create an indelible impression on our minds and on our generations. For those that lived during World War II that was probably December 7th when Pearl Harbor was attacked by Japan. During my lifetime, it was probably November 22nd when John Kennedy was assassinated. But I think for the current generation that’s among us, there was no day that was more significant and profound than September 11. I think on that day, all of us as Americans, stood proud regardless of our party affiliations, regardless of our backgrounds, and wanted to know that one day we would ultimately hold Osama bin Laden accountable. I think it’s wonderful to see us all here tonight able to celebrate the victory that we now have because Osama bin Laden has been taken out of this world. It’s the kind of ultimate justice that we knew would come. I think it’s important that we look at the spontaneous celebration that occurred throughout this nation last night.

completely spontaneous because we all shared in knowing that the ultimate person that was behind that plot was being held ultimately accountable and that he was, indeed, and his body was in U.S. custody. I think it’s wonderful that we can celebrate that by celebrating the fact that our Commander in Chief, President Obama, was strategic enough in his decision-making to come forth and make the critical decisions at the right point in time that allowed for the attacks to be made. We can congratulate our military for what they did and the role that they served and also our intelligence gathering capacity, our counterintelligence officers throughout the field who were able to listen and work in the grindstones and do what is necessary to hold terrorists accountable. And, while we can celebrate today knowing that Osama bin Laden is no longer part of the equation, I am sure that there are many of those who are involved in terrorist activity or likewise feeling as if the person that they symbolized as being their hero now has to be a person that they want to go out and, in many respects, retaliate against us for taking him out of the equation. So, while we can feel good in a victory, we must understand that the fortitude that is necessary for us as a nation to continue this war against terrorism has to continue with vigor, with strength, and in a way that we can all say that 20 years or 30 years from now that those terrorists that are out there trying to undermine our country and its integrity and the principles that we stand for are all held accountable and that we as a nation can put the resources necessary together on a state, federal and local level to continue this fight."

Senator Rabon: "Thank you, Mr. President. While we are talking about terrorists and terrorism tonight, ladies and gentlemen, I would like to say that we have, as one of ours, a Seal. A man who captured, put together the plan, and brought to justice the first terrorist in the history of the United States in modern time, our Sergeant-At-Arms, Phil King."

Senator Brunstetter requests that he be removed as a sponsor of previously introduced legislation:

Prayer is offered by The Honorable Daniel Soucek, Senator from Watauga County, offers a cadet prayer of West Point Military Academy as follows:

"O God, our Father, thou searcher of human hearts, help us to draw near to Thee in sincerity and truth. May our religion be filled with gladness and may our worship of Thee be natural. Strengthen and increase our admiration for honest dealing and clean thinking, and suffer not our hatred of hypocrisy and pretense ever to diminish. Encourage us in our endeavor to live above the common level of life. Make us choose the harder right instead of the easier wrong, and never to be content with a half-truth when the whole can be won. Endow us with courage that is born of loyalty to all that is noble and worthy, that scorns to compromise with vice and injustice and knows no fear when truth and right are in jeopardy.

Guard us against flippancy and irreverence in the sacred things of life. Grant us new ties of friendship and new opportunities of service. Kindle our hearts in fellowship with those of a cheerful countenance, and soften our hearts with sympathy for those who sorrow and suffer. All of which we ask in the name of the great friend and master of all, Amen.”

"Great God and Father, these men and women need wisdom today. They will be saying things and deciding things that will affect the lives of many people in this State. Give them deep and abiding wisdom which is from of old, Lord, she established the heavens. By wisdom you drew a circle on the face of the deep. Wisdom made firm the skies above and assigned to the sea its limits. Wisdom marked out the foundations of the earth and your wisdom walks in the ways of righteousness and in the paths of justice. Your wisdom hates evil, shuns pride, dislodges our arrogance and she attacks our perverted speech. She calls us, she raises her voice to us, she takes her stand in the market and in the courts of law and in this hallowed hall today. So fill us now, Lord, with wisdom from above, not jealousy, not selfish ambition, not the foolishness of this world, but pure, peaceable wisdom that is open to reason impartial and sincere. Make these men and women wise today, Lord, and that wisdom starts with a humble fear and awe before you great and mighty Lord. In Christ’s name, Amen."

How to learn and heed your word.

