CONSTITUTION

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

AS AMENDED BY THE

Constitutional Convention of 1875.
CONSTITUTION
AS AMENDED BY THE
CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION OF 1875.

PREAMBLE.

We, the people of the State of North Carolina, grateful to Almighty God, the Sovereign Ruler of nations, for the preservation of the American Union, and the existence of our civil, political and religious liberties, and acknowledging our dependence upon Him for the continuance of those blessings to us and our posterity, do, for the more certain security thereof, and for the better government of this State, ordain and establish this constitution:

ARTICLE I.

DECLARATION OF RIGHTS.

That the great, general and essential principles of liberty and free government may be recognized and established, and that the relations of this State to the Union and government of the United States, and those of the people of this State to the rest of the American people may be defined and affirmed, we do declare:

Section 1. That we hold it to be self-evident that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, the enjoyment of the fruits of their own labor, and the pursuit of happiness.

Sec. 2. That all political power is vested in, and derived from, the people; all government of right originates from the people, is founded upon their will only, and is instituted solely for the good of the whole.

Sec. 3. That the people of this State have the inherent, sole and exclusive right of regulating the internal government and police thereof, and of altering and abolishing their constitution and form of government whenever it may be necessary for their safety and happiness; but every such right should be exercised in pursuance of law, and consistently with the Constitution of the United States.

Sec. 4. That this State shall ever remain a member of the American Union; that the people thereof are part of the American nation; that there is no right on the part of the State to secede, and that all attempts, from whatever source or upon whatever pretext, to dissolve said Union, or to sever said nation, ought to be resisted with the whole power of the State.

Sec. 5. That every citizen of this State owes paramount allegiance to the Constitution and Government of the United States, and that no law or ordinance of the State in contravention or subversion thereof, can have any binding force.

Sec. 6. The State shall never assume or pay, or authorize the collection of any debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave.

Sec. 7. No man or set of men are entitled to exclusive or separate emoluments or privileges from the community but in consideration of public services.

Sec. 8. The legislative, executive and supreme judicial powers of the government ought to be forever separate, and distinct from each other.
Sec. 9. All power of suspending laws, or the execution of laws, by any authority, without the consent of the representatives of the people, is injurious to their rights, and ought not to be exercised.

Sec. 10. All elections ought to be free.

Sec. 11. In all criminal prosecutions, every man has the right to be informed of the accusation against him and to confront the accusers and witnesses with other testimony, and to have counsel for his defence, and not be compelled to give evidence against himself or to pay costs, jail fees, or necessary witness fees of the defence, unless found guilty.

Sec. 12. No person shall be put to answer any criminal charge, except as hereinafter allowed, but by indictment, presentment or impeachment.

Sec. 13. No person shall be convicted of any crime but by the unanimous verdict of a jury of good and lawful men in open court. The Legislature may, however, provide other means of trial for petty misdemeanors, with the right of appeal.

Sec. 14. Excessive bail should not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel or unusual punishments inflicted.

Sec. 15. General warrants, whereby any officer or messenger may be commanded to search suspected places, without evidence of the act committed, or to seize any person or persons not named, whose offence is not particularly described and supported by evidence, are dangerous to liberty and ought not to be granted.

Sec. 16. There shall be no imprisonment for debt in this State, except in cases of fraud.

Sec. 17. No person ought to be taken, imprisoned or disseized of his freehold, liberties or privileges, or outlawed or exiled, or in any manner deprived of his life, liberty, or property, but by the law of the land.

Sec. 18. Every person restrained of his liberty is entitled to a remedy to enquire into the lawfulness thereof, and to remove the same, if unlawful; and such remedy ought not to be denied or delayed.

Sec. 19. In all controversies at law respecting property, the ancient mode of trial by jury is one of the best securities of the rights of the people, and ought to remain sacred and inviolable.

Sec. 20. The freedom of the press is one of the great bulwarks of liberty, and therefore ought never to be restrained, but every individual shall be held responsible for the abuse of the same.

Sec. 21. The privileges of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended.

Sec. 22. As political rights and privileges are not dependent upon, or modified by property, therefore no property qualification ought to affect the right to vote or hold office.

Sec. 23. The people of the State ought not to be taxed, or made subject to the payment of any impost or duty, without the consent of themselves, or their representatives in General Assembly, freely given.

Sec. 24. A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed; and, as standing armies in time of peace, are dangerous to liberty, they ought not to be kept up, and the military should be kept under strict subordination to, and governed by, the civil power. Nothing herein contained shall justify the practice of carrying concealed weapons, or prevent the Legislature from enacting penal statutes against said practice.

Sec. 25. The people have a right to assemble together to consult for their common good, to instruct their representatives, and to apply to the Legislature for redress of grievances. But secret political societies are dangerous to the liberties of a free people, and should not be tolerated.

Sec. 26. All men have a natural and unalienable right to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of their own consciences, and no human authority should, in any case whatever, control or interfere with the rights of conscience.

