ARRANGED CHRONOLOGICALLY.

COLUMBIA, S. C.
PRINTED BY A. S. JOHNSTON.
1839.
PREFACE.

In March, Dr. Cooper becoming too ill to attend to the publication of the Statutes at Large, I was desired by him to superintend the work. By the Resolution of the Legislature of 1835, Mr. Gregg, Mr. DeSausserre and myself, were appointed Commissioners to advise and consult with Dr. Cooper in contracting for and superintending the publication of the Statutes. A contract was entered into with Mr. Johnston, of Columbia, for the publication of the work, which was reported to the House, by the Committee on the Judiciary, in December, 1836, and confirmed by both Houses. On Dr. Cooper's application, I immediately consulted with Mr. Gregg and Mr. DeSausserre, in relation to the work, and as they declined to undertake it themselves, on account of their constant professional engagements, with their kind commendations, and that of the Speaker and Solicitors of the State, and approbation of his Excellency Governor Noble, I undertook the responsibility of the work. In this undertaking I have felt in the highest degree the delicacy of succeeding so eminent a person in a work of so much importance, and the care and diligence due to it, to render it equal to expectation in usefulness, and honorable to the commonwealth, as a measure worthy of the enlarged views of a State long distinguished for its liberality towards its public institutions. A liberality which her intelligent citizens cannot but consider as happily repaid by an excellent judiciary and a flourishing institution for the education of her sons.

After the death of Dr. Cooper, I received from his Excellency the following appointment:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Columbia, 28th May, 1839.

In consequence of the death of Thomas Cooper, M.D., who was appointed under a Resolution of the Legislature, to compile and digest the Statute Laws of South Carolina, with a digested index thereof, the said office has become vacant:—

Now, in pursuance of the power vested in me, I have appointed, and by these presents do appoint D. J. McComb, Esq. to continue and complete the said work, according to the directions of the Legislature, and under the advice and consultation of the Commissioners named in the Resolution of 1835.

PATRICK NOBLE.
For the index to this volume, I am entirely responsible, and I trust, upon examination, it will be found accurate and full. My intention has been, in case of all general laws, to express in the index every idea contained in the work. Without such an index, a law book can be of no practical use. In digesting the general index to the whole work, no pains shall be spared to render it complete, until the publication of which, the work cannot be brought conveniently into use, nor its utility be fully felt.

The sixth volume, now in the press, I trust will be finished in the fall. That will comprehend all the general laws, including those of the session of 1838. The series of laws respecting Roads, Bridges, Rivers, Ferries, Canals, Incorporated Societies, City of Charleston, Militia, Slaves and Colored population, Courts, Circuits, &c., will remain to be published. It is to be regretted that this classification was adopted. Although one of the committee who gave their approbation to it when proposed, I am now satisfied that the plan was an incorrect one, and altogether impracticable; the loose manner of legislation, which once obtained in this State, admitting into the same Act many matters having no connexion or relation to the main object of the Bill. The rules of the two Houses now forbid this irregularity, and the intelligent officers who now preside, and have presided for some time past, will no doubt continue to enforce them. In no Acts do these irregularities more frequently occur than in those to Raise Supplies and make Appropriations. The present Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, Mr. Memminger, has set a worthy example in the business like manner in which he has drafted the last of these Acts. The general index, however, will remedy this defect. In bringing all matters together on the same subjects, references can be easily made.

These classified Acts, Dr. Cooper at first thought, could be comprehended in one volume, which he continually refers to as the "Last Volume"—a reference which I have kept up, although I think they will make two volumes, which can be finished in the coming year. They, with the general index, will complete the work. A careful examination shall be thoroughly made, to see if any omissions have occurred. For the detection of one omission from the English Statutes made of force, I am indebted to Mr. Speaker Wardlaw. It occurs in the 2nd volume, 546. I mean the Statute of the 9 Ann, ch. 20, Sec. 7, (Grimke, 94,) being "An Act for the amendment of the Law, and the better advancement of justice." The omission seems to have been entirely accidental, as there is a note referring to the Statute at page 753, as being in a preceding part of the volume. Another of the English Statutes, of much less consequence, is omitted in the same volume, at page 512, (Grimke, P. L., 75,) being "An Act to enable Judges and Justices of the Peace to give restitution of possession in certain cases." These, with any others that may be detected, I design to place as an appendix to the 6th volume. Should any errors or omissions occur to the notice of any gentleman, he would greatly oblige me by communicating them to me.

To Mr. Attorney General Bailey, who has also had the kindness to express his satisfaction at my appointment, I am indebted for an accurate copy of the "Marriage Settlement Act" of 1785, from the original manuscript, furnished to him by the late Thomas S. Grimke, whose father drafted the Bill. It accounts in a curious manner for the strange mistakes made in engrossing the Act—mistakes which have been the fruitful source of abundant litigation. This I will also publish in the appendix to the 6th volume. The necessity for notes has been much diminished, if not entirely removed, by Mr. Rice's excellent Digest of the Law Cases decided in our Appeal Court—a work which must greatly diminish the labour of the profession.

D. J. McCORD.

1. Be it enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That from and immediately after the passing of this Act, all public notices, notices whatever, which shall be published in the State Gazette, shall be deemed, held and received as legal notice for the district of Charleston, in VOL. the courts held for the said district: provided the same be published three times, once in every week successively, in the said paper.

In the Senate House, the eighth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, and in the eleventh year of the Independence of the United States of America.

JOHN LLOYD, President of the Senate.
JOHN J. PRINGLE, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

NO. 1343. AN ACT FOR PROCURING THE MORE PUNCTUAL AND REGULAR ATTENDANCE
OF PERSONS ELECTED MEMBERS OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REP-SENTATIVES.

WHEREAS, the business and sitting of the Legislature is very much retarded and prolonged by the dilatory and irregular attendance of persons elected and returned members of the Senate and House of Representatives, to the great expense and other detriment of the public; to remedy and prevent which, as much as possible,

I. Be it therefore enacted by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, and by the authority of the same, That if the churchwardens, or other managers and conductors of the election of any district or parish, shall neglect to make a return at the time and place the Legislature is to meet, according to the exigence of the writ to them directed, then, and in such case, the churchwardens or managers so neglecting, shall pay the sum of twenty pounds, to be sued for and recovered by the attorney general, and be paid into the treasury for the use of the State.

II. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every person who shall or may be elected and returned, and doth qualify to serve in the Senate or House of Representatives, shall and must, and is hereby ordered and directed, personally to be and appear at the time and place duly prescribed and appointed for the meeting of the Legislature, on pain of incurring the penalty of twenty shillings for every day he shall make default; and on his appearance the cashier of the House to which he belongs shall,
and is hereby ordered, on pain of being proceeded against as for a contempt of the House and breach of privilege, to report to the President of the Senate, or Speaker of the House of Representatives, as the case may be, the number of days such person shall have made default, and the President or Speaker shall thereupon require him to show cause or excuse why he should not pay such penalty, and shall leave to the judgment and determination of the House to which he shall belong, whether such penalty shall be exacted; and in case it be the judgment and determination of the House that the same shall be exacted, then the cashier shall demand the payment thereof; and in case of refusal or noncompli-nance within seven days, the said person shall be taken into custody and proceeded against by order of the House to which he shall belong, as for a contempt and breach of privilege: provided, nevertheless, and it is hereby enacted, that any person who shall be duly elected and returned a member of either House of the Legislature, and who shall determine to decline to serve and qualify, in case it may not be convenient for him to attend for the purpose, it shall and may be lawful for him to signify and express his determination by a letter signed by himself, in the presence of a member of the same district or parish, and which said member shall deliver the letter addressed to the President of the Senate or the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

III. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person duly elected and returned as a member of either House of the Legislature, shall neglect and fail personally to appear and qualify, or decline to serve, or signify and express his determination to decline or not qualify, by report of the letter as aforesaid, at the meeting as aforesaid of the House for which he is returned to serve, then, in such case, the cashier of the House for which he shall be elected and returned a member, shall report such default to the President or Speaker, and the person so making it shall be liable to be sent for at his own expense, and taken into custody, and to answer and show cause and excuse why he should not be liable to the penalties and to be proceeded against as is above mentioned within the second clause of this Act.

IV. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any member of either House, who hath qualified and taken his seat, shall neglect to appear at the time and place to which the House may be duly adjourned to meet, or convened by a requisition of the Governor for the time being, he shall be liable to the same penalties, and shall be proceeded against as is prescribed and directed in the said second clause of this Act.

V. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the cashier of either House shall fail in their duty as above prescribed, he shall be liable to be called on by the President or Speaker to receive such censure or reprimand as the case may require, and the House to which he belongs may resolve and direct.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the twenty-second section of the Act for electing members, passed the twenty-first day of September, one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, shall, and the same be, from and immediately after the ratification of this Act, repealed, and it is hereby declared void and repealed.

In the Senate House, the eighth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, and in the eleventh year of the Independence of the United States of America.

AN ACT to augment the Trustees of the College of Cambridge. No. 1344.

WHEREAS, the difficulty of making a Board of Trustees for governing the college of Cambridge, is greatly injurious to the interests of the said college;

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the honorable Adanus Burke, Esquire, James Mayson, James Lincoln, and Charles Goodwin, Esquires, John Williams, John Bullock, John Owen, and William Swift, shall be, and they are hereby declared to be, trustees, in addition to those formerly appointed, and vested with all the powers and authorities heretofore given to the trustees of the said college.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any seven of the trustees of the said college shall be a quorum to manage the affairs thereof, and to do all such matters and things as shall be necessary to promote the prosperity of the institution.

In the Senate House, the eighth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, and in the eleventh year of the Independence of the United States of America.

JOHN LLOYD, President of the Senate.
JOHN J. PRINGLE, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

No. 1345. AN ACT for appointing Deputies from the State of South Carolina, to a Convention of the United States of America, proposed to be held in the City of Philadelphia, in the month of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, for the purpose of Revising the Federal Constitution.

WHEREAS, the powers at present vested in the United States in Congress assembled, by the articles of confederation and perpetual union of the said States, are found by experience greatly inadequate to the weighty purposes they were originally intended to answer, and it is become absolutely necessary to the welfare of the confederated States that other and more ample powers in certain cases should be vested in and exercised by the said United States in Congress assembled; and also that the articles of confederation and perpetual union of the United States should be revised, in order to remedy defects which at their original formation in the time of war and general tumult, could not be foreseen nor sufficiently provided against; and whereas, this State is, and ever hath been, ready and willing to co-operate with the other States in union, in devising and adopting such measures as will most effectually insure the peace and general welfare of the confederacy;

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That five commissioners be forthwith appointed by joint ballot of the Senate and House of Representatives, who, or any three or more of them, being first duly commissioned by his Excellency the Governor for the time being, under his hand and the great seal of the State, by virtue of this Act shall be, and are hereby, authorized as deputies from this State to meet such deputies or commissioners as may be appointed and authorized by other of the United States to assemble in convention at the city of Philadelphia in the month of May next after passing of this Act, or as soon thereafter as may be, and to join with such deputies or commissioners, they being duly authorized and empowered, in devising and discussing all such alterations, clauses, articles, and provisions, as may be thought necessary to render the Federal Constitution entirely adequate to the actual situation and future good government of the confederated States; and that the said deputies or commissioners, or a majority of those who shall be present, provided the State be not represented by less than two,
OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

do join in reporting such an Act to the United States in Congress assembled, as when approved and agreed to by them, and duly ratified and confirmed by the several States, will effectually provide for the exigencies of the Union.

Be it enacted by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, in General Assembly now met and sitting, and by the authority of the same, That in all recognizances acknowledged since the twenty-sixth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, or which shall hereafter be acknowledged, by any person, for keeping the peace, or good behaviour, or for appearing as a party, surety or witness, at any court of criminal jurisdiction within this State, the sum or sums of money in which any such person shall be bound shall be made, and payable, to the State, in aid of the revenue thereof; and every such recognizance shall be good and effectual in law, provided it be signed by every party thereto, and also acknowledged in the presence of a judge or justice of peace, who shall certify such acknowledgment, otherwise such recognizance shall be void. And whenever any such recognizance shall become forfeited by non-compliance with the condition thereof, the attorney general, or other person acting for him, shall, without delay, issue a scire facias, to summon every party bound in such forfeited recognizance, to be and appear at the next ensuing court of sessions, to show cause, if any he hath, why judgment should not be confirmed against him; and if any person so bound fail to appear, or appearing shall not give such reason for not performing the condition of such recognizance as the court shall deem sufficient, then the judgment on such recognizance shall be confirmed. And in every case where any such recognizance shall be adjudged so forfeited, or where any fine shall be imposed by or recovered for the use of the State, in any district or county court, or before a justice, if the party incurring such fine or forfeiture shall fail to pay down the same, with the cost of prosecution, then a writ in nature of a fieri facias shall issue, by virtue of which the sheriff or his deputy shall sell (in the same manner as property is sold under execution in civil cases) so much of such offender’s estate, real or personal, as may be necessary to satisfy the fine or forfeiture, and also the costs of prosecution, and all the reasonable charges of taking, keeping and selling such property, returning the overplus, if any, to the offender, together with a bill of the fine or forfeiture, with cost and charges, if he require it; but the sheriff shall sell every other part of the personal estate before he shall sell any negroes. And if the sheriff or his deputy return on oath that such offender refuseth to pay, or hath not any property, or not sufficient whereon to levy, then a writ of copias ad satisfaciendum shall issue, whereby he shall be committed to the common gaol, until the forfeiture, costs and charges, shall be satisfied; entitled, however, to the privilege of insolvent debtors.
II. Provided, however, that all such forfeited recognizances, or any fines imposed for trespass or misdemeanor or for default of jurors, shall be subject to the payment of three pounds sterling for every session sermon that shall be preached at any district court; provided also, that if any person shall forfeit a recognizance from ignorance or unavoidable impediment, and not from willful default, the court of sessions may, on affidavit stating the excuse or cause thereof, remit the whole or any part of the forfeiture, as may be deemed reasonable.

Provided, that nothing in this Act, or in the commissions to be given to such delegates, shall be construed to bar the Legislature of their State from recalling any delegate or delegates, so elected and commissioned, at any time within the year for which he or they may be appointed, and sending others in his or their room and stead; in which case, such delegate so sent in the room of any other that may be recalled, or that may die, or resign his seat in Congress, shall be commissioned and authorised to sit and represent this State in Congress only for the residue of the time not completed by such person so recalled, dying, or declining to serve the State in the Congress of the United States; any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be printed in the presence and under the directions of Peter Baccet, William Roper, and Edward Trescot, and with such devices as they, or any two of them, shall direct, and be countersigned by one of the commissioners of the treasury, and delivered to the holders of indents, their agents, or attorneys, to the amount of one year's interest on the principal of each and every indent, any time after their said interest shall become due; and on the payment of these special indents, a receipt shall be endorsed on the principal indents respectively, for one year's interest due thereon; and these special indents shall be issued from the treasury on no other occasion than on the application of holders of indents as aforesaid, and after being issued to the holders of indents they shall be received by the collectors and treasurers in payment of taxes for the years 1787, 1786, 1785, and 1784, indiscriminately; and after they are paid into the treasury, they never shall be re-issued, but be crossed with a pen by the treasurers, and filed: provided, that no special indent shall be issued to any person or his order, who shall be indebted to this State on indent, and which debt, or the interest thereon, shall be due at the time of such application for such special indent, until the person or his agent shall have discharged such debt or demand so due to this State.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the special indents for the years 1784, 1785, 1786, and 1787, be indiscriminately received in payment of the taxes imposed by this Act or the Acts imposing taxes for the years 1784, 1785, and 1786.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the mon-neys now due, or which shall become due for duties on negroes, goods, wares, and merchandises, entered at the treasury before the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, are hereby appropri-

VI. And whereas, the honorable Congress of the United States did, on the thirtieth day of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, and on the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth day of April, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, apportion and make a requisition of one hundred and eighty-six thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine dollars; and also on the twenty-seventh day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, one other requisition of one hundred and ninety-dollars, payable in specie; and whereas, the treasurers of the United States have given credit to this State for one hundred and eighty-six thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine dollars, as payment of the first requisition aforesaid; and also of one hundred and ninety-two thousand three hundred and sixty-six, as payment for the aforesaid second requisition; and likewise of sixty-four thousand and seventy-nine thirty-eight ninetieths as a partial payment upon the aforesaid third requisition; leaving a balance of seventy-four thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven fifty-two ninetieths unsatisfied; and whereas, the State of South Carolina did, in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, pay, by her treasurers, to the receiver of continental taxes, seventy-two thousand two hundred and twelve thirty-eight ninetieths in specie, as part of one hundred and twenty thousand, being the apportionment of this State of the two millions requisition of October the sixteenth, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two; and whereas, the Congress of the United States have discharged the requisition of the two millions of dollars, and the treasurers of the United States have placed the aforesaid payment in specie against the specific requisition of Congress, of twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, but it is just and reasonable that this State, having actually paid the aforesaid seventy-two thousand two hundred and twelve thirty-eight ninetieths in specie, should have credit for the same against the specie requisitions of Congress, and that the same should not be carried to their credit against the specific requisition aforesaid; and whereas, by the statement aforesaid of the payments of sixty-four thousand and seventy-nine thirty-eight ninetieths, and seventy-two thousand two hundred and twelve and thirty-eight ninetieths, and also two thousand one hundred and forty-two and seventy-seven ninetieths dollars, advanced Benjamin Hawkins, Esquire, the continental commissioner of Indian affairs at the special requisition of the honorable the Congress, there appears a balance of five hundred and eighty-two and sixty-five ninetieths dollars, due to the United States upon the third requisition aforesaid; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurers of this State do pay to the continental receiver of taxes in this State, or to any other person duly appointed or authorized by Congress to receive the same, the aforesaid balance of five hundred and eighty-two and sixty-five ninetieths, out of any moneys which shall come into the treasury of this State for the taxes imposed by this or any former tax Act, in specie or the paper medium aforesaid; any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. And whereas, the honorable the Congress of the United States did, on the twenty-first day of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, make a requisition of thirty-three thousand nine hundred and seventy-three dollars, payable in specie by this State, for the purpose of raising and paying certain troops which they were engaging in their service; Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurers of this State do pay to the continental receiver of taxes in this State, or to any other person duly appointed or authorized by Congress to receive the same, the amount of the aforesaid requisition of thirty-three thousand nine hundred and seventy-three dollars, out of any moneys which shall come into the treasury of this State for the taxes imposed by this or any former tax Act, in specie or the paper medium aforesaid, any law to the contrary notwithstanding; provided nevertheless, that if the honorable the Congress of the United States should discharge the aforesaid requisition of thirty-three thousand seven hundred and ninety-three dollars, the moneys so paid shall be carried to the credit of this State for any future specie requisitions which may hereafter be made upon this State by the Congress of the United States.
VIII. Be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That whosoever shall alter, erase, or counterfeit any of the special indentures to be emitted as aforesaid, or shall pass, or offer to pass any of them, knowing them to be altered, erased, or counterfeited, shall, on conviction thereof, suffer death without benefit of clergy.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the several persons hereafter named, shall be inquirers, assessors, and collectors for the several parishes and districts hereinafter mentioned, viz. for the parish of Christ Church, John Sutcliffe, George Barksdale, and Jacob Bond Ison; for the parish of St. James, Goose Creek, Henry Gray, Richard Wayne, and Peter Gray; for the parish of St. John's, Berkeley county, Keating Simons, Theodore Gourdine, and Gideon Kirke; for the parish of St. George, Dorchester, Morton Waring, John Jorj, and Elisha Hall; for the parish of St. Thomas and St. Dennis, Thomas Kauoon, and Stephen Fogartie; for the parish of St. Andrew, (James island excepted,) Abraham Ladson, Richard Scott; for that part of the parish called James island, Benjamin Stone, Robert Rivens; for the parish of St. John, Colleton, viz. for John's island, John Holmes, junior; for Wadmalaw, Joseph Stanyarne; for Edisto island, Issac Jenkins; for the parish of St. Paul, that is to say, for the south side of Cacaw swamp, as far as Colonel Skivring's, and along the main road to Jacksonborough, Pon Pon, Wiltown, and Togodo, Joseph Edings, junior; and for the north side of the Swamp, Beech Hill, and Horse Savannah, in the said parish, Robert Miles; for the parish of St. Bartholomew, John Logan, Thomas Ford, and Joseph Glover; for the upper district of St. Bartholomew, viz. the northwest of Black creek and the main waters of the great swamp, directly across to Pon Pon river, Thomas Miller, Joseph Stephens, and Adam Ulmer; for the Cambahab, and Chehawas, in said parish, Samuel Elliott, William Parguen, and Joseph Morreson; for the parish of St. James, Santee, Issac Dubose, and John Wells; for the parish of St. Stephen, Peter Gaillard, and John Peyre; for the parish of Prince George, Winyaw, Robert Donnom, Hugh Gies, John Tamplatt, James Coachman, Thomas Dunbar, and Thomas Boone; for the parish of All Saints, David Graham, and Daniel Morral; for the parish of St. David, Robert Ellison, Alexander Craig, and Josiah Evans; for the parish of Prince Frederick, Abraham Feret, John James, junior, and Thomas Potts.

X. Whereas, doubts have arisen to what parish or district the inhabitants residing between the old and new lines of Charleston and Orangeburgh districts belong; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the inhabitants residing between the old and new lines of Charleston and Orangeburgh districts, shall be considered as belonging to the parish of St. Matthew; and the inquirers, assessors and collectors, of the parish of St. Matthew, are hereby required and authorized to demand and recover the taxes from the inhabitants residing in the limits aforesaid, imposed by this law and also all arrears of taxes that may be due from them for the years one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, and one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four. XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every assessor and collector of the several taxes imposed by this Act shall, before he enters on the execution of his said office, before some one of the judges of this State, or some one justice of the peace, take the following oath, to wit: "I, A.B., do solemnly promise and swear that I will, to the best of my knowledge, skill and judgment, ascertain the several qualities of the lands lying and being within the —— where I am appointed assessor, and where no return of the qualities or the same shall have been made; and that I will not, for any fee or reward, favor, partiality, self-interest, malice or hatred, in favor of or against any person or persons whatsoever, assign any other quality to such lands, than in truth and good conscience they shall appear to me to deserve; and that I will impartially assess all other property and professions by this Act directed to be so assessed, according to the true intent and meaning thereof: So help me God." And if any assessor shall presume to execute the said office without having taken the said oath, such assessor shall forfeit and pay the sum of five pounds, to be recovered by any person who shall inform and sue for the same, by action of debt, in the court of common pleas.

XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That where inquirers receive returns of lands without specification of the parish or district in which they lie, or of lands lying in the parish or district of which the person who receives the return is the assessor, and the qualities of which are unknown to the person making the return, the inquirers who receive such returns shall, in both cases, value the lands so returned at not less than one shilling nor more than six pounds per acre, according to the best information they can get of the quality and situation of the lands so returned.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any two of the assessors appointed in the parishes of St. Philip and St. Michael shall be a quorum; and the said assessors shall complete their calculation of the value of estates in the said parishes on or before the first day of November, and within seven days after they shall cause a duplicate thereof to be posted at the Exchange in Charleston for ten days, of which they shall give previous notice in the Gazette.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any person who shall have reason to believe he or she is overrated, or whose attorney or attorneys shall have reason to believe he or she is overrated, by such assessors shall, at the time of payment of his or her tax, be allowed to swear off so much as he, she or they, or his or their attorney or attorneys, shall think they are overrated, before the assessors or collectors as aforesaid; and the said assessors and collectors, or any of them, are hereby empowered and required to administer such oath, and shall allow an abatement accordingly.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all persons whosoever, any ways liable to pay tax by virtue of this Act, shall pay in their taxes to the several persons hereby appointed to receive the same, on or before the first day of January next; and the collectors shall give a receipt, if required, to the person paying the same, such person writing such receipt. And the said inquirers, assessors and collectors, for Taxes on real the several parishes respectively within this State, shall close their accounts with the treasurers on or before the first day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight; and at the closing of their accounts they shall exhibit two lists, one containing all the taxable property returned to them, annexed to the names of the persons who returned the same, with the sums paid by them respectively; a second, all the taxable property lying and being in the parish or district, which has come to their knowledge, and has not been returned; which lists shall be given to the treasurers, and their accounts closed on oath, in the following words: “I, A B, do swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that the accounts I now give in, and the lists I now return, are just and true, according to the best of my knowledge, and that I have used all legal means in my power to obtain payment of the taxes imposed by this Act, in the parish or district in which I have been appointed inquirer, assessor or collector.” Which oath the treasurers, or either of them, are hereby empowered and required to administer.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the authorized to the authority aforesaid, That the commissioners of the treasury are hereby authorised and required to pay to the collectors of the general tax, upon closing their accounts for the tax to be raised by this Act, viz. for Charleston, two and a half per cent., and all other collectors five per cent., out of any monies in the treasury, on the amount of such sums as shall be by them, or any of them, paid into the public treasury. And the inquirers, assessors and collectors for each parish and district, shall make their returns of such parish or district respectively to the treasurers at one and the same time; and the collectors for each parish or district shall give an account in writing upon oath, as aforesaid, of their own lands, slaves and other taxable property, after the manner aforesaid, to the commissioners of the treasury, and pay the taxes thereon, according to the rates by this Act appointed.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case any person or persons whosoever shall neglect or refuse to pay in his, her or their tax, at the days and times hereinbefore mentioned and appointed for the payment thereof, the inquirers and collectors respectively shall immediately hang up for ten days a list of defaulters at the Exchange in Charleston, and some public place in the respective parishes or districts in the country; and if the taxes are not paid within these ten days, they shall, without further delay, levy the same, by virtue of a warrant by them or any of them to be signed and sealed for that purpose, which warrant shall be directed to the constable or constables living nearest to the place where such defaulter lives or resides, requiring him or them to levy the same by distress and sale of the defaulter’s goods, to be paid in special indents, specie, or the paper medium, returning the surplus, if any there be, to the defaulter, upon deducting the reasonable charges. And if no such distress can be found, and the defaulter shall neglect or refuse to produce goods or effects wherein the monies so assessed may be forthwith levied, then the said constable or constables, by virtue of the said warrant, shall take the body of such defaulter and convey him to the common gaol in the district or county where such defaulter resides; which warrant shall run in these words, (making the proper alteration): "Collectors of the general tax for the parish or district of to constable for the parish or district of, (or to the sheriff for district or county, in the State of South Carolina, or to his lawful deputy:) Whereas hath been duly assessed by us, the subscribers, collectors of the tax for the parish or district of, the sum of, for defraying the charges of the, which hath neglected to pay; these are, therefore, in the name of the State, strictly to charge and command you to levy, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the said, the sum of together with the charges thereof; and in case the said shall refuse or neglect to produce goods and chattels, sufficient to levy the said distress and the charges thereon, that then you take the body of the said and convey to the common gaol in the district or county, commanding you the the keeper of the said gaol to detain the body of the said in his custody until shall pay the sum of, together with the charges of keeping and detaining as aforesaid; and for so doing this shall be your sufficient warrant. Given under our hands and seals, this day of, Anno Domini." And the sheriff or other officer to whom such warrant shall be directed shall detain such person in the gaol, without bail or mainprize, until the debt and charges aforesaid shall be satisfied. And the constable and constables to whom such warrant shall be directed shall take from such defaulter the following fees in the execution of their office, to be paid in the current money of the State, viz. for serving every execution four shillings and eight pence, and for all sums to be levied as aforesaid five per cent., and no mileage or any other fee whatever; and the assessors and collectors respectively for every such warrant he or they shall issue, shall also have from such defaulter two shillings and six pence.

XXIII. XXIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the taxes imposed by this Act shall be preferred to all securities and incumbrances whatsoever; and that in case any person shall happen to die between the time of giving in his or her account of his or her tax, and any goods or chattels of the deceased, to the value of the sum he or she was assessed at, shall come into the hands of his or her executors or administrators, they shall pay the same by the time before limited, prior to all judgments, mortgages and debts whatsoever, or otherwise a warrant of execution shall issue.

against the proper goods of such executors and administrators. And if any person between the time of rendering the account of his or her estate to the inquirers or collectors as aforesaid, and the time of paying his or her tax, shall be about to depart this State, the said assessors and collectors are hereby directed and required forthwith to levy the same, notwithstanding the day of payment is not already come, unless such persons will find securities to be approved of by the assessors and collectors for the payment thereof at the time appointed.

XXV. JOHN LLOYD, President of the Senate.
JOHN J. PRINGLE, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

NO. 1371. AN ACT TO REGULATE THE RECOVERY AND PAYMENTS OF DEBTS; AND FOR PROHIBITING THE IMPORTATION OF NEGROS FOR THE TIME HEREBIN MENTIONED.

WHEREAS, many inhabitants of this country before the revolution owed considerable sums of money, and of which the embarrassment of the war prevented the payment; and whereas, very considerable importations of merchandise since the peace, and the loss of several crops, have occasioned an accumulation of debts to a magnitude far beyond all former example, and such as the resources of the country are inadequate to discharge in a regular and speedy way as heretofore;

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That all debts whatsoever, contracted previous to the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, (except debts hereinafter mentioned,) shall be recoverable by instalments only, to be paid in proportion and manner hereinafter following; that is to say, the debtor in every such case shall pay on the first day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, one-third part of the principal and interest which shall be then due to the creditor; and on the first day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine, shall pay his creditor one moiety of the principal and interest which may be then remaining due; and on the first day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety, the remaining balance of his debt.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no judgment which may be recovered for any money hereby directed to be paid by instalments, shall bind the property of the debtor to a greater amount than by this law is actually made payable; provided the debtor shall give to his creditor the security hereby required.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all moneys had and received by one person for the use of another; all moneys due on protested bills of exchange, provided nevertheless, it shall not extend to bills or orders drawn by one person on another within the State; all cash contracts; all moneys due on policies of insurance; and where any sum is to be paid by executors, guardians, or trustees, by virtue of a de-

AN ACT FOR THE PROMOTION OF INDUSTRY, AND FOR THE SUPPRESSION OF VAGRANTS AND OTHER IDLE AND DISORDERLY PERSONS.

WHEREAS, the great increase of idle and disorderly persons, has become such a grievance to the industrious and honest part of the community as to require an immediate remedy;

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, all persons declared vagrants, wandering from place to place without any known residence, or residing in any city, county, or parish, who have no visible or known means of gaining a fair, honest, and reputable livelihood; all suspicious persons going about the country swapping and battering horses or negroes, (without producing a certificate of his or their good character, signed by a quorum of the justices of the county, or by three justices of the peace of the parish from which such person is last come;) likewise all persons who acquire a livelihood by gambling or horse racing, without any other visible means of gaining a livelihood; also, all persons who lead idle and disorderly lives; all who knowingly harbor horse thieves and felons, and those who are known to be of that character and description; likewise all persons (not following some handicraft trade or profession, or not having some known or visible means of livelihood,) who shall be able to work, and occupying or being in possession of some piece of land, shall not cultivate such a quantity thereof as shall be deemed by one magistrate and four freeholders, or a majority of them, on oath, to be necessary for the maintenance of himself and his family; also, all persons representing publicly for gain or reward, any play, comedy, tragedy, interlude, or farce, or other entertainment of the stage, or any part thereof; all fortune tellers for fee or reward; all sturdy beggars; and all unlicensed peddlars—are, and shall be, deemed vagrants, and liable to the penalties of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That upon the deposition on oath, or solemn affirmation, of any credible informer, before a magistrate, of any person's being, to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, a vagrant according to this Act, and liable to the penalties thereof, such magistrate shall, and is hereby directed immediately to, issue his warrant, ordering some constable to bring the offender before him, and shall then summon the nearest justice of peace (or of the county court, as the case may be) to join and assist him in inquiring into the truth of the information. And to prevent any injustice or oppression, no determination shall be good and legal unless there shall be also summoned three disinterested freeholders, who shall join the two magistrates in the inquiry, and then the opinion of any three out of the five, shall be binding and conclusive, and not otherwise: provided, that if no magistrate shall reside within a convenient distance of the magistrate before whom the offender is carried, then in such case he shall summon five disinterested freeholders, and the opinion and determination of any three of them, joined to that of the magistrate, shall be binding and conclusive.

