Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the act, entitled "an act to recharter the Bank of Cape Fear," passed by the General Assembly in the session of 1833-1834, be, and the same is hereby continued in force until the first day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, That the president and directors shall convene, by public notice, the stock-

this act and the first day of April next, for the purpose of ascertaining whether they wish to increase the capital stock of the said bank; and in case they determine to increase the capital stock, there shall be added seven thou-

the capital stock of said bank one million five hundred thousand dollars; of which increased capital, the State of North Carolina shall be entitled to subscribe three thousand shares, and individuals and corporations the re-

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That if the stockholdbeth City, Halifax, Tarboro', Lincolnton, Morganton, Washington, Wadesboro', Wilkesboro', Greensborough, Rutherfordton, and Oxford, and the same to keep open for subscription for ten days; and if it shall happen, when the books shall be opened as aforesaid, that a greater number than four thousand shares shall be subscribed by individuals or bodies corporate, it shall be lawful for the president and directors to reduce such subscriptions, according to a scale by them to be established for that purpose, to the aforesaid number of four thousand shares:

Provided, that no subscriptions of two shares or under,
shall be scaled until all larger subscriptions shall be reduced to an equality with them: Provided also, that if the four thousand shares be not subscribed within ten days as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the stockholders, at any future time, to open books of subscription, at the same places, under the same restrictions, for the residue: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall compel the president and directors to open books for a subscription of more than two thousand shares, until after the first day of January, 1838.

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That when the capital stock shall be increased as aforesaid, the said president, directors and company of the Bank of Cape Fear, are hereby made able and capable in law to have, purchase, receive, possess, enjoy, and retain to themselves, their successors and assigns, lands, rents, tenements, hereditaments, goods, chattels and effects to an amount not exceeding three millions of dollars, exclusive of their capital stock aforesaid, with the same privileges as are prescribed in the act of 1833.

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, That when the said seven thousand shares shall be fully paid for, according to the provisions of this act, the representative of the State, whom the Governor, Secretary of State and Comptroller, shall designate, may appoint four directors of said bank, who are stockholders, and the individual stockholders may appoint seven directors. And in all general meetings of the stockholders, the representative of the State appointed as aforesaid, shall be entitled to three votes for every six given by individual stockholders.

Sec. 6. Sec. 7. Be it further enacted, That not less than three directors shall constitute a quorum, for the transaction of business at the principal bank; of whom the president shall be one, unless in case of sickness or necessary absence; when he shall appoint, by a written instrument, a director to fill his place. And in case of the death, resignation, or removal from the State, of any director, his place shall be filled by a new appointment for the remainder of the year, by a majority of the directors: Provided, that no person shall be eligible as a director, who is not the owner of ten shares or more of the capital stock of the bank.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That the total amount of debt, which the said corporation shall at any time owe, shall not exceed twice the amount of its capital, over and above its capital stock, and the sum then actually deposited in the bank for safe keeping, unless the contracting of any greater debt shall have been previously authorised by a law of the State.

SEC. 9. Be it further enacted, That the president of said bank shall give notice to the Governor of this State, of the acceptance of this charter, as amended, by the stockholders thereof, at such time as they may prescribe, before the first day of April next.

SEC. 10. Be it further enacted, That upon such notice being given to the Governor of this State as is herein required, by the president of said bank, it shall and may be lawful for the president and directors of the said bank, and they are hereby required to receive from the Public Treasurer a subscription in behalf of the State, for the whole amount of the said three thousand shares of capital stock, at any time within three months from the passing of this act; payment for which to the said bank shall be made as follows, to wit: one fourth of the whole amount at the time of subscribing, and one other fourth every ninety days thereafter, till full payment be made: Provided, that if the Public Treasurer pay the whole of the said subscription at the time of subscribing, or any greater part thereof than is hereby required, before the time limited for the same, the State shall have interest at the rate of six per cent. on all payments made in advance, computing the same from the time when payment is made to the time when required to be made: And provided also, that if the Public Treasurer fail to pay the said instalments, or any part of them, at the times appointed for the payment of the same, he shall pay interest, at the same rate, on all instalments or parts thereof not punctually paid, from the time the same should have been paid, until payment be made.

Sec. 11. Be it further enacted, That if, at any time hereafter, the president and directors of said bank shall find that the whole capital of the same cannot be safely and profitably employed, they shall have power, and they are hereby authorised, by the consent of the General Assembly, first to be had and obtained, to reduce the same to an amount not less than one million of dollars, by purchasing the stock of said bank, or receiving the same in payment of debts, bona fide due the bank, at a price not less than the par value thereof; and all shares of stock so purchased by the bank or taken in payment of debts, shall thereafter cease to be a part of the capital stock of said bank.

Sec. 12. Be it further enacted, That the said bank shall have authority to deal in such public debt as now is, or may hereafter be created by this State.

[Ratified 23rd January, 1837.]
ton Rail Road Company, shall be called and known as a body corporate in all the States aforesaid, by the name of "The Louisville, Cincinnati and Charleston Rail Road Company;" and that the corporators in the said Rail Road Company shall form a separate body corporate, in deed and in law, for banking purposes, in such of the States of South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky, as shall assent thereto, and be called and known by the name of the "South Western Rail Road Bank:" Provided, that the assent of not less than three of the said States shall be given hereto, before the bank shall have corporate existence.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, That the said Banking Company shall be formed in the following manner, and be vested with the following powers, and be subject to the following restrictions: that is to say: 1st. Each of the present stockholders, and every person who may hereafter become a stockholder in the said Rail Road Company, until the capital thereof shall be increased by regular subscriptions to twelve millions of dollars, shall be entitled, for every share in the said Rail Road Company of one hundred dollars, to take one share in the bank of fifty dollars, so that the capital of the said bank may, in the first instance, amount to the sum of six millions of dollars. 2d. The directors of the said company shall cause books to be opened to the community at large, in all the States of South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky, at all places where books were opened for the first subscriptions of stock in said Rail Road Company, and such other places as the said directors may designate, by such commissioners as the said directors may appoint, from ten o'clock in the morning to two o'clock in the afternoon of each day, for a period not less than thirty days, except Sundays, for the purpose of increasing the stock of the said rail road company to twelve millions of dollars; and if, on closing the books, on the last day of December, eighteen hundred and thirty seven, the Rail Road capital shall have been increased by regular subscriptions to eight millions of dollars, or more, the bank shall be regarded as formed; and thereupon, the stockholders therein shall be a body corporate in all the States assenting thereto, by the name of "The South Western Rail Road Bank;" Provided, at least three of the said States shall assent thereto. 3rd. If, on closing the books, the subscriptions shall have increased the capital of the Rail Road Company beyond twelve millions of dollars, the same shall be reduced to that sum, by reducing the subscriptions made after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, in the manner prescribed by the seventh section of the Rail Road charter.

Sec. 3. As soon as the said bank has become a body corporate as aforesaid, the directors of the said Rail Road Company, by publication, in two or more newspapers in each of the said States, shall call on all the stockholders in the Rail Road Company, to pay the first instalment of twelve dollars and fifty cents on each share towards forming the capital of the bank, which sum shall be paid into some specie paying bank in the State where the payment is made, to the credit of the "South Western Rail Road Bank;" and each stockholder in the Rail Road Company, who shall, within one month after the day fixed for the said payment, pay, on the whole, or any part of the stock he owns, in specie, or the notes of specie paying banks in the said States, the instalment so called for, shall be regarded and taken as a stockholder in the said bank, for the number of shares on which such payment shall be made. And as soon as the said bank has become a body corporate as aforesaid, the directors of the Rail Road Company shall appoint a time and place for the stockholders in the bank to meet by themselves, or proxies, and give notice thereof, by publications in two or more newspapers in each of the said States, at least one calendar month before such meeting. In all meetings of the stockholders of the bank, votes may be given in person or by proxy, on the same terms, and according to the same scale as is prescribed for voting in person, or by proxy, in meetings of the Rail Road Company; except that no person shall act as a proxy in the bank, unless he be a stockholder therein.

Sec. 4. At the first meeting of the stockholders, and annually thereafter, on such day as shall be fixed by the bank corporation, there shall be an election of thirteen directors of the bank; and those who are elected by a plurality of votes shall be capable of serving as such only for one year; but shall be re-eligible. In case of death, resignation, or removal from office by the stockholders, of a director, his place may be filled by the other directors for the remainder of the year.

Sec. 5. But should the day of annual election pass, without any election of directors, the bank shall not be thereby dissolved; but it shall be lawful on any other day to hold and make such election in such manner as may be prescribed by a bye-law of the bank corporation.

Sec. 6. The directors of the bank shall be resident citizens of some of the said States, and stockholders of the bank; and, at the first meeting after their election, they shall appoint one of their number to be President of the said bank; they shall appoint all the officers of the bank, and the president, directors and cashier of its branches, all of whom they may remove at pleasure, and may also at pleasure remove all the officers of the branches, which shall have been appointed by the president and directors of such branches: no director, or partner of a director of another bank, shall be a director in this bank, or in any of its branches; nor shall any person act as a director, who may be under protest in the said bank, as drawer or endorser of any note or bill of exchange, held by the said bank, either for discount or collection, unless he shall prove to the satisfaction of a majority of the directors, that he has just and sufficient cause for refusing payment of the demand on which such protest may be founded.

Sec. 7. The president and directors of the bank may call for a second instalment of twelve dollars and fifty cents, upon the capital of the bank, as soon after their elections as they may deem proper, upon giving one month's notice thereof, by publication, in at least two newspapers in each of the States assenting thereto: the subsequent instalments they may call for in such sums as they may deem necessary; provided, that similar notice be given, and the payment be at least sixty days apart; and, provided also, that no call for any instalments subsequent to the two first shall be made, until an amount equal to such call shall have been previously called in by the Rail Road Company, and shall have been actually expended in constructing the rail road, or shall be necessary to meet contracts actually made on account of the same. When the instalments paid in for the capital of the said bank shall amount to six millions of dollars, the capital shall not be further increased, until six millions of dollars shall have been actually called in and expended on the rail road; after which, the capital of the bank shall be increased only by calling for instalments equal in amount to those which may be called for by the Rail Road Company, until the said capital shall reach the limit of twelve millions: Provided, the capital of the bank shall not exceed six millions, until the rail road shall have been extended to the State of Tennessee; and that it shall not exceed nine millions, until the road shall be extended to the southern boundary of Kentucky; and that it shall not be increased to twelve millions, until it shall be extended to Lexington in Kentucky: Provided also, that any share in the bank, on which any instalment shall not be paid, when called for, shall, with all the payments made thereon, be forfeited to the bank; but such defaults shall not induce a forfeiture of the corresponding rail road shares.

Sec. 8. The board of directors of the rail road and Capital and of the bank, shall be distinct and separate bodies; and the officers of capital of the rail road and of the bank shall also be kept bank and rail road to be separate, &c.

the debts of the Rail Road Company; but the Rail Road Company shall be liable for the debts of the bank, in case of failure: Except, that shares in the rail road, which have no corresponding shares in the bank, shall not be liable to the debts of the bank.

Sec. 9. The president and directors of the bank shall make up, annually, a full statement of the affairs thereof, as they may stand on the first day of October; and also of the affairs of each of the branches on that day, as rendered to them by the president and directors of such branch; and shall send one copy thereof, certified by the president and cashier, to each of the Governors of the said States, to be laid before their respective legislatures.

Sec. 10. The mother, or principal bank, shall be located at Charleston; and the said bank may establish branches, or have agencies thereof, in any State, with the consent of the legislature thereof. And it is hereby declared, that the said bank shall not have corporate existence, unless two of the states of North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky shall consent to the establishment of branches therein.

Sec. 11. The bank shall never issue any note, or draw a check which is payable to order, or bearer, of a less denomination than five dollars, until the road is completed, nor less than ten dollars after the completion of said road. Nor shall it ever put in circulation notes payable to order or bearer, to an amount exceeding double its capital; and in case it shall not redeem its notes in current coin of the United States, when demanded, at the bank or branch where such notes are payable, such notes shall thenceforth bear interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum.

Sec. 12. Neither the bank nor its branches shall lend money on the pledge of its own, or the stock of the rail road, until three fourths of the capital of the Rail Road Company shall have been paid in; and then only to one half of the said stock; and the bank shall never permit the Rail Road company to overdraw
Sec. 13. Each branch of the said bank shall be an office of discount and deposit. It shall have a board, to consist of a president, and not less than six directors, with a cashier, and such other officers as the business of the branch may require; the board shall conform to all orders it may receive from the president and directors of the bank, and shall possess such powers as the said president and directors may confer on them, consistently with this charter.

Sec. 14. And the said bank corporation, by its said name and style, shall be, and is hereby made capable in law, to have, purchase, receive, possess, enjoy and retain, to it and its successors, lands, rents, tenements, hereditaments, goods, chattels, promissory notes, bills of exchange, and all other choses in action, monies, and effects of what kind, nature or quality soever, to an amount not exceeding, in the whole, three times the amount of the capital stock of the said corporation; and the same to sell, alien or dispose of; and also to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered, defend and be defended, in the courts of any of the said States, or of any other place whatsoever; and also to make, have and use a common seal, and the same to break, alter and renew at pleasure; and also to discount promissory notes, at a rate of interest not exceeding one per cent. for sixty days; and also to ordain, establish and put in execution such bye-laws, ordinances, and regulations as shall seem necessary and convenient, for the government of the said corporation, not being contrary to the laws of the said States, or of the United States, or to the constitution thereof; and generally to do and execute, all and singular, such acts, matters and things, as may be deemed necessary and proper for the good government and management of said corporation; subject, nevertheless, to such regulations, restrictions, limitations and provisions as are herein prescribed and declared.

Sec. 15. That the total amount of debts which the said corporation shall at any time owe, shall not exceed three times the amount of its capital stock, exclusive of the amount of money then actually deposited in the bank for safe keeping; and in case of excess, the directors, under whose administration such excess shall happen, shall be liable for the same in their private and individual capacities; and an action may, in such case, be brought against them, or any of them, their or any of their heirs, executors or administrators, in any court having competent jurisdiction, by any creditor or creditors of the said corporation; and may be prosecuted to judgment and execution, any condition, covenant or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding; but this shall not be construed to exempt the said rail road company, or the said bank, or the lands, tenements, goods or chattels of the same from being also liable for said excess; and such of the said directors as may have been absent when such excess was contracted or enacted, or such as may have dissented from the resolution or act whereby the same was contracted or enacted, may respectively exonerate themselves from being thus liable, by forthwith giving notice of the fact, and of their absence or dissent, to the stockholders, at a general meeting to be called for that purpose.

Sec. 16. That dividends shall be made at least twice in every year, by the said corporation, of so much of the profits of the said bank as shall appear to the directors advisable; and once in every year, the directors shall lay before the stockholders, at a general meeting, for their information, the amount of surplus profits, if any, after deducting losses and dividends.

Sec. 17. That no officer of said bank other than a director, not being president, shall be permitted, either directly or indirectly, to carry on the business or trade of merchandise, factorage, brokerage, vendue, or the exchange of money or bills for profit; and every such officer so trading, shall be removed from office by the directors, and shall not be re-eligible to any office in said bank or its branches. That no director or other officer of the said bank shall, directly or indirectly, receive any compensation for any agency, for negotiating any business with the bank or its branches, in procuring discounts, renewing notes, or receiving moneys for individuals or notes discounted; and any such director or other officer thus receiving compensation, shall be removed from office, and disqualified from thereafter holding any office in said bank or its branches.

Sec. 18. That a meeting of the stockholders may be called at any time by the president and directors, or a majority of them, or by any director who may protest against the proceedings of the board, and who may wish the propriety of his dissent to be considered by the stockholders, or whenever the holders of ten thousand shares or upwards, shall require the same; provided, that no such meeting of the stockholders shall be competent to transact business, unless one month's notice thereof be given in at least two public Gazettes, in each of the said States, and unless a majority of the stock in the said bank be represented. That the lands, tenements and hereditaments which it shall be lawful for the said corporation to hold, shall be only such as may be requisite for its immediate accommodation, for the transaction of business, such as shall have been bona fide mortgaged or assigned to it by way of security or payment for debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings, and such as shall have been purchased at sales upon judgments previously obtained.

Sec. 19. Each share in the bank shall be inseparably connected with a share in the rail road company, and shall never be transferred without it; and the forfeiture of a share in the rail road company, for the non-payment of any instalment called for thereon, shall induce a forfeiture to the bank corporation of the corresponding bank share. The stock of said bank, and the corresponding rail road stock shall be assignable and transferable, according to such regulations, and upon such terms, as may be prescribed and fixed by the bank corporation, or the directors thereof.
SEC. 20. The bills or notes which may be issued by order of the said bank corporation, signed by the president, and countersigned by the principal cashier or treasurer thereof, promising the payment of money to any person or persons, his, her or their order, or to the bearer, though not under the seal of the said corporation, shall be binding and obligatory on the said corporation, in like manner, and with the like force and effect, as upon any private person or persons, if issued by him, her or them, in his, her or their private capacity; and shall be assignable and negotiable in like manner, as if they were so issued by such private person or persons; that is to say, those which shall be payable to any person or persons, his, her or their order, shall be assigned by endorsement in like manner, and with like effect, as foreign bills of exchange now are; and those which are payable to any person or persons, or bearer, shall be negotiable or assignable by delivery only.

SEC. 21. Notes of twenty dollars and under, may be signed by the president and cashier of the branch where they are payable, and shall have the same effect as they would have, if signed by the president and cashier of the principal bank.

SEC. 22. That no less than five directors in the principal bank, or four in a branch, shall constitute a board for the transaction of business, of whom the president shall always be one, except in the case of sickness or necessary absence, when his place may be supplied by any other director, whom he, by writing, shall nominate for the purpose; and in default of such nomination by the president, or in case of sickness or necessary absence of the person so nominated, the board of directors may, by ballot, appoint a temporary president.

SEC. 23. The directors for the time being, shall have power to appoint such officers, clerks and servants under them, as shall be necessary for executing the business of said corporation, in such manner, and upon such terms as they shall deem necessary and proper; and shall also have power to remove such officers from time to time, at their will and pleasure; and shall be capable of exercising such other powers and authorities, for the well government and ordering of the affairs of the said corporation, as shall be prescribed, fixed and determined by the laws and regulations thereof.

Sec. 24. That the president, cashier, and clerks employed in keeping the books of the said bank, shall be, and they are hereby declared to be exempted from the performance of ordinary militia duty, and from serving as jurors.

Sec. 25. The capital of the said bank, and all the funds thereof, the shares of the stockholders therein, and the dividends thereon, shall be free and exempt from taxation of every kind, in each of the States granting the charter, until the said rail road shall be finished, and the stockholders in the company shall have derived an interest of six per centum per annum, for each year, upon their investments; after which, the State of North Carolina shall have the right to lay a tax, not exceeding one fourth per centum, upon so much of the capital of the bank as is employed by the branch in that aforesaid State; except that its real estate, and its goods pledged for money lent, and its goods, the produce of its lands, may be taxed at the same rate as similar real estate and goods are taxed, in the States where the same may be situated.

Sec. 26. That any real estates, bills, notes, monies, profits or other property whatever, which may, on the dissolution of the said bank corporation, be owned or possessed by it, shall be held by the directors of the said bank, for the use and benefit of all persons holding shares in said corporation at the time of its dissolution, and their legal assignees and representatives, in average and proportion to the number or amount of said shares.

Sec. 27. In case the Rail Road Company shall finish the road with a double track from Charleston, or the rail road of the South Carolina Canal and Rail Road Company to the Ohio river, or shall unite it in the State of Ken-RAIL ROAD BANK. 1836-37.

Kentucky with some other rail road, which may connect it with the Ohio river within ten years from the first day of January, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven; or in case, within the same period, the Louisville, Cincinnati and Charleston Rail Road Company shall finish the Road with a double track from Charleston, or from the rail road of the South Carolina Canal and Rail Road Company, to the southern boundary of Kentucky; or in case the said Louisville, Cincinnati and Charleston Rail Road Company shall, within the same period, actually expend on the said road the sum of twelve millions of dollars, then the said bank shall have corporate existence for twenty one years after the expiration of the said ten years; otherwise it shall cease to have corporate existence after the expiration of the said ten years.

Sec. 28. If the legislature of the State of Kentucky shall not, within one year from the first day of March, eighteen hundred and thirty seven, discharge the Rail Road Company from the obligation to make branches to the main road in that State; and the company shall, within ten years from the first day of January, eighteen hundred and thirty seven, construct a rail road with a double track from Charleston, or from the rail road of the South Carolina Canal and Rail Road Company, to the southern boundary of the State of Kentucky, or to the Cumberland river, then the said Rail Road Company shall continue to exist as a body corporate, in the States of South Carolina, North Carolina, and Tennessee, with all the rights and privileges, appertaining to it in those States, discharged from all obligation to construct any rail road in the State of Kentucky, or to have any directors residing in that State; and the bank hereby chartered, shall have corporate existence in such of the States as shall assent hereto, with all the rights and privileges, and subject in all respects to the conditions herein contained; discharged from all obligations to establish or construct any road in the State of Kentucky.

Sec. 29. It is hereby declared, that in case the Rail Road Company shall not within five years from the first day of January, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, have called in and expended or made contracts to the amount of three millions of dollars for the construction of the road, the grant of banking privileges hereby conferred shall cease and be revoked. In case the construction of the road shall be suspended after the bank goes into operation for one year, before the final completion of the road, then this charter shall be taken and deemed as null and void. But the bank shall, in this contingency, be allowed two years for winding up their concerns, without the privilege of doing new business.

Sec. 30. The said bank may establish a branch in this State for the transaction of business, pursuant to the provisions herein before contained.

Sec. 31. Be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the said bank to establish any branch bank or agency in the State of North Carolina, to the eastward of the Catawba river, nor to employ in this State a larger amount of capital than one million of dollars, without the consent of the legislature first had and obtained.

Sec. 32. That if any person shall falsely forge or counterfeit, or willingly aid or assist in falsely making, forging or counterfeiting, any bill or note, check or draft, purporting to be, or in imitation of any bill, note check or draft, issued by order of said corporation, with intent to defraud; every such person so offending shall be deemed and judged guilty of felony; and being convicted thereof, before any court of record in this State, shall be punished as the law directs in cases of forgery.

Sec. 33. Be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the General Assembly, whenever it shall have reason to believe that the charter hereby granted has been violated, to order a scire facias to be sued out from the Superior Court of the county in which the branch bank hereby authorised shall be established, in the name of the State of North Carolina, which shall be executed upon the president, any two of the directors, or upon the cashier of the said branch bank for the time being, at least ten days before the commencement of the term of said court, calling on said corporation to shew cause wherefore the charter hereby granted shall not be declared void; and it shall be lawful for the said court, upon the return of said scire facias, (unless good cause be offered for a continuance) to examine into the truth of the alleged violation, and if such violation shall be made to appear, then to pronounce and adjudge that the said charter is forfeited and annulled: Provided, however, every issue of fact which may be joined between the State of North Carolina and the corporation aforesaid, shall be tried by jury. And it shall be lawful for the court aforesaid to require the production of such of the books of the corporation as it may deem necesary for the ascertainment of the controverted facts; and it may be lawful for such person as may appear for the State, or for the corporation, being dissatisfied with such final judgment as may be had in said court, to appeal to the Supreme Court of the State: Provided, however, that in all cases wherein the charter of said bank shall be adjudged to be forfeited, and the corporation dissolved, such dissolution or forfeiture being declared, shall not extinguish the debts due to or from said corporation; but the court rendering such final judgment, shall proceed to appoint a receiver or receivers, who shall have full power to collect, in his or their own names, all the debts due to said corporation; to take possession of all its property; to sell, and dispose, and distribute the same in order to pay off the creditors of said corporation, and afterwards to re-imburse the stockholders thereof, under such rules, regulations, provisions, and restrictions as the court rendering such final judgment shall direct.

Sec. 34. Be it further enacted, That no judgment, sentence or decree, which may be pronounced, declaring the said charter forfeited and annulled, shall be so construed, to exempt the said corporation or any of its effects from the redemption of all debts, dues, and demands which may be against it at the time of pronouncing such final judgment, sentence, or decree, or from distribution among the stockholders, after the payment of debts.

Sec. 35. Be it further enacted, That none but citizens of the United States shall have the right of voting at the meeting of the stockholders.
Sec. 36. Be it further enacted, That no bank corporation shall subscribe or hold shares in this bank, directly or indirectly: Provided there should be, at any stage of the charter, an amount of subscription more than is authorised by the charter, that the subscriptions of non-residents of those States which have or may hereafter sanction this charter, shall be stricken off, before any reduction shall be made in the subscription of the citizens of those States, whose sanction is required by this charter.

