OLD CHARLES TOWN AND ITS VICINITY, ACCABEE AND WAPPOO WHERE INDIGO WAS FIRST CULTIVATED, WITH SOME ADJOINING PLACES IN OLD ST. ANDREWS PARISH.

BY HENRY A. M. SMITH.

The original settlement by the English in South Carolina was at a point on the Southwest side of the Ashley river, at the place now known as Old Town plantation. At that place a creek makes in from the river running first generally to the Southwest, and then turning Northwest and forming a neck of land bounded Northeast by the marshes of Ashley river Southeast, South, and Southwest by this creek and its marshes, and Northwest by a narrow extent of high land capable then of easy defence. The river, as far at least as that point, was called by the native Indians by a name spelled by the settlers variously as Keyawah, Kyawaw, Kayawah, Chyawhaw, Kiwaha, Kywaha, Keywaha, and Kiawah¹ which last, viz., Kiawah, became later the accepted form; pronounced Kee-a-wah.

As early as 1666 Robert Sanford in his exploration of the coast named the river "that leadeth into the country of Kywaha" the River Ashley "from the right Honble Anthony Lord Ashley."² Sandford appears to have alluded to the inlet that forms Charleston Harbour as he does not seem to have entered in far enough to be aware that the inlet was divided into two rivers by the peninsula now the site of the city of Charleston.

² Ibid., p. 80.

Sometime early in April, 1670 (according to Carteret's relation\(^3\))
the first ship with Governor Sayle reached Kiawah and selected the place just described for the settlement. The neck of land so settled upon they called "Albemarle Point."\(^4\) On 20 Sept\(^r\), 1670, Florence O'Sullivan wrote to Lord Ashley, "We build our towne upon a point of land called Albemarle point seated upon the River that leads in from the sea called by us Ashley river,"\(^5\) and William Owen also writing to Lord Ashley on 15 Sept\(^r\), 1670, says, "We have made choise for ye better having pitcht on a pointe defended by ye maine river with a brooke on ye one side, and inaccessible Marshe one ye other wth att high tides is ever overflowne: ioying itself to ye mainland in a small neck not exceeding fiftie yards which now is pallizadoed, and with a verye small charg might be made impregnable."\(^6\)

On 1\(^st\) Novr, 1670, Lord Ashley writing to Joseph West in Carolina informs him, "you are to take notice that the River was by Captain Sandford long since named Ashley River and still is to be called soe, and the Towne you are now planted on we have named and you are to call Charles Towne."\(^7\)

Notwithstanding this notice (or perhaps because it was not sooner received) the town continued to be called "Albemarle Point" as late as March 1670/1\(^8\) but according to a memo. in the handwriting of John Locke made about August, 1671, he notes,
"The towne cald Charlestowne"\(^9\) and Joseph West writing on 3\(^rd\) Sept\(^r\), 1671, dates his letter, "Charles Towne upon Ashley River."\(^10\)

At that time some construction was under way in the town, for the Council in a letter to the Proprietors dated 21 March 1671/2 say, "We have with much adoe, our people being weake by reason of scarcity of provisions, pallasadoed about 9 acres of land, being a point, whereon we first set downe for our better security and mounted seaven great Gunns;" and "when we ar-vived here, we thought it most conducing to our safety to build a town, where we are now settled, it being a point with a very convenient landing, and safely fortified, being almost surrounded with a large Marsh and Creek."

The minutes of the first meeting of the Grand Council as now known to us records the meeting held 25 August, 1671, with Col. Joseph West as Governor and notes the meeting as held "at Charles Towne upon Ashley River" and the name Albemarle Point as applied to this first settlement seems to have ceased between March and August, 1671.

There has been some confusion with regard to the application of the name "Albemarle Point." Governor William Sayle who died in the Province 4th March, 1670/1, left a will dated 30 Sept' 1670 whereby he devised to his son Nathaniel Sayle, "all that my Mansion House and Town Lot on Albemarle Point in the said Province of Carolina" and on some old map on a very small scale, apparently this mansion house was placed as on the point where Wappoo creek enters Ashley river opposite the present City of Charleston which point was marked as Albemarle Point. The present writer was with others so misled. Data which has later been made accessible proves this to be incorrect. Albemarle Point was the point or neck of land selected as the place of first settlement and the mansion house of Governor Sayle referred to in his will was almost without doubt in the town first known as Albemarle Point and later as Charles Town. The point of land at the junction of Wappoo creek and Ashley river was taken up first by Sir John Yeamans the Governor 1672-1674 who there had a house or "mansion" and some mixing as to the two governors and the dating of Sayle's letters from Albemarle Point doubtless caused the mistake.

A town with lots and streets was laid out as soon as the settlers landed. Gov'r Sayle as we have seen on Sept' 1670 devises his "Town Lot." The Grand Council write the Proprietors in March, 1670/1 that they had granted town lots containing eleven poles or thereabouts, with ten acre lots to plant. The ten-acre lots being laid out about the town from the South Westward to the North, which model they had been forced to exercise at first for better defence and speedy concourse to the Town. This model may not have pleased the Proprietors for on 1 May, 1671, they enclose to the Governor and Council a model plan for a town to be followed. The Proprietors altered their minds for Lord Ashley writing later (15 Dec', 1671) to Governor Yeamans—"Wee have in Favour of the first Planters altered our minds about the Port Towne on the River Ashley as you will find by our Generall Letter which through the little care was taken to lay it out into Convenient Streets at theire first coming it cannot be made soe exactly regular and beautyful as Wee wish yet wee desire you would use your Endeavour to have the Streets layd out as large orderly and convenient as possibly may be." This suggestion was acted upon. At the meeting of the Grand Council held 22 July, 1672, it is recorded that "The persons hereunder named came this day before the Grand Councill and for the better Modell of Charles Towne according to the annexed Scheme did surrender all their lands in the said Towne and agreed to possess only the severall lots as hereafter is menconed that is to say." Then follows a list of the settlers with the lots assigned to each. The lots aggregate 62 and the list of names is valuable as an authentic list of actual settlers at that early date. According to an old letter among the Shaftsbury papers dated about March 1671 the size of the town is given viz., "Our towne called Albemarle Point is scituate on a point wch is almost encompassed wth a large Marsh & may easily be fortified wth a broad trench, it contains about 80 acres of Land."

There is in existence, known to the writer, no copy of the plan or model of the town: of either the original or the revised model. All that exists is the plan on Culpeppers map of Ashley river (the frontispiece to Vol. 5 of the Collins of the Historical Society of So. Ca.) and that it evidently meant to indicate only the general location and is not any exact plan of the town.

The town so founded continued as the seat of the government until 1680 when the government was removed to the "Oyster

15 Ibid., p. 323.

Point” thereafter known as Charles Town and the site of the present city of Charleston. The advantages of this last site were so manifest that at the very first settlement Governor Sayle directed that about 600 acres between the Ashley and Wando (Cooper) rivers be left vacant for a town and fort.\(^9\)

It appears that the new settlement on the Oyster Point had for some time been receiving inhabitants at the expense of the old, the only reason for occupying which in the beginning had been its better defensive position for a weak settlement. After the transfer of the government the old town seems to have rapidly decayed. It was probably abandoned as a town almost immediately and the name Charles Town was finally transferred to the new town. In the minutes of the Grand Council for 1\(^{st}\) June 1680 held “att Charles Towne” directions are given that certain Indians held in bondage be brought before the Grand Council “at Kaiawah sometimes called Charles Towne.”\(^{20}\) There was nothing in the way of any permanent construction to restrain abandonment. The fortifications were trenches or moats and banks with “palisadoes” of fresh cut wood of very temporary existence. The houses and “mansions” were almost certainly of that original colonial American architecture which consisted of logs squared, or round, built in square pens, one, or more connected together; with the interstices or “chinks” well filled with clay, and roofed with shingles, and in the cases of greater opulence ceiled or lined inside with boards called “clapboards,” i.e., split and not sawed from logs. The chimneys at first were sun dried clay mixed with straw or pine needles although the burning of clay into bricks seems very early to have been introduced into the colony. When the present writer was a boy the only apparent relic of the old town was a shallow depression running from the marsh on the river to the creek on the West which was said to be the line of the old defensive trench or moat.

After 1680 the name Charles Town was understood to refer to the town on the Oyster Point.\(^{21}\) The very lot owners at old Charles Town seem to have simply abandoned their lots and grants, which were later taken up by and granted to other persons. Between 1694 and 1697 the following grants were made to one James Le Sad or as more commonly spelled Le Sade, viz.:²²

The writer has never found anything upon the records as to Le Sade’s nativity although he apparently was a French Huguenot immigrant. He may have come via Ireland as he had a sister whose married name was Neale but as two persons named Neale took out grants not far from Le Sade, about the same time he obtained his own, she may have married after her arrival in Carolina.

The grants to Le Sade included all the high land on which Albemarle Point or Old Charles Town had been situated together with much more to the West and North and his plantation included in these grants, was in his time, as it has been ever since, known as “Old Town Plantation.” The record does not show why these lands so formerly laid out to others were now regranted to Le Sade. There was probably another grant of 200 acres to James Le Sade for by a deed of his nephew Peter Le Sade it is stated that his uncle’s Old Town plantation contained 960 acres. James Le Sade left a Will dated 3 Novr 1703 whereby after a life estate to his wife Elizabeth he devised his lands to his brother Peter Le Sade and his sister Mary Neale each one half but if neither his sister nor any child of hers appeared and claimed within three years after his death then the whole was to go to his brother Peter. No claim having been made the whole vested in Peter who by his will dated 9 August, 1716, devised the Old Town plantation after the death of his own wife Ann to his son Peter except 250 acres which he devised to his daughter Ann then the wife of John Girardeau²³ and who after Girardeau’s death married Andrew Deveaux. The writer has not found on the record how or when the plantation passed from this last Peter Le Sade but on 15 February 1734 Daniel Cartwright conveyed to John Beresford the Old Town plantation containing by estimation 710 acres which “was lately in the possession of Peter Le Sad planter.”24 A few days later—20 Febry 1734—John Beresford conveyed the 710 acres to William Branford.25 The deed states that although conveyed for 710 acres but 525 were found. The William Branford to whom the property was so conveyed was the son of a William Branford who as early as 11 July, 1694, had procured a grant for 150 acres on Ashley river next Southeast to the plantations of William Bull.26 In the memorial of his son this 150 acres is described as “upon Ashley river called or known by the Indian name of Pahetion plantation and also one little Island called Pahpetion Island, “bounding Westward upon “Pahpetion creek.” The creek separating Branford’s grant from Bull’s plantation was “Pahpetion creek.” To this grant of 150 acres the first William Branford added 41 acres granted him 5 Decr 1696, 50 acres granted him 2 January, 1697, 72 acres granted him 23 July, 1711, and 10 acres originally granted 28 October, 1676 to George Cantey and purchased by Branford, all of which aggregating 323 acres William Branford by his will dated 30 July 1717 devised to his son William Branford;27 who added to it 91 acres purchased 26 Jany, 1732, from John Brown part of 100 acres originally granted 8 July, 1696, to Thomas Clarke, and then the 710 (or 525) acres of old Town plantation acquired from John Beresford, and later on 20 Novr, 1747, 73½ acres part of Accabee plantation purchased from Francis Rose.28

The record does not show where the first William Branford came from. There was a John Branford who also appeared in the Province at the same time and settled among the settlers of Dorchester on Ashley river. The Dorchester settlers came principally from Massachusetts and were Congregationalists and John Branford from contiguity and association seems to have been one of them but there is nothing the writer has found on the record showing precisely whence he came. William Branford also acquired and held for some time a tract of land in the Dorchester settlement near John Branford but the writer has found nothing to show the exact connection between them.

The lands near Old Town so acquired by the second William Branford aggregating about 1012 1/2 acres seem in his possession to have been generally known as Old Town plantation although the Northeastern part retained the name of "Accabee." William Branford left the lands to his son a third William Branford who died about 1772 and these lands passed to his two daughters, Ann Branford who married Thomas Horry and Elizabeth Branford who married Elias Horry Junr—two brothers marrying two sisters. The lands were partitioned between the two sisters the Old Town part as containing 519 acres being allotted to Elizabeth Horry and the Accabee part containing 489 1/2 acres to Ann Horry who with her husband Thomas Horry on 22 November, 1774, conveyed it to Elias Horry thus reuniting the whole tract in Elias and Elizabeth Horry. 29 To the tract additions were made by grants of adjoining marsh and of 96 acres of high land to the Northwest purchased from Sarah Gray the heir at law of John Samways, 30 and the whole continued in the descendants of Elias Horry until 8 April, 1833, when the whole plantation under the name of Old Town as containing 1530 1/2 acres was sold to Anthony Barbot. 31 The land granted to the first William Branford in 1694 thus continued in his descendants until 1833 a period of near 140 years. Anthony Barbot in 1835 conveyed to Jonathan Lucas whose Executors in 1850 conveyed to the late Wm McKenzie Parker from whose estate it was transferred some time subsequent to the War of 1861–1865.

North of Old Charles Town or Albemarle Point on the South bank of the Ashley river was a point of land formed by a change of course in the river where after running nearly Northwest from Albemarle Point it turns at near a right angle to the Westward.

The tract of land contained within this elbow was called "Ickerby", "Ickerbe", "Ickabee", 32 "Acabe" and "Accabee" and 31 Ibid., Bk F, No. 10, p. 349. seems to have settled in spelling to the form "Accabee." In the grant to Jacob Neale 3 July, 1696, for 72 acres on the south side of Ashley river it is described as "joining to Acabee land."\(^{33}\)

By later deeds and maps the name seems also to have been given to the land on Charleston Neck on the North side of Ashley river opposite the land so termed on the South side. The writer has never been able to satisfy himself whether the Indian designation originally applied to the banks on both sides the river at that point, or to the "reach" of the river itself, or perchance to some small tribe or tribal remnant of Indians occupying the river banks there. However that may be the plantation on the South bank at the river bend in question long owned by the Rose family, and the plantation nearly opposite long owned by the Elliott family, were both known by the name of "Accabee."