May 9, 2011"
You told us in second Chronicles that if your people who are called by your name shall humble themselves and pray, seek your face and turn from their wicked ways then they will hear from heaven and forgive their sin and heal their land. So, Father, we submit humbly to you and renounce our wicked ways. We ask that everything we do begin in you and your grace. That we continue all of our legislative efforts with your help and that our work be under your guidance. Give us, we pray, a wisdom that is quiet, gentle, meek, does not boast in itself, but boasts in your glory, oh Lord. Plant in us, submitted "lives" that echo the particular place you have placed each one of us, humility to accept the pots you have planted us in. We make our prayer in the name of the one that did display a peace that surpasses all understanding, despite the humiliations thrown his way. Amen."

SEVENTIETH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, May 25, 2011

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Lord, we are grateful that this is the day that you have made. And so you hold all principalities, powers, and dominions in your loving and grace filled hands. As the poor citizens in Missouri and Oklahoma are suffering following the tornadoes, and as we re-build here across our state, would you come to our assistance? These 'weaknesses' remind us that often times we live a lie. Our lives are insane, and we don't even know it. We live in a way that is false to reality, and we live as if one upping someone and striving for selfish ambition is ok. Show us, Oh Lord, and lead us into the pathways of knowing how to live skillfully. As a pastor once said, 'You don't even need to ever open your mouth for others to tell that you are wise.' The wisdom from above is pure. And this is wisdom. That nothing can separate us from the love of God that was displayed in Christ. And even more, you remind us in the letter to your Hebrews, never will I leave you, never will I forsake you. Because you are the great high priest that has gone through the heavens, and you are, like us, acquainted with grief. Thank you for being that type of God, and thank you for being that type of help. In Christ’s name, Amen."

S.R. 779, A SENATE RESOLUTION EXPRESSING GRATITUDE TO THE MEMBERS OF THE MILITARY FOR THEIR SERVICE AND HONORING THE MEMORY OF THOSE KILLED IN THE LINE OF DUTY.

May 25, 2011
SENATOR BRUNSTETTER: "Thank you, Mr. President. Members, Veterans, I think one of the most moving moments I had here in this Senate Chamber was last year when our principal reading clerk went through this resolution. You might remember that Ted, as he read in the resolution, lost his composure and it was because he was remembering a family member who he had lost I believe in the Korean War and as each name was read you could see he had a harder and harder time controlling his emotions as his memories took him back to that loved one and I think the wonderful thing about this resolution each year is that it is so powerful. Just the names that are read as we think about the sacrifice that was made. It is very clear to me that North Carolina is in the vanguard of defending this nation and part of being up front means that you bear a disproportionate share of the loss. And I couldn’t help but think as we’re reading through these names that every one of these people leave behind a loved one, leave behind families. I know what it’s like to get a call that a child’s been injured in a war zone and I cannot imagine what these people are going through as they look across the table and there’s an empty chair or they head to church on Sunday and somebody’s not there to drive and yet, the sacrifice is so real. You know, we spent a good deal today debating, arguing, comparing ideas in committee and it’s because of every one of these veterans that we are able to do this and we and all the citizens of this country owe them an incredible debt of gratitude. Mr. President, I would like to ask if I can if the members of the Senate and other folks who are here on the chamber floor, we’ll get to the gallery in a minute, who are veterans would please stand. (Applause). Mr. President, one of the things I think is interesting is you see who has served in this chamber and you’re starting to see the face of military veterans. We have people like Senator Daniel and Senator Soucek who are West Point classmates, and who have served in some of our more recent conflicts. We have General Forrester over here, we have Senator Pate, who really gave much of their lives to the military service and we have Senator Dannelly, who I think served in the American Revolution. But the service of these members has been tremendous and they’re an inspiration to me. I would just say there’s others that will comment on this to the veterans in our gallery, I am so grateful for your service. I’m so thankful that we have the opportunity to debate, to make policy, and disagree in freedom and in peace because of your sacrifice. I want to thank you for your service and remind everybody to please keep those that continue to be in harm’s way in your prayers. Thank you."

SENATOR PATE: "First of all, Senator Dannelly slipped me a note to remind Senator Brunstetter that it was the Spanish-American War! Thank you for his service as well. Ladies and Gentlemen, Memorial Day weekend has become the beginning of summer as we know it in the United States and a lot of people don’t even think about what Memorial Day weekend stands for. But, that’s their right. That is their right that so many people fought and died for so that they can make that choice. But as you go along this weekend, whatever plans you may have I hope you will take a moment and think about the ultimate sacrifice that’s been made by so many people, so many youth, from our country, who have done this ultimate sacrifice. And if you have an opportunity, I’m sure just about every community has a Memorial Day Service sometime this weekend, and I would urge you to take a moment and go by and participate because they are very moving services and you will not know how much it will be appreciated by your presence for a family member who have lost a loved one. So I commend this resolution to you.”