Sec. 27. The said courts shall cause the names so contained on their jury list to be written on small scrolls of paper of equal size, and put into a box to be procured for that purpose, which shall have two divisions, marked No. 1 and 2, and two locks, the key of one to be safely kept by the sheriff of the county, the other by the chairman of the county court, and the box by the clerk of said court; and the said justices, at each and every session of their said court which shall happen next preceding the sitting of the Superior Court of the said county, shall cause to be drawn from the said jury box, out of the partition marked No. 1, by a child not more than ten years of age, not more than thirty six nor less than thirty scrolls; and the persons whose names shall be inscribed on said scrolls shall serve as jurors at the next succeeding Superior Court to be held for said county: Provided always, that whenever the county court of such county shall be held within fifteen days of the sitting of the Superior Court of the same, that then the court preceding such County Court shall draw the jury as aforesaid, and said Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, at each term thereof, shall in like manner draw the like number of names of persons, who shall serve as jurors at the next term of said court; and should any of the jurors so drawn have a suit pending and at issue in the Superior or County Court, or should the name of any justice of the peace be drawn to serve as a juror in the County Court, the several scrolls with his or their names shall be returned into the partition No. 1 of the jury box; or if any of said persons so drawn be dead or removed out of the county, the said scrolls with his or their names shall be destroyed, and in all such cases other jurors shall be drawn in his or their stead; and the scrolls drawn as aforesaid shall be put into the partition marked No. 2: Provided, that if before the expiration of two years the names of the jurors in the partition No. 1 shall be drawn out, then the whole names shall be put into the partition marked No. 1, and drawn out again as herein first directed. And there shall also be put into the said partition marked No. 1, at the court following the first day of January in each year, the names of such persons as shall appear by the tax list immediately preceding to have become qualified to serve as jurors since the making out the jury list, and whom said court shall deem fit persons to be jurors.

Sec. 28. If any County Court shall fail or neglect to draw jurors to attend the Superior Court of the county or the succeeding term of said County Court, it shall be the duty of the sheriff and the clerk of said County Court, and they are hereby required, in the presence of and assisted by three of the justices of the peace of the county, to draw from the jury box the same number of jurors, and in the same manner, and under the same rules, regulations and restrictions as prescribed in the preceding sections.

Sec. 29. Whenever it shall appear to any Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions that the business thereof does not require the attendance of a jury at every term, it shall be in their power, a majority of the acting justices being present, to pass an order dispensing with the attendance of a jury at more than two terms; which order when so made shall not be rescinded but by a court constituted of a majority of the acting justices.

Sec. 30. The clerk of said court shall deliver the list of such jurors, both of the county and Superior Courts, to the sheriff of the county, whose duty it shall be to summon the persons therein named to attend as jurors at such court respectively; which summons shall be served personally or by leaving a copy thereof at the house of the juror to be summoned, at last ten days before the sitting of the court, when the summons is to attend a Superior Court, and at least five days before the sitting of the County Court to which he may be summoned; at which courts respectively said jurors shall appear and give their attendance until duly discharged. And that there may not be a defect of jurors, the sheriff may and shall, by order of said court, summon from day to day of the bystanders other jurors, being freeholders within the county where the court is held, to serve on the petit jury; and on any day the court may discharge those who have served the preceding day.

Sec. 31. that each delinquent juror shall have until the next succeeding term to make his excuse for his non-attendance; and if he shall render an excuse deemed sufficient by said court, he shall be discharged without costs; and every person so summoned of the bystanders, who shall not appear and serve during the day as a juror, shall be fined in the sum of two dollars, unless he can show sufficient cause, to be approved by the court; and the court shall order the clerk forthwith to issue an execution against the body and goods of the delinquent tales juror for such amercement and costs.

Sec. 32. No sheriff or other officer shall serve or execute any writ or other civil process on the body of any juror, during his attendance or going to and returning from any court of record; any such service shall be void, and the defendant, on motion, shall be discharged.

Sec. 33. All regular ministers of the Gospel of every denomination, and all regular bred physicians or practitioners of physic and surgery, shall be exempt from serving as jurors, either in the county or Superior Courts.

Sec. 34. The Judges of the Superior Courts, and the justices of the County Courts shall direct the names of all the persons returned to serve as jurors at the terms of their respective courts, to be written on scrolls of paper, which scrolls shall be put into a box or hat and drawn out by a child under ten years of age; and the first eighteen drawn shall be a grand jury for said court, and the residue of the names in the box or hat shall be the names of those who are to serve as petit jurors for said court.

Sec. 35. The people called Quakers shall be competent to serve as grand and petit jurors in the trial of all criminal cases, and be entitled to be sworn in the terms of their own religion, as heretofore prescribed by law, and observed in the trial of civil cases.

Sec. 36. The clerks of said courts shall, at the beginning of the courts, swear or affirm such of the petit jury as are of the original pannel, well and truly to try all civil causes that shall come before them during the term according to the evidence given thereon; and if there should not be enough of the original pannel, the talesmen shall take the same oath or affirmation to try all such causes as shall come before them during the day; and in the trial of all pleas and prosecutions for offenses not capital, unless in cases where the court shall otherwise direct, petit jurors of the original panel, as well as talesmen, shall be sworn or affirmed, as the case may be, well and truly to try all issues of traverse that shall come before them during the day:
Provided, nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the usual challenges in law to the whole jury so sworn or to any of them; and if by reason of such challenge any juror shall be withdrawn, his place on such jury shall be supplied by any of the original venire, or of the bystanders by law qualified to serve as a juror.

Sec. 57. The clerks of the several Superior and County Courts, before a jury shall be empanelled to try the issue of issues in any civil suit, shall read over the names of the jury which challenge shall be allowed by the court.

Sec. 58. When any constable shall be appointed or summoned to attend any of the Superior or County Courts (except such as may be appointed to attend the grand jury) it shall be clausum fregit, suits on penal statutes, and pleas of the State, cause of action shall arise or the offence be committed, and not elsewhere; and all actions of debt, other than on penal statutes, all actions of detinue and replevin, actions of account rendered, assault and battery, and for the unlawful taking of goods, all actions upon the case, and suits for legacies, and for distributive shares of intestates' estates, shall be brought to the court of the county where both parties reside; and where the parties live in different counties, shall be brought to the court of either county at the option of the plaintiff; and where the plaintiff shall reside beyond seas or in a different State or government, shall be brought to the court of the county where the defendant resides; and where any action or suit shall be brought otherwise than is herein directed, such action or suit may be abated on the plea of the defendant.

Sec. 40. No suit shall be originally commenced in any of the said courts for any debt or demand of less value than sixty dollars, for an unliquidated balance due on any contract or agreement, or for goods, wares and merchandise sold and delivered, or for work and labor done, or for specific articles, whether due by obligation, note or assumpset, or for any judgment which may have been granted over twelve months, by a single magistrate and no execution have issued thereon, or for any forfeiture or penalty incurred by virtue of any act of the Congress of the United States or the General Assembly of this State; nor for any sum of less value than one hundred dollars, due by bond, promissory note or liquidated account, signed by the party to be charged thereby.

If any suit shall be commenced in any of the said county courts for any sum of less value than sixty dollars, contrary to the provisions of the preceding sections, the same shall be abated on the plea of the defendant; and if any suit shall be commenced in any of said courts for any sum of less value than one hundred dollars, due by bond, promissory note, liquidated account, signed by the party to be charged thereby, the same shall be dismissed by the court.

Sec. 42. him in principal and interest than by the provisions of the said 39th section said Superior Court has jurisdiction of, that then and in that case it shall be the duty of the court to non-suit the plaintiff, and he shall pay all costs: Provided, that if the plaintiff or any other person for him will make an affidavit, to be filed in the case, that the sum for which his suit is brought is really due, but that for want of proof, or that the time limited for the recovery of any article bars a recovery, then and in that case such plaintiff shall have a verdict and judgment for what appears legally proved; any thing to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to suits on bonds, penal bills, or other actions of debt, grounded on a penalty, when the balance due on such bond or penal bill, or other action of debt, is not of less value than the sums in the said section mentioned to be limited for bringing suits in said courts: And provided further, that no original writ for debt shall be issued by any clerk of the said Superior Court against any person residing out of the county of said clerk, for any sum under one hundred dollars.

Sec. 44. suing in forma pauperis, as hereinafter provided; and when any person applying for a writ or other leading process, shall produce to the clerk an order, signed by a judge of the Superior Court, allowing said applicant to sue in forma pauperis, it shall be the duty of said clerk to issue such writ or leading process without requiring bond and security; and if any writ or leading process shall be issued without such security being given, or such order made, the same shall be dismissed by the court on motion of the defendant.

Sec. 45. When any clerk, either by himself or his deputy in office, shall issue any writ or other process, or any declaration of ejectment shall be returned into his office, and security thereon given as hereinafter directed, he shall enter the same in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, together with the name of the plaintiff and defendant and the place of their abode, the name of the security or securities for obtaining such writ, and the place where they live, and have the same before the court where he may so officiate as clerk, subject to the examination of such court.

Sec. 46. If any clerk, either by himself or his assistant in office, shall issue any writ or other leading process, otherwise than by this act directed, he shall pay to the defendant the sum of two hundred dollars, to be recovered by action of debt in the court where such offence shall have been so committed; and also shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars for every offence so committed by such clerk or his assistant in office, recoverable in any court of record having cognizance thereof, one half to the use of the person suing for the same, the other half to the use of the poor of the county.

Sec. 47. Every poor person or persons, which have or hereinafter shall have cause of action or actions against any other person or persons, either in law or equity, shall have, at the discretion of any one of the judges of the Supreme or Superior Courts, a writ or writs of law, or writ of subpoena in equity, according to the nature of their causes, paying no costs on the same, nor giving any security therefor; and the courts to which the said writs may be returnable shall assign to the said poor person or persons learned counsel or attorneys to attend to their cases, which counsel or attorneys shall attend without fee or reward; and no costs shall be charged to such poor person or persons by any officer of the court in which such suit shall be brought.

Sec. 48. It shall and may be lawful in all cases where there may be two or more defendants, for the plaintiff in any suits in the Superior Courts, or in the County Courts, where one of the defendants reside in the county, to issue writs directed to the sheriff or coroner of each of the counties where the defendants are most likely to be found, noting on each process that they are issued in the same suit; and when the same are returned they shall be docketed in the same manner as if only one had issued; and in case any defendant or defendants should not be served with such process, the same proceedings shall be had as in cases of other similar process which has not been executed.

Sec. 49. Upon the return of any writ of ejectment, to any court having cognizance thereof, the real plaintiff in said writ, his agent or attorney, at the return court of said writ, shall enter into bond with the clerk of the court to which said writ shall be returned, with good and sufficient security, to prosecute the same with effect, or otherwise to pay all such costs and damages as shall be awarded on failure thereof.

Sec. 50. In all actions of ejectment, the persons who shall make themselves defendants in said suit, shall, on doing the same, either by themselves, their agent or attorney, enter into bond with good and sufficient security to answer such writ or writs of ejectment in the court or courts to which they may be made returnable, and abide by the determination of the same; which defendant or defendants shall be under the same rules and regulations, and liable to the same judicial proceedings, as to all costs and damages that may be awarded against him or them, as principal and bail are subjected to in other civil actions of law in said court.

Sec. 51. If the lessor of the plaintiff in any action of ejectment, his agent or attorney, or if any one of the several lessors or the agent or attorney of any one lessor shall at the return term of the declaration in ejectment file his or her affidavit, that the tenant in possession of the premises sued for, and to whom the notice of the said suit is directed in the process issued, entered into said premises as his or her tenants, or as tenant of the person as whose agent or attorney said affiant deposes, that said tenant's term therein has expired, and that said tenant refuses to surrender the possession of said premises to said lessors, or any one of them, said person in possession, or any other person made defendant, shall not be entitled to plead to said suit; and the lessors of the plaintiff shall be entitled to judgment final against the casual ejector at the said return term, unless the said person in possession or other person applying to be made defendant shall enter into bond in such sum as the court shall direct, with surety to be approved by said court, with condition that said defendant or defendants shall pay the said lessor or lessors all such costs and damages as shall be recovered in said suit. And it shall be the duty of the jury in such cases where issue may be joined to find in their verdict whether the defendant entered into possession of the premises as the tenant of the lessors or of which of them, and whether he refused to surrender the premises after his term therein had expired; and if such finding shall be in favor of the lessors of the plaintiff, such jury shall assess the damages to which the lessors of the plaintiff shall be entitled, including the value of the occupation of the premises sued for, from the expiration of said tenant's term to the rendition of the verdict, and damages for waste and tresspass during the time of said holding over; and the court shall render judgment against the defendant and his securities upon their said bond, to be discharged by the payment of the damages assessed as aforesaid, and the payment of all costs; judgment upon which verdict shall bar the action for the mesne profits, or for the trespass by any of the lessors in said action: Provided nevertheless, that it shall be competent for the defendant or tenant in possession, to rebut, by his or her affidavit, the facts set forth in the affidavit offered on the part of the lessor of the plaintiff; and the court in such cases shall decide thereon, and may, in its discretion, allow the affidavits on either side to be corroborated by other affidavits, or evidence.

Sec. 52. Whenever any plaintiff in ejectment shall fail to give his bond for prosecuting his suit as before directed, the court shall on motion dismiss the suit; and whenever any person or persons may be desirous of becoming defendant or defendants in any suit in ejectment, they shall give bond as before directed, or be in custody of the sheriff before they or their attorney shall be permitted to plead.
Sec. 53. All writs and other civil process, except subpoenae returnable immediately, shall be returned the first day of the term to which the same shall be returnable, and shall be executed at least ten days before the beginning of the term, when returnable to a Superior Court; and at least five days before the beginning of the term, when returnable to the county court; and if any original or mesne process shall be taken out within the time above specified, before the beginning of any of the terms of said courts from which they respectively issued, such process shall be made returnable to the term next succeeding that which shall commence within the times above specified after taking out such process, and not otherwise. And all process made returnable at any other term, or executed at any other time, or in any other manner, than is by this act directed, shall be adjudged void upon the plea of the defendant.

Sec. 54. When any sheriff shall return that he hath taken the body of any defendant and committed him to the prison of his county, which is hereby declared to be the proper place for such commitment, the plaintiff may enter the defendant's appearance, and he shall be at liberty to plead as if such appearance had been entered by himself, and the plaintiff may proceed as in other cases as in this act directed; nevertheless the defendant shall not be discharged out of custody but by putting in bail or by rule of court.

Sec. 55. No female whatever shall be taken or imprisoned for debt.

Sec. 56. When the sheriff shall make return in any civil action that the defendant is not to be found in his county, the plaintiff may at his election sue out an attachment against the estate of such defendant, or an alias or pluries capias until he be arrested; returnable in the same manner as original process; and if the sheriff shall return any goods by him attached, the plaintiff shall file his declaration according to the rules of the court; and if the defendant shall fail to appear and plead within the time herein directed, the plaintiff shall be entitled, if in an action of debt, to final judgment, and if in an action on the case, to an interlocutory judgment; and in consequence thereof, may execute a writ of enquiry the next succeeding term; and the goods so attached, if not replevied or sold according to the rules prescribed for goods taken on original attachments, shall remain in the custody of the sheriff until final judgment, and then be disposed of in the same manner as goods taken in execution on a writ of fieri facias; and if the judgment shall not be satisfied by the goods attached, the plaintiff may have execution for the residue.

Sec. 57. And when any defendant in a writ sued out of a Superior Court, or out of a County Court, where there is more than one defendant, and one of the defendants resides in such county, shall be a known inhabitant of any other county than that of the sheriff to whom such process shall be directed, the sheriff shall return the truth of the case, and thereupon an alias shall issue, directed to the sheriff of the county where such defendant resides; and variance of the addition of the place of abode of the defendant shall not be deemed error or matter of abatement.

Sec. 58. It shall not be lawful for any sheriff or other officer to execute any writ or other process upon a Sunday, or upon any person attending his duty at a muster of the militia, or at any election of members of the General Assembly or of members of Congress, or electors of President and Vice President, or of any officer of this State, or any person summoned to attend as witness or juror; and all such services of process are hereby declared illegal and void, unless the same be issued against any person or persons for treason, felony, riot, rescous breach of the peace, or upon escape out of prison or custody; and such process shall and may be executed at any time or place.

Sec. 59. If at any time there should be no proper officer in any county in this State to which any process original, mesne, or final, of any court of record, shall or ought to be directed, who can lawfully serve or execute the said process; or if there be such officer who shall refuse or neglect to execute the same, any Judge of the Superior Courts of Law and Equity, or any Judge of the Supreme Court, the same being made to appear to him, shall authorise and command the sheriff of any county adjoining the one to which the said process shall or ought to be directed, to serve and execute said process, who shall have the same powers and be subject to the same rules, and receive the same fees, as the sheriff of the county should or might have and receive.
RULES OF COURT.

Sec. 60. Whenever any process shall be directed to any sheriff of an adjoining county, to be served out of the county in which said sheriff shall reside, such sheriff shall for such service have and receive not only the fees allowed him by law, but as a farther compensation shall be allowed five cents for every mile he may be compelled to travel in going to and returning from serving the said process: Provided nevertheless, that whenever any writ of fieri facias, amounting to five hundred dollars or upwards shall be directed to any sheriff of an adjoining county, under the provisions of this act, then and in that case such sheriff shall not be allowed mileage, but the commissions to which such sheriff shall be entitled shall be deemed a sufficient compensation for serving said fieri facias.

Sec. 61. Every sheriff or coroner who shall fail duly to execute and return all process to him directed, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each neglect, to be paid to the party grieved, by order of the court, upon motion and proof that the process was delivered to him twenty days before the sitting of the court to which the same is returnable, unless such sheriff or coroner can show sufficient cause to the court for his failure, at the court next succeeding such order; and said sheriff or coroner, for every such neglect duly to execute and return process delivered to him as aforesaid, shall be further subject to indictment in any court of record; and on conviction shall be fined or imprisoned, at the discretion of the court.

RULES OF COURT.

Sec. 62. The following rules and methods shall be observed in said courts, to wit: The plaintiff shall by himself or his attorney file his declaration in the clerk's office, on or before the third day of the term to which his suit shall be brought, otherwise the suit shall be dismissed by the court at the costs of the plaintiff.

The defendant shall appear and plead or demur at the same term to which the writ shall be returnable, otherwise the plaintiff may have judgment by default, which in actions of debt shall be final, unless where damages are suggested on the roll; and in that case, and in all others not specially provided for, where the recovery shall be in damages, a writ of enquiry shall be executed at the next succeeding term: Provided, that where the nature of the action requires special pleading, the time for pleading may be enlarged: And provided further, that where a plaintiff shall obtain judgment final at the first term to which the process shall be returned, in action of debt, it shall be lawful for him to execute his enquiry the same term, as to the value of any foreign currency or money for which the suit may be brought.

Where the defendant pleads specially, the plaintiff shall reply or demur at the same term at which the plea or demurrer is filed, or a non pros. may be entered by the defendant; and if the plaintiff replies, and in his replication tenders an issue, the defendant shall join issue or demur at the same term, otherwise the plaintiff may have judgment; and where the defendant rejoins to the plaintiff's replication he shall file his rejoiner at the same term, or judgment shall go against him, unless the time for pleading shall be enlarged as aforesaid.

When a special verdict shall be found, a case agreed, a demurrer filed, or a bill of exceptions to the evidence tendered, time may be allowed, upon motion of either party, to the next term to argue the same.

In any matter or suit depending in any of said courts, either plaintiff or defendant may enter his own pleas and defend his own cause; and no instrument of writing which contains the substance shall be lost or destroyed for want of form.

For the better preservation of the records of the courts when any cause is finally determined, the clerk of each court shall enter all the proceedings therein in a book well bound, and an entire and perfect record made thereof.

All jury causes shall be first tried.

All motions in arrest of judgment shall be argued within the three last days of the term in which the issue shall be tried, the defendant's attorney first serving the plaintiff's attorney with a copy of the reasons in arrest of judgment, unless upon sufficient cause shown and approved of by the court further time shall be allowed.

Arguments on writs of error, special verdicts, cases agreed, demurrers, petitions for legacies and distributions of intestates' estates, shall be heard upon the four last days of the term.

No plea in abatement shall be received in any of the said courts, unless the party offering the same shall, by affidavit or otherwise, prove the truth of such plea.

Where a plea in abatement shall be pleaded, and upon argument the same shall be adjudged insufficient, the plaintiff shall recover against the defendant full costs to the time of overruling such plea, including the costs of court; and the plaintiff in replevin or defendant in any other action may plead as many several matters as may be necessary for his defence, so that he may not be permitted to plead and demur to the whole.

The entering a plea since the last continuance of a suit at law, shall in no case whatever be construed a relinquishment of any plea previously entered, but the same shall retain the like force, and operation which it would have had, if such plea since the last continuance, had not been entered.

All issues whether general or special, shall be heard and tried the next succeeding term after the issue shall be made up, unless by consent of parties, or on sufficient cause shown to the court by affidavit filed, such cause should be continued; nor shall any cause be continued at any term, but by consent or on affidavit showing sufficient cause.

Whenever it shall be the opinion of the court, that the party praying a continuance, shall not obtain it without payment of costs, the whole of these costs shall be paid before the continuance is granted, and the party paying such costs shall not be entitled to recover them, although the judgment of the court shall finally be in his favor.

It shall not be lawful for either plaintiff or defendant to employ in any matter or suit more than one attorney to speak in such matter or suit in court, and the courts in this State are hereby directed, not to suffer more than one attorney as aforesaid, in any matters whatever to plead for either plaintiff or defendant to any suit, under penalty of a violation of this act.

Every attorney in any of the courts of law and equity in this State, who shall claim to enter an appearance for any person or persons in any of said courts, shall upon being required so to do, produce and file in the clerk’s office of the court in which he shall so claim to enter an appearance, a power or authority to that effect, signed by the person or persons, or some one of them, for whom he is about to enter an appearance, or by some person duly authorised in that behalf. Provided, That when any attorney in any of said courts shall claim to enter an appearance by virtue of a letter to him directed, whether such letter purport a general or particular employment, and it shall be necessary for said attorney to retain said letters in his own possession, he shall on the production of said letters, setting forth such employment, be allowed to enter his appearance; and it shall be the duty of the clerk to note to that effect upon the docket.

No attorney shall be permitted to enter an appearance for his client or clients, without producing to the court when required, such power or letters; and upon his failure to do so, the same proceedings shall be had thereon, as in cases where no appearance is entered.

Sect. 63. In all actions brought in any of said courts, on any bond or bonds, or on any penal sum for the non-performance of any covenants or agreements, in any indenture, deed or writing contained, the plaintiff or plaintiffs may assign as many breaches as he or they shall think fit; and the jury on the trial of such action or actions shall and may assess not only such damages and costs as have heretofore been usually done in such cases, but also damages for such of the said breaches so to be assigned, as the plaintiff upon the trial of the issues shall prove to have been broken, and the like judgment shall be entered on such verdict as heretofore hath been usually done in such like actions; and if judgment shall be given for the plaintiff on a demurrer, or by confession or nihil dicit, the plaintiff upon the record, may suggest as many breaches of the covenants and agreements as he may think fit; upon which a jury shall be empannelled to enquire of the truth of any one of those breaches, and to assess the damages that the plaintiff shall have sustained thereby; which enquiry by the jury shall be made as in other cases of judgment by default; and in case the defendant or defendants after such judgment entered, and before execution executed, shall pay into the court where the action shall be brought, to the use of the plaintiff or plaintiffs, or his or their executors or administrators, such damages so to be assessed by reason of all or any of the breaches of such covenants, together with the costs of suit, a stay of execution of said judgment shall be entered on record; or if by reason of any execution executed, the plaintiff or plaintiffs, or his or their executors or administrators shall be fully paid or satisfied, all such damages so to be assessed, with his or their costs of suit, and all reasonable charges and expenses for executing the said execution, the body, lands or goods of the defendant shall be thereupon forthwith discharged from the said execution, which shall likewise be entered upon the record; but notwithstanding in each case such judgment shall remain, continue, and be as a further security to answer to the plaintiff or plaintiffs, and his or their executors and administrators, such damages as shall or may be sustained for further breach of any covenants in the same indenture, deed or writing contained; upon which the plaintiff or plaintiffs may have a scire facias upon the said judgment against the defendant, or against his heirs or his executors or administrators, suggesting other breaches of the said covenants or agreements, and to summon him or them respectively, to shew cause why execution shall not be had or awarded upon the said judgment; upon which there shall be the like proceedings as were in the action of debt upon the said bond or obligation for assessing of damages, upon trial of issues joined upon such breaches or enquiry thereto, upon a writ to be awarded in manner as aforesaid; and upon payment or satisfaction in manner as aforesaid of such future damages, costs and charges as aforesaid, all further proceedings on the said judgment are again to be stayed, and so toties quoties, and the defendant, his body, lands and goods shall be discharged out of execution as aforesaid.

Sec. 64. In taking the testimony of witnesses in all causes which may be depending in the Superior or county courts, the following rules shall be observed and put in practice, to wit:

In all suits where witnesses are to appear at any of the said courts, the clerk, at the request of the party, shall issue a subpoena directed to the sheriff, or other officer of the county, where such witness or witnesses are said to reside, mentioning the time and place for his, her or their appearance, the names of the parties to the suit wherein the testimony is to be given, and the party at whose instance such witness or witnesses is or are summoned.

Every subpoena made returnable immediately shall be issued only in term time, and shall be personally served on the witness or witnesses therein named.

A copy of every subpoena issued by the clerks in the vacation, in case the witness or witnesses therein named is or are not to be found, may be left at their usual place of residence; and such copy, certified by the sheriff or other officer, left as aforesaid, shall be deemed a legal summons; and the person or persons therein named shall be bound to appear in the same manner as if personally summoned.