III. And the better to guard and secure the liberty of the citizens, and to exclude all partiality on the part of the magistrate; Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whenever any such information as aforesaid shall be made, the magistrate shall make out a list of twelve freeholders of the neighborhood, and shall put them in a box or hat, out of which the person accused shall be allowed to draw three or five names, (as the case may be,) and thereupon the magistrate shall immediately summon the said three or five freeholders whose names have been drawn as aforesaid, who shall be liable to a fine of ten shillings for their nonattendance, unless prevented by sickness; the said fine to be recovered by any magistrate by warrant of distress; but if any of the said three or five freeholders fail to attend, then the magistrate shall direct the person accused to draw out as many other names as shall make up the deficiency, so that the attendance of three or five freeholders, as the case may require, may be procured: provided always, that if the person accused shall refuse to draw out the names as aforesaid, then the magistrate before whom he or she is summoned, shall forthwith proceed to draw out three or five names in the manner above prescribed.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That as soon as the two magistrates and three freeholders, or the one magistrate and five freeholders, (as the case may require,) shall be convened together, they shall proceed to examine into the truth of the charge, and to inquire in what manner, and by what means, the person accused gains his or her livelihood, and maintains his or her family, (if he or she has any,) and if the quorum of them (as above described) shall adjudge such person liable to the penalties of this Act, then on such person's payment of the accustomed fees, and giving good security for his or her good behaviour for the space of twelve months ensuing, such person shall be immediately discharged; but on his or her inability or refusal to give such security, it shall be lawful for the magistrate before whom the complaint was made, to commit him or her to gaol until the next meeting of the county or circuit courts, or the court of general sessions in Charleston; to the clerk of which courts respectively such magistrate is hereby directed to transmit a fair copy of his proceedings, containing the names of the magistrates and freeholders before whom such person was tried, with the names of the informer, and witnesses, and the evidence they gave; which copy of his proceedings shall be filed and preserved as a record of the court.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the court shall not think fit to discharge the offender, then the clerk of the court shall, before the last day of court, make known to the inhabitants by an advertisement stuck up at the door of the court-house or gaol of the district or county where he or she was apprehended, that the services of the offender will be sold at public sale on the last day of the court, for a space of time not exceeding one year; and the person so purchasing the services of the said offender, shall receive from the clerk of the court a certificate of such purchase, and thereupon the offender shall, during the term aforesaid, be subject to the penalties set forth and contained in the Act of Assembly entitled "An Act concerning servants, and masters, and apprentices;" and the person who purchased his or her services, shall be entitled to all the benefits accruing to masters by the aforesaid Act.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case no person shall purchase the services of the said offender, then the said offender is hereby declared liable to receive not more than thirty-nine, nor less than ten lashes, on the bare back, at the discretion of the judges of the county or circuit court, or court of sessions in Charleston, as the case may be, and adjudged to quit the county within twenty-four hours, or the district within three days. And if the said offender shall, after the time above prescribed, be found within the county or district from which he has been banished, and shall not be provided with a certificate of his good behaviour from some one of the county courts, or a judge of the court of sessions, or cannot procure good security for his future good behaviour, then he is hereby declared liable to the same penalties and punishments as above set forth: provided, that in all cases where it shall be deemed practicable and expedient by the county court, or judge of the court of sessions, or circuit court, to condemn the offender to hard labor, then such offender shall be sentenced to hard labor for a term not exceeding one year, and shall not receive the punishment by whipping, as aforesaid.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every person of suspicious character coming to settle in any county or parish within this State, shall be deemed a vagrant, unless he produce a certificate from the justices of the county court of the county, or three justices of the peace of the parish, in which he last resided, setting forth that he is a person of a fair character, and not an idle or disorderly person; or unless he obtain within the space of five days sufficient security for his good behaviour for twelve months ensuing.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any magistrate shall fail or neglect to execute any of the duties herein set forth and prescribed, he shall be liable to a penalty of ten pounds; and any constable neglecting or failing in his duty aforesaid, shall be liable to pay five pounds; to be recovered by information before the justices of the county or circuit court, or court of sessions, as the case may require; one moiety to go to the informer, and the other to the use of the county, if recovered in a county court, and to the use of the State if recovered in any other court, and to the use of city if recovered in the court of wardens.

IX. And the more effectually to prevent all malevolent prosecutions, either against persons falsely supposed to be vagrants, or against magistrates or constables accused of having neglected their duty as aforesaid, Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any informer shall be convicted before the judges of the county or circuit court, or court of sessions, of having preferred his complaint through malevolence or spite, without any just grounds of accusation, he shall be adjudged to pay a fine of five pounds to the party injured, besides being liable to an action for damages. And if any person shall wantonly prosecute any magistrate or constable for a neglect of duty, and shall fail in his proof of such neglect, he shall pay a fine of five pounds, to be recovered as aforesaid.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the magistrates or magistrates before whom any offender against this Act shall be tried and condemned, shall not be liable to any penalty if he or they shall make it appear that the judgment was given in the manner and with the restrictions set forth in the second clause of this Act.

No. 1381. An Act to appoint Escheatators, and to regulate Escheats.

WHEREAS, sundry estates, real and personal, have heretofore been acquired, held and possessed in this State, by persons who are now dead, and no legal representatives have appeared to make title and claim, either by descent or purchase, to such estates; and sundry other escheats have fallen or may hereafter fall to this State, in the like manner; and also in cases of forfeiture for treason or felony; and it being necessary to appropriate such estates, real and personal, to public uses;

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That an escheator shall be appointed by the joint ballot of the Senate and House of Representatives, and commissioned by the Governor or Commander-in-chief for the time being, for the district of Charleston, and for each of the circuit court districts, who shall execute his office in proper person, and not by deputy, and give bond, with three good and sufficient sureties, payable to and taken by the Governor for the time being, for the use of the State, which shall be duly recorded in the Secretary's office of this State, in the penal sum of five thousand pounds sterling money, for himself and sureties, jointly and severally, and conditioned for the well and faithful discharge of the said office, and shall moreover take the following oath, to be administered by the said Governor, or any one of the justices of the court of common pleas, at the time of taking the said bond, to wit: "I, A B, do solemnly swear that I will well and faithfully execute the office of escheator for the district of ——, and diligent inquest make for all property which hath escheated or shall escheat to the State, within my jurisdiction, according to the true intent and meaning of the Act in that case made and provided: So help me God."
II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That each of the said escheators, in every case where on their knowledge or belief, or the information of another, that certain lands have been escheated to the State by the death of the person last seised in fee simple, either in law or in fact, without leaving any person who can lawfully claim such lands, either by purchase or descent from such former proprietor, the escheator of the district where the lands lie, on such knowledge or information, or the order of any court of record, shall issue his notification of such supposed escheated lands to one of the judges of the court of common pleas, at least two months previous to the next meeting of the said court to be held in the circuit or district where such lands lie; and the judge or judges presiding at such court shall cause the jury (being first duly sworn) to proceed and make a true inquest of all such supposed escheated lands, which by the escheator shall be subjected to their investigation, and a true verdict make thereon; whereupon the judge or judges of the court aforesaid shall certify the same, under his or their hands and seals, to the escheator, who is hereby ordered and directed to record the same in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall return the original within two months after the date thereof into the office of the court of common pleas, to be there filed and kept as a record of the said court.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That on returning the inquest into the office of the court of common pleas, the clerk shall thereupon cause to be advertised in the State Gazette, every month, for six months, the particular description of the lands, the name of the person last seised, and the supposed time of his or her death, together with the part of the world in which he or she was known or supposed to be born, and requiring his or her heirs, or others who may claim under him or her, to appear and make claim. And if no person shall appear and make title to the same lands, within twelve months after the expiration of the time prescribed for advertising the same, the clerk of the said court shall issue process, to be signed by one of the judges, to the escheator, pronouncing the said lands to be escheated and vested in this State, and directing him forthwith to sell and convey the same, according to law.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That as soon as escheated lands shall be vested as aforesaid in the State, the escheator shall advertise the sales thereof in the State Gazette, and also in the most public places of the district in which the lands lie, giving six weeks public notice, on a credit of twelve months, payable in the general indents issued by this State to the public creditors, with lawful interest, payable in special indents or current money, and shall moreover take good and sufficient surety and a mortgage of the premises, before the title shall be altered or changed.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That where the lands shall exceed six hundred acres, and can be divided into smaller tracts with advantage to the State in the sale thereof, the escheator shall cause the same to be divided in such manner as shall be most beneficial to the State; and the indents arising from such sale shall be forthwith paid into the public treasury whenever the same shall become due and recovered. Provided nevertheless, that if any person or persons shall appear within five years, and make good title to such lands, in the court of common pleas, on an issue tried, he, she or they shall forthwith receive adequate compensation.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any person or persons, without delay, shall be heard on a traverse, in the court of common pleas, on a petition setting forth his, her or their right, and the

No. 1409. An Act to Declare Void and of None Effect a Grant of Lands in the Fork of Broad and Saludy Rivers, Unlawfully Obtained.

WHEREAS, Jonas Beard, in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, obtained a warrant of survey to appropriate to himself the whole of the vacant lands in the Fork between Broad and Saludy rivers, beginning as far up Broad river as thirty-one miles from the confluence, and run a single line across the neck, until he struck the river Saludy, a distance of about sixteen miles; and passing through sundry settlements, the property of others under former grants, without surveying the course of the rivers, or making any other than a single line. Although he could not possibly know what tracts, or how much vacant lands lay interspersed among the settlements throughout that great body of land, yet he returned into the office a plat thereof, which he laid down from, and according to, Guillard’s map, and estimated the quantity at about fifty-one thousand three hundred acres, and passed the same into a grant so suddenly, that the inhabitants whose property was threatened had not information or opportunity to caveat the same. Thus, in order to oblige the inhabitants of that extensive settlement to produce their titles, or if they had lost them in the war, or by other accident, to seize their land as vacant. In order, therefore, to prevent the alarms of the people, and the litigation and suits that may arise from the said unreasonable and unlawful grant;

I. Be it enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, the said grant is hereby declared void, and of none effect.

WHEREAS, humanity requires that the confinement of prisoners on civil process should be less rigorous than it has hitherto been;

I. Be it enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That all prisoners on mesne process in any civil action, who are or shall be committed to the custody of any or either of the sheriffs of the counties or districts of this State, on complying with the requisitions contained in this Act, shall be entitled, in every day during his, her or their confinement, to be and remain unmolested in any part of the rules, bounds or limits of the prison where he, she or they shall be confined; which rules, limits or bounds shall extend to three hundred and fifty yards in a direct line from each side of the prison walls; and the said rules, limits or bounds shall be marked out and ascertained in some distinct manner, by the respective sheriffs of each district and county, within one month after passing this Act, that the same may be publicly and generally known.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no person committed on mesne process as aforesaid shall be entitled to the benefit of the said rules, limits or bounds, before he or she shall have given satisfactory security to the sheriff of the district or county where he or she may be confined as aforesaid, not to go or be without the said rules; and the sheriff shall be answerable for the solvency of such security.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all prisoners in execution on any civil process, who are or shall be committed to the custody of any or either of the sheriffs of the districts or counties of this State, shall be entitled to the benefit of the said rules, bounds or limits, provided he or she shall, within forty days after being taken in execution, give satisfactory security to the sheriff of the district or county where he or she may be confined (for the solvency of which security the sheriff shall also be answerable) that he or she will not only remain within the said rules, bounds or limits, but will also, within forty days, render to the clerk of the court in the district or county where he or she shall be confined, a schedule, on oath or affirmation, (agreeable to the form of his or her religious persuasion,) of his or her whole estate, or of so much thereof as will pay and satisfy the sum due on the execution by force of which he or she shall be confined.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any prisoner confined on mesne process shall have liberty to render, at any time during his or her confinement on such process, a schedule, on oath or affirmation, (agreeable to the form of his or her religious persuasion,) of his or her whole estate, or of so much thereof as will pay and satisfy the sum really due on the action on which he or she may be confined; and the clerk of the court in the district or county where he or she shall be confined, within ten days after the receipt of the schedule from the prisoners confined as aforesaid on execution or mesne process, as the case may be, shall give public notice that the prisoner will be liberated and the property assigned, unless satisfactory cause is shown to the contrary before one or more of the judges of the court where the process originates, or one or more of the commissioners appointed for taking special bail in the circuit district; and if no satisfactory cause shall be then shown to the contrary, the judge or justice, or commissioner of special bail, before whom the prisoner shall be brought, shall order an assignment of the prisoner’s estate and effects, mentioned in the schedule, to be made to the plaintiff, subject nevertheless to all prior encumbrances; whereupon the creditor may take possession, and, if necessary, sue in his or her own name for the recovery thereof, and the prisoner shall be discharged from confinement; but if the plaintiff shall show cause for disbelieving the prisoner’s oath or affirmation, or shall desire further time for information, the judge, justice or commissioner of special bail, as the case may be, shall have power to remand the prisoner, and appoint another day for his or her appearance; and if, on the second day, the plaintiff shall not appear, or shall be unable to prove that the prisoner’s oath or affirmation ought to be disbelieved, the judge, justice or commissioner of special bail as aforesaid, after assignment made in manner above directed, shall discharge the prisoner.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the property mentioned in said schedule must be visible property, if the prisoner is possessed of any such, but if he or she is not, choses in action must be mentioned, with the names and places of abode of the witnesses thereto; and if the property mentioned in the schedule should prove deficient, any other property that the prisoner may have, or hereafter acquire, shall be liable for the demand for which he or she is confined.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person confined on mesne process in any civil action, or on execution, (provided the person on execution has not been in actual confinement above forty days,) be determined to deliver up all his or her estate and effects, and to take the benefit of the Act for the more effectual relief of insolvent debtors, passed the seventh day of April, one thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine, he or she shall have the benefit of the said Act, although he or she may have given bail to the action, or not surrendered him or herself within ten days after the arrest, or not presented a petition within forty days after confinement, or not been actually confined three months, provided he or she comply with the other requisites of the said Act, and that the justices of the court from whence the process issued against such person shall be satisfied that he or she hath rendered a just and fair account of his or her estate; and in cases where such application shall be made by persons in confinement, on process issued from the court of common pleas to the sheriffs of the circuit court districts, such persons may make such surrender of his estate and effects to the three nearest justices of the peace, who shall receive and transmit such schedule to the clerk of the court of common pleas, without delay.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any prisoner committed on execution aforesaid who shall not give in such schedule, agreeable to the tenor of his or her bond, shall not be any longer entitled to the benefit of the prison rules, but his bond shall be forfeited and assigned to the plaintiff; nor shall any prisoner be discharged without fully satisfying the action or execution on which he or she is confined, if, since his or her confinement, and before he or she gave security as aforesaid, he or she has been seen without the prison walls, or if, since his or her giving security, he or she has been seen without the prison rules, without being legally authorised so to be, or shall have spent more than two shillings and six pence a day, or if he or she is confined on account of wilful maim, or wilful and malicious trespass, or for voluntary or permissive waste or damage done to the freehold, or who shall have, within three months before his or her confinement, or at any time since, paid or assigned his estate, or any part thereof, to one creditor in preference to another, or fraudulently sold, conveyed or assigned his estate, to defraud his creditors; but wherever a prisoner shall be accused by the plaintiff or his agent of fraud, or his having given an undue preference to one creditor, to the prejudice of the plaintiff, or of having made a false return, or of having gone without the prison walls, or prison rules, as the case may be, it shall be lawful for the judge or justice before whom the prisoner is brought to direct a jury to be impannelled and sworn to determine the fact.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any sheriff or his deputy shall permit any prisoner committed to his custody as aforesaid, to go or be without the prison walls, if such prisoner has not given the security required by this Act—and if such security has been given, if any sheriff or his deputy shall suffer such prisoner to go or be at large out of the rules of the prison, (except by some writ of habeas corpus or rule of court, which rule shall not be granted but by motion in open court)—every such going and being out of the prison and rules, as the case may be, shall be adjudged and deemed, and is hereby declared to be, an escape.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any sheriff or his deputy shall, after one day's notice in writing given for that purpose, refuse to shew any prisoner committed to his charge to the plaintiff at whose suit such prisoner was committed, or to his attorney, such re-cusal shall be adjudged to be an escape.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any person who shall deliver in a false schedule of his effects shall suffer the penalties of wilful perjury, shall be liable to be arrested again for the action or execution on which he was discharged, and shall forever be disabled to take any benefit from this Act, and from the Act for the more effectual relief of insolvent debtors, passed the seventh day of April, one thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That upon an escape the plaintiff may either proceed against the defendant to retake him, or against his security, or, in case the security should prove deficient, against the sheriff, who shall be ultimately answerable in damages for such escape; and the court of common pleas is hereby authorised and required to make all necessary rules and orders for the effectual carrying into execution this Act, according to the true intent and meaning of the same.

XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Act entitled "An Act for the more effectual relief of insolvent debtors," passed the seventh day of April, one thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine, shall be deemed to be of full force in all matters wherein it is not repugnant to this Act; and that an Act entitled "An Act to alter and amend an Act for the more effectual relief of insolvent debtors," passed the eleventh day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, be,
and the same is hereby, repealed;

No. 1437. AN ACT TO CONFIRM THE TITLE OF THE COMPANY FOR OPENING THE NAVIGATION OF THE CATAWBA AND WATEREE RIVERS TO LANDS PURCHASED BY THEM OF RICHARD ELLIS; AND TO VEST IN THE SAID COMPANY THE LANDS THEREIN MENTIONED.

WHEREAS, the company for opening the navigation of the Catawba and Wateree rivers purchased five hundred acres of land at and near Rocky Mount, on the Catawba river, from Richard Ellis, for five hundred and eighty-one pounds sixteen shillings and three pence, and paid the said Richard Ellis one hundred and eighty pounds, in part of the said purchase money, but have lately discovered that a moiety of the premises was conveyed to him from James Rugge, since the twenty-sixth day of February, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, and is therefore liable to be sold by the commissioners of confiscated estates, for the benefit of the public, as part of the estate of the said James Rugge, whose estate has been confiscated; and whereas, the price given for the said land was the value thereof at the time of the said purchase, but the value has been greatly increased by the improvements, labour and expense of the said company; and from the indigent circumstances of the said Richard Ellis, they could not be recompensed in damages on being evicted of the said land; and the said Richard Ellis having consented to release the said company from a moiety of their debt, and that such moiety shall be paid by them to the public in case the Legislature think proper to confirm the title of the said company to the said land;

1. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and the House of Representatives, met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the right and title of the said company of, in and to the land at and near Rocky Mount, on Catawba river, purchased by them of the said Richard Ellis, shall be, and the same is hereby, confirmed and established, and the said land is hereby vested in the said company and their successors forever.
II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said company shall pay to the commissioners of the treasury of this State, agreeable to the instalment law, two hundred and ninety pounds eighteen shillings and one penny halfpenny, with interest from the first day of March, one thousand seven hundred eighty-eight, being a moiety of the purchase money of the said land.

III. And whereas, by the Act for incorporating the said company, they were entitled to all the lands within two miles of the said river, from Camden ferry to the North Carolina line, which were then not granted to any person or reserved for the Catawba Indians, provided the said company should cause the said lands to be surveyed within three years from the passing of the said Act; which proviso subjects the said company to many inconveniences and difficulties in obtaining the said lands: Be it therefore enacted, that all the lands within two miles of the said rivers so to be made navigable, from Camden ferry to the North Carolina line, which were not granted before the twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, to any person or persons, or reserved for the Catawba Indians, shall be vested in the said company and their successors, forever; any law to the contrary notwithstanding. Provided nevertheless, that any person who, between the twenty-seventh day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, and the twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, made an actual and bona fide survey (on a warrant duly issued) of lands within two miles of the said rivers, shall be entitled to a grant for the land so surveyed, within six months next after the passing this Act, (but at no time afterwards,) if the persons who have caused such surveys to be made shall, after notice to the president of the said company of an intended application for a grant, show, to the satisfaction of the Governor and Council or commissioner of caves, in the district where the land lies, that such surveys have been actually and bona fide made as aforesaid.

the captain or other officer or clerk of the company appointed to receive the respective returns, who is and shall be hereby empowered to admin-

A.D.1791.

No.1459. AN ACT for the abolition of the Rights of Primogeniture, and for giving an equitable distribution of the Real Estates of Intestates; and for other purposes therein mentioned.

WHEREAS, the Convention of this State, by the fifth section of the tenth article of the Constitution, passed the third day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety, did direct that the Legislature should, as soon as might be convenient, pass laws for the abolition of the rights of primogeniture, and for giving an equitable distribution of the real estates of intestates;

1. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the right of primogeniture be, and the same is hereby, abolished; and that when any person possessed of, interested in, or entitled unto a real estate in his or her own right in fee simple, shall die without disposing thereof by will, the same shall be distributed in the following manner:

1st. If the intestate shall leave a widow and one or more children, the widow shall take one-third of the said estate, and the remainder shall be divided between the children, if more than one, but if only one, the remainder of the estate shall be vested in that one absolutely forever.

2d. The lineal descendants of the intestate shall represent their respective parents, and be entitled to receive and divide equally among them the shares to which their parents would respectively have been entitled, had they survived the ancestor.

3d. If the intestate shall not leave a child or other lineal descendant, but shall leave a widow and a father or mother, the widow shall be entitled to one moiety of the estate, and the father, or if he be dead, the mother, shall be entitled to the other moiety.

4th. If the intestate shall not leave a lineal descendant, father or mother, but shall leave a widow and brothers and sisters, or brother or sister, of the whole blood, the widow shall be entitled to one moiety of the estate, and the brothers and sisters, or brother or sister, to the other moiety, as tenants in common. The children of a deceased brother or sister shall take among them respectively the share which their respective ancestors would have been entitled to had they survived the intestate.

5th. If the intestate shall leave no lineal descendant, father, mother, brother or sister of the whole blood, but shall leave a widow, and a brother or sister of the half blood, and a child or children of a brother or sister of the whole blood, the widow shall take one moiety of the estate, and the other moiety shall be equally divided between the brothers and sisters of the half blood, and the children of the brothers and sisters of the whole blood. The children of every deceased brother or sister of the whole blood taking among them a share equal to the share of a brother or sister of the half blood. But if there be no brother or sister of the half blood, then a moiety of the estate shall descend to the child or children of the deceased brother or sister; and if there be no child of a deceased brother or sister of the whole blood, then the said moiety shall descend to the brothers and sisters of the half blood.

6th. If the intestate shall leave no lineal descendant, father, mother, brother or sister of the whole blood, or their children, or brother or sister of the half blood, then the widow shall take one moiety, and the lineal ancestor or ancestors, if any there be, the other moiety.

7th. If the intestate shall leave no lineal descendant, father, mother, brother or sister of the whole blood, or their children, or brother or sister of the half blood, or lineal ancestor, then the widow shall take two-thirds of the estate, and the remainder shall descend to the next of kin.

8th. If the intestate shall leave no widow, the provision made for her shall go as the rest of his estate is directed to be distributed in the respective clauses in which the widow is provided for.

9th. In reckoning the degrees of kindred, the computation shall begin with the intestate, and be continued up to the common ancestor, and thence down to the person claiming kindred, inclusively, each step inclusively being reckoned as one degree.

10th. On the death of any married woman, the husband shall be entitled to the same share of her real estate as is herein given to the widow out of the estate of the husband, and the remainder of her real estate shall be distributed among her descendants and relations in the same manner as is heretofore directed in case of the intestacy of a married man.

11th. If the intestate shall leave no husband, the provision herein made for him shall go as the rest of her estate is directed to be distributed in the preceding clauses.

II. And be it further enacted That in all cases of intestacy the personal estate of the intestate shall be distributed in the same manner as real estates are disposed of by this Act.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to give to any child or issue (or his or her legal representatives) of the intestate, a share of his or her ancestors' real estate where such child or issue shall have been advanced by the intestate in his lifetime, by portions or portion equal to the share which shall be allotted to the other children. But in case any child, or the issue of any child, who shall have been so advanced, shall not have received a portion equal to the share which shall be due to the other children, (the value of which portion being estimated at the death of the ancestor, but so as that neither the improvements of the real estate by such child or children, nor the increase of the personal property, shall be taken into the computation,) then so much of the estate of the intestate shall be distributed to such child or issue as shall make the estate of all the children to be equal.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no lands or personal estate which shall be acquired by any person after the making of his or her will shall pass thereby, (unless the said will be republished,) but every such person shall be considered as having died intestate, as to the said lands and personal estate, and the same shall be distributable according to the directions of this Act.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That where any person shall be at the time of his or her death seized or possessed of any estate in joint tenancy, the same shall be adjudged to be severed by the death of the joint tenant, and shall be distributable as if the same was a tenancy in common.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all cases where provision is made by this Act for the widow of a person dying intestate, the same shall, if accepted, be considered as in lieu of, and in bar of, dower.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of May next, it shall and may be lawful to and for any person who may be entitled to a distributive share of any estate, real or personal, and shall have arrived to the age of twenty-one years, or be married, to apply by petition to the court of equity or common pleas, (at the option of the party,) for a writ of partition, to be directed to certain commissioners, authorizing and requiring them to divide the said estate; and the court shall thereupon issue a writ of partition, in the same manner as is directed for the admeasurement of dower, by an Act entitled "An act for the more easy and expeditious obtaining the admeasurement of dower to widows, of the lands of which their deceased husbands were seized in fee at any time during their marriage;" and the commissioners so to be appointed, being first duly sworn fairly and impartially to discharge their duty, shall proceed to execute the said writ, and return the same to the court; and when the said estate cannot, in the opinion of the commissioners, be fairly and equally divided between the parties interested therein, without manifest injury to them, or some or one of them, then they shall make a special return of the whole property and the value thereof, truly appraised, and certify their opinion to the court whether it will be most for the benefit of all parties to deliver over to one or more of the parties interested therein the property which cannot be fairly divided, upon the payment of a sum of money to be assessed by the said commissioners, or to sell the same at public auction; and the court shall proceed to consider and determine the same, and if it shall appear to the court that it will be for the benefit of all parties interested in the said estate that the same should be vested in one person or more persons entitled to a portion of the same, on the payment of a sum of money, they shall determine accordingly; and the said person or persons, on the payment of the consideration money, shall be vested with the estate so adjudged to them, as fully and absolutely as the ancestor was vested. But if it shall appear to the court that it would be more for the interest of the parties that the same should be sold, then they shall direct a sale to be made, on such a credit and on such terms as to them shall seem right; and the property so sold shall stand pledged for the payment of the purchase money.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the judges of the respective courts shall be, and they are hereby, authorized from time to time to make such rules and orders as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying the foregoing clause into effect.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall commence its operation on the first day of May next, but not sooner.

AND UTILITY," PASSED OCTOBER 12, 1785.

WHEREAS, it is necessary to call in and sink the paper medium circulating in this State, as speedily as possible;

1. _Be it enacted_, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representa-weeks immediately following the said second Wednesday in May next,

166 STATUTES AT LARGE
OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

In the Senate House, the nineteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, and in the fifteenth year of the Independence of the United States of America.

DAVID RAMSAY, President of the Senate.

JACOB READ, Speaker of the House of Representatives.
AN ACT FOR ESTABLISHING THE MODE OF GRANTING THE LANDS NOW VACANT IN THIS STATE, AND FOR ALLOWING A COMMUTATION TO BE RECEIVED FOR SOME LANDS THAT HAVE BEEN GRANTED.

WHEREAS, all the valuable lands in this State have already been granted, and such as are now vacant will remain so, if the sum of ten dollars, in indents, be required by the public for every hundred acres thereof, and no taxes will be paid for the same:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That so much of the first and second sections of an Act entitled "An Act for establishing the mode and conditions of surveying and granting the vacant lands within this State," passed the twenty-first day of March, 1784, and that so much of the first section of an Act entitled "An Act to alter and amend an Act entitled an Act for establishing the mode and conditions of surveying and granting the vacant lands within this State, and for other purposes therein mentioned," passed the 24th of March, 1785, as relate to the granting and selling such lands within this State as are now vacant, at the rate of ten dollars for every hundred acres, be, and the same is hereby, repealed; and that such vacant lands be granted to any citizens applying for the same, on paying the fees of office.

II. And whereas, grants for many thousand acres of land within this State have been obtained at the rate of ten dollars, in indents, for every hundred acres, and some of the grantees have suffered their grants to remain in the secretary's office without applying for them, and where such lands have been put up for sale by the treasurers on account of the non-payment of the said ten dollars per hundred acres, the sums produced by such sales were very trifling; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That where lands have been so granted, and have not been resold by the treasurers, it shall and may be lawful for the treasurers, and they are hereby required, on receiving four shillings and eight pence, specie or paper medium, from the grantees of the said land, for every hundred acres thereof, in lieu of ten dollars in indents, to give the grantees paying such commutation a discharge for the same, and an order on the secretary of State to receive his grant on paying the fees; and the said secretary is hereby required, on receiving such order and payment, to deliver the grants to the grantees respectively who shall be so entitled to them.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all grants of land in the secretary's office, and which shall not be taken out within twelve months from the passing of this Act, be then sold to the highest bidder by the commissioners of the treasury.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That where any person or persons have paid aggregate sums into the treasury as a portion or part of the purchase money due to the State for divers tracts of land, without ascertaining the particular tract or tracts which they would be understood so to have paid for, that in all such cases the commissioners of the treasury may sell such tract or tracts, or as much thereof as may be sufficient to make up the balance due to the State, as have been granted to such person, and are not paid for, as they may think proper, at public sale, under and by virtue of this Act.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Governor for the time being be, and he is hereby, authorized and empowered
OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

Governor to appoint commissioners of locations.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall not be considered to be of force, so as to enable any survey whereon to found a grant under and by virtue of this Act, nor any application to relapse any survey already made be effectual, till after the first day of April next, but that all and every person or persons who have already made surveys of any land, or shall make surveys of any land before the first day of April, may be at liberty to carry the same into a grant on the payment of one dollar per hundred acres, as prescribed in the second enacting clause of this Act.

AN ACT FOR ESTABLISHING AN EASIER AND CHEAPER MODE OF RECOVERING MONEY SECURED BY MORTGAGE ON REAL ESTATES; AND BARRING THE EQUITY OF REDEMPTION; AND FOR ABOLISHING THE FICTITIOUS PROCEEDINGS IN THE ACTION OF EJECTMENT.

WHEREAS, mortgages are generally meant merely as securities for debts, and no actual estate is intended to be conveyed by the mortgagor to the mortgagee, but the mortgaged estate is intended, and ought to be considered, only as a pledge for the payment of the principal and interest due on the debt meant to be secured; and whereas, the present mode of foreclosing mortgages of real estates is tedious and expensive, and the right of the mortgagor to his equity of redemption is, in the present mode of exercising that right, attended with inconvenience: Now, for the easier and speedier advancement of justice, in obtaining the payment of debts secured by mortgage, and for ascertaining when the equity of redemption of the mortgagor shall be barred,

I. Be it enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That on judgment being obtained in the court of common pleas on any bond, note, or debt, secured by mortgage of real estate, it shall and may be lawful for the judges of the court of common pleas, in case of any judgment having been obtained subsequent to the property being mortgaged, and prior to the obtaining judgment in the action hereby allowed to be commenced, to order the sale of the mortgaged property for the satisfaction of the monies secured by the said mortgage, and to give a reasonable extension of the time when the sale is to take place, not exceeding the term of six months from the judgment, and also to give a reasonable credit on the sale of the mortgaged premises, not exceeding the term of twelve months from the sale; and the mortgagor shall be forever barred and foreclosed by such sale from his equity of redemption, in as complete VOL. V.—22.
a manner as if the same had been foreclosed in a court of chancery; any law, usage or custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.
Provided always, that if at any time before such sale, the mortgager shall tender to or pay into the hands of the plaintiff, or his agent or attorney, or to the sheriff, all the principal money and interest meant to be secured by such mortgage, and also all the costs of suit, the sale shall not take place, but the mortgagee shall enter satisfaction on the said mortgage, and the mortgaged premises shall be forever exempt from the said mortgage.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no mortgagee shall be entitled to maintain any possessory action for the real estate mortgaged, even after the time allotted for the payment of the money secured by mortgage is elapsed; but the mortgager shall be still deemed owner of the land, and the mortgagee as owner of the money lent or due, and shall be entitled to recover satisfaction for the same out of the land, in the manner above set forth. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any suit or action now pending, or when the mort-gager shall be out of possession, nor to contravene in any way the Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to encourage subjects of foreign states to lend money at interest on real estates within this State," nor to deprive any person or persons of any right which he, she or they may have at the time of passing this Act.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That where the same lands are mortgaged at divers times, the debts meant to be secured by such mortgages shall be paid in the order the same are recorded, agreeable to law, and in no other order; any law, usage or custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

IV. And whereas, since the disuse of real actions, the common method of trying the title to lands has been by action of ejectment, which, depending upon a variety of legal fictions, is rarely understood but by professors of the law; in order to render more plain the mode of trying the title to lands in this State, Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the method of trying the title to lands or tenements within this State shall be henceforward by action of trespass, wherein the real name of the plaintiff and defendant shall be used, and not fictitious names; and if the jury shall find for the plaintiff, they are also hereby empowered, in the same verdict, to award damages for mesne profits, and the judgment shall be entered on such verdict, as well for the damages as for the recovery of the land; and the plaintiff, on such judgment, shall be entitled to a writ of possession for the land, and to an execution for his damages.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every Act of Assembly relative to actions of ejectment, shall henceforward be constructed to relate to such actions of trespass where the title to lands shall come in question.

In the Senate House, the nineteenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, and in the fifteenth year of the Independence of the United States of America.

DAVID RAMSAY, President of the Senate.
JACOB READ, Speaker of the House of Representatives.
AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE FINAL SETTLEMENT OF THE ACCOUNTS OF THE FORMER COMMISSIONERS OF THE TREASURY, AND OTHER PUBLIC DEPARTMENTS, AND OF ALL OTHER PERSONS HAVING ACCOUNTS WITH THE STATE.

WHEREAS, it is ordained in and by the fifth of the additional articles to the Constitution of this State, passed at Columbia, the third day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety, that the Legislature "provide for the annual and final settlement of the accounts of the commissioners of the treasury, so that the pecuniary interest of the State be duly attended to, and the persons who faithfully discharge the duties of that important office be quieted therein, and their securities released, in a fixed and reasonable time." And whereas, in order to carry the said article fully into effect and to ascertain the real state of the public accounts of this State, and to enforce a settlement with the public by those persons who have been in any way entrusted with the collecting and payment or disbursement of public money, it is become necessary to close the public accounts at a day certain, and to appoint proper persons as commissioners

other agent or agents, board, person or persons, who have at any time heretofore been entrusted with the collection and disbursement of public money in any way or manner whatsoever, and whose accounts remain unsettled and not finally closed; and on a thorough investigation and examination, and having proper vouchers and evidences exhibited to them, to close and settle with such person or persons, and the heirs, executors or administrators of such as may have departed this life, an acquittance or other sufficient discharges, in the name and for and on behalf of this State, to give; and also to deliver up and cancel all and every such bonds and

State, so that persons faithfully executing the duties of their respective offices, their securities, and the heirs, executors and administrators of such persons and their securities, may be quieted and forever discharged from their said obligations.