On 22 October, 1681, a grant of 190 acres on the South side of Ashley river at "Accabee" was made to Stephen Bull and Maurice Mathews who seem to have abandoned it for on 1 June, 1709 the same tract was granted for 180 acres to Charles Clifford\(^{34}\) whose representatives Benjamin Clifford with his wife Sarah, John Bulloch and his wife Mary and Stephen Clifford on 10 Sept., 1718, conveyed it to Thomas Rose. 156 acres adjoining was on 9th June, 1709, granted to James Bryan\(^{35}\) which was on 1 November, 1718 conveyed by James and Catherine Sameways to Thomas Rose. Eighty-nine acres additional were conveyed to Thomas Rose 22 Aug., 1721 by Ephraim Mikell and Mary his wife which seems to have included 80 acres taken up by Joseph Dalton in 1672 and which on 26 December, 1674, he surrendered up to the Grand Council\(^{36}\) and the Grand Council directed to be granted equally between Anthony Churne and John Chambers to whom grants for 36 acres each were accordingly issued 21 April, 1677\(^{37}\) and for which another grant was made to Jacob Neale on 3 July, 1696,\(^{38}\) through whom apparently Ephraim Mikell and his wife claimed. Thomas Rose finally purchased on 27 July, 1723, from Peter Le Sade 42 acres part of 100 acres granted James Le Sade 8 Sept.\(^{39}\), 1697, and forming part of Old Town plantation. By these purchases Thomas Rose acquired 477 acres covering a large part of the area on the South side of the Ashley river called Ickerby or Accabee.39

Exactly when and whence this Thomas Rose came to the Province the writer has never been able to determine. From quite an early period there seem to have been several apparently entirely disconnected families named Rose in the Province. There was a Thomas Rose who as early as April, 1677, received a warrant for 500 acres for which a grant was made 16 June, 1677, 40 on 10 March, 1681, lot N° 64 in Charles Town was granted Thomas Rose Senr41 and 6 July, 1680, a lot was granted to Thomas Rose42 which on 10 June, 1689 seems to have been regranted to Thomas Smith.43

On 10 April, 1684, a warrant was issued to lay off 330 acres to Thomas Rose as remaining due to him on record under the Proprietors' offers to settlers for the arrival in the Province of himself and several servants.44 The writer has found no further notice of him on the record until Febry 24, 1692, when Thomas Rose appears as surety on a bond in the Ordinary's court45 and thereafter he is mentioned in a number of cases as on bonds or papers in the Ordinary's court.46

On 12 June, 1694, town lot N° 228 in Charles Town was granted to Thomas Rose Junr,47 and this lot 228 was on 8 Aug., 1710, conveyed by Thomas Rose "cordwinder" to Henry Samways, the deed reciting that this lot had been granted to Thomas Rose decd, Gentleman and was conveyed by Thomas Rose his son and heir.48 On 24 February, 1701, Francis Fidling conveyed to a Thomas Rose a tract of 38 acres near Ashley Ferry on the South side of Ashley river49 and this is apparently the land referred to in the Act of 23 Deer., 1703, as then owned by "Thomas

Rose, Planter.\textsuperscript{50} The writer has never been able to connect any of these Thomas Roses with Thomas Rose who in 1718 acquired Accabee; although it is likely he was the same to whom Francis Fidling conveyed 38 acres in 1703.

According to a memorial filed by one Henrietta Rose on 26 May, 1733\textsuperscript{rd} her "late father" Thomas Rose had died previously leaving her sole heir at law whereas Thomas Rose of Accabee would appear by St. Andrews Register to have died in December, 1733.

There is a statement which seems authentically to point to him, to be found in Burke's \textit{Genealogical and Heraldic History of the Landed Gentry or Commoners of Great Britain and Ireland} published in 1838, vol. 4, p. 218 under the head of Rose-Cleland of Rath-Gael, referring to the family of Rose of Abingdon Berks, and to Richard Rose of Abingdon who died 19 April, 1719, leaving among other children

America where some of their descendants are still living in great respectability."

This account was doubtless written for Burke by some descendant of this last Richard Rose and whether or not it be reliable as to the accounts of the family given for the early periods in England yet as to the family in America shows that the writer must have had access to writings and family data of the period for his statements are substantially confirmed as to Thomas Rose and his children by the records here. The will of Thomas Rose is not now to be found here of record. Many of the records in the Probate Court of that date disappeared during the late war. According to the record here Thomas Rose sen' (of St. Andrews Parish as the record is that Parish Register) was buried 3 Decr., 1733, a Thomas Rose (probably his son) married Elizabeth Coppin 6 March, 1725/26. Sabina Rose married Robert Ladson. Margaret Rose married Henry Williamson and Elizabeth Rose married first James Samways and then Samuel Stocks, and on 23 March, 1721/22, Francis Rose the son of Thomas Rose was baptised. The writer has found no record here showing that Thomas Rose married here Elizabeth Bennet or that Francis was the son of a second wife but records of that early date are woefully deficient.

At the death of Thomas Rose in 1733 the Accabee plantation seems to have passed to his son Francis for on 20 Novr, 1747, Francis Rose conveyed 73½ acres off this Accabee plantation to William Branford. Francis Rose on 23 Feby, 1743, married Mary Ann Elliott daughter of Joseph Elliott. She died March, 1756, and in February, 1759, he married Sarah Balentine. She died January, 1767, and in July, 1767, he married Elizabeth Ann Lining daughter of Dr. John Lining. She died April, 1768, and in April, 1771, he married Sarah Backer. He seems to have had three sons who lived to maturity Richard, Robert, and Thomas all of whom predeceased him and two daughters who survived him Elizabeth who married Abram Ladson and Sarah who married —— Butler. Francis Rose died in 1783. By his will he devised his plantation at Accabbee on which he usually lived containing about 407 acres to his wife Sarah Rose for life and after her death to his grandson Francis Rose son of his son Robert Rose. His son Richard seems to have died without issue. Robert left two children Francis and Mary Ann, and Thomas left two daughters Elizabeth Sanders Rose who married Dr. Edward Lynah and left issue and Mary Ann Blake Rose who married Capt. William Miles and left issue. On 11 September, 1802, this last Francis Rose conveyed to Richard Yeadon the plantation known by the name of Accabbee containing 407 acres and so far as the record shows the name of Rose of this family seems then to have disappeared. Yeadon on 8 May, 1818, conveyed to Copeland Stiles from whom it passed in 1827 to Christian Staley from whom it passed in 1836 to Edward C. Perronneau. During the ownership of Perronneau the name of the plantation was changed to "Orange Grove" and it was on 1 January, 1850, conveyed by Perronneau to the late Wm. McKenzie Parker as the plantation called "Orange Grove," with 1202 acres of marsh attached granted by a late grant. The plantation has since been known as Orange Grove and on the late maps the creek from the river through the marsh to the plantation high land originally called Ickerby or Accabbee creek is now styled Orange Grove creek.

Adjoining the Old Town plantation as granted to James Le Sade and to the Southwest of it was a tract of 200 acres granted 8 Sept. 1697, to Francis Blanshaw on the West side of Old Town creek bounding South on Capt. John Godfrey. In the grant to Capt. Godfrey the locality to the North is styled "Wespanee." This would appear to have been the Indian name of the locality. It is the first time it appears by name on the record. The name Wespanee if correctly so given in Godfrey's grant was soon modified to "Westpenny." From Francis Blanshaw the 200 acres passed to Peter Le Sade (brother of James) who later received by devise the Old Town plantation from his brother James. By the will of Peter Le Sade dated 9 Aug., 1716, he devised to his daughter Ann Girardeau the plantation containing 200 acres formerly belonging to Francis Blanshaw commonly called "West-penny" on the West side of the head of Old Town creek and also 250 acres to be taken off the Old Town plantation adjoining the Westpenny\textsuperscript{61} tract and beginning at the "creek of Westpenny."

This his son Peter Le Sade confirmed by a deed to his sister Ann who had since married Andrew Deveaux settling and defining the lines of the 250 acres taken off Old Town plantation.\textsuperscript{62}
This deed states that his sister at his father's death was the wife of John Girardeau who had since died and his widow had mar-rried Deveaux. Andrew Deveaux and his wife on 21 Sept\textsuperscript{r} convvey Westpenny (450 acres) to John Garnier who with his wife Magdalen immediately reconveyed to Andrew Deveaux.\textsuperscript{63}
It seems to have been owned by Mr Deveaux for many years. It was this Mr Deveaux who was the friend and neighbor of Miss Eliza Lucas and who is so frequently mentioned in the life of Miss Lucas by her descendant the late Mr St. Julien Ravenel.
The distance between Westpenny and Miss Lucas' home on Wappoo was but a few miles. Andrew Deveaux died 1754 for in that year a partition of certain of his property was had between his three sons Andrew, James, and John. How the plantation passed from Andrew Deveaux to Alexander Perronneau Mr does not appear on the record but in 1772 the latter appears as the owner on the partition map of Old Town plantation between Ann and Elizabeth Horry and in December, 1774, the property is sold as late the property of Alexander Perronneau Mr deceased for 424 acres to Isaac Peace\textsuperscript{64} who on 20 November, 1776, conveyed it to Mrs Elizabeth Branford in trust for Ann Horry wife of Thomas Horry for life and after her death to her heirs.\textsuperscript{65}

During the ownership of the Horrys sometime later than its purchase in 1776 the name of the place was changed from Westpanee or Westpenny to Fairfield. In 1785 Thomas Horry added to it 24 acres adjoining originally part of "Tiger Swamp" purchased from Thomas Godfrey and he also purchased from Charles Lining a space for a family burying ground on the small island in the marsh to the North of "Hillsborough," where the Linings also had a family burying ground.

After the death of Thomas Horry and his wife the plantations passed first to their son the late Elias Horry and after his death to his daughter Harriet the wife of the late Judge Edward Frost in whose descendants the place continued until 1904 when it was sold having been in Ann Horry and her descendants since 1776.

A LIST OF NONCOMMISSIONED OFFICERS AND PRIVATE MEN OF THE SECOND SOUTH CAROLINA CONTINENTAL REGIMENT OF FOOT.¹

Compiled by John Bennett.

The subjoined list of Continental soldiers, noncommissioned officers and private men of the rank and file, of the Second South Carolina Continental Regiment of Foot, and of a few others, of the First and Fifth South Carolina Continental Regiments, mentioned in the orders of the day, is compiled from the Orderly Book of Capt. Samuel DuBose, of the Second Regiment,² now in possession of DuBose Heyward, Esq., of Charleston, S. C.

The period covered by this orderly book extends from January 15 to November 22, 1777,³ during which time the 2d Regiment, Col. Isaac Motte, Lt. Col. Francis Marion, Major Peter Horry, with the 1st and 5th, Pinckney's and Huger's Regiments, was on garrison or post duty in and about Charleston and Dorchester. Col. Owen Roberts' Artillery were stationed at Ft. Johnson.⁴

The North Carolina troops under Col. Francis Nash, which had garrisoned Haddrell's Point,⁵ being withdrawn under orders to join Washington's army in the Jerseys, the Continental troops of South Carolina,⁶ two regiments of infantry,⁷ one of Rangers,⁸ a regiment of artillery,⁹ and two regiments of riflemen,¹⁰ remained on command in the garrison towns of Georgetown, Charles Town and Beaufort;\textsuperscript{11} while details from the several regiments did duty in Georgia.\textsuperscript{12}

² The book is stated to have been that of Isaac DuBose: Isaac DuBose, 1st Lieut., 2d Regt., resigned his commission in March: DuBose's Orderly Book, March 7th.

Of the Charles Town garrison, detachments were maintained at Haddrell’s Point magazine, Ft. Moultrie, Fort Johnson, and Dorchester.

Owing to the detached situation of these outpost defences, and to minimize the increasing friction arising from conflict of authority among mutually jealous commanding officers,\textsuperscript{13} General Robert Howe, of North Carolina, commanded in Town and at Ft. Johnson; General Gadsden, at Ft. Moultrie and Sullivan’s Island;\textsuperscript{14} and General Moultrie, Nash’s North Carolinians at Haddrell’s Point.\textsuperscript{15}

Though General Howe remained Commander-in-Chief, by seniority, in this Department, of the South, “until further orders to the contrary,” Gen. Moultrie took command of the Brigade\textsuperscript{16} which had been allotted to Howe by Gen. Moore.\textsuperscript{17} After the resignation of Brig. Gen. Gadsden, the 2d and 5th regiments were formed into a Brigade under Col. Isaac Huger.\textsuperscript{18}

From the troops garrisoned in the city, Town Guard, Magazine Guards and Barrack Guards\textsuperscript{19} were regularly maintained:\textsuperscript{20} at \textsuperscript{11} Moultrie’s \textit{Memoirs}, 190, 217.

\textsuperscript{12} In March, 700 Continental troops of South Carolina were sent into Georgia, leaving 400 or 500 for the defence of Charles Town, Georgetown and Beaufort: Moultrie, 190, 217. DuBose says 600 to Georgia; Feb. 26.

Guards were also maintained, by detachments, at Dorchester magazine, Cumming's Point magazine, and the magazine "at Pritchard's Place, on south-west City Point," "the Ship-yard at Hobcaw," and occasionally on Morris' Island, with varying periods of duty, relieved weekly, fortnightly or monthly. A guard from the Artillery corps was outposted at Beaufort, to relieve the militia, in whose charge the Beaufort magazine had been.

On February 23, by express-rider from Georgia, immediate aid was asked. Georgia had been invaded by a strong party from Florida: stated 1000 men, 500 regulars, 100 Florida Rangers, known as the Calybites, Scovillites, or refugees, a battery of field-pieces, and a body of Creek Indians; they had attacked one fort, Ft. McIntosh on the Satilla, garrisoned by Capt. Richard Winn and 50 men of the South Carolina Rangers, which had fallen; the enemy were fast advancing into the State; other forts were about to be evacuated; and immediate support was necessary, else Georgia was lost. regiments, and of the 4th Artillery, four guns, two schooners, a sloop and store-ship, with four weeks provision for 600 men, were instantly despatched to Georgia.\textsuperscript{40} Through lack, in part, of intelligent coöperation, in part of means and munitions of war, the allied expedition failed. The detachment under Col. Motte returned immediately to Charles Town.\textsuperscript{41}

In August a detachment\textsuperscript{42} was despatched to Edisto, to defend, against row-galleys of the enemy, and privateers out of St. Augustine, a vessel lying there, and to bring her into Charles Town; which they did.\textsuperscript{43}

Beyond these activities, indicated in DuBose, the story is for the more part one of dry routine and garrison duty. This was a period of trying inactivity,\textsuperscript{44} full of suppressed discontents and disagreements. Yet, though at first thought, b.o., g.o., and r.o., enemy were not stopped, would undoubtedly join them, and the probability of a Seaboard attack in a short time . . . made a critical situation of affairs.” Notwithstanding Howe’s statement, Baker’s Georgia Light Horse turned out, did active service, and were disastrously defeated at Nassau River, by the Florida Scouts, under Brown and McGirtt: Elbert, May 19th.

\textsuperscript{42} 1 subaltern, 1 sergeant, 25 rank and file: DuB., b.o., Aug. 22.