Sec. 27. The people have the right to the privilege of Education, and it is the duty of the State to guard and maintain that right.

Sec. 28. For redress of grievances, and for amending and strengthening the laws, elections should be often held.

Sec. 29. A frequent recurrence to fundamental principles is absolutely necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty.

Sec. 30. No hereditary emoluments, privileges or honors ought to be granted or conferred in this State.

Sec. 31. Perpetuities and monopolies are contrary to the genius of a free State, and ought not to be allowed.

Sec. 32. Retrospective laws, punishing acts committed before the existence of such laws, and by them only declared criminal, are oppressive, unjust and incompatible with liberty, wherefore no ex post facto law ought to be made. No law taxing retrospectively sales, purchases, or other acts previously done, ought to be passed.

Sec. 33. Slavery and involuntary servitude, otherwise than for crime, whereof the parties shall have been duly convicted, shall be, and are hereby, forever prohibited within the State.

Sec. 34. The limits and boundaries of the State shall be and remain as they now are.

Sec. 35. All Courts shall be open; and every person for an injury done him in his lands, goods, person or reputation, shall have remedy by due course of law, and right and justice administered without sale, denial or delay.

Sec. 36. No soldier shall in time of peace be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war, but in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 37. This enumeration of rights shall not be construed to impair or deny others retained by the people; and all powers not herein delegated, remain with the people.
ARTICLE II.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

Section 1. The Legislative authority shall be vested in two distinct branches, both dependent on the people, to-wit: A Senate and House of Representatives.

Sec. 2. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet biennially on the first Wednesday after the first Monday in January next after their election; and when assembled shall be denominated the General Assembly. Neither House shall proceed upon public business unless a majority of all the members are actually present.

Sec. 3. The Senate shall be composed of fifty Senators, biennially chosen by ballot.

Sec. 4. The Senate Districts shall be so altered by the General Assembly, at the first session after the return of every enumeration by order of Congress, that each Senate District shall contain, as near as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens and Indians not taxed, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory; and no county shall be divided in the formation of a Senate District, unless such county shall be equitably entitled to two or more Senators.

Sec. 5. The House of Representatives shall be composed of one hundred and twenty Representatives, biennially chosen by ballot, to be elected by the counties respectively, according to their population, and each county shall have at least one representative in the House of Representatives, although it may not contain the requisite ratio of representation; this apportionment shall be made by the General Assembly at the respective times and periods when the Districts for the Senate are hereinbefore directed to be laid off.

Sec. 6. In making the apportionment in the House of Representatives, the ratio of representation shall be ascertained by dividing the amount of the population of the State, exclusive of that comprehended within those counties which do not severally contain the one hundred and twentieth part of the population of the State, by the number of Representatives, less the number assigned to such counties; and in ascertaining the number of the population of the State, aliens and Indians not taxed shall not be included. To each county containing the said ratio and not twice the said ratio, there shall be assigned one Representative; to each county containing twice but not three times the said ratio, there shall be assigned two Representatives, and so on progressively, and then the remaining Representatives shall be assigned severally to the counties having the largest fractions.

Sec. 7. Each member of the Senate shall not be less than twenty-five years of age, shall have resided in the State as a citizen two years, and shall have usually resided in the District for which he is chosen, one year immediately preceding his election.

Sec. 8. Each member of the House of Representatives shall be a qualified elector of the State, and shall have resided in the county for which he is chosen, for one year immediately preceding his election.

Sec. 9. In the election of all officers, whose appointment shall be conferred upon the General Assembly by the Constitution, the vote shall be viva voce.

Sec. 10. The General Assembly shall have power to pass general laws regulating divorce and alimony, but shall not have power to grant a divorce or secure alimony in any individual case.

Sec. 11. The General Assembly shall not have power to pass any private law to alter the name of any person, or to legitimate any person not born in lawful wedlock, or to restore to the rights of citizenship any person convicted of an infamous crime, but shall have power to pass general laws regulating the same.
Sec. 12. The General Assembly shall not pass any private law, unless it shall be made to appear thirty days' notice of application to pass such a law shall have been given, under such direction, and in such manner as shall be provided by law.

Sec. 13. If vacancies shall occur in the General Assembly by death, resignation or otherwise, writs of election shall be issued by the Governor under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

Sec. 14. No law shall be passed to raise money on the credit of the State, or to pledge the faith of the State, directly or indirectly, for the payment of any debt, or to impose any tax upon the people of the State, or to allow the counties, cities or towns to do so, unless the bill for the purpose shall have been read three several times in each House of the General Assembly, and passed three several readings, which readings shall have been on three different days, and agreed to by each House respectively, and unless the yeas and nays on the second and third reading of the bill shall have been entered on the Journal.

Sec. 15. The General Assembly shall regulate entails in such manner as to prevent perpetuities.