Sec. 65. Every witness being summoned to appear in any of the said courts, in manner as herein before directed, either in a civil suit or in a criminal prosecution or plea of the State, shall appear accordingly and continue to attend, from term to term, until discharged; when summoned in a civil suit by the court, or the party at whose instance such witness shall be summoned, or when summoned in a criminal prosecution or plea of the State, until discharged by the court, the prosecuting officer, or the party at whose instance he was summoned; and in default thereof, shall forfeit and pay to the party at whose instance the subpoena issued, the sum of forty dollars, and shall be further liable to the action of said party for the full damages which may be sustained for the want of such witnesses' testimony, who shall recover the same by scire facias, with costs; or if summoned in a criminal prosecution or plea of the State, shall forfeit and pay the sum of eighty dollars, for the use of the State, unless upon notice issued and made known, sufficient cause be shewn at the next court for such failure; in which case his forfeiture shall be remitted, and he shall be discharged from all costs.

Sec. 66. Provided always, That if it shall so happen that the civil suit depending, shall in the vacation be accommodated and settled between the parties, and the party at whose instance such witness was summoned, should neglect or omit to discharge him or her from further attendance, and he or she, for want of such discharge, should attend at the next term, then and in that case the witness, upon oath made of the facts, shall be entitled to a ticket from the clerk, in the same manner as other witnesses, and shall recover from the party at whose instance he was summoned, the same allowance which by this act is given to witnesses for their attendance at said court, with costs. Provided also, That if any witness shall swear falsely in order to obtain a ticket, he shall upon conviction be adjudged guilty of perjury, and suffer as in cases of corrupt and wilful perjury.
SEC. 67. And provided further, That if at the next succeeding term of said court, sufficient cause be shown by the person so summoned, and failing to appear of his or her incapacity to attend at the time and place mentioned in the subpoena, then no forfeiture or penalty shall be incurred by such failure; and said witness, so exonerated, shall not be subject to any costs which may have accrued; but if on notice given by the court, sufficient cause be not shown at the next succeeding term after such failure, it shall and may be lawful for such court, on motion, to grant judgment and award execution for the forfeiture before mentioned against the person so summoned, and failing to appear as aforesaid.

SEC. 68. When any person who may be a witness in any civil cause in any of the said courts, shall reside out of the state, or shall by reason of age, bodily infirmity or other cause be incapable of attending to give his testimony in court, or shall be in a dangerous state of health, or about to leave the state, oath thereof being made, or the truth of the matter otherwise appearing, or when either party to a civil suit shall require the testimony of the Governor, the Secretary of State, the Treasurer, Comptroller, or any Judge of the Superior or Supreme Courts, or of the Attorney General, or any of the Solicitors of the State in the trial of said suit, the court wherein such suit is depending, shall and may, by commission, empower such and so many persons as may be thought necessary to take and receive the deposition of such witness; which being duly taken and returned as herein after is directed, shall be received as legal testimony. And in all cases where depositions are taken in a court of law, it shall be lawful for the court to direct the clerk to pass upon such depositions, under the same rules, regulations and restrictions as are observed by clerks and masters in chancery, in passing on depositions to be read in chancery.

SEC. 69. Provided always, that the party praying such commission, shall give such notice to the adverse party of the time and place, when and where such commission is to be executed, as the court shall think proper; and the adverse party shall have power to cross examine any witness whose deposition shall be so taken; and all depositions otherwise taken than as herein is directed, unless by consent of parties, shall be void to all intents and purposes.
Sec. 70. If any person who may be a witness in any cause depending in any of the said courts, shall be under the necessity of leaving the state before such cause is to be tried, or even before such cause shall be at issue, or be in a dangerous state of health, upon oath thereof made, before any of the justices of the said courts, such justice is hereby empowered to order the clerk of the court where such cause is depending, to issue a commission to one or more persons to take the deposition of such witness, notice being first given to the adverse party of the time and place, when and where such deposition is to be taken, as follows, to wit: Where the party to be notified does not reside, or is not more than ten miles from the place where the deposition is to be taken, three days previous notice of the time and place; in all other cases one day more for every additional ten miles; which deposition, when returned, taken in manner aforesaid, shall be received as legal evidence.

Sec. 71. If any person who shall be summoned as a witness in any of the said courts, or before any persons appointed to take depositions aforesaid, shall refuse to give testimony on oath, such person so refusing shall by the court or by the commissioners before whom he shall be summoned, be committed to the common prison, there to remain without bail or mainprize, until he shall be willing to give testimony in such manner as the law doth or may direct.

Sec. 72. During the attendance of any person summoned as a witness to any court whatsoever, and during the time that such person is going to and returning from the place of such attendance, allowing one day for every twenty-five miles such witness has to travel to and from his place of residence, no sheriff or other officer shall serve or execute on such persons so attending, going to or returning from said court, any writ or other civil process, warrant, order, judgment or decree in any cause, (summons for witnesses excepted;) and if any such shall be executed, the same shall be, and is hereby declared null and void.

Sec. 73. Each person who shall attend any Superior or County Court, as a witness in any cause therein depending, shall be allowed for each and every day's attendance, and for every thirty miles he may travel going to and returning from said court, sixty cents, provided said witness lives within the county; or the sum of one dollar if the said witness lives without the county. Provided, that in counties where witnesses are by law allowed a greater sum than above stated, per day, for attending County Courts, they shall continue to be paid as heretofore.

Sec. 74. When any cause shall be removed from the Superior Court of any county to another, after the order of removal, depositions may be taken in the case, and subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses, and commissions to take depositions, may issue from either of said courts, under the same rules as if the case had been originally commenced in the court from which the subpoenas or commissions issued.

Sec. 75. Every person being lawfully summoned, who shall attend any of the Superior or County Courts of this state as a witness in any suit, (those wherein the state is a party excepted,) shall at each court, before the clerk thereof or his lawful deputy, ascertain by his or her oath or affirmation, the sum due for travelling to and from court, attendance and ferriage, which shall be certified by the clerk or his lawful deputy; and on failure of the party at whose instance such witness was summoned, to pay off and discharge the same previous to the departure of the witness from the court, it shall be lawful for such witness to sue for and recover the same from the party summoning him or her, at such time as he or she may see proper, before any jurisdiction having cognizance thereof; and the certificate of the clerk or his lawful deputy shall be sufficient evidence of the debt: Provided always, that in any case where recovery may be had before a justice of the peace, on a witness ticket or certificate, it shall and may be lawful for such justice, having previously defaced such ticket by writing the word judgment, in large letters in the face thereof, to deliver the same to the person against whom recovery is had thereon.

Sec. 76. At the court at which any cause shall be finally determined, the party in whose favor judgment shall be given, shall file or cause to be filed, the certificates of the attendance of witnesses in the clerk's office; the amount whereof shall be taxed in the bill of costs, to be levied and recovered for the benefit of said party; any thing to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided the party cast, shall not be obliged to pay for more than two witnesses to prove any single fact.

Sec. 78. In all cases where witnesses are required to attend any commissioners, referees, order of survey, or jury of view, a summons shall be issued by the clerk of the court at the request of either party or their agent, expressing the day and place where they are to appear, the names of the parties to the suit, and in whose behalf summoned; and all witnesses summoned in pursuance of this section, shall be entitled to the same privileges, and receive the same pay for their attendance, and be subject to the same pains and penalties for non-attendance, as witnesses summoned to attend the courts.

Sec. 79. In all actions whatsoever, the party in whose favor judgment shall be given; or in case of a non-suit, discharge or discontinuance, the defendant shall be entitled to full costs, unless when it is or may be otherwise directed by statute.

Sec. 80. In all cases where there are or shall be mutual debts subsisting between the plaintiff and defendant, or if either party sue or be sued as executor or administrator, where there are mutual debts subsisting between the testator or intestate and either party, one debt may be set against the other, either by being pleaded in bar or given in evidence on the general issue, on notice given of the particular sum intended to be set off, and on what account the same is due, notwithstanding such debts shall or may be deemed in law to be of different nature; but if either debt arose by reason of a penalty, the sum intended to be set off shall be pleaded in bar, setting forth what is justly due on either side.

Sec. 81. In all civil cases whatsoever, the evidence of all negroes, Indians, mulattoes, and of all persons of mixed blood, descended from negro or Indian ancestors to the fourth generation inclusive, (though one ancestor of each generation may have been a white person,) whether the person or persons whose evidence is offered be bond or free, shall be inadmissible, and the witnesses incompetent, except against each other.

Sec. 84. When several persons are made defendants to any action of trespass, assault and battery, false imprisonment or ejectment, any one or more of them shall upon the trial thereof be acquitted by verdict, every person or persons so acquitted shall have and recover his costs of suit in like manner as if a verdict had been given against the plaintiff or plaintiffs and acquitted all the defendants, unless the Judge before whom such cause shall be tried shall immediately after the trial thereof, in open court, certify upon the record, under his hand, that there was a reasonable cause for the making such person or persons a defendant or defendants to such action or plaintiff.

Sec. 85. In all causes depending in any of said courts, in which the production of an original paper, lodged in any of the public offices of the State, or in any office of a county, Superior or Supreme Court, shall become necessary, the said court shall have power to issue the process of subpoena duces tecum, requiring such persons as hold said offices respectively to attend the court from whence said process issued, with such original pa-

And if a defendant shall fail to comply with such order to produce books or writings, or shall not satisfactorily account for such failure, it shall be lawful for the said courts respectively, on motion as aforesaid, to give judgment against him or her by default.

Sec. 87. In all petitions for dower and partition, the court before whom the same may be tried, may at their discretion decree by whom and in what manner the costs accrued thereon shall be paid.

Sec. 88. Sec. 100. Any two justices of the peace may take depositions, to be read as evidence in the trial of suits by petition, in the same manner, and under the same rules and regulations as depositions are taken to be read in the trial of suits in equity.

be signed and sealed by some other person present at the time of the exception taken, which bill of exception so signed as above, shall constitute and be a part of the record; and upon an appeal, the court before whom the said appeal shall be tried, shall proceed to judgment according to the same exception as it ought to be allowed.

Sec. 106. Where any action of debt shall be brought on any single bill, or when any action of debt or scire facias, shall be brought on any judgment, if the defendant hath paid the money due upon such bill or judgment, such payment shall and may be pleaded in bar of such action or suit; and when an action of debt is brought, upon any bond which hath a condition or defeasance to make void the same of a lesser at a day or place certain, if the obligor, his heirs, executors or administrators, have before the action brought paid to the obligee, his executors or administrators, the principal and interest due by the defeasance or condition of such bond, though such payment were not made strictly according to the condition or defeasance; yet it shall and may nevertheless be pleaded in bar of such action, and shall be as effectual a bar thereof, as if the money had been paid at the day and place according to the condition or defeasance, and been so pleaded.

Sec. 107. If at any time pending an action on any such bond with a penalty, the defendant shall bring into court where the action shall be pending, all the principal money and interest due on such bond, and also all such costs as have been expended in any suit or suits in law or equity upon such bond, the said money so brought in, shall be deemed and taken to be in full satisfaction and discharge of said bond; and the court shall and may give judgment to discharge every such defendant of and from the same accordingly.

Sec. 108. Every judgment given in a court of record or before a single magistrate, having jurisdiction of the subject, shall be and continue in force until reversed according to law.

Sec. 109. When an appeal shall be taken by any defendant from the judgment of a justice of the peace to the County Court, the said court shall have power, upon sufficient cause being shown, on affidavit filed, to compel the plaintiff to give bond and sufficient security for the costs of said suit, in the event of the plaintiff's failing to prosecute the same with effect.

Sec. 110. When an appeal shall be so taken to the County Court, the same shall be reheard by the said court; whereupon an issue shall be made up and tried by a jury at the first term to which it is returned, unless legally continued; and judgment shall be given thereon, and the party cast shall pay the costs of all the proceedings, to be taxed by the court; and execution may issue for the same against the principal and securities, when judgment is granted against the plaintiff.

Sec. 111. Provided, if judgment be entered for the plaintiff by the justice, and he appeal, such appeal shall be at the costs of the plaintiff, unless the court, on the trial, shall be of opinion, that there was sufficient cause for such appeal; and in such case plaintiff shall recover his costs, on motion.

Sec. 112. Sec. 113. If by the sale of the lands and tenements so levied upon and returned to court, a sufficient sum shall not be produced to satisfy the judgment and costs, the plaintiff is hereby authorised to sue out an execution from the court for the residue thereof, in the same way, and under the same rules and regulations, as if the judgment had been originally rendered by said court.

Sec. 114. No attachment, warrant or other process issued by a justice, shall be set aside for want of form, if the essential matters required are set forth.

Sec. 115. Sec. 116. In all cases where a verdict shall pass against a plaintiff, the same plaintiff shall not be non-suited.

Sec. 117. When a certiorari or writ of habeas corpus cum causa, and the sheriff or other officer to whom directed, shall return, upon the same, that the prisoner which is so holden in prison, is condemned by judgment given against him, and held in custody by virtue of an execution issued against him, the said prisoner shall not be let to bail, but shall be presently remanded, where he shall remain until discharged in due course of law.

Sec. 118. In all actions the death of either party between the verdict and the judgment shall not be alleged for error so as such judgment be entered within two terms after such verdict.

Sec. 123. The parties to any suit in any of the Superior Courts of Law and Equity within this State, may remove suit by consent, for trial, to any convenient county, which removal by consent, shall be entered of record; and thereupon it shall be the duty of the clerk to transfer the papers relating to such suit in like manner as prescribed for the removal of causes on affidavit of either party; and the court to which such suit shall be removed, shall have full power and authority to proceed to hear and determine the same as fully, as if the same had been originally commenced in such court.

Sec. 124. Sec. 131. Nothing herein contained, shall prevent any person from giving notice and proving the same as heretofore directed.

Sec. 132. Where any scire facias shall issue to the sheriff of any county within this State, the return of the sheriff thereon, that the same has been executed, shall be deemed sufficient evidence of the service of such scire facias; and it shall not be held necessary that the same should be made known in the presence of witnesses.

Secondly, that if any decree shall be made, in pursuance of this act, against any person or persons residing without the limits of the State at the time such decree is pronounced, and such person or persons shall, within two years after making such decree, reside within the State, or become publicly visible therein, then and in such case, he, she, or they shall likewise be served with a copy of such decree within a reasonable time after his, her or their coming into the State, or their public appearance shall be known to the plaintiff or plaintiffs; and in case any defendant or defendants against whom such decree shall be made, shall, within two years after the making of such decree, happen to die before his or her coming into the State, or appearing openly as aforesaid, or shall, within the time last before mentioned, die in custody, before his or her being served with a copy of such decree, then the heir of such defendant as shall have any real estate whereof possession shall have been delivered to the plaintif or plaintiffs, if such heir may be found, or if such heir shall be a feme covert, infant or non composit mentis, the husband, guardian, or committee of such heir respectively, or if the personal estate of such defendant shall have been levied upon or possession thereof delivered to the plaintiff or plaintiffs, then his or her executor or administrator, if any such there may be, may and shall be served with a copy of such decree within a reasonable time after it shall be known to the plaintiff or plaintiffs that the defendant is dead, and who is his or her heir, executor or administrator, and where he, she or they may respectively be served therewith within the State. Thirdly, Provided always, if any person or persons so served with a copy of such decree shall not, within twelve months after such service, appear and petition to have the said cause reheard, such decree so made as aforesaid, shall stand absolutely confirmed against the person or persons so served with a copy thereof, his, her or their respective heirs, executors, and administrators, and all persons claiming or to claim by, from or under him, her or them, or any of them, by virtue of any act done or to be done subsequent to the commencement of such suit. Fourthly, Provided nevertheless, that if any person so served with a copy of such decree, shall, within twelve months after such service, or if any person not being so served shall, within three years next after the making such decree, appear in court and petition to be heard with respect to the matters of such decree, and shall pay down or give security for the payment of such costs as the court shall think reasonable in that behalf, the person or persons so petitioning, his, her or their respective representatives, or any person claiming under him, her, or them respectively by virtue of any act done before the commencement of the suit, may be admitted to answer the bill exhibited, and issue may be joined, and witnesses on both sides examined, and such other proceeding, decree and execution may be had thereon, as there might have been in case the same party had originally appeared, and the proceeding had then been newly begun, or as if no former decree or proceedings had been in the same cause.—Fifthly, Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, that if any person or persons against whom such decree shall be made, his, her, or their heirs, executors or administrators shall not, within three years next after the making of such decree, appear, and petition to have the cause reheard, and pay down or give security for the payment of such costs as the court shall think reasonable in that behalf, such decree made as aforesaid, shall stand absolutely confirmed against the person and persons against whom such decree shall be made, his, her or their heirs, executors and administrators, and against all persons claiming, or to claim by, from or under him, her, them or any of them, by virtue of any act done or to be done, subsequent to the commencement of such suit; and at the end of such three years, it shall and may be lawful for the court to make such further order as shall be just and reasonable, according to the circumstances of the case. Sixthly, Provided always, that this act shall not extend, or be construed to extend to warrant, or make good any proceedings against any person residing without the State, unless the ground or cause of action, or the transaction on which the bill may be brought, took place within the limits of the State.

Commissions to take testimony may issue directed to any two justices of the peace, who shall have all the powers of commissioners in chancery; and the rules of proceedings in all cases of taking such testimony, shall be conformable to the method of proceeding heretofore observed in the courts of chancery in this State, provided no such testimony shall be taken until at least twenty days notice of the time and place of taking the same be given to the opposite party, unless the court for sufficient reasons, should appoint any other limited time for the notice, which they may do in all cases, either by enlarging or shortening the time hereby appointed for taking such testimony, as the case may require.

Commissions may also issue to any justice or justices of the peace to take the plea, answer, or demur of a defendant, as is accustomed in cases in chancery with respect to commissioners of chancery; and the said justice or justices shall have all the power of such commissioners for that purpose.

Any one Judge of the court, or Judge of the Supreme Court, may in the vacation, if it shall be necessary, grant such commissions as are above mentioned, or may himself examine testimony, or take the plea, answer, or demurrer of the defendant, in like manner; he may also grant injunctions or ne exeat, when the necessity of the case will not admit of a delay, but still subject to the control and further order of the court; and no ne exeat shall issue where sufficient bail has been taken for the party’s appearance.

It shall be the duty of the said court to direct the trial of such issues as to the court may appear necessary, according to the rules and practice in chancery in such cases. Costs shall be paid by either party, at the discretion of the court. The court may, at any time during the dependence of the suit, require further security from a defendant, or, on failure thereof, make use of such personal process as was formally used by the court of chancery held it this State, and deemed incident to the chancery jurisdiction; and the court shall, in all cases, have power to order such process, to enforce their sentences and decrees, as have usually belonged to courts of chancery.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the several sheriffs in this State to serve all notices, issuing from clerks and masters in equity, to parties concerned in all references to them made; and for neglect or failure to do the same, they shall be subject to the same penalties as by law provided for omission or neglect in serving other process issuing to them.

Sec. 6. In all cases where decrees shall be made in any suit in equity, for any sum or sums of money, it shall and may be lawful for execution to issue thereon against the defendant's body, or against his goods and chattels, lands and tenements, to satisfy such decree and costs, in the same manner as executions may or shall issue at law; and lands and tenements, goods and chattels shall be bound by such decree and execution, in the same manner as lands and tenements, goods and chattels are by judgments and executions at law.

Sec. 7. Whenever any suit shall be brought in any of said courts in equity, in which security shall be given for the prosecution thereof, and a decree shall be entered up against the plaintiff for the costs of the defendant or defendants, it shall be the duty of the court, upon motion of the defendant, also to make a decree for said costs against the security for the prosecution; whereupon execution shall issue jointly against said plaintiff and securities.

Sec. 8. An Act Concerning the power and jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That every person appointed a justice of the peace, before entering upon and executing the said office, shall, within twelve months thereafter, and not after that time, unless re-appointed, publicly, in the Court House of his county on a court day, take the oaths appointed, or which shall be appointed, by the General assembly for the qualification of public officers, and also an oath of office. And if any person shall presume to execute the office of a justice of the peace, without first qualifying himself in the manner by this act required, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of two hundred dollars, one half thereof to the county, the other half to the person suing for the same, to be recovered with costs, by action of debt, in any court of record within this State, where the same is cognizable.

Sec. 2. No justice of the peace, being a candidate for the office of a Sheriff, County Court Clerk, Register, Entry Taker, Surveyor, County Trustee, or Ranger of his county, shall vote or sit on the bench at the election of such officer. And if any justice of the peace shall sit on the bench or vote in such election, his vote shall not be counted, and he shall forfeit and pay, for every such offence, the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered by action of debt, one half to the person suing for the same, and the other half to the use of the county.

Sec. 3. When any justice of the peace hath or shall remove himself out of the county for which he is or shall be appointed, and shall not return within twelve months to reside therein, his appointment shall be void: And it shall not be lawful for such justice to act as a justice of the peace, unless re-appoint-ed by the General Assembly, under a penalty of one hundred dollars for every such illegal act, to be recovered by action of debt, one half to the use of the county, the other half to the person suing for the same.

Sec 4. All justices of the peace shall, within their respec-tive counties, have full power and authority to maintain, keep and preserve the peace, solemnize the rites of matrimony, and issue necessary process to enforce the collection of debts and other contracts coming within their jurisdiction.

Sec 5. No justice of the peace shall practise as an attor-ney in the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the county for which he is such justice; nor shall he be appointed, or act as clerk or deputy thereof, or as sheriff or deputy sheriff, constable, or county trustee, or jailor, within his county. And if any justice shall accept any of such appointments, he shall thereby vacate his office as such justice: And if he shall, after the acceptance of any such appointment, act as a justice, with-out a re-appointment by the General Assembly, he shall, for every such act, forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered in any court having cognizance thereof, in the name of the wardens of the poor of such county, to be by them applied to the use of the poor.

Sec 6. All debts and demands due on bonds, notes and liquidated accounts, when said accounts shall be stated in wri-ting, and signed by the party from whom the same shall be due, when the principal does not exceed one hundred dollars, although the principal and interest together may exceed that sum; and all debts and demands of sixty dollars and under, for a balance, due on any special contract, note or agreement, or for goods, wares and merchandise, sold and delivered, or for work or labor done, or for specific articles, whether due by obligation, note or assumpsit, or for any judgment which may have been granted by a single magistrate, and no execu-tion have issued thereon within twelve months, or for any for-feitures or penalty incurred by any act of the General Assem-bly, shall be cognizable and determinable by any one justice of the peace out of court.
Sec. 7. All warrants issued by a justice of the peace, shall be made returnable on or before thirty days from the date thereof, Sundays excepted, and not after; and when issued against any person, executors and administrators, female debtors excepted, shall command the sheriff, constable or other officer to take the body of the person therein mentioned as defendant, if to be found in his county, to answer the complaint of the plaintiff in such warrant, before some justice of his county; and such officer, when required by the plaintiff, shall take bond, with sufficient security, of the party arrested, in double the sum for which such person shall be held in arrest, (which sum and how due shall be expressed in the warrant,) conditioned for his appearance at a certain time and place therein to be specified, before some justice of the county where the warrant issued; which bond shall be assigned by such officer to the plaintiff, and returned with the warrant, and shall be filed by the justice that shall try the warrant with the other papers in the suit; and in case the sheriff, constable or other officer shall fail or neglect to take such bond, with security as aforesaid, he shall be held and deemed special bail, and the plaintiff may proceed to judgment against him according to the rules hereinafter prescribed.

Sec. 8. When any sheriff, constable or other officer shall serve a warrant on any person or persons, who shall refuse to give bond and security for his or her appearance as aforesaid, such officer is hereby required to commit such person or persons to the jail of his county, in order that he may have such person or persons forth coming at the day appointed for trial; and it shall be the duty of such officer to produce his prisoner at such trial; and all warrants, whether by summons, arrest or attachment, shall be heard or determined on the day appointed by the officer serving the warrant as aforesaid, which day shall be on or before the return day set forth in the warrant, unless the justice shall, for good reasons, put off the trial to some other day at his discretion. And in case the plaintiff shall fail to attend or prosecute his suit on the day appointed as aforesaid, the defendant appearing shall be discharged; and it is hereby declared to be the duty of the officer serving a warrant, to notify the plaintiff of the time and place appointed to try and determine the cause; provided, that when the sheriff, constable or other officer shall have committed any defendant to jail as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of such officer to give immediate notice thereof to some justice in the county; and such justice shall appoint a day for the trial, and notice of the time of such trial shall be given and served on the plaintiff by the officer who served the warrant.

Sec. 9. All bail taken according to the directions of this act, shall be liable to the recovery of the plaintiff; but the plaintiff, after final judgment, shall not take out execution against the bail until an execution against the body of the defendant be first returned by the sheriff, constable or other officer, that the defendant is not found in his county, and not until a notice, in writing, issued against the bail by the justice who has possession of the papers in the original suit, hath been made known to the bail; and after the return of such execution against the principal, and notice against the bail, execution may issue against the principal and bail, or any of them, or any of their estates, unless the bail shall make it appear that the principal is dead, or that the judgment has been satisfied, or unless the bail shall surrender the principal at or before the return of such notice to the officer who served the notice; in which latter case the justice shall commit the principal to the jail of his county, until he shall satisfy the judgment and costs.

Sec. 10. Such bail shall, at any time before final judgment had against him, have full power and authority to arrest the body of his principal and secure him, until he shall have an opportunity of surrendering him in discharge of himself to the officer who made the arrest or served the notice; and such officer is hereby required to receive such surrender, and hold the body of defendant in custody as if bail had never been given.

