SENATE OFFICERS

SARAH LANG, Principal Clerk ........................................... Raleigh
LEE SETTLE, Reading Clerk  ............................................... Pinehurst
PHILIP KING, Sergeant-at-Arms ........................................ Southport

In accordance with law, as set forth in the Constitution of the State of North Carolina and N.C. General Statute §120-11.1, the Senate of the General Assembly of North Carolina assembles this day at the hour of 9:00 a.m. in the Senate Chamber of the Legislative Building in the City of Raleigh.

The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate, calls the Senate to order.

The Senate recesses at 9:02 a.m., due to inclement weather, to reconvene at 11:00 a.m.

RECESS

The Senate meets pursuant to recess and is called to order by Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

The President extends courtesies of the floor to the families and guests of the Senators and Senators-elect.

The President extends courtesies of the gallery to all visitors present.

The President extends courtesies of the gallery to his wife, Alice Forest, and his daughter, Haley. He extends courtesies of the floor to his son, Max.

The President recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms of the 2013 Session, Philip King, who announces the presence of The Honorable Mark D. Martin, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, at the doors of the Senate Chamber. The President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to open the doors of the chamber and to escort Chief Justice Martin to his seat.

The President recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms, who announces the presence of Beth Stovall, Miss North Carolina 2014, at the doors of the Senate Chamber. The President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to open the doors of the chamber and to escort Miss Stovall to her seat.

The President introduces The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain for the 2015 Session of the General Assembly, who offers prayer as follows:
“Heavenly Father, who art in heaven, come quickly to help us; make haste to save us, O Lord. We come before you today as individuals, citizens, members of families, clubs, universities, political parties, but first, Lord, as your children. Today we come to you, Lord, especially heavy on our hearts as we consider the life of Tammy Shiver, and we ask you to protect her and the family. We pray for her that you might heal her, and we lift her up into your arms, Jesus. For this reason, and so many reasons, Lord, we come before you today, and we pray that you might move in this place. We bow our knees before you, Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of your glory you might grant us to be strengthened with power through your Spirit in our inner being, so that Christ may dwell in our hearts through faith.” May this new session be pleasing in your sight, our Rock and Redeemer. Amen.”

*Ephesians 3:14, NIV (paraphrase)

PRESENTATION OF THE COLORS

The President orders the Sergeant-at-Arms to open the doors of the chamber for the Presentation of the Colors by the John Motley Morehead High School Army Junior ROTC Cadets, from Eden, North Carolina.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Led by the President, members and guests remain standing and pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

NATIONAL ANTHEM

Beth Stovall, Miss North Carolina 2014, sings “The Star-Spangled Banner.”

CALL OF THE ROLL/ELECTION CERTIFICATION

The Chair directs the Reading Clerk of the 2013 Session, Lee Settle, to call the roll by Senatorial District pursuant to the certification of election received from the Secretary of State, Elaine F. Marshall:

I, Elaine F. Marshall, Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the State Board of Elections met Tuesday, the 25th day of November, A.D., 2014 in accordance with Chapter 163 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, at which time the Board did open, canvass and judicially determine the returns of votes cast in the election held on Tuesday, November 4th, 2014 and certified to me the persons duly elected as members of the Senate from the various Senate Districts comprising of more than one county, and all others have been certified to me in the abstracts by the State Board of Elections as having the highest number of votes cast in the election for the Senate from districts composed of one county only, for the General Assembly of 2015 to wit:

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal.

DONE IN OFFICE at Raleigh, this 8th day of December, 2014.

S/Elaine F. Marshall
(S/Elaine F. Marshall, Secretary of State)

With forty-nine* Senators-elect answering the call of the roll, the President declares a quorum present and qualified.

OATH OF OFFICE

The President of the Senate recognizes The Honorable Mark D. Martin, who administers the following Oath of Office, to which those present respond and subscribe:

“I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will support the Constitution and laws of the United States, and I do solemnly and sincerely swear or affirm that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina and to the constitutional powers and authorities which are or may be established for the government thereof, and that I will endeavor to support, maintain, and defend the Constitution and laws of said State, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, to the best of my knowledge and ability; and I do solemnly and sincerely swear or affirm that I will faithfully discharge the duties of my office as a member of the Senate of the 2015 General Assembly of the State of North Carolina to the best of my knowledge and ability, so help me, God.”

ORGANIZATION OF THE SENATE

The President announces that the Senate stands ready to proceed with the election of officers and declares the floor open for nominations for President Pro Tempore of the Senate, pursuant to Article II, Section 14(1) of the North Carolina Constitution.

*Senator Angela R. Bryant was not present, but was administered the Oath of Office on January 8, 2015.

January 14, 2015
The President recognizes Senator Apodaca, who offers the following nomination:

“Thank you, Mr. President, members. I’d like to take this time to nominate Phil Berger for President Pro Tem of the North Carolina Senate.”

The President recognizes Senator Brown, who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. President, members, this is a great honor for me for the third time to rise and second the nomination of Senator Phil Berger for President Pro Tempore of the 2015 North Carolina Senate. I further move that the nominations be closed and Senator Berger’s nomination be accepted by acclamation.”

The President recognizes Senator Apodaca, who offers the following remarks:

“Thank you, Mr. President. Members, you know, today is a day that many of us that have been here some time all think back to our first time here. I look around and I see so many new faces, and I see a few old faces—like Rucho, Hartsell—and they keep getting older as time goes on, but it is always reassuring to look over to my right and, when he’s here, see Senator Berger. Senator Berger has been with us since, goodness, what was it 2001, Bob, he came in? He’s been a fixture here, and it is a pleasure for me to nominate him as our President Pro Tem for the third time. Somebody was talking to me about, ‘well, what are you going to say when you nominate Phil,’ and I said, ‘well, after the third time I’m running out of things to say,’ and they said, ‘well, how is Phil Berger to work with?’ I have never worked with someone as steady as Phil Berger. What you see is what you get, and he never changes, and you know where you stand. He’ll listen to what anybody has to say, and many times he’ll keep listening and listening and listening, and then he’ll speak, and he’ll speak, speak, and speak, but that’s another story. The most fascinating thing I thought of over the last two years are the Monday night events we have seen occasionally held here at the building. One particular Monday night, we had a group of school teachers, and they really weren’t happy. I’m used to that, though, I’m married to a teacher. I know how that goes. We sat down, and we were going to dinner that night, as a matter of fact, but we sat down and met with those teachers for well over an hour. Senator Berger sat right there and listened to every word they had to say—as a gentleman, calmly, much more so than I. He spoke with them, and he continued to talk with them, and they left that meeting, maybe they didn’t agree with what was said, but they left that meeting feeling like they had been heard. I don’t think we can give a compliment more than that to the leader of the North Carolina Senate. I think every member in this room either has had or will have the opportunity to sit down with Senator Berger, and you’ll have his undivided attention, and he’ll have a conversation with you. As you look at Phil Berger, January 14, 2015 the man, he represents family, and his family means more to him than anything else in the world, and I can attest to that. These beautiful grandchildren, I don’t know how many they have now, they seem to have one every couple of years, so I think they’re up to a dozen, but, anyway, and he’s looking forward to more children. I have formed a special bond with Senator Berger’s wife, Pat. Pat’s a lovely person. Pat and I have this in common, we do all the work, he gets all the glory, so we do have that special bond. All that being said, there’s no greater man in this building and no better person for this job than Phil Berger, Sr. It is with pleasure and honor that I nominate him today to be our President Pro Temp. Thank you, Mr. President.”

The motion offered by Senator Brown that the nominations be closed and that Senator Philip E. Berger be elected President Pro Tempore by acclamation prevails.

The President declares Senator Philip E. Berger duly elected President Pro Tempore and appoints Senator Apodaca, Senator Blue, Senator Brown, Senator Harrington, Senator McKissick, and Senator Rucho to escort the President Pro Tempore-elect to the well of the Senate. Senator Apodaca presents Senator Berger to the President. The President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort Senator Berger’s son, Kevin, his granddaughter, Emily, and his grandson, Jackson, to the well of the Senate, where they join him as he receives the prescribed Oath of Office. The Honorable Mark D. Martin administers the prescribed Oath of Office.

The President recognizes Senator Philip E. Berger, President Pro Tempore, who addresses the Senate from the well of the Senate and offers the following remarks:

“Thank you Mr. Chairman, Mr. President. Thank you, ladies and gentlemen, for the warm welcome. Thank you to my colleagues for once again entrusting me to serve as President Pro Tempore of the North Carolina Senate. I look forward to working with each one of you as we go forward today, committed to doing great things for the people of this state. To the families of our members, I thank you for sharing your loved ones with us. It is a great sacrifice for family members for you to have someone serving the state of North Carolina in this chamber. We appreciate it more than you know. I’d also like to thank a few other folks. First, I’d like to thank my family—Pat, my wife; Kevin, my son; Jackson and Emily, my grandchildren—for being here today. Like many of you, they have had to sacrifice a great deal for the time away from home and time away from family, so I thank them for that, and they know how much I appreciate it. Chief Justice Martin, thank you for participating in our ceremony today. This is one of the really nice things about serving in public office, and it’s a good thing to have the Chief Justice of our State Supreme Court help participate in this ceremony. Lieutenant Governor Forest, thank you for presiding over the Senate, and thank you for your actions over the past two years and what you will do with us over the next couple of years. I’d also like to thank some folks that were in here but are not here now. Beth Stovall, Miss North Carolina, I would like to thank her for that wonderful rendition of the National Anthem. I don’t know that there are that many folks in the state or in this country that can hit those notes, but she did it magnificently. I’d like to thank the Junior Army ROTC Color Guard from John Motley Morehead High School for participating in the ceremony. It is gratifying, I think, for many of us, I know for me, to see young people that are dedicated to improving their skills in many things, but to see the precision that those young people were able to march in and handle the flags in the way they did is something great, and they happen to be from my home town in Eden—so, a good thing. Today marks the third occasion that I’ve had the honor and the privilege to stand before you to offer a vision for the work of this body at the start of a legislative session. Today, North Carolina’s future shines brighter than it did when I stood before you two years ago—and brighter still than when I stood before you four years ago. Back then, when Republicans assumed leadership of the General Assembly for the first time in more than a century, North Carolina’s unemployment rate stood at over 10 percent—the fifth highest in the nation. We faced stagnant job growth, record multi-billion dollar budget deficits, and the region’s highest tax rates. But in the four years since I first addressed you—thanks in large part to the hard work of so many of the people in this room—we are seeing positive results. Our unemployment rate has dropped nearly in half. North Carolina businesses have created more than 263,000 new jobs, and the number of people working in North Carolina has climbed to historic highs. Reductions in state income and sales taxes have put more money in the pockets of hardworking families across the state. We are proud of these results from policies driven by what the voters elected us to do. They elected us to balance the state budget and control the growth of government spending. They elected us to reform our tax code, reduce the tax burden on families and small businesses, and they elected us to reform public education to improve student outcomes. These decisions, made in partnership with our House colleagues over the past four years and with Governor McCrory over the past two years, have helped turn North Carolina around. The changes we have implemented over the past four years are making our state a better place to build a business and a better place to live and raise a family, but make no mistake—there is more to be done. Voters have seen the positive direction our state is headed and have again returned us to continue along the new path we’ve forged. It is a great responsibility as we enter our third full session of implementing a new direction for North Carolina. As we do that, we remain just as dedicated to affecting positive change and every bit as committed to fulfilling our promises as we were four years ago. In the coming session, we’ll continue to develop policies that create a stronger education system and a stronger business climate with the goal of sustaining North Carolina’s strong job growth. We’ll continue working to improve our public schools—because we recognize that a great education not only opens the door to a bright future for our children, it also builds a capable workforce and will attract businesses to our state. We’ll fulfill our important promise to raise starting teacher pay to $35,000 so we can attract... and retain the best talent in our classrooms. We’ll explore even more ways to improve the business tax climate so more jobs can be created—and ways to make taxes less burdensome for our families so regular folks can keep more of their own money. We’ll renew our efforts to reduce regulatory burdens that misdirect time and energy toward red tape and bureaucracy and away from growing businesses and getting people back to work. We’ll continue to examine ways to make state government smarter and more efficient. We’ll explore other conservative, common sense policy changes that will keep North Carolina on the path to prosperity. To my colleagues, our experience has shown that we can accomplish a great deal when we work together. Certainly we won’t always agree on every issue, and we’ll have many spirited debates in this chamber in the weeks and the months ahead, but the most important thing to remember is why each of us is here. We are here to increase opportunity for those who are working hard and doing the best they can to provide for their families. We are here to support the entrepreneurs, innovators, small business owners, and job creators, who are fueling our economic recovery. We are here to provide responsible solutions that improve state government for our citizens, and we are here to come together to do what is best for North Carolina. If we bear these goals in mind, there is no doubt that the change we bring about for our constituents and our state will be real, will be positive, and will be lasting. To the people of North Carolina, thank you for your support and for the opportunity to serve. May God bless this body and the people of our state. Thank you.”

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Mary Graff from Raleigh, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

ADOPTION OF RULES

Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, a resolution filed for introduction today is presented to the Senate, read the first time, and disposed of as follows:

By Senator Apodaca:

S.R. 1, A SENATE RESOLUTION ADOPTING THE PERMANENT RULES OF THE SENATE FOR THE REGULAR SESSION OF THE 2015 GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the Senate Resolution is read a second time and is placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the Senate Resolution is adopted (49-0).

The text of the resolution is as follows:

A SENATE RESOLUTION ADOPTING THE PERMANENT RULES OF THE SENATE FOR THE REGULAR SESSION OF THE 2015 GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Be it resolved by the Senate:

SECTION 1. The permanent rules for the Regular Sessions of the Senate shall be as follows:

January 14, 2015
I. ORDER OF BUSINESS

RULE 1. Rules controlling the Senate of North Carolina and its committees. – The following rules shall govern and control all actions and procedures of the Senate and its committees.

RULE 1.1. Emergencies. – In the event of a disaster, natural or otherwise, that precludes the General Assembly from meeting in the Legislative Building, the members will be notified by the President Pro Tempore where and when the Senate will convene.

RULE 2. Convening hour. – (a) The Presiding Officer shall take the Chair at the hour fixed by the Senate upon adjournment on the preceding legislative day and shall call the members to order. In case the Senate adjourned on the preceding legislative day without having fixed the hour of reconvening, the Senate shall reconvene on the next legislative day at 2:00 P.M., except that if the next legislative day is Monday, the time for reconvening shall be 7:00 P.M.

(b) At the hour fixed by the Senate upon adjournment on the preceding legislative day, or at the hour to which the Senate has previously recessed on that same legislative day, and upon direction from the President Pro Tempore of the Senate or the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, the Principal Clerk of the Senate may convene the Senate for the purpose of announcing to the Chamber that the Senate stands in recess until a later, specified hour.

RULE 3. Opening the session. – The Presiding Officer shall, upon order being obtained, have the sessions of the Senate opened with prayer.

RULE 4. Convening and presiding in absence of President. – In the absence of the President, the President Pro Tempore or a Senator designated by the President Pro Tempore shall convene or reconvene the Senate and preside, and during such time shall be vested with all powers of the President of the Senate except that of casting a vote in case of a tie when the President Pro Tempore or the designated Presiding Officer has already voted on the question as a Senator. In the event of the absence of the President and President Pro Tempore at any time fixed for the reconvening of the Senate, the Senate shall be called to order by a member designated by the President Pro Tempore, or if no member is designated, by the Deputy President Pro Tempore of the Senate. If no member has been designated and the Deputy President Pro Tempore is also absent, the Senate shall be called to order by the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, who shall designate some member to act as...
Presiding Officer. The Principal Clerk of the Senate may convene the Senate for the purpose of notifying the Chamber that the Senate stands in recess pursuant to Rule 2(b) of these Rules.

RULE 5. Quorum. – (a) A quorum consists of a majority of all the qualified members of the Senate.

(b) When a lesser number than a quorum convenes, the Senators present may send the Sergeant-at-Arms or any person, for any or all absent Senators, as a majority of the Senators present determines.

RULE 6. Approval of Journal. – After the prayer, and upon appearance of a quorum, the Presiding Officer shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read and approved, unless the President Pro Tempore or, in the President Pro Tempore’s absence, the Deputy President Pro Tempore of the Senate or some member of the Senate by motion sustained by a majority of the members present, has the reading thereof dispensed with and the same approved as written.

RULE 7. Order of business. – After approval of the Journal, the order of business shall be as follows:

(1) Reports of standing committees.
(2) Reports of select committees.
(3) Introduction of bills, petitions, and resolutions.
(4) Messages from the House of Representatives.
(5) Veto messages from the Governor.
(6) Unfinished business of preceding day.
(7) Special orders.
(8) General orders:
   a. Local bills in numerical order, Senate bills first:
      1. Third reading roll call and electronic voting system votes.
      2. Second reading roll call and electronic voting system votes.
      4. Third reading viva voce.
   b. Public bills in numerical order, Senate bills first:
      1. Third reading roll call and electronic voting system votes.
      2. Second reading roll call and electronic voting system votes.
      4. Third reading viva voce.

II. CONDUCT OF DEBATE

RULE 8. Presiding Officer to maintain order. – The Presiding Officer shall have general direction of the Hall of the Senate and shall be authorized to take such action as is necessary to maintain order, and in case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct in the galleries or lobbies, the Presiding Officer shall have the power to order those areas cleared.

RULE 9. (Reserved for future use).

January 14, 2015
RULE 10. Points of order. – (a) The Presiding Officer shall preserve order and decorum and proceed with the business of the Senate according to the rules adopted. The Presiding Officer shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, whose decision may be appealed to the Senate by any member, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once unless by leave of the Senate. A two-thirds vote of the membership of the Senate present and voting is necessary to sustain any appeal from the ruling of the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate.

(b) In the event the Senate Rules do not provide for or cover any point of order raised by any Senator, the rules of the United States House of Representatives shall govern.

(c) When a Senator is called to order, that Senator shall take the assigned seat until the Presiding Officer determines whether that Senator was in order or not; if decided to be out of order, that Senator shall not proceed without the permission of the Senate; and every question of order shall be decided by the Presiding Officer, subject to an appeal to the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, whose decision may be appealed to the Senate by any Senator; and if a Senator is called to order for words spoken, the words to which an exception is made shall be immediately preserved by the Principal Clerk, so that the Presiding Officer, Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, or Senate may be better able to judge the matter.

RULE 11. Debating and voting by Lieutenant Governor. – The Lieutenant Governor, as President of the Senate, being a Constitutional Officer, shall not have the right to debate any question or to address the Senate upon any proposition unless by permission of the majority of members present and shall have the right to vote only when there is a tie vote upon any question or election.

RULE 12. Obtaining recognition. – (a) When any Senator is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the Senate, that Senator shall rise and respectfully address the Presiding Officer. No member shall speak further until recognized by the Presiding Officer. The Presiding Officer shall recognize the first to rise and, when two or more members rise at the same time, the Presiding Officer shall name the member to speak, giving priority to the President Pro Tempore, the Deputy President Pro Tempore, or the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate.

(b) A Senator who has the floor may yield the floor to another Senator only for the purpose of allowing another Senator to state a question. Only the Presiding Officer may award the floor to any Senator.

(c) A Senator who has obtained the floor may be interrupted only for the following reasons:

(1) A request that the member speaking yield for a question;
(2) A point of order; or
(3) A parliamentary inquiry.

(d) When a Senator refers to a bill, the bill number and short title must be used.

RULE 13. (Reserved for future use).

January 14, 2015
RULE 14. Limitations on individual debate. – (a) No Senator shall speak on the same reading more than twice on the main question, nor longer than 30 minutes for the first speech and 15 minutes for the second speech. No Senator shall speak on the same reading more than once on any motion or appeal, and then no longer than 10 minutes.

(b) With leave of the Senate, any member of the Senate may address the Senate from the well of the Senate.

RULE 15. Questions of personal privilege; explanation of vote.

– (a) Upon recognition by the Presiding Officer for that purpose, any Senator may speak to a question of personal privilege for a time not exceeding three minutes, and may use some or all of that time to explain to the Senate a “Senatorial Statement of Personal Privilege.” Upon motion supported by a majority present and voting, that statement may be spread upon the Journal. Neither personal privilege nor a Senatorial Statement of Personal Privilege may be used to explain a vote, debate a bill, or in any way disrupt the regular business of the Senate, nor shall such opportunities be used to solicit support or sponsors for any bill. The format of Senatorial Statements of Personal Privilege shall be prescribed by the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, but in any case shall speak only in the voice of the Senator submitting it. The Presiding Officer shall determine if the question raised is one of privilege and shall, without the point of order being raised, enforce this rule, subject to an appeal to the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate whose decision may be appealed to the Senate by any Senator, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once unless by leave of the Senate. A two-thirds vote of the membership of the Senate present and voting is necessary to sustain any appeal from the ruling of the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate.

(b) Any Senator may explain that Senator’s vote on any bill that day by obtaining permission of the Presiding Officer after the final vote is taken. No more than three minutes shall be consumed in such explanation.

(c) Questions of personal privilege and explanations of vote shall be the last orders of the Senate’s business that day.

RULE 16. (Reserved for future use).

RULE 17. General decorum. – (a) Male Senators and male visitors shall not wear any head covering in the Senate Chamber while the Senate is in session, unless one’s religion requires his head to be covered. All persons on the Senate floor while the Senate is in session shall be dressed in business attire, including coat and tie for men.

(b) No derogatory remark reflecting personally upon any Senator shall be in order upon the floor of the Senate unless preceded by a motion or resolution of censure.

(c) When the Presiding Officer is putting a question, or a division by counting is in progress, no Senator shall walk out of or across the Chamber, nor when a Senator is speaking, pass between that Senator and the Presiding Officer.

January 14, 2015
(d) When a motion to adjourn or for recess is affirmatively determined, no member or officer shall leave that member or officer’s place until adjournment or recess is declared by the Presiding Officer.

(e) Smoking shall not be allowed in the Senate Chamber.

(f) No remark soliciting the donation of funds for the support of any person or organization shall be in order upon the floor of the Senate, unless the remark has some relevance to a bill or resolution before the body. No article of any kind soliciting business or donations may be placed by any person anywhere in the Senate Chamber or in any Senate office.

(g) The President Pro Tempore may authorize and provide for the broadcasting of Senate sessions via television or Internet.

(h) Reading of newspapers, magazines, periodicals, or books shall not be permitted while the Senate is in session. This rule does not prohibit the use of electronic devices, the use of quotations during debate or for personal privilege.

(i) The operation of:
   a. Vocal wireless communication devices, or
   b. Any other electronic devices whose sound cannot be muted, are prohibited on the floor or in the gallery while the Senate is in session.

(j) No member of the Senate shall place any item on another Senator’s Chamber desk or in another Senator’s office unless the item conspicuously displays the name of the Senator placing the item.

(k) No person other than the member, the member’s legislative assistant, or the Principal Clerk’s office or staff under the direction of the Principal Clerk, shall place any matter on the member’s Chamber desk, then only materials relevant to the business of the Senate, or as allowed under subsection (j) of this section.

(l) Neither food nor beverage shall be permitted in the galleries.

III. MOTIONS

RULE 18. Motions generally. – Any motion shall be reduced to writing, if requested by the Presiding Officer or a Senator, and read by the Presiding Officer or Reading Clerk before the same is debated. Any motion may be withdrawn by the introducer at any time before decision or amendment. No motion relating to a bill shall be in order which does not identify the bill by its number and short title. Except as otherwise specifically provided in these rules, no second is required.

RULE 19. Motion; order of precedence. – When a question is before the Senate, no motion shall be received except those herein specified, which motions shall have precedence as follows:

(1) To adjourn.
(2) To resolve into the Committee of the Whole Senate.
(3) To lay on the table.
(4) For the previous question.
(5) To postpone indefinitely.
(6) To postpone to a certain day.

January 14, 2015
(7) To re-refer to a standing committee.
(8) To refer to a select committee.
(9) To amend.

RULE 20. Motions requiring a second. – The motions to adjourn, to resolve into the Committee of the Whole Senate, to lay on the table, and to call for the previous question shall be seconded and decided without debate.

RULE 21. Motions to postpone to certain day and to commit. – The respective motions to postpone to a certain day, to resolve into the Committee of the Whole Senate, or to commit to a standing or select committee shall preclude debate on the main question.

RULE 22. Motion to substitute. – Subject to Rule 19, a member may offer a motion to substitute to any motion, except the motions for the previous question, to table, to resolve into the Committee of the Whole Senate, or to adjourn. No motion to substitute shall be offered to a motion to substitute.

RULE 23. Motion for previous question. – (a) The previous question may be moved upon a pending single motion, any pending amendment or amendments, and/or the pending bill to its passage on that reading or all readings or the pending resolution to its adoption. An authorized Senator moving the previous question shall specify to what the motion applies. Unless specified, the motion shall be deemed to apply to the current question.

(b) The previous question shall be as follows: “Shall the main question be now put?” and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments and debate. If this question is decided in the affirmative, the “main question” shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution, or other matter under consideration; but when amendments are pending, the question shall be taken upon such amendments in their inverse order, without further debate or amendment.

(c) Only one of the following Senators may move the previous question:

(1) The chair of the committee submitting the report on the bill or other matter under consideration;
(2) The member introducing the bill or other matter under consideration;
(3) The member in charge of the measure, who shall be designated by the chair of the committee reporting the same to the Senate at the time the bill or other matter under consideration is reported to the Senate or taken up for consideration;
(4) The Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate; or
(5) The President Pro Tempore.

RULE 24. Motion to reconsider. – (a) When a question has been once put and decided, any Senator who voted in the majority may move to reconsider the vote thereof. No motion for reconsideration shall be in order unless made on the same day or in the next following legislative day on which the vote took place. When the next legislative day has by motion of the Senate been restricted as to matters which may be considered, a motion to reconsider... shall be in order on the next succeeding day upon which regular business is conducted. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this rule, a motion to reconsider is in order at any time if made by the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate or the President Pro Tempore for the sole purpose of correcting grammatical errors in bills in the possession of the Senate.

(c) If a bill has gone out of the possession of the Senate and a motion to reconsider under these rules is passed, the bill shall not be enrolled unless it again passes third reading. The Principal Clerk shall notify the House of Representatives and the Enrolling Clerk of any action under this subsection.

RULE 24.1. Motion to adjourn or stand in recess; standard stipulations. – A motion to adjourn or stand in recess subject to the standard stipulations shall constitute a motion to adjourn or stand in recess subject to the introduction of bills, referral and re-referral of bills, the reading of Senatorial Statements, and messages from the Governor.

IV. VOTING

RULE 25. Use of electronic voting system. – (a) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system, and the ayes and noes shall be recorded on the Journal:

(1) All questions on which the Constitution of North Carolina requires that the ayes and noes be taken and recorded on the Journal;

(2) All questions on which a call for the ayes and noes under Rule 26(b) has been sustained;

(3) Second and third readings of bills proposing amendment of the Constitution of North Carolina; and

(4) The vote on approval of a bill that was vetoed by the Governor.