\textsuperscript{43} Edisto Inlet was particularly infested during the entire course of the war by privateers, “refugee boats,” and Row-Galleys, coming up from St. Augustine, seeking cattle for the garrison there, plunder of indigo and rice, and revenge. These “refugee boats” were long, low, uncovered pettiaugers, carried from 40 to 50 men, armed with muskets and boarding-pikes, and manned each with 24 oars, 12 sweeps to the side, and carried, each, a six-pounder in the bow and a four-pounder in the stern; they were rigged with sliding-gunter masts and latteen sails, very like the pirate galleys of the Mediterranean, and were usually manned by refugee royalists who had fled from the State, and by Mediterranean sailors from the Greeks at New Smyrna. Three of these galleys combined took a vessel of 10 guns with a fighting captain. The detachment from the 2d had its work cut out for it, had Mr. Galvan’s vessel of which they were in charge, been attacked, as they were but scantily supplied with ammunition, 12 rounds per man: Du B., Aug. 22.

\textsuperscript{44} Col. C. C. Pinckney, of the 1st, impatient of the continued inaction, and desiring active service in the field, joined Washington in the autumn of 1777, and was present at the battles of Brandywine and Germantown: McCrady, 310.
brigade, general, and regimental orders, principally concerned with guard detail and petty court-martial, would appear to offer little excitement, there is, not a deal, but some: quarrels and assaults among officers, over gambling debts; an apparent tragedy arising therefrom; mad frolics among tipsy soldiery at the New Barracks, and upon the adjacent Green, where races were run similar to the famous “Taking of Lungtungpen,” and other pranks and misdemeanours perpetrated, such as stealing silk stockings and fine linen shirts from the officers’ laundry, and having the worth of same estopped from their pays; fighting with citizen inhabitants; affronting the King’s adherents; stealing the parson’s fences; insulting the regimental chaplain; carrying parched and thirsty occupants of the guard-house surreptitiously to the dram-shop for Jamaica in the face of the regulations; stealing fruit from the officers’ servants; firing untimely salvos through the barrack windows; and in various other characteristic ways demonstrating the truth of Kipling’s statement that “single men in barracks don’t grow up to plaster saints.” The value of it all lies in the light it throws upon the gradual disintegration of military affairs between 1776 and 1780, when the storm broke upon a country unprepared.

It is to be noted that during this period of approximately ten months the roster of the regiment was never half full, although recruiting went on constantly, with a bounty offered by Congress increased by the State. The average enrollment of the regiment during the period covered by DuBose was 238 men fit for duty; 316 fit and unfit; so that the above list recovers the names of nearly as many men as were actually doing duty in the regiment.

Whatever may have been the character of these troops, theirs was no enviable condition. They were neither well-cared-for,

ORDER BOOK OF JOHN FAUCHERAUD GRIMKÉ
August 1778 to May 1780.

Fords Ferry, 16th May, 1779.

16: Parole, Ogle. C. S., Oak., Ore.
    Brigⁿ. Gen¹. for tomorrow, Gen¹. Butler.
    B. M. Major Lowry.

The Troops are to be in readiness to march this morning at Eight oClock with the Baggage loaded.

The Brigade Court Martial ordered by Gen¹. Butler for the Trial of Cap⁴. Barkley of the Nᵒ. Carolina Light Horse for Disobedience of Orders, have reported him guilty, & are unanimously of Opinion that the said Cap⁴. Barkley shall be cashiered—The General approves the Sentence.

The four Brigades of Infantry, the Artillery & Light Troops composing this Army will observe the following Order of Battle & March until further Orders.

The Troops of every Corps are to be told off and formed after their number, according to the Rules given for the formation of Troops.

The S. C. B. of Confederal Troops form the Right, the N. C. B. of Militia the Center & the N. C. B. of Confederal Troops the left of the first Line, with double Intervals between the Brigades vizᵃ. 60 paces, & no Interval at all between Regiments (the usual Intervals may be observed in the Order of Incampment.)

The first Line of Battle will be supported by Six Field Pieces posted about six yards in front of it, or at such other lesser Distance as the Nature of the Ground may require, one opposite to every Interval between the Brigades & two on each Wing.

The S. C. B. of Militia will be divided into two equal Bodies to compose the Second Line—those two Bodies will form for firing as they have been shewed before, opposite to the Interval of the Brigades of the front Line at the Distance of two hundred paces in the rear of it—The Georgia Troops will form at a hundred paces in the rear & opposite to the Interval of the S: C: B: of Militia, to act as a reserve—the remainder of the Artillery will be posted in the front & opposite to the Center of the Second Line, at such a Distance as Col° Roberts will think best—The Light Infantry & Light Horse will receive particular Orders from the Commander in Chief or the Brigadier Gen. of the Day, & be posted according to Exigencies.

The Troops will pass from the Order of Battle, to the Order of March by the right or left as follows.

1st. Advanced Guard.
2d. One Field piece.
3d. One Brigade of Confederal Troops.
4th. Two Field pieces.
5. Ammunition belonging to the three Pieces mentioned, & to the Brigade of Confederal Troops.
7. One Field Piece.
8. Ammunition belonging to that Piece & to the Brigade.
10. Another Field Piece.
11. Ammunition belonging to that piece to the S. C. B. of Militia & to the Confederal Brigade & Georgia Troops who are to follow.
12th. The other Brigade of Confederal Troops.
13th. The Georgia Troops.
14th. Spare Waggons for the Sick & Wounded & one half of the Artifices.
15th. Waggons loaded with Entrenching Tools.
16th. Provision Waggons.
17th. Hospital Waggons.
18th. Baggage of the Military Staff of the Army beginning with the Commander in Chief &c.
19th. Baggage of the Artillery.
20th. Baggage of the Line.
21st. Quarter Master Gen° & Stores & Waggons with the other half of the Artificers.
22d. One Field Piece.
23d. The rear Guards.
The Light Horse & Light Troops, will receive particular orders & Instructions relative to their place in the Order of March, from the Commander in Chief or Brigadier Gen\(^1\) of the Day. If they proceed the Column their Baggage will follow that of the Artillery, and when they march in the rear or on the Flank, it will come after that of the Army.

The Orders of the 10\(^{th}\) of February last, are to be strictly observed, with regard to the mode of marching the Troops; the advanced & rear Guards, their Flankers, those of the Line; the General Duties of the Officers of the Day; the Drums & Fifes of Brigades & the Signals to be given in order to regulate the March.

The South Carolina Brigade of Militia will always march from their Encampment by the Center of the Brigade, and pass to an Order of Battle as directed before. The Brigade Q\(^e\). M\(^r\). of each Brigade will rendezvous, with the Officer of the day at the Advanced Guard one hour after the Departure of the Troops, in order to reconnoitre with the Chief Engineer & Inspector, an Incampment for the Troops, & proper places for the Guards & Picquets, necessary to the Security of the Camp.

The Artillery although divided in the Line of March will encamp together, & in Case of Alarm be disposed quickly, as directed in these Orders.

Upon the March, a Discharge of a Field piece or the Advanced Guards, will be the Signal for the Line to halt, & hold themselves in readiness to form for Battle.

The Several Officers of the Line are to be answerable for the Soldiers marching ahead of the Column.

Camp Parker's Ferry.

17\(^{th}\) May, 1779.

Brigadier for tomorrow, Gen\(^1\). Williamson.
F O. L\(^e\). Col\(^o\). Lytle.
B. M. Cap\(^e\). Bowie.

The Army is to receive a Gill of Rum \(^9\) Man immediately.

A: O.

The Value of all property taken from the Enemy in arms, saving such as have been plundered from the Inhabitants, shall be divided among the Captors—The Commanding Officer of every party which had or shall take any property from the Enemy, will immediately deliver the same into the hands of the Q: M: G. who will appraise such Stores as are necessary for the Army & keep them for its use—That which belongs to the friendly Inhabitants, to be returned to them, all others to be sold by the Q: M. who is to be accountable for the proceeds.

No property is to be taken from any of the Inhabitants under an Idea of their being Tories, for if they have forfeited their Effects, it is to the State & not to Individuals. When the Safety & Interest of the public makes it necessary to secure the persons & property of the unfriendly, a Special Order will be given for that purpose.

No Horses are to be turned into any field of Corn or Grain, until notice is given by the Forage Master that the same hath been taken for the public use & appraised. Captains & Commanders of Companies are to read the above Orders to their Men.

The Gen¹. Court Martial of which Major Wise is president hath reported—Thomas Edwards charged with Desertion & having joined the Enemy—acquitted—The General approves the Sentence & directs the prisoner to return to his Duty.

   B. M. Capᵗ. Ladson.
   M: O. Capᵗ. Lining of the 1ˢᵗ S⁰ Carolina regᵗ. is appointed to act as Judge Advocate in the room of Capᵗ. Taylor.

The Georgia Light Dragoons, the N. C. Light Dragoons & the three Companies of N. C. Militia Light Horse, are to be incorporated under the command of Major Dekeyser.

The Army is to be in readiness to march in an hour, The Guards to be immediately paraded.

The Gen¹. Court Martial of which Major Wise is president have further reported Matthew Morrow of the 3ᵈ. S⁰. Carolina Reg. charged with Desertion.

The prisoner pleaded Guilty & was sentenced to receive one hundred Lashes on the bare back with Switches. The General approves the Sentence and directs the Execution as soon as the Army halts.
Three Miles from Parkers Ferry, Beech Hill road

18th May, 1779.

A.: O. A Musquet from the Park of Artillery at half an hour past three oClock tomorrow Morning will be the Signal for Tents to be Struck & Baggage loaded. The Discharge of another Musquet from the Park at half past four will be the Signal for the Line to move off the Ground.

The New Guards will be paraded & told off in time to march in front of the Line. The old Guards come in & form as soon as the first Musquet is discharged.

19: Camp, Bacon’s Bridge
   Parole, Rockingham, C.S: Roebuck, Ranger.
   Brig’t. Gen¹. for tomorrow, Gen¹. Sumner.
   Major for tomorrow, Major Armstrong.
   B: M. Cap⁴. Raiford.
   Four Light Horsemen are to be paraded with the Guards daily & to take their Orders from the Brig’t. Gen¹. or Field Officer of the day.
   A return to be made tomorrow Morning at 6 oClock of Officers non-commissioned & rank & file present fit for Duty.

20: Camp, Bacon’s Bridge
   Parole, Saunders. C. S. Steel, Steady.
   Brig’t. Gen¹. for tomorrow, Gen¹. Butler.
   Major Major Eaton,
   B. M: Major Lowry.

21. Camp at Bacon’s Bridge.
   Parole Temper. C: S. Time Tart.
   Brig’t. Gen¹. for tomorrow Gen¹. Williamson.
   Col⁰. for the day tomorrow L⁴. Col⁰. Kirkland.
   Major Major Pinckney
   B. M. Major Bowrie.

The Inconvenience which must unavoidably attend an Army incumbered with Baggage, are too obvious to require a particular Detail—The General hopes the bare mention thereof will be a Sufficient Inducement for the Gentlemen of the Army, to Subject themselves to a temporary Inconvenience, which in its Consequences may amply repay them.

He thinks a Portmanteau of necessary Cloaths, a Case of Liquor to a Mess & a Waggon to fifty men, will curtail the Line of Waggons, without unnecessarily distressing the Army.

Camp at Bacon's Bridge

   Major for tomorrow Major Owens.
   B: M.
   Cap. Ladson.

The Army will be in readiness to march at ten oClock this Morning with Baggage loaded.

Eleven oclock. The Troops are to be served with two days Rations of Beef which must be cooked immediately.

Ten oClock in the Evening.

For Command immediately Lt. Col. Henderson, Major Wise, eight Captains, twelve Subalterns, Sixteen Sergeants & four hundred Rank & file, to be ready to march precisely at three oClock tomorrow Morning.

The Troops are to be under Arms tomorrow Morning at half past three.

   Brig. Genl. for tomorrow Gen. Butler

OLD CHARLES TOWN AND ITS VICINITY, ACCABEE AND WAPPOO WHERE INDIGO WAS FIRST CULTIVATED, WITH SOME ADJOINING PLACES IN OLD ST. ANDREWS PARISH.

BY HENRY A. M. SMITH.

Lying to the Southeast of Albemarle Point, across the creek and marsh, was another point or tract of land which was taken up by the Lords Proprietors for a farm or plantation to be cultivated at their expense, and for their own personal profit, or loss, as the case might be. Their first agent for that purpose was Joseph West afterwards Governor and Landgrave. When the expedition to settle the Province was about to sail instructions were issued to West to furnish himself with "Cotton seed, Indigo Seed, Ginger Roots, wh roots you are to carry planted in a tubb of earth, y they may not dye before yo arrivall att Port-Royall; alsoe you may in another tubb carry some Canes planted for a tryall—alsoe of ye several sorts of vines of that Island & some Ollive setts."

On arrival he was to take up as much land for the Proprietors, uses as would come to at 150 acres per head of 30 servants.

"On this Land you are to Cause to be erected convenient housing for Yo selfe & yo Servants, making them warm & tyte . . . . . As soon as yo houses are built you are to sett yo people to falling and clearing yo[r] land. . . . planting Indian Corne, Beanes, Pease, Turnipps, Carretts, & Potatoes for Provisions. . . . you are never to thinke of making any Comodity yo[r] business further than for experience sake & to have yo[r] stock of it for planting encrease till yo[u] have sufficiently provided for yo[r] belly by planting store of provisions w'h must in all your contrivances be looked upon by yo[u] as yo[r] foundation of yo[r] plantation. Iff yo[u] have time yo[u] may fence in a small piece of ground for ye reception of ye Cattle we shall cause to be brought from Virginia, and to putt them in all night. 66

It was evidently the intention of the Proprietors that this “experimental farm” (preceding by over two centuries those which the State of South Carolina has of late initiated) was for three purposes, viz: for helping to provide food for the infant settlement, then as a means of furnishing seeds and stock for sale to intending settlers wherewith to begin their own agricultural operations, as well as for the ascertaining for the common benefit the proper crops suitable to the climate and soil and the right seasons for planting and cultivating in this new region. Perhaps also for the profit in the planting enterprise itself in the sale of its products. The profit apparently really looked forward to by the Lords Proprietors in incurring the great expense of planting and supporting a colony to take up the lands in this new country was to arise from the inducing settlers to come who would purchase or lease the lands and develop the Province.

Upon the arrival of the expedition at Albemarle Point, West seems to have at once followed his instructions. The place selected by him lay across the creek and marsh from Albermarle Point to the Southeast. It was the same place known in later years as “Hillsborough” plantation and is now in large part the site of a negro village or settlement called “Maryville.”

According to the general plan made by Culpepper in 1671 there was taken up at that place for the purposes of a plantation for the Proprietors 420 acres, the houses and cleared land were upon the high land at the junction of the creek and the river. There is another map made by Culpepper, 7 March, 1672/3 showing 44½ acres being the “Plott of the Lords Prop[rietors] plant.” representing the “cleare Land belonging to the Lords proprietors of this Province wherein Colo. Joseph West now Liveth. This map shows a rail fence around, with the buildings and gardens in front towards the river.