III. And in order to enable the said commissioners fully to carry this Act into execution, and to ascertain the real state of the pecuniary interests Powers of the
of this State, Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said comcommissioners, or any two of them, be, and they are hereby, authorized, enjoined and required to call to an account and reckoning, and to settle with, all and every such person and persons as have filed the office of commissioners of the treasury of this State, and with the heirs, executors and administrators of such as may be dead, all collectors and receivers of the public tax, and all and every such person and persons as have acted as agents or boards, and all other person or persons whomsoever, who at any time or times heretofore have been entrusted or concerned in the collection and receipt or payment and disbursement of public money, and the heirs, executors or administrators of such as may be deceased; and in case of refusal or neglect in any person or persons to render such account, and to make payments of any balance or balances in their hands, to prosecute, on the part and behalf of this State, any action or actions, suit or suits, in law or equity, for the recovery of any sum or sums of money that may be found in arrear, due, owing or payable to this State, and the same to final judgment and execution to prosecute, and to proceed to the seizure and sale of the goods, chattels and effects of such debtor or debtors, or to the imprisonment of his or their persons; in such way or manner as to the said commissioners, or any two of them, may seem fit and meet for the benefit of this State.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said commissioners, in the execution of the trust hereby reposed in them, and to enable them to obtain the fullest and most perfect information on the object of their commission, shall have full power and authority to send for and examine any person or persons on the subject of the accounts, receipts and disbursements for and on behalf of the public; and also to order the attendance of all or any of the present or former commissioners of the treasury, auditor general, or other public officer or officers of this State, for the purposes aforesaid. And in case any person summoned to appear before the said commissioners shall refuse to appear, or, when appearing, shall refuse to be examined or to give such information, on oath or affirmation, as may be consistent with his, her or their knowledge in the premises, that it shall and may be lawful for the said commissioners, or any two of them, to commit such person or persons to close prison, in any common gaol of this State, until he, she or they shall submit to be examined by the said commissioners, or any two of them; and all and singular the sheriffs, gaolers and other public officers, are hereby required to be aiding and assisting to the said commissioners, in enabling them fully to carry this Act into effect.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said commissioners, or any two of them, at all times during the continuance of this Act, to visit the public treasury, the offices of the tax collectors, or any of them, and to point out and direct the manner in which the accounts of the treasury, tax collectors, or other officers, shall be kept; and to direct such statements, accounts and documents to be made out and prepared for the use of the Legislature, or of the said commissioners, as they shall deem necessary to explain or illustrate their reports, or to ascertain the true balances of the public debts and credits of the State.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said commissioners, or any two of them, shall, from time to time, report and lay before the Legislature of this State a full statement of their proceedings in the premises.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That before any of the said commissioners shall take upon him the duties imposed by this Act, he shall take an oath, before some one of the judges of the superior court of this State, well and faithfully to execute the trust hereby re-

posed; and the said commissioners shall cause an oath to be administered to each and every clerk by them to be employed, well and faithfully to execute the duties imposed on them, and to keep secret such matters as may be enjoined them by the said commissioners, or a majority of them.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That each of the commissioners appointed by virtue of this Act shall be entitled to receive, as a reward for his services, the sum of five hundred pounds sterling annually, over and above all charges of stationary and other expenses necessarily to be incurred, except the hire of clerks, in and about executing the duties imposed by this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be taken as a public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such, and may be given in evidence as such in all courts of judicature of this State, without special pleading; and that if the said commissioners, or any of them, or any person or persons employed by them, in and about executing the duties prescribed by this Act, shall be sued or impleaded for any thing done by them; or any of them, in the execution of the same, and a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or the plaintiff shall suffer a nonsuit or discontinuance, the defendant or defendants shall recover treble costs.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurers now to be elected shall, from the day of their appointment, commence and open a new set of books, totally unconnected with the past transactions of the treasury office, and keep the same after the Italian method of book-keeping; and they are hereby required and directed to balance their books on the first day of October in every year, and lay a statement of the same before both houses of the Legislature, on the first day of their meeting, annually. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to deprive the commissioners of the treasury of the power of demanding, receiving and compelling the payment of debts due to the State, agreeably to law.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be in force for the space of three years from and after the passing thereof, and from thence to the end of the next sitting of the General Assembly; unless the objects thereof shall be sooner accomplished, and the Legislature be enabled to discharge the commissioners from the trusts created by the same.

No. 1501. AN ACT TO SUPPRESS THE PERNICIOUS PRACTICE, AND PREVENT THE EVIL CONSEQUENCES, OF EXCESSIVE AND DECITFUL GAMING AND SWINDLING, AND OTHER PRACTICES THEREIN MENTIONED.

WHEREAS, a number of idle persons, of ill fame, who have no visible means of obtaining an honest and reputable livelihood, have of late infest this State, and have been too successful in carrying into effect their deceitful, gambling and swindling practices, drawing into their wily snares many ignorant and unwary persons, to their prejudice; in order, therefore, to prevent, as far as possible, such dangerous and evil practices in future,

I. Be it therefore enacted by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That from and immediately after the passing of this Act, if any person or persons shall inveigle or entice, by any arts or devices, any other person or persons to play at cards or dice, or any other game, or bear a share or part in the stakes, wagers or adventures, or bet on the sides or hands of such as do or shall pay as aforesaid, or shall sell, barter, or expose to sale any kind of property which has been before sold, bartered or exchanged by the person so selling, bartering or exchanging, or by any person or persons, to his or their benefit or advantage, so selling, bartering or exchanging, in any house or other place within the State, or be a party thereto, or overreach, cheat or defraud by any other cunning swindling arts and devices, that so the ignorant and unwary, who are deluded thereby, lose their money or other property, every such person exercising such infamous practices shall, on conviction thereof, in any court of this State exercising criminal jurisdiction, by trial by jury, be deemed guilty of enticing, inveigling, defrauding and swindling, shall forfeit a sum at the discretion of the court and jury, besides refunding to the party aggrieved double the sum he was so defrauded of; and if the same be not immediately paid, with costs, every such person or persons shall be committed to the common gaol or house of correction of the district or county where such person or persons shall be convicted, there to continue for any time not exceeding six months, unless such fine or fines, with costs, be sooner paid and discharged.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That complaint on oath being made to any one of the justices of peace within the State, of any person or persons having defrauded the party complaining, by inveigling, enticing, or by any swindling practices, within the meaning of this Act, he shall issue his warrant directed to any sheriff or lawful constable, who is thereupon to apprehend such person or persons and bring him or them before any one of the justices of the peace of the State, with the cause of his detention, who shall thereupon hold the party so brought before him to bail, with one or more sufficient sureties, to appear at the court of the district or county, having jurisdiction to try such cause, that shall happen thereafter, and answer to any information to be then filed against him or them by the party so injured; but if the party refuse to give bail as aforesaid, the said justice of peace shall be, and he is hereby, authorized and required to commit him or them to the common gaol of the district or county in which the complaint is made, there to remain until the next sitting of the court of the district or county having jurisdiction to try such cause, then to be brought up for trial.

III. And whereas, the occupation of seafaring men, and the residence of such inhabitants of the State as are at a great distance from the city of Charleston, rendering it inconvenient and expensive to such persons (having been defrauded within the said city) to wait until the sitting of the court ofsessions for the purpose of prosecuting to conviction offenders against this Act, but would rather submit to the loss sustained, if not very great; therefore, for the relief of such persons, it is necessary that such offenders within the city of Charleston should be brought to a more speedy trial; therefore, for that purpose, Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the court of wardens of the city of Charleston be, and the said court is hereby, authorized and empowered to try all offenders against this Act, upon the principles of law in criminal cases; provided, that a jury is drawn from among the citizens of Charleston for that purpose.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the City Council of Charleston is hereby authorized and empowered to regulate and direct the mode and manner of drawing such juries; and that the jurors so drawn shall be liable to the same penalties for non-attendance as the jurors of the superior court of sessions are by law subject to.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all notes, bills, bonds, judgments, mortgages, or other securities or conveyances whatsoever, given, granted, or entered into, or executed by any person or persons whatsoever, where the whole or any part of the consideration of such conveyances or securities shall be for any money or valuable thing whatsoever won by cock-fighting, horse-racing, or by gambling or playing at cards, dice, tables, tennis, bowls, or other game or games whatsoever, or by betting on the sides or hands of such as do game at any of the games aforesaid, or any other game or games, or for the reimbursing or repaying any money knowingly lent or advanced at the time and place of such cock-fighting, horse-racing or play, to any person or persons so gaming or betting as aforesaid, or that shall, during such cock-fighting, horse-racing, or so play or bet, shall be utterly void, frustrate, and of none effect, to all intents and purposes whatsoever: and that where such mortgages, securities, or other conveyances shall be of lands, tenements or hereditaments, or shall be such as to encumber or affect the same, such mortgages, securities, or other conveyances, shall ensue and be to and for the sole use and benefit of and shall devolve upon such person or persons as shall have been or may be entitled to such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in case the said grantor or grantors of the same, had been dead, and as if such mortgages, securities or other conveyances had been made to such person or persons by the person or persons so encumbering the same; and that all grants and conveyances to be made for the preventing of such lands, tenements or hereditaments from coming to or devolving upon such person or persons, hereby intended to enjoy the same as aforesaid, shall be deemed fraudulent and void, and of none effect, to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

WHEREAS, the honorable John Lewis Gervais, Esquire, by his memorial and petition, hath stated to the Legislature sundry circumstances of peculiar hardship attending his purchase of public property, and in particular, that, to make payment for the same, over and above paying five thousand four hundred pounds in indents of his own, he borrowed eleven thousand six hundred pounds, which he deposited with the attorney general, and that to procure the same he entered in a special contract to return such indents as he borrowed; therefore, prayed that the Legislature would direct the attorney general to return to him the indents which he borrowed, and afford him such other relief as to them should seem just. (Passed December 20, 1791. See last volume.)
AN ACT to alter and amend the law respecting Juries, and to make some additional regulations to the Acts for establishing and regulating the Circuit Courts.

AN ACT TO REPEAL PART OF AN ACT PASSED FEBRUARY 19, A. D. 1791, ENTITLED "AN ACT FOR GRADUALLY CALLING IN AND SINKING THE PAPER MEDIUM OF THIS STATE, ISSUED BY VIRTUE OF AN ACT ENTITLED "AN ACT TO ESTABLISH A MEDIUM OF CIRCULATION BY WAY OF LOAN, AND TO SECURE ITS CREDIT AND UTILITY," PASSED OCTOBER 12, A. D. 1785.

WHEREAS, by an Act, passed the nineteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, entitled "An Act for gradually calling in and sinking the paper medium issued by virtue of an Act entitled "An Act to establish a medium of circulation by way of loan, and to secure its credit and utility," passed the twelfth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, it is enacted, "That the borrowers of the paper medium shall be obliged to pay into the hands of the Commissioners of the Loan Office, one fifth part of the original principal sum borrowed, and the whole of the interest then due, on the first Wednesday in March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, and that the same be delivered to a joint committee of the Senate and House of Representatives, to be by them burnt." WHEREAS it appears to the Legislature, that many inconveniences have arisen in carrying into execution the Act entitled "An Act for erecting and establishing a College in the Village of Winnsborough, in the District of Camden, a College in or near the City of Charleston, and a College at Ninety-six, in the District of Ninety-six, in the State of South Carolina," passed the nineteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, both as to the time of election of officers among the trustees of Charleston College, and as to the other stated times and places of meeting of the trustees of the said College; and also that by blending the regulations for the said three Colleges into one Act, doubts had arisen in many instances as to the construction of the same; for remedy whereof,

I. Be it therefore enacted by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina, now met and sitting in General Assembly, that Thomas Bee, Esq. President, Richard Hutson, Esq. Vice-President, Daniel Desaussure, Esq. The said president and officers so chosen shall take an oath for the due and faithful execution of their office, to be administered to them by any judge or justice of the peace. III. And be it further enacted that the said trustees of the College of Charleston, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority, from time to time, to make, constitute, and establish such and so many by-laws, rules and orders, as to them shall seem necessary and convenient for the better regulation, government, well ordering and directing of themselves as trustees aforesaid, as well as of the said College in Charleston, and all officers, professors, or other persons by them employed or to be employed in and about the same, and of all students in the said College, and for the better managing, limiting and appointing of all and singular the trusts and authorities in them and each of them reposed and to be reposed, and for the doing, managing, and transacting all things necessary for and concerning the government of the same College, and the same by-laws, rules and orders to put in force and execution accordingly, and the same again at their will and pleasure to alter, change, revoke or annul; all which by-laws, rules and orders, so to be made as aforesaid, shall be binding on each and every of the said trustees, and on all officers, professors, and other persons by them employed, and on all students in the said College, and shall be from time to time by each and every of them inviolably and punctually observed according to the tenor and effect thereof, under the several pains, penalties and disabilities therein expressed, fixed, appointed, or declared; provi-

No. 1538.

AN ACT to exonerate James Postell from the Purchase of two Tracts of Land sold him by the Commissioners of Forfeited Estates, late the Property of John Rose; and for other purposes therein mentioned.

WHEREAS, the commissioners of forfeited estates did, on the first day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, sell and dispose of at public auction, to James Postell, two tracts of land, late the property of John Rose, one containing nine hundred and thirty-one acres, and the other, supposed to be two hundred acres, was found to contain one thousand four hundred and sixty acres, and that the last mentioned tract having the timber-land, was essential to the former tract; that one hundred and forty acres of the said two hundred acres, is claimed and taken possession of by John Smith, by which the former tract of nine hundred and thirty-one acres is rendered of little value, and that should the said James Postell be compelled to comply with the terms of said purchase, under these circumstances, it would be highly injurious:

I. Therefore, be it enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the Postell Exoneration authority of the same, That the said James Postell be, and he is hereby, exonerated from the aforesaid purchase.

II. Be it further enacted that the said James Postell do pay into the hands of the commissioners of the treasury, on or before the first day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, of land, the sum of seven shillings for each and every acre of rice land; and also the further sum of three shillings for each and every acre of provision land the said James Postell planted, for each and every year during the term he has been in possession of the same; and shall also deliver on oath to the said commissioners of the treasury, or one of them, a just and true account of the quantity of acres of rice and provision land he annually planted during the term aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioners of the treasury shall, as soon as may be, sell and dispose of the two Tracts of land aforesaid, giving six weeks notice of the time and place of the intended sale, on a credit of one, two, three and four years; the purchase money to be paid in specie, with interest of seven per cent per annum, also payable in specie at the expiration of each year; and that they shall take bonds, with sufficient landed and personal security in this State, for the said purchase money; which bonds and securities shall be taken in the name of the said treasurers for the use of this State; and the commissioners, and the survivors and successor of them, are and is hereby empowered and required to execute sufficient titles and conveyances for vesting the aforesaid property, which may be sold by them aforesaid, in the persons who shall respectively purchase the same, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, respectively, for the term for which the above mentioned land was sold; any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

No. 1540. AN ACT to incorporate the Society for promoting and encouraging the Education of Children, and assisting and establishing Schools for that purpose in Beaufort District.
(Passed December 20, 1791. See last volume.)

No. 1541. AN ACT prescribing, on the part of this State, the time, place and manner of appointing Electors of a President and Vice President of the United States.

WHEREAS, the Constitution of the United States of America has ordained that "each State shall appoint, in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors, equal to the whole number of senators and representatives to which the State may be entitled in Congress," and that "Congress may determine the time of choosing the electors and the day on which they shall give their votes," and that "the day shall be the same throughout the United States." And whereas, Congress, by their Act passed and approved the first day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, did enact that "electors shall be appointed in each State for the election of a President and Vice President of the United States, within thirty-four days preceding the first Wednesday in December, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, and within thirty-four days preceding the first Wednesday in December in every fourth year succeeding the last election; which electors shall be equal to the number of senators and representatives to which the several States may by law be entitled, at the time when the President and Vice President thus to be chosen should come into office; and that the electors shall meet and give their votes on the first said Wednesday in December, at such place in each State as shall be directed by the Legislature thereof;"

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That electors of a President and Vice President of the United States shall be appointed by ballot on the Tuesday preceding Wednesday the fifth day of December, in the present year, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, in the House of Representatives at Columbia, by the Legislature of this State, or by such persons as shall be returned members thereof and shall attend on that day. And also, that the electors of a President and Vice President of the United States shall be appointed by ballot on the Tuesday preceding the first Wednesday in December, in every fourth year succeeding the last election, in the House of Representatives, at Columbia, by the Legislature of this State which shall be then existing, or by such persons as shall be returned members

And the electors, when so qualified, shall convene at the State House in Columbia, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon of the day above specified, for the election of a President and Vice President, to proceed on that business.

AN ACT to alter and amend the Act entitled "An Act to oblige Persons interested in Marriage Deeds and Contracts to record the same in the Secretary's Office of this State."

WHEREAIS, the Act of the Legislature, passed the eighth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, entitled "An Act to oblige persons interested in marriage deeds and contracts to record the same in the Secretary's office of this State," has been found to be defective and inadequate to remedy the mischiefs thereby necessary to be provided against, inasmuch as the sanction or penal clause of the said Act is judicially deemed and declared not to extend to and comprehend such marriage deeds, settlements or contracts as were actually existing at and before the time of passing of the said Act; in remedy whereof,

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That all marriage contracts, deeds and settlements which existed and were of legal force and operation at the time of the passing of the said Act, and have not been recorded within the time and manner therein prescribed, after being duly attested and proved shall be recorded or lodged in the secretary's office of this State, within eighteen months after the passing of this Act; otherwise, and in case of neglect and default of recording or lodging the said marriage contracts, deeds and settlements, within the time and in manner therein prescribed and directed, then the same and every thing therein contained shall be, and are hereby declared to be, fraudulent, and null and void, with respect to and against creditors and bona fide purchasers and mortgagees.

II. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all marriage contracts, deeds and settlements, to be made after the first day of June next, shall therein describe, specify and particularize the real and personal estate thereby intended to be included, comprehended, conveyed and passed, or shall have a schedule thereto annexed, containing a description and the particulars and articles of the real and personal estate intended to be conveyed and passed by such marriage contracts, deeds and settlements; which said schedule shall be thereto annexed, and signed, executed and delivered by the parties therein interested, at the time of the signing, executing and delivering the said marriage contracts, deeds and settlements, and be subscribed by the same witnesses who subscribed the said marriage contracts, deeds or settlements, and shall be recorded therewith; otherwise, and in default of such schedule and recording thereof as aforesaid, the said marriage contracts, deeds and settlements shall be, and are hereby deemed and declared to be, fraudulent, and null and void, with respect to and against creditors and bona fide purchasers or mortgagees.

Provided, that where any marriage settlement shall be made previous to marriage, nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to make the property settled thereby liable, in default of a schedule, or not being duly recorded, to the payment of any debts contracted by any husband previous to such marriage, but only to such debts and contracts as shall have been incurred and made by the said husband subsequent to the marriage taking place.

AN ACT to repeal a part of the Act passed February 19, A.D. No. 1546.
1791, entitled "An Act for gradually calling in and sinking the Paper Medium, issued by virtue of an Act to establish a Medium of Circulation by way of Loan, and to secure its credit and utility; passed October 12, A.D. 1785; and for other purposes therein mentioned.

WHEREAS, by reason of the extraordinary drouth which prevailed during the last summer throughout this State, many of the inhabitants thereof have lost, some a part and others nearly the whole of their crops, whereby they will be deprived of the means of paying such part of the principal of the paper medium by them borrowed, as will become due on the first Wednesday in March next:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That so much of the Act passed the 19th day of February, 1791, entitled "An Act for gradually calling in and sinking the paper medium issued by virtue of an Act entitled An Act to establish a medium of circulation by way of loan, and to secure its credit and utility," passed the 12th October, 1785, as requires one fifth part of the principal sum borrowed of the said paper medium, to be paid by the borrowers on the first Wednesday in March next, which will be in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, shall be, and the same is hereby, repealed; and that such fifth part shall be payable at the time when the last payment shall become due under the said Act: Provided, that no borrower of the paper medium who failed to make the payment which was required to be made on the second Wednesday in May, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, or who failed to make the payment which was required to be made on the first Wednesday in March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, shall be entitled to the benefit of this Act; unless such borrower shall, on or before the first Wednesday in March next, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, pay up whatever may be due by such borrower on account of either of the instalments of the principal before mentioned, and the whole of the interest that will become due on the first Wednesday in March, in the year one thousand seven hundred and nine-three, together with all costs and charges which may have accrued in consequence of such borrower's default; but nothing in this proviso contained shall abate or otherwise affect any suit brought or judgment obtained against any person or persons who failed to make payment agreeably to the directions of the said Act, passed on the nineteenth day of February, in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, or any sale made under or by virtue of the said Act.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in every case where the treasurer in Charleston has by virtue of the said Act, or where the commissioners of the loan office have sold the land mortgaged thereby, for any of the said paper medium, and the purchaser thereof has failed to comply with the terms of sale, the said treasurer shall proceed against such person or persons hereafter purchasing such lands in the same summary manner as is directed by the Ordinance for regulating public vendues, when purchasers fail to comply with the terms of sale.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurer in Charleston shall, on the Wednesday four weeks after the first Wednesday in March next, expose to public sale to the highest bidder, all such lands as he or the late commissioners of the loan office may have bought in, on account of the State, at any sale made in consequence of any default made by any borrower of the paper medium, on a credit of one, two, three and four years; taking from the purchaser thereof a mortgage of the premises sold, and a bond with approved personal security, bearing interest from the date: Provided, that the said treasurer shall advertise such intended sales in the Gazettes of Charleston and Columbia, for three weeks previous to the time of sale: And provided further, that if the persons who are the borrowers of the paper medium shall pay, on or before the Wednesday four weeks after the first Wednesday in March next, the arrears of interest and principal by them then due, and give such additional security as shall be required by the commissioners of the treasury, then the said lands sold as aforesaid shall be restored, but subject to the original mortgage, in trust for the public; and the former proprietors, or their legal representatives, shall be entitled to the same benefits they would have been entitled to if no default had been made.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whenever the said treasurer shall, at any future sale of any land mortgaged for the said paper medium, buy in, on account of the State, any such land, he shall within two months from the time of buying in any such land, as aforesaid, proceed to have the same sold in the same manner and on the same terms as are mentioned in the next preceding clause.

Remedy for false surveys.

term of four years, that within that period no one person shall obtain more than one grant for land to be hereafter surveyed, which shall in no case exceed five hundred acres; and that no warrant of survey shall be issued by any commissioner of locations within this State for any number of acres exceeding five hundred acres; and not more than one such warrant to any one person, during the aforementioned period of four years.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That where any warrants have been issued previous to the passing of this Act, if any deputy surveyor, in locating them, shall knowingly and wilfully comprehend within the limits of any such location, any plantation or tract of land before granted, without noting the same, and if the said warrants shall be hereafter carried into grants, or where there are any grants for land now actually made out, signed, and ready to be delivered, or where any plat is returned to the office of the Surveyor General or Secretary of the State, and shall be hereafter carried into grants, which plats or grants comprehend within their respective limits any plantation or tract of land before granted, without the same being marked and noted, it shall be lawful for any of the proprietors of the plantations or tracts so before granted, or any other person interested therein, to bring his action of trespass against the grantee of the subsequent grant, which comprehends the prior one, or any part thereof, his heirs or assigns, or any or all of them; and on his substantiating by proof, to any district court and jury within whose jurisdiction the land lies, that his land, or part thereof, is actually comprehended in the subsequent grant, a verdict shall be found in his favor, and the court shall declare the subsequent grant, and every part thereof, to be fraudulent and void to all intents and purposes; and the plaintiff shall recover such damages as the jury shall assess, and treble costs of suit.

III. And whereas, since the passing an Act entitled "An Act for establishing the mode of granting the lands now vacant in this State, and for allowing a commutation to be received for some lands that have been granted," passed the 19th day of February, 1791, divers grants of large tracts of land have been obtained, which included one or more surveys which have not been elapsed, the property of others, without taking notice of or designating the same in their plats, and without obtaining the consent of the said proprietors, and without their knowledge; and whereas, the lands in this State are so generally granted that no person could suppose that there were in this State such large bodies of vacant land, from which it appears that the intention of the aforesaid persons must have been to oblige the inhabitants who are settled within the boundaries and limits of the aforesaid plats to produce their titles, or, if they had lost them in the war or by other accidents, to seize their lands as vacant, and by producing such grants to unwary foreigners, may deceive them by the appearances of regularity and authority on the face thereof, and may involve them in purchases ruinous to them and prejudicial to the credit and reputation of the State: In order, therefore, to prevent the alarms of the people, and the great litigation and numerous suits that may arise from the said unreasonable, excessive and unlawful surveys and grants, and to prevent imposition on foreigners and citizens of other States, Be it enacted and declared by the authority aforesaid, That the said surveys were made in violation of the instructions given to the deputy surveyors in this State; that the said grants have been obtained contrary to the intention of the Legislature, in establishing the mode of granting the lands now vacant in this State; that the Governor must have been deceived when he signed the same; and that, on its being proved, in the manner before enacted, to the satisfaction of any district court and jury, within whose jurisdiction the land lies, that such grants actually contained within their limits one or more settlements, the property of others under former surveys, without taking notice of or designating the same in their plats, and obtaining their consent (where such consent could have been obtained) to run the same, the court shall declare the said grants to be fraudulent, and the same shall be void to all intents and purposes.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every surveyor who shall have wilfully and knowingly violated the instructions of the Surveyor General, in not marking out the boundaries of all lands formerly granted, and which are within the surveys by him or them made, shall be prosecuted by the Attorney General and Circuit Solicitors of the respective districts, on proper application being made to either of them.

V. Whereas, John Sloan, and the Rev. John Monk, and William Hill, junior, by their petitions to the Legislature, have set forth that they had, at considerable expense, erected a Bloomery on South Edisto, in Edgefield county, for manufacturing of iron ore into bar iron; and whereas, under the existing laws of the State, and the regulations of this Act, it is impossible for the said petitioners to run a sufficient quantity of vacant land to enable them to conduct and prosecute the said Bloomery with advantage or effect, and it being an object of great national importance to encourage the manufacture of raw materials; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioner of location for the district of Ninety-Six be, and he is hereby, authorized and required to issue his warrants, one in behalf of John Sloan, for six thousand acres of land, and another in the joint behalf of said John Sloan, the Rev. John Monk and William Hill, junior, for ten thousand acres of vacant land, the nearest to the said iron works; and that the said land, so to be located, be granted to the said persons; any thing in this Act contained, or any law to the contrary there-of, in any wise notwithstanding.

WHEREAS, by a clause of the Act entitled "An Act for establishing the mode of granting the lands now vacant in this State, and for allowing a commutation to be received for some lands that have been granted," passed on the nineteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, it is enacted that all grants of land in the Secretary’s office, and which should not be taken out within twelve months from the passing of that Act, should be then sold to the highest bidder by the commissioners of the treasury; and such lands have not been sold, and it is thought expedient to extend the time of sale still longer:

1. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the sale of the said lands shall be postponed to the fifteenth day of December next, and no longer; and that if any person shall, before that time, pay up the money due for the land, agreeably to the “Act for establishing the mode for granting lands now vacant in this State, and for allowing a commutation to be received for some lands that have been granted,” and the expenses incurred thereon, which expenses it is hereby declared shall not exceed six shillings for any one tract of land, he shall be entitled to the said grant, and the land thereby granted to him; any thing in the said clause of the said Act, or any Act or Resolution of the Legislature of this State, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize the taking out of grants for the excessive surveys of land which have been made since the first day of April, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That ten commissioners be appointed by the Governor in each circuit court district, who shall be required to return to the Legislature at their next meeting an account of all such lands as have escheated to the State, agreeably to the Act entitled “An Act to appoint escheators, and to regulate escheats,” passed the twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven; and that the reasonable expenses incurred by the commissioners appointed as aforesaid in making the returns be paid by the State.

AN ADDITIONAL ACT to an Act entitled "An Act for incorporating the Society of Free and Accepted Masons in this State," passed the twentieth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one.

AN ACT TO MAKE SUCH PROVISION FOR THE DEBT OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, AS IS SPECIFIED THEREIN.

WHEREAS, on a settlement of accounts between the United States and the individual States, the State of South Carolina is a creditor to the amount of one million four hundred and forty-seven thousand, one hundred and seventy-three dollars and sixty cents; and whereas, Congress have made ample provision for paying the interest on the aforesaid balance, and it is just and reasonable that the same should be appropriated to pay the interest on the debt of the State to the creditors thereof, as far as the same will extend.

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the interest to grow due upon the balance of the funded debt due to the State of South Carolina, from the Congress of the United States, be, and the same is hereby, appropriated and sacredly set apart as a fund to make good the several engagements that shall be entered into in pursuance of this Act.

II. And whereas, it is necessary to make arrangements for the equal distribution of the interest arising as aforesaid, among the creditors of the State; Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That a loan be proposed to the amount of one million four hundred and forty-seven thousand, one hundred and seventy-three dollars; and that books for receiving subscriptions to the said loan be opened at Charleston, on the first day of February next, by a commissioner to be appointed for that purpose, to continue open until the last day of September following, inclusively; and that the sums which shall be subscribed thereto, be payable in certificates issued for the said debt, computing the interest upon such as bear interest to the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the sums which shall be subscribed to the said loan, shall be payable in the principal and interest of such certificates as were issued by William Gibbs and Edward Blake, late commissioners of loans, reduced to their specific value, according to the laws of this State; in such certificates as were given by the continental loan office, as a surplus upon the subscriptions to the loan of four millions of dollars opened in this State under the law of the United States, distinguishing between the principal and interest which may have been due on the same at the time of the subscription, the principal of which shall be considered as drawing an interest of seven per cent per annum, from the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two; in the receipts given by the respective treasurers, for special indents registered in the offices agreeable to the resolves of the Legislature directing the same, which shall be funded in no other manner than as a claim of interest against the State; and in all the other general indents which have been issued under the authority of the State, with the interest which may have arisen thereon. Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize the commissioner to be appointed under this Act, to receive and fund indents issued to the late Alexander Gillon, Esq. And provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize the said commissioner to receive and fund general indents issued to persons whose estates were confiscated and afterwards restored, except at a rate of one for five.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the total amount of the sums which shall be subscribed to the said loan within the time limited for receiving subscriptions thereto, shall exceed the sum of one million, four hundred and forty-seven thousand, one hundred and seventy-three dollars, the certificates and credits granted to the respective subscribers shall bear such proportion to the sums by them respectively subscribed, as the total amount of the said sum shall bear to one million four hundred and forty-seven thousand, one hundred and seventy-three dollars; and the amount of the surplus, distinguishing between the principal and interest, together with the name of the subscriber, shall be entered in books to be kept by the commissioner for that purpose, who shall give an indent to each subscriber, stating the amount of the surplus both in principal and interest. And every subscriber to the said loan shall at the time of subscribing deposit with the commissioner the certificate, or indent, to be loaned by him. Provided, in every instance, that the said commissioner shall compare every indent offered for loan with the check books, and shall not issue other certificates for the same, unless the amount of the sums and the names of the parties agree with those written in the margin of the said check book, and shall also indorse on the back of each indent or certificate which shall be admitted to be loaned, that he has examined the same, and finding it right, hath cancelled it; which cancelled indents the said commissioner shall then file.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the credit of the subscriber or subscribers, being ascertained as aforesaid, that for any sum subscribed to the said loan, which shall be paid in the principal of the debt of the State, the subscriber or subscribers shall be entitled to one or more certificates, at the option of the subscriber, purporting that the State of South Carolina owes to the holder or holders thereof, his, her or their assigns, a sum, to be expressed therein, equal to two-thirds of the sum so paid, bearing an interest of six per cent per annum, payable quarter-yearly; and to another certificate or certificates, purporting that the State of South Carolina owes to the holder or holders thereof, his, her or their assigns, a sum, to be expressed therein, equal to the proportion of thirty-three dollars and one-third of a dollar upon a hundred of the sum so paid; which, after the year one thousand eight hundred and six, shall bear an interest of six per centum per annum, payable quarter-yearly; and the said debts shall be subject to redemption at the will of the State.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the credit of the subscriber or subscribers being ascertained as aforesaid, that for any sum subscribed to the said loan, which shall be paid in the interest of the debt of the State, the subscriber or subscribers shall be entitled to a certificate or certificates, purporting that the State of South Carolina owes to the holder or holders thereof, his, her or their assigns, a sum to be specified therein, equal to that by him, her or them so paid, bearing an interest of three per centum per annum, payable quarter-yearly, and subject to redemption at the will of the State.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the interest upon the stock created pursuant to this Act, as the same shall become due, shall be payable at the office of the commissioner of the treasury in Charleston, quarter-yearly; that is to say, one-fourth part thereof, on the last day of March; one other fourth part thereof, on the last day of June; one other fourth part thereof, on the last day of September; and the remaining fourth part thereof, on the last day of December; the first payment to become due on the last day of March, which shall be in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six; and the said stock shall be transferable only on the books of the said commissioner, by the proprietor or proprietors of the said stock, his, her or their attorneys.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the interest which shall arise on the balance funded to the credit of this State by the United States, in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, shall be paid over by the treasurer in Charleston, as it shall be received, to the foreign creditors of this State, in average and proportion to each, if they or their agents make demand of the same, within ten days before the quarter yearly payments of the said interest become due, otherwise in average and proportion amongst such as shall make claim as aforesaid; and if only one should make such claim, then in extinguishment, as far as the said interest will go, of the debt of such claimant: Provided in every case, that the foreign creditors or their agents shall agree to give receipts for the payments made according to the actual amount of the payment here.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whoever shall counterfeit, or utter, knowing the same to be counterfeited, any of the receipts or certificates to be issued in pursuance of this Act, shall, on conviction thereof, suffer death, without benefit of clergy.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the final settlement of the accounts of the former commissioners of the treasury and other public departments, and all other persons having accounts with the State," so far as it relates and may relate to all Acts, accounts and transactions, matters and things, not yet completed and perfected, and so far as to continue in full force and effect all bills, actions and suits, and the proceedings thereon moved, commenced and instituted by the commissioners who were appointed under the said Act, and not yet ended, and also in so far as to continue in office for and during the term of one year, from the first day of January next, John Lewis Gervais, one of the commissioners under the said Act, shall be,

XI. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That John Lewis Gervais is hereby directed in all cases, where his duty is not plainly or expressly pointed out by this Act, to follow, as near as may be, what has been done by the officers of the United States, in carrying into effect the arrangements made by Congress for funding their debts and paying the interest on the same.

No. 1607. AN ACT FOR RAISING SUPPLIES FOR THE YEAR ONE THOUSAND SEVEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-FOUR.