Sec. 16. Each House shall keep a journal of its proceedings, which shall be printed and made public immediately after the adjournment of the General Assembly.

Sec. 17. Any member of either House may dissent from, and protest against, any act or resolve, which he may think injurious to the public, or any individual, and have the reasons of his dissent entered on the journal.

Sec. 18. The House of Representatives shall choose their own speaker and other officers.

Sec. 19. The Lieutenant Governor shall preside in the Senate, but shall have no vote unless it may be equally divided.

Sec. 20. The Senate shall choose its other officers and also a Speaker (pro temore) in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor, or when he shall exercise the office of Governor.

Sec. 21. The style of the acts shall be: "The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact."

Sec. 22. Each House shall be judge of the qualifications and elections of its own members, shall sit upon its own adjournment from day to day, prepare bills to be passed into laws; and the two Houses may also jointly adjourn to any future day, or other place.

Sec. 23. All bills and resolutions of a legislative nature shall be read three times in each House, before they pass into laws; and shall be signed by the presiding officers of both Houses.

Sec. 24. Each member of the General Assembly, before taking his seat, shall take an oath or affirmation that he will support the Constitution and laws of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of North Carolina, and will faithfully discharge his duty as a member of the Senate or House of Representatives.

Sec. 25. The terms of office for Senators and members of the House of Representatives shall commence at the time of their election.

Sec. 26. Upon motion made and seconded in either House, by one-fifth of the members present, the yeas and nays upon any question shall be taken and entered upon the journals.

Sec. 27. The election for members of the General Assembly shall be held for the respective districts and counties, at the places where they are now held, or may be directed hereafter to be held, in such manner as may be prescribed by law, on the first Thursday in August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and every two years thereafter. But the General Assembly may change the time of holding the elections.

Sec. 28. The members of the General Assembly for the term for which they have been elected, shall receive as a compensation for their services the sum of four dollars per day for each day of their session, for a period not exceeding sixty days; and should they remain longer in session, they shall serve without compensation. Sec. 3. The homestead, after the death of the owner thereof, shall be exempt from the payment of any debt during the minority of his children, or one any of them.

Section 1. The following punishments only shall be known to the laws of this State, viz: death, imprisonment, with or without hard labor, fines, removal from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust, or profit under this State. The foregoing provision for imprisonment with hard labor shall be construed to authorize the employment of such convict labor on public works, or highways, or other labor for public benefit, and the farming out thereof, where, and in such manner as may be provided by law; but no convict shall be farmed out who has been sentenced on a charge of murder, manslaughter, rape, attempt to commit rape, or arson: Provided, That no convict whose labor may be farmed out, shall be punished for any failure of duty as a laborer, except by a responsible officer of the State; but the convicts so farmed out shall be at all times under the supervision and control, as to their government and discipline, of the Penitentiary Board or some officer of this State.

CHAPTER 42.

AN ACT TO CORRECT THE ERRONEOUS NUMBERING OF A CERTAIN BOND.

Preamble.

Whereas, the legislature of North Carolina, at its session of one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four and one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, passed an act authorizing the issue of certain duplicate bonds to the Old Dominion Trading Company, of the city of Richmond, Virginia, in lieu of certain bonds of the State of North Carolina burned and destroyed on the steamship "General Beauregard," on the twenty-sixth day of June, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, while in transit to Liverpool, England;

And whereas, it has been made to appear that in the issuing of duplicate bonds there was an error made in numbering the said bonds, one of the same being numbered eight hundred and fifty instead of eight hundred and fifty-six, as it should have been;

And whereas, the original list of said bonds, burned and destroyed, a certified copy of which is filed in the treasury department of North Carolina, shows that there was no such number as eight hundred and fifty among those lost and destroyed;

And whereas, there are two bonds of the same class numbered alike, namely eight hundred and fifty, and have been proved before the proper authorities, and no such number as eight hundred and fifty-six having as yet been presented to be proved; now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the public treasurer of the State of North Carolina be authorized and empowered to certify on said bond, under the seal of his department, that the same is erroneously numbered eight hundred and fifty, and should have been numbered eight hundred and fifty-six.

Sec. 2. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Sec. 2. That said ordinance be amended by inserting a new section between sections thirteen and fourteen, to read as follows: "That the penitentiary board is authorized and directed to farm out to [the] president and directors of said company, for the purpose of constructing the second division of said road, two hundred able-bodied convicts to work on the construction of said railroad, but the said convicts shall be at all times under the supervision and control, as to their government and discipline, of a supervisor, who shall be appointed by the governor upon the recommendation of said railroad company: Provided, that there shall be an estimate made of the net value of the labor done by said convicts on the road of said company, to be fixed on a just and equitable basis by the president of said company and a person appointed by the governor on the part of the State, and the net value of labor shall be a first lien on all the property and franchise of said second division of said railroad: Provided further, that the State shall not be at any expense for the feeding, clothing or other care of said convicts."

