CONSTITUTION
OF THE
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

PREAMBLE.

We, the people of the State of North Carolina, grateful to Almighty God, the Sovereign Ruler of nations, for the preservation of the American Union, and the existence of our civil, political and religious liberties, and acknowledging our dependence upon Him for the continuance of those blessings to us and our posterity, do, for the more certain security thereof, and for the better government of this State, ordain and establish this constitution:

ARTICLE I.

DECLARATION OF RIGHTS.

That the great, general and essential principles of liberty and free government may be recognized and established, and that the relations of this State to the Union and government of the United States, and those of the people of this State to the rest of the American people may be defined and affirmed, we do declare:

Section 1. That we hold it to be self-evident that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, the enjoyment of the fruits of their own labor, and the pursuit of happiness.

The equality and rights of men.

Sec. 2. That all political power is vested in, and derived from, the people; all government of right originates from the people, is founded upon their will only, and is instituted solely for the good of the whole.

Sec. 3. That the people of this State have the inherent, sole and exclusive right of regulating the internal government and police thereof, and of altering and abolishing their constitution and form of government whenever it may be necessary for their safety and happiness; but every such right should be exercised in pursuance of law, and consistently with the Constitution of the United States.

Sec. 4. That this State shall ever remain a member of the American Union; that the people thereof are part of the American Nation; that there is no right on the part of the State to secede, and that all attempts, from whatever source or upon whatever pretext, to dissolve said Union, or to sever said nation, ought to be resisted with the whole power of the State.

Sec. 5. That every citizen of this State owes paramount allegiance to the Constitution and Government of the United States, and that no law or ordinance of the State in contravention or subversion thereof, can have any binding force.

Sec. 6. The State shall never assume or pay, or authorize the collection of any debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; nor shall the General Assembly assume or pay, or authorize the collection of any tax to pay, either directly or indirectly, expressed or implied, any debt or bond incurred, or issued, by authority of the convention of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, nor any debt or bond, incurred or issued by the legislature of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, either at its special session of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, or at its regular sessions of the years one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight and one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine and one thousand eight hundred and seventy except the bonds issued to fund the interest on the old debt of the State unless the proposing to pay the same shall have first been submitted to the people and by them ratified by the vote of a majority of all the qualified voters of the State, at a regular election held for that purpose.

Sec. 7. No man or set of men are entitled to exclusive or separate emoluments or privileges from the community but in consideration of public services.

Sec. 8. The legislative, executive and supreme judicial powers of the government ought to be forever separate and distinct from each other.

Sec. 9. All power of suspending laws, or the execution of laws, by any authority, without the consent of the representatives of the people, is injurious to their rights, and ought not to be exercised.

Sec. 10. All elections ought to be free.

Sec. 11. In all criminal prosecutions, every man has the right to be informed of the accusation against him and to confront the accusers and witnesses with other testimony, and to have counsel for his defence, and not be compelled to give evidence against himself or to pay costs, jail fees, or necessary witness fees of the defence, unless found guilty.

Sec. 12. No person shall be put to answer any criminal charge, except as hereinafter allowed, but by indictment, presentment or impeachment.

Sec. 13. No person shall be convicted of any crime but by the unanimous verdict of a jury of good and lawful men in open court. The legislature may, however, provide other means of trial for petty misdemeanors, with the right of appeal.
Sec. 14. Excessive bail should not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel or unusual punishments inflicted.

Sec. 15. General warrants, whereby any officer or messenger may be commanded to search suspected places, without evidence of the act committed, or to seize any person or persons not named, whose offence is not particularly described and supported by evidence, are dangerous to liberty and ought not to be granted.

Sec. 16. There shall be no imprisonment for debt in this State, except in cases of fraud.

Sec. 17. No person ought to be taken, imprisoned or dispossessed of his freehold, liberties or privileges, or outlawed or exiled, or in any manner deprived of his life, liberty, or property, but by the law of the land.

Sec. 18. Every person restrained of his liberty is entitled to a remedy to enquire into the lawfulness thereof, and to remove the same, if unlawful; and such remedy ought not to be denied or delayed.

Sec. 19. In all controversies at law respecting property, the ancient mode of trial by jury is one of the best securities of the rights of the people, and ought to remain sacred and inviolable.