SENATOR EAST: "Mr. President, three or four weeks ago, Senator Hartsell stood up and told us all about a situation where a young fellow was at first missing in action in Viet Nam in the late 60’s, as I recall, and some ten years later he was declared dead and had all the military rites and whatever goes along when one is announced officially dead and he also told us that recently some identifying bone fragments had been found in the country of Laos and there was to be a celebration of this young fellow’s life in Concord and he invited us all to go. Well, guess what, me and Senator Bingham and three other fellows from Raleigh and we drove to Concord, on our motorcycles to Concord. I’ve never spent a more moving day, a more wonderful day in tribute to a young fellow who was probably about my age, probably about Senator Hartsell’s age, who left Concord as a boy and only returned to Concord almost fifty plus years later. That was a wonderful, moving experience. It was a tremendously patriotic experience. There were thousands and thousands of motorcycles, antique cars, and had bands and singing. They finally brought the remains of this soldier home and brought a little closure to his family. It was a wonderful, wonderful ceremony. Senator Hartsell, thank you so much for inviting us and I’m so proud to have taken part in that event.”

SENATOR BROWN: "Thank you, Mr. President. You know, I’m very, very fortunate to represent a county, Onslow County, that has Camp Lejeune and New River Air Station, and we have probably, I guess, somewhere in the 50,000 range as far as Marines that are stationed in my district. Memorial Day is a very special day in Onslow County. There will probably be, I would guess, probably anywhere from 5-10 ceremonies this weekend in Onslow County. I try to attend at least a couple of them each year. There’s a key ceremony that’s always in a veterans cemetery in Jacksonville and that one in particular, I try to attend because it’s, in my opinion, one of the best I would say across the state. It is well attended, there will be hundreds of people at this event and it’s a very, very moving event. I would just challenge all of you this weekend to take some time and go to one of these events. Senator East, you’re right, they’re moving and, you know, when you’re around this group of people and in my case daily, I think it just means a little bit more. You know, you really appreciate, I think this holiday, a whole lot more than any other probably. We’ll lay a couple of wreaths that day during that ceremony and we’ll have a celebration of those lives and normally we have a speaker that has been a lifelong military person and really will probably tell us a moving story about his life in the military. It’s just, I can’t tell you how good of an event it is and I’m sure Senator Mansfield, Senator Meredith from Fayetteville, I’m sure you’ve got the same situation but I would really challenge you to go to one of these events. It is a special, special event and a special day and I think it will touch you probably like nothing else. So, I ask you to support this resolution."

SENATOR DANNELLY: "Ladies and Gentlemen, I guess being the senior veteran in this body I want to remind you of something that Senator Brunstetter sort of touched on it. We’re honoring veterans on this day but as we honor those veterans and give our wholehearted thanks and support to the surviving family members. They’re the ones that are still suffering. Let us never forget them because their loved ones made the ultimate sacrifice so that we could enjoy the freedoms we have now. I urge you to support this resolution."

SENATOR DANIEL: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, I thank my distinguished colleague, Senator Brunstetter, for bringing this forward. During the week we have a friendly Army-Navy rivalry. On Memorial Day, we put that aside for the time being to resume next week. As we went down the list of the deceased on this resolution I noticed that Army Specialist Jacob Carroll from Clemmons, NC, is the grandson of one of the county commissioners in my county. He was a fourth generation Army soldier and the only one that wasn’t able to return. I was also sitting here thinking about some of the cadet knowledge we had to learn as a West Point cadet and I was reminded of the Code of Conduct, the Army Code of Conduct, which many of you in the gallery, I am sure, had to learn and which every Army soldier has to learn and if you’ll allow me, Mr. President, I’d like to read it. At one point I had it committed to memory but no longer. The Army Code of Conduct says and the reason I would like to read it to you is because I think it tells you the commitment that Army soldiers have to the job that they’re called to do:

I am an American fighting in the forces which guard my country and our way of life. I am prepared to give my life in their defense. I will never surrender of my own free will. If in command I will never surrender the members of my command while they still have the means to resist. If I am captured I will continue to resist by all means available. I will make every effort to escape and to aid others to escape. I will accept neither parole nor special favors from the enemy. If I become a Prisoner of War I will keep faith with my fellow prisoners. I will give no information or take part in any action which might be harmful to my comrades. If I am a senior I will take command; if not, I will obey the lawful orders of those appointed over me and will back them up in every way. When questioned should I become a Prisoner of War, I am required to give name, rank, service number and date of birth. I will evade answering further questions to the utmost of my ability. I will make no oral or written statements disloyal to my country and its allies or harmful to their cause. I will never forget that I am an American fighting for freedom, responsible for my actions, and dedicated to the principles which made my country free. I will trust in my God and in the United States of America.

And, today, I just want to thank those that have died before us and the families who have suffered loss. Thank you."

SENATOR SOUCEK: "I had a moment as a company commander in the Army that drove home the meaning of Memorial Day to me. I was commanding an international company of soldiers that were in this country to train and one of the things we did, we took the officers that were going to be moving on in their country’s military and we brought them to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, and we thought that this was displaying a little bit of our culture and a little bit of what’s important to us and had a very surprising moment then. The soldiers from the Middle East, they were from Africa, they were from all over Europe, and they said, ‘Why in the world would you honor not only a dead soldier, but a soldier that you don’t even know who it was.’ And it gave me pause, that’s very common in our culture, that we understand what was foreign to them. And it made me pause to think why do we do this. And the answer I came up with and gave to them is because every living soldier we have knows that if they give the ultimate sacrifice that they will be remembered and they will be honored, and I thought we don’t do the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier to honor the dead, we do it to honor the living and what that means to every soldier that’s active duty, every veteran, and every family. And that was the moment I had and at the cemetery I was able to share, that drove it home to me. I would like to end with a short verse from the West Point alma mater that I think describes the situation well. It says ‘And when our work is done our course on earth is run, may it be said well done, be thou at Peace.’"

SENATOR ATWATER: "Please allow me to borrow from President Lincoln’s Gettysburg Address of 1863. I remember the line ‘...the world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here.’ I believe President Lincoln’s sentiment is just as relevant today as it was in 1863. It is our desire to never forget what our present day fallen veterans have done for each one of us and this nation. The fallen veterans that we honor today sacrificially died to preserve the freedom, safety and promise of this great nation. For some of these fallen veterans sadly we will never know the exact circumstances that surrounded their deaths in far away locations, but we will always remember the ultimate sacrifice that was made by them for their country and our way of life. It is a real privilege to stand before you today to remember these veterans as well as their loving and grieving families. In closing, there is another theme in President Lincoln’s remarks that always struck me as so very meaningful. He said, ‘If you really want to be about the business of honoring these soldiers, you need to be about the unfinished business that they were about.’ I think about our privileged roles as senators in this great state and nation to be about the business of the ‘unfinished business’ that President Lincoln invoked. May we rededicate ourselves to the unfinished business of unifying and perfecting a more perfect state and nation, a state and nation that truly reflects the reality of the great promises of the foundational principles upon which we were founded. May God bless America and the veterans whose names we called out today who all were either National Guard members or were from military units stationed in North Carolina and may God most especially bless the families of these fallen veterans and hold them so very close to His heart.”

SENATOR PHIL BERGER: "Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Senate, I think all of us are touched when we look through a list of people who have given the ultimate sacrifice, particularly when we think about the fact that the sacrifice has been so recent and that these were among us not that long ago. And so it’s natural for us to think about lives that are cut short; it’s natural for us to think about things that could have been done that will not be done, but you know, I think most of these folks would want us to think about the things that we are enabled to do because of what they did and I think sometimes we don’t put enough emphasis on that part of it. The fact that their sacrifice really should be for something and for us to understand that their sacrifice was and is for something and that there’s a responsibility that we have, not just to remember; which we do and we think about on Memorial Day and at other times when we meet with our veterans and when we celebrate or commemorate certain occasions, but we have an obligation and a responsibility to carry on and to perpetuate those things that were important to them, to carry on and perpetuate those values that they sacrificed for, and I think sometimes we get into the day-to-day grind, so to speak, even here at the Legislature, and we get into sometimes those things that seem critically important at one moment in time and yet, when we step back and we think about what’s really important, those are the things that I think the sacrifice was for and those are the things that I think we need to keep in mind and as we consider this resolution, I encourage everyone to vote for the resolution and support the resolution, but as we do that, on behalf of the entire Senate, I would of course express our appreciation to those veterans who are still with us because while they did not give the ultimate sacrifice that we honor today, they did sacrifice and they continue to sacrifice and so I thank you, each and every one of you, and those who are not here. And Mr. President, I ask that all members of the Senate support the resolution.”