Sec. 3. Nothing in this act shall be construed to interfere with the convicts assigned to any road in which the State has an interest.

Sec. 4. That any township or city, town, county, or other municipal corporation of this State, shall have power and authority to subscribe for and take any number of shares of capital stock of said company that a majority of the voters of such township, or city, town, county, or other municipal corporation may elect to take therein. That upon [the] request of twenty resident and tax-payers of any such township, or city, town, county, or other municipal corporation of this State, the municipal corporation, (and in case of township, the justices of the peace of such township) shall determine the number of shares in the said company proposed to be taken by such township or city, town, county, or other municipal corporation, and shall appoint a day on which an election shall be held in such township or city, town, county, or other municipal corporation, in the manner prescribed by law for holding elections, at which said election the legally qualified voters of such township or city, town, county, or other municipal corporation, shall be entitled to vote for or against such subscription, the legally qualified voters favoring such subscription to vote ballots written or printed "railroad," those opposing such subscription to vote "no railroad." Whereas, the State of North Carolina owns a large part of the stock of the Western Railroad Company which has been preserved by the action of the president and directors of the company at heavy expense and pecuniary responsibility to them, and without expense incurred by the State;

And whereas, to make the investment a profitable one, it is necessary to complete the road; therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That on and after the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, the name of the Western Railroad Company shall be changed to the "Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway Company," and said company under such name shall succeed to all the rights, powers, privileges, immunities and franchises that are now possessed by the Western Railroad Company.

SEC. 2. One hundred and fifty additional convicts are hereby assigned to said company upon the same terms and conditions as those assigned by act of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and the board of directors of the penitentiary is hereby directed at its discretion to increase the number of convicts assigned as the wants of the company demand, and the number of convicts admit; such number of said convicts as the president and directors may determine may be assigned to the work of construction at any point or points between Greensboro and the present terminus of the road.

SEC. 3. Authority is hereby given for the consolidation.
of this company with the Mount Airy Railroad Company upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by said companies, and thereupon the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway Company shall succeed to and possess all the rights, powers, privileges and franchises which have been conferred upon said corporation by its charter and the several amendments thereto, and the said Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad Company may, with or without such consolidation with the Mount Airy Railroad Company, if it deem proper, extend its road by an independent line through the counties of Forsythe, Stokes, Yadkin, Surry and Wilkes, to Patterson in Caldwell county, thence through Caldwell, Watauga, Ashe, Alleghany or Mitchell, or either of them, and connect with any railroad constructed or to be constructed in western North Carolina: Provided, that Patterson, in the county of Caldwell, shall be a point upon any line of road that may be determined upon up the Yadkin river.

Sec. 4. Upon the consolidation of said company with the Mount Airy Railroad Company, authorized by the third section of this act, or upon the adoption of an independent line west of Greensboro, the president and directors shall place one hundred of the convicts provided for in this act to the construction of said road west of Greensboro as soon as the sum of ten thousand dollars shall be secured and ten per centum thereon paid to the treasurer of said railroad company, and thereupon section three of the act of February twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, shall be so extended as to include the counties of Guilford, Forsythe, Stokes, Yadkin, Surry, Wilkes, Caldwell, Watauga, Ashe, Alleghany and Mitchell.

Sec. 5. To enable said company to construct the roads authorized to be consolidated, or such independent line as may be determined upon, the authorities of any incorporated city, town, county or township in this State or any other corporation in or out of the State, shall have full power and authority to subscribe to the stock of said company, or to purchase or guarantee its securities and contracts to such an amount as they may be authorized by the people of the cities, towns, or counties, or by the constituted authorities of any other corporation, and may borrow money and issue evidences of debt or guarantee upon such terms and conditions as they may be authorized, and the authorities of such cities, towns and counties may levy and collect taxes to pay the indebtedness incurred.

Sec. 6. To ascertain the will of the people of any city, town or county, the county commissioners of any county, or the municipal authorities of any city or town, may cause an election to be held, and submit the question to the qualified voters of such city, town, county or township, notice of thirty days having been given thereof in the usual manner, and at such election those in favor of the proposition of subscription, purchase or guarantee, shall deposit their ballots "for subscription," "for purchase," or "for guarantee," and those opposing, "no subscription," "no purchase," or "no guarantee," and the county commissioners or municipal authorities shall examine the returns made by the inspectors and declare the result. The will of any other corporation may be ascertained in such manner as said corporation may provide.

Sec. 7. If at any time during the construction of the roads herein authorized the stockholders deem it advisable to reduce the value and number of shares of the present stock of the company in order to secure new and additional capital, the representative of the State in stockholders' meeting may consent to such pro rata reduction (not exceeding sixty per cent.) of the State and individual stock as the stockholders may determine.