West wrote in 1670 that some live cattle had been brought from Virginia of which he kept some for the plantation, and that the corn and other things planted at their first coming were thriving well but that the garden seeds were not good. The next spring viz: 21 March 1670/1 West wrote to Lord Ashley:

"Now I shall give yo' Honn^ a briefe Acco^ of yo' owne Plantacon. I have taken up for present planting about 300 Akers of ground. I have cleared this yeare about 30 Akers and built convenient Houses for ourselves & serv^s and Inclosed the Houses w^th Pallisadoes w^th doth containe betweene 6 & 700 foote and have se3 placed them y^ one Angle shall clear another soe y^ wee doe not feare all y^ Indians y^ shall attempt us. . . . one Capt. Godfrey arrived here from Barbadoes to manage S^ Peter Colletons interest in yo^ Partnerships, who I believe to be a very honest man and a good Planter, I am very glad of his assistance. . . . Wee intend to plant most of our ground this yeare with provisions, it being the Life of a new settlement to provide in the first place for the belly. . . . Our stock doth thrive very well especially Hoggs." 69

The house—the chief house—on this plantation was occupied by West who seems to have continued to occupy it after he became Governor in the spring of 1671, and whilst he was Governor during his first two administrations and perhaps until his retirement in 1682. In the minutes of the Grand Council for 9th Sept^ 1675 it is spoken of as "the Lords propio^s plantation where the Governor now resides" and again in the minutes of 11 Sept^, 1675 as "the Lords proprietors plantation whereon the Governor now dwells." 70

West was the agent of the Lords Proprietors, managing their planting enterprise at the same time that he was the Governor of the Colony. His occupancy may have been in the first capacity. But the residence thereon whilst the seat of government continued at Old Charles Town was so identified with the governorship that the point on which the house was located was called “Governor’s Point,” the creek between it and the Town was called “Governor’s Creek,” and on the maps of the period the house is marked and designated as “Governor’s House.”

To provide for ready communication between the Proprietors plantation and the Town on Albemarle Point a bridge at the public expense was proposed and seems to have been built across the creek and marsh. Quite an undertaking even for a much older and more assured settlement than that at Albermarle Point in 1672. It was probably a simple bridge of the “squared foot log” kind supported on stilts or braces over the marsh.

When the seat of government was transferred to Charles Town on the Oyster Point the Governor’s residence at the plantation of the Proprietors probably ceased. It was in all respects more desirable for him to reside in the newtown. Much later—in 1712—the General Assembly of the Province purchased a piece of land and constructed a mansion for the Governor at the site of the present Country Club just above Magnolia Cemetery which was known as the Governor’s house and in 1721 was sold to Governor Robert Johnson. The planting enterprise of the Lords Proprietors does not seem to have been profitable In June, 1675 the Earl of Shaftsbury writing to the Governor and Council says, “I make this faire proposall to you that if you and the people there undertake to pay what is owing from us to Coll. West and cleare those debts which have been contracted by yourselves and charged upon us in Carolina or elsewhere I doubt not but to prevail with the rest of the L^ds Prop^rs to forgive you all the debts you owe us, and for a part of satisfaction to Coll. West to throw in our private plantacon too, that he hath hitherto managed for us and therewith put an End to our Bargain with him as our Store-keeper or Agent.”

This offer the Governor and Council seem to have declined.

What was subsequently done for some years about the plantation does not appear upon the record. The Shaftsbury papers terminate in date about 1675. The Province seems soon to have become self supporting so far as provision “for y^ belly” was concerned and there is nothing to show that any Agent to conduct the enterprise was appointed after Governor West's retirement, which appears to have been about 1682. The next thing that appears upon the now accessible record with regard to the area taken up for the Proprietors plantation is a grant to John Godfrey for 518 acres made 14 July 1696/7.\textsuperscript{74} This grant according to its boundaries took up the entire area (and more) covered by the lines of the Proprietors plantation as shown on Culpeppers map of 1671. A copy of Culpeppers map is the frontispiece to the fifth volume of the \textit{Collections of the Historical Society of South Carolina}. The frontispiece to the \textit{Year Book} of the City of Charleston for 1883 is a map of the vicinity of the City of Charleston with the lines of settlements and lands taken up, laid down according to the lines given on Culpeppers map.

On 11 May, 1699 another grant was made to John Godfrey for 974 acres.\textsuperscript{75} This grant according to its boundaries covered the same land included in the prior grant for 518 acres with a very large addition. It seems to have included not only the Proprietors' private plantation but also the lands marked on Culpepper's map as having been laid out for Thomas Finden, Teague, Oliver Spencer, Joseph Dowden, Capt. Giles Hall, Samuel Boswood and others and John Maverick & Company. Why the private plantation of the Lords Proprietors was thus turned over to John Godfrey the records we have do not disclose. As has been seen its operation does not appear to have been profitable. The Earl of Shaftsbury the most active of the Proprietors in forwarding the colony had as early as 1675 settled for himself a seignory of 12,000 acres near the head of Ashley river and was engaged in its development.\textsuperscript{76}

Sir Peter Colleton, another active Proprietor, had a seignory of 12,000 acres laid out for himself at Fairlawn near the head of Cooper river.\textsuperscript{77} None of the other proprietors seem to have taken any very active interest in the working of this private plantation, and as we have seen in 1675, they were willing to turn it over with its houses and improvements to Coll. West in part satisfaction of his claims. It is possible that the lands like the lots at Albemarle Point were given up in order to be regranted: or it may be there was some debt due to John Godfrey or his father in consideration.

of which he was allowed to take out a grant of the property. In 1671 Col. John Godfrey, the father of the new grantee, had been sent out to the Colony to look after Sir Peter Colleton's interest in the management of the plantation and there may have been some claim on his part which was recognized for his son. The houses and improvements were probably not of any great value.

The first mention of the first John Godfrey the writer has found on the record in South Carolina, shows him as in 1665 living in All Saints Parish in Barbadoes in possession of a plantation and negroes and carrying on a sugar manufacturing business in copartnership with Thomas Dowden. He is then styled "Captain." He came to the Province about May, 1671 as the representative of Sir Peter Colleton and to assist Governor West in the management of the Proprietors private plantation.

On his coming to the Province, he is styled "Capt. John Godfrey" in the minutes of the Grand Council in which he sat as a deputy and so continues to be styled until the minutes of 6 July, 1672 when he is styled "Major" until the minutes of 22 July, 1672 when he is styled "Lieut. Coll.," but to what his advancement in rank was due does not appear. He took a very active part in the affairs of the Province and was evidently a capable man. He received several grants one for 330 acres on Wando river on the East side of that river and one for 300 acres "near Charles Town" dated 24 Octr. 1677. As in 1677 "Charles Town" meant the town at Albemarle Point it must have been located on the South side of the Ashley river although the location is not stated definitely in the grant. Lt. Col. John Godfrey died about 1691 leaving a son generally styled "Capt. John Godfrey" and it was to this last that the abovementioned grant for 974 acres was made. A number of grants were made to him in the same vicinity about that time, viz:

79 Printed Journal of Grand Council, p. 3.
80 Grant Bk., Vol. 38, p. 50.
81 Ibid., p. 34.
The grant made 6 Ocr, 1704 for 370 acres is a good illustration of how at that date grants were made and abandoned and the lands then regranted. On 27 Sept, 1677 a grant was made to Sir Peter Colleton, and his two brothers of 373 acres described as “near unto Ashley River commonly called by the natives by the name of Waheawah.” The Colletons took possession and no doubt occupied it for it apparently lay on the small creek that runs into Wappoo creek from the North and which has ever since been known as Colleton Creek or Mill Creek. They apparently abandoned it and on 2 April, 1679 a grant was made to John Stephens of 370 acres “upon a marsh being a branch of Wappoo Creek” which apparently was the same as the Colleton grant. Whether by abandonment or sale, Stephens seems to have given it up and on 28 Ocr 1696 a grant was made to Col. Robert Gibbes of 370 acres near Ashley river on the North side of Wappoo Creek bounding North on “Yantee” plantation, apparently the Indian name for the Proprietors private plantation on which the Colleton grant should originally have bounded to the North and which this Gibbes grant seems to have succeeded.

Gibbes in turn abandoned or sold for on 6 Ocr, 1704 a grant is made to Capt. John Godfrey for 370 acres on a marsh of Wappoo Creek which as near as can be computed by comparing other grants must have occupied the position of the original Colleton grant of Waheawah.

Capt. John Godfrey died about 1717 leaving a will whereby he devised 500 acres from his lands on Ashley river to his oldest son the third John Godfrey and the remainder to his widow for life and at her marriage or death to go to his surviving children to be equally divided among them. The will was not executed in proper form to be valid to devise his lands which accordingly descended to his eldest son and heir the third John Godfrey. This last to carry out his fathers will nevertheless had the lands surveyed out and after setting off the 500 acres devised to himself had the remainder divided out in seven equal shares of 224 acres each and allotted them one to each of his father's surviving children viz to John Godfrey himself, to his brothers Richard Godfrey, and Benjamin Godfrey, and to his four sisters, Jane who married first James Stanyarne and secondly — Monger, Mary who married William Cattell, Elizabeth who married first Charles Hill a Chief Justice of the Province and second Samuel Quincy; and Sarah who married Benjamin Whitaker also a Chief Justice of the Province. A copy of the plat showing the subdivisions is recorded in the Mesne Conveyance office for Charleston County. Of the 500 acres for himself under his fathers Will there was set aside to John Woodward (a grandson of Lt. Col. John Godfrey and first cousin of John Godfrey 3) 350 acres under some arrangement or sale between them. The 1568 acres divided between the surviving children of Capt. John Godfrey were allotted as follows:

Lot № 1 to Benjamin Godfrey.
Lot № 2 to Elizabeth Hill.
Lot № 3 to John Godfrey.
Lot № 4 to Jane Stanyarne.
Lot № 5 to Richard Godfrey.
Lot № 6 to Mary Cattell.
Lot № 7 to Sarah Whitaker.

Lot № 2 which fell to Elizabeth Hill was by John Godfrey her brother conveyed to Charles Hill her husband 15 August 1719. Hill also purchased from John Woodward 70½ acres of that part of the 350 acres which John Godfrey had conveyed to Woodward being the part covering the "Governors Point." He also purchased from Benjamin Godfrey 6 acres, a small triangle, off lot No. 1 which had fallen to Benjamin Godfrey. The part so acquired by Hill aggregating some 300½ acres was occupied by Hill during his life and then acquired the name of "Hillsborough" and included "Governor's Point,"—and the greater part of the Proprietors original private plantation. After the death of Charles Hill about 17—his widow acquired the rest of Benjamin Godfreys lot No. 1 and the plantation at her death passed to her daughter Sarah Hill who married Dr. John Lining. Charles Hill was the Chief Justice of the Province 1722—1724, just after the revolution which overthrew the Proprietary Government. He was long a prominent citizen in the Province. On 29 December, 1710 there was executed a mortgage from Charles Hill of Kingston in Jamaica appointing his wife "Jone Hill now at Hillgrove plantation neare Charles Towne in South Carolina "to manage "my plantation Called Hillgrove near Charles Towne in South Carolina." Whether this was the same Charles Hill and "Jone" his then wife the writer has not been able to determine. He married Elizabeth Godfrey in January, 1714.

94 Bk. M. M., supra.

Dr. John Lining who married Sarah Hill was a physician of high standing in Charlestown, and the ancestor of the family of that name in lower Carolina. A sketch of his life and accomplishments will be found in Ramsay's Hist. of So. Ca., Vol. 2, pp. 111–481, and in McCrady's Hist. of S. C. under the Royal Government, p. 414.

The Hillsborough plantation continued in the Lining family until 1 January, 1834 when it was sold by the Executrix of Charles Lining the last owner of the name who up to his death had still occupied it as his residence and home. From the first grant in 1699 to 1834 it had been in John Godfrey and his descendants. The family burial place of the Linings (and it may be of the Hills and Godfreys) was on a small island in the marsh just north of the plantation on which there was a large vault. This vault was broken open according to report by a marauding party of the enemy after the evacuation of Charleston in 1865 and the contents rifled and desecrated. It presented in the present writer's early years a most melancholy sight and became so the scene of irreverent and spoliating visits that some years ago as the writer was informed a member of the Lining family had the contents all securely buried and the walls of the vault levelled.

It was on this Island that Charles Lining in 1801 sold to Thomas Horry the then occupier of the "Fairfield" or "Westpenny" plantation a family burial place.

By the Executrix of Charles Lining the Hillsborough plantation was sold to Edward B. Fishburne who sold to Elisha McBurney and after some intermediate conveyances the plantation became the property of the late Alexander H. Brown of Charleston. From him it passed to C. C. Bowen sometime Sheriff of Charleston County during the Carpet-bag or Republican (in its obnoxious party meaning in the South between 1868-1876) ascendancy by whose widow it was in large part divided up and sold out to negroes and the private plantation of the Lords Proprietors has thus become the site of a negro settlement or village generally now called "Maryville." Of the 350 acres so conveyed to John Woodward he conveyed on 11 May, 1723, 193\frac{1}{2} acres to Richard Woodward at whose death in April, 1725 it passed under his will to his daughter Mary Woodward, but his widow Mrs. Sarah Woodward, who was the guardian and Trustee of her daughter resided on the place.\(^{102}\)

This plantation immediately adjoined the plantation of Col. George Lucas on Wappoo where his daughter Miss Eliza Lucas then resided with her mother and this M\(^{ra}\) Woodward was the friend of that name referred to in the life of Eliza Lucas by M\(^{ra}\) Ravenel.

This place was subsequently acquired by William Harvey passed under his will about 1783 to Charles Elliott and a large part of it was purchased before the late war by the late William Ravenel of Charleston. The place where the house now stands would appear from the old maps to be the place where it stood in M\(^{ra}\) Woodward's time.

Lot N\(^{o}\) 3 fell to John Godfrey whose eldest son John (John Godfrey 4\(^{th}\)) died intestate without children so that his lands including lot N\(^{o}\) 3 went to his uncle Richard Godfrey as heir at \(^{102}\) Memorial Bk., N\(^{o}\). 5, p. 329.