WHEREAS; we, the representatives of the free and independent State of South Carolina, in General Assembly met, have thought it expedient and necessary that a tax, for the sums and in manner herein mentioned, should be assessed, raised, and paid into the public treasury of this State, for the use and service thereof:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the sum of ten shillings per centum ad valorem on every hundred pounds, to be paid in specie or paper medium, shall be, and is hereby, imposed on all lands granted within this State, and in the manner and under the several regulations hereinafter set forth and expressed, that is to say: No. 1. All tide swamp not generally affected by the salts or freshes, of the first quality, shall be rated at six pounds per acre; of the second quality, at four pounds per acre; of the third quality, at two pounds per acre; all pine barren lands adjoining such swamps, or contiguous thereto with respect to the benefit of water carriage, at ten shillings per acre; all prime inland swamp, cultivated and uncultivated, at an average of three pounds per acre; second quality,

ditto, at two pounds per acre; third quality, ditto, one pound per acre; pine barren lands, adjoining or contiguous thereto, at five shillings per acre; salt marsh or inland swamp, clearly proved to the assessors to be incapable of immediate cultivation, five shillings per acre. 2. High river swamps or low grounds, cultivated and uncultivated, including such as are commonly called second low grounds, lying above the flowing of the tides, and as high up the country as Snow Hill, on Savannah river, the fork of Broad and Saluda rivers, on the Congaree, Graves's Ford on the Wateree, and the boundary line on Pedee; the first quality at three pounds per acre; the second quality at two pounds per acre; the third quality at one pound per acre; except such as lie so low as to be clearly proved to the assessors to be incapable of immediate cultivation, which shall be assessed at five shillings per acre. 3. All high river swamp, or low grounds, lying above Snow Hill, the fork of Broad and Saluda rivers, Graves's Ford, and the old Indian boundary line, fifteen shillings per acre. 4. All high lands without the limits of St. Philip's and St. Michael's parishes, on John's island, James island, and on the main, within twenty miles of Charleston, at one pound per acre. 5. All lands on the Sea islands, Slann's island included, or lying on or contiguous to the seashore, usually cultivated, or capable of cultivation, in corn or indigo, and not within the limits prescribed in class number four, one pound per acre. 6. All oak and hickory high lands lying below Snow Hill, the fork of Broad and Saluda rivers, Graves's Ford, or the boundary line on Pedee, and not included in the limits or description of the two preceding classes, numbers four and five, at fifteen shillings per acre. 7. All pine barren lands not included in number one, four, and five, to be assessed at one shilling per acre. 8. All oak and hickory high lands lying above Snow Hill, the fork of Broad and Saluda rivers, and Graves's Ford, the first quality, at eight shillings per acre; the second quality, at five shillings per acre; the third quality, at two shillings per acre. 9. All oak and hickory high lands above the old Indian boundary line, the first quality, at six shillings per acre; the second quality, at three shillings per acre; the third quality, at one shilling per acre. That all lands within the limits of the parishes of St. Philip and St. Michael shall be assessed in the same manner and upon the same principles as houses and lots in Charleston, and in a relative proportion to lands in the country. That the sum of three shillings and six pence per head shall be levied on all slaves; the sum of nine shillings and four pence, per head, on all free negroes, mulattoes, and mustiozes, between the ages of sixteen and fifty years; and ten shillings per centum ad valorum on all lands and lots and buildings within any city, village, or borough, and on every hundred pounds stock in trade, factorage, employments, faculties and professions, (clergymen, mechanics, schoolmasters and schoolmistresses excepted)—to be ascertained and rated by the assessors and collectors throughout the State, according to the best of their knowledge and information; to be paid in specie or paper medium of this State.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all negroes and other slaves who are employed on any lands leased by any person or persons of the Catawba Indians, shall be, and they are made, liable to the payment of this tax.

III. And whereas, doubts have arisen and are still subsisting respecting the construction of former tax Acts, inasmuch as the tax collectors have assessed the property of divers religious societies, and also of the incorporated Religious Societies exempted South Carolina Society; Be it therefore enacted, that nothing in this Act, or in any former Act contained, shall be construed to impose a tax on any property of any religious society, or of the South Carolina Society.
IV. And whereas, it is the duty of every person claiming of or receiving from this government the protection either of his person or property, to contribute not only his quota of money, but also those personal services which every citizen is bound to contribute for the support of that government, or to pay an additional tax in lieu of such services; And whereas, there are numbers of persons holding large estates in this country, who reside without the limits of the United States, and annually draw from this State great resources, which are expended in foreign countries without any advantage to this government, to which they are indebted for the protection of their property; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that every male person holding, or being entitled to, any taxable property in this State, who resides without the limits of the United States, shall, for the use of this State, pay a double tax on their estate and property; which tax and assessment the tax collectors throughout this State are hereby required to exact and recover from every such person: Provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to the property of any person sent, or hereafter to be sent, abroad in the employment of this State or of the United States, until one year after the expiration or determination of his commission, or to the property of any young man sent abroad for his education, until he attain the age of twenty-three years, or to the property of any person now absent from the United States, unless such person has been so absent for two years.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the enquirers, assessors and collectors, appointed by law, shall, for their services in the discharge of their duties, receive, on closing their accounts with the commissioners of the treasury, five per centum, except the parishes of St. Philip and St. Michael, who are to receive 2½ per centum, on the amount of the taxes collected by them, to be allowed and paid to the several tax collectors.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the assessors, enquirers, and collectors respectively, shall begin their enquiry on the first day of February next; and that when all the collectors who were appointed for any parish or county are dead, and the tax returns not closed with the commissioners of the treasury, the collectors who shall be thereafter appointed are hereby directed and ordered to demand receipts or to administer an oath, or to procure other satisfactory proof, from the persons of the county or parish, that he or they had paid their taxes for the preceding years, in order to discover their taxes still due, and to enable the public to ascertain what sums of money are due by the estates of deceased collectors; and should the executors or administrators of the deceased collectors refuse to produce the accounts of the deceased, or give information on the subject, the commissioners of the treasury are hereby ordered to put the law in force against the estates of the deceased collectors.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the assessors and collectors appointed by law shall do and perform all and singular the duties appertaining to their office, as described in an Act entitled "An Act for declaring the powers and duties of the enquirers, assessors and collectors of the taxes, and other persons concerned therein."

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioners of the treasury be, and they are hereby, directed to furnish copies of this Act to each of the assessors and collectors appointed by law, throughout this State, within one month after passing this Act, and the reasonable expenses incurred thereby shall be reimbursed.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all persons any wise liable to pay the taxes hereby imposed, shall, on the sixth day of February, 1795, give in a true and just return of the quality and quantity of lands and slaves, as directed to be taxed by law, either in his, her or their own right, or in the right of any person or persons whatsoever, as guardian, executor, administrator, attorney, agent or trustee, or in any other manner whatever; and shall, on or before the first day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, pay in their taxes to the assessors and collectors appointed by law for the parish, county or district where the party making such return, either by himself or family, resided the greatest part of the year. And that the said assessors and collectors shall pay the same, and settle their accounts with the treasury, on the first day of June, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five; any law, usage or custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

X. And whereas, it will be beneficial to the State that the interest accruing on the paper medium should be appropriated towards defraying some part of the expenses of the government; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all the interest of the paper medium issued by virtue of an Act passed the twelfth day of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, now due, or to grow due on or before the first Wednesday in March next, is hereby appropriated to make up any deficiencies of the money to be raised by this Act.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the principal sums of the said paper medium which will be due on the first Wednesday in March next, shall not be required to be paid as directed by the Act entitled “An Act for raising supplies for the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three,” but shall be paid on the first Wednesday in March, one thousand eight hundred: Provided always nevertheless, that no person shall be entitled to the benefit of this clause who shall not give an additional security, if required by the treasurer in Charleston; and it is hereby declared to be the duty of the treasurer in Charleston to require such additional security in all cases where he is not fully satisfied of the sufficiency of the former security, and in all cases where default has been made in paying what has heretofore been due, or which shall be made in paying the interest to grow due in March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five.

XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of the Act passed the twentieth day of December, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, entitled “An Act for raising supplies for the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three,” as shall be repugnant to the preceding clauses of this Act, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

XIII. And be it also further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That nothing shall be received by the treasurers in payment of the taxes hereinbefore directed to be raised, but gold and silver coin made current in this State, and the paper medium issued by authority of the Legislature, or bank paper redeemable in the first instance with gold and silver at the banks now established in this State, or certificates issued for the pay of the members of the Legislature for their attendance thereon.

In the Senate House, this twentieth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, and in the nineteenth year of the Independence of the United States of America.

AN ACT to cede to the United States a proper place, upon North Island, whereon a Light House may be erected.

WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States, on the twenty-first day of February last, passed an Act to provide for the erection of a Light House for the harbor of Georgetown, in this State; and Tench Coxe, Esquire, commissioner of the revenue of the United States, by his letter addressed to both branches of the Legislature, has, on behalf of the said States, and by virtue of the said Act, requested that this State would pass a law to cede to the United States such a place for the purpose aforesaid, as Edward Blake, Daniel Stevens and Isaac Holmes, Esquires, might think most eligible: And whereas, it has been represented to the Legis-Slature, that some spot upon North-Island would be the most eligible place for the said purpose; that Paul Trapier, Esq., who is the proprietor of the said island, is willing to make a gratuitous cession of a sufficient quantity of land upon the said island to answer the end above mentioned; but that Edward Blake, Esq., above named, has lately departed this life:

I. Be it therefore enacted by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the au-Thority of the same, That the secretary of this State, for the time being, shall be, and he is hereby, authorized to receive a conveyance from the said Paul Trapier, Esq., or any other person or persons authorized or having a lawful right to execute the same, of and for such and so much land, upon North-Island aforesaid, as the said Daniel Stevens and Isaac Holmes, Esquires, or any other person or persons in this behalf, lawfully authorized or appointed under the said Act of Congress, or any other Act by them made or to be made, may be chosen as a proper site for the said lighthouse; and that the secretary of this State for the time being shall make and execute such a conveyance, or instrument in writing, under his hand and the seal of this State, as the Attorney General shall advise and prepare, and thereby convey to the United States, in fee simple forever, all such land and premises as the said Paul Trapier may convey to him as aforesaid.

sand seven hundred and ninety-five, and in the twentieth year of the Independence of the United States of America.

AN ACT to facilitate the conveyance of Real Estates.

WHEREAS, the mode of conveying land, by indentures of lease and release, is expensive, and it is found by many inhabitants of this State to be very inconvenient: for remedy thereof,

I. Be it enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the following form, or purport of a release, shall, to all intents and purposes, be valid and effectual, to convey from one person to another, or others, the fee simple of any land or real estate, if the same shall be executed in the presence of, and be subscribed by, two or more credible witnesses.

1. Be it enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the persons who shall hereafter be elected to the office of sheriff of a district, or to be appointed thereto by the Governor, during the recess of the Legislature, shall, within three weeks immediately succeeding such election or appointment, enter into a bond, drawn payable to the treasurers of the State for the time being, and their successors, in the sums hereinafter mentioned, conditioned for the due and faithful discharge of the duties of the said office, as required or to be required by law; which bonds shall be executed by the said sheriffs respectively, and any number of securities, not exceeding twenty, nor less than five; which securities, before they are accepted or received by the treasurers, shall be approved of in writing by the commissioners, in manner hereinafter directed, who are hereby severally authorized and required to consider and determine, in their several districts, respecting the competency of the several persons to be offered by the sheriffs, for the purposes aforesaid. And no person,

To be elected or appointed to the office of sheriff, shall be permitted by the judges to enter upon the execution of his office until he hath recorded in the office of the clerk of the court of the district for which he is or may be elected or appointed, a certificate from the commissioners appointed by virtue of this Act, (which certificates they are hereby required to give) that such sheriff hath duly executed and lodged in the treasury such bond with such security as is required by this Act. And if any person so to be elected or appointed as aforesaid to the said office shall fail to provide and perfect the security, within the time required by this Act, the office of such sheriff shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be, vacated.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the bonds of the sheriffs of the several districts shall be given in the sums following, that is to say: the bonds to be given by the sheriff of Ninety-Six, the sheriff of Pinckney, and the sheriff of Washington, the sheriff of Orangeburgh, and the sheriff of Cheraw districts, shall be severally in the sum of fifteen hundred pounds sterling money; the bonds to be given by the sheriff of Camden, the sheriff of Beaufort district, and the sheriff of Georgetown district, shall be severally in the sum of five thousand pounds sterling money; and the bond to be given by the sheriff of Charleston district shall be in the sum of ten thousand pounds sterling money. And the persons who shall be approved of and join as securities in the bonds prescribed by this Act shall, severally, be held and deemed liable, each one for his equal part of the whole sum in which the bond is given, (the said sum to be divided into as many equal parts as there shall be securities in the bond;) and no more than such equal part shall be in any court recoverable of or from any one of the said securities, his heirs, executors or administrators; but nothing in this Act contained shall operate to prevent the securities from having and obtaining amongst one another just and equitable aid and contribution, as in other cases of securityship where there are several securities.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the bonds to be given by the sheriffs, according to this Act, and to be deposited in the treasury, may at all times be sued for by the public, or any private person who shall or may think themselves aggrieved by any misconduct of any sheriff; for which purpose the treasurers for the time being, and each of them, upon application at the treasury office, shall deliver to any person applying therefor, and paying the fees for doing the same, an exact and certified copy of any sheriff’s bond there deposited; which copy, so certified, shall be good and sufficient evidence in all the courts of this State, in any suits so to be instituted. Provided further, that if the said sheriff should have been first sued after a return of nulla bona, the security or securities shall not be entitled to an impairment.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in every obligation to be taken from the sheriff of each of the districts in this State, as before in this Act directed, it shall be made a part of the condition of the obligation that the sheriff is not, at the time of giving the bond, under any obligation, either in honor or law, to share the profits of the office with any person or persons whomsoever; and that he will not, directly or indirectly, sell or dispose of his office, or the profits thereof, but will either resign, and settle all his accounts, or continue in the actual discharge of the duties thereof, by himself or his deputy or deputies, for and during the time for which he is elected, if he shall so long live.

WHEREAS, the sum subscribed on the thirtieth day of September last, agreeably to the terms of an Act entitled "An Act for making such provision for the debt of the State of South Carolina, as is specified therein," does not exhaust the interest due to the State on the debt funded to its credit by the United States;

I. Be it enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the commissioner of loans be, and he is hereby, authorized and required to receive and fund all such indents as were fundable under and by virtue of an Act passed on the twentieth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, entitled "An Act for making such provision for the debt of the State of South Carolina as is specified therein," and which indents the holders thereof have neglected to fund under the said Act; and the claims of Jas. M'Call, as specified in the commissioners' report: Provided, the said indents shall be subscribed on or before the last day of March next, on the same terms and subject to the same restrictions and provisos as the said Act contains.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioner of loans for the time being, and he is hereby, authorized and required to receive on loan, the said loan to continue open till the last day of March next, on the terms hereinafter declared, all indents issued to the late Commodore Alexander Gillon, on the portage bill book, which have been paid to the persons entitled, from the said portage bill book, to receive the same, and generally all indents which were issued to the said Alexander Gillon, and are now in the possession of other persons. Provided, the persons now holding any indents issued on the portage bill book shall satisfactorily prove to the said commissioner of loans, on or before the last day of March next, that they were bona fide purchasers of the same previous to the twenty-fifth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, and moreover, that at the time of such purchase they had no notice of the resolution of the House of Representatives of the nineteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, expressive of their opinion of Commodore Gillon's conduct.

III. And be it further enacted, That on receiving the said indents the commissioner shall calculate the interest accruing on them respectively to the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, the aggregate sum whereof shall be paid in three certifi-

Cates, one purporting that the State of South Carolina owes to the person or persons subscribing to said loan a sum, to be expressed in said certificate, equal to three tenths of the aggregate sum subscribed, bearing an interest of three per cent. from the said first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, payable quarter yearly; one other certificate, for a sum to be expressed therein, equal to four ninths of said aggregate sum, bearing an interest of six per cent. from the said first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, payable quarter yearly; and a third certificate, for a sum to be expressed therein, equal to two ninths of said aggregate sum, which certificate, from and after the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six, shall bear an interest of six per cent. per annum, payable quarter yearly.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the total amount of interest arising upon the sums loaned under the authority of this Act shall exceed the balance of interest remaining to this State on the debt due from the United States, that then the commissioner of loans shall deduct in average and proportion from the aggregate amount of each loan such a sum as will reduce the interest on the remaining sums to the amount of the interest due this State from the United States. And the commissioners of loans shall give to the subscribers aforesaid, respectively, certificates of the balances due to them, specifying the amount of the several descriptions of stock to which they are entitled; and the commissioner of the treasury in Charleston is hereby authorized and required to purchase, with any unappropriated monies that may be in the treasury, and to transfer to the holders of such certificates respectively, equal sums of the funded debt of this State, having regard to the several descriptions thereof, as specified in the said certificates, and paying such interest as may have accrued on such surplus certificate.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurer in Charleston be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to receive from the commissioner of loans of the United States, all the monies that may be paid to this State by the United States, in extinguishment of the balance due to this State from the United States, and to apply the same to the extinguishment of the present six per cent. funded debt of this State, either by payment of two per cent. on the said stock, or by purchase of the same. Provided, that the treasurer shall not make any payment or purchase but by and with the advice and consent of the Governor of this State for the time being.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That John Lewis Gervais, Esq. be, and he is hereby, continued commissioner of public accounts and of loans, to the end of the next meeting and sitting of the General Assembly, with all the powers heretofore annexed to these offices respectively: Provided, that in addition to the duties heretofore imposed on him by former laws, he also perform the duties of this Act.

DAVID RAMSAY, President of the Senate.

ROBERT BARNWELL, Speaker of the House of Representatives.
AN ACT for raising Supplies for the year One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five.

WHEREAS, we, the representatives of the free and independent State of South Carolina, in General Assembly met, have thought it expedient and necessary that a tax, for the sums and in the manner herein mentioned, should be assessed, raised, and paid into the public treasury of this State, for the use and service thereof:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the half of one dollar per centum ad valorem on every hundred dollars, to be paid in specie or paper medium, shall be, and is hereby, imposed on all lands granted within this State, and in the manner and under the several regulations hereinafter set forth and expressed, that is to say: No. 1. All tide swamp, not generally affected by the salts or freshes, of the first quality, shall be rated at twenty-six dollars per acre; of the second quality, at seventeen dollars per acre; of the third quality, at eight dollars and one half dollar per acre; all pine barren land adjoining such swamps, or contiguous thereto with respect to the benefit of water carriage, at two dollars per acre; all prime inland swamp, cultivated and uncultivated, at an average of thirteen dollars per acre; second quality, at eight dollars and one half of a dollar per acre; third quality, ditto, at four dollars per acre; pine barren land, adjoining or contiguous thereto, at one dollar per acre; salt marsh or inland swamp, clearly proved to the assessors to be incapable of immediate cultivation, at one dollar per acre. No. 2. High river swamps or low grounds, cultivated and uncultivated, including such as are commonly called second low grounds, lying above the flowing of the tides, and as high up the country as Snow Hill, on Savannah river, the fork of Broad and Saluda rivers on the Congaree, Graves's Ford on the Wateree, and the boundary line on Pedee; the first quality at thirteen dollars per acre; the second quality at eight dollars and one half of a dollar per acre; the third quality at four dollars per acre; except such as lie so low as to be clearly proved to the assessors to be incapable of immediate cultivation, which shall be assessed at one dollar per acre. No. 3. All high river swamp, or low grounds, lying above Snow Hill, the fork of Broad and Saluda rivers, Graves’s Ford, and the old Indian boundary line, three dollars per acre. No. 4. All high lands without the limits of St. Philip’s and St. Michael’s parishes, on John’s island, James island, and on the main, within twenty miles of Charleston, at four dollars per acre. No. 5. All lands on the Sea islands, Slann’s island included, or lying on or contiguous to the seashore, usually cultivated, or capable of cultivation, in corn or indigo, and not within the limits prescribed in class No. 4, four dollars per acre. No. 6. All oak and hickory high lands lying below Snow Hill, the fork of Broad and Saluda rivers, Graves’s Ford, or the new boundary line on Pedee, and not included in the limits or description of the two preceding classes, numbers four and five, at three dollars per acre. No. 7. All pine-barren lands not included in numbers one, four, and five, to be assessed at twenty cents per acre. No. 8. All oak and hickory high lands lying above Snow Hill, the fork of Broad and Saluda rivers, and Graves’s Ford, the first quality, at one dollar and the half of a dollar per acre; the second quality, at one dollar per acre; the third quality, at forty cents per
A. D. 1795.

No. 9. All oak and hickory high lands above the old Indian boundary line, the first quality, at one dollar and twenty cents per acre; the second quality, at twenty cents per acre; the third quality, at sixty cents per acre. That all land within the parishes of St. Philip and St. Michael shall be assessed in the same manner and upon the same principles as houses and lots in Charleston, and in a relative proportion to lands in the country. That the sum of seventy-five cents per head shall be levied on all slaves; two dollars per head, on all free negroes, mulattoes, and mestizos, between the ages of sixteen and fifty years; and the half of a dollar per centum ad valorem on all lands, lots and buildings within any city, village, or borough; and on every hundred dollars stock in trade, factorage, employments, faculties and professions, (clergymen, mechanics, schoolmasters and schoolmistresses excepted)—to be ascertained and rated by the assessors and collectors throughout the State, according to the best of their knowledge and information; to be paid in specie or paper medium of this State.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all negroes and other slaves who are employed on any lands leased by any person or persons of the Catawba Indians, shall be, and they are hereby made, liable to the payment of this tax.

III. And whereas, doubts have arisen and are still subsisting concerning the construction of former Tax Acts, inasmuch as the tax collectors have assessed the property of divers religious societies, and also of the incorporated South Carolina Society and others; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that nothing in this Act, or in any former Act contained, shall be construed to impose a tax on any property of any religious society, or of the South Carolina or Fellowship Society.

IV. And whereas, it is the duty of every person claiming or receiving from this government the protection either of his person or property, to contribute not only his quota of money, but also those personal services which every citizen is bound to contribute for the support of that government, or to pay an additional tax in lieu of such services; And whereas, there are numbers of persons holding large estates in this country, who reside without the limits of the United States, and annually draw from this State great resources, which are expended in foreign countries without any advantage to this government, to which they are indebted for the protection of their property, Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that every person holding, or being entitled to, any taxable property in this State, who resides without the limits of the United States, shall, for the use of this State, pay a double tax on their estate and property; which tax and assessment the tax collectors throughout this State are hereby required to exact and recover from every such person: Provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to the property of any person sent, or hereafter to be sent, abroad in the employment of this State or of the United States, until one year after the expiration or determination of his commission, or to the property of any young man sent abroad for his education, until he attain the age of twenty-three years, or to the property of any person now absent from the United States, unless such person has been absent for one year.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the enquirers, assessors and collectors, appointed by law, shall, for their services in the discharge of their duties, receive, on closing their accounts with the commissioners of the treasury, five per centum, except the parishes of St. Philip and St. Michael, who are to receive 2½ per centum, on the amount of the taxes collected by them, to be allowed and paid to the several tax collectors.
OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the assessors, enquirers, and collectors respectively, shall begin their enquiry on the first day of February next; and that where all the collectors who were appointed for any parish or county are dead, and the tax returns not closed with the commissioners of the treasury, the collector who shall thereafter be appointed is hereby directed and ordered to demand receipts or to administer an oath, or to procure other satisfactory proof, from the persons of the county or parish, that he or they had paid their taxes for the preceding years, in order to discover their taxes still due, and to enable the public to ascertain what sums of money are due by the estates of deceased collectors; and should the executors or administrators of the deceased collectors refuse to produce the accounts of the deceased, or give information on the subject, the commissioners of the treasury are hereby ordered to put the law in force against the estates of the deceased collectors.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the assessors and collectors appointed by law shall do and perform all and singular the duties appertaining to their office, as described in an Act entitled “An Act for declaring the powers and duties of the enquirers, assessors and collectors of the taxes, and other persons concerned therein.”

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioners of the treasury be, and they are hereby, directed to furnish copies of this Act to each of the assessors and collectors appointed by law, of this Act throughout this State, within one month after passing this Act, and their reasonable expenses incurred thereby shall be reimbursed.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all persons any wise liable to pay the taxes hereby imposed, shall, on the first day of February, 1796, give in a true and just return of the quality and quantity of lands and slaves, as directed to be taxed by law, either in his, her or their own right, or in the right of any person or persons whatsoever, as guardian, executor, administrator, attorney, agent or trustee, or in any other manner whatsoever; and shall, on or before the first day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, pay in their taxes to the assessors and collectors appointed by law for the parish, county or district where the party making such return, either by himself or family, resideth the greatest part of the year. And that the said assessors and collectors shall pay the same, and settle their accounts with the treasury, on the first day of June, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six; any law, usage or custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

X. And whereas, it will be beneficial to the State that the interest accruing on the paper medium should be appropriated towards defraying the expenses of government; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all the interest of the paper medium issued by virtue of an Act passed on the twelfth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, now due, or to grow due on or before the first Wednesday in March next, is hereby appropriated to make up any deficiencies of the money to be raised by this Act.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the installment of the said paper medium which will be due on the first Wednesday in March next, shall not be required to be paid as directed by the Act entitled “An Act for raising supplies for the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three,” but shall be paid on the first Wednesday in March, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one: Provided always nevertheless, that no person shall be entitled to the benefit of this clause who shall not give an additional security, if required by the treasurer of Charleston, in all cases where he is not fully satisfied of the sufficiency of the former security, and in all cases where default has been made in paying what has heretofore been due, or which shall be made in paying the interest to grow due in March next.

XII. And be it also further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That nothing shall be received by the treasurers in payment of the taxes herein before directed to be raised, but silver and gold coin made current in this State, and the paper medium issued by the authority of the Legislature, or bank paper redeemable in the first instance with gold and silver at the bank of the United States, the branch thereof in Charleston, and the bank of South Carolina, or certificates for the pay of the members of the Legislature, and of the Solicitors, for their attendance thereon.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the tax collectors are hereby directed and required to make no further demand of the officers and members of Lodge No. 2, Ancient York Masons, for any penalties or forfeitures incurred by them for not returning to the tax office a certain building in Lodge Alley, in the city of Charleston, the property of the said Lodge; and the said officers and members are hereby released from the same. The tax collectors, nevertheless, are required to demand and receive from the officers and members of the said Lodge, the arrears of taxes now due, as well as those which in future may be lawfully demanded by virtue of the tax laws of this State.

XIV. And whereas, enormous tracts of land within the State have lately been sold in the Northern States and in foreign countries, and the owners thereof are supposed at present to pay no tax whatever; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty, and is hereby enjoined on all tax collectors and assessors, to enquire for all such land, and demand the tax and arrears of tax to which it may be liable by this and the former Tax Acts.

XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case no tax nor arrears of tax shall be paid to the tax collectors and assessors, on land as above described, previously to the time of payment of the general tax, in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, then the tax collectors are enjoined strictly to enforce the law.

In the Senate House, the nineteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and in the twentieth year of the Independence of the United States of America.

AN ACT to enable Trustees to surrender their trusts, in the manner therein mentioned.

WHEREAS, doubts exist whether the Court of Equity have power to permit trustees to resign their trusts with the consent of the parties entitled to the use of the trust estate, and to substitute other persons to support the trusts:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That in every case of a trust estate where the power or persons entitled to the use of any property or estate vested in trustees, being of age, or his, her or their guardian, if under age, may be willing to have other trustees substituted in the room of those in whom the legal estate is vested, or to have any one or more trustees substituted in the room of any one or more of the first or former trustees, the court of equity shall be, and they are hereby, authorized to permit each one or more of the first or former trustees to surrender his, her or their trust, and to appoint such one or more trustees in his,
her or their room, as to the court of equity may appear fit, proper and advisable; and the trustee or trustees so appointed and substituted shall then be considered, to all intents and purposes, as vested completely and absolutely with all the estate, right, title, interest, powers, privileges and authority, and as liable to all the conditions, terms and restrictions, as that trustee or those trustees were vested with or liable to, in whose stead, room or place he, she or they may be so appointed or substituted; and the first or former trustee or trustees shall be therefrom completely exonerated and discharged. Provided always, that a certificate of such appointment and substitution shall be indorsed by the register or commissioner in equity, upon the original trust deed, if the trust be created by deed, and the deed can be found, and that such a certificate shall be annexed to the original will, if the trust be created by will, and be lodged therewith in the office where the will may be lodged; and that such a certificate shall also be recorded in the Secretary's office, or other office, wherever the deed or will may be recorded or lodged, or ought to be recorded or lodged.

CHINQUEPIN AND THOMSON'S CREEKS.

WHEREAS, sundry persons, inhabitants of the upper part of Lexing-

rienced great inconvenience by obstructions to the passage of fish up Chinquapin Creek; for remedy whereof,

I. Be it enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That every person who bath, or may hereafter erect, any fish dam, hedge, or any other obstruction, across Chinquapin Creek, between

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of August next, all flour casks brought to Charleston for exportation, shall be made of good seasoned materials, well made, and tightened with ten hoops, sufficiently nailed with four nails in each chine hoop, and three nails in each upper bilge hoop, and of the following dimensions, viz: The staves to be of the length of twenty-seven inches, and the casks to be of the diameter of eighteen inches at the head. That every miller and bolter of flour, and baker of bread, for transportation out of the State, shall provide and have a distinguishable brand mark, with which he shall brand each and every cask of flour or bread, before the same shall be removed from the place where the same was bolted or baked. And every miller or bolter shall also brand every cask of flour according to the quality thereof, with the numbers one, two or three, and with the weight respectively, under the penalty of one dollar for every barrel of flour not hooped and nailed as aforesaid, and for every cask of flour or bread so removed and not branded as aforesaid, to be recovered from such miller or bolter who shall neglect to comply with the directions of this Act, or from the person who brings such flour or bread to Charleston aforesaid for sale. And in case a recovery shall be had against such person bringing the said bread or flour for sale as aforesaid, for the said penalty, such person shall and may have a recovery of the same, with costs, against the miller or bolter from whom such bread or flour was purchased or received, upon making it appear that he gave notice to such miller or bolter that he intended to carry the same to the city aforesaid, for sale for exportation, and that he requested such miller or boltier to secure and mark the said barrels as aforesaid.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said millers and boltiers shall put into the casks numbered one, the full quantity or weight of one hundred and ninety-six pounds of flour; in the casks numbered two, the full quantity or weight of one hundred and ninety-six pounds; and in the casks numbered three, the full quantity or weight of one hundred and sixty-eight pounds of flour. And that if any miller or boltier shall pack any cask with a less quantity of flour than is directed by this Act to be contained in the casks of the different sizes and dimensions above mentioned, he shall forfeit, if the deficiency be one pound, twenty-five cents; if two pounds, fifty cents; and fifty cents per pound for every pound deficient above two.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all casks wherein bread shall be packed, shall be weighed, and the tare marked thereon: and if any person shall put a false or wrong tare on any cask of bread, to the disadvantage of the purchaser, he or they shall forfeit, for every cask so falsely tared, one dollar. And the inspectors or their assistants respectively, upon suspicion, or upon the request of the buyers, shall, and are hereby required to, unpack any such cask of flour or bread as aforesaid, and if there shall be a less quantity of flour than is above directed, or if the cask or casks wherein bread is packed, shall be found to weigh more than is marked thereon, then the miller, boltier or baker, as the case may be, shall pay the charges of unpacking and repacking, over and above the penalties aforesaid, but otherwise the said charges shall be paid by the inspector, or by the purchaser if the trial be made at his request.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every baker of bread for exportation shall deliver with the said bread an invoice thereof, with his brand marked thereon, together with his name signed thereto, under the penalty of five dollars for every invoice delivered contrary thereto; and if any cask or casks of bread upon trial be found lighter than is set down in the invoice, he shall forfeit for every pound deficient in the same proportion as is heretofore directed as to flour.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all and every cask of flour brought to the said city, to be from thence laden and shipped for exportation, shall be submitted to the view and examination of the inspector so as aforesaid nominated and appointed, who shall search and try the same by boring the head, and piercing it through with an instrument not exceeding half an inch diameter, to be contrived for that purpose, in order to prove whether it be honestly and well packed, and also enable him to judge of its goodness, and shall afterwards plug up the hole. And if the said inspector shall judge the same to be merchantable, according to the directions of this Act, he shall brand every such cask of flour on the quarter with the word "Charleston," with a public brand and mark to be provided for that purpose, and shall also brand and mark the degree of fineness which he shall on inspection determine the said flour to be of; which degree shall be distinguished as follows, to wit: Superfine, fine, middling, ship-stuff; for which trouble he, the said inspector, shall have and receive of the owner of such flour the sum of seven cents for each cask, and no more.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no inspector of flour shall brand any flour which shall prove on examination thereof to be unmerchantable, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act, but shall cause the same to be marked on the bilge with an arrow, or secure it for a further examination if required, which examination the owner shall procure to be made within the space of twenty days. And the inspector shall and may demand and receive, from the owner or owners thereof, the same rates and prices as if the same had been branded.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when any person shall think himself aggrieved, through the judgment or want of skill of the inspector, in rejecting the said flour as unmerchantable, it shall and may be lawful for such person to apply to the commissiners, who shall, at the charge of the complainant, issue their summons, directed to three indifferent persons well skilled in the manufacture of flour, to review and examine the same; which said three persons, so as aforesaid appointed, shall take the same oath or affirmation, (as the case may be,) as by this Act is hereinafter directed to be taken by every inspector of flour, and shall carefully view and examine the same; and if they, or any two of them, shall pass and declare the same to be merchantable, then and in such case the said inspector shall raze out the arrow, and fix such brand on the said flour as they, or any two of them, shall adjudge and determine, and repay to the said complainant the said cost; but if on such review the judgment of the said inspector shall be confirmed, then and in such case the said owner of such flour shall pay the cost of such review.

