Sec. 14. Be it further enacted, That said company shall have power, and may proceed to construct, as speedily as possible, a railroad, with one or more tracks, of the same gauge and width of track as the North Carolina Railroad, from the North Carolina Railroad, at the company shops to the town of Milton, to be used and operated by steam power.

The call for each payment shall be published in one or more papers of this State [for this State], for two months before the day of payment; and on failure of any stockholder to pay each instalment, as thus required, the directors may sell at public auction, on a previous notice of ten days, for cash, all the stock subscribed for in said company by such stockholders, and convey the same to the purchaser at said sale, discharged from all further liability; and if said sale of stock do not produce a sum sufficient to pay off the incidental expenses of sale, and the entire amount owing by such stockholder to the company for such subscription of stock, then and in that case the whole of such balance shall be held and taken as due at once to the company, and may be recovered of such stockholder, or of his executors, administrators or assigns, at suit of said company, either by summary motion in any court of supreme jurisdiction, in the county where the delinquent resides, on a previous notice of ten days to said subscriber, or by action of assumpsit in any court of competent jurisdiction, or by a warrant before any justice of the peace, when the sum does not exceed one hundred dollars; and in all cases of assignment of stock before the whole amount has been paid to the company, then for all sums due on such stock, both the original subscribers and the first and all subsequent assignees, shall be held liable to the company, and the same may be recovered, as above described.

Sec. 17. Be it further enacted, That the debt of stockholders, due to the company for stock therein, either as original proprietor, or as first or subsequent assignee, shall be considered of equal dignity with judgments in the distribution of assets of a deceased stockholder by his legal representative.

For making the said valuation, the said freeholders shall take into consideration the loss or damage which may accrue to the owner or owners, in consequence of the land or right of way being surrendered, and the benefit and advantage, general or special, which he, she or they may receive by the general increased value of the land, or any special benefit which may arise from the location of a depot, or otherwise, on said land, or any benefit which may accrue, in any way whatever, by the establishment of said railroad or work, and shall state particularly the value and amount of each, and the excess of the loss and damage over and above the advantage and benefit shall form the measure of valuation of said land or right of way: Provided, nevertheless, That if any person or persons over whose lands the road may pass, or if said company should be dissatisfied with the valuation of said freeholders, then and in that case the party so dissatisfied may have an appeal to the superior court, in the county where the damage is done, or in either county where the land may lie, under the same rules, regulations and restrictions as in other cases of appeal. The proceedings of the said freeholders, accompanied with a full description of the said land or right of way, shall be returned under the hands and seals of a majority of them, to the court from which the order was made, there to remain a matter of record; and the lands or right of way, so valued, shall vest in the said company so long as the same may be used for the purposes of said railroad, so soon as the valuation shall have been made, or when refused, may have been tendered: Provided, That on application for the appointment of freeholders, under this section, it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that at least ten days' previous notice had been given by the applicant to the owner or owners of the land so proposed to be condemned; or if the owner or owners be infants, or non compos mentis, then to the guardian of such owner or owners, if such guardian can be found within the county, or if he cannot be so found, then such appointment shall not be made unless notice of the application shall have been published at least one month next preceding, in some newspaper printed as conveniently as may be to the court-house of the county, and shall have been posted at the door of the court-house on the first day of the term of said court to which the application is made: Provided, further, That the valuation provided for in this section shall be made on oath by the freeholders aforesaid, which oath any justice of the peace or clerk is authorized to administer: Provided, further, That the right of condemnation herein granted shall not authorize the said company to invade the dwelling-house, yard, garden or burial ground of any individual, without his consent.

Sec. 23. Be it further enacted, That the right of said company to condemn lands in the manner as aforesaid shall extend to the condemning one hundred feet on each side of the track of the road, measuring from the centre of the same, unless in case of deep cuts and fillings, when said company shall have power to condemn as much in addition thereto as may be necessary for the purpose of constructing said road; and the company shall also have power to condemn and appropriate lands in like manner for the constructing and building of depots, shops, warehouses, buildings for servants, agents and persons employed on the road, not exceeding two acres in any one lot or station.

Sec. 24. Be it further enacted, That in the absence of any contract or contracts with said company in relation to lands through which the said road may pass, signed by the owner thereof, or his agent, or any claimant or person in possession thereof, which may be confirmed by the owner thereof, it shall be presumed that the land upon which the said road may be constructed, together with the space of one hundred feet on each side of the centre of said road, has been granted to said company by the owner thereof, and the said company shall have good right and title thereto, and shall have, hold and enjoy the same as long as the same be used for the purpose of the said road, and no longer, unless the person or persons owning the said land at the time that part of the said road which may be on the said land was finished, or those claiming

Sec. 25. Be it further enacted, That all lands not heretofore granted to any person within one hundred feet of the centre of said road shall vest in the company as soon as the line of the road is definitely laid out through it, and any grant of said land thereafter shall be void.