(b) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system, and the resulting totals shall be recorded on the Journal:

(1) Second reading of all public bills, all amendments to public bills offered after second reading, third reading if a public bill was amended after second reading, and all conference reports on public bills.

(2) Any other question upon direction of the Presiding Officer or upon motion of any Senator supported by one-fifth of the Senators present.

(c) When the electronic voting system is used, the Presiding Officer shall fix and announce the time, not to exceed one minute, which shall be allowed for voting on the question before the Senate. The system shall be set to lock automatically and to record the vote when that time has expired. Once the system has locked and recorded a vote, the vote shall be printed by the system.

(d) The voting station at each Senator’s desk in the Chamber shall be used only by the Senator to whom the station is assigned. Under no circumstances shall any other person vote at a Senator’s station. It is a breach of the ethical obligation of a Senator either to request that another vote at the requesting Senator’s station or to vote at another Senator’s station. The Presiding Officer shall enforce this rule without exception.

(e) When the electronic voting system is used, the Presiding Officer shall state the question and shall then state substantially the following: “All in favor vote ‘aye’; all opposed vote ‘no’; ______ seconds will be allowed for voting on this question; the Clerk will record the vote.” After the machine locks and records the vote, the Presiding Officer shall announce the vote and declare the result, and no member may vote thereafter.

(f) One copy of the machine printout of the vote record shall be filed in the Office of the Principal Clerk, and one copy shall be filed in the Legislative Library where it shall be open to public inspection.

(g) When the Presiding Officer ascertains that the electronic voting system is inoperative before a vote is taken or while a vote is being taken on the electronic system, the Presiding Officer shall announce that fact to the Senate, and any partial electronic system voting record shall be voided. In such a case, if the Constitution of North Carolina or the Rules of the Senate require a call of the ayes and noes, the Clerk shall call the roll of the Senate, and the ayes and noes shall be taken manually and shall be recorded on the Journal. All other votes shall be taken as prescribed in Senate Rule 26. If, after a vote is taken on the electronic system, it is discovered that a malfunction caused an error in the electronic system printout, the Presiding Officer shall direct the Reading Clerk and the Principal Clerk to verify and correct the printout record and so advise the Senate.

(h) For the purpose of identifying motions on which the vote is taken on the electronic system (the identification codes having no relation to the order of precedence of motions), the motions are coded as follows:

1. To lay on the table.
2. To resolve into the Committee of the Whole Senate.
3. For the previous question.
4. To postpone indefinitely.
5. To postpone to a day certain.
6. To refer to a committee.
7. To reconsider.
8. To adopt.
9. To concur.
10. To take from the table.
11. Miscellaneous.

RULE 26. Voice votes; call for division; call for ayes and noes.

– (a) When the electronic voting system is not used, all votes on which a call of the roll of the Senate is not required shall be taken by voice vote. The question shall be put as follows: “Those in favor say ‘aye’,” and, after the affirmative vote is expressed, “Opposed ‘no’”; after which the Presiding Officer shall announce the result. If a division on any vote is desired, it must be called for immediately before the result of the voting is announced on any question, and, upon such call, the Presiding Officer shall require the members to stand and be counted for and against the proposition under consideration.

January 14, 2015
(b) The ayes and the noes may be called for on any question before the vote is taken. If a Senator desires the ayes and noes recorded on the Journal on a question, that Senator shall address the Presiding Officer and obtain recognition and say, “Upon that question I call for the ayes and noes.” Whereupon the Presiding Officer shall say, “Is the call sustained?” If one-fifth of the remaining Senators present then stand, the vote shall be taken on the electronic voting system if it is operative, and the ayes and noes shall be recorded on the Journal. If the electronic voting system is inoperative, the roll of the Senate shall be called and the ayes and noes taken manually and recorded on the Journal. If fewer than one-fifth of the Senators present stand to sustain the call, the Presiding Officer shall announce, “An insufficient number up,” and a vote by electronic voting or by voice, whichever is appropriate under the Rules of the Senate, shall be taken.

RULE 27. (Reserved for future use).

RULE 28. Dividing question. — (a) If a bill is subject to division into separate parts so that each part states a separate and distinct proposition capable of standing alone, a Senator may move that the question be divided. The motion shall:

1. Be in writing,
2. Be submitted to the Principal Clerk at the time the motion is made, and
3. Clearly state how the question is to be divided.

Upon a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, the motion shall be adopted.

(b) If the motion to divide the question is adopted, then there shall be no further amendment or debate on any of the distinct propositions.

(c) If the question is divided and any part thereof fails, then the bill or resolution and any pending amendments shall be removed from the calendar and re-referred to the committee from which the bill or resolution was reported.

(d) Only one motion to divide the question shall be in order during consideration of a bill or resolution.

RULE 29. Duty to vote; excuses. — (a) Every Senator who is within the Senate Chamber when the question is stated by the Presiding Officer shall vote thereon unless that Senator is excused by the Senate.

(b) A Senator who is a member of a committee shall, upon request, be excused from deliberations and voting on the bill while it is before the committee. The Senator must make the request to the chair of the committee when the bill is first taken up for consideration and before any motion or vote on the bill or any amendment to the bill. The Senator making the request for excuse in committee must renew that request for excuse on the floor of the Senate as set forth in this rule.

(c) Any Senator may move to be excused at any time from voting on any matter. The Senator may make a brief statement of the reasons for the motion which question shall be taken without debate on the motion.

January 14, 2015
(d) The Senator may send forward to the Principal Clerk, on a form provided by the Clerk, a concise statement of the reason for the motion, and the Clerk shall include this statement in the Journal.

(e) The Senator so excused shall not debate the bill or any amendment to the bill, vote on the bill, offer or vote on any amendment to the bill, or offer or vote on any motion concerning the bill at that reading, any subsequent reading, or any subsequent consideration of the bill.

(f) A Senator may move that the excuse of that Senator from deliberations on a particular bill be withdrawn, which question shall be determined without debate.

(g) A motion to be excused or for the withdrawal of an excuse shall be taken without debate.

(h) A motion by any Senator to change that Senator’s vote must be made on the same legislative day as the vote is taken. This subsection may not be suspended.

RULE 30. (Reserved for future use).

V. COMMITTEES

RULE 31. Appointment of committees. – The President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall have the exclusive right and authority to appoint the membership of all committees, regular and select, and to appoint committee chairs and vice-chairs and to establish select committees, but this does not exclude the right of the Senate by resolution to establish select committees. Upon the recommendation of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, the Senate may alter the name, number, and composition of the standing committees by a majority vote of the Senators present and voting.

RULE 32. List of standing/select committees. – The standing committees shall be:

Agriculture/Environment/Natural Resources Appropriations/Base Budget
  Appropriations on Department of Transportation Appropriations on Education/Higher Education
  Appropriations on General Government and Information Technology
  Appropriations on Health and Human Services Appropriations on Justice and Public Safety Appropriations on Natural and Economic Resources Commerce
Committee of the Whole Senate Education/Higher Education Finance
Health Care
Insurance Judiciary I
Judiciary II
State and Local Government
Pensions & Retirement and Aging Program Evaluation
Redistricting

January 14, 2015
RULE 33. Notice of committee meetings. – (a) Public notice of all committee meetings shall be given in the Senate. The required notice may be waived as to any meeting by the attendance at that meeting of all of the members of the committee or by personal waiver.

(b) The chair of the committee shall notify or cause to be notified the sponsor of each bill that is set for hearing or consideration before the committee as to the date, time, and place of that meeting.

(c) The published calendar shall reflect those committee notices received in the Office of the Principal Clerk prior to 3:30 P.M. or as announced in the daily session.

RULE 34. Membership of committees; quorum. – (a) Membership on standing committees shall consist of no fewer than five Senators, including the chairs and vice-chairs and ranking minority members.

The President Pro Tempore shall have the exclusive right and authority to determine the total number of members and the number of members of each political party of each committee. No Senator shall hold membership on more than 12 standing committees unless the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate provides otherwise.

A quorum of the Appropriations/Base Budget, Ways and Means, and Finance Committees shall consist of a majority of the committee. A quorum of any other committee shall consist of either the chair and five members or a majority of the committee, whichever is fewer.

(b) The President Pro Tempore and the Deputy President Pro Tempore may serve as ex officio members of each Senate committee and subcommittee.

RULE 35. Roll call vote in committee. – No roll call vote may be taken in any committee. The committee chair may vote in committee.

RULE 36. Standing committee and standing subcommittee meetings. – No committee or subcommittee shall hold a secret meeting. All meetings of committees and subcommittees shall be open to the public, except as provided in G.S. 143-318.14A(e). In no event shall final action be taken by any committee or subcommittee except in open session.

RULE 36.1. Committee minutes to Legislative Library. – The chair of a committee shall ensure that minutes, in a format and medium approved by the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, are compiled for each of the committee’s meetings. The minutes shall indicate the number of members present and the actions taken by the committee at the meeting. Not later than 30 days after the adjournment of each session of the General Assembly, the chair shall deliver the minutes to the Legislative Library. The President Pro Tempore of the Senate may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing said minutes upon application of the committee chair.

RULE 37. Committee of the Whole Senate. – Notwithstanding the provisions of Rules 33, 34, and 35, the Senate may resolve into the Committee of the Whole Senate by motion. When such a motion is seconded, the President shall put the question without debate: “Shall the Senate resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole Senate for consideration of ________?”, stating the matter or matters identified by the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate to be considered. Only the President Pro Tempore, the Deputy President Pro Tempore, or the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate may move to resolve into the Committee of the Whole Senate. The Committee of the Whole Senate shall convene in the Senate Chambers and shall utilize electronic voting. Unless otherwise stated, the Rules and Operations of the Senate apply to the Committee of the Whole Senate and the Principal Clerk of the Senate shall be the Committee Assistant, but shall not record committee activity on the Journal. The Chair shall be the President Pro Tempore of the Senate or his designee.

RULE 37.1. Membership, quorum, and voting. – Every Senator shall be a member of the Committee of the Whole Senate. A quorum of a Committee of the Whole Senate is 26 members.

RULE 37.2. Committee Substitutes; Report of the Committee of the Whole Senate; Adjournment. – (a) The committee of the Whole Senate shall not consider committee substitutes.
(b) The Chair may entertain a motion that the Committee adjourn after the Chair has announced that the Committee has finished the business for which it was convened.
(c) The Chair of the Committee of the Whole Senate shall report the bill to the Senate immediately following the adjournment of the Committee, including any amendments that were adopted in the Committee.
(d) The Chair shall announce the adjournment of the Committee of the Whole Senate and the members shall adjourn and, if the Committee was resolved out of an unadjourned session, the Senate shall resume session.

VI. HANDLING BILLS

RULE 38. Application of rules. – All provisions of these rules applying to bills, including, but not limited to, provisions governing the introduction, eligibility, and filing of bills, shall apply also to resolutions, memorials, and petitions.

RULE 39. Form and copies of bills. – (a) Unless variation is authorized by the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, bills submitted for introduction shall be in a computer-generated form prepared by the Legislative Services Office and approved by the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate.
(b) Whenever a bill is filed, it shall be submitted to the Principal Clerk in the form of a Senate e-jacket.

RULE 39.1. Public and local bills; availability of copies of bills; limitation on local bills becoming public bills. – (a) A public bill is a bill affecting 15 or more counties. A local bill is one affecting fewer than 15 counties. No public bill and, upon objection by a member, no local bill may be considered unless copies of the bill have been made available to the entire membership of the Senate.

January 14, 2015
(b) A local bill that has become a public bill shall not be considered in the Senate unless one of the following applies:

(1) The North Carolina Constitution prescribes that the bill as filed must be a public bill because of its subject matter.

(2) The bill became a public bill because counties were added, but the bill relates to the subject matter contained in the original bill.

RULE 40. Introduction of bills. – (a) Pursuant to G.S. 120-11.1, on January 14, 2015, a simple resolution to establish the Senate Permanent Rules, and a joint resolution to adjourn to January 28, 2015, may be filed. No other bills are eligible to be filed on January 14, 2015.

Every bill filed for introduction shall contain on the Senate e-jacket the title of the document and the name of the Senator or Senators sponsoring it. No more than three Senators may be listed as primary sponsors. The Senate e-jacket shall be delivered by the primary sponsor of the document, or by that member’s legislative assistant, with the prescribed authorization form signed by the primary sponsor and by that member’s legislative assistant, to the Office of the Senate Principal Clerk, who shall receive them during regular session according to the following schedule:

Monday until 30 minutes after adjournment; and

Any other day the Senate holds a session until 3:00 P.M.

All bills shall be numbered by the Office of the Principal Clerk when filed and shall be considered introduced when presented to the Senate on the next following legislative day for the first reading. When a bill is presented with more than one primary sponsor, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate shall designate, as bill manager, one of the primary sponsors. Senators may only cosponsor legislation electronically.

(a1) Any Senator who wishes to cosponsor a bill or resolution that has been filed may do so no later than one hour following the adjournment of the session during which such bill or resolution was first read and referred, but only electronically under procedures approved by the Principal Clerk.

(b) All memorializing, celebration, commendation, and commemoration resolutions shall be excluded from introduction and consideration in the Senate. Notwithstanding this, a member may file a Senate memorializing, celebration, commendation, or commemoration simple resolution after presenting the draft to the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate and receiving the approval of that Chairman, except that the Chairman may refer the request to the full committee for approval. The approval of the Chairman or committee shall be indicated on the Senate e-jacket. Senators should utilize a “Senatorial Statement of Personal Privilege,” as provided in Rule 15, as the preferred alternative to Senate simple resolutions that memorialize, celebrate, commend, and commemorate, other than for those relating to deceased former members of the General Assembly.

(b1) Simple resolutions conforming to subsection (b) of this section and any Senate or House joint resolutions shall be read for the first time in their regular order. Upon such first reading the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate may either refer the resolution to committee or place it at the end of the calendar for a Tuesday for consideration and decision without debate. The foregoing requirement of Tuesday consideration shall not apply to second reading of (i) resolutions specifically contemplated by the North Carolina Constitution or statute; or (ii) resolutions that pertain to the internal functioning of either or both houses of the General Assembly. This subsection does not apply to third reading of any joint resolution.

(b2) Notwithstanding subsections (b) and (b1) of this section any resolution memorializing, celebrating, commending, or commemorating a deceased person who served previously in either the Senate or the House of Representatives shall be introduced on the next legislative day after its filing and the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate shall direct that the resolution be either (i) referred to the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate for further consideration; or (ii) placed on the Senate’s calendar for a date certain. When a resolution introduced in accordance with this subsection is read for a second time in the Senate, debate shall be allowed and, during the course of such debate, the Presiding Officer shall order the Chamber secured by the Sergeant-at-Arms so as to prevent the entry or exit of any person.

(c) No member may introduce a public bill that has no substantive provisions. No member may introduce more than one local bill that contains no substantive provisions.

RULE 40.1. Deadlines on filing for introduction of bills. – (a)
All local bills must be filed for introduction not later than Tuesday, March 3, 2015, provided that any such measure submitted to the Bill Drafting Division of the Legislative Services Office by 4:00 P.M. on that day and filed for introduction in the Senate before 3:00 P.M. on Wednesday, March 11, 2015, shall be treated as if it had been filed for introduction under this rule.

(b) All public bills, except those providing for action on gubernatorial nominations or appointments or adjourning the General Assembly, must be filed for introduction not later than Friday, March 13, 2015, provided that any such measure submitted to the Bill Drafting Division of the Legislative Services Office by 4:00 P.M. on that day and filed for introduction in the Senate before 3:00 P.M. on Thursday, March 26, 2015, shall be treated as if it had been filed for introduction under this rule.

(c) A two-thirds vote of the membership of the Senate present and voting shall be required to file for introduction any bill or resolution after the dates established by this rule.

(d) This rule shall not apply to any appropriations, finance, or local bills filed in reconvened session following the adjournment of the first year of the biennial session.

RULE 41. Crossover bill deadline. – In order to be eligible for consideration by the Senate during the 2015 or 2016 Regular Sessions of the 2015 General Assembly, all House bills other than (i) those required to be referred to the Committee on Finance or the Committee on Appropriations/Base Budget by Rule 42, (ii) those establishing districts for Congress or State or local entities, or
(iii) adjournment resolutions must be received and read on the floor of the Senate as a message from the House no later than Thursday, May 7, 2015, provided that a message from the House received by the next legislative day

January 14, 2015
stating that a bill has passed its third reading and is being engrossed shall comply with the requirements of this rule and provided that the House accepts Senate bills ordered engrossed on the next legislative day.

RULE 41.1. (Reserved for future use).

RULE 42. Reference of appropriation and finance bills. – (a) All bills introduced in the Senate providing for appropriations from the State, or any subdivision thereof, shall, before being considered by the Senate, be referred to the Committee on Appropriations/Base Budget and bills referred to other committees carrying any such provisions shall be reported to the Senate as being bills to be referred to the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee before proper action may be taken by the Senate.

(b) All bills introduced in the Senate providing for bond issues, imposing or raising fees or other revenues payable to the State, its agencies, its licensing boards, or any of its subdivisions, levying taxes, or in any manner affecting the taxing power of the State or any subdivision thereof, shall, before being considered by the Senate, be referred to the Committee on Finance, and bills referred to other committees carrying any such provisions shall be reported to the Senate as being bills to be referred to the Committee on Finance before proper action may be taken by the Senate.

(c) This rule shall not apply to bills imposing civil penalties, criminal fines, forfeitures, or penalties for infractions.

RULE 42.1. Fiscal notes. – (a) A Chair of the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee, or of the Finance Committee, or of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, upon the floor of the Senate, may request that a fiscal analysis be made of a bill, resolution, or an amendment to a bill or resolution which is in the possession of the Senate and that a fiscal note be attached to the measure, when in the opinion of that Chair the fiscal effects of that measure are not apparent from the language of the measure. No bill, resolution, or amendment for which a fiscal note has been requested may be considered for passage prior to the fiscal note being attached to it.

(b) The fiscal note shall be filed and attached to the bill, resolution, or amendment within two legislative days of the request. If it is impossible to prepare a fiscal note within two legislative days, the Director of Fiscal Research shall, in writing, so advise the Presiding Officer, the Principal Clerk, and the member introducing or proposing the measure and shall indicate the time when the fiscal note will be ready.

(c) The fiscal note shall be prepared by the Fiscal Research Division on a form approved by the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate as to content and form and signed by the staff member or members preparing it. If no estimate in dollars is possible, the fiscal note shall indicate the reasons that no estimate is provided. The fiscal note shall not comment on the merit but may identify technical problems. The Fiscal Research Division shall make the fiscal note available to the membership of the Senate.

(d) A sponsor of a bill, resolution, or amendment may deliver a copy of that member’s bill, resolution, or amendment to the Fiscal Research Division for the preparation of a fiscal note. The sponsor shall attach the fiscal note to the bill when the sponsor files the bill or resolution or to the amendment when the sponsor moves its adoption.

(e) The sponsor of a bill, resolution, or amendment to which a fiscal note is attached who objects to the estimates and information provided may reduce to writing the objections. These objections shall be appended to the fiscal note attached to the bill, resolution, or amendment and to the copies of the fiscal note available to the membership.

(f) Subsection (a) of this rule shall not apply to the Current Operations Appropriations Bill or the Capital Improvement Appropriations Bill. This rule shall not apply to a bill, resolution, or amendment requiring an actuarial note under these rules.

RULE 42.2. Actuarial notes. – (a) Every bill or resolution proposing any change in the law relative to any:

1. State, municipal, or other retirement system funded in whole or in part out of public funds; or
2. Program of hospital, medical, disability, or related benefits provided for teachers and State employees, funded in whole or in part by State funds, shall have attached to it at the time of its consideration by any committee a brief explanatory statement or note that shall include a reliable estimate of the financial and actuarial effect of the proposed change, as provided in G.S. 120-114. The actuarial note shall be attached to the jacket of each proposed bill or resolution that is reported favorably by any committee and shall be clearly designated as an actuarial note. Upon its introduction, a bill or resolution described in subdivision (a)(1) of this rule shall be referred to the Committee on Pensions and Retirement and Aging.

(b) The sponsor of the bill or resolution shall present a copy of the measure, with the sponsor’s request for an actuarial note, to the Fiscal Research Division, which shall prepare the actuarial note as promptly as possible but not later than two weeks after the request is made. Actuarial notes shall be prepared in the order of receipt of request and shall be transmitted to the sponsor of the measure. The actuarial note of the Fiscal Research Division shall be prepared and signed by an actuary.

(c) The sponsor of the bill or resolution shall also present a copy of the measure to the chief administrative officer of the system affected by the measure. The chief administrative officer shall have an actuarial note prepared by the system’s actuary on the measure and shall transmit the note to the sponsor of the measure not later than two weeks after the request is received. The actuarial note may be attached to the jacket of the measure.

(d) The note shall be factual and shall, if possible, provide a reliable estimate of both the immediate effect and, if determinable, the long-range fiscal and actuarial effect of the measure. If, after careful investigation, it is determined that no dollar estimate is possible, the note shall contain a statement to that effect, setting forth the reasons why no dollar estimate can be given. No comment or opinion shall be included in the actuarial note with regard to the merits of the measure for which the note is prepared. Technical and mechanical defects in the measure may be noted.

January 14, 2015
(e) When any committee reports a measure to which an actuarial note is attached at the time of committee consideration, with any amendment of such nature as would substantially affect the cost to or the revenues of any system, the chair of the committee reporting the measure shall obtain from the Fiscal Research Division and the administrator of the affected system an actuarial note of the fiscal and actuarial effect of the proposed amendment. The actuarial note shall be attached to the jacket of the measure. A chair of the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee, or of the Finance Committee, or of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, upon the floor of the Senate, may request that an actuarial note be attached to a bill, resolution, or an amendment that affects the costs to or the revenues of a system described in this rule and that is in the possession of the Senate, when in the opinion of that chair, the effect to the cost to or the revenues of a system described in this rule are not apparent from the language of the measure. No bill, resolution, or amendment for which an actuarial note has been requested may be considered for passage prior to the actuarial note from both the Fiscal Research Division and the administrator of the affected system being attached to it.

(f) The Fiscal Research Division shall make all relevant actuarial notes available to the membership of the Senate.

RULE 42.3. Assessment reports. – (a) Licensing or Registration Boards. Every legislative proposal introduced in the Senate proposing the establishment of an occupational or professional licensing or registration board or a study for the need to establish such a board shall have attached to the jacket of the original bill at the time of its consideration on second or third readings by the Senate or by any committee of the Senate prior to a favorable report, an assessment report from the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations. The assessment report shall not constitute any part of the expression of legislative intent proposed by the formation of a licensing board.

Upon receipt of the request, the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations shall prepare and return the assessment report as soon as possible but not later than 60 days from the date of receipt of the request, reserving the right to extend this time to 90 days. A supplementary report shall be prepared and submitted to the requesting Senator not later than 30 days after the receipt of the request.

(b) Municipal Incorporations. Every legislative proposal introduced in the Senate, or received in the Senate from the House, proposing the incorporation of a municipality shall have attached to the jacket of the original bill at the time of its consideration on second or third readings by the Senate or by any committee of the Senate prior to a favorable report, a recommendation from the Municipal Incorporations Subcommittee of the Joint Legislative Committee on Local Government established by Article 20 of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes. The recommendation of that Subcommittee shall be made in accordance with the provisions and criteria set forth in Article 20 of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes and shall include the findings required to be made by G.S. 120-166 through G.S. 120-170.

RULE 42.3A. Proposed increases in incarceration. – (a) Every bill, amendment, and resolution proposing any change in the law that could cause a net increase in the length of time for which persons are incarcerated or the number of persons incarcerated, whether by increasing penalties for violating existing laws, by criminalizing behavior, or by any other means, shall have attached to it at the time of its consideration by the Senate a fiscal note prepared by the Fiscal Research Division. The fiscal note shall be prepared in consultation with the Sentencing Policy and Advisory Commission and shall identify and estimate, for the first five fiscal years the proposed change would be in effect, all costs of the proposed net increase in incarceration, including capital outlay costs if the legislation would require increased cell space. If, after careful investigation, the Fiscal Research Division determines that no dollar estimate is possible, the note shall contain a statement to that effect, setting forth the reasons why no dollar estimate can be given. No comment or opinion shall be included in the fiscal note with regard to the merits of the measure for which the note is prepared. However, technical and mechanical defects may be noted.

(b) The sponsor of each bill, amendment, or resolution to which this subsection applies shall present a copy of the bill, amendment, or resolution with the request for a fiscal note to the Fiscal Research Division. Upon receipt of the request and the copy of the bill, amendment, or resolution, the Fiscal Research Division shall prepare the fiscal note as promptly as possible. The Fiscal Research Division shall prepare the fiscal note and transmit it to the sponsor within two weeks after the request is made, unless the sponsor agrees to an extension of time.

(c) This fiscal note shall be attached to the original of each proposed bill, amendment, or resolution that is reported favorably by any committee, but shall be separate from the bill, amendment, or resolution and shall be clearly designated as a fiscal note. A fiscal note attached to a bill, amendment, or resolution pursuant to this subsection is not a part of the bill, amendment, or resolution and is not an expression of legislative intent proposed by the bill, amendment, or resolution.

(d) If a committee reports favorably a proposed bill or resolution with an amendment that proposes a change in the law that could cause a net increase in the length of time for which persons are incarcerated or the number of persons incarcerated, whether by increasing penalties for violating existing laws, by criminalizing behavior, or by any other means, the chair of the committee shall obtain from the Fiscal Research Division and attach to the amended bill or resolution a fiscal note as provided in this section.

RULE 42.4. CONTENT OF APPROPRIATIONS BILLS. – (a) No provision changing existing law shall be contained in any of the following bills: (i) the Current Operations Appropriations Bill; (ii) the Capital Improvement Appropriations Bill; (iii) any bill generally revising appropriations for the second fiscal year of a biennium.

(b) No amendment to any bill listed in subsection (a) of this rule shall be in order if the language is prohibited by that subsection.

(c) Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b) of this section, any of the bills listed in subsection (a) of this section or an amendment to such bill may change existing law if the change:

(1) Alters expenditures or salaries;
(2) Changes the scope or character of a program which must be reduced, increased, or changed because of an increase or decrease of funds appropriated for the program or because of changes in federal law or regulation; or

(3) Modifies any function of State government which necessitates a transfer of funds from one department to another;

provided, that for a provision to be in order under this subsection, it must be recommended to the General Assembly in a written report adopted by the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee before or at the same time the bill is reported, or, if such provision is contained in a floor amendment, the sponsor of the amendment must present to the Principal Clerk at or before the time the amendment is offered an explanation of the amendment for distribution to each member of the Senate.