Sec. 20. The freedom of the press is one of the great bulwarks of liberty, and therefore ought never to be restrained, but every individual shall be held responsible for the abuse of the same.

Sec. 21. The privileges of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended.

Sec. 22. As political rights and privileges are not dependent upon, or modified by property, therefore no property qualification ought to affect the right to vote or hold office.

Sec. 23. The people of the State ought not to be taxed, or made subject to the payment of any impost or duty, without the consent of themselves, or their representatives in General Assembly, freely given.
Constitution of North Carolina.

Sec. 24. A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed; and, as standing armies in time of peace, are dangerous to liberty, they ought not to be kept up, and the military should be kept under strict subordination to, and governed by, the civil power. Nothing herein contained shall justify the practice of carrying concealed weapons, or prevent the legislature from enacting penal statutes against said practice.

Sec. 25. The people have a right to assemble together to consult for their common good, to instruct their representatives, and to apply to the Legislature for redress of grievances. But secret political societies are dangerous to the liberties of a free people, and should not be tolerated.

Sec. 26. All men have a natural and unalienated right to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of their own consciences, and no human authority should, in any case whatever, control or interfere with the rights of conscience.

Sec. 27. The people have the right to the privilege of education, and it is the duty of the State to guard and maintain that right.

Sec. 28. For redress of grievances, and for amending and strengthening the laws, elections should be often held.

Sec. 29. A frequent recurrence to fundamental principles is absolutely necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty.

Sec. 30. No hereditary emoluments, privileges or honors ought to be granted or conferred in this State.

Sec. 31. Perpetuities and monopolies are contrary to the genius of a free State, and ought not to be allowed.

Sec. 32. Retrospective laws, punishing acts committed before the existence of such laws, and by them only declared criminal, are oppressive, unjust and incompatible with liberty, wherefore no ex post facto law ought to be made. No law taxing retrospectively sales, purchases, or other acts previously done, ought to be passed.
Constitution of North Carolina.

Sec. 33. Slavery and involuntary servitude, otherwise than for crime, whereof the parties shall have been duly convicted, shall be, and are hereby, forever prohibited within the State.

Sec. 34. The limits and boundaries of the State shall be and remain as they now are.

Sec. 35. All courts shall be open; and every person for an injury done him in his lands, goods, person or reputation, shall have remedy by due course of law, and right and justice administered without sale, denial or delay.

Sec. 36. No soldier shall in time of peace be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war, but in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 37. This enumeration of rights shall not be construed to impair or deny others retained by the people; and all powers not herein delegated remain with the people.

ARTICLE II.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

Section 1. The Legislative authority shall be vested in two distinct branches, both dependent on the people, to-wit: A Senate and House of Representatives.

Sec. 2. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet biennially on the first Wednesday after the first Monday in January next after their election; and when assembled shall be denominated the General Assembly. Neither House shall proceed upon public business unless a majority of all the members are actually present.

Sec. 3. The Senate shall be composed of fifty Senators, biennially chosen by ballot.
Sec. 4. The Senate Districts shall be so altered by the General Assembly, at the first session after the return of every enumeration by order of Congress, that each Senate District shall contain, as near as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens and Indians not taxed, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory; and no county shall be divided in the formation of a Senate District, unless such county shall be equitably entitled to two or more Senators.

Sec. 5. The House of Representatives shall be composed of one hundred and twenty Representatives, biennially chosen by ballot, to be elected by the counties respectively, according to their population, and each county shall have at least one representative in the House of Representatives, although it may not contain the requisite ratio of representation; this apportionment shall be made by the General Assembly at the respective times and periods when the Districts for the Senate are hereinbefore directed to be laid off.

Sec. 6. In making the apportionment in the House of Representatives, the ratio of representation shall be ascertained by dividing the amount of the population of the State, exclusive of that comprehended within those counties which do not severally contain the one hundred and twentieth part of the population of the State, by the number of Representatives, less the number assigned to such counties; and in ascertaining the number of the population of the State, aliens and Indians not taxed shall not be included. To each county containing the said ratio and not twice the said ratio, there shall be assigned one Representative; to each county containing twice but not three times the said ratio, there shall be assigned two Representatives, and so on progressively, and then the remaining Representatives shall be assigned severally to the counties having the largest fractions.
Constitution of North Carolina.

