CHAP. XXV.

An Act to Incorporate a Company for the purpose of erecting a navigable Canal from Roanoke river to Meheririn river, and from the waters of Chowan river in this State, to some of the waters of James river in the state of Virginia, or to the Dismal Swamp Canal.

WHEREAS the opening of a navigable Canal from Roanoke river to Meheririn river, and from the waters of Chowan river in this state, to some of the waters of James river in the state of Virginia, or to the Dismal Swamp Canal, so as to form by the most practicable plan a water communication between the waters of Chowan river in this State, to some of the waters of James river in the state of Virginia, or to the Dismal Swamp Canal, is an object of great importance to the interior commerce of a large portion of this state and of Virginia; and many persons in both states are willing to subscribe large sums of money for the purpose of effecting those beneficial works, and it is just and proper that they, their heirs and assigns, should be empowered to receive reasonable tolls in satisfaction for the money advanced by them in carrying the said works into execution, and the risk they run:

Whereas by a resolution of the General Assembly of Virginia, passed on the thirteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eleven, eleven commissioners were appointed, any three of whom were empowered to wait on this General Assembly, to enter into reasonable stipulations relative to opening the canals aforesaid; subject, however, to the approval, alteration or rejection of the respective Legislatures of Virginia and North-Carolina: and Peachy R. Gilmer, George Tucker, and Isaac H. Cole, Esquires, three of the said commissioners, have accordingly attended the present General Assembly, and on a conference with the said gentlemen by a joint committee of the Senate and House of Commons of the State of Virginia, the following stipulations have been mutually agreed upon and approved by the said commissioners, on the part of Virginia, and by the said committee of both Houses, to wit:—First—The state of Virginia agrees that no restriction, duty or impost shall be laid on any commodity, which is the growth, produce or manufacture of the state of North-Carolina, brought through the said canals or either of them, for sale or exportation, and that the same may be sold or exported without re-inspection. Secondly—The state of Virginia agrees that the waters of Roanoke and all its branches, and all other waters communicating with Albemarle Sound, as far as the same are in Virginia, shall be forever considered as a common high-way, free for the use and navigation of vessels belonging to the state of North-Carolina or any of its citizens, and that they shall not be therein subject to the payment of any toll or charge whatever, imposed for the purpose of raising revenue. Thirdly—The state of North-Carolina agrees that the waters of Roanoke river and all its branches, from the place from which the canal shall be cut, and all the other waters communicating with Albemarle Sound, as far as the said navigation proposed to be opened by this act, are in North-Carolina, shall be forever considered as a common high-way, free for the use and navigation of vessels belonging to the state of Virginia or any of its citizens, and that they shall not be therein subject to the payment of any toll or charge whatever, imposed for the purpose of raising revenue. Fourthly—The state of North-Carolina agrees that no restriction, duty or impost shall be laid on any commodity which is the growth, produce or manufacture of the state of Virginia, passing through the aforesaid waters or any of them, to be conveyed through the canals or any branch or canal running through the said canal or either of them, for sale or exportation, and that the same may be sold or exported without duty. In those articles where it is expressed that no duty or impost is to be laid for the purpose of raising revenue, it is not to be understood that the imposition of tolls for the purpose of improving the navigation of the said waters is prevented. Fifthly—The said states agree to appoint each three commissioners, who shall have power and authority to employ an Engineer, or some person of competent skill and ability, to survey the country through which it may be necessary to conduct the navigation, under the direction of the said commissioners or a majority of them, and to lay before them plans and sections of the different routes, and estimates in detail of the different parts of the several works; upon which the said commissioners or a majority of them shall have power and authority to determine on that route which, all things considered, shall be deemed most eligible: And for the purpose of compensating the said Engineer, and publishing the before-mentioned plans and estimates, the said states agree that they may receive such sums of money as individuals may be disposed to advance towards defraying the expense of employing such an engineer, and publishing a report and estimates, to be paid out of the first subscriptions to the Roanoke Canal Company; and that the receipt of the said Commissioners or their agents, shall