RULE 42.5. Appropriations/Base Budget Committee meetings. – The Appropriations/Base Budget Cochairs may in their exclusive discretion direct that the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee or its subcommittees or both may consider the budget and the budget plan, including all appropriations, in separate meetings from the House of Representatives and may do all things separately from the House of Representatives.

RULE 43. First reading; reference to committee. – All bills filed for introduction and all House bills received in the Office of the Principal Clerk not later than one and one-half hours preceding the convening of the Senate, upon presentation to the Senate, shall be read in regular order of business by their number and title, which shall constitute the first reading of the bill. The Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate or, in the Chair’s absence, the Vice-Chair of the Committee or the President Pro Tempore may refer to a Senate committee all bills introduced in the Senate or received from the House of Representatives. Upon the referral being made, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate shall notify the Principal Clerk of the Senate of the referral, and the Reading Clerk shall announce the referral of the bill. The Principal Clerk shall inform the Presiding Officer of the referral. The title and referral shall be entered upon the Journal.

Bills may be referred to more than one committee serially: e.g., “S.B. ________ is referred to the Committee on Finance and upon a favorable report referred to the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee.”

RULE 44. Bills to receive three readings. – Every bill shall receive three readings before being passed, and the Presiding Officer shall give notice at each reading whether it be the first, second, or third. Unless a member of the Senate objects, a bill may be referred to, and presented to the Senate, by its bill number and short title. The Reading Clerk shall announce the referral as set forth in Rule 43. No bill shall be amended upon the floor of the Senate, except under Rule 45.1, until it has been twice read. Senate simple resolutions shall not require three readings.

RULE 45. Reports of committees. – Every Senator presenting a report of a committee shall endorse the report with the name of the committee. The report of the committee shall show that a quorum of the committee was present and a majority of those present voted in favor of the report. Every report of the committee upon a bill or resolution shall stand upon the general orders with the bill or resolution. No committee shall report a bill or resolution without prejudice.

RULE 45.1. Action on amendment or committee substitute. – If any committee recommends adoption of an amendment or committee substitute of a bill or resolution, the amendment or committee substitute shall be considered adopted upon the reading of the committee report and shall be engrossed. Unless a committee substitute of a bill or resolution being considered by a committee is distributed to members of that committee no later than the day prior to the committee meeting, the committee substitute shall be carried over to the next day unless a majority of the members of that committee present and voting vote to take up the measure at that time. The bill or resolution, as amended, or its adopted committee substitute shall be placed on the calendar for the next legislative day or re-referred if the bill or resolution was serially referred. The committee substitute’s original bill or resolution shall lie on the table.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this rule, a committee substitute for a simple resolution shall be placed on the calendar for the next legislative day for a vote on its adoption.

RULE 46. Unfavorable report by committee. – All bills reported unfavorably by the committee to which they were referred shall lie upon the table but may be taken from the table and placed upon the calendar by a two-thirds vote of the membership of the Senate present and voting.

RULE 47. Recall of bill from committee and discharge petition; re-calendaring or referral of a bill to committee. – (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, only the President Pro Tempore, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, or the chair of a committee to which a bill or other matter is assigned may, with the consent of a majority of the membership of the Senate present and voting, recall the measure from its assigned committee to be referred to another committee or the floor. Only the President Pro Tempore or the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operation of the Senate may, with the consent of a majority present and voting, re-calendar a bill or resolution appearing on the calendar or refer or re-refer it to committee.

(b) A motion to discharge a committee from consideration of a bill or resolution may be filed with the Principal Clerk if accompanied by a petition signed by two-thirds of the members of the Senate asking that the committee be discharged from further consideration of the bill or resolution. No petition may be circulated for signatures until 10 legislative days after the bill has been referred to the committee. No petition may be circulated for signature until notice has been given on the floor of the Senate that the petition is to be circulated. If such a motion accompanied by a valid petition is filed, the Principal Clerk shall place that motion on the calendar for the next legislative day as a special order of business. If the motion is adopted by two-thirds of the members of the Senate, then the committee to which the bill or resolution has been referred is discharged from further consideration of the bill or resolution, and that bill or resolution is placed on the calendar for the next legislative day as a special order of business. If the committee had, prior to discharge, adopted any amendment or committee substitute for the bill, it shall be in order to offer that amendment or substitute on the floor as if it were a committee amendment or substitute. The Principal Clerk shall provide a form for discharge petitions.

(c) This rule shall not be temporarily suspended.

RULE 48. Calendar; order to be followed. – The Presiding Officer and the Principal Clerk of the Senate shall see that all bills are acted upon by the Senate in the order in which they stand upon the calendar, unless otherwise ordered in accordance with Rule 47. The published calendar shall include all bills reported favorably from committees, or placed on the calendar on motion, and shall include the bill number and short title of each bill on the calendar.

RULE 49. Consideration of Gubernatorial Nominations or Appointments. – When received by the Principal Clerk, written notice of a gubernatorial nomination or appointment that requires confirmation by the General Assembly or the Senate shall be read in session and shall be referred by the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, or in his absence the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, to the appropriate Senate committee. The Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate may file an appropriate resolution for consideration of the nomination or appointment. For statewide or at-large nominations or appointments, the Principal Clerk shall transmit a copy of the notice of nomination or appointment to the Senator or Senators representing the county in which the nominee or appointee resides. For nominations or appointments of persons to represent a particular district or region of the State, the Principal Clerk shall transmit a copy of the notice of nomination or appointment to the Senator or Senators representing all or a portion of the particular district or region to be represented. The chair of the Senate committee receiving referral of any nomination or appointment shall determine the procedure by which the committee shall consider that nomination or appointment and may make a report of its recommendation to the Senate.

RULE 50. Third reading requirements. – No bill on its third reading shall be acted upon out of the regular order in which it stands on the calendar, and no bill shall be acted upon on its third reading the same day on which it passed its second reading, unless so ordered by two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting.

RULE 51. Special orders. – Any bill or other matter in consideration before the Senate may be made a special order for a subsequent day or hour by a vote of the majority of the Senators voting, and if action on the bill is not completed on that day, it shall be returned to its place on the calendar, unless it is made a special order for another day; and when a special order is under consideration it shall take precedence over any special order or subsequent order for the day, but such subsequent order may be taken up immediately after the previous special order has been disposed of.

RULE 52. Procedure when necessary number of Senators not present. – If, on taking the question on a bill, it appears that a constitutional quorum is not present, or if the bill requires a vote of a certain proportion of all the Senators to pass it, and it appears that such number is not present, the bill shall be again read and the question taken thereon; if the bill fails a second time for the want of the necessary number being present and voting, the bill shall not be finally lost but shall be returned to the calendar in its proper order.

RULE 53. Effect of defeated measure. – (a) After a bill has been tabled, or has failed to pass on any of its readings, the contents of such bill or the principal provisions of its subject matter shall not be embodied in any other measure. After an amendment has been tabled or defeated on the Senate floor, the contents of such amendment or the principal provisions of its subject matter shall not be embodied in any other measure. If a substitute amendment is adopted on the floor, the contents of the previously pending amendment which are not contained in the substitute shall be considered to have been defeated. Upon the point of order being raised and sustained by the Presiding Officer, such measure shall be laid upon the table and shall not be taken therefrom except by a vote of two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting: Provided, no local bill shall be held by the Presiding Officer as embodying the provisions of, or being identical with, any statewide measure which has been laid upon the table or failed to pass any of its readings.

(b) When a bill has been postponed indefinitely by the Senate, the bill shall lie upon the table and shall not be taken therefrom except by a vote of two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting.

RULE 54. Taking bill from table. – No bill which has been laid upon the table shall be taken therefrom except by a vote of two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting.

RULE 54.1. Bill title. – The title of each bill shall adequately and fairly reflect its subject matter.

RULE 55. Amending titles of bills. – When a bill is materially modified or the scope of its application extended or decreased, or if the county or counties to which it applies is changed, the title of the bill shall be changed by the committee having it in charge or by the Principal Clerk, so as to indicate the full purport of the bill as amended and the county or counties to which it applies.

RULE 56. Corrections of typographical errors in bills. – The Enrolling Clerk is authorized to make corrections of typographical errors in the text of bills at any time prior to ratification. Before the correction is made, the Enrolling Clerk shall have the approval of the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate or, in the Chair’s absence, the Vice-Chair of said Committee, the President Pro Tempore, or the Deputy President Pro Tempore.

RULE 56.1. Amendments and committee substitutes adopted by the House to bills originating in the Senate. – (a) Whenever the House has adopted an amendment or a committee substitute for a bill originating in the Senate, and has returned the bill to the Senate for concurrence in that amendment or committee substitute, the Senate may not concur in that amendment or committee substitute until the next legislative day following the day on which the Senate receives that measure.

(b) The Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, (or in that Chair’s absence the President Pro Tempore) may, or upon motion supported by a majority of the Senate present and voting shall, refer the bill to an appropriate committee for consideration of the amendment or committee substitute.

January 14, 2015
(c) The Presiding Officer shall, in placing the bill on the calendar, rule whether the amendment or committee substitute is a material amendment under Article II, Section 23, of the State’s Constitution. If the measure is referred to committee, the committee shall:

1. Report the bill with the recommendation either that the Senate do concur or that the Senate do not concur; and
2. Advise the Presiding Officer as to whether or not the amendment or committee substitute is a material amendment under Article II, Section 23, of the State’s Constitution.

(d) If the amendment or committee substitute for a bill is not a material amendment, the question before the Senate shall be concurrence. In the event there is more than one House amendment, the question shall be concurrence in all the House amendments, and the question may not be divided, notwithstanding Rule 28. The question that shall be put before the Senate by the Presiding Officer shall be: “Does the Senate concur in the House amendments (committee substitute) to S.B.______?”.

(e) If the amendment or committee substitute for a bill is a material amendment, the receiving of that bill on messages shall constitute first reading, and the question before the Senate shall be concurrence on second reading. If the motion is passed, the question then shall be concurrence on third reading on the next legislative day.

(f) No committee substitute adopted by the House to a bill originating in the Senate may be amended by the Senate.

RULE 57. Conference committee. – The President Pro Tempore of the Senate, or in the President Pro Tempore’s absence, the Deputy President Pro Tempore, upon motion, shall appoint a conference committee when the Senate fails to concur in amendments or committee substitutes put by the House to a bill originating in the Senate, or when the House of Representatives fails to concur in amendments or committee substitutes put by the Senate to a bill originating in the House. Senate conferees shall include the primary sponsor of the bill. In considering the bill committed to the conferees, only such matters as are germane to the bill shall be considered by the conferees, and the conference report shall deal only with such matters. The matters referred to the conference committee by the conference committee chairs shall go to and be considered by the conferees appointed by the Senate and the House of Representatives. While the bill is in conference committee, the Senate’s position shall be determined by a majority of the Senate conferees. Upon agreement by the Senate and House of Representatives, a conference report shall be drafted reflecting the matters considered and agreed upon by the conferees. The conference report shall not be amended. A conference report in order under this Rule when reported to the Senate shall be calendared for consideration of the question of adoption on any date specified by the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, or in the absence of the Chairman, by the President Pro Tempore. In the absence of any such specification it shall be calendared for the next legislative day.

January 14, 2015
RULE 57.1. Germaneness of amendment or committee substitute. – (a) All floor amendments shall be germane to the subject matter of the measure under consideration. The question of germaneness of the proposed floor amendment is in order at any time the measure is before the body prior to final action on its adoption.

(b) In committee, the germaneness of amendments or committee substitutes shall be determined by the chairman of the committee in which such amendments or committee substitutes are offered.

RULE 58. Certification of passage of bills. – The Principal Clerk shall certify the passage of bills by the Senate, with the date thereof, together with the fact whether passed by vote of three-fifths or two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting, whenever such vote may be required by the Constitution or laws of the State.

RULE 59. Transmittal of bills to House. – No bill shall be sent from the Senate on the day of its passage except on the last day of the session, unless otherwise ordered by a vote of two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting.

RULE 59.1. Engrossment. – Bills, except those making appropriations, which originate in the Senate and that are amended shall be engrossed before being sent to the House.

RULE 59.2. Vetoed bills. – (a) The Principal Clerk is designated the Senate Officer to receive bills vetoed by the Governor. The veto message shall be read in the Senate on the next legislative day following its receipt by the Principal Clerk.

(b) Upon a veto message’s being read in the Senate, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate shall either refer the bill and the Governor’s objections and veto message to committee or place the bill on the calendar for a day certain.

VII. LEGISLATIVE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

RULE 60. Pages. – (a) The President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint pages. The President Pro Tempore, or such person as the President Pro Tempore may designate, shall supervise the pages and assign to them their duties. Each page shall be at least 15 years of age or be in the ninth grade at the time of service.

(b) Members may designate honorary pages by a statement delivered to the Principal Clerk who will have a certificate issued therefor.

RULE 61. Sergeants-at-Arms. – (a) There shall be 16 positions of Assistant Sergeants-at-Arms, to be appointed upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore by the Sergeant-at-Arms, who are to work under his or her supervision and to be assigned such duties and powers as he or she shall direct.

(b) The Sergeant-at-Arms shall be responsible for the safety of the members and employees of the Senate while in the Senate Chamber or any place in which the Senate or its committees are in session.

(c) The Sergeant-at-Arms shall serve all warrants and subpoenas issued by orders of the Senate and signed by the Presiding Officer of the Senate, and said warrants and subpoenas shall be returnable to the Principal Clerk of the Senate.

January 14, 2015
RULE 62. Principal Clerk’s staff. – The Principal Clerk of the Senate shall employ all necessary employees and clerks required to carry out the duties of that office. The Principal Clerk shall have supervision and control and shall assign such duties and powers as the Principal Clerk shall direct to the employees and clerks of that office.

RULE 63. Legislative assistants and other Senate staff. –

(b) Each member shall be assigned one legislative assistant position. Additional staff positions may be allocated to members in the discretion of the President Pro Tempore. The selection of the person to fill a staff position assigned or allocated to an individual member’s office shall be his or her prerogative.

(c) Persons seeking an employment position in the office of an individual member shall file initial applications for employment with the Director of Legislative Assistants and shall receive compensation as prescribed by the Legislative Services Commission. Their period of employment shall comply with the period as established by the Legislative Services Commission unless employment for an extended period is approved by the President Pro Tempore. They shall adhere to such uniform regulations and other conditions of employment (including retention) under the direction of the Director of Senate Legislative Assistants as the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate shall adopt.

(d) The Director of Senate Legislative Assistants and any assistants shall be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

RULE 64. Senate Journal. – The Principal Clerk shall prepare and be responsible for the Journal. The President Pro Tempore or, in the President Pro Tempore’s absence, the Deputy President Pro Tempore shall examine the Journal to determine if the proceedings of the previous day have been correctly recorded.

RULE 65. Deputy President Pro Tempore. – The Senate shall elect a Deputy President Pro Tempore. Upon a vacancy in the office of President Pro Tempore, the Senate shall elect one of its members to succeed to that office.

VIII. GENERAL RULES

RULE 66. President to sign papers. – All addresses and all warrants and subpoenas issued by order of the Senate shall be signed by the President, the President Pro Tempore, or the Deputy President Pro Tempore. All acts and resolutions shall be signed by the President, the President Pro Tempore, the Deputy President Pro Tempore, or by a Senator designated by the President Pro Tempore to act as Presiding Officer.

RULE 67. Admission to the floor of the Senate. – No person except members of the Senate, members of the House of Representatives, staff of the General Assembly; staff of the Lieutenant Governor; Judges of the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, and Superior Courts; the Governor and members of the Council of State; former members of the General Assembly; and persons particularly invited and extended the privileges of the floor by the Presiding Officer shall be admitted to the floor of the Senate either during its session or be admitted to or remain on the floor of the Senate within 15 minutes prior to the Senate’s scheduled daily session. Notwithstanding any other provision of these rules, no registered lobbyist shall: (i) be admitted to the floor of the Senate or Senate Chamber while the Senate is in session, (ii) be admitted to or remain on the floor of the Senate within 15 minutes prior to the Senate’s scheduled daily session, or (iii) except when a committee is meeting on the floor, be admitted to the floor of the Senate for the 15 minutes after adjournment of the Senate. When the Senate is not in daily session, the President Pro Tempore shall determine the privileges of the floor.

RULE 67.1. Recognition for extending courtesies. – (a) Courtesies of the floor and galleries shall be extended only by the Presiding Officer on the Presiding Officer’s own motion or upon the written request of a member of the Senate to former members of the General Assembly or to distinguished visitors.

(b) The Presiding Officer, upon written request at intervals between various orders of business, may extend courtesies to schools or other special large groups visiting in the galleries while they are present, and the Presiding Officer shall, at such times as deemed appropriate, express to those visitors in the galleries the pleasure of the Senate for their presence.

RULE 68. Privileges of the floor. – No group or individual other than members of the Senate may make remarks upon the floor of the Senate.

RULE 69. News media. – The President Pro Tempore is authorized to assign area and equipment on the floor of the Senate for the use of the representatives of news media, and the President Pro Tempore shall provide regulations for the operation of the representatives of the news media on the floor of the Senate.

RULE 70. Absence without leave. – No Senator or officer of the Senate shall depart the service of the Senate without leave or receive pay as a Senator or officer for the time absent without leave.

RULE 71. Placing material in Senators’ offices. – Any person other than a member of the Senate or an employee of the General Assembly desiring to place articles of any kind in the offices of the members of the Senate shall make written application to and obtain written approval from the Principal Clerk. No items may be placed on members’ desks except as permitted under Rule 17.

RULE 72. Assignment of seats; offices. – (a) The President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall assign seats in the Senate Chamber to the members elected. The President Pro Tempore, when assigning seats, may give preferential consideration to the respective members according to the length of service that each member has rendered in the Senate. No incumbent appointed to fill an unexpired term in the immediate preceding session shall retain the seat if requested by a Senator elected to said session.

(b) Not later than two weeks after the initial committee assignments become final, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate is authorized to make assignments of committee rooms and offices to designated committees, chairs, and members of the Senate. In making such assignments of individual offices, the President Pro Tempore may give preferential consideration to the respective members according to the length of service that each member has rendered in the Senate.

RULE 73. Administrative rules and regulations involving Senate employees. – All administrative rules, regulations, and orders involving all individuals employed to perform duties for the Senate, other than those appointed by the Principal Clerk and the Sergeant-at-Arms, shall be first approved by the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate.

RULE 74. Public hearings. – Any Senator may request in writing a public hearing by the committee considering the bill on a public bill. Requests may be granted at the discretion of the chair. Notice shall be given not less than five calendar days prior to public hearings. Such notices shall be issued as information for the press, and the information shall be posted in the places designated by the Principal Clerk.

RULE 75. Public hearings; filing of written statements. – Persons desiring to appear and be heard at a public hearing are encouraged to file with the chair of the committee a brief or a written statement of the remarks to be made at least 24 hours before the time of the hearing.

RULE 76. Voting in joint sessions. – When the Senate sits jointly with the House, either in committee or in joint session, the Senate reserves the right to vote separately.

RULE 77. Alteration, suspension, or rescission of rules. – (a) These rules may not be permanently rescinded or altered except by Senate simple resolution passed by a three-fifths vote of the membership of the Senate. The introducer of the resolution must, on the floor of the Senate, give notice of the intent to introduce the resolution on the legislative day preceding its introduction. (b) Except as otherwise provided herein, the Senate, upon three-fifths vote of the membership of the Senate present and voting, may temporarily suspend any of these rules.

SECTION 2. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

ELECTION OF AN OFFICER ESTABLISHED BY SENATE RULES

Pursuant to Senate Rule 65, the President declares the floor open to receive nominations for Deputy President Pro Tempore and recognizes Senator Tucker, who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Mr. President, I rise to place in nomination for Senate Deputy President Pro Temp Senator Louis Pate’s name. Senator Pate is a man that I consider a friend and a man that is about duty and about service to others—duty to the Lord, duty to his wife and family, duty as a father and a grandfather, and also duty to his country, having flown multiple combat missions over Vietnam during his tenure in the military. Louis Pate is a humble man, as we all know, a kind man, and an individual that quietly speaks his mind, and, again, I’m glad to call him ‘friend.’ He served his country, and he served his state many years over in the House—until he saw the light to come to the Senate. I’m glad he did, because he and I have shared many discussions over the last four years, and I’ve grown to respect this man greatly. So with that, sir, I formally nominate Senator Pate to serve as the Deputy President Pro Tem of the Senate.”

The President recognizes Senator Wade, who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

January 14, 2015
“Mr. President, members, I rise to second the nomination of Senator Louis Pate to serve as our Deputy President Pro Temp. I further move that the nominations be closed and that Senator Pate’s nomination be accepted by acclamation.”

The motion offered by Senator Wade that the nominations be closed and that Senator Louis Pate be elected Deputy President Pro Tempore by acclamation prevails.

The President declares Senator Louis Pate duly elected Deputy President Pro Tempore and appoints Senator Bingham, Senator Cook, Senator Rabon, and Senator Tucker to escort the Deputy President Pro Tempore-elect to the well of the Senate. Senator Bingham presents Senator Pate to the President. The President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort Mrs. Joyce Pate to the well of the Senate, where she joins her husband as he receives the prescribed Oath of Office. The Honorable Mark D. Martin administers the prescribed Oath of Office.

The President recognizes Senator Louis Pate, Deputy President Pro Tempore, who addresses the Senate from the well of the Senate and offers the following remarks:

“Thank you, Mr. President, and thank you, members of the Senate, for supporting me as I have sought this job. I have served for the past two years, and I gladly will serve you again this time. I’d like to thank Senator Berger for his support, and to all of you for your support for my endeavors. The swearing-in is taking place today. The ‘swearing-at’ probably begins tomorrow. In some cases, it has already started, but we will do the work of the people in this General Assembly, and I pledge to you that I will work with you in any manner that you see fit for me to help you with. Senator Berger, I pledge you my allegiance as well to do the assignment and the task that you laid before me. Thank you very much for the opportunity to serve you as the Deputy President Pro Tem.”

ELECTION OF STATUTORY OFFICERS

Pursuant to G.S. 120-37, the President declares the floor open to receive nominations for the Office of Principal Clerk.

The President recognizes Senator Apodaca, who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Thank you, Mr. President, members. It is my pleasure today to re-nominate the clerk that we’ve had for the last two terms, the clerk who has done a phenomenal job. I don’t think anyone can question her abilities. Her staff is just wonderful. The smoothness that it runs in spite of ourselves, in spite of the members and what we try to do to cause grief for the clerk’s office. With that being said, it is my pleasure today to nominate Sarah Lang to the position of Clerk of the North Carolina Senate for the next term. Thank you, Mr. President.”

January 14, 2015
The President recognizes Senator Blue, who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, it is my pleasure to second the nomination of Sarah Lang to be Principal Clerk. Senator Apodaca, the gentleman, pointed out that she operates an efficient shop and has been quite helpful as we’ve dragged ourselves into the twenty-first century technologically. She also strives very hard to be transparent, which she is, and to be fair and loyal to the institution. And so, it is with great pleasure that I second her nomination, as a fellow Wake Countian, but more importantly, I would move, Mr. President, that the nominations be closed on the one said name and she be elected by acclamation.”

The motion by Senator Blue that the nominations be closed and that Sarah Lang be elected Principal Clerk of the 2015 Senate by acclamation prevails.

The President declares Sarah Lang duly elected and instructs the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort the Principal Clerk-elect to the well of the Senate. The President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort Mr. Ralph Lang, Jr., to the well of the Senate, where he joins his daughter as she receives the prescribed Oath of Office. The Honorable Mark D. Martin administers the prescribed Oath of Office, and the President directs the Principal Clerk to assume her seat.

Pursuant to G.S. 120-37, the President declares the floor open to receive nominations for the Office of Reading Clerk.

The President recognizes Senator Tillman, who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Mr. President and members, it is a great pleasure that, number one, the rules have been changed to make it easier for Lee Settle—he doesn’t have to read the long titles. Sometimes, I know, we’ve seen some four pages long so we might be able to reduce his pay, but it is going to be easier for him. It is with great pleasure that I nominate Lee Settle—he’s a constituent of mine from Moore County, by the way—to again serve as our Reading Clerk. I’m honored that he has again agreed to be a part of our Senate family, and with that, I formally nominate Lee Settle to serve as Reading Clerk for the 2015 North Carolina Senate.”

The President recognizes Senator Brock, who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Senate, as the responsible party for the three-page [title] I want to hereby apologize for that, but I am honored to second the nomination of Lee Settle to serve as the Reading Clerk of the 2015 North Carolina Senate, and I further move that the nominations be closed and that Lee Settle’s nomination be accepted by acclamation.”

January 14, 2015
The motion offered by Senator Brock that the nominations be closed and that Lee Settle be elected Reading Clerk of the 2015 Senate by acclamation prevails.

The President declares Lee Settle duly elected and instructs the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort the Reading Clerk-elect to the well of the Senate. The President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort Mrs. Alberta Settle to the well of the Senate, where she joins her husband as he receives the prescribed Oath of Office. The Honorable Mark D. Martin administers the prescribed Oath of Office, and the President directs the Reading Clerk to assume his seat.

Pursuant to G.S. 120-37, the President declares the floor open to receive nominations for the Office of Sergeant-at-Arms.

The President recognizes Senator Rabon, who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Senate, I rise to nominate our own Phil King to serve as Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate. As you know, Mr. King has served us well for the past four years. Prior to coming to this great position, he served our country well as a Navy SEAL and as a member of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. With that, Mr. President, I formally nominate Phil King to serve as Sergeant-at-Arms of the 2015 North Carolina Senate.”

The President recognizes Senator Soucek, who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Senate, I am honored to second the nomination of Phil King to serve again as our Sergeant-at-Arms, and I also move that nominations be closed and that Phil King’s nomination be accepted by acclamation.”

The motion offered by Senator Soucek that the nominations be closed and that Phil King be elected Sergeant-at-Arms of the 2015 Senate by acclamation prevails.

The President declares Phil King duly elected and directs the Sergeant-at-Arms-elect to enter the well of the Senate. The President directs an assistant Sergeant-at-Arms to escort Mrs. Carol King to the well of the Senate, where she joins her husband as he receives the prescribed Oath of Office. The Honorable Mark D. Martin administers the prescribed Oath of Office, and the President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to assume his seat.

RECOGNITION OF PARTY OFFICERS

The President directs the Reading Clerk to read as follows:

Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the rules are suspended and the Joint Resolution is placed on today’s calendar for immediate consideration.

CALENDAR

A resolution on today’s calendar is taken up and disposed of as follows:

The Joint Resolution passes its second reading (49-0) and, without objection, is read a third time and passes its third reading and is ordered enrolled.