Sec. 11. When any judgment is given by a single magistrate, it shall be in his power or that of any other justice of the peace, to award execution against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, or body of the party cast, which process shall be executed and returned by the sheriff, constable or other lawful officer to whom the same may be directed, in the same manner as other writs of fieri facias, or capias ad satisfacientum, are to be executed and returned: Provided always, that where a judgment shall be given by a justice of the peace as aforesaid, execution thereon shall be stayed in the following manner, viz: For all sums not exceeding four dollars, twenty days; for all sums above four dollars, and not exceeding ten dollars, sixty days; for all sums above ten dollars, and not exceeding twenty dollars, one hundred and twenty days; and for all sums above twenty dollars, six months. And for the true and faithful payment thereof, with interest and costs, the party praying such stay of execution shall, if required, give sufficient security; and the acknowledgment of such security entered by the justice, and signed by the party, shall be sufficient to bind him; and if the judgment shall not be discharged at the time to which the execution has been stayed, then it shall be lawful for the justice who has possession of the judgment, to issue execution as aforesaid against the principal and security.

Sec. 12. When any warrant shall be granted on a former judgment, on the trial of such warrant, the former judgment shall be evidence of the debt, subject to such deductions as the defendant may make appear to have been paid; and if judgment in such case passes against the defendant, he shall not be entitled to any stay on the same.

Sec. 13. Every justice of the peace, before whom a warrant is brought for trial, shall have full power and authority, on sufficient excuse shewn, on oath, by either the plaintiff or defendant, their agent or attorney, to postpone from time to time or continue for trial the same: Provided such continuance or postponement shall in no case exceed thirty days; and it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace to act on said postponement or continuance, the original date of the warrant exceeding thirty days notwithstanding.

Sec. 14. When, on the trial of a civil warrant, the testimony of a witness not resident within the county where the same is pending, is required by either party, the deposition of said witness, taken by a single magistrate of the county where the witness may be, upon reasonable notice to the adverse party of the time and place of taking the same, shall be read in evidence; and the magistrate, if the deposition is taken within this State, shall have power to issue a summons to compel the attendance of the witness.

Sec. 15. Whenever a judgment shall be given in the absence of either plaintiff or defendant, by any justice of the peace, whether execution hath been issued or not, on application of such absent party, his or her agent or attorney, within ten days after the date of said judgment, to the justice who awarded the same, on sufficient cause shown, on oath or affirmation, why he, she or they could not attend the day of trial, it shall be the duty of the said justice to issue his order to the plaintiff, defendant or officer, as the case may require, in possession of the papers relative to the suit, to forbear any further proceedings thereon, and immediately to bring the same before him or some other justice for re-consideration, provided that the applicant shall give sufficient security for his appearance: It shall also be the duty of the justice aforesaid to issue his summons, directed to some proper officer, to cause the parties, with their witnesses, to appear before him or some other justice, at such time and place, not exceeding thirty days, as he may think proper, where the case shall undergo a fair investigation, and be subject to the same proceedings as if it had never been acted on; and the officer to whom the summons may be directed, shall receive for his trouble in executing the same, the same fees he is entitled to for summoning witnesses, to be taxed against the party at whose instance it issued.

Sec. 16. All executions issued by a justice of the peace, against the estate of any person or persons, shall be made returnable in three months from the date thereof, and shall be directed to the sheriff, constable or other lawful officer, commanding him that of the goods and chattels of the party cast, he make such sum or sums of money therein mentioned, or for want of such goods and chattels to satisfy said execution, then he levy on the lands and tenements of such person or persons, and make return thereof to the justice who issued the same, setting forth on the execution the money he has made of goods and chattels, and what lands and tenements he has levied on, where situate, on what water course, and whose land it is adjoining; and the justice to whom the return is made, shall return such execution, with all other papers on which the judgment was given, to the next court to be held for his county; which land shall, by order of said court, be sold by the sheriff of said county, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy said judgment, in the same manner as real property is sold by writs of fieri facias or venditioni exponas issuing from such court; and the clerk of the court where such papers are returned, shall, in a well bound book kept for that purpose, record the whole of the papers and proceedings had before the justice; and when any execution shall be returned to a justice not fully satisfied and discharged, it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace for said county to issue another execution for the sum so remaining due on the former execution.

Sec. 17. Any justice of the peace is hereby authorised and required, on application of either plaintiff or defendant named in any original process issued by a single justice, to direct the sheriff, constable or other lawful officer, by an order in writing on the process, to summon witnesses to appear and give testimony in such suit, at the time and place appointed for trial; and such witnesses failing to appear and give evidence, shall forfeit and pay the sum of four dollars to the party at whose instance he was summoned, and further be liable to the action of the party aggrieved for damage sustained by his non attendance; which fine shall be recovered before any justice of the peace, unless such witness, on affidavit or otherwise, shall shew sufficient cause to the contrary, subject to appeal as in other cases.

Sec. 18. When any execution shall issue to a sheriff, constable or other officer, in virtue of a judgment obtained before any justice of the peace, and the person or persons against whom such judgment may be obtained, shall remove him or themselves to any other county within this State, and the sheriff or other officer cannot find any property whereon to levy said execution, then in such case, the said sheriff or other officer shall return such execution to the next court to be held for said county; and the plaintiff, on application, shall be entitled to an execution for the whole or any part of said execution which remains unpaid by the return of such officer; and the clerk by order of the said court shall make a record of the same, and issue execution to the county where the defendant or defendants reside, in the same manner and under the same rules as in cases of judgments obtained in said courts.

Sec. 19. It shall and may be lawful for any person having a judgment or execution against any person from a justice of the peace, and the said defendant has no property in the county wherein the same may be levied, to return the execution to the clerk of the county in which judgment was obtained out of court; and it shall be the duty of the clerk to certify, under seal, the justice or justices who gave judgment was an acting justices or justices of said county; on which certificate any justice or justices in any other county in this State, shall and may award execution, for the sums therein expressed, against such defendant or defendants.

Sec. 20. It shall and may be lawful for any justice of the peace, who now is or may be hereafter appointed, to accept and exercise any civil office or appointment of profit or trust, under the authority of the United States, the duties of which appointment shall be confined to this State; any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 21. No process issued by a justice of the peace shall be set aside for the want of form, if the essential matters are set forth therein.

Sec. 22. If either of the parties to a trial before a justice of the peace shall be dissatisfied with the judgment given thereon, he may appeal to the next term of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, first giving security for prosecuting such appeal with effect.

Sec. 23. In all cases where appeals shall be granted from the judgment of a justice, the acknowledgment of the security, subscribed by him or her and attested by the justice, shall be sufficient to bind the security to abide by and perform the judgment of the court.

Sec. 24. When any justice of the peace shall grant an appeal to the county court, it shall be the duty of such justice to return such appeal on or before the second day of the court to which it may be returnable; and he is hereby authorised and required, on application of either of the parties, to issue subpoenas, directed to the sheriff or other lawful officer in any county in this State, for witnesses to appear and give testimony at the court to which such appeal is returnable; and the officer to whom such subpoena is directed, and the witnesses summoned in consequence thereof, shall be under the same rules and regulations, and subject to the same penalties, and entitled to the same pay, privileges and emoluments as if such subpoena had issued from the clerk of the court to which such appeal shall be returnable.

And when judgment shall be entered against either plaintiff or defendant in their absence, the person or persons against whom such judgment hath been given, on making oath within ten days from the rendition of said judgment, before any justice of the county where such judgment may be entered, that he, she or they was or were prevented from attending on the day of trial by bodily infirmity, mistaking the day of trial, or other sufficient cause; and that he, she or they are likely to be injured by such judgment, that then and in that case, it shall and may be lawful for such justice to grant an appeal to the next county court or stay of execution, on such person or persons entering into bond with sufficient security as in other cases of granting appeals or staying of execution from the judgment of the justice: and it shall also be the duty of such justice to give to the party craving such appeal, a written order to the constable or other person having such judgment in his or their hands, commanding him to return such judgment, together with such other papers and documents as may be in their hands relative to such judgment, to him the said justice before the next county court, and also commanding said officer to give notice to the party in whose favor such judgment hath been given, of an appeal having been granted thereon; and that it shall be the duty of the justice, on receiving such judgment and other papers, to make return thereof, together with the appeal bond and affidavit of the party craving such appeal, to the next ensuing court of his county, to be tried as other appeals from justices judgments.

Sec. 26. Nothing in the preceding section contained, shall prevent the party entitled to the same, from taking out execution at any time before the same is stayed or an appeal granted.

Sec. 27. If any execution shall issue upon any judgment where the defendant prayed an appeal or stay of execution before the ten days be expired, upon security being given as by this act directed, such execution shall be returned to the justice of the peace who issued it, and shall not be acted on by any officer; and the officer or other person who has any such

Sec. 28. Every justice of the peace within the county for which he shall be appointed, shall have power to restrain evil doers, rioters and disturbers of the public peace, and to take them and cause them to be imprisoned and punished, and take of them that be not of good fame, security for their good behavior.

Sec. 29. If any riot, assembly or rout of people against law be made, any two justices of the peace and the sheriff, shall come with the power of the county, (if need be) and arrest them; and the same justices and sheriff shall have power to record that which they find done in their presence against law; and if such offenders be departed before the coming of the justices and sheriff, then the same justices and sheriff shall diligently inquire, within a month after, of such riot, rout or unlawful assembly, and shall record the same—and the record so made by them in either case, said justices shall return to the next succeeding term of the court of pleas and quarter sessions or of the Superior Court to be held for their county.

Sec. 30. It shall be the duty of the justices of the peace dwelling highest when such riot, rout or unlawful assembly shall be made, to execute the provisions of the preceding section.

Sec. 31. It shall be the duty of all magistrates to suppress all such riots, routs and unlawful assemblies—and may, when necessary, use the power of the county for that purpose, and shall take such offenders and put them in prison, to be dealt with according to law.

Sec. 32. It shall be the duty of all constables in each and every county, within their respective counties, or upon any bay, river or creek, adjoining their counties, to serve all notices that shall be to them tendered or delivered, which are or may be required by law to be given for commencing or prosecuting any cause before any justice of the peace out of court.

Sec. 33. The constable shall serve the same by delivering a true copy thereof to the person to whom the same should be delivered, if to be found in his county, or by leaving a copy thereof at the usual place of abode of such person, if in his county; and shall certify on the notice, the time when such notice was served, or copy left at the place of abode; and such return shall be evidence of the service of the said notice as may be therein stated, and the said constables shall deliver the said notice with the return thereon to the party, his attorney or agent, at whose instance such notice issued, upon demand of the same.

Sec. 34. Any constable, neglecting or refusing to execute and return such notice, or making a false return thereon, shall be subject to the same action and penalties as for refusing or neglecting to serve, or falsely returning process or precepts, directed to them from a justice of the peace out of court, to be prosecuted, recovered and applied as actions and penalties are directed to be prosecuted, recovered and applied for refusing or neglecting to serve, or falsely returning process or precepts issued from a justice of the peace out of court.

Sec. 35. Nothing contained in the three preceding sections, shall prevent any person from giving notice and proving the same as heretofore.

Sec. 10. The said corporation, and their officers or agents, shall have a right to enter upon the lands of all and any persons whomsoever, for the purpose of surveying; and all the grants and deeds for swamp lands heretofore made, shall be proved and registered in the county where such lands are situate, within twelve months; and every such grant or deed not being so registered within the time aforesaid, shall be utterly void and of no effect, and the title of the proprietor in said lands shall revert to the State of North Carolina.

Sec. 20. If any vessel deepens or lightens between Wilmington and the flats, between the flats and Brunswick, or between Brunswick and Fort Johnston, the pilot shall be paid for the greatest draught of water; and shall besides be entitled to demand at the rate of one dollar and twenty-five cents per day, for every day he may be delayed in loading or unloading such vessel, in which no fraction or part of a day shall be allowed or deducted.

Any major or brigadier general failing to give notice as above directed, shall forfeit and pay for every offence, the sum of forty dollars, to be recovered before any jurisdiction having cognizance thereof, one half to the use of the county in which such recovery is had, and the other half to the use of the person suing for the same.

delinquent officer thirty days notice of his neglect of duty; and if such delinquent does not, within forty days thereafter, render a satisfactory excuse for such neglect, by showing to the Governor that such delinquency happened in consequence of indisposition, absence from the State, or other sufficient cause, it shall be the duty of the Governor to strike his name from the list of officers. And when the Governor shall thus strike the name of any officer from the list of officers, he shall communicate it to the adjutant general, who shall have it published in some newspaper within this State, and issue proper notices to supply the vacancy.

Sec. 59. It shall be the duty of the adjutant general to distribute all orders from the commander in chief of the State to the several corps, to attend public reviews if required, and every other thing which relates to the advancement of good order and discipline. All which the several officers of the divisions, brigades, regiments and battalions, are hereby required to make in the manner herein directed, that the adjubiennial meeting of the General Assembly. From all which returns he shall make proper abstracts, and lay the same, with a report of the general state of the militia, magazines and mili-

And he shall from time to time make report to the Legislature, of what shall be done by him in virtue of his appointment, and accompany such report with such remarks as may by him be deemed necessary for the better regulation and improvement of the militia discipline throughout the State.

Sec. 40. If no immediate opportunity offers for forwarding orders or returns, the certainty of which ensures a speedy delivery thereof, which can be easily ascertained and proved, then it shall be the duty of the officer issuing the order, or making the return, (as the case may be,) to lodge the same, properly directed, in the post office, marked on the back "public service," under which he shall write his name and grade; and a return thus made shall be deemed sufficient and good in law.

Sec. 41. The governor for the time being, is hereby au-

Sec. 47. All fines and forfeitures incurred by the cavalry officers or privates, and not herein particularly appropriated, shall be applied to the purposes of first buying trumpets, and then at the disposal of the regimental courts martial, to the use and benefit of the troop whence the same arose. Those fines paid by the field and staff officers, and not particularly appropriated, shall be equally divided among the troops composing the regiment to which they respectively belong. All other fines and forfeitures shall be appropriated and divided at the discretion of the regimental court martial, for the promotion and advancement of military discipline.

said meeting (who shall also preside thereat) to the brigadier general of said brigade, whose duty it shall be to lay said result before the Governor, who shall forthwith issue commissions to the said officers.

Sec. 58. Whenever there may be formed a regiment of volunteers as herein before provided, it shall be the duty of the commanding officer of such regiment to review his regiment, as often as the colonel or commanding officer of infantry may be required to do by law.

Sec. 62. When a court martial is ordered, the officer ordering it shall appoint the President, judge advocate and provost martial; and if it be a general court martial, orders shall be issued to such divisions as, in the opinion of the Governor or

Sec. 64. Whenever the commanding officer of a division, brigade, regiment or battalion, shall be ordered to furnish any officer or officers as a member or members, supernumerary or supernumeraries of a court martial, such officer or officers shall be regularly detailed from the roster of the division, brigade, regiment or battalion, by the commanding officer thereof, forthwith after receiving orders therefor: Provided, that in case of sickness, inability or absence of any officer whose term it may be to serve on a court martial, the detailing officer, shall certify such circumstance to the officer who ordered the court martial, and detail the officer next in succession.

Sec. 65. Officers ordered to be detailed to serve on courts martial, shall be detailed in the following manner: brigadier generals by the major generals of division, from the division rosters; colonels, lieutenant colonels and majors, by the com-

Sec. 66. All courts martial, for the trial of officers, shall be constituted of a president, judge advocate and provost martial, together with the number of members prescribed by the provisions of this act; and the officer ordering a court martial shall and may, at his discretion, order a number of officers to be detailed as supernumeraries, in addition to those intended to serve as members, to attend the organization thereof; and in case there should be any vacancy or vacancies, the judge advocate shall fill such vacancy or vacancies from the supernumeraries, beginning with the highest in grade, and proceeding in regular rotation.

Sec. 67. All officers on a court martial shall take rank by seniority of commission, without regard to corps; and before any court martial shall proceed to the trial of any officer, the judge advocate shall administer to the president and each of the members the following oath: "You, A. B. do swear, that you will well and truly try and determine, according to the evidence, the matter now before you, between the State of North Carolina and the prisoners to be tried; and that you will duly administer justice, according to the militia laws of North Carolina, without partiality, favor, or affection; and you do further swear, that you will not divulge the sentence of the court until it shall be published by the proper authority, neither will you disclose the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court, unless required to give evidence thereof, as a witness, by a court of justice, in due course of law; so help you God." And the president shall administer to the judge advocate the following oath: "You, A. B. do swear that you will faithfully and impartially discharge the duty of judge advocate on this occasion, as well to the State as to the accused, and that you will not disclose the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court, unless required to give evidence thereof, as a witness, by a court of justice, in a due course of law; nor divulge the sentence of the court to any but to the proper authority, until it shall be duly published by the same; so help you God."

Sec. 68. The judge advocate of any court martial, constituted according to the provisions of this act, shall and may issue a summons, in the nature of a subpoena in criminal cases, directed to the provost martial, to summon witnesses for the State and the accused; and the persons summoned by him shall be bound to attend and give evidence before the court martial, under the penalty of forty dollars, to be recovered by the party aggrieved, in an action of debt, before a justice of the peace, unless the witness can prove his inability to attend.

Sec. 69. All witnesses shall be sworn or affirmed by the judge advocate, before they give their evidence as in criminal cases, according to the following form: "You, A. B. do swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that the evidence you will give the court, in the case between the State and C. D., shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth: so help you God."

Sec. 70. All trials by court martial shall be carried on in the day time, between the hours of ten o'clock in the morning and five o'clock in the evening; and when the votes shall be called for on any question, the judge advocate shall begin with the youngest in commission, and proceed regularly to the oldest. And at all courts martial, unless two-thirds of the members agree that the accused is guilty, the judge advocate shall record his acquittal; and all courts martial authorized and appointed in pursuance of the militia laws of this State, shall have full power and authority to preserve order during their session, and may imprison in the county jail, for the space of eight hours, any and all persons who shall, in the presence of the court martial, behave in a disorderly and contemptuous manner.

Sec. 71. It shall be the duty of the judge advocate, upon all trials, to state impartially to the court the evidence, both for and against the accused, to take in writing the evidence both for and against the accused, and to minute down the proceedings of the court, all of which, with the judgment or sentence of the court thereupon, authenticated by his signature, and that of the president of the court, with the papers used at the trial, or copies thereof, certified by him, he shall transmit under seal to the officer who ordered the court; and all motions and objections to evidence, whether on the part of the State or the accused; and the opinion of the judge advocate on questions of law made at the trial, shall be stated in writing, and the statement of the complaint and the trial may be had by the officer, whose duty it is to approve or disapprove of the proceedings; and all the original proceedings and judgments or sentence of all courts martial appointed according to the provisions of this act, after having been approved or disapproved by the officer ordering them, shall by him, as soon thereafter as convenient, be transmittted to the adjutant general of the State, to be deposited and preserved in his office, and the party tried by any court martial as aforesaid, upon request by himself or by any person properly authorised, at the adjutant general's office, shall be entitled to a copy of the original record, certified as aforesaid, of the proceedings and sentence of the court, he paying reasonably for the same.

Sec. 72. When any officer shall be arrested, and notified to attend any court martial which may be ordered for his trial, and shall refuse or neglect to attend the same, the said court shall take up the charges and specifications alleged against him, provided he has been served with a copy thereof, and proceed to trial in the same manner as if he were present.

Sec. 73. If any person shall wickedly, wilfully and corruptly, swear falsely before any court martial, touching and concerning any matter or thing cognizable before such court martial, he shall on conviction thereof, be liable to the pains and penalties of perjury; and in all cases, to delinquents and witnesses, oaths and affirmations shall be administered by the judge advocate or presiding officer of such court martial.

Sec. 74. Dishonest or ungentlemanly conduct in an officer, shall be punished by cashiering and disabling him from ever holding a military commission in this State.

Sec. 75. Upon any requisition of the United States for a detachment of the militia from this State, it shall be the duty of every captain of infantry to enter upon his roll,

Sec. 76. It shall be the duty of each captain or commanding officer of a company of militia, detached as part of the requisition under the authority of the United States, to receive and enrol in the place and stead of any person drafted to serve in such company any able bodied free white citizen to serve as a substitute for such person so drafted.

Sec. 77. Sec 78. In all cases where a militia-man shall have performed a tour of service, either as a volunteer or drafted militia-man, whether upon the requisition of the United States or of this State, he shall not be liable to stand a second draft until the whole of the militia within his company district shall have performed a like tour of duty.

Sec. 79. When militia-men are ordered out on duty in aid of the civil authority, either to guard a jail or for any other purpose, and shall neglect or refuse to attend agreeably to orders, each man shall be fined at the discretion of his company court martial, not exceeding five dollars for each day he shall fail to do duty.

Sec. 80. In all cases of insurrection among slaves or free persons of color, either in any county of the State, or in an adjoining State, or in case of invasion, seven justices of the peace, deeming the emergency to require it, may, at their discretion, require, in writing, of the commanding officer or officers of their county, to call out the militia under his com-

Sec. 81. It shall be the duty of the commanding officer forthwith to order out the militia in the way he shall judge best to effect the purpose desired; he may make such contracts as he may think most to the interest of the State, for the requisite ammunition, and appoint some one a commissary to provide the necessary rations for the subsistence of the men while in service; and immediately on the discharge of the men, the commanding officer is hereby empowered to dispose of any surplus ammunition or provision for the benefit of the State; and all expenses hereby incurred, shall be properly certified by said officer, and forwarded to the governor, and shall be paid by the State, after undergoing an examination and approval by the governor, treasurer and comptroller, who are hereby created a board for that purpose.

Sec. 82. The commanding officer of any regiment, as soon as he has called out the militia, under the provisions of the 81st section of this act, shall immediately send an express to the brigadier or major general of his brigade or division, informing him of that fact, and of any other official facts he may be in possession of, and continue to do so from time to time; and the brigadier or major general shall immediately apprise the governor, either by express or mail, as he may judge the emergency requires, of all the circumstances; in the mean time, such general officer shall pursue the most effectual measures for repelling such invasion, or suppressing such insurrection; and the militia thus called out, shall be armed according to law.

Sec. 84. The militia of this State, both officers and soldiers, when called into the service of the State, shall receive the same pay and rations as when called into the service of the United States.

Sec. 85. Every officer who shall refuse or neglect on call or alarm given, to appear at such times and places as shall be appointed by his commanding officer, shall on conviction before a court martial be cashiered, and rendered incapable of ever after holding a military appointment under the authority of this State, and be further liable to pay the sum of forty dollars, to be collected as herein directed, and if a non-commissioned officer or private, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars. If any person do not march against the enemy when commanded, by himself or substitute, or refuse or neglect to do his duty or perform the services he is requested to perform by his officer, or quit his post, desert or mutiny, it shall and may be lawful for the commanding officer of the regiment or corps to order a court martial for the trial of such offender. Sec. 87. All acts heretofore passed on the subject of the militia are hereby repealed: Provided, that this act shall not extend to military appointments made by recommendation to the present Legislature; and provided, that nothing herein contained, shall be construed to repeal any private act of the General Assembly, incorporating, granting privileges to, or regulating particular corps, whether of the volunteers or of the ordinary militia.

Sec. 88. It shall be the duty of the adjutant general to have copies of this act printed, and distributed, one copy to each general officer, one copy to each field officer, and two copies to each company, to be distributed as is provided for the distribution of the acts of the General Assembly.

Sec. 2. The times and places for receiving subscriptions, shall be advertised in one or more newspapers published in the city of Raleigh and town of Fayetteville, and the books for receiving the same shall not be closed in less than ten days; and if it shall appear that more than ten thousand shares of the capital stock aforesaid, shall have been subscribed for within the said ten days, it shall be the duty of the said commissioners at Raleigh, or any five of them, to reduce the number of shares subscribed for among the subscribers, in fair and equal proportions to the amount of stock subscribed for respectively by each, until the whole amount of shares shall be reduced to ten thousand: Provided however, that no reduction shall be made of the subscription of any citizen of this State until the whole of the subscriptions of non-residents shall be stricken off; but if the whole amount shall not be subscribed for within ten days from the time the books shall be opened to receive subscriptions, then the books may be closed or continued open, or closed and re-opened, without further notice, as a majority of the above mentioned commissioners at Raleigh may judge to be most expedient, until the whole number of shares shall be subscribed for.

Sec. 4. Upon any subscription of stock, as aforesaid, there shall be paid at the time of subscribing, to the said commissioners or their agents appointed to receive such subscriptions, the sum of two dollars on every share subscribed, and the residue thereof shall be paid in such instalments, and at such times, as may be required by the President and Directors of said company.

Sec. 5. The said commissioners, or their agents, shall forthwith, after the first election of President and Directors of the company, pay over to the said President and Directors all moneys received by them; and on failure thereof, the said President and Directors may recover the amount due from them, or from any one or more of them, by motion, on ten days previous notice, in the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, or the Superior Court of Law, of any county wherein such commissioner or commissioners, their executors or administrators, may reside, or by warrant before a justice of the peace of said county.

Sec. 6. When three hundred thousand dollars or more of the stock shall have been subscribed, public notice of that event shall be given by any three or more of the said commissioners at Raleigh, who shall have power at the same time to call a general meeting of the subscribers, at such convenient place and time as they shall name in said notice.

Sec. 7. To constitute any such meeting, a number of persons entitled to a majority of all the votes which could be given upon all the shares subscribed, shall be present, either in person or by proxy; and if a sufficient number to constitute a meeting do not attend on that day, those who attend shall have power to adjourn from time to time, until a meeting shall be formed.