be considered as a payment of the amount therein mentioned, towards the aforesaid shares which the holder of such receipt may have subscribed. Sixthly—As soon as the before-mentioned Commissioners shall have determined on the most eligible route for the proposed canals, and have ascertained their probable cost, the amount of the said company shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each; and the said Commissioners or a majority of them, shall have power and authority to apportion the said shares among the counties of Patrick, Henry, Pittsylvania, Halifax, Mecklenburg, Brunswick, Greensville, Southampton, Botetourt, Bedford, Franklin, Campbell and Charlotte, and the Borough of Norfolk, in the State of Virginia; and the counties of Surry, Stokes, Rockingham, Caswell, Person, Granville, Warren, Halifax, Northampton, Hertford, Bertie and Gates, in the State of North-Carolina; making the said apportionment as near as may be, according to their respective distances from market and population—Provided, That no citizen of one county shall be deemed ineligible from subscribing in any other county, nor any one of a state from subscribing in the other. Seventy-First: And the said States agree that they will pass laws, prohibiting under reasonable penalties, their respective citizens from impeding in manner the navigation of the river Roanoke and Dan, and that there shall be a free, unobstructed channel left throughout the whole course of the said rivers, in the deepest part of the same, not less than thirty feet wide. Lastly—the citizens of each of the said two States may have the use of the inspection of the other for the purpose of re-inspecting any damaged commodities which have passed through the said canals or either of them, on paying the price of the labour of re-inspection, and no more. And whereas this General Assembly doth of opinion that the said stipulations are made upon just and mutual principles of the interest of both States, BE it therefore enacted, That the said stipulations and conditions are hereby approved, confirmed and ratified, by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and that every part thereof shall be obligatory on this State and the citizens thereof, and shall be forever faithfully and inviolably preserved and kept by this General Assembly, and all its citizens, according to the true intent and meaning thereof. II. And be it further enacted by the General Assembly of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to open books in the counties of Surry, Stokes, Rockingham, Caswell, Person, Granville, Warren, Halifax, Northampton, Hertford, Bertie and Gates, under the management of the following persons, to wit: In Surry, under the management of George Kincoppell; In Stokes, under the management of Thomas Armstrong; In Rockingham, under the management of Mark Harden; in Caswell, under the management of Andrew Harrison, jun.; in Person, under the management of Alexander Cunningham; in Granville, under the management of William Lewis; in Warren, under the management of John Snow; in Halifax, under the management of William E. Webb; in Northampton, under the management of Greene Turner; in Hertford, under the management of William H. Murfree; in Bertie, under the management of Joseph H. Bryon; and in Gates county, under the management of the following persons, to wit: Andrew Cooper; and under the management of such persons and at such places in the before-mentioned counties as shall be appointed in the said Acts, for the receiving and entering subscriptions to the amount proposed to be raised by the Commissioners, for the purpose of accomplishing the said canals; which subscriptions shall be made personally or by a power of attorney: That the said books shall be opened for receiving subscriptions, at such times and places within the several counties, as the Commissioners or a majority of them shall appoint, and continue open for the term of one year, unless the subscription shall be sooner filled up; and at the expiration of the said term, or as soon as the subscription shall be filled up, there shall be a general meeting as aforesaid of the subscribers at Williamsborough, in the state of North-Carolina; of which meeting, notice shall be given by the said managers, or any three of them, in the Gazettes of both the said States, at least one month before the said meeting; and such meeting shall and may be continued from day to day, until the business of the meeting is concluded; and the meeting shall be at the time and place aforesaid, and the said managers shall at the time and place aforesaid, before such of the subscribers as shall meet according to the said notice, the books of subscriptions, and all the papers kept, containing the state of the said subscription; and if one half of the capital sum aforesaid should on examination appear not to have been subscribed, then the said managers are empowered to take and receive subscriptions to make up the deficiency; and a just and true list of all the subscribers, with the sums subscribed by each, shall be made out and returned by the said managers or any four or more of them, under their hands.
LAWS OF NORTH-CAROLINA.