January 14, 2015
REMARKS BY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate, offers the following remarks:

“Senators and guests, it is an honor to be with you today. It is an honor to be able to stand before you as Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina and as President of the Senate, and it’s an honor to serve you on a daily basis in this great state. Two years ago, as we celebrated the 50th Anniversary of this Legislative Building, I shared my passion with you—as an architect—for great design and that this building we stand in today is a modern architectural masterpiece designed by world renowned architect Edward Durrell Stone. To understand the importance that our forefathers placed in the design of this building, the building’s architect also designed the Kennedy Center in Washington D.C., Radio City Music Hall, and The Museum of Modern Art in New York City. Many of you, especially the new members here today, will find yourselves engaged in the frustrating verbal battles with this building as you sit in tiny, block-wall offices, and as you try to differentiate one corridor from the next. As an architect, my appreciation lies in the contextual framework within which it was designed. To appreciate any building or work of art, we must place ourselves within the context of its creation. Sometimes within that context we can understand the story and discover the beauty. This large modern building was placed amongst a sea of Victorian homes in a small southern town 50 years ago. The aerial view of its day looks like a spaceship invaded the capital city. But it was bold, and it was courageous, and it was innovative for its time. Other bold and courageous moves of the day included a scientific and political race to place a man on the moon that captured America’s imagination, and Martin Luther King Jr.’s, ‘I Have a Dream’ speech that captured America’s heart. We all dream big dreams. We all conjure up bold, courageous, and innovative ideas, but those dreams and ideas must rest upon a solid foundation, just like this building, if they are to stand the test of time. What does that foundation look like in North Carolina? Two years ago, I mentioned that there was much work to be done to relieve our citizens of the burden of taxation in our great state. You made the bold moves and did the hard work to improve our tax foundation. You placed more money in the pockets of every tax paying citizen in North Carolina, and you moved our state from 44th in the nation for business tax climate to 17th in the nation, letting the world know that North Carolina is open for business. Two years ago, I shared that our unemployment rate was 9.1% on that day, and you did the hard work that needed to be done to reduce that unemployment rate to 6.3% today. Because of your bold leadership over the past two years, oil and natural gas exploration and production are much closer to reality in North Carolina than they have ever been before. Two years ago, I mentioned that for the first time in modern history we have the opportunity to take advantage of technology to transform the world of education. Through your leadership, we are right on the verge of making North Carolina a leader in education innovation. You followed through with your promise to increase teacher pay for the first time in a number of years. You created the North Carolina Education Endowment so that we could invest in excellent teaching, so that we could strive towards an aspirational goal of having our highest performing teachers be amongst the highest paid in the nation. You focused on the importance of reading for third graders, because if our children can’t read by the third grade, the hill is often just too high to climb to succeed in life. You realized the importance of the highest standards for education in America so that our students could compete for jobs anywhere in the world. You began the process of investing in the digital technology transformation in our schools, and because of your innovative leadership and the work of many passionate education professionals—teachers, parents, and businesses and non-profits—I believe North Carolina will be the first state in the country to have every classroom connected to high-speed broadband internet, one-to-one devices in the hands of every child, and teachers who know how to leverage this technology to our kids for new frontiers. When you place that connected device in the hands of that child, you have placed all the knowledge in the world at their fingertips, you have placed every book in the world in their hands, and you have opened up the world of opportunity and possibility to a child who perhaps had no hope. You have effectively begun to bridge the socio-economic education divide for the first time in the history of our nation. The North Carolina Digital Learning Plan will enable us to move from a one-size-fits-all approach to education to customized education for every child, to make the transition away from extensive high-stakes testing to mastery based learning, to move from static teaching tools to dynamic digital tools, to move from class-time learning to ‘anywhere-anytime’ learning, to reach children in each and every school in North Carolina with content and curriculum they have never had access to before. My friends, senators, this plan is not a dream; it is a reality because of you. In fact, your bold leadership created the law that established this transformation, and the Digital Learning Plan is a work in progress. I have a copy of the Digital Learning Plan with me today, and when you all leave here today you will all have a copy of that on your desk. I hope you will take and read it. But in order for this plan to be successful it will take continued courage, leadership, and investment for the building of a strong foundation. An architect knows that a great building starts with a solid foundation, and a solid foundation starts with a well thought-out plan, and that plan starts with a vision. I thank you for being visionaries. The designer of this building envisioned a future where the leaders of our state would come together, despite their differences, to work for the common good. They designed a building open to the people, solely devoted to the legislative branch in government, so senators and representatives could work alongside each other, in close proximity, to solve the challenges of our state. We have new challenges that face us in North Carolina in 2015, but as designers of North Carolina’s future, we will tackle these challenges with boldness and courage. We will build a strong foundation for our future and design a North Carolina that our children and grandchildren will be proud of for many years. A great trust has been placed in you by the people of our state, and I know each of you is up to the task of ensuring that that trust is not breached. I look forward to working with you and getting to know the new senators over the next two years, and, as always, you have my word that I will preside over this body with all fairness and transparency. May God bless each of you with wisdom, knowledge, and courage as you lead our great state. God bless.”

January 14, 2015

January 14, 2015

SECOND DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, January 28, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, as we convene and bow our heads, we come before you, the maker of all things, the maker of the perfect law. We ask that you, Lord God, would raise up spokesmen and spokeswomen that may be drawn to truth, to justice, to kindness. As we gather, we are reminded of Paul’s words to Timothy to ‘pray for our kings,’ and so we pray. Bless, we ask, those assembled, their families, their intentions, their endeavors. We pray that these men and women to my left and right would be given the right words to speak, and that they would be granted wisdom beyond their native capacity. We pray against snap judgments. We pray these policies would be put into place that would not hinder religious freedom nor encourage oppression. We are grateful to you, Jesus, for being with us and for interceding for us right now. We give you praise, and we commit this session into your hands. We pray in Jesus’ name. Amen.”

January 28, 2015
Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, January 14, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Bingham.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Carol Womble from Greensboro, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message is received from the Governor:

*See Editor’s Notes in the Addendum

January 28, 2015
Dear Lieutenant Governor Forest, President Pro Tempore Berger and Speaker Tillis:

Pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 7A-45.1(a10), I hereby nominate, and submit for confirmation, Special Superior Court Judge Gregory McGuire to fill the vacancy created by the September 30, 2014 retirement of former Special Superior Court Judge John Jolly. Judge McGuire is currently a Special Superior Court Judge in Wake County, filling the unexpired term of former Special Superior Court Judge Lisa Bell.

Pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 7A-45.3, Chief Justice Martin designated Judge McGuire as a Business Court Judge on October 13, 2014. Upon Judge McGuire’s confirmation to Judge Jolly’s seat, I intend to ask Chief Justice Martin to continue Judge McGuire’s designation as a Business Court Judge. Judge McGuire is well qualified for this position by his education and experience, and I am grateful for his willingness to serve the State of North Carolina in this important capacity.

Enclosed, you will find biographical information for Judge McGuire. Please feel free to contact my staff for any additional information.

Sincerely,
S/Pat McCrory
Governor

January 28, 2015
The message is referred to the Rules and Operations of the Senate Committee.

Pursuant to Senator Berger’s motion to adjourn having prevailed, the Senate stands adjourned.

THIRD DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, January 29, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Father, we come here today, so grateful for who you are, Lord, and your incredible mercy on our lives. We don’t deserve it. We don’t deserve the grace that you distribute to us so beautifully. Lord, we pray for these men and women that you’ve gathered before us, that you would give them patience and peace, that your love would truly come on their hearts and blanket them, shelter them, protect them from evil. Jesus, we are so grateful that we can come before you right now and pray in public, in this space. We ask you to enter in to this place and bless us; bless these servants of the people of North Carolina to do your will in this state. It is in your name, Jesus, that we pray. Amen.”

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, January 28, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Bingham, Senator Blue, and Senator Stein.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Bonnie Davis from Charlotte, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

The Lieutenant Governor orders a message sent to the House of Representatives notifying that honorable body that, pursuant to S.J.R. 4, the Senate stands ready to repair to the Hall of the House of Representatives, there to sit in Joint Session for the purpose of receiving the State-of-the-State address from The Honorable Pat McCrory, Governor of North Carolina.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following special message is received from the House of Representatives:

House of Representatives
February 4, 2015

Mr. President:

It is ordered that a message be sent to the Senate informing that Honorable Body that pursuant to S.J.R. 4 (Res 2015-2), A JOINT RESOLUTION INFORMING HIS EXCELLENCY, GOVERNOR PAT MCCRARY, THAT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IS ORGANIZED AND READY TO PROCEED WITH PUBLIC BUSINESS AND INVITING THE GOVERNOR TO

February 4, 2015
ADDRESS A JOINT SESSION OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, the House stands ready to receive your Honorable Body in Joint Session.

Respectfully,
S/ Denise G. Weeks
Principal Clerk

Senator Berger offers a motion that, in accordance with S.J.R. 4, the Senate stand in recess to repair to the Hall of the House of Representatives, there to sit in Joint Session for the purpose of receiving the State-of-the-State address from The Honorable Pat McCrory. He further moves that upon the dissolution of the Joint Session, the Senate will adjourn to reconvene Thursday, February 5, at 11:30 a.m.

The President declares the Senate in recess at 6:33 p.m. The Senate, preceded by its officers, repairs to the Hall of the House of Representatives.

JOINT SESSION

With members of the House of Representatives standing, the Senate is received in the Hall of the House of Representatives.

The Honorable Tim Moore, Speaker of the House of Representatives, presides and recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives, who announces the presence of the Chief Justice and the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, and the Chief Judge and the Judges of the Court of Appeals at the door of the chamber. The Speaker directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to open the doors and to escort the members of the Judiciary to their seats.

The Speaker recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms who announces the presence of the members of the Council of State and the Governor’s Cabinet at the door of the chamber. The Speaker directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to open the doors of the House of Representatives and to escort the members of the Council of State and the Governor’s Cabinet to their seats.

The Speaker extends courtesies of the House to the wife of Lieutenant Governor Dan Forest, Mrs. Alice Forest, and their children, and to all invited guests.

The Speaker relinquishes the gavel to Lieutenant Governor Dan Forest, President of the Senate, who presides.

The President of the Senate calls the Joint Session of the General Assembly to order.

February 4, 2015
The President recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives, who announces the presence of His Excellency, The Honorable Pat McCrory, Governor of North Carolina, at the door of the chamber. The Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives, the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate, and the appointed committee escort the Governor to the well of the House of Representatives. Representative Daughtry is recognized and presents the Governor to the President of the Senate. The President presents His Excellency, The Honorable Pat McCrory, who delivers the State-of-the-State Address to the 2015 General Assembly.

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS

“Mr. Speaker, Lt. Governor, Mr. President Pro Tem, Members of the Court, Members of the General Assembly, Members of the Council of State, and my incredible Cabinet and team, and most of all to the great people of the great state of North Carolina, it was just two years ago, right before I walked in these beautiful gold doors, that my Chief of Staff, Thomas Stiff, handed me the phone, and it wasn’t good news. I had just received a phone call informing me that Highway Patrol Trooper Michael Potts was fighting for his life. You see, during a routine traffic stop on Highway 70, Trooper Potts was shot four times. He was shot in the hands, he was shot in the shoulder, and he was shot point blank directly in his face. He was left for dead by the assailant; he was left for dead on the side of the road. After the State of the State speech I immediately traveled to Duke University Medical Center to visit Trooper Potts, to check on his condition, to see his family, and to see the literally hundreds of fellow troopers who had gathered outside the hospital, out in the hallway, and some at his bedside, praying for him. The terror of that evening was only the first day of suffering Trooper Potts and his family would endure. I might add that Trooper Potts saved a lot of lives by pulling this person over. Since the shooting, there have been surgeries, grueling rehabilitation therapy, and also personal reassessment. Some advised Trooper Potts to turn in his badge and to pursue a safer line of work, but Trooper Potts had a passion to be a trooper and to work for the people of the State of North Carolina. He wasn’t going to walk away from his job. Instead, he and his family worked together to overcome his obstacles, heal his wounds, and today, he is reassigned to the North Carolina Highway Patrol Training Academy. Ladies and Gentlemen, join me in welcoming North Carolina Highway Patrol Trooper Michael Potts and his wife Lauren. Michael, Trooper Potts, I got a little emotional there because I consider you a friend. You have become a friend. Your family is incredible. We have eaten dinner together at the mansion. We’ve thrown the baseball together at a ball game. In fact, several months ago we played catch on the Capitol grounds together. Most people don’t know this but before Michael became a trooper he was a Major League baseball pitcher for the Milwaukee Brewers, and he played in the Major Leagues. To be able to throw a ball with the guy that I saw hanging on to his life, to be able to throw a ball with him a year and a half later outside the Capitol building was an incredible thrill for me, and believe me he’s got a good arm too. Trooper Potts still carries bullet fragments in his skull as he’s with us today, but instead of being defined by his injuries, and he’s made a point to tell me this, he has conquered them and he has come back even stronger. Ladies and Gentlemen, like Trooper Potts, I’m proud to report the State of North Carolina has come back even stronger today as I speak right here. North Carolina is strong and it’s going to be stronger. Its people are resilient, and our future is bright. Because of many people in this room and because of the resilience of people in North Carolina, our unemployment rate, which was the fifth highest in the nation just two years ago, has dropped substantially. It’s the second sharpest drop in the United States in America, right here in North Carolina. Our economy is improving; cranes are returning to many skylines; and real estate is finally getting back on its feet. And yes, the ‘Made in North Carolina’ brand is returning in our factories throughout North Carolina. Manufacturing is coming back. Along the way, our administration, like many of you, took swift action in response to other serious crises that hit us during these past two years—from an Ebola scare, to the Dan River spill, to this year’s very serious flu virus, which is hitting my wife at this time. We’ve also had to respond to extreme weather events throughout North Carolina: heavy rains and flooding in Western North Carolina, a series of ice storms covering the whole state. Hurricane Arthur hit the Outer Banks bringing flooding and knocking out the power to thousands of people. Nine tornadoes devastated parts of eastern North Carolina. In fact, while visiting many areas damaged by these horrific storms during the past two years, I was moved by incredible things: neighbor helping neighbor and the incredible emergency response teams. City, county, and our state workers came together—no ‘turf,’ courage, a sense of helping, anything we can do to help people get back on their feet. I saw the best of North Carolina. I saw the best of state emergency operation workers and a great team. At one tornado damaged area, I was especially touched by the spirit of Winfall mayor, Fred Yates. This man looked at his neighborhoods and his town and saw homes totally destroyed. As I walked through his neighborhood, I could see firsthand with him the physical and psychological damage. The citizens were just blank stare, going ‘what has happened.’ But Mayor Yates continued to move forward and inspire his citizens and go inside the homes and say, ‘we are going to come back, we are going to rebuild.’ This is the type of leadership that inspires me. Mayor Yates told me as I left this one neighborhood. He said ‘we’re going to come back and we’re going to rebuild,’ and they have done just that. Ladies and Gentlemen, please welcome a true leader in a crisis, Winfall mayor, Fred Yates. Mayor, that day, I have never gotten a bear hug like you gave me. I saw you give bear hugs not only to this governor. You gave bear hugs to your friends and neighbors, and it really rejuvenated them. Your leadership was inspirational to all of us. Thank you very much. It’s the same spirit of resilience that helped North Carolina recover from our economic crisis. When I took the Oath of Office in January 2013, North Carolina taxes were among the highest in the Southeast, but working together, these two chambers, we passed historic tax reform that put more money in peoples’ paychecks. It was the first major overhaul of our tax system in nearly 80 years. That is quite an accomplishment. And two years ago, because of our badly outdated unemployment insurance system, our businesses owed the federal government $2.5 billion. But drawing upon the resilience, we reformed our unemployment system, and we not only aligned our benefits with neighboring states, we also devised a plan, together, to pay off our debt this year, a full three years ahead of schedule. Now in North Carolina, not only do we have a balanced budget, which we are required to do, but when we have a debt, we have learned to cut up the credit card, and we pay it off. That’s a lesson those in Washington also need to learn, and we’re a good role model. I want to give a special thanks to a former member of our House of Representatives, and that’s Assistant Secretary of Employment, Dale Folwell, and also our new Secretary of Commerce, John Skvarla, for being the driving force behind this effort. Today in North Carolina, instead of having unemployment offices, we have career centers. Because, as Dale often reminds me, and he often reminded many of you on this floor during the past several decades, we want people off unemployment and into jobs. And they are doing just that. We are proud of that work. Dale, welcome back to the House Chambers. I appreciate your work, man. I am pleased to report, because so many of us in this room rolled up our sleeves with the goal of getting people back to work, that as of today the private sector has now created nearly 200,000 new jobs in North Carolina. We went from being the 5th highest in unemployment to the 23rd lowest in unemployment, and now we’re even beating South Carolina. But that’s not good enough. We accomplished a lot, but it’s not good enough. You know and I know there are a lot of people still hurting out there. There are a lot of communities that are still suffering. There are a lot of small businesses that are just barely hanging on, and so there is a lot of work to do. So while we celebrate what we have accomplished, we need to move forward and help those people who want to rebound from an economy that is still suffering throughout the United States. Therefore, my administration’s focus will be on five areas that have the greatest impact on the people of North Carolina. The first area is this. We want to ensure that everyone who wants a job can find a job in a vibrant North Carolina economy. Second, we want to ensure that every child and adult obtains the skills and knowledge needed to become a productive citizen. Third, we will continue to connect North Carolina’s small towns with our state’s commerce centers, and vice versa, through physical and digital highways. Fourth, improving the quality of life, we have got to make sure we have public safety and good healthcare for North Carolina’s families. And fifth, we’re going to continue to look for efficiencies in our budget and improving government services. In other words, we’re going to focus on jobs, on education, on connectivity through infrastructure, on healthcare and public safety as well as government efficiency. That’s where my work is going to be focused on, and I ask you to join me in that effort. Let’s talk about jobs. As you know, the fight for jobs is global; it is played at the highest level, and, believe me, the competition is at our heels. In California last year, while visiting high-tech companies and venture capital firms, promoting North Carolina, I just happened to run into Governor John Kasich of Ohio. I know he wasn’t there to visit the wine country, and neither was I. Just a few weeks ago on an economic development trip in Europe, I know for a fact, because I got a little intel from the taxicab drivers, that other governors preceded me the day before, and other governors were following me the day after in trying to bring businesses to their