LT. GOVERNOR: "On behalf of all the members of the Senate, we certainly want to extend the courtesies of the gallery to our military veterans. We are honored and privileged to have you here today and we are humbled to be in your presence. You are the ones that make this the greatest nation on earth, you have preserved and protected our freedoms at great sacrifice. Senator Dannelly is right, we thank your families also for their sacrifice because those also serve who stand and wait. North Carolina, if I recall history correctly, has given more in every war than any other state. We are very proud of that heritage. We are proud of our military presence in North Carolina, but most of all we are proud of you that are here today and we thank you for all that you have done for us. If you would all veterans in the gallery, I would first ask that you stand. I now ask the members to give a standing ovation. (Applause) You may be seated. Again, thank you so much. I would like to call each and every name. I’m not able to do that. I know Senator East has furnished me the members from the Jesse B. Jones Post 123 but again if I can’t call all the names, I feel it’s not appropriate to call the selected ones but we thank you for being here. You have honored our nation in so many ways.”

The Senate Resolution is adopted (50-0).

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Upon motion of Senator Nesbitt, the remarks by Senator Purcell on Medal of Honor recipients are spread upon the journal as follows:

SENATOR PURCELL: “Thank you, Mr. President. I hope this is a subject that we can all agree on as we end this session and go home for the weekend. We heard great testimony yesterday about our veterans and servicemen and very moving tributes were given to those who had given their lives for our country. Most of those servicemen who died in training or combat over the years were buried without any special recognition but they’re all heroes in my opinion. As we go home on this Memorial Day, I would like to share with you brief stories about three of North Carolina’s 19 servicemen who have received the Medal of Honor. From Canton, William David Halliburton, age 20, Pharmacists Mate 2nd Class, U. S. Navy. While serving with the Marine Rifle Company during action against Japanese forces on Okinawa on May 10, 1945, he dashed up an open fire-swept hill where the company advance squad was suddenly pinned down by a terrific concentration of mortar, machinegun and sniper fire resulting in severe casualties. He moved steadily forward to the wounded Marine who lay furthest away and was rendering first aid when his patient was struck again by a Japanese bullet. He instantly placed himself in the direct line of fire shielding the fallen fighter with his own body and continued his care although constantly menaced by shrapnel and bullets falling on all sides. Completely unselfish in his concern for the helpless Marine he persevered in his efforts until he himself sustained mortal wounds and collapsed heroically sacrificing himself that his comrade might live. He gallantly gave his life in the service of his country.

From Troy, Henry F. Warner, age 21, Corporal, U.S. Army Antitank Company, 26th Infantry Division, Belgium, December 21, 1944, during the Battle of the Bulge. In the first attack launched in the early morning of December 20th, enemy tanks succeeded in penetrating parts of the line. Corporal Warner disregarding the cannon and machinegun fire from two tanks bearing down on him and ignoring the imminent danger of being overrun by the infantry moving under tank cover, he destroyed the first tank and scored a direct hit and a deadly hit on the second tank. A third tank approached within five yards of his position as he was attempting to clear a jammed breach lock. Jumping from his gun pit he engaged in a pistol duel with the tank commander standing in the turret killing him and forcing the tank to withdraw. The enemy struck again in great forces in the early morning of December 21st. Seeing a Mark IV tank advancing towards his position, Corporal Warner scored a direct hit, disregarding his own injuries, he endeavored to finish loading and to fire again at the tank whose motor was now afame when the second machinegun burst killed him. Corporal Warner's gallantry at the risk of life above and beyond the call of duty contributed materially to the successful defense against enemy tanks. From Charlotte, Jerry K. Crump, age 18, Corporal, U. S. Army, Third Infantry Division, near Chorwon, Korea, September 6, 1951. During the night a numerically superior enemy force launched an assault against his platoon on Hill 284, overrunning friendly positions and swarming into the sector. Corporate Crump repeatedly exposed himself to deliver effective fire into the ranks of the enemy inflicting numerous casualties. Observing two enemy soldiers endeavoring to capture a friendly machinegun, he charged and killed both of them with his bayonet, regaining control of the machinegun. Returning to his position now occupied by four of his wounded comrades, he continued his accurate firing into enemy troops surrounding his emplacement. When a hostile soldier hurled a grenade into his position Corporate Crump immediately flung himself over the grenade, absorbing the blast with his body and saving his comrades from death or serious injury. His aggressive actions so inspired his comrades in a spirited counterattack drove the enemy from the perimeter. These stories about other North Carolina Medal of Honor winners are quite similar to these stories. Mr. President, members of the Senate, these stories and similar accounts are the reasons why we must continue to observe Memorial Day as a very sacred and important occasion."