Sec. 8. Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway Company shall within the next six months after the expiration of the ninety days above named survey and locate said road west of Greensboro or Salem or Winston by way of Wilkesboro to Patterson, North Carolina: And provided further, that said convicts shall be worked west of Greensboro or Salem or Winston as the board of directors may decide:
Provided further, that upon the consolidation of the roads provided for in this act with the Ore Knob and Mount Airy Railroad, the convicts assigned by law for the construction of the said Ore Knob and Mount Airy

If the application for relief be made to the commissioners after the sheriff shall have settled the accounts with the county, the commissioners shall carefully examine the case, and if in their opinion the applicant is entitled to relief, shall direct the clerk to record on the record-book the cause of complaint and the amount which, in the opinion of the commissioners, should be refunded to the applicant. The clerk shall make out a copy of such record, certify the same under the seal of the commissioners, and deliver it to the applicant, who shall pay the clerk a fee of twenty-five cents. Such copy then shall be transmitted to the auditor of the state, who, on finding the proceedings in conformity with the requirements of this order, shall issue a warrant on the treasurer of the state for the amount specified. That the commissioners of any county in this state are hereby authorized to provide and maintain suitable places for procuring water for persons and animals on the public highways in such townships: Provided, that not more than fifty dollars shall be expended in any one township in any one year for such purpose, to be paid out of any moneys in the county treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 17. That the commissioners of the respective counties in this state are hereby authorized to levy at the June session of their board annually for road and bridge purposes, as follows: In counties where the taxable property exceeds the sum of sixteen millions dollars, not less than two-tenths of a mill on the dollar, nor more than two mills; in counties where the taxable property is less than ten millions and over five millions of dollars, not less than seven-tenths of a mill, nor more than three mills; in counties where the taxable [property] is less than five millions of dollars the levy shall not be less than seven-tenths of a mill, nor more than five mills on the dollar; and the chairman of the county commissioners shall place the same on the tax duplicate of the current year, to be included in and collected in the annual taxes; and the county commissioners shall set apart such portion of the road tax by them levied as they may deem proper, to be applied to the building or repairing of the bridges in their respective counties, which proportion as set apart shall be called a bridge fund, and shall be entered on the duplicate of taxes for the county, by the chairman of county commissioners, in a separate column from other levies for road purposes, and shall be collected in money and expended under the direction of the commissioners of the county, in the building or repairing of bridges, or both.

Sec. 19. All road taxes collected by the county treasurer shall be paid over to the supervisors in such sums and proportions as the commissioners may direct. The commissioners in determining the division of this fund shall be governed not by the miles of road in each district, but by necessities of the roads, the convenience of getting material, the quantity of material necessary to make substantial repairs, etc., and thus make a just and equitable division of said fund between the several districts, to be paid to the supervisors on the warrants of the chairman of the board of county commissioners.

Sec. 20. That any land-holder through whose land any state, county or township road is now or may be hereafter laid out and established, is hereby authorized, under the direction of the supervisor of the proper district, to construct a passway or passways, either under or over such roads, so as to permit the stock of such land-holder to pass and repass: Provided, that such passway or passways shall not be constructed over or under any road within the limit of the outlets of any city, town or village, and shall not hinder or obstruct the travel on such roads: Provided further, that the said passway or passways shall be kept in good repair at the expense of such land-holder.

Sec. 22. That each and every supervisor who shall neg-

Sec. 23. That it shall be unlawful for any supervisor to perform or cause labor to be performed on any road not regularly laid out and established by law.

Sec. 24. That each and every supervisor who shall cut and take any timber, stone or gravel for the purpose of making, improving or repairing any road or building or repairing any bridge or crossway within his district, shall, on demand of the owner of the lands, their agent or agents, or the guardian of any ward, or the executor or administrator having lands in charge, from which timber, stone or gravel were taken aforesaid, shall give a certificate showing the quantity of such timber, stone or gravel, with the value thereof respectively, and the time and purpose for which the same were taken.

Sec. 25. That any person or persons who shall receive a certificate, as provided for in the foregoing section, shall present the same to the county commissioners of the proper county, at any regular session of said commissioners, within twelve months after the taking and carrying away of such timber, stone or gravel, and the com-

Sec. 26. That each supervisor shall receive for his services not exceeding two dollars per day for the time actually employed on the roads, deducting the commutation for his four days' labor.

Sec. 27. That at any time during the year when any public highway shall be obstructed, it shall be the duty of the supervisor of the district in which the same may be forthwith to cause such obstruction to be removed, for which purpose he shall immediately order out such number of persons liable to do work or pay tax upon the public highways of his district as he may deem necessary to remove said obstruction. If the person or persons thus called out shall have performed their four days' labor upon the public highways, or paid their road tax, the supervisor shall give to such person or persons a certificate for the amount of labor performed, and said certificate shall apply on the labor or tax that may be due from such person or persons the ensuing year.