Richard Godfrey had already purchased from his sister Jane Stanyarne 200 acres of lot N° 4 which fell to her and on 19 Sept' 1752 he conveyed to Dr. John Lining 200 acres of N° 3 and 106 acres of N° 4. The plantation so conveyed of 306 acres was ever after (and no doubt before) known as "Tiger Swamp" plantation or as spelled on the old plats "Tyger Swamp" probably a relic of the days when the cougar locally called "tiger" still hung around the settlement. By Dr. John Lining's Will "Tiger Swamp" passed to his wife Sarah Lining. On 19 May, 1761 Mrs. Sarah Lining conveyed "Tiger Swamp" to Francis Rose of Accabee who seems to have turned it over to his son Thomas Rose in his life time and in his will devises it to his two grand-daughters Elizabeth Clark Saunders Rose and Mary Ann Blake Rose the daughters of his son Thomas Rose as his land in St. Andrews Parish 307 acres whereon his son Thomas usually resided. It seems to have been allotted in some way to Elizabeth Saunders Rose who married Dr. Edward Lynah for on 1 March 1799 Dr. Lynah and his wife conveyed it to Peter Smith whose representatives Ann Smith and Benjamin John Smith on 4th Febry 1828 conveyed it to Edward Moodie from whom it passed on 18 March 1834 to Gilbert Geddes.

Richard Godfrey to whom lot N° 5 fell apparently acquired lot N° 6 from his sister Mary Cattell and lot N° 7 which fell to Sarah Whitaker had been on 2 July, 1722 transferred to her brother John Godfrey at the death of whose son John without issue it apparently went to his uncle Richard Godfrey as heir at law so that Richard thus became possessed of lots 5, 6, and 7 aggregating 672 acres. Lot 7 was apparently disposed of by him or his descendants intact as 224 acres for as such it was owned at the close of the eighteenth century by Jane Elizabeth Dill under the name of "Silk Hope." By her it was sold to George Rivers who sold to Benjamin Stiles who in 1822 sold to Edward B. Lining and it has been since transferred to different successive owners. By some curious transmutation the name on the latest deeds has been changed from "Silk Hope" to "Sylcope." From lot 6 Richard Godfrey sold 106 acres to Dr. John Lining\(^{108}\) which thereafter formed a part of Tiger Swamp plantation and the remainder of lot 6 with lot 5 became later subdivided into two plantations the Westernmost known as Littlebury and the Easternmost as "Godfreys" or "Quartermans" and later as "Geddes Hall" after both of them together with Tiger Swamp became in the first quarter of the nineteenth century the property of John Geddes.

The tract of 350 acres conveyed to John Woodward by John Godfrey or that part of it which was not embraced in the conveyance to Richard Woodward, being the part on Ashley River together with the adjoining 150 acres reserved by John Godfrey passed later to William Harvey and from him to Thomas Elliott and then apparently shortly before or after 1800 to John Hume who in 1823 gave it to his daughter Ann Simons wife of Sedgwick Lewis Simons.\(^{109}\) Mrs. Simons in 1851 conveyed it to the late J. E. Moore Mitchell who in 1852 sold to Miss Martha Prioleau. The place was long the residence of William Harvey. There is nothing now left on the site of the old house but a foundation of "tabby" or "tapia" work; but 40 years ago there could still be seen the remnants of a considerable garden and settlement. It is the intervening house site between the old residence of the late George I. Crafts just North of the public road to the bridge and the Hillsborough house site.

The point of land on the North side of Wappoo Creek at its junction with Ashley River before referred to in this article as erroneously at one time confused with Albemarle Point was according to Culpepper's map of 1671 designated as held by Sir John Yeamans to the extent of 70 acres. There Sir John Yeamans, who was Governor of the Province 1672-1674 had a "Countrey house" palisaded and garrisoned by his negroes.\(^{110}\) What disposition was made by Sir John Yeamans of this property does not appear upon the record. He makes no mention of it in his Will\(^{111}\) and indeed acquired it only after the date of his will. It may have been disposed of during his life (he died in 1674\(^{112}\)) or passed as undevised land to his eldest son Sir William Yeamans. Either by the latter or some subsequent holder it would appear to have been abandoned for on 6 Oct 1681 a warrant was issued reciting that “upon consideracon had of the Petition of Mr Robert Gibbs the 2d day of June, 1681 exhibited to the Governoe and Council it was thereupon ordered that the s'd Mr Gibbs may be admitted to plant, settle, cultivate and possess that tract of land called Wappooe plantacon now deserted and lying vacant and uninhabitted” and directing the Surveyor General “to cause to be admeasured unto the s'm' Robert Gibbs the said tract of land called Wappoh plantacon.”

An account of Robert Gibbes and the Gibbes family has been published in this magazine.

Under this warrant a grant was on 1st March 1681/2 issued to “Robert Gibbs, Gentleman” for “a plantation conteyning two hundred and fourteen acres of land english measure now in the possession of the said Robert Gibbs seítuate upon the West side of Ashley river.”

On 16 July, 1703 another grant was made to Robert Gibbes for 400 (or 200) acres adjoining the grant for 214 acres. These two tracts aggregating 414 acres were by Robert Gibbes about 1710 donated to his son William Gibbs who in 8 Aug. 1716 transferred them by way of marriage settlement (upon his marriage to Alice Culcheth) to Robert White, William Gibbon, and Thomas Broughton, all of whom on 22 June 1725 joined in a conveyance of the 414 acres to “William Harvey of Charles Town Butcher.”

On William Harveys death under his will the property passed to his sons Benjamin and Arnold Harvey who later conveyed to their brother John Harvey to whom his father had devised an adjoining 200 acres purchased from the estate of Benjamin Godfrey so that John Harvey held the 414 acres formerly of Robert Gibbes and 200- acres formerly of Benjamin Godfrey. How long John Harvey held these lands the writer has not ascertained certainly as late as 1762 when he mortgaged them to his brother William Harvey but they passed to Edward Fenwicke sometime prior to March, 1780. The deed does not appear on record but the land had been in Fenwicke's ownership long enough prior to the siege of Charleston in 1780 for the point to be known as "Fenwicke's Point" by which name it was known when the British on 12th March 1780 constructed a battery on "Fenwicke's Point."

An account of this Edward Fenwicke and his descendants has been given in a former number of this Magazine. Fenwicke seems to have owned about 1007 acres including the 414 acres granted to Gibbes and 200 acres or more part of the Godfrey lands with considerable marsh land.

In 1811, Mrs Martha Gadsden, a daughter of Edward Fenwicke, instituted proceedings in the Court of Common Pleas for a partition of these lands among the heirs of Fenwicke and the 1007 acres was laid out in a large number of subdivided tracts, over 20 in number and sold out on 3rd March, 1812 to different purchasers.

Several of the subdivisions were purchased by William Crafts, the eminent lawyer and orator of his day, and appear to have formed his county seat, which passed to his son the late George I. Crafts who possessed it for many years. The house was in a grove of live oaks on the side of the marsh of Ashley river just North of the public road leading to the bridge.

The same Robert Gibbes had, shortly before obtaining this grant for 214 acres, obtained a grant on 5 October, 1681 for a tract of 547 acres "upon Wappoe commonly called the Bluff bank or Cowpen plantation." The tract included in this grant lay South of Colleton Creek running thence South along Wappoo creek to a point beyond the "cut" from the head of Wappoo into Stono river. How and when this tract of 547 acres passed from Robert Gibbes or his heir the writer has not been able to find upon the record but the tract next appears in the ownership of John Lucas of the Island of Antigua who seems to have owned it as early as May 1713. John Lucas had quite extended landed interests in Carolina, viz., a plantation of 1500 acres on Combahee river, called Garden City, this Bluff plantation on Wappoo Creek 118 McCrady, Hist. of S. C. 1775–1789, p. 446.

121 Grant Book, Vol. 38, p. 32.
estimated at 600 acres and 2950 acres on Waccamaw river all of which at his death seem to have passed to his son George Lucas afterwards the "Honorable Lieut. Col. George Lucas Lieut. Governor of the Island of Antigua" who in 1746 owned all these lands together with 86 slaves in Carolina.

The historical interest of the plantation on Wappoo is that upon it, Col. Lucas' daughter, Miss Eliza Lucas, made the experiments in the cultivation of indigo which assisted largely in the development of its cultivation in the Province. Miss Lucas was not the first person in the Province by any means to attempt the cultivation of indigo but her crops planted under the supervision of a skilled cultivator showed how it could be grown to best results. It was on this plantation on Wappoo creek that Miss Lucas and her mother lived in Carolina and the account of her life upon it and of her labours in its cultivation are given in her letters to be found in her life written by her descendant the late M* St. Julien Ravenel published in 1896.

The exact site of the house she lived in is difficult to place with certainty as it doubtless disappeared long ago but on the oldest map of the plantation found by the writer (viz., the plat annexed to the deed to John Drayton in 1770) there is a spot marked "old house" which is designated on the map accompanying this Article and which in all probability was the site of the Lucas dwelling. The fields around it were the scenes of her agricultural labours and experiments.

Col. Lucas had upon his Wappoo plantation according to a mortgage from him to Charles Dunbar in 1738, 20 slaves—12 able bodied men and 8 able bodied women. It was whilst Miss Lucas was living in Carolina that the charming episode of her marriage took place to Charles Pinckney sometime Chief Justice of the Province. Col. Lucas desired to settle on his daughter as her dowry the Wappoo plantation and 20 "working slaves" subject to a mortgage debt of £350—sterling but unfortunately he seems to have been too heavily embarrassed financially and the property all apparently went to his creditors, his daughter's contemplated dowry with the rest. Happily the merit of the lady was such as to render to her husband the addition of a dowry quite immaterial whilst she herself gave to her country in the services of her distinguished sons a donation beyond price.

In 1746 Col. Lucas had mortgaged to Charles Alexander of the Island of Antigua all his lands in Carolina with his 86 slaves there and 20 slaves in Antigua. Under this mortgage the Wappoo plantation must have passed to the mortgage creditor for on 12 April, 1770 Charles Alexander conveyed to John Drayton the plantation on Wappoo "formerly belonged unto George Lucas deceased and is now Legally Vested in the said Charles Alexander." At the death of John Drayton his Executors under the directions of his Will to sell his plantation at Wappoo "formerly Col. Lucas'" sold to William Harvey one hundred and forty-eight acres of the Eastern part and the remainder of 446 acres including the house site was on 6th November 1775 sold to Thomas Rose and thereafter passed into the ownership of Edward Blake whose daughter Miss Mary (commonly designated as Polly) Blake, Thomas Rose had married, en second noces, and by whom he had one daughter, Mary Ann Blake Rose who married Capt. William Miles of St. Andrews Parish.

Edward Blake had played quite a prominent part in the revolutionary war in South Carolina. He was first Commissioner of the Board of Naval Commissioners and as such had greatly the control of the Navy of South Carolina in the War. At Blake's death the plantation i.e. the 446 acres was divided into two between two of his children his son John Blake and daughter Sarah wife of the Revd Dr Henry Purcell but both tracts were subsequently reunited in Edward Sebring who in November 1861 sold to John Thomson who in 1888, conveyed to John N. Voorhees.

Northwest of "Old Town" plantation, or rather Northwest of the grant to William Branford of 150 acres in 1694 lay the plantation of the original Stephen Bull who came out in the very first ship and settled on the Ashley river.

It was composed of 400 acres granted to Stephen Bull 28 Oct' 1676 (but which had evidently been taken up and settled by him prior to that date) and 100 acres adjoining granted in January 1694/5. These lands passed to his son William Bull who added an adjoining tract of 580 acres granted to him 14 May 1707. From William Bull the plantation passed under his Will to his son the second William Bull. A full account of the Bull family and of the prominent positions held in and the services performed for the Province by the three first of the name will be found in a former number of this Magazine (Vol. 1, p. 76). From the last named William Bull the property passed under his will to his nephew William Bull and from him it passed to his son, William Stephen Bull, and from him to his son, the late William Izard Bull in whose possession it continued until after 1870. Then in consequence of the losses inflicted on him by the war of 1861–1865 the plantation was sold away having continued in the male line of the Bull family without a break from the first settlement of the Province for a period of 200 years.

This Bull estate has been always known as "Ashly Hall." It is mentioned by that name in the Memorial of William Bull dated 12 July 1763 and doubtless was so known at a much earlier date.

Northwest of the Bull place or Ashley Hall and separated from it by a creek originally known by the Indian name of Weepoolaw or Wappalaw creek, was a tract of 510 acres originally granted to George Bedon (or Beadon) on 23 February, 1677, who on the 26 December, 1683 conveyed it to George Hewes, whose Executor John Stevens on 16 May, 1694 conveyed it to Henry Symonds or Symond. Symonds died shortly after and his widow Frances Symonds on 8 June 1695 conveyed it to "Benjamin Pierpont, Gentleman." There is no grant on record to George Bedon but a new grant for the 510 acres was made to Benjamin Pierpont on the 14 October, 1696.

A Benjamin Pierpont was a minister of the Congregational Church in Charlestown who is stated to have come to the Province from New England in 1691. If he was the grantee of the 510 acres on the Ashley river then he enjoyed the property for a very brief time for it is said he died in 1698. Nevertheless his name survived as the name of the plantation which is still known as "Pierponts." It is therefore probable that after his death the property continued in some descendant or member of his family of the same name as for many years in the boundaries of adjoining lands in old deeds and on old plats, the tract is described as "Pierponts" land. The writer has not ascertained on the record how and when the property passed from Benjamin Pierpont or his descendants but in 1789 it was owned by Thomas Fuller of St. Andrews Parish who by his will made in that year devised it to his son Christopher Fuller. At Christopher Fuller's death the property was in 1824 sold to Simon Magwood and thereafter contrary to the usual course of country property in lower Carolina, changed hands in quick successions. By Simon Magwood it was in 1827 given to his son James H. Magwood who in 1847 conveyed to Ralph Izard Middleton, the elder, from whom in 1850 it passed to Dr. T. L. Ogier, who in 1853 conveyed it to Joseph Prevost, who in 1855 conveyed to Charles Kerrison who about 188- conveyed it to the late Robert N. Gourdin, Esq., of Charleston.

The general map published with this article is all based on old plats of the properties. The division of the Godfrey property made by the third John Godfrey in 1721 being among the earliest. The map of the enclosed part of the Proprietors private plantation is a reduced copy of Culpepper's map of 1671.

HISTORICAL NOTES.

THE BURIAL PLACE OF THE REVEREND WILLIAM SCREVEN.

130 feet

The above plat and following abstracts from the records in Charleston, locate the burial place of the Rev. William Screven, the Baptist minister, who came to South Carolina from Kittery, Maine, about 1698, and died at what is now Georgetown, S. C., in 1713.

William Screven married, June 23, 1674, Bridget Cutts, of Maine. He is said to have been born in 1629, if so, then Bridget Cutts was possibly a second wife. There are several Screvens to be found in the early records here, whose names are not given in the Cutts Genealogy, and whose relationship to the Rev. William Screven have not been found.

Permanous Screven had a grant of 500 acres in Berkley County, 6th Nov. 1704, north on Aaron Screven, South on Champernoun Elliott, east and west not laid out.