Sec. 26. Be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall intrude upon said railroad by any manner of use thereof, or of the rights and privileges connected therewith, without the permission or contrary to the will of said company, he, she or they may be indicted for a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, fined and imprisoned by any court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 28. Be it further enacted, That every obstruction to the safe and free passage of vehicles on said road shall be deemed a public nuisance, and may be abated as such by any officer, agent or servant of said company; and the person causing such obstruction may be indicted for erecting a public nuisance.

Sec. 29. Sec. 30. Be it further enacted, That the profits of the company, or so much thereof as the general board may deem advisable, shall, when the affairs of the company will permit, be semi-annually divided amongst the stockholders, in proportion to the stock each may own.

In making the said valuation, the said freeholders shall take into consideration the loss or damage which may accrue to the owner or owners, in consequence of the land or right of way being surrendered, and the benefit and advantage, general or special, which he, she or they may receive by the general increased value of the land, or any special benefit which may arise from the location of a depot, or otherwise, on said land, or any benefit which may accrue, in any way whatever, by the establishment of said railroad or work, and shall state particularly the value and amount of each; and the excess of the loss and damage over and above the advantage and benefit shall form the measure of valuation of said land or right of way: Provided, nevertheless, That if any person or persons, over whose lands the road may pass, or if said company should be dissatisfied with the valuation of said freeholders, then and in that case, the party so dissatisfied may have an appeal to the superior court, in the county where the damage is done, or in either county where the land may lie, under the same rules, regulations and restrictions as in other cases of appeal. The proceedings of the said freeholders, accompanied with a full description of the said land or right of way, shall be returned under the hands and seals of a majority of them, to the court.

Sec. 22. Be it further enacted, That in the absence of any contract or contracts with said company, in relation to lands through which the said road may pass, signed by the owner thereof, or of his agent, or any claimant, or person in possession thereof, which may be confirmed by the owner thereof, it shall be presumed that the land upon which the said road may be constructed, together with the space of one hundred feet on each side of the centre of said road, has been granted to said company by the owner thereof, and the said company shall have good right and title thereto, and shall have, hold and enjoy the same as long as the same be used for the purposes of the said road and no longer, unless the person or persons owning the said land, at the time that part of the said road which may be on the said land was finished, or those claiming under him, her or them shall apply for an assessment of the value of said land as hereinbefore directed, within two years next after that part of the said road which may be on said lands was finished, and in case the said owner or those claiming under him, her or them shall not apply within two years next after the said part was finished, he, she or they shall be forever barred from recovering said land, or having any assessment or compensation therefor: Provided, nothing herein contained shall affect the right of feme coverts or infants until two years after the removal of their respective disabilities.

Sec. 23. Be it further enacted, That all land not heretofore granted to any person within one hundred feet of the centre of said road, shall vest in the company as soon as the line of the road is definitely laid out through it, and any grant of said land thereafter shall be void.

SEC. 26. Be it further enacted, That every obstruction to the safe and free passage of vehicles on said road, shall be deemed a public nuisance, and may be abated as such by any officer, agent or servant of said company; and the person causing such obstruction may be indicted for erecting a public nuisance.

SEC. 27. Be it further enacted, That the said company shall have the right to take at the storehouses they may establish or annex to their railroad, all goods, wares, merchandise and produce intended for transportation; to prescribe the rules of priority and charge, and receive such just and reasonable compensation for storage as they by rules may establish, (which they shall cause to be published,) or as may be fixed by agreement with the owners, which may be distinct from rates of transportation: Provided, That the said company shall not charge or receive storage on goods, wares, merchandise or produce which may be delivered to them at their regular deposition [depositories] for immediate transportation, and which the company may have power to transport immediately.

SEC. 28. Be it further enacted, That the profits of the company, or so much thereof as the general board may deem advisable, shall, when the affairs of the company will permit, be semi-annually divided amongst the stockholders, in proportion to the stock each may own.

SEC. 20. Be it further enacted, That any contract that may be entered into with any other railroad company by the president and directors of said company, after the consent of a majority of the stockholders first obtained, shall be binding on the company.

SEC. 21. Be it further enacted, That all the officers of the company, and servants and persons in the actual employment of the company, be, and they are hereby exempt from performing ordinary military duty, working on public roads, and serving as jurors.