Sec. 28. That if any person or persons, corporations, or any conductor of any train of railroad cars, or any other agent or servant of any railroad company, shall obstruct unnecessarily any public road or highway authorized by any law of this state, by permitting any railroad car or cars, or locomotive, to remain upon or across any public road or highway for a longer period than five minutes, or shall permit any timber, wood or other obstructions to remain upon or across any such road or highway, to the hindrance or inconvenience of travellers, or any person or persons passing along or upon such road or highway, every person or corporation so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such offense any sum not exceeding twenty nor less than five dollars, and shall be liable for all damages arising to any person from such obstruction or injury.

And all fines so accruing under the provisions of this section, when collected, shall be paid over to the treasurer of the county in which such offence was committed, and by the commissioners applied to the improvement of the roads and highways therein; and every twenty-four hours such corporation, person or persons as aforesaid, after being notified, shall suffer such obstructions, to the hindrance or inconvenience of travellers or any person or persons going along or upon such road or highway, shall be deemed an additional offence against the provisions of this act.

Sec. 29. That every railroad company or other corporation, the servant or servants, agent or agents, employee or employees of which shall in any manner obstruct any public road or highway, shall be liable to pay all fines which may be assessed against such servant or servants, agent or agents, employee or employees, for so obstructing any such public road or highway, and such liability as may be enforced by execution issued against such railroad company or other corporation on the judgment rendered against such servant or servants, agent or agents, employee or employees, for so obstructing such public road or highway.

Sec. 30. Sec. 32. The prisoners employed in working the public roads shall be allowed so much per day as in the opinion of the supervisors their services are worth, which amount shall be credited to them on the county charges against them.

Sec. 33. If any prisoner shall escape from the custody of the supervisor or those who have such prisoners in charge, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, or be imprisoned not less than ten days nor more than thirty days.

Sec. 2. That the object and purposes of this corporation is to drain the swamp and wet lands of the said Six Runs between Hines' mill and the mouth of Cran's creek, or such other point below the mouth of Cran's creek as a majority of the members shall determine, and the swamp and wet lands of all the tributaries of the said Six Runs flowing into it between the points aforesaid, such land lying and being in the county of Sampson. And to that end the said company shall have the authority, under the provisions of this act, to cut a canal along any of said streams; to widen, deepen and straighten the present runs; to throw up dams when necessary to protect their work, not, however, ponding back the water upon any land to its damage, and to do any and all other work necessary for the complete construction of such canals.

Sec. 3. That the officers of this company shall be a president, secretary and treasurer, and a board of twelve directors, including the president and secretary, who shall be president and secretary of such board, and shall be annually elected in regular meeting, and shall hold their offices for one year and until their successors are elected; shall receive such compensation (if any) as the company shall determine. They shall determine the benefits, advantages and drainages to all low or wet lands effected by it, and the actual and the entire cost of the work, the entire cost to be the actual cost, with all damages added, and what proportional of such entire cost each member ought to pay, considering his benefits; they shall also determine the number of acres of swamp and wet lands owned by each to be affected by the work, and such other matters as tend to show the entire cost of the work, and levied upon each stockholder being in proportion to his stock, and the whole amount to be raised in any one year, by any one stockholder, not to exceed forty cents per acre on the whole number of acres of swamp or wet lands owned by him and to be benefited. All levies and assessments under this section, when registered in the register's office of Sampson county, shall be a lien upon the swamp and wet lands aforesaid of the person liable for such assessment, and may be enforced in any court having jurisdiction.

Sec. 7. The company shall have the right to enforce by civil action in the superior court of Sampson county the collection of a just, fair and equitable compensation for the drainage of any swamp or wet lands lying on the stream aforesaid of any person who shall refuse or fail to become a member of said corporation, and who shall refuse to pay the same for ninety days after the canal shall have been cut through the lands of said person so refusing, and notice to and demands made of such person by the company for such compensation. At the appearance term, Reference, the court shall order a reference to three commissioners, one to be selected by each of the parties and a third by the court, or all by the court in case of neglect of either party to name one, who, after being duly sworn to do impartial justice between the parties, shall view and carefully examine the land of the defendant alleged to be benefited by the work of the plaintiff, and such work, and all matters tending to show the benefit and advantages to defendant's land, and at what cost the plaintiff has effected the same, considering which benefits and cost the commissioners shall determine the amount which the plaintiff ought to receive of the defendant. The court shall proceed to judgment according to the course of the court and the law. All judgments under this section, duly docketed, shall be a lien upon such land of the defendant as shall have been adjudged to be benefited by the cutting of said canal.

Sec. 8. That the ownership of the shares of stock shall be indissolubly annexed to the freeholder of the land benefited of such stockholder, and so shall pass with said freehold, by descent and by purchase, into whose hands said lands shall come; and in case a part of said freehold shall pass as aforesaid, then a part of said stock, in proportion to the number of acres of land passing, shall pass and be annexed, as aforesaid, to such part. And all attempts and contrivances to convey said share otherwise than as aforesaid shall be void.

