Laws
of North-Carolina.

At a General Assembly, begun and held at Raleigh, on the Sixteenth Day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve, and in the thirty-seventh year of the Independence of said State.

WILLIAM HAWKINS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

CHAPTER I.

An Act to amend the Militia Laws of this State.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is thereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall not be lawful for the Captain or Commanding Officer of any company of Militia to enroll any free Negro or Mulatto in his company: Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful at all times to enroll a sufficient number of such in any Militia Company as Musicians.

II. Be it further enacted by the authority of the same, That no Captain, Lieutenant, or Ensign of any Militia Company in this State appointed and commissioned by his own consent, shall resign his appointment unless in case of sickness, bodily infirmity or removal out of the bounds of the Company for which he was appointed, until he shall have fulfilled the duties of his said appointment for the space of three years: And if any Commissioned Officer in the Militia of this State now appointed, or who may hereafter be appointed, shall fail to equip himself according to law within twelve months from the passing of this Act, or within the like space from the time of his appointment, such Officer so failing shall forfeit his appointment and commission on a conviction for the same before a Court Martial, and be rendered incapable of holding or exercising any Military Office under the authority of this State for the term of five years thereafter: And if any Commissioned Officer hereafter appointed shall resign within twelve months after his appointment, without having equipped himself according to law—he shall, if a General Officer, forfeit and pay the sum of fifty pounds, to be applied to the use of the division or brigade, as the case may be, to which such officer belongs; if a Colonel Commandant, the sum of twenty-five pounds; if a Major, the sum of fifteen pounds; if a Lieutenant, the sum of five pounds; if an Ensign, the sum of fifty shillings, to be sued for and recovered by the Adjutant of each Regiment in the name of the Governor, to the use of the Regiment; and the forfeitures incurred by the General Officers for breach of this Act, shall be sued for in the name of the Governor by the Adjutant General.

III. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Commandant of each Regiment of Militia within this State, to Muster or cause to be Mustered and Trained the Commissioned Officers of their respective Regiments at such times and places as may be directed by the Brigadier General of each Brigade.

IV. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each and every Major-General of the Militia, to review the several Regiments of Militia and Cavalry within the limits of their respective commands once in every two years, so that they do not both review the same Regiments at the same time, under the same penalties as are now prescribed by law for omissions of that duty.

V. Be it further enacted, That Regimental Courts Martial shall consist of Field Of-cers, Captains and Lieutenants only; Battalion Courts Martial of the Field Officers commanding such Battalion, Captains, Lieutenants and Ensigns; and Company Courts Martial shall be constituted as heretofore.

VI. Be it further enacted, That if any person shall wickedly, willfully and corruptly swear falsely before any Court Martial touching and concerning any matter or thing cognizable before such Court Martial, he shall on conviction thereof be liable to
The pains and penalties of perjury; and in all cases to delinquents and witnesses oaths and affirmations shall be administered by the Judge Advocate or presiding Officer in such Courts Martial.

VII. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each and every commanding Officer of the several Regiments of Militia of this State to exact and enforce regular settlements of all fines collected under the Militia laws from the several Officers charged with the collection thereof, which fines shall be appropriated as heretofore directed by law; and if there be any surplus it shall be laid out in the improvement of Military Music attached to their respective Regiments: And it shall be the duty of each Captain or commanding officer of a company to report in writing, once in every six months to the commanding officer of the Regiment to which he belongs, the amount of fines assessed in his company within that period.

VIII. Be it further enacted, That hereafter it shall and may be lawful to issue executions against the persons of all delinquents for fines assessed against them in the same manner as other writs of Capias ad Satisfacendum are issued.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority of the same, That the Governor for the time being shall have power to prescribe the Uniform to be worn by the General and Field Officers of the Militia of this state, and he shall moreover grant Commissions to the several Aids-de-camp, appointed by the Major Generals and Brigadier Generals of the Militia of this State, to be held during the pleasure of such General Officers, to whom such Aids-de-camp may be attached.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Private Secretaries to the Governors of this State, be and they are hereby exempt from Military duty, except in case of invasion or insurrection: Provided always, And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be in the power of the several Courts Martial within each Regiment (except in time of invasion or insurrection) to exempt from Military duty, all well taught Gun Smiths, who shall follow and prosecute the business of a Gun Smith professionally.

XI. And be it further enacted, That his excellency the Governor, he and he here- by authorised to appoint an Adjutant General, Inspector General, Quartermaster General and Pay-Master General, to such Detachment of Militia as now is or may be hereafter required from this State, by the President of the United States, under the authority of Congress, who shall while in actual service, have the same pay and emoluments, and perform the same duties as Officers of the like grade in the service of the United States.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each Captain or Commanding Officer of a Company of Militia drafted as part of the requisition under the authority of the United States, to receive and enroll in the place and stead of any person drafted to serve in such Company, any able bodied free white citizen to serve as a substitute for such person so drafted.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Commissioned Officer under the grade of a Field Officer, appointed to command in any detachment from this State, under the authority of the United States, shall die, resign, or remove out of the regiment to which he belongs or may belong, it shall be the duty of the Colonel Commandant of the Regiment to which such officer belonged, to recommend a proper person resident within the bounds of such regiment, to be commissioned by the Governor to fill such vacancy.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Colonel Commandant of each Regiment of Militia, now detached or which may hereafter be detached for the service of the United States, shall have power to call together at convenient times and places, all the commissioned officers belonging to his regiment for the purpose of mustering, training and establishing uniformity of discipline among them, and it shall be the duty of such officers to attend such musters when duly notified thereof, and in case of failure without sufficient excuse, shall on conviction before a Court Martial, pay a fine not less than three, nor more than five dollars.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the Adjutant General of this State, appointed or to be appointed by the Governor, by virtue of the sixth Section of the Act of one thousand eight hundred and seven, entitled 'An Act to expedite the organization of the quotas of Militia required from this state,' &c. shall be allowed the sum of two hundred dollars per annum for his services, besides expenses now allowed by law, to be paid half yearly by the Public Treasurer, by a Warrant from the Governor.

XVI. Be it further enacted. And it is hereby declared to be incompatible for any Major General, Brigadier General, or Lieutenant Colonel Commandant to act as Adjutant General of the Militia of this state.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That no Overseer of any Road in this State, shall order the hands under him to work on the Road on the days previously appointed for muster by the Captain of the company to which such hands belong.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Rifle Volunteers in the state shall not be compelled to pay a greater fine for non attendance at their musters, than the Mi-lians of this state, any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIX. And it further enacted, That for the encouragement of Military Music it shall and may be lawful for each Captain of each and every militia company of Infantry in this State, to select from among the persons enrolled in their respective companies, one Fifer and one Drummer, each being properly qualified for their appointment, which selection shall be made under the direction and with the approbation of the Field Officers belonging to the Regiment to which such company is attached; and when such selection of Musicians is made, it shall be the duty of the Field Officers to grant a certificate to such Musicians of their appointment, and the County Court of the county in which such companies respectively are, shall exempt and discharge such Musicians so selected, during their continuance in appointment, from serving on all Juries, from working on the public roads, and from the payment of Poll taxes.
Such Musicians shall be removable at the pleasure of the Field Officers of the regiment to which they severally belong, and shall attend each and every muster of their respective companies, and also the musters of the officers, and perform the duties of their appointment, under the penalty of forty shillings for each and every neglect, to be collected and applied in the same manner that other fines are.

An Act for filling the vacancy in the representation from this State in the Congress of the United States occasioned by the death of General Thomas Blount.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that for the purpose of choosing some person to fill the vacancy in the representation from this State in the Congress of the United States, occasioned by the death of General Thomas Blount, the Governor of this state is authorized to issue writs of Election directed to the Sheriffs or returning officers of the counties of Beaufort, Hyde, Pitt, Edgecombe, Tyrrell, and Washington, commanding them that on a day to be prescribed in said writs they cause Elections to be held in their said counties respectively, at the places established by law for the purpose, to be conducted in the usual and customary manner: And to direct the Sheriffs or returning officers of the said counties to meet at such place for adding and comparing the votes taken in their respective counties and ascertaining the person elected as has heretofore been used for that purpose, and at such time as shall be prescribed by the Governor.

II. And it further enacted, That this act shall be in force immediately after the passage thereof.

An Act to amend the Laws relative to the Supreme Court.

WHEREAS it is of importance to the State that the records of the Supreme Court should be preserved:

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Supreme Court to record in well bound books the papers in the several cases which have been or shall hereafter be decided in said Court, with the Opinions of the Court thereon, and to have said books neatly lettered and numbered; and for this service he shall receive a compensation to be estimated by any three of the Judges, for each term of the Court, the cases of which are hereby directed to be recorded; which compensation shall be paid by the Treasurer upon the certificate of the said Judges.

II. Be it further enacted, That the Clerk's Office of the Supreme Court shall hereaf-fter be kept in the City of Raleigh, and in one of the Rooms of the State House, set apart for the Secretary of State, and the Judges are hereby authorized to hold the said Court in the State House, whenever they think proper to do it.

III. And it be further enacted, That in cases of appeal to the Supreme Court, the appellant shall enter into bond with security to perform the judgment, sentence and decree of the Supreme Court in like manner, and subject to the same restrictions and provisions as are prescribed by law, for regulating appeals from the County to the Superior Courts; and the Supreme Court shall upon motion render judgment against the securities for an appeal in the same way that judgment is rendered against securities for an appeal from the County to the Superior Courts, and execution shall issue from the said Court for the same.

VI. And it be further enacted, That if the appellant shall fail to file with the clerk of An Act concerning Equitable Interests in Real and Personal Estate.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for every Sheriff or other officer to whom any writ or precept hereafter shall be directed, at the request of any person or persons, of, for, or upon any judgment now had, or hereafter to be had, to do, make, and deliver execution unto the party in that behalf sued, in the manner hereinafter prescribed, of all such goods and chattels, lands, tenements, rents and other hereditaments as any person or persons, be in any manner of wise seised or possessed, or hereafter shall be seised or possessed in trust for him, her, or them against whom execution shall be so sued, as the Sheriff or other officer might or ought to have done, if the said party or parties against whom execution hereafter shall be sued, had been seised or possessed of such goods and chattels, lands, tenements, rents or other hereditaments of such estate as they be seised or possessed of in trust for him, her, or them at the time of the said execution sued; which goods and chattels, lands, tenements, rents or other hereditaments, by force and virtue of such execution, shall accordingly be held and enjoyed freed and discharged from all incumbrances of such person or persons, so seised or possessed in trust for the person or persons against whom such execution shall be sued; and if any "estht que trust" hereafter shall die, leaving a trust in fee simple to descend or come to his or her heir, executor or administrator, and in every such case such trust shall be deemed and taken, and is hereby declared to be legal assets in the hands of such heir, executor or administrator as the case may be, and such heir, executor or administrator shall be liable to and capable of being sued; and the heir or heirs shall be held accountable for and by virtue of such assets as fully and amply as he, she, or they might our ought to have been if the estate at law had descended or come to him, her or them in possession in like manner as the trust descended.