SEC. 22. Be it further enacted, That all the work hereby required shall be executed with due diligence, and if it be not commenced within four years after the ratification of this act, then the charter shall be void.

SEC. 23. Be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification, and shall be regarded as a public act, and be continued in force until the year nineteen hundred.

SEC. 24. Chap. 135. AN ACT ALLOWING THE RALEIGH AND GASTON RAILROAD COMPANY TO INCREASE THE CAPITAL STOCK.

Preamble.

Whereas, The whole capital stock of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company is fixed by the charter at the sum of nine hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars, and each share thereof at one hundred dollars, and by reason of the great expenditure in permanent fixtures necessarily made to complete the road after exhausting the capital stock, the actual capital invested is now or will soon be upwards of one million, five hundred thousand dollars, so that each share in said company now represents about the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars: And whereas, At a late general meeting of the stockholders, held on the 4th day of October last, it was deemed expedient and so resolved, that the company should purchase a portion of the slaves to be employed in its service, whereby each share will represent a still larger additional amount of capital stock, and it is but just that the shares should represent as nearly as practicable the amount of capital invested:

Be it therefore enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company to increase the number of shares of its capital stock, so as to make the whole number fifteen thousand or less, and that the additional number hereby allowed may be wholly or partly divided among the stockholders, according to their several interests, or sold for their use and benefit, or used to purchase slaves for the use of the company, as by the stockholders shall be deemed best: Provided, nevertheless, That it shall be necessary for the State, as a stockholder, to concur in the number of increased shares, as also in the disposition thereof.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, That if the additional shares, or any number of them, shall be divided among the stockholders, all the fractional parts of shares which may accrue on such division shall be added together, so as to constitute whole shares, and they shall be disposed of for the benefit of those having fractional interest as may be deemed advisable by the company.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That this act, when accepted by the company, shall forthwith be deemed a part of the charter, and such acceptance shall be certified to the secretary of State by the president and directors of the company, under the seal of the corporation.

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That a general meeting of the stockholders may be called for the purpose of accepting the amendment, and if accepted, as provided in section 3rd, at any time within two years, it shall be sufficient.

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, That it shall not be necessary for the company to increase the number of shares at once, but they may do so from time to time as shall be resolved on, the State concurring as aforesaid: Provided, however, The whole capital of the company shall not exceed fifteen hundred thousand dollars.

Sec. 6. Be it further enacted, That every part of the present charter of said company which shall be in conflict with this amendment shall be null and void after its acceptance as aforesaid. [Ratified the 23rd day of February, 1861.]

Be it further enacted, That the said company shall have power to transport for such hire and reward as may be agreed upon, to and between the said points, all such flour, produce, passengers, wood, minerals, iron and all other articles, goods and things whatsoever, by horse or steam power, as they may deem proper, and the same to store for hire and reward, subject, nevertheless, to such reasonable regulations and restrictions as may be imposed by the town authorities of Charlotte concerning the passage of the same through the streets of said town.

Corporate powers. Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That the capital stock of said corporation shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, transferable and assignable as may be prescribed by the by-laws of the company; and all such shares shall be deemed personal estate, and they may raise money, by loan or otherwise, sufficient to equip and complete their road, upon such terms and security as a majority of the holders of stock representing a majority of the capital hereby authorized to be invested, may direct.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That every obstruction to the safe and free passage of cars and other vehicles on the said road shall be deemed a public nuisance, and may be abated as such by any officer, agent or servant of the said company, and the person causing such obstruction may be indicted as for erecting a public nuisance.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force and have effect from and after its passage. [Ratified the 23d day of February, 1861.]

AN ACT TO ENABLE THE WESTERN RAILROAD COMPANY TO EXTEND THEIR ROAD FROM THE COAL FIELDS TO THE NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.