Sec. 8. The subscribers, at their general meeting before directed, and the proprietors of stock at every annual meeting thereafter, shall elect a President and five Directors, who shall continue in office, unless sooner removed, until the next annual meeting after their election, and until their successors shall be elected; but the said President and Directors, or any of them, may at any time be removed, and the vacancy thereby occasioned be filled.
by a majority of the votes given at any general meeting.
The President, with any two or more of the Directors, or in the event of the sickness, absence, or disability of the President, any three or more of the Directors, who shall appoint one of their own body President, pro tem.
shall constitute a board for the transaction of business.
In case of vacancy in the office of President, or any Di-disability, such vacancy may be supplied by the appointment of the board, until the next annual meeting.

Sec. 9. The President and Directors of said company shall be, and they are hereby invested with all the rights and powers necessary for the construction, repair and maintaining of a rail road; to be located as aforesaid, with as many sets of tracks as they, or a majority of them, may deem necessary; and may cause to be made,
and also to make and construct, all works whatsoever, which may be necessary and expedient, in order to the proper completion of the said rail road.

Sec. 10. The said President and Directors shall have power to make contracts with any person or persons on behalf of the company, for making the said rail road, and performing all other works respecting the same,
which they shall judge necessary and proper, and to revances of money on their respective shares, as the wants of the company may demand, until the whole of their subscriptions shall be advanced; to call, on any emergency, a general meeting of the subscribers, giving one month's notice thereof in one of the newspapers printed in the city of Raleigh; to appoint a Treasurer, Clerk and such other officers as they may require, and to transact all the business of the company during the intervals between the general meetings of the stockholders.

Sec. 11. If any stockholder shall fail to pay the sum required of him by the President and Directors, or by a majority of them, within one month after the same shall have been advertised in one of the newspapers published in the city of Raleigh, it shall and may be lawful for the President and Directors, or a majority of them, to sell at public auction, and to convey to the purchaser, the share or shares of such stockholder, so failing or refusing, giving one month's previous notice of the time and place of sale, in manner aforesaid; and after retaining the sum due, and all charges of the sale, out of the proceeds thereof, to pay the surplus over to the former owner or to his legal representative; and if the said sale shall not produce the sum required to be advanced, with the incidental charges attending the sale, then the President and Directors may recover the balance of the original proprietor or his assignee, or the executor or administrator of either of them, by suit in any court of record having jurisdiction thereof, or by warrant before a justice of the peace of the county of which he is a resident; and any purchaser of the stock of the company, under the sale by the President and Directors, shall be subject to the same rules and regulations as the original proprietor.

Sec. 12. Be it further enacted, That if the capital stock of the company hereby incorporated, shall be found insufficient for the purpose of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the President and Directors of the said company, or a majority of them, from time to time to increase the said capital stock to an amount not exceeding two millions of dollars, by the addition of as many shares as they may deem necessary—first giving to the individual stockholders for the time being, or their legal representatives, the option of taking such additional shares, in proportion to the amount of stock respectively held by them—and opening books in the city of Raleigh and such other places as the President and Directors may think proper for any balance of the capital stock created, which may not be taken by the stockholders for the time being, or in their behalf; and the subscribers for such additional shares of the capital stock in the said company are hereby declared to be thenceforward incorporated into the said company, with all the privileges and advantages, and subject to all the liabilities of the original stockholders.

Sec. 13. Be it further enacted, That the President and Directors, or a majority of them, shall have power to borrow money for the objects of this act, to issue certificates or other evidences of such loans, and to make the same convertible into the stock of the company, at the pleasure of the holder: Provided, that the capital shall not thereby be increased to an amount exceeding two millions of dollars, and to pledge the property of the company for the payment of the same with its interest: Provided, that no certificate of loan, convertible into stock, or creating any lien or mortgage on the property of the company, shall be issued by the President and Directors, unless the expediency of making a loan on such terms, and if issuing such certificates, shall have first been determined on at a general meeting of the stockholders, by two-thirds of the votes which could legally be given in favor of the same.

Sec. 14. Be it further enacted, That the said President and Directors, their officers, agents and servants, shall have full power and authority to enter upon all lands and tenements through which they may desire to conduct their rail road, and to lay out the same according to their pleasure, so that the dwelling-house, yard, garden or curtilage of no person be invaded without his consent; and that they shall have power to enter in and lay out such contiguous lands as they may desire to occupy, as sites for depots, toll-houses, ware-houses, engines, sheds, work-shops, water stations, and other buildings, for the necessary accommodation of their officers, agents and servants, their horses, mules, and other cattle, and for the protection of property entrusted to their care: Provided, that the land so laid out on the line of the rail road, shall not exceed (except at deep cuts and fillings) eighty feet in width, and that the adjoining land for the sites of buildings (unless the President and Directors can agree with the owner or owners for the purchase of the same) shall not exceed one and a half acres in any one parcel. If the President and Directors cannot agree with the owner or owners of the lands, so entered on and laid out by them, as to the terms of purchase, it shall be lawful for them to apply to the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the county in which such land, or the greater part of it, may lie—and upon such application, the court shall appoint five disinterested and impartial freeholders, to assess the damages to the owner from the condemnation of the land for the purpose aforesaid; no such appointment, however, shall be made unless ten days' previous notice of the application shall have been given to the owner of the land, or the guardian, if the owner be an infant or non compos mentis, if such owner or guardian can be found, within the county; or if he cannot be so found, then such appointment shall not be made, unless notice of the application shall have been published at least one month next preceding, in some newspaper printed as convenient as may be to the court house of the county, and shall have been posted at the door of the court house, on the first day, at least, at the next preceding term of said court. A day for the meeting of the said freeholders to perform the duty assigned them, shall be designated in the order appointing them; and any one or more of them attending on that day, may adjourn from time to time, until their business shall be finished. Of the five freeholders so appointed, any three or more of them may act, after having been duly sworn or solemnly affirmed before some justice of the peace, that they will impartially and justly, to the best of their ability, ascertain the damages that will be sustained by the proprietor of the land, from the condemnation thereof for the use of the company—and that they will truly certify their proceedings thereupon to the court of said county.

Sec. 15. It shall be the duty of the said freeholders, in pursuance of the order appointing them, to assemble on the land proposed to be condemned, and after viewing the same, and hearing such proper evidence as either par-
Freeholders to go upon land and ascertain damages.  They may offer, they shall ascertain, according to their best judgment, the damages which the proprietor of the land will sustain by the condemnation thereof for the company. In performing this duty, they shall consider the proprietor of the land as being the owner of the whole fee simple interest therein; they shall take into consideration the quality and quantity of the land to be condemned, the additional fencing that will be required thereby, and all the inconvenience that will result to the proprietor from the condemnation thereof, and shall combine therewith a just regard for the advantages which the owner of the land will derive from opening the rail road through the same.

Sec. 16. When the said freeholders shall have agreed upon the amount of damages, they shall forthwith make a written report of their proceedings, under their hands and seals, in substance as follows: We, ______ freeholders, appointed by an order of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, for the purpose of ascertaining the damages that will be sustained by ______ the proprietor of certain lands in the said county, which the President and Directors of the Raleigh and Columbia Rail Road Company propose to condemn for their use, do hereby certify, that we met together on the land aforesaid, on the ______ day of ______, the day appointed therefor by the said order, (or the day to which we were regularly adjourned from the day appointed for our meeting by the same order;) and that, having been first duly sworn, (or solemnly affirmed, as the case may be) and having visited the premises, we proceeded to estimate the quantity and quality of the land aforesaid, the quantity of additional fencing which would probably be occasioned by its condemnation, and all other inconveniences which would probably result therefrom to the proprietor of said land, and that we combined with these considerations, as far as we could, a just regard to the advantages which would be derived by the proprietor of the said land from the opening of the aforesaid rail road through the same; that under the influence of these considerations, we have estimated and do hereby assess the damages aforesaid at the sum of ——. Given under our hands and seals, this —— day of ——. At the foot of the report so made, the Magistrate before whom the said freeholders were sworn, shall make a certificate in substance as follows:— "— county, set. I, ——, a justice of the peace of said county, do hereby certify that the above named freeholders, before they executed their duties, as above certified, were solemnly sworn (or affirmed) before me, that they would impartially and justly, to the best of their ability, ascertain the damages which would be sustained by the above named ——, by the condemnation of the aforementioned land for the use of the Raleigh and Columbia Rail Road Company, and that they would certify truly their proceedings thereon to the court of the said county. Given under my hand, this —— day of ——."

Sec. 17. The report of the freeholders, so made, together with the certificate of the justice of the peace, as aforesaid, shall be forthwith returned by the said freeholders to the court of the county; and unless good cause can be shown against the report, it shall be confirmed by the court and entered upon record; but if the said report should be disaffirmed, or if the said freeholders, being unable to agree, should report their disagreement, or if, from any other cause, they should fail to make a report within a reasonable time after their appointment, the court may, in its discretion, as often as may be necessary, supersede them or any of them, appoint others in their stead, and direct another view and report to be made in the manner above prescribed.

Sec. 18. On the confirmation of any such report, and on payment or tender to the proprietor of the land, of the damages so assessed, or the payment of said damages in court, when for good cause shown, the court shall have so ordered, the land received and assessed as aforesaid, shall be vested in the Raleigh and Columbia Rail Road Company, and they shall be adjudged to hold the same in fee simple, in the same manner as if the proprietor had sold and conveyed it to them.

Sec. 19. While these proceedings are pending, for the purpose of ascertaining the damages to the proprietor for the condemnation of his land, and even before they shall have been instituted, the President and Directors, if they think that the interest of the company requires it, may, by themselves, their officers, agents and servants, enter upon the lands laid out by them, as aforesaid, and which they desire to condemn and apply to the use of the said company. If, when they so take possession, proceedings to ascertain the damages as aforesaid be pending, it shall be their duty diligently to prosecute them to conclusion; and when the report of the freeholders, ascertaining the damages, shall be returned and confirmed, the court shall render judgment in favor of the proprietor of the land, for the amount thereof, and either compel its payment into court, or award process of execution for its recovery, as to them shall seem right.

Sec. 20. In the meantime, no order shall be made, and no injunction shall be awarded by any court or judge, to stay the proceedings of the company in the prosecution of their work, unless it be manifest that their officers, agents or servants, are transcending the authority given them by this act, and that the interposition of the court is necessary to prevent injury that cannot be adequately compensated for in damages.

Sec. 21. If the President and Directors shall take possession of any land before the same shall have been purchased by them, or condemned and paid for according to the provisions of this act, and shall fail for forty days to institute proceedings for its condemnation as aforesaid, or shall not prosecute with due diligence the proceedings commenced for that purpose, it shall be lawful for the proprietor of the land, upon giving to the said President and Directors, or any of them, ten day's previous notice, to apply to the court of the county in which the land, or the greater part thereof, shall lie; and upon such application, the court shall appoint five disinterested and impartial freeholders to assess the damages to the owner from the condemnation of his land to the use of the company, shall appoint a day for their meeting, to perform the duties assigned them, and shall dismiss at the cost of the company any proceeding then depending in their behalf for the condemnation of the said land. The freeholders so appointed, any three or more of whom may act, shall proceed in the performance of their duties, in all respects in the same manner as if they had been appointed by the President and Directors of the company; and the court shall in like manner confirm and disaffirm their report, supercede them or any of them, and appoint others in their stead, or direct another view and report to be made, as often as may be necessary; and when any such report, ascertaining the damages, shall be confirmed, the court shall render judgment in favor of the proprietor for the damages so assessed and double costs, and shall thereupon either compel the company to pay into court the damages and costs so adjudged, or award process of execution therefore, as to them shall seem right.

Sec. 22. When the judgment rendered for the damages assessed and costs shall be satisfied by the payment of the money into court, or otherwise, the title of the land for which such damages are assessed shall be vested in the company, in the same manner as if the proprietor had sold and conveyed it to them. Be it further enacted, That the written consent of any owner or proprietor of any lands through which the said road is to be constructed, showing his or their agreement to the same, shall be valid and effectual to give the same power and authority over all land required for the construction of the road, as if the same had been conveyed by deed of bargain and sale, or condemned upon petition, as aforesaid.

Sec. 23. The said President and Directors, for the purpose of constructing their rail road aforesaid, and the works necessarily connected therewith, or of repairing the same after they shall have been made, or of enlarging or otherwise altering the same, shall be at liberty, by themselves, their officers, agents or servants, at any time, to enter upon any adjacent lands, and to cut, quarry, dig, take and carry away therefrom, any wood, stone, gravel or earth, which they may deem necessary: Provided, however, that they shall not, without the consent of the owner, cut down any fruit tree, or any tree preserved in any lot or field, for shade or for ornament, nor take any timber, gravel, stone or earth, constituting any part of any fence or building. For all wood, stone, gravel or earth, taken under authority of this act, for all incidental injuries done to the inclosure, crops, wood or ground, in taking and carrying away the same, the said President and Directors shall make to the owner a fair and reasonable compensation, to be ascertained, if the parties cannot agree, by any three impartial and disinterested freeholders, who, being appointed for that purpose by any justice of the peace there- to required by the owner, shall be sworn by him, and shall then ascertain the compensation upon their own view, of the wood, gravel, earth or stone taken, and for the injury done as aforesaid, in taking them: Provided, however, that it shall be the duty of the owner or owners to show to the justice of the peace to whom the application is made, that ten days' previous notice of making the same, has been given to the President or one of the principal agents of the rail road company; and no award which may be given under any appointment, without such notice, shall be obligatory or binding on the company: Provided, however, that either party, not satisfied with the award which may be given as above, may appeal to the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the county in which the land may be situated, who may, as in the case of the assessment of lands, confirm or disaffirm the report of the freeholders, supercede them or any of them, and appoint others in their stead, or direct another view and report to be made, as often as may be necessary.

SEC. 24. If the said President and Directors, in entering upon the land of any person under the authority of this act, for the purpose of laying out, constructing, enlarging, altering or repairing any of their said works, shall, by themselves or their officers, do any wanton or wilful injury to such land or its appurtenances, or to the crops growing or gathered, or to any other property thereon, the Raleigh and Columbia Rail Road Company shall pay to the person so injured double the amount of damages which shall be assessed by a jury in any proper action therefor; or if said injury be done by any person or persons who may have contracted with the company for the construction of any portion of the road, or any of the works connected therewith, he or they shall be responsible to the party injured in the like amount.

Sec. 25. Whenever, in the construction of said rail road, it shall be necessary to cross or intersect any established road or way, it shall be the duty of the said President and Directors so to construct the said rail road across such established roads or ways, as not to impede the passage or transportation of persons or property along the same; or when it shall be necessary to pass through the land of any individual, it shall also be their duty to provide for such individual a proper wagon way across said rail road, from one part of his land to the other: Provided, however, that in order to prevent the frequent crossing of established roads or ways, or in case it may be necessary to occupy the same, it may be lawful for the said President and Directors to change the said roads to points where they may deem it expedient to do so; and that for entering upon or taking any land that may be necessary therefor, they shall be, and are hereby authorised to proceed under the provisions of this act, as in the case of land necessary for their rail road: Provided, further, that previous to the making of any such change, the said company shall make and prepare a road equally good with the portion of the road proposed to be substituted; but nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to make it incumbent on the company to keep in repair the portion of any road which they may have changed, as aforesaid.

Sec. 26. The said President and Directors, or a majority of them, shall have power to purchase with the funds of the company, and place on the rail road constructed under his act, all machines, wagons, vehicles, and carriages and trams of every description whatsoever, which they may deem necessary for the transportation of persons or property.
necessary or proper for the transportation of persons or property; or if they should deem it more expedient to do so, they may contract with any other rail road company or companies, or with any individual or individuals, for effecting the transportation on the same.

Sec. 27. All machines, wagons, vehicles and carriages, purchased as aforesaid with the funds of the company, or engaged in the business of transportation on said rail road; and all the works of said company constructed, or property acquired under the authority of this act, and all profits which shall accrue from the same, shall be vested in the respective stockholders of the company forever, in proportion to their respective shares; and the same shall be deemed personal estate, and shall be exempt from any public charge or tax whatsoever for the term of fifteen years; and thereafter the Legislature may impose a tax not exceeding twenty-five cents per annum per share on each share of the capital stock, whenever the annual profits thereof shall exceed six per cent.

Sec. 28. Upon the road hereby authorised, the company shall have the exclusive right of transportation. Where it is completed, they shall at all times furnish and keep in good repair the necessary carriages and other requisites for the safe and convenient transportation of persons and property; and it shall be their duty at all times, upon the payment or tender of the tolls hereby allowed, to transport to any depot on the road which the owner of the goods may indicate, and there to deliver all articles which shall be delivered to them for transportation, or offered to them in proper condition to be transported, at said depot, on the road most convenient for the reception thereof.

Sec. 29. They shall give no undue preferences to the property of one person over that of another, but as far as practicable, shall carry each in the order of time in which it shall be delivered or offered for transportation, with the tolls paid or tendered. If the company, or any of its officers or agents, shall fail to receive, transport, or deliver in due time, any property so offered or delivered to them for transportation, or shall fail to take up or set down any passenger or pascengers, at such convenient point as he or they may desire, upon the payment or tender of the passage money hereby allowed, they shall forfeit and pay to the party so injured double the amount of the lawful toll paid or tendered, and shall moreover be liable to an action on the case, in which full damages and double costs shall be recovered.

Sec. 30. So soon as any portion of the rail road, hereby authorised, may be in readiness for transportation, it shall be lawful for the said President and Directors to transport, by their officers or agents, or by contractors under them, persons and property on the same; and they shall have power to charge for the transportation of persons, goods, produce, merchandize and other articles, and for the transportation of the mail, any sum, not exceeding the following rates, viz: On persons, not exceeding six cents per mile for each person, unless the distance, which any person be transported, be less than ten miles, in which case the President and Directors may be entitled to make an extra charge of fifty cents for taking up and putting down each person so transported; for the transportation of goods, produce, merchandize and other articles, not exceeding an average of ten cents per ton per mile; and for the transportation of mail, such sums as they may agree for; and the said President and Directors shall be furthermore entitled to demand and receive for the weighing, storage and delivering of produce and other commodities at their depots and ware houses, rates not exceeding the ordinary ware-house rates charged for such services.

Sec. 31. Be it further enacted, That if the said President and Directors shall deem it advisable to construct the bridges which may be necessary on the line of their rail road of sufficient width to admit of the passage of common roads, as well as their rail road, over the same, they may be entitled to demand and receive from all the persons, and for waggons, carriages, and all four and two wheeled vehicles, and for all beasts of burden, sheep and hogs, passing the same, the tolls which may be allowed by the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the county in which the said bridge may be.
Sec. 32. As soon as ten miles of the rail road hereby authorised, shall be completed, the President and Directors shall annually or semi-annually declare and make such dividend as they may deem proper, of the nett profits arising from the resources of the said company, after deducting the necessary current and probable contingent expenses of the said company, and shall divide the same among the proprietors of the stock of the said company, in proportion to their respective shares.

Sec. 33. An annual meeting of the subscribers to the stock of the said company, shall be held at such time and place, in each year, as the stockholders, at their first general, or at any subsequent meeting, may appoint—to constitute which, or any general meeting called by the President and Directors, according to the provisions of this act, the presence of proprietors entitled to a majority of all the votes which could be given by all the stockholders, shall be necessary, either in person or by proxy properly authorised; and if a sufficient number do not attend on that day or any day appointed for a general meeting called by the Directors aforesaid, the proprietors who do attend may adjourn from time to time until such general meeting shall be had.

Sec. 34. In counting all votes of the said company, each member shall be allowed one vote for each share, not exceeding two shares—one vote for every two shares above two and not exceeding ten—and one vote for every five shares above ten, by him held at the time in the stock of the company: Provided, however, that no stockholder, whether an individual, body politic or corporate, shall be entitled to more than sixty votes on any amount of the capital stock of said company, held by him or them.

Sec. 35. The President and Directors shall render distinct accounts of their proceedings and disbursements of money, to the annual meeting of the stockholders.

Sec. 36. The works hereby required of the Raleigh and Columbia Rail Road Company, shall be executed with diligence; and if they be not commenced within two years after the passage of this act, and finished within ten years after the first general meeting of the stockholders, then this charter shall be forfeited.

Sec. 37. The President and Directors shall cause to be written or printed, certificates of the shares of the stock in the said company, and shall deliver one such certificate, signed by the President and countersigned by the Treasurer, to each person, for the number of shares subscribed by him, which certificate shall be transferable by him, subject however, to all payments due or to become due thereon; and such assignee, having first caused the transfer or assignment to be entered in a book of the company, to be kept for the purpose, shall thenceforth become a member of the company aforesaid, and shall be liable to pay all sums due or to become due upon the stock assigned him: Provided, however, that such assignment shall in no wise exempt the assignor or his representative from their liability to the said company for the payment of all such sums, if the assignee or his representative shall be unable or fail to pay the same.

Sec. 38. If any person or persons shall wilfully, by any means whatever, impede or hinder the construction of, injure, impair, or destroy any part of the rail road to be constructed under this act, or any of the necessary works, machines, wagons, vehicles, carriages, or other property belonging to the said company, or shall place any obstruction on said road, such person or persons shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, or Superior Court of Law, of the county in which the offence may be committed, shall be fined and imprisoned at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 39. Be it further enacted, That when the General Assembly may be of opinion that the charter hereby granted shall have been violated, it may be lawful, by joint resolution of the two Houses, to direct the Attorney General, with such Assistant Counsel as the Governor or Legislature may think proper to engage, to issue a writ of scire facias, returnable before the Judges of the Supreme Court, calling upon the said corporation to show cause why their charter shall not be forfeited, subject to the same proceedings as are now proscribed by law in case of other corporations. Their books shall at all times be open to the inspection of a committee of the General Assembly appointed for that purpose; and the President of said company shall biennially make a report to the Legislature, on or before the third week of their session, of their receipts and expenditures, and of such other of their proceedings as he shall deem proper.

Sec. 40. Be it further enacted, That any railroad which may hereafter be constructed by the State or by any company incorporated by the Legislature, shall be at liberty to cross the road hereby allowed to be constructed, upon a level or otherwise, as may be advantageous, provided the free passage of the Raleigh and Columbia Rail Road is not thereby obstructed.

Sec. 41. Be it further enacted, That whenever the railroad shall be so crossed or approached by any other railroad incorporated by this State, the said Raleigh and Columbia Rail Road Company may erect a depot at or near the point of intersection, where they may receive and deliver passengers and freight, and take therefor the same rates of compensation, and be subject to the same regulations, as at other depots—and should they fail or refuse to erect such depots, the State or company owning such intersecting road, may erect one, and the company hereby incorporated shall receive and deliver passengers and freight at such depots, under the same regulations as aforesaid, unless the same shall be rendered impracticable by the situation of the railroad at such place.

Sec. 42. Be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its ratification, and shall enure and continue for the term of ninety years, and no longer.

CHAP. XLVI.

An Act to incorporate the Norfolk and Edenton Rail Road Company.

Whereas, an act of incorporation was passed by the Legislature of this State, at its session in one thousand eight hundred and thirty four, entitled “an act to incorporate the Albemarle Rail Road Company,” which act was confirmed by the Legislature of Virginia, on the twelfth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, upon condition that the said Albemarle Rail Road should intersect "the Portsmouth and Roanoke Rail Road," at such point thereof, at or near Suffolk, as should be selected by the President and Directors of the Portsmouth and Roanoke Rail Road Company, and upon such terms as they should deem expedient; which location or conditions defeated the intentions of the said act, and prevented any further progress therein, than that of opening books of subscription at Edenton, Suffolk and Norfolk, for one hundred days, as required by the act, but at which places not a share was subscribed. And whereas it is further represented to this Assembly that a number of the citizens of the counties of Chowan, Perquimons, Pasquotank and Camden, in this State, and of the Borough of Norfolk, in the State of Virginia, are still desirous to construct a similar rail road, provided it shall pass through the said counties, and terminate in the Borough of Norfolk; and, for the accomplishment of so desirable an object, have pledged themselves by subscribing for large sums of money, have already had the route of the road surveyed, and will immediately commence its construction on being invested with the same powers and privileges which were granted to the Albemarle Rail Road Company, or with others of similar import:

Be it therefore enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful to open books in the town of Edenton, under the direction of James C. Johnston, Joseph B. Skinner, Joseph H. Skinner, Joshua Skinner, Cha's W. Mixon, James Norcom, Sen. or a majority of them; and in the Borough of Norfolk, under the direction of Marshall Parks, George McIntosh, John N. Tazewell, Richard H. Cham erlaine, John Cowper, Henry Woodis and Walter Herron, or any three of them; and at such other places, and under the direction of such other persons as the commissioners herein named, or any three of them, shall designate and appoint, for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the amount of four hundred and fifty thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of fifty dollars each, to constitute a joint capital stock for the purpose of making a rail road from the town of Edenton, in this State, to the Borough of Norfolk, in the State of Virginia; the subscriptions already made for the purposes aforesaid, being held and considered as so much of the capital stock of this company, to construct the rail road from Edenton to Norfolk, and being placed on the same footing as those which may hereafter be made.