Sec. 9. If any owner of lands to be benefited by the work herein contemplated shall be an infant, such infant shall have all the rights and privileges of a corporator under this act, so long as he or his guardian shall pay all dues and lawful assessments made against him, the same to be exercised by his guardian. But no process shall issue to sell the land of any infant, whether such infant has become a member of this corporation or not, until such infant shall arrive at the full age of twenty-one, and for one year thereafter.

Sec. 10. Any person or persons owning any land which shall be damaged by the said work, shall be entitled to prosecute an action in the superior court of Sampson county within one year from the doing or accruing of such damage. At the appearance term the court shall order a reference, as is prescribed in section seven of this act. The commissioners shall view the land of the plaintiff and examine all matters tending to show that the said land has been damaged, and make a report of all such matters, with the amount which, in their judgment, the plaintiff ought to recover. The court shall proceed to judgment according to the course of the court.

Sec. 11. In case any state land be drained or improved by the drainage contemplated by this act, then the said company shall have the right, by the payment of the prices for state lands at any time within one year after such drainage or improvement, to receive from the state a grant for the same.

And a copy of said complaint shall be served with the summons upon each of the parties owning lands as aforesaid, or their agents, in the manner prescribed by law for the service of process in other special proceedings.

Sec. 3. After all the parties interested, or their heirs, their agents or legal representatives, shall have been notified at least ten (10) days, the said court shall appoint five (5) disinterested freeholders as commissioners who, after being duly sworn, shall view the lands already enhanced in value or to be increased in value by said canal or its tributaries, and also all lands or mills which have been or may be damaged by said canal or its tributaries, and they shall estimate the value of the benefits done or to be done to the lands of each of such parties as well as the damage done or to be done to such parties as may thereby be injured. In making the estimates of benefits under this section said commissioners shall take into consideration:

1st. The number of acres of each person drained or to be drained, and the value thereof.

2d. The increased value of said lands, and the costs and expenses of drainage.

3d. And shall charge each tract of said lands according to its increased value and benefit derived from the drainage, with the proportional part of the costs and expenses of constructing said canal and its tributaries, including such damages as ought justly to be paid by said corporation for injuries done or to be done to mills, &c., as is contemplated in this act.

Sec. 4. The said commissioners shall as soon as practicable make a written report of their proceedings to the superior court of the county of Cumberland, and the same shall be confirmed by said court unless good cause be shown to the contrary, and thereupon said court shall file said reports and enter up judgment severally against each of the parties benefited as aforesaid for such sums as may be charged in said report and assessed against them respectively, giving credit to each for all payments heretofore made by him to said corporation since the commencement of said work. And the said judgments, when entered up as aforesaid, shall constitute a valid lien upon the several tracts of land as aforesaid, and shall have the same force and effect in law as similar assessments have in special proceedings to secure equality in the partition of land among tenants in common, and shall in like manner be enforced. And the said liens shall charge said lands in the hands of the original owners and all persons claiming under them. If any one of said parties to said special proceeding shall object to the confirmation of the report of said commissioners, he may appeal to the next regular term of Cumberland superior court upon giving bond with satisfactory security to secure the costs of said appeal, and thereupon the assessment against him, together with his objection to the confirmation thereof, shall be certified and docketed upon the trial docket of Cumberland superior court, to be tried before a judge and a jury according to the course and practice of the superior court.

Sec. 5. In like manner any person who deems himself damaged by reason of the construction of said canal or any of its tributaries, may in the following manner and not otherwise, commence and prosecute a special proceeding in Cumberland superior court against said corporation, setting forth in his complaint under oath:

1st. The situation of his property (lands, or mills, or both,) alleged to be damaged, and the estimated value thereof prior to the cutting of said canal or its tributaries.

2d. The actual damage sustained.

3d. Such other facts as may be material, and a copy of said complaint with the summons shall be served upon the president or other proper officer of said corporation.

Sec. 6. After the expiration of ten (10) days from the time of serving said complaint the said superior court shall appoint five (5) disinterested freeholders, who, after being duly sworn, shall view the premises alleged to be damaged and make a written report of their proceedings to said court, which report shall be confirmed unless good cause be shown to the contrary, and judgment shall be entered up against said corporation for the amount of the damages so assessed against it. Said judgment shall constitute a lien upon all the assets real and personal belonging to said corporation, to be enforced in said superior court as other liens. If either the party commencing said special proceeding or said corporation shall be dissatisfied and object to the confirmation of the report of said commissioners, the party so objecting may appeal to the next regular term of Cumberland superior court upon giving bond with approved security sufficient to secure the costs of such appeal, and thereupon the said report and the exceptions thereto shall be certified and docketed upon the trial docket of Cumberland superior court, and the issues thereby raised shall be tried before a judge and a jury according to the course and practice of the superior court.

Sec. 7. The commissioners, or a majority of them, whose appointment is provided for in this act, shall give at least five (5) days' notice to the parties interested in their action and report, of the time and place of meeting for the discharge of the duties imposed upon them, and shall hear and consider any proper evidence which may be submitted to them by the parties interested, and for that purpose may have the power to issue subpoenas for witnesses.