Whereas, The loan of four hundred thousand dollars made to the Western Railroad Company, by an act of the last legislature, entitled “An act to aid in the construction and equipment of the Western Railroad from Fayetteville to the Coal Fields,” was insufficient to enable said company to procure the rolling stock and equipment, build work-shops, and construct the necessary wharves at Cape Fear river, for the shipment of coal and other produce, and for the erection of a permanent bridge across Deep River; therefore, to enable said company to complete said works, and to carry into effect the provisions of this act:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That there shall be two divisions of the Western Railroad, viz: the eastern division shall extend from the Cape Fear to the west bank of Deep river, near Egypt, in the county of Chatham, and the western division shall extend from the west bank of Deep river to a point on the North Carolina Railroad, to be hereafter determined by the president and directors of the Western Railroad Company, or the stockholders of the same, in general meeting assembled.
SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That for the purpose of completing the eastern division, procuring the rolling stock and equipments, building shops, wharves, and constructing a permanent bridge over Deep river, the public treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to sell two hundred thousand dollars of the coupon bonds of the State of North Carolina, made in the same manner and form as those heretofore sold for said company, and the proceeds thereof to loan to said railroad company, the said company making and delivering to the public treasurer at the same time its coupon bonds for the same amount, and payable at the same time and place as those of the State, sold for its benefit; and to secure the principal and interest of said bonds, issued by the Western Railroad Company, the State of North Carolina shall by this act have a lien upon the eastern division of said road, together with all the rights and franchises thereto belonging or in any wise appertaining, and upon all the estate of said company, both real and personal, which they may now have or may hereafter acquire, which lien shall have preference over all other claims whatsoever.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That for the purpose of completing the western division of said road, the public treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to issue and sell the coupon bonds of the State of North Carolina, signed by the governor, and countersigned by the public treasurer, and sealed with the great seal of the State, bearing six per cent. interest, the principal payable at the end of thirty years from the date thereof, and the coupons of interest payable semi-annually in such form and at such time and place as the public treasurer may direct, for the purpose of raising the money herein directed to be loaned to the Western Railroad Company.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That before the public treasurer shall make any loan to said company of any of the moneys received from the sale of the bonds hereby authorized to be issued and disposed of, the Western Railroad Company shall deliver to the public treasurer the coupon bonds of said company, bearing the same interest and date, the principal and coupons payable at the same time and place as those of the State herein before directed to be issued and disposed of; and to secure the principal and interest of said bonds issued by the Western Railroad Company, the State of North Carolina shall by this act have a lien upon the western division of said road, together with all the rights, franchises and powers thereto belonging, or in any wise appertaining, or which may hereafter belong or appertain, together with all the real and personal estate of said company which they may now have or hereafter acquire, and which lien shall have preference over all other claims whatsoever; and in case of failure of said company to pay the semi-annual interest on said bonds for twenty-four months after such interest shall become due, or to pay the principal of said bonds for twelve months after their maturity, the board of internal improvement for and on behalf of the State may enter upon and take possession of all the property herein before specified, and dispose of the same so as to protect the State.

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, That the public treasurer shall issue and dispose of the bonds hereinbefore directed, from time to time, as may be necessary to make the loans to said company, as required by the provisions of this act; and said loans shall be made in the sums and on the conditions following, viz: that whenever the president of said company shall certify to the governor that a section of ten miles of said road has been graded continuously at either end of the western division, that said company has purchased the iron rails, chairs and spikes, and will forthwith, in good faith, proceed to lay down and complete said section of ten miles, said company shall be entitled to receive the sum of one hundred thousand dollars; and upon a like certificate, as each successive ten miles has been graded and prepared to receive the superstructure, said company shall be entitled to receive the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, until said division shall be completed: Provided, That if the last section shall be less than ten miles, a deduction shall be made in the proportion of one hundred thousand dollars to ten miles of road, it being the purpose of this act to loan said company ten thousand dollars per mile for each mile of road constructed between the eastern division and the final terminus of said road on the North Carolina Railroad: Provided, further, That none of the bonds authorized to be issued for the western division of said road shall be sold by the public treasurer, until it shall have been certi-

Sec. 6. Be it further enacted, That the officers of said company shall be managed by a general board, to consist of seven directors, to be elected by the stockholders from among themselves at their first and subsequent general annual meeting; and no stockholder shall be elected a director, nor serve as such, unless he be at the time of his election the bona fide owner and legal holder of five shares of said stock, and shall continue to hold the same during the term of his service.

contained shall affect the right of feme coverts or infants until two years after the removal of the respective disabilities.

of said company, such person or persons so offending shall be liable to indictment therefor, and on conviction, shall be imprisoned not more than six nor less than one month, and pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars nor less than twenty dollars, at the discretion of the court before which the trial takes place.

rules of priority, and charge and receive such [just] and reasonable compensation for storage as they by rules may establish, (which they shall cause to be published,) or as may [be] fixed by agreement with the owners, which may be distinct from the rates of transportation.

Sec. 24. Be it further enacted, That the profits of the company, or so much thereof as the general board may deem advisable, shall, when the affairs of the company will permit, semi-annually [be] divided amongst the stockholders, in proportion to the stock each may own.

Sec. 25. Be it further enacted, That all the officers of the company, and servants, and persons in the actual employ of the company, be, and they [are hereby] exempted from per-

Sec. 27. Be it further enacted, That the company aforesaid shall keep a full record of all its proceedings; and if any of the persons named as general commissioners refuse to act, those who do act are hereby authorized to appoint other commissioners in their places.