Sec. 2. The time and places of receiving such further subscriptions, shall be advertised in such manner as the commissioners before named may direct, and the books for receiving the same shall be kept open thirty days; and should it appear at the expiration of the thirty days, that more than the requisite sum shall have been subscribed for upon the books, including the subscription already made for this object, it shall be the duty of the commissioners, or any three of them, to reduce the number of shares subscribed for by each individual or body corporate, in fair and equal proportions, until the whole number of shares be reduced to ninety thousand: Provided, that no reduction shall be made on subscriptions not exceeding five shares; but should the whole amount of stock not be subscribed for within thirty days, then the books may be kept open until the whole amount of shares shall have been subscribed: Provided however, that as soon as three thousand shares shall have been subscribed, the subscribers are hereby authorised to close the books; and they, the subscribers, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, shall be, and they are hereby declared to be incorporated into a company, by the name and style of "the Norfolk and Edenton Rail Road Company," and in that name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and shall possess and enjoy all the rights, privileges, and immunities of a corporation or body politic in Law or Equity, and may make such bye-laws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws of this State, or of the United States, as they may deem necessary, for the well ordering and conducting the affairs of said company.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That upon every share subscribed, there shall be paid by the person subscribing, the sum of one dollar, to the commissioners authorised to receive the subscriptions, the persons having already subscribed being subject to the same conditions; and the residue thereof shall be paid in such instalments, and at such times, as the President and Directors of the company may require. The said commissioners, and all persons holding money paid on subscriptions of stock, shall forthwith, after the election of President and Directors for said company, pay over all money in their hands belonging to the company; and upon failure thereof, the President and Directors may recover the amount due from them, or any one or more of them, by motion, on ten days' previous notice, in writing, in the Superior or County Court of any county wherein such commissioner or commissioners, their executors or administrators may reside.

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That when three thousand shares or more of the stock shall be subscribed, public notice may be given by any three or more of the commissioners, who shall call a general meeting of the subscribers, giving thirty days' public notice in some newspaper printed in Edenton and Norfolk, of the time and place of said meeting. To constitute any such meeting, a number of persons entitled to a majority of votes upon all shares subscribed, shall be present, either in person or by proxy; and should a sufficient number not attend, those present shall have power to adjourn from time to time, until a majority of the shares subscribed shall be represented. The meeting shall then proceed, a majority of the stock being represented, to elect a President and six Directors, who shall hold their office until the next annual meeting of the stockholders, and until their successors in office shall be appointed, subject, nevertheless, to the provisions hereafter mentioned. An annual meeting of the stockholders of said company shall be held at such time, in each year, as the stockholders, in their first general meeting may appoint; at which the election of President and Directors shall take place in like manner as above; and when a vacancy may occur, by death, resignation or otherwise, the vacancy shall be filled, for the time being, by the remaining President and Directors; or if the presidency be vacant, the Directors may fill as above. Any two or more Directors may have power, in the absence of the President, to appoint one of their body President pro tempore and transact business: Provided always, the majority of votes representing shares in said company, given at any time against any President or Directors of said corporation, shall vacate his office or appointment; and shall also have power to fill such vacancy until the next annual meeting of the stockholders. Any one or more stockholders, owning one thousand shares, may, at any time, require the President and Directors to convene a general meeting of the stockholders, on giving thirty days’ public notice, specifying the object of such meeting.

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, That the President and Directors of the said company shall be, and they are hereby invested with all the rights and powers necessary for the construction, repair and maintaining a rail road to be located as aforesaid, with as many sets of tracts as they or a majority of them, may deem necessary and proper to be made; also to construct all works whatsoever, which may be necessary and expedient, in order to the proper completion of the rail road. The said President and Directors of the company shall have power to make contracts with any person or persons for any work to be done upon or for the said road, in such manner, and under such rules and regulations, as they may deem proper; and all such contracts and agreements, made by the company or their legal agents, with any person or persons, shall be binding on the individual or individuals making them, and also on the company. The President and Directors shall have power to call on all the stockholders for a due and equal proportion of the amount subscribed by them to the capital stock of said company, in such sums, and at such times, as they, the President and Directors, may deem proper and right, by giving one month’s notice of such call in some newspaper circulating among the subscribers. The President and Directors shall have power to appoint a Treasurer, Clerk and all other officers that they may deem necessary and proper, to aid and assist in managing and prosecuting said work, and to fix their compensation, and take such bonds, with security for the performance of duty, as they may prescribe. If any stockholder or subscriber shall fail to pay the sum required of him by the President and Directors, or a majority of them, within one month after the same may have been advertised in some newspaper, it shall and may be lawful for the President and Directors, or a majority of them, to sell at public auction, and to convey to the purchaser, the share or shares of such stockholders so failing or refusing, giving one month’s public notice of the time and place of sale, in manner aforesaid; and after retaining the sum due and all charges of sale, out of the proceeds thereof, to pay the surplus over to the former owner or his legal representative; and if the said sale shall not produce the sum required to be advanced, with the incidental charges attending the sale, then the President and Directors, or a majority of them, may recover the balance of the original proprietor or his assignee or the executor or administrator, or either of them, by motion, on ten days' notice, before the court of that county of which he is an inhabitant, or by warrant before a justice of such county; and any purchaser of the stock of the company under the sale of the President and Directors, shall be subject to the same rules and regulations as original subscribers to the capital stock of the said company.

Sec. 6. Be it further enacted, That the President and Directors, their officers, servants, agents and contractors, shall have full power and authority to enter upon all lands and tenements, through which they may think it necessary to make the said rail road, and to lay out the same according to their pleasure, so that neither the dwelling house, yard or garden of any person be invaded without his or her consent. If the President and Directors cannot agree with the owner of the lands on the terms upon which the rail road shall be opened through it, it shall be lawful for them to apply to the court of the county in which the land lies; and upon such application, it shall be the duty of the court to appoint five discreet, intelligent, disinterested and impartial freeholders to assess the damages to such land which will result from opening the said rail road through it. No such appointment shall however be made unless ten days' previous notice, in writing, of the application shall have been given to the owner of the land, or to the guardian, if the owner be an infant or non compos mentis, if such owner or guardian can be found within the county; and if he cannot be found, then such appointment shall not be made, unless notice of the application shall have been published at least one month in some public newspaper. A day for the meeting of the freeholders, to perform the duties assigned them, shall be designated in the order appointing them; and any one or more of them attending on that day, may adjourn from time to time, until the business shall be finished. Of the five freeholders so appointed, any three or more of them may act, after having duly sworn or solemnly affirmed, before some justice of the peace, that they will impartially and justly, to the best of their ability, ascertain the damages, which will be sustained by the proprietor of the land, from the opening of the said rail road through the same, and that they will certify their proceedings thereupon to the court of the said county.

Sec. 7. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said freeholders, in pursuance of the order appointing them, to assemble on the land through which the rail road is to be opened; and after viewing the same, and hearing such proper evidence as either party may offer, to ascertain, according to their best judgment, the damages which the owner of the land will sustain by opening the rail road through the same. In performing this duty, they shall consider the proprietor of the land as being the owner of the whole fee simple interest; they shall take into consideration the quantity and quality of the land which the rail road will occupy, the additional fencing and gates that will be required thereby, and all other inconveniences which will result to the said land from the opening of the said rail road, and shall combine therewith a just regard to the advantages which the owner of the land will derive from opening the rail road through the same.

Sec. 8. Be it further enacted, That when the said freeholders shall have agreed upon the amount of the damages, they shall forthwith make a written report of their proceedings, under their names and seals, in substance as followeth: "We,—— freeholders, appointed by order of the court of——, for the purpose of ascertaining the damages which would be sustained by——, the proprietor of certain lands in said county, through which the Edenton and Norfolk Rail Road Company propose to open a rail road, do hereby certify that we met together on the—— day of——, the day appointed for that purpose by the said order, (or the day to which we were regularly adjourned from the day appointed for our meeting by the said order, as the case may be,) and that, (first having duly sworn or affirmed) and having viewed the premises, we proceeded to estimate the quality and quantity of the land aforesaid which would be occupied by the said rail road, the quantity of additional fencing or gates which would probably be occasioned thereby, and all other inconveniences which seemed to us likely to result therefrom to the land; that we combined in these considerations, as far as we could, a just regard to the advantages which would be derived by the proprietor of the land from the opening of the aforesaid rail road through the same; that under the influence of these considerations, we have estimated and do assess the damages aforesaid at the sum of $____ dollars. Given under our hands and seals, this ____ day of _____.” At the foot of the report so made, the magistrate before whom the said freeholders were sworn or affirmed, shall make a certificate, in writing, in substance as followeth: “____ county, to wit. I, ———, a justice of the peace for the said county, hereby certify that the above named freeholders, before they executed their duties as above certified, were solemnly sworn (or affirmed) before me that they would impartially and justly, to the best of their ability, ascertain the damages which would be sustained by the above named ______ from the opening of the above mentioned rail road through his (or her) land; and that they would certify truly their proceedings thereupon to the court of the said county. Given under my hand ——— day of _____.” The report of the freeholders so made, together with the certificate of the magistrate aforesaid, shall be forthwith returned by the said freeholders to the court of said county; and unless good cause be shown against the report, it shall be confirmed by the court and entered on record; but if the said report should be disaffirmed, or the said freeholders, unable to agree, should report their disagreement, the court may, at its own discretion, as often as may be necessary, supersede them, or any of them, appoint others in their place, and direct another view and report to be made in the manner above prescribed. On the confirmation of any such report, and on the payment or tender of payment of said damages in court, when, for good causes shown, the court shall so have ordered it, the President and directors shall be at liberty in the mean time to open the said rail road upon the ground viewed and assessed by the freeholders aforesaid: Provided always, that either party dissatisfied with the sentence, order or decree of the County Court, may appeal therefrom to the Superior Court of said county.

Sec. 9. Be it further enacted, That whenever it shall be necessary to subject the land of individuals to the use of said company, in opening and constructing said railway road through the same, and the consent of the proprietor or proprietors cannot be obtained, it shall be lawful for the president and directors of the said company and for their superintendents, agents, contractors, labourers and servants, to enter upon such lands, and proceed in opening and constructing the said railway road through the same. The pendency of any proceedings in court or before assessors or valuers, to ascertain the damages that will be sustained by the proprietor or proprietors of such lands, from opening and constructing the said railway road through the same, shall in no manner hinder or delay the progress of the said work. In the mean time, no order shall be made and no injunction shall be awarded by any court or judge, to stay the proceedings of the company in the prosecution of their works, unless it be manifest that they, their officers, agents or servants are transcending the authority given them by this act, and that the interposition of the court is necessary to prevent injury that cannot be adequately compensated in damages: the true intent and meaning of this act being, that all injury that may be done to any land, without the consent of the proprietor or proprietors thereof, by opening and constructing the said railway road through the same, over and above the advantages of the said railway road to such proprietor or proprietors, shall be fully and completely compensated for in damages, when ascertained as aforesaid, if they be not paid to the party or parties entitled to the same or into court, by the company, during the term at which the report shall be confirmed, the clerk of the said court at any time after the adjournment of the court, on the application of the party or parties entitled to the said damages, or his or their attorney, shall issue an execution for the amount of such damages against the said company, which may be legally issued against a corporation on a judgment for money.

Sec. 10. Be it further enacted, That if the said president and directors shall not obtain the consent of the proprietor or proprietors of any land through which they may propose to open and construct said railway road, and shall not apply to the said County Court and procure assessors or valuers to be appointed as before directed, within forty days from the time the said president and directors, their superintendents, agents, contractors, labourers or servants shall commence opening and constructing the said rail road through such land; then it shall be lawful for the proprietor or proprietors of said land, at any time previous to an appointment of valuers by the said president and directors, giving the said president and directors ten days' previous notice, by serving the same on the president or any one or more of the directors, to apply to the said County Court; and upon such application, it shall be the duty of the said court to make the appointment of assessors or valuers, as before directed, who shall be qualified in the same manner, and shall, upon the same principles, and in the same manner, in all respects, proceed to assess and report to the court the damages that will result to the proprietor or proprietors of such land, as if they had been appointed on the motion of the said president and directors; and the said court shall proceed upon the said report, and confirm or set aside the same, and appoint other assessors or valuers in all respects as if the same had been made by assessors or valuers appointed on the motion of the said president and directors; and if the said president and directors shall not pay the proprietor or proprietors of such lands, or into court, the damages assessed during the term of the court on the like application, the clerk shall issue the like execution, for the amount of the damages against said company.

Sec. 11. Be it further enacted, That all machines, wagons, vehicles and carriage, purchased as aforesaid with the funds of the company, or engaged in the business of transportation on said rail road, and all the works of the said company constructed, or property acquired under the authority of this act, and all profits which shall accrue from the same, shall be vested in the respective stockholders of the company forever, in proportion to their respective shares; and the same shall be deemed personal estate, and shall be exempt from any public charge or tax whatsoever, for the term of fifteen years; and thereafter the Legislature may impose a tax not exceeding twelve and one half cents per annum, per share, on each share of the capital stock, whenever the annual profits thereof shall exceed six per cent.

Sec. 12. Be it further enacted, That the said President and Directors, for the purpose of making the said rail road, or of repairing the same after it shall have been made, shall also be at liberty, by themselves, their officers, agents and servants, at any time, to enter upon any adjacent lands, and to cut, quarry, dig, take and carry away therefrom, any wood, stone, gravel or earth which they may deem necessary: Provided, however, that they shall not, without the consent of the owner, take any timber, gravel, stone or earth constituting any part of any fence or building. For all wood, stone, gravel or earth, taken under the authority of this act, or for incidental injuries done to enclosures, crops, woods or grounds, in taking or carrying away the same, the said President and Directors shall make to the owners a fair and reasonable compensation, to be ascertained, if the parties cannot agree, by any three impartial, disinterested and intelligent freeholders, who, being appointed for that purpose by any justice of the peace thereto required by the owner, shall be sworn or affirmed by the justice, and then shall ascertain the compensation, upon their own view, for the wood, stone, gravel or earth taken, and for the injury done as aforesaid, in taking them: Provided, however, that it shall be the duty of the said proprietors to show to the justice of the peace to whom application is made that ten days' previous notice of the time of making the same, has been given to the President or the principal superintendent of the said railroad; and no award which may be given under any appointment, without such notice, shall be obligatory or binding on said company.

Sec. 13. Be it further enacted, That whenever, in the construction of said railroad, it shall be necessary to cross or intersect any established road or way, it shall be the duty of the said President and Directors so to construct the said railroad across any other road or way already established by law, as not to impede the passage or transportation of persons or property thereon; and when it shall be necessary to pass through the land of any individual, it shall also be their duty to provide for such individual proper wagon ways across the said railroad, from one part of his land to the other.

Sec. 14. Be it further enacted, That the said President and Directors shall have power to purchase, with the funds of the said company, and place on said railroad, all machines, locomotives, engines, cars, wagons, vehicles, carriages and teams of any description whatever, which they may deem necessary for the purpose of transportation. All machines, locomotives, engines, cars, wagons, vehicles, carriages and teams purchased as aforesaid, and the works and buildings constructed under authority of this act, and all profits which shall accrue from the same, shall be vested in the respective share holders of the company forever in proportion to their respective shares.

Sec. 15. Be it further enacted, That so soon as the rail road shall be completed, or any ten miles thereof, the President and Directors shall be entitled to demand and receive on the same, the following rates of toll, to wit: on persons, not exceeding six cents per mile, for each person, unless the distance which any person be transported be less than ten miles, in which case the President and Directors may be entitled to make an extra charge of fifty cents for taking up and putting down each person so transported: on all goods, produce, merchandise or commodity of any description whatsoever, a sum not exceeding twelve cents per ton per mile: for the transportation of the mail, such a sum as they may agree for with the agents of the government: That they shall furthermore be entitled to demand and receive for the weighing, storage and delivering of produce and other commodities, rates not exceeding the ordinary ware-house rates, charged in the sea ports in this State, or in the State of Virginia, until the nett profits received shall amount to a sum equal to the capital stock expended, with six per cent. per annum interest thereon, from the time the money was advanced by the stockholders, until received back in the nett profits; but when the nett profits received as aforesaid, by the tolls aforesaid, shall amount to a sum equal to the capital stock expended, with six per cent. interest thereon, then the toll which the said President and Directors shall be entitled to demand and receive as aforesaid, shall be fixed and regulated from time to time by the President and Directors, so as to make them sufficient, in their estimation, to yield a nett profit of fifteen per cent. per annum on the capital stock invested in said road, and the constructions connected with it, and the cost of the locomotive engines, cars, carriages and other vehicles, and the renewal and repairs of the same. It shall be the duty of the said company to transport all produce and other commodities, which may be delivered at any place of deposite, established by said company, according to the order of time in which the same may be received, so as to do equal justice to all and give preference to no one. The company, however, will not be bound to transport any produce or other commodities, unless the owner thereof shall pay or tender to the said company, at their toll gate or gates, the tolls due upon such commodities under this act.

Sec. 16. Be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said President and Directors, and they are hereby authorised to erect toll gates at any point or points on the line of their rail road.

Sec. 17. Be it further enacted. That in counting all the votes of the said company, each member shall be allowed one vote for each share as far as ten shares, and two votes for every five shares above ten, by him held at the time in the stock of the said company. The presence of the proprietors entitled to a majority of all the votes which could be given by all the stockholders, shall be necessary (in all meetings of the stockholders,) either in person or by proxy, properly authorised. If a sufficient number to constitute a majority do not attend on any day appointed for the general meeting, the proprietors who do attend may adjourn from time to time, until a general meeting shall be formed, consisting of a majority of the stockholders.

Sec. 18. Be it further enacted, That the President and Directors shall render distinct accounts of their proceedings and disbursements of money to the annual meeting of the subscribers.

Sec. 19. Be it further enacted, That so soon as the said rail road shall be completed, or any ten miles thereof, the President and Directors of the said company may demand proportionable tolls, and shall semi-annually declare and make such dividends of the nett profits of the tolls herein granted, as they may deem advisable, to be divided among the proprietors of the stock of the said company, in proportion to their respective shares.

Sec. 20. Be it further enacted, That if any toll gatherer, at any toll gate to be erected under the authority of this act, shall ask, demand or receive any other or greater toll than herein allowed, he shall forfeit and pay to the party aggrieved thereby, ten dollars for every such offence, recoverable with cost by warrant before any justice of the peace; and if such toll gatherer, being at the time of incurring such penalty in the service of the company, shall be unable to pay the judgment awarded against him, the said company shall be liable to pay the same.

Sec. 21. Be it further enacted, That if the said President and Directors shall not begin the said work within two years after the passage of this act, or shall not complete the same within five years thereafter, then the interest of the said company in the said rail road, and the tolls aforesaid, shall be forfeited and cease.

Sec. 22. Be it further enacted, That the said President and Directors shall cause to be printed certificates for shares of stock in the said company, and shall deliver one certificate, signed by the President and Secretary, to each person for the shares subscribed by him, which certificate shall be transferable by him, subject however to all payments due or to become due; and such assignee, having first caused the transfer or as-ignment to be entered in a book of the company, to be kept for that purpose, shall thenceforth become a member of that company, and shall be liable to pay all sums due, or which may become due on the stock assigned to him: Provided, however, that such assignments shall in no case exempt the assignor or his representatives from their liability to the said company, for the payment of all such sums, if the assignee or his representatives shall be unable or shall fail to pay the same.

Sec. 23. Be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said company to purchase lands, tenements and hereditaments, from the proprietors, or from the corporation of any town, within or through which the said road may pass, at each point of termination, or at any intermediate point of said road, in the vicinity thereof, not exceeding ten acres, to be used by them for all necessary purposes of said rail road, or to be disposed of by them when they shall deem it proper.

Sec. 24. Be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall wilfully and by any means whatsoever, injure, impair or destroy any part of the rail road, or any of the necessary works, buildings, machines, wagons, vehicles or carriages, belonging to the said company, he, she or they shall forfeit and pay to the company five times the actual damages so sustained, to be sued for, and recovered with full costs before any tribunal having cognizance of the same, by action of debt, in the name and for the use of the said company.

SEC. 25. Be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall wilfully, and with evil intent, place, or cause to be placed on the aforesaid line of the said rail road, any obstruction or impediment, so as to jeopardize the safety and endanger the lives of persons travelling on said road, he, she or they shall be deemed guilty of an indictable misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, in either the County or Superior Court of the county in which such offence may have been committed, shall be punished by fine and imprisonment, or either, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 26. Be it further enacted, That if the capital stock of the company hereby incorporated, shall be found insufficient for the purposes of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the President and Directors, having first obtained the sanction of a majority of the company, to increase the said capital stock, from time to time, to an amount not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars, by the addition of new stock, having first given twenty day's public notice, that the individual stockholders at the time being, or their legal representatives, may have the option of taking such additional shares, in proportion to the amount of stock held by them respectively; after which, if necessary, books of subscription shall be opened in Edenton and Norfolk, when the new subscribers for such additional shares of the capital stock are hereby declared to be thenceforward incorporated in the said company, with all the privileges and advantages, and subject to all the liabilities of the original stockholders.

SEC 27. Be it further enacted, That the President and Directors and company shall have power to borrow money for the objects of this act, and to issue certificates or other evidence of such loan, and to make the same convertible into stock of the company at the pleasure of the holder, provided that the capital stock shall not be increased thereby to an amount exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; and to pledge the property of the company for the payment of the same and its interest: Provided, that no certificate of loan convertible into stock, or creating any lien or mortgage on the property of the company, shall be issued by the President and Directors, unless the expediency of making a loan on such terms, and of issuing such certificates, shall have first been determined on at a general meeting of the stockholders, by two thirds of the votes which could legally be given in favor of the same.
Sec. 28. Be it further enacted, That this act and every part and provision of the same, shall be subject to be altered, amended, or modified by any future Legislature, as to them shall seem necessary and proper, except so much thereof as prescribes the rates of compensation or tolls for the transportation of produce and other commodities, allowed to the said company, and the rate allowed for the transportation of passengers; and provided also, that the right of property acquired by the said company, under this act, shall not be taken away or impaired by any future Legislature.

Sec. 29. Be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any other company, or person or persons whatever, to travel upon or use the road of said company, or to transport persons or property of any description along the said rail road, without the license or permission of the President and Directors of said company: Provided, that the State reserves to itself or to any company to be incorporated by its authority, the right and privilege to connect with the road hereby authorised, any other road leading from, to or across this to any part or parts of the State, so that in forming such connection no injury shall be done to the work of the company hereby incorporated.

Sec. 30. Be it further enacted, That this company may exercise the corporate powers hereby granted for the term of ninety years, and no longer, unless by renewal of the charter.

Sec. 31. Be it further enacted. That this act shall be in force from and after its passage by the General Assembly of North Carolina and the Legislature of Virginia.

communication, by a rail road, from some point at Beaufort Harbor, in the immediate neighborhood of the waters of Beaufort Harbor, through or near Newbern; thence through or near Trenton, in Jones County; and thence, Westwardly, by the most convenient and eligible route, through the central parts of North Carolina, or as near the same as may be deemed expedient, to the Tennessee line, or as far as may be practicable; or from the point of commencement, at or near Beaufort Harbor, by the most eligible route, to intersect and unite with the rail road of the Cape Fear, Yadkin and Pedee Rail Road Company, at or near the town of Fayetteville; the route, whichever may be preferred and adopted, to be determined by the company hereby incorporated, in a general meeting of the stockholders. That the said books shall be opened, in each place, at such time as the commissioners or deputy commissioners shall and may respectively appoint; and shall be kept open, at each place, at least sixty days at a time; and if it shall appear that more than the whole amount authorised by this act shall be subscribed, then it shall be the duty of the commissioners, or a majority of them, appointed to receive subscriptions at Trenton, to reduce the number of shares subscribed for, among the subscribers, in fair and equal proportions, to the amount of stock subscribed for, respectively by each, until the whole number of shares shall be reduced to twenty thousand. But if the whole of the shares shall not be subscribed for within one year from the time books shall be opened to receive subscriptions, then the books may be closed, or continued open, as a majority of the commissioners named to receive subscriptions at Trenton may judge most beneficial, until the whole number of shares shall be subscribed for. And the time and place of receiving such subscriptions, as aforesaid, shall be advertised in one or more newspapers published in the city of Raleigh, and in the town of Newbern, Fayetteville and Salisbury.

Sec. 2. When two thousand shares shall be subscribed in manner aforesaid, the subscribers, their executors, administrators or assigns shall be, and they are hereby declared to be incorporated into a company, by the name and style of "the North Carolina Central Rail Road Company," and by that name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and shall possess and enjoy all the rights, privileges and immunities of a corporation, or body politic in law; and may make all such bye laws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws or constitution of this State, or of the United States, as shall be necessary for the well ordering and conducting the affairs of the company.

Sec. 3. Upon any subscription of stock as aforesaid, there shall be paid at the time of subscribing, to the person or persons appointed by this act, or by virtue of this act, to take subscriptions, the sum of one dollar on every share subscribed; and the residue thereof shall be paid in such instalments, and at such times as may be required by the President and Directors of said company. The said commissioners, and deputy commissioners, shall forthwith, after the election of a President and Directors of the company, pay over to the said President and Directors, all moneys received by them: and on failure thereof, the said President and Directors may recover the amount due from them, or from any one or more of them, by motion, on ten days' previous notice, in the Superior Courts or in the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, or before a Justice of the county in which such commissioner, his executors or administrators may reside.

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That when two thousand shares or more of the stock shall have been subscribed, public notice of that event shall be given by any three or more of the said commissioners appointed to receive subscriptions at Trenton, who shall have power at the same time, to call a general meeting of the subscribers, at such convenient place and time, as they shall name in said notice. To constitute any such meeting, a number of persons holding a majority of all the shares subscribed shall be present, either in person or by proxy; and if a sufficient number to constitute a meeting, do not attend on that day, those who do attend shall have power to adjourn from time to time, until a meeting shall be formed.