Aaron Screven, grant of 300 acres in Berkley County South on Permanous Screven, other sides vacant; 6th Nov. 1704.

Savill Screven married Martha Bremar, April 29, 1718, and his widow married Theodorus Tresevant, Feb. 24, 1720/1.

LETTERS TO GENERAL GREENE AND OTHERS

The following letters are printed from the originals in the possession of Arthur M. Rutledge, Esq., of Louisville, Kentucky. They came to him among his father's papers. His father was the late Major Arthur Middleton Rutledge, C.S.A., of Nashville, Tennessee, who was the son of Henry Middleton Rutledge, Esq., originally of Charleston, South Carolina, who moved early in the last century to Tennessee, and who was the only son of Edward Rutledge, of South Carolina, who was a member of the Continental Congress which made the Declaration of Independence of Fourth July, 1776, and was one of the signers of that instrument. At the time of his death in 1799 he was Governor of the State of South Carolina. These letters may have been a part of his papers, although nothing definite is known by the present owner of the letters as to how they came into the possession of the family. He has kindly allowed the Society to publish all that it may consider to be of historical interest.

[GEN. SUMTER TO GEN. GREENE]

Mr. Price's 29th January, 1781.

Dr. Sir,

I have received your favours of the 8th one without a date & of the 15th & 19th Ins.

You express a desire of seeing me again in the field, I am happy to know, that the service for which you most Immediately wanted me, is no longer needfull, & Genl. Morgan has fortunately relieved you from your apprehensions for his safety, by defeating Coll. Tarleton, a circumstance of great consequence, upon which I must beg leave, most heartily to congratulate you. The Methods I use to obtain Intelligance may probably answer, but I am short in very special requisites for that purpose, when I had the Honour of a conference with if I discovered any injudicious thirst for enterprise, private gain, or personal Glory, I am sorry for it, and shall be doubly Mortified to find that my endeavours, together with the Good people of South Carolina, have not tended the least Degree to promote the Publick Good; I lament that private Gain is the primary Object with too many, and as much lament that the desire of Fame is not more sought after, as to the Former the world I think will acquit me, but the latter reason & Conscience convinces I have not been arrogant & designing but always meant to conduct & demean myself, so as to tend most to the Publick Good, & the satisfaction of my superior officers, the difficulty of writing obliges me to decline being as full as I could wish, the cause of my not sending you an express on sooner, was in hopes of gaining some important Intelligance to Communicate, I believe you have found that my former intellegence Respecting the force of Col°. Tarleton & Gen. Morgan to be very just, I can with propriety say that Lord Cornwallis' whole does not exceed Sixteen hundred; when they marched from Winnsbourrough, and encampt at Bull run, he had but six hundred & Eighty men, with this number he marched to turkey crick broad river, was there joined by Genl. Leslie, with a detachment of five hundred & Seventy eight men rank & file, making in the whole twelve hundred & fifty eight, since joined by Eighty from Camden, the remains of Tarleton's scattered troops, together with the Matrosses, which when aded cannot by Any Means exceed the Number above mentioned.

for farther particulars & the situation of the Army, I beg leave to recommend you to Major Myddelton, as also that of Camden, Congarees, Ninety Six, Augusta, & the state of things Generally, upon the western Quarter, I agree with you, & lament the great probability of this country being laid waste by plundering part' es, as people Dayly discover a greater avidity to that shamefull practice, I had Adopted measures which would have effectually suppress'd it, by being wounded & other interuptions have been prevented from executing that design, notwithstanding, daring as people appear to be in these practices, yet I am convinced they mought easily be made to subside. A few examples, & a proper abhorrence shewn, would answer every purpose, this conduct I meant to pursue but have not been sufficiently countinenced nor supported.

I confess I have been under some embaressment respecting Gen. Morgans command, & the orders he has given, as I have been concerned but little in either trust, & believe I have been guilty of no Impropriety, and shall allways make a point to correspond & act upon such principles with Gen. Morgan, as is most likely to tend to the publick Good, and have no doubt but he well deserves all the applause you have given him, therefore will not stand upon little punctilo. to the prejudice of the serv-ice, there has been a great change of things in this Quarter of late, & I conceive the Enemy thinks their situations some-what unfavourable to themselves, as well as to those Inhabitants among which they pass—and notwithstanding, the weak & scattered condition of the So. Carolina Malitia, yet their remaining in the rear of the Enemy may give them uneasy Apprehensions. Major Myddelton will be Able to give you full satisfactions relative to this Matter. I still find myself but poorly, but have hopes of being able to ride tolerably in a few days, when I shall be happy to receive your Commands.

I have the Hon^r to be D^r Sir with the greatest respect, your Most Obed Humble Serv^t

Commanding the Southern Army

Steuben

Richmond Virg. 3d Feb. 1781

My Dear General

Yesterday Major Giles handed me your Letter of the 24th Inst. & I sincerely Congratulate you on the fortunate & glorious events it announces—your presence to the Southard has hitherto been favored with the Smiles of Fortune—may you my dear General experience a continuance of them the personal interest I take in every theory that can add to your Happiness & Glory is an additional motive for my wishing it.

Mr. Arnold still continues at Portsmouth—his incursions into this State notwithstanding the weak opposition I was able to oppose has not drawn my attention from the main object of reinforcing your Army, Delay was unavoidable—it was the natural result of the confusion that every thing was thrown into.

The second division of 400 Men which I expect to have sent off the 15 Jan. will not possibly be equipped for the March before the 20th Instant I am determined to move Heaven & Earth to get them off if possible by that time. The 10th Ins. is the time fixed for the officers of the Virg Line to assemble at Chesterfield—I have given orders for relieving those of them who are now with the Militia by the Supernumerary & State Officers—Gen. Lawson will relieve Gen. Muhlenberg—some necessary arrangements to be made at Fredericksburg will prevent Gen. Wasn[?] from attending—I shall first appoint the Officers who are to attend at the places of rendezvous to receive the recruits—& send them immediately to their respective parts—A Field Officer 4 Capt. & 14 Subs will go with the first detachment to the southward & so with the rest.

The Cavalry are to rendezvous at Petersburg when I shall deliver them their proportion of the recruits as they come in & shall take the necessary measures with Government to get them mounted & Equipped which done I propose sending them on by Troops of 60 Horse, 30 for each Regiment.
The number of Recruits to be raised added to what they have now in the Field will fall deficient at least one fourth of the Quota of this State,—this must be considered in the formation of the new Regiments the strength of which must bear the same proportion to the number originally designed for each.

I believe I before advised you of my intention to form the remains of the 9th Reg. at Fort Pitt into two Companies & to call down the supernumary officers General Washington has approved it and I have accordingly given the necessary Orders to Coln. Broadhead & Gibern [?].

Agreeable to your orders I have directed Cap. Jicst [sic] with his artificers to move immediately to Bethany—I am intirely of your opinion that this Corp weak as it is will render much more service at that place considering its proximity to you & the number of Arms in that Neighbourhood wanting repair.

I have just receed advice of a movement of the Enemy towards Suffolk tho with what force I don’t know, I am just setting off for Cobbin point but shall not let it prevent my meeting the officers the 10th Inst. at Chesterfield.

With the greatest regard

I am Dr. Gen

Camp, Enoree river, S°. Carolina, 8th April, 1781

Sir,

Immediately after I did myself the Honor of writing you from the Catawba, I marched for the Southward, On my arrival at Broad river I met Colonel Clark of Georgia on his retreat from the long Cane Settlement, where, on the 23d. of last month he had a smart action with Major Dunlap, commanding a party of Cavalry and Infantry consisting of about ninety Men. The Colonels force was about one hundred and eighty, which he divided with two divisions, reserving out of them a small party to act as Dragoons. The attack was made by the Colonel with vigour and resolution and the Efforts of the Enemy to repel our men, notwithstanding the advantage of situation on their side was vain and ineffectual. Our Militia Horse charged their regulars who fled with precipitation altho their number exceeded ours. The Infantry after the flight of their Horse retreated to some Houses and, after some time surrendered prisoners of war. A number of the Colonels Men had no Arms which brings down the disproportion of numbers. The Enemys loss was great for the amount of men, their Horse being chiefly killed in the flight, and great part of the Infantry before they surrendered.

1 Only the signature is in Steuben's hand writing.

The Prisoners are gone towards Virginia by way of the Mountains, among them three Officers, Captain Cozens and Ensigns Old and Swanton all belonging to the Garrison of Ninety Six. I am exceedingly sorry to inform you of the inhuman action committed on Major Dunlap after being delivered by Colonel Clark into the hands of a Guard prepared for that purpose at Gilbert Town in North Carolina. A set of men, chiefly unknown except one—Cobb an over Mountain Man forced the Guard and shot him. I have issued a Proclamation offering a reward of ten thousand dollars for the apprehending him and do not despair of yet getting him and sending him to you. I sent a Flag to Colonel Cruger intimating the matter to him and informed him with what horror and detestation American Officers looked on the act, intimating however, that the many barbarous massacres committed by those calling themselves their officers on our people after their capture, particularly the murder of Captain Watson a valuable young officer under the sanction of their own Flag might have actuated those persons to that mode of redress. I should inclose you a copy of my letter to him but it is misplaced I send you however a copy of his answer by which you will perceive his sentiments.

The Country here is in the greatest distress chiefly broken up for want of assistance, by the Enemy’s marauding and plundering parties and unless something can shortly be done for them I am afraid they will in a great measure altogether quit the parts and had I not arrived at the time I did on Tiger River, I have reason to believe the whole Country would been evacuated by our Friends. Colonel Cruger being reinforced by Innis's Corps marched with about three hundred regulars and two Hundred Tories and took post at Harrison's store on Fair Forest the thirty first Ultimo with an intention as was supposed and given out to establish a Garrison. I immediately collected the South Carolinians and being joined by the Georgians I determined to risque an Action and was advanced some way towards him, when I was informed he has made the best of his way for William's Fort fifteen Miles this side of Ninety Six; where I am informed he has taken post. You may assure yourself Sir, I shall do all in my power to prevent their return; but provision is so scarce it will be exceedingly difficult to maintain even the smallest party on this side that station. [sic] I have wrote General Sumter requesting him to assist me but have receved as yet no answer I shall write him again but with what probability of success I know not. I must beg you to send me by this opportunity the most material intelligence as there is no certaintity to be learnt here of any Event.

I am Sir with respect

Yr very humble Servt.

I have sent you three receips of Officers Servants taken at Tarltons defeat.

I must remark again to you I do not think my force sufficient unless speedily assisted to make a stand this side any way nigh the Fort.

Hon'd. Sir

In answer to your request of the 22d. June last I rote you by the Express, that I should March by the 15th July with what force cou'd be rais'd in this quarter, but the Cherokee Treaty not being over found it impracticable to draw any force from here untill that important Business (to this frontier) was finally rati-fied, which was done the 29th July, and immediately every step taken to reinforce you; about 700 good rifle men well mounted were now in motion towards you & should have been down in as short a time as possible but an Express arrived in camp last night from General Pickens that informed us of the Enemys retreat to Orrangeburgh and perhaps to Charles Town, that distance being so very great for us, the warm season of the year & the men not prepared for so long a Tower, has induced Col. Levere of this County and my self from proceeding on our march, untill one hear farther accounts from that quarter tho the men are ordered to hold themselves in readiness to march on the shortest notice, and as our country is now in a state of peace and tranquillity, have no doubt but we can furnish you with a large proportion of good men from here when ever you may find necessary to require us.

Sir

Though I have not the pleasure of being Acquainted with you, I have taken the liberty to inform you when the British came to this place some time in Sep't. for Rice, I detached Major Cooper with a Command to destroy the barrls: to prevent the Enemy from Moving the Rice, Major Fraser with his Horse attacked Major Cooper, & took three of his men, in my absence a Flagg was sent by Major Cooper to get those men Exchanged, Cap't. Melton & Simon Fraser, went with the Flagg, who was met by Major Fraser, & seeing Simon Fraser's name in the Flagg, he rode back to Camp & desired the Flagg to wait for an Answer, when he returned with two Dragoons and ast Simon Fraser if he was the man who kild Ingles, Fraser replied he was, he was then taken & carried & put in Irons & now is in the provost, on pretence that Ingles was Murdered.

When Gen. Marion ordered me to the S° Ward Fraser Came with me, On my arrival at the Round O—I sent a comm'd. to take the Field Officers of that Regtm. They surroundered Major Clitheral's House, & Fraser ordered the door to be Opened, which was done, Ingles then ast who was there, Fraser answered friends to America, Ingles then went to Shut the door when Fraser fired at him & shott him in the Body, & he in a few minutes died.

Clitheral was made a Prisoner & brought to me the next day, & S'd. he was Shure Fraser would not have Shot Ingles, had he not attempted to Shut the door, this Sir is the pretended Murder for which he is detained, he has & the rest of the prisoners has sent to me to state this Matter to your Honor, to see if you will get them releast, from their confinement. A Cap't. Palmer who was taken sometime Ago, by a party of men I sent to stop some Boats, he is in a poor State of hileth & is very Desireous to be Exchanged that he may go to his Reg.m he is one of Lord Charles’es Core that is gone to the Wst. Indies, if you think proper he sais the Comm's. will Exchange him for a Capt. of ours.

 I have this Moment rec'd. Express from Lt. Col. Sanders that the Enemy is Collecting their Horse at Dorchester, & from good Authority means to Come S°. Ward to Burn all the Crops, they can & to Collect all the Cattle. They are Killing & Salting up all the Beef on Port Royall Island, when I am told they mean to Come On the Main its not improbable but what they may Endeavour to form a junction, I will make Every Endeavour to prevent them from their Intention should they attempt anything of the kind, but dont think we will have sufficient Force unless you can give some assistance—I will be much Obliged to you for some powder, for my Regmt as we are in want of that Article.

The Troops are to be Served with a Gill of Rum ¶ a man today.
Capn. Dogharty of Col°. Armstrong's Brigade is appointed Brigade Major, in the place of Capn. Raiford resigned.

The Genl. requests the Brigadier & Field Officer of the day, to favour him with their Company at Dinner.

The Genl. Court Martial of which Major Armstrong is president, have reported—Capn. Philip Taylor of the 5th N. Carolina regiment in arrest for the following Charges—

1st. For behaving in a scandalous manner, unbecoming the Character of an Officer & Gentleman

2dly. For leaving his Confinement when under Arrest without Leave.

The Court having considered the different Charges against Capn. Taylor, with the Testimony of his Defence, are of Opinion he is guilty of behaving in a scandalous, infamous, manner, unbecoming the Character of an Officer & Gentleman, therefore in pursuance of the 21st. Article of the 24th. Section of the Articles of War, do sentence him to be dismissed from the Service of the Army of the United States of America.