states and to America. The governors I’m competing against are good friends and often neighbors. Like North Carolina, they have cut taxes, invested in education, and have built new roads. What they have that we don’t have, that I don’t have as governor, is a clear and concise job creation toolbox. Therefore, working with the leadership of the House and the Senate, we will submit for your approval a series of tools which will help us continue to beat the competition—beat the competition for jobs coming to North Carolina. That’s our goal. We need these tools passed in a matter of weeks, not months, because right now we are attempting to recruit new jobs in North Carolina. Our plan, ‘NC Competes,’ will promote long-term sustainable job growth and capital investment. It will encourage mid and large scale manufacturing, because manufacturing is a part of North Carolina’s DNA. It will leverage our university research advantage to attract venture capital and a new generation of entrepreneurs as well as help retain North Carolina’s home-grown talent. This plan is based upon a series of guiding principles—principles designed to grow North Carolina while also protecting our taxpayers. ‘NC Competes’ recognizes the importance of economic strength in all of our regions, but emphasizes support to areas that still have high unemployment. ‘NC Competes’ will require strong financial safeguards to provide a positive return to state revenues in the long run. In addition to ‘NC Competes,’ we need to pass the Historic Preservation Tax Credit. Being a former mayor, I understand this more than anybody. We have got to continue to revitalize the main streets from Wilkesboro to Greensboro to Swansboro. Secretary Susan Kluttz, a person with unlimited passion, former mayor of Salisbury, reminds us that the vitality of our state is best reflected by the vibrancy of our town centers. And, believe me, it’s a big deal when you have a blighted building in the middle of your town center that’s showing a sign of disrepair as opposed to a sign of economic vitality. This is a big deal. Last week I saw it firsthand visiting Concord, where we went to the Hotel Concord, where I was joined by Senator Fletcher Hartsell and Representative Linda Johnson along with 200 citizens who joined us, and I was reminded of the success of existing products and the potential for new projects coming along to Concord. We need to get this bill passed. Now is not the time to pull the plug on a strategy that has created new jobs and new investment and revived small towns throughout North Carolina. Two years ago when I stood before you, I said North Carolina had to get off the sidelines and into the energy business. Ladies and gentlemen, I’m pleased to report that North Carolina is off the bench and in the game, and we have a new quarterback, Secretary Don van der Vaart, the head of DENR now. To keep energy prices low, particularly in Eastern North Carolina, we’re supporting the construction of a $5-billion natural gas pipeline that will run from West Virginia throughout eastern North Carolina. This will have a huge impact on eastern North Carolina by lowering the gas prices and giving more access to customers, and help me and help John Skvarla, my secretary of Commerce, recruit more jobs to eastern North Carolina. Energy is a vital part of that effort. This year, through Don’s leadership, we will begin to assess North Carolina’s energy potential both on land and offshore. We are right now working with our congressional delegation to ensure, if there are resources offshore, that North Carolina gets energy revenue that will help pay for teachers, help pay for roads, help pay for beach re-nourishment, and help pay for the dredging of our ports, which is desperately needed. That’s our goal right now, to bring new revenue and new jobs to our state, and to help in our country’s energy independence. Now, while encouraging these new investments, we must not forget that small business is the largest job creating sector of our economy. We also must remember that agriculture is North Carolina’s biggest industry, contributing more than $78 billion a year to our economy. We must continue to look for new ways to help our farmers who are facing increased competition from around the world and here at home. One area that continues to be a challenge to all growers is the shortage of food processing facilities in North Carolina. Our farmers right now have to send many of their products to other states, which substantially increases their costs. So working with our very able and excellent Agriculture Commissioner—Steve, we are going to work together to assess the need and develop a strategy for attracting more food processing plants in the state. We are going to put together a task force of farmers, business leaders, and venture capitalists. This group will convene and recommend a strategy and disband by March 2016. One key to our economy which affects agriculture and other industries is also our state ports. We have made some great progress with refrigeration in Wilmington, but we’ve got some other challenges right now at a very, very important state port, and that’s at Morehead City. As I address you tonight, we have a very, very urgent problem at the Port of Morehead City. The Beaufort Inlet channel has an authorized depth of 45 feet, but without explanation, during the past several months, shifting sands have reduced the depth to 34 feet, forcing many ships, right now, to enter the port half empty. Or in some cases they have to split their loads between Morehead City and another port. This has just happened. We have been working closely with our congressional delegation and the Army Corps of Engineers, literally been on the phone during the past several weeks, trying to come up with a solution because this is crucial to thousands of jobs in that area. I am pleased to announce that some of our efforts have recently paid off. The Army Corps of Engineers just added $4.1 million to this year’s dredging budget, bringing the total to $8.9 million in federal dollars dedicated to this emergency. In addition, my administration stands ready to commit state dollars as needed in this emergency to keep this crucial commercial artery open for business. I especially want to thank Transportation Secretary Tony Tata and our entire delegation for their incredible work. Your phone calls, to both the Army Corps of Engineers, the contacts that you have in the Pentagon. I also want to thank, not only our congressional delegation, but also Senator Richard Burr, who has been working with me on this problem around the clock. Please give them a round of applause, and we all need to work together. Human nature is tough to deal with, and we’ve got to deal with it. Now let’s talk about a priority of all of ours, and that is education. A key part of any jobs plan and quality of life plan is a quality education so students can compete in a global economy. Connecting his students to the greater world is the mission of Garinger High School history teacher James Ford. Ford, once an Illinois teacher, came to North Carolina—chose North Carolina—to continue his career and fulfill his teaching potential. He’s proved himself. Not only has he recently become North Carolina’s Teacher of the Year, but just several weeks ago, Charlotte Magazine named him Person of the Year, not teacher of the year, person of the year, where he beat out business and civic leaders. Now that’s the respect that teachers need in North Carolina. Ladies and Gentlemen, please welcome my Teacher Advisory Committee leader, Mr. James Ford. This guy is absolutely incredible. You’ve got to hear him speak. He spoke to the members of the Board of Governors about two weeks ago, and I had the mistake of following him. I also happened to see him at Rite Aid in Charlotte when I was picking up my cold medicine. I ran into him and I said ‘you got Person of the Year in Charlotte, I was mayor there for 14 years, I am now Governor, and I’ve never been nominated.’ I am so proud of you. He’s been a great member of the Teacher Advisory Group, which made many recommendations that this legislature passed. The best ideas come from the people who are actually doing the work, and James Ford is the best. I’ve got some good news to report: because of teachers like James Ford, our most recent graduation rate is the highest in North Carolina history, as we speak today. With continued investment in Pre-K and continued reforms, such as NCWorks—which was an excellent program, in job training at our community colleges, we hope to see even a better rate of employment and graduation, and we want more people filling the skills gap in North Carolina. Still, we have to build an education system that rewards teachers like James Ford for their results-driven leadership. He is a leader, and there are a lot of leaders just like him in every school throughout North Carolina. We all know who they are. You know when you think back to your high school years, you knew who the best teachers were. The parents knew, the students knew, the principals knew, the superintendents knew. Everyone knew who the leaders, the good teachers were. But I need to let you know that our goal is to make North Carolina a teaching destination, not a layover for our state’s best and brightest. I know for a fact that teaching is extremely hard, I know it firsthand. Because as a 20 year old student at Catawba College, trying to earn my own teaching degree and North Carolina teaching certification, I had to student-teach at North Rowan High School in Spencer. I was that young 20 year-old, and I said ‘I’m going to tear this up. I am going to do great.’ So Wayne Crowder, my mentor, my teacher, and guide, said you’re up tomorrow. The whole evening before, I got a lesson plan ready for an hour of teaching. I worked the whole night with this teaching material. Well, I started the class and after 10 minutes, I ran out of material. The next 50 minutes were the longest 50 minutes of my life. As Wayne Crowder—the teacher advisor—was taking notes, the students were just staring at me going, ‘what is wrong with this guy.’ In other words, teaching is hard. It is hard work. We need to do everything we can to support our teachers. So, this is what I am recommending, and I know many of you will follow this lead. First of all, we need to fulfill our promise, and I’d like to thank this leadership for making this promise last year, your leadership has been very much appreciated. We must fulfill our promise to raise teacher base pay to $35,000 a year for any entry level teacher regardless of where they live and work in North Carolina. We are going to fulfill that promise. We have another goal that we are setting, and it’s a team effort. We also must give our teachers—because they are giving us feedback, and so are students. You’ve heard it, I have heard it, and they are right. We need to give them the gift of time and allow them to start teaching again, by testing less and letting them teach more. Don’t you agree with me? Now this is going to be a team effort. It has already been a team effort. My administration is finalizing a plan and working with a great group. First of all, I want to thank State Superintendent June Atkinson, you’ve been a great teammate, I really appreciate it; Lieutenant Governor Dan Forest, who is right at the forefront of education initiatives; State School Board Chair Bill Cobey, who has just committed unlimited hours to education. But more than anyone, we are getting the ideas on how to limit testing from our school superintendents, principals, and teachers. They are the ones who are making the proposals to us. We want to distinguish which tests improve a student’s performance and which tests simply waste the time of both teachers and students. I am guaranteeing this, and June, you will join me I know, because we’ve just been recently at another meeting on this. We want to eliminate unneeded testing by next year. That’s our goal. We’ve got some good ideas. We also are continuing our efforts to bring Wi-Fi to all of our classrooms and long distance learning to both our children and adults. To help our schools hire the teachers they need now, we are moving to expedite teacher certification, recognizing an individual’s experience and subject expertise. For example, my excellent education advisor Eric Guckian—Eric, please stand up, I want to see you. He’s come up with some great ideas. Let me tell you about how hard it is to get a teaching certification in North Carolina. Eric Guckian, my education advisor, taught for two years in the South Bronx in New York for Teach For America, and he has a master’s degree in education from Harvard. Now we are not going to hold that against him, but that’s pretty impressive. Yet, when he came to North Carolina, he was required to take 18 months of courses to earn his North Carolina teaching certification. This is why schools are going ‘I need talent now more than ever.’ This bureaucratic process of certification must change. We want, and should be encouraging, accomplished people who want to join the teaching profession. The bureaucracy should never, never stand between their talents and our children’s needs, and we’re going to begin that now. Cost must also not become an obstacle for students at our community colleges and universities. We must look at our community colleges’ and universities’ balance sheets to make sure that we’re making investments in the programs of learning that will prepare our students for a job and for the global economy. And we have to close North Carolina’s skills gap. I was in Fayetteville today, and I still had several employers tell me, ‘I’ve got job openings, but I cannot find the qualified people to fill these jobs.’ We have to do better to beat our competition. I’m proud to report that our community colleges and our universities are turning in the right direction to do just that. We need to continue to encourage them to do just that. Now, we in North Carolina are fortunate to also have the benefits of the best research universities in the world. It’s one of our strongest economic recruitment tools. And I am proud to say that we are now leveraging the advantage provided by our public and our private universities through Innovation to Jobs Initiatives, which we just presented to the Board of Governors several weeks ago. It is designed to convert more of our research dollars into products and services that are patented and introduced in the marketplace to grow jobs right here in North Carolina. We cannot have these reports and studies up on a shelf. We’ve got to convert them into jobs. I am working together with the chancellors to do just that. Increasing the commercialization of university research and connecting it to our greater economy will create more high-paying jobs. As governor, my goal is to have North Carolina become the third vertex of the National Innovation Triangle, from the Silicon Valley to Boston, and the third part of that triangle is right here in North Carolina. That’s going to be a recruitment tool. What better state than North Carolina with our incredible research universities can join that competitive partnership and create jobs. That is our goal working with our universities. I am proud to say that this top priority and the person who is leading this team effort with our universities is a person that is not only a personal friend, but he is a great leader here in state government. That is my Chief of Staff, Thomas Stith. Thomas, please stand up. I appreciate your leadership on this effort. I stole him from the Kenan Institute. God bless you, buddy. Now let’s talk about our third focus, and that’s Transportation and Infrastructure. I’ve always told you in the past, Eisenhower is a hero of mine, and he left us a legacy that we’re still using today throughout our country, connecting the east with the west, and rural with urban. We want to do the same thing right here in North Carolina. During the past decade or so, as I have driven down the highways of North Carolina, I’ve always noticed that the lanes go from two lanes, to four lanes, back to two lanes, back to eight lanes, and then back to two lanes again. Have you noticed the same thing? Everywhere the road happened to be wider it was always named after a politician or a DOT board member. And where the congestion choke points occurred, where it was two lanes, I noticed there was no politician’s name at the choke point. That’s not the way we are doing things anymore, because of your leadership. We’ve taken the politics out of road-building by putting in place a transportation formula that focuses on relieving congestion—those choke points, wherever they may occur—improving safety, and growing and connecting the economy in all parts of our state—connecting the economic centers with towns throughout North Carolina and even across the borders in Tennessee, Virginia, and South Carolina. That is our goal—to connect each other. Those changes have allowed us to become more efficient with taxpayer dollars. In fact, we have more than doubled the number of transportation projects that we build. Under the leadership of Secretary Tony Tata, this new approach is creating thousands of new jobs during the next ten years. Our 25-year transportation vision connects small towns to economic centers and vice versa. These connections will make it easier for people to travel to jobs, to travel to their schools and hospitals and our parks. Our 25-year plan also recognizes that even with our new formula, we can only build one out of five projects right now in our plan. Counties and cities and many of you are telling me we’ve got to speed this up more. We’ve got to improve this connectivity. Therefore, I will request from you a transportation bond of $1.2 billion that will allow for the quicker construction of projects in the 25-year vision plan. Projects funded through a revenue bond would be the next projects in line, scored under the Mobility Formula, with environmental documents in place so we can begin these projects immediately. Here are a few examples of what we can achieve with the Mobility Formula, this proposed bond as part of our 25-year transportation. For our coastal counties, we’ll make it easier for the military to move troops and equipment during deployments while helping transport goods to our ports. It will relieve congestion during the busy tourist season and help improve emergency evacuation routes. For the east, we’ll connect—a few examples—we’ll connect eastern North Carolina to the Hampton Roads region of Virginia. Hear this? The Governor of North Carolina saying we’re going to connect to Virginia. I learned this as Mayor of Charlotte because I noticed Rock Hill, South Carolina, liked to connect to North Carolina. The economic regions don’t recognize political boundaries. The best and one of the greatest opportunities for parts of the East, Elizabeth City area and other areas, is to connect to parts of Virginia. I recognize economic boundaries as much as I recognize political boundaries, and that’s the way our transportation system is now designed. In the central part of the state, we’ll focus on relieving interstate congestion and incredible bottlenecks. We need to ease and improve the flow of freight along these bottlenecks in the Piedmont portion of our state. In the west, we need to connect the mountains all the way to the coast—from Asheville to Wilmington—and un-choke those points. You know some of them, Tim, in your area, around Shelby—a choke point which hurts the commerce and job creation all the way from Asheville to Wilmington. This is our goal, connectivity across the state, east to west; north to south. Additionally, I will support your efforts to protect and stabilize our existing transportation revenue streams while also looking at funding reform and alternatives for our future transportation and infrastructure needs. Let me tell you another infrastructure issue which we need to turn our attention to, and that is the inefficiency of state buildings. Not just here in Raleigh, but across North Carolina. One of my first clues of maintenance issues and inefficiency occurred when Ann and I were walking to get sworn in at the old State Capitol building on January the fifth. Walking between the Episcopal Church and the beautiful 1841 State Capitol building, I walked by these fountains that were in front of the State Capitol, and they were full of dirty water and trash, and they weren’t working. Two weeks later, as Governor, I walked by them again, and they were still full of dirty trash and water. Two weeks after that I walked by them again, in the same condition, so I finally said ‘what is going on here? This looks terrible. It’s a terrible signal for North Carolina. I was told, ‘I don’t know, it’s been that way for five and a half years. That’s just the way it is, Governor.’ No, it isn’t. We can no longer afford this culture of neglect and apathy. We’re going to fix things in this state. We’re going to fix our infrastructure, including the fountains in front of the 1841 building. Those fountains were repaired shortly after that conversation. Turns out all they needed was a little maintenance, and now, by the way, if you go by the beautiful Capitol building, on any day you’ll see people reading a book, kids around the water, enjoying the beauty of North Carolina and this natural flowing water and an historic building and on some beautiful grounds. Like the analogy of those fountains two years ago, many of our state buildings are suffering from the lack of maintenance, and frankly, efficiency. Too many of our buildings are obsolete, with broken HVAC units, inadequate insulation, which cost taxpayers a fortune to operate. It’s a major part of our budget, my budget as Governor. At Dorothea Dix, for example, North Carolina taxpayers spend approximately $8.5 million a year to keep that complex operating—just operating costs, HVAC costs, and the grounds—$8.5 million a year. It’s fantastic that our capital city here in Raleigh, and working with city leaders, is now gaining land for a destination park. I am so proud of Raleigh and us for coming together and making a fair deal. By the way, with this deal, the maintenance costs of the Dix complex will finally get off the state books. That’s good news. We’re going to have a beautiful, new destination park. Even better news is that we’ll get $52 million which we will direct toward supporting mental health and the well-being of our citizens. That’s good news for North Carolina and good news for Raleigh. We have structures all over the state that are a blight to North Carolina’s main streets. Here we are trying to rebuild private buildings with the historic tax credit, and some of the buildings that we are having problems with are our own buildings. They have asbestos insulation issues, they have broken elevators, they have leaky roofs, they are inefficient, they have high utility bills, and the utilization of some of these buildings is 30 or 40 percent, and yet we are paying as though it is 100 percent capacity in these buildings throughout North Carolina. The shape they are in is an embarrassment. We have many buildings that taxpayers are paying for that are essentially being used for storage—very expensive storage—literally only a block or two from here. We can do better and use that money more efficiently. Bill Daughtridge, my Secretary of the Office of Administration, and former member of this House, is doing an outstanding job identifying all these properties and making a long-term plan of how can we be more efficient, and which buildings should be revitalized, which buildings should be torn down, and which buildings in which we should build brand new buildings which are workable and efficient facilities that will be points of pride, not only here in Raleigh, but throughout towns in North Carolina. Last session—I want to thank you, that funds were appropriated to gut the Albemarle Building. Have any of you been in the Albemarle Building? It’s an embarrassment, inside, and frankly out. It is replete with soiled carpets, broken tables, stained ceiling tiles, and frankly, it’s half empty. We’re paying to deal with that old building while agencies are moving out and leasing space in other areas throughout Raleigh. That’s not efficient, and it’s a waste of tax dollars. So I want to thank you for allowing us to gut that and incorporate that into our project which we call Project Phoenix. We want to do that with other buildings in Raleigh and throughout the state. By the way, I am impressed with what you have done with this building, inside the legislative chambers. It needed help. Now let’s do what we did here to other buildings throughout the state of North Carolina. Our towns and the city of Raleigh deserve it. This will help boost employee morale, improve safety, increase productivity, and in the long run, and in the short term, will save taxpayer dollars. For the two bonds, both the transportation bond and for Project Phoenix, this is an excellent time right now. Interest rates are historically low, and we have the financial capacity to invest and maintain our physical infrastructure. Another area of great interest to all of us is DMV. Two years ago, I tasked Secretary Tata to make the DMV more customer-friendly. Back then, people waited in lines for hours only to learn, often, that they were in the wrong line to begin with. Going to DMV took so long that folks had to take time off to go get their driver’s license. Our DOT leadership team immediately went to work transforming the DMV into an example of excellent customer service, and we’re still working on improving that throughout the state. We are now opening some offices on Saturday and extending hours during the week. Today, 9 million residents are within a 30-minute drive of a DMV office with extended hours. In other words, working people can now use state services that they need and not have to take time away from work. We will soon be installing self-service kiosks for renewal and/or replacement of driver’s licenses or IDs. Do you hear that? We’re coming into the 21st century. License plate agencies across the state now accept credit and debit cards, and later this year DMV offices will accept credit and debit cards. You won’t have to bring cash or your checks. How is that for progress in the 21st century? More importantly, the DMV now is a culture that treats people like customers. That’s the way we should be treating every citizen using any of our state services—treat them as a customer. That’s been one of our goals, and we continue to roll out the customer service operations that all my secretaries have been asked to follow. Now the fourth focus is probably the most complex and most difficult and the most in need, and that is our focus on healthcare. Our customer-first philosophy must also translate to healthcare. We want to translate into a ‘patients first’ philosophy for healthcare as well. We hear from patients—Dr. Aldona Wos travels the state and hears from patients that health care is too hard to navigate in North Carolina. Imagine a hardworking, low-income mother juggling kids, running the household, and trying to keep her family healthy. What if that mom could rely on one visit to coordinate the care she needs, whether it’s a treatment for an ear ache for a child, or an orthopedist to set a broken ankle, or a plan to keep her high blood pressure under control. Our reform plan under our Healthy North Carolina initiative was developed in partnership with doctors, patients, and healthcare providers across the state, which our incredible Secretary of Health and Human Services went out to get their ideas. Not all the good ideas come from here in Raleigh. The best ideas we get from listening to the people of North Carolina, especially the people who are delivering the services. That’s exactly what Dr. Wos has done. She is also a medical doctor, so she understands what the doctors and the hospitals and others are saying. She gets it. She went throughout North Carolina communities large and small talking to the people on the frontlines of our health care system. This is physician-led reform. As part of our plan also, healthcare providers, including the physicians, will share in the responsibility for reducing costs by avoiding unnecessary services and working to keep people healthy and out of the emergency room, which is very costly. Dr. Wos, I want to thank you for your leadership. You are the true definition of a public servant. Y’all give Secretary Wos a round of applause. Our Healthy North Carolina plan puts patients first and controls costs for taxpayers and incentivizes health care providers to coordinate care. North Carolina’s health care community has a long history of solving problems. Let’s empower them now to keep our people healthy, and let’s continue to make North Carolina an excellent place for doctors to practice medicine in rural and urban areas alike and produce new discoveries for treatment. Now last session, we came close to passing Medicaid reform, but progress stalled on the one-yard-line. Let’s not take another pass this year. Let’s run it up the middle and win a victory for families across North Carolina. No interceptions. As we continue to review health care options for the uninsured, we are exploring North Carolina-based options that will help those who can’t help themselves, while also encouraging those who can. If we bring a proposal and come up with a proposal and determine that the proposal is best for North Carolina, to cover the uninsured it must protect North Carolina taxpayers, and any plan must require personal and financial responsibility for those who would be covered. I will only recommend a North Carolina plan, not a Washington plan, so that we can put patients first. That’s my goal. Now another issue of critical importance to the health and safety, especially, of our young people is underage drinking and addiction. That’s why we have launched a powerful campaign called ‘Let’s Talk It Out’ to start the conversation to stop underage drinking. I hope you’ve seen the ads. Have you seen the ads? They hit you at the heart about the tragedy of underage drinking. This campaign is being led by one of our state’s great leaders, and he is passionate about dealing with this addiction and underage drinking issue. Ladies and Gentlemen, I just want to recognize one of our true leaders in the state of North Carolina, former Lieutenant Governor Jim Gardner, who is also our ABC Commissioner. Chairman Jim Gardner, welcome. Glad to have you here. A young 81 years old. Jim Gardner has more energy than anyone in this room. He hasn’t aged a day either, but he is passionate about this, and we’re going to continue this effort—as I promised two years ago—to deal with the addiction issue. If we don’t deal with it now, we’re going to have to deal with it in Health and Human Services and Mental Health. This mental health issue and addiction issue is a plague in our state and our nation, and we’re not going to run away from it in North Carolina. Another area of public safety that we’re not going to run away from is gangs in our streets and, frankly, gangs in our towns, gangs along the highways, and even gangs in our prisons. I am working with the Department of Public Safety under Secretary Frank Perry and our S.B.I. Director, B.W. Collier, to implement a new, intelligent-based initiative designed to prevent crime before it happens; to deal with this head on, working with our local officials and our sheriffs and our DAs. In North Carolina, not only are we fighting drugs and gangs in our streets, but we are also fighting gangs in our prisons right now. It’s a very serious issue that we recognized as soon as we came into office. Corrections officers are confronting the most violent people in our state, in our prisons, every minute of their day. Can you imagine having that job, especially in the high security prisons? Some are living, right now as we speak, under death threats, not only to them, but also to their families. Working in this environment comes at a price. On average, a North Carolina corrections officer was assaulted every 11 hours during 2014. We are unveiling this secret. We’ve got to let the people know and let you know. This is a serious problem that Frank Perry is saying, ‘Governor, we are going to take some leadership on that.’ Some were sexual assaults, nearly 300 involved weapons—weapons in our prisons. Retention of these corrections officers is a constant challenge. Just several weeks ago, I got a call about a corrections officer who was slashed in the face. We will be submitting specific proposals not only to fight gangs and drugs, but to help our corrections officers, our state employees, who may have the most difficult job in North Carolina. The starting pay right now for them is $28,000 a year. We have an obligation to those who risk their lives defending us. We need to help them, and we are going to make proposals to do just that. We wanted to make you aware of this problem. We also have an obligation to those who risk their lives defending our freedoms. In just two years, our administration has launched successful veteran initiatives including converting military training into college credit or professional licenses, giving credit for military experience when veterans serve as educators, creating driver’s licenses that identify veterans, and working to support a new Veterans Life Center in Butner. Those are just a few of the things that Ilario Pantano has been working on. Thank you, Ilario. You know, General Cornell Wilson has been a great partner, a two star general who has also served overseas in Iraq, like Ilario. They are putting their energy into doing anything we can to help our military and to help our veterans. For some veterans, the transition is very, very difficult. There is a major movie out right now that shows that difficulty of someone coming home. Literally we have thousands of veterans coming home from Afghanistan and Iraq right through North Carolina. Some of them have had problems with addiction, homelessness, getting a job, and struggling with mental illness. In 2013, we established a Veterans Treatment Court to help troubled veterans. The two courts have been an unqualified success. Visiting them has moved me, and visiting the graduates has moved me. Therefore, working with our judicial leaders and the Governor’s Crime Commission and other efforts, our goal is to establish two more Veterans Treatment Courts in North Carolina. Our veterans deserve a second chance, and we’re going to give it to them in North Carolina. In addition to these issues, we will have budget and legislative recommendations, and I’m looking forward to working with all of you. Just in the past several months, Tim and Phil and I have had numerous phone conversations and visits, and we’re working together to share ideas, to share your ideas, and come up with viable long-term solutions. I have met with the minority leaders of both the House and Senate. We are all a team here. We are all working for North Carolina. We are going to have other opportunities and other recommendations. That’s our goal. In addition to helping our correctional officers, we want to provide resources for the western crime lab. There’s got to be improvement in our crime lab situation. We are hearing this from sheriffs and police officers and DAs throughout North Carolina. We are going to continue that funding, I promise. We are going to get this done. Also, my wife demands I say this, and I believe it, we have to protect our pets from abuse in puppy mills. I am embarrassed that North Carolina is not giving basic food and water and shelter to our puppies. We are going to continue to look for ideas to fight drugs and gangs, to improve mental health, and we are going to continue our fight to prevent addiction, just to name a few. All of our challenges and opportunities require money and resources. Like last session, money will be tight. My Department of Revenue Secretary, Lyons Gray, almost every day he updates me on the revenue that’s coming in. We are lucky to have the talent of Lyons Gray working for this Cabinet. He is counting every dollar because much of our spending is already allocated even before we sit down to write a new budget, which we will deliver within the next several weeks. Let me just give you an example, which most people don’t realize, where dollars are already tied up. State workers’ pensions and healthcare costs for current and retired state employees alone account for nearly 22 percent of our spending. So we’ve got to look for savings in other areas and everywhere. Here’s what we’re going to do in the McCrory administration to find continued savings in our current operations. One area where we think there is great potential is workers’ compensation claims. They have cost taxpayers tens of thousands of dollars. In fact during the past six years, we’ve spent $896 million on workers’ compensation claims in North Carolina, $896 million. That’s about $150 million annually, which would have paid for a two percent pay raise for teachers or law enforcement officers every year. We all want to pay legitimate claims and give injured employees the best medical care possible. More importantly, under the excellent leadership of Office of State Human Resources Director Neal Alexander, we are increasing worker safety training—not only to reduce worker accidents—but prevent them in the first place. That’s our goal, to prevent accidents in the first place and make our workplaces safe. However, our examination, during the past two years, of workers compensation estimates that 40 percent of workers’ costs are related to abuse or outright fraud. To take hold of costs and to get people back to work sooner, I am signing and submitting an executive order placing the oversight of workers’ compensation under the Office of State Human Resources. One of our first priorities will be to responsibly settle cases that are over five years old, an action that could save taxpayers up to $17 million over the next two years. We will launch a major effort to stop fraud and abuse dead in its tracks so that money can be used for other state employees and other needed services in North Carolina. Many of you are also familiar with our NCGEAR efficiency program. I am so pleased to have Lee Roberts as our new budget director. He is doing an excellent job coming in, and his learning curve has been absolutely amazing. I am lucky to have that type of talent on my cabinet. Based on some of the NCGEAR findings, I will take additional actions to streamline the operations underneath the Governor’s authority, not only because they save money in many cases, but it makes common sense. For instance, the North Carolina Zoo and the state aquariums, museums, and our state parks, we think need to move from the Department of Natural and Environmental Resources to the department that actually manages attractions as part of its mission, and that’s Cultural Resources. That’s what we’re going to begin to do. Over the years, the Department of Administration has become the home for various divisions and agencies that have been moved to Bill Daughtridge’s department. We will begin, after extensive review, to transfer a number of these agencies from the Department of Administration to areas where they are better aligned within state government. Now one area where we’ve found a lot of inefficiency is in information technology, during the past two years. What we’ve found is the piecemeal approach we’ve taken during the past decade to information technology has had disastrous results. 74 percent of the State’s IT projects have come in over budget and behind schedule during the past decade; 74 percent. Who would hire anyone or a company with that type of track record? We found that the state has 40 data centers with over 1,000 different computer systems. That’s hardly an example of efficiency. We’ve discovered that obvious opportunities to pool the purchasing powers of several agencies are often bypassed. My administration is going to insert accountability into IT operations by proposing and working with you, as we have been on this issue for several months, by proposing a new cabinet-level Department of Information Technology. The IT professionals throughout the Cabinet agencies and departments of the Executive Branch will report to the new department. However, the IT specialists must remain housed near the secretaries in these departments so they can provide quick in-house expertise and good customer service and oversight. I want to thank probably one on the most important people in state government, during the last two years, who has done a clear audit and review of the IT malfunctions. His talent is incredible. To have that talent as part of our team, I just want to say thanks to Chris Estes, our Chief Information Officer, who has helped many departments, not just in my purview, but many departments throughout the state of North Carolina. Y’all need to give Chris Estes a round of applause. I want to thank you very much. Stand up, Chris. He comes to me and tells me what the problem is, and I say, ‘what did you say?’ I took Fortran at Catawba College. We might still be using Fortran in state government right now. Seriously, we are? I rest my case. At a time when so many servicemen and women are coming home from Afghanistan and Iraq through North Carolina, as I mentioned before, we must have an efficient and well-coordinated process in place to meet the needs of active duty personnel and veterans. These services are right now scattered across many areas of state government with no accountability, causing delay, frustration, and sometimes poor customer service. Thanks to the Marine Corps dedication of my Veterans Affairs Director, Ilario Pantano, and the leadership of Department of Administration Secretary Bill Daughtridge, we have made some incredible progress. Cornell Wilson has also been a real leader in this effort. But we are going to do more to make this even more efficient and easier for our customers to understand. To strengthen our Veteran Affairs and the Office of my Military Advisor, Cornell Wilson, I am proposing the creation of the Department of Military and Veterans Affairs in North Carolina. This department will be responsible for four major initiatives which are crucial to our state. The first is coordinating all efforts to protect and fight for the survival and growth of our existing military bases right here in North Carolina, which are crucial not only to our national defense, but also to the towns and cities in and around our military bases. We are going to have to do this now. Another objective of this department will be to promote the health and safety of our veterans and military families, as we’ve explained some of their challenges. Our goal also of this department is work with the Commerce Department to help veterans get jobs, and also use veterans as a recruitment tool to bring new companies to North Carolina because they have the skills to fill the jobs gaps and skills gaps that many industries are looking for right now. Also, this individual and their team will work with the unique needs of base communities throughout our state, that have very unique infrastructure and transportation and water and sewer needs. So we need to exactly know how the communities can work better with the bases to retain that solid investment of the military in North Carolina. We are going to coordinate all this into one department now. That’s going to be our recommendation to you. I have asked my military affairs advisor, General Cornell Wilson, to spearhead this new effort. He is already attending all of my cabinet meetings, and I consider him, right now, a direct report to the Governor. The military also has a special place in the heart of my wife Ann. She has hosted numerous events for military families at the Executive Mansion, outside of the cameras. She doesn’t seek the spotlight. Her knowledge of the sacrifice made by our military families comes naturally. She was born on a military base, and her father, Colonel William ‘Flash’ Gordon, was a P-47 Army pilot in World War II. Tonight, we have in attendance some very special people in the military. I want to give special welcome to a person that’s become a real partner of my administration, to this Governor, and to the Lieutenant Governor. I want to give a special welcome to Lieutenant General Joseph Anderson, Commander of the XVIII Airborne Corps at Fort Bragg. Until December, he was Deputy Commanding General in Afghanistan. During his deployment, he saw a lot of action. He and his troops saw a lot of action, very, very tough action. Yet, he continued to honor North Carolina by displaying this flag right here, which once flew over our own state capitol; he flew it over the Kabul International Airport, where it was photographed with diplomats from 48 countries that comprised the international coalition. General Anderson, the class act that he is, who I just saw recently at Fort Fisher, down on the coast, he cares for North Carolina. He cares for servicemen and women. In fact, he wrote a little letter on the back of this flag, ‘Governor, thanks for the state’s great support for soldiers and families around the world.’ General Anderson brought our flag home, and he has brought our troops home. See this flag? He brought it home. Ladies and Gentlemen, please welcome General Anderson back to North Carolina. General Cornell Wilson, I appreciate both of you. Y’all need to give General Wilson a round of applause too. I love him. He is doing a great job for our military. I am proud to have you as part of my team. As we end tonight, my vision for North Carolina is to have the best of everything. Think about it, we have beautiful mountains, big city skylines, and we have the best beaches in the nation. But it’s more than that. We must have both big city opportunities and small town quality of life choices from the mountains to the coast. We have the best of both Mayberry and metropolis right here in North Carolina. When we unleash our resources in education, transportation, energy, and technology, and commit to greater government efficiency and affordability, our state will be second to nobody. We will be the role model for the nation, working together, not only for today but for future generations. To continue the momentum of success that we’ve enjoyed during the past two years, we must continue to be innovative while maintaining the basic values that make our state great. We must continue to cultivate a culture, a culture that encourages building, growing, producing, and inventing things. We’re protecting our environment to preserve the natural beauty that draws visitors, and have a quality of life, from around the world to our attractions and our state park system, which will be celebrating their 100th anniversary here. As my father often said—Mac McCrory—when he was a city councilman in Ohio in the mid-sixties, and later when he was a civic leader in Greensboro where I grew up, he said the following, “we must walk the fine line between our continued economic prosperity while also protecting the quality of life and environment which brought us here to North Carolina and keeps us here in North Carolina.’ Let me repeat that: ‘we must walk the fine line between our continued economic prosperity while also protecting the quality of life and environment that brought us here.’ I have no doubt the people of North Carolina will continue to live up to that challenge. We are resilient, we are strong, we are diverse, we are strategic, and we have already proven that we can deal with about any crisis thrown our way. As we have grown to become the ninth most populous state in the United States of America—we are number nine in population—let’s continue to fulfill our potential and create opportunities for all of North Carolina. So I ask you to join me. Let us work together to achieve the best for everyone, everywhere in North Carolina. May God continue to bless the people of North Carolina. It’s an honor to be your 74th Governor of North Carolina. This is the greatest state in the United States of America. Thank you, and God bless.”
February 4, 2015

Senator Brown and Representative Daughtry are recognized to escort Governor McCrory from the Hall of the House of Representatives.