II. And be it further enacted, That the equity of redemption in all lands, tenements, rents or other hereditaments which now are or hereafter shall be pledged or mortgaged, shall in like manner be liable to any execution or executions hereafter sued out on any judgment or judgments now had, or which hereafter shall be had, against the mortgagor or mortgagors; and such equity of redemption shall, in the hands of the heir, or heirs of such mortgagor or mortgagors, be deemed and taken, and hereby is declared to be assets by descent; and the heir or heirs shall be liable and chargeable with the debts of his, her, or their ancestor to the extent and in the manner herein before declared.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the sheriff, selling any lands, tenements, rents, or other hereditaments, under any execution to him directed, to set forth in the deed to be made by him to the purchaser, or purchasers therefor, that the same lands, tenements and hereditaments, were under mortgage at the time of the levy on and sale of the same.

An Act to raise a Revenue for the payment of the Civil List and contingent charges of Government for the year one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

LAWs OF NORTH-CAROLINA.
II. And be it further enacted, That a tax on all stud-horses and jack-asses within this state of the full sum which the owner or keeper of such stud horse or Jack-ass shall demand or receive for the season of one mare, shall be levied, collected and accounted for in the same manner as such tax has heretofore been levied, collected and accounted for.

III. And be it further enacted, That all free males between the ages of twenty one and fifty years, and all slaves between the ages of twelve and fifty shall be subject to a poll tax: Provided, That all slaves be listed in the county wherein they reside, and the tax shall be collected accordingly: And provided also, That in future it shall be the duty of the Clerks of the respective courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions in making their returns unto the Comptroller of the taxable property of their counties to distinguish the number of white from that of the black polls therein.

IV. And be it further enacted, That each and every person who shall hereafter peddle or hawk in any county in which he or she may minors, shall pay to the sheriff of each and every county in which he or she may peddle or hawk goods, wares or merchandise, the sum of ten pounds as a tax to the State, which tax shall be accounted for by the sheriff in like manner as other taxes:
And on paying said tax and obtaining a receipt therefor, such person shall be authorised and permitted to peddle and hawk, as aforesaid, in such county, and in no other, for the term of one year thereafter; And every person who shall peddle or hawk goods, wares or merchandise, on any navigable stream in this state, shall pay to the Sheriff of each and every county in which he or she shall so hawk or peddle, twenty-five pounds, as a tax to the state, to be accounted for as above: And on payment thereof, shall be authorized and permitted to peddle and hawk as aforesaid, in such county and in no other, for the term of one year thereafter; and each and every person who shall hawk or peddle in any county without having previously paid the tax thereon, as herein before directed, shall be liable to a forfeiture of fifty pounds, to be collected by the sheriff of said county, by distress and sale of any of the property of such delinquent, and to be applied one half to the use of the state, and the other half to the use of the said sheriff.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Merchant who shall sell goods, wares or merchandise, at any Store to the amount of two hundred pounds in one year, shall pay a tax on each and every such Store, if a wholesale merchant, of six pounds; and if a retail merchant, of three pounds: And every such merchant shall give in such store or stores in the list of his taxables under the same rules and regulations as other taxables are given in; and the tax thereon shall be levied, collected and accounted for in the same manner as other taxes: Provided always, That no retailers of spiritsuous liquors by the small measure, shall be liable to pay in addition to the tax imposed upon such retailers the tax also imposed on stores, unless such retailer shall sell goods, wares and merchandise, other than liquors, to the amount herein stated: And provided also, That the sheriff may be entitled to demand, and shall demand and collect, the tax imposed by this section, from such persons also as keep stores for a less time than one year, and sell there out the amount herein before specified; although such stores were not open on the first day of April.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the owners of Billiard Tables shall hereafter give them in at the time and in the same manner as other taxable property, and shall pay for each Billiard Table a tax of thirty pounds, to be levied, collected and accounted for in the same manner as other taxes: And the sheriff shall collect the tax upon every Billiard Table within his county, whether the same shall have been there on the first day of April preceding or not, and whether the same shall have been erected on that day or no, unless the person having such table in possession shall produce the receipt of the sheriff of some other county for the said tax.

VII. And be it further enacted, That each and every Company of Itinerant Stage Players, Rope Dancers, Tumblers and Wire Dancers, and each and every person or company, who shall exhibit natural or artificial curiosities of any sort or kind, for a reward, shall previously to performing or exhibiting in any county of this state, pay to the sheriff thereof, the sum of five pounds, as a tax to the state, to be accounted for by the sheriff as other taxes, and on paying such tax and obtaining a receipt therefor, such person or company shall be authorised and permitted to perform and exhibit in such county, and no other, for the term of one year thereafter: And each and every Itinerant Stage Player, Rope Dancer, Tumbler or Wire Dancer, or exhibitor of curiosities, natural or artificial, for a reward, who shall perform or exhibit in any county, without having previously paid the tax herein directed, shall be liable to a forfeiture of thirty pounds, to be collected by the sheriff of said county, by distress and sale of any of the property of such delinquent, and to be applied, one half to the use of the state, and the other half to the use of the said sheriff.
The State divided into thirteen Districts as follows, viz—
The counties of Perquiman's, Chowan, Currituck, Camden, Gates, Pasquotank and Hertford shall compose one District; The counties of Northampton, Bertie, Halifax and Martin shall compose the second District; The counties of Beaufort, Edgecombe, Hyde, Pitt, Tyrrell and Washington shall compose the third District; The counties of Lenoir, Craven, Jones, Carteret, Wayne, Greene and Johnston shall compose the fourth District; The counties of New Hanover, Brunswick, Onslow, Duplin, Sampson, Bladen and Columbus shall compose the fifth District; The counties of Franklin, Granville, Warren and Nash shall compose the sixth District; The counties of Richmond, Anson, Moore, Cumberland, Robeson and Montgomery, shall compose the seventh District; The counties of Orange, Wake and Person shall compose the eighth District; The counties of Rockingham, Stokes, Guilford and Caswell shall compose the ninth District; The counties of Randolph, Rowan and Alamance shall compose the tenth District; The counties of Mecklenburg, Cabarrus and Lincoln shall compose the eleventh District; The counties of Burke, Rutherford, Haywood and Buncombe shall compose the twelfth District, and the counties of Wilkes, Surry, Iredell and Ashe shall compose the thirteenth District. Each of which districts shall be entitled to elect and send one Representative to the Congress of the United States.

II. And be it further enacted, That the election shall be held on the same days and at the same places as are now prescribed by Law for holding elections for Members to represent the several counties in the General Assembly of this State, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and at the same times and places every two years thereafter; all of which elections are to be conducted by the Sheriffs or by other persons legally appointed therefor, in like manner as the annual elections of the Members of the State Legislature, except that the Inspectors of the Election and Clerks of the Polls shall be sworn or affirmed to act with justice and impartiality, which oath may be administered by any Justice of the Peace or any other person therunto authorized; and that each qualified voter shall be admitted to give his suffrage only in the county wherein he resides.

III. Be it further enacted, &c. That if any event shall happen to render the Meeting of Congress necessary after the third of March next, and before the time herein fixed for the ensuing election of Representatives, or if after the expiration of any future Congress and before the time fixed for the election then next to ensue, a new Congress shall be called, his Excellency the Governor, on receiving information to that effect, is hereby authorized to issue the same by Proclamation, and to require the Free Men of this State to meet in their respective counties, at the time or times therein to be appointed, and at the places established by Law, then and there to give their votes for Representatives; which elections so held in pursuance of the proclamation of the Governor, shall be conducted in like manner, and to all intents and purposes shall be as legal and valid as if the same had been held at the time or times prescribed in the preceding section of this act.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person whatsoever shall vote more than once in any election for a Representative in Congress for his district, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty pounds, to be recovered before a single Justice of the Peace; one half to the use of the person suing for the same, and the other half to the use of the County in which the offence is committed. And in counties where separate places of election have or shall be established by Law, the elections directed by this act shall be conducted in the same manner as Elections for Members of the General Assembly heretofore had, each officer presiding at an election making return of the Poll, which has been had before him, unto the Sheriff or other returning officer of his county, at the Court-House thereof, or on before the Monday immediately following the election.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That immediately upon the close of the Election in each county where there is but one place of Election, the Sheriff or other returning officer shall in the presence of the Inspectors of the Election, cast up the scrolls and make out two correct statements of the number of suffrages given in his county to each candidate; one of which statements shall be by the Inspectors filed in the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for said County, after the same is duly certified by the said returning officer, and a majority of the Inspectors and the Sheriff or other returning officer by himself or Deputy, shall attend with the other on the day and at the places herein after mentioned; And in each county where separate elections are held, the presiding officer at each place of election, shall immediately upon the close of the Poll, in the presence of the Inspectors, cast up the scrolls and make out two correct statements of the number of suffrages given thereat for each Candidate; one of which statements shall be by the Inspectors of said poll filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the county, after the same has been duly certified by the said returning officer and a majority of the Inspectors, and the other shall be delivered to the Sheriff or other the returning officer of the county as prescribed in the preceding section; And the Sheriff or other returning officer as aforesaid shall publicly, at the Court-House aforesaid, ascertain by fair addition of the suffrages returned, the whole number received for each Candidate in the county, and thereof shall make two statements under his hand, one of which he shall file in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of his county, and the other by himself or Deputy shall attend on the day and at the place herein after mentioned.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Sheriffs or other returning officers of the counties of each district shall meet on the Thursday next after each election, at the Court House of the county first mentioned in their respective Districts: Provided always, That if any accident shall happen to either of the returning officers which may prevent any or either of them from meeting on the day aforesaid, the returns of each and every officer shall be received on the day following; and the Sheriff or other returning officer failing to attend at the time and place above mentioned, shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty pounds, to be recovered for the use of the state, upon due proof thereof in any Court of Law within this state, by an action of debt in the name of the Treasurer of the State, for the time being. And when the Sheriffs or other returning officers shall be convened as aforesaid, the poll for the different counties shall by the said Sheriffs or other returning officers, (as the case may be) in presence of three Justices of the Peace, who are to be summoned by the Sheriff or other returning officer of the county where they shall meet for that purpose, be examined and compared, and a certificate under the hands and seals of said returning officers shall be given to the candidate in each district for whom the greatest number of votes shall have been given in said district: But if two or more candidates shall have an equal number of votes, the said returning officers shall determine which of them shall be the representative; And if no decision is by them made then they shall decide the same by drawing in like manner as the Grand Jury is drawn for in the Superior Courts.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That each and every person who shall be duly elected a representative under this act, shall, upon obtaining a certificate of his election according to the direction above mentioned, obtain from his Excellency the Governor, a Commission certifying his appointment as a representative of this State, which certificate the Governor is hereby empowered and required, on such certificate being produced to him, to issue.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every Sheriff or other the returning officer holding elections in pursuance of this act, shall be allowed the sum of twenty-five shillings for every thirty miles travelling to, and returning from the place of comparing the polls in the district; and the same sum for every day he shall necessarily attend for the purpose of comparing said polls; and also, the amount of his ferriages, which shall be paid by the Treasurer on affidavit of the Sheriff or returning officer aforesaid.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in the event of the death or resignation of any representative or representatives of this State, in the present Congress of the United States, the vacancy or vacancies so occasioned, shall be supplied by the suffrages of the elected electors from the same district by which the deceased or resigned representative was originally elected.