Sec. 8. The said commissioners shall for their service be allowed two (2) dollars per day for the time actually engaged, and may call to their assistance a competent surveyor at a reasonable compensation, and said expenses shall be taxed as other costs in special proceedings.

Sec. 9. The net surplus money or property of any kind whatever belonging to said corporation at the expiration of its charter, after paying all its just debts and liabilities, shall be divided pro rata among the persons, or their heirs or personal representatives, whose lands may be assessed and charged under the provisions of this act with the contributions of money to construct and complete the said canal and its tributaries, and in making said division of said net surplus, the same shall be apportioned according to the amount paid to said corporation upon said assessments, and to that extent each person whose lands shall be assessed as aforesaid shall be deemed a stockholder in said corporation.

Sec. 10. All laws and clauses of laws coming in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

And whereas, the latter corporation has recovered from both state and county large sums refunded under decisions of the supreme court on account of illegal assessments:

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Sec. 4. The lists so taken shall be for each year according to the form furnished by the auditor for that year, and shall be returned as the lists for one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine are returned, and the said corporations, or either of them, shall have all the rights and privileges in contesting the correctness of the listing or assessment of any one year which were allowed under the laws of that year.

Sec. 5. No greater rate of taxation shall be imposed for any one year than that which was laid under the assessment of the year for which said tax lists are revised and corrected, and the said corporations, or either of them, shall have full credit on the amount assessed for any one year for whatever amount they or either of them may have heretofore paid for that year.

Sec. 6. The lists shall take the same course and shall be collected in like manner with the other lists for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and the sheriff of Alamance is hereby directed and invested with all the power and authority to collect and pay over said taxes as he shall have in the case of the tax lists of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine and under the laws thereof.

Sec. 28. Sec. 30. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the clerk of the superior court of the county in which such insane person was resident, that the conditions of the bond are not faithfully complied with, the insane person shall be sent to the asylum by such clerk of the superior court, unless some other responsible and discreet friend will undertake to fulfill the duties of said obligation, and whenever said insane person shall be sent back to the asylum, he or she shall not be delivered on any new bond of the defaulting obligor.

Sec. 31. All dues to the asylum from any and all sources shall be paid into the public treasury, and the said asylum shall hereafter be supported by appropriations from the public treasury. It shall be the duty of any person having the legal custody of the estate of such insane person to supply the funds for his or her support in the asylum in which he or she may be placed during his or her stay therein, and so long as they may be sufficient for that purpose, over and beyond maintaining and supporting those persons who may be legally dependent on the estate as aforesaid.

Sec. 43. It shall be the duty of said justices to report the proceedings in all such cases to the clerk of the superior court of the county in which such insane person may reside or be domiciled, as provided for in this chapter.

AN ACT TO RELIEVE SHERIFFS IN CERTAIN CASES, AND TO PREVENT THE SACRIFICE OF PROPERTY AT EXECUTION SALES.

Preamble.

Whereas, there has been great uncertainty in the law touching the duties of sheriffs under executions issued on debts contracted prior to the adoption of the constitution, and particularly because of section seventeen, chapter fifty-five, Battle's Revisal, making it a misdemeanor for an officer to make any levy without laying off the homestead, and in consequence thereof many sheriffs have failed to execute process coming into their hands and make due return thereof, and have incurred penalties thereby; and whereas, there are a great many executions in the hands of sheriffs which if executed immediately and all at the same time will force the sale of property at merely nominal sums and cause great distress to the people without at all satisfying the claims of the judgment creditors:

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SEC. 1. That all sheriffs who have heretofore failed to make a levy on property under execution issued on judgments obtained on debts contracted prior to the adoption of the constitution of one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, be and they are hereby relieved of and from any and all penalties and liabilities arising from or because of such failure as aforesaid.

SEC. 2. This act shall suspend all laws in conflict therewith, and shall take effect immediately on its ratification.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE INTERNAL IMPROVEMENT OF CRAVEN AND BEAUFORT COUNTIES.

to the head of navigation on Blount's or Durham's creek, in the county of Beaufort, the distance across only being two and one-half miles, which canal would connect the waters of the Neuse with those of the Pamlico or Tar rivers, thus reducing the distance of water communication between Newbern and Washington from two hundred and thirteen miles to thirty-eight; which said canal would not only be of great benefit to agriculture by draining vast tracts of swamp land, much of which is owned by the state, but would materially advance commerce by giving a cheap transportation to a vast extent of country; therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That the county commissioners of the counties of Craven and Beaufort shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to cut a canal of such width and depth as in their discretion may seem best adapted to their purposes from some point at or near the head of navigation upon Little Swift creek, by the most direct and feasible route either to the head of navigation on Blount or Durham's creek, in the county of Beaufort.