XII. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That every inspector shall be allowed four cents per barrel for storage, if stored; and if upon an appeal and review as aforesaid, the judgment of the inspector shall be confirmed, the person appealing shall pay the expense of such storage, and shall also pay the same if an appeal shall not be prosecuted. And if the judgment of the said inspector shall be reversed, then the said inspector shall forfeit his charge and expense of the said storage. And that the said inspector of flour, for his trouble, shall and may receive the sum of fourteen cents for each barrel by him reviewed.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful for any person whosoever to export, ship, or lade on board of any ship or vessel for exportation out of this State, any of the casks or barrels of the said flour so marked with an arrow as aforesaid, or to export, ship, or lade on board of any ship or vessel for exportation out of this State, any of the casks or barrels of the said flour not examined and branded as aforesaid, on pain of forfeiture of eight dollars for each and every barrel so exported, or laded on board of any ship or other vessel for exportation, from this State.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every inspector of flour, who shall be nominated as aforesaid, shall on his appointment, and before his executing the said office, make oath or affirmati

XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no inspector of flour shall purchase, directly or indirectly, any flour by him condemned as aforesaid, or any flour whatsoever, other than for his own family use, under the penalty of six dollars for each barrel by him purchased.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person shall alter the mark stamped on any barrel of flour by any inspector; or shall mark or brand any barrel of flour which hath not been inspected, with any mark or brand similar to or in imitation of the inspector's said mark or brand; or after the said inspector shall have passed any barrel of flour as merchantable, shall pack into the cask which contains the same, any other flour; or after any barrel of flour shall be branded with an arrow, shall unpack and repack the same into other casks or packages for exportation out of this State; such person shall forfeit and pay the sum of six dollars for every barrel.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said commissioners, or the major part of them, shall be, and are hereby, empowered, at any time to displace or remove the said officer from his office, if the said commissioners, or the major part of them, shall see cause, and shall and may nominate and appoint another fit person to such office during the residue of the year, who shall have power to execute the same office, according to the directions of this Act, on his taking the said oath of office.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the inspector of flour, appointed by this Act, shall, and is hereby directed, at the request of any person who shall bring above ten casks in any one vessel, to go on board such vessel in the harbor of the said city, and inspect the said flour on board, under the penalty of three dollars for every neglect or refusal.

XIX. And whereas, it may sometimes happen, that by reason of a great quantity of flour being brought at once to Charleston, the person who shall be appointed inspector of flour, cannot alone, with sufficient dispatch, inspect and brand all such flour; and as it is apprehended that the most likely means to support the credit of the inspection brand, is to make one inspector answerable; Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the person to be chosen and appointed inspector of flour, shall or may, on such occasions only, or in case of sickness, employ one or more persons of good repute, and well qualified for such service, as assistants, to assist him in the execution of his said office; and such assistants, after taking the oath or affirmation herein prescribed to be taken by the inspector of flour, are hereby authorized to inspect and brand any barrels of flour at Charleston, as the inspector himself might do.

XX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all and every of the penalties and forfeitures, in and by this Act set and appointed, shall be recovered before a single magistrate, as in case of small debts, or before the City Council, in the name of the commissioners, and be by them paid into the treasury of the State for the use of the public.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That Edward Darrell, Thomas Morris, Nathaniel Russel, Robert Henry, Philip Gadsden, William Crafts and Adam Tunn, be, and they are hereby appointed, commissioners for carrying into effect this Act.
XXII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That Zachariah Cantey, Thomas Broom, John Kernshaw, John Adamson and Daniel Carpenter, or a majority of them, are hereby appointed commissioners to meet at the town of Camden, on the second Monday in January next, and on the second Monday in every January thereafter, to nominate and appoint a person of good repute, and skilful in the goodness and quality of flour, to be an inspector of flour at the said town of Camden; which said inspector shall have all the powers, discharge all the duties, and be subject to all the regulations, which are prescribed by this Act for the inspectors of flour in the city of Charleston.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That Thomas Taylor, John Taylor, Timothy Rives, Benjamin Waring and Robert Lithgow, or a majority of them, are hereby appointed commissioners to meet at the town of Columbia, on the second Monday in January next, and on the second Monday in every January thereafter, to nominate and appoint a person of good repute, and skill in the goodness and quality of flour, to be an inspector of flour in the said town of Columbia; which inspector shall have all the powers, discharge all the duties, and be subject to all the regulations, which are prescribed by this Act for inspectors of flour in the city of Charleston.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for Samuel Smith, George Heriot, Savage Smith, Francis Gottier Delisseline and Robert Elliott, or any three of them, and they are hereby required, to appoint, on the first Monday in January next, and on the first Monday in every January thereafter, one inspector of flour and bread, at the town of Georgetown; which said inspector shall have all the powers, discharge all the duties, and be subject to and observe all the regulations, which are prescribed by this Act for such inspectors of the city of Charleston.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for Jesse Arthur, John Bynum, John Means, John Sims and Gerard Burke, or any three of them, and they are for Granby, hereby required, to appoint, on the first Monday in January next, and on the first Monday in January in every year thereafter, one inspector of flour at the town of Granby, on the west side of the Congaree river; which said inspector shall have all the powers, discharge all the duties, and be subject to and observe all the regulations, which are prescribed by this Act for such inspectors at the city of Charleston.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That J. Bell, Duke Bell, Francis Carlisle, Alexander Noble and Wm. Scott, or any three of them, shall, and they are hereby required to, appoint, on the said first Monday in January next, and on the first Monday in January in every year thereafter, an inspector of flour, at the town or village of Vienna, on Savannah river; which said inspector shall have all the powers, discharge all the duties, and be subject to all the regulations, which are prescribed by this Act for such inspector at the said city of Charleston.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every clause, matter and thing herein contained, shall extend, as fully and amply, to the said towns of Georgetown, Granby, Vienna, Camden and Columbia, as if the same were particularly mentioned in every clause of this Act.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this

No. 6. All oak and hickory high lands lying below Snow Hill, the fork of Broad and Saluda rivers, Graves's Ford, or the new boundary line on Pedee, and not included in the limits or description of the two preceding classes, numbers four and five, at three dollars per acre. No. 7. All pine barren lands not included in numbers one, four, and five, to be assessed at twenty cents per acre. No. 8. All oak and hickory high lands lying above Snow Hill, the fork of Broad and Saluda rivers, and Graves's Ford, the first quality, at one dollar and an half per acre; the second quality, at one dollar per acre; the third quality, at forty cents per acre. No. 9. All oak and hickory high lands above the old Indian boundary line, the first quality, at one dollar and twenty cents per acre; the second quality, at sixty cents per acre; the third quality, at twenty cents per acre. That all lands within the parishes of St. Philip and St. Michael shall be assessed in the same manner and upon the same principles as houses and lots in Charleston, and in a relative proportion to lands in the country. That the sum of seventy-five cents per head shall be levied on all slaves; the sum of two dollars per head, on all free negroes, mulattoes, and mestizoes, between the ages of sixteen and fifty years; and an half dollar per centum ad valorem on all lands, lots and buildings within any city, village, or borough; and on every hundred dollars stock in trade, factorage, employments, faculties and professions, (clergymen, schoolmasters, schoolmistresses and mechanics, excepted)—to be ascertained and rated by the assessors and collectors throughout the State, according to the best of their knowledge and information; to be paid in specie or paper medium of this State.

VOI. V.—38.
II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all negroes and other slaves who are employed on any lands leased by any person or persons of the Catawba Indians, shall be, and they are hereby made, liable to the payment of this tax.

III. And whereas, doubts have arisen and are still subsisting concerning the construction of former tax Acts, inasmuch as the tax collectors have assessed the property of divers religious societies, and also of the incorporated South Carolina's Society and others; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that nothing in this Act, or in any former Act contained, shall be construed to impose a tax on any property of any religious society, or of the South Carolina's, Fellowship and Winnow Indigo Society.

IV. And whereas, it is the duty of every person claiming of or receiving from this government the protection either of his person or property, to contribute not only his quota of money, but also those personal services which every citizen is bound to contribute to the support of that government, or to pay an additional tax in lieu of such services; And whereas, there are numbers of persons holding large estates in this country, who reside without the limits of the United States, and annually draw from this State great resources, which are expended in foreign countries without any advantage to this government, to which they are indebted for the protection of their property; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that every person holding, or being entitled to, any taxable property in this State, who resides without the limits of the United States, shall, for the use of this State, pay a double tax on their estate and property; which tax and assessment the tax collectors throughout this State are hereby required to exact and recover from every such person: Provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to the property of any person sent, or hereafter to be sent, abroad in the employment of this State or of the United States, until one year after the expiration or determination of his commission, or to the property of any young man sent abroad for his education, until he attain the age of twenty-three years, or to the property of any person now absent from the United States, unless such person shall be absent for one year.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the enquirers, assessors and collectors, appointed by law, shall, for their services in the discharge of their duties, receive, on closing their accounts with the commissioners of the treasury, five per centum, except the parishes of St. Philip and St. Michael, who are to receive 2\(\frac{1}{2}\) per centum, on the amount of taxes collected by them, to be allowed and paid to the several tax collectors.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the assessors, enquirers, and collectors respectively, shall begin their enquiry on the first day of February next; and that where all the collectors who were appointed for any parish or county are dead, and the tax returns not closed with the commissioners of the treasury, the collector who shall thereafter be appointed is hereby directed and ordered to demand receipts or to administer an oath, or to procure other satisfactory proof, from the persons of the county or parish, that he or they had paid their taxes for the preceding years, in order to discover their taxes still due, and to enable the public to ascertain what sums of money are due by the estates of deceased collectors; and should the executors or administrators of the deceased collectors refuse to produce the accounts of the deceased, or to give information on the subject, the commissioners of the treasury are hereby ordered to put the law in force against the estates of the deceased collectors.
VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the assessors and collectors appointed by law shall do and perform all and singular the duties appertaining to their office, as described in an Act entitled “An Act for declaring the powers and duties of the enquiries, assessors and collectors of the taxes, and other persons concerned there-

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioners of the treasury be, and they are hereby, directed to furnish copies of this Act to each of the assessors and collectors appointed by law, throughout this State, within one month after the passing this Act, and their reasonable expenses incurred thereby shall be reimbursed.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all persons any wise liable to pay the taxes hereby imposed, shall, on the first day of February, 1797, give in a just and true return of the quality and quantity of lands and slaves, as directed to be taxed by law, either in his, her or their own right, or in the right of any person or persons whatsoever, as guardian; executor, administrator, attorney, agent or trustee, or in any other manner whatsoever; and shall, on or before the first day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, pay in their taxes to the assessors and collectors appointed by law for the parish, county or district where the party making such return, either by himself or family, resideth the greater part of the year. And that the said assessors and collectors shall pay the same, and settle their accounts with the treasury, on the first day of June, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven; any law, usage or custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

X. And whereas, it will be beneficial to the State that the interest accruing on the paper medium should be appropriated towards defraying some part of the expenses of government; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all the interest of the paper medium issued by virtue of an Act passed the twelfth day of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, now due, or to grow due on or before the first Wednesday in March next, is hereby appropriated to make up any deficiencies in the money to be raised by this Act.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the instalment of the said paper medium which will be due on the first Wednesday in March next, shall not be required to be paid as directed by the Act entitled “An Act for raising supplies for the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three,” but shall be paid on the first Wednesday in March, which will be in the year one thousand eight hundred and two: Provided always nevertheless, that no person shall be entitled to the benefit of this clause who shall not give an additional security, if required by the treasurer of Charleston, in all cases where he is not fully satisfied of the sufficiency of the former security, and in all cases where default has been made in paying what has heretofore been due, or which shall be made in paying the interest to grow due in March next.

XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That nothing shall be received by the treasurers in payment of the taxes herein before directed to be raised, but silver and gold coin made current in this State, and the paper medium issued by the authority of the Legislature, or bank paper redeemable in the first instance with gold and silver at the bank of the United States, the branch thereof in Charleston, and the bank of South Carolina, or certificates for the pay of the members of the Legislature, and of the Solicitors, for their attendance thereon.
XIII. And whereas, enormous tracts of land within the State have lately been sold in the Northern States and in foreign countries, and the owners thereof are supposed at present to pay no tax whatever; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of, and is hereby enjoined on, all tax collectors and assessors, to enquire for all such land, and demand the tax and arrears of tax to which it may be liable by this and the former Tax Acts, and to report to the Legislature at their next meeting the result of all the information they may obtain relative to the same.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case no tax nor arrears of tax shall be paid to the tax collectors and assessors, on land as above described, previously to the time of payment of the general tax, in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, then the tax collectors are enjoined strictly to enforce the law.

XV. No. 1677. AN ACT TO REPEAL THE SEVERAL ACTS THEREIN MENTIONED TO ESTABLISH A COMPANY FOR CLEARING AND IMPROVING THE NAVIGA-TION OF PINE TREE CREEK, AND FOR OPENING A CANAL WITH LOCKS, FROM THE SAME CREEK UP TO OR NEAR THE TOWN OF CAMDEN.

WHEREAS, Thomas Broom, Duncan McRa, Zachariah Cantey, James Kershaw and John Kershaw, in whom the free and exclusive right to the use and navigation of Pine tree creek is now vested by an Act entitled
"An Act to vest the exclusive right of navigating Pine tree creek in certain persons therein mentioned," passed the nineteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, have, by their memorial to the Legislature, set forth that they have made some progress in the work of opening the navigation of the said creek, but that from experience and information, they have found the expense of proceeding with and finishing the intended navigation will far exceed their calculations and means; and that upon a more particular examination of the said creek, they have found that the navigation thereof might, by means of a canal and locks, at no very great additional expense, be carried up to or near the town of Camden, and become of much greater utility and advantage to the said town and the public in general: and further stating, that the following persons, that is to say: John Chesnut, John Adamson, James Chestnut, William Lang, Samuel Mathis, William Langley, Benjamin Carter, Richard Lloyd Champion, John M'Caa, Daniel Brown, Dan Carpenter, Burrel Boykin, Joseph Brevard, James English and Jonathan Belton, being willing to promote so useful an undertaking, have agreed to be associated with the aforesaid in the said undertaking, provided they can be admitted upon equal and safe terms: And whereas, the several persons last above mentioned have also subscribed and agreed to the aforesaid memorial, and pray to be incorporated together with the said Thomas Broom, James Kershaw, John Kershaw, Duncan M'Ra and Zachariah Cantey: And whereas, the memorial aforesaid prays that the above mentioned Act, vesting the exclusive navigation aforesaid, may be repealed, and that the memorialists and their associates aforesaid may be incorporated and vested with such privileges and powers as are necessary and proper to enable them to effectuate the useful purposes of this Act: And whereas, undertakings of this nature tend to the encouragement of industry and are greatly beneficial to the public:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That an Act entitled "An Act for opening the navigation of Pine tree creek, from the mouth of the said creek to the forks thereof, near Camden," passed the seventeenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four; and also the aforesaid Act entitled "An Act to vest the exclusive right of navigating Pine tree creek in certain persons therein mentioned," passed the nineteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, be, and the same Acts are hereby, repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That the free and exclusive right to the use and navigation of Pine tree creek, be, and the same is hereby, vested in the aforesaid Thomas Broom, Duncan M'Ra, Zachariah Cantey, James Kershaw, John Kershaw, John Chesnut, John Adamson, to open the creek.

James Chesnut, William Lang, Samuel Mathis, William Langley, Benjamin Carter, Richard Lloyd Champion, John McCaa, Daniel Brown, Dan Carpenter, Burrel Boykin, Joseph Brevard, James English and Jonathan Belton, or in whomsoever may hereafter in their right hold or possess the same, on the condition of their opening and keeping navigable the creek aforesaid, and improving the same with a canal and locks, at their sole expense. And it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to use or navigate the said creek or canal without paying the toll established by this Act. And the said persons in this clause above mentioned shall and may cause the said creek to be made navigable, and may open and continue the navigation thereof, from the mouth thereof as high up as the forks thereof, by means of canals, dams, locks, and clearing the obstructions in the said creek, or in such other manner as to them shall seem most fit and convenient: Provided that no injury be done thereby to the mills that are erected below the said forks.

III. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That the said persons whose names are above mentioned, and such others as they shall admit into the said company, shall be, and they are hereby, incorporated, by the name and style of The Pine Tree Creek Navigation Company; and by that name and style shall and may sue and be sued,implesh, in any court within this State; and that they may elect and appoint all necessary officers, and from time to time make such rules, regulations and by-laws as they shall think proper: Provided the same shall not be repugnant to or inconsistent with any law of the State.

IV. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That the said company shall and may cause an inland navigation, by a canal and locks, to be made and kept up, through such places as to them shall seem most fit and convenient, from the said creek up to or near the town of Camden: Provided the said company can agree with the owners of the land through which the said canal is to be opened, for that purpose; and that they and their successors for ever, shall and may fix and establish, and be entitled to take and receive, by way of toll, for all goods and merchandise carried on or through the said creek and canal, such sum or rates as the said company shall think proper to impose, not exceeding at any time twenty-five per centum per annum on the money which they shall have expended in clearing, making and keeping in repair the navigation of the said creek, canal and locks; to ascertain which the books of the said company, together with the books of the former company, shall always be liable to the inspection of the Legislature. And that the said company, or their agents, may stop any goods, vessels, boats or rafts, from passing on the said creek and canal until payment of the said toll.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said company shall have power to purchase for themselves and their successors, for ever, such land as may be necessary for the purpose aforesaid, and as much land at each end of the said canal as they may deem necessary, not exceeding two acres.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said company shall be obliged to keep the said creek, canal and locks, at all times in good and sufficient order, condition and repair, on pain of being answerable for any damages occasioned by their wilful default or neglect.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the shares in the said company shall be exempted from any rate, tax, duty, assessment or imposition whatsoever, for the term of twenty-one years; and that the said shares may be sold, transferred, assigned or bequeathed by the proprietors respectively; and in case of their dying intestate, shall go according to the Act of distribution, as personal estate.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person shall wilfully or maliciously cut, break down, damage or destroy any bank, or other work to be erected or made for the purpose of the said navigation, or shall throw dirt, trees, logs, or other rubbish, into the said canal, so as to injure the same, such person shall be answerable to the said company for tenfold the damages occasioned thereby, to be recovered before a justice of the peace, or any court having jurisdiction, as the case may be; and in case of his or her inability to pay the same, he or she shall be imprisoned for three months.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said company and their successors, from time to time, for ever, shall be capable of purchasing, acquiring, holding and possessing, and of selling and disposing of, any negroes, or other goods and chattels, as well as of any lands or real estates: Provided the same do not exceed three thousand dollars.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person shall be sued for any matter or thing done in pursuance of this Act, he may plead the general issue, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence; and on a verdict against the plaintiff, non-suit or discontinuance, recover double costs.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act

Joseph Kershaw, deceased, commonly called the extended plan of Camden; and that the aforesaid commissioners do report an accurate plan of the boundaries of the said town, to be laid before the next Legislature, to the end that the same may be established by the law.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the line run and marked by the commissioners, beginning on a hickory tree, on the southwest side of Catawba river, about ten chains above the mouth of Ferrall's creek, and nearly south eighty-eight west, by an old line, called and known by the name of the line of the new acquisition, to an ash and black gum, on the bank of Broad river, on Robert Elliott's lands, run agreeably to a resolution of the Legislature, passed on the nineteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, be, and the same is hereby declared to be, the dividing line between Chester and York counties.

No. 1701. AN ACT FOR THE BETTER REGULATING THE STREETS AND MARKETS OF THE TOWN OF COLUMBIA; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES THEREIN MENTIONED.

WHEREAS, the commissioners of the streets and markets of the town of Columbia have, by their petition to the Legislature of this State, set forth, that the powers invested in them by the Act of Assembly, passed in December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, appointing them to their office, are not sufficiently extensive and complete, and not fully calculated for the well governing and regulating the streets and markets of the said town; and whereas, the said commissioners have, in their said petition, prayed for the repeal of the said law:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That on the first Monday in April next, and on the first Monday in April in every year thereafter, an election, by ballot, for seven commissioners of the streets and markets, shall be held at some convenient and public place in Columbia; and that all free white inhabitants of the said town, who shall have paid a tax of one dollar the preceding year, towards the support of government in this State, shall be entitled to vote for the said commissioners; and that Simon Taylor, Swanson Lunsford and Samuel Green, shall be, and they are hereby appointed, managers for the first election, and are hereby directed to conduct and manage the said election, and proclaim the same, and give notice, in writing, to the persons elected, of their appointment.

II. Be it further enacted, That the commissioners so elected as before directed shall, at their first meeting, appoint a chairman from among their body, and shall, each of them, before entering on the duties of their office, take the following oath: "As commissioner of the streets and markets of the town of Columbia, I will equally and impartially, to the best of my skill and ability, exercise the trust reposed in me, and will use my best endeavors to carry into effect the purposes for which I have been appointed: So help me God." And the said commissioners, or any three of them, shall have power to appoint managers for each succeeding election of commissioners of the town of Columbia. And in case of the death, resignation, or removal out of town, of any commissioner, the said commissioners shall have power, and they are hereby directed, to appoint a day for, and managers to conduct, the election for another commissioner to fill such vacancy occasioned as aforesaid. And it shall be the duty of such managers to give ten days notice, at least, previous to such election.

III. Whereas, the judges of Richland county have heretofore directed and ordered that the persons liable to work on the roads, living within the bounds of Columbia, should work on the streets of the said town, and excused them from working elsewhere: Be it therefore enacted, That the commissioners of the streets and markets of the said town shall be, and they are hereby, vested with all the powers, within the limits of the said town, that are by law vested in commissioners of the roads where county courts are not established; and the inhabitants of the said town shall be, and they are hereby, excused from working on the public roads without the limits of the said town: That the said commissioners shall have power to fine and expel all keepers of gaming tables, within the said town, from the bounds thereof; and to grant tavern licenses, and licenses for retailing spirituous liquors, within the limits of the said town, and to receive the fees for the same.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power to make, establish, and pass all such rules and regulations, within the said town, as they may deem proper and requisite for the promotion of the quiet and safety of the inhabitants of the said town, and for the regulation of the streets and markets; provided such rules and regulations be not repugnant to the existing laws of the State or of the United States; and shall have power to impose, recover and collect, in a summary way, before any two or more of the said commissioners, such fine or fines, on and from any person or persons who may infringe the by-laws, rules and regulations, passed and enacted by the said commissioners. Provided, that no fine or penalty for one and the same offence, shall exceed ten dollars.

V. Be it further enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power, and are hereby directed and required, to appoint a clerk of the market of the said town of Columbia, who shall (in addition to any duties which by the rules and regulations of the said commissioners may be imposed on him) record the marks and brands of all cattle which may be butchered and brought to the market in Columbia; and shall have such fees and perquisites, and such salary, as the commissioners shall deem reasonable and sufficient.

VI. Be it further enacted, That the said commissioners shall be, and they are hereby, vested with the right to sell any timber and timber trees, or other trees, growing or lying on the unsold lots and squares of land, and on the streets of the said town of Columbia, and to restrain all persons from cutting and using the same, except under a written order from them, or from such officer as they may appoint to take the charge and care of the same; and such persons as shall transgress the rules and regulations which the said commissioners shall establish for the preserving and securing of the said timber, shall be subject to such fines or penalties as the said commissioners may impose; provided, the said fine or fines do not, for one and the same offence, exceed ten dollars. Provided nevertheless, that the door-keeper, or keeper of the State-house, or such other person who shall undertake to supply fire-wood for the Senate and House of Representatives, shall not be liable to the above restriction.

VII. Be it further enacted, That the funds arising from the tax on the inhabitants, in lieu of the working on the public road, and fines on persons keeping gaming houses and gaming tables, for tavern licenses and licenses for retailing of spirituous liquors, from the rent of stalls in the market, and for recording, by the clerk of the market, the marks and brands of cattle butchered and sold in the said market, and from the sale of the wood and timber in the said town, and from fines and forfeitures, shall be applied in keeping in repair the said market, and in opening and keeping in good order such streets of the town of Columbia as they shall judge for the convenience and utility of the inhabitants of the said town, and for the payment of the salary of the clerk of the market, and such other officer as they may appoint to carry into effect this Act; and the surplusage, if any, shall be accounted for by the said commissioners, yearly, and paid over to the trustess of the Columbia Academy, to be applied by them in such manner as they may deem beneficial for the interest of said Academy.

VIII. Be it further enacted, That so much of the Act, passed in December, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, which relates to the appointing and empowering the commissioners of the streets and markets of the town of Columbia, shall be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

IX. And whereas, the inhabitants of the town of Columbia have experienced great inconveniences from the want of a public burial ground: Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioners of Columbia shall, immediately after the passing of this Act, lay out a piece of ground, which shall not exceed a square of four acres, and which said lot shall be vested in the commissioners of the streets, as trustees in behalf of the inhabitants; who are hereby authorized, when their funds are competent thereunto, to erect a building thereon, for the purpose of public worship, and that the residue of the said lot shall be free for all the inhabitants to bury their dead therein, as also for the burial of all strangers who may die in the said town.

X. Be it further enacted, That this law shall be taken and deemed as a public Act in all courts in this State, and given in evidence as such, without special pleading.

In the Senate House, the twenty-first day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and in the twenty-third year of the Independence of the United States of America.

Lewis Morris, William Henry Desaureau, Frederick Rutledge, Jacob Sass and William Robertson, Esquires, or a majority of them, be, and they are hereby appointed, commissioners to lay out such number of streets on Sullivan's Island as the said commissioners shall deem proper and convenient: Provided nevertheless, that such streets shall not interfere with any dwelling-houses or kitchens already erected, and the commissioners are hereby vested with full powers to carry into effect the above purposes, and otherwise to regulate the police of the said Island.

No. 1715. AN ACT to release Pierce Butler, Esquire, from his executorship, to which he was appointed by the last will and testament of the late Alexander Gillon, Esquire.

WHEREAS, Pierce Butler, Esquire, hath set forth by his petition to the Legislature, that by the last will and testament of the late Alexander
Gillon, Esquire, he was appointed one of his executors, and that he was induced, from a desire of being serviceable to the widow and infant children of a deceased friend, to administer upon the estate of the said Alexander Gillon, esquire; but from the complicated affairs of the said estate, the general ill-health of the said Pierce Butler, Esquire, and his usual absence from the State for several months every year, he finds that he cannot be of such service to the widow and children of the deceased as he once expected, while he is subjected to many inconveniences of a serious nature, on account of the said executorship: among others not less injurious to him, there is one in particular, that as the said Alexander Gillon, Esquire, in his life time, became bound by his obligation in behalf of the State, to the late duke of Luxemburgh, which obligation is now in the hands of the republic of France, as the said Pierce Butler hath been informed; so that the said Pierce Butler, Esquire, cannot visit Europe or the said republic upon business (which he finds he must be obliged shortly to do,) without being in danger of being arrested on account of the said obligation. And in as much as the said Pierce Butler has not administered on the estate of the deceased Commodore Gillon, nor ever had or taken the property, books or papers of the deceased into his possession.

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That Pierce Butler, Esquire, be, and he is hereby released, from his executorship to which he was appointed under the last will and testament of the late Alexander Gillon, Esquire; and also from all the losses, liabilities and expenses or inconveniences to which he may have been or hereafter might become liable or exposed to by law as executor of the last will and testament of the said Alexander Gillon, Esquire, deceased, whether the said liability should arise in consequence of any public or private transactions of the late Alexander Gillon, Esquire, in his life time.

No. 1722. AN ACT TO EXPLAIN AN ACT ENTITLED "AN ACT to regulate the opening of Dams across Rice grounds, and the making and keeping up Dams for reservoirs of water," PASSED ON THE ELEVENTH DAY OF MARCH, IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND SEVEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-SIX; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES THEREIN MENTIONED.

WHEREAS, doubts have arisen under the said Act:

I. Be it enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That nothing contained therein shall be construed to authorize any person or persons to keep water at any time on any lands other than his, her or their own.

II. And whereas, by the second section of an Act entitled "An Act to empower commissioners therein named, to cut, sink and keep in repair drains and water passages in Cassaw Swamp, in the parish of St. Paul's, it is provided that a majority of the commissioners therein appointed, or their successors, shall have power to nominate three disinterested freeholders of the parish, who shall fix and ascertain, upon oath, the value of all the swamp lands lying in the neighbourhood of the said canals, or either of them, and the ratio or proportion in which they will be benefited by the same, and also the ratio or proportion in which the negroes belonging to the owners of the said lands, and liable to work on the said drains and canals, ought to be assessed, according as their lands may be benefitted thereby, and shall deliver to the said commissioners the valuation and ratio so made, under their hands and seals; and whereas, the said commissioners, in pursuance of the aforesaid Act, have from time to time appointed freeholders for the foregoing purposes, who being uninterested in the issue of the undertaking, and amenable to no penalty, have forborne to fulfil the duties prescribed thereby; for remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the duties, powers and authorities delegated to the said freeholders, shall be, and they are hereby, transferred to the commissioners for sinking the said drains, who shall be sworn to the due performance thereof.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said commissioners shall be vested with all the powers and authorities of the commissioners of the high roads; and they, or a majority of them, are hereby empowered, at any time from and after the passing of this Act, to call out and employ all the male slaves residing or employed on any lands within the limits of the aforesaid drains or canals, for carrying into effect the above purposes.

WM. JOHNSON, Jr. Speaker of the House of Representatives.

AN ACT to vest in the REV. SIMON FELIX O'GALLAGHER, PASTOR, and others composing the Vestry of the incorporated Roman Catholic Church of Charleston, the right of the State in a certain lot of land supposed to be escheated.

WHEREAS, the Reverend Simon Felix O’Gallagher, minister and pastor, and James Moles, John Sutton, Samuel Corbett, Patrick Byrnes, Francis Mulligan, Edmund Mead Phelon, Christopher M’Donald and Richard Brenan, vestry, of the incorporated Roman Catholic church of Charleston, in behalf of themselves and other the members of the said church, have, by their petition to the Legislature, represented that Joseph Mincon, late of the city of Charleston, deceased, a member of, and much attached to, the said church, was, in his life time and at the time of his death, possessed of some personal property, and also of a lot of land, situated on the north side of Queen-street, between Union-street and the Bay, containing in front on the said street, twenty-five feet nine inches, and in depth, eastwardly and westwardly, fifty-two feet six inches, and northwardly on the back line nineteen feet six inches; and which said lot of land is butting and bounding northwardly on land belonging to Thomas Roper, Esq., eastwardly on lands of Theophilus Elsworth, southwardly on Queen-street aforesaid, and westwardly on a lot now or lately belonging to the estate of Thomas Odinsell Elliott, Esq.; and which said lot of land, it is suggested, has, from a default of heirs, become escheated to the State. And whereas, it appears from the said petition, and the affidavits accompanying the same, that it was the intention of the said Joseph Mincon to have made his will and to have bequeathed and devised the whole of his estate, both real and personal, to the use of the said church, and that he was only prevented from the execution of his purpose by the suddenness of his death. And whereas, it would be unbecoming the liberality of the Legislature to avail itself of an accident, to the injury of the said church:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That all the right, title, interest or claim, which has or may accrue to the State, in the said lot, by escheat or otherwise, be, and the same are hereby, vested in the said Simon Felix O'Gallagher, minister and pastor, and James Moles, John Sutton, Samuel Corbett, Patrick Byrnes, Francis Mulligan, Edmund Mead Phelon, Christopher M'Donald and Richard Brenan, composing the vestry of the said incorporated Roman Catholic church, in trust for the use and benefit of the said church.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Simon Felix O'Gallagher, pastor, and Charles Crawly, James Moles, John Sutton, Samuel Corbett, Patrick Byrnes, Francis Mulligan, Edmund Mead Phelon, Christopher M'Donald and Richard Brenan, be, and they are hereby appointed, escheators, and vested with all the powers and authorities vested by law in the escheators of this State, so far as the same may be necessary towards prosecuting the right of the State to the lot above mentioned. Provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to prejudice the rights of any person or persons claiming under the said Joseph Mincon, either by descent or purchase.

In the Senate House, the twenty-first day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and in the twenty-fourth year of the Independence of the United States of America.

AN ACT to enable the Agricultural Society of South Carolina to dispose of the Estate of the late Dr. John Delahowe, in the manner therein mentioned.

WHEREOFAS, John Delahowe, late of Abbeville county, in the district of Ninety-six, physician, deceased, in and by his last will and testament, devised and bequeathed all of his estate to the Agricultural Society of South Carolina, in trust for the purpose of establishing and supporting, on his plantation in the said county, a seminary for the education and support of orphans, or the children of poor people; but did not give the said society power to sell the same, for the said purpose. And whereas, it appears from the best and most unquestionable information, that the benevolent intentions of the testator must be frustrated, unless that Society be empowered to sell a part of the same, and vest the proceeds of the sale in such funds as will produce an income sufficient to maintain the institution contemplated by his will; inasmuch as by far the greater part of his estate consisted of lands in the said county of inferior value and fertility, which cannot be rented out to advantage by any one, but more especially by that Society, as it is established in a part of the State very remote from Abbeville county. And whereas, the said Society have prayed to be discharged from that trust, if they should not be empowered to sell a part of the said estate, and there is reason to expect that if this power be not granted to them, the charitable wishes of the testator may be wholly defeated: Therefore, for remedy thereof, and in order to render the laudable views of the testator as extensively and certainly beneficial as his liberal mind had contemplated, and for the purpose of supporting his said will, and carrying the same into effect, according to the true spirit thereof:

1. Be it enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the said Society shall have full power and lawful authority to sell and convey away, upon such terms and conditions, and at such time or times, and place or places, as they may deem most advantageous to their trust, the whole of the estate, real and personal, wheresoever and whatsoever, of the said Dr. John Delahowe, (excepting a tract to contain fifteen hundred acres of land, to be reserved for the school, including the spot and improvements upon the plantation called Lethe, whereon the testator died;) and that the monies arising from such sales, and all other monies belonging to or to be collected for the said estate, shall be vested in the stock of the United States, or of this State, or of the Branch Bank, or South Carolina Bank, in Charleston; and that the annual interest or clear income thereof shall be applied and appropriated according to the trust and terms of the said testator's will.

seven hundred and ninety-nine, and in the twenty-fourth year of the Independence
of the United States of America.

And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said comptroller shall have, and he is hereby vested with, full power and authority, during the recess of the Legislature, to suspend from office all and every tax-collector who has been appointed since December, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, or who shall hereafter be appointed by the Legislature of this State, who shall neglect or refuse faithfully to perform the duties of his said office: Provided always, that such suspension shall be previously approved of by his excellency the governor for the time being, who shall be, and he is hereby, authorized to substitute and appoint fit and proper person or persons to execute the duties of the person or persons so suspended, during the recess of the Legislature.

V. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be the duty of the treasurers, and each of them is hereby required, at the end of every month, to report to the comptroller an accurate statement of the cash transactions of the treasury; and it shall be the duty of the said comptroller, once in every month, and at such other times as he shall deem necessary, to examine the cash in the treasury at Charleston; and once in every year, and oftener if he thinks it necessary, to examine and count over the cash in the treasury at Columbia. He shall personally superintend the transfer of money and papers from the office of the treasurers to their successors, and report to the Legislature thereon at their next session.

VI. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the comptroller to draw either general or special warrants upon the treasury, when he shall be thereto required, for all monies exceeding one hundred dollars, which by law are directed to be paid out of the treasury of this State; and that no greater sum shall be drawn out of the treasury, but by such general or special warrants; which warrants shall express on what accounts such money is due by the State; and the treasurers, after making a proper entry of each warrant, shall keep the same regularly filed in his office; and that it shall be the duty of the said comptroller to take a receipt and copy for every warrant so issued by him, and to keep the same regularly filed or entered in his office.

And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurer on receiving any monies from a tax collector, or any other person, on account of this State, shall give him therefor two receipts, one of which it receiving monies from a tax collector, shall be the duty of the tax collector, or such other person, forthwith to transmit in the safest and most expeditious manner to the comptroller; and in case any tax collector or any other such person shall refuse to do the same, he shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, nor less than ten dollars, to be recovered in a summary manner by warrant under the hand and seal of the said comptroller.

VOL. V.—46.
VI. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all accounts against the State shall be transmitted to one of the treasurers, who shall send them to the comptroller on or before the first day of October in every year; and it shall be the duty of the said comptroller to examine the said accounts, and transmit them to the Legislature, with his report, as soon as may be after the commencement of their session.

agent, attorney or assignee; and if the said collector, having public money in his hands, shall refuse or delay to pay the said order as aforesaid, or shall purchase the said annuity or order, then and in that case he shall forfeit and be liable to pay double the amount to the said person in whose favor the order was drawn, to be recovered by bill, plaint or indictment, in any court having sufficient jurisdiction, wherein no imparlance or dilatory plea shall be allowed; and that the offender or offenders shall, on conviction thereof, be committed to close confinement until the same be paid.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurers shall not draw any order in favor of any annuitant, until he or she shall have produced, or cause to be produced, a certificate signed by one member of the Legislature and two magistrates, that the person in whose favor the order is to be drawn, is still living, and stating in what district he or she resides.

And it shall be the duty of the said treasurers respectively, strictly to enforce the means which they are by law authorized to make use of, to compel the tax collectors to the due performance of their duties; and in case any treasurer shall fail to make use of such means, he shall be held to be a good officer, unless the State shall sustain thereby.

XVI. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the tax collectors of St. Philip's and St. Michael's, in Charleston, shall, monthly, and on the first Monday in every month, from and after the first day of February next; upon oath, make due and true returns of all monies which shall have been received by them during the preceding month. In Charleston, returns to be made monthly.

XVII. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any tax collector or collectors shall make any distinction or discrimination of persons in issuing executions, the taxes of such person (in addition to the lien which the State has on the property of such person,) shall be considered as thereby assumed by such tax collector or collectors; and the treasurers of Charleston and Columbia are directed and enjoined, in their different departments, to detect such tax collector or collectors, so misbehaving, with all such arrears of tax, and to issue execution therefor immediately against each and every of them, and to lodge such execution with the sheriff of the district in which such collector or collectors reside or shall have property. And if any sheriff or sheriffs, in whose hands such execution shall be lodged, shall make any distinction or discrimination of persons, in levying the said executions, or shall retain the same for a longer time than two months, without making a return of the same, he is hereby made chargeable with the said executions in addition to the liability of the collectors and individuals so originally in arrear for taxes aforesaid.

XVIII. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no person, holding any office of profit under this State, or having any demand against this State, shall be entitled to receive any sum of money which may be due to him from the State until his taxes are first paid and satisfied; and the treasurers are hereby positively directed, before they shall pay to any person holding any office of profit or having such demand, the sum that may be due to him, to require of him a receipt from the tax collector where such person resides or ought to pay his tax, stating that his taxes are paid and satisfied. And upon neglect or refusal of any person holding any such office or having such demand, to produce such receipt, the treasurers are hereby directed not to pay such person the sum or sums of money which may be due to him, until satisfactory proof is made to them, that such taxes have been paid, or the parties agree to discount the same. And if the treasurer should pay to any person holding any office or having any demand as aforesaid, any sum which may be due to him, without having such receipt produced or discount made as is above required, he is hereby declared to be liable for all losses which may arise to the State therefrom.

XIX. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the installment of the paper medium which shall be due on the first Wednesday in March next, shall not be required to be paid by the Act entitled "An Act for raising supplies for the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four," but shall be paid on the first Wednesday in March, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five; but all the interest to become due on the said paper medium shall be annually paid in, and when received shall be destroyed by burning, under the inspection of a committee of the Legislature: Provided always nevertheless, that no person shall be entitled to the benefit of this clause who shall not give an additional security, if required by the treasurer of Charleston, in all cases where he is not fully satisfied of the sufficiency of the former security, and in all cases where default has been made in paying what has heretofore been due, or which may be made in paying the interest to grow due in March next.

XX. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the tax collectors throughout this State, in their several parishes and election districts respectively, shall be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to collect the poor tax in their several parishes and election districts; and they shall be allowed the usual commissions for so doing.

XXI. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioners of the treasury shall be, and they are hereby, required to furnish copies of this Act to each of the collectors appointed by law throughout this State, within one month after the passing of this Act, and their reasonable expenses occasioned thereby shall be reimbursed.

XXII. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the pay hereinafter to be provided for the support and maintenance of the magazine guard, be restricted to that of the pay of an officer, a sergeant and six men; and that the sum of fifteen hundred dollars be, and the same is hereby, appropriated for the payment of the said guard, under the direction of the comptroller.

XXIII. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of July next, no person or company shall, on any pretence whatever, issue or re-issue any note or notes in the nature of bank notes, or otherwise, on the credit of the paper medium of the State; and such notes aforesaid as may now be in circulation, botomed on the paper medium, shall be immediately called in; and the treasurers and tax collectors are hereby forbidden, under the penalty of losing their offices and forfeiting the sum of one thousand dollars, from receiving such notes as herein mentioned, in payment of taxes or duties; and every bank, or persons associated as bankers, issuing or re-issuing such notes, shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten thousand dollars, which shall be recovered by action in any of the courts of law in this State. And that it shall be the duty of the comptroller to enquire into and examine whether such notes are in circulation, and give information accordingly to the attorney general, whose duty it shall be to bring suit or suits accordingly.

XXIV. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all the public arms which now are or hereafter shall be purchased on behalf of this State, shall, by order of his Excellency the Governor, be equally distributed among the several brigades of the militia of the State; and that the several and respective brigadier generals shall and may allow the said arms to be sold for coats and charges among the men of his brigade, and cause the money arising from such sale to be paid into the treasury, to be appropriated for the purchase of other arms, to be distributed in manner aforesaid: Provided nevertheless, that no one man shall be permitted to purchase more than what shall be sufficient to arm himself of the arms aforesaid.

XXV. Whereas, there are many wealthy citizens of this State who derive very considerable revenues from monies which produce an interest, and who do not contribute a due proportion to the public exigencies of the same; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that each and every enquirer, assessor and collector throughout this State shall, on their enquiry for the returns of the taxes of this State for the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, administer the following oath to all such persons as may be liable to pay the same, viz: "I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that the account which I now give in is a just and true account of the quantity and quality of the lands and number of slaves, and the sum or sums of money which have produced me an interest since the first day of October, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, in any manner whatsoever, which I am possessed of, interested in, or entitled to, either in my own right or the right of any other person whomsoever, either as guardian, executor, attorney, agent or trustee, or in any other manner whatsoever, according to the best of my knowledge or belief; and that I will give a just and true answer, according to the best of my knowledge, to all questions that may be asked me touching the same; and this I swear without any equivocation or mental reservation whatsoever, so help me God:" and upon every sum or sums of money at interest over and above what such person pays interest for, except where such interest money is received by any widow or orphan having no other means of livelihood, and shall not exceed one thousand dollars, the said enquirer, assessor or collector, or enquirers, assessors or collectors, to whom the same shall be returned, shall assess the sum of twenty-five cents per cent. on every hundred dollars, to be recovered in like manner in case of default as the collectors are authorized by law heretofore to do on the return of lands and slaves.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case any person or persons shall refuse or neglect to make the return of his, her or their monies producing interest as aforesaid, they shall be liable to suffer the same forfeitures and pay the same penalties as are authorized by law in case of their refusing or neglecting to make his, her, or their return of lands and slaves.

XXVII. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the several and respective tax collectors in this State shall place their warrants against any person or persons who shall make default of payment of their taxes, for collection in the hands of the sheriff of the districts respectively, and in the hands of no other person or persons whomsoever; and the sheriffs shall be entitled on the service of such warrants to the usual mileage on the service of executions.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That John S. Cripps, Esq, foreign agent, be authorized and required, in the name of the State, within thirty days after the passing of this Act, to draw bills at sight for the money appropriated for the payment of the debt due to Stuckeyuser, and now lying in the hands of Simpson & Davidson of London; and that the said money be lodged in the treasury of this State; and also for the sum of forty thousand dollars granted in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, remitted to England for the purchase of arms; and that the said sum of forty thousand dollars be deposited in the treasury subject to the governor's orders, for the purchase of arms; provided the said sum shall not have been already applied to that purpose on behalf of the State.

No. 1742. AN ACT for altering and amending an Act passed the 16th day of December, 1797, entitled "An Act for opening the Navigation of Saluda River."

WHEREAS, the death and removal of several of the commissioners named in the said Act, have rendered it almost impracticable to form boards or meetings to carry the purposes of the same into effect; and whereas, the confining of the commissioners to distinct limits on the said river, in clearing the same, as far as relates to that space from the mouth of the said river to the old Indian boundary line, will impede the progress of this very beneficial measure:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and the House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That Samuel Mays, Thomas Anderson, Major William Moore, Joseph Kennedy, Alexander Bolling Stark, Luke Smith, Francis Huggins, Elisha Brooks, John Dyser, William Calk, Julius Nichols, Jr., Elish Creswell, John Cunningham, Joel Lepscomb, James Dyesen, Robert Creswell, John Hunter, John Merriweather, sen. No. 1743.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE AND OBLIGE THE KEEPERS OF GAOLS IN THIS STATE TO RECEIVE, AND KEEP IN SAFE CUSTODY, ALL PRISONERS COMMITTED UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE UNITED STATES; AND TO OBLIGE SHERIFFS TO PROVIDE BLANKETS FOR CRIMINALS CONFINED IN THEIR RESPECTIVE GAOLS.

WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States, at their session begun and holden on the fourth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine, did resolve that it be recommended to the Legislatures of the several States to pass laws making it expressly the duty of the keepers of their gaols to receive, and safe keep therein, all prisoners committed under the authority of the United States, until they shall be discharged by due course of the laws thereof, under the like penalties as in case of prisoners committed under the authority of such States respectively; the United States to pay for the use and keeping of such gaols at the rate of fifty cents per month, for each prisoner that shall, under their authority, be committed thereto, during the time such prisoner shall therein be committed; and also to support such of said prisoners as shall be committed for offences: And whereas, the Legislature of this State have full confidence that the Congress of the United States will make provision for the support of poor prisoners committed for debt, as otherwise the humanity of the people of this State will be taxed to supply their necessities, which may become expensive and burthensome:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and the House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the keepers of gaols in the several districts throughout this State be, and they are, required and directed to receive into their several and respective gaols all such prisoners as shall be committed to such gaols, or any of them respectively, under the authority of the United States, and there to keep in safe custody all such prisoners which are or shall be so committed, until they shall be discharged by due course of the laws of the United States; under the like penalties as in case of prisoners committed under the authority of this State, and upon the terms expressed in the resolution of Congress aforesaid.

II. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every sheriff shall provide, at the expense of the State, a sufficient number of blankets for the use of the prisoners confined in their respective gaols; and that every prisoner so confined, on a criminal charge, shall be furnished with at least two blankets during the winter season.

No. 1746. AN ACT to legalize the several Juries drawn at the last Circuit Court at Chester District, to serve at the next Spring Circuit; and to prescribe the mode of giving the proceedings of the late County Courts in evidence in the Courts of Law and Equity in this State.

WHEREAS, at the last circuit court held at Chester court house, in and for the district of Chester, the juries drawn to serve at the next Spring circuit court, in the courts of general sessions and common pleas in that district, were not drawn according to law, owing to the indisposition of the judge who presided there on the last circuit, who, not having been able to reach the court house in time to draw the said juries, the same were drawn by an infant under the age prescribed by law, in the presence of the clerk and sheriff of the said district only; in order, therefore, to remedy and avoid the inconveniences and evils that may arise from such proceedings, and to render legal the juries so drawn:

I. Be it enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That all the juries so drawn as aforesaid, by the clerk and sheriff, without the presence of the judge presiding on that circuit, are hereby declared, to all intents and purposes, lawful juries, to sit, try and determine all matters in the said courts for the said district, at the next spring circuit, that may be brought before them respectively; and that no challenge, either to the array, the panel or the poll, shall be admitted against such juries, or any of them, on account of their having been drawn in the manner they were, any act, matter, clause, usage, custom or law, to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whenever it shall so happen that none of the judges of the courts of common law in this State shall attend and hold any court of any district in this State, during the time appointed by law for the holding of such court, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful to and for the clerk and sheriff of such district to draw, in open court, and in the presence of one provided; which juries shall be adjudged as good and valid in law to all

III. Whereas, the times fixed by law for the holding and sitting of the court of equity in Charleston is inconvenient; for remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the sitting and holding of the court of equity for the district composed of the united districts of Charle-ton, Colleton and Beaufort, at Charleston, shall be on the fourth Monday in April, and second Monday in October, in every year, in lieu of the days heretofore appointed by law.

IV. Whereas, considerable irregularities, incidental to courts of inferior jurisdiction, have crept into the proceedings of the county courts formerly established, and lately abolished, in this State; and whereas, great losses, expenses and delays, may accrue to many of the citizens of this State thereby; for remedy whereof, Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all the proceedings in the said county courts shall be deemed, held and taken as firm in law as if the proceedings had been con-cucted and carried on according to the method prescribed by the acts relating to county courts, or those relating to the proceedings of any of the superior courts of law in this State; and that a transcript from the minute books of such courts shall be good and legal evidence in all trials in any of the courts of law or equity in this State, when it may be necessary to give such proceedings in evidence. Provided, that such transcript be regularly and duly certified under the hand of, and sworn to by, the clerk or keeper of the said proceedings and records of the county courts so abolished, who hath, by law, the custody thereof; any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any two justices, whereof one shall be of the quorum, to administer to any person the oath or oaths of office, which is, are, or may be required by law to be taken by such person; any law, usage or custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

WHEREAS, the Act for preventing certain streets in Beaufort from being obstructed, passed the twenty-first day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, has never been carried into effect, and is found to operate injuriously to certain citizens owning lots on the bay of the said town, opposite to the streets, inasmuch as they have built, at considerable expense, certain wharves and houses thereon, previously to the passing the said Act: And whereas, it is the wish and desire of several of the citizens of the said town to retain their right to the said lots, and not to receive compensation therefor, as directed by the said Act: And whereas, it is conceived that this privilege would meet the approbation of the citizens of the said town; provided, the owners of such lots, who prefer the retaining the said lots to receiving compensation therefor, be restricted from erecting any buildings thereon, and be confined to improve the same merely as wharves:

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the tax collectors throughout the State shall receive no payment of taxes but in gold or silver coin made current in this State, the paper medium issued under the authority of the Legislature, bank paper redeemable in the first instance in gold and silver at the bank of the United States, the branch bank thereof in Charleston, or the bank of South Carolina, or certificates for the pay of the members of the Legislature, or of the Solicitors, for their attendance on the Legislature.

And that the said assessors and collectors shall pay the same, and settle their accounts with the treasury, on the first day of June next.
X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of every tax collector in this State when he makes his general return of taxes, to annex thereto a list of all the taxable property in his district which has come to his knowledge, and is not returned to him, describing such property in the most particular manner he can, and annexing thereto the person who shall make any return of any taxable property to any of the tax collectors of this State, shall specify in such return not only the parish or district in which the lands returned are situated, but also the parish or district in which any slaves returned are employed or reside.

XII. And whereas, enormous tracts of land within this State have lately been sold in the Northern States and in foreign countries, and the owners thereof are supposed at present to pay no tax whatever; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of, and it is hereby enjoined on, all tax collectors to enquire for all such land, and to collect the tax and arrears of tax thereon; and if the taxes thereon and the arrears of taxes thereon shall not be paid at or before the time hereinbefore appointed for the payment of the general tax, then the tax collectors shall forthwith proceed to sell the same, agreeably to the mode prescribed by law for selling the property of those who make default in paying their taxes.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurers shall not hereafter draw any order or check, or make any draft on any tax collector in this State, in favor of any person having any claim or demand on the treasury of this State; nor shall the treasurers make payment to any person having any claim upon the State, even though allowed by law or provided for by the Legislature, but at the treasury oflice at Charleston or Columbia, except as is provided in the Act entitled
"An Act to authorize the treasurers to pay certain persons therein mentioned their annuities, and regulating payment to annuitants." And no tax collector shall receive or take in payment of taxes due by any person any order, draft or check of either of the treasurers.

lature shall from time to time impose, as will be necessary under this Act; and the said treasurers shall furnish each tax collector in their divisions respectively with so many of the said blanks as will enable him to perform the duties required by this Act. And each and every tax collector shall, and he is hereby authorized and required to, demand and take from each and every person making a tax return, two copies of such return, signed and sworn to as the law directs, to be made out on the said blanks, of all the property owned by him, her or them, on the first day of October make out a duplicate of the general return which he is by law directed to make to the treasurer, and to inclose the same, together with the duplicate of the tax returns by this Act directed to be taken from the individuals of their respective counties and parishes, in a packet directed to the comptroler and sealed up; which packet each and every tax collector is hereby required to transmit to the treasurers respectively, on or before the first day of October, in each and every year, to the intent that by the due examination thereof by the comptroller, any improper conduct in the tax collectors may be detected. And should any of the tax collectors aforesaid fail to perform the duties required by this and the next preceding clause, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered of him by any person suing for the same in any court having competent jurisdiction.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the treasurers to report to this house at their annual session every instance of default in any tax collector in his division, and to instruct the attorney general or solicitors respectively, to prosecute such defaulter, as soon as any instances of default shall occur. And it shall be the duty of the said treasurers respectively, strictly to enforce the means which they are by law authorized to make use of, to compel the tax collectors to the due performance of their duties; and in case any treasurer shall fail to make use of such means, he shall be held to make good any loss which the State shall sustain thereby.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the tax collectors of St. Philip's and St. Michael's, in Charleston, shall, monthly, and on the first Monday in every month, from and after the first day of March next, upon oath, make due and true returns of all monies which shall have been received by them during the preceding month.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any tax collector or collectors shall make any distinction or discrimination of persons in issuing executions, the taxes of such person (in addition to the lien which the State has on the property of such person,) shall be considered as thereby assumed by such tax collector or collectors; and the treasurers of Charleston and Columbia are directed and enjoined, in their different departments, to debit such tax collector or collectors, so misbehaving, with all such arrears of tax, and to issue executions therefor immediately against each and every of them, and to lodge such executions with the sheriff of the district in which such collector or collectors reside or shall have property. And if any sheriff or sheriffs, in whose hands such execution shall be lodged, shall make any distinction or discrimination of persons, in levying the said executions, or shall retain the same for a longer time than two months, without making a return of the same, he is hereby made chargeable with the said executions, in addition to the liability of the collectors and individuals so originally in arrear for taxes as aforesaid.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no person holding any office of profit under this State, or having any demand against the State, shall be entitled to receive any sum of money which may be due to him from the State until his taxes are first paid and satisfied; and the treasurers are hereby positively directed, before they shall pay to any person holding any office of profit or having such demand, the sum that may be due to him, to require of him a receipt from the tax collector where such person resides or ought to pay his tax, stating that his taxes are paid and satisfied. And upon neglect or refusal of any person holding any such office or having such demand, to produce such receipt, the treasurers are hereby directed not to pay such person the sum or sums of money which may be due to him, until satisfactory proof is made to them that such taxes have been paid, or the parties agree to discount the same. And if the treasurer should pay to any person holding any office of profit or having any demand as aforesaid, any sum which may be due to him, without having such receipt produced or discount made as above required, he is hereby declared to be liable for all losses which may arise to the State therefrom.

XX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the instalments of the paper medium which shall be due on the first Wednesday in March next, shall not be required to be paid as directed by the Act entitled “An Act for raising supplies for the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four,” but shall be paid on the first Wednesday in March, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six. Provided always nevertheless, that no person shall be entitled to the benefit of this clause who shall not give an additional security, if required by the treasurer at Charleston, in all cases where he is not fully satisfied of the sufficiency of the former security, and in all cases where default has been made in paying what has heretofore been due, or which may be made in paying the interest to grow due in March next.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the tax collectors throughout the State, in their several parishes and election districts respectively, shall be, and they are hereby, authorized and required to collect the poor tax in their several parishes and election districts; and they shall be allowed the usual commissions for so doing.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioners of the treasury shall be, and they are hereby, required to furnish copies of this Act to each of the collectors appointed by law throughout this State, within one month after passing this Act, and their reasonable expenses occasioned thereby shall be reimbursed.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the pay hereinafter to be provided for the support and maintenance of the magazine guard, shall be restricted to that of the pay of an officer, a sergeant, and six men; and that the sum of two thousand two hundred dollars be, and the same is hereby, appropriated for the payment of the said guard, under the direction of the comptroller.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no person or company shall, on any pretence whatever, issue or re-issue any note or notes in the nature of bank notes, or otherwise, on the credit of the paper medium of the State; and such notes aforesaid as shall now be in circulation, botomed on the paper medium, shall be immediately called in; and the treasurers and tax collectors are hereby forbidden, under the penalty of losing their offices and forfeiting the sum of one thousand dollars, from receiving such notes as are herein mentioned, in payment of taxes or duties; and every bank, and persons associated for banking, issuing or re-issuing such notes, shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten thousand dollars, which shall be recovered by action in any of the courts of law in this State. And that it shall be the duty of the comptroller to enquire into and examine whether such notes are in circulation, and give information accordingly to the attorney general, whose duty it shall be to bring suit or suits accordingly.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all the public arms which now are or hereafter may be purchased on behalf of this State, shall, by order of his Excellency the Governor, be equally distributed among the several brigades of the militia of the State; and that the several and respective brigadier generals shall and may allow the said arms to be sold for costs and charges among the men of his brigade, and cause the money arising from such sale to be paid into the treasury, to be appropriated for the purchase of other arms, to be distributed in manner aforesaid: Provided nevertheless, that no one man shall be permitted to purchase more than what shall be sufficient to arm himself of the arms aforesaid.

XXVI. Whereas, there are many wealthy citizens of this State who derive very considerable revenues from monies which produce an interest, and who do not contribute a due proportion to the public exigencies of the same; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that each and every enquirer, assessor and collector throughout the State shall, on their enquiry for the returns of the taxes of this State for the year one thousand eight hundred, administer the following oath to all such pers ons as may be liable to pay the same, viz: "I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that the account which I now give in is a just and true account of the quantity and quality of the lands, and the number of slaves, and the sum or sums of money which have produced me an interest since the first day of October, eighteen hundred, in any manner whatsoever, which I am possessed of, interested in, or entitled to, either in my own right or in the right of any other person whomsoever, either as guardian, executor, attorney, agent or trustee, or in any other manner whatsoever, according to the best of my knowledge or belief; and that I will give a just and true answer, according to the best of my knowledge, to all such questions as shall be asked me touching the same; and this I swear without any kind of equivocation or mental reservation whatsoever, so help me God:" and upon every sum or sums of money at interest actually received, over and above what each person pays on account of interest, except where such interest money is received by any widow, orphan or unmarried woman, having no other means of livelihood, the said assessor, enquirer or collector, or enquirers, assessors or collectors, to whom the same shall be returned, shall assess the sum of twenty-five cents on every hundred dollars which shall have produced an interest of seven per cent., and a proportional sum on all other sums of money drawing less than seven per cent., to be recovered in like manner, in case of default, as the collectors are authorized by law heretofore to do on the returns of lands and slaves.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case any person or persons shall neglect to make a return of his, her or their monies producing interest as aforesaid, they shall be liable to suffer the same forfeitures and pay the same penalties as are authorized by law in case of their refusing or neglecting to make return of his, her, or their lands or slaves.

XXVIII. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the several and respective tax collectors in this State shall place their warrants against any person or persons who shall make default of payment of their taxes, for collection in the hands of the sheriffs of the districts respectively, and in the hands of no other person or persons whomsoever; and the sheriffs shall be entitled on the service of such warrants to the usual mileage on the service of executions.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the tax collectors shall take the sheriff's receipt for such executions as shall have been issued for taxes, which receipts they shall respectively produce in settlement with the treasurer. And it shall be the duty of the treasurer to transmit to the comptroller, without delay, a certified copy of all such receipts, to the end that the comptroller may be enabled to inspect the conduct of the sheriffs therein.

XXX. And whereas, sundry borrowers of the paper medium loan have Land bought in not paid the interest due on the sums borrowed by them, and sales have by the State to been made of the lands mortgaged to secure said loan, and the treasurers be sold.

have bought in the said lands for defect of bidders, and the same remain on the hands of the State, unproductive; Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurer shall be, and is hereby, authorized and directed to cause all the lands bought in as aforesaid to be put up to sale, in the districts in which they severally lie, by the sheriffs of the said districts, on a public sale day, after giving three months notice thereof, and shall sell

the same to the highest bidder; and such purchaser shall pay one fourth part of the purchase money in cash, at the time of the sale, and the remaining three fourths in one and two years; for the performance of which he shall give his bond and mortgage of the premises, and also personal security, to be approved of by the sheriff and three commissioners residing in such district, to be nominated by the treasurer. Provided, that no sale of the said mortgaged lands shall take place when any person interested in the same shall tender one third part of the sum due, together with the expenses incurred, and give bond, mortgage and security, as is herein before directed, for the balance due, payable in one and two years, previous to the day of sale; and that the said mortgaged property shall thereupon vest in the party so paying and giving security as aforesaid.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the treasurer, in the monthly reports which he is required to make to the comptroller, to state the amount of all sums of money which he shall or may receive or pay away on behalf of the State, particularizing the person and his office of whom he receives and to whom he pays, as well as on what account he has received, and for what purposes he has paid, such sums.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the treasurers, at any time when required by the comptroller, severally and respectively, to produce to him a satisfactory statement of the cash on hand, and shall promptly furnish him with official information, duly certified, whenever applied to do so, relative to any matter connected with the revenue and finances of the State, of every denomination and description, within their several and respective departments or divisions.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the treasurers to pay the salaries of all the public officers on the civil list, quarterly, and not earlier.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the treasurers, and they are hereby directed, severally, to raise an account in the treasury books, in every instance, for the several appropriations made by the Legislature, so that the appropriations of money, and the application thereof, conformably thereto, may appear clearly and distinctly on the treasury books.

XXXV. And whereas, the foreign debts of this State have all been paid off except two, one of them to Strickhouser, and the other claimed by the representatives of the Prince of Luxembourg, amounting in the whole, by estimate, to about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, which peculiar circumstances prevent the payment of at this time; and whereas, there remains in the treasury, over and above the appropriations made by law, a much larger sum than the above, great part of which has arisen from an Ordinance of the thirteenth of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine, entitled “An Ordinance for funding and ultimately discharging the foreign debt of this State,” imposing a tax of one quarter of a dollar per head on each negro slave in the State, for the purpose of, and sacredly pledged for, the payment of the foreign debt; so that the said Act hath answered the purpose for which it was passed, and there is no necessity to continue the imposition of the said tax any longer on the citizens; but it is essential to the maintenance of the good faith of this State, that the said sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars should be set apart sacrdly for the payment of the two aforementioned debts, as soon as the same can be done with justice and propriety; Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, now in the treasury, be, and the same is hereby, set apart and sacredly pledged for the payment of the two before mentioned debts, whenever such payment can be made consistently with justice and safety to the State, under the direction of the legislature. And that the same may be made productive, so as to meet the growing interest of those debts, the treasurer of the lower division is hereby authorized and directed to lay out the sum aforesaid as speedily as can be done with advantage to the State, under the direction of the comptroller and of the standing committee of the Legislature, in the purchase of the funded debt of this State or of the United States, which shall be preserved and remain pledged and set apart for the payment of the two debts aforesaid. And the ordinance of the thirteenth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine, entitled "An Ordinance for funding, and ultimately discharging, the foreign debt of this State," shall be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

XXXVI. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurers shall forthwith open in their respective books an account in the name of the State of South Carolina, in which account they shall enter the amount of all sums now in the treasury unappropriated: and in like manner shall enter all sums of the same nature that shall hereafter be received by them respectively; which sums are hereby placed under the superintendence of the comptroller, to be applied at such time and in such manner, for the purposes aforesaid, as he and the said standing committee of the legislature shall in their discretion think fit, by drafts, to be made by the comptroller on the treasury. And the said comptroller is hereby required to render, annually, to the Legislature, a full account of his transactions.

XXXVII. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurer of Charleston be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to sell so much of the funded debt of the State as has been purchased by the treasurers with the sums heretofore appropriated by law for the building a gaol in Charleston and kept as a gaol fund, for so much as the same will bring, giving the preference to the State as a purchaser in such sale; and that the amount of the money which shall be produced by the sale of such stock shall be paid over to the commissioners for building a gaol in Charleston, who shall proceed to erect and build a suitable gaol for the district of Charleston with the said sum of money, together with the sum of five thousand dollars, part of the sum of one hundred thousand dollars appropriated by the tax Act of one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, for the purpose of erecting court houses and gaols in this State.

XXXVIII. And whereas, some doubts having been entertained that the Lieutenant Governor and his private secretary were not entitled to the salary appropriated by law for the payment of the Governor and Commander-in-chief of this State and of his private secretary, notwithstanding the administration of the government devolved on the Lieutenant Governor on the death of the late Governor, and the comptroller suspended the payment of such salary till the pleasure of the Legislature could be known; Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurer shall be, and he is hereby, authorized and required to pay to his Excellency John Drayton the salary allowed by law to the Governor and Commander-in-chief of the State, for such time as he administered the government, as Lieutenant Governor, after the death of the late Governor, out of the provision made by law on this subject; and also to the private secretary of the Governor the salary provided by law for him.

XXXIX. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the securities of the several tax collectors, who may be hereafter appointed in this State, shall be approved of by the commissioners who approve of the securities given by the sheriffs of the several districts in which they may be appointed respectively.

XL. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the several sums hereinafter mentioned shall be, and are hereby, appropriated for the several purposes following, to wit: for defraying the expenses of the civil list, as per estimate (No. 1) number one, hereunto annexed, a sum not exceeding seventy thousand eight hundred and thirty-five dollars; for defraying the contingent and extraordinary expenses of government, as per estimate (No. 2) number two, hereunto annexed, a sum not exceeding forty-five thousand seven hundred and eighty-one dollars, eighty-six cents. And that the said several sums shall be paid out of the funds following, namely, the general taxes imposed by this Act, and all arrears of debts, duties and taxes whatsoever, which have been collected or may be collected for the use of the State, and not otherwise appropriated by law.

XLI. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the balance of interest which now remains or shall hereafter remain to this State on the debt due by the United States, after paying the interest due on the funded debt of this State, and the amount of the principal which may be paid on the principal of the debt due to this State by the United States, shall be, and the same is hereby, appropriated to the purchase or redemption of the funded debt of this State, by the treasurer of the lower division, under the direction of the comptroller and standing committee of the Legislature; and all balances of cash which may remain in the treasury of this State after paying the appropriations made by law, shall and may be applied, in the same manner, to the same use and purpose.

also on what account he has received, and for what purpose he has paid, such sums.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurers shall, at all times when thereto required by the comptroller, produce to him satisfactory statements of the cash in hand, and furnish him promptly with official information, duly certified, relative to any matter connected with the revenue and finances of this State, within their respective divisions or departments.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whenever the public exigency shall, in the opinion of the comptroller, &c. require that any sum or sums of money which may be in the treasury in Charleston shall be removed to the treasury in Columbia, or that any sum or sums of money which may be in the treasury in Columbia should be removed to the treasury in Charleston, that then, and in such case, the comptroller of the revenue and finances of the State shall be, and he is hereby, authorized and required to cause a transfer or transportation and removal of such sum or sums of money, to and from one treasury office to the other, in such manner as he shall deem most proper and convenient, and shall have power and authority to call upon his Excellency the Governor of the State for an order, and upon application the Governor is required to grant an order, for an escort or guard sufficient for the safe keeping and protecting, during the transporting, such sum or sums, to and from one office of the treasury to the other.

and to enable the public to discover what sums of money might be due by the deceased tax collectors; and if any of the executors or administrators of any deceased tax collector neglect or refuse to produce the accounts of the deceased, or give all the information in their power on the subject, the treasurer is hereby ordered to proceed according to law against the estates of the deceased tax collectors.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Comptroller be, and he is hereby, authorized and required publicly to call on the commissioners in the several districts throughout the State who have received monies for the construction and repairs of public buildings, and the commissioners of Columbia, to render an account to him of the application of such monies, which accounts shall be laid before the legislature, at the next session.

XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurers shall not hereafter draw any order or check, or make any draft on any tax collector in this State, in favor of any person having any claim or demand on the treasury of this State; nor shall the treasurers make payment to any person having any claim against the State, even though allowed by law or provided for by the Legislature, but at the treasury office at Charleston or Columbia, except as is provided in the Act entitled "An Act to authorize the treasurers to pay certain persons therein mentioned their annuities, and regulating payment to annuitants." And no tax collector shall receive or take in payment of taxes due by any person any order, draft or check of either of the treasurers.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurers in Charleston and Columbia shall procure to be printed so many blank tax returns adapted to the nature of the taxes which the legislature shall from time to time impose, as will be necessary under this Act; and the said treasurers shall furnish each tax collector in their divisions respectively with so many of the said blanks as will enable him to perform the duties required by this Act. And each and every tax collector shall, and he is hereby authorized and required to, demand and take from each and every person making a tax return, two copies of such return, signed and sworn to as the law directs, to be made out on the said blanks, of all the property owned by him, her or them, on the first day of October last.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of each and every tax collector throughout the State to make out a duplicate of the general return which he is by law directed to make to the treasurer, and to inclose the same, together with the duplicate of the tax returns by this Act directed to be taken from the individuals of their respective counties, parishes and districts, in a packet directed to the comptroller and sealed up; which packet each and every tax collector is hereby required to transmit to the treasurers respectively, on or before the first day of October, in each and every year, to the intent that by the due examination thereof by the comptroller, any improper conduct in the tax collectors may be detected. And should any of the tax collectors aforesaid fail to perform the duties required by this and the next preceding clause, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered of him by any person suing for the same in any court having competent jurisdiction.

XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the treasurers to report to the house at their annual session every instance of default in any tax collector in his division, and to instruct the attorney general or solicitors respectively, to prosecute such defaulters, as soon as any instance of default shall occur. And it shall be the duty of the said treasurers respectively, strictly to enforce the means which they are by law authorized to make use of, to compel the tax collectors to due performance of their duties; and in case any treasurer shall fail to make use of such means, he shall be held to make good any loss which the State shall sustain thereby.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of every tax collector in this State when he makes his general return of taxes, to annex thereto a list of all the taxable property in his district returned, which has come to his knowledge, and is not returned to him, describing such property in the most particular manner he can, and annexing thereto the name or names of the owner or reputed owner or owners of such property.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any person who shall make any return of any taxable property to any of the tax collectors of this State, shall specify in such return not only the parish or district in which the lands returned are situated, but also the parish or district in which any slaves returned are employed or reside.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the tax collectors of St. Philip's and St. Michael's, in Charleston, shall, monthly, in Charleston, and on the first Monday in every month, from and after the first day of March next, upon oath, make due and true returns of all monies which shall have been received by them during the preceding month.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any tax collector or collectors shall make any distinction or discrimination of persons in issuing executions, the taxes of such person (in addition to the lien which the State has on the property of such person,) shall be considered as thereby assumed by such tax collector or collectors; and the treasurers at Charleston and Columbia are directed and enjoined, in their different departments, to debit such tax collector or collectors, so misbehaving, with all such arrearages of tax, and to issue executions therefore immediately against each and every of them, and to lodge such executions with the sheriff of the district in which such collector or collectors reside and shall have property. And if any sheriff or sheriffs, in whose hands such execution shall be lodged, shall make any distinction or discrimination of persons, in levying the said execution, or shall retain the same for a longer time than two months, without making a return of the same, he is hereby made chargeable with the said execution, in addition to the liability of the collectors and individuals so originally in arrear for taxes as aforesaid.

XX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no person holding any office of profit under this State, or having any demand against the State, shall be entitled to receive any sum of money which may be due to him from the State until his taxes are first paid and satisfied; and the treasurers are hereby positively directed, before they shall pay to any person holding any office of profit or having such demand, the sum that may be due to him, to require of him a receipt from the tax collector where such person resides or ought to pay his tax, stating that his taxes are paid and satisfied. And upon neglect or refusal of any person holding such office or having such demand, to produce such receipt, the treasurers are hereby directed not to pay such person the sum or sums of money which may be due to him, until satisfactory proof is made to them that such taxes have been paid, or the parties agree to discount the same. And if the treasurer should pay to any person holding any office of profit or having any demand as aforesaid, any sum which may be due to him, without having such receipt produced or discount made as above required, he is hereby declared to be liable for all losses which may arise to the State therefrom.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the instalments on the paper medium which shall be due on the first Wednesday in March next, shall not be required to be paid as directed by the Act entitled "An Act for raising supplies for the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four," but shall be paid on the first Wednesday in March, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seven. Provided, that no person shall be entitled to the benefit of this clause who shall not give additional security, if required, to the treasurer at Charleston, in all cases where he is not fully satisfied of the sufficiency of the former security, and in all cases where default has been made in paying what has heretofore been due, or which may be made in paying the interest to grow due on the first day in March next.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the tax collectors throughout the State, in their several parishes and election districts, shall be, and they are hereby, authorized and required to collect the poor tax in the several parishes and election districts; and they shall be allowed the usual commissions for so doing.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the mutilated paper medium bills now lying in the treasury in Charleston, to the amount of fifteen thousand five hundred and sixty-five dollars seventy-three cents, be burnt and destroyed; and that it shall be the duty of the treasurer in Charleston, some time before the meeting of the ensuing legislature, in the presence of the comptroller and a majority of the standing committee of the legislature, to burn and destroy the said mutilated bills, to the amount before specified.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioners of the treasury shall be, and they are hereby, required to furnish Copies of this Act to each of the collectors appointed by law throughout this State, within one month after passing this Act, and their reasonable expenses occasioned thereby shall be reimbursed.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the pay hereinafter to be provided for the support and maintenance of the magazine guard, shall be restricted to that of an officer, a sergeant, and six men; and that the sum of two thousand and two hundred dollars be appropriated for the payment of the said guard, under the direction of the comptroller.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no person or company shall, on any pretence whatsoever, issue or re-issue any note or notes in the nature of bank notes, or otherwise, on the credit of the paper medium of the State; and such notes aforesaid as shall be in circulation, bottomed on the paper medium, shall be immediately called in; and the treasurers and tax collectors are hereby forbidden, under the penalty of losing their offices and forfeiting the sum of one thousand dollars, from receiving such notes as are hereby forbidden, in payment of taxes or duties; and every bank, and persons associated for banking, issuing or reissuing such notes, shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten thousand dollars, which shall be recovered by action in any of the courts of law in this State. And that it shall be the duty of the comptroller to enquire into and examine whether such notes are in circulation, and give information accordingly to the attorney general, whose duty it shall be to bring suit or suits accordingly.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all the public arms which now are or hereafter may be purchased on behalf of this State, shall, by order of his Excellency the Governor, be equally distributed among the several brigades of militia of this State; and that the several and respective brigadier generals shall and may allow the said arms to be sold for costs and charges among the men of his brigade, and cause the money arising from such sale to be paid into the public treasury, to be appropriated for the purchase of other arms, to be distributed in manner aforesaid: Provided nevertheless, that no one man shall be permitted to purchase more than what shall be sufficient to arm himself of the arms aforesaid.

XXVIII. Whereas, there are many wealthy citizens of this State who derive very considerable revenues from monies which produce an interest, and who do not contribute a due proportion to the public exigencies of the same; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that each and every enquirer, assessor and collector shall, on their enquiry for their returns of the taxes of this State for the year one thousand eight hundred and one, administer the following oath to all such persons as may be liable to pay the same, viz: "I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that the account which I now give in is a just and true account of the quantity and quality of the lands, and the number of slaves, and the sum or sums of money which have produced me an interest since the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and one, in any manner whatsoever, which I am possessed of, interested in, or entitled to, either in my own right or in the right of any other person whomsoever, either as guardian, executor, agent, attorney, trustee, or in any manner whatsoever, according to the best of my knowledge or belief; and that I will give a just and true answer, according to the best of my knowledge, to all such questions as shall be asked me touching the same; and this I swear without any kind of equivocation or mental reservation whatsoever, so help me God:” and upon every sum or sums of money at interest actually received, over and above what each person pays on account of interest, except where such interest money is received by any widow, orphan or unmarried woman, having no other means of livelihood, the said assessor, enquirer or collector, or enquirers, assessors or collectors, to whom the same shall be returned, shall assess the sum of twenty-five cents on every hundred dollars which shall have produced an interest of seven per cent., and a proportional sum on all other sums of money drawing less than seven per cent., to be recovered in like manner, in case of default, as the collectors are authorized by law heretofore to do on their returns of lands and slaves.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case any person or persons shall neglect to make a return of his, her or their monies producing interest as aforesaid, they shall be liable to suffer the same forfeitures and pay the same penalties as are authorized by law in case of their refusing or neglecting to make return of his, her, or their lands or slaves.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the several and respective tax collectors in this State shall place their warrants against any person or persons who shall make default of payment of their taxes, for collection in the hands of the sheriffs of the districts respectively, and in the hands of no other person or persons whomsoever; and the sheriffs shall be entitled on the service of such warrants to the usual mileage on the service of executions.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the tax collectors shall take the sheriff’s receipt for such executions as shall have been issued for taxes, which they shall respectively produce in settlement with the treasurer. And it shall be the duty of the treasurer to transmit to the comptroller, without delay, a certified copy of all such receipts, to the end that the comptroller may be enabled to inspect the conduct of the sheriffs therein.

XXXII. And whereas, sundry borrowers of the paper medium loan have not paid the interest due on the sums borrowed by them, and sales have been made of the lands mortgaged to secure said loan, and the treasurers have bought in the said lands for defect of bidders, and the same remain on the hands of the State, unproductive; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurer shall be, and is hereby, authorized and directed to cause all the lands bought in as aforesaid to be put up to sale, in the districts in which they severally lie, by the sheriffs of the said districts, on a public sale day, after giving three months notice thereof, and shall sell the same to the highest bidder; and such purchaser shall pay one fourth part of the purchase money in cash, at the time of the sale, and the remaining three fourths in one and two years; for the performance of which he shall give his bond and mortgage of the premises, and also personal security, to be approved of by the sheriff and three commissioners residing in such district, to be nominated by the treasurer. Provided, that no sale of the said mortgaged lands shall take place when any person interested in the same shall tender one third part of the sum due, together with the expenses incurred, and give bond, mortgage and security, as is herein before directed, for the balance due, payable in one and two years, previous to the day of sale; and that the said mortgaged property shall thereupon vest in the party so paying and giving security as aforesaid.
XXXIII. And whereas, many tracts of land which are under mortgage to the State, will shortly be brought to sale; to prevent their being sold at prices beneath their value, Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the comptroller is hereby authorized and required to put up for sale, in the districts where they respectively lie, by the sheriffs of the said districts, on a public sale day, after three months public notice thereof; and the same shall be sold to the highest bidder under the direction of commissioners to be appointed by the comptroller, and approved of by the Governor or commander-in-chief for the time being; and the comptroller shall furnish the commissioners aforesaid with the amount of debts for which the said lands are mortgaged; and it shall and may be lawful for the said commissioners to cause to be bid in, on account of the State, any of those lands which may not be bid up to the amount of the debt for which they may have been mortgaged, or which they may think have not been bid to their value; provided, that in no case shall the commissioners aforesaid be authorized to bid any such lands, on account of the State, to an amount greater than the debt for which they may have been mortgaged, with interest calculated thereon.

XXXIV. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the treasurer, in the monthly reports which he is required to make to the comptroller, to state the amount of all sums of money which he shall or may receive or pay away on behalf of the State, particularizing the person and his office of whom he receives and to whom he pays, as well as on what account he has received, and for what purposes he has paid, such sums.

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the treasurers, at any time when required by the comptroller, severally and respectively, to produce to him a satisfactory statement of the cash on hand, and shall promptly furnish him with official information, duly certified, whenever applied to do so, relative to any matter connected with the revenue and finances of the State, of every denomination and description, within their several and respective departments and divisions.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the treasurers to pay the salaries of all public officers on the civil list, quarterly, and not earlier.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the treasurers, and they are hereby directed, severally, to raise an account in the treasury books, in every instance, for the several appropriations made by the Legislature, so that the appropriations of money, and the application thereof, conformably thereto, may appear clearly and distinctly on the treasury books.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurers shall forthwith open in their respective books an account in the name of all money in the State of South Carolina, in which account they shall enter the amount of all sums now in the treasury unappropriated: and in like manner shall enter all sums of the same nature that hereafter shall be received by them respectively; which sums are hereby placed under the superintendence of the comptroller, to be applied at such time and in such manner, for the purposes aforesaid, as he and the said standing committee of the legislature shall in their discretion think fit, by drafts, to be made by the comptroller on the treasury. And the said comptroller is hereby required to render, annually, to the Legislature, a full account of his transactions.

XXXIX. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the securities of the several tax collectors, who may be hereafter appointed in this State, shall be approved of by the commissioners who approve of the securities given by the sheriffs of the several districts in which they may be appointed respectively.

XL. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the several sums hereinafter mentioned shall be, and are hereby, appropriated for the several purposes following, to wit: for defraying the expenses of the civil list, as per estimate (No. 1) number one, hereunto annexed, a sum not exceeding seventy-two thousand two hundred and seventy-eight dollars; for defraying the contingent and extraordinary expenses of government, as per estimate (No. 2) number two, hereunto annexed, a sum not exceeding two hundred and eighty-two thousand three hundred and ninety-seven dollars, fifty-eight cents. And that the said several sums shall be paid out of the funds following, namely, the general taxes imposed by this Act, and all arrears of debts, duties and taxes whatsoever, which have been collected or may be collected for the use of the State, and not otherwise appropriated by law.

XLI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the balance of interest which now remains or shall hereafter remain to this State on the debt due by the United States, after paying the interest due on the funded debt of this State, and the amount of the principal which may be paid on the principal of the debt due to this State by the United States, shall be, and the same is hereby, appropriated to the purchase or redeem-tion of the funded debt of this State, by the treasurer of the lower division, under the direction of the comptroller and standing committee of the Legislature; and all balances of cash which may remain in the treasury of this State after paying the appropriations made by law, shall and may be applied, in the same manner, to the same use and purpose.

XLII. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the comtroller be, and he is hereby, authorized to deliver up to John Splatt Cripps, the security of William Branford Farr, late tax collector of St. Andrew’s, his bond to the State, on the payment of the penalty thereof, and on such payment to execute a receipt and release to the said John S. Cripps, as administrator of the said Farr, for all arrears of taxes due by him as tax collector aforesaid.

LXIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the amount of registered debt, as reported by the comptroller, shall be redeem-shall be entitled to receive his warrant on the treasury in Charleston for the full amount of the principal and one half of the amount of the interest due on each certificate up to the time of presenting the same.

LXIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if at a meeting to be had by the comptroller with the standing committee of the Legislature, on the first Monday in April next, after a review of the funds of the treasury, it shall to them seem convenient and proper to call in and redeem any portion or part of the six per cent. debt of this State then in circulation, it shall and may be lawful, and the comptroller is hereby directed, to give public notice that on the first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and two, such part as may be agreed on, so as the same does not exceed one half of the said six per cent. debt with the interest up to that period, will be paid at the treasury in Charleston; and that no payment shall be made of the said reimbursement of the said six per cent. debt but to the proprietor or proprietors of the evidences of the debt, or their attorneys, duly authorized for that purpose; and to prevent frauds upon the public, it shall be the duty of the treasurer to indorse on the back of each stock certificate the payments so made.

LXV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That an Act entitled "An Act prescribing, on the part of this State, the times, places and manner of holding elections for representatives in the Congress of the United States," passed on the twenty-first day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

LXVI. And whereas, it is expedient that the State of South Carolina should make a purchase of the patent right of Messrs. Miller and Whitney, to the making, using and vending, within the limits of this State, of a certain new invention of a machine, commonly called a saw gin, for cleaning the staple of cotton from the seed; and whereas, it is proper that the Legislature of this State should provide for the payment of the same; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the comptroller of the revenue and finances of this State shall be, and he is hereby, authorized and required to draw his warrant in favour of the said Miller and Whitney, or either of them, or their order, or to the executors or administrators of either of them, or their order, on either of the treasurers of this State, for the sum of twenty thousand dollars, payable at sight; and the said comptroller is further authorized and required, at the same time, to draw on either of the treasurers of this State, three several other warrants, for ten thousand dollars each, payable to the said Miller and Whitney; the first warrant on the first day of September next; the second of these warrants payable on the first day of September, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and three; and the remaining warrant to be made payable on the first day of October, eighteen hundred and four: to the payment of which several orders or warrants, amounting in the whole to fifty thousand dollars, the good faith of this State is hereby pledged. Provided nevertheless, that the said Miller & Whitney shall, before the drawing of such warrants, as above directed by the comptroller, make and execute a deed of assignment, bargain and sale, and release to the said comptroller, for and on behalf of the State of South Carolina, of their patent right to the exclusive making, using and vending the said new invention of the saw gin within the limits of this State, and of all other improvements, alterations and amendments, within the limits aforesaid, which they or either of them shall make or discover, in the construction of the said machine, founded upon the principles of the invention of the saw gin: and provided also, that the said Miller & Whitney shall, by their said deed, agree to refund all such sums of money, obligations, or notes of hand, as they or either of them, or their agent, may have received, for their licence or licenses to use the said inventions, from any citizens or other persons within the limits of this State; and shall also engage and agree to make and deliver to the said comptroller for the State, two of the said machines of the most approved size and construction; one of which shall be lodged in Charleston in the office of Secretary of State, and the other in the office of Secretary of State in Columbia. And provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be intended, or meant to be intended, to give to any citizen, or other person or persons within the limits of this State, the right of making or selling for exportation, or of exporting beyond the limits of the United States, any of the machine aforesaid, or of any parts thereof.

XLVII. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That a tax of fifty cents shall be, and is hereby, laid upon each and every saw, or an-numeral row of teeth, in each and every saw gin, for ginning of cotton, within this State, to be paid by the owner or owners of such gins, who have used the same since the first day of October last, or who shall use the said gins before the first day of April next; and the several tax collectors throughout this State are hereby authorized and empowered to assess, levy and collect the said tax, in like manner as other taxes are by law assessed,

THEODORE GAILLARD, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

No. 1785. AN ACT PROSCRIBING, ON THE PART OF THIS STATE, THE TIMES, PLACES AND MANNER OF HOLDING ELECTIONS FOR REPRESENTATIVES IN THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

WHEREAS, by the census of the inhabitants of the United States, taken in conformity to the constitution and law thereof, it appears that this State is entitled to elect eight members of the House of Representatives of the United States:

1. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That this State shall be, and is hereby, divided into eight districts, for the purpose of electing representatives from this State to the Congress of the United States; of which the district of Charleston shall constitute one district; that the united districts of Beaufort, Barnwell and Edgefield, shall constitute one election district; that the united districts of Georgetown, Horry, Marion, Darlington and Marlborough, shall constitute one election district; that the united districts of Orangeburgh, Colleton and Richland, shall constitute one election district; that the united districts of Sumter, Kershaw, Lancaster, Fairfield and Chesterfield, shall constitute one election district; that the united districts of Abbeville, Laurens and Newberry, shall constitute one election district; that the united districts of Chester, Spartanburg, Union and York, shall constitute one election district; and that the united districts of Pendleton and Greenville, shall constitute one election district. And each of the said eight districts shall send one representative from this State to the House of Representatives of the United States, who shall be chosen by the persons qualified to vote for members of the House of Representatives of this State.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the next election of representatives from this State to Congress shall be held on the first Monday of February next, and the day following, by the same managers, and at the same places, and to be conducted in the same manner, as the elections of members for the State legislature. And after the day last aforesaid, the said elections shall always be held at the same times and places, and be regulated and conducted by the same managers, and in the same manner, as the elections of members of the State legislature; and the person who, at any of the said elections, shall have the greatest number of votes in any of the aforesaid districts, shall be the member for that district to the House of Representatives in the Congress of the United States from this State.

III. And be it further enacted, That the managers in the several election districts throughout this State, shall, within twenty days after any election, transmit the ballots by them respectively taken, to Columbia, safely and securely enclosed in paper, sealed with their seals, and directed to the Governor or Commander-in-chief of the State, or to the secretary of this State, by a person by them to be employed particularly for that purpose, who, at the time of receiving the said packet, shall take an oath before some magistrate, "Safely to convey and deliver such packet, agreeable to the directions, (sickness and unavoidable accidents excepted,) and in case of sickness, that he will deliver the same in good order, and the seals unbroken at the time of such delivery, to some other person to be conveyed to Columbia." And the Governor, or the Secretary of State, (as the case may be,) on the receipt of any such packet shall cause to be administered to the person delivering the same, the following oath: "I, A. B. do solemnly swear, (or affirm, as the case may be,) that the paper or packet now delivered by me, with the contents, were placed in my hands by the managers of the election district of ________ (or by ________, in case he hath received the same from the messenger first intrusted, and that the said packet hath not been delivered out of my custody to any person since the same was delivered to me; nor hath such paper or packet been opened by me, or any other person, to my knowledge, or with my connivance or consent; so help me God." Which paper or packet so delivered shall be received by the Governor or Secretary; and the several persons who shall be employed in conveying the said packets to Columbia from the several election districts in this State, shall be entitled to receive and shall be paid three dollars per diem, for coming to and going from Columbia, allowing forty miles for each day's journey.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Governor or commander-in-chief for the time being, or in case of his sickness, death, or absence, the Lieutenant Governor, on the fourth Monday in February next, for the first election to be held by virtue of this Act, and on every first Monday in December next after each succeeding election, shall cause the said returns to be publicly opened, examined and counted, in his presence, at Columbia, by three or more commissioners to be by him, and under his hand and seal, appointed for that purpose; and shall ascertain the number of votes given at the different elections for every person, and what eight persons shall have, respectively, the greatest number of votes in the said several districts, and shall then deposit the original poll of each of the said eight districts in the office of Secretary of State; and after having ascertained what eight persons have been elected as before directed, he shall notify by proclamation, that those persons have been duly elected members of the House of Representatives in the Congress of the United States, from this State: Provided, that if both the Governor and Lieutenant Governor should be absent from Columbia, the Secretary of the State, together with three commissioners to be appointed as herein before directed, shall and may open and count the votes, and ascertain the eight persons elected as aforesaid, and transmit the result thereof to the Governor, or, in case of his absence or death, to the Lieutenant Governor, to be notified by proclamation as aforesaid: Provided also, that the three commissioners to be appointed as aforesaid, shall, in all cases, before they proceed to act in the premises, take an oath before some magistrate, "that they will faithfully and impartially, and to the best of their skill, discharge the duties required of them by this Act."

VI. And be it further enacted, That in case the said person should be returned for two or more districts, he may, within twenty days after due notice shall be given him thereof, choose for which district he will serve; and on his making such choice, or neglecting so to do within the said term, the Governor or commander-in-chief shall direct another election to be held, within twenty days thereafter, for the vacant district or districts, to be conducted as is before directed by this Act; and the Governor and commander-in-chief shall proceed in the same manner where the member elected in any of the said eight districts refuses to serve, or omits to signify to the Governor or commander-in-chief within twenty days after he has received due notice of his election, his intention of serving; and in case of the death of any person elected, or if his seat shall become vacant by any other means, or if two or more persons shall have equal votes for the same district, the Governor or commander-in-chief shall order a new election, as the case may require, to be conducted as is herein before prescribed.

And whereas, the said commissioners, conceiving that they are not authorized by the law under which they act to rent or hire out any of the warehouses under their care and superintendence, have prayed the legislature that their powers may be enlarged, and that they may be permitted to rent out one or more of the tobacco warehouses, as they may deem necessary, (always reserving sufficient store room for tobacco,) for the purposes of storing of cotton, or any other article, and to affix such rent or storage as they may think adequate, and to collect the same, or to appoint the inspector or inspectors of tobacco to receive and pay the same into the hands of commissioners, in aid of defraying the necessary expenses of the institution:

Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the powers and duties of the commissioners of the tobacco inspection in Charleston, and of the inspector and inspectors there employed, shall be, and the same are hereby, enlarged and extended so far as to enable the said commissioners to receive into the tobacco warehouses, or any part thereof, on store, cotton or other articles of produce, or any articles of merchandise or otherwise, according to their discretion, from any person or persons whomsoever, on the best terms that can be obtained for the same, not exceeding the usual rates of storage in Charleston, and to apply the monies arising therefrom to the same purposes as are directed in and by an Act entitled "An Act for regulating the inspection and exportation of tobacco, and for other purposes therein mentioned." And the inspector and inspectors aforesaid are hereby directed and required to collect and pay into the hands of the commissioners aforesaid the amount of the storage that may arise as aforesaid, in the same manner as they are directed in and by the aforesaid Act with respect to the storage of tobacco. Provided always nevertheless, that all such cotton, or other articles, that may be received on store, shall be received on the express condition that the same, or any part thereof, may, at any time, be removed, at the discretion of the commissioners aforesaid, whenever, in their opinion, the whole or any part of the said warehouses may be wanted for the purpose of storing tobacco.

And no tax collector shall hereafter receive, or take in payment of taxes due by any person, any order, draft or check of either of the treasurers.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurers in Charleston and Columbia shall annually procure to be printed so many blank tax returns adapted to the nature of the taxes which the legislature shall from time to time impose, as will be necessary, and the said treasurers shall annually furnish each tax collector in their divisions respectively with so many of the said blanks as will enable him to perform the duties required by law. And each and every tax collector shall, and he is hereby authorized and required to, demand and take from each and every person making a tax return, two copies of such return, signed and sworn to as the law directs, to be made out on the said blanks, of all the property owned by him, her or them, on the first day of October preceding, in every year.

And if any sheriff or sheriffs, in whose hands such executions shall be lodged, shall make any distinction or discrimination of persons, in levying the said executions, or shall retain the same for a longer time than two months without making a return of the same, he is hereby made chargeable with the said executions, in addition to the liability of the collectors and individuals so originally in arrear for tax as aforesaid.

XXXII. And upon neglect or refusal of any person holding such office or having such demand, to produce such receipt, the treasurers are hereby directed not to pay such person the sum or sums of money which may be due to him, until satisfactory proof is adduced to them that such taxes have been paid, or the parties agree to discount the same. And if the treasurer should pay to any person holding any office of profit or having any demand as aforesaid, any sum which may be due to him, without having such receipt produced, or satisfactory proof, or discount made as above required, he is hereby declared to be liable for all losses which may arise to the State therefrom.

tors shall take the sheriff's or coroner's receipts for such executions as shall have been issued for taxes, which they shall respectively produce in settlement with the treasurer: and it shall be the duty of the treasurer to transmit to the comptroller, without delay, a certified copy of all such receipts, to the end that the comptroller may be enabled to inspect the conduct of the sheriffs and coroners.

XX. And whereas, sundry borrowers of the paper medium loan have not paid the interest due on the sums borrowed by them, and sales have been made of the lands mortgaged to secure said loan, and the treasurers have bought in the said lands for defect of bidders, and the same remain as the property of the State, unproductive; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurers aforesaid shall be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to cause all the lands bought in as aforessaid to be put up to sale in the districts in which they severally lie, by the sheriffs of the said districts, on a public sale day, after giving three months notice thereof, and shall sell the same to the highest bidder, who shall pay one-fourth part of the purchase money in cash, at the time of the sale, and the remaining three-fourths in one and two years; for the performance of which he shall give his bond and mortgage of the premises, and also personal security, to be approved of by the sheriff and three commissioners residing in such district, to be nominated by the treasurers. Provided, no sale of the mortgaged lands shall take place when any person interested in the same shall, previous to the day of sale, tender one-third part of the sum due, together with expenses incurred, and give bond, mortgage and security, as is herein before directed, for the balance due, payable in one and two years; and that the said mortgaged property shall thereupon vest in the party so paying and giving security as aforesaid.

XXI. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the comptroller general is hereby authorized and required to cause all the lands which are mortgaged to the public, except the lands contemplated in the clause immediately preceding, to be put up to sale in the districts where they respectively lie, by the sheriffs of the said districts, on a public sale day, after three months public notice thereof; and the same shall be sold to the highest bidder, under the directions of commissioners to be appointed by the comptroller and approved of by the Governor or Commander-in-chief for the time being. And the comptroller shall furnish the commissioners aforesaid with the amounts of the debts for which the said lands are mortgaged; and it shall and may be lawful for the said commissioners to cause to be bid in, on account of the State, any of those lands which may not be bid up to the amount of the debt for which they may have been mortgaged, or which they think have not been bid to their value. Provided, that in no case shall the commissioners aforesaid be authorized to bid in any such lands, on account of the State, to an amount greater than the debt for which they may have been mortgaged, with interest calculated thereon.

XXII. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all lands heretofore mortgaged to the State, which have been exposed to sale for default of payment, and have been bought in for the State, by the directions of the comptroller general or commissioners thereto authorized by law, shall be, under the direction of the said comptroller, sold to the highest bidder, by the sheriffs of the districts wherein the lands respectively lie, upon the terms, credits and conditions heretofore established by law. And where the amount of the sales, as above directed, shall not satisfy and discharge the debt, with interest thereon, due to the State, the comptroller general shall proceed to sue and recover from the principal and securities to the bonds given by the mortgagors of the said lands, the balances which may be respectively due thereon.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the right and title of the State in all lands for which grants have passed the proper offices, and have been signed by the Governor of the State for the time being, but which have not been delivered to the grantees for default of payment of the purchase money reserved by law to the State, shall be sold at public sale, in the same manner, and upon the same terms, credits and conditions, as the lands last hereinbefore mentioned. Provided always, and be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall and may be lawful for the person or persons in whose names any grant of land has been made out as aforesaid, at any time before the first day of October next, to tender and pay the money due for such grant, and to receive the said grant, which the secretary of the State is hereby authorized to deliver, upon the party's producing a certificate, from one of the treasurers, that the payment has been made. Provided, that the quantity of land contained in such grant shall not exceed six hundred and forty acres: and provided also, that all grants heretofore made, and not containing more than six hundred and forty acres, shall not be affected by the grants so retained for want of the payment of the bounty money.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the comptroller shall be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay the specie certificates, chargeable on the respective estates comprised in the preceding clauses of this Act, so far as the funds of such estates respectively, already in the treasury, added to the sum at which said estates respectively have been, or may be, bought in, shall amount to.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all cases where any sheriff of this State shall have heretofore legally sold, or hereafter shall legally sell, any tract or tracts of land, and such sheriff is now dead, resigned, or removed from office, or hereafter shall die, resign, or be removed from office, before such sheriff shall have made and executed.
A.D. 1803.

XXVI. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the treasurer, in the monthly reports which he is required to make to the Comptroller, to state the amount of all the sums of money which he shall or may receive or pay away on behalf of the State, particularizing the person and his office, of whom he receives, and to whom he pays, as well as on what account he has received, and for what purposes he has paid, such sums.

XXVII. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the treasurers, at any time when required by the comptroller, severally and respectively, to produce to him a satisfactory statement of the cash on hand; and shall promptly furnish him with official information, duly certified, whenever applied to to do so, relative to any matter connected with the revenue and finances of the State, of every denomination and description, within their several and respective departments and divisions.

XXVIII. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the treasurers to pay the salaries of all public officers on the civil list quarterly, and not earlier.

XXIX. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the treasurers, and they are hereby directed, severally, to raise an account in the treasury books, in every instance, for the several appropriations made by the legislature, so that the appropriations of money and application thereof conformably thereto, may appear clearly and distinctly on the treasury books.

XXX. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurers shall, forthwith, open, in their respective books, an account in the name of the State of South Carolina; in which account they shall enter the amount of all sums now in the treasury unappropriated; and in like manner shall enter all sums of the same nature that shall hereafter be received by them respectively; which sums are hereby placed under the superintendence of the comptroller, to be applied, at such times and in such manner, for the purposes aforesaid, as he and the standing committee of the legislature shall, in their discretion, think fit, by drafts to be made by the comptroller on the treasury; and the said comptroller is hereby required to render, annually, to the legislature, a full account of his transactions.

XXXI. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the securities of the several tax collectors, who may be hereafter appointed in this State, shall be approved of by the commissioners who approve of the securities given by the sheriffs of the several districts in which they are appointed respectively.

XXXII. And be further it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in future the tax collector of Barnwell district be authorized to receive and collect all the taxes within the limits of the said district.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all acts, clauses, provisions and parts of acts, repugnant or contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act, be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

AN ACT to authorize the production of Office Copies of Grants in evidence, under certain restrictions.

WHEREAS, the courts of law in this State have decided, that office copies of grants of land cannot be produced in evidence, without first proving the loss of the originals, by reason whereof many of the good citizens of this State are placed in the hazard of losing their lands, although justly entitled to them, because, during the revolution a very large portion of the citizens lost a part, and in many instances the whole, of their titles, deeds and papers; and others have, by accident, lost their original grants. And whereas, it generally has been difficult, and it is daily becoming more difficult, to prove such loss, because the witnesses capable of proving the same are already dead or far advanced in life:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful, at any time hereafter, in every court of this State, for any party, plaintiff or defendant, to produce in evidence, a copy certified by the Secretary of State and surveyor-general, of any grant and plat of land issued under the authority of this State, or certified copies of grants, under the authority of the State of North Carolina: Provided, that the person or persons so applying to produce an office copy of a grant in evidence, swear that the original grant is lost, destroyed, or out of his, her or their power to produce; and that he, she or they, have not destroyed, mislaid, or in any way willingly, previous to that time, put it out of his, her or their power to produce the same, with an intention to produce an office copy of the same in evidence: And provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to deprive any party in possession of the original grant, of any advantage he would have had or derived from possessing the same, in case this Act had never been passed.

WHEREAS, it hath been represented by petition, that the surviving trustees of the College of Cambridge find it impossible to form a board, in consequence of the death, removal, and remote residence of some of the trustees:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That Richard Andrews Rapley, Julius Nichols, Henry
A.D. 1803. Wilson and John Bowie, be, and they are hereby, authorized and empower erty belonging to the college of Cambridge, on a credit of one and two years; and to pay and discharge all the debts, dues and demands which may be due and owing by the said college; and to apply the surplus, if any there should be, towards the establishment of grammar schools within the

No. 1809. AN ACT appointing Commissioners to run out the lines of the several Election Districts therein mentioned; and to ascertain the dividing line between Orange and Winton Counties.