CHAPTER VII.

An Act to authorize Justices of the Peace out of Court to take Security in certain Cases.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace out of Court, when any trial is before him, and he gives Judgment for any sum against any person who wishes either to Appeal or Stay the Execution and is unprovided with Securities upon the day of trial, to grant such person ten days to give approved securities for an Appeal or Stay of Execution, as the case may be, and shall make an entry thereof upon the Warrant: Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall be construed so as to prevent the plaintiff from taking out Execution at any time before the same shall be stayed or an appeal granted.

II. And be it further enacted, That if an Execution shall issue upon any Judgment where the defendant prayed an Appeal or Stay of Execution before the ten days be expired, that upon security being given as by this act directed, such execution shall be returned to the Justice of the Peace who issued it and shall not be acted on by any officer, and the officer or other person who has any such execution shall, on due notice given to him, in writing from the Justice who granted the execution, deliver up the same, or be liable to the action of the party grieved.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Laws and clauses of Laws coming within the meaning and purview of this Law, be and the same are hereby repealed and made void.

CHAPTER VIII.

An Act to suspend Executions for a time therein limited.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That when any judgment shall be obtained for any debt or damages in any Court having jurisdiction thereof, against any debtor or debtors at any time after the thirty first day of the present month of December and before the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, it shall be the duty of such Court before whom such judgment shall be obtained, to stay execution and all further proceedings thereon until the first term or regular session of such Court after the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, on such debtor or debtors first giving two sufficient Freeholders (such as shall be approved of by the Court) securities, for the stay of execution; an acknowledgment of such securities in open court, and entered on the records of the same, shall be considered as part thereof; and if such judgment shall not be paid with six per cent. interest thereon before the first term or session of the Court after the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, it shall then be the duty of said Court immediately to award execution in a summary way against the principal and his securities for the full amount of each judgment, or so much thereof as shall remain unpaid, together with the lawful interest thereon and costs.

II. And be it further enacted, That when any judgment shall be obtained before any Justice of the Peace against any debtor or debtors, on or after the thirty-first day of the present December, it shall be the duty of such Justice of the Peace, before whom such judgment shall be obtained, to stay execution and all further proceedings thereon until the first day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, on such debtor or debtors first giving sufficient security in two Freeholders (such as shall be approved of by said Justice) for the stay of execution; and if such judgment, with six per cent interest thereon, be not paid and satisfied before the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, then it shall be the duty of the Justice of the Peace, on application, to award execution instantly against the principal and his securities for the full amount of such judgment or so much thereof as shall remain unsatisfied, together with the lawful interest thereon and costs: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent any defendant or defendants from claiming or obtaining the stay of execution as heretofore practised.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of every Sheriff, constable or other officer to whom any other execution has been or shall be directed, in consequence of any judgment already obtained, or which may be obtained before the thirty first day of December current, to stay all further proceedings thereon on the person or persons against whom such execution has or shall have issued, first giving bond with two sufficient Freeholders securities, in the full sum specified in the execution, payable to him in writing from the Justice who granted the execution, deliver up the same shall be made returnable; and the Court or Justice of the Peace on such return being made, should they think such securities fully sufficient, shall stay all further proceedings on such execution until the expiration of the times respectively specified in the first and second sections of this act; and at the expiration of such times it shall be the duty of such Court or Justice respectively to award execution in a summary way against the principal and his securities for the full amount of such bond, or so much thereof as shall remain unpaid, together with the lawful interest thereon; and the constable or other officer shall receive from the principal giving such bond the sum of two shillings for the same.

VI. And be it further enacted, That when any sheriff, constable or other officer has levied, or shall have levied on any goods, chattels, lands and tenements before the thirty first day of December current, by virtue of any execution, or has arrested or imprisoned, or shall have arrested or imprisoned before that day, any person by wit of Capias ad Satisfaciendum, which has or shall have issued for any debt or da-ages, it shall be the duty of such Sheriff, constable or other officer, on bond with sufficient security being given (as prescribed in the third section of this Act) to deliver the property thus levied on, to the debtor on demand, and release the person arrested or imprisoned from custody.

V. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be deemed to apply to judgments or executions which are or may be obtained, or issued in consequence of any contract made after the first day of January next, or in the name of the State, or at the instance of the Treasurer, or to alter the mode by which such judgments and executions are carried into effect, or to exonerate Clerks, Sheriffs, county Treasurers, or Treasurers of Public buildings, and Constables from paying and satisfying on execution, or otherwise, all such sums of money as they have received, and collected by virtue of their office, and if execution issues against any of them, their property shall be sold to the highest bidder to satisfy such execution; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent Clerks, Sheriffs, County Treasurers or Treasurers of Public buildings from collecting such monies as may be due them for the use of the public.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be in force and operation immediately from the ratification thereof.

and shall be entitled to the same privileges as members of the General Assembly, and the same allowances shall be made to the Sheriffs for their travelling expenses and attendance to compare the polls, with an additional allowance for the expences they may incur by conveying the duplicate of their certificate to the Governor.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in case any of the Electors chosen as by this act directed, to vote for a President and Vice President of the United States, should by reason of sickness or any other cause be unable to attend and give their votes as herein prescribed, the other Electors then present shall and may by vote appoint some other person belonging to the district for which the person or persons so failing to attend shall have been chosen, to supply the place or places of the person or persons not attending as aforesaid, and the person or persons so appointed by the Electors shall be deemed and considered to all intents and purposes, as the Elector or Electors of the district out of which he shall be chosen as aforesaid, and as such shall give his vote in the same manner as the other Electors chosen for the several districts herein established.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all laws coming within the purview of this act be repealed and made void.

CHAPTER X.

An Act to extend the right of Challenge in certain cases.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all cases hereafter to be tried in any Court of Record within this state, in which the state shall be a party, the defendant or defendants shall have the right of Challenging peremptorily and without shewing cause, the number of four Jurors; and in all civil Causes to be tried in any of said Courts hereafter like right of Challenge shall be extended to either party thereto: Provided, That nothing in this act shall be considered to extend to or affect capital cases: Any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER XI.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all Grants for Lands in this state, all Deeds of Mesne Conveyance; Powers of Attorney under which any Lands tene- ments or hereditaments have been or may be conveyed; Bills of Sale, Deeds of Gift, already proved as Deeds of Conveyance, are required to be proven or which may hereafter be proved, shall and may within two years after the passing of this Act be admitted to registration under the same rules and restrictions as heretofore appointed by Law; and said Grants, Deeds, Mesne Conveyances, Powers of Attorney, Bills of Sale and Deeds of Gift shall be as good and valid as if they had been proved and registered within the time heretofore allowed: Any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER XII.

An Act for the distribution and preservation of Arms received by this State, under the Act of Congress for arming the Militia of the United States.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the arms already received under the said Law of Congress, as the Quota of this State, shall be distributed in the following manner, that is to say; To each of the counties of Camden, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Chowan, Gates, Hertford, Bertie, Northampton, Halifax, Martin, Washington, Edgecomb, Pitt, Beaufort, Hyde, Craven, Carteret, Sampson, Cumberland, Brunswick, Columbus, Bladen, Jones, Duplin, Lenoir, Haywood, Buncombe, sixty four stands of arms; to the county of New-Hanover, one hundred and twenty-eight; to the counties of Onslow and Currituck, ninety-six each; to the county of Wake, eighty-two stands of arms; Provided always, That nothing contained in this act shall be construed to extend to the arms already distributed to and among the Independent and Militia companies of the Town of Fayetteville.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Governor of this State, shall forthwith cause the Quota of arms by this act assigned for each of the before mentioned counties, to be delivered to the Colonel Commandant thereof, to be by him placed in the hands of such company of Militia of the said county as he may think fit; and the said Colonels Commandant shall take the necessary measures and give the necessary orders for keeping the said arms safe and in good order; and where there now are, or hereafter may be more than one Colonel Commandant in any one county, and they cannot agree in which company’s hands the said Quota of arms shall be placed, they shall apply to their immediate Brigadier General, who shall direct to which company the said arms shall be given.
III. And be it further enacted, That when and as often as this State shall receive any other quota of arms, under the said Law, or any other Law of the United States, the Governor of this state for the time being shall cause to be divided among the following counties, to wit: Tyrrell, Greene, Nash, Wayne, Johnston, Rutherford, Franklin, Warren, Granville, Robeson, Richmond, Moore, Montgomery, Anson, Mecklenburg, Lincoln, Burke, Ashe, Wilkes, Iredell, Rowan, Cabarrus, Randolph, Chatham, Orange, Person, Caswell, Guilford, Rockingham, Stokes and Surry; to each sixty-four stands of arms; giving priority in the said distributions in the order in which the said counties are herein enumerated, and giving to each county its whole allotment of sixty-four stands of arms at one time; and the said arms shall be disposed of by the Commanding Officers of the respective counties above enumerated in the manner herein before directed, and under the same responsibility.

IV. And be it further enacted, When by the distribution aforesaid sixty-four stands of arms shall have been allotted to each county, so as completely to equip one company therein, then the Governor for the time being shall proceed in like manner, and under the same rules and regulations, to equip another company in each county, giving priority in the said distributions to the different counties in the order in which they are herein enumerated. And shall in like manner, and under the same rules and regulations, proceed in equipping one company after another in each county until the whole Militia of this state are armed: Provided always, That when the number of stands of arms delivered to any county shall be equal to the number of the Militia therein, the said county shall be entitled to no further distribution of arms.

V. And be it further enacted, That every non-commissioned officer and private belonging to any company so equipped, shall keep, and preserve his arms and accoutrements in good order, and in a soldier like manner; and for every refusal or neglect to do so, shall be fined by the Court Martial of his company a sum not less than two dollars, nor more than ten dollars; which fines, and all other fines imposed by the said Court Martial, shall be laid out and expended under the direction of the Captain, in procuring and preserving Cartridges, and for other Military purposes; and if any of the companies so equipped shall generally keep their arms in a negligent and unsoldier-like manner, the Court Martial of the Regiment to which any such company belongs, shall and may deprive said company of the public arms and accoutrements, and bestow them on some other company belonging to the said Regiment, which last mentioned company shall receive and keep the said public arms and accoutrements on the terms, and under the regulations prescribed by this act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons to whom the public arms and accoutrements, or any of them shall be confided, shall sell or in any manner embezze the same or any part thereof, and be thereof convicted in any Court of Record, he or they shall forfeit and pay, by sentence of the said Court, for the use of the state, a sum not less than two dollars, nor more than fifty dollars, for every stand of arms and accoutrements so sold or embezze; and shall, moreover, be imprisoned for a period not less than one month, nor more than twelve months: and every person, or persons purchasing any of the said public arms and accoutrements, knowing them so to be, shall be proceeded in the same manner, and shall on conviction, be liable to like penalties, and imprisonment as the seller or embezze thereof.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when any non-commissioned officer, or private, belonging to any of the said companies, shall die, remove from the county, or be excused from performing Military duty, it shall be the duty of the Captain of the company to which he belonged immediately to take the arms and accoutrements of the person so dying, removing or excused, into his possession, and deliver to whoever shall succeed thereto, in the said company; and the said Captain shall keep the said arms and accoutrements safely and in good order while they remain in his possession.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Governor shall have power to order the Colonel Commandants of those counties, where any of the arms may be distributed, to place the same in the hands of any detachment or detachments of Militia of this state ordered into the service of the United States during the present war with Great Britain, if the same shall be deemed by him necessary.