Upon motion of Senator Berger, seconded by Speaker Moore, the Joint Session is dissolved at 8:26 p.m., and pursuant to the motion prevailing earlier in the Senate, the Senate adjourns at 8:26 p.m. to reconvene Thursday, February 5, at 11:30 a.m.

SEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, February 5, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, as we bow our heads, we first want to give you thanks and praise. Ignite these prayers with your spirit, otherwise they are just words. Help us today. Rescue us from darkness; place us into your light. Come, Lord. You have set this time for us; you have determined the rotation of the stars and the movement of the galaxies. All we do is just chaff without your thundering and persistent presence. Give this body rest for the long journey ahead and courage to do good work. Bless us today, Lord Jesus. It is in your name that we pray. Amen.”

Senator Pate, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, February 4, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

February 5, 2015
The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Marcy Shipwash from High Point, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

Upon motion of Senator Pate, seconded by Senator Brock, the Senate adjourns at 11:37 a.m., subject to the standard stipulations set forth in Senate Rule 24.1, to reconvene Monday, February 9, at 4:00 p.m.

The following message is received from the Governor:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

PAT McCORORY

GOVERNOR

February 3, 2015

February 9, 2015
The Honorable Kathy Harrington
2113 Legislative Building
Raleigh, North Carolina 27601-2808

Dear Senator Harrington:

Pursuant to North Carolina General Statute §143B-350, I am pleased to appoint the following individuals to the North Carolina Board of Transportation for review by the North Carolina General Assembly’s Joint Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee:

- Mr. Hugh R. Overholt of Craven County, Second Transportation Division.

TENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, February 11, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Our Father, who art in heaven, we come before you because you are our Father. You are living and you are active here in this place. Lord, you are not ignorant of our prayers. Before a thought is on our mind, you know them, according to Psalm 139. We lift up the families of the victims of the shooting in Chapel Hill. I know it was shocking to me, and I’m sure it was shocking to others in this room. Lord, you know what we need before we bring it before you; we thank you for knowing our needs. We thank you that we can come to a place where you can satisfy us. We come before you then so that we might be spurred on to seeking you. We need your vision, Lord, not our own. We come before you as real people in the need of your real guidance and your real presence here today. Stir our hearts to follow in your footsteps. It is in Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.”

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Tuesday, February 10, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Pamela Harris from Raleigh, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

ELEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, February 12, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Honorable Norman W. Sanderson, Senator from Pamlico County, as follows:

“Most gracious and loving Heavenly Father, as we prepare to end our week in Raleigh, we thank you for your presence in our midst. We are reminded that you are with us in our sessions, in our committees, in our caucuses, in our offices, on our drives home—in fact you tell us that you will never leave us or forsake us, and we can answer the question, ‘where can we go that we are not in your presence’ with a resounding ‘nowhere.’ Give us the wisdom we need to do what you have chosen us to do. Teach us to number our days that we apply our hearts unto your wisdom. Help us as we strive to do your will. We answer to many factions: our leaders, our constituents, our families, our friends, but ultimately the most important account that we will have to give is when we stand before you. The words that we long to hear on that day are ‘well done good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things. Enter thou into the joy of the Lord.’* Thank you for your joy. We pray these things in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.”

*Matthew 25:23, KJV

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Almighty God, whose power is infinite and wisdom infallible, order this day—these hours, these soldiers—so that we might see. We cannot see, Lord. We often carry around thick burdens. It is hard to love our neighbors as ourselves. We have forgotten how to love you, O Lord. All of us are in need of your grace today. We need a place to dwell from the cold of this world, in safety, in the shadow of your wings, Lord, so that we might dwell in a place where arrows that fly by day and pestilence that walks around in the darkness find no place. I pray that we might dwell in the shadow of your wing this day, as we move forward together as a legislative family. In Jesus’ name I pray. Amen.”

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Tuesday, February 17, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

The following message is received from the Governor:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

PAT McCORRY
GOVERNOR

February 19, 2015

The Honorable Philip E. Berger
Senate President Pro Tempore
Legislative Building, Room 2008
Raleigh, North Carolina 27601-2008

February 23, 2015
Dear Senator Berger:

Pursuant to North Carolina General Statute §143B-926, I am pleased to nominate Mr. Bernard Warren (B.W.) Collier, II, to serve as the Director of the North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation. Mr. Collier has a distinguished career with the SBI and has served as acting director since August 2014. Under his leadership the SBI is making tremendous progress and I urge his confirmation.

Included you will find biographical information for Mr. Collier and the required disclosure forms. Please feel free to contact my staff for any additional information.

Sincerely,

SEVENTEENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, February 24, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Honorable Erica Smith-Ingram, Senator from Northampton County, as follows:

“Creator of the universe, God of us all, we humbly bow in your presence. We thank you, Master, for traveling grace and mercy as we arrive to our prospective destinations today. God, as we advocate, as we legislate, as we deliberate, we ask that you will open our hearts in love, that you will open our minds with understanding, that you will guide our feet on the path of justice, and that you will open up our hands for service. As we fellowship one with another, God, we ask that you keep us ever mindful that there are workers without jobs, there are the hungry without food, there are the homeless without shelter, and there is a

The Senate meets pursuant to recess and is called to order by Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord of all creation, it’s such a gift that you, Lord, like the snow, would come down to us. You do not leave us alone. For as you’ve blessed us with snow, Lord, so you’ve blessed us this morning with fresh mercy. Father, I pray...”

February 25, 2015
that the glory of your mercy would compel us to be grateful today, to work together today, to give one another grace for this morning. Lord, you level the playing field all of the time. You remind us, today, that in this body you are intimately involved—you come close, you come near. You want to be involved in the special work of this assembly. Bring the peace of Christ to bear on this particular day as you have brought the peace of the snow to many neighborhoods around this state. In Jesus’ name I pray. Amen.”

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, March 4, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, when we are faced with difficult decisions, even disappointment, blue skies and warm air can sometimes clear our minds, but temporary change is actually not what we are after. We know all too well our need to seek your wisdom and your guidance that moves beyond circumstances. We stop right now and thank you for your wisdom and for your grace. Grace sometimes can come in the wildest forms, Lord. This week I have seen it in the faces of the Senate Pages. They are so wonderful. They are so quiet. I thank you for them, and I thank you for the Legislative Assistants that work diligently around this building without praise. I thank you for their quiet and overlooked service to this body. Lord, we need you to come down into the minutia of the details of this day. Even when we are crushed beneath details and provoked by our powerlessness, Lord, we reach out to you and we pray that you will use our dependency to show our need for your plan. Give us, today, your wisdom to do what is right. For your power is perfect, Lord, and our weakness surely reminds us of our need to pray. I pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.”

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Tuesday, March 3, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Newton and Senator Tillman.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

The Speaker extends courtesies of the gallery to the members of the Judiciary and all invited guests.

The Speaker relinquishes the gavel to Lieutenant Governor Dan Forest, President of the Senate, who presides.

The President of the Senate calls the Joint Session of the General Assembly to order.

The President recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives, who announces the presence of The Honorable Mark Martin, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, at the door of the chamber. The President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives, the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate, and the escort committee to escort Chief Justice Martin to the well of the House of Representatives. Representative Stevens is recognized and presents Chief Justice Martin to the President of the Senate. The President presents The Honorable Mark Martin, who delivers the State of the Judiciary Address to the 2015 General Assembly.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS

"President Forest, Speaker Moore, President Pro Tem Berger, Members of the General Assembly, my colleagues from the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals, distinguished guests, and the people of North Carolina. It is a great honor to have Governor Pat McCrory with us today. I am pleased to share that we also have with us this afternoon leaders from our justice system. I would like to recognize a few by name, and I would respectfully ask that those in the gallery please hold your applause until I have named them all: Chief Bence Hoyle, Chief of Police for the Town of Cornelius and President of the North Carolina Association of Chiefs of Police; Clerk Archie Smith, Clerk of Superior Court of Durham County and President of the North Carolina Conference of Clerks of Superior Court; Kimmel McDiarmid, Official Court Reporter for District 15B, Orange and Chatham Counties, and President of the North Carolina Association of Official Court Reporters; District Attorney Andrew Murray, for the 26th Prosecutorial District and President-Elect of the North Carolina Conference of District Attorneys; Judge Robert Rader, Chief District Court Judge for the 10th Judicial District, Wake County, and Past-President of the North Carolina Conference of District Court Judges; Magistrate Rudy Locklear, Magistrate for District 16B, Robeson County, and the Magistrate Representative on the State Judicial Council; Sheriff Asa Buck, Carteret County Sheriff and President of the North Carolina Sheriffs’ Association; and I am pleased to share that we have a number of other sheriffs here today as well; Judge Osmond Smith, Senior Resident Superior Court Judge for District 9A, Person and Caswell Counties, and President of the Conference of Superior Court Judges; Catharine Arrowood, President of the North Carolina Bar Association; and Ron Gibson, President of the North Carolina State Bar. Finally, would all those here today who are currently working in our justice system please stand so that we can recognize you. Please join me in thanking these justice system leaders for all their hard work. Finally, I especially want to recognize my wife, Kym, and daughter, Susanna. It is my distinct privilege to renew the tradition of reporting to you on the state of the Judicial Branch of state government. It is particularly meaningful to renew this tradition this year, when we celebrate the 800th anniversary of Magna Carta. As Speaker Pro Tem Stam has so often reminded this body, Magna Carta is foundational to our liberties and form of government, as it was the first governing document to place limits on the power of the English King. You see in Europe, at the time of our country’s independence, judges typically remained in office only if their rulings pleased the Crown. Our founders saw the need for an independent judiciary—a judiciary not left to the control of a monarch but instead a separate and equal branch of government, accountable to the people, as expressed in their Constitution. The founders recognized that the Judicial Branch’s solemn duty to preserve the Rule of Law was best achieved in this way. And so on this special occasion, I am reminded of our generation’s stewardship of this sacred duty of government—preserving justice for all. Earlier this morning, thousands of school children across our great State pledged allegiance to the flag and recited the words ‘with liberty and justice for all.’ Those same children are learning—and we hope they are paying attention—that our State has three coequal branches of government: the Legislative Branch, which is responsible for making our laws; the Executive Branch, which is responsible for executing those laws; and the Judicial Branch, which resolves disputes arising under those laws. And for the Judicial Branch, ensuring ‘justice for all’ is the most important thing that we do. The Judicial Branch comprises more than 6,000 public servants. Our Unified Court System includes 7 Supreme Court Justices, 15 Court of Appeals Judges, 112 Superior Court Judges, 270 District Court Judges, 100 Clerks of Court, and 44 District Attorneys. The Administrative Office of the Courts provides our elected judges, clerks, prosecutors, and courthouse personnel with assistance in personnel management and compensation, purchase and delivery of equipment and technology systems, and specialized judicial and staff training. In states without a unified court system, these jobs are duplicated in every local jurisdiction. The Judicial Branch handles just under three million—yes, three million—cases each year. We are grateful for the support that the General Assembly has shown for our justice system. This General Assembly’s recent Business Court Modernization Act is an excellent example. We know that a stable and predictable legal system is a key driver of economic development in a globally competitive marketplace. As this General Assembly has wisely recognized, strong courts are good for business. Likewise, in 2011 this General Assembly passed the Justice Reinvestment Act. That legislation was designed to improve public safety and conserve resources. By enacting the Justice Reinvestment Act, the General Assembly has safeguarded public resources, while investing in programs that decrease crime, provide mental health treatment, and strengthen our communities. In both of these examples, the General Assembly has partnered with the Judicial Branch and other stakeholders to ensure the fair and impartial administration of justice. We all know that like a business, the administrative operations of the Judicial Branch must be run efficiently in order to be effective. We understand this, and we fully appreciate that in partnering with this Legislative Branch, the Judicial Branch must be a good steward of its resources. I want to take a moment to tell you about the justice system’s efforts in promoting savings in recent years. When the Great Recession began nearly eight years ago, it placed tremendous strain and pressure upon the General Assembly to keep the budget balanced. Like the Executive Branch and the Legislative Branch, the Judicial Branch did its part. Our operations budget has been reduced significantly, as has our budget for personnel. However, even before the start of the Great Recession, in 2007 North Carolina ranked 49th out of 50 states in terms of per capita spending on the judicial branch. Five years later, in 2012, we ranked 45th out of 50 states using the same source data as corroborated by the highly respected National Center for State Courts. We have eliminated positions and currently have workforce deficits in courthouses across our State. Under the metrics used by the National Center for State Courts, our Judicial Branch is now understaffed by 536 positions. That is approximately 9% of our workforce. It is clear that we are asking our justice system employees to do more with less. Our dedicated Judicial Branch staff has picked up the slack from these vacancies, while their own families’ finances are still feeling the strain of economic hardship. I am told that Assistant Clerks and court employees are taking second and even third jobs to make ends meet. Magistrates and assistant clerks of court pitched in to help each other when they did not have enough staff to get the work done. Deputy Sheriffs and security guards also lent a hand while vigilantly protecting our courthouses from those who would do us harm. Judicial officials and employees across our great State have carried out countless acts of diligence, compassion, and hard work that so often went unpublicized during these challenging economic times. We will continue to do our part to manage expenses. In response to the Recession, not only did we lower expenditures through workforce reductions, we also re-engineered our operations to capture efficiencies. For example, we improved our centralized procurement system for statewide supply purchases and deliveries to generate $350,000 in annual cost savings. In 2007 the Administrative Office of the Courts moved to a leased commercial office facility. Prior to this, the AOC was scattered in seven different locations. In 2009 with this Legislature’s support, the AOC was able to buy this property during the Recession. Purchasing this facility saved taxpayers $13 million over the life of the lease that was in place at that time. We also effectively used technology to create operational efficiencies. Specifically, we have launched web technologies and browser-based systems to communicate with our employees who are distributed among all 100 counties throughout the State. Web-based solutions are also used to recruit employees, provide mandatory training, new employee orientation, and manage transactional business such as paying traffic tickets online. We are continuing our efforts to find efficiencies in these areas. Now, not only did we cut costs, find efficiencies, and go the extra mile to cover staffing shortages, we continued to find innovative ways to fulfill our mandate to deliver justice. For instance, we now have two Veterans Treatment Courts serving those who have paid the price to protect our freedom. Governor McCrory, we were all very pleased to hear the positive comments in your State of the State address about our Veterans Courts. in Harnett and Cumberland Counties. Some of those who have served this nation find themselves involved with the legal system for minor offenses, and Veterans Courts play a vital role in helping them to choose the path of rehabilitation instead of recidivism. These courts ensure that men and women across this state who have served this country have the resources they need to thrive as civilians. Specialty courts such as the Veterans Courts enable us to do more with less. Along with drug courts, family courts, mental health courts, and sobriety courts, our specialty courts have enabled Judicial Branch personnel to administer large numbers of cases while ensuring that people in crisis have the help and receive the help that they need. For example, in 1999 the first family courts were established by this General Assembly. Now, family courts are operating in a fourth of the state, providing effective case management to almost half of our state’s citizens. The median age of a pending domestic case in a Family Court District on December 31, 2014, was 113 days as compared to 392 days in non-Family Court Districts. Family Courts are an example of specialty courts that are working to process cases through the court system in a timely manner, while helping to bring closure and stability to families. Our courts in Alamance County offer another prime example of efficiency through innovation. That Judicial District offers a unique option for domestic violence victims. They can electronically file for a protective order and have a remote video hearing with a judge, all from a safe and secure location. Protective orders are then sent electronically to the Sheriff for service on the alleged abuser. This project has already won two national public sector innovation awards. Magistrates across our state are also using remote video technology to save time and costs when issuing search warrants or providing the initial appearance to a criminal defendant. Traditionally these exchanges required law enforcement officers and criminal defendants to appear in person before a magistrate. Now, over one hundred law enforcement agencies in more than forty counties are using this technology to facilitate these proceedings. Law enforcement officers may even apply for search warrants using the laptop in their patrol vehicle. If the search warrant is approved, it can be processed electronically in the NCAWARE system, and the search can proceed. In rural counties where a magistrate is on-call for a 24-hour shift, this technology may eliminate the need for travel to a courthouse. Investments in this type of technology pay off many times over, especially for law enforcement officers who have more time to ensure the safety of our communities. An initiative that we will soon be undertaking involves civics education. Our citizens must understand the vital role that courts perform in protecting our democracy. This dialogue must begin in our schools with our youngest citizens. Thus, I have asked two of my colleagues on the Supreme Court to work with the State Board of Education and the Department of Public Instruction to enhance our State’s civics education curriculum. In addition, we will develop a Speakers’ Bureau of judges and citizens who can talk to community groups and school classes about the importance of civic values. In order to ensure that young people understand the fundamental principles of our society, this work must continue. As our economy improves, we are also exploring ways to bring about innovation in electronic filing to further invest in the efficient administration of justice. How many of us have children or grandchildren who cannot function without their smartphones? Many of us now fall into that category as well. As a judge at the Court of Appeals and now as a justice at the Supreme Court, I have seen firsthand the benefits of technology. We were national leaders when our Supreme Court instituted an electronic filing system almost twenty years ago. Our business courts have also benefited from e-filing. Recently, our neighbors to the north and to the south, Virginia and South Carolina, began moving forward with statewide e-filing in their trial courts. Now, we are developing a master plan for instituting e-filing statewide. In order to innovate in a prudent manner, we will prepare a strategic action plan outlining how to implement e-filing and virtual courtroom technology in all 100 county courthouses. We will be deliberate in our approach, and our plans will benefit from technological expertise in the private sector, from studying the best practices of other states that have been administering e-filing systems for several years, and from practical insights of the numerous stakeholders within our own system. In sum, we have learned to do more with less. But while these efforts at efficiency and innovation in our justice system have helped ease the crisis, they are not enough. Many of you are business owners and understand that a business cannot bring itself out of the red through efficiencies and innovation alone; it needs investment capital if it is to succeed. The same is true for the Judicial Branch. We are now approaching a challenging phase in terms of the Judicial Branch’s operational needs. Our operations budget is under tremendous stress, and we have been forced to rely on money available from vacant positions to cover basic functions such as payments to jurors, court reporters, and expert witnesses. If we cannot pay for these basic services, we cannot conduct timely trials. The resulting delays erode public trust and confidence in the integrity of the justice system, because they impair our ability to promptly apprehend offenders and see that they are tried and appropriately sentenced. We all know that ‘justice that is delayed is justice that has been denied,’ and we are now confronting a situation where the justice system is unable to promptly serve those who turn to us for help. The justice system is in many ways a complex chain, and we all know that a chain is only as strong as its weakest link. In order to bring a felony criminal case to trial, among other things, a grand jury indictment must be returned, and often times lab results must be obtained. I am told that delays of more than a year have become the norm, rather than the exception, for lab results of blood-alcohol tests in DWI cases and DNA analysis in serious felony cases. These delays undermine the ability of our criminal justice system to deter crime and to do justice. Even when cases proceed after these delays, many never go to trial because defendants enter into agreements with the state, where the defendant pleads guilty to a lesser offense in order for the state to avoid expenses associated with trials. Especially when resources are limited, this strategy allows prosecutors to cope with their heavy caseloads. Now in many instances, these agreements are perfectly legitimate. But never let it be said that because of inadequate resources, our prosecutors were forced into doing this. If a case makes it to trial, a jury has to be selected and a court reporter scheduled. I am not aware of any current technology that can replace the role of our court reporters in these serious cases. Defendants who are found guilty can appeal to the Court of Appeals and also seek further review in our

March 4, 2015

March 4, 2015
Supreme Court. There are many steps in the process from the time a criminal defendant is arrested until the time that the case is finally resolved. The entire system must work correctly from start to finish, and this requires adequate resources. Our State Constitution guarantees that courts shall be open and that justice shall be administered without delay. Think about what it will mean if the people of this great state cannot rely upon us to promptly administer justice. How can we explain that to the victims of violent crime and their families? How can we explain that to the small-business owners who need a contract dispute resolved in order to keep their store open and avoid bankruptcy? How can we explain that to the family that lost a loved one because of a drunk driver? We must be able to provide them justice. In order to do this, we need the help of this General Assembly. We all know how important education is to the progress of this great state. By way of illustration, one county’s annual budget for the public school system in Fiscal Year 2014-2015 is nearly $1.5 billion. The entire justice system budget, for all 100 counties, is only $464 million. This means that the entire Judicial Branch budget is less than one-third of the Wake County Public School System’s budget. The funding-related problems that we are now facing have been decades in the making. It is not the fault of any particular General Assembly. Over the past twenty-five years, our state’s commitment to the judiciary has not exceeded 3% of the state budget. That’s less than 3% for a co-equal branch of government. If we are to right this ship, the Judicial Branch will need sufficient investment from this General Assembly to ensure that we adequately fund the basic operations of our court system, provide modest pay increases for our personnel, and move forward with critical technology infrastructure to support the rapidly-increasing demands on our county courthouses across the state. I look forward to working with the General Assembly on the details of this budgetary request. As I have mentioned by way of earlier examples, the Judicial Branch will be a good steward of this investment. Indeed, to further our accountability to this body and to the general public, this spring I will convene a multi-disciplinary commission to undertake a comprehensive evaluation of our justice system, and to make recommendations for how we can strengthen our courts within the existing administrative framework. We will be inviting participation from the General Assembly. The commission will also include key leaders from the private sector and stakeholders from within our justice system. This multi-disciplinary commission will continue to ensure that the Judicial Branch conserves its valuable resources and will make recommendations for how we can strengthen our courts to the greatest extent possible through re-engineering and capturing efficiencies. My sincere hope is that the work of the commission will be available for the start of the 2017 Long Session, and that it will provide a road map to assist the General Assembly in its efforts to ensure the integrity of our justice system. There will come a day when our time in public service will be over. Our legacy—good or bad—will be a part of history. I hope there will be many achievements of which we will be proud and for which we will be remembered. Our ancestors paid the price so that we would have the benefit of the best justice system in the world. Let’s work together to ensure that we do our part, that we keep our communities safe, and that we preserve the integrity of our courts. Thank you again for inviting me to speak with you today. Having the Chief Justice deliver a State of the Judiciary Address is an important tradition for North Carolina. I look forward to partnering with this General Assembly to ensure that our justice system has the resources to ensure ‘justice for all.’ Thank you very much, and may God richly bless this state that we love.”

Senator Brown and Representative Stevens are recognized to escort Chief Justice Martin from the Chamber of the House of Representatives.

Upon motion of Senator Berger, seconded by Speaker Moore, the Joint Session is dissolved at 4:36 p.m., and pursuant to the motion prevailing earlier in the Senate, the Senate adjourns at 4:36 p.m. to reconvene Thursday, March 5, at 11:00 a.m.

March 4, 2015
The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, sometimes we just need to look at scripture because words that we have don’t express the depths of your heart. So we come, and we read Psalm 71. ‘O God, from my youth you have taught me and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds. So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim your might to another generation, your power to all those to come. Your righteousness, O God, reaches the high heavens. You who have done great things, O God, who is like you? You who have made me see many troubles and calamities will revive me again; from the depths of the earth you will bring me up again.’* We pray these things over this body in the name of Jesus. Amen.”

*Psalm 71:17-21, ESV

“Lord, you are the same yesterday, today, and forever. Yet how do we even come before you right now and pray in such a strange place? While you completely forgive us, we often completely judge those to our left and right. You tell us not to keep score. Lord, I know I often fail at this. Help our hearts from becoming cold, judgmental, and calculating. Father, I am grateful that on this day that there is nothing I can do or think or say that keeps you from pouring out your grace upon me. You are a forgiving God. Despite our failings, despite ourselves, you cling to that cross for us. Have mercy on us, Lord, forgive us, and help us depend on your grace in all of our relationships here in the North Carolina Senate. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.”

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, March 10, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, thank you for another day when we can come and bow our heads—and even our hearts. Thank you for the grace that flows down. On this day when men will run down the court at the ACC tournament, where farmers will plant in the fields, where kids will go to school—and they’ll even come here to bless us—we ask for your protection and your flourishing in all these aspects of our society. We look to you for strength. We look to you for guidance. Lord of Hosts, you are the Lord. You uphold our right hand. You say to us, right now, whether we are dealing with money issues, or whether we are running a nonprofit, whether we are feeling injustice, whether we are feeling the tight grip of a poor marriage. Lord you say to us, ‘do not fear; I will help you.’ It is in Jesus’ name that we pray. Amen.”

March 10, 2015
Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Monday, March 9, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, March 11, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord of all compassion, we are thankful that this day is the day that you have made. We thank you for life, we thank you for health, and we thank you for strength. Today, Lord, we lift up friends and families and individuals that are connected to the tragedy of the helicopter crash in Florida. Four of our very own from Camp Lejeune were in that crash. We have lost 11 of our bravest souls, Lord. We stop and we pause and we honor them. Intercede, Lord. Comfort those in need as only you can. We direct our gaze towards you, Lord, because in no other person may we find peace. Direct us today in the ways that we would conduct our business that it might always be in light of your light. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.”

March 11, 2015

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, March 12, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Phil Berger, President Pro Tempore.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Father in heaven, thank you for this day. Thank you for everybody who serves here so well. We all need your help so much. We need to be a little bit more desperate, Lord. We need so much of your grace and so less of ourselves. We need your presence within us—the spirit, the comforter. Would you enable us here to love one another as you have first loved us? May you become the living water flowing out of us—be it of tears or be it of speaking the truth. May that blessing bless this city of Raleigh, bless the towns of our state, and bless our nation. We pray this in Jesus’ name. Amen.”

March 12, 2015
Senator Pate, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, March 11, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, March 16, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“ Heavenly Father, thank you for sending these men and women to serve, giving them the hearts to show up even when sometimes we don’t want to come. Thank you, Lord, for being faithful to us. Tonight, as we enter into work again for this week, we need you more than we even would admit. Speak to us, Lord, right now, in this place. I am reminded of Micah, the prophet, who says, ‘He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justice, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God.’* Help us to look a little bit more like these prophetic words from you, O Lord. We pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.”

*Micah 6:8, KJV

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, thank you for such a gorgeous day outside. What a blessing. Today as we come before you, we really have to tackle the question of where we put our trust, where our heart is rooted. It reminds me of Jeremiah, ‘thus says the Lord: cursed is the man who trusts in man, whose flesh is his strength, whose heart turns away from the Lord. He is like a shrub in the desert and shall not see any good come from it. He shall dwell in the parched places of the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land. But blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose trust is the Lord. He is like a tree planted by water, sending out roots by the streams. He is not in fear, for its leaves remain green when the heat comes. He is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit.’* We pray these words over this body and over this state. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.”