Section 7. Each member of the Senate shall not be less than twenty-five years of age, shall have resided in the State as a citizen two years, and shall have usually resided in the District for which he is chosen, one year immediately preceding his election.

Section 8. Each member of the House of Representatives shall be a qualified elector of the State, and shall have resided in the county for which he is chosen, for one year immediately preceding his election.

Section 9. In the election of all officers, whose appointment shall be conferred upon the General Assembly by the Constitution, the vote shall be viva voce.

Section 10. The General Assembly shall have power to pass general laws regulating divorce and alimony, but shall not have power to grant a divorce or secure alimony in any individual case.

Section 11. The General Assembly shall not have power to pass any private law to alter the name of any person, or to legitimate any person not born in lawful wedlock, or to restore to the rights of citizenship any person convicted of an infamous crime, but shall have power to pass general laws regulating the same.

Section 12. The General Assembly shall not pass any private law, unless it shall be made to appear thirty days' notice of application to pass such a law shall have been given, under such direction, and in such manner as shall be provided by law.

Sec. 14. If any person liable to be charged with taxes shall refuse to answer any questions respecting his property, or shall refuse to fill and swear to his return, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, liable to be punished by fine not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days, and it shall be the duty of the list-taker to have the offender prosecuted. And every list-taker and county commissioner shall have power to send for persons and papers, and to examine witnesses and to administer oaths.

Auditor to provide forms and sheriffs to distribute:

Sec. 15. The auditor of the state shall prepare a form to be used in listing property for taxation, and each year shall furnish the sheriff of each county on or before the fifteenth day of May, with a sufficient number of printed

Sec. 16. The list-taker shall, on or before the second Monday in July in each year, return the tax lists to the clerk of the commissioners. He shall also return a list of the property in the township not given in for taxation, with a description and valuation thereof, made by himself, and the names of the occupant and supposed owner, and a list of the taxable polls of the township not given in for taxation. The returns so made shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested, and the clerk shall give to any person desiring it a copy of so much thereof as relates to his property, on paying a fee of ten cents.

Oath of list taker making returns:

Sec. 17. The list-taker, upon making return to the board of commissioners of the list and statements, shall take and subscribe an oath to the effect following, which may be administered by the chairman of the board of commissioners or any officer authorized to administer oaths: "I, ..........., list-taker of ..........., in the county of ........, do solemnly swear that the value of all real and personal property, moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint stock companies or otherwise, of which a statement has been made to me by the persons required by law to list the same is truly returned, as set forth in such statement; that in every case where by law I have been required to ascertain the items and value of the real and personal property, moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint stock companies, or otherwise, of any person, company or corporation, I have diligently, and by the best means in my power, endeavored to ascertain the real value thereof; and that I verily believe a full list with the value thereof, estimated by the rules prescribed by law, is set forth in the annexed returns; that in no case have I knowingly omitted to receive of any person of whom by law I was required to receive a statement of the description and value of real and personal property, or of the amount of moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint stock companies, or otherwise, which he was required to list, or in any way connived at any violation or evasion of any of the requirements prescribed by law in relation to the listing or valuation of property, moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint stock companies, or otherwise, of any kind, for taxation; and that I have returned to the board of commissioners the original returns made to me, or which I have made, or which by law I am required to procure and return." Sec. 18. The board of commissioners of each county, after notice in one newspaper or by posters put up, shall meet on the second Monday in August, and revise the tax lists and valuation reported to them, and complete the list by computing the tax payable by each person and affixing the same opposite his name. They shall sit for one day at least, and when necessary shall sit until the revision is complete, and shall hear all persons objecting to the valuation of their property, or to the amount of tax charged against them. They shall have power to summon and examine witnesses, and shall correct the lists of the list-takers as may be right and just, and so that the valuation of similar property throughout the county shall be as near uniform as possible. They shall have power, after notifying the owner or agent, to raise the valuation upon such property as they shall deem unreasonably low. The said board of commissioners on tendering the prescribed oath may take the lists of any person applying to list his taxables, at any meeting of the commissioners held on or before the second Monday in July upon his paying the clerk twenty-five cents for recording the same. The commissioners shall ascertain the value of his property by the examination of witnesses or otherwise and insert it in the abstract, and without satisfactory excuse they may add to the tax of the person so allowed to give in, five per centum on the regular amount of his tax for that year.