CHAPTER XIII

An Act to prevent unnecessary Costs and expences hereafter to the mode of suing for and recovering forfeited recognizances, in the several Courts of this State.

Preamble: WHEREAS the present mode of suing for and recovering forfeited recognizances, as heretofore practised in the several Courts in this State, are grievously oppressive: for remedy whereof, Bec it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in future when any Clerk of any of the Superior Courts of Law or Pleas and Quarter Sessions in this State, shall have occasion, or be required to issue scire facias, or other process, against any person or persons, who shall in future have forfeited any recognizance or recognizances entered into as principal in any one case, and who shall have given one or more persons as bail or security in such recognizance or recognizances, or otherwise caused such bail or securities to become bound or recognized for and in behalf of such principal as aforesaid, in any one case as aforesaid, and such securities shall also have forfeited such recognizance or recognizances so entered into, as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of such Clerk to issue a joint scire facias, or such other joint process as may be deemed legal and necessary against such principal, including such surety or securities, therein designating who are principals, from those who are sureties; also specifying therein the respective sums or penalties which each shall have forfeited, and for which they are required to answer by virtue of said process.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Sheriff or other officer who may be authorized and required to serve or execute such scire facias, or process, shall do so by serving a copy of such process on each of the defendants, or by leaving a copy at the place of residence of such delinquent or delinquents, or in such other manner as heretofore required by Law.

III. And be it further enacted, That when the Clerk or Clerks aforesaid shall enter said suit, on the record or records of their respective Courts, to which such process or suit shall be returnable, he shall consolidate and enter the same so as to make but one suit, and on which it shall be lawful to recover or otherwise receive but one set of costs, such as was heretofore recoverable on a single suit of the description aforesaid; the Sheriff's fees for service of process excepted; and should any of the Clerks, or other persons aforesaid, be guilty of charging in their bill of cost, or otherwise exacting any higher or greater costs than by Law shall be due on one single suit as aforesaid, shall be liable to amercement of fifty pounds, to be recovered and paid to the use of the person or persons injured; Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prevent any defendant in such suits from serving and pleading separately; in which case it shall be at the discretion of the Court to award separate costs.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after the ratification thereof.

CHAPTER XIV.

An Act further regulating the fees of Officers.

WHEREAS a want of uniformity is alleged to exist in estimating the legal fees of Officers in consequence of dollars being rated in some counties at Eight, and in others at Ten Shillings; for remedy thereof,

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in the payment of fees to Officers of whatever nature or kind, dollars, and the parts of dollars, shall always be valued at the rate of Ten Shillings for the dollar: And that any officer receiving dollars or parts of dollars at a less rate shall be liable to all the penalties of extortion.

CHAPTER XV.

An Act directing the place at which the Electors, appointed on the twenty-first day of the month of November last, to vote for President and Vice President of the United States, shall meet and give their votes, and for other purposes.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Electors appointed on the twenty-first day of the month of November last, to vote for a President and Vice President of the United States, shall meet in the city of Raleigh, on the day prescribed by Law for the purpose, and vote for President and Vice President of the United States, agreeably to the Constitution and Laws of the United States.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Electors shall be allowed, for their travelling to and from the city of Raleigh and their attendance, the same compensation as is allowed to Members of the General Assembly, to be paid by the Treasurer on the certificate of the Speakers of the two houses of the General Assembly: Provided, That no Elector, who is a Member of the General Assembly or officer of either house, shall be allowed for travelling or attendance as an Elector.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any of the said Electors shall fail to attend in case of fail in the city of Raleigh for the purposes of their said appointment, before nine o'clock in the afternoon of this day (the first day of December,) it shall be the duty of those of the said Electors, who shall attend at that time, to appoint another or other per...

son or persons to act as Elector, or Electors, in the place of him or them, who shall not attend at the time of giving their votes for President and Vice President of the United States: Provided, That if the Electors heretofore chosen shall attend by twelve o'clock on the second of December, then, that those Electors shall give their votes for President and Vice President of the United States, otherwise the votes to be given by those who shall be appointed in their place, agreeably to this Section.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall have operation and be in force immediately after the Ratification thereof.

CHAPTER XVI.

An Act directing the duties of the Secretary of State in certain cases, and more effectually to provide for the safe keeping of the Public Records, Books and Documents.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to collect all the Books and Documents received, and intended for the use of the Legislature, from the Executives and Legislatures of the several States, and the Acts and Journals of Congress, together with the Public Documents received from the Executive and the Congress of the United States; also all the Treasuries entered into on the part of this State; the Laws, Acts and Journals of the General Assembly, and all other Books and Documents, received and intended for the use of the Legislature; all which Books and Journals, Laws and Documents, not already well bound and lettered, shall be neatly bound, lettered and numbered, under the direction of the Secretary of State, who shall place the same in his office in a Book Case, to be procured by the said Secretary for this purpose: And the Secretary shall make a catalogue of all the books, documents, laws, acts and journals, hereby directed to be by him collected and preserved, and report the same to the next General Assembly, and the said books and documents, shall be kept for the use of the Members of the General Assembly, Heads of Departments and Judges of the Supreme Courts only; and shall be lent and returned under such rules and regulations as the Secretary shall from time to time establish.

II. BE it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, to transcribe into a well bound book all the Treasuries entered into on the part of this State, and preserve the same as a record thereof: And for this service as well as other services imposed upon the Secretary of State by this Act, he shall receive a compensation to be estimated by the Governor, Treasurer and Comptroller, and to be paid by the Treasurer upon their certificate; and the expences of the Book Case directed by this Act to be procured, shall be stated at large by the Secretary and upon its being filed with the Treasurer, shall be by him discharged.

III. BE it further enacted, That in all cases not already provided for by law, the Secretary of State shall receive the same fees for copies of records from his office, that are allowed by law to the Registers of the several counties in this state.

CHAPTER XVII.

An Act to repeal so much of the sixth section of an Act, passed in the year 1783, entitled "An Act for facilitating the navigation and regulating the pilotage of the several ports of this State," as permits Negro Slaves to act as pilots, or for other purposes:

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That so much of the sixth section of an act passed in the year 1783, entitled "an act for facilitating the navigation, and regulating the pilotage of the several ports of this State," as provides that Negroes, after performing certain requisites there-in mentioned, shall be entitled to a certificate to act as Pilots, be, and the same is hereby repealed and made void.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this act, if any Slave or Slaves shall, with the knowledge or consent of his or their owner, and not accompanied by a Pilot, go off to any ship or vessel for the purpose of bringing such ship or vessel over any bar or inlet of this State, or shall pilot any such ship or vessel out and over any bar or inlet, the owner of such Slave or Slaves shall forfeit the value of such Slave or Slaves, to be recovered in any Court having cognizance thereof, one half to the person suing for the same, the other half to the use of the County wherein the owner resides.

CHAPTER XVIII.

WHEREAS Mechanics in the State frequently take Apprentices who are very young and for several years of their apprenticeship are rather a burthen than otherwise to their masters, and it frequently happens that such Apprentices when they might be expected to be useful to their masters, absent themselves from their service whereby many suitable persons are discouraged from taking Apprentices, and the Laws in being are not sufficient to prevent these inconveniences: For remedy wherof,
BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the first day of January next, if any apprentice who shall be well used by his master, and who shall have received from his said master not less than six months' schooling, shall absent himself after arriving to the age of eighteen years from his masters service, before the term of his apprenticeship shall be expired, every such apprentice shall at any time or times thereafter, whenever he shall be found, be compelled to make satisfaction to the master for the loss he shall have sustained by his absence from his service before the time of his contract shall be fulfilled, and in case any apprentice shall refuse to make such satisfaction to his master, such master may recover by warrant, issued and returnable before any Justice of the Peace, such satisfaction, not exceeding thirty pounds, as such Justice may determine shall be made to such master by such apprentice, or such master may maintain his action on the case against such apprentice and recover his damages as a Jury may award in any Court having cognizance thereof: Provided, That the judgments of any justice upon a trial under this act shall be subject to the same right of appeal or stay of execution as in other cases of judgments by Justices of the Peace: Provided also, That no apprentice shall be compelled to make any satisfaction to any master after the expiration of seven years, next after the end of the term for which such apprentice shall have contracted or shall have been bound to serve; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER XIX
An Act to authorize Mrs. Ann White, widow and Executrix of the last Will and Testament of William White, late Secretary of State of this State, to cause to be recorded certain Grants.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Ann White, widow and Executrix of the last Will and Testament of William White, late Secretary of State, be and she is hereby authorised to cause to be recorded in the office of Secretary of State all such Grants as were issued and the fees received upon them by her said husband, which remain to be recorded: and that she be permitted to contract with and employ for the purpose above said some suitable person to be approved of by the present Secretary of State, and who shall make such entries of Record under the direction of the said present Secretary of State, without any charge therefor to the state: Provided, such entries be made before the first day of June next; and if the said grants shall not be entered of record in the manner and by the time above prescribed, the Secretary of State for the time being is hereby authorised and required to cause said grants to be recorded, and to charge the expense incurred therefor to the estate of the said William White.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Grants to be recorded under the provisions of this act shall be on the same footing in all respects as evidence and as furnishing originals from which to obtain evidence as other records in the office of the Secretary of State.

III. And be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after the ratification thereof.

CHAPTER XX.

CHAP. XXV.

An Act relative to the power of Courts of Equity in cases of Partition.

WHEREAS doubts exist as to the power of Courts of Equity to order a Sale of Real Estate in cases of Partition, where an equal and advantageous division cannot be made.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for any Court of Equity in cases of application for a division of real estate, when it shall appear and be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Court, that an actual partition cannot be made without injury to some or all of the parties interested, to order a sale of the property upon such terms as such Court shall deem just and reasonable:

Provided always, that whenever any of the parties shall be an infant, a feme covert, non compos, imprisoned or beyond the limits of this State, it shall be the duty of the Court to direct the proceeds of the sale to which such person is entitled to be so invested or settled, that the same shall be effectually secured unto the person so entitled, or his or her real representatives.

Read three times and ratified in General Assembly, the 25th day of December, 1812.

A true copy, WM. HILL, Secretary.
An Act to incorporate Company to build a Bridge across Tar River, near the town of Washington in Beaufort County, and to make a Road through a Swamp adjacent thereto.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That a Company composed of eight Commissioners, and such successors, shall be created and established a Corporation and body politic, and in law and in fact, and shall be continued during the term of eighty years by the name and style of the "President, Directors and Company of the Washington Toll Bridge," and by the name and style aforesaid they are fully empowered and made capable to one and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, to answer and be answered, to defend and be defended in any Court of Record whatever, or before any Justice of the Peace in this State; and also to make, use and have a Common Seal, and to swear and establish and put in execution such Bye-Laws, Ordinances and Regulations as may seem requisite or proper for the government of said corporation, not being contrary to the municipal laws of the land; and generally to do and execute all such acts and things as come within the common implied powers of Corporations and Bodies Politic, as far as the intended object of the institution may require.