*Jeremiah 17:5-8, ESV (paraphrase)

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the words spoken by Senator Robinson regarding the late Reverend Dr. Howard Allen Chubbs are spread upon the journal as follows:

March 17, 2015
SENATOR ROBINSON: “Ladies and gentlemen, I sadly announce that Dr. Howard Allen Chubbs, who was my pastor and pastor of Providence for 49 years, died last Thursday, so today I submit this statement honoring his life and his legacy:

Senator Robinson submits a Senatorial Statement entitled, HONORING REVEREND DR. HOWARD ALLEN CHUBBS. The full text can be found in the Appendix. (See pg. 1258)

SENATOR ROBINSON (continued): “I’d like to end by saying that whereas some of you do not know him, I would say that in North Carolina and in Greensboro, his prominence and his role in terms of diversity, in terms of issues of community, fairness, education, opportunities, and support for all, and then working with, and across the city, with people like Jim Melvin and Shirley Spears and a lot, led to the progress we’ve seen in Greensboro. I thank you for the opportunity today, and I ask you to pray for our church as it goes through a transition.”

Upon motion of Senator Pate, seconded by Senator Lowe, the Senate adjourns at 2:30 p.m., in memory of the Reverend Dr. Howard Allen Chubbs, subject to the standard stipulations set forth in Senate Rule 24.1, the receipt of committee reports, the ratification of bills, the receipt of messages from the House of Representatives, the receipt of conference reports, and the appointment of conferees, to reconvene Wednesday, March 18, at 9:15 a.m.

POINTS OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Upon motion of Senator Brock, the words spoken by Senator B. Jackson and Senator Waddell regarding North Carolina Agricultural Awareness Day are spread upon the Journal as follows:

SENIOR B. JACKSON: “I would like to send forth—and I think the clerk already has it—a Senatorial Statement honoring today as North Carolina [Agriculture] Awareness Day, March 18, 2015. I think a lot of you have seen a lot of farmers and a lot of friendly farmer folks around today. This is the first time that I can remember—and other folks as well—that all the commodity associations have converged here on our General Assembly grounds and on the Capitol grounds. Earlier today, our President Pro Tem along with Speaker Moore and Governor McCrory had a few remarks to make at 11 o’clock on the Capitol grounds. I want you to remember that agriculture is our state’s number one industry, and, as Senator Apodaca so politely told us yesterday, we remember it three times a day, and it’s always ‘Ag’ Day every day, when you’re eating lunch. But I do want to read you just a few remarks out of our Senatorial Statement: ‘Whereas, North Carolina leads the nation in the production of sweet potatoes and tobacco, and is second in production of trout, poultry, eggs, and Christmas trees,’ and also, it’s not in the statement, but North Carolina is the third most diversified agricultural state in this nation, only followed by California and Florida. That is a pretty big accomplishment in itself. ‘Whereas, agriculture and agribusiness play an important role in North Carolina’s economic recovery and are a vital part of rural economies; and, whereas, our universities, community colleges and industries are leaders in agricultural research and development, and every dollar spent on agriculture research has a return on investment of $19; ‘and, whereas, North Carolina exported more than $3.7 billion in agricultural products to 212 countries in 2013; ‘and, whereas, farmers, agribusiness leaders, and communities recognize agriculture’s potential to be a $100 billion industry,’ which is currently at $78 billion. ‘Now, therefore, the Agriculture industry deserves recognition for its contribution to the state.’ I ask that I send it forth.”

Senator B. Jackson submits a Senatorial Statement entitled, HONORING N.C. AGRICULTURE AWARENESS DAY ON MARCH 18, 2015. The full text can be found in the Appendix. (See pg. 1258)

SENATOR WADDELL: “Allow me to begin by saying to all of the farmers and agricultural specialists here today, thank you for the wonderful gifts that you provide for North Carolina. I was meeting today with members of the soil and water conservation committee, several from Charlotte. With North Carolina being the sixth largest livestock producing state and the eighth largest producer of all agriculture commodities, I would like all of us here to take a moment to appreciate the efforts of the great men and women who make this possible. North Carolina began as an agriculturally based economy and will continue to support the businesses that help us to build this state. The 50,000 farms in this state all make up an invaluable contribution to what it has meant and what it means to live in North Carolina, so we thank all of the farmers who are here today and all of those who participated in Agriculture Awareness Day, and we want you to have a bountiful harvest.”

Upon motion of Senator Pate, seconded by Senator B. THIRTY-FIRST DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, March 19, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

March 19, 2015
“Lord, if any of these saints here gathered are like me, they’ve been running today. We come before you because you have been here even before this building was raised. We come before you because you have gone way out in front of us, put out your neck. When we think of the hard work and the challenges that we have before us, remind us, Lord, that you have sacrificed it all. We bring nothing to you but our need of you. Thank you, Lord, for being steadfast to this body of lawmakers. Lawmakers have gone and lawmakers have come, but you, O Lord, stand. Jesus, thank you for being the fuel of the burning bush, the ‘I Am’ that holds everything together. Guide us by thine power, and strengthen us by thine wisdom. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.”

Senator Pate, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, March 18, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

THIRTY-SECOND DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, March 23, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Sarah Woodard from Duke Episcopal Center, Durham, North Carolina, as follows:

“God of all Faiths, you have made all the peoples of the earth for your glory—to serve you in freedom and in peace. Give to our leaders a zeal for justice and the strength of forbearance that we may use our liberty in accordance with your gracious will. You have given us this good land for our heritage. We humbly beseech you that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of your favor and glad to do your will. Bless our state with honorable industry and sound learning. Save us from discord and confusion, from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and approach into one united people the multitudes brought out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in your Name we entrust the authority of government that there may be justice and peace here, and that, through obedience to your law, we may show forth your praise among the nations of the

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message is received from the Governor:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

PAT McCORKY
GOVERNOR

March 23, 2015

Lieutenant Governor Dan Forest
President of the Senate
301 N. Blount Street
Raleigh, NC 27601

The Honorable Phil Berger
President Pro Tempore of the Senate
16 West Jones Street, Room 2008
Raleigh, North Carolina 27601

March 23, 2015
Dear Lieutenant Governor Forest, President Pro Tempore Berger and Speaker Moore:

Pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 7A-45.1(a10), I hereby nominate, and submit for confirmation as a Special Superior Court Judge, Charles M. Viser of Mecklenburg County. Mr. Viser is nominated to fill the vacancy created by the January 1, 2015, resignation of former Special Superior Court Judge Martin McGee.

Mr. Viser is well qualified for this position by his education and experience, and I am grateful for his willingness to serve the State of North Carolina in this important capacity.

Enclosed, you will find biographical information for Mr. Viser. Please feel free to contact my staff for any additional information.

Sincerely,

S/ Pat McCrory
Governor

Cc: Denise Weeks, House Principal Clerk
    Sarah Lang, Senate Principal Clerk

The message is referred to the Select Committee on Nominations.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message is received from the Governor:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

PAT McCORRY
GOVERNOR

March 23, 2015

Lieutenant Governor Dan Forest
President of the Senate
301 N. Blount Street
Raleigh, NC 27601

March 23, 2015
Dear Lieutenant Governor Forest, President Pro Tempore Berger and Speaker Moore:

Pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 7A-45.1(a9) and (a10), I hereby nominate, and submit for confirmation as a Special Superior Court Judge, Michael L. Robinson of Forsyth County. Mr. Robinson is nominated to fill the vacancy created by the January 1, 2015, resignation of former Special Superior Court Judge Lucy Inman.

Pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 7A-45.1(a9), upon Judge Inman’s resignation, a new Special Superior Court judgeship was created. The person who fills this new judgeship is eligible to be designated as a Business Court Judge. As required in (a9), I have consulted with Chief Justice Martin about Mr. Robinson’s legal experience. We are convinced that his expertise and experience will make him an excellent addition to our state’s Business Court. We are grateful for his willingness to serve the State of North Carolina in this important capacity.

Upon Mr. Robinson’s confirmation to Judge Inman’s seat, I will ask Chief Justice Martin to designate him as a Business Court Judge.

Enclosed, you will find biographical information for Mr. Robinson. Please feel free to contact my staff for any additional information.

Sincerely,
S/Pat McCrory
Governor

cc: Denise Weeks, House Principal Clerk
    Sarah Lang, Senate Principal Clerk

The message is referred to the Select Committee on Nominations.

Pursuant to Senator Berger’s motion to adjourn having prevailed, the Senate stands adjourned.

March 23, 2015
Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Our Father, who art in heaven, you have gathered us together today under the shelter of your wing. As your children, we come before you and we ask for your guidance. We desire for your kingdom to expand—for your reign to be brought forth in every aspect of our human lives. Whether it is in the playground of North Ridge Elementary School or any of the schools and homes of these children here are a part of, whether it’s in the board room at SAS or whether it’s down on a hog farm in Bertie County, we desire to see your righteous and just reign over our lives today. Give us eyes to see where we might be part of your goodness and justice, and give us eyes to be honest with ourselves when we see that we have gone wrong. For all these things we thank you, and we are grateful for your presence in the midst of this Senate gathering. We pray in Jesus’ name. Amen.”

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Monday, March 23, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Bryant, Senator Smith-Ingram, and Senator Woodard.

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, March 25, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

March 25, 2015
Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, as we come before you, we ask you to bless not just this meeting, but the individual meetings that are going on right now in the legislative office building and even around the state. Bless the work of the people of this state. Inspire all those here who labor with your wisdom and your truth. Give them enthusiasm; give them joy. May they find fulfillment in their service here as they seek to advance the common good. Guide all of these here, from my left to my right, and the decisions they make. Help them to be particularly attentive to those less fortunate, those who cannot fend for themselves, or who struggle with little hope. We ask all these things in Jesus’ name. Amen.”

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Tuesday, March 24, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Bryant.

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, March 26, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Pete Kunkle from First Christian Church of Kernersville, Kernersville, North Carolina, as follows:

“Dear Heavenly Father, we are thankful for the freedoms that you have provided to this nation and to this great state of North Carolina. May we never take for granted the liberties that you have given to us and the freedoms that you have given. As these men and women prepare to make decisions pertaining to the needs of the people of this state, may you give them wisdom and strength in making their decisions that we would lead—that we would help others within our state, the citizens of North Carolina, to have a better life. Help us to remember the freedoms that you have given through your grace. I pray for your guidance as you help in the making of decisions today. For this is my prayer in the name of Jesus. Amen.”

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, March 25, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

“Father God, you are the author, the provider, and sustainer of life, and we come before you yet again, humbled that you have given us another week to work together. After a weekend of family, of rest, and safe return travel, we give you thanks. Beyond the frantic filing deadline, give us the grace to consider our work at another level, knowing that with every bill, in every committee meeting, every caucus and session, you have sovereignly ordained and established this governing body to work together for the good of this state. Lord, cause the words of David to rest mightily upon this body, and set a vision for our night tonight and for the days to come. He wrote, ‘When one rules justly over men, ruling in the fear of God, he dawns on them like the morning light, like the sun shining forth on a cloudless morning, like rain that makes grass to sprout from the earth.’* O God, that our work here would dawn across the mountains, that it would shine through the piedmont, and that it would rain down on the coast, bringing about unimaginable flourishing for our people. Together we ask for this in your holy name alone. Amen.”

POINTS OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Upon the motion of Senator Brock, the words spoken today on behalf of Richard Petty are spread upon the Journal as follows:

SENATOR TILLMAN: “Mr. President, I only digress for a moment. I know you are going to recognize ‘The King’ of NASCAR. Senator Apodaca, thank you for suspending the rules to let Richard be Richard. I wear a hat everywhere I go, but they won’t let me in here with my Richard Petty hat on. I will tell you one thing of interest about Richard that nobody much knows, he ran for Secretary of State in 1992. We tried to tell him that wasn’t a good thing, and he realized that too. However, he came to Raleigh for a couple of days to look around with, I believe, Bill Cobey. He got back, and I asked him what he thought of Raleigh. In true southern English, he said, ‘common sense ain’t all that common in Raleigh.’ You said that, among many other things. I would like to make this statement at this time:

Senator Tillman submits a Senatorial Statement entitled, RECOGNIZING THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF RICHARD PETTY. The full text can be found in the Appendix. (See pg.1263)

SENATOR TILLMAN (continued): “We’ll send a certified copy of this letter up to you, Mr. President, in just a moment. Mr. President, do you have all the names of Richard’s entourage?”

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR: “I do, Senator. Upon the motion of Senator Jerry Tillman of Randolph County, the Chair is happy to extend courtesies of the gallery to ‘The King,’ Richard Petty; Brian Moffitt, Rebecca Moffitt, Kyle Petty, Sharon Farlow, and Morgan Castano. Will you please stand along with ‘The King’ to be recognized? Thank you for joining us today, and congratulations.”

March 31, 2015
SENATOR BROWN: “Senator Tillman, I know you mentioned about being a Pontiac driver, but being a Chrysler man—owner of a dealership for a lot of years—I know he’s really a Mopar man. I just had to say that because I know his best days were when he was driving those Mopars.”

SENATOR J. DAVIS: “I first met Richard Petty in 1970 at Riverside International Raceway in Southern California while I was going out there to dental school. Whenever southern boys would come out there to race, it was always a great opportunity to watch them. I’d also watch him when he came out there for the International Race of Champions. But I will tell you that nobody could go through the esses like Richard Petty. The only person that came close was Darrell Waltrip. I used to love to sit there at turn six and watch him come through there. My most memorable opportunity out there was during the International Race of Champions. His schedule was not so terrible and not so hectic that he didn’t have time to talk to fans. I talked to him during one of those events for probably about 20 minutes, and the conversation ended by my saying to him ‘Mr. Petty thank you for your time, I know you’ve got better things to do than talk to me.’ I ended the conversation, he didn’t. It just shows you the measure of that man and how important fans were to him. I am honored to shake his hand. Thank you.”

SENATOR ROBINSON: “I certainly want to commend Senator Tillman for that recognition of Richard Petty today. I also want to acknowledge the support of Pattie and Kyle, who started Victory Junction camp. For those of you who remember, years ago there was not a holistic camp for children with developmental disabilities in North Carolina. Patterned somewhat after the camp started by Paul Newman, this camp started. We had a small one for sickle cell, but there was nothing for children with all developmental disabilities. Victory Junction has become a model. It includes every year a specific camp for children with sickle cell, a camp for children with cancer, etc. Parents can look forward to having their children go to a camp where there are skilled nurses, doctors, camp counselors, and even a parent retreat weekend that offers parents some sense of education and respite. So I certainly want to commend them for the work that they do in the community, for extending their resources and talents so they can make the lives of children in North Carolina better. Thank you, Mr. President.”

Upon motion of Senator Berger, seconded by Senator Tillman, the Senate adjourns at 2:28 p.m., subject to the standard stipulations set forth in Senate Rule 24.1 and the receipt of messages from the House of Representatives, to reconvene Wednesday, April 1, at 9:30 a.m.

THIRTY-NINTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, April 2, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Our Father, who art in heaven, as we come together to meet with you, we are most encouraged by your presence here—your still, small voice. Direct our endeavors for the betterment of those we serve. Be with our leadership in the executive, legislative, and judicial branches of government. Shine your light down upon us. Lord, how we need you. Lord, the good news is that you are ‘mindful of your mercy. You will display your tender love and faithfulness. You

FORTY-FIRST DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, April 9, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Chad Barefoot, Senator from Wake County.

Prayer is offered by Mr. Josh Grant, Research Assistant for Senator Kathy Harrington, as follows:

“Father, God, after a night’s heavy rain and an early morning gathering, I am reminded of the oft-quoted passage of the prophet who had seen the destruction of his city. Beyond the sight of his eyes and the anguish he felt, he came to theological mountaintops to see the goodness of God despite the suffering that had taken place: ‘The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, that your mercies never come to an end. They are new every morning, and great, Lord, is your faithfulness.’* So where we too know the brokenness of life even in our own, whether in mere discontent with petty things, or deep relational strife amongst friends and family, Lord, bind the wounds of our lives with the power of your love that we know in the Cross of Christ. In his death and resurrection you created a way for reconciliation. Let us know that even today. Let us know that reconciliation despite our differences, and cause us to stand firm on the rock that is much higher than us. As we finish this week with members soon heading home, back to their districts, dwell richly here even now. Bless these people, Lord. Bless this state. Thank you for your love, your mercies, and most of all, your undying faithfulness. Guide us in our work for the good of the people. Amen.”

April 9, 2015

*Lamentations 3:22-23, NRSV (paraphrase)

RE-REFERRAL OF A RESOLUTION

Senator Apodaca orders the re-referral of a resolution as follows:

S.R. 580, A SENATE RESOLUTION EXPRESSING GRATITUDE AND APPRECIATION TO OUR VETERANS, referred to the Rules and Operations of the Senate Committee on March 30.
The resolution is withdrawn from the Rules and Operations of the Senate Committee and placed on the calendar of Wednesday, April 15.

Pursuant to Senator Berger’s motion to adjourn having prevailed, the Senate stands adjourned.

April 14, 2015
The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, we do bow our heads and come before you, the maker of all things—the creator of every good and perfect gift that comes down from above. We seek your face because you say that if we have need to come to you. You are the giver of all things. Lord, we desire for you to be the God of this place and for you to be the comforter of those that are here—all these that are placed in authority. I pray that you would be their Lord, be their shepherd, and walk through the valley with them, and that you would pour oil all over this place, Lord. It is in Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.”

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Tuesday, April 14, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Stephen Badoo from Cary, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

S.R. 580, A SENATE RESOLUTION EXPRESSING GRATITUDE AND APPRECIATION TO OUR VETERANS, for adoption.

Upon motion of Senator Pate, the resolution is read in its entirety.

Upon motion of Senator Bingham, the words spoken on S.R. 580 are spread upon the Journal as follows:

April 15, 2015
SENATOR PATE: “I’d like to thank Senators Meredith and Rabin for joining me as the primary sponsors for this resolution. At this time, Mr. President, I would like to ask the senators who are veterans to stand as I call their name, with your permission, and I would give the terms of service that they had and which branch of the service they were in, and if they would remain standing until the end. Senator Alexander served from 1969-1975 in the North Carolina National Guard. Senator Clark served from 1981-2001 in the United States Air Force, my brother. Senator Curtis served 1972-1977 in the United States Air Force. Senator Daniel served 1991-1997 in the United States Army. Senator Don Davis served 1994-2001 in the United States Air Force. Senator Hartsell served 1972 in the United States Army Reserves. Senator Jeff Jackson served 2005-2006 in the National Guard. Senator Meredith served 1984-1987 in the United States Army. Senator Pate, 1962-1982, United States Air Force. Senator Rabin served 1956-1980 in the United States Army. Senator Soucek served 1991-1999 in the United States Army. Senator Tucker served 1968-1969 in the United States Navy. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, these are my brothers in arms, who have served our country. Upstairs above us now, we have veterans from all across our state, who have served in both foreign wars and in times of peace. We need to recognize our veterans, and for that, Mr. President, I recommend that we adopt this resolution and honor our veterans. Thank you, Mr. President.”

Upon motion of Senator Pate, the Senate Resolution is adopted (50-0).

Upon motion of Senator Berger, seconded by Senator Soucek, the Senate adjourns at 2:48 p.m., subject to the standard stipulations set forth in Senate Rule 24.1, the receipt of committee reports, the ratification of bills, and the receipt of messages from the House of Representatives, to reconvene Thursday, April 16, at 12:00 p.m.

FORTY-FIFTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, April 16, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, there is no word that we can speak to traverse the divide between your throne room and this chamber, yet we have your Spirit that is inside of us. There are no fireworks; there are no stones that we can hew, but there is a ‘deep magic,’ as C.S. Lewis once said. Lord, accept these plain words and these calculated actions. Forgive us as we do so. As we enter into your presence, we can feel your regard for us, and we can taste your generous spirit, your pardon amidst our self-serving corruption. So, Lord, bring us to the resting place where we can watch you gazing upon us, one where we can know that death cannot destroy. Have mercy on us, Lord, and take our heaps of stones and make them a temple. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.”

April 16, 2015
Senator Berger, President _Pro Tempore_, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, April 15, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, April 21, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, we are grateful for this day. We are grateful for the fact that you clothe us in our right minds, you give us strong bodies, you give us hope, and you give us a future. Unbind our hearts now. Free our minds. Give us hearts full of thanksgiving. We give you thanks for small things: coffee, handshakes, smiles, and the reminder that we are not alone. We thank you, and we pray for those that are alone right now and that have been mistreated. We pray for healing, and we pray for comfort in the midst. Help us to see the small gifts, those things that you have given us every day that we might always think, not that we lack, but we have everything in you. In Christ’s name we pray. Amen.”

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Monday, April 20, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Ivanna Plymouth from Raleigh, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

Thursday, April 23, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Raynard Allen, LCDR, CHC, USN, from Jacksonville, North Carolina, as follows:

“God of our fathers, in whom we trust and by whose guidance and grace this nation was born, bless the senators of this Tar Heel State at this important time in history, and give them all things needful for the faithful discharge of their responsibilities. We pray especially for our Lieutenant Governor, Dan Forest, who presides over this Chamber. Give to him, and to our senators, good health for the physical strains of their office, good judgment for the decisions they must make, wisdom beyond their own, and, yes, clear understanding for the problems of this difficult hour. We thank Thee for their humble reliance upon you. May they go often to the throne room of grace. We commend them to Thy loving care and Thy loving, guiding hand. Through your Holy Name we pray, and we thank Thee, Amen.”

FIFTIETH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, April 27, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, I am just so thankful for your presence here tonight. We pause to come before you and to thank you especially for the gift of being gathered by your Spirit. We are blessed to have structures of government to help us live peaceable lives. Bless the walls of this Senate, bless our state, and bless our nation. Bless the walls here that people might be lifted up within them. Bless the walls here so that the people inside of these walls might feel your touch. Grant each of us that are assembled here an extra measure of your grace and your wisdom as we proceed on with your work. It is for Christ’s sake that we pray. Amen.”

FIFTY-SECOND DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, April 29, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

April 29, 2015
Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, you are good, you are gracious, you are kind, and you are long suffering in mercy. We need all that today, Jesus, as we bow before you. Be with us in these deliberations. Be with each individual. Calm their hearts; give them peace. Remind us that you are the Lord and that you are the light—a lamp to our feet. May that light give us your true wisdom and guidance today. It is in Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.”

Senator Pate, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Tuesday, April 28, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following special message is received from the House of Representatives:

H.J.R. 668, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE MEMORY AND LIVES OF VICTIMS OF THE HOLOCAUST, INCLUDING THOSE WHO PERISHED IN AND THOSE WHO SURVIVED NAZI CONCENTRATION CAMPS, AND RECOGNIZING AND HONORING THE UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES WHOSE COURAGE AND BRAVERY LED TO THE LIBERATION OF THOSE CAMPS ON THIS SEVENTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE UNITED STATES ARMY’S LIBERATION OF THE INFAMOUS DACHAU CONCENTRATION CAMP.

April 29, 2015
Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the rules are suspended and the Joint Resolution is placed on today’s calendar for immediate consideration.

CALENDAR (continued)

Upon motion of Senator Bingham, the words spoken on H.J.R. 668 are spread upon the journal as follows:

SENATOR STEIN: “First they came for the Socialists, and I did not speak out—because I was not a Socialist. Then they came for the Trade Unionists, and I did not speak out—because I was not a Trade Unionist. Then they came for the Jews, and I did not speak out—because I was not a Jew. Then they came for me, and there was no one left to speak for me.’ These are the famous words of Pastor Martin Niemöller, who was a prisoner in Dachau concentration camp in southern Germany near Munich. Dachau was the first concentration camp in Germany opened—opened, that’s a little bit too positive—by Heinrich Himmler in 1933. As Niemöller writes, it was first used for political prisoners. After 1935, gays, Jehovah’s Witnesses, and immigrants were imprisoned—then Jews in Roma, Poles and Russians and Christian clergy, like Niemöller, who would not tow the Nazi line. The Nazis executed or killed, through abject abuse or neglect, tens and tens of thousands of people at Dachau. Seventy years ago today, intrepid, weary American forces, who had fought and slogged their way through Europe to rid the world of Hitler, first stepped tentatively unsure through the gates of Dachau. These brave soldiers of the 42nd Rainbow and 45th Thunderbird Infantry Divisions supported by the 20th Armored Division liberated 30,000 Jews and political prisoners whose haunted, emaciated images are seared into each of our brains. The Holocaust forces us to think deeply about the nature of man. It’s jarring, uncomfortable, to contemplate the horrible things that human beings are capable of doing to other human beings, but we must look in the mirror at the ugliest part of humanity; we must not avert our eyes. In this way, we not only remember and honor the millions who were slaughtered and those who survived the horror of the Holocaust, but we also commit ourselves to condemning all manifestations of intolerance, harassment, and violence against persons or communities wherever we are aware it is happening. This type of reflectioning commitment is strengthened by divine inspiration, which is present in our chamber today. It is a gift from God that we have with us Frank Fischer, Morris Glass, Zev Harel, Esther Lederman, Abe Piasek, and Harry Weiss, all of whom survived the Holocaust. Seventy years ago today, Mr. Weiss was on a forced march from Dachau, and Mr. Piasek was crammed in a train car near Dachau when it was liberated. Because of each of you survivors, each of us here aspires to our better self. It is also a blessing that George Rose of Wilmington and Jesse McIntyre of Chapel Hill are here. Again, 70 years today, then Corporal Rose, as a member of the 42nd Rainbow Infantry Division, was one of the first soldiers to enter and free the prisoners of Dachau. And post-liberation of the camp, Ms. McIntyre helped care for and restore the faith of humanity in concentration camp survivors as a First Lieutenant in the Army Nurse Corps. Friends, it is our good fortune to bear witness to this blessed reunion and it is my distinct honor to ask you to support this resolution. Thank you.”

SENATOR SMITH-INGRAM: “As a descendent of Ashkenazi Jews, I, too, stand with Senator Stein and my colleagues to honor this resolution. In the words of Elie Wiesel, who was one of the most prominent Holocaust survivors, ‘There may be times when we are powerless to prevent injustice, but there must never be a time when we fail to protest.’”

SENATOR ROBINSON: “Ladies and gentlemen, I had the opportunity to meet one of the Holocaust survivors on my trip to Israel, when we took an interfaith trip there. Even though his language had to still be interpreted to us, he shared with us the hurt of losing his family members and being the only survivor, and the pain that we could still see in his face, I’m sure that none of us can really realize. So I thank you for the resolution and thank those who have come today to share with us their experiences and remind us that humanity is humanity, and we must continue to uphold that because that’s who we are in America.”

The Joint Resolution passes its second reading (48-0) and, without objection, is read a third time and passes its third reading, with all present members standing, and is ordered enrolled.