WHEREAS, the dividing lines between the election districts of Saint Matthew’s and Saxegotha have never been ascertained and marked out, by reason of which great inconveniencies have arisen, the managers of elections not knowing whose votes to receive, and in carrying into execution
the road laws of this State:

1. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That Alexander B. Stark, John Hill, Doctor Jamieson, Jacob Rumph, Jr., and Benjamin Hart, be, and they are hereby appointed, commissioners, and they, or a majority of them, are hereby invested with full power to run, mark out, and blaze the same, in the following manner, that is to say: the old dividing line between the parishes of St. Matthew's and Orange shall be continued until it strikes Beaver creek, if the same can be found; otherwise a line shall be run from the head of Four Hole Swamp, N. 45° W. until it strikes Beaver creek on its main branch; and shall be known and considered as the dividing line between the said parishes of St. Matthew's and Orange; and Beaver creek, from where the said line strikes its main branch, down to its entrance into the Congaree river, shall be the dividing line between St. Matthew's and Saxegotha. The dividing line between Orange and Saxegotha shall commence where the line dividing St. Matthew's from Orange parishes shall strike the main branch of Beaver creek; and the old dividing line, if it can be found, shall be pursued; otherwise it shall run from thence S. 54° W. until it strikes the road in the fork of Edisto leading from Orangeburgh to Cambridge, and (for the purpose of ascertaining the line between Orange county and that part of Winton county which lies north of South Edisto,) from thence the same course until it strikes South Edisto river.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall proceed in running out the lines aforesaid, on or before the first day of June next, and that they employ a surveyor to run out, and persons to blaze the same, on the most reasonable terms they can, to be paid by the State; and that they return a plot thereof into the surveyor general's office of this State, who is hereby directed to record the same, and file the original in the secretary's office at Columbia.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the lines so run out shall be hereafter the limits of the parish of St. Matthew's or Lewisburg county, and Orange parish or county, and Lexington county; and the tax collectors, commissioners of the roads, and other officers, shall notice the same as the limits of their respective precincts.

ings. And whereas, the said William Zimmerman hath stated to the legislature that he hath lost the original certificates aforesaid, and prays that the treasurer at Columbia be authorized and directed to deliver to him new certificates of the descriptions of those so by him as aforesaid lost:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the treasurer at Columbia be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to deliver to the said William Zimmerman two new certificates of the descriptions of those above mentioned, in lieu of those so by him as above mentioned, said to be lost. Provided, that the said William Zimmerman shall, before he be permitted to receive such new certificates, give bond with security, to the treasurer, to indemnify the State against the demand or demands of any person or persons hereafter holding and possessing the said original certificates, and against any claim or claims against the State on that account.

AN ACT to alter and amend an Act entitled "An Act concerning Estrays."

WHEREAS, the present Act entitled "An Act concerning Estrays," is found to be inconvenient:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any estray shall be found wandering in or about the plantation of any freeholder, tenant, or settled resident, he, she or they are hereby authorized and empowered to take the same into possession, and shall advertise the same within three days thereafter, in three or more public places in the said county or parish wherein the said person or persons, so taking up the said estray, may reside; and the said person or persons shall, within ten days after advertising as aforesaid, take such estray to the nearest magistrate; excepting hogs, sheep, neat cattle or goats, which shall be appraised at the place taken up. And the said magistrate shall cause the same to be appraised, on oath, by three proper persons in the vicinage, who shall certify such their appraisement under their hands; which certificate shall also contain an accurate description of the colour, size, age, brands and marks, of said estray; all which being done, the said magistrate shall enter the said certificate at large in his toll book; and shall, within ten days thereafter, send a duplicate of the said certificate to the clerk of the court of the district in which the said estray shall be taken up; except in the districts of Charleston and Beaufort, who shall enter the same at large in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, which shall always be subject to the examination of any person requiring to examine the same. And for making the said entry, for each horse, mare, ass and mule, shall receive fifty cents; and for each head of neat cattle, and for each head of hogs, and sheep or goats, he shall be entitled to receive twelve and a half cents, to be paid him by the person who shall take up the same.

II. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That where no owner shall appear and prove his property within six months after the posting up the advertisement aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the magistrate before whom such estray shall be brought, and he is hereby required, to cause the same to be publicly advertised for ten days, and sold on a credit of six months; and the purchaser shall give his note, with approved security, to the magistrate, in the name of the commissioners of the roads in the district or parish wherein such estray shall be taken up; which note the said magistrate shall deliver immediately to the said commissioners of the roads for the parish or district in which such estray shall be taken up, who shall have power, in default of payment, to sue for and recover the same. And provided, any person doth put in a just and lawful claim to such estray at any time after the sale and before the note becomes due, the commissioners of the roads are hereby directed to give up the note to the claimant, on his paying the customary fees; but if no such owner shall appear, the commissioners of the roads shall cause the amount of the same to be collected, and appropriated to the repairs of the high roads and bridges in the district, county or parish where such estray shall be taken up. And in case any part of the monies aforesaid remains unappropriated, in the hands of the commissioners of the roads, they shall pay over the same to the commissioners of the poor.

III. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all stray horses, asses and mules, besides the above notice, shall be advertised in the gazete nearest to the place where such estray shall be taken up, for which the printer shall be entitled to one dollar, which shall be paid by the taker up of such estrays, or taken out of the sales of the same. And for all other estrays, the notice required in the first clause above shall be sufficient.

IV. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the magistrate shall be allowed three quarters of a dollar, and no more, on any horse, ass or mule, concerning which he shall proceed as aforesaid; and the same on a herd of any other estrays; but on a single estray of the kind last mentioned, he shall have one quarter of a dollar; and the constable employed by the magistrate shall receive half a dollar for every estray by him sold; except for neat cattle, hogs, sheep or goats, for which he shall receive ten cents, and six cents for every mile which he shall necessarily ride while employed as aforesaid, about any estray; the same to be paid by the owner, or from the monies collected on the notes aforesaid.

V. Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons shall take up any horse, mare or gelding, ass or mule, he, she or they may be allowed to put them to moderate labour, as a compensation for keeping the same; and shall be liable to an action for damages by the owner of any such estray, for any abuse thereof, if the said owner shall claim the said estray within the time prescribed in this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That each and every person who shall take into his or her possession, any estray, and neglect to pursue the directions of this Act, or who shall convert to his or her use any such estray, shall be liable to a fine of twenty dollars, to be recovered, upon information, in any court of record having jurisdiction of the same, in this State, to be given to the informer; and shall also be liable to an action on the case by the owner of any such estray, for damages, notwithstanding.

In the Senate House, the seventeenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the twenty-eighth.

JOHN GAILLARD, President of the Senate.

No. 1818. AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE SELLING OF THE SEVERAL COURT HOUSES AND GAOLS THEREIN MENTIONED.

WHEREAS, by the abolition of the county courts heretofore established in this State, the court houses and gaols, before that time erected in the several counties, for the use thereof, became, in many instances, of no use or public utility; and whereas, also, the officers of the said county courts had, at the abolition thereof, in many instances, demands against the said counties, for services performed, unsatisfied, for which hitherto there has been no provision made:

I, Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the sheriffs of the several districts within this State, in which are any court houses, gaols, or other public buildings, late the property of any county court of this State, not at present occupied, nor in any wise made use of by any of the present district courts within this State, nor in any other manner disposed of by law, except Lancaster and Fairfield, and also except the court house and gaol of Newberry, be, and they are hereby, severally authorized and required to expose to public sale, on some public sale day, in like manner as if the same had been levied upon by a fieri facias, the said several court houses, gaols and other public buildings, within their respective districts as aforesaid, upon a credit of twelve months; the purchaser giving bond, with sufficient security, to be approved of by the sheriff of such districts, payable to the treasurers of the said State for the time being, or their successors in office.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That each and every of the said county court officers of the counties in which such building or buildings shall as aforesaid be sold, having any demands for services performed under the authority of the said county courts, unsatisfied, shall cause to be laid before the comptroller general a fair and accurate statement of such demands, certified from the records of the said county courts by the keeper thereof, and accompanied with an affidavit of such officer, that such account is just and true, on or before the first day of October next. And the said comptroller general shall, and he is hereby directed to, examine all such accounts, and should be satisfied of their authenticity, to direct the treasurers of the said State, or either of them, in whose hands, possession or power, are any of the monies arising as aforesaid from the sales of the said court houses, gaols and other public buildings, to pay and satisfy all such accounts so audited and passed by him as aforesaid, as far as the said monies will extend: Provided, that the monies so to be drawn from the treasury, and paid as aforesaid, arise from the sale of the public buildings in such district in which such demand is due and unsatisfied, and not otherwise.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That should there be, in any case, after satisfying every such demand as aforesaid, an overplus of monies arising from the sale of the public buildings in any district as aforesaid, that such overplus shall be paid to the commissioners of the poor for such district. But should there not arise from the sale of the public buildings in any district as aforesaid, a sufficient sum of money to pay and fully satisfy all such accounts and demands of the officers of such district as aforesaid, then and in that case it shall be the duty of the said comptroller general, and he is hereby directed, to apportion the said monies in average to the several demands certified and authenticated as aforesaid, and direct the said treasurers, or either of them, to pay the several persons having demands as aforesaid, their due average and proportions thereof.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all monies arising from the sale of the gaol of the late county court of Fairfield, under this Act, shall be applied and paid towards the discharge of a certain bond given by the justices of the late county court of Fairfield, to James Brown, gaol, how for building the court house of the said county; any thing in this Act appropriated, contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

V. Whereas, the county court house and gaol in the district of Lancaster have been sold by the commissioners appointed to superintend the public buildings of the said district, and the monies thence arising remain in their hands unappropriated; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said commissioners shall immediately pay over all such monies as are in their hands as aforesaid to the treasury of this State, to be appropriated, under the direction of the comptroller general, in the same manner as is provided for the monies arising from the sale of the other county court houses and gaols in this State.

VI. And whereas, also, by the late arrangement of the districts of this State, the court houses and gaols of the former districts became, in many instances, useless and unnecessary to the administration of justice;

AN ACT to Supply the Defects occasioned by the Loss of the Great Seal of this State affixed to Grants for Land within the same.

WHEREAS, much inconvenience may arise, and great injury accrue to the citizens of this State, by reason that very many grants for lands within this State have not the great seal of the State to the same, and therefore may be considered in our courts of law as wanting that high degree of evidence which may be deemed necessary to authenticate such grants; for remedy whereof,

I. Be it enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That from and immediately after the passing of this Act, no grant for lands lying within the limits of this State, heretofore issued, shall be impeached or declared void in any court within this State, for or by reason that such grant shall not have the great seal of the State affixed thereto; but such grant, being in all other respects fairly and regularly completed, perfected and authenticated, (although the great seal of the State may be wanting thereto) shall be deemed and taken as good and legal evidence of a grant, in any court within this State; any law, usage or custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

II. And whereas, the affixing of the great seal of this State to grants for lands is inconvenient, and apt to cause the destruction of the same; Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and immediately after the passing of this Act, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to affix to all grants hereafter to be issued, the small seal usually affixed by him to the commissions of public officers; and every grant so sealed shall be, and is hereby declared to be, as fully authenticated as if the great seal of the State had been affixed thereto; any law, usage or custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

thereof, the purchaser shall, immediately after the said property shall be property for public sale, upon the spot; and shall not, upon such re-sale, the bid of the first purchaser or his agent. And that the sheriff shall, in all his advertisements of the property sold by virtue of this Act, on account of the paper medium loan, give notice that he will require the payment of the ten per cent.; to the end that no persons inclined to purchase at the said sales may be ignorant thereof.

XV. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any purchaser, after paying the percentage aforesaid, shall fail or neglect to comply with the terms of the sale, all the money so paid shall be forfeited to the State; and shall be applied first to pay the costs and charges accrued or due upon the said sale; and the surplus, if any, shall be paid into the treasury of this State, in aid of the revenue thereof.

IX. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the installments on the paper medium which shall be due on the first Wednesday in March next, shall not be required to be paid as directed by an Act entitled "An Act for raising supplies for the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four," but shall be paid on the first Wednesday in March, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nine. XXV. Whereas, the fifth clause of the Act entitled “An Act respecting slaves, free negroes, mulattoes, and mestizoes, for enforcing the more punctual performance of patrol duty, and to impose certain restrictions on the emancipation of slaves,” passed 20th December, 1800, which imposes a penalty or tax of one hundred dollars on every owner of a settled plantation containing more than ten workers, who does not reside or keep thereon a white man or overseer capable of doing patrol duty, is, in its operation, unequal and unjust: for remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the first of January next, it shall be the duty of every owner of a settled plantation, having thereon thirty slaves, either to reside thereon six months in every year, or to keep thereon a white man or overseer, capable of doing patrol duty; and in case such owner or owners neglect or fail to reside thereon as aforesaid, or to keep such white man or overseer on such plantation for nine months in each year, he, she or they shall be liable to the tax or penalty herein imposed, that is to say: for every plantation containing or having thirty slaves, upon which the owner does not reside six months in the year as aforesaid, or have a white man or overseer capable of doing patrol duty, he or she shall be liable to and pay the tax or penalty herein exhibited: for every plantation having thirty slaves thereon, without such residence or overseer aforesaid, thirty dollars: for every plantation having more than thirty slaves thereon, without such residence or overseer aforesaid, in addition to the thirty dollars aforesaid, one dollar per head on each and every negro or slave exceeding that number.

XXVI. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the several tax collectors throughout this State to administer the following oath to every person who shall make a return of more than thirty slaves: “I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that I am not liable to pay the penalty hereby imposed for not having an overseer, or residing on my plantation, as required by this Act: so help me God.” And in case any person or persons, returning more than thirty slaves, shall refuse to take the said oath, he, she or they shall be liable to the penalty hereby imposed for every slave by him returned exceeding the number of thirty.

XXVII. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the fifth clause of the Act entitled “An Act respecting slaves, mulattoes and mestizoes, for enforcing the more punctual performance of patrol duty, and to impose certain restrictions on the emancipation of slaves,” passed the twentieth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred, which imposes a penalty or tax of one hundred dollars on every owner of a settled plantation containing more than ten workers, who does not reside or keep thereon a white man or overseer capable of doing patrol duty, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

XXX. Whereas, there are in the treasury of this State many bonds, secured by mortgages, belonging to confiscated estates, which estates are notoriously insolvent, and unequal to the payment of the certificates which have been issued to the creditors thereof; and it is not reasonable that the State should have the trouble and be at the expense of collecting the said debts, when they cannot derive any benefit therefrom: Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the comptroller general be, and he is hereby, authorized, with the sanction of the standing committee of the legislature, to release and deliver over to the largest creditor, or to such one as may be chosen by a majority of the creditors, in trust for the rest, all the right, title and interest which the State has or claims in or to the said bonds and mortgages on such insolvent estates aforesaid, taking from such creditor, to whom the same may be delivered, a bond, with sufficient security, to divide and distribute all the funds which he may receive from the bonds and mortgages delivered by virtue of this Act, among all the creditors of such estate, in proportion to the amount of their several claims. Provided, that the creditors of such insolvent estates shall release and discharge the State from all liability to pay any sum or sums of money which may be due on the certificates issued to such creditors, after the sale of such property.

Scott be bound, and he is hereby required, to give bond and sufficient security, to be approved of as by law directed, for his future faithful performance of the duty of tax collector for Prince William's aforesaid; and in case he should neglect or refuse to give such bond and security as aforesaid, that the Governor for the time being shall have power and authority, and he is hereby required and directed, to appoint another tax collector for the said parish of Prince William's; and the bond heretofore given by the said Thomas G. XXIV. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every person liable to pay the tax hereby imposed, and who is required to make a return by the preceding clause of this Act, shall, in his or her said return, particularly account for any property by him or her sold since the return of the preceding year, by stating whether the same was sold by him or her before or subsequent to the first of October, then next preceding, and to whom, that the comptroller-general, by an examination thereof, may be enabled to ascertain whether the tax due thereon has been paid; and in case any person shall fail or neglect so to do, he, she or they shall be liable for a double tax thereon, in the same manner as he, she or they would have been, had he, she or they not dispossessed themselves thereof.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of the 25th enacting clause of an Act entitled “An Act to raise supplies for the year one thousand eight hundred and seven, and for other purposes therein mentioned,” passed the nineteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seven, as is repugnant to the foregoing clauses, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

XXIX. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the comptroller general be, and he is hereby, authorized to draw his warrant on the treasurer for the sums subscribed on the last register, as reported by him, amounting to two thousand nine hundred and eighty-three dollars, fifty-nine cents; also the sum of two hundred and fourteen dollars, twenty-eight cents, not registered according to law, out of which Thomas B. Bacot, as attorney of James Warrington, hath, by his special petition to the Legislature, prayed payment; and also one hundred and fifteen dollars, not registered according to law, but of which Thomas Blackwood, as executor of Andrew Vos, deceased, hath in like manner prayed payment, with one half of the interest on the said several sums, calculated to the time of paying the same, on receiving the evidences of the said debts cancelled.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the comptroller-general shall be, and he is hereby, authorized to exchange such of the six per cent. stock of the United States, which is held by this State, and which is of a transferable nature, for the six per cent. stock of this State; provided the same be done not under par.

XXXI. XXXII. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the last enacting clause of an Act entitled “An Act to raise supplies for the year one thousand eight hundred and seven, and for other purposes therein mentioned,” be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

XXXIII. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the attorney-general, and of each of the solicitors of the different circuits, to certify to the comptroller-general, on or before the first Monday in October in every year, the fines and forfeitures which have been had or inflicted by the courts upon his circuit, within the year next preceding the day aforesaid; and that it shall be the duty of each of the clerks of the several circuit court districts, to return to the comptroller-general, on or before the same day in every year, an account, upon oath, of all the fines and forfeitures which have been inflicted, had, or received within his

XXXIV. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and immediately after the passing of this Act, his Excellency the Governor shall be, and he is hereby, authorized and required to commission one fit and proper person, and at all times to fill up such vacancy as may happen, who shall give bond with two good and sufficient securities, to be approved of by him, in the sum of five thousand dollars, with condition for the faithful discharge of the duties enjoined by an Act entitled "An Act to appoint commissioners to purchase land for the purpose of building a town, and for removing the seat of government thereto;" and for the faithful execution of all Acts already passed or hereafter to be passed, relating to disposing of the lots or squares of land in the said town.

XXXV. And whereas, certain lots or squares in the said town have been sold by the former commissioners, acting under the above recited Act, but no titles for the same have been executed; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioner appointed in pursuance of the preceding clause shall be, and he is hereby, authorized to execute titles to any person or persons, who have at any sales of lots or squares in the town of Columbia, made by any former board of commissioners, upon such purchaser or purchasers complying with the terms or conditions of such sales.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioner to be appointed as aforesaid be, and he is hereby, authorized and required to enquire into the conduct of the former commissioners, or persons who have taken upon themselves the execution of the aforesaid recited Act, and to bring them to an account and settlement for all monies heretofore received by them, any or either of them; to take due and legal measures to secure all debts due to the State by the several purchasers of lots in the said town; to restrain all persons indebted for lots as aforesaid to pay to any one except to himself, for the use of the State, the debts by them respectively due; to compel the said commissioners, or the representatives of such of them as may be dead, to pay over to him all monies in their hands, or to deliver over all evidences of debts for lots as aforesaid, in the hands, custody or possession of them, or either of them; and generally to do all acts and things which may tend to secure the rights and interest of the State in the premises.

XXXVII. Whereas, Malachi Nicholas Bedgegood and David Mande-ville have, by their petition, set forth that they have for several years past been the proprietors of the lands mortgaged to the loan office of this State by Thomas and Josiah Evans, in security for the payment of the amount of their joint bond, numbered three hundred and forty-eight; and whereas, they have set forth that the said lands so mortgaged as aforesaid have been sold by the commissioners of the treasury, and bought in on account of the State; and whereas, the said Malachi N. Bedgegood and David Mande-ville have, by their said petition, prayed that the said lands may be recon-veyed to them, and to be held by them under the same conditions to which it was subject previously to the time of the said sale: Be it therefore enact-ed by the authority aforesaid, That the commissioner of the treasury for the lower division shall be, and he is hereby, authorized and required, by a deed or deeds, competent and proper in law, to reconvey to the said Malachi N. Bedeggoood and David Mandeville, their heirs and assigns, the said lands: Provided, that the said Malachi N. Bedeggoood and David Mandeville, shall, on or before the first day of April next, pay into the treasury of the lower division of this State the several installments and interest which may be due on the above mentioned bond, and all incidental expenses attending the sales and reconveyance of the said land: And provided, that the said Malachi N. Bedeggoood and David Mandeville will mortgage the said lands for the benefit of this State, to the commissioner of the treasury of the lower division, in his capacity as commissioner of the loan office, in the manner and form as lands were mortgaged by an Act entitled "An Act to establish a medium of circulation by way of loan, and to secure its credit and utility;" And provided also, that they, the said Malachi N. Bedeggoood and David Mandeville, shall give to the said treasurer their joint and several bond for the payment of the balance of principal and interest which shall or may hereafter become due on said bond, with personal security, to be approved of by the sheriff of Marlborough district, and three commissioners residing in said district, to be nominated by said treasurer; which bond, both in relation to principal and interest, shall be made payable annually, at the same time that the loan office bonds were originally made payable.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That as soon as the said Malachi N. Bedeggoood and David Mandeville shall deliver to the said treasurer the said bond, in manner and form as above required, and shall comply with the other requisites of the above mentioned clause, the said treasurer shall, and he is hereby required to, deliver to them, or either of them, the bond given by the said Thomas and Josiah Evans.

XXXIX. And whereas, by an Act entitled "An Act supplementary to an Act entitled an Act for declaring the powers and duties of the enquiry, assessors and collectors of the taxes, and of other persons concerned therein," passed in December, one thousand eight hundred, and on the seventeenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and three, it is provided that no sale of the lands mortgaged for the paper medium loan shall take place when any person interested in the same shall, previous to the day of sale, tender one third part of the sum due, together with the expenses incurred, and give bond, mortgage and security, as is therein before directed, for the balance due, payable in one and two years; and that the said mortgaged property shall, thereupon, vest in the party so paying and giving security as aforesaid: for the explanation whereof, Be it enacted, That in every case where the provisions of the aforesaid Act shall heretofore have been, or hereafter may be, complied with, the State shall be considered as still retaining lien on the lands, created by the first mortgage; and the lands so mortgaged shall, upon default of payment of the mortgage money due thereon, or the interest now due, or that may hereafter grow due thereon, be liable to be sold, in the same manner, and under the same proceedings of the treasurers, as now are or hereafter shall be directed by law for the sale of lands mortgaged for the paper medium loaned.

said re-sale shall be made, shall be, and he, she and they are hereby declared, liable for any deficiency which may happen between the first and any subsequent sale of the said property; and the treasurers are hereby authorized and directed to commence suits for the recovery of any such deficiency.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the tax collectors of this State to make, on the first Monday in August next, to the commissioners of the poor, in the parish or dis-collected, a return of such poor tax, in the like manner as they make returns of the public tax to the treasurers of this State. And it shall also be the duty of the said tax collectors to make a duplicate return to the comptroller general of the amount of the tax so collected and paid to the commissioners.

AN ACT to extend the provisions of an Act entitled "An Act to remedy the defects of the Court of Ordinary in the several districts where there are no County Courts, as to matters and cases in which the Ordinaries of those districts may be respectively interested," passed the seventh day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine, to all the Circuit Court districts throughout the State.

(Passed August 29, 1812. See last volume.)

AN ACT FOR RATIFYING AND CONFIRMING A CONVENTION BETWEEN THE State of South Carolina and the State of North Carolina, concluded at Columbia, in the State of South Carolina, on the eleventh day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and in the thirty-third year of the Independence of the United States of America.

WHEREAS, a dispute and difference have arisen and subsisted between the said States of South Carolina and North Carolina, concerning boundaries, the said States claiming respectively the same territories. And whereas, it appeared to be the sincere wish and desire of the said States of South Carolina and North Carolina, that all and singular the differences and claims subsisting between the said States relative to boundary should be amicably adjusted and compromised. And whereas, the Governor of the State of South Carolina, being duly authorized for that purpose, did appoint Joseph Blythe, Thomas Sumpter, jr., and James Kilgore, commissioners, and did invest them, or a majority of them, with full and absolute power and authority, in behalf of that State, to settle and compromise all and singular the differences, controversies, disputes and claims which subsist between the said State and the State of North Carolina, relative to boundary, and to establish, and permanently fix, a boundary between the two States; and the said State of South Carolina did declare that it would at all times thereafter, so soon as the actings and doings of the said commissioners, in and touching the said disputes relative to boundary, should be ratified by the Legislature of the State of South Carolina, the same should be forever binding on the State of South Carolina. And whereas, the Legislature of the State of North Carolina did appoint
John Steele, John Moore and James Wellborn, commissioners, and did invest them with full and absolute power and authority, in behalf of that State, to settle and compromise all and singular the differences, controversies, disputes and claims, which subsist between the said State and the State of South Carolina relative to boundary, and to establish, and permanently fix, a boundary between the two States; and the said State of North Carolina did also declare, that it would at all times thereafter ratify and confirm all and whatsoever the said last mentioned commissioners, or a majority of them, should do, in and touching the premises, and that the same should be forever binding on the said State of North Carolina. And whereas, the said Joseph Blythe, Thomas Sumpter, John Steele, John Moore and James Wellborn, commissioners on the part of the said States of South Carolina and North Carolina respectively, did by mutual consent assemble at the town of Columbia, in the State of South Carolina, on the eleventh day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eight, in order to the due execution of their respective trusts, and did respectively exchange and consider their full powers, and did declare the same legal and forever binding on both States; and on conferring on the most effectual means of adjusting the differences subsisting between the said States, and of establishing and permanently fixing a boundary between them, did mutually agree, for and in behalf of their respective States, to the following articles, that is to say:

Article 1. The line beginning at a cedar stake on the Atlantic ocean, and running thence north-west and west to a point at the Salisbury road near the Catawba lands, as described in the plans of survey begun in one thousand seven hundred and thirty-five, and ended in one thousand seven hundred and sixty-four, shall be and remain the same in its whole extent as heretofore established.

Article 2. From which point at the said Salisbury road mentioned in the preceding article, instead of following the road to where it enters the Catawba lands as at present, which road is liable to change and uncertainty, a line shall be run and marked in a direct course to the south-east corner of the said Catawba lands at twelve mile creek; which line is hereby established in lieu of the said road; thence along the line of the said Catawba lands, pursuing its different courses, to where the Catawba river enters the said lands on the north, thence with the middle stream of that river northwardly to the confluence of the northern and southern branches thereof, and thence due west along the line as run and marked by commissioners in the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-two, to the termination of the said line.

Article 3. And from the termination of the said line of one thousand seven hundred and seventy-two, a line shall be extended in a direct course to that point in the ridge of mountains which divides the eastern from the western waters, where the thirty-fifth degree of north latitude shall be found to strike it nearest to the termination of the said line of one thousand seven hundred and seventy-two; thence along the top of the said ridge to the western extremity of the State of South Carolina; it being understood that the State of South Carolina does not mean by this arrangement to interfere with claims which the United States, or those holding under her act of session to the United States, may have to lands which may lie (if any there be,) between the top of the said ridge and the said thirty-fifth degree of north latitude.

Article 4. The contracting parties for their mutual benefit and convenience, agree to adopt and confirm the lines of boundary as described in the preceding articles, and to renounce respectively to each other every right, claim, and pretension which may be inconsistent with the true meaning and purpose of this agreement, which is to establish between the States of South Carolina and North Carolina a permanent and unalterable boundary. Provided nevertheless, that in case at any time this agreement shall be contested, or not conformed to, after the ratification of it by the legislatures of the said States, all the rights, claims and pretensions herein intended to be renounced and conveyed, and all other rights and claims in relation thereto, shall revive and exist in the same force and effect as they did before the signing of these presents, in favor of the State which shall conform thereto.

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That the said convention, and all the articles thereof, shall be forever binding on the State of South Carolina; and that the same is hereby fully and absolutely ratified and confirmed.

No. 2015. AN ACT TO AFFORD LANDLORDS OR LESSORS AN EXPEDIENTIOUS AND SUMMARY MODE OF GAINING RE-POSSESSION FROM TENANTS OR LESSEES, WHO SHALL HOLD OVER AFTER THE DETERMINATION OF THEIR LEASES.

WHEREAS, great and serious inconvenience is frequently experienced by landlords and lessors, from the holding over of their tenants and lessees after the expiration of their leases; whereby, the said landlords and lessors are prevented from enjoying or occupying their own lands and tenements, or giving, granting or demising the same to another person; and whereas, the delays incident to law proceedings render them very insufficient in those cases where the lessors are desirous of regaining immediate possession; and the penalties incurred by tenants holding over are in many cases nominal or precarious, as those tenants might be unable to pay either the rent due or the penalties so incurred:

1. Be it therefore enacted, by the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That where any person or persons having leased or demised in writing any lands or tenements to any person or persons for a term of one or more years, or at will, and he, she or they, or his, her or their heirs or assigns, shall be desirous upon the determination of the lease to have again and re-possess his, her or their estate so demised, and for that purpose shall demand and require in writing, his, her or their lessee or tenant to remove from and leave the same, if the lessee or tenant shall refuse to comply therewith in ten days after such request to him or her made, it shall and may be lawful to and for such lessor or lessors, his, her or their heirs and assigns, to complain thereof to any two justices of the peace or of the quorum, or to one justice of the peace and one of the quorum, in the district where the demised premises are situate; and upon due proof made before the said justices, that the said lessor or lessors had so leased or demised the premises to the then tenant in possession, or some person or persons under whom such tenant claims or came into possession, and that the term for which the same was demised or leased is fully ended, and that demand in writing for delivering possession thereof has been made; that then, and in such case, it shall and may be lawful for the said two justices to whom complaint shall be made as aforesaid, and they are hereby enjoined and required, forthwith to issue their warrant in nature of a summons, directed to the sheriff of the district, thereby commanding the sheriff to summon twelve substantial freeholders to appear before the said justices within four days next after issuing the same summons, and also to summon the lessee or tenant, or other person claiming or coming into possession under the said lessee or tenant, at the same time to appear before them the said justices and freeholders, to shew cause, if any he or she has, why restitution of the possession of the demised premises should not be forthwith made to such lessor or lessors, his, her or their heirs and assigns; and if upon hearing the parties, or in case of the tenant’s, or other person or persons claiming or coming into possession under the said lessee or tenant, neglecting to appear after being summoned as aforesaid, it shall appear to the said justices and freeholders that the said lessor or lessors had so leased or demised the premises to the then tenant in possession, or some person or persons under whom such tenant claims or came into possession, and that the term for which the same was demised or leased is fully ended, and that demand in writing for delivering possession thereof has been made as herein before directed, that then, and in every such case, it shall and may be lawful for the said two justices to make a record of such finding by them the said justices and freeholders; which judgement shall be final and conclusive to the parties in respect to the facts directed to be decided by it; and upon which the said justices shall, and they are hereby enjoined, empowered and commanded to issue their warrant under their hands and seals, directed to the sheriff of the district, commanding him forthwith to deliver to the lessor or lessors, his, her or their heirs or assigns, full possession of the demised premises aforesaid, and to levy the expenses incurred by the investigation of the case, and taxed by the justices, of the goods and chattels of the lessee or tenant, or other person in possession as aforesaid; any law, custom or usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to deprive any landlord or lessor of any remedy heretofore allowed him either by the common law or by any Act of the General Assembly.

And the sheriff shall, in all his advertisements of the property sold by virtue of this Act, on account of the paper medium loan, give notice that he will require the payment of the said ten per cent.; to the end that no person inclined to purchase at the said sales may be ignorant thereof.

B, do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that the sum of —— dollars, by me now paid, is all the money which I have received on account of the general tax, since my last return." And on the first Monday in July, in each and every year, the said tax collectors for the parishes of St. Philip's and St. Michael's, and each and every tax collector in the upper and lower division of the treasury of this State, shall complete and finally close their several and respective returns, by paying the full balance which may have been received by him or them, producing to the treasurers of the upper and lower divisions of the treasury of this State, respectively, the sheriffs' receipts for all executions lodged by them against defaulters; and if the sheriffs' receipts, so produced, shall not satisfactorily account for the full balance due on the said return, then, and in such case, the treasurers in each division respectively shall be, and they are hereby, directed to enforce the means pointed out by the Act entitled "An Act declaring the duties and powers of the enquirers and assessors of the taxes, and other persons concerned therein," passed in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight. And the said several tax collectors, upon closing their said returns, shall respectively take the following oath or affirmation, to wit: "I, A. And in case the commissioners shall fail to make their returns as required aforesaid, they shall respectively, as a board, forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars; and the clerks of the respective courts shall, on failure of making the aforesaid returns, also forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars; the aforesaid penalties to be recovered, in any court of law having competent jurisdiction, by action of debt. And it shall be the duty of the attorney-general and solicitors, in their respective circuits, to enquire of the clerks of the respective district courts whether the aforesaid commissioners of the poor, and commissioners of the roads, have made their returns to the clerks as aforesaid; and enquire of the comptroller-general whether the clerks of the respective courts have made their returns as above required; and in case the commissioners and clerks aforesaid have not made their returns as above directed, then the attorney-general or solicitors, as the case may be, is hereby directed and required to sue for, and recover on behalf of the State, the penalty inflicted by this Act.

XXV. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be, and is hereby declared to be, the duty of the comptroller-general, as speedily as the same can be done, to make out, from the returns of the tax collectors, and transmit to the clerks of the several courts in the several districts of this State, the names of all persons who shall have made returns for the year 1811, together with the tax paid by the said persons, to the end that the persons paying such tax may have an opportunity of comparing their receipts with the same. And it shall be the duty of the clerks of the said courts, on application of any person for inspection of the said statement so transmitted to them by the comptroller general, to produce the same; and in case there shall appear a difference between the comptroller's report and the receipt of tax paid by such person, the clerk thereupon shall report the same to the legislature; and in case any clerk shall neglect or refuse, without reasonable excuse, to exhibit the same, when demanded in office hours, he shall be subject to a penalty of ten dollars, to be recovered in any court having competent jurisdiction; one half to the informer, the other half to the treasury of this State.