II. Be it further enacted, That agreeable to the design and end of the said Corporation hereby so declared, the said Corporation are hereby authorized and fully empowered by their proper Officers herein after named, to build a Bridge across Tar River above the town of Washington in Beaufort county, and near said town, to commence at Bridge Street next above and adjoining a lot belonging to Walter Hanahan, situate on the North West end of said town, and to extend across said river to the nearest land on the opposite side of the same, and from thence to make a Road and Causeway through the Marsh and Swamp to some convenient place of intersection with the road which now leads from Washington to Newbern; and the right and property of said Bridge and Road or Causeway, and the emoluments and profits arising therefrom shall vest in and belong to the stockholders or subscribers composing said Corporation, according to their proportionate share, and to their successors, representatives and assigns.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Bridge and Road shall be sixteen feet wide, and that the said Bridge shall have a well constructed draw overhanging the channel of said river, proper and suitable to admit the passage of all such vessels whose destination may require their ascending or descending the river.

IV. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of constituting a fund for building said Bridge and making said Road, books shall be open for subscriptions under the superintendence and direction of eight Commissioners at such place or places as they in their wisdom and discretion may prefer and adopt; and Franklin Gorham, Joseph Bell, Edward Graham, Slade Pearce, James O. K. Williams, William Kennedy, Walter Hanahan and Edward Quin, are hereby named and appointed Commissioners, a majority of whom shall be sufficient to perform the duties of their appointment.

V. And be it further enacted, That the President and Directors shall have full and ample power to open books from time to time as may be deemed necessary, to receive further subscriptions for the aforementioned purposes; Provided, That no one person shall be permitted to take more than twenty shares, within sixty days after the books are first opened, and the sum of each share subscribed shall be Twenty-Five Dollars, one fifth of which shall be paid at the time of subscribing, and as soon as two hundred shares shall have been subscribed, the said Commissioners shall give thirty days previous notice, posted up at the Court House in the town of Washington, of the time and place of a General Meeting of the Subscribers, that the said Subscribers shall then and there elect Twelve Persons as Directors, and one of their numbers shall be appointed President and another Secretary, to conduct and manage the business of said Corporation, and in the month of November in every year afterwards successively, and also to make, have and use a Cannon Seal, and to ordain and establish and put in execution all such Acts and Things as shall be had, done and executed as to the notification which shall be made by the Secretary in pursuance of orders from the President.

VI. Be it further enacted, That the balance of the shares unpaid shall be paid by the Stockholders at such time and in such manner, and under such regulations as the directors may deem fit and expedient.

VII. Be it further enacted, That when it shall be required by way of petition from said Corporation, the Court of Common Pleas of Beaufort shall appoint and order a jury of good and lawful men to lay out said road, in a direction the nearest and best suited with the hands of the said Corporation, their assigns and successors, and the damages as shall be assessed, by a just and reasonable, agreeable to an act of Assembly in such case made and provided; and when the said road and Bridge shall have been completed, the said Corporation shall be and they are hereby fully authorized to erect a Toll Gate on some part of the Bridge or road as to them shall seem preferable, and the following shall be the usual rate of toll of said gate, viz. One person five cents, one horse twenty cents, every two wheel carriage twenty-five cents, every four wheel carriage fifty cents, horned cattle ten cents, each hog and sheep five cents each, for each barrel fifty cents, for every hundred bushels feed ten cents, for every thousand shingles twenty-five cents, for every thousand feet of lumber, plank, scantling and run timber twenty-five cents, and all articles commonly sold by weight, for every hundred weight two and a half cents, for all articles sold by the bushel one and a half cents per bushel.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Corporation shall keep the said road and bridge in good and sufficient repair under the penalty prescribed by law in cases of roads and bridges.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the President and Directors have full authority to appoint all such officers, not named and specified in this act, as the ends of the Corporation may require.

X. And be it further enacted, That the following Articles, Regulations and Provisions shall be received as standing Rules for the government of said Corporation:

First. Each Stockholder at every election shall have one vote, for every two shares by him held more than one share, up to twenty shares, and one vote for every five shares exceeding twenty. Provided always, That no person shall be eligible to the Office of Director unless he be a stockholder, nor shall any person vote as a stockholder for Directors unless such person shall have acquired his share or shares at least six years previous to the election.

Second. The President and Directors shall have full power to call a general meeting of the stockholders, when to them it may appear expedient to promote the good of the institution.
Third. No general By-Laws or Ordinances or Regulations for the government of said Corporation shall be passed or established but by a general meeting of the Stockholders.

Fourth. The President and Directors shall, upon the joint application of ten Stockholders, call a general meeting: Provided, their aggregate shares amount to thirty.

Fifth. At a general meeting of the Stockholders, in case of election of Directors, two thirds of the Stockholders, or such a number of the Stockholders as taken together shall hold two thirds of the shares of the whole capital, shall constitute a quorum; but for all other purposes a majority of the Stockholders, or so many as hold a majority of the whole number of shares, shall be a sufficient number to proceed to business.

Sixth. Seven Directors at least shall be required to constitute a Board for the transaction of business, of whom the President shall be one, except in case of sickness or necessary absence, in which case his place may be supplied by one chosen by the Directors present for the next meeting.

XI. And be it further enacted, That two hundred and thirty yards of the river, including the two Channels at the aforesaid Bridge be left unoccupied by piers and the said Bridge be so far completed as to admit the passage of carriages within three years from the passage of this act, this act and every privilege hereby granted shall determine and be void: Provided nevertheless, That any end every contract which may have been entered into by the said Corporation, or the managers thereof may be thereafter enforced in the same manner as though this act had not determined.

CHAP. XXVII.

An Act to authorize Aaron Albertson of Pasquotank County, to make a Road and cut a Canal on the side of the same.

WHEREAS it has been represented to this General Assembly, that a road from Nathan True-wood's mill near Elizabeth City, to Robert Perry's turnpike gate, and from Robert Perry's turnpike gate to Samuel Nixon's bridge in Perquimans county, would render a great convenience to travellers, and the inhabitants of the several adjoining counties, and Aaron Albertson of Pasquotank county having made application for permission to make the said road.

BE it therefore enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and this is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the County Courts of Pasquotank and Perquimans, and the said County Courts are hereby required upon application of any person, and if he aforesaid, to appoint a jury of twelve men, who shall be possessed of a freethink in the county appointing the same, and shall be required to take the premises, and lay off said road, in such direction as to them shall appear most expedient; which jurors are also required to adjudge the damages, if any to them shall appear, that will be sustained by the owner or owners of any tract or tracts of land in consequence of said road and canal passing through the same, and make return thereof, each jury to them shall appear, and the Corporation by which said jury was appointed; and it shall be the duty of the person or persons making said road to pay such damages before said road shall pass through such tract or tracts of land, but shall not be liable until the said canal shall enter the premises.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Aaron Albertson shall have full power and authority to enter upon the premises after said road shall be laid off aforesaid, with full privilege to cut a canal, not to exceed twelve inches in width, for the purpose of draining said road; and that he shall also have authority to open the way for said road on the canal, not to exceed forty feet in width, with the privilege to cut timber most convenient for the making and repairing the said road.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Aaron Albertson to erect a turnpike or gate across each of the said roads, and to ask, demand and receive from all persons passing either of them, the following toll, to wit: For each wheeled carriage for pleasure or business, two and a half cents; for each horse and chair, including the rider or riders, twenty-five cents; for a man and horse, twelve and a half cents; each foot passenger, six and a quarter cents; for each four wheeled waggon of burthen, thirty seven and a half cents; for each cart and single horse, twelve and a half cents; for each cart and two or three horses, twenty cents; for each horse, mule or jackass in droves, six and a quarter cents; and for each cattle, hog or sheep in droves, three cents.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Aaron Albertson shall have full power and authority to erect one or more locks on said canal, for the purpose of making the same navigable; and it shall be lawful for him to receive and demand three cents for each lock, and all commodities transported by water, the following Toll, to wit: For each thousand pipe staves, twenty-five cents; for each thousand hogshead staves or heading, fifty cents; for each thousand twenty inch shingles, six cents; for each thousand two inch ditto, eight cents; for each thousand two feet ditto, twelve and a half cents; for each thousand three feet ditto, twenty cents; for each thousand barrel staves, forty cents; for each barrel of flour, flour, beef, fish, tar, pitch or turpentine, five cents; for each hoghead of rum, molasses or other article contained in each hogshead of wheat, salt, corn, peas, potatoes or other articles generally sold by the bushel, one and a half cents; and for all goods, wares and merchandize in bales, boxes or otherwise, in proportion to five cents for the size of a flour barrel.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Aaron Albertson to erect a mill or mills on the said canal, or near the mouth thereof; and that it shall be lawful for the county court, in any county where he shall propose building such mill or mills, to appoint a jury in manner as is mentioned in the first section of this act, which jury shall go on the premises, and adjudge and lay off for said Albertson one acre of land in such manner as they may deem expedient, and at the time adjudge the value thereof, which they shall pay, and on the payment thereof the right of said land shall be vested in him and his heirs, for the purpose of erecting such mill or mills upon; and it shall be lawful for him to demand and receive toll, in the same manner and at the same rates that other mills in the old district of Edenton are entitled to.
LAWS OF NORTH-CAROLINA.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the sole right, use, and benefit of the said Canal and road shall be and the same is hereby declared to be vested in the said Alberson, his heirs and successors, for and during the term of ninety nine years, from, and after the passing of this act.

CHAPTER XXVIII.
An Act empowering the County Court of Rutherford to reduce the width of Roads, and directing how hands shall be compelled to work under Overseers in said County.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, the County Courts of said county, a majority of the Justices thereof being present, shall have power to direct what Roads shall be Public Roads, and what Roads shall be considered County Roads, and the County Roads shall not be required to be over twelve feet wide clear of stumps and runners.

II. And be it further enacted, That when any overseer finds it to be impracticable to clear out any part of a Public Road sixteen feet wide, he may prefer his petition to the County Court, and the Court shall appoint one Justice of the Peace and four Freeholders to view said Road; and if they shall, upon their oath, present to the Court that it is impracticable for the overseer with the hands allotted to him, to clear out and keep said Road or part of a Road, sixteen feet wide clear of stumps and runners, that then the Court shall pass an order in his favour reducing said Road to twelve feet, and he and all other overseers that may afterwards be appointed upon said Road, plead that order for his or their defence and benefit whenever the same may be necessary; any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That the County Court shall designate the hands who are to work upon the Roads in such a manner, that no person shall be compelled to work on more than one Road, if they live more than one mile from the town of Rutherford; and each overseer shall have his hands named to him by the Court in his order, and the overseer shall, in all cases on trial at law, be considered a competent witness to prove notices to persons who are directed by law to work upon Roads.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all laws and clauses of laws coming within the purview and meaning of this act, are hereby repealed and made void.