The President Pro Tempore recognizes honored guests seated in the gallery and offers the following remarks:

SENATOR BERGER: “We have, members, some guests in the gallery and I’d like to take minute to recognize them, and it’s a long list, so I’ll start with Major General Jefforey A. Smith. General Smith—if you would stand as your name is called—is Deputy Commanding General at Fort Bragg of the XVIII Airborne Corps; Colonel Anthony Polashek, Commander of the 916th Operations Group at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base; Dr. June Atkinson, North Carolina Superintendent of Public Instruction; Michael Abramson, Chairman of the North Carolina Council on the Holocaust; Richard Schwartz, Vice Chairman of the North Carolina Council on the Holocaust; Mitch Rifkin, Vice Chairman of the North Carolina Holocaust Foundation; Frank Stancil, Deputy Adjutant, American Legion; Larry Rozier, Department Historian, American Legion; Sharon Halperin, Director of the Holocaust Speakers Bureau; Jack Goin, Commander, North Carolina Veterans of Foreign Wars; John Blueher, Past Commander and Deputy Adjutant, North Carolina Veterans of Foreign Wars; Ilario Pantano, Director of the North Carolina Division of Veterans Affairs; Retired Major General Cornell Wilson, United States Marine Corps, the Governor’s military advisor and head of North Carolina Military Affairs Commission; and what I would ask those who have just stood if you’d please be seated so that the remaining people can stand alone. Holocaust survivors and North Carolina residents in the gallery: Mr. Frank Fischer, Mr. Morris Glass, Mr. Zev Harel, Ms. Esther Lederman, Mr. Abe Piasek, and Mr. Harry Weiss. Also, if you all will remain standing, also in the gallery: Ms. Jessie McIntyre of Chapel Hill, 1st Lt. in the Army Nurse Corps attached to the 131st Division working the evacuation hospitals treating survivors in concentration camps immediately following their liberation, and U.S. Army veteran and Holocaust liberator George Rose, a Wilmington resident who was a Corporal with Company L, 104th Infantry Regiment, 26th Division of the Third Army and with the 42nd Rainbow Division in WWII and one of the first soldiers to enter Dachau 70 years ago today. If you would please recognize these special guests.”

April 29, 2015

SENATOR BERGER (continued): “Members of the Senate, I’m sorry that that class had left before we got to this because—and for the pages that are here, and actually for everyone else—this is living history, and it is something that is extremely special to North Carolina that we have these ladies and gentlemen as residents of our state. It is a special occasion for us, and it was a special occasion for me to have an opportunity to speak with the Holocaust survivors just a little while ago. If they’re still here when we finish—and we’ve got a ways to go—I would invite you to spend a minute with them because their stories are compelling, and they are stories that we should never forget what happened. Again, thank you for being with us today, and thank you for sharing with us what you’ve experienced.”

FIFTY-THIRD DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, April 30, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by Pastor Jarrod Scott of Green Pines Baptist Church, Knightdale, North Carolina, as follows:

“God, our Father, I want to thank you that you are here. With your presence, we know that we have your wisdom from which every wise law is made. With your presence, we know that we have your righteousness. We ask that your righteousness overcome our selfishness. With your presence, we know that we have your steadfast love that goes from generation to generation. May your holy love guide and lead our way. With your guiding love, lead these, our state leaders, to produce laws that are going to encourage loving and good behavior and discourage selfishness and evil. Let your love guide our leaders, not only to make good laws, but to do it in a good way. With your presence, we know that we have the author and sustainer of life itself here with us. Lord, thank you. May the laws here reflect your laws and help produce life, while discouraging selfish and violent death. I ask, Lord, that you let your presence be known to the members of our Senate. Thank you for showing what this looks like. In your Son, Jesus Christ, and in his authority I pray. Amen.”

FIFTY-SIXTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, May 6, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, you are the God of peace. We need your peace in this very energetic atmosphere. Endure with us throughout this summer session at the North Carolina Senate and in the House. Cover them, and cover all branches of government with your peace, Lord. ‘The righteous cry out, and the Lord hears them; he delivers them from all their troubles. The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.’* So lift our heads, O Lord, and give us the confidence that you are working here, even if we do not get our way, even if our bills have not crossed over, or if our items are not in the budget. Lord, you are with us. Without a doubt, you are doing a larger work here than we even know. It’s in Jesus name we pray. Amen.”

*Psalm 34: 17-18, NIV

“Lord, we are thankful. You are the giver of unexpected gifts—of graduate degrees, of everything. Lord, you pour out your grace in those unexpected places. You are so good. Your unexpected blessings come every time we go around a corner and every bend of the road. Even when we think things are bad, you show up. Now we come to you and we pray that you, who hold all things together, would keep these servants from stumbling and that you may give them release from what is binding them and even binding this state. Free us, Lord. You love us so much, so recklessly, without caution. As your creatures we need your wisdom to govern over the laws and foundations of this state. Use us on this day as your servants. We ask all this in Christ’s name. Amen.”

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Upon motion of Senator Barringer, the words spoken about the hooding of Juris Doctor Candidates, which took place in the Senate chamber earlier today, are spread upon the Journal as follows:

SENATOR BARRINGER: “Thank you very much, Mr. President. Today I was very privileged and honored to be part of our first historic hooding ceremony here in the chamber. Many of you took advantage of that and were there to see our Juris Doctor Candidates receive their graduation hoods with their robes. This ceremony was presided over by Justice Paul Newby, with the able assistance of our own Dr. Jeff Warren, who, by the way, this was his wonderful idea. I’d like to recognize now those who are graduating that participated and their sponsoring senators. Senator Tillman’s graduate is Marshall Conrad, graduating from Campbell University; Senator Berger and, formerly, Senator Harrington, we have Hannah Tedder, which is Senator Berger’s; but David Goldberg has worked for both Senator Harrington and Senator Berger now. Senator Daniel, Rita Dorry, graduating from North Carolina Central University; Senator Bryant is honored to have hooded Tanisha Folks, also of North Carolina Central; Senator Lowe, formerly Senator Parmon’s intern, Shawnda Martin of North Carolina Central; and then my own, Liz Paul, and many of you know that she and I worked very diligently together, and I know all of these senators really appreciate the hard work of these folks, and I now move that these words be spread upon the journal so that it will mark our first and, hopefully, a tradition of hooding these wonderful interns who work so hard for us.’

Upon motion of Senator Berger, seconded by Senator Brown, the Senate adjourns at 11:46 a.m., subject to the standard stipulations set forth in Senate Rule 24.1 and the receipt of messages from the House of Representatives, to reconvene Monday, May 11, at 7:00 p.m.

SIXTY-FOURTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, May 20, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Almighty God, ‘Love does not envy, love does not boast.’* It rights wrongs, and it casts out fear. Fill us with that kind of love. Help us to be servants that love, that don’t cling to our personalities and are not driven by being the center of attention, but we’re driven by how we can serve others humbly. We can’t do anything without you, Lord. So help us to be confident not in our ways, but in yours. We make our prayers in the name of Jesus, who laid down his life for us. Amen.”

SIXTY-SEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, May 26, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, we come to you in need of one thing: hope. We are saturated with our own selves, and we have become cynical and sometimes angry. So we need your supernatural help to break through our barriers, break through our hard hearts and our plans. ‘Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things.’* And so, Lord, we trust you to do that work of giving us grace to believe in your support for us, in your support of us, even in this messy and often haphazard place. We pray in Christ’s name. Amen.”

*I Corinthians 13:7 (paraphrase)

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Friday, May 22, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

SIXTY-EIGHTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, May 27, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Father in heaven, we come before you. You have promised such great things. When you have said that no one will snatch us from your hand, this is great assurance that you will never let us go. Lord, I pray for these people and for myself that where we need to be comforted, this truth would comfort us, and where we need to be afflicted, you would afflict us, and where we need your wisdom, we would but ask of you. Help this body—help the executive branch and the judicial branch—spend more time drawing near to your throne of grace, because in this place we will find all we need. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.”

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Lord, as I walk these halls and hear talk, concern, and love, I just thank you for it. Lord, some people are in surgery even right now and have been in surgery. We recognize that, and we ask you to be with them and their families. We thank you for your goodness. You have given us freedom to discuss, freedom to use our brains, freedom to use our reason. Lord, while we wrestle today with many challenges, keep us from the temptation of believing that we’ve got it figured out or that we only battle against flesh and blood. Pour out your anointing here on these friends so that you might make your plan plain and your purposes fulfilled in this great state. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.”

The Senate recesses at 11:02 a.m., subject to the standard stipulations set forth in Senate Rule 24.1, the ratification of bills, and the receipt of messages from the House of Representatives, to reconvene at 7:00 p.m.

RECESS

GOVERNOR’S OBJECTIONS AND VETO MESSAGE

The following bill, having been vetoed, together with the Governor’s objections and veto message, was returned to the Clerk of the North Carolina Senate on May 29, 2015, at 10:30 a.m., for reconsideration by that body:

   Senate Bill 2, “An Act to Allow Magistrates, Assistant Registers of Deeds, and Deputy Registers of Deeds to Recuse Themselves From Performing Duties Related to Marriage Ceremonies Due to Sincerely Held Religious Objection.”

   I recognize that for many North Carolinians, including myself, opinions on same-sex marriage come from sincerely held religious beliefs that marriage is between a man and a woman. However, we are a nation and a state of laws. Whether it is the president, governor, mayor, a law enforcement officer, or magistrate, no public official who voluntarily swears to support and defend the Constitution and to discharge all duties of their office should be exempt from upholding that oath; therefore, I veto Senate Bill 2.

June 3, 2015
GOVERNOR’S OBJECTIONS AND VETO MESSAGE

The following bill, having been vetoed, together with the Governor’s objections and veto message, was returned to the Clerk of the North Carolina House of Representatives on May 29, 2015, at 12:30 p.m., for reconsideration by that body:

House Bill 405, “An Act to Protect Property Owners From Damages Resulting From Individuals Acting in Excess of the Scope of Permissible Access and Conduct Granted to Them.”

This bill is intended to address a valid concern of our state’s businesses – how to discourage those bad actors who seek employment with the intent to engage in corporate espionage or act as an undercover investigator. This practice is unethical and unfair to employers, and is a particular problem for our agricultural industry. It needs to be stopped.

While I support the purpose of this bill, I believe it does not adequately protect or give clear guidance to honest employees who uncover criminal activity. I am concerned that subjecting these employees to potential civil penalties will create an environment that discourages them from reporting illegal activities.

Earlier this week, I was proud to sign Burt’s Law. It requires adult care home employees who witness sexual abuse of patients to report it to the proper authorities. I signed Burt’s Law because it protects a vulnerable population and gives clear direction to employees to report any abuse they witness. I don’t want to discourage good employees of any industry from reporting illegal activities to the proper authorities, which is why I am vetoing House Bill 405. In good conscience, I cannot sign Burt’s Law and then in the same week turn around and sign contradictory legislation.

I encourage the General Assembly to reconsider this bill as soon as possible and add protections for those employees who report illegal activities directly and confidentially to the proper authorities. I stand ready to work with legislators during this process, and I am very optimistic that we can reach a solution that addresses the concerns of our North Carolina employers while still protecting honest employees.

S/Pat McCrory
May 29, 2015

Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the bill is placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

June 3, 2015
CALENDAR (continued)

June 3, 2015
Pursuant to Senator Berger’s motion to adjourn having prevailed, the Senate stands adjourned.

SEVENTY-THIRD DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, June 4, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Heavenly Father, you have been and will be our dwelling place for all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, you were God. So we bow our heads and hearts before you, and we seek your guidance as a people. We give you credit for all you are doing. We are crippled without your help; we are helpless without your love. So come to our assistance, and make haste to help us. Forgive us of our sin. Wipe away the tears from our eyes. Have compassion on the lonely, and grant peace to the brokenhearted. We ask you to hear these prayers and bless all those assembled here. In Christ’s name, Amen.”

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, June 3, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Rucho and Senator Tillman.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

“Father in heaven, we pause to recognize those things that you are doing despite our efforts. We recognize, Lord, that while we plant seed that fades, you have planted seed that is imperishable. You are like a mustard seed; you are like leaven. We invite you to grow in such small ways in this place that we do not even see or expect what you are doing. Maybe someone has been praying in a particular office for 10 years, maybe there is someone in this room right now that is going to do something that will set something in place. We just don’t know, but, Lord, you know. We have confidence in what you are doing to work in our midst like a mustard seed that is growing a kingdom that is so much bigger than us. Come now, Lord, and be with us now. It is in your name we pray, Jesus. Amen.”

June 8, 2015

SEVENTY-SIXTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, June 10, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Jimmy Moore from First Baptist Church of Washington, Washington, North Carolina, as follows:

“Eternal God, the Psalmist reminds us that your Name is surpassing in all the universe. We come before you today to acknowledge your majesty, your power, and your sovereignty. You above all are righteous, just, and pure. Your Name bears truth, holiness, and wisdom. You, O God, have given the men and women in this chamber the task and responsibility to govern. We thank you for the privilege and honor to serve. Grant us now wisdom as we begin our work. Give us courage, conviction, and compassion. Remind us that our decisions not only affect us, but all of the citizens of this great state. We now pray for the men and women in this chamber as we pray for all of our leaders and those whom you have placed in positions of authority and responsibility. May your will be done in this place, in our lives, and in the life of this state. I offer this prayer in the Name of the Father and Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.”

H.J.R. 670, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF DEAN EDWARDS SMITH, LEGENDARY MEN’S BASKETBALL COACH OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL.

The Senate meets pursuant to recess and is called to order by Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

H.J.R. 670, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF DEAN EDWARDS SMITH, LEGENDARY MEN’S BASKETBALL COACH OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL.

Upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the rules are suspended and the Joint Resolution is placed on the calendar for immediate consideration. Senator Apodaca further moves that the Joint Resolution be read in its entirety.

Upon motion of Senator Brock, the words spoken on the Joint Resolution are spread upon the Journal as follows:

SENATOR GUNN: “It gives me great honor and privilege today to stand before you and speak to this resolution honoring the life and memory of Dean Edwards Smith. What a wonderful tribute, and I’d like to thank the members and staff and others who worked tirelessly to craft such a beautiful tribute.

June 10, 2015
Members, nobody—nobody—bleeds more Carolina blue than I, and you know that, so I will try not to speak too long because I could talk days about Dean Smith and Carolina basketball, but I do have a couple of personal reflections I would like to share. We know his basketball record speaks for itself, but, you know what, he was a better life coach than he was a basketball coach. His players simply referred to him as ‘Coach’—not ‘Coach Smith,’ that’s the formal address, but it was ‘Coach.’ I will argue with you today that to them ‘Coach’ was almost synonymous with ‘Dad.’ To this day, players of all statures and wealth and accomplishments—to this day, annually, they come back in droves to Chapel Hill. They come home to their family and to the father of that family, which was Dean Smith. Respect, loyalty, unselfishness—it was all about team. Think about it, he started the huddling at the free throw line, a clenched fist when you needed to come out because it would have been selfish for you as a tired player to continue to participate because you’d be letting your team down, and pointing out a passer when a great assist was made and it allowed you to score. Do you realize, today in high school, junior high, and rec leagues, and even in the pros, these things are still practiced? It started with Coach Smith. Because of his actions, on and off the court, people are so loyal and respectful of Coach Smith. I would tell you and argue that the best way I could express just how loyal people were, was with his good friend and wingman, Coach Bill Guthridge, who we lost as a part of our Carolina family recently. Coach Guthridge could have gone anywhere and coached basketball at the top level, and he would have done an extraordinarily great job, but what Coach Guthridge always said was, ‘there is no better job than being an assistant coach at Chapel Hill.’ In closing, I would like to read a letter that was sent out by Coach Smith. It was dated September 30, 1980. It was addressed to Mr. and Mrs. James Jordan and Michael. ‘Dear folks, we surely enjoyed having you as our guests this past weekend in Chapel Hill. Fortunately, we were able to get to know you folks much better and count you as good friends. We are also hopeful that Mike was able to learn more about the University of North Carolina and what it would be like as a student here at Chapel Hill. I do look forward to our next contact on Sunday, November 2, there in Wilmington. By then you may have additional questions regarding Michael’s attendance at the university. We will call periodically until then. I know Michael will continue to work hard academically as well as on his basketball. Please do not let the recruiting interfere with the most important thing of doing well academically and athletically in this your senior year. All here whom you met join me in sending along their warmest personal regards.’ You probably noticed a theme there. Coach Dean Edwards Smith, just like this letter—it was always about more than just basketball. Members, that is why I am, and I will always be, proud to be a Tarheel.”

SENATOR FOUSHEE: “Most people knew Dean Smith as a legendary basketball coach. I had the opportunity to know him as the parent of good friends. Growing up in Chapel Hill, I was friends with his daughters Sharon and Sandy. While much is made of Coach Smith’s recruitment of Charlie Scott and other African American players to UNC, I can tell you that he pushed those values at home too, teaching his children to accept and embrace diversity because everyone matters. He practiced what he preached. Whenever the girls invited me to their home, I was amazed that Coach Smith would come downstairs and speak very warmly before retreating back to his work. He made us all feel valued. He made us feel important. More recently, I have gotten to work closely with another of Coach Smith’s daughters, Kristen, and through her I see that he also instilled in his children his deep dedication to education, civic engagement, and doing what is right. While his career coaching record speaks for his success as a coach, the truer measure of a man is how he acted as a community member and a parent. Dean Smith worked for what was right while on the court, at the kitchen table, and in the community, motivating his family, his friends, and his fans to aspire to be people of character. I was proud to know him, and today I am proud to honor his legacy. I commend the resolution to you.”

SENATOR BARRINGER: “I rise today to speak to you really as much from a personal standpoint. I was a student at UNC Chapel Hill when Dean Edwards Smith was the head coach of the UNC Tarheels. I have made no secret about being just an un-avowed geek. I am not much for playing sports, but the thing that he taught me was the lessons that sports can provide. He inspired and lived excellence. He demanded of everyone around him, and he demanded no less from himself. The most remarkable thing about it, though, was that he did it with such grace and humility. That is a rare thing in this world today—to see someone who demands excellence and, yet, does so with humility. So I commend this to you, and it is truly a privilege that I am able to speak with such fondness of him today, not only as a former student of Chapel Hill, but also as a current faculty member. He is a great man, and he will ever be so. Thank you.”

SENATOR STEIN: “I grew up in Chapel Hill in the seventies and early eighties. Growing up in that era, you can just imagine how important Carolina basketball was to a kid. I had the great pleasure of going to many, many games. Whenever Carolina was down in the second half, as long as it wasn’t above 20 points—and even sometimes when it was more than 20 points—there was just this sense of confidence in Carmichael that the Heels were going to pull it out, and it was because Coach Smith was such an incredible coach and leader. Even as a young boy, and certainly as I have aged, I have come to appreciate that Coach Smith was so much more than just a successful basketball coach. You think of some of the attributes that the senators have mentioned here tonight—innovator, loyalty, humility, humanity, and social engagement. These are all incredibly admirable characteristics in any person, but what is so rare is for them to all be present with such depth and intensity in one person, and that is one reason, I think, why Coach Smith has had such a great impact on our state. If you ask yourself, over the past fifty or seventy-five years what North Carolinians have had the greatest national and international impact, I think names like Billy Graham and Dean Smith are at the top of the list of people who we come to think of. It is an honor—I am very pleased that Senator Gunn brought this resolution to us today. To his family, thank you for the sacrifices you made. For someone to have done all that he did—and accomplished all that he did—meant that he wasn’t probably home as much as other parents were. We know that you gave of yourselves so that he could give of himself to all of us, and we very much appreciate that.”

June 10, 2015
The Joint Resolution passes its second reading (48-0) and, without objection, is read a third time and passes its third reading and is ordered enrolled.

Upon motion of Senator Berger, seconded by Senator Gunn, the Senate adjourns at 3:43 p.m., subject to the standard stipulations set forth in Senate Rule 24.1, the receipt of committee reports, the ratification of bills, the receipt of messages from the House of Representatives, and the appointment of conferees, to reconvene Thursday, June 11, at 11:00 a.m.

CHAPTERED BILLS

The Enrolling Clerk reports the following bills properly enrolled, assigned the following Chapter Numbers, and presented to the Office of the Secretary of State:

S.B. 139, AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF SYLVA TO AUTHORIZE THE TOWN TO ADOPT AND ENFORCE ORDINANCES RELATING TO PARKING. (Became law upon ratification, June 10, 2015 - S.L. 2015-60)

S.B. 142, AN ACT TO REDUCE THE NUMBER OF MEMBERS SERVING ON THE CUMBERLAND COUNTY CIVIC CENTER COMMISSION. (Became law upon ratification, June 10, 2015 - S.L. 2015-61)

Pursuant to Senator Berger’s motion to adjourn having prevailed, the Senate stands adjourned.

SEVENTY-SEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, June 11, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Rodney L. Coleman from First Baptist Church of Chapel Hill, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, as follows:

“Gracious and glorious God in heaven, thou who knows all things, sees all things, and who has created all things, thou is both creator of heaven and earth. We come now, God, acknowledging you for who you are and how you are. We have convened at this appointed time and at this appointed place just to say thank you. God, before there is any discussion on people, politics, policies, protocols, or procedures, God, we pause to focus on the one who gives us the power to focus.

June 11, 2015
We thank you, God, for a new day—a day that we’ve never seen before, nor will we ever see again. God, before the worlds were framed you were God, and now that the worlds are framed you are God, and if the world loses its framing you will be God. We ask you, O God, to search our hearts, and if there is anything in us displeasing to you, we ask, God, that you would forgive us and restore us all. Create in us clean hearts, God, and renew us the right spirits. We pray, and we lift up all these women and men—our elected officials—asking, God, that you grant them from on high, wisdom. We pray, God, for clarity of their minds, strength for their bodies, spirits of camaraderie and unity, and we pray, God, that these faculties be used to help and bless our citizens—your people. We ask that those, God, who have convened today, who are dealing with personal, interpersonal, private, and public battles be restored. We ask, God, that your presence be felt and that your spirit not only hover over us, but, God, dwell within us—not only this building and this room, but in our hearts so that we can make you proud, and they can make you proud as they review and deliberate and legislate laws that ensure promise and hope for those who depend on them to do so. Finally, God, may the spirit of the only wise God regulate our hearts and guide our thoughts so that we will remain servants of you, God, and be considered servants of all. We pray this prayer in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.”

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Wednesday, June 10, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Meredith, Senator Rabon, and Senator Tillman.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Star Mitchell from Durham, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

Upon motion of Senator Rucho, the Senate adopts the Conference Report (44-2).

The Chair orders a special message sent to the House of Representatives informing that honorable body of such action.

POINTS OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Upon motion of Senator Pate, the words spoken by Senator Ford, Senator Lowe, and Senator Tucker are spread upon the Journal as follows:

SENATOR TUCKER: “Mr. President, members of the Senate, I rise with some sadness and regret to share what has transpired here since last Thursday. One of the things that I take away from politics is the people I know and meet and have the opportunity to associate with. We all hear about how wonderful our staff is and how professional they are, and they are. We also share many different experiences with those individuals that work with us and that help us do our job. One of those individuals, Susan Morgan Jacobs, recently, on Thursday, lost her 21 year old son, Dakota Kayne Morgan—Dakota, a young man 21 years of age. They are from a Native American family—a very close knit family. The services were held on Sunday. While I truly, as a human being, cannot identify with that pain, with the loss of a child—and I don’t think anyone can unless they have been through that experience—I wanted to take a moment of time here in the Senate to have a moment of silence for Susan and her family, so those who will, if you would, just pause for a moment and bow your head. Thank you.

—Moment of Silence—

“Thank you for that. So, to Yaku Puka Nukusa, ‘Walking Bear’—to Dakota Kayne Morgan—we give you thanks, young man, for your life, for being a friend to others, and for being a generous young man and always kind, as I have heard. We offer support to Susan and her family through the Senate fellowship and through her friends and peers on the staff—for her humor, for her intellect, and for her loyalty to this body and a commitment to our process to make North Carolina a better state. Thank you.”

June 18, 2015
SENATOR LOWE: “I think that all of us are heartbroken by what we heard in South Carolina, and I have been getting a lot of phone calls from colleagues and church members and family and friends because I serve in an African American church and an African American community. I hear a lot of talk about guns and what all we ought to do. Serving our community and serving North Carolina and serving as a citizen is dangerous business. Certainly our hearts go out to the families that have served in various different capacities and suffered tragedy behind guns and behind deranged minds and all other kinds of things, so I certainly hope and ask that we can once again—thank you, Senator Tucker—have a moment of silence for those families who have suffered tragedy. Thank you.”

—Moment of Silence—

SENATOR FORD: “Thank you, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I regretfully stand before you to confirm by news sources that former State Senator Malcolm Graham’s sister was one of the nine victims shot last night in the Charleston church at a prayer meeting. So, I just ask for those of you who believe in the word of prayer that you send a prayer out for him and his family. As we continue to deliberate public policy, let’s keep in mind the practical applications of that policy. Thank you.”

Upon motion of Senator Berger, without objection, a closing prayer is offered by The Reverend Paul A. Lowe, Jr., Senator from Forsyth County, as follows:

“Thou who art eternal, gracious, kind—we thank Thee for these tender moments. We thank Thee for the opportunity not only to know that you hold us in the palm of your hand, but we thank you because you are our God that we can go to during the time of trouble. You are our God that we can go to when we are perplexed. You are our God that we can go to when we are confused and without direction and just don’t know where to go. Now we ask that you would continue to wrap your arms of protection around each and every one of us. Continue to be with us, propping us up on every leaning side, giving us courage and strength as we continue to try and do Thy will. We ask that you would bring peace in the midst of the storm. Then we ask that you would comfort those that are hurting, even right now, all over the world. Then we ask, as lawmakers, that you would be with us as we do the best that we can to look out for all of the people of this great North State. These things we pray in the name of He that orders our steps and meets us with mercy. And all of the people said, ‘Amen.’”

Upon motion of Senator Berger, seconded by Senator Tucker, the Senate adjourns at 11:48 a.m., in memory of Dakota Kayne Morgan, subject to the standard stipulations set forth in Senate Rule 24.1, the ratification of bills, the receipt of messages from the House of Representatives, the receipt of conference reports, and the appointment of conferees, to reconvene Monday, June 22, at 1:30 p.m.

EIGHTY-FOURTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, June 24, 2015

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Dan Forest, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Peter Milner, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

June 24, 2015
“Lord, how shall we enter into your presence? We are so full of pride. How shall we pray to you now? We often just don’t even know where to begin or what to ask, but, Lord, you are sufficient. Even in our loss of words, you are gracious. You are clear when we have no clarity. You are God when we stumble. We repent, Heavenly Father, of our blindness. We repent of our inability to work together. We repent of name calling. Because in repentance and rest is our salvation, Lord. I am so thankful that we can come here and feel your love, because your love is not dependent upon our words. Your love is not dependent even on our prayers, because you are faithful to the end. Come, Jesus, rescue us from our snares, and set us free. It is your name, Jesus, we pray. Amen.”

Senator Berger, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Senate Journal of Tuesday, June 23, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Senate Journal, and it stands approved as written.