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, That the subscribers, at their general meeting before directed, and the proprietors of the stock, at every annual meeting thereafter, shall elect a President and five directors, who shall continue in office, unless sooner removed, until the next annual meeting after their election, and until their successors shall be elected; but the said
President or any of the Directors, may at any time be removed, and the vacancy thereby occasioned be filled by a majority of the votes given at any general meeting. The President, with any three or more of the Directors, or in the absence of the President, any three of the Directors, who shall appoint one of their own body President pro tempore, shall constitute a board for the transaction of business. In case of vacancy in the office of President or any Director, happening from death, resignation, removal or disability, such vacancy may be supplied by appointment of the board, or by the proprietors in general meeting.

Sec. 6. Be it further enacted, That the President and Directors of the said company shall be, and they are hereby invested with all the rights and powers necessary for the construction, repair and maintaining of a rail road, to be located as aforesaid, and to begin at such point, and be prosecuted in such direction as the stockholders shall direct, and may cause to be made and constructed all works whatsoever, which may be necessary and expedient in order to the completion of said rail road.

Sec. 7. Be it further enacted, That the President and Directors shall have power to make contracts with any person or persons, on behalf of the company for making the said rail road, and performing all other works respecting the same, which they shall judge necessary and proper; to call, on an emergency, a general meeting of the proprietors of the stock, giving one month's notice thereof, in some newspaper published at the seat of Government; to appoint a Treasurer, Clerk and such other officers, and transact all the business of the company during the intervals of the general meetings of the same.

Sec. 8. Be it further enacted, That if any stockholder shall fail to pay the sum required of him by the President and Directors, or a majority of them, within one month after the same shall have been advertised in some newspaper published at the seat of Government, it shall and may be lawful for the President and Directors, or a majority of them, to sell at public auction, and to convey to the purchaser, the share or shares of such stockholder so failing or refusing, giving one month's previous notice of the place and time of sale in manner aforesaid; and after retaining the sum due, and all charges of the sale out of the proceeds thereof, to pay the surplus over to the former owner, or his legal representatives; and if the sale shall not produce the sum required to be advanced, with the incidental charges attending the same, then the President and Directors may recover the balance of the original proprietor, or his assignee, or his executor, or administrator, or either of them, by motion, on ten days' notice, before the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the county of which he is an inhabitant, or by warrant before a justice of said county; and any purchaser of the stock of the company, under the sale by the President and Directors, shall be subject to the same rules and regulations as the original proprietor.

Sec. 9. Be it further enacted, That if the President and Directors cannot agree with the owner of land through which it may be necessary to make the said rail road, as to the terms upon which the said rail road shall be opened through the same, then it shall be lawful for the said President and Directors to file their petition in the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the county wherein the land lies, under the same rules and regulations as are now prescribed by law in laying off public roads; and upon the filing of said petition, the same proceedings shall be had as in cases of public roads; and when the jury shall have assessed the damages to be paid to the owners of the land through which the same shall be laid off, then it shall be lawful for the said President and Directors, upon paying to the owner or owners of said land, his, her or their guardian, as the case may be, or into the office of the clerk of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the county wherein the land lies, the sum or sums so assessed, to enter upon the land laid off, and construct the road thereon; to make all necessary excavations and embankments, and all other structures necessary to the construction and preservation of said road; and to hold the said land to their own use and benefit during their corporate existence; and in all things to have the same power and authority over said land so laid off, during their existence as a corporation, as though they owned the fee simple therein: Provided, that nothing in this act contained, shall be so construed as to give power to said company to lay off said road through the yard, garden or burial ground attached, or appertinent to the dwelling-house on any plantation.
through which it may be deemed necessary to lay off said road, without the consent of the owner thereof.

Sec. 10. Be it further enacted, That whenever any wood, gravel, stone or earth may be wanted for the construction or repairing of said road, and the President and Directors cannot agree with the owners of the lands adjacent as to the terms on which they can procure the same, then it shall be lawful for the President and Directors, by themselves or officers or agents, to enter upon any adjacent lands, not in a state of cultivation, and take therefrom all wood, stone, gravel or earth so needed as aforesaid: Provided, that they shall not, without the consent of the owner, cut down any fruit trees or trees preserved in any lot or field for shade or ornament, or take any timber, gravel or stone constituting any part of a fence or building; and where any gravel, stone, wood or earth shall be so taken as is provided for in this act, it shall and may be lawful for the owner to file his petition in the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the county wherein the land lies, from which said earth, stone, gravel or wood may have been taken, first giving ten days' notice to said President and Directors, their officer or agent, of the filing of such petition, praying to have a jury summoned to go upon the land and assess the damages he, she, or they may have sustained thereby; upon which it shall be the duty of the court to order a jury as in laying off public roads, which jury shall go upon the land, and, after being duly sworn to do equal justice to all parties in assessing the said damages, shall consider what damages the owners of said land shall have sustained, and, after assessing the same, shall return their proceedings to the said court; and if the court shall approve thereof, the damages so assessed, together with all costs, shall be paid by the President and Directors; but if the said court shall not approve thereof, they shall order another jury to be summoned, who shall proceed in like manner to assess said damages, and return their proceedings to said court; and upon approval thereof by said court, said damages and costs shall be paid by said President and Directors; and if said President and Directors shall not pay the damages so assessed, and all costs, execution may issue against them therefore, as against other corporations: Provided always; that either party, not satisfied with the sentence or decree of the County Court, may appeal therefrom to the Superior Court of Law for said county.

Sec. 11. Be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for said company to purchase lands, from the proprietors, at any point on said road, not exceeding ten acres in any one tract, to be used by them for all necessary purposes of said road, or to be disposed of by them when it shall be deemed proper.

Sec. 12. Be it further enacted, That whenever, in the construction of said rail road, it shall be necessary to cross or intersect any established road or way, it shall be the duty of the said President and Directors of said company so to construct the said road across such established road or way as not to impede the passage or transportation of persons or property along the same; or where it shall be necessary to pass through the land of any individual, it shall also be their duty to provide for such individual proper wagon ways across said road or roads, from one part of his land to the other.

Sec. 13. Be it further enacted, That the said President and Directors, or a majority of them, shall have power to purchase, with the funds of said company, and place on the said rail road constructed by them under this act, all machines, wagons, vehicles, boats, carriages and teams of any description whatsoever, which they may deem necessary and proper for the purposes of transportation.

Sec. 14. And be it further enacted, That all machines, wagons, vehicles, boats, carriages, and all other personal property, purchased by said company, or works constructed under the authority of this act, and all profits which shall accrue from the same, shall be vested in the respective share holders of the company forever, in proportion to their respective shares; and the said shares shall be deemed personal estate, and the property of the said company and the shares therein shall be exempt from any public charge or tax whatsoever, for the term of fifteen years; and thereafter the General Assembly may impose a tax not exceeding twenty-five cents per share per annum on the capital stock of the said company, whenever the nett profits thereof shall exceed six per cent. per annum.

Sec. 15. Be it further enacted, That so soon as ten miles of said road shall be completed, and as often thereafter as any other section of like length shall be completed, the said President and Directors shall transport all produce or other commodities that shall be delivered at any place of deposit established by said company, on said road; and it shall be the duty of the said company to transport the same in the order of time in which such produce and other commodities shall have been received, so as to do equal and impartial justice to all, provided the owner of produce or other commodities required to be transported by said company on said rail road, shall pay or tender to said company, at their toll gate or gates, the toll due upon such produce or commodities under this act; and it shall be lawful for the President and Directors of the said company, and they are hereby authorized to erect, on such section or sections, a toll gate or gates; and they shall be entitled to demand and receive a sum not exceeding the following rates, viz: on goods, produce, merchandise, or property transported, not exceeding four cents a ton per mile for toll; and eight cents a ton per mile for transportation; and for the transportation of passengers, not exceeding six cents per mile for each passenger, until the nett profits received shall amount to a sum equal to the capital stock expended, with six per centum per annum interest thereon, from the time the money was advanced by the stockholders until received back in the nett profits; but when the nett profits received as aforesaid, from the tolls aforesaid, shall have amounted to a sum equal to the capital stock expended as aforesaid, with six per centum per annum interest thereon as aforesaid, then the tolls which the said President and Directors shall be entitled to demand and receive, for the transportation of produce; or other commodities, on the said rail road, shall be fixed and regulated from time to time, by the President and Directors, so as to make them sufficient, in their estimation, to yield a nett profit equal to fifteen per centum per annum, on the capital stock expended in making and completing the said rail road, over and above what may be necessary for the repairs and the renewal of the same. The President and Directors shall report to the stockholders the amount of tolls received during each year, the expenses and charges incurred during each year; and the nett annual profit or loss on the capital expended; and it shall not be lawful for any other company or person or persons whatsoever to travel upon or use the road of said company, or to transport persons or property of any description along said road, without the license or permission of the President and Directors of said company; and nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the said company from making a contract for the transportation of the mail upon such terms as may be agreed on between said company and the agent of the United States.

Sec. 16. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the company hereby created to receive donations and bor-row money for the object of this act, and to pledge the property of the company for the payment of such loans, and to make and issue all proper evidences of such loans, and assurances for repayment thereof.

Sec. 17. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the company hereby created so to construct all such bridges as it may be necessary for them to erect for the purposes of their rail road, as to afford general accommodation to all travellers, and to demand, and receive from the persons passing over and using such bridges a reasonable toll, which shall in no case exceed the highest rate of toll now allowed by law on any bridges of the State: Provided, however, that no toll shall be demanded for using said bridge on account of either property or persons passing along the rail road, and paying tolls therefor; and if it shall be necessary for the company, in the selection of the route or construction of the road by them to be laid out and constructed, to connect the same with or to use any turnpike road, bridge or canal, made or erected by any company incorporated or authorised by any law of this State, it shall be lawful for the President and Directors of the company hereby created to contract with such corporations or persons for the right to use such roads, bridges or canal, or for the transfer of any of their rights and privileges of such corporations.

Sec. 18. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for said company to erect scales at their toll gate or gates, to weigh the burthen of any wagon, carriage, machine, or other vehicle, used in transporting produce or other commodities along said road.

Sec. 19. And be it further enacted, That an annual meet-ing of the proprietors of the stock of the said company shall be held at such time and at such place, in each and every year, as the stockholders, at their first general meeting, or at any subsequent general meeting may appoint; to constitute which or any general meeting called by the President and Directors, according to the provisions of this act, the presence of proprietors holding a majority of all the shares shall be necessary, either in person or by proxy, properly authorised; and if a sufficient number do not attend on that day, or any day appointed for a general meeting called by the Directors as aforesaid, the proprietors who do attend may adjourn from time to time, until a general meeting shall be had.

Sec. 20. And be it further enacted, That in counting all votes of the said company, each member shall be allowed one vote for each share as far as ten shares, and one vote for every two shares above ten, by him held at the time in the stock of the said company.

Sec. 21. Be it further enacted, That the President and Directors shall render distinct accounts of their proceedings and disbursements of money, to the annual meeting of the subscribers.

Sec. 22. And be it further enacted, That so soon as the said rail road shall be completed so far as the company may dee it expedient to extend the same, the President and Directors of the said company, or a majority of them, shall semi-annually declare and make such dividend, from the nett profits from the tolls herein granted as they may deem advisable, to be divided among the proprietors of the stock of said company in proportion to their respective shares.

Sec. 23. And be it further enacted, That after said rail road shall be completed and put into operation, if the said President and Directors shall, by reason of the said rail road being out of repair, or from any other cause, fail or neglect to transport any produce or other commodities, which shall be deposited convenient to said rail road, and which the said President and Directors shall be required to transport as aforesaid, the toll for transportation being tendered, as a penalty for such failure or neglect, the company shall be liable to the party injured for such failure or neglect.

Sec. 24. And be it further enacted, That if any toll gatherer, at any toll gate to be erected by the authority of this act, shall ask, demand or receive any other or greater tolls than are herein allowed, he shall forfeit and pay to the party aggrieved thereby two dollars, for every such offence, recoverable, with cost, by warrant before any justice of the peace; and if such toll gatherer, being at the time of incurring such penalty in the service of the company, shall be unable to pay the judgment recovered against him or her, the said company shall be liable to pay the same.

Sec. 25. And be it further enacted, That if the said President and Directors shall not begin the said work within five years after the passage of this act, or shall not complete fifty miles thereof within ten years thereafter, then the interest of said company in the said rail road and the tolls aforesaid, shall be forfeited and cease.

Sec. 26. Be it further enacted, That the President and Directors shall cause to be written or printed certificates for the shares of the stock in the said company, and shall deliver one such certificate, signed by the President and countersigned by the Treasurer, to each person for every share subscribed by him; which certificate shall be transferable by him, subject however to all payments due thereon; and such assignee having first caused the transfer or assignment to be entered into a book, to be kept by the company for that purpose, shall thenceforth become a member of said company and shall be liable to pay all sums due, or which shall become due upon the stock assigned to him: Provided, however, that such assignment shall in no wise exempt the assigner or his representatives from their liabilities to the said company, for the payment of all such sums, if the assignee or his representatives shall be unable or shall fail to pay the same.

Sec. 27. And be it further enacted, that if the said President and Directors or a majority of them, cannot agree with the proprietors for the purchase and sale of any such quantity of ground, not exceeding one acre at any one place, as may be necessary for a toll house or a house to cover any stationary engine, or for any other necessary purpose, it shall and may be lawful for the President and Directors to make a petition in the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the county in which the land lies against the proprietor of the land, setting forth the circumstances; and upon its being made appear to the satisfaction of such court that the said President and Directors have caused the proprietor of such land to be notified ten days before court, the said court shall order the sheriff to summon a jury of good and lawful men, who, after having taken an oath (which oath the sheriff or his deputy is hereby authorised to administer) that — will assess the damages which such proprietor will sustain, by reason of the condemnation of such land, shall assess the amount the petitioners ought to pay to such proprietor; and the said jury in assessing such damages shall take into the estimation the benefit resulting to said proprietor from constructing said rail road or canal through or near the lands of said owner or proprietor, but only in extinguishment of damages; and upon payment of the value found by the jury, upon any such proceeding, to the proprietor of the ground so condemned by the jury or upon the payment thereof into court when, for good cause shown, the court shall have ordered it, the said President and Directors and their successors shall be and stand seized of the ground so condemned in fee simple.

Sec. 28. If any person or persons shall wilfully, by any means whatever, injure, impair or destroy any part of the rail road, or canal or canals constructed by authority of this act, or any of the necessary works, buildings, machines, wagons, vehicles or carriages, such person or persons shall be punished according to the laws which may be in force in this State at the time, for the protection of the public works or property of the State.

Sec. 29. And be it further enacted, That the corporation shall exercise the corporate powers hereby granted for ninety years and no longer without a renewal of the charter.

Sec. 30. And be it further enacted, That full right and privilege is hereby reserved to the State, or to any company hereafter to be incorporated under the authority of this State, to connect with the road hereby provided for any other rail road leading from the main route to any part or parts of this State: Provided, that in forming such connection no injury shall be done to the works of the company hereby incorporated.

Sec. 31. And be it further enacted, That such compensation shall be made from time to time, to any of the officers, servants or agents of the company, as the proprietors in general meeting shall prescribe, or may authorise the President and Directors to allow.

An Act to provide for the collection and management of a Revenue for this State.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That there shall be annually levied and collected, from all the real property with the improvements thereon, within this State, subject to taxation, the sum of six cents on every hundred dollars value thereof.

Sec. 2. All real estate, held by deed, grant, or lease, or by title of dower or courtesy, or otherwise, shall be subject to the payment of public taxes, except the real estate belonging to the University of this State, and such houses, lots and other real estate as are set apart and appropriated to divine worship, or for the education of youth, or the support of the poor; and except also such real property as is or shall be exempted in any act creating a society or company with corporate powers and privileges.

Sec. 3. All entries of land shall be subject to taxation like other real estate.

Sec. 4. If any person shall return, as his taxable property, any land, and shall dispose thereof before the taxes due thereon shall have been paid, and shall have no estate to satisfy said taxes within reach of the sheriff, the purchaser of said land shall pay the taxes due thereon, and may be proceeded against as if he had originally given in the same.

Sec. 5. A tax of five dollars shall be laid on all turnpike roads where toll is received, and on all gates which have been or hereafter may be erected across any public road in this State; which roads and gates shall be given in at the same time that the real estate is given in for taxation.

Sec. 6. Sec. 7. A tax on all stud horses and jack asses within this State, of the highest sum which the owner or keeper of such stud horse or jack ass shall ask or receive for the season of one mare, shall be levied, collected and accounted for; and all stud horses and jack asses which are not stationed in any one county, and all those that may be brought from another State to stand for a less term than the season in this State, shall pay the sheriff of some county the amount of the season, as soon as the season of such stud horse or jack ass shall commence, or produce a certificate from a justice of the peace from the county from whence such horse or jack ass came (if in the State,) that such stud horse or jack ass has been enlisted for taxation; and it shall be the duty of the sheriff to collect the said tax; and on failure of the owner or keeper of such stud horse or jack ass to pay the same, when demanded, it may be lawful for the sheriff to distrain for the same by seizing such stud horse or jack ass, and make sale thereof for the tax.

Sec. 8. All owners or keepers of stud horses and jack asses shall enlist the same for taxation as other taxable property is enlisted; and on failure of such owner or keeper to enlist such stud horse and jack ass as aforesaid, they, or either of them, shall be liable to pay a double tax for such horse or jack ass.

Sec. 9. The owner or possessor of every billiard table shall give in such billiard table in the same manner as other

Sec. 31. Any person appointed or summoned by the justices or sheriff as aforesaid, to value lands, who shall refuse or fail to perform the duties required by the two last sections, shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered in the name of the State to the use of the county.

Sec. 37. The justices appointed to take the list of taxables in each county shall make out a fair copy of the lists of lands by them taken in alphabetical order, with the number of acres and valuation annexed, and return the same, together with the list of other taxable property by them taken, to the clerk of the County Court, at the next succeeding court which may happen after the time prescribed for taking the list of taxable property; and the clerks of the several county courts are hereby required to return to the Comptroller on or before the first day of September, in each and every succeeding year thereafter, an abstract of such lists, shewing the number of acres of land so listed, the valuation thereof, and the valuation of town property which shall be contained in said lists. Any clerk failing to make return of the abstract herein required, shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered in the Superior Court of Wake county, on notice, by the Attorney General; and it shall be the duty of the Comptroller to inform the Attorney General of all such delinquent clerks; and on the trial of the notice, the certificate of the Comptroller, certifying such failure, shall be sufficient evidence thereof. counties a fair and accurate copy of the returns made, in alphabetical order, designating in such copy the separate

Sec. 47. The several sheriffs, and in case of their death, their sureties shall have one year from the day prescribed for the settlement of the public accounts, to finish the collection of the taxes they are bound by law to account for, after the expiration of which year they shall be barred from the collection of any taxes: Provided always, that nothing in this section contained shall be construed to alter the law directing the manner and time of the sheriffs accounting with the Comptroller and Treasurer.

Sec. 48. It shall be the duty of the sheriffs to collect the public taxes from each and every individual in their counties respectively, who are liable to pay taxes, whether their names be contained in the list of taxables delivered by the clerks or not; and in all cases where the public taxes shall be demanded of any person whose name and taxable property are not contained in the list furnished by the clerk, the sheriff shall demand and receive from each and every such person, a sum equal to double the amount which he would have been liable to pay in case a list of his taxable property had been given in due time and according to law; and in instances where disputes shall arise as to the amount of the tax for which any person may be liable under this section, the papers and records in the clerk's office shall be held and deemed sufficient authority, on the part of the sheriff, to entitle them to enforce their demands by distraint or otherwise, in case the party hath at any time within two years then last past given a list of his or her taxable property; but in cases where no such lists have been given in, an estimation, in writing, under the hands and seals of one justice of the peace and three freeholders, convened for that purpose by the sheriff, shall authorise and warrant his demand to the amount of such estimation, saving, nevertheless, the right of appeal from the determination of such justice of the peace and freeholders to the next County Court, where the matters shall be tried and fully determined on in a summary way during the same term.

Sec. 49. It shall be the duty of each and every sheriff, immediately on receiving the list of taxable property from the clerk of his county, to set up at the court house an advertisement, informing the inhabitants of his county that he has received such list and holds it ready for inspection, and requesting them to give him any information of any lands, polls, or other taxable property, in said county, not given in; and any sheriff receiving information of any lands, polls or other taxable property not given in, and neglecting or refusing to collect and account for the same, shall forfeit and pay twelve hundred dollars, to be recovered one half to the use of the State, and the other half to the use of the person suing for the same: Provided, that one thousand dollars of this fine shall not be inflicted in any case where the sheriff shall account with the Treasurer within six months from the expiration of the time allowed by law for his settling with the Treasurer.

Sec. 50. Each and every sheriff, or in case of his death, his sureties, shall have the same power to enforce the collection of taxes, by distress and sale or otherwise, during the additional year, which is allowed him to finish the collection of the public taxes, as he could or might have had and used when the said taxes become due.
Sec. 51. Any person failing to pay by himself, or through others, the public taxes for which he may be liable, in due time and according to law, and having no visible personal property on which the sheriff can distress, but being possessed of lands within the county where such taxes became due and payable, it shall and may be lawful for the sheriff of such county, and he is hereby required to distress on such lands, and to sell the same, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient for the payment of the taxes due and the costs of such sale.

Sec. 52. Whenever the sheriff of any county shall have reason to suspect that any person whose name is or should be on the list of taxable property, returned by the justices, is about to remove himself or property out of the county, the sheriff shall have power to proceed to levy and collect the tax due from such person immediately, before the time appointed for commencing the collection of the taxes: Provided, such sheriff shall first make oath before some justice of his county that he has just reason to believe that such person is about to remove himself or property out of the county before the time of the payment of his taxes shall arrive, and obtain a certificate from such justice to that effect.

Sec. 53. Whenever any sheriff shall distress any article of personal property for the payment of taxes, he shall not sell the same until ten days' previous notice of such sale, and of the amount of taxes due, shall have been given by advertisement at three or more of the most public places in the district where said taxes are due.

Sec. 54. It shall not be lawful for any of the sheriffs in this State, either by themselves or their deputies, to sell lands for their taxes until the same have been first advertised for sale in the State Gazette, or some other newspaper published in the city of Raleigh, for the space of one month, and also at the court house of the county where they are situated, the whole of the expense attendant on which shall be chargeable on such lands, and shall be made accordingly; in which advertisements shall be mentioned the situation of the lands, the streams near which or on which they lie, the estimated quantity, the names of the tenant or tenants in possession, if cultivated, and the names of the reputed owners, where the same can be ascertained: provided, that no sale of lands for taxes shall take place previous to the first day of August in each year.

Sec. 55. The sheriff of every county shall, at the term of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of his county next preceding the day he shall fix for the sale of any lands for taxes, in open court, return a list of the tracts of land upon which the taxes are unpaid and which he proposes to sell for the taxes, therein mentioning the owners of each tract, and, if the owner be unknown, the name of the last known or reputed owner shall be mentioned; the situation of said lands, and the amount of tax thereon due; which said list shall be read aloud in open court, recorded by the clerk upon the minutes of the court, and a copy thereof shall be put up by the said clerk during the said term in the court room.

Sec. 56. It shall be the duty of the sheriff at the term of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of his county next after any sale of lands by him made for taxes, to return to said court a list of the tracts of land by him sold for taxes, the quantity thereof so bid off for the tax, the name of the purchaser, and the sum due or paid to said sheriff by said purchaser for tax and charges; which list shall be read aloud by the clerk in open court, shall be recorded in the minutes of the court, and a copy thereof shall be put up by the clerk during the said term in the court room.

Sec. 57. Every sheriff or clerk, who shall omit to perform the several duties enjoined in the two preceding sections, shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered by any person suing for the same, in an action of debt, and shall be liable, in an action on the case, for such further damages as may be sustained by the owner of the lands in consequence of such irregular sale.
Sheriff to sell the land to him who will pay the taxes or the smallest part.

Person purchasing to make choice.

Persons whose lands are sold may redeem.

Purchaser to have his land surveyed.

Sec. 58. When any lands shall, by the above provision, become liable to be sold for the taxes of the same, it shall be the duty of the sheriff to set up the whole of the lands, belonging to any one person or company for which the taxes thereon shall be due, to be sold to the person who will pay the amount of the public, county and poor rates, with all the charges for advertising the same agreeably to law, for the smallest part thereof; and he shall strike off the quantity so bid or offered to be taken for the amount of the taxes and charges aforesaid to the person offering to take the smallest number of acres of the land for the taxes and charges as before mentioned.

Sec. 59. The person purchasing land at any sheriff's sale for the taxes as above provided, shall be at liberty to make choice of the quantity of land so struck off to him out of any part of the land offered for sale, to be laid off in one compact body, as nearly in a square as can be, and adjoining to some of the outlines of such tracts or parcels of land.

Sec. 60. Where land may be sold by any sheriff in this State, for the non-payment of taxes due thereon, by virtue of law, the person or persons, their heirs, executors and administrators, owning such lands, shall be permitted to redeem the same from the purchaser at any time within twelve months after such sale is made, by paying, or tendering in payment, to the purchaser or to the clerk of the court where the list of the sales shall be recorded, according to the 56th section of this act, the full amount which such purchaser gave to such sheriff and twenty-five per cent. on the purchase money, and all costs of sale accruing thereon.