If the board of commissioners shall find that he has cause for complaint they shall direct their clerk to render a true account thereof, and the account thus rendered, certified by the clerk, shall be transmitted to the auditor, who shall credit the sheriff with the overcharge in his settlement for that year.

Application for relief after settlement:

Sec. 20. If the application for relief be made to the commissioners after the sheriff shall have settled the accounts with the state and county, the commissioners shall carefully examine the case, and if in their opinion the applicant is entitled to relief, shall direct the clerk to record on the record-book the cause of complaint and the amount which, in the opinion of the commissioners, should be refunded to the applicant. The clerk shall make out a copy of such record, certify the same under the seal of the commissioners, and deliver it to the applicant, who shall pay the clerk a fee of twenty-five cents. Such copy shall be transmitted to the auditor of the state, who, on finding the proceedings in conformity with the requirements of this order, shall issue a warrant on the treasurer of the state for the amount of state tax specified. The treasurer shall, on presentation of such warrant, pay to the holder of the same the amount to be refunded.

Sec. 22. In all cases where the board of commissioners shall have omitted, or in any future year shall omit to enter upon the duplicate of their county any land or town lots situated within their county, subject to taxation, it shall be their duty, when they enter the same on the duplicate of the next succeeding year, to add to the taxes of the current year the simple taxes of each and every preceding year in which such land or town lots shall so have escaped taxation, with twenty-five per centum in addition thereto, as far back as the said lands have escaped taxation. Where no assessment has been made for the Assessment years in which said property has so escaped taxation, the commissioners shall be authorized to value and assess the same for those years.
The commissioners may exempt from poll tax:

Sec. 23. The board of commissioners shall have power to exempt any person from the payment of a poll tax on account of both poverty and infirmity, and when such persons have been once exempted they shall not be required to renew their application unless the commissioners shall revoke the exemption. When such exemption shall have been made, the clerk of the commissioners shall furnish the person with a certificate of such action, and upon exhibiting said certificate to the list taker annually, the person to whom it was issued shall not be required to list his poll; but the list-taker shall enter in the column intended for the poll the word exempt, and the poll shall not be charged in computing the list. The clerk shall deliver to the sheriff a list of all persons so exempted, with the amount of taxes charged against him, and the sheriff shall be entitled to a deduction of such taxes in any settlement he may be required to make.

Copies of revised tax list, how distributed:

Sec. 36. If no one will or shall offer to pay the amount of taxes for a less number of acres than the whole number of acres in said tract, then the sheriff shall bid off the property for the county, and upon proving the fact and tendering to the chairman of the board of commissioners a deed to the county for the property, duly proven before the clerk of the superior court of the county, shall have credit for the amount of such tax and fee paid for registration. The deed shall be deposited without delay by the said chairman with the register of deeds and recorded by him, for which he shall be allowed a fee of twenty-five cents. The property so purchased by the county shall be under the control of the board of commissioners of the county, but may be redeemed as hereinafter prescribed; and the said board shall order the sheriff to pay the state treasurer the state tax due thereon out of the county funds in his hands, and on the payment thereof the said treasurer shall issue his certificate to the said sheriff; and the said board shall cause an allowance to be made to the said sheriff in his settlement with the treasurer of the county for the amount of state tax and costs.
The delinquent, his agent or attorney, may redeem the property within twelve months:

The delinquent, his agent or attorney, may retain possession of the property for twelve months after sale, and within that time redeem it by paying or tendering the purchaser the amount paid by him, and twenty-five per centum in addition thereto. If the purchaser shall accept the sum so tendered, he shall give a receipt therefor. If he shall refuse, or cannot be found in the county, the delinquent may pay the same to the clerk of the superior court for the use of the purchaser, and the clerk shall give a receipt therefor. Such payment shall be equivalent to payment to the purchaser. The delinquent, his agent or attorney, may cause the receipt of the purchaser or of the clerk to be registered, and the register of deeds shall refer to such registration on the margin of his registration of the receipts from the sheriff to the purchaser. After the payment to the purchaser or to the clerk for his use, as aforesaid, all rights under the purchaser shall cease. The deed from the sheriff to the purchaser shall be registered within six months, and when so registered shall convey to the grantee all the estate in the quantity of land for which the said purchaser bid, which the delinquent, his agent or attorney, had at the time of the sale for taxes; and such deed shall, in any action at law, for the recovery of the land, be prima facie evidence that the sheriff has complied with all the requirements of the law in making the sale for taxes.

Redemption, reconveyance:

Sec. 39. But should the said delinquent fail to redeem the said land within twelve months from the day of sale thereof, then the said board of commissioners shall order the said sheriff, after notice given as prescribed in sub section three of section thirty-four, to sell the said land to the highest bidder for cash and to pay the proceeds of sale, less five per centum for his commissions, to the county treasurer, the one-half of the net proceeds thereof to the common school fund and the other half to the county fund. Every deed made to the county authorities for land sold for taxes shall be prima facie evidence in any action at law for said land, that the sheriff in making sale of the land, has complied with all the requirements of the law.

prescribed by this act for such settlement, and to take the oath required in his settlements, and pay the amount due to the treasurer, and exhibit his receipt in full to the auditor, the auditor shall forthwith report to the treasurer the account of such sheriff or officer, and furnish him with a copy of the official bond of said officer and his sureties, deducting therefrom nothing for commissions or insolvents, but adding thereto one thousand dollars, and ten per centum of the amount of taxes with which said sheriff is charged, for the amount of taxes supposed not to appear in the list transmitted by the clerk, and if the whole amount be not paid, the treasurer, on motion of the solicitor of the second judicial district, in the superior court of Wake county, before the clerk thereof, within twenty days after the default shall have occurred, shall recover judgment against him and his sureties, without other notice than is given by the delinquency of the officer. And to the end that their obligations and names may be known, the clerk of the superior court shall, on or before the second Monday in October in each year, transmit to the auditor a copy, certified under seal of the court, of the bond of the sheriff and his sureties, upon pain, for his default, of forfeiting to the state one thousand dollars, which the treasurer shall, and is hereby specially charged to collect in like manner and at such times as is provided in this section. RESOLUTION OF INSTRUCTION TO OUR SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS.

Whereas, It appears there yet remains unpaid some just and equitable claims under various acts of congress against the United States by and in behalf of the surviving widows, or children, of soldiers of the revolutionary war, for military services rendered said United States in said war by their husbands or fathers, some of which claims, though once regularly in suit upon the docket of the court of claims, and other courts and departments of the government of said United States, but having gone off of said dockets under the statutes of limitations during the late war between the states for want of prosecution, (it being impossible during that period for some of such claimants to prosecute their claims before said court or departments), and said claims being now barred by said statute of limitations as aforesaid;
And whereas, It is but honorable, right and just that the government should not only pay its obligations, but should ever hold in grateful remembrance the children of those patriotic soldiers, by promptly paying off its indebtedness to them for the valiant services of their fathers, some of which children are now in poverty and want; therefore,

Resolved by the House of Representatives of North Carolina, the Senate concurring: That our senators and representatives in congress be and they are hereby instructed to use their influence and utmost efforts to pass a bill removing all statutes of limitations from all such claims, and restore them in statu quo to their respective places on said dockets of said courts or departments as aforesaid, before which they were formally pending, to the end that full investigation may be made and the respective rights of such claimants speedily determined.

Resolved further, That we do respectfully request the legislatures of other states of the union now in session or hereafter to assemble, to pass similar resolutions, to be sent to their senators and representatives in congress, in order that there may be a united effort made before congress to pass such a bill as above mentioned, that these long delayed claims of citizens against the government may be speedily and finally adjusted.

Resolved further, That the secretary of state be required to have one hundred copies of these resolutions printed, and to furnish each of our senators and representatives in congress a copy, to send also a copy to each of the governors of the respective states and territories of the union, with a request that they may lay them before their legislatures as aforesaid.