Upon motion of Senator Phil Berger, seconded by Senator Purcell, the Senate adjourns at 12:13 p.m., in memory of fallen soldiers in the line of duty and subject to the receipt of messages from the House of Representatives, to meet Friday, May 27, at 10:00 a.m.

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"As we come before you, Lord, we must take a minute to quiet our hearts and our minds. There are lots of hard decisions before this body today, Almighty God. And we look to you, and we kneel before you, Lord, because you made us. Almighty God, to be our guide, be our vision, and be our ‘calm’ in the stormy blast. Help us not to be undone by suffering, but, in everything, trust you and see your grace, disguised. It is sometimes so very hard, but you, Lord, know our pain, and you know our joy. Come and abide with us on this day. In the name and for the sake of Jesus, Amen."

Senate Chamber
Thursday, June 9, 2011

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Walter Dalton, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Almighty God, lift our eyes to your hills. Show favor to your people here gathered. Before we ever knew you, God, while we were even your enemies, you, God, took us in. You took on flesh, and you, God, loved us, so much that you even called us your friends. He who dwells in the shelter of the most high will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. Would you reign in our hearts today oh incarnate word of the Father? Would you reign in these proceedings and would you show us again, and help us marvel, that you would call us, poor and needy sinners, to be your servants. In your forgiving name we pray, Amen."

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Tillman.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

June 9, 2011
FINAL APPROVAL OF CHARTER SCHOOL APPLICATIONS; TO RAISE THE ENROLLMENT GROWTH CAP TO TWENTY PERCENT; TO PERMIT CHARTER SCHOOLS TO CHARGE FEES CHARGED BY THE LOCAL SCHOOL ADMINISTRATIVE UNIT; TO STRENGTHEN THE STANDARDS FOR RETAINING A CHARTER FOR A CHARTER SCHOOL; AND TO REQUIRE THE STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION TO REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY ON CHARTER SCHOOLS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 115C-238.29D(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The State Board shall may grant final approval of an application if it finds that the application meets the requirements set out in this Part or adopted by the State Board of Education and that granting the application would achieve one or more of the purposes set out in G.S. 115C-238.29A. The State Board shall act by March 15 of a calendar year on all applications and appeals it receives prior to February 15 of that calendar year."

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 115C-238.29D(b) is repealed.

SECTION 2.(b) G.S. 115C-105.37B(a)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, the State Board of Education is authorized to approve a local board of education's request to reform any school in its administrative unit which the State Board of Education has identified as one of the continually low-performing schools in North Carolina.

If the State Board of Education approves a local board of education's request to reform a school, the State Board of Education may authorize the local board of education to adopt one of the following models in accordance with State Board of Education requirements:

... Restart model, in which the State Board of Education would authorize the local board of education to operate the school with the same exemptions from statutes and rules as a charter school authorized under Part 6A of Article 16 of this Chapter, or under the management of an educational management organization that has been selected through a rigorous review process. A school operated under this subdivision remains under the control of the local board of education, and employees assigned to the school are employees of the local school administrative unit with the protections provided by G.S. 115C-325. This subdivision shall not be interpreted to increase the maximum number of charter schools provided in G.S. 115C-238.29D(b). No school authorized under this subsection shall count against the limit provided for charter schools in G.S. 115C-238.29D(b)."

SECTION 3. G.S. 115C-238.29D(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The State Board of Education may grant the initial charter for a period not to exceed 10 years and may renew the charter upon the request of the chartering entity for subsequent periods not to exceed 10 years each. The State Board of Education shall review the operations of each charter school at least once every five years to ensure that the school is meeting the expected academic, financial, and governance standards.