Sec. 61. When any person shall purchase land sold for taxes, he shall, if it is not redeemed within the time mentioned in the last section, procure the same to be surveyed by the county surveyor, within six months after the time for redemption has expired, and present to the sheriff a fair plat of such survey, with the courses and distances fairly set forth and certified, under the hand of said county surveyor, which survey shall be made at the expense of such purchaser; and the sheriff shall execute and deliver to him a deed for the same.

Sec. 62. It shall be the duty of the county surveyor to survey lands sold for taxes as prescribed in the last section, upon pain of forfeiting fifty dollars; and if he shall fail so to do within the six months, the purchaser of said lands shall be allowed a further time of six months to have said lands surveyed by some other surveyor, a plat of whose survey being returned to the sheriff for the time being, he shall proceed to execute the same, as if the said survey had been made by the county surveyor; and his deed shall be good and valid, to all intents and purposes, as if it had been made under the provisions of the last section: Provided, nevertheless, that the county surveyor shall not be liable to the penalty aforesaid, unless the purchaser apply to him to survey such lands within two months after he is at liberty to have the survey made.

Sec. 63. If no person shall bid a smaller quantity than the whole of the lands, then the whole of the said lands so set up shall be considered as a bid for the Governor, and the sheriff shall strike off the same to him accordingly, and execute a good and sufficient deed of conveyance to him and his successors in office, in manner herein after directed, for the use of the State.

Sec. 64. It shall be the duty of the several sheriffs respectively to perfect the said deed or deeds to the Governor, by signing, acknowledging and delivery thereof, in the presence of the next ensuing County Court for the county where the said land shall be; and the clerk shall accordingly register the same in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, which registration shall be deemed valid; and it shall be the further duty of the clerk, after having recorded the deed as aforesaid, to certify the same thereon, and deliver the same to the sheriff (who shall call on him for the same) within twenty days after the rising of the court at which such deed shall have been acknowledged; and the said clerk neglecting to perform and deliver the same to the sheriff as aforesaid, shall be liable to a penalty of one thousand dollars, to be recovered against him, by the Attorney General or one of the solicitors for the State, for the use of the State, in any court having cognizance thereof, by motion, first giving to the said clerk ten days' previous notice of such motion.

Sec. 65. It shall be the duty of every such sheriff, before he settles his account with the Comptroller, to deposit such deed or deeds in the office of the Secretary of State, who shall record and keep the same in his office for the benefit of the State. And the said lands so conveyed shall be deemed vacant lands and liable to entry accordingly; and the Secretary of State shall grant a certificate to such sheriff, setting forth the quantity of land so conveyed to the Governor, which certificate shall be return-red by such sheriff to the Comptroller; and such sheriff, in addition to the oaths taken on his settlement with the Comptroller as herein after provided for, shall also swear that he has conveyed to the Governor, in conformity to the requisitions of this act, all lands by him sold for the taxes thereof and purchased as aforesaid, for the use of the State; and if any sheriff shall fail or refuse so to do, the Comptroller shall, in his report to the Treasurer, charge such sheriff so failing or refusing with the sum of two thousand dollars, and the Treasurer shall recover the same for the use of the State.

Sec. 66. Each respective sheriff shall be allowed, in his settlement with the Comptroller, (the requisites of the three last sections being complied with,) the amount of the tax on all lands so purchased for the use of the State, together with the costs of advertising and recording, and also shall be allowed commissions on the same as if the money had actually been collected; and such sheriff shall also be credited in his settlement with the county treasurer or trustee, and with the wardens of the poor for such of the county and poor tax as the said lands may be sold to satisfy.

Sec. 67. Any person purchasing lands sold for the taxes due thereon, shall be considered as taking and holding the same subject to the taxes accruing and growing due thereon from the first day of April next preceding the time of his purchase; but if such person shall fail to complete and perfect his title to said lands according to the above provisions, such lands shall be deemed lapsed or vacant land, and to have reverted to the State, and liable to be entered in the entry taker's office as if the same had never been appropriated.

Sec. 68. Where any sheriff shall sell any lands for the taxes due thereon, and die or remove, or be out of office, before a deed or deeds have been executed for the
the same, it shall be lawful for his successors in office to make and execute a deed or deeds to the person or persons purchasing the same, if it shall appear that the sale was bona fide made: Provided always, that before any deed or deeds shall be executed by the sheriff to the peron or persons so claiming as purchasers of the land aforesaid, such purchaser or purchasers shall produce to the court of the county in which such lands lie, the receipt of the deceased sheriff for the purchase money, and shall also produce such other testimony, to shew that they had well and truly purchased and paid for the said lands, as may by the said court be deemed satisfactory; and shall also make it appear that they have surveyed the same, and registered a plat thereof, agreeably to law; and also that they have paid the lawful taxes on said lands; on which proof, the said court may issue an order, directing the sheriff to make and execute titles for the same; and all deeds made and executed contrary to the provisions of this section shall be void.

Sec. 69. All sheriffs and receivers of public monies shall settle their public accounts, or cause them to be settled with the Comptroller of this State, the whole of which settlements, except those which now are or may hereafter be excepted by law, shall be made in the months of July, August and September, in each and every year; and it shall be the duty of the Comptroller, on making any such settlement, forthwith to report the sums or amount due from such accountant to the Treasurer of the State, setting forth in such report (if a sheriff's account) the nett amount of each species of public tax; and the Treasurer shall raise an account against each and every of such persons, and debit them accordingly.

Sec. 70. It shall be the especial duty of the several sheriffs of this State, in making settlements of their accounts annually with the Comptroller, to designate, in a list by them to be rendered, the different sources from which the taxes by them accounted for were received, and the particular amount of tax from each. And the Comptroller shall give the sheriffs a certified copy of the lists returned by them respectively, which said copy it shall be the duty of the said sheriffs to deposite with the clerks of their respective counties for public inspection.

Sec. 71. Every sheriff shall return, upon oath, to the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of his county, at the term next preceding the time at which he shall settle with the Comptroller for public taxes, a list of all the monies which he may have received from taxes imposed on merchants, retailers of spirituous liquors, stage players, slight of hand performers, rope dancers, tumblers, wire dancers, company of circus riders, equestrian performers, and all exhibitors of natural or artificial curiosities, setting forth, in such list, the name of each person who may have paid any such tax, the amount paid by each and for what tax; which list the court shall cause to be publicly read in open court; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court to enter upon the minutes of said court, and preserve such return, and to cause to be set up in some conspicuous place in the court house a fair copy thereof at each and every court which may be held in his county, within six months thereafter, and to furnish each Grand Jury with a copy of the same.

Sec. 72. If the term of the County Court in any county shall happen before the sheriff can complete the collection of the taxes mentioned in the above section, or, from any other cause, the sheriff shall have failed to make his return to the court aforementioned, then the said list of taxes may be returned and filed with the clerk of said court during vacation, which list shall be sworn to, in the presence of the clerk, before two justices of the peace, by the sheriff returning the same.

Sec. 73. The clerk shall deliver to the sheriff a certified copy of such return, which copy the sheriff shall deliver to the Comptroller at the time of settling for public taxes; and the Comptroller shall charge the sheriff according to such return: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to exempt any sheriff from liability for any monies which he may have received on account of such taxes, whether contained in such return or not: And provided further, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed to affect in any manner the provisions regulating the issuing of licenses and accounting for them.

Sec. 74. If any sheriff fail to make the returns to the court, or to the clerk in vacation, or shall fail to deliver a copy thereof to the Comptroller as above required, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of two hundred dollars, and the Comptroller shall charge him with the same in stating his account with the State, and the sheriff shall be moreover liable to pay the taxes which he has or ought to have collected.

Sec. 75. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller, when he shall have just cause to suspect that any sheriff may have made a false return, or sworn falsely, in any matter relative to the collecting or accounting for any tax, to communicate the same to the officer prosecuting in the Superior Court of the county wherein the offence may have been committed; and it shall be the duty of such officer to prosecute such sheriff, if, in his opinion, the circumstances of the case shall justify a suspicion of such sheriff’s guilt; and in all such prosecutions, a copy of any list returned on oath, filed in the Comptrollers office, duly certified by the Comptroller, shall be admitted as evidence in the same manner, and have the same effect, as the original, unless the court, for special reasons, shall previously order the original to be produced on trial.

A copy of return to be given to sheriff, and by him to Comptroller. Penalty on sheriffs for failure. Duty of the Comptroller when he suspects the sheriff of making a false return.
SEC. 76. If any clerk shall fail to perform the duties required of him by the 71st section of this act, or shall neglect or refuse to certify any return made to him as required by the 73d section, or shall falsely certify any return duly made to him, he shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and shall, on conviction in any court having cognizance thereof, for any or either of the aforesaid offences, be punished by fine or imprisonment, or removal from office, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 77. All sheriffs shall, at the time of their annual settlements, render unto the Comptroller, on oath, a list of the names of those persons from whom they have recovered a two fold tax, together with the amount, specifying from what source each species of tax arose.

SEC. 78. Each and every sheriff shall, in his annual settlement with the Comptroller, be allowed for insolvent taxa- bles; but in order to obtain such allowance, he must return to the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of his county, at some term preceding his settlement with the Comptroller, a list containing the names of those for whom he claims as insolvent; and he must make oath that he hath been at the dwelling house or usual place of residence of the person or persons therein named, and that he could not find property of such person or persons sufficient to discharge the respective taxes, or any part thereof, and that the persons contained in such list were insolvents at the time when he ought by law to have accounted for such collection; and the said court shall not be at liberty to allow such sheriff for more insolvent taxables than he shall have thus expressly named and sworn to.

SEC. 79. Such list of insolvent taxables shall be advertised by the clerk, in the court house, within ten days after its return; and any clerk neglecting or refusing to perform the duty hereby required, shall, for every such neglect or refusal, forfeit and pay one hundred dollars, one half to the wardens of the poor, the other half to the person suing for the same.

SEC. 80. If any sheriff shall return to court as insolvent the name of any person who is not enlisted or has actually paid his tax for that year, or shall presume to collect or receive by himself or deputy from any person, his tax for the year for which he has been returned an insolvent, without accounting for the same, such sheriff shall forfeit and pay, for every offence, the sum of forty dollars, to be recovered as directed in last section, and applied one half to the use of the county where the offence shall be committed, the other half to the party injured, who may sue for the same.

Sec. 81. Each and every sheriff, previous to settling his accounts, shall take and subscribe the following oath in the Comptroller’s office: “I, A. B. sheriff of the county of ———, do on this——day of——, one thousand eight hundred and——, make oath that the list now by me given in, is to the best of my knowledge and belief, complete, perfect and entire, and contains the full amount of all monies by me or for me received, or which ought to have been received on account of the public taxes for the year one thousand eight hundred and——, and that I have truly and faithfully endeavored to execute and govern myself by the revenue laws of this State, without favor, affection, or partiality, to the best of my knowledge and ability: so help me God.”

Sec. 82. In addition to the foregoing oath, said sheriff shall swear, that if he collects any delinquent tax beyond those accounted for in said settlement, he will render a true account thereof to the Comptroller, within one year after such collection. And if it shall be discovered that any sheriff, or any person by virtue of having been a sheriff, shall collect delinquent taxes and not account for the same as herein required, each sheriff or other person shall be liable to pay four fold the amount of the sum collected and not accounted for, to be recovered in the name of the State before any jurisdiction having cognizance thereof.

Sec. 83. Each and every sheriff, as a compensation for his services in collecting and paying into the treasury, in due time and according to law, the public taxes, shall be entitled to a commission of six per centum on the nett amount of the taxes of his county, to be allowed him by way of deduction in the settlement of his accounts with the Comptroller.

Sec. 84. Each and every sheriff shall also be allowed Compensation for making settlement.

The sum of three dollars for every day he may be necessarily engaged in making his settlement with the Treasurer; and shall also be allowed the sum of one dollar and fifty cents for every thirty miles of the estimated distance of going and returning home, by the most usual road from his place of residence to the seat of government, to be paid by the Treasurer; and if any sheriff shall fail to pay the whole amount of the taxes due from him to the State at the time he makes such settlement, he shall not be entitled to any mileage, nor to the three dollars a day allowed for his attendance in making the settlement.

Sec. 85. Over and above the other bonds directed by law to be given by the sheriff of each county before his entering into office, he shall enter into a distinct bond, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved of by the County Court, payable to the State of North Carolina, in the sum of four thousand dollars, conditioned for the due collection, payment and settlement of the public taxes as required by law.

Sec. 86. It shall be the duty of the clerks of the County Courts, at the same time when they make a return of the lists of taxable property to the Comptroller, to furnish the Comptroller with a certificate of the name of the sheriff of his county, and the sureties to his bond for the collection of public taxes; which certificates, when certified by the Comptroller, shall, on motion of the Treasurer for judgment against any such sheriff and his sureties, be deemed equally valid in law with the bond of such sheriff; and the court shall give judgment and award execution thereon accordingly.

Sec. 87. If any clerk of the County Court shall fail to furnish the Comptroller with such certificate as directed in the last section, he shall forfeit and pay one thousand dollars, to be recovered by the Treasurer, for the use of the State; and such clerk so failing and forfeiting or failing to return a list of taxable property, as prescribed in this act, shall be considered guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and on conviction shall be dismissed accordingly, and shall thereafter be held ineligible to the appointment of the clerkship of his county.

In all cases of failure of a sheriff, or other accounting officer, to settle his account within the time by law required, and to take the oaths prescribed by law, it shall be the duty of the Comptroller, and he is hereby directed to report immediately on the same, allowing to the failing sheriff neither commissions nor insolvents, but adding to his account the sum of four hundred dollars as the supposed amount of such delinquent's receipts from the tavern keepers and persons failing to give in their lists of taxable property. And upon such report, and such sheriff or other accounting officer failing to appear and fully pay up and finally settle for the sums so reported against him as directed by law, it shall be the indispensable duty of the Treasurer, and he is hereby required to take judgment without delay for the several sums or balances due the State agreeably to such report, against the sheriff and his sureties, or against such other accounting officer and his sureties; and it is hereby declared that in all cases of delinquency of sheriffs or other accounting officers, the Comptroller's certificate shall be held and deemed sufficient testimony for the court and jury to found their verdict on.

Sec. 89. No citation or other warning shall be required or held necessary, preparatory to the taking judgment against any delinquent sheriff or other collecting revenue officer; but the delinquency of all such officers shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be held and deemed good and sufficient, and shall be so considered by the courts in this State, as well for the officers themselves as for their sureties; and all motions, at the instance of the Treasurer, by the Attorney General, in behalf of the State, for arrears of taxes or other money due the State, judgment shall be granted as well against the principals as their sureties, without further notice, accordingly.

Sec. 90. All penalties imposed by this act upon clerks, sheriffs and justices, for delinquencies in the performance of any of the duties here enjoined, where the penalties are declared to be solely for the use of the State, shall be recovered in any court of record, by the Treasurer; on motion of the

TREASURER OF THE STATE.

An Act concerning the Treasurer of the State.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Treasurer of the State shall be elected as early in each biennial session as can be conveniently done. Before entering into office, and within twenty-one days after his election, he shall take and subscribe the oath prescribed by law before some justice of the peace; he shall give duplicate bonds to the Governor, with securities to be approved by the Governor and the Speakers of the two houses of the General Assembly, in the penalty of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, payable to the State of North Carolina, conditioned that he will faithfully account for all monies and other things which shall come to his hands in virtue of his office, and perform all other duties required by law, or which may hereafter be required by law, of the Treasurer of this State; and the said Treasurer shall execute duplicates of the said bond, which shall be endorsed "approved," and signed by the Governor and Speakers of the two houses; and one duplicate shall be delivered by the Governor to the Comptroller, and the other to the Secretary of State, for safe keeping; and the certificate of the Treasurer's qualification shall be delivered to the Comptroller and filed with the bonds: Provided, that the election of Treasurer shall not take place until after the Committee of Finance shall have made their report on the state of the Treasury.

Sec. 2. If the person elected Treasurer shall fail to give bond and security within the time mentioned by this act, it shall be the duty of the Governor to communicate the same to the General Assembly, who shall proceed to elect some other person.

Sec. 3. If at any time there should not be twenty-one days between the election of Treasurer and the rise of the General Assembly, then the bonds required by this act, shall be given to the Governor within twenty one days after such election, and by him endorsed, "approved," and if any person elected Treasurer shall fail to give such bonds within the time prescribed, and the Legislature should not then be in session, it shall then be the duty of the Governor to call the council of State and proceed to appoint some other person Treasurer; and the person so appointed shall give bonds and security within twenty-one days, to be approved by the Governor: Provided, that in no case shall any person appointed Treasurer, either by the General Assembly or the Governor and Council, enter into office before giving bonds and taking and subscribing the oath of office as above required.

Sec. 4. Suit may be brought on either of the bonds given by the Treasurer, and judgment may be entered in the

Sec. 7. The books and accounts of the Treasurer and Comptroller shall be subject to the inspection and examination of the Committee of Finance of the Legislature, during each session of the Legislature; and it shall be the duty of the said committee carefully to examine the exact condition and statement of the deposits made in the banks by the Treasurer, and ascertain the amount of funds of the State at the time of the report of the Treasurer to the Legislature, and also ascertain the full amount of money in the treasury by counting the same, and they shall report thereon at each session.

Sec. 13. If at any time the Treasurer shall suspect the solvency of any of the banks in which public monies are deposited, it shall be his duty to communicate the same to the Governor; and if, upon an examination of the subject, the Governor shall consider that the public interest requires the public money to be withdrawn from the bank, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to remove or cause to be removed the deposit in the said bank.

And whereas the said individuals are desirous of avoiding the inconveniences attending the operations of an unincorporated company consisting of so many partners:

Be it therefore enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the individuals who are now members of said company and such others as may become members hereafter, by their consent, are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, for the general purposes of manufacturing cotton, hemp, wool and flax, or any of them, and for carrying on the milling business in its various branches, under the name and style of the "Milton Manufacturing Company" and by that name and style may sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with; may have and use a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure; and may hold real estate, not exceeding two hundred acres of land, in or near the town aforesaid, and personal property, for the purpose of conducting their manufacturing and milling business aforesaid; and shall have power to make such by-laws and regulations, not contrary to the laws of the United States or of this State, as may be deemed expedient and proper for the government of the said corporation.

The said Directors, or any three of them, may choose a President, and, in his absence, a President pro tempore; they shall have power to call special meetings of the stockholders to supply vacancies in their own body; to appoint such officers, agents and clerks as the stockholders in general meeting shall authorise; to take bonds, with sufficient surety, for the good conduct, fidelity and attention of such officers, agents and clerks; and to do all other acts and things, touching the affairs of the company, not otherwise specially provided for. Dividends of the nett profits of the said company shall be made at such times as shall be determined by the stockholders in general meeting: Provided, that at no time shall the profits accumulate to an amount of more than fifteen per cent. of the capital stock, and remain so accumulated for more than six months; and provided further, that no dividend shall be made of any part of the capital stock under the pretence of making a dividend of the profits; and that the surplus only of the property, effects and debts due the company, above the amount of its capital stocks, responsibilities and debts due from it, shall be regarded as profits.

Sec. 5. Whenever any of the parties aforesaid hereby incorporated, or others becoming members of the said corporation, by becoming stockholders therein, shall part with, transfer or assign the stock by them respectively held, and cease to be stockholders, they shall respectively cease to be members of the said corporation, as to all its subsequent transactions.

Sec. 7. Be it further enacted, That the stockholders, or a majority of them in interest, may from time to time enlarge the capital stock of the said company, by selling or ordering their President and Directors to sell shares therein, at such times, in such manner, to such amount, and at such price or prices, as they, in general meeting, may direct, until the capital stock reaches the said maximum amount of one hundred thousand dollars; and upon such additional stock being taken, the owners thereof shall, to all intents and purposes, be members of the company hereby incorporated, and have equal privileges and powers with the original stockholders; and any premiums obtained on such stock, shall be the common property of all the stockholders, in proportion to the capital stock owned by them respectively.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That if there should be no election of Directors at any annual meeting as herein before prescribed, the Directors then in office shall continue until the next annual election, or until an earlier election by the stockholders in general meeting, at which the major part of the stock shall be represented.

And be it further enacted, That within sixty days after the first general meeting of the stockholders under this charter, all persons who are now stockholders in the company aforesaid, shall enter their names and also the amount of stock held by them respectively, in a bound book prepared for that purpose, by the President and Directors of said company; and upon such persons so entering or subscribing their names and the amount of stock held by them, the President and Directors of said company shall issue to said persons so subscribing scrip or a certificate for the number of shares subscribed by them respectively.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That Charles P. Mallett, John W. Wright, John M. Dobbin, Edward W. Wilkings and Warren Winslow shall be the first directors of said corporation, and shall continue in office until the first Monday in December, eighteen hundred and thirty seven, and until others are chosen. Annually, in the town of Fayetteville, on the first Monday of December, an election shall be held for five directors: the polls shall be opened at ten A. M. and close at twelve P. M., and shall be held by two stockholders not directors. Each stockholder shall vote by ballot, and a plurality of votes shall determine the election, allowing to each stockholder one vote for every five hundred dollars insured in said company.
Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, That the directors may determine the rates of insurance, the amount to be insured, and the sum to be deposited for any insurance.

Sec. 6. Every person who shall become a member of said corporation, by effecting insurance therein, shall before he receives his policy, deposite his promissory note, for such a sum of money, and with such security, and upon such time, as shall be determined by the directors; a part, not exceeding fifteen per cent. of said note, shall be immediately paid; and the remainder of said deposit note, or any note given in renewal or substitution thereof, the discount being paid in advance, if required, shall be paid, in part or the whole, at any time when the directors shall deem the same requisite for the payment of losses by fire, and such incidental expenses as shall be necessary for transacting the business of said company; and at the expiration of the term of insurance, the said note, or such part of the same as shall remain unpaid, after deducting all losses and expenses occurring during said term, shall be relinquished and given up to the maker thereof; and it shall be lawful for the board of directors to invest such portion of their money on hand as may not be immediately wanted for the purposes of said corporation.

Sec. 7. Be it further enacted, That when any property insured with this corporation shall be alienated, by sale or otherwise, the policy shall thereupon be void; and be surrendered to the board of directors to be cancelled; and upon such surrender, the assured shall be entitled to receive his deposite notes, upon the payment of his proportion of all losses and expenses that have accrued prior to such surrender; but the grantee or alience having the policy assigned to him, may have the same ratified and confirmed to him, for his own proper use and benefit, upon application to the directors, and, with their consent, within thirty days next after such alienation, on giving security to the satisfaction of said directors for such portion of the deposite or premium note as shall remain unpaid; and by such ratification and confirmation, the party causing such security to be given shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges, and subject to all the liabilities to which the original party to whom the policy issued was entitled and subjected under this act.

Sec. 9. Be it further enacted, That suits at law may be maintained by said corporation, against any one of its members; for the collection of any deposite note, or any assessment thereon, or any other case relating to the business of said corporation. For losses or damages by fire, if payment be withheld more than three months after said corporation be duly notified thereof, suits at law may be prosecuted and maintained by any member against the corporation. No member of the corporation shall be debarred his testimony as a witness in any such cause, on account of his being a member of said company, and no member of the corporation, not being, in his individual capacity, a party to such suit, shall be incompetent as a witness in any such cause, on account of his being a member of said company.
Sec. 10. Be it further enacted, That the directors shall, after receiving notice of any loss or damage by fire, sustained by any member, and ascertaining the same, or after the rendition of any judgment, as aforesaid, against said company, for loss or damage, settle and determine the sums to be paid by the several members thereof in their respective proportions of such loss, and publish the same in such manner as may seem proper; and the sum to be paid by each member shall always be in proportion to the original amount of his deposit note or notes, and shall be paid to the Treasurer within thirty days after notice; and on failure to pay the same, suit may be brought. No member shall be required to pay for any loss occasioned by fire at any one time, more than the amount of his deposit note; but any member, upon payment of the whole of his deposit note, and surrendering his policy before any subsequent loss or expense has occurred, may be discharged from said company.

Sec. 11. No policy shall be issued by said company until application be made for insurance for fifty thousand dollars at least.

Sec. 12. Be it further enacted, That the board of directors shall appoint one of their body to be the president of the corporation, and the said president, in case of any necessary absence or temporary inability to perform the duties of his station, may, by writing under his hand and seal, appoint some other of the directors president pro tempore. Policies of assurance shall be signed by the president. The board of directors shall have the appointment of all other officers, but the president, at the discretion of said board, may also act as Treasurer.

Sec. 13. Be it further enacted, That an annual dividend of the nett profits of the corporation shall be declared, on the last Monday of December in each and every year; and said dividend shall be passed to the credit of each stockholder, in proportion to the amount of property insured, and the date of his policy of assurance; the one half of such dividend may be paid to the stockholder, but the other half shall be invested so as to create a perpetual fund for loss or damage sustained; and upon the dissolution of the corporation, the said fund, or the balance thereof, after paying all losses and expenses, shall be equitably divided, due regard being had to the date of membership, and the amount insured. Should such fund amount to twenty-five thousand dollars before said dissolution, it shall be lawful for said company to issue special policies of assurance upon goods, wares, and merchandize, and buildings: Provided, that such special assurance shall not constitute the insured a member of the corporation.

Sec. 14. Be it further enacted, That this act shall continue in force thirty years and no longer.