V. And be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after the ratification thereof.

CHAPTER XXIX.
An Act to amend an act passed in the year one thousand eight hundred and nine, entitled, "An Act to establish a Turnpike on a road leading from Buncombe Court House over the Saluda Gap to the South Carolina line.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the presence of proprietors owning a majority of shares, shall be necessary to constitute a general meeting, and that if at any such meeting there shall be not less than one half of the total number of shares present; and if any person or persons shall be absent by leave of the President of the company, or if any person or persons shall be present but be dissatisfied with the proceedings, and on finding them fairly and justly stated, the proprietors then present shall give a certificate, a duplicate of which shall be entered on the said general meeting's book, and signed by the President and Directors of the company, and the names of those who fail to pay thereon, shall be struck off the book, and others complying with this regulation may take such shares; and the President and Directors, and their successors or a majority of them at all times, and from time to time, as money may be placed in their hands, or raised by the sale of shares, shall be directed at what time and in what proportions the subscribers shall pay the sums by them subscribed, which orders shall be advertised at least in one month in some one Newspaper published in the town of Petersburg in Virginia, and in one or more Newspapers published in the city of Raleigh in North-Carolina; [President] the President and Directors may at any time, and without demand from the subscribers, more than three dollars and one hundred dollars, if any subscriber, or any person in his behalf or interest, shall fail to pay their proportions required within one month after the same is advertised, the President and Directors or a majority of them, may sell at auction and convey to the purchaser, the shares of the subscribers so failing, giving at least one month's notice of the sale in the Newspapers aforesaid, and all such sales shall be in the town of Halifax aforesaid, and after notice, and such deposit of money as the Directors shall think sufficient to cover the debt, and the money arising from the sale of such vessel shall be sold; and if such sale shall not produce the full sum ordered and directed to be advanced as aforesaid, with interest and incidental charges, the said President and Directors, or a majority of them may, in the name of the company, sue for and recover the balance by bill of exchange in any Court of competent jurisdiction, on ten days previous notice; and the said purchaser or purchasers shall be subject to the same rules and regulations, and entitled to the same profits and privileges as if the sale or conveyance had been made by the original proprietor.

IX. And be it further enacted, That from time to time, and until the expiration of the term for which the said President and Directors may be appointed, the proprietors at their next general meeting, or at any time, or upon the demand of any five subscribers, or any part thereof, may appoint a successor or successors to the President of the company; and if the President or any of the Directors, shall on any emergency in the said town of Halifax, fail to perform any of the duties enjoined on them by the laws or by any of the agreements between the proprietors, the remaining members of that body, may appoint a successor or successors until the next general meeting; and the proprietors, at their next general meeting shall fill up such vacancy, and may at any general meeting, remove the President or any of the Directors, and appoint others in their stead for and during the term for which such person or persons were at first to have acted.

X. And be it further enacted, That every President and Director, before he acts as such, shall take an oath of affirmation for the due execution of his office.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the expences of the several proprietors owning a majority of shares, shall be necessary to constitute a general meeting, and that if at any such meeting there shall be not less than one half of the total number of shares present; and if any person or persons shall be absent by leave of the President of the company, or if any person or persons shall be present but be dissatisfied with the proceedings, and on finding them fairly and justly stated, the proprietors then present shall give a certificate, a duplicate of which shall be entered on the said general meeting's book, and signed by the President and Directors of the company, and the names of those who fail to pay thereon, shall be struck off the book, and others complying with this regulation may take such shares; and the President and Directors, and their successors or a majority of them at all times, and from time to time, as money may be placed in their hands, or raised by the sale of shares, shall be directed at what time and in what proportions the subscribers shall pay the sums by them subscriptions, which orders shall be advertised at least in one month in some one Newspaper published in the town of Petersburg in Virginia, and in one or more Newspapers published in the city of Raleigh in North-Carolina; [Presidents] the President and Directors may at any time, and without demand from the subscribers, more than three dollars and one hundred dollars, if any subscriber, or any person in his behalf or interest, shall fail to pay their proportions required within one month after the same is advertised, the President and Directors or a majority of them, may sell at auction and convey to the purchaser, the shares of the subscribers so failing, giving at least one month's notice of the sale in the Newspapers aforesaid, and all such sales shall be in the town of Halifax aforesaid, and after notice, and such deposit of money as the Directors shall think sufficient to cover the debt, and the money arising from the sale of such vessel shall be sold; and if such sale shall not produce the full sum ordered and directed to be advanced as aforesaid, with interest and incidental charges, the said President and Directors, or a majority of them may, in the name of the company, sue for and recover the balance by bill of exchange in any Court of competent jurisdiction, on ten days previous notice; and the said purchaser or purchasers shall be subject to the same rules and regulations, and entitled to the same profits and privileges as if the sale or conveyance had been made by the original proprietor.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That from time to time, and until the expiration of the term for which the said President and Directors may be appointed, the proprietors at their next general meeting, or at any time, or upon the demand of any five subscribers, or any part thereof, may appoint a successor or successors to the President of the company; and if the President or any of the Directors, shall on any emergency in the said town of Halifax, fail to perform any of the duties enjoined on them by the laws or by any of the agreements between the proprietors, the remaining members of that body, may appoint a successor or successors until the next general meeting; and the proprietors, at their next general meeting shall fill up such vacancy, and may at any general meeting, remove the President or any of the Directors, and appoint others in their stead for and during the term for which such person or persons were at first to have acted.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That every President and Director, before he acts as such, shall take an oath of affirmation for the due execution of his office.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the presence of proprietors owning a majority of shares, shall be necessary to constitute a general meeting, and that if at any such meeting there shall be not less than one half of the total number of shares present; and if any person or persons shall be absent by leave of the President of the company, or if any person or persons shall be present but be dissatisfied with the proceedings, and on finding them fairly and justly stated, the proprietors then present shall give a certificate, a duplicate of which shall be entered on the said general meeting's book, and signed by the President and Directors of the company, and the names of those who fail to pay thereon, shall be struck off the book, and others complying with this regulation may take such shares; and the President and Directors, and their successors or a majority of them at all times, and from time to time, as money may be placed in their hands, or raised by the sale of shares, shall be directed at what time and in what proportions the subscribers shall pay the sums by them subscriptions, which orders shall be advertised at least in one month in some one Newspaper published in the town of Petersburg in Virginia, and in one or more Newspapers published in the city of Raleigh in North-Carolina; [President] the President and Directors may at any time, and without demand from the subscribers, more than three dollars and one hundred dollars, if any subscriber, or any person in his behalf or interest, shall fail to pay their proportions required within one month after the same is advertised, the President and Directors or a majority of them, may sell at auction and convey to the purchaser, the shares of the subscribers so failing, giving at least one month's notice of the sale in the Newspapers aforesaid, and all such sales shall be in the town of Halifax aforesaid, and after notice, and such deposit of money as the Directors shall think sufficient to cover the debt, and the money arising from the sale of such vessel shall be sold; and if such sale shall not produce the full sum ordered and directed to be advanced as aforesaid, with interest and incidental charges, the said President and Directors, or a majority of them may, in the name of the company, sue for and recover the balance by bill of exchange in any Court of competent jurisdiction, on ten days previous notice; and the said purchaser or purchasers shall be subject to the same rules and regulations, and entitled to the same profits and privileges as if the sale or conveyance had been made by the original proprietor.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That every President and Director, before he acts as such, shall take an oath of affirmation for the due execution of his office.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the presence of proprietors owning a majority of shares, shall be necessary to constitute a general meeting, and that if at any such meeting there shall be not less than one half of the total number of shares present; and if any person or persons shall be absent by leave of the President of the company, or if any person or persons shall be present but be dissatisfied with the proceedings, and on finding them fairly and justly stated, the proprietors then present shall give a certificate, a duplicate of which shall be entered on the said general meeting's book, and signed by the President and Directors of the company, and the names of those who fail to pay thereon, shall be struck off the book, and others complying with this regulation may take such shares; and the President and Directors, and their successors or a majority of them at all times, and from time to time, as money may be placed in their hands, or raised by the sale of shares, shall be directed at what time and in what proportions the subscribers shall pay the sums by them subscriptions, which orders shall be advertised at least in one month in some one Newspaper published in the town of Petersburg in Virginia, and in one or more Newspapers published in the city of Raleigh in North-Carolina; [President] the President and Directors may at any time, and without demand from the subscribers, more than three dollars and one hundred dollars, if any subscriber, or any person in his behalf or interest, shall fail to pay their proportions required within one month after the same is advertised, the President and Directors or a majority of them, may sell at auction and convey to the purchaser, the shares of the subscribers so failing, giving at least one month's notice of the sale in the Newspapers aforesaid, and all such sales shall be in the town of Halifax aforesaid, and after notice, and such deposit of money as the Directors shall think sufficient to cover the debt, and the money arising from the sale of such vessel shall be sold; and if such sale shall not produce the full sum ordered and directed to be advanced as aforesaid, with interest and incidental charges, the said President and Directors, or a majority of them may, in the name of the company, sue for and recover the balance by bill of exchange in any Court of competent jurisdiction, on ten days previous notice; and the said purchaser or purchasers shall be subject to the same rules and regulations, and entitled to the same profits and privileges as if the sale or conveyance had been made by the original proprietor.
after, alter the rates of toll hereby established: Provided, That this Legislature shall not at any time reduce the rates of tollage so as to reduce the profits arising therefrom, below fifteen per cent. upon the capital stock.

X. An act further enacted. That the President and Directors of the said company, shall, every twenty-five years, after their works are completed and the navigation thereupon be opened for public use, by a general meeting, determine and settle the sum or sums, if any, necessary to be paid annually, as a tax, upon the capital stock of the said company, in proportion to the share or shares held by every person interested therein, and the said tax shall be paid annually, by every person interested therein, in proportion to the share or shares held by him, and no other toll or tax whatever for the use of the water of the said navigation and works thereon erected, shall at any time hereafter be imposed or levied.