But the Court reflecting on Capn. Taylor's good Conduct & Behaviour as an Officer, his long Service in the Army of the United States & the Severity of the Sentence do recommend that he may be suffered to resign.

The General having taken into Consideration the recommendation [here there is a page missing from the Journal].

Head Quarters, Stono

¹ Colonel Owen Roberts who died of wounds received at the battle of Stono, which took place on the morning of June 20th, and lasted about an hour. General Lincoln seems to have attacked without waiting for General Moultrie with reinforcements. (Moultrie, American Revolution, vol. i, p. 490 et seq.)

The contemporary records show Colonel Roberts to have been a brave and efficient officer. He saw continuous military service from the Cherokee War in 1760, when he went into service as a captain in Colonel Middleton's regiment, until his death; for he continued as Captain of the Provincial Artillery Company until the outbreak of the Revolution (Wells Register, 1774). He was a Commissioner of Fortifications in 1765 (S. C. Almanac, and Journal of Commissioners of Fortifications MSS.); was Church Warden for St. Andrews Parish in 1769; was a member of the first Provincial Congress (S. C. Gazette, Jan. 23, 1776). He was Major of the First Regiment of Foot (S. C. and Am. Gen. Gazette,

"On Tuesday were interred in St. Philip's Church-yard, the Remains of Jacob Motte, Esquire, Thirty years Publick Treasurer of this Province, his Corps was attended to the Grave by a very considerable Number of the Inhabitants, who were indeed real Mourners. The Character of Husband, Parent and Relation, in which he stood foremost, may be paralleled, but cannot be exceeded. His publick character rendered him generally known, his private Virtues as universally respected. He lived in the constant Practice of every Christian Duty, and was a striking Example of that Vivacity and Cheerfulness which distinguished the Man void of Offence. He esteemed every good Character, and in return was beloved by all. His Charity was distinguished by a prudent Application to deserving Objects. And it may with great Truth and Justice be said that, in him the Province has lost an excellent Citizen, and the Poor a most generous Benefactor."

"On Monday the 18th Instant, was interred at St. Paul's Church, the Body of the once facetious Dr. James Dick, who died the preceeding Day, after a short Illness; his Death is much lamented by those who were of his particular Acquaintance, and regretted in general by the Inhabitants of the District in which he resided, being esteemed an able Surgeon and good Physician." (Friday, June 22, 1770.)

A Letter from Jamaica says that Arthur Forrest, Esq: Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Ships on that Station, died at Kingston, the 29th of May last.

From Georgia we have Advice of the Death of William Graeme, Esq; Attorney at Law, and of Mrs. Kennan, Relict of the late Henry Kennan, Esq; all formerly of this Province. (Friday, June 29, 1770.)

Died.] Mr. William Baker, Merchant. (Friday July 11, 1770.)

Died.] In his Passage from Jamaica to this Port, Capt. Nathaniel Catlin of the Sloop Beaufain. (Wednesday, July 25, 1770.)

Died.] In the 71st year of his Age, Isaac Mazyck, Esq.; many years a member of the Hon. the Commons House of Assembly of this Province, esteemed and valued both in his publick and private Character.—Ensign Gregory of his Majesty's 32d Regiment, immediately on his arrival here from Jamaica.—Mr. Nathaniel Greene of Hilton-Head.—Mr. John Amory. (Friday, August 3, 1770.)

Died.] Benjamin Smith, Esq; at Newport, Rhode-Island, in the 53d year of his age, many years Speaker of the Honourable the Commons House of Assembly of this Province; generous, humane, religious; the Love and Esteem of his Family, of his Friends and of the Publick in general, the blessings of the Poore, and that Peace of Mind which the Belief and Practice of Christianity can alone bestow, accompanied him through Life, and his Death was that of the righteous.

William Wooddrop, Esq; aged 64, Many years an eminent Merchant here, a valuable worthy man; of unbiased integrity, a steady mind and clear Judgement; when living esteemed and now regretted by all who knew him.

Mr. James Dishington, Surgeon, a young man lately entered into Business, of an amiable Disposition, modest and engaging in his Behavior, and skilled in his Profession. (Monday, August 13, 1770.)

Died.] Mrs. Anne Gibbes, Relict of the late Col. John Gibbes. —Mr. John Dodd.—Mr. Farquhar MacGillivray. (Monday, August 20, 1770)

Died.] In the 66th year of his Age, Mr. William Carwithen,

HISTORICAL NOTES.

WILL OF COL. JOHN GODFREY.

In the last number of this magazine (page 57) in the article of Hon. H. A. M. Smith upon "Old Charles Town and its Vicinity," mention is made of the will of Capt. John Godfrey, the son of Col. John Godfrey. We now publish in full the will of Col. John Godfrey. (So. Ca. Hist. Commission Records of the Governor and Ordinary, 1672-1692, page 430).

He was one of the most capable and vigorous men of the early days of the colony, and a very successful soldier (Collections of South Carolina Historical Society, vol. 5, page 229, note). Through his daughter Mary the wife of Dr. Henry Woodward his descendants for many generations have been among the most distinguished men of the Colony and State of South Carolina. (See Article "Some of the Descendants of Dr. Henry Woodward, the First English Settler, S. C. Historical Magazine, vol. 8, page 29).

The will was drawn evidently by himself and he being thus, as the lawyers say, inops consilii, it is not so logical and well expressed as it might be. His wife's will is recorded in the Probate Court of Charleston County, Book 1694-1707, page 132. She survived him.

Miss Mabel L. Webber,
South Carolina Historical Society,
Charleston, S. C.
Dear General,

I yesterday had a satisfactory view of the Enemy's encampment on John's Island, and am inclined from its appearance to believe that their numbers do not exceed four hundred—accurate intelligence however on this head is expected every moment—they are posted with their rear to the river, their right supported by Gibbes' house, their left by a little skirt of wood and it is said they have the ditch and bank of an old inclosure, in front—beyond the main road and the extent of about half a mile of clear ground.

This letter refers to a proposed attack upon the British forces on Johns Island undertaken by Col. John Laurens and Col. Henry Lee ("Light Horse Harry") just before the meeting of the Legislature in 1782, generally known as the "Jacksonborough Assembly." It failed because one of the columns, commanded by Maj. James Hamilton of the Pennsylvania Line, lost its way owing to the darkness of the night and the desertion of its guide and no attack could be made. Maj. Hamilton was the father of Gov. James Hamilton of Nullification fame. He married a daughter of Thomas Lynch, Sr. and remained in South Carolina. The letter settles a controversy as to the true date of the expedition. Lee in his Memoirs (vol. 2, page 392) said December 21, 1781; Judge Johnson in his Life of Greene (vol. 2, page 279) said December 13, 1781; Lee's
Col. Lee and myself in consequence of the permission which you have been pleased to give us, have determined upon the enterprise—and make a preliminary move to-day, his command to Somer's and mine to Skirvins. I am in great hopes we shall be able to cross a detachment of Cavalry by swimming which will be infinitely useful to us—We are both of opinion that in order to guard against accidents, it will be advisable to arrive with your Army at the fording place at daylight on the morning of our crossing which we have fixed for Sunday next—if your support shd. be necessary—the consequences of reinforcements on both sides can only terminate in a general action, in which it appears to me that we shall have great advantage on ours—and to say the least of this disposition, I think it will exclude the possibility of any serious misfortune to us—any demonstrations that you shd. think proper to make towards Dorchester, by having a camp & Quarters marked, might serve to divide the Enemy's attention from the real object—your appearance there in person which wd. be speedily reported in town wd. be most likely to produce the desired effect—and you might easily overtake the troops afterwards on their march—

I am Dear General
Yours most affectionately
John Laurens.

Johnson by showing that letters of General Greene dated December 21, and 28, 1781, referred to the expedition as not yet having started. McCrady (South Carolina in the Revolutionary War, 1781-1783, page 505) mentions the controversy and decides in favor of Judge Johnson. This letter now shows that it was in January, 1782, not in December, 1781, that the attack was attempted. January 13, 1782, fell on Sunday. An unpublished letter in existence dated January 28, 1782, from Edward Rutledge to Arthur Middleton confirms this letter. It says: "about ten or twelve days ago Genl. Greene detached a part of his army to surprise the Post on Johns Island, but thro' the darkness of the night, the corps separated & were obliged to lay aside the scheme."

Fairfield Santee March 31st 1782

Sir—

I had the honor of addressing a Line to you on Thursday Morning last to inform you that Mr. Pendleton & Maj. Hynr had been captured & carried off by a Party of British Dragoons the preceding morning, and that I had been left by them on Condition of obeying their Summons to deliver myself up if on their return to Town they should find I had been previously exchanged. This letter was intercepted by a British Party about 12 Miles from hence & tho' I know of nothing exceptionable in it they thought proper to destroy it & detain my servant: I have now therefore to repeat a Request which I made in it that you would be pleased to transmit to me an authentic Certificate that I was not exchanged on Friday last, or at least that no Certificate of my exchange had been received at Head Quarters or by the Commissary of Prisoners previous to that Day.

I have no doubt, Sir, that you will take such measures to procure the enlargement of the Gentlemen who have been made Prisoners as the Public Service & their particular situation (being in a bad state of Health) may require.

2 Judge Henry Pendleton after whom the old Pendleton District (now Pickens, Oconee and Anderson Counties) was named.

3 Maj. Edward Hynr, aide to General Greene. He was Commissary of Prisoners. An unpublished letter of Edward Rutledge to Arthur Middleton dated April 14, 1782, says: "I am sorry to tell you poor Pendleton as he was going Circuit a few days ago was taken prisoner and is in the Provost; Hynr was also taken but met with very different treatment. He was treated with all possible civility and permitted to come out immediately on his parole."

4 Maj. Thomas Pinckney was captured at Camden in August, 1780, and his leg was very badly broken. It was supposed that he had been exchanged in 1781. (Life of Gen. Thomas Pinckney, by Rev. C. C. Pinckney, page 82). Heitman indeed says December, 1780, but this letter seems to show that he had not been exchanged in March, 1782.
M't. and Miss Motte\(^5\) at whose House M't. Pendleton was taken, were much insulted & plunder'd by the Party who went there. At M't. D. Horry's\(^6\) where Major Hynne & I were taken Major Frazer who commanded & the other officers, behaved with Politeness & made the Dragoons deliver up part of their Plunder & promised to procure the rest when more at leisure.

I am desired to render Compliments of Congratulations on the safe arrival of M'rs. Green from the Families at M'rs. Motte' & M't. D. Horry's remain with sentiments of respectful esteem.

Sir

Your most obliged & obedient Serv't.

_Sir,_
The Care of a considerable Family & Estate devolved on me by the Death of Mr. Sinkler, who has fallen a victim in the present unhappy War, lays me under the necessity of making the present Application to you.

I know it to be the Duty of all to contribute as far as in their Power to the public assistance & perhaps the Supplies from few Estates in this Country have been greater than what have been furnished from this. The Quantity of Indigo taken one Way or another, has been forty Barrels; and upwards of six thousand Bushels of Provisions have been delivered for the use of the State since November last. Upon a late Occasion the provisions remaining were calculated by the Officers sent and the adjudged Surplus imprest for public Exigencies. Not content with this, another Forage Master by name Kelly has now thought proper to break open my Barn & take thereout five Waggon Loads more of the provisions assigned for plantation use.

I have therefore Reason to fear without your Interference by issuing positive Orders to the contrary or by other prohibitory

\(^7\) "Yesterday" was June 4 and the birthday of King George III, upon which no good Briton was expected to be sober.

\(^8\) Mrs. Sinkler was the widow of Peter Sinkler of "Lifeland" Plantation, St. Stephen's Parish, and daughter of Charles Cantey; (This Magazine, vol. xi, page 237). Peter Sinkler was a planter of large means and a staunch patriot. He died of typhus fever contracted as a prisoner in the old Post Office at Charleston. The plantation had been raided by the British (DuBose, Reminiscences of St. Stephen's Parish, Thomas' edition, page 47).
Methods which you may judge most effectual, that your Forage Masters induced by the Convenience of the place may occasion two hundred or more Lives to be left to perish whilst other plantations in the Neighborhood of only more difficult access have large Quantities of Provisions to spare & are unresorted to by them.

I am,

Sir with due Respect

I arrived, Yesterday, at this place, about three Hours after you left it, & am sorry, that I did not come in time to have the pleasure of meeting you.

\textsuperscript{10} There was a very respectable family of this name in South Carolina at this time, but there is nothing to show that the writer of this letter was one of its members.

\textsuperscript{11} An important letter in one particular at least. "Harden" to whom it
I wish you wd. send up 6 or 7 of the Militia Horse or State Troops, for the purpose of carrying any dispatches which I may have occasion to send, about the country—I am told Hardens Regiment, & the two other Southward Regiments, formerly Gard- dens & Hugers, contain about 800 men who might be brought into Service, but, Harden, who is a very worthy brave Man, keeps up no discipline or Authority over them—he just lets 'em do as they please—would it not be well to order Pickens, to draw off some (about 300 of 'em) & either keep 'em in the Field with you, or, put 'em with Marion, who wd. manage 'em much better than Harden did, or ever will—and prevent them going into the Enemy, as Several, (who I really did not expect would do so,) of Hardens Men have lately done. I understand that if those Regiments had done their Duty, Marion would have made the late affair wth Major Fraser a very compleat one—I propose staying here, until I hear from you, where you wd. recommend that I shd. remain—I wish to be nearer to you, but, in the present state of things, & untill I hear from you, I think I can't. take up my Abode so well any where as here—I shall expect the pleasure of a Line from you, whenever any thing material occurs, & Leisure will admit of your writing.

refers was Col. William Harden, a very brave and energetic officer, who did a great deal to keep alive the spirit of the Patriots in the country between the Cooper River and the Savannah. When a Brigadier General was appointed for this district, it was thought by some (Johnson’s Life of Greene), that Harden should not have been passed over. If, however, Governor Rutledge had the opinion which he expresses in this letter of the failure to enforce discipline on the part of Harden, it assigns reasons which have never before come to light.

Dear General,

Agreeable to your desire I enclose you my opinion on the Questions proposed to the Council of officers, and I have assigned my reasons pretty much at large out of respect due to the sentiments of Gentlemen, whose characters I highly regard, but from whose opinion in the present Instance it is my misfortune to dissent, and in order to convince you, and those before whom the proceedings of the Council may be laid, that I do not differ out of an obstinate captiousness, and on light grounds, but for reasons which appear to me weighty and important. Be assured I remain with unfeigned regard & esteem.

Your most Obed't. H'ble. Serv't, Charles Cotesworth Pinckney.