June 9, 2011

A material revision of the provisions of a charter application shall be made only upon the approval of the State Board of Education.

It shall not be considered a material revision of a charter application and shall not require the prior approval of the State Board for a charter school to increase its enrollment during the charter school’s second year of operation and annually thereafter (i) by up to ten percent (10%) of the school’s previous year’s enrollment or (ii) in accordance with planned growth as authorized in the charter. Other enrollment growth shall be considered a material revision of the charter application, and the State Board may approve such additional enrollment growth of greater than ten percent (10%) only if the State Board finds that:

1. The actual enrollment of the charter school is within ten percent (10%) of its maximum authorized enrollment;
2. The charter school has commitments for ninety percent (90%) of the requested maximum growth;
3. The board of education of the local school administrative unit in which the charter school is located has had an opportunity to be heard by the State Board of Education on any adverse impact the proposed growth would have on the unit's ability to provide a sound basic education to its students;
4. The charter school is not currently identified as low-performing;
5. The charter school meets generally accepted standards of fiscal management; and
6. It is otherwise appropriate to approve the enrollment growth.

SECTION 4. G.S. 115C-238.29F(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) School Nonsectarian. – A charter school shall be nonsectarian in its programs, admission policies, employment practices, and all other operations and shall not charge tuition or fees, except that a charter school may charge any fees that are charged by the local school administrative unit in which the charter school is located. A charter school shall not be affiliated with a nonpublic sectarian school or a religious institution."

SECTION 5. G.S. 115C-238.29G is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(a1) The State Board shall adopt criteria for adequate performance by a charter school and shall identify charter schools with inadequate performance. The criteria shall include a requirement that a charter school which demonstrates no growth in student performance and has annual performance composites below sixty percent (60%) in any two years in a three-year period is inadequate.

June 9, 2011
If a charter school is inadequate in the first five years of the charter, the charter school shall develop a strategic plan to meet specific goals for student performance that are consistent with State Board criteria and the mission approved in the charter school. The strategic plan shall be reviewed and approved by the State Board. The State Board is authorized to terminate or not renew a charter for failure to demonstrate improvement under the strategic plan.

If a charter school is inadequate and has had a charter for more than five years, the State Board is authorized to terminate or not renew the charter.

SECTION 6. The State Board of Education shall submit a preliminary report and a final report to the General Assembly on the implementation of this act, including (i) the creation, composition, and function of an advisory committee; (ii) the charter school application process; (iii) a profile of applicants and the basis for acceptance or rejection; and (iv) resources required at the State level for implementation of the charter school laws in Part 6A of Article 16 of Chapter 115C of the North Carolina General Statutes. The preliminary report shall be submitted by May 10, 2012, and the final report shall be submitted by June 11, 2012.

SECTION 7. This act becomes effective July 1, 2011.

Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the rules are suspended and the Conference Report, which changes the title, is placed on today’s supplemental calendar for adoption.

The text of the attached Proposed Conference Committee Substitute, S110-PCCS55313-SB-3 is as follows:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE PERMITTING AND CONSTRUCTION OF UP TO FOUR TERMINAL GROINS AT INLETS UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS.

Whereas, it has been the policy of the State of North Carolina since 1985, as stated in the Coastal Area Management Act and rules adopted pursuant to the act, to give preference to nonstructural responses to erosion, including relocation of threatened structures, beach nourishment, inlet relocation, and the temporary use of sandbags for short-term stabilization; and

Whereas, a terminal groin is a permanent erosion control structure that is constructed on the side of an inlet at the terminus of an island generally perpendicular to the shoreline to limit or control sediment passage into the inlet channel; and

Whereas, a terminal groin may reduce beach erosion, reduce the frequency of beach nourishment projects, and slow the migration of inlets; and

Whereas, the use of terminal groins on inlet beaches may adversely impact the value and enjoyment of adjacent properties, damage the public beach, obstruct public access to the beach and to navigable waters, and result in increased erosion to adjacent and downdrift properties; and

Whereas, due to the uncertainties associated with the costs and benefits of terminal groins, it is reasonable to authorize the Coastal Resources Commission to establish a terminal groin pilot program under which the

June 13, 2011
Commission may permit the construction of up to four terminal groins under certain conditions; and

Whereas, it is reasonable to authorize the Coastal Resources Commission to permit the construction of a terminal groin under the pilot program if the Commission finds that (i) structures or infrastructure are imminently threatened by erosion and that nonstructural approaches to erosion control are impractical; (ii) the terminal groin will be accompanied by a concurrent beach fill project; (iii) construction and maintenance of the terminal groin will not result in significant adverse impacts to private property or to the public recreational beach; (iv) the terminal groin will be managed pursuant to an inlet management plan; and (v) there are sufficient financial resources to cover the costs associated with the terminal groin; Now, therefore,
The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 113A-115.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 113A-115.1. Limitations on erosion control structures.