XI. And whereas it may be necessary to complete the navigation for said, that certain portions of land or rocks, or fish stands in the river, should be condemned for the purpose; Be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the President and Directors, or a majority of them, to agree with the owners of any lands, rocks, sluices, or fish-stands, to whom the said navigation is directed to pass, for the purpose thereof, and in case of disagreement, or if the owner shall be female, or under age, or non compos or out of the State, on application to any two Justices of the county in which such lands, rocks, sluices or fish stands lie, the said Justices shall issue their warrant to the Sheriff of the said county, to summon a jury of eighteen Freewillers, not related to the parties, and disinterested, to meet on the land to be valued, at a day to be exprest, by affidavit, by the said warrant, not less than ten, nor more than twenty days thereafter; and the Sheriff, on the receipt of the said warrant, shall summon the said jury, and when met, shall administer an oath or affirmation to each of them, provided twelve or more appear; to wit: That he will impartially value the thing in question, and consider all damages the owner there of may sustaine, in consequence of being directed of his property therein; and that he will not in his valuation, spare any person through favour, nor injure any one through malice or hatred, and the inquisition so taken shall be signed by twelve or more Jurors, and returned to the Clerk of the county to be recorded; and in all such cases, the jury is directed to describe the thing valued, and their valuation shall be conclusive; and the President and Directors shall pay the Justices and their jurors their usual fees, and the fees of the Sheriff, the inquisition taken, and the transfer shall be made, except for one or more whole shares or shares, and not for part of such shares, and that no share or shares shall at any time be sold, conveyed, transferred or held in trust for the use and benefit, or in the name of another, whereby the said President and Directors, or proprietors, members of the said company or any of them, shall or may be challenged or made to answer any such trust, but that every such person appearing as aforesaid, shall be a proprietor and the person for whose benefit such trust shall be, to every intent taken absolutely as such; but between any trustee and the person for whose benefit such trust shall be created, the common remedy may be pursued.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the President and Directors or a majority of them, may agree with the proprietor or proprietors for any quantity of land not exceeding four acres at or near each place intended for collecting the tolls aforesaid, for the purpose of erecting necessary buildings, and in case of disagreement or any of the disabilities aforesaid, or the proprietor or proprietors being out of the State, the same proceeding may be had, and the same consequences shall follow as are enacted in the proceeding clause.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the said company and every proprietor shall have the power to transfer his or her share or shares by deed executed before two witnesses, and registered after proof of the execution in the company’s books and paid for, except by share or shares, also be exhibited to the President and Directors, and registered, before the devise shall be entitled to draw any part of the profits or dividends, and the devise shall be payable to the devisee, and the devisee shall be not liable for the devise, devisee’s share or shares shall at any time be sold, conveyed, transferred, or held in trust for the use and benefit of the person, to whom the same shall have been transferred; and the President and Directors shall have power and authority to make rules and regulations in consequence of this act, and in case of disagreement or any of the disabilities aforesaid, or the proprietor or proprietors being out of the State, the said proceeding may be had, and the same consequences shall follow as are enacted in the proceeding clauses.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for every proprietor to transfer his or her share or shares by deed executed before two witnesses, and registered after proof of the execution in the company’s books and paid for, except by share or shares, also be exhibited to the President and Directors, and registered, before the devise shall be entitled to draw any part of the profits or dividends, and the devise shall be payable to the devisee, the devisee’s share or shares shall at any time be sold, conveyed, transferred, or held in trust for the use and benefit of the person, to whom the same shall have been transferred; and the President and Directors shall have power and authority to make rules and regulations in consequence of this act, and in case of disagreement or any of the disabilities aforesaid, or the proprietor or proprietors being out of the State, the said proceeding may be had, and the same consequences shall follow as are enacted in the proceeding clauses.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if the said company shall not complete the navigation so as to admit the safe passage of boats through the same within ten years after the conclusion of the present war, all preference in favour of the said company in said navigation shall be forfeited: Provided, That if the said company shall, at the expiration of the said ten years, have completed two thirds of the said navigation, they shall have a further time of three years for completing the same.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the said company and said successors, shall have the power of purchasing, selling, and applying all real and personal estate; and if any person or persons shall be sued for any thing done in pursuance of this act, he or they shall have the general issue and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and on a verdict against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or non suits, or discontinuance, recover costs of suit.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the General Assembly of North-Carolina shall not impose any new duty or impost on commodities, manufactures, produce or merchandise transported by the said navigation, and that no distinction be made between the people of North-Carolina and the people of Virginia. Provided, That this General Assembly may make such regulations, respecting the inspection of produce brought down the said River Roanoke and intended for exportation, as they shall think proper, making no distinction between the people of North-Carolina and the people of Virginia; And provided always, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to exempt from taxation, any lands or other property of the said company other than that immediately used for the navigation by this act contemplated to be effected.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That all laws and parts of laws that come within the purview and meaning of this act hereby declared void and of no effect, and that no part of this act shall be so construed as to interfere with the stipulations of any Act of Congress, and the acts of the General Assembly of North-Carolina, or from the waters of Chowan river in this State, to some of the waters of James river in the state of Virginia, or the Dismal Swamp Canal."
An Act for opening and improving the navigation of Neuse river.

II. And be it further enacted, That the President and Directors, shall immediately after the said first general meeting shall be held, be authorized to choose a President and three Directors at any time thereafter at a general meeting to be held on or before the first day of April next, and to be kept open till the fifteenth day of July next, and on the said fifteenth day of July there shall be a general meeting of the subscribers at the city of Raleigh; and the managers aforenamed or any two of them shall give notice of the said meeting in one or more of the newspapers published in Raleigh, one week before the day for that purpose appointed; the meeting shall and may be continued from day to day until the business is finished; the acting managers shall then and there by before the said meeting the books by them kept, containing a statement of the subscriptions made; if the capital sum aforesaid shall not have been subscribed, the managers shall at Raleigh, during the said meeting, continue to receive subscriptions to make up said capital sum, and shall at such times and places, and on such terms and conditions as the managers shall think fit; if any general meeting of the stockholders shall direct, cause to be opened books of subscription for making up any deficiency that may still remain.

III. And be it further enacted, That the President and Directors, shall immediately after the said first general meeting shall be held, be authorized to choose a President and three Directors at any time thereafter at a general meeting to be held on or before the first day of April next, and to be kept open till the fifteenth day of July next, and on the said fifteenth day of July there shall be a general meeting of the subscribers at the city of Raleigh; and the managers aforenamed or any two of them shall give notice of the said meeting in one or more of the newspapers published in Raleigh, one week before the day for that purpose appointed; the meeting shall and may be continued from day to day until the business is finished; the acting managers shall then and there by before the said meeting the books by them kept, containing a statement of the subscriptions made; if the capital sum aforesaid shall not have been subscribed, the managers shall at Raleigh, during the said meeting, continue to receive subscriptions to make up said capital sum, and shall at such times and places, and on such terms and conditions as the managers shall think fit; if any general meeting of the stockholders shall direct, cause to be opened books of subscription for making up any deficiency that may still remain.

IV. in fee of the thing valued, whether land or rocks, in the same manner as if conveyed to them by the owner by legal conveyance; Provided, That such condemnation shall not interfere with dwelling houses.

That the said company shall have the power and authority to raise a sum not exceeding twenty-five hundred dollars by lottery at such time, and under such rules as they may think proper to adopt, for the purpose of completing the navigation aforesaid; and they or a majority of them, are hereby declared to have the power and authority to institute and maintain suit for the recovery of such lottery or sums as may be ordered by the said company, for the purpose of carrying this act into effect.

And be it further enacted, That if the said company shall not complete the said navigation so as to admit the passage of boats through the same within twelve years from the first day of January next, all preference in favor of the said company in the said navigation shall be forfeited; Provided, That if the said company shall at the expiration of the said twelve years, have completed two thirds of the said navigation, they shall have a further time of six years to complete the same.

And be it further enacted, That the said company and their successors, shall have the power of purchasing, holding and selling real and personal estate; and if any person or persons shall be sued for any thing done in pursuance of this act, be or they may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and on a verdict against the plaintiff or plaintiffs, or nonsuit or discontinuance, recover costs of suit.

Provided, That the said Commissioners aforesaid, or the proprietors, members of the said company, or any of them, shall or may be challenged or made to answer any such suit but every person appearing as aforesaid to be a proprietor, shall as to the others of said company, be to every intent taken absolutely as such; but between any trustees and the person, for whose benefit such trust shall be created, the common remedy may be pursued.

And be it further enacted, That if the said capital shall prove insufficient, it shall and may be lawful for the said company, from time to time to increase their capital by the addition of so many whole shares as shall be judged necessary by the proprietors, members of the said company or a majority in interest of them, who shall be present at any general meeting, and on such terms as the said general meeting shall think fit. And the said President and Directors, or a majority of them, are hereby empowered and required, after giving one month's notice in one or more of the Newspapers published in Raleigh, to open books at the before mentioned places for receiving and entering such additional subscriptions in which the proprietors for the time being, are hereby declared to have the preference of all others for the first thirty days after the said books shall be opened as aforesaid, of taking and subscribing to all such additional shares as many of them shall choose; and the President and Directors are hereby required to observe in all other respects, the same rules therein, as are by this act prescribed for receiving and adjusting the first subscriptions; and all proprietors of such additional shares are hereby declared to be from thence forward incorporated into the said company.

And be it further enacted, That if the said company shall not complete the said navigation so as to admit the passage of boats through the same within twelve years from the first day of January next, all preference in favor of the said company in the said navigation shall be forfeited; Provided, That if the said company shall at the expiration of the said twelve years, have completed two thirds of the said navigation, they shall have a further time of six years to complete the same.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if the said Commissioners aforesaid shall be, and they are hereby appointed Commissioners for the purpose of completing the navigation of New River, from Lockhart's Falls to Newbern.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners aforesaid or a majority of them, are hereby vested with full power and authority to raise a sum not exceeding twenty-five hundred dollars by lottery at such time, and under such rules as they may think proper to adopt, for the purpose of completing the navigation aforesaid; and they or a majority of them, are hereby declared to have the power and authority to institute and maintain suit for the recovery of such lottery or sums as may be ordered by the said company, for the purpose of carrying this act into effect.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners, previous to their drawing the lottery authorised by this act, shall enter into bond with security, which shall be approved by the County Court of Johnston and filed in the Clerk's office of said county, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars payable to the Governor and his successors, and no share or shares shall at any time be sold, conveyed, transferred or held in trust, for the use or benefit, or in the name of another, whereby the President and Directors, or proprietors, members of the said company, or any of them, shall or may be challenged or made to answer any such suit but every person appearing as aforesaid to be a proprietor, shall as to the others of said company, be to every intent taken absolutely as such; but between any trustees and the person, for whose benefit such trust shall be created, the common remedy may be pursued.

And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners, previous to their drawing the lottery authorised by this act, shall enter into bond with security, which shall be approved by the County Court of Johnston and filed in the Clerk's office of said county, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars payable to the Governor and his successors, and no share or shares shall at any time be sold, conveyed, transferred or held in trust, for the use or benefit, or in the name of another, whereby the President and Directors, or proprietors, members of the said company, or any of them, shall or may be challenged or made to answer any such suit but every person appearing as aforesaid to be a proprietor, shall as to the others of said company, be to every intent taken absolutely as such; but between any trustees and the person, for whose benefit such trust shall be created, the common remedy may be pursued.

And be it further enacted, That if the said capital shall prove insufficient, it shall and may be lawful for the said company, from time to time to increase their capital by the addition of so many whole shares as shall be judged necessary by the proprietors, members of the said company or a majority in interest of them, who shall be present at any general meeting, and on such terms as the said general meeting shall think fit. And be it further enacted, That the said company shall constitute a quorum to transact business, and shall have power to receive subscriptions and donations from such public spirited persons as may be inclined to aid such laudable undertakings, and dispose of the same as they may think proper for the purpose aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said company shall have full power to remove all obstructions that they may deem necessary for the safe passage of boats; and if any person or persons shall act or do any thing to injure sail navigation, such person or persons shall be answerable to the said company in double the damages thereby sustained.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said company shall keep open their books of subscription and donations, until such time as they shall judge that they have a sufficiency subscribed, and then shall proceed to open such navigation, and the same when completed, shall be, and remain a public highway for the transportation of all crafts, goods, wares and merchandise free from toll.

VII. And be it further enacted, That said company, for the trouble and expenditures they may incur by carrying this act into effect, shall be allowed four per cent out of all monies by them collected, and appropriated agreeably to the tenor of this act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after the passing thereof.

CHAP. XCII.