Dear General

When I came down to Savannah I was happy to be informed by Governor Martin of our State, that he & Gov't. Tonyn of East Florida had agreed to discountenance, and as far as in their power to put a stop to all plundering for the future, beyond their respective Limits—which has grown to such a Hight, by a Lawless, Savage and unprincipled Banditti, that no Man is Safe one Night in His House in any part of this State travelling a Mile upon the Roads, or even in the Town of Savannah, and has been a great injury & disgrace to the general Cause, and nearly de-populated & ruined this fine Country—but I am apt to think an affair which happened some days past, & raised a general Clamour & Resentment here, will break this agreement off, unless a timely remedy is apply’d.

One Andrew D’veaux late of S^o. Carolina it is said, has fitted out some Armed Boats in Charlestons—came inland with them from East Florida, plundering Plantations in his way along, & among others, took a Boat Seven Negros & some Household Furniture belonging to my Brother Col^o. W™. McIntosh, and afterwards landed at Beveley [?], twelve Miles from Savannah & carryed off thirty negroes & some other effects belonging to M™. Morrel.—our Governor has wrote to Gov. Tonyn by a flagg upon the Occasion to have them Restored, in case they are gone to Augustine—but it is thought as this Deveaux is Commissioned from Charles-town, that he will pay no regard to the authority of Gov^z. Tonyn—and in that case that an appreciation from you to Gen¹. Lesley upon the subject will be necessary, and if you think there is no impropriety in it, I am desired to Request that you will do it.

I have the Honor to be with the greatest Respect Dear General
Your most Ob^t. Hbt. Serv^t, Lach^n. McIntosh¹³
Savannah 30th October 1782

Hon^e.

Major General Green.

P. S. I begg leave to introduce the bearer James Houstown of this State, to your acquaintance, he is one of the Surgeons General to the Southern Army, is a prisoner on parole since the Capture of Charlestown, and very anxious to be Exchanged if possible.

_Endorsed:_

¹³Lachlan McIntosh, the son of John Mor McIntosh, a Scotchman who came over to Georgia with Oglethorpe. He was said to have been in Charles-ton in his youth in a business connection with the Laurens family. He was a steady patriot during the Revolution and was a Brigadier General in the Continental Army.
[The letter from General Sumter to General Greene dated January 29, 1781, published in the last issue of this Magazine, page 97, is in reply to the letter of General Greene to him of January 8, 15 and 19, 1781, printed in the Charleston Year Book of 1899 (Appendix, page 79). It fills an important gap in the correspondence of the two officers for it shows that Sumter was irritated by expressions in the letters of General Greene, and considered them as criticising his course. No charge of insincerity on the part of General Greene because he criticised Sumter in his letters to others and not in those to him can therefore fairly be made up to this time for his letters to Sumter were evidently considered by Sumter himself as criticisms of his course.]

THE TRENHOLM FAMILY
Compiled by HENRY SCHULZ HOLMES

William Trenholme was a native of Allerston, Yorkshire, England. He was born there (the only child of his parents), in 1737, and married Ann Esther Lookuph, born in 1741, in Durham. They came to America in 1764, going first to New York and then to Charleston, South Carolina. He remained there until the revolutionary spirit began to be serious, when being an ardent loyalist, he carried his family to New York, thence to Holland, and thence to St. Domingo, from which place they returned in 1793, at the time of the revolution there, to Charleston, where they passed the remainder of their lives, Mr. Trenholme dying in March 1822. He was of St. Phillip’s parish, and was buried in the churchyard of St. Phillips. Mrs. Trenholme was of the Roman Catholic faith and was buried in the churchyard of St. Mary’s, Hasell Street. (An addition to that church building extends over the graves of Mrs. Trenholme and others.)

George A. Trenholm was one of the most distinguished citizens of Charleston, in the middle and later portions of the nineteenth century, and his memory deserves preservation. A great merchant, a statesman of high rank, a man of unusual attainments, he used his talents always for the benefit of Charleston, and the state.

Entering early in life the counting house of John Fraser, a Scotch merchant, he soon became a force in mercantile affairs on a large scale. John Fraser & Co., owned ships, and established agencies in several European ports, and, when the war between the states came, they placed their resources at the service of their country, bringing in supplies by blockade running Steamships, and cooperating with the Government of the Confederate States of America, and continued to so act until the war ended when, naturally, the United States government endeavored to suppress the House. Mr. Trenholm was called to the counsels of the Confederate States and left his residence in Columbia on 16th July, 1864, for Richmond, and was Secretary of the Treasury until 7th April, 1865. He was imprisoned in the Charleston Jail by the United States authorities on 13th June, and sent thence on 18th June to Fort Pulaski. On the 25th June he was paroled and returned to Charleston, on 12th July he was again arrested, and he remained a prisoner until 14th October. (All these dates are taken from the diary of Mrs. Trenholm, who accompanied him.)

At a meeting of the Charleston Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Elias Horry Frost, himself an honored President of the Chamber, thus spoke of Mr. Trenholm: "The most noteworthy instance of Mr. Trenholm's greatness was when two years before his death, at the call of his fellow-citizens, he gave up the loved and pleasant society of his home, in health then failing renounced his ease and comfort, relinquished the care of his business, laid aside the remembrance of his fame, forgot that he was a Prince among Merchants and had sat in Cabinets, an adviser in the struggle of nations, laid aside the pride which might well have led him to believe it his due to be called only to the highest places in the land, and for months gave his time for the Public good to his duties as a member of the Legislature of his State."

It was the universal respect for his character and wisdom, which was recognized even by the Adventurers and freedmen who then controlled the Legislature of South Carolina, that caused all to look to his influence for an amelioration of dreadful conditions. He did much to impress even such men as were robbing the State, and was listened to and treated with respect by them.

Handsome in face and mien with the manners of a Prince, he charmed every one with whom he came in contact, and all learned to admire a great man with no affectations, nor any desire to seem to be anything he was not.

William L. Trenholm began his education at the school of Christopher Coates in Charleston. He entered, in 1852, the South Carolina College, and was graduated in 1855, with second honour in a large class. Soon after he entered the counting house of John Fraser & Co., of which his father was the chief partner. After his marriage he went to Liverpool for the firm of Fraser Trenholm & Co. He remained in England for five years with success in his business pursuits.

In the winter of 1861, when the war between the states began he returned home, and at once became active in the organization of a company, known well afterwards as "The Rutledge Mounted Riflemen," of which he was made lieutenant and afterwards captain. He enlarged the company to a battalion and became its major.

In 1864 the company, incorporated in the Seventh South Carolina Cavalry, went to Virginia. On the day before the second battle of "Cold Harbor," the regiment became hotly engaged at "Madaquire Creek" where, out of six captains, a major and lieutenant colonel, seven officers were lost. Major Trenholm was severely wounded. He was made Lieutenant Colonel of a new regiment then sent from South Carolina. At the close of the war, Colonel Trenholm went back to Charleston and resumed his place in the commercial affairs of the city. He had been an alderman, 1861 to 1865 and again served in that capacity from 1875 to 1877.

In 1885 Governor Thompson appointed him to the Bankers Convention at Atlanta, and there he made an address in favor of sound finance and the maintenance of the Gold Standard, which attracted the notice of President Cleveland, who called him to the office of Civil Service Commissioner, afterwards appointing him Comptroller of the Currency. In 1889 he was made President of The American Surety Co. of New York, and went to reside there. He was subsequently president of The North American Trust Co.

[The above entry closes the marriage register kept by the Rev. S. F. Warren. The next entry is dated 27 Feb. 1851, and the register has been continued from that date to the present time. We will only print Mr. Warren's register at present. The Rev. Samuel Fenner Warren was born in Suffolk, England, Dec. 14, 1728 (old style) and died in South Carolina, 3d. March, 1789; he was buried in Echaw Church yard.

The following clergymen are given in the register as officiating after Mr. Warren's death.]

Rev'd. John Stuart was elected Rector, March 1789, was continued in this cure two years.

Rev'd. Thomas Bladen was elected 1797, remained in the Parish but one year.

Rev'd. John O'Donnel was elected in 1802 and left in 1804.
He was succeeded in 1808 by Rev'd. Philip Mathews, who removed to St. Luke's & the Parish remained long vacant.

The Rev'd. Albert Muller officiated alternately at the Echaw & Wambaw Churches during the Winter & Spring of 1819.

In 1822 the Rev'd. Wm. Mitchell commenced his ministrations in this Parish, where he continued until ——.

In 1835 the Rev'd. C. C. Pinckney was elected and officiated until 1838, having service at the North Santee Church on every alternate Sunday.

In 1839 the Parish being without a Minister the vestry invited the Rev'd. Daniel Dupré, a Methodist minister residing here, to officiate at the Reading Desk, which he did, using the Liturgy exclusively, & with uncommon emphasis & reverence. He remained in Office about four years, but the Convention disapproved of the arrangement.

In 1846 [corrected in pencil to 1844 or 5] the Rev'd. Nathaniel Hyatt was elected to the Parish where he remained until his death in 1865. He continues the Record.

Sir/

You will be pleased immediately upon your Arrival at the Fort upon Cat Island to order without delay a return of the Stores in Garrison to be made you; A Copy of which with an Abstract of what you may want & cannot obtain in George Town you will transmit me by the very first safe Opportunity. You will be careful to examine the State of your powder; & if the Cartridges have been filled for a long time you will order them to be reformed & the Casks to be turn'd once a fortnight, lest the Salt Peter should Subside. You will cause the Militia to keep their Arms in good firing Order, always, & as they may have a Variety of Calibres amongst their Guns, I recommend Strongly to you that you have 300 Rounds at least fitted to each Gun as immediately as possible & that you dispose of them in such a manner that they can be supplied in Case of Attack without Delay or Confusion. As the greater part of your Garrison will consist of Militia, & as hitherto they have done duty under their own Officers who commanded that Post, & they may probably be very relax in their Discipline, I would advise that you mount an Officers Guard if possible & that your Officer of the Day be not permitted to Sleep upon any Account whatever: To attain these desirable Ends, by visiting the Guards & Centinels every night you will probably instil an Obedience to Orders & inculcate the necessity of this Order & Discipline into the Minds of your Officers & Soldiers by your Example—The Militia is not subject to Corporal Punishment & is only liable to Fines; but I have known Instances where the Officers have been cobb’d very severely, when condemned thereto by their own people. If you could persuade them to adopt this practice, perhaps it would render your task easy; that of introducing Regularity & Obedience.

You will be careful that the Ammunition is not washed, & examine your Beef, Bread & Water frequently, & Should it Spoil by keeping, you will immediately apply to Col. Hireot for the Same Quantity which has proved bad. You will send Sergt. Smith into the Country who is to endeavour to collect Several Deserters, whom we have in that part of the State, & they will receive pardon upon delivering themselves up to him & joining your Command. I hope to hear frequently from you & am with my best wishes for your Success.

Marching to Augusta

Charlestown 26th Aug't. 1779

Orders by Lt. Col°. Grimké.

The Ammunition Boxes for the 2d 2 pdr. Field pieces are to contain 48 Rounds each—Those for the 4 pdr. 24 rounds each; & those for the 6 pdr. 16 Rounds each.

The Ammunition Boxes for the 2 pdr & 6 pdr. which are to be carried in the Ammunition Carts are to be adapted to the Dimensions of the Carts; observing as nearly as possible the above Directions: The Carts will carry four Boxes probably, one of which is to be reserved for Cartridges to small Arms.

The W't. of the 2 pdr. Carts will be 360w: 3 Boxes Artillery Ammunition & about 100w. (Supposing 2000 Cartridges) for the Musquetry—Total 460 wt.

The W't. to the 6 pdr. Cart will be 3 Boxes Artillery Ammunition 358w. & about 10 wt. of Musquet Cartridges in a 4th Box—Total 458 W't.

Eight Boxes (not including the 3 to the Cart) are wanted for the 6 pounders.

One hundred & Thirty Boxes are wanted for the four pounders of the above Dimensions.

These Boxes are to be made very close, Strong & Dove tail'd, & the sides nailed to the Bottom, & not the Bottom to the Sides—the Apartments are to be very even & Square—the Hinges on the Outside of the Boxes & covered with Canvass.

The Handles are to be of Wood, fastened with Screws, on each Side, thro' which is to be put a piece of Rope.

The whole to be of Cypress ot Northward Pine.

Deaths.] Mr. Samuel Smith, Son of the Honourable William Smith Esq; of New York, deceased. A young Gentleman highly valued and esteemed by all who had the Pleasure of his Acquaintance. (Monday, August 12, 1771.)

On Thursday Evening last, a Duel was fought with Pistols, in a Room in Mr. Holliday’s Tavern on the Bay, between Dr. John Haly and Peter Delancey, Esq; Post-Master General of the Southern District of North-America, which unhappily ended in the immediate Death of Mr. Delancy. The Distress of the Families of both Parties may be more easily imagined than described.

The same Evening, and about the same Time, the Town was alarmed with the Cry of Fire, which was occasioned by a Hogshead of Rum with the Bung out catching Fire from a Candle brought too near it, in the House of William Davy, an honest industrious man, by Trade a shoemaker, and living in Dennis’s-Alley; the Hogshead burst with a loud Report, and the flaming Liquors immediately filled the House; two of Mr. Davy’s Children were scalded in such a dreadful manner that they are since dead, and the unfortunate Father was likewise much Hurt in rescuing them from the Flames. The Fire was soon gotten under. It is hoped this melancholy Accident, a Correspondent says, will occasion People of all Ranks to be careful how they take Rum out of Bottles, as well as out of Casks, which ought never to be done by Candlelight. Servants are too often sent into Stables and other Places with Candles, some of them too young and unexperienced, and others, though old enough, equally careless; whereby the Town is in continual Danger. (Monday, August 19, 1771.)

On Thursday last died here, the Oneida Chief, formerly mentioned, well known to the British Traders by the Name of Thomas King; his Indian Name, as written by himself is Dayagouh-ae-Sereh. Two Physicians attended him during his illness, by Direction of his Honour the Governour. The Presents designed for him were sent to his Relations under the care of his Attendants who went by Water, on Saturday last, for Philadelphia, in Order to return to their own Country. (Tuesday, September 10, 1771.)
Deaths.] Rev. Thomas Panting, A. M. Rector of St. Andrew's Parish.—Mr. Jarvis Williams.\(^1\)—Mr. David Stoll. (Tuesday, September 24, 1771.)

Deaths.] William Brisbane, Esq; two Days after his Arrival in Scotland, where he went for the Recovery of his Health.—Mr. Gibbes, Purser of his Majesty's Ship Tartar, lately arrived here from England.—Dr. Giles Church in Georgia.—Rev. Nathaniel Cotton at Pansacola, Chaplain to the Garrison there.—Mrs. Johnston, Wife of Mr. James Johnston.—The Death of Mr. Jarvis Williams, mentioned in our last, was an Error owing to misinformation, Mr. Williams is very well. (Monday, September 30, 1771.)