(a) As used in this section:

(1) "Erosion control structure" means a breakwater, bulkhead, groin, jetty, revetment, seawall, or any similar structure.

(1a) "Estuarine shoreline" means all shorelines that are not ocean shorelines that border estuarine waters as defined in G.S. 113A-113(b)(2).

(2) "Ocean shoreline" means the Atlantic Ocean, the oceanfront beaches, and frontal dunes. The term "ocean shoreline" includes an ocean inlet and lands adjacent to an ocean inlet but does not include that portion of any inlet and lands adjacent to the inlet that exhibits characteristics of estuarine shorelines.

(3) "Terminal groin" means a structure that is constructed on the side of an inlet at the terminus of an island generally perpendicular to the shoreline to limit or control sediment passage into the inlet channel.

(b) No person shall construct a permanent erosion control structure in an ocean shoreline. The Commission shall not permit the construction of a temporary erosion control structure that consists of anything other than sandbags in an ocean shoreline. This section shall not apply to (i) any any of the following:

(1) Any permanent erosion control structure that is approved pursuant to an exception set out in a rule adopted by the Commission prior to 1 July 2003 or (ii) any July 1, 2003.

(2) Any permanent erosion control structure that was originally constructed prior to 1 July 1974 and that has since been in continuous use to protect an inlet that is maintained for navigation.

(3) Any terminal groin permitted pursuant to this section.

(b1) This section shall not be construed to limit the authority of the Commission to adopt rules to designate or protect areas of environmental concern, to govern the use of sandbags, or to govern the use of erosion control structures in estuarine shorelines.

June 13, 2011
(c) The Commission may renew a permit for an erosion control structure issued pursuant to a variance granted by the Commission prior to July 1, 1995. The Commission may authorize the replacement of a permanent erosion control structure that was permitted by the Commission pursuant to a variance granted by the Commission prior to July 1, 1995, if the Commission finds that: (i) the structure will not be enlarged beyond the dimensions set out in the original permit; (ii) there is no practical alternative to replacing the structure that will provide the same or similar benefits; and (iii) the replacement structure will comply with all applicable laws and with all rules, other than the rule or rules with respect to which the Commission granted the variance, that are in effect at the time the structure is replaced.

(d) Any rule that prohibits permanent erosion control structures shall not apply to terminal groins permitted pursuant to this section.

(e) In addition to the requirements of Part 4 of Article 7 of Chapter 113A of the General Statutes, an applicant for a permit for the construction of a terminal groin shall submit all of the following to the Commission:

1. Information to demonstrate that structures or infrastructure are imminently threatened by erosion, and nonstructural approaches to erosion control, including relocation of threatened structures, are impractical.

   d. Restoration of public, private, or public trust property if the groin has an adverse impact on the environment or property.

(f) The Commission shall issue a permit for the construction of a terminal groin if the Commission finds no grounds for denying the permit under G.S. 113A-120 and the Commission finds all of the following:

(1) The applicant has complied with all of the requirements of subsection (e) of this section.

(2) The applicant has demonstrated that structures or infrastructure are imminently threatened by erosion and that nonstructural approaches to erosion control, including relocation of threatened structures, are impractical.

(3) The terminal groin will be accompanied by a concurrent beach fill project to prefill the groin.

(4) Construction and maintenance of the terminal groin will not result in significant adverse impacts to private property or to the public recreational beach. In making this finding, the Commission shall take into account mitigation measures, including the accompanying beach fill project, that will be incorporated into the project design and construction and the inlet management plan.

(5) The inlet management plan is adequate for purposes of monitoring the impacts of the proposed terminal groin and mitigating any adverse impacts identified as a result of the monitoring.

(6) Except to the extent expressly modified by this section, the project complies with State guidelines for coastal development adopted by the Commission pursuant to G.S. 113A-107.

(g) The Commission may issue no more than four permits for the construction of a terminal groin pursuant to this section.