An Act to facilitate the navigation of Old Town Creek in the county of Brunswick.

BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Frances Alston, William Wingate, John Evans, Sen. William J. Grissett, John J. Gausse, Maurice Moore, Robert Potter, Thomas Leonard and Josiah C. Baker, be, and they are hereby appointed Commissioners, with power and authority to enter into such rules and regulations as a majority of them may deem most expedient for the purpose of completing the navigation of Old Town Creek, in the county of Brunswick, from its junction with Cape Fear River, to John Hogg's mills. And when any canals may be necessary for facilitating the said navigation, and the same shall pass through the lands of any person or persons under the age of twenty-one years, the owner or owners of such lands may be answerable to the said company, in double the damages thereby sustained, and shall be deemed to accrue the day on which the same is completed, and the said company, or any person or persons to whom the said lands may be conveyed, are hereby authorized and directed to make a return of the said lands to the court of the county wherein the same shall be situated, and shall be entitled to recover the same at the expense of the said company.

And that the said company shall secure a passage through the said lands for the purposes of navigation, and that the said company shall make such return as aforesaid, and the monies when paid into court shall be received by the clerk, and paid to the owner or owners, or guardian as the case may be.

That the said company shall not interfere with or take any houses, orchards or other improvements, and the petitioner shall pay damages for the said premises and for any inconvenience or the reduction or restriction of their works, by the construction of the necessary vessels and adequate machinery as to the direction of the said company, or any other person or persons who may be interested in such reduction or restriction as they may make by their said works, and the said company shall be responsible for the same. And in case of any dispute as to the measurement or location of the said lands, the said commissioners shall have full and complete power to make such surveys as shall be deemed necessary, and to settle the same, and the said commissioners shall have full and complete power to make such surveys as shall be deemed necessary, and to settle the same.

And be it further enacted, That the said bond shall be filed with the clerk of the superior court of the county, who shall keep the same in his office, and any person thereby aggrieved may, without assignment, bring an action on the said bond in the name of the governor, and recover damages accordingly.

And be it further enacted, That the said bond shall be deposited with the clerk of the Superior Court of Brunswick County, who shall keep the same in his office, and any person thereby aggrieved may, without assignment, bring and prosecute an action on the said bond in the name of the governor, and recover damages accordingly.

The foregoing statement is founded on Documents filed in the Comptroller's Office of North Carolina, this 1st day December 1812.

S. GOODWIN, Comptroller.
To equalize the Land Tax and to raise a revenue for the payment of the civil list and to defray the contingent charges of government.

WHEREAS the present mode of levying and collecting the land tax is found to be unequal, inasmuch as regard is not had to the intrinsic value or quality of soil, and whereas by arranging the several counties whose soil and situation are nearly similar into districts, a standard value is produced whereby the existing disproportion may be remedied.

BE it therefore enacted by the General Assembly of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Counties within this State shall be divided into two districts in the following manner, to wit, the counties of

A BILL

To equalize the Land Tax and to raise a revenue for the payment of the civil list and to defray the contingent charges of government.

Resolved, That the House do concur herewith.

Geo. Outlaw, S. S.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Counties within this State shall be divided into two districts in the following manner, to wit:

The preceding resolutions being read, Resolved, that this House do concur herewith.

W. Miller, C. H. C.

M. Stokes, Clk.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said commissioners upon their being notified as aforesaid, shall take and subscribe before some person authorized to administer the same, the following oath, to wit, I, A. B. do solemnly and sincerely swear, that I will to the best of my skill and judgment, ascertain the true average value of every tract of land or plantation within the district to which I am appointed as commissioner, under the circumstances aforesaid, and thereby made fully competent to all intents and purposes as the other commissioners appointed, and be deemed fully competent to all intents and purposes as the other commissioners appointed, and shall be the duty of the said sheriffs forthwith to deliver the same.

IX. And be it further enacted, That any person who shall conceive himself aggrieved by the valuation, classification or equalization of his lands, such person shall make known to the clerk of the county court at the time when and on the occasion of the first term held after the fifteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, the number of acres in each tract or plantation, and return the same to the Clerk of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of his county, at or before the first day of the term of said court next succeeding their appointment, and the said commissioner shall take a receipt for the delivery of such list.

X. And be it further enacted, That the county court of each and every county within this state, shall at the first term held after the fifteenth January, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, appoint three competent and suitable persons as commissioners of appeals, who shall set, try and determine all appeals or exceptions made from the judgment of the commissioners appointed to equalize and class the lands within the several militia captain's districts within this state, and to hear evidence for and against all appellants, and the said commissioners shall hold a meeting for that purpose at the court-house in their respective counties, the week succeeding the county court to which the said commissioners appointed to equalize the lands shall return their list; and it is hereby declared to be the duty of the clerks of said county court of pleas and quarter sessions, to deliver to the sheriff of their several counties a copy of the order of the court appointing said commissioners; and it shall be the duty of the said sheriffs forthwith to deliver the same.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said commissioners upon their being notified as aforesaid, shall take and subscribe before some person authorized to administer the same, the following oath, to wit, I, A. B. do solemnly and sincerely swear, that I will to the best of my skill and judgment, diligently and faithfully execute the duties on me enjoined as commissioner of appeals, without favour, affection, or partiality, and that I will do equal and impartial justice in all matters which may be brought before me as commissioner aforesaid.

XII. And be it further enacted, That any of the commissioners appointed by this act, refuse to act, die or become incapable to discharge the duties of their appointment, any two justices of the Peace for the county, may and they are hereby authorized and directed under their hands and seals, to nominate and appoint one or more as their place, and it shall be the duty of the clerk to lay by the names of the said commissioners before the aforesaid commissioners of appeals, and that the decision of the said commissioners of appeals shall be final and conclusive, and from which no appeal shall be had; and the said commissioners shall immediately make a return thereof to the clerk aforesaid.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the said commissioners, upon receiving the compensation aforesaid, shall return to the commissioners on the following property—that is to say, on lands according to the classification made by the said commissioners, a sum not exceeding the hundred acres, on lands denominated the first quality; the sum of cents the hundred acres, on all lands denominated the second quality; a sum not exceeding the hundred acres, on all lands denominated the third quality; a sum not exceeding the hundred acres, on all lands denominated the fourth quality; a sum not exceeding the hundred acres, on all lands denominated the fifth quality; the sum of cents the hundred acres, on all lands denominated the sixth quality; and on all slaves of the age of twelve years, and not exceeding the age of forty-five years; a sum not exceeding cents on all white males of the age of twenty-one years and under the age of forty-five; on all Stud-horses and Jack-asses, a sum not exceeding one-fourth of the price the owner or keeper may require for the season of one mare.
shall be subject to pay one hundred pounds to the use of the state, to be recovered in the same manner as is prescribed by the section of an act of the General Assembly, passed in the year one thousand eight hundred and seven, entitled "An act for the more regular collecting and accounting for the revenue of this state, for allowing the Public Treasurer a clerk, and for the collection of arrears, and to repeal the twelfth section of an act therein contained."

X. And be it further enacted, That the Clerks of each and every county court within this state, are hereby required to transmit to the Comptroller at his office, on or before the first day of June, in each and every year, attested copies of the returns made by the commissioners in their respective counties, and also of every species of tax which may hereafter be ordered to be returned to them.

X. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act shall be considered to invalidate or affect the proceedings hereof prescribed by law against any delinquent revenue officers, or receiver of public money, and that in all cases not otherwise provided for by this act, the same proceedings shall be had and observed as heretofore against such delinquents.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in all cases of alienation, partition or exchange of lands either by sale or otherwise, in any of the counties within this state, the person or persons in whom the right of such lands shall be vested, shall be next county court held for said county in which such lands lie, return to the clerk of said count the list of the same, and whose duty it shall be to enter the same in the list of his annual return to the Comptroller; provided always, That cases of alienation or partition where the division of lands render it necessary to retrench and equalize the same, the county court shall in such case appoint two suitable persons as is prescribed in this act to value and equalize the same according to the directions of this act; and every person claiming lands by alienation, partition, purchase, when the right thereof is changed, and who shall fail to return the same according to the directions of this act, for every such failure, be held liable and subject to pay the sum of five pounds, to be recovered by the same of the clerk of the county court, before any Justice of the Peace for the county in which such failure shall or may happen, with cost.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Public-tax, taxes on Taverns, Bittibam-tables and Tavern-keepers, shall be apportioned in the same manner as are already by law established; and that the Clerks of the county courts within this state, and they are hereby required to return the same in a separate list, designating by distinct columns the number of polls and all other subjects of taxation, and return the same to the Comptroller at the same time by he are required by this act to return the land tax.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any person, or persons, property hereafter appointed, be subject to and liable to pay the following tax—this is to say, on all lands denominated the first quality in the first district, shall pay the sum of ten shillings and sixpence the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the second quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of two shillings and eightpence the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the third quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of one shilling the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the fourth quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of one shilling the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the fifth quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of two shillings and eightpence the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the sixth quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of ten shillings and sixpence the hundred acres; and on all lands denominated the seventh quality, in the second district, shall pay the sum of ten shillings and sixpence the hundred acres; and on all lands denominated the eighth quality, in the second district, shall pay the sum of one shilling the hundred acres.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the property in reference to any county court within this state, shall be required to pay the following tax—this is to say, on all lands denominated the first quality in the first district, shall pay the sum of ten shillings and sixpence the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the second quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of two shillings and eightpence the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the third quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of one shilling the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the fourth quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of one shilling the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the fifth quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of two shillings and eightpence the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the sixth quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of ten shillings and sixpence the hundred acres; and on all lands denominated the seventh quality, in the second district, shall pay the sum of ten shillings and sixpence the hundred acres; and on all lands denominated the eighth quality, in the second district, shall pay the sum of one shilling the hundred acres.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That where any of the millers, captains or districts within any of the counties in this state, shall be so large as to require more than two commissioners, the county court may, and they are hereby required, to appoint one other additional commissioner, as is directed in this act, to classify the lands, and equalize the same, the county court shall in such case appoint two suitable persons as is prescribed in this act to equalize the same, and requiring a price therefor as aforesaid.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the property in reference to any county court within this state, shall be required to pay the following tax—this is to say, on all lands denominated the first quality in the first district, shall pay the sum of ten shillings and sixpence the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the second quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of two shillings and eightpence the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the third quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of one shilling the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the fourth quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of one shilling the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the fifth quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of two shillings and eightpence the hundred acres; on all lands denominated the sixth quality, in the first district, shall pay the sum of ten shillings and sixpence the hundred acres; and on all lands denominated the seventh quality, in the second district, shall pay the sum of ten shillings and sixpence the hundred acres; and on all lands denominated the eighth quality, in the second district, shall pay the sum of one shilling the hundred acres.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the clerk of the several county courts, within this state, shall be allowed the additional sum of one hundred dollars, as a compensation for such additional services as are required of him by this act; and that the same shall be paid to the clerk aforesaid by the sheriff, out of the public monies by him collected; Provided always, That the clerk aforesaid shall in open court, obtain an order setting forth that the said clerk hath performed the duties assigned him by this act with fidelity, and as evidence thereof the certificate of the Comptroller of the Treasury shall be produced (U)
